9-1-1 Now In Operation

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

Beginning at 9:11 a.m. Wednesday, March 18th, the new 9-1-1 emergency service number went into operation. Serving residents of Washington and portions of neighboring Fond du Lac and Sheboygan Counties, the new emergency call system will allow people to simply dial 911 to obtain assistance.

Residents living outside Washington County or who have party lines or are using cellular phones to summon aid are again reminded that they will not have the "enhanced 911" service and will still need to provide dispatchers with addresses when reporting an emergency situation.

People should also remember that the number is strictly for emergencies. Anyone making non-emergency or false alarm calls can be fined for such violations. Fines, issued by the dispatch center involved, will run from $100 to as high as $223, for each incident.

Kewaskum Fire Chief Robert Stoltzmann would like to advise residents in the Town of Auburn (Fond du Lac County), served by the Kewaskum Fire Department, that his men will be going house-to-house this Thursday evening handing out the new 911 stickers to be attached to their phones and answering any questions people may have on the service.

Kewaskum Police Chief Richard Knoebel also noted his officers will be holding 911 training sessions for students at the grade and high schools on Friday, March 20th, and at the parochial schools next week.

Annual Police Report Shows Criminal Activity Down

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

Kewaskum Police Chief Richard Knoebel presented his annual departmental report for 1991 to the Kewaskum Village Board Monday night. In reviewing the data he noted decreases in several areas for the year ending December 31.

According to records, the total of index crimes (those reported to the State on a monthly basis) decreased by 23.2 percent in 1991, due to a decrease in thefts. During 1991, 29 of 66, or 43.9 percent of the reported index crimes were cleared by arrest. Kewaskum's clearance rate is higher than the statewide rate of 23.5 percent during 1990.

Total adult arrests increased by 22 percent, from 205 in 1990, to 250 in 1991. Juvenile arrests however, decreased by 24.1 percent from 166 in 1990, to 126 in 1991.

The overall property recovery rate of 76.9 percent for Kewaskum in 1991 is almost identical to its 1990 rate of 77 percent, however, it is much higher than the statewide recovery rate of only 34 percent in 1991.

A total of 420 traffic citations were issued in 1991, while there was a total of 1,648 traffic warnings given during the same period. That works out to a ratio of one citation issued for approximately every five vehicles stopped by the department in 1991.

The Kewaskum Police Department handled 1,455 complaints in 1991 as compared to 1,546 in 1990. The department patrolled a total of 70,755 miles last year.

In a comparison of criminal activities from 1990 and 1991, figures show a decrease in sexual assaults from seven in 1990, to four in 1991. Assaults dropped from ten in 1990, to eight in 1991. Auto thefts rose from two in 1990, to six in 1991. Burglaries also increased from ten in 1990, to twelve in 1991. There were no robberies during 1991.

New Squad on the Road With a Different Look

Village Board Approves Salaries for Non-Represented Employees

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board, Monday night, approved pay raises for municipal employees who are not represented by unions. The increases for the five employees affected range from three to six per cent.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt will receive a two per cent increase effective January 1, 1992, with another 1.96 per cent adjustment on July 1, which equals a three per cent total increase, from an annual 1991 salary of $40,792, to $41,608 for 1992.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel will receive a similar 2 per cent/1.96 per cent adjustment equalling three per cent for 1992. Knoebel's annual wage will increase from $32,566 for 1991, to $33,217 for 1992.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles received a four per cent raise, increasing his annual salary from $30,378, to $31,593.

Library Director Luci Bledsoe was given a 5 percent raise, from $18,912 to $19,858.

Deputy Clerk/Treasurer Janet Knops was given a six per cent increase, raising her salary from $18,912 in 1991, to $20,048 for 1992.

Part-time non-represented employees will receive a four per cent adjustment for 1992.

In other action the board voted to accept the bid of Stoffel Farms at $10,300, for the sale of the village's retired 1971 Cat loader. While the Stoffel bid was not the highest, Public Works Director Jerry Gilles advised the board that the Stoffel family was allowing the village to haul its sludge onto their fields. The difference of about $200, is worth more in savings to us for the short haul in disposing of the sludge, he noted. Gilles indicated the Stoffels have consistently worked with the village and he felt, in the long run, the village would save more than the difference between the two bids. He also noted that the way restrictions are on dumping the sludge, the village was just happy to have a place to take it.

In other business the board approved the signing of a contract with the Kewaskum Athletic Association covering use of the Kiwanis Park northeast ball diamond and concession stand for 1992, advertising for bids on the Edgewood Road extension, the awarding of repair contracts for the main lift station to low bidder Bunkelman Builders at $3,850, and re-roofing the River Hill Park ice cream stand by Dehling-Voigt at a cost of $2,550.

The board also approved the annual beer licenses for the Fire Department's fireworks display and picnic, and Chief Knoebel's request to advertise for bids to sell the retired 1990 squad.

In non-action business, Village Administrator Dan Schmidt passed out a rough draft for curbside recycling and garbage collection service. The board will review the draft and add its comments and/or changes.

Chief Knoebel also informed the board that the new squad is now on the road. A new feature of the car is, along with the standard red and blue lights, it now has arrow lights on the back side. An officer can turn on the arrow and automatically direct traffic around a stopped vehicle or accident scene, he noted.

Trustee Bob Beisbier also commented on the new look of the car, with the reflectorized angled stripe new identification.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

Panic Buttons.

When it comes to emergencies, most people have been taught a few basic rules. We'd like you to learn one more. It's simply 9-1-1, the 24-hour emergency hotline. Dial it from either a rotary or touch-tone telephone, and you're in touch with the fire department, police or sheriff's department and emergency medical service within seconds. 9-1-1 may also be dialed from a public telephone at no charge.

If you live in Ozaukee County or Washington County, 9-1-1 is ready for your emergencies. Please be aware that when calling from certain business lines you will need to dial a code (9, *, etc.) first, if that is how you usually access an outside line.

But the key here is emergency.

In non-emergency situations use the administrative numbers on the inside cover of your telephone book instead.

With 9-1-1 there's no need to panic. So commit it to memory. One day, it just might save your life.

Catholic Knights Marks Financial Milestones in '91

Catholic Knights Insurance Society (CKIS) revenues increased by $7.4 million or 13 percent in 1991, reaching an all-time high of $63.5 million. Assets grew by 11.7 percent, $30.85 million, the largest annual increase in Catholic Knights history. Total life insurance in force reached $1.84 billion at year-end 1991, an increase of 50 percent in the past four years.

Annuity premium earnings increased by a whopping 48 percent, to $13 million, a record high since the Society started its annuity portfolio in 1982.

The life insurance lapse ratio (percentage of members leaving the Society) for 1991 dropped to 6.4 percent, the lowest in ten years, an indication that members are satisfied with our quality service and our insurance products and fraternal benefits.

The Society increased its surplus in 1991 by 4.1 percent or $1.275 million.

"We at Catholic Knights take pride in our continuing record of investing our members' money in safe, high quality securities."

