School Board to Present $9 Million Budget to Electors

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Board of Education, Monday night, voted to present a proposed 1991-92 budget of $9,472,108, to the electors at the district's annual meeting set for Monday, July 22.

District Administrator Dr. David Heather told the board the proposed budget means the district will have to levy taxes amounting to $4,760,895, to make up the difference between proposed total expenditures and anticipated revenues from other sources.

The 1991-92 figures represent a 5.61% increase over the 1990-91 budget itself, and a 2.81% increase in the levy over last year's figure. Heather said the proposed levy would result in a tax rate of $16.82 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, up 46c over the 1990-91 levy of $16.36 per $1,000. Heather stated he had calculated the new levy rate assuming the district's equalized value would increase between 2 and 3% over last year, resulting in an equalized value for the district of $283,000,000.

The levy includes $4,594,822, for the Fund 10 General Budget and $166,072, for Fund 30, used for the district's debt reduction.

In other business the board heard objections from three families regarding the board's recent decision to move the elementary schools boundaries to equalize class sizes throughout the district.

Donna Warnecke and Sandra Morell told the board they felt the district should allow their fifth grade students to remain at Kewaskum Elementary rather than shift them to Wayne Elementary for their last year of elementary school before returning to Kewaskum to attend the middle school. The women felt it would be too traumatic for their children to change schools and make new friends twice.

A third parent, Mrs. Sandra Junk, told the board she was against the change also, however, her circumstances and reasons were quite different. Junk said she wanted to maintain as stable a situation as possible for her son. Junk told the board that when her family moved to Kewaskum from Colorado last year they found that the Colorado schools were about a year behind Wisconsin schools. She noted her son was just beginning to bring his grades up and the teachers at KES understood the situation. Junk also said her husband had recently passed away. She felt that right now her son had enough to cope with, without having to change schools again. "I rent my home," noted Junk, "and if necessary, I'll move into Kewaskum so my son can continue to attend Kewaskum."

President Neal Weare told the families the board would take their comments under advisement, however, no decision could be made at this meeting since the issue was not an agenda item.

The board also heard the objections of two Kewaskum families whose children were being considered for assignment to the Wayne Kindergarten session for the 1991-92 school year. According to Heather, the assignment of five to seven Kindergarten students would help Wayne's low enrollment and reduce the class sizes at Kewaskum.

Heather had suggested transferring the students to increase Wayne's anticipated Kindergarten enrollment from approximately 13, to 18-19. "A class of 13-14 students would be great for their education but it is not very cost effective," stated Heather.

Because of the lack of a motion, the recommendation died and no action to transfer the youngsters was taken.

In other action the board approved recommendations as presented by the Finance-Transportation-Buildings and Grounds Committee. They included replacing the north hall ceiling at KES at a cost of $5,800, from the Capital Improvements funds, concrete work at KES and KHS $1,240, roof repairs at KMS $1,925, life safety improvements (smoke detectors, etc.) KES $2,115, replacement carpeting for portions of KHS, FES and WES $4,318, and completion of a districtwide maps and globes replacement program $1,450.

The board also approved the request of KMS principal David Jones to send a five-member team of teachers and administrators to a one-week Middle School seminar at UW-Platteville, at a cost of $510 per member.

The board approved the KHS German Club's trip to Germany during the 1991 Christmas vacation break.

The assignment of David Rockhill as the new assistant Football coach was approved. The board accepted the resignation of Irene Heather as Basketball and Wrestling cheerleading advisor and the appointment of Elizabeth Rudzik to take over that position.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

Sidewalk, Sewer, Water Projects Top Board's Agenda

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The bulk of Monday night's Kewaskum Village Board session was made up of public hearings and action on resolutions concerning various sidewalk, sewer and water projects throughout the village.

After closing the four public hearings, the board voted on resolutions to go ahead with its 1991 phase of the sidewalk Capital Improvements program to install new and replace damaged sidewalks.

The board also voted to proceed with sewer and water lateral stubs and other improvements for properties on Old Fond du Lac Road/Highway 45 Frontage Road, Edgewood Road, Knights Avenue and Fond du Lac Avenue south.

Administrator Dan Schmidt said the village would advertise for bids on the sidewalk reconstruction project and he anticipated work would probably begin by the end of July.

Regarding the Edgewood Road project, property owner Jim Wessing suggested to the board that the village complete the sewer and water work on the north end of Edgewood as long as the equipment was in the area. The trustees agreed with suggestion and directed Schmidt to contact the property owners, including Wessing about including that work in the Edgewood project.

In the reports of department heads, Trustee Gary Gavin asked Police Chief Richard Knoebel about the status of hiring new part time officers. Knoebel said he had received four applications, however, none of the applicants were certified for the position.

Water Pollution Control Superintendent Pete Albers informed the trustees that he had met with representatives of Kemp's Dairy regarding the village's sludge problems. He indicated the dairy was also concerned with the problem and had asked for estimates on the size and cost of a sludge storage facility.

Albers said the village would need a storage facility with a capacity of at least 900,000 gallons. "Right now we're hauling 1.7 million gallons a year and that's going to go up," said Albers. "The stricter the regulations get, the more sludge we'll have."

Board president Mary Krueger told fellow trustees that if the dairy was willing to work with the village, the village should provide estimates and information needed for a cooperative effort.

Albers also advised the board that the treatment plant is having trouble with debris blowing down: from the recycling center and clogging up the treatment tanks. He asked that the recycling dumpsters be moved into the new recycling building as soon as possible. "We've got everything from plastic bags to soda bottles floating around in the water clogging up the pipes."

Schmidt said a concrete floor and a driveway have to be constructed before the building can be opened as the new recycling center. He said, however, he would check with the property owner of the building's original driveway to see if the material could be moved into the building via that drive.

Schmidt also reported on the lightning damage suffered by the village during last week's storm. He told the board that the Well #2 pump house and village radio tower had been struck by lightning.

The operations panel at the well was damaged. The municipal building suffered damage to its police radios and computer systems. Sparks actually came out of the electrical outlets, said Schmidt.

Schmidt estimated the village sustained between $2,000 and $10,000 damage, most of which he felt would be covered by insurance.

Trustee Gary Gavin reported on the Library Board's meeting. He said Ms. Bledsoe, the new Library Director seems to be working out very well.

Gavin told the board Bledsoe would like to extend the hours the library is open. "She feels she can have the library open an additional 10-12 hours a week without adding any employees or increasing staff hours." Gavin said Bledsoe plans to stagger employe shifts so the library could be open even on Saturdays.

