Kewaskum Juniors Celebrate 25 Year Anniversary

In the fall of 1966, our country was at war in Vietnam, a postage stamp was 5c, the Kewaskum Sentry store advertised frying chickens at 27c per pound and a dozen Sunkist oranges were 69c.

Around this same period of time, a group of Kewaskum area young women were studying information on the possible formation of a Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club.

Over forty interested women attended an informational meeting hosted by Mrs. L. N. "Pat" Peterson. Mrs. Peterson had learned that several women were considering joining the West Bend Junior Club. In her efforts to keep these young women working for the good of Kewaskum, Mrs. Peterson hosted a coffee to see how many might be interested in joining the Kewaskum Women's Club, of which she was a member, or would they prefer forming a separate group.

The women decided to form a Junior Club and on January 12, 1967, the club received its charter with the General Federation of Women's Club with a total of 32 area members joining.

On Sunday, January 12, 1992, over 70 former and current Junior members and other guests gathered to celebrate their silver anniversary milestone with a luncheon at Hon-E-Kor Country Club in Kewaskum.

These enthusiastic, community minded, energetic volunteers have had their hands full in organizing, financing and providing help to complete many projects during their 25 year history. Some of those projects include a preschool story hour with over 100 children participating at times, bicycle safety and babysitting clinics, sponsors of the Helen Mears Art Contest for 7th and 8th grade students, block parent and McGruff Safe House programs, letters, gift packages and decorated Christmas trees sent to our troops in Vietnam, operating a recycling program in 1974 (before recycling became a household word), preparing and serving the annual village employee appreciation luncheon, food baskets and clothing drives for needy families, tour of homes and fashion show fund raisers, visits to the local nursing homes to play bingo, have picnics and hold Christmas and Valentine parties with the residents, supporting the nature trail in Kiwanis Park, purchasing playground equipment for the park, organizing the Green Bay Packers vs. Kewaskum Educators benefit game in February of 1968 and more recently, the Clean Up Kewaskum Day, Kettle Country Christmas Arts and Crafts Fair, making ABC quilts for terminally ill babies, donations to Friends of Abused Families, participation in Kewaskum Kettle Country Kolors Festival and the Kewaskum Christmas Parade.

The Kewaskum Juniors have raised approximately $20,000 from fund raisers and have given $14,525 in educational scholarships to KHS graduating seniors.

Among those attending the luncheon were 15 of the 17 past presidents and all of the charter officers. The charter officers include Sharron Miller, President; Honora Norton, Vice President; Sandy Rimmel, Treasurer; Isabelle Straub, Recording Secretary and Dolores Hammes, Corresponding Secretary.

On behalf of the club, current president Meri Lou Chambers graciously accepted two lovely engraved silver trays and a generous donation to the Clifford E. Rose Scholarship Fund in honor of the club's 25th anniversary from Mrs. Pat Peterson. In addition, Sixth District President Dorothy Maser and State Junior

Village, Kornelis Differ on Annexation PSC's Decision Means Smaller Water Rate Hike

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

The Public Service Commission's decision to go along with Kewaskum's request to reduce the village's rate of return for its Water Department will mean a substantially lower rate increase for customers.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt informed the Village Board, Monday night, that the PSC's agreement to go along with a 6 percent, rather than 8 percent rate of return for the department will result in an approximate 18 to 19 percent increase in customer water bills instead of the projected 22 to 27 percent based on the PSC's original stipulation of 8 percent.

For the average residential customer using 19,000 gallons of water, the present quarterly bill is $26.02. Under the amended figure, that bill will go up about $4.95, to $30.97. Had the PSC maintained its stand requiring the 8 percent, customers would have seen almost a $7.00 increase. Commercial, industrial, and fire service customers will also see substantially lower rate hikes than originally anticipated.

Schmidt told the trustees, even after the PSC approves a new water rate for the village, it will not take effect until the third quarter of 1992.

In appearances by citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Korneli addressed the board about the village's offer to include their property in annexation plans for the Melvin Tompkins trailer park property

Kewaskum Graduate Receives Highest Honor From Dentist Association

By Sharon Callaway Roznik
Statesman Staff Writer

Dr. Chester Perschbacher, 90, former Kewaskum native, was the recipient of the 1991 Wisconsin Dental Association Outstanding Service Award. This prestigious award was presented to him at the WDA Annual Session on Saturday, Sept. 14, at the Sheraton Inn in Madison.

Born in Kewaskum in 1901, Chet is the son of the late Arey A. Perschbacher, who owned a garage and blacksmith shop, carriage repository, and carried implements of the farming trade in the village.

With the advent of the automobile, Perschbacher's father began selling and servicing automobiles.

After graduating from Kewaskum High School, "Chet" headed for Marquette University School of Dentistry, which was the turning point of his life. He graduated in 1925, and set up practice in Appleton.

Joined by his brother Ray, the two developed many firsts in the field of Dentistry including a standard gold for all castings, standardizing packaged and weighed investment powder and liquid, full cast crown techniques, and motivation to practice preventive dentistry.

The Perschbachers held local and national clinics on direct gold inlay and crown casting techniques, as well as reconstructive dentistry. They were also the first to have patients fill out a standard medical history form.

Over the years, Perschbacher was a member of the Wisconsin Dental Association, the International College of Dentists, serving as President of the World Section in 1963, the Chicago Dental Society, Psi Omega Fraternity, Pierre Fauchard Academy and the American College of Dentistry. He received the Star Award which is the highest honor bestowed in the field of Dentistry.

Dr. Perschbacher has also been active on the YMCA board of Directors, Secretary, Treasurer, and President of the Appleton Memorial Hospital Staff, a member of the Community Chest, Outagamie County Hospital Commission and Kiwanis Club.

Since his retirement in '86, Chet has been keeping busy. He and his wife Louise celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Sept. 12, and have three children: Ann, John, Jean, and seven grandchildren.

Along with Ray, Dr. Perschbacher has two sisters, Gladys Perschbacher Knickel of Texas, Evelyn Perschbacher Peters of West Bend, and his late brother Myron, who took over his father's garage in Kewaskum, until the property was sold to Millers Furniture many years ago.

on Highway 45 south.

After more than an hour's discussion, the two sides could not reach agreement on the costs the Kornelis would have to pay for the installation of sewer and water service, should they decide to agree to the annexation.

The Kornelis have declined to accept the village's offer to install the utilities for approximately $10,200, to their home and a rental unit on the property. The village, in its offer, has also proposed to waive the open spaces and parks fees and to pay for surveying costs. The Kornelis would also have ten years at 6 percent interest, to pay for the work.

The Kornelis, in a counter proposal, want the village to do the work for less than $8,000, which the village rejected.

Board president Mary Krueger told the Kornelis, "we feel the village is already offering you a good deal." Several trustees told the couple they were being offered the same installation rate, per unit, as the properties annexed on the north end of the village, rather than using the linear rate. Since the Kornelis' property is considerably larger, with 420 feet frontage, as compared to some of the homes with considerably smaller lots, the board felt it was offering the Kornelis a fair option.

Mike Korneli told the board, in discussion with lawyers and the administrator, he was being threatened that if he did not agree to annexation now, it would cost him a lot more to annex in the future. Trustee Gary Gavin indicated no one was threatening anyone. Krueger said, "We're offering you a good deal now but two years down the road there could be a whole different board sitting up here and they wouldn't have to go along with what we're offering you now." "This option is for here and now," said Krueger, "a new board can do anything they want and they have." All the board was trying to tell Korneli was that, at the time of any future request for annexation, whether it was two or ten years from now, he would more than likely have to pay the going installation rate and that could be a lot higher than the village's present offer.

