New Village Job Study Means Hefty Raises for Three Employees

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Former Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo, Monday night, loudly and adamantly opposed the Kewaskum Village Board's decision to give three of its management and administrative employees substantial salary adjustments for 1991. The positions affected are the administrator, chief of police and deputy clerk/treasurer. The remaining two positions, director of public works and library director, were recently filled with new personnel at current schedule salaries.

In arriving at the salary increases for the three jobs, the board used its recently completed job study as a guide in determining the employees' placement on the wage schedule scale. That same job study will be used in determining all village employees' wages in the future. Overall implementation of the study, which took into consideration all seventeen regular village employees, is expected to take five years. A total of twelve similar communities, as well as local employers and other data sources were used in the development of that study, which was done by an outside company.

Approved was the village administrator's salary which will increase from $34,090 to $40,472, a 19.6 percent or $6,702 increase, police chief from $28,722 to $32,566, 13.4 percent or $3,844 increase, and deputy clerk/treasurer $17,125 to $18,912 a 10.4 percent or $1,787 rise.

Trustee Gary Gavin, who cast one of the opposing votes, told fellow trustees he always was and still is opposed to the job study. With negotiations with the union coming up, Gavin did not feel now was the time to use the job study and hand out these kinds of raises. "I'm not saying these people are not doing a fine job, they are, and they do deserve a raise, I don't think the amount is just at this time," stated Gavin.

"According to the study," replied Trustee Robert Wagner, "these people were underpaid." "I guess if you want to believe the study," countered Gavin. "It (the job study) was voted on and accepted," said Trustee Bob Beisbier. "It was voted on but not a unanimous vote," stated board president Mary Krueger. "I never voted for it, I never wanted it, I did not want the first one when I was here, I voted against it and I did not want this one." "I agree, I think these people all deserve a raise," said Krueger. "I'm not saying they don't, but I can't vote for that big a raise either." "I believe this study, and the study before, show these people were underpaid," said Wagner.

Bilgo told the board, even though he was no longer a village employee, that he would like to respond to the study. "When we were here that first night we disputed that study." There was a dispute between the wages from neighboring communities that were presented. "I don't know if the consultants were ever asked to come up and say, well hey, this is the substantiated figures but there is a discrepancy." "As far as I'm concerned, this whole deal was cooked and dried, Pete Albers and I got nothing. In other words they were telling us we were getting too much." (According to the study's wage comparisons, the salaries of the Public Works and Wastewater Pollution Control Superintendents were slightly higher than in the communities contacted.)

"They come to evaluate people with neckties and badges and the likes, but not the guy with the workpants and the dirty shoes," said Bilgo.

Donald Ehnert asked the board, "how can you ask a stranger to evaluate what everybody's doing and some people get raises and other people get nothing."

Krueger told Ehnert what he was saying was not correct. "I did not want the study, but the study did not look at a man 'as such.'" "It could have been Joe Blow, administrator and John Smith who was police chief. They did not evaluate that man's performance, that is not what it was, that was left up to this board. All that study was supposed to tell you was, this is what a man is supposed to do, who the heck ever it was that did it. Then this board, or the board before and after it, is supposed to say, he's worth 'X' amount which is the minimum, this the mid-point and this is the maximum. They never said, look at this as the 'person' doing the job, do you get what I mean? That's the way this kind of a study is done. There were a lot of people on the board who wanted this study or it wouldn't have gone through. It's over and done with and now it's up to us to decide how we're going to do it," said Krueger. Gavin backed up her comments.

Bilgo told the board they hired a new man to replace him who is making $800-$900 less than he at retirement. Krueger noted that the position is now different. It is no longer Superintendent of Public Works, it is Director of Public Works and he oversees the operation of both the Public Works and Wastewater Pollution Control Departments.

In referring to the police chief's raise, Trustee Tom McElhatton told fellow board members, "I don't think $13.57 an hour is too much to pay a man for that job."

The motion, by Wagner, seconded by Trustee Mark Vechart, to approve the raises passed 5-2 with McElhatton, Larry Williams, Vechart, Wagner and Beisbier voting 'yes' and Gavin and Krueger voting 'no.'

Non-Resident Garbage Dumpers Being Caught Village Passes Tobacco Ordinance

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board has unanimously approved the establishment of a new ordinance to help regulate the illegal use of tobacco products in non-smoking areas within the village.

The ordinance came about as the result of a request from the new Kewaskum High School principal, Charles Heidner. Heidner, who was present at the board's meeting Monday night, thanked the trustees for their cooperation, telling them "this will help us enforce the state law which prohibits the use of tobacco products on school property, it will give us another tool in our efforts."

The new ordinance will take effect upon its publication according to Kewaskum Police Chief Richard Knoebel. While it was created mainly to eliminate smoking at the schools, it can be enforced for violators throughout the village. Anyone found using any tobacco product in a restricted area will receive a verbal warning. A second violation will result in a written warning. A third violation will result in a $55 fine for students and a $103 fine for adults.

If the subsequent fines are not paid, the police can confiscate the individual's drivers license and hold it until the fines are paid.

In other business the board approved the hiring of Brad Rodenkirch as a general maintenance worker at a wage of $7.19 per hour. A total of 86 applications for the job were received by the village.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt informed the board that the village is again having problems with non-residents dumping off their garbage within the village limits. Dumpsters of local businesses seem to be the main target of the illegal dumping.

Schmidt said bills are being sent out to the people who are caught. "One party received a bill for $125," said Schmidt. Trustee Tom McElhatton asked how the village could determine who the culprits were. "We go through the garbage," said Knoebel, "and there's always something in it to tell us where it came from, that's how we knew where to send the bill for $125."

In other action the board gave Schmidt authorization to advertise for bids for the lease/purchase of a new front-end loader.

