FTBG Sub-Committee Appointments Made

School Board Okays Satellite Equipment Purchase

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Board of Education, Monday night, approved District Administrator Dr. David Heather's request to purchase equipment which will allow the district to receive educational programs offered from a variety of satellites. The cost of the receiving equipment was verbally quoted at $6,950.

Heather had originally asked that the district purchase the equipment as well as join a consortium which would have provided video courses for a very limited number of students.

At last month's meeting board member Paul Seymour stated he was against joining the consortium because of the high cost. Board member Ruth Schmitt basically agreed with Seymour's comments but she also felt the equipment would be a substantial benefit in giving the district access to the many free programs which were available through the satellite systems. She then moved to purchase the equipment only but, because the item of purchasing the equipment alone was not on the agenda, board president

Neal Weare felt action on the motion was not proper and the issue was placed on this month's agenda.

The board also approved several other purchase requests as recommended by the Finance-Transportation-Buildings and Grounds Committee. They included the purchase of an additional computer for the high school office to be used for business and administrative purposes at a cost of $1,899, installation of a security gate at KES for $2,233, replacement bleacher boards at KMS $3,564, and a contract to cut curbs at the Administration Building at $1,213.

The board listened to a presentation regarding an energy study by the Honeywell Corporation. It was agreed that the district would allow Honeywell to come in and inspect the buildings only if the study was done at Honeywell's own expense. Heather noted that if Honeywell found the district could see substantial money savings through energy usage changes they would expect the district to enter into an agreement with them to make the changes over a several-year period.

The board indicated it would make no commitment until it heard the results of the study, if Honeywell agreed to do it.

In other action the board accepted Mrs. Czoschke's letter of retirement effective at the end of the school year.

The board approved Dr. Heather's request to get an appraisal of the Beechwood School and property. He indicated the appraisal was necessary in the event a resolution to sell the property is placed on the 1992 Annual Meeting agenda.

Also approved was the request of Mr. Larry Ammel for a band trip to South Carolina during the spring of 1993. The cost of the trip would be paid for by the students.

The board also accepted the low bid of WEAIT to provide long term disability insurance for members of the district's KAP Association which represents the district's support staff employees.

Board president Neal Weare announced the appointment of individuals to serve on the new Finance - Transportation - Buildings and Grounds Sub-

Campbellsport Youth Dies From Inhaling Butane Gas

Gregory Weis, 15, of N843 Elmore Drive, Campbellsport, was the tragic victim of an apparent butane gas inhaling incident late Friday night.

Preliminary findings were that Weis apparently suffocated as the result of inhaling the gas from a cigarette lighter refill cartridge.

According to Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department information, Weis was in a vehicle with two friends and he passed out in the car. The three were returning to Campbellsport after apparently attending a party in a Fond du Lac motel. Weis' companions called for an ambulance which responded to a gas station at the intersection of Highways 67 and V, across from the Campbellsport High School.

Weis was reported as pulseless and non-breathing at that location. The Campbellsport Rescue Squad requested a paramedic intercept with the Fond du Lac Fire Department at Highways V and B, and the youth was transported from there to St. Agnes Hospital where he was pronounced dead.

According to Fond du Lac County Coroner Susan Casper, it appeared Weis had inhaled the butane gas while in the car because of the timing of his breathing difficulties.

An autopsy performed by the Milwaukee County Medical Examiner determined that Weis had not died from any anatomical cause such as a heart attack. A full drug toxicology exam was to be done.

According to comments by Casper, given the inhalation of the gas by Weis, one can conjecture one of the major causes of death we are looking at is suffocation. She said Weis apparently did not know how dangerous inhaling the butane gas is and did not realize its results.

The Fond du Lac Police Department is also investigating the alleged party, which involved underage drinking, because of Weis' death.

Casper confirmed Tuesday afternoon that Weis' death was determined to be accidental due to secondary asphyxiation as a result of inhaling the Butane gas.

Krahn, Land Head to State Gymnastics Meet

By Statesman Sports Writer

CHILTON — While it wasn't exactly who she had expected to qualify for the state meet, Kewaskum gymnastics coach Irene Heather was still happy for a pair of her pupils who made it to the big show.

Kelly Krahn and Barb Land will be just the fourth and fifth Indians ever to participate in the WIAA State Gymnastics Meet this weekend in Wisconsin Rapids.

Krahn, a junior, took third in the vaulting competition with a fine 7.7 mark. The top five finishers in the individual event qualified for State, along with the top three all-around performers.

"The scores were kind of difficult," Heather said, trying to explain the tougher judges at the Sectional level. "It's a different kind of competition. A 7.7 there, is more respectable than a 7.7

during the regular season."

Land, a sophomore this year, put together her best routine of the year on the balance beam, scoring a 7.0 to earn her a fourth-place showing and a berth in the State Meet.

"That was her best score of the year," Heather said of Land's performance, which also earned her a bronze medal according to pre-season qualifying scores.

A pair of Indians came close to joining Krahn and Land in Wisconsin Rapids this weekend. Seniors Deanna Wagner and Stacey Heberer each finished sixth in their respective events.

"They just missed the cutoff," Heather said of her talented seniors. Wagner took sixth on the uneven bars with a 6.35 tally, while Heberer was tied for sixth place in vaulting, with a 7.6 mark. Heberer also came up just short on the uneven bars, placing seventh with a score of 6.3.

Valders, behind the strength of Heather Zutz, ran away with the team title. Zutz won three of the four events at the Meet, leading Valders to a 112.25 - 99.4 win over second place Clintonville. The Indians along with Eastern Wisconsin Conference rival Chilton were right behind.

"It was really close," for second-thru-fourth places, Heather said. The Indians finished just .7 behind Clintonville with 98.7 points, while Chilton was fourth with 97.8 points.

Other Indians faring well in the Sectional meet included senior standout Stephanie Reindl, who tallied a ninth in the floor exercise (6.95) and a tenth on the beam (6.2). Vicki McElhatton also took a ninth, scoring a 6.15 on the uneven bars, while

Help! Help!

As March 28, 1992 gets closer and closer, the Kewaskum High School Music Department starts to panic. The students are working very hard on their solos, duets, clarinet choirs, etc., while the directors are both wishing they would have been working harder sooner.

The panic is usual for everyone involved and everyone manages to cope with it knowing that it will be alright in the end. However, there is still the concern of having enough help for the Music Festival Day itself.

This year it is being held at Kewaskum High School and we are still looking for help... lots of help, from the parents of involved students as well as people of our school district.

If you can afford to give up the day for some good music, or even a half day, even a couple of hours is acceptable, please contact either David Bertelsen at the high school, 626-2166 or Larry Ammel, high school - 626-2166 or home - 626-4731. Your help is needed and appreciated.