Parks Committee Chairman Tom McElhatton informed the board that as of July 2, 548 swim passes have been sold.

Public Works Department employe Alan Kuehl asked about the status of the Public Works Superintendent position. "I put my application in for the job and I haven't heard anything," said Kuehl.

Krueger told Kuehl the board had started going through the applications and reviewing them. Schmidt said the village had received approximately 40 applications for the job.

In other action the board approved the Lion's annual picnic permit.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

'King' Finalists Now Cut Down to Twenty

The second phase of the Kettle Kountry Colors "King" contest is now underway with the candidates being narrowed down to just twenty in each category. The voting was fast and furious as electors only had approximately two weeks to make their choices.

It's beginning to shape up into quite a contest as family and friends (?) vote for their favorite sons and the favorite sons are desperately trying to vote for "the other guy."

Considering there was only two weeks to vote and only five polling places, I was amazed at how many votes were cast. Supporters of the contest can give themselves a pat on the back for the way you turned out to vote.

But now is not the time to back down. There is still alot of voting to be taken care of. We have to eliminate ten more candidates in each category by mid-August. At least this round we have a little more time to vote, however let's not wait until the last minute. Let's keep this contest alive and interesting. Votes will be counted once in between now and the final voting day for this phase, and we'll keep you posted as to who seems to be pulling in the most votes.

We are again repeating the rules of this contest:

1. All candidates that still remain will be adding their new votes to the votes they accumulated in phase I. (This DOES NOT include the nominations you received, only the 10c votes.)

2. There are now twenty candidates in each category. Each vote costs a DIME. This does not mean you have to use dimes only. (Use two nickels or even ten pennies... the pennies are so much fun to count. Go ahead... I have it coming Larry... use pennies!). One dollar counts as 10 votes, $2.00 counts as 20 votes, $5.00 counts as 50 votes, etc., etc. etc. But remember, dimes add up too! (Quarters count as 2½ votes, but to make it easier on me, use two, ok?)

3. There will be voting canisters and voting boards. Both will serve the same purpose. The voting boards are being used in places where there is not enough room to place the canisters. Canisters are self-explanatory. Put your money in the slots provided. (The slots will be made large enough to accommodate paper money... get the hint?) Voting boards will contain super-strong-safe bags with the candidate's name on the outside. Deposit money (votes) inside of bag.

Polling places will be located at the same businesses... Family Hair Salon, Kuehl's Suds and Spirits, Hon-E-Kor Country Club, and The Kewaskum Statesman. We have added two new places to vote. One is Eckl's Mainstreet Inn which already has a voting board up, and T's Lounge, which will be getting a voting board in the very near future. (Meaning as soon as I have time to prepare it!) Anyone else that has room for a voting board or voting canisters please let us know as soon as possible. The more canisters and boards we have out there, the more people get a chance to vote.

Absentee ballots can be mailed to the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 300, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

July 11 Sun Eclipse Is A Hazard to Eyesight

Looking at the sun can cause severe eye damage, even blindness. Prevent Blindness-Wisconsin, safety and astronomy organizations warn people about the upcoming solar eclipse on Thursday, July 11, 1991, from 1:30 until 3 p.m.

"Never look directly at the sun, even during an eclipse," warns Prevent Blindness-Wisconsin.

A solar eclipse occurs when the moon passes between the sun and the earth. The moon partly covers the sun and the sky darkens. Unfortunately people think that they can watch an eclipse — unaware that invisible rays from the sun can painlessly burn the eyes' retinas.

These burns, known as solar retinopathy or retinal scarring, can result in permanent vision loss and even blindness. During the 1970 solar eclipse, 145 eye injuries were reported in the United States; 40 percent of these victims thought they were using safe direct viewing methods and 60 percent used no protection at all.

Any vision loss is non-treatable and irreversible.

The total phase of the eclipse will be visible in Hawaii, Mexico, Central America and Brazil. In New York, only two percent of the sun will be covered by the moon, whereas in San Diego, California about 75 percent of the sun will be covered.

In Wisconsin we will experience about 12 percent of the eclipse.

At no time during the coming eclipse will it be safe to observe the sun with the naked eye.

Sunglasses, exposed film, welder's goggles, and photographic filters are NOT SUITABLE protection and should not be used for direct viewing. Binoculars and telescopes are totally unacceptable for eclipse watching; they MAGNIFY the sun's rays.

There ARE safe ways to watch an eclipse. One is to watch the eclipse on television. If outdoors, an indirect viewing method is recommended.

Anyone wishing additional information on safe eclipse observation may call or write Prevent Blindness-Wisconsin at (414) 765-0505, 759 North Milwaukee Street, Milwaukee, WI 53202.

My Mother's Flower Garden

By Isabelle Muckerheide

While working in my garden, I'm reminded of the beautiful flower garden my Mother had while she lived.

It was planted specifically for adornment of the Altar for Sunday Mass. Each Saturday afternoon she and I would hike up the road to the church nearby.

Before the garden flowers were ready, we would gather wild flowers for that purpose. There were blue iris along the river bank, blue bells and May flowers, also violets and lilacs.

Her garden beds were built up with ditches between for proper drainage. There were rows of gladiolas, dahlias, cosmos, zinnias, and a white topped flower called "Snow on the Mountain." She had a tall plant with droopy pink tails which she called "Kiss me over the garden gate."

There were bright orange calendulas which came back year after year. I can't forget the asters and balsams, too.

She also had house plants, take for instance a cactus which her Mother had, who died in 1899. It has huge red flowers when it blooms (I have a slip of that) Then there were tubs of moss roses, and geraniums which she hung upside down in the basement over winter.

She also had a hydrangea in a tub which she carried in when there was danger of frost. It had over 100 blooms one year.

Then there were oleanders. They are native to the South, so up here they must be taken in for the winter. I am fortunate to have several of those, too. They have clusters of rose-like flowers.

It is a beautiful memory this time of year, to think of Mom, and her flower garden.

Cholesterol Screening At the County Fair

Elevated blood cholesterol is one of the three main controllable risk factors for coronary heart disease. Other controllable risk factors are high blood pressure and smoking. Excess body weight, diabetes and lack of physical exercise are other factors linked to an increased risk of developing heart disease.

Cholesterol levels are determined by the foods you eat and by your individual body chemistry. A diet high in saturated fat and cholesterol raises blood cholesterol. Statistically, a reduction in blood cholesterol reduced the risk of heart attacks. An individual should know his/her personal cholesterol reading and make the necessary lifestyle changes to maintaining a normal cholesterol level, thereby reducing his/her risk of heart disease.