On the fraternal side of Catholic Knights, the Society showed a dramatic increase in charitable and benevolent involvement of its members in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois. Fund-raisers by members in Catholic Knights 127 branches generated an increase of 25 percent, to $178,600. These funds went to fellow members and neighbors in need, Catholic schools and parishes, as well as local community causes. Combine this with matching funds and contributions from the Catholic Knights home office, as well as funds supporting fraternal benefits to members, and the Society contributed over $490,000 in 1991. Members reported helping 338,000 people in 1991, and donating 348,000 hours of volunteer service, with an estimated value of $2.8 million.

Junior Women to Coordinate Fundraiser For Cystic Fibrosis

The GFWC Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club has been contacted by the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and asked to coordinate a fund raiser for the organization.

The club has agreed to sponsor a Bowl-A-Thon at Lighthouse Lanes, West Bend on Sunday, April 5, 1992 beginning at 1 p.m.

In 1989, scientists funded by the Foundation discovered the gene which causes cystic fibrosis. In 1990, researchers corrected defective CF cells in laboratory dishes, the first step toward using gene therapy as a treatment for cystic fibrosis. These developments demonstrate how the pace of research has increased considerably, and how we can help make CF history by raising much-needed dollars for research.

Anyone is welcome to participate. Sponsor forms are available at Lighthouse Lanes or from Louise Martin at 626-4291. League bowlers may use scores from the previous week instead of bowling on Sunday, April 5th.

Everyone can be a winner! Each person who collects $35.00 will earn a Foundation T-shirt. Additional prizes are available. Please come and join us; get involved. Research is the only answer for the 30,000 children and young adults in this community who suffer from cystic fibrosis.

Drafting Plan Contest Won By Chad Cook

The West Bend Area Builders Association sponsored a Drafting Plan Contest for High School students in the surrounding area. Tom Schmidt, Chairman of the Contest, was pleased with the entries. Tom believes that "it's important for the West Bend Area Builders to promote skill development in the construction industry and to uncover hidden talents in today's youths".

Seven students submitted plans from four area high schools. Kewaskum High School senior Chad Cook, 1122 Edgewood Rd., Kewaskum, took first place and was a $100 savings bond. His plan depicted a 3,170 sq. ft. 2 story. Second place was won by Tom Vespalic and Chris Lefebber won third place. They are both students of Slinger High School and each took home a $50 savings bond.

Judging took place Feb. 27th at the W.B.B.A. general membership meeting. Pat Storrs, Architect from JP Storrs Co., was head judge. Assisting him were three builder members: Bob Kirst, Al Tennes and Dale Schulz. Plans were judged on Design, Presentation and Construction, keying in on attention to items like Code Compliance, Clarity and Use of Materials and Systems. The judges were impressed with the quality of the student's work. Only three points separated 1st and 3rd place.

The three winning plans were on display at the West Bend Home & Garden Show. Chad Graff, President of W.B.B.A., plans to hold a similar contest next year. For information on the contest or for answers to other questions about the West Bend Area Builders Association, write Box 953, West Bend, WI 53095.

Steiner Attends AAL Seminar

Christine Steiner, N2858 Highway 45, Campbellsport, attended a Career Seminar at the Aid Association for Lutherans (AAL) home office in Appleton from March 1-6.

The seminar consisted of instruction and discussion about life and health insurance issues. Participants reviewed current and future trends in the life and health insurance industries, explored estate protection and pension plans, and were trained in sales techniques. Insurance provided by AAL includes life, health, disability income and retirement products. Mutual funds are offered to members by AAL's subsidiary, AAL Capital Management Corporation. Other financial services are available to members of AAL by the AAL Member Credit Union.

The seminar curriculum also covered AAL's fraternal philosophy. As a fraternal benefit society, AAL has a broad range of self-help programs and volunteer opportunities to benefit individuals, institutions and communities.

Steiner is an associate of the Oshkosh Agency of AAL. AAL is the nation's largest fraternal benefit society in terms of assets (9.4 billion) and ordinary life insurance in force ($60.9 billion).

B.A.B.E.S. Training Held in County

On February 26, 27 and 28th, the Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County provided a training of presenters for the BABES (Beginning Alcohol and Addictions Basic Education Studies) program. The training was held at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in West Bend.

BABES is a primary prevention program designed to give children ages 3 to 8 years, a lifetime of skills to avoid substance abuse. The curriculum was introduced in Washington County in 1988, and is now utilized in approximately 90 percent of our public and parochial schools. The West Bend School District has incorporated BABES into the developmental guidance curriculum at the second grade level. There are currently 15 certified presenters county wide, several of whom are teachers or guidance counselors.

"Participants in this training were from several different areas," said Marty Ison-Kocos, certified BABES Trainer and Associate Director of the Council on AODA. Two participants represented the Head Start Program in Washington County, three are employed by the Germantown School District, two were from the Fond du Lac County Department of Community Programs, one was a social worker who volunteers at The Council, and two were coming from the Standing Rock Sioux Nation, Fort Yates, North Dakota.

"It was so exciting to experience some cultural diversity while working together to achieve a common goal. That goal is to give our children the skills to make healthy decisions," said Ison-Kocos.

BABES was developed by the CEO of the National Council on Alcoholism of Greater Detroit approximately 12 years ago. Since then the program has reached thousands of children nationwide and in several other countries. For more information on BABES, call The Council, 338-1181.

Having ended their Land O' Lakes league season, the Kewaskum team has decided to play one more game before storing their uniforms away. Out of the generosity of their hearts, they will use their legs to help a man who has lost a leg, by playing a benefit game for Des Smith of Kewaskum, Sunday night, March 19, in the high school gym. The Lakes team will take on a squad of local old timers who will get their uniforms out of moth balls for this special benefit. Among others, some of the "old-timers" who will creak back into action will be former stars Augie Bilgo, Frank Krueger, Wayland, Allen and John Tessar, "Red" Stautz, "Hefty" Backhaus, Ellie Ramthun, "Bud" Perkins, Ken Erickson and others. The Lakes team will play their regular squad of Don Meisenheimer, Mike Coulter, Al Koepke, Tom Larsen, Otto Ramthun, Al Tennes, Gene Pieper, Ralph Bier, Gary Gerhartz, and Earl Du Bois.

Bill Backhaus, Kewaskum High School's scoring ace, last week, was selected to the coaches' Scenic Moraine All-Conference basketball first team. The 6-0 senior finished his varsity career with a total of 854 points.

Mrs. Frank Bingen, 74, of West Bend, mother of Mrs. Arnold Bier of Kewaskum, was killed Sunday evening in a Washington County auto crash. Mrs. Bingen was fatally injured at 6:16 p.m., on Hwy. 33, west of West Bend in a three-car collision when the car driven by her husband Frank, 76, traveling west, was struck in the rear by an auto driven by Homer Bennett of Slinger, pushing the Bingen vehicle into an approaching car operated by David Asmus of Milwaukee. Her husband was also badly injured and was reported in serious condition at St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend.

BEARING THE CROSS — The footing was soft and slippery as the four men carried the cross up to the top of Keller's Hill.

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

After almost countless days and nights of fog, the skies have cleared and people throughout the area are able to enjoy the lighted Lenten cross on the top of Keller's Hill on the east side of the village.

The cross, which seems to float in the night sky, was the project of four Kewaskum residents Gordie Becker, Augie Bilgo, John Kudek, and Bob Staehler. The men spent several hours constructing the cross, attaching the dozens of white lights and then, with no small effort, hand carrying the cross up the steep, muddy incline to the top of the hill where it was set in place.