Kewaskum High School Prom Court '92

Kewaskum students will be enjoying "A Night in the Orient" on Saturday, April 4, when Rose Hall in the High School will be transformed, and becomes a serene, Eastern setting. Music will be supplied by the DJ group as "The Rock Wizards". After the formal prom, students may choose to go to the Post Prom party, sponsored by the Kewaskum Booster Club, held at the West Bend YMCA.

Third Annual Post Prom Party April 4

The Kewaskum High School Booster Club is again sponsoring a Post-Prom Party for the students of Kewaskum High School. Our first two attempts have proved to be quite successful and it is hoped that this year will be even bigger and better.

The students going to the YMCA in West Bend will either board school buses at 11:30 p.m. right after the dance or drive themselves on this short trip to the "Y". The party will run from 12:00 midnight until 4:00 a.m. at which time the students who rode the buses will load up and return to Kewaskum High School by 4:15 a.m. Students who drove to the "Y" will also be able to leave the party at 4:00 a.m. A $5.00 deposit is required when they sign up for the Post-Prom Party and it will be returned at the end of the party in West Bend.

Activities for the evening include: swimming, racquetball, basketball, table tennis, movies to watch as well as lots of food and soda for the students.

Help is still needed in the form of cash donations, prizes for the students, baked goods and volunteers to help chaperone the many areas and events that are planned. If you can help out in any way, contact Ken Weddig, 626-4747, or Larry Ammel, 626-2166 - school, 626-4731 - home. If you wish to participate, Booster Club members will be at school during both lunch hours on March 30 through April 4, 1992 to sign them up.

Thank you for your interest and help in the Post-Prom Party.

The Kewaskum Police Department recently held two D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) parents nights. The program consisted of Kewaskum Police Department's D.A.R.E. Officer, Steven Seitz giving the parents a demonstration of the types of activities that their 5th graders are receiving in school, with an emphasis on the Eight Ways To Say No To Drugs.

The parents were then given a tour of the Police Department by Chief of Police Richard Knoebel, who also explained to them how to identify different types of drugs and the paraphernalia that the parents might find if they suspected their child or their friends are abusing drugs. Refreshments were provided by the Kewaskum Police Department which provided the parents a chance to talk with the officers on an informal basis.

Knoebel said that this is the second year the D.A.R.E. program has been provided in Kewaskum and all of the comments have been positive. He went on to say that at last years D.A.R.E. Parents Nights the attendance was between 15 to 20 people, but at this years meetings the attendance was between 40 and 50 people which shows that the parents are becoming more concerned with their children well being.

The D.A.R.E. program consists of a uniformed police officer going into the schools and giving 17 weeks of one hour classes on ways for our youth to resist the temptations to start using drugs. D.A.R.E. is taught world wide.

The D.A.R.E program is joint effort between the Kewaskum Police Department and the Kewaskum School District and is provided for all 5th graders in Kewaskum Elementary, St. Lucas Elementary and Holy Trinity Elementary Schools.

Barbara Land

Barbara Land, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Land, has been chosen to represent Kewaskum's sophomore class at the Hugh O'Brien (HOBY) Leadership Seminar which will be held this spring. Last year more than 13,000 sophomores, nominated to represent their schools, attended all expense paid Hugh O'Brien Leadership seminars in all 50 states and more than 30 other countries.

Barb was selected to represent her class of 148 sophomores at Kewaskum High School not on ly on her scholastic record, but also her outstanding leadership ability and her incentive to help others.

The Hugh O'Brien Foundation was established in 1958 to recognize and reward leadership potential in high school sophomores. While Barb attends the three day weekend workshop this spring, she will explore the topic "America's Intensive System and the Democratic Process." The format for these workshops involves bringing together a select group of high school sophomores with demonstrated leadership qualities and a group of distinguished leaders in business, education, government and the professions. Through informal discussions the young people get a realistic look at what makes America great and a better understanding of our nation's role in the world community.

At the conclusion of the State Leadership Seminar, one boy and girl will be chosen to represent their state at a week long HOBY International Leadership Seminar coordinated by the Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

As in the past, the Kewaskum Chapter of the Kiwanis organization will sponsor this very worthwhile activity.

This recipe and many more can be found in the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club new cookbook. To buy your copy ask any Junior Woman's Club member or else they can be found at Kewaskum Pharmacy, Regal Ware Outlet, Kewaskum Frozen Foods, or Village Hair Stylists.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

March is Disability Awareness Month.

The American Disability Act of 1991 concerns accessibility in the areas of transportation, jobs and buildings to facilitate community living for persons with disabilities.

Do you have difficulty relating to persons with disabilities? Persons with disabilities would like you to remember that they are persons first, their disability is only one aspect of their person. All persons with disabilities are not deaf. There is no need to speak loudly every time you address your remarks or questions to a companion. Remember that persons with disabilities are not necessarily lonely or frustrated; indeed most of them are content to concentrate on their strengths and their abilities.

Locally, The Opportunity League of Washington County, Inc., a self-help organization formed by and for persons with disabilities, has been successful in improving transportation opportunities for all persons with or without disabilities.

Starting February 4th, The Handicare Transportation Co., provided bus service in the West Bend area including Jackson, Kewaskum, and surrounding areas from Tuesdays thru Fridays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. for $1 per one-way trip. In the Hartford area, transportation is available on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. for $1 per one-way trip. Handicare Transportation provides transportation in the areas of Slinger and Erin on those two days in the Hartford area as well. There are also taxis available in West Bend and Hartford for later transportation needs.

Chief Skidmore will meet with The Opportunity League at their monthly meeting in March to discuss improving safety conditions at the Rolfs Road and Hwy. 33 East crossing.

If you need more information about The Opportunity League activities or if you want to help persons with disabilities, call Judy Behlen at 673-2438 after 5:30 p.m. week nights.

Thank you.

Letter to the Editor:

The Dundee Mill Park Benefit Dinner/Dance (birthday party) was another "huge" success. The Mill Park Committee wishes to say thank you to all those that made this fund-raiser a great time. The money will be used for construction of the park and restoration of the mill.

You ask, "What birthday party?" We were pleased to celebrate a Leap Year baby. She is the daughter of our band, Chuck Family Three. Lori Roethke, 9 years old in Leap Year years, celebrated her birthday with all of us at Frank's on the Lake. A good time was had by all. Chuck's other daughter could not make the event. She was in Germany where she is practicing her judo. She will be in the Summer Olympics.

George Weide, our emcee, helped make our dance special. Along with George we had an outstanding speaker, Chuck Englehardt, who gave us a beautiful message regarding the creation of our park and drug problem. The activities that young people from our area will engage in at the park will give them an outlet. It is hoped the outlet will eliminate the need for trying things like drugs and other dangerous activities. The food was "extra good," so thanks go to Nancy and Gary Frank.

The big cash raffle winners were: Eleanor Neckuty from Campbellsport $300, Sheila Bowen, also from Campbellsport won $150, and Dean Schmidt from Kewaskum won $75, donated by the Dundee Mill Park. Congratulations, winners.