The Washington County Cardiovascular Reduction Program, in cooperation with the Community Health Nursing Service, will offer fair goers an opportunity to "know their cholesterol level."

A small sample of blood from an individual's fingertip is applied to a special plastic strip and inserted in a machine calibrated to register the individual's cholesterol level. The results are available in a short time and a registered nurse will interpret the result and provide individualized information on diet and lifestyle changes. Charge for the screening test and health education is $5 per test and includes a blood pressure reading. Fasting is not necessary.

Cholesterol screening will be offered at the Fairgrounds in Slinger during the following hours: Wednesday, July 24 from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m., Friday, July 26 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. and Saturday, July 27 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

To win a bet for $40, Thomas Garson of Chicago ate 22 hamburgers and two quarts of ice cream in 25 minutes back in 1938.

Free Blood Pressure Screening at Fair

Everyone has blood pressure. It is the force of blood against the walls of the arteries. This force is created by the heart as it pumps blood to all parts of the body. In some people, the blood pressure is higher than it should be. Doctors don't know what causes most high blood pressure, but it can be treated and controlled.

High blood pressure adds to the workload of the heart and kidneys. If it continues for a long time, the heart and kidneys may not function as well as they should, and other body organs may also be affected.

High blood pressure is known as the silent killer because there usually are not symptoms. The only way to know if you have high blood pressure is to have a simple, painless test. A series of blood pressure checks are done to determine whether you have high blood pressure. If you do, you will work with your doctor to get it under control. You will be reducing your risk of stroke, kidney failure, heart failure or heart attack.

The Washington County Cardiograph Risk Reduction Program in cooperation with the Community Health Nursing Service will be offering FREE blood pressure screenings at the County Fair during the following hours: Wednesday, July 24 from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m.; Friday, July 26 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. and Saturday, July 27, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Kinetron II Now Available at Cedar Haven Rehabilitation Agency

There is a new state of the art piece of equipment now available at the Cedar Haven Rehabilitation Agency that allows rehabilitation treatments to begin earlier than more conventional treatments, and virtually eliminates the risk of overly stressing injured joints and muscles.

This new high-tech machine is called the Kinetron II. The machine is a versatile isokinetic exercise device designed for the rehabilitation of the lower body. It provides a safe and non-threatening exercise environment because it resists with a force equal to the amount of force a person exerts. The resistance encountered varies across the range of motion depending upon muscle strength at various points. The machine can also be set for either fast or slow exercise movements.

Furthermore, the Kinetron II

is suitable for many rehabilitation cases. Patients can begin using the Kinetron II for strengthening muscles when they are non-weight bearing on their legs. The machine can be used in the therapy for many injuries and diseases, as well as for symptoms associated with bedridden or wheelchair bound patients. It also promotes bone density and cardiovascular fitness in low mobility patients.

The acquisition of the Kinetron II machine was made possible by donations from the Cedar Campuses Enthusiast Club members. Thanks to the Enthusiast club members a multitude of people who so desperately need this type of therapy will benefit from it.

For more information, call 334-1486. The Cedar Haven Rehabilitation Agency is located at the Cedar Lake Home Campus on Highway Z, two miles south of Highway 33.

SUMMER SALMON

One of the biggest challenges I successfully met this summer was getting my first official job. I spent over two months of my summer in Alaska with plans to work in a fish cannery. As I am only fifteen, I was five months short of working in one. Instead we inquired around and eventually found a private cannery where fish washing was available for those under sixteen.

My first day on the job was quite nerve-wrecking because I didn't know what to do, and my co-workers were the eleven- and seven-year-old grandsons of the owner and a thirteen-year-old friend of the family. However I did manage to pick up the basics. First a large, plastic box (called a tote) full of fish was filled with cold water. Then I, with slicker, pants and rubber gloves on, would wash dirt and sand, mostly on low-tide fish, off the salmon and pitch them into huge ice-packed totes.

This may not sound very difficult, but on a cool Alaskan morning, one of the worst ways to begin a morning is by putting on cold, damp, rubber gloves, which never really get dry and always smell like fish, and then dipping them into even colder, wetter water. Many times I was tempted to quit, especially when the boys decided to throw dead fish and use me as a target, but perseverance won out, and now I can honestly say I learned more about the "real world" in the short time I worked there than several books or classroom hours could have taught me. (It was also very inspiring to now work hard in all my classes because I certainly don't plan to wash fish for a living).

Teresa Billings is Winner of Voice of Democracy Scholarship

Teresa Billings

Every year, for the past 44 years, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Of The United States and its Ladies Auxiliary sponsor the "VOICE OF DEMOCRACY" broadcast script writing scholarship program for 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students in public, parochial and private schools in the U.S. and overseas.

The program is designed to give high school students the opportunity to voice their opinions on their responsibility to our country and to convey their thoughts via the radio broadcasting medium to all America. Each state winner gets a five-day all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. where they compete for twelve national scholarships from $18,000 to $1,000, totaling $60,000.

To arrive at the coveted state winner position, school winners are determined at local judgments, with the first place winners advancing to the district level judging. The first place winner from each district is then entered in the state or department judging, with the first place winner then going to the national competition.

The theme for the 1990-1991 competition was: "Democracy, the Vanguard of Freedom." The theme for the coming school year, 1991-1992 is: "Meeting America's Challenge." For additional information, feel free to contact Dietrich Otto, W3989 Cloverland Drive, Campbellsport, WI 53010, your High School Principal, or your local VFW Post.

The first place winner for 1990-1991 in the 6th District had placed third in the previous district contest. Her name is Teresa Billings, she is a 1991 graduate of Billings Christian School (A home school) in rural Fond du Lac County. She enjoyed playing the flute while at school and entered state musical competition in Milwaukee and placed 2nd playing a flute solo in flute competition. Most of all, Teresa wants to become a registered nurse.

As a result of her S.A.T. score, she has been awarded the President's Scholarship to Marian College, which is a four year scholarship totaling $16,000. It is needless to state how thrilled she is with the award and how much she appreciates the experience gained from participating in the Voice of Democracy Contest for the last two years. Here is the text of this year's winning script by TERESA BILLINGS:

"Democracy: The Vanguard of Freedom"

We often take our freedom for granted, because it is a natural way of life for Americans. We go to church with no struggle, our press is free to print the truth, and we choose any career or trade without hindrance. We rarely take time to ponder our freedoms, to reflect on how we attained them or how we keep them.