A report from Summer Recreation program director Butch Budenhagen showed there was a 14 percent increase in pool attendance over last year. Total attendance for 1991 was 9,684 as compared to 8,504 in 1990. Daily average attendance for the season was 116.6. There was an enrollment of 261 students in the swimming program and 43 enrolled in the tennis program.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles advised the board that the 1991 phase of the sidewalk program is almost complete except for the cleanup and seeding work. All work is to be completed by the Sept. 30th contract deadline.

Robin Bechler Named Commended Student in 1992 Merit Program

The principal, Chuck Heidner of Kewaskum High School, has announced that Robin Bechler has been named a Commended Student in the National Merit Scholarship Program. A Letter of Commendation from National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC), which conducts the program, will be presented by the school to this outstanding senior.

About 35,000 Commended Students throughout the nation are being honored for their outstanding performance on the 1990 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which was the route of entry to the 1992 Merit Program. Commended Students have shown exceptional academic promise by placing among the top five percent of more than one million program entrants, but their qualifying test scores are slightly below the level required to continue in the 1992 competition for Merit Scholarships.

An officer of NMSC stated, "The high performance of the young people honored as Commended Students in the Merit Program is indicative of outstanding scholastic ability. We hope that recognition of these students will increase their motivation to make the best use of their talents and to develop skills that our nation will need in the future. Being named a Commended Student in this keen competition is a credit to these young men and women as well as to their schools, which play a key role in their development."

United Way Drive Doing Well

Only two weeks into the 1991 Campaign, United Way officials are pleased with results to date.

"As of this week, we're at 24 percent of our $710,000 goal," said Tom Kieckhafer, Campaign Chairman. This represents $168,071 in gifts and pledges.

"Strong efforts to date are reflected by nine divisions: Contractors - 39 percent of their goal; Retail - 43 percent; Commercial - 56 percent; Transportation - 44 percent; Finance - 34 percent; City of West Bend and County employees - 43 percent; Special Gifts from Retirees - 32 percent; Allenton - 47 percent; and Jackson - 45 percent," he said.

Other divisions with good results to date are: Key Firms, Professionals, Kewaskum, Slinger and Hartford.

"The next Cabinet Report meeting is on October 2," said Kieckhafer. "Using last year's successful campaign as a benchmark, we'd like to be at 40 percent overall by then."

The "Sharing is Caring" Campaign continues through October 31 and will benefit 28 agencies serving residents in nine communities throughout Washington County.

Four Others Injured

Fond du Lac Woman Killed in Van/ Train Accident at Campbellsport

Investigation is continuing into the van-train accident in Campbellsport that claimed the life of a 34-year-old Fond du Lac woman and sent four others to hospitals.

Cindy L. Scheerer, 185 1/2 N. Hickory St., Fond du Lac, was pronounced dead at the scene shortly after 3 p.m. Saturday.

Vicki K. Scheerer, 33, of 375 Russell St., Fond du Lac, the driver of the van, was listed in stable condition Monday at Milwaukee County Medical Complex. The two women were sisters, authorities said.

The van was struck as it crossed the railroad tracks eastbound at West Main Street and Railroad Avenue in downtown Campbellsport.

Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department investigators have determined that the railroad crossing lights were operating at the time of the accident. They have taken several pictures of the scene, including photos of an advertising sign that some believe may have obscured the van driver's view of the train.

Also injured in the accident were Tammy Bunkelman, 11, and Crystal Bunkelman, 9, both of 375 Russell St., Fond du Lac. Crystal was listed in serious but stable condition at St. Agnes Hospital's intensive care unit. Tammy was listed in good condition.

A fifth passenger, Kelly G.

Scheerer 13, of 185 1/2 N. Hickory St., was taken to Mercy Medical Center at Oshkosh with a head injury. Her condition was listed as critical.

Pictures are worth a thousand words — and prizes valued over $500, according to a spokesperson for the Washington County Tourism Council.

The pictures referred to are the winners of the Photo Contest sponsored by the Washington County Tourism Council. The WCTC is seeking special moments captured on film photographed in Washington County. The contest, open to non-residents alike, will run till October 1, 1991. Winning photographers will receive prizes and their photos will be used in publications such as the Washington County Visitor Guide. The guide is distributed throughout Wisconsin and the Midwest.

Some of the prizes to be awarded are a leather camera bag from W.B. Place & Company, valued at over $100; Limited Edition Steins from Legacy of Wisconsin, valued at $37.95 each; wallets from Enger Kress valued at $25.00 each; $50 savings bonds from M & I First National Bank and Bank of One, West Bend; a choice of items from West Bend Savings Bank; a McDonald's Soccer Ball valued at $25; and gift certificates from Heide's, Eagle Creek Outfitters, Art's One Hour, McDonalds and Timmer's Resort. Additional prizes will be announced at a later date.

Entry blanks are available from county Chambers of Commerce, photo shops and tourism-related businesses, and are published each week in the Washington County Post, co-sponsored of the photo contest.

Photos will be judged in four categories: 1) Scenery & Nature, 2) People in Action, 3) Places of Interest, and 4) Images from the Past. A spokesperson for the WCTC indicated that to date, the majority of the photos submitted are in the Scenery & Nature category. The Council encourages people to submit photos in the other three categories to help present a total picture of what is available in Washington County. The "People in Action" category, for example, could include participation in the many sports and outdoor opportunities such as fishing, hunting, swimming, water skiing, boating, hiking, biking, picnicking, and team activities, plus the full range of winter sports and activities. In Washington County, Holy Hill is the image most frequently brought to mind in the "Places of Interest" category. But our county contains many beautiful natural spots, an art gallery, and the museum, quaint shops, and the spot special to the photographer. History is a long suit in Washington County and we are fortunate to see the preservation of many ancestral buildings which lend themselves to photographic opportunities.

The WCTC invites all amateur photographers to every event and drive through the county, and submit potential prize-winning snapshots in the contest. The deadline for this year's contest is October 1. Photographers are also invited to "plan ahead" by taking photos throughout the coming year to enter the next year's contest.