Gavin asked Korneli, "Do you want to come into the village or don't you?" "I agreed to accept the proposal but I didn't like it," said Korneli. "You mean the proposal that your lawyer sent us that we rejected?" asked Trustee Tom McElhatton. "Yes," said Korneli, "it all depends on what it costs." "That's the bottom line," said McElhatton, "not whether you want to come in, but the cost." "We offered you the same fair deal we offered the people up there (on north Fond du Lac Avenue)."

The board told Korneli no one was threatening to force him into annexing, he was merely being given the option which would mean a considerable saving for him. When Korneli was asked if he would go along with his own lawyer's proposal, he indicated he would have to think about it.

In other business the board approved the request of Public Works Director Jerry Gilles to seek bids on the purchase of a new pickup and new dump truck to replace two of the village's 1975 model vehicles. He also informed the board he would be looking at all the village's equipment to set up a routine replacement schedule.

Gilles also told the trustees he would like to publicly commend the efforts and teamwork of his public works and treatment plant crews in working together last Tuesday to repair the Main Street watermain break. "They worked hard and did an excellent job, one man even came in on his vacation day."

Fire Chief Robert Stoltzmann told the board he would also like to thank the Public Works crew, Kewaskum Police Department, County Sheriffs and State Patrol for their response and help during the Barrel Haus fire. "They all worked hard and did a great job."

In committee reports, Public Services chairman Mark Vechart asked the board to approve his committee's recommendation that no renovations be made to the firehouse meeting room, but that it continued to be used only for village government type functions.

Parks Committee chairman Larry Williams updated the board on the new softball association's activities. Besides paying all its related expenses for its operation and use of the diamonds, the association paid the village $1,194, half of what they made over and beyond those expenses. Krueger noted the group had done very well for its first year of operation. It was also noted that the association had shown a fair profit even without running any large tournaments.

Shed Fire Damage May Reach $300,000

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

A shed fire on the Charles Garbisch farm, N134 Boltonville Road, in the Town of Scott, is still under investigation as to the cause and damage to the building and equipment stored in it may run as high as $300,000 by the time everything is repaired or replaced according to Garbisch.

The fire was discovered at about 12:30 Friday morning, by Garbisch' neighbor Art Kelling, who was returning home from work. Kelling alerted the Garbisch family, however, they were unable to call for aid. The fire apparently knocked out the shed telephone cutting off phones in the house. Kelling then drove to Boltonville and called the fire department.

The blaze apparently began in the 80-foot workshop section of the 54 x 135 foot steel shed. Garbisch said the fire appears to have started in two separate areas, but nothing specific as yet has been pinpointed as the cause.

The Boltonville Fire Department was assisted by battling the fire by the Beechwood and Batavia departments.

Garbisch said all the equipment in the shed was either destroyed or sustained heavy fire and smoke damage.

Kiwanis Students of the Month for November Newspaper Contribute to KHS Social Studies Class

Chad Cook

Chad Cook, son of Coyla and Dean Scheel, is our first student of the month for November. Currently he is taking College Prep Literature, Human Relations, College Physics, Concert Choir, Information Processing and Pre-Calculus. Chad is also studying house designs under Mr. Amundson as a architecture seminar

Prison Tour a Success

Mr. Rhode's Kewaskum High School psychology and social problems class just returned from their prison tour and "Project Aware".

"Project Aware" is an inmate program sanctioned by the State of Wisconsin for inmates to talk to juveniles about their lives of crime, while offering incentives to stay in school, to listen to their parents and teachers, and to choose good instead of evil.

The prison tour marks the culminating experience at the end of each semester of study, where Mr. Rhode's students can see how the State of Wisconsin holds people accountable. To put this program's purpose into one lifer's quote: "Don't come to my house of pain where the strong prey on the weak..."

As knowledge increases, wonder deepens.

Extra curricular activities include four years participation in basketball, football and baseball, two years in golf and he is a varsity club member. In addition, Chad served as student council president as a sophomore, is in Who's Who in American High Schools and AFS, has been in the school play for three years, and is in his fourth year of Swing Choir.

Our second student of the month for November is Tracy Ruplinger, daughter of Donald and Barbara Ruplinger. Her course of study lists College Prep Literature, Human Relations, College Physics, Spanish 4, Inorganic Chemistry and Pre-Calculus.

Tracy's extra curricular activities embrace AFS, Spanish Club, Varsity Club, Wrestling

Club, Future Business Leaders of America, Future Homemakers of America and National Honor Society. She is in baton twirling, gymnastics, Key Club (president this year), Student Council (president this year), Medical Explorers and Who's Who in American High Schools. Tracy has been involved with track, fast pitch softball, a state champion slow pitch softball team member, football statistician, volleyball, homecoming M.C., and on the prom court. She has earned an academic letter, been on high honor roll every semester, and does volunteer work with the Beechwood Fireman's Auxiliary.

I am pleased to present our Kiwanis Students of the Month for November.

Dave Rhode, a Kewaskum High School social studies teacher, along with Sue Burgard and Lani Harper, Kewaskum EEN instructors, would like to express their gratitude to the daily newspapers for donating materials to the EEN, psychology, and social problems classes.

The West Bend News and the Fond du Lac Reporter have both donated newspapers free of charge to students as part of their newspaper in education programs. With the help of B.C. Ziegler and Co. and Bruce Wadman of Brenner Tank Inc., students were able to keep up with current news and social events for an entire semester.

During their semester courses, students read and discussed the current news events presented in both papers. Magic Johnson, the Jeffrey Dahmer case, the break up of the Soviet Union, and the mass murders at Looby's Cafeteria were only some of the topics discussed.

Daily newspapers are essential in providing students with true unbiased up-to-date information. With this current information, students can discuss and formulate their own opinions about topics that can sometimes be overwhelming and unimaginable.

Daily newspapers can be saved and read over and over again. Today's youth can pass information onto future generations with written proof of what really happened.

B.C. Ziegler and Co. and Mr. Wadman promote the education of our youth. With their generosity, teachers all over the area are able to give their students the information needed in today's ever-changing world.

THANK YOU!

The Kewaskum Fire Dept. would like to publicly thank all the professional assistance we received from the Boltonville, Campbellsport Fire Dept., the Kewaskum Police Dept., the Washington County Sheriff Dept. and the Department of Public Works. They all did a superb job and made our job much easier.

Every fire fighter would like to personally thank the people at the Municipal Building, all the businesses and individuals that offered their help and gave us food, and beverages. It was a long very cold and icy day and this made it more bearable. It is very comforting to the Kewaskum Fire Dept. to know we are serving such a close knit, caring community that isn't afraid to give a helping hand in time of need.

We also can't forget how the Barrel Haus was such a big part of Kewaskum and it will be missed. Our prayers go out to Jim Rinas and the occupants that lived upstairs.

This scene of Beechwood was taken in the early 1900's. The building on the right was the first General Store of Beechwood and also served as a post office. It was said that you could buy anything there from a pin to a thrashing machine, and if they did not have it, they would get it for you. It was owned by Charles Koch Sr. Later they built the store on the left with a dance hall above. The upper portion has since been removed and is now known as, "Tillie's Saloon."

The church on the left was established March 10, 1896. It was named, "The Salem Church of the Evangelical Association of North America in and for their Society." It was razed in the mid 20's. There were sister churches in Batavia, Wayne, and Bonduel, WI.

The church on the right is the St. John's U.C.C. Church. It was built in 1888.

The Citizen Bee, a civic achievement program and competition for student in grades 9 through 12, was recently held at KHS. Three students will be attending regional competition in Milwaukee on February 29, 1992. Winners at regional move to a state competition and state finalists will travel to Washington DC for the national finals in June.