But, if we were to contemplate it, we would realize that our freedoms were gained through struggle, and that before any lasting freedoms were established, a democracy was established. In this democracy, the power that in the past had been given only to the monarchs was now entrusted to the people. Democracy wielded the strength needed to win the battle for freedom, it became the vanguard of freedom.

A vanguard is defined as the advance guard of an army, those in the forefront. How well this word describes democracy! Democracy is the power to vote, the right of the people to choose their leaders, or even to endeavor to become a leader. The democratic vote gives us a means for governing ourselves. What could be more just? Those who enjoy and use the freedoms, have a voice in controlling those freedoms. We laud our Bill of Rights, the written expression of our freedoms. I believe that the foundation all these freedoms are built on is our ability to vote. The democratic voting system is the key that unlocks the door to all freedom. With our vote we decide, we make known our views. We tell the authorities how they are doing, how we want to be governed. In a country this size, there couldn't be a more effective way to hear the voice of the common people.

It is very important that we exercise our voting rights. It keeps our government one that is for the people. We must keep our democracy strong, and a good way to strengthen it is simply by voting, by accepting the responsibility that comes with our freedoms. We all willingly agree that our freedoms are beautiful and precious, we ought to be just as willing to take an active part in keeping those freedoms.

Democracy is defined as a form of government in which political power resides in all the people and is exercised by them directly or is given to elected representatives. This is the type of government employed by America. Yet, there is more to the definition of democracy than you'll find in the dictionary. It is the spirit of democracy, the spirit of "liberty and justice for all" that only democracy can promise.

Have you ever thought about our democracy? How brightly it shines in the world! How well America stands with other nations! There are no empty grocery shelves in America, there are no empty clothing racks. Americans are well provided for, not just the rich, but everyone. Beneath our democracy freedom reigns nationwide.

That is the democratic spirit. We must not allow stagnancy to creep in. Let us follow the example laid before us long ago. Democracy is a tool in the hands of the people. We are to use this tool to forge out a free nation, a free nation in a hindered world.

Democracy fights for freedom, but who is willing to fight for democracy? Democracy has been entrusted to the people, the citizens of this great land. We hold it, it is ours to use and protect. Let us do so with a zeal for justice and freedom.

Our history is dotted with wars and battles, battles fought by men and women willing to give their life breath for democracy and freedom. We should be so willing. Is not our country worth it? I believe it is. Democracy is the vanguard of freedom, and we are the vanguard of democracy.

Dexters, Birshbach, Schmidt Win Titles in Junior Wrestling Tourney

Four young Campbellsport wrestlers captured titles and another placed 3rd in the Annual (U.S.A. Kids and Cadets National Junior Olympic Wrestling Championships held at the Bismark Civic Center in North Dakota on June 13, 14, and 15.

Campbellsport was represented by six young athletes, who qualified for this event two months ago when they won or placed high in the regional and state tournaments held in Wisconsin.

John and Clint Dexter, Jeff Birshbach, and Ken Schmidt came away with the national titles at 94.5 lbs., 75 lbs., 182.5 lbs., and 65 lbs. respectively which netted them huge U.S.A. Junior Olympic Gold Medals.

John Dexter beat three state champions from Illinois, North Dakota, and Minnesota, en route to winning the gold in freestyle competition. In the finals he disposed of Jeff Lee of Minnesota 10-1 for the Championship.

This was a very gratifying victory for John as Jeff Lee is currently ranked the #1 94.5 lbs. Cadet (15-16 yrs.) in the entire nation by "U.S.A. Wrestler" magazine, and will represent the U.S. at the Cadet World Championship in Canada, later this summer. John completed the "Hat Trick" and is now a time national freestyle champion.

Clint Dexter had a bracket that was loaded with talent. Including himself there were three defending National freestyle champions in the 75 lbs. 12 and under division. Clint pinned defending National Champ Jacob Clark of Minnesota in the opening round.

Through the wrestle back system Clint faced Clark again in the finals and pinned him with one second left on the clock. After falling behind in the match this was an excellent come back and Clint never gave up. He is now a two-time National freestyle champ.

Jeff Birshbach grabbed the title in the Greco-Roman Competition by defeating Carl Lewis of Minnesota in the finals 6-4 at the 182.5 lbs. class for cadets.

Jeff also competed in freestyle wrestling taking a strong 2nd place, losing a tough match to Tim Grasnac of Nebraska in the finals. Jeff did a super job not having any prior national experience.

Ken Schmidt (Campbellsport's Little Guy) took the crown in the 12 and under 65 lbs. class. In the medal round Ken beat Brad Fry from Wisconsin 5-3. In the championship match he pinned Lucas Richardson, the Iowa State Champion. Ken is now a two time National Freestyle Champ.

The two other wrestlers competing were Dusty Lentz 12 and under 80 lbs., and Jon-Paul Wilke Cadet 143 lbs. Dusty placed 3rd in the freestyle competition losing to Troy Schultz 16-1 in the medal round, but then coming back to pin Aaron Gilson to place third. Jon-Paul entered the Greco-Roman competition and gave a good account of himself but was unable to place.

John and Clint Dexter both ended their seasons with perfect records of 58-0, and 56-0 respectively.

The Campbellsport Wrestling Club would like to congratulate all wrestlers on a tremendous season.

Head Coach Markings Cougars future looks extremely bright as the tradition continues.

A big thanks to administrator Joe Bertone for the use of school facilities for practice.

How to Survive a Family Vacation

Cramming Mom, Dad, the kids and perhaps a pet together in a car, camper, cabin or hotel for a two-week vacation will either bring day-to-day tensions to a boil...or draw everyone closer.

The key to a successful vacation is preparation. With adequate planning, you can return home a stronger family - not a carload of bitter enemies.

What can you do? Taking a vacation without preparation is an invitation to disaster. RECOMMENDED: Try a practice run, going away for a weekend. But before you do...

HOLD A COUPLE OF "MOBILE" CONFERENCES TO TROUBLESHOOT.

When you're on the road and have to keep moving, there's nowhere to hide. Airing feelings before the trip can neutralize at least some of the negative impact.

FIRST, DISCUSS PROBLEMS THAT MIGHT COME UP AND WAYS TO SOLVE THEM. Resurrect problems that arose on previous trips, and talk about how they could have been handled better.