The Washington County Tourism Council is an organization of people and businesses interested in promoting the area as a place to visit. The Council believes that Washington County possesses beautiful scenery, a multitude of recreational opportunities, excellent lodging and dining, and wonderful community events. Businesses and individuals that are in agreement with the WCTC are invited to become involved with the Council and should call Mary Kay Thoma, President, at 334-5636.

Sentry's Scanner Guarantee Right On the Money

MILWAUKEE, WI — Starting Friday, Sept. 13, if Sentry Foods shoppers find a price read by a bar code checkout scanner that doesn't match the shelf price, the shopper gets the product for free.

Scanner accuracy has long been a point of consumer concern, particularly in the grocery industry. Fueled by ongoing media coverage of scanning system malfunction, consumers fear they are not being charged correctly. Sentry Foods has taken an aggressive step to instill consumer confidence called the "Sentry Scanning Guarantee."

"Shoppers can be confident that their receipt will match what they saw on the shelves, even with sale items," says Ron Lusic executive vice president of the Godfrey Company, based in Waukesha — Sentry's parent organization. "It's very important to us to earn and keep the consumer's trust. So as part of our ongoing effort to provide better customer service, we're willing to back up our commitment with a guarantee of a full refund on mis-priced items."

The policy applies to everything sold in the store except manufacturer pre-priced items,

Volunteering Opportunities

Now that the children are back in school are you finding yourself with time on your hands? Why not give volunteering a try? There are many places where you are needed and someone would benefit from your help. Give us a call at the Volunteer Center, 338-8256. We'll find the right place for you. Some volunteer opportunities are listed below; We have others not listed here.

Drivers - There are always transportation needs! We are currently in need of a driver to pick up an older adult at her home in West Bend and drive her to an adult day care center also in West Bend. The times for this are on Monday from 8:15 - 8:30 a.m. and again at 3:30 - 3:45 p.m.

A driver is needed to pick up lunches at the Sr. Center in West Bend and deliver them to an adult day care center. Pick up is at 11:30. This is on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday. Can you help with this one day a week or more? Let us hear from you.

Rummage Sale Helper - This is working with a group of volunteers who sort, price and display donations which will be sold at a monthly rummage sale. Volunteers can also be involved in a baking group.

Do you know how to operate a loom? A West Bend agency has an 8 harness floor loom and needs a volunteer to instruct a group of senior citizens and staff on how to use it. This is for 1 hour once a week. The hours are flexible between 9 to 11 a.m. or 1 to 3 p.m.

Chess Player - Would you like to make an older man's hours more enjoyable. Come to the adult day care center a couple hours a week and play a game of chess with him. Bring your own chess set. Hours are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. or 1 to 3 p.m.

Is your group or club looking for service projects or activities? How about doing a weekend program at a West Bend nursing home. This could include a movie, card game, board games, singing, discussion groups, etc.

Tour Guide - To take people on guided tours of a local historical museum explaining different historical items. This is on Tuesday and Thursday from 1 to 4 p.m. and the second Sunday of each month.

Small Group Leader - This is an opportunity to use your talents and make life brighter for nursing home residents. We are looking for someone to lead a discussion group, share musical talents, read poems, do simple crafts, etc. If you enjoy sharing time with the elderly we would love to hear from you. This could be done any weekday morning.

Colgate Area - Why not be a friendly visitor and spend some time with an older gentleman who is confined to a wheel chair. He would love to have someone to chat with and you would make his day brighter. This could be done at a time that is convenient to the volunteer.

Meal Delivery People - To pick up meals at the Washington County Senior Center and deliver them to homes and apartments in the West Bend area. This is for approximately one and a half hours a day one day a week at noon time. Just one noon a week from you will make someone elses' life a lot more pleasant. This is a much needed service!

Design and make a banner for Big Brothers/Big Sisters to use at public functions. There are examples of other banners to stimulate ideas and use of materials. Banner should be completed by December 31, 1991. This job would be good for several people who like to work together.

Sr. Citizen Recreation Card Sales End Dec. 31

Hunters, anglers and park users over age 65 have only a few more months to cash in on one of the better recreational values available today. According to Joy Stewart of the Department of Natural Resources Office of Budget and Management, provisions in the recently approved state budget will end the sale of Senior Citizen Recreation Cards after December 31, 1991.

"It's really a response to the state's changing population patterns," Stewart says. "Our 65-and-over population here in Wisconsin is growing twice as fast as the general population. The fact that senior citizens haven't had to buy licenses, stamps or park stickers was creating a significant shortfall in our funding for conservation programs."

For a one-time $15 fee, Stewart says, the Senior Citizen Recreation Card allows the holder to hunt small game, fish Wisconsin's inland and Great Lakes waters, and make use of the state's park and trail system without buying annual licenses, stamps, stickers or permits. By not collecting specifically for hunting and fishing licenses, Stewart says the state loses $500,000 a year in federal fish and wildlife restoration aid.

"We'll still be offering significant discounts on annual licenses issued to senior citizens," Stewart explains, "that are often below half price. The fact that they're being sold as licenses will simply allow the state to benefit from the federal aids available. At the same time, the annual license fees paid by seniors will help us keep license costs down for everyone."

Stewart says Senior Citizen Recreation Cards will remain available for purchase through December 31. All those who own the cards will enjoy Senior Citizen Recreation Card benefits for as long as they live.

Starting on January 1, 1992, seniors who did not purchase the card and people who reach age 65 after January 1, will need to purchase annual licenses, permits and stickers at the discounted senior citizens' rates. Stewart says stamps for inland trout, Great Lakes trout and salmon, and waterfowl and turkey hunting will not be discounted.

Cable Cares for Jerry's Kids

Star Cablevision participates in the fund raising campaign for the Muscular Dystrophy Association on a corporate wide basis every August. Star Cablevision raised more than $34,000.00 during its annual Cable Cares campaign for Jerry's Kids in conjunction with the Jerry Lewis Labor Day telethon. Fund-raising events included Bowl-a-Thons, a Golf Classic, K-9 Walk and free connections to any cable service with a ten dollar donation to MDA. MDA is making tremendous breakthroughs in the fight against muscular disease through intensive research that will lead to cures. Recently, the same MDA-funded research team that discovered the Duchene gene succeeded in identifying the protein that is missing in boys who have this fatal disorder.

