Kewaskum Frozen Foods to Celebrate 50 Years in Business

Left to right, Kewaskum Frozen Foods owners Bob Beisbier, Dave Nigh and retired former owners Anna (Harter) Nigh and Gregor 'Pat' Nigh look forward to Kewaskum Frozen Foods' 50th year of business.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Next Friday, Nov. 1st, will be a milestone for Kewaskum Frozen Foods as it marks its 50th year of continuous operation in Kewaskum.

The late Sylvester Harter, founder of the company, would be very proud of how the business has grown in both physical size and reputation since it first opened its doors a half century ago.

It was at the encouragement of the late Lehman Rosenheimer, who owned the old Rosenheimer Department Store at that time, that Harter went into the processing and locker plant operation. "Lehman didn't like to see his customers going to the locker plants in West Bend and Campbellsport" said Ann Harter-Nigh, Sylvester's widow. "Lehman offered Sylvester the land on Forest Avenue, across the street from his store, if he would build the plant and that's how it all got started. Until then Sylvester had operated McLaughlin's Meat Market in the building which now houses Kewaskum Floral."

Construction of the building, which would contain a complete custom slaughter and processing plant, locker storage and retail market began in the summer of 1941, and it officially opened for business that November.

It continued to be an important year for Harter when, in December, Anna Schoofs became his wife.

In March, 1945, tragedy hit the Harter family when Sylvester, who was serving in the Army in France was killed. The duties of running the business fell to Anna. "I had very little experience," she said, "but I got through it with the help of Walter Schmidt who had worked for Sylvester from the beginning and my family and friends." (Schmidt continued to work for the business and retired after 48 years of service.)

In 1946, Anna married Gregor 'Pat' Nigh. Together, with their loyal employees, they continued to operate and expand the business.

In 1959, David Nigh, Pat's youngest brother, came into the business. When the National Guard was put on active duty in 1961, Dave was among those who had to leave their jobs and report for duty at Ft. Lewis, Washington. It was that same year that Bob Beisbier began working for Kewaskum Frozen Foods.

"Our kids also joined the business operation," said Mrs. Nigh. In 1969, the business incorporated and the Nighs and Beisbier became partners.

Asked if there had been any major changes since the 40's, both Anna and Pat emphatically stated "you bet!" "Had we not kept up with the state inspections and changing regulations, we would have been out of business," stated Pat. "We also had major renovations and expansions in 1962, 1968, 1973, and 1976."

"Diversity, things changed," said Anna, "there were fewer and fewer farmers, that meant less animals being brought in for processing." Bob and Dave looked into different areas and products to expand the business, she noted.

In 1979, Pat and Anna retired. Bob and Dave took over the business operations. They continued to look for new things and products to keep the operation successful and growing. But no matter what product they introduced into the business, their primary concern was, and continues to be, "quality."

Since the day the business first opened its doors in 1941, with less than a half dozen employees, Kewaskum Frozen Foods has steadily continued to grow and it now employs 30 people.

Kewaskum Frozen Foods has become recognized as one of the finest meat processing and sausage producing facilities in Wisconsin. Its over 30 quality sausage products annually win top state and national awards. Its two stores, Kewaskum Frozen Foods in Kewaskum, and Sausage Plus, located in the West Bend Outlet Mall, proudly display some of the more than 40 awards earned by their products.

The business and its owners have worked hard to make sure it remains an active part of the community by supporting youth groups, local organizations and clubs.

Kewaskum Frozen Foods has been active with the local 4-H and FFA awarding an annual scholarship. Bob Beisbier has served as a judge for the Washington County Junior Fair Livestock Carcass Judging and Kewaskum Frozen Foods has hosted the carcass show at its plant for several years.

Peace Church Choir to Present Musical, "Jericho"

On Reformation Sunday, Oct. 27, the Chancel Choir of Peace Church will present the musical drama, "Jericho." The musical was written by Dennis and Nan Allen, and is directed by Larry Ammel. Sherry McElhatton accompanies the Chancel Choir on the organ. Narrators for the program are John Kletti and Richard Zarleng.

The musical tells the story of the famed city of Jericho with its impenetrable walls, and how the children of God acted with faith to conquer in the name of the Lord.

Dramatic and exciting music fills the story with lasting emphasis. The narration concludes with a reminder of the barriers and walls built around God's promises even in our day. Faith and vision are weapons in the hands of the Christian.

The community is invited to hear this musical at 9:30 a.m. this Sunday.

Village Board Approves 1992 Fire Contracts

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board voted to approve recommended 1992 fire contracts with the village, Town of Kewaskum and Town of Auburn at its regularly scheduled meeting Monday night.

Based on the standard formula used to calculate the contracts for the past several years, all the municipalities will see minimal changes over their 1991 contracts.

The Village of Kewaskum will see its contract go up 5.1 percent or $2,890, from $57,615 for 1991, to $60,505, for 1992.

The Town of Kewaskum's contract will increase 2.2 percent or $1,151, from $52,802 for 1991, to $53,953 for 1992.

For the Town of Auburn, the news is a little better. It will see a decrease of .8 percent or $192, from $25,147, for 1991, to $24,955 for 1992.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt again noted one of the major factors in determining the contracts is the number of fire calls the community has over a three-year span. The 1992 contract is based on the three-year period covering 1988, 1989, and 1990.

For the village, their fire calls rose by 6, from 22 to 28. The Town of Kewaskum went down 6, from 41 for the previous three-year period to 35 for the new one. Auburn's fire calls rose by two, from 15 to 17.

In other business, the board opened sealed bids for the purchase of a new front end loader. The village received four bids ranging from a low of $79,240, to a high bid of $104,905. The bids were turned over to Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles who will review the equipment offered on the bids and bring his recommendation back to the board's next meeting.