Second, BARE YOUR SOULS. Each family member should talk openly about the others' bad habits that drive them crazy. And everybody should talk about ways they can control their own discomfort, boredom and irritability.

Third, GO OVER YOUR ITINERARY. Describe the hotels you'll be staying in and what life will be like. The fewer surprises there are, the less there will be to complain about.

Fourth, NEGOTIATE DIFFERENCES. If Johnny wants to go to Disneyland and Mom and Dad want to see the Museum of Contemporary Art, work it out in advance so there is time for both.

Five, USE A POINT SYSTEM TO ENCOURAGE GOOD BEHAVIOR. Children should list two or three things they each really want to do on this vacation. If they earn enough points, they get that trip to Disneyland. HELPFUL: Keep a chart, and award points at the end of each day.

Six, GIVE TEENAGERS SPECIAL ATTENTION. They may not want to go on a family vacation at all. To win their cooperation, give them the chance to engage in a special hobby or passion. If your daughter loves horseback riding, fit a riding excursion into the trip.

A successful vacation becomes a time when your guard drops and you're able to express things you don't ordinarily share. Closeness develops through seeing each other away from the stresses and strains of home - you're not worried about work, and the kids aren't worried about school.

When the family is at home, members are doing their own things...going to meetings, seeing friends, doing homework etc. A vacation presents the opportunity for shared experiences that you can talk about for years to come.

RECOMMEND: At least one family member should keep a diary. And, have at least one photographer, too. That way, happy memories can be used to draw the family even closer to the future.

Kewaskum Bus Drivers Take First Place in 'Roadeo'

The Kewaskum School Bus drivers again took part in the 3rd annual Johnson Bus Roadeo on June 1. This year there were nine terminals in the competition at West Bend headquarters.

The roadeo competition consists of three parts.

1. A Written Test — Detailing school bus driving laws, policies and procedures as well as regular Wisconsin driving rules.

2. Timed Bus Inspection — The driver is allowed four minutes to find several defects which would be in a bus. They must check lights, mirrors, door, windows, tires, wheels, exhaust systems, interior condition, gauges, brakes, steering, and safety equipment, which they must identify.

3. A Road Obstacle Course —

The driver must display proper driving techniques and they negotiate a road course set up with obstacles such as student crossing, student pick up, railroad crossing, diminishing clearance, cones and curves, as well as backing into a 12 ft. opening between two other buses.

The Kewaskum Team won the 1st place team trophy as well as first and third place in the individual competition.

1st place — Lori Heisler who has been driving 10 years.

3rd place — John Schmidt has been driving 15 years.

The Kewaskum teamed consisted of Lori Heisler, 10 years, John Schmidt, 15 years, Alan Hamann, 1 year, Bob Kirst over 10 years.

Others from Kewaskum include Connie Shulits - 2 years,

Helen Schneider - 3 years and Irene Gnacinski, 9 years.

Kewaskum drivers did a great job - keep up the good work.

After the competition Johnson School Bus celebrated a job well done with a company sponsored picnic.

Elderhostel Program to Be Conducted by Trees for Tomorrow

EAGLE RIVER, WI — Trees For Tomorrow Natural Resources Education Center will be conducting three 6-day Elderhostel programs this summer and fall. The program dates are August 11-17, September 8-14 and September 15-21.

Elderhostel is an educational program for adults who are 60 years of age or older. Inspired by the youth hostels and folk schools of Europe, and guided by the need of older citizens for intellectual stimulation, Elderhostel is for senior citizens on the move; not just in terms of physical movement and travel, but in the sense of reaching out to new experiences.

Elderhostel programs at Trees For Tomorrow focus on natural resource management and the natural history of northern Wisconsin. Programs combine lectures with field investigations.

The August 11-17 program will focus on "Northern Forests: The Trees, The Management, the Products"; and "Wildlife of the Northwoods: An Introduction to Ecology and Management." Participants will learn about multiple use of forest resources as well as wildlife ecology.

The September program weeks will focus on "Autumn in the Northwoods: A Glacial and Ecological Field Study." These two weeks will be repeated by peak fall colors, cranberry production, glacial geology, wildlife ecology, water management and wilderness.

The cost for each program is $260.00 and includes all meals, lodging, and program costs. For more information contact: Gail Pierce, Trees For Tomorrow, P.O. Box 609, Eagle River, WI 54521, (715) 479-6456.

To register directly, or to receive an Elderhostel catalog, contact: Elderhostel, 75 Federal St., 3rd Floor, Boston, MA 02110, (617) 426-8056.

Trees For Tomorrow began in 1944 when a group of nine paper and power companies formed the non-profit organization to reforest vast areas of Wisconsin woodlands which had been over-harvested and neglected. Through the years the Center has developed public education programs emphasizing management and the wise use of natural resources.

The Most Endangered Species: THE AMERICAN FARMER!

Years ago, after the depression, when young men were antsy to leave the farm for the lure of better jobs and better education, fathers said, "Go ahead! After all, you can always farm."

Times have changed. Farmers today are so emasculated by debt, low prices, high production costs, labor shortages and clouded futures, that they tell their children, "If you can do anything else at all, don't farm."

Farms that have been in the family for generations are now on the auction block because no one wants them. Children raised under the constant stress and backbreaking demands of today's farm life are running away from their heritage, traditional backgrounds and even inheritance. Only the most stouthearted sons and daughters are choosing to remain.

I've watched my husband labor through 31 years as a dairy farmer, the most demanding branch of farming there is because of the hours and roller coaster price rides.

I've seen his dismay when his best cow caught her neckchain on a board and strangled. I felt his anguish when a hailstorm stripped the leaves off cornstalks during pollination. I was there when we lost 15 bred heifers when a pack of dogs chased them to the lake, and they were trapped on the breaking ice.

During the drought of 1988, I listened to the weather forecast with him every day.

The most traumatic day of all was when this kind, gentle person who never even yelled at his cows, was reduced to putty on a stretcher in the EMS. His heart had begun racing and would not stop. Today, a pill controls his heart rhythm, but there are no pills for stress.

Why does this farmer do it? For the same reason hundreds of others do. It is his life! The sound of rain in the night on a newly planted cornfield - the smell of new mown alfalfa - the antics of calves as they frolic in the straw - the signs of contented cows as they bed down in freshly bedded stalls - the sight of the first green spear of corn pushing through the ground - the creamy milk swirling in the bulk tank - the shouts of children splashing in the pond after a day of unloading dusty hay bales - the fellowship of neighbors as they pass on the road. It's their life!

