Ankerson, Fideler Qualify For State Gymnastics

Ingrid Ankerson

Wendy Fideler

CHILTON — After having the schools first state qualifier ever in Chris Ramthun last season, the Kewaskum gymnastics team continues to improve, as evidenced by a pair of Indians qualifying for this year's state meet.

Seniors Ingrid Ankerson and Wendy Fideler finished third and fourth, respectively, in the floor exercise competition in Sectional competition here, last Saturday, thus earning the right to make the trip to Wisconsin Rapids on Saturday to compete with the state's best.

The two had identical scores of 8.0 in the competition, but Ankerson was awarded third because the superior judge gave her a higher score. Nevertheless, both qualified for the state test, as the top four individuals in each event make it.

Overall, the Indians finished fourth in the meet, with 88.7 points. Chilton won the overall title going away, as their 98.1 score was almost five points better than second-place Valdres (93.4).

Newspapers In Education Week, March 4-8

In celebration of Newspapers In Education Week, being held this year March 4-8, you will find some very special ads and editorials on pages 10 through 15 in this week's edition.

On these pages, readers will find paid advertisements and editorials created, designed and drawn by the third graders of Holy Trinity School in Kewaskum. These children recently completed a segment of study on newspapers, and therefore, volunteered to participate in Newspapers in Education Week.

The whole concept behind the Newspaper In Education Week promotion is to encourage children to get into the habit of picking up a newspaper to READ. If we have influenced one child into the habit of reading, we have accomplished a great deal.

The Kewaskum Statesman would sincerely like to thank the Holy Trinity third graders for their fine efforts in this participation and thanks to their teacher, Mrs. Diane Gremminger for her help and patience.

These students worked hard to help make this a special edition. But many thanks must also be extended to the businesses who paid for the advertising space. Without their commitment, readers would not be enjoying this edition.

Any teachers interested in participating in this project for next year's Newspapers In Education Week, please contact The Kewaskum Statesman.

Village Employees Upset With Job Study Results

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Some employees of the village, including members of the Public Works and Water Pollution Control Departments were present at Monday night's Kewaskum Village Board meeting to let the trustees know that they were upset and angry with the final results of a five-month-long job study conducted by the firm of Ernst and Young.

Most upset by the new job descriptions and recommended wage scale were Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo and WPC Superintendent Pete Albers. They are the only two, according to the new format, who would not receive any raise for 1991.

Bilgo told the board, "after sixteen years somebody comes in and says I'm at mid-point and got too much money last year." "They say you didn't improve yourself since 1987, I'm overpaid and shouldn't get nothing this year."

"Augie's got a few months left (before retiring) and I've got about three years left, but I think Augie and I got a slap in the face with this," said Albers.

After several members of both departments signed the forms approving their job descriptions, they asked to rescind their signatures, indicating after looking at the final form they did not feel the description accurately stated the work done by them as employees.

In coming up with the job descriptions and wage scale, Ernst & Young had contacted twelve communities, selected by the village employees, for job

New Banners for Kewaskum

New "Welcome to Kewaskum" banners were recently ordered by the Village of Kewaskum and will be up by Memorial Day. The banners (shown above) will be strategically placed on suitable light poles on Fond du Lac Avenue and Main Street. The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce donated $300 toward the cost of the banners. Any business, civic organization or private citizen interested in donating money towards the banners can contact Village Administrator Dan Schmidt at 626-8484.

A program followed the dinner. Guest speaker was Bruce Johnstone of Moraine Park Technical College.

School Board Okays Girls Softball on a Trial Basis

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

With little discussion, the Kewaskum Board of Education, during a special meeting, prior to its work session Monday night, approved Kewaskum High School girls softball as a trial sport during the 1990-91 school year.

The only major question raised was concern over posting of the coaching positions with the Kewaskum Education Association. Both KHS assistant principal Jim Connell and Phy Ed teacher Mary Holfeltz have indicated an interest in the coaching jobs.

As presented by Athletic Director Dave Rizzardi at a previous meeting, some equipment is available and anything else which may be needed will come from his present budgeted funds.

In other action the board approved the hiring of a part time certified special education aide to assist with the EMR class of Mrs. Glick at the Kewaskum Elementary School.

The board also approved the request of Administrator Dr. David Heather to purchase a second computer terminal for the Guidance Department at a cost of $1,504.

Food Services Supervisor Kathy Robinson also received authorization to purchase a used soft-serve malt machine, at a cost of $2,500, to be used in conjunction with the KHS ala carte lunch program.

Robinson said the ice cream would only be offered a couple of times a week and never on the same day as the Juniors' fundraising malt sale.

Robinson told the board that with the reduction in federal commodities and increased wage and operating costs she thought this would be a good way for the food service program to continue its self-funding.

Heather noted that, while the lunch program is funded through Fund 50, in the not too distance future the district may have to "dip into" Fund 10 monies to finance the food program. But for now, he noted, we're trying to keep the program self-supporting.

The board also voted to accept the resignation of Mr. Rohde as assistant football coach.

The board then adjourned into its work session to discuss district goals for the 1991-92 school year.

Thompsons Receive Beltone Award

Tom and Mary Thompson of the Beltone Hearing Aid Service Center at 927 Fond du Lac Avenue (Kewaskum Pharmacy) in Kewaskum have received a Pacesetter Award from Chicago-based Beltone Electronics Corporation.

The Pacesetter is awarded to a Beltone hearing aid dispenser who has made significant contributions to the education and well being of the hearing-impaired through conscientious and thorough testing, accurate evaluation, and appropriate application of hearing aid technology.

The award will be presented to the Thompsons during Beltone's regional meeting March 14th through 17th in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Thompsons are an important part of Beltone's network of hearing aid dispensers and specialists who serve the hearing-impaired in more than 3,000 locations throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Firefighter

At the recent Annual Firemen's Banquet, retiring Chief Don Ehnert was presented his official white Chief's Cap, and a plaque congratulating him on his 1990 retirement and his 30 plus years with the Kewaskum Fire Department.

rescue scene, training sessions or school, and one's overall personal contribution to the community as well as the Kewaskum Fire Department.

This year we are again fortunate and thankful in not having any member of the department being called upon to endanger their life to assist a citizen or fellow firefighter.

The 1990 Firefighter of the Year joined the department in 1983. Having served numerous years on another nearby department, he brought with him the general knowledge and principles of fire fighting.

Since becoming a member, he has served on numerous committees, attended numerous schools, is an active member on the water fighting team, is currently a driver for our Rescue Squad and is an active member of Wisconsin fire Inspectors Association representing our department. He seldom misses fires, meetings and inspection nights or special practice sessions. He is currently serving our department as a 1st Lieutenant and has taken over the responsibilities of handling the fire prevention inspections which, at times, can be time consuming as well as a frustrating task. But through his diligence and guidance he has done a commendable job in seeing that the inspections get done as well as seeing to it that all of the paper work involved is done and in order.

