If finding the right car is on your Spring agenda, Charlie Serwe and Tim Leitheiser invite you to stop in Kewaskum's newest business - Leitheiser/Serwe Car Company.

Their used car lot officially opened Tuesday, April 9, in the extensively remodeled building previously owned by Laubensteins, at 885 Prospect Dr.

Both Leitheiser and Serwe have had past experience in the automobile business, serving as sales managers for Bob Fish Pontiac/Cadillac/GMC Inc. in West Bend.

"We decided, there's a market for used cars in this area, and being from Kewaskum we felt this would be a good place to start," explains Tim.

The back garage features Phil's Option - Shop, run by mechanic Phil J. Rogne. He offers a full service automotive dept., and "anything else with a motor," including snowblowers, boats, and lawnmowers. If it doesn't work, give him a call!

building has been converted into a large showroom to house a numerous selection of used cars, with plans to include future remodeling.

Tim's family includes his wife Sandy, and their young son Matthew. Charlie and Sharon Serwe also have one son, named Austin.

Business hours are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays.

Financing will be made available for loans through Leitheiser/Serwe Car Company, which also owns another used car lot on Hwy. 42 in Sheboygan.

Governor's Proposed State Budget Already Affecting Kewaskum

Board Votes to Drop Summer School Busing

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

With reluctance, the Kewaskum Board of Education voted Monday night to rescind its March motion to provide bus transportation for the 1991 summer school session.

The action came as the result of two diverse factors. The first being that the state statutes prohibit a district from charging for transportation. District Administrator Dr. David Heather apologized to the board saying he was not aware of the statute when he made the recommendation to charge for the service at last month's meeting.

The second factor is the familiar issue of tight money. After learning the district could still receive some reimbursement from the state, but not enough to cover the cost, the board, on Heather's recommendation, voted to cancel the transportation entirely for this coming summer.

Heather advised the board that state reimbursement would amount to only $1,000, leaving the district to pick up the remaining $4,000 tab. He indicated, however, that based on the governor's budget bill, the district could not afford to appropriate the money from its budget which is already being severely affected by state spending limitations and reductions in state aids, both in general and special education funding. "If the governor's budget goes through, this is $3,000-$4,000 we could save," said Heather.

Heather told the board it looks like the district will receive $83,000 in aid when actually it needs $227,000. In addressing the issue of budgets, Heather advised the board members that if Governor Thompson's proposed budget passes intact, it will create problems for the district. He did note that the budget picture is very fluid and will continue to change considerably over the next several months.

Heather said under the current plan, the district can increase its general fund expenses by 5.4% maximum or $446,000. He noted, however, that most of that money will be spent on salaries and fringe benefits.

Heather's preliminary budget of $8,976,378, represents what some past school boards would have called a "bare bones" budget. Building budgets for supplies as well as operations and maintenance money had been held to the same level as last year. Heather then trimmed the maintenance budget by $41,000, saying this provided the least amount of harm to the district's educational program.

If that cut is not enough to stay within the proposed limits, Heather said the district can cut back in the support staff area, such as aides and secretaries. "The added positions of elementary guidance counselor, increasing the gifted and talented coordinator position to full time and the possibility of hiring an additional high school math/science teacher are all lost," Heather told the board. He said the district may also

School Election Results Unchanged After Recount

All three candidates in last week's Kewaskum Board of Education election gained votes in a recount held Tuesday, but the end result was the same. Neal Weare and Jean Goeden were the winners and Ray Engelking the loser. Incumbent Weare's was the only name to appear on the ballot, both Goeden and Engelking were write-in candidates.

Because of the close count, a margin of only 22 votes between himself and Goeden, Engelking requested the recount. The original tally showed Weare receiving 787 votes, Goeden 411 and Engelking 389. Tuesday's recount showed Weare receiving 788 votes, Goeden 420 and Engelking 405.

While the margin of victory was narrowed down to only 15 votes, Goeden held on to win the second open seat on the board.

District's Curriculum Coordinator's Position Increased to Full Time

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Despite cutbacks and reductions in the preliminary budget for 1991-92, the Kewaskum Board of Education approved District Administrator David Heather's recommendation to increase the district's curriculum coordinator position from part, to full time.

In making the recommendation, Heather advised the board that the 50% Business Education position held by Connie Strand would be dropped because of low enrollment. This would allow the district to change the curriculum coordinator position to 100%, at a minimal cost.

Besides working with curriculum, testing and various other programs, the coordinator also writes grant requests for the district. Strand said among other things, the added time would allow her to seek out and apply for more grants for the district. There are a lot of grants available, we just have to go out and look for them, said Strand.

The board approved the position as a 12-month contract with a salary of $46,000.

In other action, the board approved the Finance - Transportation - Buildings and Grounds Committee's recommendation to purchase computer software for student records at the middle school at a cost of $3,824, with money budgeted for the purchase. It also approved the committee's recommendation to spend $3,776, from the second Capital Improvements loan to purchase equipment for the middle school's Tech Ed shop.

The board approved the acceptance of Commercial Industrial Services' low bid of $3,400 for routine summer maintenance of the district's heating, air conditioning and ventilation systems.

Cedarburg Clinches Lakes Title With Win Over Kewaskum

CEDARBURG — Fueled by the one-two punch of Scott Murray and Rick Nisleit, the Cedarburg Turners clinched the Land O' Lakes championship with a 143-118 win over Kewaskum here Saturday night. Murray had 41 points to lead the Turners and Nisleit had 38. Cedarburg finished the season with a 10-2 record, one game ahead of Oconomowoc and Thiensville-Mequon, who were 9-3. It marks the sixth time in the last seven years that the Turners have either won or shared the championship. Kewaskum finished the season tied with Port Washington for sixth and last place at 2-10. They improved their record from last year when they were winless in 12 games.