The board also approved the purchase of a replacement lawn mower. The unit being replaced was recently damaged, however, it was also scheduled for routine replacement. The new unit, a 22 hp diesel John Deere demo, will be purchased from Dairyland Equipment for a final cost of $5,774 after rebates and trade-in.

The board approved Police Chief Richard Knoebel's request to advertise for a 1992 replacement squad. When delivery is accepted on the new unit, the department will offer for sale, on closed bids, the 1990 unit which will be retired.

The trustees also approved Schmidt's request to raise the village's dog and cat license fees to reflect increases caused by the county.

Schmidt updated the board on anticipated shared costs of the village for highway improvement work and resurfacing for Highway 45, from Highway H, north. The two projects for the highway are projected to be done in 1995. Cost for the work will be shared with the state.

Gilles also advised the board that the cement floor has been poured in the new recycling center building and his men are now working on constructing a driveway down to the building.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

BOOSTER CLUB TO SELL CHRISTMAS WREATHS

The holiday season conjures up thoughts of Santa, reindeer, carolers, eggnog, new fallen snow and the Kewaskum Booster Club van sitting in the Sentry Foods parking lot selling Christmas Wreaths. We will be there again this year (no matter what the weather is) on Nov. 23, 30 and Dec. 7, 14 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

When you stop down to pick up your wreaths, pick up an extra one for a gift. For information call Eileen Kurtz (338-1068) or Larry Ammel at the school.

Regal Layoff Affects 210

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A customer's high export inventory is the reason being given for the lay off of 210 Regal Ware Incorporated production and salaried employees last week.

James Moran, Senior Vice President of Human Resources, said the indefinite layoff of mostly production employees, was the result of one of the company's major customers finding it necessary to cut back on its orders. The cookware it was exporting to Japan was not selling as fast as expected.

"We were just producing the cookware faster than our customer could export and sell the product," said Moran. "there's not much more we can say about the situation."

Moran said the company's other business is doing well and it is getting ready for the Christmas push. It is not a domestic issue or related to the national recession. He indicated Regal Ware expected things to improve about the middle of the second quarter of 1992.

Moran said the news of the order cutback caught the company off guard. "We've been working overtime for the last two years. We've added employees over the last two years to build up to this point."

The employees will receive benefits for awhile depending upon seniority. No efforts will be made to help them find new work, said Moran.

Trick or Treat Bags Carry a Halloween Safety Message

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Kewaskum, as well as, other area elementary school students both private and public, were among ten million youngsters in 23,000 schools across the country, last week, to receive free trick or treat bags (with some goodies inside).

The bags, provided by the Sampling Corporation of America, are sponsored by various Fortune 500 companies such as Sargento Cheese of Wisconsin, Hersheys, Dole, Energizer and the Malt-O-Meal Company. They are distributed in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies, through the schools, to help stress the importance of safety during Halloween Trick or Treat.

Prior to the bag distribution, class teachers take time to discuss the various aspects of Halloween safety with their students, from wearing the proper type of mask and costume, to safety crossing the streets and checking out the treats before they are eaten.

Steve Rogen of Sampling Corporation said his company is also involved with providing gift bags, containing personal care products, to about five million high school kids who participate in various career planning and self-esteem programs. The company also provides gift bags to some DARE programs. A reminder to parents - Sunday, Oct. 27 is the date set for trick or treating in Kewaskum from 2 to 4 p.m.

"Apples are m-m-m good!"

As part of the fall story sessions at the Kewaskum Public Library, the children had the opportunity to taste different kinds of apples and products made from apples. While only a few of them enjoyed the taste of spiced apple rings, all of them enjoyed the apple juice. Other favorites were applesauce and crunchy apple chips. The fall story sessions conclude this week with Halloween stories and fingerplays. Thirty-four children have been coming weekly to meet with Mrs. Bledsoe, library director, and listen to stories, play games, and learn fingerplays. Another story session will begin in late November.

Over $11 billion. That's how much the world's largest restaurant chain—McDonald's—takes in every year. Not bad for a company that was merely a burger stand in 1955.

Ken Weddig Recognized

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At its monthly meeting last Monday night, the Kewaskum Board of Education presented Ken Weddig of Kewaskum, with a plaque in recognition of the countless voluntary hours and efforts he has given to the district and its students.

In presenting the plaque to Weddig, school board president Neal Weare noted Weddig has worked with various school organizations and programs including the Kewaskum Booster Club and Odyssey of the Mind competitions. "Ken has given unselfishly of his time from working on Booster Club projects to driving the O/M props and equipment trucks to various competitions.

"Most importantly, however," said Weare, "we feel Ken should be recognized as being instrumental in pursuing the idea of a post-prom party for our students and seeing it become a reality." Ken was one of the major forces in helping to organize the event by contacting private businesses, clubs, organizations and law enforcement and getting them to sponsor the post-prom activities, noted Weare.

"We thank Ken for his time and concern and look forward to working with him for many years to come," said Weare.

Kewaskum School Board president Neal Weare, left, presented Kim Petrie, center, with the board's recognition plaque and KHS principal Charles Heidner, presented Petrie the September Student of the Month certificate.

Senior Kim Petrie, daughter of Charles and Kay Petrie has been chosen as the Board of Education Kewaskum High School Student of the Month of September. A course of study with heavy science emphasis keeps Kim busy during the school day. Classes include environmental ecology, college physics, inorganic chemistry and science seminar. She also takes symphony band, college prep composition and calculus.

Outside of the school day Ms. Petrie is active in peer listeners, forensics, National Honor Society, and Volunteer Youth Team of Leaders (VTOL). Last summer Kim participated in National Science Foundation Study project at Superior, Wisconsin, studying the affects of acid rain on the environment. Next summer she will be involved in another NSF study program examining genetic crossing in fruit flies.

Kim's science seminar project on electrophoresis has been presented to the environmental ecology class, where she is also involved in the class project of monitoring water quality in the Milwaukee River.