On behalf of the Kewaskum Fire Department, it give us great pride to bestow this prestigious award to: THOMAS "TJ" FAY."

Drugs Seized

On March 3 at approximately 2:30 a.m. Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to a fight in progress at Grand Central Station in Allenton. Responding deputies subsequently stopped a vehicle that was leaving the scene.

Identification of the subject driving the car revealed the driver to have a revoked driver's license. During a padown search of the driver, a large sum of money was discovered on his person. Further investigation revealed 15 bundles of cocaine located in the car.

As a result of this investigation, a search warrant was obtained for a room at an area motel. Upon execution of this warrant, a large sum of money was discovered, along with trace amounts of narcotics.

Assisting in this investigation was a member of the Milwaukee County K-9 Unit and his dog. The investigation is continuing.

Doris Bunkelmann Retiring After 33 Years in Medical Profession

Doris Bunkelmann

As of March 4, 1991, Doris Bunkelmann of Kewaskum has worked in the Medical profession as a bookkeeper and office manager, for 33 years.

Doris, mother of 3 children, is married to Bill Bunkelmann whom she will join in retirement. She and Bill were married in 1948.

Mrs. Bunkelmann worked for Dr. Richard Edwards in Kewaskum from 1958 to 1976, then joined Frankow-Grundahl Clinic the founding clinic that became Oakbrook Family Physicians and is now known as the West Bend Clinic on Paradise Drive.

In her work history Doris has seen the clinic of 3 doctors and 5 support staff grow to 12 doctors and 40 in support staff. Says Doris, of interest is the change in bookkeeping methodology from manual recording to the extensive use of computers.

The Bunkelmann's plan is to spend a great deal of time travelling and wintering in their home in Florida. "I'm looking forward to spending more time with my 4 grandchildren," says Doris; "but the thought of leaving my family at the West Bend Clinic is not a happy one."

Kewaskum High School, Mr. Ron Beimborn, coach: Jenny Beimborn, Carol Grosskopf, Jenny Iwen, and Amy Yogerst. Classics...Pompeii Problem.

Classics...Pompeii (Division I, II, III and IV)

The team's problem is to create and to present an original performance that includes a scene that takes place in the ancient city of Pompeii before or during its devastation. The performance must be supported with team-made works of art/artifacts presented in various media. The materials used cannot exceed $75 (U.S.) in value. The time limit is eight minutes.

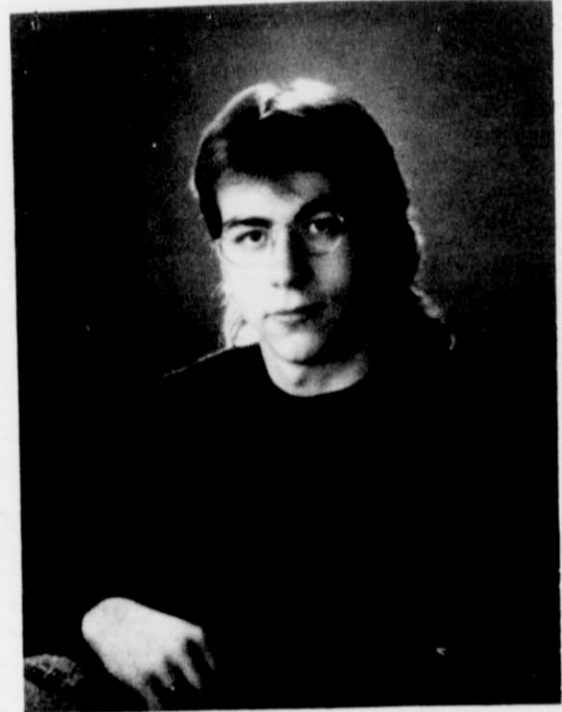

Kewaskum High School, Mr. Len Soller, Coach: James Dionne, Craig Kulas, Sheldon Oppermann, Chris Schoofs, Ira Sison, and Rodney Stelter. Omer's Buggy Lite Problem.

Omer's Buggy Lite (Division I, II, III and IV)

The team's problem is to create a theme that incorporates a lightweight, battery-powered vehicle that the team designs, constructs and drives. The vehicle must attempt to attach itself to a trailer, tow the trailer, detach the trailer, travel between specific locations, move in reverse, and come to rest in a specified parking place. The materials used cannot exceed $75 (U.S.) in value, plus batteries. The time limit is eight minutes.

Odyssey of the Mind (OM) is an international creative problem-solving competition for students kindergarten through college. It challenges students to become creative thinkers and problem solvers and, as past "OMers" have told us, forever changes their way of thinking. Wisconsin became an OM Association in 1982 and many students have said that OM is one of the most challenging experiences they have had in school. It was for that very reason that OM was founded in New Jersey in 1978.

Chris Schoofs Awarded $1,000 Scholarship

Chris Schoofs, an 18 year old senior from Kewaskum High School, was awarded a $1,000.00 scholarship as the Grand Prize winner in STUMPS "Design A Prom" contest. Chris' entry was selected from hundreds of entries across America.

STUMPS Prom and Party decorating company sponsored the First Annual "Design A Prom" contest. As America's decorating leader for 65 years, STUMPS devised the contest to challenge today's brightest young artists and designers to put pens and brushes to paper and "show their stuff." Each participant was asked to design and illustrate his/her ideal prom theme. The contest was a success!

Chris won in the category of "Best Overall Design." He was shocked and excited when his art instructor, Mary Stephan, told him he had won the Grand Prize scholarship of $1,000.00. Chris didn't think he would have a chance at winning, given the number of entries. His comment to STUMPS, "It's a great feeling - what a great contest."

The "Grand Piazza" was the award winning theme. Chris designed the theme with a night of fun and pleasure in mind. With the Grand Ballroom as the main focus of entertainment, Chris created some alternate activities to diversify the prom experience. Prom goers could relax in one of two parks amidst the ruins of Rome, dine on fine cuisine in Cafe Italiano, and top the night off with a post prom gambling casino. A prom night designed from heaven.

Chris plans to attend one of two colleges after high school; American Academy of Fine Arts in Chicago or Milwaukee Institute of Art and Design. Chris wants to concentrate his studies in Fine Arts.

Sheriff's Department Receives Donation of Teddy Bears

The Telephone Pioneers of America's Wisconsin Chapter has donated teddy bears to the Washington County Sheriff's Department. A bear will be carried in each squad car, to be given to a child who is confronted with a traumatic situation, such as a traffic accident or a parental fight.

According to Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis, the concept of using teddy bears to comfort children is believed to have originated in Boulder, Colorado. The idea has spread across the country, and has met with great success.