Cedarburg outscored Kewaskum in each of the first three quarters. They grabbed a hefty 40-20 handle after the first quarter, and the lead ballooned to 76-47 at halftime and 108-73 after three quarters. Kewaskum came back with a 45-35 fourth quarter to make the final score more respectable.

Kewaskum manager Bill Backhaus commented "We were short-handed again and when we're in that situation, Cedarburg just has too many guns for us. We played hard, but it just wasn't in the cards. They're a good team and their record over the years proves it."

The Turners made only four of 11 free throws for 36.4 percent, while Kewaskum shot a sizzling 17 of 21 for 81.0 percent.

Dave Eschrich added 19 for Cedarburg, Rob Sutherland 17, and Steve Van Dyck 16. Tony Pirozzoli poured in 40 points for Kewaskum, Dan Pace added 29, Troy Engstrom 20, Carl Hein 19, and Backhaus 10.

Assessing Kewaskum's fortunes for next year, Backhaus opined "We were a lot more competitive this year than in the past. We cut our average point differential down from 37 last year to 15 this year. We've got a good nucleus of players. If we can get everybody at the games consistently, we could move up in the standings."

The date and site of the Lakes banquet has not as yet been announced. This information will be forthcoming from acting commissioner Cole Braun.

Turkey Hunting Rule Changes

The Second Annual Spring Turkey Hunt for the Campbellsport Area begins on April 10th at 5:53 a.m. A total of 600 permits were issued for the six time periods, with final time period ending May 19th.

Hunters are reminded to pick-up their 1990-91 turkey stamp. It costs $5.25 and will be required for the Spring 1991 Season. The stamp must be signed and affixed to your hunting license. Senior Citizens Recreation Card Holders, First Year Wisconsin Hunter Education Course Graduates, and Military Licensees do not need the stamp.

There are also two new rule changes for the up-coming hunt. Shot shells loaded with shot larger than No. 4 lead or No. 2 steel and duplex loads containing any shot larger than No. 4 lead or No. 2 steel are not legal. This is a safety regulation intended to lessen injury in the case of accidental shooting. The larger shot, in the past, has caused serious injury and even death to hunters. One fatal accident took place in SW Wisconsin where a hunter shot his companion 37 feet away with a No. 2 shot lead.

The second change is that baiting of turkeys is not a legal hunting method.

If you have other questions on the up-coming turkey season, feel free to give me a call.

The board approved a procedural change that will now allow school bus drivers to immediately suspend a disruptive student from riding the bus for one day if they continually cause trouble. The student will receive a letter regarding the suspension to give to their parents when dropped off at the end of the day. The bus company will also call the parent or guardian to make sure they received the letter and are aware of the fact that the student will not be picked up the next day and to determine if additional days of suspension are warranted.

Dr. Heather informed the board that senior Pam Gauger has been named as the recipient of the 1991 Clara Jaehnig scholarship.

High School principal Leroy Kopecky announced that Angie Clements has been named the KHS student of the month for April.

In other action, a request by the Kewaskum Athletic Club to sell alcoholic beverages on school property during its baseball games was not approved. The motion to approve the request died because of a 3-3 tie vote. Heather told the board that while there had been no problems or complaints regarding the group, he was philosophically opposed to allowing such sales on school property.

On behalf of the school district, board president Neal Weare presented Perry Ankerson with a plaque in recognition of his dedicated service as a member of the Kewaskum Board of Education.

have to look at large elementary classes if there are increased enrollments over the summer.

In his notes to the board, Heather said whether the district has enough money will depend largely on the cost of contract settlements with the Kewaskum Education Association, Kewaskum Auxiliary Personnel union and administration.

Estimated levy calculations on Heather's preliminary $8.9 million budget show the district would, after receiving its revenues from other sources, have to raise $5,076,778 from local taxes. Even with a 2% increase in equalized valuation, that would represent a tax levy of $17.93 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, a $1.57 hike over last year, 9.59% increase over 1990.

Heather also drafted a three-page letter addressed to the governor and legislature indicating the district's problems because of the current budget bill. Board member Ruth Schmitt said she would hand the letter to legislators in Madison, April 30th at WASB day and would appreciate the board members supporting the letter with their signature.

Heather reminded the board that the budget presented is still preliminary and subject to change although the only significant changes would occur in the areas of salaries and fringe benefits. He also asked it to "keep in mind that nothing is certain at this point, but we must be ready to comply with whatever the legislature passes and the governor signs."

Leitheiser/Serwe Car Company is now open for business in Kewaskum.

"Changing Profession for a Changing World" is this year's theme for Professional Secretaries Week and Professional Secretaries Day, April 21-27, 1991, and Wednesday, April 24, 1991, respectively. Both observances were founded by Professional Secretaries International in 1952 to promote confidence in, and provide recognition for, the secretarial profession.

Locally, the Kettle Moraine Chapter of PSI has planned a banquet on Wednesday, April 24, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, north of West Bend on Highway 45, with a social hour at 5:30 p.m. and dinner at 6:30 p.m.

The guest speaker will be TOM HOOPER of TV6. He is Milwaukee's best known reporter and has been with TV6 since 1964. In 1972, Tom pioneered a new type of TV report - Contact Six, a problem-solving segment of TV6 News that gets results for the consumer and helps viewers cut through life's "red tape."