Thank you gentlemen, for directing everyone's attention to the true meaning of the Easter season.

Against the black sky the lighted cross seems to be floating in the air.

Gambling Proponents Lack Vision

By State Senator Donald K. Stitt

Along with the myriad of issues on the Legislature's agenda this spring floor period, one that has risen to the forefront of state attention is the debate over whether or not gambling should be expanded in our state.

This divisive issue has not only dominated statewide press sources, but it has cut across political and geographical lines in a unique way like no other issue has.

The debate over legalizing video gaming and the larger issue of opening the door to full-blown gambling in our state is one that accentuates the divergent visions of gambling proponents and opponents.

I oppose the expansion of gambling because my vision of Wisconsin's future should gambling be expanded differs significantly from that of those advocating it.

Proponents of expanding gambling on the local level, namely those advocating video gaming in taverns, claim it will boost their sagging businesses by providing another form of entertainment to patrons.

Statewide proponents, including Governor Thompson, claim illegal video gaming is already flourishing right under our noses and the best approach is to license, tax and police these activities before graft and corruption set in on a larger scale.

This is the same as saying people are using cocaine so we should legalize it and use the revenue to fight the war on drugs.

This argument is so convoluted, it doesn't warrant further consideration.

Gambling supporters further wave the carrot of additional state revenues from video gaming, estimated at $55 million by mid 1993, and promise to pour these monies into the current homeowners lottery credit.

The failure of this argument is evidenced by its shortsightedness. A major policy decision such as expanding gambling should not be based on how much money it will net state coffers.

Moreover, when Wisconsin residents voted for the lottery, they did not intend to give the go ahead for all out casino-style gambling in the state.

To the contrary, many people who supported legalizing the lottery now feel betrayed because the revenues were supposedly going to solve our property tax problem.

Not only did the lottery fail to achieve this objective, but it was the camel's nose in the tent for gambling interests.

The debate over gambling expansion should center around what Wisconsin will gain versus what will be lost should the state sanction expanded gambling.

Is the revenue from expanded gambling worth the risk of becoming the "Las Vegas of the midwest?"

While it may boost our tourism industry in the short-run, once the graft and corruption associated with gambling sets in, will people still want to "Escape to Wisconsin" with their families?

All of these questions go back to how people envision our state in the future years.

In ten years, do we want floating casinos cruising our pristine waters, gambling palaces in our cities and video poker machines in every bar and grill?

Furthermore, will the revenue from these activities be sufficient to pay for additional law enforcement, organized crime investigators and gambling inspectors?

With so many questions left unanswered, the only sensible solution is to step back from the glitz and determine if Wisconsin residents actually want more gambling in the state.

Wisconsin citizens, not gambling interests in Madison, need to make this decision.

For this reason, I have introduced a joint resolution calling for a statewide advisory referendum on the question of expanding gambling in Wisconsin.

If this resolution is approved by both houses of the Legislature in the current floor period, November ballots throughout the state would ask voters the question, "Do you favor the Legislature enacting legislation to expand the forms of gambling that may be conducted in this state, including legislation to allow casinos, including riverboat casinos, video gaming machines, roulette, blackjack and slot machines?"

By voting yes to the question, residents would be directing the Legislature to enact legislation allowing for each type of gambling activity.

By voting no, people would be sending a strong message to Madison that enough is enough: no more gambling in our state!

It's time to ask the people what their vision is and stop letting those who have a vested interest in seeing gambling expanded control the future of Wisconsin.

In land area, Montana is the fourth largest state.

Dairyland Seed Research Team Releases Fifteen New Hybrids

Dairyland's 15 new Stealth hybrids™ are available for 1992 Spring planting.

The Dairyland research staff was proud to announce the introduction of 15 new Stealth hybrids for the 1992 season. These new Stealth Hybrids run a broad range of maturities and provide tremendous genetic diversity to the Dairyland lineup. Beyond diversity, they bring added performance stability and yield capacity to Dairyland customers. These 15 new products range from 75-days to 114-days.

According to Dairyland corn breeder, Bary Birrenkott, "One of the reasons I'm so excited about these hybrids is their genetic makeup. With the introduction of these hybrids, we're bringing quite a bit of diversity into our lineup." Adds fellow corn breeder Charlie Hildenbrand, "Diversity alone is not what convinced us to introduce these products. What makes me most enthusiastic is the numbers that these hybrids have put up in research trials. I have great anticipation for this fall's plot results."

The following provides information on these new Stealth Hybrids for this area:

Stealth-1175: Yield in a true 75-day hybrid. Stealth-1175 is outyielding DX-1075 by 12 bushels per acre. In addition, it is outyielding Pioneer hybrid 3963. Good replant corn.

Stealth-1179: Exceptional yield in a hybrid under 80 days. Stealth-1179 comes in five days earlier than DX-1181 with better stalks. It features very good drydown.

Stealth-1184: Stealth-1184 is more rugged and more consistent than DX-285 or DX-283. Slightly earlier than DX-1186. Stealth-1184 has a large plant good for either grain or silage. It adapts well to different soils and fertility levels. Stealth-1184 has shown a tendency to respond favorably to extra nitrogen.

Stealth-1189: A top yielding 90-day grain hybrid with good drydown and standability. Stealth-1189 features very good emergence and is more consistent than DX-1190. Consistent ear size.

Stealth-1191: A tall hybrid good for grain or silage. This 90-day hybrid is an excellent stress corn. More yield and standability than DX-1192 as well as more yield than Pioneer hybrid 3902.

Stealth-1195: This 95-day hybrid features terrific yield and drydown. Excellent staygreen. More yield and better standability than DX-1095. Very stable.

Stealth-1198: Excellent stalks and roots along with superb yield are traits of this 98-day hybrid. Stealth-1198 is outyielding DX-1096, DX-1095, and Pioneer hybrid 3751. Excellent staygreen.

In addition, Dairyland Seed also offers a comprehensive hybrid corn crop management guide titled "Management 2000™". For more information on Dairyland's new Stealth Hybrids or to obtain your free copy of "Management 2000™", write Dairyland Seed Co., Inc., P.O. Box 958, West Bend, WI 53095 or call (414) 338-0163.

Fishing Clinics to Be Offered to Area Youngsters

Spring is on its way and with it comes the yearning to tease the fish with a worm in the hopes of providing dinner. Many area young people would enjoy the experience of fishing but haven't been instructed in the proper, safest techniques.

The opportunity to learn, topped off with trying to catch some fish, will be available to children ages six through twelve. Back-to-back clinics will be held at Sandy Knoll Park on Wallace Lake Drive, West Bend, on Saturday, April 4. The morning session will begin at 9:00 a.m. and conclude at 12:00 noon; the afternoon session will be held from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. There is no fee for either clinic but reservations are required.

DNR-trained Master Anglers, members of the Long Lake Fishing Club, Dundee, will conduct the clinic. Instructional sessions will include: Environment: lakes and Watersheds — Keeping them clean; Fish Habitat and Identification; Fishing Methods — Being a Good Angler; Equipment and Rigging; Nature's Friend, the Warden, and Casting Practice. Following the completion of each of these 10 minute sessions, members of the LLFC will assist the youngsters in fishing for rainbow trout. Some equipment is available for use. If a child has access to a rod and reel, it is suggested he/she bring it along.