"We are grateful to the Telephone Pioneers for this wonderful donation. It will help us tend to the needs of our youngest clients, who will welcome the comfort that only cuddling a teddy bear can bring," the Sheriff stated.

Old Settlers' Club Banquet Held Recently

The fourth annual Washington County Historical Society's "Old Settlers' Club Banquet" was held on February 21, 1991.

The Old Settler's Club was formed in 1875 and became an annual event for the early Washington County settlers until the early 1940's. This banquet is usually held on February 22nd to commemorate George Washington's birthday after which Washington County has been named.

As in the past the banquet was held at the Washington House which is now owned by the Elliott's and is soon to open. After dinner slides of Old Barton were shown and past history was told. Various historical societies were represented and gave information on coming events within their own organizations.

The evening ended with a few musical selections by a quartet from UWWC, West Bend.

Andy Stoffel to Be Featured At Craft Show On March 16

Wildlife artist Andy Stoffel will feature his prints at Homade Creations Craft Show

Did you readers know there is a well-known tru-blue artist in our midst?

In 1988, Andy Stoffel of Hwy. SSS, Campbellsport won the Wildlife Artist of the Year Award with his entry, "Fox and Pheasant."

Forty-eight year old Andy has been seriously painting wildlife for a number of years. Working as a greenskeeper at a golf course gives him the opportunity to observe wildlife of this region. This has inspired him to combine the two interests in his acrylic paintings.

Today, three of his paintings are on the market as limited editions to nation-wide collectors. Eight (8) of his designs will be featured on clothing appearing at spring sales and in catalogs.

Since Andy won this prestigious award, his work is in demand. Last October, he and his series of paintings named, "Wildlife on the Golf Course," were featured in the Golf Course News. This monthly magazine is published in the state of Maine and distributed nationwide. He has been contacted by several businesses and in the near future, we may be able to find his designs on golf course score cards and/or calendars.

Andy has received letters from people throughout the United States and even Saudi Arabia, who have seen his work and are interested in purchasing a piece of art.

For the last few years, Andy has entered his work in nationwide stamp competition. He has always finished in the top 10, but his goal, is to someday take a first in the contest and have one of his prints on a stamp for all of us to purchase.

You will be able to meet Andy and see a display of his beautiful work on Saturday, March 16th at the Home-Made Creation Craft Show held at Amerahns on Hwy. 45 just north of Kewaskum. The doors open at 9 a.m. and 50 crafters will have their new and original items for sale. No admission fee and door prizes every half hour. Join Wendi Dreher and Cindy Marquardt for their 3rd annual craft fair. You are the ones who make this event a success. See you there!!

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of SHIRLEY BACKHAUS, who passed away 13 years ago, March 6:

It's been 13 years since God took you away
Changing our world to shades of gray

Many times we've asked him why

We miss you more and more as each year goes by

We felt lost and helpless, you always were the strongest

The heartache lives on in each and everyone of us.

The caring, the friendship, the love you so readily gave

Are the precious memories we so desperately save.

We love you now as we did back then

Our only wish is that you could share in our lives again

All the special occasions that you looked forward to

The grandchildren that you never knew.

Yes, your memory will live on, we hold onto it ever so dear

For one day in the future you will again be near.

Always loved and sadly missed by her family.

IN MEMORY

In memory of Doug "BEEF" Enright who passed away one year ago, March 3, 1990:

A year has past, but the memories last;

The face with a smile, Taking time to talk awhile;

The always willing helping hand,

He was the one who'd understand;

His love of family and friends so clear,

In the hearts of all he is so dear; We never know where life will take us,

We never know when death will shake us;

We have only one life to live; So live it in LOVE,

Live it in PEACE,

Live it TRUE.

As he said, "JUST THINK ABOUT IT."

Sadly missed, but always remembered by The Wayne Gang.

A MEMORIAL

To Beef

One year has come and gone, Since you were in our midst.

No Day No Week No Month goes by

That your not on our minds. Your favorite saying "Just Think About It" is often used a lot.

No one can measure up what your friendship meant to us.

Your friends and wage comparison information. Of the twelve contacted, nine provided the firm with information for their study.

Albers told the board he had personally contacted some of those same communities by phone and, from the figures he had received he felt the village's proposed schedule was low.

While the board said it could not release the figures Ernst & Young had collected until the proposal was approved, they asked Albers to give them some of his unofficial numbers to compare with their information sheet.

The trustees noted there were some differences, both high and low. "Some of the study's figures are lower than what you gave us and some are higher," said Trustee Ken Bonlender, "some by a couple of dollars and some by a couple of thousand." Bonlender asked Albers to get his figures in writing. "If these figures are wrong (Ernst & Young's)," said Bonlender, "we owe these people an apology."

Board president Mary Krueger said, "If you pay a company as big as Ernst and Young to do a job study you would expect their report to be correct."

Trustee Gary Gavin said, "I wasn't in favor of the study and I'm not happy with it." He also stated, however, that he thought everyone should be paid on their merit. "I'm not for across-the-board raises." Gavin told his fellow board members, "we know what these guys are doing, some are doing just enough to get by and others, like Augie, are working their 'a--' off."

Bilgo told the board, "we're not arguing with the board, we just want you to know there is a discrepancy between the descriptions and our jobs."

Trustee Larry Williams said he had been in favor of going to an outside firm for the study because he felt their opinions and judgement would be neutral since they would not be familiar with any of the personnel involved.

The board, based upon the discussion, voted to table action on approving the job study and wage schedule. "I guess we will have to go back to Ernst & Young and tell them we are not happy with their job descriptions," said Krueger.

In other business, Village Administrator Dan Schmidt informed the board the village had received its franchise check from Star Cablevision in the amount of $5,870. He said it was up about $900 from last year.

Gavin advised the trustees that the Library Board may have found one of the reasons for the drop in the library count. Teachers from Holy Trinity and St. Lucas haven't been bringing their classes to the library lately, he noted. They've begun to bring them in again, he said, so that should bring the numbers up again. "The February count was up about 250 over January," said Gavin.

The board also discussed a preliminary list of sidewalk repair and construction projects for 1991. Schmidt advised the board that 108 parcels east of the river are being considered for work this year. "We still have to go out and measure the exact footage to determine just how much we can do," he said. Areas being looked at are along Water, Kewaskum, Highland, Stark, Habeck and Keller Streets and Highway 28E.

The board approved a building permit for the construction of a new home by Dr. Van Ess at 325 North Avenue.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel advised the board he has again been contacted by area residents about the need for a stop sign at the intersection of Braatz and Western Avenue.

Bob Beisbier, chairman of the Protection and Public Safety Committee, agreed a sign was necessary. His committee will meet to look the site over and make a recommendation at the next board meeting on which street the signs should be placed. Knoebel suggested the signs be put on Braatz.