Cost of the dinner is $13.00 per person, including tax and gratuity. Reservations can be made by contacting Rose Ketter at Regal Ware, Inc., 1675 Reigle Drive, Kewaskum, WI 53040, or calling 626-2121 by April 16.

The bride-to-be will graduate

A June 8, 1991, wedding is being planned.

Catholic Knights Dividends Reach Historic High

Catholic Knights Insurance Society (CKIS) returned record amounts to its 90,000 insured members in 1990.

Dividends on the Society's ordinary life policies and the excess interest on the Society's interest-sensitive policies amounted to $9 million. In addition, the Society paid more than $10 million in living benefits to its members.

On the sales and financial side, Catholic Knights reached record levels. Life insurance in force reached $1.7 billion for the first time in Catholic Knights history. Insurance in force increased by 50 percent over the last four years. This year alone, assets increased by $23 million to reach a record of $263 million. Revenues showed significant gains, reaching an all-time high of more than $55 million.

The Society's solvency ratio was maintained at 113.4 percent at year-end 1990. For the thirteenth consecutive year, Catholic Knights enjoys an A+ (Superior) rating from the A.M. Best Co.

During 1990, the Society issued more than $272 million of new life insurance protection to its members. $10.6 million of members dollars were invested in the Society's retirement annuity certificates. By year-end 1990, the Society had invested more than $76 million of annuity funds.

"Catholic Knights prides itself in its continued record of investing members' money in safe and quality securities. Investment safety and quality have been more important than ever during the current recession," said Daniel J. Steininger, Catholic Knights president. "Over two-thirds of investment purchases in 1990 were in U.S. government-backed securities and the highest quality corporate bonds — those investments which hold their value best during an economic downturn. All Catholic Knights bond holdings are investment grade. There are no "junk bonds" in our portfolio. We believe investing in risky junk bonds would sacrifice our goal of long-term financial stability and security."

On the fraternal side of its operation, Catholic Knights continued to show a dramatic increase in charitable and benevolent involvement of its insured members in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and Illinois. Members reported helping more than 400,000 people in 1990, and donating over 366,000 hours of voluntary service. Catholic Knights branches sponsored a record number of fund raisers in 1990, to assist their fellow members and neighbors in the community.

CKIS is the seventh largest fraternal benefit society in North America in terms of insurance in force and the largest Catholic fraternal in Wisconsin in terms of assets and insurance in force.

"Refinancing Our Mortgage Saved Us Money For Life's Little Pleasures."

There are better things to do with your money than pay too much mortgage interest. Now that current interest rates are low, it's a golden opportunity to save money by refinancing your home mortgage.

If you plan on staying in your home for two years or more, and if current interest rates are at least 2 percentage points below your existing mortgage rate, refinancing can probably save you money.

Although there is no indication that rates are likely to rise sharply in the future, it may pay to act quickly if you want to take advantage of the money-saving opportunities created by mortgage refinancing.

MADISON — The future will dawn a little brighter for 100 teachers and students who are recipients of $1,000 Herb Kohl Educational Foundation fellowship and scholarships.

"I am honored to announce the 1991 Kohl Foundation awards for students and teachers," State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover said, "because it is an opportunity to reward them for a job well done and applaud Wisconsin's truly great educational system."

The Kohl Foundation Scholarship Program was established in January 1990 by U.S. Senator Herb Kohl. The purpose of the program is to honor students who have demonstrated academic potential, outstanding leadership, citizenship, community service, honesty and integrity, or other special talents and to help them pursue postsecondary studies. This is the second year of the scholarship/fellowship program supported by the Kohl Education Foundation.

The Kohl Teacher Fellowships reward teachers who have demonstrated superior ability to inspire a love of learning in their students, have motivated others, have provided outstanding service within and outside the classroom, or have helped improve the morale and status of their profession.

"Education is the key to Wisconsin and our nation's future," Kohl said. "I am proud of the significant accomplishments these students and teachers have made and look forward to the great contributions they will make in the future."

Selection of students and teachers began at the local level and progressed to judging in the state's twelve cooperative educational services agencies (CESA) and the Wisconsin Association of Nonpublic Schools (WANS). Selection culminated with a state-level panel composed of state business and civic leaders, a range of education-related associations, and representatives of the sponsoring groups including the Department of Public Instruction, WANS, and the Wisconsin Newspaper Association (WNA). The panel completed their selection of recipients last week.

WNA President Jay Griggs said that selection of the award winners was difficult because of the excellent candidates submitted for review. "Wisconsin is proud to have such a fine group of educators and students. Our job was extremely difficult and all of the nominees and their schools should be proud of their achievements," Griggs said.

"I think it is significant that all of Wisconsin's students and teachers will know that their devotion to education and learning has tangible rewards," said Gene Ladendorf, WANS president.

This week the Kohl Foundation mailed letters notifying the recipients of their awards. Formal award presentations are being planned regionally.

The Kohl Foundation will make student scholarship grants to the postsecondary institution the students will attend. Teachers receive a $1,000 fellowship and an additional $1,000 grant will be directed to the winners' schools for use in innovative educational projects.

Students from this area who have received this scholarship include: Pamela Gauger, Kewaskum School, Jena Lynn Baumhardt and Kimberly Smith, Campbellsport High School.

UWVC's Fine Arts Series to Present 'American Nervousness'

UWC-Washington County's Fine Arts Series will present AMERICAN NERVOUSNESS, a witty and provocative new performance by the world renowned Drawing Legion on Friday, April 12 at the University Theatre in West Bend. The performance will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The Drawing Legion is an Iowa City art and performance company consisting of visual artists, composers, musicians, writers, and actors. Their innovative performances typically combine humor, history, and autobiography to examine the struggles and aspirations of artists of the past, as well as the challenges of making art today.