Winners at KHS were Rachel Gosa, senior, 1st place; Jenny Campbell, senior, 2nd place; Tim Lettow, junior, 3rd place; and Thad Koontz, alternate.

Citizen Bee provides an oppor-

Anniversary

Director Mary Balicki both presented Award Certificates to the club in recognition of their 25 years of continued volunteer service.

The Kewaskum High School Swing Choir, under the direction of Dave Bertelsen, presented a most enjoyable selection of songs ending their performance with tunes from the 60's that were familiar to many in attendance.

Today, the Kewaskum Juniors have 21 members. As a member, one is involved in a group working for community betterment, can develop leadership skills, receives personal satisfaction from successfully completed projects and can be part of friendships that develop from working together.

On Thursday, February 20, the Kewaskum Juniors will be hosting an open house luncheon for area women who are interested in learning more about their volunteer efforts. At the anniversary luncheon, the Juniors reflected on their past accomplishments. Now they invite you to become part of their future. Any woman, over the age of 18, is welcome.

It has been a busy week for the fire department which was called out twice during a severe blizzard Monday night and answered a third call in sub-zero weather early Wednesday evening. Fire completely destroyed the farm home on the Furlong sisters farm about eight miles north of Kewaskum Monday night. All the homes furnishings were also destroyed and Mrs. Daisy Furlong and Lewis Bettendorf, the hired man, escaped with only what they could take with them. Cause of the blaze discovered at about 10 p.m., is thought to be an overheated wood burning furnace.

Earlier Monday evening firemen answered a call to Regal Ware Inc., where a buffing machine caused about $200 in damage. When firemen arrived the blaze had been nearly extinguished by the automatic sprinkler system.

A howling blizzard struck this area Monday with winds gusting to 60 to 70 miles per hour, piling the snow in huge drifts, blocking and closing streets and roads closing schools and endangering visibility. The storm was followed by a severe cold wave with thermometers registering from 17 to 27 below zero.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Backhaus, R.2, Campbellsport, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, Jan. 22, at St. Lucas Lutheran Church parlors with an open house from 2 to 4 p.m.

Regal Ware Inc. of Kewaskum, along with the West Bend Company, both lost valuable displays in fire which destroyed the McCormick Place exposition center on Chicago's lakefront early Monday. The new 60 foot, two-story high display of the West Bend Co., which was to be shown for the first time at the National Housewares Manufacturers convention was believed entirely destroyed with an estimated loss of approximately $35,000. The Regal Ware set up which was destroyed was also valued at $35,000.

Catholic Schools' Week

January 26 - February 1

Holy Trinity to Celebrate with Special Days

Catholic Schools' Week will be celebrated throughout the Milwaukee Archdiocese and the nation January 26, 1992 to February 1, 1992. "Discover Catholic Schools," is the theme for this special week-long celebration.

Wednesday, January 29, 1992 has been designated National Catholic Schools Appreciation Day.

Wisconsin's Governor, Tommy Thompson, has issued an official proclamation declaring the last week in January to be Catholic Schools Week in Wisconsin. He honored Catholic schools in Wisconsin for providing quality education to more than 80,000 students and their families; providing an environment in which children of many cultures and ethnic backgrounds encounter American traditions and learn to blend with their own special identity; and for representing an immense investment of social capital which benefits not only the families which support them, but all of Wisconsin.

There are 151 Catholic elementary and 12 high schools in the Milwaukee Archdiocese. The Archdiocese includes the counties in Southeastern Wisconsin. Over 41,000 students attend these schools.

Various celebrations, open houses and special events will take place at all the schools throughout Catholic Schools' Week, including Holy Trinity School in Kewaskum.

To celebrate this very special week Holy Trinity is planning the following special days:

Monday, Jan. 27 - Dress up day and blue and gold day begins with an all-school Mass at 7:45 a.m. All parents are invited to join teachers and students at Mass. There will also be door decorating for the Open House being held from 6 to 7 p.m. for all those who are interested in learning more about the school. A book fair will be held in conjunction with the Open House. Activities are culminated with a Home and School Association meeting at 7 p.m. Monday also marks the beginning of "In Celebration of Reading."

Tuesday, Jan. 28 - Button Day (in good taste, please) begins with Mass at 7:45 (grades 7 and 8). Big Buddy/Little Buddy activities are planned for the day.

Wednesday, Jan. 29 - The Fifties Day begins with Mass at 7:45 (grades 1 - 4). This will also be Teacher Appreciation Day and Teacher Switch Day.

Thursday, Jan. 30 - Beach Day. Outreach Day which includes Jump Rope for Heart, Math-a-Thon and Read-a-Thon will be held from 8 to 11 a.m.

Friday, Jan. 31 - Student Appreciation Day will feature skating at Skate Country from 12 to 2 p.m. (Lunch will be held at 11 and 11:30).

Sunday, Feb. 2 - A celebration of Catholic Schools' Week will be held at parish Masses as follows: St. Michaels at 10 a.m.; St. Bridgets at 7:30 a.m.; St. Kilian at 9 a.m. and Holy Trinity at 11 a.m. Parents are invited to join their children for lunch any day of the week, but are asked to please invite ahead. Parents are also invited to join the fun at Skate Country on Friday.

A storm has been raging on Jupiter for over 300 years, a storm that could swallow up the Earth—three of them, in fact. The great red spot, a vast cyclonic system, has had a diameter as large as 25,000 miles, or three times the diameter of the Earth.

PROUD OF OUR PAST ... LOOKING FORWARD TO THE FUTURE

1991 STATEMENT OF CONDITION

Through the years, the emphasis at West Bend Savings Bank has been to conservatively lay the foundation from which we could become one of the county's leading financial service companies.

1991 was one of the best years in our 65 year history. Our earnings, loan volume, deposit growth and capital all showed solid gains. Our "Totally Free" checking account program has enabled us to access thousands of new customers and has helped make West Bend Savings Bank one of Washington County's most customer oriented institutions.

The Financial Resource Group of affiliated companies, combined with the bank's professional sales staff have developed into a strong customer-driven service operation producing striking results. We look upon our sales representatives as talented professionals that have proven to be quite resourceful in helping our customers achieve their goals.

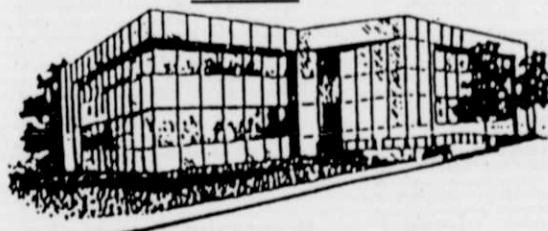

We look forward to the future with vigor and confidence. We believe that 1992 will prove to be a very good year. Low interest rates, controlled inflation under 3% and the investment community's enthusiasm all point to a markedly improved economy this spring. As we close out this 65th year of operation, we look back over past accomplishments with pride and eagerly await the opportunity to be of greater assistance to customers in the years to come.

What You Need to Know To Do Your 1991 Taxes

As people receive their federal tax packages, they'll want to know what tax changes affect them for 1991.

"Actually, the big news," says John T. Ader, Director of the IRS in Wisconsin, "is that there are relatively few major changes for 1991. That means the forms look the same, the instructions are pretty much the same, and that makes things easier for everyone... taxpayers, tax preparers, and even the IRS."

But Ader adds that there are some things taxpayers will want to be aware of. One involves working families. "If you earned less than $21,250 during 1991 and had a child living with you for at least six months, you can probably claim the Earned Income Credit. It has expanded this year and could mean up to $2,020 for you and your family. To get it, you need to file a tax return with the new Schedule EIC."

Ader says any parents who plan to claim a child as a dependent will need a social security number if that child is age one or older. The requirement used to affect children age two or older.