The MDA Research Program is worldwide, with grants and fellowships awarded to physicians and scientists in hospitals and universities in the U.S. and abroad who are seeking the causes, treatments and cures for the 40 neuromuscular disorders covered by MDA programs.

Locally, Star Cablevision raised $1,150.00 for MDA. The local West Bend office serves 9,200 customers in the communities of West Bend, Jackson, Kewaskum, and the Towns of Allenton, Barton, Farmington, Trenton, Polk, and West Bend.

Dundee Mill Park Welcomes Pony Express

The Pony Express will ride at the fall festival Sat., Sept. 28 at 2:00 p.m. The 2nd Open House (11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.) will have its own version of the original Pony Express created in 1860.

A series of buck-skin clad riders will rival some of the very famous original daring riders like "Buffalo Bill" Cody and "Wild Bill" Hickok. Our riders will carry a mail bag filled with five pounds of special 2nd Open House Dundee mail.

Post cards for those wanting to send mail and have a chance to win a pony prize will be available at Din's Mini Mart, Sam's Short Stop, Merrilore Market, Bohlman's Bar, Leo and Joanne's Kettleaire, Granny's and Benson's Hiway. The cards will cost $1 each. Even if you are not present, your special mail will be carried by the Pony Express riders.

The original route of the first U.S. mail service was from St. Joe, Missouri to Sacramento, California through Indian territories and wilderness; ours will traverse the Dundee and mill park area.

One of the stops will be at Dundee's original (1850) post office run by A. Lardst, the site of the present Bohlman Bar. Make sure you have the opportunity to see the re-creation of the event that fostered the slogan "the mail must go through." Thank you Darcy Salm and your pony riders.

Other events will include the return of the turbine, antique farm machinery; fall harvest goodies; the BIG tent; area musicians Chuck's Family Three, Syl Volm's Polka Dots, and "Vern"

Grapevine baskets, wreaths, over the door garlands and swags, dried arrangements and some house plants will also be available at the sale. If you are interested in making floral arrangements, but have never tried, volunteers will be on hand to help with the selection of materials and instructions. Ione Stodola, one of the volunteers, will give a lecture on methods of collecting and drying flowers at 10:30 a.m.

Lac Lawrann volunteers have been busy collecting and drying plants for this sale all summer. Proceeds from the sale will be used for the conservancy which offers free environmental tours to the general public and school groups. The conservancy, which encompasses more than 100 acres of Kettle Moraine ponds and eskers, is named for Lawrence and Ann Maurin, who donated the original 20 acres in 1980.

Buettner, Stitt Propose Bill to Restore TIF

MADISON... State Senators Carol Buettner (R-Oshkosh) and Don Stitt (R-Port Washington) announced on September 18th, they will introduce legislation to reinstate funding, recently vetoed in the state budget, on state tax incremental financing (TIF) aid. This veto cut $36.8 million in school district TIF appropriations. Both Buettner and Stitt stated that it was necessary for the Legislature to act quickly to restore this money.

Buettner said that TIF districts are the strongest economic development tool available to many local governments. "Without restoring TIF supplemental aid to schools, we will severely hamper the ability of municipalities to use TIF to expand their economic base." She went on to say that, in addition to the economic impact loss TIF would have to communities, school districts are hard hit. "In my district, some school districts will lose upwards of $600,000 annually."

Stitt stated that schools have no way to recoup this lost revenue, short of increasing the local tax levy and "that's something no one wants to do." He added that increasing the local levy to cover the difference might give legislators the mistaken impression that districts do not need state TIF dollars. "Wisconsin has made a commitment to local districts to cover this appropriation and we need to keep our word and fund TIF at a state level," Stitt said.

The Governor has stated that he will support adding the TIF monies in a budget adjustment appropriation in January, but both Buettner and Stitt said that something should be done as soon as the Legislature reconvenes in October. "Without a statutory funding guarantee, local districts have no way of knowing if the money will be there and it's difficult to bank on a promise," Buettner said.

According to the Legislative Fiscal Bureau, 1990-91 supplemental TIF aid payments to local school districts were as follows: Fond du Lac - $376,882; Oshkosh - $620,469; West Bend - $351,183; Kewaskum - $51,017; Sheboygan - $110,192; Northern Ozaukee - $21,800; Neenah - $414,612; Menasha - $63,881.

A local yokel says these vegies are "no small potatoes." They weighed 2 lb., 2 1/4 lb. and 3 1/4 lb. In comparison to the hand, you can see how huge the potatoes are. Bob Becker Photo

Workshop for Small Business to Be Held at UWWC

"How can I understand the 'Financial Picture' of my business?" is a question to be addressed in the next seminar for small business owner/operators, sponsored by UW-Extension.

October 2-23, at the University Center in West Bend, a four-session seminar on "Financial Management" for non-financial managers will be held from 7 to 9:30 p.m. The seminar will take the participants through the "nuts and bolts" of developing a financial plan for the small business.

Other questions to be dealt with include "How do you sense the financial problems before they become overwhelming? What basic documents do I need to do financial planning? And what critical decisions will I have to make to keep my business healthy? Other topics include initial tax planning and computerization of the business, setting up and using Journals and Ledgers and developing a healthy cash flow.

Leading the discussion will be Larry Ehren, a self-employed tax accountant who prepares income tax returns, quarterly reports, and personal financial plans for approximately 600 individuals and small businesses in the Washington County area. Most of these businesses are small, owner-operated firms with few or no employees.