Each boy or girl completing either clinic will receive a packet of educational materials, a diploma and a Junior Angler patch.

This program is a first in the West Bend area. It has been successful in the Milwaukee, Racine, Waukesha and Kenosha counties under the auspices of the Wisconsin Council of Sport Fishing Organizations in cooperation with local fishing organizations. The program in West Bend is sponsored by the Long Lake Fishing Club and the Wisconsin Council of Sport Fishing Organizations.

Registration forms are available at the Sentry Food Store in Kewaskum. They should be completed and returned to the Long Lake Fishing Club, N4155 Boy Scout Drive, Campbellsport, WI 53010 by March 25, 1992. Parents are welcome to observe; a child that is dropped off must be picked up immediately following the completion of the chosen

St. Joseph's Community Hospital Receives Additional Smart Money

In an ongoing effort to make the hospital as energy efficient as possible, St. Joseph's Community Hospital recently participated in Wisconsin Electric's Smart Money Program. By installing solar film on the windows of the new addition, the hospital received a rebate of $426.00 from Wisconsin Electric. An annual savings of $228.00 is estimated in their electric bill as a result of this program.

This was the seventh time in clinic. The Long Lake Fishing Club is a non-profit organization of over 300 members whose interests include lake management and habitat protection in addition to education and the promotion of good fishing and clean waters.

four years that St. Joseph's participated in the Smart Money Program. During the preceding projects, the hospital installed energy efficient equipment that met the Smart Money Program's requirements. As a result, St. Joseph's received $77,851.00 in rebates and realizes an annual savings of $37,000.00 in their electric bill.

This cooperative effort with Wisconsin Electric is just one of many ways St. Joseph's continually strives to reduce its operating costs. The result is that St. Joseph's is one of the least expensive hospitals in the State of Wisconsin.

Celebrate one of America's most important gifts this month... its agriculture. While taken for granted by many, the U.S. is still the world's most efficient producer of food and fiber. Friday, March 20, is National Agriculture Day... a chance to recognize farmers' contribution to our economy and well-being.

According to Wisconsin Secretary of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection Alan Tracy, Wisconsin plays a key role in this agricultural excellence. "It's critical to acknowledge the quality and abundance of food provided by Wisconsin's farmers," states Tracy. "Their task is not an easy one."

Wisconsin has always been known for its dairy products... and it still ranks first for many of them. But few people may realize it's also a top producer of many crops. Wisconsin is the number one producer of ginseng, corn for silage, mink, snap beans, green peas, sweet corn and processed vegetables.

National Agriculture Day will be celebrated with a variety of projects organized by local agribusiness organizations, 4-H and FFA Chapters, churches and civic groups.

HEE! HAW! Area Residents Get a 'Kick' Out of Donkey Basketball

Participants and spectators alike found out Donkey Basketball isn't quite as easy as it looks when eager(?) players tried to outmaneuver each other on Wednesday, March 11, in the KHS fieldhouse. The first game ended with the Kewaskum FFA guys defeating the Kewaskum firemen-women (firepeople? women's liberation is so confusing!) team. Young people prevailed as the Kewaskum High School students defeated the Kewaskum teachers (and Larry Martin? Now what is he teaching?).

The title of "Donkey Masters" went to the Kewaskum students who defeated the FFA students in the final playoff game.

Bob Cosby's Donkey Basketball was sponsored by the Kewaskum FFA Alumni and they must be congratulated for the fine choice they made for their announcer. Carol Oelhafen had the dubious duty of calling the play-by-play and doing the color, both which she handled very well.

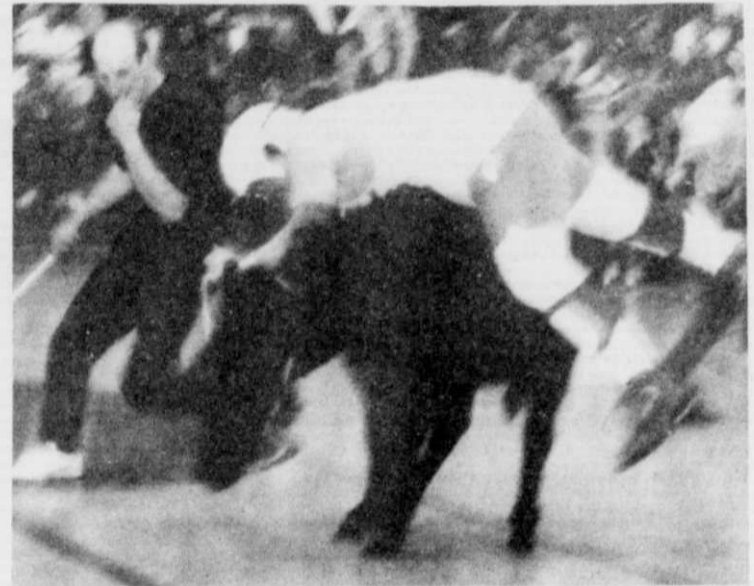

What I want to know is Larry Rauch riding the donkey or did the donkey just happen to walk underneath Larry Rauch? (Ponder that question!)

On your mark... get set... go... or is it, "gentlemen, start your engines! Either way, you'd think one of these guys would know how you start a donkey!

It's up... and it's good! Larry Martin shows some of his donkeyball expertise (I'm not touching that one!) as he scores two for the gipper... er, I mean the teachers.

As you can plainly see from the fuzziness of this photo, there was a tremor in the stands as Bob Wagner shows the proper "Kewaskum-style" donkey mount. I'm not sure if the referee was calling the foul on Bob or the poor little donkey trying to buck him off!

Donkey football? Donkey wrestling? I thought Donkey basketball was supposed to be played on top of the donkeys? Not however, the prowess of both intense players as they managed to keep hold of their trusty steeds. Frankly I think someone should have called a foul on these guys for denting the floor!

Come Simba! Who's pulling who? And we all thought Larry Martin was a born leader. Apparently this little burro has not yet heard the election rumors.

John Schmitt goes back for a pass... basketball, John, basketball! Of course, eventually the players found out it was wise to keep one man stationed under the basket and toss the ball across the fieldhouse to him and with any amount of luck, he would catch it and not fall on his a--, oops, I mean, off his donkey.

Fortunately the firemen and the teachers had women players. Here, Sandy Harmon shows us what every woman already knows... if you talk sweetly and tickle the back of his neck, the male species will follow you anywhere!

John Schmitt and his thoroughbred ponder the "thrill of victory." However, they suffered the "agony of defeat."

Snowmobile Trails In the Service Closed for Season

At the monthly Sno-Chiefs Snowmobile Club meeting it was decided to close the trails for the season.

Due to the warmer weather and unsafe ice and high water in low lands, some trails are under water. Also the damage that can be done to some of the winter crops.

The club asks that people obey this because when trails are officially closed there is stiff fine for violators.

IN MEMORY

In memory of JOEL REINHEIMER, who passed away one year ago on March 30, 1991:

We still can't believe your gone,
We miss you so much.

You were taken from us too suddenly

For us to ever understand.

It's like you're on a vacation,
We keep waiting for you to come home,

And then we realize you'll never be coming home.

And the pain starts all over again.

We thank you for all you gave us while you were here,

Your sweet smile, your sense of humor

And your gentle and loving ways.