An extra thought: anyone who won door prizes or raffles, please let our donors know you won and tell them "thanks a lot for giving us a prize."

It is great to see an entire community working towards a common goal.

Jim and Sharon Porfilio

A CHALLENGE TO THE KHS PROM COURT...

I challenge you to be true leaders and pace-setters by being the first in line to purchase post-prom party tickets!

Why? Because I've heard what a close class you are and reasoned that this was the perfect opportunity for the fun to continue after the dance ended. Where else could you have a party where all your fellow classmates could attend at one time? You might say that nobody wants to go... "nobody" went last year. Is that really the case or is it that everybody dragged their feet until the last minute and then were too late to purchase tickets?

Where else can you go where you won't have to decide if you want a beer or not, booze or not, grass or not, making out or not, or where to drive to in all corners of the district with sleep-hungry eyes trying to catch the "cool" party?

As elected members of the junior class you can tell your constituents that, yes, let's all get together, show school unity, appreciate all the work of your parents and the KHS Booster Club, and dare to say no beer, booze and drugs.

Only you can take the initiative. You can make it work. The party can be a blast and a memorable experience only if you're receptive to the idea!

Sincerely... Mom

P.S. I hope the students make the right choice. I think it might help if the parents make a unified stand. If you're going to a party, you go to the post-prom party! Also, it might not be a bad idea if the court chooses not to attend this function, that in future years this be mandatory if elected to court or turn down the honor.

Ozaukee - Washington DHIA Annual Meeting Held

The Ozaukee - Washington Dairy Herd Improvement Cooperative recently held their annual meeting. The cooperative provides milk testing and production records for dairy farm members in Washington and Ozaukee counties.

The organization has had changes in management this past year. The board of directors has recently contracted with Wisconsin Dairy Herd Improvement Cooperative for both management and testing services. The manager is Randy Trembl.

Testing and record services are provided for 206 dairy farms and 12,327 cows in the two county area. This is a decline of 22 herds and 1,373 cows from one year ago.

Production awards were presented dairy farmers for production in the 1991 year. Roger and Ann Neumann received the awards for highest milk production, highest combined fat and protein production, most improved milk production, and most improved combined fat and protein production. Their herd of 70 cows produced 24,694 lbs of milk and 1607 pounds of combined fat and protein in 1991. This is an increase of 4,037 lbs of milk and 255 pounds of combined fat and protein from their 1990 production year.

Awards were presented to the following Washington county producers for low somatic cell count averages: James Esselmann (121,000), Joseph H. Peters (131,000), and Stephen Wolf (149,000).

Elections were held for positions on the board of directors. Jim Stoffel was re-elected to another three year term, and LeRoy Gehring elected to represent Washington county. Jim Melichar was elected to represent Ozaukee County.

The Board of Directors elected their officers for the next year. Robert Roden was elected President, Jim Stoffel Vice-President, and Randall Wenzel Secretary. Other members of the board include Thomas Winker, Ralph Thull, Leroy Gehring, and Jim Melichar.

Home Improvement Loans Available to Qualified Vets

To finance home improvements, qualified Wisconsin veterans may borrow $3,000.00 to $15,000.00 at an 8.1 percent annual interest rate with up to 15 years to repay.

The Home Improvement Loan Program (HILP), administered by the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, may be used for construction, remodeling and repair that will protect or improve the basic livability or energy efficiency of the veteran's home. The loan also may finance garage construction.

Although HILP can be used for a variety of improvements, some are not allowed such as: deck or patio construction, home appliance purchase, fencing, landscaping, or adding recreational facilities (such as pools, saunas and tennis courts). There also are some restrictions regarding property used for commercial or agricultural purposes.

To qualify for a home improvement loan, the veteran must meet the following requirements:

The veteran must meet eligibility criteria regarding state residency and military service.

The house must be the veteran's principal residence.

The veteran must have at least 10 percent equity in the property (the equalized assessed value plus one-half of the cost of the proposed improvements may be used in this calculation).

The combined annual income of the veteran and spouse must not exceed $40,300.00. This income limit will increase to $42,600.00 on July 1. The income limit is higher for veterans who receive 100-percent, service-connected disability compensation from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

Funds for the loans are limited, and the interest rate is subject to change. It also takes several weeks processing time. Veterans thinking of spring projects should apply now.

For more information on home improvement loans and other state and federal benefits for veterans, contact your County Veteran Service Officer; or Richard W. Baker, Washington County Veterans Service Officer at 335-4457.

St. Lucas Announces Winner In the National Geography Bee

Jim Stern

Jim Stern, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Stern of Fredonia, has advanced to the state finals of the National Geography Bee for the third year in a row!

Last year at the state level Bee, hosted by the Oshkosh Area Public School District and the Wisconsin Council for the Social Studies, Jim placed 4th out of the 100 Wisconsin finalists!

This year, he advanced to the state finals after St. Lucas participated in the fourth annual National Geography Bee for students in grades 4-8. Nearly 33,000 schools throughout the country took part in this event sponsored by the National Geographic Society. After several rounds of testing the students on their geographic knowledge, each school determined its winner. Jim, an eighth grader, became the St. Lucas champion and competed for advancement to the state level by taking a written qualifying test.

Out of thousands of students from more than 1,500 Wisconsin schools participating in the Bee, Jim placed in the top 100. He will now compete in the Wisconsin Finals on March 27th, at the Olympia Resort and Convention Center in Oconomowoc.

The winner of the Wisconsin Finals will win $100 and an all-expense paid trip to the National Finals in Washington, D.C., May 21-22. Congratulations, Jim! We wish you well at state!

PARENTS IN FOR A SHOCK

New Survey Says Expectant Parents Believe Their Lives Won't Change When the Baby Arrives

The majority of first-time parents don't have realistic perceptions about parenthood says a new national survey of childbirth educators.

Because of their close contact with parents-to-be at a crucial time in their lives, childbirth educators were surveyed by the IOF Foresters and Baby Talk magazine, the nation's oldest baby magazine, to give insights into the thoughts of new parents.

Fifty-two percent of expectant parents feel their lifestyles won't change much at all during the first year of parenthood, according to the survey published in the February, 1992, issue of Baby Talk. Among other findings:

*Twenty-six percent believe that parenting will be easy.

*Six percent believe that babies can be put on a schedule.

*Six percent believe that they will be perfect parents.

*Three percent think they can't spoil their babies too much.

"These are all misconceptions," says Gini Burns, a childbirth educator. "First-time parents who think the job will be easy aren't facing reality. Parenthood requires an entire lifestyle change."

"People in our society feel they can control all aspects of their lives," says Burns. "What first-time parents don't realize is that the infant is the one in control. Newborns require 24-hour-a-day attention and care."