Making Our Own Creatures

After an extensive study of mammals and their lifestyles in science class, third grade students in Mrs. Pecher's class at Wayne Elementary were inspired to make their own creatures.

Using talents, and unlimited productive thinking skills, students came up with many varied and unusual ideas to enhance their own mammals.

Some of the materials used included pipe cleaners, paper plates and cups, coffee filters, feathers, buttons, cotton balls, bottles, toilet paper rolls, deer horns, tin foil, and all kinds of containers. Students named their creatures, listed what they ate, where they lived, and how they reacted to humans. The projects were varied and interesting and the student's creativity was very evident.

Craft Session at Library

School-age children, grades kindergarten through fifth, are invited to participate in a special fall crafts activity to be held at the Kewaskum Public Library. The children will meet at 2:00 on Friday, October 25. They will make construction paper Indian corn. Children in kindergarten and first grade should bring along a "helper". The activity is limited to 35 participants so interested children should register in advance by stopping in at the library or calling 626-4312.

Electric Presentation AT Holy Trinity

Electricity is something we should respect. Mr. Jackson, a representative from Wisconsin Electric, gave a presentation to the students in grades four, five and six at Holy Trinity. The presentation was entitled "Respect It, Don't Fear It."

This presentation explained how electricity is created, who uses electricity, and what precautions we must take when dealing with it. Mr. Jackson brought along a linesman's bag. In this bag he had all the safety devices the linesman uses to do his job. Chad Martin a 6th, grade student had the opportunity to become a linesman.

Mr. Jackson explained to the students how a linesman must pay attention to details or it may cost his life. He stressed that as students they too must pay attention to details, giving examples such as crossing T's and dotting i's. This attention to detail would help prepare them for the future.

Foreman (to new employe): "I'm putting this rivet in the correct position. When I nod my head, hit it hard with your hammer." He woke up in the hospital.

Dan Capps of Madison, explained about the different types of insects there are to KES students.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Students at Kewaskum Elementary School had an opportunity last week, to hear and learn about the interesting and surprising world of insects.

Dan Capps of Madison, owner of the largest mounted insect collection in the world, brought 'just a few dozen' glass display cases of his many specimens. The display contained every type of insect, from butterflies to beetles.

Capps, a self-taught naturalist and entomologist, is recognized internationally as an expert on insects. He has spent the last fifteen years traveling around the country giving talks and displaying his collection.

Capps, who works for the World of Nature Imports Company, which sells exotic insects to universities, schools, museums and private collectors, has himself traveled around the world gathering specimens for his own collection.

Capps' visit was sponsored by the KES PTO.

Kewaskum Junior Women Attend Fall Conference

VOLUNTEERISM, the "HEARTBEAT" of the COMMUNITY, was the theme for the 40th Annual Junior Fall Conference of the GFWC Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs Junior Membership. Women from 31 Clubs throughout the State convened at the Howard Johnson in Wausau on Friday, October 4, and Saturday, October 5, 1991.

Sally Wilke, Past President of the Wisconsin Association for Volunteers in Adult & Juvenile Justice, and former Administrator of Youth-Go, Inc., a multi-service youth center in Neenah-Menasha, was the highlight speaker Friday evening. An active volunteer, a published author, public speaker and consultant, Ms. Wilke's enthusiastic speech "Through All Our Efforts" was just the motivation the Juniors needed to start their 41st year.

Janie Orr Reed, GFWC Public Relations Chairman, of Kenosha addressed the Juniors during the Saturday morning session. Ms. Reed is currently serving her fifth term on the Board of Directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and is a Past President of the Wisconsin Federation, the Kenosha Woman's Club, and the Kenosha Junior Woman's Club. She is an educator and active volunteer. With public speaking her specialty, Ms. Reed addressed the members on "We've a Story to Tell to the Nation."

Saturday's luncheon brought the change of pace the Juniors needed, with humorist and author, Mary McBride. A former writer for Phyllis Diller and Joan Rivers, radio and TV personality Ms. McBride addressed the humorous side of volunteerism.

In attendance at the Conference was the GFWC Wisconsin Federation President-Elect and also immediate Past Director of Junior Clubs, Mary Kaye Ernest of Mequon. Presiding over the Conference was the Director of Junior Clubs, Mary Balicki of Elkhorn.

Attending the Conference as representative of Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club were: Club President, Meri Lou Chambers; Corresponding Secretary and Program Chair, Pat Soller; Conservation and Ways - n- Means Chair, Patty Clayton; State Art Chair, Sixth District Director and Club International Affairs Chair, Gayle VanEss and Sixth District Junior Director and Club Publicity, Louise Martin.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs is the largest organization of women volunteers in the world. Its purpose is to enter into communication and to unite the various Women's Clubs, for their mutual benefit and the promotion of their common interests. Thus is created the GFWC motto: Unity in Diversity.

IN MEMORY OF LLOYD KELLER

*I could look the wide world over
And never, ever find;
The love, the strength, the joy
Given by a husband, so gentle, warm and kind
You colored all the drabness in my life
And made me smile even when the skies were gray;
So, on that day we heard the terrible news
You told me not to worry... tomorrow will be as bright as yesterday
Today, I've prayed to God in a special way
For my hours are filled with thoughts of you;
I've asked Him to help mend my broken heart
And once again give me tranquility anew.
And if I could have a wish... just one
It would be the same each day of every year;
I wish that you were here with me
Because I miss you so very much, my dear.
I guess there's nothing else that I can say,
Except that I love you...
Yesterday, Tomorrow, and especially TODAY!*

Tim Stoffel's Work Featured in State Photographic Event

As Wisconsinites prepare for the change of season and routine, they are about to be treated to a look at themselves from the subjective point of view of their neighbors. Remember when you stocked up on extra film for your camera over Memorial Day Weekend? So did the man down the block and the youngster across the street. People of all ages across Wisconsin took pictures of each other, of their pets, or flag-led parades, or crowded beaches and tranquil lakes.