One familiar item is missing this year, notes Ader. "The deduction you used to be able to take for interest you paid on car loans, credit cards, and other kinds of consumer debt is no longer available. This deduction has been phased out since 1987 and it disappeared altogether in 1991."

Electronic filing... the filing of tax returns by computer... is expanding this year. For the first time, taxpayers who owe money will be able to file electronically, not just taxpayers who are getting refunds. Why would they want to do that? According to Ader, "Taxpayers who owe money can file electronically at any time during the filing season. They then have until April 15 to pay what they owe. By filing electronically, they'll know that their taxes are done and that they are correct. That means they won't have an unpleasant surprise later on, finding out that they owe more money than they thought."

Ader offers a few other tips. "If you're self-employed and if you claim the deduction for business use of your home, you should figure the correct amount on the new Form 8829. If you used your car for business, you should know that the standard mileage rate for 1991 is 27½ cents, up a penny and a half from 1990."

A number of tax brackets have increased to keep up with inflation. The personal exemption amount has increased to $2,150. The basic standard deduction is anywhere from $125 to $250 higher, depending on your filing status.

Some tax changes, notes Ader, only affect people who have higher incomes. "Exemptions, for yourself and for your dependents, are phased out. Itemized deductions are restricted above certain levels. Some alternative minimum tax provisions are revised and the tax rate is increased to 24%."

How can you get information? That's easy, says Ader. "Call or visit the IRS. In Milwaukee, call 271-3780. Everywhere else in Wisconsin, it's a toll-free call. The number is 1-800-TAX-1040."

Procrastination is the art of keeping up with yesterday.

WASHINGTON COUNTY WE-TIP CRIME OF THE WEEK

January 15, 1992

The Germantown Police Department is investigating a burglary that is similar to and believed to be committed by the same persons as many burglaries in Menomonee Falls and the north side of Milwaukee area. There have been at least 20 similar burglaries committed recently.

The suspects usually enter occupied homes by going in unlocked doors or prying doors with screwdrivers, usually during late evening hours or early morning hours. They generally take wallets and purses. A composite picture was done on one suspect and is included with this report. He is a white male, 18 to 20 years old, 5'8" to 5'10" tall, 160 pounds, with dark brown curly hair and a full face. The only description of his partner is that he is older.

All law enforcement agencies within Washington County are looking for any information that would lead to the arrest of these burglars. If any suspicious activities whatsoever are observed that could be related to these crimes, the local police agency should be contacted immediately, and the activities should be reported. Descriptions of individuals, vehicles and license numbers are very important in solving these types of criminal incidents.

Washington County's We-Tip phone line is 1-800-232-0594. Any information can be provided anonymously and if a conviction results from the information obtained, a cash reward will be awarded to the caller. The caller will be identified by using an assigned number recorded at the West Bend Police Department. All law enforcement agencies within Washington County appreciate any information relating to any criminal activity that may have been witnessed or that anyone may have knowledge of. Cash rewards can be quite substantial if a major crime is cleared and convictions are obtained.

Moraine Park Program Helps Area Woman Reenter Work Force

It isn't easy going through a divorce, raising two young daughters and returning to school after being a homemaker for 14½ years. But Patricia Hafermann of Kewaskum did just that... overcoming what might seem to many to be impossible odds. She entered Moraine Park Technical College's Corrections Science program, a nontraditional program, for women in January 1989, and graduated with a two-year associate degree in May 1991.

How did she overcome such odds? "With a lot of help from my friends and family," explained Hafermann, as she spoke to a group of women in the Reentry - Women in Transition program at Moraine Park's Fond du Lac campus. "They encouraged me to join the Reentry program. I met with Peg Pompe (Reentry instructor at Moraine Park's West Bend campus), and she answered a lot of my questions about returning to school and work."

The Reentry - Women in Transition program is a three-week program designed to help make the transition to becoming a financially self-supporting person easier. It targets the special needs of people — those separated, divorced, widowed, or who lack skills needed to find adequate employment — who are looking to return to the work force. The Reentry program, which offers personalized attention, encourages women to get involved in nontraditional occupations. "Jobs in nontraditional occupations are generally higher paying," said Judith Krauss, Women in Reentry instructor at the Fond du Lac Campus. "Exposure to networking skills and to people in the community is also encouraged," she added. Hafermann said the program and the people involved gave her "the confidence and assurance I needed to return to school."

After completing the Reentry program, Hafermann said she decided to take a few classes. She enrolled in two corrections courses at Moraine Park's West Bend campus in January 1989 just to get back into the swing of school. She also started working full time at a domestic abuse shelter and then took two more courses in the summer.

She said she had a lot of fears. "I didn't know how I would manage money-wise or kid-wise, plus I had to take care of the house all on my own. Fortunately the neighbors helped me out a lot," said Hafermann. She said both she and her daughters had to make a lot of sacrifices, but that it was worth it. "Every day got just a little easier because I knew I was doing it for myself and for my kids."

In fall 1989, after receiving A's in all four of her classes, Hafermann decided to enroll in the Corrections Science program full time. While in school she got involved in a number of extra-curricular activities. She was student ambassador for the Corrections Science program and both vice president and president of the Corrections Science Club. Hafermann had also quit her job at the domestic abuse shelter and taken a part-time position with the DNR, a nontraditional career field for women. "I saw the job as a learning experience. I had a lot of contact with people and it was related to the correctional field," she said.

In March 1991, Hafermann took another part-time position with Correctional Corporations of Wisconsin as a data entry and debugging person. She also began working five hours a week as a volunteer at Exodus House, a transitional facility for recovering alcoholics and drug abusers. Since her graduation from Moraine Park in May 1991, Hafermann has enrolled in the Alcohol and Drug Abuse (AODA) program at Moraine Park, and is also working towards her Bachelor of Administration in Criminal Justice degree from Marian College.

Hafermann said she knew all the hard work was worth it when at graduation her daughter asked to see "their" diploma. "I always told my girls that it was 'their' diploma. They had to struggle for it too," Hafermann said her advice to women considering returning to school is to "hang in there. It doesn't matter how young or old you are. Just take one step at a time and don't look at the big picture right away — it can be too overwhelming."

For more information on the Reentry program call Barbara Schall, West Bend campus, 334-3413 Ext. 31; Sherry Hackbarth, Beaver Dam campus, 887-1101 Ext. 136; Fond du Lac Campus, ADVOCAP, 922-7760.

West Bend Gallery Displays Soviet Art

Paintings and prints by 18 artists from Leningrad will be on display at the West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts from January 29 - February 23. Titled, WHAT IS NOT FORBIDDEN IS ALLOWED: CONTEMPORARY SOVIET ART, the exhibition features 52 works by members of the Tovarishchestvo, the Fellowship for Experimental Art. Formed in 1981, the Tovarishchestvo is a group of unofficial artists who banded together to form a professional association of creative artists. "Unofficial" in this instance does not mean illegal or underground; it simply means the artist is not a member of the governmental-sanctioned Union of Artists of the USSR.

Recent events in the Soviet Union have eased some of the restrictions that formerly hampered these unofficial artists, creating an atmosphere where, in the words of one of the artists in this exhibition, "what is not forbidden is allowed." What is not forbidden unofficial artists still face difficulties in finding studio space and adequate art supplies, they have been invited to exhibit their work alongside that of Union artists. The government has encouraged and endorsed exhibitions by unofficial artists abroad, even permitting some artists to travel with their work, perhaps signalling the beginning of an era of artistic exchange.

Curators for the exhibition are Wil White, independent curator, and Barbara Hazard, artist and art historian. The exhibition is circulated by the University of Oregon Museum of Art's department of Visual Arts Resources. Visual Arts Resources is funded by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Oregon Arts Commission, the Friends of the Museum, the University of Oregon and private foundations.