Child psychologist and IOF Foresters parenting consultant Arnold Rincover concurs. "The control issue is a good point," says Rincover, "however, it is also a question of ignorance. The only real experience first-time parents have similar to child-rearing is caring for pets or animals, and this does not entail a loss of control. But with live children, parents have very little control."

Rincover also attributes the misconception about parenting to the fact that, "with the first child, most people focus on the pregnancy and the birth process and don't think much beyond that."

To better prepare for parenthood, Rincover suggests that expectant parents talk to a trusted friend who has had children. He also recommends reading books on childhood and parenting prior to the birth of the child to fill in any experience gaps.

The IOF Foresters is a not-for-profit fraternal benefit society dedicated to helping families. The organization regularly conducts parenting surveys and special projects. For free literature on better parenting, call the IOF Foresters toll-free Better Parenting Line (1-800-922-4-IOF).

St. Lucas Lutheran School's formal registration for the 1992-93 school year was held on March 9th and 10th in the new lower level of the school.

Parents that do not have children attending St. Lucas at the present time, but would like to enroll them for the next school year should contact Rod Bollinger at 626-2680 or 626-4655.

If anyone would like more information concerning St. Lucas, contact the school office at 626-2680.

Barrel Haus Razed

There were mixed emotions last week when heavy equipment was brought into the village to level what remained of the Barrel Haus after a Jan. 14 fire gutted the historic building. Owners Jim and Janis Rinas are pictured above with the bar they managed to salvage before the demolition began. Now things don't look the same at the corner of Main and Railroad...the vacant lot is an uncomfortable sight, and the once flourishing business is greatly missed. As yet the Rinas' plans for the future are unannounced.

"HATS OFF TO BOOKS" was a recent theme at the winter/spring story sessions held at the Kewaskum Public Library. Mrs. Bledsoe read the stories "Caps for Sale," and "Benny's Four Hats." After learning the cap peddler's chant, "Caps! Caps for sale, fifty cents a cap," the children put on their hats and went on a hat parade throughout the library and municipal building.

WEAR GREEN ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY,
BUT REMEMBER WHY

The legend of St. Patrick has come down to us in such a form as to make us concentrate on its more whimsical aspects rather than its serious message. The greeting card racks sprout shamrocks and little men in green suits. Regardless of our ethnic backgrounds, we all become "Irish" on that day and don green garments. Hibernian melodies emanate from the radio stations. With all of that, we tend to forget the story of St. Patrick's perilous journey to Ireland to persuade the people to go and worship God, and that under much safer conditions we could do the same thing. So, when you go to your House of Worship, try to bring a friend or neighbor with you, and you'll both receive the blessings that St. Patrick spoke of so long ago.

Farmington 4-H'ers

At the February 12th meeting we discussed going to a baseball or hockey game if we raised our own money. If we decided to go to a baseball game we would probably raise our money by having a fundraiser.

Mrs. Voeks will find out what recycling outings are available. We also plan to attend Breakfast on the Farm as a group.

At the next meeting we will be making posters on the recycling theme "A Look Into The Future." The posters will be 14" by 22". We will select two posters from each age division, they will be then entered in a county-wide contest. The rest of the posters will be displayed at Farmington Elementary School. We will also probably be recycling aluminum cans to raise money.

Michael Cochenet gave a chicken/poultry demonstration. He told us how to feed, house, and to tell the difference between a hen and a rooster. He also told us what chickens are best to use for meat, eggs, and showing.

The next meeting will be March 12 at the Farmington Town Hall. We will also have a cake decorating demonstration next month.

Chris Kasper is Cast Member Of UWWC's Spring Play

UWWC's Theatre on the Hill cast for "Easy Virtue" is complete. The spring play, by Noel Coward, will be performed on March 20, 21, 27 and 28 in the University Theatre.

Coward is at his witty best in this delightful drawing room drama about a woman with a past. The play is set in England in the 1920's. "Easy Virtue" disappeared from the stage for some sixty years until it was popularly revived in the 1980's.

The cast includes Mark Kohler,

West Bend, as the liberal Col. Whittaker. Laura Weingarten, Wauwatosa, is his prudish, proper wife. John, their son, is played by Mequon's Andrew Neske. Ricki Graettinger of Hubertus portrays Larita, the independent, controversial wife. Sisters Marion and Hilda are Ann Williams, Mequon and Jenna Rabideaux, West Bend. John's levelheaded, open-minded ex-fiancee Sarah Hurst is portrayed by Heather Robbins, Slinger. Charles is Dylan Bolin of Milwaukee.

Other cast members are Chris Kasper, Kewaskum; Matthew Osowski, Sandra Buckman, Mark Stoffel, Erin Schall, Deidre Weittenhiller, Misti Swanson and Aimee Woog, West Bend; Rick Olsen, Hustisford; Sunny Buchert and Kristi Haunfelder, Slinger. Patty Ehlers Peterson and Cindy Sauthoff of Cedarburg round out the cast.

Sheridan Morley, a critic and biographer, said of Noel Coward, "No writer of his generation ever went more directly to the jugular of the moralistic, tight-lipped but fundamentally hypocritical, twenties society." Brad Ford, the show's director commented, "Coward is quite as revelent, and meets society's need to look in the mirror, then — and now."

Sheriff Warns of 'Cancer Drive'

Washington County Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis has issued an alert about a mailing that is being sent to area residents, under the name of the Washington County Area Cancer Drive.

The mailing is personalized (by computer) and claims to be an invitation to the recipient to volunteer to go door-to-door in the community to collect funds. The letter claims to originate from the Cancer Center for Detection and Prevention in Seattle, but any money that is sent goes to the Cancer Center in Topeka, Kansas.

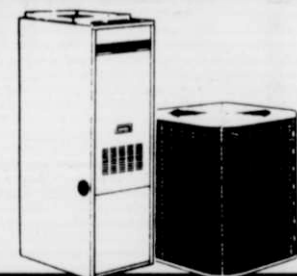

The Better Business Bureau of Northeast Kansas and the Topeka Capitol-Journal newspaper report that 100% of the donations are used for fund-raising and to pay settlement fees resulting from prosecutions against the company by state agencies. The newspaper was unable to locate offices for any of the organizations named in the solicitation letter. The addresses are "mail drops" and attempts to contact the owners were unsuccessful.

Sheriff Schulteis pointed to this latest scheme as an example of how creative solicitors are getting. "By using a computer mailing list, they can devise a personalized letter that makes you think there is a local organization that will benefit your neighbors," he said.

Free Throws Make The Difference In Indian Win

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — It was perhaps fitting. The Kewaskum boys, who had been expected to challenge in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference basketball race this year but didn't, finally did something that they were expected to.

Coming into the game leading the EW in free throws made and FT percentage, made 71 percent of their tries, and outscored New Holstein 15-6 at the line on their way to a 58-54, come-from-behind win to close out the EW regular season.