Winds of despair...

But it may not be for much longer. If the prevailing winds of despair and helplessness don't change, farmers will give up, as they are doing all across our land.

All a farmer wants is the right to earn a decent living. One of a kind, his breed is slowly being suffocated by the loss of freedom to do what he knows best - produce food of a quantity and quality which is unsurpassed anywhere else on earth.

It is the farmer's heritage. God mandated it way back in Genesis when He said to Adam and Eve, "Behold, I have given you every plant-yielding seed; it shall be food for you; and to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the sky and to everything that moves on the earth which has life, I have given every green plant for food." Genesis 1:29, 30.

What will tomorrow bring? Will it finally pay tribute to those who feed the world? Or will it bring the demise of the farmer, as it has so many once proud creatures of nature whom no one sought to save?

"Mama, what is this building?" asked the little girl.

Her mother replied, "It is a Museum of American History. We are going to see what our ancestors were like."

"Look, Mama. There's a big man standing all alone in an empty field, and there's an old rusty tractor behind him. Who is he?"

The mother read the sign on the exhibit. "The American Farmer, year 2000."

The little girl leaned over the rope for a closer look.

"Mama, the man has tears on his cheeks. Why is he crying?"

County Fair Is A Timeless Affair

A fair is a feast for the senses, like the smell of popcorn, wet wool and pungent barns. It is a kaleidoscope of moving lights and people-watching. It is shrieks of laughter at the carnival and the deep MOOO of a cow. It is the incredible softness of a lamb or a giant stuffed bear. It is water splashing seemingly everywhere. A fair is truly a feast for the senses.

Farmers Union Milk Marketing Co-op Announces New Management Team

The Board of Directors of the Madison based Farmers Union Milk Marketing Cooperative (FUMMC) has announced the appointment of Donald W. Uelmen, 61, as the general manager and James Eichstadt, 37, as assistant general manager, which was effective July 1, 1991.

In making the announcement, Stewart G. Huber, president of the board said, "the new management team is right for FUMMC and right for the 90's. The Cooperative is lucky to have the expertise of two individuals who understand the milk marketing process from the farm gate, through processing and distributing channels right through the Federal Order system's maze of regulations, all the way to the consumers table."

Uelmen will assume the position as general manager after almost forty years of actively participating in milk marketing activities. He still resides on the dairy farm currently operated by his son near Eden, Wisconsin, where he and his wife, Anne, raised seven children. As a young farmer, he became interested in milk marketing and was elected to the Pure Milk Products state board in 1955 and served as its first vice president until it was merged into the AMPI organization in 1971. Before joining FUMMC in 1974, he served on the AMPI corporate board. Uelmen is currently serving as FUMMC assistant general manager and director of marketing and also serves on the board of directors of Bank One Fond du Lac.

Uelmen is quoted as saying "it is my intention to vigorously pursue a course of action that will eventually generate equity for mid-western dairy producers."

Eichstadt was raised on a large family owned farm near Wolsey, South Dakota. He graduated from South Dakota State University with a major in political science. He also studied business administration at Huron College. Prior to becoming FUMMC's communications director he helped manage the family farming operation, served as Young Farmers Program Director at South Dakota Farmers Union and staff editor at Minnesota Farmers Union. Eichstadt currently lives in Deforest, Wisconsin, with his wife Maureen, and two children.

Banned Pesticide Causes Farm Contamination

A pesticide banned 20 years ago has caused a south central Wisconsin dairy farmer to be withheld from marketing milk or animals. The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade & Consumer Protection (DATCP) found dairy cattle had gotten into the insecticide Aldrin causing 50 animals of the 82 cow herd to be quarantined.

"Quick action by the local veterinarian, Dr. James Mlsna of Hillsboro, and by the Animal Health, Food and Agricultural Resource Management divisions of the Department saved cattle and the food supply," said State Veterinarian Dr. Dennis Carr.

Within hours of being alerted by Mlsna, the Department's Toxic Response Team was working hard to identify the cause of the animal sickness and planning methods to detoxify the herd.

Aldrin is an extremely powerful organic chloride pesticide which can stay in an animal's system contaminating meat and dairy products for up to one year. The chloride, or salt-base, was especially attractive to the cattle.

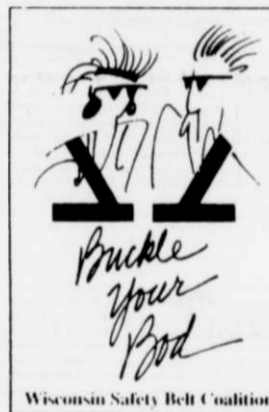

DATCP investigators believe that boards which fell or were blown off a storage barn allowed the animals access to the compound, an illegal pesticide the farmer did not know was even stored on his farm.

Levels of Aldrin in milk can be as high as 0.3 parts per million and still be safe to ship. While 32 cows tested clean, allowing the farmer to continue to ship their milk, 50 other animals had levels ranging up to 64 ppm.

"This is a good example why the Agricultural Clean Sweep Program which was piloted by the Department and is being considered for funding in the current state budget is so crucial for farmers," said Nick Neher, Administrator of the Department's Agricultural Resource Management division. "Hazardous chemicals must be disposed of properly. And farmers need to be diligent in searching their whole farms for illegal or dangerous products. Serious consequences can result for animals, the farm business and even children."

Department officials have proposed special feed treatments in an effort to rid the cows' systems of the insecticide. If effective, the treatment may reduce the quarantined period to six weeks. Food and Animal Health officials will continue to monitor animals and animal products.

ABC All-Stars Place in Grafton Girls Tourney

Participants from the First Annual Area Basketball Camp (ABC) successfully competed in an eight team tournament held at Grafton High School recently. An All-Star Team was selected from area athletes involved in the week long high school girls basketball camp. After completing the round robin portion of the Blackhawk Booster Club Basketball Tournament with the second best record, the ABC All-Star Team eventually lost in the semifinals to the championship team from Division I State Champion Hartland Arrowhead.

Many observers felt that this group of area athletes may well have been the second best team overall in the tourney. The area all-stars qualified for the semis by defeating Grafton, Menomonee Falls and Ozaukee before losing to one of the top programs in the state. Hartland Arrowhead went on to handily defeat Waukesha South in the Championship Finals of the Grafton Girls Basketball Tournament.