Why Newspaper in Education Week?

Newspaper in Education Week is a project jointly sponsored by the International Reading Association (IRA) and the American Newspaper Publishers Association Foundation (ANPA). It is usually held each year during the first week of March. NIE Week cooperatively involves reading councils, schools and newspapers across the United States and in major countries throughout the world.

By using newspapers as a direct application or extension of the learning process, the program aims to carry over and reinforce a positive and relevant lifetime reading habit. The NIE Week program is designed not to replace, but to complement the outstanding work done throughout the year by NIE coordinators in the United States and Canada.

Newspaper in Education Week shows that:

- Through the use of the newspaper, students can become better informed and consequently better citizens.
- Newspapers demonstrate practical applications of skills and concepts covered in the school curriculum.
- Newspapers update the information contained in textbooks.
- Newspapers can be fun, and fun motivates learning. Teachers will be given the chance to explore some teaching approaches and resources that they may not have tried.

In essence, these reasons provide a solid and basic foundation for Newspaper in Education Week. This is a project devoted to enhancing the skills and content learned in the classroom through using the newspaper as part of the school's instructional program.

Children do not simply begin to read the newspaper. They need models, such as parents and teachers who are excited about reading and who share with others what they have read. Parents who are more than a face behind the morning or evening newspaper and teachers who use the newspaper as a means of enhancing the broad scope of literacy show children just how important newspapers can be. If the goals of NIE Week are only even partially met, the many worlds of the newspaper will be opened to thousands of students.

These youngsters will step into tomorrow more adequately prepared to meet the challenges of our ever-changing and growing society.

This year was the best year for the Kewaskum Indians. They snapped their 30 game losing streak. Jeff Sabish got a few chances to kick some field goals.

ANPA Foundation's role in Newspaper in Education Week

America's newspaper people care deeply about children — about their future as citizens and as newspaper readers. This was one of the reasons that the American Newspaper Publishers Association Foundation was established in 1961.

Newspaper people know that the business they work in and the society they live in will remain healthy only if today's children learn to read, to think and to be curious about what's going on in the world around them.

ANPA Foundation had four objectives:

- To help develop informed and intelligent newspaper readers
- To foster public understanding of a free press
- To advance professionalism in the press
- To enhance minority opportunities in newspapering

Under the first of those objectives, ANPA Foundation has been methodically building a bold program that is making an impact on children's reading skills. We call this national effort the Newspaper in Education program — NIE for short. NIE brings daily newspapers into schools to help teach subjects from grammar to geography, from social studies to science.

The Newspaper in Education program is a logical marriage between the local school system and the local newspaper to create present and future readers — two institutions working together to stimulate children to learn and to read.

During Newspaper in Education Week, the ANPA Foundation will assist in every way possible to enhance communications between local newspapers and educators as well as between the state press and education organizations. ANPA Foundation will create camera-ready curriculum materials to be used by educators during the week — material that has proven successful throughout the country.

ANPA Foundation will select a person from a newspaper to be state chairperson for NIE Week. State chairpersons will work cooperatively with reading council members to help coordinate and promote NIE Week on a statewide level. The Foundation also will promote NIE Week to all newspapers throughout the country, as liaison to both newspaper organizations and education groups on a national level. ANPA Foundation aims to help newspapers in training, promotion and curriculum.

ANPA Foundation and newspaper publishers want the young people of today to be the readers of tomorrow... to be able to read the newspaper both critically and efficiently. Working together, we hope to see our future adults reading in an informed society.

Celebrate Our Bill of Rights!

FREEDOM OF SPEECH.
FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.
FREEDOM TO CELEBRATE.