AMERICAN NERVOUSNESS uses live and taped texts, music and tableaux, and painted and projected images to humorously explore the stories of three Midwestern artists who found success and frustration in early 20th-century New York. The show is a crazy jigsaw puzzle of inventive and ingenious images - a definite night of theatre to remember.

In addition to the Friday night presentation the group will conduct a free performance art class on Thursday, April 11 at 1 p.m. in the University Theatre.

The Drawing Legion travels extensively in the U.S. and Europe. In their typical fashion, the company cleverly combines the lives of historical figures with those of performers, both reinterpreting history and placing the personal and artistic experiences of the Drawing Legion in historical context.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $4 for senior citizens and children and free to UWVC students. To make reservations, or for more information, please call 335-5200.

Wisconsin IRS Extends Hours

The Internal Revenue Service always encourages taxpayers to file early in order to get their funds faster. But the IRS also realizes that many taxpayers will wait until the last minute to file their returns. For that reason, Wisconsin's IRS is offering extended hours on Saturday, April 13, and again on Monday, April 15 (the last day of the filing season).

On Saturday, April 13, telephone assistance will be available statewide from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. In Milwaukee, taxpayers can call 271-3780. Elsewhere in Wisconsin, taxpayers can call, toll-free, 1-800-TAX-(829)-1040. The IRS Milwaukee office will also be open those same hours on April 13 for in-person tax help.

On Monday, April 15, IRS offices throughout Wisconsin are staying open later to assist those taxpayers who are rushing to meet the filing deadline. IRS offices will be open for telephone and walk-in assistance until 5:30 p.m. That's one hour later than their usual office hours. And since VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) will be available that same evening at many local post offices, tax help will be available virtually all day, from daylight 'till dusk!

In Madison, in addition to having office hours until 5:30 p.m., IRS representatives will be on-hand at Westgate Mall from 5 p.m. until 9 p.m. They'll answer your tax questions and save you some postage by collecting your completed return. You'll find IRS help located near the ice cream shop.

The Sheboygan office is located at 2108 Kohler Memorial Drive.

If you are unable to visit your local IRS office that day, you can still receive tax help by calling the IRS, toll-free, at 1-800-TAX-(829)-1040. Telephone tax assistance has also been extended that day until 5:30 p.m.

So if you find yourself being one of those taxpayers who needs help on the last day of the filing season, don't panic. IRS and VITA have the help you need - from daylight 'till dusk!

Bankers Offer Tax Advice for Teens

KEWASKUM, WI — Two-thirds of Wisconsin teenagers 15 to 19 years old have income from jobs or other sources, and that income amounts to more than $1 billion a year - a good part of it subject to income tax.

While some older teens have been working for several years, many younger wage-earners face the April 15 deadline this year for the first time. "Welcome to the real world," says Nancy Boyce, PEP Coordinator, at Valley Bank in Appleton and one of the 80 Valley Bankers who help teach personal finance to high school students. Here are some of the tips Valley PEP Bankers offer first-time taxpayers:

* The bad news is if you had more than $500 in income in 1990 and your parents claimed you as a dependent, you probably will have to file a state and a federal tax return by midnight, April 15. The good news is that if you had a job and your employer withheld tax from your paycheck, you are likely to get money back from the government. The sooner you file, the sooner you get your refund.

* You can be claimed as a dependent by your parents as long as they paid for the majority of your expenses during the year and you were younger than 19 (or younger than 24 if you were a full-time student).

* If you work at more than one job, the money withheld may not be enough to cover your tax liability. You may want to have more withheld by one of your employers to make sure you don't owe money at tax time.

* You will get a refund faster if you file electronically. You have to file through an approved tax preparation service or transmitter. You should get your refund in about three weeks.

* If you have moved in the past year and your tax forms didn't get forwarded to you, you can pick up the most common tax forms at a local IRS office, United States Post Office or a library.

Tax advice is just one of the subjects covered by Valley Bankers participating in the Personal Economics Program (PEP). PEP is a national effort on the part of commercial banks to encourage economic education and is designed to help teachers provide practical knowledge and experience to students in the areas of personal economics and banking.

HIB Vaccine Licensed for Infants

Until recently there was no vaccine available to protect children younger than 15 months of age against Haemophilus influenzae b (Hib) bacteria that cause a variety of illnesses, the most serious of which is meningitis. That has changed as Hib vaccine has been recently licensed for use in infants.

The Hib vaccination schedule currently approved by the Wisconsin Division of Health recommends a series of immunizations to be given at 2, 4, 6, and 15 months of age.

There are at least three types of Hib vaccine available for use. All of them are approved for use in children 15 months and older. All are considered effective, although each has a different formulation and schedule for the series. However, not all of the vaccines are approved for use in infants.

Because more than one Hib vaccine is now available, each with a different schedule, parents are bound to be confused about the right vaccine for their child. They are encouraged to discuss Hib vaccination with their doctor or a public health nurse from the Washington County Community Health Nursing Service.

Each year in Wisconsin, about 120 children under age 5 are stricken with Hib meningitis. This swelling of the covering of the brain and spinal cord can cause permanent brain damage, resulting in mental retardation, hearing loss, and blindness. It is nearly always fatal if not treated. Hib disease also may cause pneumonia and infections of the blood, joints, bone, throat, and covering of the heart.

Because Hib infections can be spread easily by coughing, sneezing, and other close contact, children who are in close contact are more likely to become infected. This includes children in day care centers and homes with more than one child under age 5.