Your book "Squeek the Rabbit",
Your memory will live on forever,

And we will always be proud to say,

"Joel Reinheimer is our son and brother."

I know we will all meet again.
We will always love you.

Love,

Mom, Dad & Josh

4-H NEWS

Wayne Crusaders Monthly Meeting

The Wayne Crusaders met on Tuesday evening, March 10 at the Kohlsville Fire Dept. Julie Schulz and Paula Peterson led the pledges.

Bridget Ritger, President, called the meeting to order. Sarah Ritger, gave the secretary's report and Jeanine Steier gave the treasurer's report.

We are encouraging all members, their families and friends to help us achieve our goal of "A Mile of Pennies." We had a total of $78.88 in pennies to date.

We will be holding a family luncheon on Sunday, March 22, from noon until 2 p.m. at Salem Church in Wayne. The food is being prepared by the Foods leader, Barb Steier, and all members enrolled in the project. Members are to be at the Steier home on Friday evening, March 20 at 6:30, to help organize and prepare the menu. Member families are reminded to reply to the Spring Fling Family Thing Luncheon by Friday. Call 626-4239 or 629-5311.

Angela and Bridget Ritger reported on Ag Day, held at the West Bend Outlet Mall.

We were informed that our "adopted Grandma," Della Koenig, has been hospitalized recently. All families are encouraged to send her cards. A basket of flowers was sent from the club.

Six members of the club have interviewed for State 4-H Congress. Adam Bingen, Jolie Bingen, Kerry Peterson, Rik Novotny, Sarah Ritger and Ryan Herman will be attending Congress in Madison in June.

The Music and Drama group will be having practice on Thursday, March 19 at the Fire House at 4 p.m. They will be performing at the County Festival in April. Twelve members are in the group.

Members entered their posters and speeches for the upcoming County contest. The subject is recycling and everyone was encouraged to participate. All those who did participate received a reward, as did those who were honor roll participants. We have a really good group, so congratulations to all.

Bowl-a-thon is Sunday, March 22, with proceeds going to the 4-H Trust Fund.

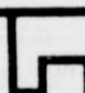

Mr. Ken Raulf, Town of Wayne employee, attended our meeting and gave a brief explanation of recycling in our area. He showed us the proper way to prepare your recyclables and what the benefits and reasons are that we must recycle. It was very interesting.

Our next meeting is April 14 at 7 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted

Annual Spring Conservation Rules Hearings Set for April 6 in County

MADISON... Wisconsin residents have an opportunity to vote on proposed fish, game and conservation rule modifications at the annual spring hearings held in each county on April 6.

Advisory questions from the Natural Resources Board, the Department of Natural Resources and the Wisconsin Conservation Congress will also be discussed and voted on. Department personnel will be at each hearing location to answer questions.

Some of the proposed rule modifications to be addressed include:

*Establishing a 16-day gun deer season for all northern forest deer management units that would begin on the Saturday before Thanksgiving Day.

*Adding a 7-day antlerless-only gun deer season to the existing 9-day season in the remaining southern management units.

*Establishing a 16-day gun deer season in 1993 that would begin on the Saturday nearest Nov. 16.

*Establishing "metropolitan deer management units" in areas near La Crosse, Madison and Milwaukee.

*Allowing raccoon hunting at night during the gun deer season.

*Establishing a bobcat quota and permit system.

*Increasing bear population goals in northeast Wisconsin.

*Establishing a crow hunting season.

*Changing smallmouth bass fishing regulations in Lake Superior to allow only catch-and-release during May and early June.

*Establishing urban fishing regulations in southeast Wisconsin that would allow a year-round season and daily bag limits of one game fish and 10 panfish.

*Increasing the minimum size limit for rainbow trout (steelhead) on Lake Superior tributary streams from 12 to 26 inches.

*Closing the early trout season in southwest Wisconsin for three years beginning in 1993.

The hearings also provide a forum for the election of county delegates to the Wisconsin Conservation Congress. The congress serves as an advisory group to the Natural Resources Board. Eligible candidates include any county resident who is not employed by the Department of Natural Resources or is not a member of the Natural Resources Board.

For more information contact Tom Hauge, Wildlife Management, 608-267-7857 or Larry Claggett, Fisheries Management, 608-267-9658.

Introduces Resolution Opposing Administration's Tax

Kasten Vows to Fight Efforts to Tax Life Insurance Annuities

Kewaskum Statesman,

Thursday, March 19, 1992, Page 17

WASHINGTON, D.C. — U.S. Senator Bob Kasten, R-Wis., vowed to fight the Bush Administration's proposal to tax the cash build-up in life insurance annuities so that Wisconsin families will be able to continue to benefit from tax-deferred savings.

"I am strongly opposed to the Administration's proposal to tax the cash build-up in life insurance annuities," said Kasten in introducing his Sense of the Senate resolution.

"Taxing annuities in the manner proposed would result in the loss of substantial long-term capital investment. Life insurance annuities are an important program of savings and investment for all Americans.

"Many Wisconsinites will be adversely affected if this tax on life insurance savings is imposed," said Kasten. "Not only will their taxes increase, but a popular program for retirement savings will be eliminated."

Kasten said the administration's proposal would harm American insurance companies — an industry that employs millions of Americans throughout the country. Annuity sales are the source of a substantial proportion of new business and the insurance industry is in turn an important source of investment in the economy, he said.

Kasten said his legislation is an important way of sending a message to the President that annuities are critical to the retirement security of Americans.

"By further taxing the life inurance industry, the jobs of many workers in Wisconsin would be jeopardized, and we simply can't afford more layoffs during this recession," he said.

"It is indeed ironic that while the Administration acknowledges the need for more tax-favored savings opportunities, they have chosen to propose the elimination of life insurance annuities as an attractive investment," said Kasten.

"Americans want governments to provide more incentives for savings, not less, particularly at a time when the U.S. savings rate is so low."

Everyone hears only what he understands.

Straub came back with a 17-3 win over Fred Boulton of Ohio Northern University in his final match Friday. He pinned Dave Buckiso of John Carroll University (OH) in 1:54 in round two of the consolation bracket, but lost a chance to wrestle for third place when he was defeated by Rick Pawlewicz of Saint Lawrence University (NY) 11-0. However, Straub ended his career with a win, and captured fifth place, by beating Lenny Bruhwiler of Ithaca College (NY) with a fall at 2:30.

Straub finished the season with a 43-9 record, establishing a new school mark for most wins in a season. He also recorded 18 pins during the season, fourth best in school history.

Straub ended his career with 114 wins, fourth all time at UW-W, and his total of 58 pins is the second best in Warhawk wrestling annals.

Straub's 11.25 points helped UW-W finish 28th in the team standings. New York - Brockport won the title with 76.5 points.

Playground Ooze Smelly, Not Harmful

By Carrie Hansen, UW Center for Health Sciences

MADISON... A foul-smelling, brown substance bubbling up on playgrounds and backyards in many areas of the state doesn't pose a health risk, according to experts from the State Laboratory of Hygiene (SLH) and Department of Natural Resources.