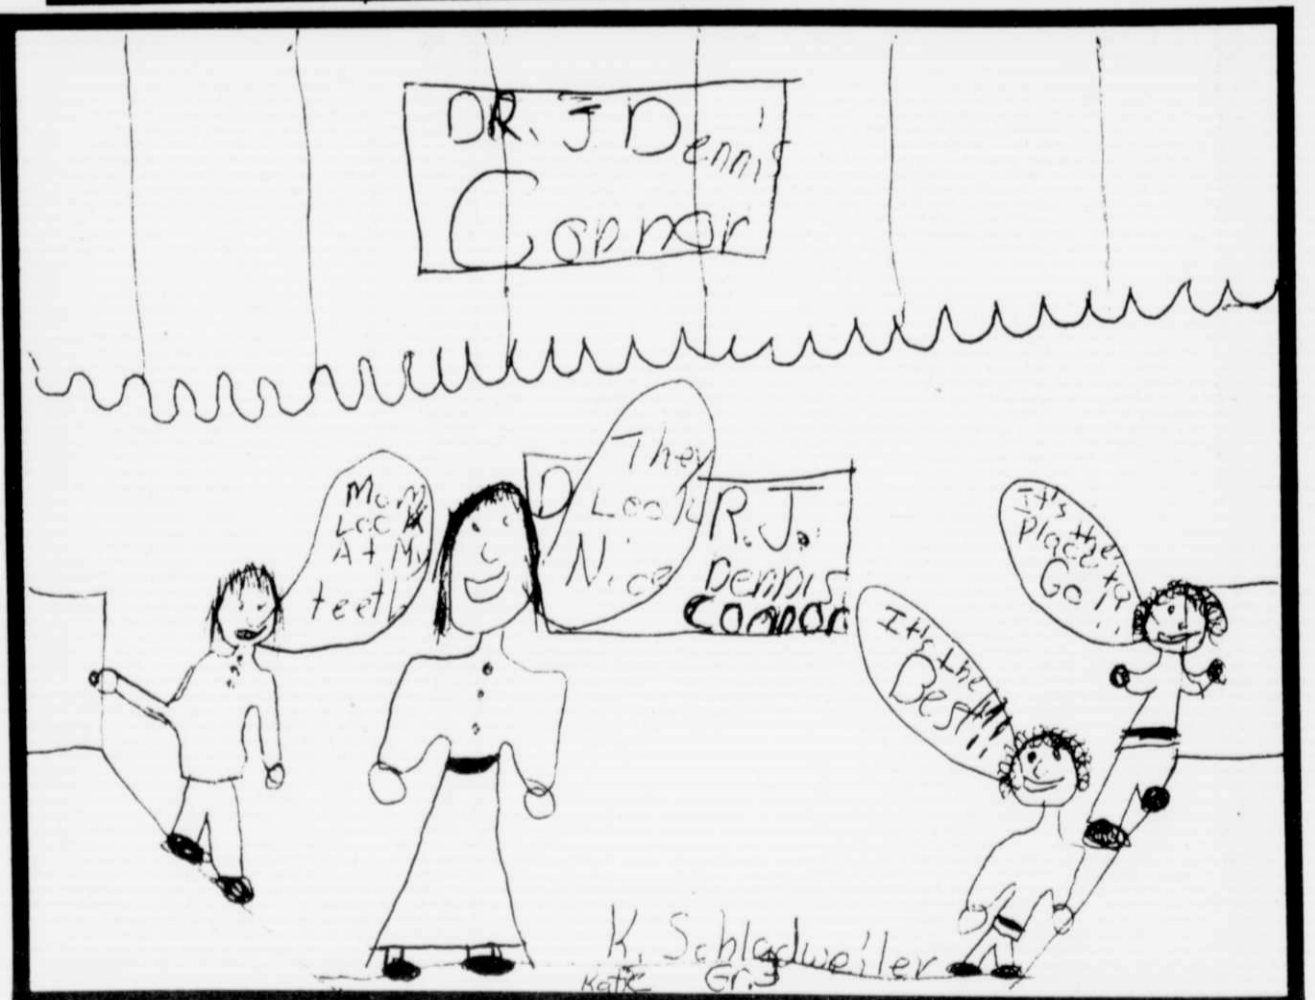

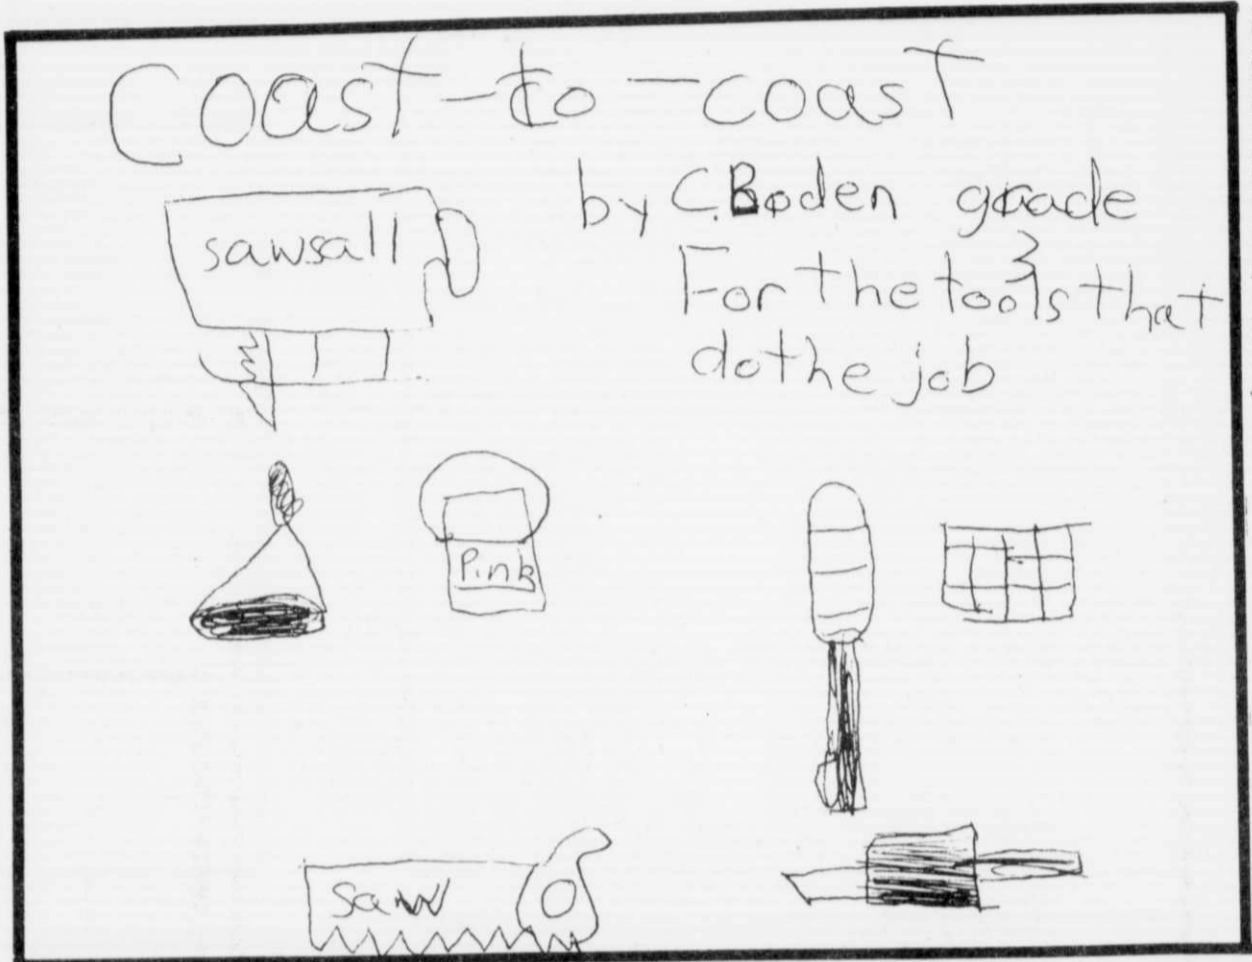

In 1991 we celebrate the 200th birthday of the Bill of Rights—the first 10 amendments to the U.S. Constitution. Our basic freedoms of speech and press as Americans are guaranteed by the First Amendment. GARFIELD is delighted to honor the document that protects our individual liberties.

Newspaper in Education Week, March 4-8, 1991

Your local newspaper, schools and reading councils are joining together to celebrate NIE Week.

Teachers, parents and students everywhere already use the newspaper as an innovative learning tool.

NIE Week is sponsored by the American Newspaper Publishers Association Foundation and the International Reading Association.

What Is the International Reading Association? Why Is It Involved in a Week Devoted to the Newspaper?

The International Reading Association is a professional organization of approximately 93,000 members, drawn from all facets of the educational community, with programs and outreach that are international in scope. IRA is an organization whose pervasive philosophy is to focus its attention and the attention of others on the needs and interests of students and other learners.

The procedures, processes and mechanisms by which IRA's outreach is achieved are significant.

Publications, conferences, journals and committees — all are methods used to implement its network of service. To these, it adds an additional component — the structural "web" by which Newspaper in Education Week will be carried out: IRA's more than 1,200 councils which function at the local, state and national levels to form the conduit by which IRA reaches out to serve.