Coaches from Kewaskum and Lomira High School conducted this commuter camp at Kewaskum High School for area girls going into 9 thru 12 grades. Upon the completion of the camp on Friday evening, an ABC All-Star team was selected to represent Kewaskum-Lomira in the Grafton Tournament on Saturday, June 29th. As it turned out, not all those selected were available to play on Saturday due to conflicts, such as the Badger State Games conducted in Madison, thus only six All-Stars were eligible to participate.

With the aid of a few fellow campers, the ABC All-Stars proved to be very determined and successfully challenged their much taller and talented opponents from throughout the greater Milwaukee area. The Kewaskum-Lomira Team was comprised of mostly underclass perimeter players. Yet, despite the team's obvious inexperience and limited stature (size), their high finish and overall performance was astounding. The Kewaskum - Lomira Team coached by K.H.S. Alumnus Kristi Lubahn simply outlasted, outrebounded and outplayed most of their larger school competition. Their only setbacks came at the hands of the much taller Hartland Arrowhead Team.

Individually, the All-Stars were led in scoring and rebounding by All-Flyway Conference performer, Julie Benter. But significant contributions were made by the fleet-footed Becky Scheberl and the ever-improving Tammy Schmidt. However, the week's best surprise was the superior play of sophomore Christa Fleischman. This previously unheralded athlete chipped an average of ten points per game on June 29th as well as being named Sportsman of the Week at the basketball camp.

The camp directors were enormously proud of and satisfied with the efforts and attitudes of all the girls involved in this very demanding, humid basketball camp and tournament. At the conclusion of the scheduled camp activities, awards were distributed for winning the individual contests or team tournaments during the week. Special presentations were given to the recipients of the Hustle and Sportsmanship Awards. Participants received medals, trophies and certificates for their achievements and attendance.

Twenty-six area athletes participated nightly in the skill drills, contests and games throughout the week of June 24th - June 28th. The athletes attending this first time venture represented the following area school districts: Campbellsport, Hartford, Kewaskum, Lomira, Mayville and West Bend. However, one very special aspect of this local camp was the participation of Christine Saeglitz, an exchange student from Germany staying with the Roger and Ann Neumann Family of Kewaskum.

Junior, Center, Kewaskum H.S. Also note that an "OPEN GYM" will be held at the Kewaskum H.S. Fieldhouse on Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. on July 11th, 18th, 25th and Aug. 1st.

Education at The County Fair

Fairs are a truly unique location to become educated as well as entertained. Every person who attends the fair has a chance to see, to learn, evaluate or to meet a few old friends. The fair today is as great of an educational device as it was in the beginning. New techniques are demonstrated by 4-Her's, new products are exhibited by commercial exhibitors and judges explain what a quality product is.

As the fair changes to meet the needs of the community, the people and the individual, it will continue to function for the people it represents.

Indian Errors Costly In Loss to Campbellsport

By Statesman Sports Writer

CAMPBELLSPORT — The good news was that it was only a non-conference game, but the bad news was — that — the Kewaskum baseball team continued a disturbing trend that has seen them slip somewhat defensively the past few games.

This time, the errors came back to haunt the Indians, as they committed four, compared to none for Campbellsport, and that led to the difference in last Wednesday's 4-2 Indian loss to the Cougars.

Beginning with a game against Plymouth a couple of weeks back in which the Indians committed seven errors, Kewaskum has continued to struggle in the field a bit. So after riding a wave of errors by their opponents early in the season, the Indians now have to overcome their own miscues in order to keep alive their chances in both Eastern Wisconsin action, as well as post-regular season play.

The Indians surely had their troubles against the Cougars, as a pair of Indians' errors led to Campbellsport's first run in the bottom of the first. Brian Schill reached on an error to start things, and after advancing to second on a bunt, he scored on another error by the Indian infield.

Kewaskum answered right back with a run in the second, though. Aaron Rettler led off with a walk. Jim Rix advanced him to second with a sacrifice bunt, and Dave Bowser brought Rettler around with a single up the middle.

The Indians added another run in the third, as Randy Schlice continued his hot hitting with a triple to open the inning. The Indians then were going to attempt a suicide squeeze play, but it turned out that the Cougar pitcher had balked, and Schlice wound up scoring on the play.

Indian starter Chad Cook ran into some trouble in the third. The game marked the return of Cook, who severely injured his shoulder in the season-opening tournament in Germantown. Cook looked very good on the mound, but gave up his only earned run in the third.

Cook gave up three singles in the inning, scoring a run, but got out of further trouble with an inning-ending double play. That was all the scoring that the Cougars would do off of Cook, who pitched four innings and struck out five.

The Cougars won the game in the bottom of the sixth, with the help once again of an Indian error. Bill Kertscher led off with a walk, and the next batter, Bill Lackas, reached on the error, putting runners on first and second. Cook's replacement on the mound, Doug Buechel then uncorked a wild pitch, putting runners on second and third.

Dennis Doyle followed with a single, scoring Kertscher and putting runners at the corners. With the next batter up, the

XYZ CLUB SKAT RESULTS

The winners at skat played by the XYZ Senior Citizens at the Municipal Building on Wednesday, July 3, were: Joe Miller, 26-8—18 net; Frank Sell, 18-3—15 net; Allen Reindl, 17-3—14 net.

Cougars tried to pull off what probably was a double steal, so the Indian catcher threw a third base, hoping to catch Lackas off the bag, but his throw ended up in left field, and Lackas roared home.

The loss left the Indians 13-8 overall, while Campbellsport improved to 10-7 on the year.

Athletics Send 5 To All-Star Game

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — While they currently sit in second place behind Slinger in the Rock River Baseball League Northern Division standings, the Kewaskum Athletics may have the most talent in the division at least by way of all-star players.

The Athletics will send five players to the league's all-star game, the most from any team in the league, and the team has a valid argument that six players from the team should have been selected for the game, which will be played in Hustisford, Wednesday, July 17, beginning at 8 p.m.

The Athletics will be represented by designated hitter and manager Doug Gonring, who is batting a hefty .432, including four home runs and 21 runs batted in; shortstop Dave Donath, who is having one of his best seasons, hitting .432; third baseman Terry Koth, batting .341; outfielder Barry Wenzlaff, whose .333 average includes five homers; and Tim Heberer, a left-handed pitcher who is once again having a very steady season.

A sixth Athletic, second-baseman/outfielder Mark Schlosser, is also having a fine season. Leading off for the team Schlosser has drawn a total of 12 walks, and is batting close to .400 on the year, but he was passed up in the balloting.