Also on display will be recent paintings from members of the National Watercolor Society. One of our nation's oldest and most prestigious watercolor societies has organized this exhibition of several of its members' works which will be on display at the West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts from February 1 - 28. Members of the National Watercolor Society become members only after successfully completing a rigid jurying process which assures the society of a consistent set of standards. Several of the artists who will be represented have had their work featured in national art publications.

The West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts is located at 300 South 6th Avenue in downtown West Bend. Normal gallery hours are Wednesday through Saturday 10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. and Sunday 1:00 - 4:30 p.m. For more information call the gallery at 334-9638.

Reading Celebration Can Earn Kids Skills

A winter reading campaign being launched by Holy Trinity School, Jan. 25 - Feb. 7, will remind children — and their parents — that reading for pleasure brings rewards. Children who set aside time for reading each day will gain powerful literacy skills and motivation — and the national winner will receive a trip to Washington, D.C.

Called "In Celebration of Reading," the campaign is sponsored by Reading Is Fundamental (RIF), the nation's largest reading-motivation program. This year's campaign, expected to attract a half million participating children, is underwritten by the Metropolitan Life Foundation.

During the two weeks of "In Celebration of Reading," Jan. 25 - Feb. 7, children will be encouraged by their schools and families to read on their own for a particular time period keyed to the abilities of their age group. Children reaching the reading goal can enter their names in a drawing for Holy Trinity's Reader.

The winner's name is also entered in a national drawing that will be held March 27 in Washington, D.C., to select the 1992 National RIF Reader and 10 runners-up. The National RIF Reader will be brought to Washington, D.C. for Reading Is Fun Week (April 19-25) and will be awarded an array of prizes, including a $500 U.S. Savings Bond, and a personal collection of books. Last year's winner was honored at a special ceremony with First Lady Barbara Bush at the Swiss Embassy in Washington, D.C.

This year, the children will also compete to win the 1992 Readers Cup. RIF and Metro Life will award the silver trophy to the RIF program whose children together read the highest average number of hours during "In Celebration of Reading/" Jan. 25 - Feb. 7. The Readers Cup honors outstanding group effort by a RIF program.

"In Celebration of Reading" gets our kids to read more. And educational studies repeatedly show that the more kids read, the better readers they become." Encourage your kids to participate! Special forms will be given to the children on Jan. 24.

Welcome to Our World

by
Dianne Horlamus, Executive Director, WCHS

I can't believe it! As of today we have 38 puppies available for adoption! Where are all those people we try to reach to let them know the importance of spay/neuter? Isn't anyone listening? Many of these cute fuzzy pups will not find a home. Once again guess who is the "bad guy"? Yup, it is those "terrible people at the Humane Society" that put all those wonderful dogs, puppies, cats and kittens to sleep. Yes, all too often we get blamed for the over population of God's creatures. Most certainly we are not out there asking everyone to make sure their animals have at least one litter so that we have something to do to keep us busy.

Each day that we go over the amount of animals that we have on hand and realize that there simply isn't enough room to house all the animals that we receive, our hearts break. It isn't fair that we, meaning staff and animals, should have to pay for the public's irresponsibility, but pay we do. Each animal that cannot find a home outside our shelter, has found a home in our hearts. These animals become our beloved friends that we must lay to rest.

Hopefully soon we will have a large enough facility and enough money to do what we should do, and that is to humanely care for the animals as long as possible. We don't enjoy having to decide which ones will live and which ones must die, would you?

We do offer dog training classes to those of you who want to teach your dog good home manners. These classes are for all dogs starting with Puppy Kindergarten, Basic Obedience, Advanced and Agility. We hope these classes will help you to decide to keep your pet instead of give it up because it does not behave. We are happy to help you in any way we can. These classes start on January 20, 1992 and continue throughout the year.

Call us at 677-4388, we want to help!

In addition to raising funds for the American Heart Association, Dance For Heart also promotes the health benefits of exercise and dance.

Since Dance For Heart began in Wisconsin in 1982, more than 30,000 men and women have raised almost $1.3 million at events held through the state.

Kids Say Don't Smoke

Preventing youth from starting to smoke is the single most important action that Wisconsin educators can take to help assure a healthy future for young people. The American Cancer Society, Wisconsin Division has made tobacco prevention and control a priority activity, and has recently made an attempt to reach youth in a fun and informative fashion.

The Division has presented every Wisconsin elementary and middle school with a copy of the new publication Kids Say Don't Smoke. This book combines student's posters from the first annual New York City Smoke-Free Ad contest with 125 invaluable reasons not to smoke.

Winning ads printed in the book have had high visibility nationwide. One ad imitating the famous "Marlboro Man" featuring a skeleton riding a horse with the verbiage "Come to Where the Cancer Is," was turned into a poster which was placed in every subway car in New York City. The story became the subject of a New York Times editorial and was shown by CNN all over the world.

The book demonstrates how youth have said "Don't Smoke" in their own unique ways. It is the goal of the American Cancer Society that Kids Say Don't Smoke will spur the imagination of Wisconsin students to do the same. To review a copy in your community, contact your local elementary school principal or librarian of your local American Cancer Society office.

Straub Helps Warhawks Win Carthage Tourney

By Statesman Sports Writer

KENOSHA — Former Kewaskum High standout Rich Straub continues to shine for the UW-Whitewater wrestling team this season.

Straub, a senior at Whitewater, took first place in the 142 weight class at the Carthage Invitational Wrestling Tournament recently, as he helped the Warhawks also capture the team championship.

Whitewater had a total of five champions in the meet, and outdistanced the second place finisher, Olivet College (MI), by almost 30 points. All this despite not even entering a wrestler in the 118 pound class.

Straub won the 142 pound title by winning four matches, all by pinfall. A National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III championship qualifier last year, Straub now has a glossy 14-1 mark on the year, and leads the Warhawks in winning percentage.

Snow Golf Feb. 1

Want to work out the kinks in your swing? Just get four "goofy" golfers together and come out to Long Lake on February 1.

The second annual Sno-Golf event will be held at Benson's Hide-a-Way on the first Saturday in February. Tee-off times are available between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. All proceeds go toward funding the Long Lake Fishing Club's scholarship at UW-Stevens Point.

You might ask a local business or club to sponsor your team. The "snow fee" is $10.00 for a foursome of "golfers." Last year nearly every group was sponsored by a local organization or business. Teams may register for tee-times by calling 533-4430.

Last year the conditions were perfect and we've ordered the same for this year. No scheduled rain or snow date, so come prepared for the weather.

Trophies and prizes will be awarded to teams and individuals. Chili and refreshments will be available. Test your skill in the "Green Ball" contest for cash and/or try to win one of the special raffle prizes.

NOTICE TO ALL WASHINGTON COUNTY DOG OWNERS

Pursuant to Section 174.052, Wisconsin Statutes, notice is hereby given to all owners of dogs in Washington County that dog licenses and rabies vaccinations are required.

Vaccination by a licensed veterinarian against rabies is required of all dogs (Section 95.21(2)) within 30 days after the dog reaches 4 months of age and revaccinated within one year after the initial vaccination. The owner of a dog shall have the dog revaccinated against rabies by a veterinarian when the certificate expires or within three (3) years of previous vaccination. The certificate of rabies vaccination must be presented to the collecting official before a dog license may be issued.

All dogs five (5) months of age or older require a license. The minimum license fee for neutered males or spayed females is $3.00, upon presentation of evidence attesting to the same, and $8.00 for the unneutered male or unspayed female dog or one-half of these amounts if the dog became five (5) months of age after July 1 of the license year. The governing body of any town, village or city may raise the minimum dog license tax. Any person who keeps or operates a kennel may apply for a kennel license. The fee is $35.00 for twelve (12) dogs or less and an additional $3.00 for each dog in excess of twelve (12).