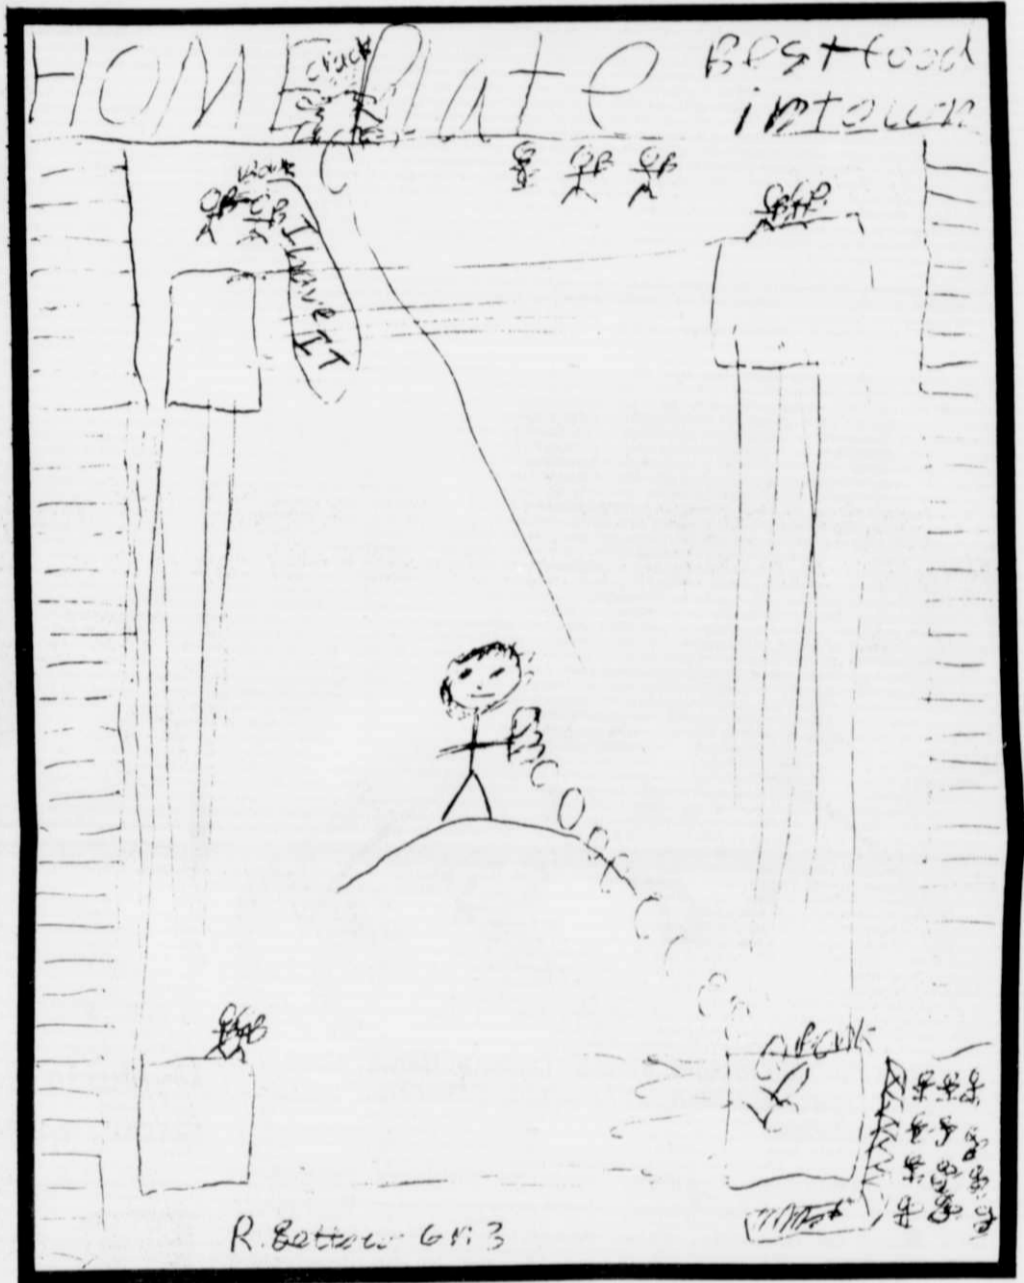

The questions may be asked: Why a week dedicated to newspaper reading? Why not magazines or textbooks? Isn't IRA interested only in teaching young children to read? The answer is that, yes, as a professional organization IRA is dedicated to the promotion of effective reading instruction; but it is also equally and vitally concerned with fostering the "reading habit." Regardless of how well an individual reads, there is no value in mastering this skill if it is not used.

The newspaper can be the ideal means by which skills and content learned in the classroom can easily and economically be transferred to a student's everyday life.

It is time for the plants to come back to bloom and the trees bud. The snow melts, the creeks rush. You can stop worrying about your horses slipping on the ice in your pasture

Birds,
When spring comes you'll find out there will be more birds around and singing thru the air. Moms like to plant flowers with birds singing in the air. Woodpeckers peck at trees and make homes in the trees. You will find nests in the trees made by robins. And birds pick worms from the ground too.

Sometimes in the morning Joe and I go out and slide on the ice. Our Grandpa lives next door to us. In the winter she lets us in it while we wait for the bus. Then Jenny comes. Then the bus comes, we get off the bus. First we drop off our recite off at St. Lucas. Then we drop off a lot of work off at the middle school. Then we come to my friend's house. Then we get going to school in the morning. Thank you!

KHS Art Program Recognized

The Kewaskum High School Art 4 program has been chosen as one of the state's "Programs of Promise" by the Wisconsin Alliance for Arts Education. The program's curriculum will be included in its upcoming publication which will be available some time in May.

Art 4 at Kewaskum High School is taught by Mary Stephan and allows students to explore a wider range of medium than the more traditional art programs. Students can gear the course to their own needs and interests.

The success of the Art 4 program can be seen in the fine performance of the program's students. Chris Schoofs has received an honorable mention and first place prize in national art contests this year. Students have won numerous prizes at the state level and the entries by Kewaskum students at the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Art Show were exceptional and won many first place prizes.

Fire at Eden Monday morning burned down the R. E. Salter Hotel and for a time grave fears were entertained for the safety of other buildings in the business section of the village. A call was rushed to Fond du Lac for assistance, but just before the special train loaded with firefighting apparatus was ready to depart for Eden the demand was countermanded. The fire was confined to the Salter, Hotel, which was completely destroyed, the loss being estimated at over $8,000. Buildings nearby were severely scorched. As Monday was stock day, there were many visitors on hand and by the time the fire alarm was spread by telephone there was a big gathering taking part in the fire fighting. The blaze was discovered between 9 and 9:30 and was then breaking through the roof. It is presumed that sparks fell into the attic from a defective chimney and the fire had considerable headway before it was noticed.

8:00 P.M.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Mid-Monthly Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First St.

President Mary Krueger presided. All Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

Mrs. Beverly Rohlinger was present to present the Kewaskum Police Department (D.A.R.E. Officer Steven Seitz) with a check for $50.00 from the Snow Chiefs Snowmobile Club. President Mary Krueger thanked Mrs. Rohlinger and the Snow Chiefs for their support of this worthwhile project.