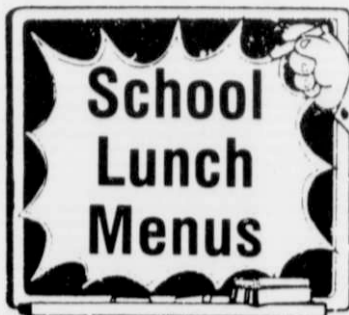

As part of this work, Larry and his wife Lynn, both hold Real Estate Broker licenses, life insurance licenses, and stock broker licenses and own and operate a real estate development firm. Having put four children through private colleges, they also offer a counseling service for parents applying for financial aid.

Larry has a degree in mathematics from Marquette University and has done extensive work in the graduate business programs there.

Pre-registration is required because attendance is limited. The class will meet on four consecutive Wednesday evenings with a fee of $63.00. For more information, or to receive a free brochure, please call Chuck Wise at 335-5204.

Postmaster Harry Koch announced this week that groundbreaking ceremonies at Kewaskum's new post office site on Main Street will be held Saturday Oct. 1, at 2:30 p.m. Congressman John Race and post office officials will attend the ceremonies and there will be other participants in the program.

Walter Meilahn, 67, a retired cheesemaker and farmer and resident of Kewaskum for the past 42 years passed away Friday, Sept. 16, after a lingering illness. Mr. Meilahn was a resident of Cascade until coming to Kewaskum as a cheesemaker 42 years ago. At that time he was employed at the Kewaskum Dairy and also managed their plant at Tomah for sometime.

George Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Martin, junior end on the Kewaskum High School football team, suffered a fracture of the left leg in the Indians' game at Campbellsport Friday night. George suffered the injury when he was tackled and the tackler fell on the leg. He was hospitalized from Friday night until Monday and will be lost to the team for the rest of the season.

Richard Wietor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cy Wietor and Gary Gruendeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gruendeman, are attending Peoria Barber College at Peoria, Ill. Both are 1966 graduates of Kewaskum High School.

Birth - A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hoepner, R.2, Kewaskum, Monday, Sept. 19.

Sept. 26, 1941

William Gessner, aged 25 years, six months and eight days, of R. 1, Kewaskum, son of Mrs. Emil Gessner, with whom he resided and helped operate their farm, was instantly killed at 6:45 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 25, in an automobile-truck collision on County Trunk G, about three quarters of a mile north of Gessner's home. Gessner was the second Kewaskum young man killed in a highway accident in a week. The accident in which Gessner was involved occurred when his car collided with a milk truck owned by Adolph Heberer and Son, operators of the cheese factory at New Fane. The truck was driven by Arthur Heberer, an employe. Coroner A. Florian said that death resulted from a crushed skull. Both legs and both arms were also broken. The accident occurred on a blind curve. The Gessner car was going southwest and the truck northeast. The machines sideswiped and the left side of the Gessner auto ran head-on into the stake body of the heavy truck. The car struck the corner of the truck with such a terrific impact the car's body was shoved back so Gessner was pinned in the front seat of the wreckage. Heberer was uninjured.

Last Dance of the season at Goring's Resort, this Sunday. Music by Pep Babler and his orchestra. Admission only 30c.

Sept. 23, 1916

Carl Heise, a former resident of the Town of Scott, but for the past two years a resident of West Bend, was found dead in his bed at his home Thursday morning, the cause being Apoplexy. Although Mr. Heise had been seriously ill during the summer months, he apparently was in very good health. He worked all day Wednesday and had not complained of being ill when he retired for the night.

At the St. Michaels Church last Tuesday morning a very pretty wedding was solemnized when Miss Elsie Laatsch of Boltonville and Nicholas Laubach of New Fane were joined in wedlock by Rev. Lauer of Allenton. The bride was attended by her sister Alma Laatsch as maid of honor. Miss Daisy Greiger of Kohler was the bridesmaid. The misses Susan and Kathryn Laubach, sisters of the groom were flower girls. The ring bearers were Marine Fellenz and Constance Devorschak. The groom was attended by Henry Laatsch and Joseph Roden.

Shortly before 7 o'clock last Thursday morning while enroute to this village from his home, Rheinold Miller, driving a Ford auto, struck Mrs. John Kludt and son John in front of Mrs. Kludt's home. Mr. Miller claims the two stepped in front of his car while he was passing a team driven by Byron Klein. Seeing what had happened he at once stopped the car and with the aid of neighbors picked Mrs. Kludt up who was lying beneath the car. It was at first thought Mrs. Kludt was seriously injured as she remained unconscious for several hours, but at the present she is getting along nicely. Her son received minor head bruises.

Miss Linda Hansman of Fillmore is learning dressmaking with Miss Sophia Kraatsch. Miss Kraatsch will be prepared to take another apprentice about the latter part of December. A good opportunity for the right party.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vetter of Beechwood a baby boy one day last week.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of KARL SCHULTZ, who passed away Sept. 29, 1990:

God saw he was getting tired and a cure was not to be,
So He put His arm around him and whispered "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched him suffer and saw him fade away,
Although we loved him dearly, we could not make him stay.
His golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us,

He only takes the best.

Lovingly in our thoughts

West Bend Country Club Auxiliary Fall Luncheon

Auxiliary President, Sharon Ziegler, presents a check for $7500.00 to St. Joseph's Hospital Executive Director, Fred Bury.

Over one hundred active and associate members of St. Joseph's Community Hospital Auxiliary, West Bend, as well as their guests, attended the annual Auxiliary Fall Luncheon at West Bend Country Club on Friday, September 6th.

Following a brief "welcome" by President Sharon Ziegler, and a few remarks by St. Joseph's Executive Director, Fred Bury, Mrs. Ziegler introduced guest speaker, Betsy Brown, Past President of the Wisconsin Association of Hospital Auxiliaries, who spoke to the audience on qualities of volunteers.

On behalf of the entire Auxiliary membership, Mrs. Ziegler also presented a check in the amount of $7500.00 to Mr. Bury toward fulfillment of the Auxiliary's 1991 $27,000.00 pledge to the hospital. With three of the Auxiliary's major fundraisers still to be held in 1991, and only $7500.00 yet needed to fulfill our 1991 pledge, this should be a "banner year" toward achieving our goal!