The Hib vaccine has few side effects, although about two out of every 100 immunized children will have a slight fever and redness at the injection site. The side effects usually go away within 48 hours after vaccination.

The Hib vaccine does not protect against meningitis caused by other bacteria.

Hib vaccine first became available for children over 15 months of age in 1988, and its use in young infants was first recommended in the fall of 1990.

For more information, contact your family physicians or the Washington County Community Health Nursing Service at 335-4462, 644-5204, or 342-2929.

'A Woman's Place... Behind the Wheel' Offered at UWWC

Buying a car can be time consuming, mystifying, and, at best, stressful. For many women these feelings can be even more apparent if they have little or no experience in the process.

UWC-Washington County Continuing Education Extension is offering a seminar especially designed to help make the car buying, owning and driving experience better for the growing numbers of women who are responsible for their automobiles. "A Woman's Place... Behind the Wheel" will be offered Tuesday, April 23 and Thursday, April 25 from 7 to 9:15 p.m. in room 259 at UWWC, 400 University Dr., West Bend.

The seminar will help women to get behind the wheel and save time and money in the process. Some of the seminar topics include choosing the car type and dealers to visit, decision-making guidelines and shopping tips, trading or selling your old car, dealer prep and other extras, financing, and servicing expectations and external resource.

The seminar leader, George Werve of Waukesha, is a former car salesperson and now a teacher and consumer advocate. His first hand experience in selling cars will help participants to learn how to negotiate, how to get what you really want and need, and how to handle the assertive salesperson. The goal of the seminar is to help participants learn more about car selling and servicing, feel more confident in their own experience, and help you save hundreds of dollars in the process.

The cost of the two day seminar is $20 ($10 for UWWC students) and an $8.50 book charge. For more information or to register, please call Joan Laabs or Connie Peterson at 335-5208.

Spring Prohibitions Against Drinking at Landings in Effect

MADISON, WI — The state's annual ban on consumption of intoxicating beverages in state parks or on state-owned or administered water access sites went into effect April 1.

The law specifically prohibits consumption of beer or liquor in state parks and in the Kettle Moraine and Point Beach state forests between March 31 and Saturday, May 25. (Registered campers within family campgrounds and customers in the Clausung Barn Restaurant at Old World Wisconsin are exempted).

State law prohibits the consumption of beer or liquor on or within the boundaries of state-owned or administered boat landings during the same time period. Boat landings affected by the prohibition will be posted as such, though other landings may be covered by local or county restrictions.

Possession of open containers of intoxicating beverages is similarly prohibited during the restricted time period. Penalties for violations include a standard forfeiture of $67.00, though can result in forfeitures of up to $151.00.

A 21st Birthday Tribute to Brenda Oelhafen April 10, 1970

When you were born, 21 years ago,
On that April eve,
We celebrated then,
Now we grieve.
So much anticipation and enjoyment
Our new baby girl, to join our little boy.
The perfect family, healthy and strong.
Just feed, nurture and then enjoy.
Growing, maturing into a lovely young gal.
Helping, smiling, being a daughter, sister and friend.
We hoped you were happy, we wanted it so.
It should go on forever, and not ever end.
But as life would have it,
Our dreams don't all come true.
You suddenly left us,
Life had to go on without you.
Smiles are harder for us,
When April draws near.
Brenda is partying somewhere in the unknown.
We know, we believe, we hear.
Her friends - they've never forgotten,
Her great smile and too her spunk.
Just wanted to say, Happy Birthday, Love
We miss you so, so much.

Celebrate Arbor Day by Planting a Tree

There's no better way to celebrate Arbor Day than by planting a tree, says University of Wisconsin - Madison extension horticulturist Ed Hasselkus. This year Arbor Day is April 26.

Trees provide something for almost everyone. They give shade, enhance pleasant views, attract birds and wildlife, blossom with colorful and fragrant flowers, produce attractive or edible fruits and beautifully colored leaves, interesting bark textures and intricate branching patterns.

If you plant a tree this year, give it a good start by planting correctly. Most nurseries sell three types of planting stock: bare-root, balled-and-burlapped and potted or container-grown.

Balled-and-burlapped stock is the most expensive but is easiest to establish and initially can give you the largest plant. Bare-root stock is usually cheaper but harder to establish. Each has its own special requirements for handling and planting.

Young trees damage easily during transportation and storage. Keep the tree covered or sheltered from the wind and sun to prevent it from drying out. Keep the roots moist but not water soaked. If you have bare-root stock, place moist peat moss, burlap or a similar moistened material around the roots.

Spring is the best time to plant trees, Hasselkus says. Plant your tree as soon as possible after bringing it home. If you can't plant balled and burlapped or bare root stock for several days, "heel in" the trees. For bare root stock, dig a trench in a shady, sheltered spot and place the tree in the trench on an angle and cover the roots with moist soil or mulch. Heel balled and burlapped stock in an upright position.

Hasselkus suggests the following steps when planting a tree.

For balled-and-burlapped stock, dig a hole one foot wider and the exact depth of the root ball. Remember that the tree should grow at the same level that it was growing in the nursery. Planting too deep causes roots to die from lack of oxygen.

Place the tree in the hole, handling only the ball, not the tree's trunk. Untie all twine from the base of the trunk. If the twine isn't removed it could kill the tree by girdling the trunk. Lay back the burlap so that none extends above the soil level, but don't remove the burlap from the soil ball.

For bare-rooted, potted or container-grown trees, dig a hole one foot wider and 6 inches deeper than the root system, size of pot or container. Put a 6-inch mound of topsoil in the bottom of the hole. Prune any dried or injured roots off bare-root stock and place the tree in the hole. With potted or container-grown stock, remove the tree from the container, keeping the root ball intact. Unravel matted roots with your fingers or cut any coiled roots, and place the tree in the hole.