With a 7-2 mark thus far in the Rock River campaign, the Athletics have a host of home games coming up for the rest of the season. The Athletics play on Sunday afternoons at the ball diamond behind the elementary school, beginning usually at 1:30.

Indians Sweep Two Rivers

By Statesman Sports Writer
KEWASKUM — Getting some fine performances from its starting pitchers, the Kewaskum Indians temporarily regained first place in the Eastern Wisconsin baseball race after sweeping Two Rivers in a doubleheader.

Indians ace Shawn Schneider scattered six hits and struck out eight Raider batters as he pitched the Indians to a 7-4 win in the opening game. Sophomore Matt Schlosser fared even better in the second game, flirting with a no-hitter for five and a third innings, before settling with a four-hitter and a 4-1 victory.

The Indians fell behind early in the first game, as the visitors broke through for a pair of runs in the first, and then added another in the second to lead Kewaskum 3-1 after two.

But that's when the Indian bats came alive, and the hosts proceeded to bang out 13 hits in the game, four in the bottom of the third when they pushed three runners across the plate.

Randy Schlice, Kim Marx and Dave Pauers each singled, and then Brad Weinreich followed with a big double to account for the scoring.

Helped by a couple of Two Rivers errors, the Indians tallied single runs in each of the next three innings, while all the Raiders could muster was an unearned run in the top of the sixth.

Pauers, Schlice and Weinreich each ended up with a pair of hits for Kewaskum, while Jason Krahn had a big game, coming up with three base raps, including a pair of doubles.

In the nightcap, Schlosser was brilliant, as he did not allow a single Two Rivers runner until the fifth, when a Raider batter reached on an error. Schlosser immediately lost the no-hitter, as the next batter singled. Schlosser got out of the inning though without allowing a run.

The Indian batters didn't give the soph righthander much support though. For the game, the Indians came up with just three hits and were actually out-hit by the Raiders. But all three hits came in the third and fourth innings, and accounted for three runs.

In the third, Todd Muckerheide got aboard on an error, one of three Raider miscues in the game, and eventually came around to score on a double by Aaron Rettler. In the fourth, Pauers singled, scoring Krahn from second base, and Schneider followed with a double to put men on second and third with one out. Muckerheide then hit a fly ball deep enough to score Pauers, making the score 3-0.

After an unearned run in the bottom of the sixth made it 4-0, Schlosser lost his bid for a shutout in the seventh after giving up a pair of hits, a walk and an Indian error. But he got out of the jam by getting Brian Duvane to ground into a game-ending double play.

The win left the Indians at 10-4 in the EW, ahead of both Plymouth (9-4) and New Holstein (8-4).

Late Surge Propels Indians Past Chilton

By Statesman Sports Writer
KEWASKUM — A rally that started with two outs ended with a grand slam home run by Jason Krahn, and that was all it took to wake up the Kewaskum offense here, last Tuesday.

Krahn's blast capped off a five-run fourth inning and was the high point of the Indians' 11-6 win over Chilton, allowing the Indians to maintain their slimhold on first place in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

The win left the Indians with a 11-6 record in the EW, ahead of both Plymouth (10-4) and New Holstein (9-4).

The Indians seemed to sleepwalk through the first couple of innings against the Tigers, who they had already easily handled twice this season.

Indian starter Shawn Schneider gave up two runs in the opening inning, and allowed another single run in the third, as the Tigers took a 3-0 lead.

Kewaskum came back with a single run in the third, making it 3-1, and then, after shutting down Chilton in the fourth, the Indian offense kicked into high gear.

With two down in the bottom of the fourth, Aaron Rettler started the rally with a triple.

Scott Donath then walked, putting runners at the corners, and Randy Schlice followed with a single, making it 3-2 Chilton. After Kim Marx drew another walk to load the bases, Krahn launched an offering over the right field fence, giving the Indians their first lead at 6-3.

After Chilton answered with a run in the top of the fifth, the Indians kept right on ripping, as Brad Weinreich opened things with a triple. Todd Muckerheide, Donath and Schlice each followed with doubles, as the Indians brought across three more runners, making it 9-4.

Schneider, meanwhile, settled down on the mound for the Indians, as he wound up giving up just five hits, while striking out five and walking four before being removed in the top of the seventh. Although it wasn't an overpowering performance by the junior righthander, it was enough to notch him his seventh win of the year in conference, against just one loss. The same record last season earned Schneider a spot on the all-conference team.

The Indians finished with ten hits in the contest, including three by Schlice and two by Muckerheide. The Indians did, however, commit four errors.

Fall Sports Screening for High School Athletes July 13

The Sports Medicine Clinic at the General Clinic is offering student athletes a free health and fitness screening in preparation for fall sports.

All young men and women high school athletes from Washington County are invited to the free Fall Sports Screening to be held Saturday, July 13 beginning at 8 a.m. and continuing until all athletes are seen. The Sports Screening will be held at the General Clinic West Bend, 205 Valley Ave.

According to Dr. Frank McCann, one of four General Clinic physicians with special training in Sports Medicine, the Sports Screening will help detect joint abnormalities, and will test basic strength and performance levels. The screening is specially tailored to fall sports, including football, soccer, cross country and volleyball, tennis and swimming.

"As part of our commitment to 'Caring for your health,' the General Clinic is offering continuing pre-season evaluations for our high school youth," he said. "Each athlete will go through eight stations, including a health history interview, checks of individual joints such as knee, shoulder, ankle, hip and back, as well as gait and endurance tests."

Dr. McCann said the purpose of the screening is to help detect potential problems for the prevention of injury. He said the screening also helps athletes plan their pre-season training based on information about their strength and performance levels.

The screening will be conducted by General Clinic physicians, athletic trainer and physical therapists. The General Clinic Sports Medicine staff includes Dr. McCann, Dr. Ken Zollo, Dr. Kent Braunschweiger, Dr. Jerry Beerends, Certified Athletic Trainer Eileen Belongea and Physical Therapists Jennifer Gerhartz and Mark Herbert.

Students are being asked to pre-register by calling 338-7107 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. prior to the screening day.

Athletes should bring athletic shorts or a swim suit to wear for the screening, which will take place in the Lower Level of the General Clinic at 205 Valley Ave.

For convenience, participants may park in the Lower Level parking lot. Signs will be posted.

Dr. McCann said that each athlete should plan on about a 45 minute visit. He said that each student will be contacted with the results of his or her screening.

The free Fall Sports Screening is sponsored by the General Clinic Sports Medicine Clinic in conjunction with high school athletic departments.