The SLH received several calls in the past week from school and public health officials throughout the state concerned about the odorous substance that smells like sewage... especially on the clothing of a classroom of children just in from recess. Tests conducted on samples of the ooze by the SLH showed no fecal contamination, making a sewage problem unlikely, according to Jon Standridge, a supervisor in the SLH Environmental Sciences Section.

Rotting vegetation under a layer of ice is likely causing the odor problem, according to Jack Eslien, environmental repair specialist for the DNR's western district. He explains that a layer of ice in many areas of the state is letting in light but keeping oxygen out. This "greenhouse effect" combined with a high water table and unfrozen ground, causes plants to decay by a process called anaerobic fermentation. As the ice layers thaws, gases produced by this process push the decaying plant matter to the surface.

Though this material's odor is offensive, it hasn't affected drinking water supplies and shouldn't pose a health hazard, according to Eslien.

"The calls received at the laboratory thus far relate to affected school yards where kids were playing in the stuff, but we've had reports from several other locations in central and northern Wisconsin, including parks and backyards," says Standridge.

The Iola-Scandinavia school district in central Wisconsin was one of the first in the state to report the problem to the SLH after receiving calls from parents.

"When I picked up the kids from school, I made them get out of the car and wipe their feet because I thought they'd stepped in something... it smelled horrible," said Nancy Wheelan, mother of two Iola gradeschoolers. When her 9-year-old explained, "That's just the way the playground smells now, Mom," Wheelan was concerned that it may pose a health risk.

Such concern prompted school officials to contact the SLH to test the substance. The school recently issued a letter to parents explaining the substance was no cause for alarm, but that students would be limited to an unaffected area of the playground.

The SLH also received samples from such areas as Tomah, Waupaca, Eau Claire and New Lisbon.

Village of Kewaskum Board of Appeals

March 10, 1992

7:00 P.M.

Board of Appeals

The Board of Appeals of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt called the meeting to order. Chairman John Tessar, Eugene Bohn and Richard Bechler asked to be excused and were absent. Members Betty Mertzig, John Stephani, Joyce Kral and Charles Boegel were present. A quorum was present. Zoning Administrator Richard Zarling was also present along with Larry and Louise Martin.

Upon a motion by Charles Boegel, seconded by Joyce Kral and unanimously carried by voice vote, Betty Mertzig was appointed to serve as Chairman Pro-Tem.

The purpose of this meeting was to consider the application of Larry Martin for a variance, for property known as Millers Funeral Home, located at 215 Forest Avenue, Kewaskum, Wisconsin. The reason for this variance request is to erect an entrance to comply with orders as prescribed by the American Disabilities Act, which went into effect on January 26, 1992. All funeral homes must take steps to make the facility accessible to members of the public with disabilities. The variance would allow for the reduction of street yard as noted in the Kewaskum Zoning Ordinance, under R-2 Section 3.4. (If the variance would be approved it would allow the north side, known as the street yard, to be 12.5 feet rather than the 25 feet as required. Also it would allow for the reduction of the side yard for the purpose of extending the canopy.)

Larry Martin asked the Board to allow this variance so he would be in compliance with the ADA which is a Federal Law. He explained his architectural drawings and the fact that he is now required to furnish a lift for disabled persons and an extended canopy for van access.

Richard Zarling reviewed the background of the R-2 Zoning and advised the Board that no objections had been voiced to him or to the Village by any abutting or opposition property owners.

Upon a motion by Joyce Kral, seconded by John Stephani and carried by the majority roll call vote, the meeting was adjourned into executive session under Stats: 19.85(1)(a) to deliberate on the application. Roll call vote was 4 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 3 "Absent."

The Board of Appeals reconvened into open session at 7:40 P.M. It was announced that the variance request had been granted. Written notice will be sent to the applicant within 30 days of this meeting.

Upon motion by Charles Boegel, seconded by John Stephani and carried by the majority roll call vote, the meeting was adjourned. The roll call vote was 4 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 3 "Absent."

Two Constitutional Referendums on April 7 Ballot

On Tuesday, April 7, Wisconsin voters will decide on 2 proposed constitutional amendments, according to the Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance (WTA), Madison. One would permit the state to aid railroads; the other would allow mid-term salary increases for state senators.

Railroad Assistance

On the ballot, the question will read: "Railways and other railroad facilities. Shall section 7 (2)(a) 1 of article VIII of the constitution be amended, and shall a new provision be created in section 10 of article VIII of the constitution, to permit the appropriation of state moneys for the acquisition, development, improvement or construction of railways and other railroad facilities, and to include state bonding for railways within the public purposes for which the state may issue bonds as authorized by law under existing constitutional limitations?"

The WTA, a nonprofit government-research and citizen-education organization, said the original Wisconsin constitution, enacted in 1848, contained a general ban on state involvement in "works of internal improvements." This reflected the financial disasters experienced by other states in public financing of canal and railroad projects.

Over the years, the constitution has been amended to permit appropriations for: highways; forestry works; airports; veterans housing; and port facilities. The proposed amendment on this April's ballot would add "railways and railroad facilities" to the list.

The WTA said that the amendment, if approved, is not self-executing. The legislature and governor would have to enact legislation appropriating state funds or allowing state borrowing for railways.

Supporters of the amendment argue that:

1. Railroads are the only major form of transportation not currently aided;
2. Railways help the state by reducing highway congestion and pollution and by aiding economic development; and
3. Assisting railroads could strengthen the state's competitive position, increase passenger rail service and possibly qualify the state for federal matching funds.

Opponents of the amendment argue that: 1. The amendment would open the door to expensive state financial involvement in yet another activity that could result in higher taxes;

2. Money might be diverted from highway projects to railways, thereby possibly impeding planned projects and upgraded maintenance programs; and

3. Residents in some parts of the state would receive no benefits from assistance to railroads and, therefore, should not be required to help finance the program.

Legislative Pay

On the ballot, the question will read: "Legislative compensation, effective date. Shall section 26 of article IV of the constitution be amended so that no legislative compensation increase may take effect until a general election intervenes and the new assembly term begins, at which time the new level of compensation will apply to all members of the legislature including holdover senators?"

The purpose of the proposal is to allow state senators to receive a pay increase during their terms of office, the WTA said. An increase during a senator's 4-year term of office is now prohibited. About half of the senators are elected every 2 years, which means that, if the salary for the office is increased, holdover senators receive less than the other senators and members of the assembly all of whom have a 2-year term. The amendment would permit all legislators to be paid the same.

Supporters of the amendment argue that: 1. All legislators serving during the same session would receive the same compensation, thereby providing pay equity;

2. Four years is too long to wait for a pay increase; and

3. Adoption of the proposal would remove any temptation to use covert means, such as added expenses or per diems, to provide more money to senators.

Opponents of the amendment argue that: 1. Permitting incumbents to participate, either directly or indirectly, in the increasing of their pay sets a dangerous precedent and is contrary to why the prohibition was put into the constitution; 2. Senatorial candidates know the rules about no mid-term pay increases and should live with them; and 3. Although senators may not receive any increase for 2 years, they do not have to face reelection every 2 years, as do members of the assembly.

Easing Your Tax Burden

FIFTH IN A SERIES

What to Do If You Don't Receive Your Forms W-2 & 1099

By John T. Ader, IRS
District Director for Wisconsin

As much as we all want our tax filing to go smoothly, sometimes things happen. Maybe there are delays in getting all our information together... some of it beyond our control. For example, each year we get a number of calls from taxpayers who haven't gotten their W-2s or their Forms 1099.