The combination of five categories of photographers (amateur, including those under 18 and those aged 60 or older, student and professional) yielded more than 150,000 images for the editors and far exceeded predicted results.

"THE BIG CLICK is pure enjoyment," said one participant, who followed up with the qualifying statement, "if you don't mind a little work with a big challenge." Indeed, capturing a scene when the light is just so, or getting good expressions on the faces of eight or nine people for a group shot, can be work.

Most people will be glad if their efforts land them a part of a page between the hard covers of THE BIG CLICK book or calendar. Or...if they are presented with a pair of round-trip tickets to a major U.S. city complete with hotel accommodations as a grand prize.

Winners were announced this month and books and calendars are on sale at all Wisconsin ShopKo stores, ShopKo in Kingsford, MI, and all Harry W. Schwartz Bookshops. Trips are provided by Midwest Express Airlines, and Hilton hotels in San Francisco, Dallas, New York and Chicago.

Tim Stoffel, 1731 Fond du Lac Ave., Kewaskum, was among the chosen photographers whose work is featured in The Big Click. His image captures a farmhouse scene with a rainbow overhead.

A television documentary aired September 14 to trace aspects of THE BIG CLICK and followed some photographers at work on Memorial Day Weekend. Produced by WISN-TV, WMTV, WLUK-TV, WSAW-TV, and WEAU-TV, the 30-minute piece was edited by Ruth Ravve in Milwaukee.

Another source of support for THE BIG CLICK was the Milwaukee Institute of Art & Design whose photography staff provided office space and talented workers for many weeks preceding the event.

KHS Parent-Principal Roundtable Jan. 16

Fifteen parents attended the first parent-principal Round Table last Thursday night at Kewaskum High School. Many topics of interest were discussed, including Homecoming, smoking on campus, parent conferences and students in the building beyond the school day.

After a lengthy discussion of possible subjects for future meetings, it was agreed that the teacher supervision and evaluation process and post secondary admission standards would headline the next Round Table.

The date for the next get-together is Thursday, January 16, 1992 at 7 p.m. in the high school library.

All parents of Kewaskum High School students are invited to attend.

Behind the Scenes at Kettle Kountry Kolors

Joe Minz brought his crane into Kewaskum to assist with the placement of the Scheer's Lumberjack Show's 60 foot climbing poles. The two poles had to be placed into 5 foot deep holes, dug by Randy Dreher of RD Builders in Kewaskum. Without the help of Minz and Dreher, the popular pole climbing feature would not have been possible. All of us who enjoyed that part of the lumberjack shows owe Joe Minz and Randy Dreher an enormous debt of gratitude. Thanks also to helpers Butch Gengler and Dennis Kuehl.

Strangers from far and near carried bruessel sprout bushes around with them both Saturday and Sunday. You have to admit the bruessel sprouts from Ray Knapp's vegetable booth did attract alot of attention. We "city girls" were overwhelmed by the clever way God chose to grow these things. Just look at the determined look on this ladies face! (I won't insult her anymore because you see she is my sister and you have to feel sorrow for her... for in a short time... she will have a birthday and is going totally over the hill! Probably bought the bruessel sprout bush to use as a cane next spring!)

Here's a shot of Randy from the back when he was trying to get the chain around the rock. As you can see the hole he dug was almost as deep as Randy is!

Our gratitude also goes out to Randy Dreher of RD Builders of Kewaskum. He's the guy in the 5 foot hole who just got done putting a chain around a huge rock so it could be hoisted out and the 60 foot poles put in.

Kathy (Spirit Woman) Kasberger, of Apache, Menomonie, Russian descent, prepared Native American fried bread while her daughter Maria (Daughter of My Heart) did indian beadwork. Kasberger explained to visitors how the bread was originally made of corn fried in bear grease or buffalo fat. When the white man came and the indians were moved to reservations their corn was taken away from them because it was an important part of the indian culture and religious ceremonies. In its place the indians were given rations of wheat flour.

While the Buckskinners prepared food over wood campfires, Kiwanians Roy Esser, left, David Heather, center and Jim Reigle, right made hamburgers and brats over charcoal grills.

King Gerald Marx and Queen Sandra Jackson will reign as royalty at Kewaskum High's homecoming festivities tonight and Saturday. Both are seniors. The theme "Indian Sunset" will be carried out. Senior members of the court are: James Korth and Kristine Westerman, Mark Heise and Christie Heberer, Niles Erickson and Jane Hiller. Junior members are: Marvin Tanck and Jane Honeck, Thomas Gundrum and Susan Scannell, James Manthei and Chris Rammer. Honorary court member AFS student Uraivan Kornvithayaslip has chosen Daniel Kudek to be her escort.

A large truck owned by the Kloke Ready Mix Co., R.3, Campbellsport was damaged Wednesday morning and a south-bound passenger train delayed about 1 1/2 hours when the truck tipped onto the railroad tracks at Hwy. H on the east side of Hwy. 45, south of Kewaskum. The accident occurred at 7:15 a.m. when the truck was delivering concrete to the new Dairyland Seed Co. building being constructed. The truck apparently got too close to an embankment next to the tracks and tipped onto the tracks. Two wreckers from Kewaskum and a caterpillar tractor were used to right the heavily loaded truck and remove it.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Rohlinger entertained relatives at their home in this village on Oct. 14, in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. Cards were played and lunch was served by Mrs. Rohlinger, assisted by Mrs. Norman Schrauth and Miss Margaret Schrauth.