The Auxiliary welcomes all persons, including men, who are willing to lend their time and/or talent in any of our numerous endeavors on behalf of St. Joe's. For further information, call 644-8002.

Two Rivers Rolls Over Indians 6-1 Indians Rout Tigers 6-1

By Statesman Sports Writer

TWO RIVERS — Glenn Eichstedt had thought that his girls tennis team's rematch with Two Rivers was going to be a "hotly contested" one. But according to Eichstedt himself, the match "turned into a smokeout on a cold day."

The host Raiders dominated the meet, winning all four singles matches en route to a 6-1 win, and in the process dropped a pair of Indians from the ranks of the unbeaten.

No. 3 and 4 singles players Melissa Rohrer and Karyn Dossinger were both soundly beaten, as the two suffered their first taste of defeat in Eastern Wisconsin Conference action.

Rohrer was dropped by Jenny Kreisa in straight sets, 1-6, 4-6, while Dossinger fell to 3-1 in EW play after a 2-6, 3-6 loss to Naoko Ishibashi.

"Thank God for Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank," Eichstedt said, noting that the No. 2 doubles tandem saved the day for the Indians, picking up the only win. Cayner and Frank were forced to a tiebreaker in the second set, but nonetheless came away with a 6-3, 7-6 (7-1) win over Raelynn Whitting and Janalee Loughhead.

The Indians JV squad didn't experience much more as they won just one out of 14 matches. The only winner on the JV level was Becky Koch, who got by Beth Stauffer 6-2.

TWO RIVERS 6, KEWASKUM 1

DOUBLES - No. 1 - Shawn

Erdman/Lisa Berres lost to Ragen Prucha/Nicole Stauffer 0-6, 3-6; No. 2 - Nicki Cayner/Kim Frank beat Raelynn Whitting/Janalee Loughhead 6-3, 7-6 (7-1); No. 3 - Stacey Pamperin/Heidi Gruhle lost to Lynn Harper/Stacy Tome 0-6, 2-6.

also expected to be in greater demand, with 10 percent to 30 percent increases in prices possible. Because coyote and mink showed significant price increases throughout last year's season, prices are expected to be similar in 1991, as are prices for bobcat, fisher and fall beaver.

Trappers are also bringing the wording for regulations on the use of snares has been changed in order to clarify proper size and placement. All trappers are urged to read the "Size and Placement Restrictions" section of the rules and regulations to familiarize themselves with the changes.

KEWASKUM — Kewaskum girls tennis coach Glenn Eichstedt didn't expect his squad to have very much trouble with Chilton here, last Tuesday. And fortunately for the Indians, he was right.

"The match went pretty much as anticipated," Eichstedt said regarding the Indians' 6-1 win over the visitors. The Indian JV's almost completed a sweep, but came up just short, losing to Chilton 6-7.

Kewaskum swept the singles competition, winning at all four spots. Karyn Dossinger (No. 4) was the only Indian to go to a third set, as she battled back from losing the first set 6-7 (5-7), to destroy Kim Geiser 6-0, 6-0 in the second and third sets.

Somewhat surprising was the play of No. 3 player Melissa Rohrer, who had to face Kathy Kurscheidt, who had been the Tigers No. 1 player the past few seasons. Rohrer "rose to the challenge," according to Eichstedt, posting a 6-2, 6-2 win.

Rohrer's sister Jessica (No. 1) roared her conquest record at 2-2 with a convincing 6-0, 6-1 win over Jamie Kuba, while Jenny Thull (No. 2) moved to 2-2 with a 6-2, 6-4 win over Molly Hofberger.

Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank upped their No. 2 doubles record to 4-0 and 7-3 overall with a 6-4, 6-0 whipping of Jessica Austin and Debi Wingers. At No. 3 doubles, Stacey Pamperin and Heidi Gruhle took care of Roxanne Hemauer and Sarah VandeVoort 6-1, 6-2.

The only blemish on the day was at No. 1 doubles, where Shawn Erdman and Lisa Berres teamed up for the very first time and came away 6-4, 6-0 losers. Eichstedt was quick to point out that he was trying out new tandems in doubles matches, and that "We have every reason to believe that improvement can be made by our doubles competitors."

1991 Trapping Season Looks Promising

With many furbearer populations at high levels, especially raccoon, and word that fur prices will likely be up from last year, it looks to be a promising 1991 trapping season, reports Chuck Pils, wildlife section chief for the Department of Natural Resources.

Only Wisconsin residents are allowed to trap: licenses cost $15. However, landowners and any member of their family may hunt or trap beaver, foxes, raccoon, woodchucks, rabbits and squirrels on their land without a license. Starting this year a $3 application fee is required to receive bobcat, fisher and otter tags, and is payable at any DNR office when the application is picked up. The deadline to apply for tags is Friday, October 4.

Trappers attending the recent Wisconsin Trappers Association meeting in Neillsville were optimistic regarding the 1991 trapping season after hearing preseason predictions that fur prices may be higher than last year for most Wisconsin furbearer species. According to Glen Waltz, a Wisconsin fur buyer, muskrats may show the greatest increase in price, as much as doubling over 1990 prices.

Hikers to Walk 25,000 Miles to Celebrate Ice Age Trail Week

Over 4,000 participants are expected to traverse more than 25,000 miles on Saturday, October 5. They will be celebrating Governor Tommy Thompson's declaration of Ice Age Trail Week September 29 through October 5, 1991.

The celebration will take place at 14 different locations throughout Wisconsin as a part of the Ice Age Park and Trail Foundation's 5th Annual "Take a Walk on the Wild Side" Hike-A-Thon. Dan Small, host of public television's "Outdoor Wisconsin" is serving as Chairman of the event.

Participants can choose from 13 hiking segments or a touring bike segment. The average distance is 6.25 miles. Difficulty levels vary from segment to segment, but most are suitable for families of all ages. Start times at all locations are from 8 to 10 a.m. Most sites will provide free or low cost refreshments.