If you were an employee at any time during 1991, you should receive your Form W-2, (your Wage and Tax Statement) from your employer or employers by January 31. But what if you don't receive them?

We can help you to obtain your W-2, but there are a couple things you should do first. If you have moved, or held a number of jobs during the year, it is possible one or more W-2s may not reach you. Let me suggest a few actions you can take, on your own, before you call us for help.

*Write to your former employer giving him or her your name, your former and current address, and your social security number. It would also speed up the process if you included a self-addressed stamped envelope.

*Go to your former employer and pick it up. You might want to call first to be sure it is available.

*If you are working for the same employer and have not received your W-2, check with your payroll or personnel department.

*After February 15, if you have tried your best, and you have still been unable to obtain your W-2 form, call us at 1-800-TAX (829)-1040. We will provide you with a form which can be used as a substitute W-2. We will also write to your employer asking why you did not receive a W-2.

By the same token, you should also receive your Forms 1099 by January 31. Those are the forms you receive from your bank (or another financial institution) telling you how much interest you earned on your checking or savings account. You'll also receive a Form 1099 if you worked as an independent contractor or had dividend income, gambling winnings, pensions, etc.

I would like to stress that if you had income that should have been reported on a Form 1099, you are

SENSENBRENNER TO HOLD WEST BEND TOWN HALL MEETING

BROOKFIELD, WI — Ninth District Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner will hold a Town Hall Meeting for the residents of West Bend on Saturday, March 28th at the Bank One West Bend starting at 1:00 p.m. These meetings generally last two hours.

During the first part of the meeting, Congressman Sensenbrenner will respond to questions and comments from residents on federal issues. "This interaction provides me with insight into the views of my constituents which I take back to Washington," Sensenbrenner said.

Sensenbrenner has invited area state legislators to join him for this meeting, so they may answer questions on state issues.

The second half of the meeting will meet with persons on a one-on-one basis to assist them with any problems they may be having with federal agencies, or to help them obtain copies of government publications.

The public is invited and Sensenbrenner encourages area residents to attend.

Campbellsport, Two Rivers Boys Head to State

By Statesman Sports Writer

WHITEFISH BAY — The Kewaskum boys basketball team can take a bit of solace. It turns out that five of their 13 losses this season, including two of their worst defeats, came to teams that are among the state's best.

That was proved last weekend, as three of the Indians' opponents this season qualified for the state's 'big dance,' including neighboring rival Campbellsport, which posted a huge upset in their Sectional final game.

The Cougars dethroned defending Division II champion Wilmot, stunning the No. 1 ranked team in the state, 40-37, thus snapping Wilmot's 51-game winning streak.

Campbellsport jumped out to a 23-12 halftime lead in the contest. Wilmot fought back in the second half, though pulling to within five, at 31-26 heading into the final period.

But the Cougars held on down the stretch, making seven of their eight free throw attempts in the final period to stage the unlikely victory. Aaron Buslaff led the Cougars with 15 points, while Jason Buslaff added 11.

J. Buslaff, along with Sam Durand helped the Cougars get to the final by scoring 15 points each in a semifinal win over Whitefish Bay. Campbellsport used a 20-7 run to close out the game, and won 61-49. The Cougars will take a 23-2 mark into the tourney.

There will be a lot of area interest in the Cougars opening game in the WIAA Boys State Tournament this Friday afternoon. That's because Campbellsport will meet up with Eastern Wisconsin Conference co-champion Two Rivers in their semifinal matchup.

The Purple Raiders qualified for the tourney with Sectional wins over Sturgeon Bay and Clintonville. Two Rivers was pushed into overtime in the semi's by Sturgeon Bay, before finally pulling away for a 60-51 victory.

In the final against Clintonville, the Raiders jumped out to a 15-6 lead after one quarter, and then held on down the stretch for a 60-56 win. Matthew Karmen led four Two Rivers players in double figures with 16 points. The Raiders, now 20-4, will open up against the Cougars Friday afternoon, beginning at 3:45.

It will be the Raiders first appearance in the state tournament since 1957, while the Cougars will be making their first ever appearance.

Two Rivers and Campbellsport combined to hand Kewaskum four of their losses this season, with the Raiders handing the Indians their worst loss of the year, a 82-58 pasting on Jan. 31st. Two Rivers also beat the Indians 76-60 in the team's first EW contest in December.

Campbellsport, meanwhile, beat the Indians in Kewaskum's first game of the year, 72-65, and then showed the win was no fluke by downing the Indians once again, 49-41 in the finals of the Waupun Holiday Tournament.

Another team victorious over the Indians this season, Mayville, also qualified for the State Tournament in Division III. The Cardinals upended Omro in the Sectional semi's 50-38, and then destroyed Algoma in the finals, 53-38.

The Cardinals had their hands full with Kewaskum in their lone matchup this year. The Indians led throughout most of the game, before finally falling in overtime, 71-68. Mayville heads into the tournament with a 23-1 mark. The Cardinals will play Columbus in the Tournament's first game at 9:35 a.m. on Thursday.

MADISON — The Eastern Wisconsin Conference, as well as Washington County was well represented here, last weekend, at the WIAA Girls State Basketball Tournament.

EW champion Chilton capped off the best year in school history by finishing 27-0 and winning the Division III state title, while Hartford won their first ever state championship.

The going was just as tough for Chilton in their title game against Bloomer. After beating Columbus in the semifinals 55-37, the Tigers had not been in a game decided by less than 13 points. But that would change against the Blackhawks.

After racing to a 7-0 lead, Tiger guard Charlotte Turney picked up her second personal foul and had to sit the bench. Her shooting was missed, as Bloomer pulled within one 15-14, at the end of the first quarter.

The game remained tight throughout, with the Blackhawks holding a one-point lead at the half, and the Tigers leading by two heading into the final stanza.

Bloomer came back to take a 46-44 lead with one minute to go, though, forcing the Tigers to use a timeout to set up a play. Fourth-year coach Ray Mlada called Turney's number, and the Tiger guard drained a three-pointer with :47 to go giving Chilton a one-point lead.

On Bloomer's next possession, Tiger standout center Tracey Winkler blocked a shot and got the loose ball. Bloomer proceeded to foul in the late going, but Chilton missed four straight bonus shots. Bloomer was unable to secure the rebound on three of those, and threw the ball away on the fourth.

Finally, Winkler put an end to the madness with a pair of charity tosses at the 3.9 second mark, and Bloomer's desperation try at the end was off the mark, giving the Tigers the 49-46 win.

Winkler finished with 20 points and 18 rebounds, while Turney added 14 points on the strength of four three-pointers. Turney added four more treys in the semifinal win over Columbus, in which she led the Tigers with 18 points. Turney was snubbed from the all-tournament squad, as Winkler was the only Tiger named to the team.

The title was the first ever for the EW in girls basketball. The best previous finishes by an EW squad were Sheboygan Falls' second place showing in 1979, as well as Kewaskum's 1982 runner-up spot.

Hartford struggled early in the tournament, falling behind LaCrosse Logan 15-2 in the quarterfinals. The Orioles proceeded to go on a 21-8 second quarter run on their way to beating the Rangers 49-42.