A public hearing was held regarding the request of Charles and Sharon Serwe for a Conditional Use Permit to allow for the sale and service of new and used automobiles in a B-2 General Retail and Service District. This request is for the parcel known as V4-617 or 885 Prospect Drive, Kewaskum, WI. Trustee Gary Gavin reported the Plan Commission's favorable recommendation for the issuance of the Conditional Use Permit. Brian Petermann asked if the village would limit the number of cars on said lot. The village has no specifications limiting the quantity of items sold by any business. On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Robert Beisbier and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board closed the public hearing. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent."

Brian Petermann asked if the village could support another (four filling stations). The village does not regulate the number of any specific businesses, with the exception of liquor related businesses as provided by Wisconsin Statutes. The Discussion was lengthy with only a consensus of the majority to have a contract prepared for further review and consideration. The contract is to include a fixed price for the use of the lighted diamond of $1,200 for the 1991 season, a payment of $75.00 for each tournament held, the Association to pay for the water and sewer bill, telephone bill and electric charges. The Association is to work with the Youth Hardball Association and work to provide the necessary safety required to protect the children involved in the Little League program. Also the date of January 31, 1992 was to be set for the records to be turned over to the Village Board for review. The records required would be all twelve bank statements canceled checks, annual books, records and reports. It was noted that the agreement would address the Village Board handling any waiving of fees for the use of the diamond and would be the body establishing the fees. The agreement would also state that the Village would mow and maintain the diamond once per day during the week Monday through Friday with the Association responsible for it's maintenance on weekends. Dear Editor:

At a time when the men and women in our armed forces are facing their greatest test, we at home are facing a test as well. Our test is to maintain our unity and resolve, as our troops are doing in the Persian Gulf.

We don't want Saddam Hussein to take this country's tolerance for anti-war demonstrators as a signal he should wait out our resolve in a long and bloody war.

I'm outraged at the brutal treatment of our POW's. And I'm saddened to see the media give so much attention to the small number of anti-war protesters who have sprung into action. It seems that every time a few protesters pick up their signs, the cameras swarm around them, and they ended up on the news.

Our soldiers have said that they have a job to do and are going to get it done. I feel I have a job to do, too. And that's to stand up in strong support of our troops.

I want them to know that I and the American people are very proud of them. We are all inspired by their bravery.

I hope that you'll print my letter, and others like it, in the days ahead. Thousands of local American newspapers are reaching our men and women in uniform every day. Your newspaper may be one of them. I want the troops to know that we hold them in our thoughts and prayers every day.

Sincerely,
Helen Peterson
[Mrs. Donald R. Peterson]

P.S. I feel the country as a whole is united behind our troops! Please emphasize this positive support in your newspaper.

I would like to give a response to the letter of Debra Luehring dated 2-14-91.

First of all I resent the statement questioning the Americanism of the editor or the owner of the Statesman. This was a very serious situation we had and still have in the Persian Gulf even after this ceasefire.

I'm now quite sure many minds are very mixed up as to why we are in the Persian Gulf. Yes, it is partly because of oil, but mostly because of what that madman Saddam Hussein could and would do if he had a nuclear bomb.

He could hold the entire world in his hands with terrorist threats and would raise oil prices up to $100 per barrel or more. Any man who would use poison gas on his own people... who would personally shoot Generals because he did not like to hear bad news... think what his potential for evil is! Stop him now and lose 100, 1,000, 4,000 or even 40,000 lives — or wait a year or two and lose 40 million or more people.

Stop and think it over before you speak out too loud.

Letter to the Editor:

Questionable Charities

In the past many of you may have received a sweepstakes mailing or other solicitation from a look-alike cancer organization and have sent in your money to a fraudulent organization.

Recently, Watson & Hughey, a direct-mail facility, and other look-alike cancer organizations - including the Cancer Fund of America - settled a $2.1 million dollar lawsuit over deceptive sweepstakes mailings. These mailings misled prospective contributors into believing they had won large cash awards. People who made donations to the charities received prizes of as little as 10 cents and only a small percentage of the contributions went toward medical research and services, according to the lawsuits.

According to the Virginia Attorney General's Office, the charities' services "amounted to little more than printing the '7 Warning Signs of Cancer' in small print on direct mail solicitations."

The American Cancer Society annually allocates 40% to research, over 50% to local program and services and only 9% on administrative expenses. As President of the local unit of the American Cancer Society, I urge you to read the fine print on solicitation mailings and find out where the money is spent before you contribute.

The Better Business Bureau suggests that a charity's fund-raising costs should not exceed 35% of the donations it receives, and a charity's fund-raising and administrative expenses should not add up to more than 50% of the donations.

So please beware next time you receive a solicitation mailing. There are honest and reputable nonprofit organizations that desperately need the public's support.

Keeping the Farm in the Family: Strategies for Family Farm Transition

Farm families are facing a number of stress factors today as the economic situation is making it more difficult to meet family goals and objectives. Those objectives might be to generate adequate cash flow to pay farming expenses, repay debt and a reasonable level of family living. Some objectives might be to transfer the ownership of that farm property to the next generation.

Farmers with these concerns may be interested in a program to help farm families meet their objectives. Seminars are being held in two locations sponsored by the Wisconsin Rural Development Center to address these concerns. The first 2-day Seminar will be held at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Seymour on March 11 and March 18. The second 2-day Seminar will be held at Michael Fields Agricultural Institute in East Troy on March 12 and March 19. Registration will be $20 for the first and $15 for each additional family member. The fee includes meals and materials at both sessions of the program. The facilitators of the program include: Roger Williams, Health and Human Issues Outreach from UW - Madison; Sue Krull - Schultz, Farmer and Owner operator of Total Farm Management Services, Calvary; George Goyke, Attorney; specializing in work with farm families from Wausau; Sandy Simonson, Rural Response Coordinator with Lutheran Social Services from Taylor.

These sessions will address a number of different issues centering around the areas of farm financial issues, farm legal issues and inter-personal communications issues.

The goal of these seminars is to strengthen the liability of Family Farm Agriculture in Wisconsin by improving farm families ability to work through the difficulties and challenges of turning the farm over to the younger generation. Knowledgeable facilitators who have been personally involved with farm families going through the generation transition will provide hands on information and lead lively discussion on the above issues. Participants will go home with useful tools to apply to their situations.

Registration information is available from the Washington County extension Office or individuals can contact Judy Hageman/WRDC, Phone 608-437-5971.

Dairyland Seed's Magnum III Receives Plant Variety Protection

Dairyland Seed has announced that its Magnum III alfalfa was recently granted a Plant Variety Protection Certificate by the U.S. Plant Variety Protection Office.