The Wisconsin Ice Age Trail, a National and State Scenic Trail, traces the route carved by the furthest advance of the last glaciers. Along its path is some of the state's most spectacular scenery. About 450 miles of the proposed 1,000 mile Trail is now complete in broken segments across the state. The Trail starts at Potowotomi State Park in Door County and winds south through the Northern and Southern Kettle Moraine State Forests to Janesville, west to Madison, and then north to Antigo and finally west to St. Croix.

The objective of the Foundation is to complete and preserve the Trail as one continuous corridor. Open for public use as a footpath, the corridor will preserve what nature created and also provide opportunities for groups and the public to learn more about our glacial history.

The Hike-A-Thon, celebrating five years on October 5th, has a two-fold purpose: to acquaint people with the natural beauty available to them along the Trail, and to raise funds to support local Trail improvements and the Foundation's land acquisition plans.

Participants in the Hike-A-Thon are asked to solicit sponsor pledges for each mile they hike/bike. The registration fee is $5.00 for participants twelve and over, children 11 and under are free. Each paid registered participant will be eligible for prizes and will receive a hiking woolly mammoth lapel pin, depicting Monty Mammoth, the Hike-A-Thon's mascot.

Prizes range from tents to telescopes, compasses to clocks, clock radios to CD players. These prizes are for hikers raising more than $50 in pledges and vary for the level of pledges received. Grand prizes are two roundtrip tickets to any Midwest Express Airlines destination, A Sea Hawk Pedal Boat, and a Starlet "Moss" tent. Top fundraiser will be able to choose from the grand prizes.

Volunteers from the local chapters are hoping to share their enthusiasm and love for the Trail with the 4,000 hikers expected, and look forward to accomplishing the goal of 25,000 miles in one day.

For information or to register for the Hike-A-Thon call: 1-800-227-0046 or write: Ice Age Park and Trail Foundation, P.O. Box 422, Sheboygan, WI 53082.

1992 Tree Seedling, Shrub Applications Available

Application forms are available beginning Sept. 30 to order tree seedlings and wildlife shrubs from Department of Natural Resources nurseries for planting in the spring of 1992, said Trenton Marty, nursery specialist for the DNR's Bureau of Forestry.

One-, two- and three-year-old hardwood and conifer seedlings are available, as are a variety of wildlife food shrubs such as hazelnut, wild plum, crabapple, ninebark, mountain ash, red osier dogwood and silky dogwood.

Landowners are able to buy forest tree nursery stock from the department at the nurseries' cost of production, according to Marty. A minimum order of 500 tree seedlings is required.

The nursery stock must be used for growing forest products, game food or cover, controlling soil erosion, or establishing windbreaks or shelterbelts. Purchasers may not give the nursery stock away or use it for decorative, ornamental, Christmas tree or landscaping purposes.

Marty encourages landowners to order trees as soon as possible because of the large demand for nursery stock. Application forms are available at DNR offices or by writing to: Wisconsin DNR, Bureau of Forestry, P.O. Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707.

Indians Drop to 1-1 in EW-Miscues Lead to 23-12 Indian Loss

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — It was great while it lasted. Kewaskum football coach Clark Pearson had hoped that the feeling of being in first place would have lasted just a bit longer, though.

It looked as if Pearson's troops had a good shot at remaining atop the standings in the Eastern Wisconsin football race, especially after dodging a bullet just before halftime to hold a 12-7 lead.

But it wasn't to be, as the Tigers took advantage of Indian mistakes in the second half to post a 23-12 win over the Indians, dropping Kewaskum to 1-1 in the EW, 1-3 overall. Chilton remained tied for first by improving to 2-0.

"It was a pretty tough night," Pearson said, reflecting on the loss. "We just didn't play very well. We made a lot of big mistakes...costly mistakes."

The Indians used a Chilton turn-over to score the game's first points. After a Kim Marx punt was mishandled by Tiger returners, Shawn Schneider picked up the fumble and raced 48 yards to give the Indians a 6-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

Chilton used some fine field position to take the lead early in the second period. Starting out at the Indians 35, the Tigers used just a half-dozen plays before marking up seven points on a 10-yard pass play.

Kewaskum went back in front, using a couple of big plays from junior Matt Schlosser. After Randy Schlice had fumbled on the ensuing possession, Schlosser picked off a pass and returned it to inside the Chilton 40 yard line.

The Indians drove to inside the Tiger 10 yard line, when Indian QB Chad Cook was sacked, leaving the Indians at the 15. After a timeout, Cook found Schlosser wide open on a screen pass, and Schlosser did the rest, running over a couple of would-be tacklers to reach the end zone, and give Kewaskum a 12-7 lead.

"They were rushing real hard," Pearson said of the screen call. "We talked about it during the timeout, and we thought we could avoid the rush with the screen."

With Chilton driving deep into Indian territory late in the first half, it looked as if the Tigers had gained enough momentum to score and take the lead. But on the final play of the half, Tiger QB Keith Steffes' pass to a receiver was knocked away at the last second, thus halting Chilton's try for the lead.

But the Indians faltered in the second half, allowing Chilton to forge ahead. After an Indian drive went nowhere, Marx was forced to kick from deep in his own territory. Instead, the snap from center went sailing over Marx's head and out of the end zone for a safety, cutting the Indian lead to 12-9.

Chilton took the ensuing kick right down the field, as Bill Turney capped the march with an eight yard run to give Chilton its first lead at 16-12 late in the third quarter.

That's the way it stayed until late in the final stanza. It appeared the Indians were turned back once again after Jason Leitner intercepted a Cook pass midway through the fourth, but a penalty on the Tigers wiped out the play, and gave the ball back to the Indians.

After a long run by Dan Schulties to inside the Chilton 25 yard line, the Indian drive stalled. On fourth-and-12, Cook was intercepted once again, and the Indians would have to get the ball back with their defense if they had any hope.