Avoid putting ordinary commercial fertilizer in the planting hole because it might injure the roots. If you want to fertilize the new tree, place a slow release fertilizer in the hole at the time of planting, or apply a dilute solution of starter fertilizer after you have finished planting.

Fill the hole with soil and gently press it around the roots with your hands. Use soil from the hole. Hasselkus doesn't recommend adding peat moss, manure or other organic materials.

Leave a shallow, dished out area near the base for easy watering. Water well, soaking the root area. Your tree will need water from time to time for two to three years after planting. A thorough weekly watering is much better for the tree than light daily watering.

When pruning, try to preserve the plant's natural form by removing broken, crossing and inward growing branches. Remove multiple leaders if present, Hasselkus recommends.

For more information on planting trees, refer to extension publication A3067, "Selecting, Planting and Caring for Your Shade Trees." Single copies cost $1.15, which includes postage and handling, and can be ordered from Agricultural Bulletin, Room 245, 30 N. Murray St., Madison, WI 53715, (608) 262-3346. Make checks payable to UW-Extension. This publication is also available at some county Extension offices.

Gulf War Troops Who Served in Middle East Now Eligible for State Veterans' Benefits

Gov. Tommy Thompson recently signed legislation that makes Wisconsin residents who served in the military in the Middle East during Operations Desert Storm and Desert Shield eligible for state veterans' benefits.

The governor also has signed legislation that provides various state tax exemptions and extends tax filing deadlines for Wisconsinites who served in Operation Desert Storm/Shield.

With this new legislation, approximately 8,600 new wartime veterans will be eligible for state benefits, according to estimates from the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, which administers the benefit programs.

These veterans may qualify for low-interest rate home mortgage and home improvement loans as well as economic assistance loans for essential purposes such as debt consolidation, education, home repairs and business or farm purchases. Veterans who are full or part-time students may qualify for education grants, and needy veterans may receive grants for emergency health care or subsistence aid.

Under current law, state veterans' benefits have been extended only to those who served in the Middle East during Operations Desert Storm or Desert Shield. However, legislation has been proposed to extend these benefits to all Wisconsin residents who were on active duty for a minimum of 90 days from August 1, 1990, until the war officially ends.

Anyone desiring additional information should contact their County Veterans' Service Officer, or Richard W. Baker, Washington County Veterans Service Officer at 335-4457.

Desert Storm: What Wisconsin Taxpayers Need to Know

The Internal Revenue Service is continuing to receive questions about the tax implications for the men and women serving in Operation Desert Storm. John T. Ader, Director of the Milwaukee District of the IRS, says "We have been working to provide the best information on the tax relief available for the people serving in Operation Desert Storm. In order to assist them further, we have now compiled a list of the most commonly asked questions from Wisconsin taxpayers."

Q: Which military personnel are entitled to tax relief?

A: Personnel stationed in the combat zone: Iraq, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Oman, Bahrain, Qatar, United Arab Emirates, Persian Gulf, Red Sea, Gulf of Oman, certain parts of the Arabian Sea, and the Gulf of Aden. In addition, units in other areas (such as Jordan, Syria, Israel, Turkey, Yemen and Egypt) may be eligible for tax relief if their unit has been declared in direct support of the Persian Gulf operation. Families should contact their military unit to see if they have received that designation.

Q: Is military pay taxable?

A: Combat pay is excluded from taxes, effective January 1991.

Q: Is there an extension of time for filing for combat zone personnel?

A: Yes. People stationed in the combat zone will have at least 180 days from the time they leave the zone before they must file their taxes. No interest or penalties will be added to any taxes that are owed. All other actions by IRS (examinations of returns, collection activities, etc.) are also suspended for at least 180 days from the time military personnel leave the combat zone.

Q: Is it necessary to file a form to get the extension?

A: No. No action is required. When you do file your tax return, be sure to mark "Desert Storm" on the envelope and the return. DO NOT FILE A BLANK 1040 WITH "DESERT STORM" WRITTEN ACROSS IT!

Q: Does the extension apply: 1) to spouses? 2) to dependent children?

A: 1) Yes, with some limitations. 2) Yes, to the same extent that they apply to you.

Q: What special rules apply to someone serving in the U.S. Armed Forces and stationed in Europe or other locations overseas — but not in the combat zone?

A: They will have a two-month extension to file their tax returns and pay their taxes. Interest will be due on tax that is not paid by April 15.

Q: Can I sign the tax return of someone serving in Operation Desert Storm?

A: You may sign the return only if: you have written authorization such as Form 2848 (Power of Attorney) - OR - you have a signed statement from the taxpayer - OR - for a joint return, you provide a written statement (a letter) explaining that your husband or wife is serving in the combat zone. Attach one of the above to your tax return, sign and date your return, and send it in. Be sure to mark "Desert Storm" on the return.

Q: How can I get more information?

A: The IRS in Wisconsin has several taxpayer service representatives who are dealing exclusively with Desert Storm questions. In Milwaukee, call 271-3780. Elsewhere in Wisconsin, call toll-free, 1-800-TAX-(829)-1040."

Other key points to remember: Members of the Armed Forces and support personnel who served in Operation Desert Storm have at least 180 days — and in most cases up to 285 days — from the date they leave the combat zone to file their 1990 federal income tax returns.

Although federal tax law allows these taxpayers to postpone filing their tax returns for 180 days, the Internal Revenue Service has determined that the 180-day postponement period is intended to run consecutively, not concurrently, with the tax filing season.