The Indians finished the regular season with a 4-8 mark in the EW, and 8-12 overall. New Holstein, meanwhile, finished 5-7 in the EW.

Things didn't look all that promising in the opening stages, though, as New Holstein came out hot in the first quarter. The Indians were sluggish offensively, meanwhile, and the result was the Huskies jumping out to a 19-9 lead after one quarter of play.

The two teams evened out in the second period, as the Indians finally got untracked offensively and defensively. Chad Cook provided the big boost the Indians needed as he sank a buzzer-beating three-pointer just before the half, pulling the Indians to within seven, at 32-25.

The momentum stayed in the Indians' favor in the opening minutes of the second quarter. The Indians scored the opening baskets of the second half to pull to within three, and by the end of the period, had outscored the Huskies 15-8 to tie things at 40 heading into the final stanza.

The Indians immediately seized control in the fourth, and as it turned out, never trailed after. Cook, along with fellow senior Kim Marx, made sure the door was shut late, as the two combined to hit seven of eight charity tosses down the stretch.

Cook wound up hitting three, three-pointers on the night on his way to a 15-point effort, which tied him with Matt Seiser for Indian scoring honors. Marx, along with Joel Fleischman each contributed nine. Wayne Freund led all scorers with 18 to pace the Huskies.

Easing Your Tax Burden

FIFTH IN A SERIES

Sometimes We Give You Money

By John T. Ader, IRS
District Director for Wisconsin

Everyone knows that the IRS collects taxes. But did you know that we also put money into the pockets of parents who need it? In fact, for the 1989 tax year, we gave over $81 million of "free money" to Wisconsin residents. I would like to take this opportunity to briefly explain how we do this.

If you are a working parent with at least one child, and have income under $21,250, you may be eligible for the federal Earned Income Credit (EIC). This refundable credit is subtracted from the amount of tax you may owe. And guess what? Even if you didn't owe any tax, you may still get money back.

This year the maximum credit you can claim is $2,020 — up from $953 in 1990. Also, more of you will be eligible. However, there is some bad news. Applying for the 1991 credit has become more difficult than for 1990. EIC is now divided into three credits — the basic credit, the health insurance credit, and an extra credit for a child born in 1991. You can claim each credit that applies to you, but you must now file a Schedule EIC, which is new for 1991. I know that some of you may have some trouble completing Schedule EIC since it's a new form. We know what you'll be facing, and we will be here to help.

First, you can get help in person at one of our local offices. We have 14 offices in Wisconsin and our employees will go over the form with you and answer any questions you may have. If going to an IRS office isn't convenient, try one of our Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) sites. Here, an IRS trained volunteer will help you one-on-one at over 100 different locations. Or, if you prefer, you can call us and we can help you over the phone. To obtain help by phone, or learn the location and hours of the nearest IRS office or VITA site, call us at 1-800-TAX(829)-1040.

Let me tell you about the easiest way we can help — let us figure your EIC for you. Simply fill out either Form 1040 or Form 1040A. Then fill out the first side of Schedule EIC (through line 3). We'll do the rest. But... and this is important... if you are eligible for the Wisconsin Earned Income Credit, you'll need to fill out Schedule EIC through line 11. That will give the state of Wisconsin the information they need to give you your state EIC (which could mean up to $926 for you this year).

Let me give you an example of how much the EIC can be worth to you: Bill and Sue, a married couple, have three children — Bobby, age 11, and Benny, 8 months of age. Their adjusted gross income was $16,378 during 1991. Based on the above, they are eligible to receive the following amount in EIC:

-Because of the two older children, they would receive $602 for the basic credit.

-Due to the birth of baby Benny in 1991, they will receive $714.

-They provided health insurance coverage for all the children, so they will be eligible to receive $209. Therefore, Bill and Sue will receive a total EIC of $985 for 1991.

In the past, some eligible families didn't file for this credit because they thought they would lose some welfare benefits available to them. Let me assure you that receiving EIC will have no effect on Aid to Families With Dependent Children (AFDC); Medicaid; Supplemental Social Security Income (SSI); Food Stamps and low income housing.

I have some good news about EIC. You can get up to $1,192 the basic credit for one child, in advance for 1992. Here's how it works. File a Form W-5, "Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate," with your employer. Your employer will prorate your advanced credit throughout the year. As a result, you will get extra money in each paycheck.

If you receive the advance EIC, you still have to file Form 1040 or Form 1040A next year to report the money received and to take advantage of any additional parts of the EIC for which you qualify. For more information on EIC, call 1-800-TAX-FORM (829-3676) and ask for Publication 596, "Earned Income Credit."

Wagner and Tracey Ruplinger brought home 11th-place finishes in the beam and floor exercise competitions.

When asked if she was satisfied with the results, Heather said "Oh yeah, I think they did real well." Adding that the Indians now have sent five gymnasts to the State Meet, all in the last three years, Heather mentioned, "That's pretty good."

"I think they will give it their best," Heather concluded regarding Krahn and Land's upcoming weekend. "The competition will be very high, but you just never know. On any given day, a gymnast can win their event."

Arthritis Foundation Campaign Begins In Kewaskum

The annual Arthritis Foundation, Wisconsin Chapter Neighbor-to-Neighbor Campaign begins in Kewaskum this month. Campaign proceeds benefit an estimated 674,000 men, women and children in Wisconsin who are affected by arthritis. Nearly 12,591 of them live in Washington County. That's one in every seven people, one in every three families!

They say there is no cure for arthritis, but they are wrong...we just haven't found it yet. Funds raised during the Neighbor-to-Neighbor Campaign will support arthritis research, patient services and public and professional education throughout Wisconsin. These programs are designed to meet the needs of people with arthritis, their families and the physicians who treat them.

The Arthritis Foundation is the only voluntary health agency seeking the total answer: the cause, cure and prevention of arthritis. Please give generously when you are contacted by your neighborhood representative. For more information on arthritis, contact the Arthritis Foundation Information and Referral Hotline at 1-800-242-9945.

Public Outreach Effort Gathers Opinions on Deer Management

MADISON... More than 110 organizations and 4,000 deer hunters will be contacted for opinions on proposed changes in Wisconsin's gun deer season as part of an extensive Department of Natural Resources public outreach effort.

Both informal contacts and formal survey research are part of what Wildlife Management Director Steve Miller says is "one of the most extensive and intensive citizen involvement efforts ever undertaken by our wildlife management program." "We want the people to have accurate information about the state's deer herd so they can give us informed opinions on management practices we can recommend," said Miller.

"It's no secret many Wisconsin citizens have deeply held opinions about deer and deer hunting and that's just fine, because it shows they care," Miller continued. "The department's challenge is to help shape that caring and those diverse views into constructive dialogue rather than a policy stalemate that benefits no one, including the deer."