But that idea was quickly vanished as Turney took a handoff and raced 44 yards for the game's final score with just over a minute to play.

"The defense just broke down on that play," Pearson said, dejectedly. "We went for the fake on that one. (Chilton QB) Steffes really played a good game. His passing did a really fine job in setting up their running game."

Penalties (10 for 97 yards) also were a big source of disappointment for Pearson. "Those always hurt," he said, noting that the third quarter safety also played a big role. "I don't think we ever quite recovered from that."

As for standouts in the loss, Pearson pointed to Marx and Schlice, who each "had very good games defensively," for the Indians.

The Indians get a break from Eastern Wisconsin action this week, as they travel to Slinger for a non-conference tilt. "Slinger will be darn tough," Pearson noted, adding that the Owls "have some big lineman," as well as running back Greg Zuern, who "is having an outstanding year," according to Pearson, having rushed for nearly 700 yards in just four games.

As for the conference race that is heating up, Pearson feels his team is still in the hunt. "I saw that Two Rivers lost, and so has Plymouth," he said. "We just have to eliminate our mistakes, and I feel that we can play with anybody in the conference."

Spikers' Big Week Ends in Split

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — According to Kewaskum volleyball coach Dave Rizzardi, last week's action was going to be very important in telling how far up the Indians would finish in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference this season.

But after his team split in matches with Sheboygan Falls and New Holstein, Rizzardi is still a bit unsure of how things will fare in the second half of the season.

The Indians mentor was all smiles after last Tuesday's 15-5, 15-12, 10-15 win over Falls, which came into the match unbeaten in EW action. It was quite a way to start out a big week.

"That was just a good, all-around match for us," he said. "We came out real strong in the beginning, and put up a lot of quick points. We played real well."

The result was an easy 10-point win in game one, which propelled the Indians to the big win. Rizzardi was quick to point to the fact that his team missed just three serves the entire evening, and got a balanced effort from everyone.

"Julie Mertz had some smart spikes, finding the openings," Rizzardi said in complimenting the 5-9 junior. Mertz wound up with eight total points, tying her with Robyn Winninghoff for the team lead. Jackie Hintz and Stacey Heberer played good floor games, leading the Indians with 12 and 11 assists, respectively.

But the Indians were unable to keep their momentum going for Thursday night's encounter with the Huskies. The Indians blew big leads in the first two games, only to lose them both on their way to getting swept 11-15, 14-16,

12-15. "We just weren't up for the match, and that's depressing," Rizzardi said of the match. "We were just flat. We played poor defense... didn't move our feet at all."

Things looked all right for the Indians early, as they jumped out to a 5-0 lead in the first game. But poor passing and missed serves were costly, as New Holstein came back to take the first game.

"We went from missing three serves (against Falls on Tuesday) to missing eight," Rizzardi said disappointingly. Still, Kewaskum put itself in position to tie the match at one game apiece, as it built a 14-7 lead in the second game.

"Robyn (Winninghoff) gave us a big lead with her serving, and then we just died," Rizzardi said of the lapse which allowed the Huskies to catch and eventually overtake his team.

"Our setters didn't play too badly," Rizzardi went on to say. "We just couldn't get our passes to them."

"Stacey Heberer played a good sound match," Rizzardi said, finding it hard to single any one player out for playing well. Robyn Winninghoff led the Indians with 11 points, while Jackie Hintz led the team with nine assists.

The loss gave the Indians a 3-3 mark for the first half of the EW regular season. "We can't afford to lose another match," Rizzardi said, if the Indians have any hopes of winning the conference title. Rizzardi did optimistically point out that it was possible for each team in the EW to have at least two losses going into the second half, "so we're not out of it by any means."

Indian JV'S Fall for First Time

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — After moving to 5-0 with a win over Sheboygan Falls here, on Tuesday, the Kewaskum JV volleyball team suffered their first taste of defeat at New Holstein last Thursday.

The JV's found themselves in a battle of unbeatens against the Huskies, and it was the hosts who remained without a blemish, beating the Indians 15-6, 16-14, 15-10. The Indians dropped to 5-1, while New Holstein improved to 5-0.

"We played a very strong team," JV coach Mary Holfelz said of the Huskies, who jumped out to a big lead in the game two before Angie Klug served nine straight points to pull her team back into the match. "We could never put them away," Holfelz said.

"We did not play our best game," she went on to say, although adding that Andrea

Haberman "served well and played an aggressive net game."

Earlier in the week, the Indians took care of Falls 15-12, 15-13, 15-4. Ginger Wiesner, Angie Klug and Michelle Gundrum "provided the serving power," for the Indians, while "Shannon Breit played an excellent net game," according to Holfelz.

The Indians freshman went 0-2 on the week, dropping their overall record to 3-3. The freshman won the first game before falling to the Falcons 15-12, 7-15, 10-15, and then went 0-for-3 against the Huskies 7-15, 16-18, 0-15, thus enabling New Holstein to win all nine games at the three levels.

Against Falls, Joanne Theusch had 14 good serves, while Becky Braun had nine. Erin Fronek and Shelly Williams each had four good spikes.

Mary Yahr had a good night serving against New Holstein, serving 11 for 11, while Theusch Herman then hit Joe Hawig on a 15 yd. pass for a Redskin score and a Herman to Rettler extra point pass made the score 27-13. Jason Liegl then hit Joe Rettler on a 47 yd. pass play to give the Redskins a 33-13 victory over the Eagles.

The second game featured the Bears against the Raiders. The Bears started the scoring early on touchdown runs of 32 yds. and 38 yds. by Jim Westerman and Brian Butschlick added one extra point and the Bears had a 13-0 lead. Brian Butschlick then ran 71 yds. for a touchdown and with the missed extra point it was 19-6, Bears, at half time.

In the second half the only scoring was on a Jim Westerman 1 yd. run and with the missed extra point the final score was 25-6 the Bears over the Raiders.