Dog licenses can be obtained from your local town, village or city treasurer or designee during the course of any given year. Dog owners should notify their treasurer if their dog is given away or has died, so that you will not be considered delinquent. An affidavit of death is available.

PENALTY

Every owner of a dog 5 months of age or older who fails to obtain a license by April 1 will be assessed a late fee of $5.00

THE SANDHILL WILDLIFE DEMONSTRATION AREA

★FOURTH IN THE SERIES★

By Bob Cooney, UW-Madison Ag Press Service

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the fourth in a series of stories on rural sociologist Tom Heberlein's work with gun deer hunters at the Sandhill Wildlife Demonstration Area. Heberlein surveyed about 2,800 hunters who took part in experimental hunts at Sandhill over 11 years. The stories cover hunters' marksmanship and lack thereof, hunting techniques that proved effective at Sandhill, and makings of a satisfying hunt, and how crowding influenced hunters and hunted at Sandhill.

Hunters Tell What Makes a Good Deer Hunt

There's more to a satisfying deer hunt than a sagging meat pole. Two-thirds of the hunters who didn't get a deer at Sandhill Wildlife Demonstration Area rated their hunts good or better. Seeing deer, getting a shot, and having a buddy bag a deer all boosted hunters' satisfaction ratings, according to Tom Heberlein, a rural sociologist at the UW-Madison College of Agricultural and Life Sciences.

"A good deer hunt is like a good stew... it has to have all the ingredients, and some of those ingredients are hard to find. Getting a deer is important, but the way you got the deer, the size of the deer, and the conditions under which you got it all add to the satisfaction," Heberlein says. "Just being out in the deer woods is the bottom line for a satisfying hunt."

Not surprisingly, getting their deer increased hunters' satisfaction, and bagging bucks made them even happier. Most successful hunters rated their hunts very good to excellent... and so did about 20 percent of the unsuccessful hunters.

Sandhill hunters rated their satisfaction on a 6-point scale: 1 - poor, 2 - fair, 3 - good, 4 - very good, 5 - excellent, 6 - perfect.

Seeing no deer was least satisfying, the Sandhill hunters reported. Seeing and shooting at a deer (even missing) raised the level more than a point. Bagging a deer raised the level another point, to 4.5 for a typical hunter. Bagging a trophy buck raised the satisfaction level another half-point, and getting a trophy without feeling crowded produced the highest satisfaction level... between excellent and perfect.

This ranking is a bit deceiving, Heberlein points out. Hunters had good hunts without bagging deer. About 65 percent of the unsuccessful hunters rated their hunts good or better, although most didn't rate their hunts excellent or perfect unless they got a deer.

Bagging a trophy buck produced the highest ratings yet nearly a third of those who bagged 8-pointers or better did not rate their hunt excellent or perfect. "It is important to remember that there is more to hunter satisfaction than even an 8-point buck in the bag and more to successful wildlife management than simply providing an abundance of trophy animals," Heberlein says.

Sandhill hunters had a greater opportunity to shoot at a deer during their one-day hunt than hunters during opening day of the regular gun season, and they were more likely to bag a deer. They also had a greater chance of shooting an 8-pointer or better. On average, Sandhill hunters rated the hunt good to very good, and 32 percent rated it excellent or perfect, compared to 23 to 25 percent of statewide hunters. Fewer than 10 percent of the Sandhill hunters rated the hunt poor.

Not seeing a deer produced the lowest level of satisfaction - 2.35 (fair to good). More than 1,200 hunters never fired a shot, yet their average rating was about 3.0 (good). Hunters who got at least one shot but missed the deer rated their hunt 3.5 (good to very good). Unsuccessful hunters who saw six or more deer were as satisfied as those who shot and missed. Hunters who saw bucks were considerably more satisfied than those who saw only antlerless deer.

Hunters who bagged antlerless deer were slightly less satisfied than those who shot bucks (4.6 versus 4.8); taking a 6-pointer or better raised the satisfaction level to 5.0 (excellent). Hunters who shot 8-pointers or better and didn't feel crowded gave the highest rating - 5.3. Successful hunters who felt crowded were less satisfied than those who were not crowded.

Seeing more deer, getting more shots and having someone else in the party bag a deer all increased satisfaction for unsuccessful hunters, but not for those who bagged deer.

Unsuccessful hunters with either-sex tags were more satisfied than unsuccessful hunters with antlerless-only tags. Expectations and anticipation play a big role in whether people are satisfied with their hunting experience, Heberlein says. The antlerless-only hunters at Sandhill often indicated that they were hunting for meat, and may have felt more pressure to bag an animal. Either-sex hunters, many of whom were after trophy bucks, may have passed up shots at smaller deer and had less expectation of shooting a trophy.

Hunters who had more shooting opportunities, regardless of whether they got their deer, reported higher quality ratings during either-sex hunts. "When these hunters shoot at a big buck, they may be bagging a story even if they miss the deer," Heberlein notes.

Hunters felt less crowded during antlerless hunts, but were less satisfied with their hunting experience than hunters in either-sex hunts. Antlerless hunts were usually held on days following either-sex hunts. Hunter densities were lower, but hunters found fewer deer, and the deer were more skittish.

Late Switch Helps Indian Wrestlers Win

WAUSAU — The annual two-game overnight road trip bore different fates for the UW-Washington County men and women's basketball teams here recently.

The women, playing a pair of conference games against UW-Marathon and UW-Marshfield, went 2-0 to catapult the Wildcats into first place in the Wisconsin Collegiate Conference.

The men, on the other hand, went 0-2 in a two-day Holiday Tournament, losing to both Northland Baptist College, and then to Marathon the following day.

A poor first half plagued the Wildcat men against Northland Baptist, as UWWC fell behind 42-27. The Wildcats played better in the second half, but still came up short, 94-83. Keith Hosking led UWWC with 23 points to go along with 10 rebounds.

Against Marathon, Hosking once again had a big game, helping UWWC to a 41-39 halftime lead. But the Wildcats went cold in the second half, hitting just 28 percent from the floor, and eventually lost to the hosts, 82-63. Hosking poured in 23 again, this time grabbing 11 rebounds, and for his efforts was named to the all-tournament team.

The Lady Wildcats got even a better effort from their star center Jenny Meyer in their two contests. Against Marshfield, who had beaten the Wildcats handily earlier this season, Meyer poured in 34 points and hauled down 17 rebounds to pace UWWC to an easy 78-63 win. Former Kewaskum standout Kelly Rohlinger added 24 points and seven boards for UWWC.

The Wildcats had an even easier time of things Saturday, as they rolled to a 39-18 halftime lead en route to a 74-40 pasting of Marathon. Meyer once again led the Wildcats with 22 points, 11 rebounds and 10 steals. Michelle Kraus added 20 points, while Rohlinger chipped in 18.

The Wildcat women improved to 5-2 in the WCC with the wins, 8-2 overall. The men, meanwhile, fell to 2-10 overall, and have lost six straight games.

Wildcat Skid Continues

WEST BEND — And the streak goes on.

The UW-Washington County men's basketball team dropped their seventh straight contest here, last Tuesday night, losing to UW-Fond du Lac by an 82-77 count.

Offensively, the Wildcats did fine, but the team continued its struggle on the defensive side of the ball. In the Wildcats' four games since the Holiday break, UWWC opponents have averaged 91 points per game.

Former UW-Oshkosh track standout Brian Nick led the UW-FDL forces as he rang up 34 points on the night, while Chad Stauffacher added 18.