Gertrude Helen Bies, aged one year, two months and 29 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bies of this village, was strangled to death in the backyard of her parent's home Thursday afternoon, Oct. 23, when she became caught in the rope of a swing. Mr. and Mrs. Bies operate the former S.N. Casper tavern on Main Street. The exact manner in which the baby was strangled is unknown as there was no one in the yard at the time except the child's older sister Charlene and brother Peter Jr., also small children. Believed to be safe in the fenced-in backyard, the children were left alone only a few minutes when the sister ran into the house and informed the maid, Miss Gertrude Raether, of what had happened. A physician was hastily summoned, but it was to no avail and the child was pronounced dead.

Grand Opening at Henry Fickler's tavern, formerly the Jac. Meinhardt tavern on Main St., Saturday night, Oct. 25. Lunch and music will be furnished. Everybody is invited.

It is expected that the total number of auto licenses to be issued by the state will reach the stupendous amount of 120,000 before January 1st, 1917. This will mean an increase of 40,000 cars for 1916 over 1915, an unparalleled increase. Application for licenses continue to come in at the rate of about 100 per day. The total issued up to last week was 112,000 which means that one person out of every 22 in the state owns a car.

The young ladies of this vicinity gave a leap year party at St. Michaels last Wednesday evening. A most enjoyable time was had by all present.

Minnesota Company With Local Ties Signs Consent Judgment

Safety Programs, Incorporated of Plymouth, Minnesota has agreed to a consent judgment with the Wisconsin Department of Justice, according to Attorney General James Doyle.

Safety Programs will pay $3,000 in civil forfeitures and penalties, and is enjoined from engaging in a variety of misrepresentative sales tactics.

For several years, a representative from Safety Programs sold advertising in crime prevention books to hundreds of county businesses, falsely implying that the books were part of a local crime prevention effort, were endorsed by the sheriff's Department actively investigated these activities, and submitted its findings to the Department of Justice. The department repeatedly alerted area businesses about the activities of Safety Programs. By 1989, Safety Programs had stopped soliciting in Washington County, but moved its activities to other counties in the state. The information developed in Washington County served as a foundation for the state's action.

Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis urges persons to contact the sheriff's department before donating money to support a law enforcement or crime related activity, and reminds the public that the sheriff's department does not authorize or endorse any fund raising activities.

THIS HALLOWEEN—PUT ON A FUNNY FACE

Halloween is characteristically a very playful holiday. It's a perfect time for both young and old alike to let down their guard, dress-up in costumes, and enjoy being downright silly.

Halloween fun and creativity are showcased in Funny Face Pumpkin Cookies. These delightfully kooky cookies are shaped with cookie cutters or cardboard pumpkin "patterns" to resemble a variety of jack-o'-lantern shapes.

One plus of these cookies is that the cookie dough can be made several days ahead when time permits, and then kept chilled until ready to use. When making these cookies, just roll out small portions of cookie dough as needed before cutting into pumpkin shapes.

Once the cookies are baked and cooled, they can either be left plain, or frosted with orange or white frosting, before being decorated with various candies to create a myriad of wonderful funny faces. Unusual candy varieties, such as the tiny bananas used for eyebrows and mouths on cookie faces, are available at candy novelty stores.

Both youths and adults will be giggling away while making these cookies. For even more chuckles, hold a "Funny Face Contest" in which awards are given for the cookies with the funniest faces.

Although these yummy cookies might appear silly, their nutritional content is no joke. Made with pumpkin, an excellent source of vitamin A, they are as wholesome as they are delicious.

Funny Face Cookies (Makes 2 to 3 dozen cookies, depending on size)

3 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
2 tablespoons pumpkin pie spice
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1 cup butter, softened
1 cup packed dark brown sugar
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1 egg
1 cup LIBBY'S Solid
Pack Pumpkin
Frosting
Decorative candy

In medium bowl, combine flour, pumpkin pie spice, and baking soda; set aside. In large mixer bowl, cream butter and sugars until fluffy. Add egg and pumpkin; beat until light and creamy. Gradually add dry ingredients; blend well. Cover and chill dough for several hours. Divide into 6 portions. On generously floured board, roll out one portion of dough, 1/4-inch thick (keep remaining dough chilled). Cut out creative shapes free-hand, or use cardboard form or cookie cutter. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in preheated 350°F. oven for 8 to 10 minutes, or until lightly browned. Repeat process with remaining dough. Cool; decorate with frosting and candy as desired.

Frosting: Blend 1 pound (3 3/4 cups) sifted powdered sugar, 3 tablespoons light corn syrup, 2 tablespoons water; mix until smooth. Add food coloring as desired. Pipe onto cookies using pastry bag, plastic squeeze bottle with small tip or heavy duty baggies with bottom tip of bag snipped off. Decorate with candy. Let dry on rack 8 to 24 hours until frosting hardens.

School Reform Challenge Focus of WEAC Convention

MADISON — The challenge of reforming Wisconsin's public schools will take top billing at this year's state teachers convention scheduled to be held here on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 24-25. The annual two-day, in-service convention of the Wisconsin Education Association Council will focus on teaching educators proven school reform techniques for use in the classroom. Under this year's theme, "Meeting the Challenge," the WEAC convention will feature nearly 100 workshops and forums on such school issues as the impact of biotechnology, educating diverse student populations and integrating special needs students into regular classrooms.

Headlining the convention's general session will be noted astronomer Carl Sagan, who will address his vision of education in the 21st century. "Wisconsin's teachers have historically been leaders in school reform," said WEAC President Dick Collins, in announcing the program. "Our association led the fight for legislation to identify and educate special needs students, and for tougher high school graduation standards and more rigorous testing and school district accountability measures." "Wisconsin schools continue to rank first in the nation on college test scores because we care about how we educate our kids," Collins added. "But we must do a better job of educating our non-college bound students for life in a technological world, and we're working hard to come up with the answers." An extensive educational exhibit will open pre-convention activities Wednesday evening and will continue through Friday. The convention will be centered at Madison's Dane County Exposition Center with meetings also scheduled at nearby hotels and facilities.