The foundation of the outreach effort, Miller explained, is three professionally designed and conducted sampling and survey activities under the direction of Jordan Petchnik, a department researcher.

The three surveys will focus on:

Group Contacts — More than 110 organizations representing hunters, farmers, tourism, environmentalists, government, Indians tribes, outdoor recreators, educators, and others will receive formal questionnaires and information explaining deer management options and recommendations.

Responses will be analyzed using content-analysis procedures and summarized to develop one or more "pictures" of various opinions offered by the groups.

Deer Hunter Polling — About 4,000 hunters will be randomly selected from 1991 Hunter's Choice registration records and offered a six-page questionnaire asking for opinions about the 1991 gun deer season and possible changes in 1992 and beyond.

Results will be analyzed using standard statistical procedures, paying particular attention to significant differences in support for each proposal. Results will be presented to the Natural Resources Board in May.

Hunter Focus Groups — Hunter focus groups of six to 10 hunters each were convened by professional researchers at the Green Bay Deer Classic (February 14), and Milwaukee Sentinel Sports Show (March 14). Focus group discussions will allow hunters to elaborate on their views in comfortable, non-threatening discussions. This effort will allow the department to better understand "why" hunters hold their opinions.

In addition, personal interviews were conducted with 18 registrants at the Eau Claire Deer Classic on Feb. 1.

The results of all public involvement activities will supplement the April 6 spring conservation hearing vote and be shared with the Natural Resources Board at its May 27 meeting, at which time the board will decide the framework for the 1992 gun deer season. Miller said that staff will also be presenting information from letters, contacts, organizational resolutions and independent newspaper surveys to the board.

According to Miller, "We cannot wait any longer" to consider new alternatives to managing a deer herd that biologists estimate is still far above the statewide population level that would be in balance with habitat and within the realm of social acceptance.

The statewide winter population goal is 703,000 deer; current estimates indicate a population of about 850,000 deer.

"The herd is in balance with habitat and people in some areas, but is significantly out of balance in many more," Miller said. "Hunting is the main, and in some cases only, viable tool we have to manage the herd because of changes in land use and the disappearance of natural predators."

Most of this year's attention has focused on whether the public supports a 16-day deer season, a week longer than the traditional nine days, Miller continued. But the public involvement effort should give the department "a much better understanding of citizen views about a much longer list of deer management issues," he added.

It also has motivated the department to "do a much better job of communicating" with hunting and non-hunting interests about the importance of Wisconsin's deer herd now and in the future.

Turkey Permits Are Out

The spring 1992 turkey hunting permits have been mailed. Successful applicants should have been notified by mail.

In the past if you received a permit for a time period or zone that you were not able to hunt in, you could send the permit back and retain preference for the following year. This is no longer true. Leftover permits have all been issued to persons who agreed to accept a permit for any period or zone.

Preference fraud is also being addressed this year. A computer identifies persons who submitted fraudulent applications. Those individuals will not receive a permit. Only one preference fraud application was submitted in our area.

This year, to hunt turkeys you must purchase a Spring 1992 Turkey Hunting License, along with a 1991-92 Turkey Stamp. The $8 license is good for both gun and bow hunting. The stamp costs $5.25.

You do not need a license if you are going to "call" for someone else who is hunting. In the past, a small game license was required.

I will be addressing other turkey hunting rules in the next couple of months. If you have questions, feel free to contact me.

Late Misses Eliminate Indians

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — The roller coaster season of the Kewaskum boys basketball team came to an end here, last Thursday night. It ended in the same fashion that most of the regular season progressed, on a sour note.

The Indians missed key free throws down the stretch, and then missed a pair of shots that would have tied Waupun late in the game in falling to the Warriors, 61-59 in a WIAA Division II Regional semifinal.

The loss ended Kewaskum's season, leaving the Indians with a disappointing 8-13 mark on the year. Waupun, which improved to 4-18 with the win, eventually lost to Campbellsport 52-46 in the Regional final on Saturday.

"I knew they would be tough," Indian coach Jim Westphal said of the Warriors, who played most of the year without 6-6 center Chad Elgersma, who was sidelined with a stress fracture in his foot. "Their record doesn't show it, but that's mainly because they were without him most of the year."

The Indians were hoping to get another shot at Campbellsport, which had beaten the Indians twice this season. But Kewaskum just couldn't get the job done against the upset-minded Warriors.

The Indians fell behind in the first quarter 10-6, as they were just 2 of 12 from the floor in the opening period. Kewaskum found the range in the second period, though, and seized an 18-12 lead. But Waupun outscored the Indians 16-4 the rest of the half, and the Warriors led 28-22 at halftime.

"We played a very sloppy first half...made a lot of turnovers," Westphal said, noting his team finished with 21 miscues in the game. "But I liked the tempo. I never felt like we were ever at a desperation situation."

Westphal was both angry and encouraged by the first half showing - angry because of the officiating (the Indians did not attempt a single free throw in the first half), and encouraged because his leading scorer, senior Matt Seiser hadn't scored a point and the team was only down by six.

"It was awfully physical, and we're at a severe disadvantage when the game gets physical," Westphal said of the opening half. "I thought we were going to take them out of the game (when Kewaskum was up by six), but they came right back."

"But we hadn't played real well, Seiser was scoreless, and we were still down by only six, which isn't much," Westphal went on. "So I had to be somewhat encouraged."

Westphal's troops chipped away in the second half, cutting the deficit to just three, 46-43 at the end of the third frame. And after scoring the first two hoops of the fourth period, the Indians were ahead, 47-46. But the Indians struggled at the free throw line in the fourth, and Waupun made it hurt. Kewaskum connected on just five of 10 tries from the line in the final period.

After the game was tied at 48-all, the Warriors went on a 9-4 spurt that gave them a brief 57-52 advantage. But Kewaskum quickly answered with a run of their own, trying things again at 59-all with under a minute to go.

The Warriors' Jon Grams put his team ahead on a short jumper with just under :20 to go. The Indians then called a quick timeout to set up a potential game-tying hoop.

"We tried to run a double screen for Matt," Westphal said of the play called. But "they sagged off him and let Jim Marx open for about a 15-foot jumper. It was a very good shot really." But Marx's shot bounced away, and in the scramble for the loose ball, a jump ball was called with :02 to go. The arrow pointed to Kewaskum, and the Indians called another timeout to set up their final try.

The play was designed to go to either Joel Fleischman or Seiser, and this time Seiser got the ball and got off a pretty good shot. But it wouldn't drop, and the Indians lost another heartbreaker. Out of the Indians' 13 losses, nine were by less than 10 points, and five were by five or less points.

"We had two good shots to tie it," Westphal said, adding that Seiser's shot "is the kind of shot you hope to get with :02 to go. It's a disappointing way to end, no doubt about it."

With a strong second half, Seiser wound up leading the Indians with 13 points, while Fleischman finished with 11. Elgersma led all scorers with 16.