This means that military and support personnel who were in the designated Desert Storm area at any time from Aug. 2, 1990, through Jan. 1, 1991, will not be required to file until 285 days after they leave the combat zone. The postponement period in these situations is made up of the 180 days provided by law and the 105 days of the tax filing season, January 1 to April 15.

According to John Ader, "Military and support personnel who entered the combat zone after January 1 may postpone filing their tax returns for 180 days plus the number of days between the date they entered the combat zone and April 15."

"For example, a taxpayer who served in the combat zone from January 20 through March 15 will have until Dec. 6, 1991, to file, which is 266 days after they left the combat zone. This filing postponement period equals the 180 days plus the 86 days from January 20 to April 15."

Ader adds: "Taxpayers still in the combat zone can postpone filing their tax returns for as long as they are in the combat zone. Then, when they leave the combat zone their additional time to file starts. For example, a taxpayer who was in the combat zone on January 1 and leaves April 20 will have 285 days from April 20 to file the tax return. If this taxpayer had entered the combat zone on January 20, the filing date would be 266 days from April 20.

If the combat zone designation is cancelled by executive order before a taxpayer leaves the combat zone, the additional postponement period starts when the designation is cancelled."

Guidance on postponing tax filing and other relief measures are covered in the new IRS publication 945, "Tax Information for Those Affected by Operation Desert Storm," that will be available in early April.

Some of the other issues covered in Publication 945 include retroactive interest on refunds, IRA contributions for 1990 and interest free payments of 1990 tax balances. In summary:

- A tax refund issued by IRS after April 15 will include interest from April 15 if the return is filed by the postponed deadline.

- Taxpayers who owe additional payment with their tax returns will not be charged interest or late payment penalty if they file by the postponed deadline.

- Because the filing date for taxpayers who served in Desert Storm is postponed, IRA contributions for 1990 may be made up until the date the taxpayer is required to file.

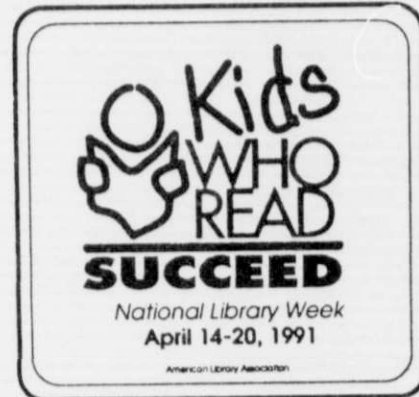

IRS also reminds affected taxpayers that there is no exclusion of military pay received before January 1991 by men and women in the combat zone.

Taxpayers are reminded to write "Desert Storm" at the top of their tax returns. This will alert IRS that those people are entitled to these tax relief measures. Because tax collection and examination actions are postponed, Operation Desert Storm military and support personnel who receive correspondence from IRS on these matters should mark "Desert Storm" at the top of the correspondence and return it to IRS.

The new IRS publication 945, covering Operation Desert Storm tax issues, will be available in April by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Lifetime Formula for Success: READING

By Herbert J. Grover, State Superintendent

Wouldn't it be wonderful if there were a simple formula for fortune? Well, there is: "Read. Succeed." or "Kids Who Read Succeed." These are the themes of this year's National Library Week, April 14 through 20.

Spring is a time when the earth renews and it is also a time to re-emphasize the importance that reading has and the multitude of worlds it can open. Too many people have forgotten that reading puts wisdom within easy reach. Reading is booking a berth on a train whose track extends as far as the imagination.

The value of reading is a lesson that we must teach our children early. Reading aloud to a child stimulates imagination, increases vocabulary, lengthens the attention span, and sheds a positive light on literacy. If we show children that reading is a fun activity, they will be more eager to learn to do it themselves.

A trip to the library can be a great adventure for a child. It's never too early to know what a tremendous resource a library is and the treasures that its shelves hold. Early enthusiasm helps develop lifelong reading habits.

It is good for kids to know that books can be best friends and patient teachers. The more we know about a subject, the better we understand it, and kids of all ages can always learn from books. We must set good examples and shout the message that reading is succeeding.

This Spring, let us nurture a more important crop. Let's plant the seed of reading in our youth. There is no more rewarding harvest to reap than that of a broadened mind.

K-6 Wrestling Nights a Success

Wrestling for kids, grades kindergarten through 6th grade, was offered during the month of March at the Kewaskum High School gym on Monday and Wednesday evenings. An average of 30 kids attended each night. Parents were encouraged to stay and participate with their children. Wrestling rules and good sportsmanship were covered. Individual moves were demonstrated by several members of Kewaskum High School's Wrestling team. A good time was had by all children involved.

All those involved in organizing this year's kids wrestling season, would like to thank the students, parent-coaches, and members of Kewaskum Wrestling team who helped make this a successful season.

Anyone interested in this organizing or being a member of an official Kewaskum Wrestling Club which would oversee next year's kid's wrestling season, please contact Steve Guelig at 338-1681.

CIGARETTES AND OTHER CANCERS

Although it is now common knowledge that smoking may cause lung cancer, the American Cancer Society reveals that smoking may also be a risk factor in bladder cancer. Warning signs for this form of cancer include blood in the urine and increased frequency of urination.

Indian Girls Notch First Win

By Statesman Staff Writer
KEWASKUM — While it didn't have nearly as many hits as it did in its opening contest, the Kewaskum girls softball team still was able to come up with its first win in the brief stint of the sport, using more than a dozen walks to edge Slinger 10-9 here, last Friday.