Indians Lose VB Season Finale

By Statesman Sports Writer
NEW HOLSTEIN

Kewaskum volleyball coach Dave Rizzardi thought it might have been the fact that the Indians went into their final regular season match knowing that the best that they could finish was third in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference standings.

Whatever 'it' was, it caused the Indians to suffer a letdown in their last match before the WIAA Tournaments, as they lost to New Holstein 4-15, 13-15, 15-10 here, last Tuesday.

The Indians came out very flat in the opening game, falling behind 0-13 before they knew what had hit them. By the time the Indians had warmed up, New Holstein had one game won, and were well on their way to the victory.

"I don't know what happened out there," Rizzardi said of the opening game woes. "We just weren't into it at the beginning. It's hard to say what caused that. We just didn't get fired up for the match."

Part of the reason for the slow start may be attributed to the fact that the Indians watched as Robyn Winninghoff re-injured her ankle in warmups and wasn't able to play. Winninghoff, who Rizzardi says was returning to top form, collided with a teammate at the net before the match.

"She was getting stronger each day," Rizzardi said of the junior spiker. Rizzardi said he is in no hurry to rush Winninghoff back into action for regionals or sectionals. "It's hard to say," if she will be back. "She's got so much ahead of her this year, so why push it."

Winninghoff's absence was surely felt against the Huskies. After pulling to within two points late in the second game, the Indians still looked to have a shot at the game. But New Holstein got tough when they needed to, and pulled out the win.

"They were just more fired up about the match then we were," Rizzardi commented, noting that it was New Holstein's Parent's Night. "They had all the festivities before the match, so they were pretty pumped."

Kelly Korth did her best to fill in Winninghoff's shoes. Korth had five spike kills and 10 total points to lead the Indians. Stacey Heberer led the team in assists with six.

The loss left the Indians with a 7-5 mark in the EW, which placed them third in conference action. Chilton suffered their first loss of the season in their finale against Sheboygan Falls, but the Tigers still finished in first. Falls took third. The Indians open Regional action at home Saturday.

Indian Frosh, JV Spikers Lose

By Statesman Sports Writer

NEW HOLSTEIN — It was a clean sweep for the New Holstein volleyball squads last Tuesday, as the Huskies won at all three levels to celebrate their Parent's Night.

The Huskies upended the Indians JV squad 15-9, 15-8, 13-15, while the Indians freshman were also being beaten 15-5, 3-15, 15-9.

For the frosh, Shelly Williams was 15 for 15 serving, while Tracy Jacak hit on seven of eight serves and made some nice saves, according to coach Janet Molebash. "Andrea Bonlender also played well at the net."

The Indians frosh started slow in the first game, said Molebash. But with the help of Williams' serving, the Indians were able to regroup and win the second game. The Indian frosh finished the year at 4-8 in the Eastern Wisconsin.

For the JV's, "Chery Michaels and Cara Cechvak provided the serving in game three," according to coach Mary Holfelz. The loss dropped the Indians to 8-4 in conference, a big improvement from last year, when the same team failed to win a game all season.

Flag Football Playoff Finals

The final week of the KAC Youth Division flag football league season was played Sat. Oct. 19, with the final rounds of the tournament.

In the first game the 1st place team, the Bears, took on the Raiders, who had won the first tournament game last week over the Eagles. The Raiders started the scoring in this game on a Matt Tonn to Jim Kopecky 9 yd. pass. Tonn ran in the extra point and the Raiders led 7-0. Jim Westerman returned the following kickoff 74 yds. for a touchdown and with the missed extra point it was 7-6 Raiders. The Bears continued to show why they were undefeated during the season as they scored on a Jesse Williams 5 yd. run, a Brian Butschlick to Westerman 49 yd. pass, a Butschlick 10 yd. run and a Williams 36 yd. run. Westerman ran in two extra points and Butschlick threw a pass to David Gerhartz for another extra point giving the Bears a 33-7 lead. Tonn threw a 40 yd. pass to Tim Gundrum and a Tonn to Kopecky extra point pass made the score 33-14, at halftime, Bears over the Raiders.

In the second half Westerman ran 39 yds. for a touchdown and Williams ran in the extra point, 40-14 Bears. A Tonn to Gundrum 38 yd. pass and a missed extra point made the final score 40-20, Bears over Raiders putting the Bears in the championship game.

The second game had the 2nd place Packers against the 3rd place Redskins. The Packers started the scoring with a Marc Herman to Jason Barrett 8 yd. pass and an Aaron Kurth to Troy Zehren 22 yd. pass with a Kurth to Herman extra point pass making the score 13-0, Packers. The Redskins then recorded a safety making the score 13-2 Packers. Kurth scored on a 35 yd. run and with the missed extra point the Packers led at halftime 19-2.

The second half had Ryan Radtke throwing a 17 yd. pass to Herman and with the missed extra point the Packers won the game 25-2 moving into the championship game.

The championship game had the undefeated Bears against the Packers who lost one game, to the Bears. The Packers started the scoring on a Marc Herman 64 yd. run and with the missed extra point it was 6-0 Packers. The Bears came back on a 38 yd. Brian Butschlick run, missed extra point and it was a 6-6 game. Aaron Kurth then hit Marc Herman on a 48 yd. pass play and the missed extra point made it 12-6 Packers. Kurth then ran 55 yds. for another score and at half time it was 18-6 Packers.

In the second half Butschlick hit Jim Westerman on a 40 yd pass play and a Westerman run for the extra point made the score 18-13 Packers over the Bears. This was the final score as neither team was able to get into the end zone the rest of the game and the Packers finished as champions of the 1991 KAC Youth Division flag football league season.