"Matt had a great second half...was very active," Westphal said of his senior leader, while Fleischman "had a good game again. He had nine rebounds playing against some bigger players." Kim Marx also "had another fine game," according to his coach, scoring eight points.

"We had our chances at the free throw line," Westphal concluded. "But we just didn't convert. The missed free throws, and turnovers...those were the keys."

Kurtz's Title Capped Off Stellar Season for Indians

Kewaskum Statesman, Thursday, March 12, 1992, Page 19

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — It's not often that a coach can call a .500 season a good year, but considering the roadblocks that Kewaskum wrestling coach John Nell has to face every time his team steps on the mat, the 1991-92 campaign was a huge success.

Set aside the fact that this year's team produced the school's first state champion ever and look at the obstacles for Nell. With four freshman, two sophomores and no heavyweight wrestler at the varsity level, the Indians still came away with a 6-6 overall dual meet record, and with an abundance of optimism for next season.

"I'm very pleased with this year's team," Nell said. "This year's group was good....worked very hard. I think we're going to be very competitive next year. We'll be tougher than this year."

It might be hard for Josh Kurtz to be any tougher. The junior 145-pounder won the school's first state championship in the sport, and was the hands down winner of most of the team awards at the team banquet held last Thursday.

"It was pretty-much unanimous," Nell said of Kurtz's MVP award, voted by fellow team members. Kurtz also walked away with the most pins honor (16), as well as the most takedowns (52).

Nell's lone senior on the squad, 125-pound Kevin Kapp closed out his wrestling career at KHS with a couple of well-deserved awards. Kapp was voted by his teammates as team captain, and was also honored with the Roman Muckerheide Memorial Award, voted by the Indian coaching staff.

The most improved award "was real close," according to Nell, and thus two awards were given out. State qualifier Mark Dziedzic (130) and Sectional qualifier Todd Muckerheide (189) shared the honor. The JV award, meanwhile, went to James Schaeffer (152), who finished the year with a fine 14-6 mark.

The underclassmen, as well as the return of all but Kapp to the fold next year definitely has Nell excited. In addition to Schaeffer, Nell expects some strong competition from some other JV grapplers, including Tyler Dieringer, Corey Rammer and Paul Reis. The difference whether those and the other Indian wrestlers develop will come in the following months, according to Nell.

"It's in the off-season, working in the weight room. That's where the key is," Nell said. "You'll get somebody out of the blue that may have been an average JV wrestler, who works hard in the off-season and becomes a very good varsity wrestler."

Nell hopes that will happen with his pupils. He also hopes that he can find a heavyweight somewhere. "Maybe someone will transfer in, a state champion somewhere," Nell joked. But his main goal for next season, and the coming years is "You'd always like to get more guys down to the State Meet."

JV, Frosh Boys Lose Finales

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — In following the Kewaskum varsity boys' disappointing season, the Indians JV and frosh both came up short in the season finale against New Holstein, and both capped off sub-par seasons.

The Indians JV's got a 13-point night out of James Zautner, but the rest of the team was ice cold in a 46-29 loss to the Huskies. The loss left the JV's with a 4-16 overall record, and finished just 1-11 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

The frosh were just as unsuccessful against the Huskies, losing 68-49. Kevin Klahn hit double figures for the Indians with 12 points. The Indian frosh finished 4-13 overall, and 2-10 in the EW.

In the longest tennis match in Wimbledon history, Pancho Gonzales (41) defeated a much younger Charles Pasarell in a 112 game match taking five hours and twelve minutes over two days.

Poor First Quarter Eliminates Lady Indians

By Statesman Sports Writer

BROWN DEER — The further a basketball team goes in the WIAA Tournament, the more important it becomes to play a full four quarters of hoops. And such as their season has gone, the Kewaskum girls learned that lesson the hard way.

The Indians came out sluggish in the opening period of their Division II Sectional semifinal game with Brown Deer here, last Friday night, and Kewaskum paid for their slow start as it fell 46-33, thus ending the Indians' season.

Indian coach Glenn Eichstedt said that he had hoped to slow down the Falcons early, and not let the hosts get off to a quick start. But instead, it was his troops that had trouble getting out of the gate.

"We came out and were not able to put points on the board," Eichstedt said, noting that his team scored just three points in the opening period, and fell behind 10-3. "We had trouble against their pressure. Their full-court press got us out of the patient game that we had wanted."

The Brown Deer press forced a total of nine Indian turnovers in the opening stanza, with "most of those coming on their half of the floor," Eichstedt said. The result was some easy Falcon baskets, and the early lead.

But the Indians stuck with the talented Falcons, who entered the game with a 22-1 record. At halftime, the Indians found themselves down by nine, at 19-10, and had a chance early in the second half to get right back into the game.

After Bonnie Schlice scored the opening basket to make it 19-12, the Indians held and Robyn Winninghoff came down and was fouled, sending her to the line for a pair of shots. She missed both, however, and Brown Deer came down and got a basket and a foul, and the Indians never really threatened again.

Eichstedt didn't even think of faulting the junior Winninghoff, though, as she turned in one of her best efforts of the year. The 6-1 center scored 15 points and grabbed 11 rebounds and upstaged Brown Deer's 6-3 center, Melissa Glodowski, who finished with 12 points.

"I really felt that Robyn outplayed her," Eichstedt said of the center matchup. "We did a nice job defensively on her, doubling down. We really played tremendous defense in the middle two quarters."

"We just didn't have anyone to get us going offensively," Eichstedt went on. "That's been the story of our season."

Winninghoff's effort could have been even better, as she missed eight of her 13 free throws attempts. A sore spot all year, the Indians were just eight of 19 at the charity stripe, despite having one of their better shooting nights from the field, making 12 of 39 tries.

The Indians were at somewhat of a disadvantage, as they were without the services of one of their senior leaders, 5-10 Tammy Schmidt, who injured her ankle in the Regional win against Waupun.

"She could not go at all," Eichstedt said of Schmidt's severe sprain. As for his other seniors, Sherry Hass and Terri Vogt, he said "They gave it everything they had," and Vogt in particular, "set a tremendous example for the underclassmen," with her all-out effort. Overall, Eichstedt was pleased with the effort.

"We proved that we can play some good basketball against a quality team," he said. "I was real pleased with our intensity and defensive effort. We hustled and made them work for their shots."

But give the Falcons some credit, says Eichstedt. "They are a very patient team. They very seldom take an outside shot," he said. "According to my stats, they took just one shot outside the lane for the entire game."

The loss left the Indians with a disappointing 4-18 mark this season. "We're a little disappointed with the overall record," the Indian boss said, although adding that making it to the Sectionals "was a goal of ours, and hopefully it will make us more hungry next year."

Brown Deer, meanwhile, wasn't hungry or talented enough to get past Lake Geneva Badger in the Sectional Championship, losing to Badger 41-29. Brown Deer finished 23-2, while Badger advanced to the WIAA State Tournament in Madison with a 18-7 mark.