The Orioles then ran into Sheboygan North in the semifinals, where they ran off 20 straight points over a nine-minute stretch in the third and fourth periods. The run helped the Orioles advance to the final with a 49-32 triumph.

In the finals, Hartford was pitted against Janesville Parker, who entered the game with a 24-1 mark. It didn't faze the Orioles, however, and they got off to a good start, leading 15-7 after one quarter of play.

Parker pulled to within two, at 38-36, heading into the final period. But Hartford made sure Parker would never lead in the ballgame, as it went on a 10-2 run to open the fourth, and the Orioles were on their way to their first title ever, 60-51.

Melissa Mayer led Hartford with 18 points, while Jenny Powell added 17. For her efforts, Powell was named to the all-tournament team.

In Division II, Lakeland joined Chilton as the only two public schools teams to be undefeated, as the Thunderbirds beat Milton in the title game, 47-42 to finish the year 27-0. After scoring 26 points and pulling down 24 rebounds in their semifinal scoring 26 points and pulling down 24 rebounds in their semifinal win, Lakeland's Katie Voigt led the T-Birds with 15 points.

And in Division IV, Pecatonica's three-pointer at the buzzer was off the mark, and Prentice won their third state title with a 42-39 win.

Indian Boys Worst Defensively in EW

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — It wasn't hard to figure out why the Kewaskum boys basketball team didn't do as well as it had expected when looking at the final Eastern Wisconsin Conference statistics.

The Indians finished last in the league defensively, giving up an average of 66.1 points per game during the regular season. A look back shows the Indians didn't once hold a league opponent under 50 points in a game.

Conference co-champ Kiel, on the other hand, allowed an average of just 47.2 ppg, while the league's other co-champion, Two Rivers, was second with a 51.7 average.

The Indians did lead the league in a couple of positive categories, though. The Indians ranked first in free throws made (181), free throw percentage (69.3), as well as three-point percentage (46.9). The Indians also led the EW in defensive three-point percentage holding the opposition to just 22.5 percent.

Kewaskum also finished second in points per game (62.2), behind only Two Rivers, which amazingly outscored their opponents by 247 points, an average of 72.2 to 51.7. The Raiders led the EW in FG percent, as they were the only team to hit more than 50 percent of their tries (51.2).

Individually, Kewaskum had a pair of players in the top ten scoring list. Matt Seiser (15.5) and Joel Fleischman (11.5) were fifth and tenth, respectively, while Fleischman finished second in rebounding with 95 boards.

Senior guard Kim Marx tied for seventh in FG percent, hitting 51.9 percent of his tries, and also tied for third in steals (29) and was fifth in assists (44).

Seiser was 10th in FG percent (50.7), while senior guard Chad Cook finished second in three-point percentage (46.7). Fleischman was also 10th in assists (31).

Pam Osterbrink is Member of Northeastern Illinois 'Iron Six'

By Thomas J. Mckillen

Pam Osterbrink isn't complaining about a lack of playing time. None of her five teammates on the Northeastern Illinois women's basketball team are complaining, either.

Osterbrink, a 1990 graduate of Kewaskum High School, is leading the Golden Eagles in scoring and rebounds for the second year in a row. With two games remaining, Osterbrink is averaging 18 points while pulling down 10.4 rebounds a game for Northeastern Illinois this season. She is also playing an average of 37 minutes per game.

"If you're having a bad game, the coach can't pull you and sit you down for a minute. You have to work through it," Osterbrink said.

The Golden Eagles have been playing with six players since Jan. 9. The team started with a full squad last fall, but two players got homesick and left, one had to quit school because of problems with medical seizures, one quit due to family problems, two were declared academically ineligible for the spring semester, while starter Kathy Fowler was lost for the season with a knee injury at midseason.

"Everything that could go wrong did go wrong," said Tom Lake, sports information director at Northeastern Illinois.

But while short of players, the team has earned the respect from their opponents and from fans as well. A free-lance writer from Louisville, Ky. dubbed the team "the Iron Six Maidens" after seeing them play against Louisville. The team dropped the "maidens" and kept using "Iron Six" as a rallying cry, saying the line before every game, Osterbrink said.

"Everyone goes out and plays hard," Osterbrink said. The other team sees the six players "and they think we're pushovers and they don't play hard."

"They come out and play tough for 40 minutes, and they're shocked," Lake said. "This group of girls has played as well as a group of 13 could play."

"We're about three or four players from where UW-Milwaukee is now," said Coach Mike Fogel after Northeastern Illinois lost to the Panthers on Feb. 25, 80-54. UWM is 15-11 in its second season of Division I basketball. Osterbrink scored 13 points and grabbed three rebounds for the Golden Eagles in that contest.

"We're doing things well, we just need some depth."

Any team that expects the Golden Eagles to walk the ball upcourt and play a lazy zone defense is in for a rude awakening. The team plays a lot of one-on-one defense and runs the fast break when the opportunity is open.

"We're a much better team on the run than in the half court," Osterbrink said.

Against the odds, Northeastern Illinois has had its most successful season since 1984, winning eight games this season, with three of the wins coming after Jan. 9. The eight wins are more than all the wins combined since 1985. The team is the eighth best independent in the nation.

Osterbrink sees the program coming around.

"I think last year we had a pretty decent recruiting class. We have a good sophomore class so hopefully we'll have a better year," Osterbrink said. "There are a number of games that we've lost by one point, whereas if we had a bench it would help us win the close games. Next year we should have a better team."

The experience of playing Division I basketball has been a very time-consuming one, which is the most difficult adjustment from high school basketball.

"I think that there's more demands on your time, from the time school starts to the time school ends," Osterbrink said. For the last week of the season, Northeastern Illinois will spend one day at home in between games at Northern Michigan and Northern Iowa. "You can't fall behind in school, you have to take it with you," Osterbrink said.

Krahn, Land Compete at State Gymnastics

By Statesman Sports Writer

WISCONSIN RAPIDS — Kewaskum's Kelly Krahn and Barb Land became just the fourth and fifth gymnasts in school history to participate in the WIAA State Gymnastic Meet, held here, last Saturday.

And while neither finished among the top performers in their events, the two gained some valuable experience by taking part in the festivities.

Krahn would up 23rd out of 38 in the vaulting competition, scoring a 7.47 on her two jumps. The event was won by Jessica Sale of Mount Horeb, who scored a 8.70. Krahn, a junior, did a pair of difficult vaults, and both were consistent with the kind of efforts she had during the year.

Land, meanwhile, finished one step lower, 24th out of 39 competitors on the balance beam, setting for a 5.37 mark. Gale-Ettrick-Tempelow's Molly Skwierawski won the beam competition with a 8.77 mark. Land slipped a couple of times during her tough routine and that accounted for the lower marks.

Fredric, on the strength of two firsts and a second in the individual events, won the overall Division II team title with 128.13 points, edging second-place Mount Horeb, which had 122.80.

Fredric's Katie Grindell won the all-around competition with a 8.53 overall score, while also taking second in the vault (8.67). Teammate Tanya Tschumperin added a first on the uneven bars, and finished 5th in the all-around.

Mukwonago-Kettle Moraine took first in the Division I meet, outdistancing Racine 140.30-138.90. Racine's Heidi Kirt took first in the all-around with a 9.23 mark.