The KAC Youth Division would like to thank all of the people who made this season a success. The coaches, players, parents, referees and everyone else who helped. Without this support and help the league would not be able to continue. Thanks also goes to the school district for the use of the football field. Thanks again to everyone and see you next football season.

Chrissy Neumann All-Conference

SHEBOYGAN — As expected, the Kewaskum boys and girls cross country teams were at, or near the bottom of the team standings at the Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet here, last Wednesday.

But what wasn't expected was the effort put out by Indian freshman Chrissy Neumann, who finished seventh among the girls competitors, thus earning her an all-conference medal.

Neumann, just one of two Indian girls running in the meet, came through the finish line in 13:49 to just barely be edged for sixth place. Still, her time was good enough to place her among the EW's elite runners, and just being a freshman, Neumann will have plenty of chances to move up in the standings.

The only other Indian girl to run was Greta Kuphal, who came in 24th, crossing the wire in 15:00 flat.

The Indians boys were able to field a full team, but their efforts weren't enough to keep them out of the cellar. The Indians total of 147 left them eight points behind sixth-place Two Rivers. Plymouth won the meet, scoring just 42 points. Kiel was next with 55, followed by Sheboygan Falls (73), New Holstein (116), Chilton (118), Two Rivers and Kewaskum.

Dean Kreis beat his brothers Willie and Wade, and was the top Indian runner in the field, coming in 16th with a 18:37 clocking. Josh Kurtz (18:59) and Jeff Dirmeyer (19:34) were next for the Indians, finishing in 25th and 33rd place, respectively, while Willie Kreis was 35th (19:55) and Wade 38th (20:19).

Both Indian squads will now get ready for the WIAA Regionals, which will take place this Saturday.

Indian FB Teams Swept by Plymouth

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Scheduling Plymouth as the opponent for Homecoming was a big step for the Kewaskum football teams, but all three Indian squads played well against the Panthers, although none came up with a victory.

The Indian JV's led twice in their tilt with the Panthers, only to let the visitors come back each time and escape with a 20-16 win.

The freshman, meanwhile, led just once, and then fell asleep on defense to let Plymouth answer right back, and the Panthers eventually came away with a 14-6 win over the young Indians, who dropped to 2-2 on the year.

The JV's who also fell to the .500 mark (3-3), took the lead in their contest, as Beau Coulter scampered 40 yards for a score. The two-point conversion was good, making it 8-0.

Plymouth came right back, however, scoring a pair of touchdowns in the first half, and at intermission, the visitors were ahead 14-8.

Coulter put the Indians back in front, as he scored his second touchdown of the game, this one from eight yards out, and with the two-point try good, Kewaskum led 16-14. But the Indians weren't able to hold on in the end, allowing Plymouth another score to come away victorious.

In the freshman tilt, both teams struggled in the first half, and it wasn't until just before the half when the Indians put up the game's first points. Indians signal-caller Dan Survis ran the ball in from four yards out, making it 6-0.

The Indians then let Plymouth march right down the field on their next possession, though, and the Panthers scored on a long pass to tie it up. The Panthers were good on the two-point try, though, and at the half it was 8-6.

Plymouth made it 14-6 early in the second half, and the Indians were never able to recover. In addition to Survis having another fine game, Andy Mathies and Rich Farchione were also commended for having good games.

A radio advertisement was once heard to offer: "Ladies and gentlemen, now you can have a bikini for a ridiculous figure."

Indian Netters Ousted at Subsectionals

By Statesman Sports Writer

WEST BEND — While he didn't have a whole lot of hope coming into the meet, Kewaskum girls tennis coach Glenn Eichstedt was pleasantly surprised by his team's effort at the WIAA Subsectional here, last Tuesday.

The Indians were unable to advance any team or individual to Sectional competition, but it really didn't seem to bother Eichstedt, who was pleased with his team's showing.

"Overall, I was pleased with our team play," Eichstedt said regarding the meet, which featured competition from tennis-rich schools such as Fond du Lac, West Bend (East and West), Beaver Dam, Ripon and Waupun. "Especially considering the closeness of the double matches."

It was there where Eichstedt felt that he had the best chance of advancing to Sectionals. But instead, the Indians' top singles player, Jessica Rohrer gave Indians backers their biggest thrill, as she came within one set of moving to Sectionals.

"The highlight of the day was the quality of play demonstrated by Jessica," Eichstedt beamed. Rohrer took care of West's Amy Schmelzing in the opening round, 6-3, 6-4 in a match that "was not as surprising as it was satisfying," according to the Indian mentor.

The win advanced Rohrer to the finals, where she had to face Beaver Dam senior Nikki Pinkerton. Rohrer easily won the first set 6-2, but then Pinkerton picked up her game to another level. Pinkerton went on to win the final two sets 6-0, 6-3, ending Rohrer's chances for Sectionals.

"Jessica had prepared for today's competition with as much effort, practice, dedication and sheer intensity as any coach could ever ask for," said Eichstedt, not one for a loss of words. He complimented Rohrer's work ethic and heart, and added "That will be difficult to replace."

Rohrer's younger sister Melissa, normally a No. 3 singles player, teamed with No. 4 singles Karyn Dossinger to form a strong doubles team. Their combined efforts weren't strong enough, however, as the duo fell to West's Jennie Baily and Jenny Hausman 3-6, 6-3, 1-6. Despite the loss, the two "proved their own capability as well as their adaptability," according to Eichstedt.

Indian No. 2 singles player Jenny Thull ran into a tough opponent in FDL's Margaret Hayes, who entered the match with a 16-2 record. Hayes beat Thull in straight sets 6-1, 6-0.

Kewaskum's steady doubles combination of Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank went into their match with an overall record of 14-4, but it was Beaver Dam's Jessica Johnson and Sheri Sackett who came out on top 6-4, 6-2. Frank suffered an injury during the match, but Eichstedt still had nothing but praise for his EW Conference champs, thanking them for a great year and for "personally elevating the doubles competition within the team."