Magnum III is Dairyland's top selling alfalfa variety. According to Dairyland Executive Vice-President Tom Strachota, "We are very confident in the performance of Magnum III. Because of this confidence, we are the first company in the industry to guarantee the performance of an alfalfa product. We stand behind Magnum III and are willing to guarantee its yield and persistence."

Magnum III is currently the highest yielding alfalfa in Wisconsin based on the University of Wisconsin 1990 summary of alfalfas with at least 21 test years of data. Magnum III is also the number one alfalfa in the state of Iowa based on the Iowa State 1990 Summary for alfalfas with at least 19 test years of data.

As a Plant Variety Protected product, Magnum III may not be propagated without the permission of Dairyland Seed. Plant Variety Protection was made possible in the United States by the passing of the Plant Variety Protection Act in 1970.

For more information on Magnum III alfalfa, write Dairyland Seed Co., Inc., P.O. Box 958, West Bend, Wisconsin 53095 or call (414) 338-0163.

MADISON — Nearly 30,000 visitors are expected to attend this year's "Electric Power and Farm Equipment Show" in Madison, March 13, 14 and 15, at the Dane County Exposition Center.

Recognized as one of the Nation's largest indoor farm shows, more than 300 exhibitors will be on hand to explain and/or demonstrate the latest in farm equipment services ranging from the "how-to" of farm computers to grain dryers, feed processing equipment, tractors, and power units.

Farm safety will receive additional attention at this year's show. Visitors will be offered free hearing and skin cancer tests. A new attraction this year will be the free testing of well water by the University of Wisconsin - Madison Agricultural Engineering and Cooperative Extension.

Again this year, those attending the show can treat their appetites to Wisconsin cooking. The Dane County Dairy Promotions Board will offer malts and milk to go with roast beef sandwiches from the Wisconsin Cattlemen's Association or pork sandwiches from the Wisconsin Pork Producers.

Co-sponsored by the Wisconsin Farm Equipment Association and Wisconsin Power & Light Company, the three-day event is free and open to the public. Show hours are 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on March 13 and 14 with the show ending one hour earlier on March 15.

Pesticide Applicator Certification

Is your Pesticide Certification card still good or has it expired? Or do you need to be certified to use restricted use pesticides?

During the past years many new products have been classified as restricted use. This requires the user to be certified to purchase and use the product. Most corn rootworm insecticides and many herbicides, including atrazine are classified as restricted use products.

There has also been a change in the law that in the past allowed a certified applicator to supervise the application by a non certified applicator. This is no longer legal. All applicators of restricted use products must now be certified to apply and use these products.

There are two ways to become certified or recertified. One is to attend a one day certification program. A program will be held at the Addison Town Hall on Friday, March 15, 1991. This is a change as this program was previously scheduled to be held at the Washington County Courthouse in West Bend. Preregistration starts at 8:30 a.m. Session starts at 9:00 a.m. and finish about 4:30 p.m.

In order to attend, it is necessary to register in advance by contacting the Washington County Extension office, 335-4477, 644-5204 or 342-2929 Ext. 4477.

Registration cost is $20.00 for materials, $5.00 for lunch, $1.00 for coffee, milk and refreshments. If individuals wish the

Controlling Woodchucks

Spring brings hungry animals out of hibernation, including woodchucks, or groundhogs. Although woodchucks may be shy and wary, they can cause serious problems for farmers, gardeners and property owners.

For information about woodchucks — management, habitat and eating patterns — see University of Wisconsin - Extension publication "Woodchucks: Their Ecology and Control." Publication G3505 cost 50c and can be ordered from Agricultural Bulletin, Room 245, 30 N. Murray St., Madison, Wis. 53715, (608) 262-3346. Make checks payable to UW-Extension. This publication is also available at some county Extension offices.

"Winter is the season when you can't shut the window that you couldn't open all summer."

materials mailed to them, there is an additional $3.00 for postage. The postage charge can be saved if materials are picked up at the Extension office.

This session is for private applicators, not for commercial applicators. A private applicator is an individual that applies pesticides on land owned or rented by themselves and produces an agricultural product. Commercial applicators are certified at area meeting. Contact the Extension office for list of commercial certification sessions.

The second way to become certified is to purchase the study material and study on your own. When you are ready, then make arrangements to take the evaluation at the Extension office. When using the self study method, a passing score over 70% is needed on the evaluation. When the evaluation is taken at a session the score must be over 50%.

This will be the last session scheduled to be held in Washington County in spring of 1991.

Cougars Down Indians in Regional

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Earlier this season, the Kewaskum boys basketball team fell behind early in their first meeting with Campbellsport, then rallied in the second half, only to fall short and lose to the Cougars, 67-62.

The two teams' second meeting of the year, this time in a WIAA Regional matchup, presented almost the same scenario, as the Cougars jumped out to an early lead, and then held on down the stretch to record a 70-64 win over the Indians and advance to face Kiel in the regional semifinals.

The loss ended the Indians season, as they finished with a 7-14 mark overall. Campbellsport, meanwhile, improved to 14-7 heading into their game with the Raiders.

Campbellsport used some hot shooting, as well as some cold Indian firing, to jump out to a 22-13 lead after one quarter of play. The Indians shot just six-for-16 in the period, as the lid seemed to be covering the hoop.

Things started dropping for the Indians in the second stanza, however, as they rallied to cut the deficit to just 32-28 just before the half. But the Cougars' Sam Durand nailed a three-point shot at the buzzer, sending Campbellsport into the lockerroom up by seven.

The third quarter saw some ups and downs for the Indians, the brightest spot occurring midway through the period, when senior Mark Felix delighted the home crowd with a dunk. But just about a minute later, guard Kim Marx picked up a pair of quick fouls - his third and fourth of the game - and had to take a seat on the bench.

His absence allowed the Cougars to increase their lead, mainly at the free throw line. Add the Cougars' charity tosses to their three-point bombs and Campbellsport was up by 14, at 55-41 heading into the final period of play.

Down 60-45 with just over five minutes to play, the Indians suddenly started playing like they didn't want this to be their last game of the season. Kewaskum went on to outscore the Cougars 19-8 over the next four and a half minutes, cutting their deficit to just four, at 68-64 with under a minute to play.

But Campbellsport's Ben Rettler came up with a pair of clutch free throws late in the game to provide the difference, and send his team into some extended tournament action.

Durand proved to be the difference in the game for the Cougars, as he drilled the Indians for 25 points, including four three-pointers. Brian Schill also had a nice game for the visitors, as he canned 20 points.

Felix, playing in his last game for the Indians, came through with his usual fine performance, scoring 23 points and grabbing 10 rebounds to lead the Indians. Junior Joel Fleischman also chipped in 18 points, while Matt Seiser added 12.