KEWASKUM 3-7-7-16 - 33
BROWN DEER 10-9-9-18 - 46
Kewaskum - Vogt 1, Winninghoff 15, Wiesner 2, Sabish 2, B. Schlice 6, M. Schlice 7, Free Throws - 8 of 19, Fouls - 18
Brown Deer - Awe 11, Glodowski 12, McNeelley 2, Holmes 4, Arkwright 12, Malecki 2, Schmillier 3, Free Throws - 10 of 17, Fouls - 21

Before a sport can become one of the Summer Olympic games, it must be widely popular in at least 50 countries on three continents.

Two Rivers Lone EW Boys Team Alive

By Statesman Sports Writer

NEW HOLSTEIN — The Eastern Wisconsin Conference is down to its last hope in the boys basketball playoffs.

EW co-champ Two Rivers is the lone conference squad alive in the WIAA Playoffs after the Raiders won the New Holstein Regional. After beating Denmark (which beat New Holstein in a sub-regional) 60-40 in the Regional semifinal, the Purple Raiders faced fellow EW co-champ Kiel in the Regional final. Two Rivers rolled to a 57-44 win to remain alive. Kiel had beaten Little Chute 53-42 to advance.

Other action involving EW squads included Waupun's burial of Plymouth in sub-regional play, 71-44, and Sheboygan Falls' quick exit after losing to Campbellsport, 53-51.

Chilton won a pair of games in Division III before bowing out in the Regional finals against Algoma, 84-68. The Tigers crushed Sevastopol in the sub-regionals, 84-33, and then downed Brillion in the semi's, 84-73.

Straub Earns All-American Honors

By Statesman Sports Writer

HILLWOOD LAKES, NEW JERSEY — The accolades and records continue to pour in for former Kewaskum high standout Richer Straub, who capped off a fine career at UW-Whitewater last weekend.

Straub, wrestling at 134 pounds, finished fifth in the NCAA Division III wrestling championships here, last weekend, and in doing so, qualified as an All-American.

It wasn't all that easy for Straub, who had to wrestle the eventual second and third place finishers. But he said that it was a relief to get away from the Midwest, where his fellow grapplers know his style and his patented headlock and headthrow.

"They all know that I like to tie up and headlock," Straub said from Whitewater Monday evening. "It was nice to get out to the East Coast where they didn't know me. I think I hit like nine or ten headlocks and throws for points."

Straub opened on Thursday against Chris Steinbacher of King (Penn.) College (15-6-1 record entering the match), and promptly disposed of Steinbacher with a technical fall of 4:13 mark, rolling to a 17-2 win.

The senior Warhawk captain then had a scare against Buena Vista (Iowa) University's Jeff Dyer (18-17). "He took me down and tilted me in the first period, so I was down 5-0," Straub said. But he battled back and "I turned him with :20 left," and pulled out an 8-6 win. That sent Straub up against the No. 1 seed at 134 pounds, the New York - Brockport's Chris Stevens (21-6).

"He wouldn't tie up with me," Straub said of Stevens, who eventually took second in the championships, losing to Augustana (Ill.). College's Rafeal Wilson in the finals. "He must have seen me wrestle in one of the other matches."

Stevens' strategy paid off, as he rolled to a 14-3 win over Straub. Straub bounced back on Friday night, though, as he easily handled Ohio Northern's Fred Boulton (28-8), winning 17-3.

After pinning Dave Buckiso (27-9) of John Carroll (Ohio) University in just 1:54, Straub ran into another tough foe, St. Lawrence (N.Y.) University's Rick Pawlowski (22-11), who shut out Straub, 11-0.

"He caught me in the first period, and tilted me a couple of times," said Straub, who trailed 7-0 after one period. "He was really tough." Pawlowski finished third in the Meet.

The loss sent Straub into the fifth-place match, in which he pinned Lenny Bruhweiler (19-4) of Ithaca (N.Y.) College in 2:30, leaving Straub with a 5-2 mark in the championships. Straub was honored as an All-American, as he finished in the top eight in his weight class, and was also awarded a plaque for finishing in the top six.

"I knew after Friday night that I was in the top eight," he said, adding that the win over Buckiso guaranteed him a top six finish. "I definitely wanted to get that plaque."

Thanks to Straub's efforts (He was the only Warhawk wrestler to participate in the championships), UW-Whitewater finished 28th in the team standings at the meet.

The successful weekend helped Straub find his place in the record books at Whitewater. The wins brought his season mark to 43-9, which is an all-time record for most wins in a season, eclipsing the former record held by Straub's roommate, Robb Llonca. Llonca went 42-0 last season, and still holds the all-time Warhawk win total with 134.

Straub finished his career with a 114-37 (.755) record. The wins ranked him third all-time, while his win percentage is 14th best. He also recorded 58 pins in his career, which ranked him second in school history. His 18 pins this year ranked him sixth in school history.

It was also learned that Straub has been named as a National Wrestling Coaches' Association Division III scholar athlete for the second year in a row. Straub, an Elementary Education major, has a current cumulative G.P.A. of 3.42.

Chilton, Hartford Reach WIAA Girls Meet

By Statesman Sports Writer

MENASHA — The Eastern Wisconsin Conference will be represented at the WIAA Girls State Basketball Tournament this weekend.

Chilton, the EW champions, continued their quest for a state title as it rolled through Division III Sectional competition here and earned a trip to Madison.

The Tigers disposed of Oostburg in the Sectional semifinals, 51-33 sending them into the title game against Markesan, which came into the game with a 24-0 mark (the same as Chilton), and a No. 2 ranking (Chilton was No. 3).

But they were no match for the Tigers, who rolled to a 50-34 lead after three quarters on their way to a 62-49 win. Tracey Winkler, the EW's leading scorer, led Chilton with 23 points, while Stacy Reimer added 17.

The Tigers lead a strong contingent to the Division III semifinals, as the four teams are a combined 93-5 on the year. Chilton, now 25-0, is the only undefeated team in Div. III, and of just two (the other is Lakeland in Div. II) girls public school teams in the state to experience a loss this year.

Also in Div. III to advance to State were Bloomer (23-1, ranked No. 6), Crivitz (22-3, No. 12) and Columbus (23-1, No. 4), which upset No. 1 Cuba City in their Sectional final, 41-38 in OT. Chilton will open against Columbus in the tournament's first game at 9:35 a.m. on Thursday.

Another area squad to watch in Madison this weekend will be Hartford, which beat Homestead 54-42 in the finals of the Mil. Chilton will take a 22-2 mark into a Thursday quarterfinal game against LaCrosse Logan.

All four Division boast strong fields this year. The combined records of each Division are: Div. I - 171-20; Div. II - 89-10; Div. III - 93-5; Div. IV - 86-11.