UWWC had five players hit for double digits, led by Karl Klosowski, who had 18. Klosowski rejoined the team this semester, after having made the honorable mention all-state squad last year. Keith Hosking also added 15, while Buddy Mechinch, Jay Leberecht and Joo Han chipped in 13, 12 and 10, respectively.

The loss dropped the Wildcats to a disappointing 1-4 in the Wisconsin Collegiate Conference, and to 2-11 overall.

UWWC Women 2-0, Men 0-2 on Road Trip

By Statesman Sports Writer

CHILTON — Honesty is the best policy, and Kewaskum wrestling coach John Nell showed that here, last Thursday night.

Chilton's wrestling coach tried to pull a fast one on the Indians, but it backfired in this face when Nell countered with a late switch of his own, allowing the Indians to pick up six extra points for a 39-33 win over the Tigers.

"They kind of pulled a fast one on us," Nell said, explaining that the Tigers' 130 pounder, Larry Meyer, didn't get on the mat for his match with Kewaskum's Mark Dziedzic, thus giving the Indians a forfeit, but also allowing Meyer to wrestle at 135 pounds, against first year wrestler Greg Anderson.

After Meyer pinned Anderson in just :31, Nell decided turn about was fair play. With his ace 145-pounder Josh Kurtz expected to get a forfeit, Nell held him back and allowed Matt Towler to get the free win instead, and sent Kurtz out to face the Tigers' 152-pounder Pat Casper, whom Kurtz disposed of in just 2:51.

"I wasn't really happy with that (Chilton's switch)," the Indian mentor said, noting that he was informed that Meyer would face Dziedzic. "If they would have been up and up with that, I wouldn't have made our switch."

Instead, the Indians used the extra points to turn back the Tigers, but only after 189-pound Todd Muckerheide pinned Chilton's Chad Hoerth in 1:08 to clinch the win.

"He had a nice pin, he and Mark Morell came through big for us," Nell said, noting Morell (171) decisioned Travis Vanne 4-1. "Kevin Kapp also did a nice job," pinning Jeff Schoemer in 1:44 at the 125 weight class.

Chad Muckerheide also wrestled well, according to Nell, although he fell to Jeremy Ott, 2-9. Ott took first place in the Oshkosh Invitational earlier this year.

The win gave Kewaskum a 2-3 record in Eastern Wisconsin Conference dual meets, and improved their overall mark to 5-4.

Wrestlers Fifth in Waupun Tourney

By Statesman Sports Writer

WAUPUN — Although not a single Indian wrestler was able to come away with an individual championship in the Waupun Invitational here, last weekend, Kewaskum coach John Nell nonetheless was pleased with the efforts by his team.

"We wrestled pretty well," Nell said of the Indians' fifth place showing in the meet, which was won by Division II powerhouse Lancaster. "They (Lancaster) pretty much handled it, but I was still really happy with our performance."

A bit of disappointment occurred in the 145 pound weight class, where Josh Kurtz, who came into the meet with a 15-0 mark, suffered his first defeat of the season in the finals, where he was beaten by a Lancaster wrestler.

"He got caught in what we call a chest-crusher," Nell said, explaining that Kurtz "just couldn't get out of it," and was pinned. "It was a real close match to that point. I think if Josh wrestled him again, he would beat the kid."

In addition to Kurtz's second place finish, five other Indian grapplers took third in the competitive meet, led by the Muckerheide brothers, Chad (160), and Todd (189).

"Chad was real solid the whole day," Nell said, adding that Todd "had a real tough kid in his final match. But he took him with a head throw," and wound up pinning his foe.

Also taking third for the Indians was sophomore Greg Anderson, who is in his initial year in the sport. "For a first year wrestler, he's been doing just a fantastic job," adding that another first-year man, 152-pound freshman Rich Farchione also "did just super," in claiming third place.

Mark Morell was the other Indians finishing third. "He had some real close matches," Nell said of the 171-pound Morell. "He just toughed them all out."

Kevin Kapp (125) and Brad Jackson (135) each took home a fifth place finish, while Jake Gundrum wound up sixth. The Indians' regular 130-pounder, Mark Dziedzic, was held out of the meet because of soreness in his knee that has been recovering from surgery.

Indians Self-Destruct in Loss to Huskies

By Statesman Sports Writer

NEW HOLSTEIN - In a very frustrating and disappointing season for the Kewaskum boys basketball team thus far, things seem to be getting even more inexplicable for coach Jim Westphal.

"We just kind of frittered it away," Westphal said of his team's 62-60 overtime loss to New Holstein, here, last Friday night. "It's just been very frustrating, and this is the toughest one to take yet."

That's because the Indians led 44-33 to start the fourth quarter, and after scoring the period's first hoop, were up 13 against the Huskies. But, as Westphal put it, "We just self-destructed."

Instead of continuing to play the aggressive, attacking style of play that got them out in front, the Indians got tentative, and were unable to find that killer instinct, much to the chagrin of their coach.

"We play well enough to get a 13-point lead, and then we can't put them away," Westphal said, noting that switching to a stalling half-court type offense was the last thing he wanted to see from his players. "That's just not our game."

Still, the Indians were up by eight with under 2:00 to play, and things still seemed to be under control. But the Indians continued to foul unnecessarily on defense, and then turn around and throw the ball away on offense.

"I was really unhappy with the turnovers and fouls," Westphal went on, "We talked about it during the timeouts... not to foul. But we went out and did it anyway. Plus, we had a lot of what I would call un-forced turnovers."

The Indians still had an opportunity to put the game away, as Kim Marx went to the line for a bonus try with :19 left, and the Indians leading 53-51.

He missed the first shot, though, and the Huskies ran the clock down and found Adam Bonlander, who tied the game with :03 to play. Instead of calling for the quick timeout, the Indians tried inbounding and were unable to get off a good shot, sending the game into overtime, the second in a row for the Indians.

New Holstein's Wayne Freund got hot in the extra session, scoring six points, including the game-winner. After Matt Seiser helped the Indians tie things at 60-all with a pair of free throws at the :15 mark, "(Freund) just dribbled around and threw up about a 15-foot shot that hit nothing but net," Westphal said.

Kewaskum got off one final effort to tie it, but Seiser's mid-range jumper bounced away, and the Indians were dealt another tough setback.

"We were very much in control, and then little by little we lost it," the Indian boss went on to say. "For some strange reason, we began to foul in the fourth quarter," noting that the Huskies scored 12 of their 20 fourth-quarter points at the line.

The Indians didn't fare all that shabby at the line either, as they connected on an impressive 27 of 34 tries from the charity stripe. For the year, Kewaskum is tops in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference in FT%, hitting on almost 74% of its tries.

Despite not being all that hot from the field, the Indians were able to stage a late rally in the first half to take command. Up 24-23 with just over 1:00 to go, Kewaskum went on a 7-0 run that stretched their lead to 31-23 at the half.

Seiser once again led the Indians in scoring, as he hit for 22 points, including a 6-6 effort at the line. Seiser, who came into the game leading the EW with a 19.8 scoring clip, "has been playing just super lately," according to Westphal.

Joel Fleischman added 15 points, while Chad Cook was steady once again with 12. Bonlander, who came into the game averaging seven points a game, lit up the Indians for 20. Freund added 15.

The Indians wrapped up the first half of the EW schedule with a 1-5 mark, and fell to 4-7 on the year. The Indians have a bye in the EW this week, and will travel to Random Lake to face the Rams this Saturday.

Lady Indians Snap Loss String

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Kewaskum girls basketball coach Glenn Eichstedt has been saying all along that his Indians have shown steady progress this year, and finally he got a win to back up his claims.