Even You Can Build a Float

If you have thought of making a float for a parade and didn't because you didn't know where to start, the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce has help for you.

A float-building seminar will be held on Saturday, October 26, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. in Chamber conference room in the Centrum Building, 120 N. Main Street, 2nd floor. The seminar will address design and construction of a float how to equip a float with amplified sound, and how to illuminate a float. Suggestions for pulling or motorizing a float and manipulating a float in a parade will also be given.

"Ultimately, we would like to see more "home made" floats in our Christmas Parade," said Marilyn Edwards, Chamber Administrative Assistant and coordinator for West Bend's Christmas Parade. "If we can dispel the fears of building a float by providing some basic information, people will be more apt to give the project a try."

Individuals or organizations that are interested in attending the free seminar should make reservations by calling the Chamber office at 338-2666.

West Bend's Christmas Parade will be held on Sunday, December 1, beginning at 6:00 p.m. The parade has acquired the reputation of being one of the best in the area and attracts approximately 20,000 spectators.

Weather Hampers Indian Attack, Lose to Huskies 6-0

By Statesman Sports Writer

NEW HOLSTEIN — It is many a players dream to be able to play a football game in a snowstorm, or even for that matter, on a field covered with snow. This year's Kewaskum football team must not be among that group of gridders.

That's because the dream of snow turned into a nightmare for the Indian offense, as their potent passing attack of a week ago was nonexistent as they dropped a 6-0 decision to New Holstein, here, last Friday night.

"It was a very frustrating evening," Indian coach Clark Pearson said regarding the meeting. "We had our chances, but we just didn't convert them."

After passing for over 300 yards and previous week against league-leading Plymouth, the Indians were hampered by late-afternoon snowstorm that blanketed the field. Footing was slippery at best, and players trying to change directions had their work cut out for them.

"It was really, really slippery out there," Pearson remarked of the conditions. "It was very difficult moving laterally. You just couldn't make cuts. That was one reason for our passing game not being very productive. We have to rely on our quickness, and that (snow) sure doesn't help."

The Indians lost one fumble and QB Jim Marx threw one interception, as the offense never got untracked. Marx, who threw for over 200 yards off the bench against Plymouth, managed just 41 against the Huskies.

"Jim did okay," Pearson said of the junior signal-caller, who is filling in for Chad Cook. Cook suffered a dislocated hip against Plymouth, and is lost for the year. "It was some tough conditions for him (Marx) to work."

The lone score of the game came after an Indian miscue on a punt. Kim Marx tried to field a bad snap from center, and in doing so, Marx went to one knee, killing the play, and giving New Holstein the ball deep in Indian territory.

"It was a low snap," Pearson said of the play. "Kim went to get the ball, and he touched his knee on the ground."

Two plays later, New Holstein's Dan Preissner ran it in from five yards out, and the Huskies were on top 6-0. The score could have only tied the game, but the Indians blew a golden opportunity early in the game.

The Indians marched down the field to the Husky five-yard line, where they had a first and goal to go. But after a running play gained little to no yards and a bobbed snap lost yardage on the next play, the Indians threw two incomplete passes, thus giving up the ball on downs.

Kewaskum had another opportunity slip through their hands late in the game. After another drive had the Indians setting up shop at the Husky 13 yard line, the Indians gained just two yards on four plays and once again gave up the ball.

The biggest bright spot in the defeat was the play of the Indian defense. "The defense played extremely well," Pearson said, noting the Indians held New Holstein to just 114 total yards. "I can't fault their play at all."

Pearson cited Todd Muckerheide and Brad Weinreich for having good games at their respective linebacker positions. Jason Steilow and Joel Fleischman also were complimented for their play. Muckerheide also deserved the credit for his offensive efforts, as he led Kewaskum with 68 yards rushing.

"We could have won the game, but twice we came away

Indians to Host Volleyball Regional

KEWASKUM — Any coach would love to have his team getting better come tournament time. Throw in the added dimension of a home court advantage, and one can see why Kewaskum volleyball coach Dave Rizzardi is so optimistic about his team's chances in the WIAA Regionals to be held here, Saturday, October 26.

The Indians will be the host school of the four-team Regional competition, which gets underway at 10:00 a.m. Joining the Indians in the meet will be Campbellsport, Plymouth and the winner of the Waupun sub-regional, which was held this past Tuesday. Competing in Waupun were Port Washington, Sheboygan Falls, and Waupun.

"I really feel confident about our chances," Rizzardi said last week. The Indians will have had a week and a half to bounce back from a regular-season ending loss at New Holstein. The loss was just the second of the entire last empty," Pearson went on to say. "We've been in position to win just about every ballgame," excluding the Campbellsport and Two Rivers contests, he said. "It's either good or bad, depending on how you look at it. It's just been a very tough year."

The Indians, who dropped to 1-4 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, 1-6 overall, will conclude their season this Thursday, when they host Kiel (2-3).

half of the season for the Indians.

Teams will begin warmups at 9:35 Saturday, and introduction of the teams is slated for 9:55. The meet will consist of three rounds of round-robin match play, and the team with the best record after the three rounds will advance to the WIAA Sectionals Friday, Nov. 1st, at Shorewood High School.

The first round will pit the Indians against Plymouth, whom the Indians have defeated twice already this season. In the second round, the Indians meet Campbellsport, with whom the Indians have split in two meetings this season. In the final round, the Indians will go up against the winner of the Waupun Sub-regional.

The admission for the Tournament will be as follows: $3.00 for adults; $2.00 for high school students; $1.00 children under 12. No passes will be allowed for the meet.

Citing his team's chances of advancing further in the WIAA Tournament, Rizzardi is hoping for a huge Indian backing at the Regionals, and is encouraging everyone to attend for a day of some competitive volleyball.