After collecting nine hits in their season-opening loss to Campbellsport, the Indians managed just two hits against Slinger pitcher Michelle Scoles, who struck out 10 Indian batters.

But Scoles also walked 15 Indian hitters, leading directly to most of the Indian runs. After falling behind 3-0 in the first, the Indians used the walks, a couple of stolen bases, and a single by Julie Wagner to wipe out the deficit and lead 4-3 after one inning.

The Indians added a single run in the second, and then added two more in the third as Pam Gauger collected the Indians only other hit of the day in the third, to make the Indian lead 7-3.

Slinger came right back in the next inning, though, as the Owls came up with five big runs to retake the lead at 8-7. The Owls stretched the margin to 9-7, getting a couple of base hits to score the tally.

The Indians didn't need the base hits though, as the walks again started to mount in the bottom of the fifth, allowing the Indians to score another three runs without the benefit of a hit.

The Indians defense then took over, as they turned a couple of double plays on the afternoon, as well as some fine running grabs, the last of which came by Gauger in the sixth, helping avoid a late Slinger comeback.

Rachelle Krahn, along with some late inning help by Stacey Heberer, did another good job on the mound for the Indians, as the two scattered 11 Slinger hits, while exhibiting much better control than their counterparts.

The Indians, now 1-1 on the year, are off until Tuesday, when they face the Port Washington Junior Varsity squad.

First Place Goes to UW-RF Block/Bridle Chapter at National Competition

The UW-River Falls Block and Bridle chapter received first place honors for chapter activities at the National Block and Bridle Convention held in Houston, Texas, Feb. 27 to March 3.

The chapter competed with 80 others from across the country. UW-RF members also were awarded honorable mention in the scrapbook competition.

Wendy Torgerson of Wausau, a 1990 graduate of UW-RF, won the Outstanding Senior award, which is judged on academic achievement and involvement in the chapter and other campus activities.

During the year, the chapter is involved in 50 activities with an emphasis on social, leadership, fundraising and community service.

Shelly Petsch of West Bend, chapter president, said, "It's been a real challenge to win this award for a second time. The members of Block and Bridle work hard with all the activities they are involved in and this award definitely proves that."

Adviser Tony Jilek added, "The variety of the activities allows the member to get experience with something that they are interested in. Block and Bridle has a lot of variation, which makes the club interesting."

Members attending were Mark Ludtke of Brandon, Neal Potts of Marshfield, Matt Kooiman of River Falls, Shelly Helming of Tomah and Sarah Labs of Menomonie.

The group toured Texas A & M, the McFaddin Ranch, King's Ranch and Museum, Riviera Wildlife Ranch and Hudgins Brahman Ranch. Members also attended the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

Stollenwerk Takes Title in Badger Open Judo Championships

By Statesman Sports Writer

FOND DU LAC — After taking first place in the judo championships in Milwaukee two weeks before, Anita Stollenwerk continued her winning ways this past weekend in a couple of tournaments.

Anita came home with the first-place trophy from the Badger Open Judo Championships here Saturday. Competing in the 7-8 year old heavyweight division, she made it to the semifinals where she took care of Pie Wuenberg with an Ippon throw five seconds into the match. That sent her into the final against Amy Wolff, who she pinned in 30 seconds for the title.

Stollenwerk followed up her title in Fond du Lac by competing in the Uptown Judo Club's championships in Buffalo Grove, Illinois on Sunday, where she brought home a second place finish.

Anita is the daughter of Keith and Sue Stollenwerk of Milwaukee, and is the granddaughter of Gerald and Patricia Stollenwerk of Kewaskum.

Indians Make History as First Girls Fast Pitch Softball Team Opens Season

By Statesman Sports Writer

CAMPBELLSPORT — A group of Kewaskum high school girls made history here last Tuesday afternoon, as the Indians took the field for their first-ever interscholastic fast pitch softball game.

The new program, just approved this past winter, almost got off to a victorious start, as the Indians took a 3-2 lead into the bottom of the seventh against the Campbellsport JV team.

But the Cougars rallied for a pair of runs in the bottom half of the inning to pull out a 4-3 victory over the Indians, making the guests wait another game for their first win ever in the sport.

The Indians, who will be playing a combination of varsity and junior varsity opponents this spring, got on the scoreboard first against the Cougars. Senior Amy Chesak got things going in the top of the third inning with a single, and promptly stole second.

Kelly Krahn then hit the first of her two run-scoring singles to score Chesak and give Kewaskum the 1-0 lead.

Campbellsport tied the game at one in the bottom of the fourth, using an Indian error and a pair of stolen bases to put a run on the board.

The Indians came right back in the top of the sixth however, as Julie Wagner tripled into the gap in right field, and then came around to score on a Lisa Zwicker single.

A couple of base hits by the hosts in the bottom half of the inning tied the game once again, and heading into the seventh, it was still anyone's ballgame.

The Indians struck first, as Chesak and Krahn once again teamed up for an Indian score. Chesak beat out an infield single and then stole second. Krahn then came through with a grounder up the middle that hit second base and caromed into centerfield, allowing Chesak to score the go-ahead run.

Up 3-2 heading into the bottom of the seventh, the Indians looked pretty good after the first Cougar batter lined out. But that was the last out the Indians were able to record, as the next two batters singled, and the third, Nikki Peters hit a grounder to short, which Krahn threw a bit low to first base. First baseman Patti Aupperle was unable to come up with the throw, and the two Cougars already on base came around to score.

Chesak had a fine day at the plate, going 3 x 3, while both Krahn and Wagner collected two hits apiece. Rachele Krahn did a commendable job on the mound for the Indians, giving up just five hits in her debut, while walking just two and striking out one.