With the support of a big crowd for the Fish Fry and Tie Night, the Indians held New Holstein to just two field goals in the first half, as they went on to rout the Huskies 43-22, snapping the Indians 11-game losing streak.

"It was a great game for us," a jovial Eichstedt said of the contest. "It just continues to show that we're making some improvement. We're becoming more relaxed out there, and we aren't having to force things."

The Indians really didn't have to force much with the Huskies, who came into the game averaging just 25 points a game. "They're a lot like us," Eichstedt said. "They're young and inexperienced, and haven't shot very well this year."

Both teams struggled at the outset, as four minutes of play yielded just a single free throw by each team. In that span, the Indians were just one of seven from the line.

"We got off to a rather slow start," Eichstedt pointed out. "We did the job to create scoring opportunities, but we just didn't convert them (FT's)."

The Indians finally did get rolling, as Robyn Winninghoff scored five points in the opening quarter, and then Bonnie Schlice took over in the second, scoring eight in the period to help the Indians lay claim to a 23-9 halftime advantage.

"We tried to keep them off the boards and the free throw line," Eichstedt said, noting that his team was unsuccessful in the latter, as the Huskies went to the line 15 times in the first half. "But we did better in the second half," holding them to just seven opportunities.

The Indians continued to shine both offensively and defensively in the third quarter, as Winninghoff scored eight points in the period to help the Indians increase their lead to as many as 22 at one point before taking a 36-16 advantage heading into the fourth, allowing Eichstedt to give his bench some playing time. "Our starters only played about two and a half quarters."

Eichstedt said that most of the credit for the win had to go to the Indian defense, which held New Holstein to just 18 percent field goal shooting (8-44).

"We were able to sustain our defensive intensity all the way through," he said. "It was just a pleasure to see us put out a consistent, solid defensive effort. They didn't let up at all, intensity-wise."

Winninghoff finished with a game-high 15 points, while Schlice contributed 11. Eichstedt also singled out Sherry Hass, who "hasn't seen a lot of playing time this season," he noted. "She just played tremendous defense."

The win gave the Indians a 1-5 mark in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, as the first half concludes. The Indians, now 2-11 overall, will host Two Rivers this Thursday, and then won't host another home game until Feb. 11.

NEW HOLSTEIN 5-4-7-6 - 22
KEWASKUM 9-14-13-7 - 43
New Holstein - Kraus 7, Saun 6, Mathes 2, Woefel 2, Krupp 3, Braun 2. Free Throws - 6 of 16, Fouls - 21.

Mayville Tips Indians in OT

Matt Seiser, left, has "been playing just super lately," according to Indian coach Jim Westphal. Seiser is currently averaging around 20 points a game. Right, Seiser and teammates Scott Paulson and Joel Fleischman (32) fall back into a zone defense against Mayville.

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Overall it was a good effort, but a few lapses during the course of the game meant another tough loss for the Kewaskum boys basketball team.

Mayville, ranked fifth in the state in Division III, used some clutch free throw shooting down the stretch and got a couple of big rebounds in overtime, as the Cardinals came away with a 71-68 victory.

It was a heartbreaking loss for the Indians, who led their former Scenic Moraine rival by as many as ten points in the first half, despite not shooting well from the line themselves.

"We had some chances to extend our lead in the first half," Indian coach Jim Westphal said of the 10-19 performance at the line. "I would give our defense some credit, but I think we caught them on a cold-shooting night."

The Indians jumped out in front from the outset, going up 14-6 before Mayville's Brad Steinbach gave an indication of things to come as he hit a three-pointer near the end of the first quarter to make it 14-9.

The Indians continued to roll, though, opening up a 27-17 lead with under two minutes to play in the half. But the Cardinals struck back quickly. Mayville scored eight of the final nine first-half points to pull within three, at 28-25, at intermission.

Matt Seiser once again had a big first half for the Indians, scoring 10 points, while fellow senior Joel Fleischman added seven, helping to make up for the lackluster shooting from the line.

The Cardinals continued their run in the third quarter, scoring two quick baskets to go ahead for the first time, 29-28. But Kewaskum came right back and answered with a 6-0 run of their own to regain control.

After another Steinbach three-pointer tied things at 40, the Indians got a couple of late baskets, and headed into the fourth with a 44-40 advantage.

The lead stretched to 48-40, as Mayville got cold from the field after the Indians switched to a zone defense. But the Cardinals warmed up again, going on a 13-5 spurt to tie things once again at 53-all. Steinbach had a pair of three's in the run, while Kyle Gassner added another.

A Gassner jumper minutes later brought the Cardinals to within one, at 58-57, and Fleischman was quickly fouled on the inbound pass. Fleischman made one of two tries, making it 59-57 with under :30 to play.

After a Cardinal timeout, Mayville got the ball to 6-4 center Chad Schultz, who hit a turn-around unimpeded with :07 to play. Kewaskum's Chad Cook was stripped of the ball as he was about to attempt a shot at the buzzer, thus sending the game into overtime.

The Indians grabbed the lead 63-62 as Fleischman scored four points early in the extra session, but Mayville, on the strength of three free throws, went ahead 65-63 with under a minute to go.

Kim Marx then hit a pair of charity tosses with :25 to go, tying things at 65. The Indians then fouled Gassner, who made his first FT, but missed the second. But the Cardinals were there for the rebound, and the Indians had to foul again, this time sending Kraig Vossekuil to the line.

Vossekuil made the first, and missed the second, but once again Schultz was there for the board, and put the ball back in to give Mayville the 69-65 lead.

Cook then brought the ball down and had a chance to tie the game as he was fouled while attempting a three-pointer, but the shot was off the mark, and Cook had to settle for the FT's, making it 69-68 with :08 to play.

Schultz then hit two more FT's, and the Indians' last gasp, a three-pointer by Cook, fell short of its target, sending the Indians home with another close loss.

"They've got a very strong team," Westphal commented on the Cardinals. "They play a very physical game...don't give up anything easy."

"I thought we played very well," he went on. "Joel and Matt both had very good games."

Fleischman led Kewaskum, now 4-6 overall, with 20 points, while Seiser added 19. Marx, along with Scott Paulson had 10. Steinbach led Mayville with 20.

As for Paulson, Westphal said "He did a really good job. He's been coming along real well...doing some really good things." The 6-2 center scored seven points in the final period, including making three of four foul shots, that after making just one of five in the first half.

Fish Fry and Tie Night Big Success

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Kewaskum girls varsity coach Glenn Eichstedt said over the weekend that last Friday night's Second Annual Fish Fry and Tie promotion was a big success.

"We had about one-hundred and forty patrons," Eichstedt said of the large gathering for the dinner. "I was real pleased to see that kind of turnout."

Eichstedt was even more pleased with the crowd that showed up to watch the Indians roll over New Holstein 43-22 later that evening.

"I think we probably had somewhere in the 400-500 (people) range," the Indian coach said, noting that seemed to have an effect on his players. "The kids played a little bit harder because of the big crowd, so that (big crowds) is nice to see."

"I've been real pleased with the support that we have been getting the past couple of games," he went on, adding that there will be a few more promotions in the coming home games, including Elementary Student's Night this Thursday against Two Rivers.

Indian Frosh, JV Lose

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — It was a clean sweep for Mayville here, last Tuesday in the battle of old Scenic Moraine Conference rivals.

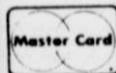

Before the Cardinal varsity ended the night with a thrilling overtime victory over the Indians, the Mayville JV and freshman teams were busy conquering the hosts as well.

The Indian JV's fell to a disappointing 1-10 on the year with a 62-38 loss to the Cardinals. Tory Laubach was the lone Indian to reach double figures, as he hit for 10 points, while Beau Coulter and James Zautner added nine and
