Sentry Store Robbed During Business Hours

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

An apparent money changing scam at the Sentry Food Store early Sunday evening turned into an unarmed robbery, netting two thieves over $500 in cash.

Reports indicated the Kewaskum Police Department received a call shortly after 6 p.m. of an armed robbery at the store. Officer John Thorn responded to the call. When he arrived the suspects had already fled the scene.

In an interview with Thorn, Sentry employe Jesslyn Geidel stated a black male had entered the store at about 6:10 p.m. Nothing seemed suspicious as he stood by the bread section and then asked Geidel for change for a $50 bill, which she gave him. He left the area and then returned and asked for change for $10. At the time there was approximately $350 in plain view in the east side of the cashier's office.

The man then walked out the door and stood in the lobby. A second black male then joined him and they returned to the store. The first suspect then went to a cash register and purchased a magazine again asking for change even though the cashier noticed he had several singles.

Meanwhile the second suspect was purchasing a supercash ticket at the customer service window of the cashier's office. The first suspect reached over the east glass partition of the office and grabbed the money that had been in view. Geidel turned around and said, "Hey, put that money down." The first suspect replied, "What money, I don't have any." He then ran out the door with the second man following him.

A third Sentry employe followed them into the parking lot and was able to get the license number of the vehicle which was later found to be a leased car from Milwaukee.

The suspects were reported to have been seen by several people in town. At about 7:55 p.m., one of the suspects apparently entered the Mobil station at Fond du Lac Ave and Chinton Street, again asking for change. The employe said the black male appeared nervous.

The two suspects were also reported seen around the Valley Bank and its Tyme window. The area was investigated but nothing unusual was found.

In investigating the two earlier incidents, Police Chief Richard Knoebel learned the gas station's security system was in operation. He then asked the station owner for permission to view the tape. In checking the tape, it was found that the black male resembled one of the suspects described in composite sketches which had been drawn up from witness information. Geidel went to the station where she viewed the tape and identified the man as one of the two black males who had been in the store.

The information was sent to area law enforcement agencies and Tuesday morning Chief Knoebel and Officer Tom Bauer traveled to Milwaukee where they were going to check out the identity of one of the alleged suspects.

An accounting of the money stolen showed the men got away with over $520.

Sensenbrenner Speaker at KHS, Visits Statesman

Congressman James Sensenbrenner took time from his busy schedule to speak at Kewaskum and Campbellsport High Schools on Monday, March 16. At KHS, he addressed Mr. Rhode's social studies classes.

While in the area, Congressman Sensenbrenner stopped off to pay a visit to the Statesman to "touch base" and share some of his political opinions with the staff.

He discussed at great length, the latest Washington controversy, check bouncing, and explained his position and how this issue came to be.

Sensenbrenner also discussed the 21-year-old uniform drinking law and the never-ending federal excise taxes on cigarettes and alcohol.

Sensenbrenner, who claims to be opposed to federal excise taxes, remarked that congress has to cut spending before any federal taxes can be cut. He said federal excise taxes are usually used to hide an increase in spending by congress.

Upon leaving Kewaskum, Congressman Sensenbrenner made his way to Campbellsport, where he also spoke at their High School.

Kewaskum Man Returns Home Safe After Abduction

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

Police Sgt. James Flitter stated Tuesday, that the West Bend Police Department is continuing its investigation of the abduction of Robert Gavin, 65, of Kewaskum, which occurred early last Friday morning.

According to the department's report, Gavin, an employee of Johnson Bus Company at West Bend, was confronted by two men as he arrived at the bus terminal located at 2151 W. Washington Street, about 4:30 a.m.

The two men forced Gavin into his car and made him drive them to Chicago, where they released him unharmed taking his vehicle and $85 in cash.

The West Bend Police Department was notified of the incident after Gavin reported it to Chicago Police. Because the incident involved the transportation of an individual across state lines, the FBI was also brought into the investigation.

One suspect is described as a white male, 25 years old, 5'8" tall, weighing about 200 pounds, with shoulder length hair, full beard and a mustache. The second suspect is described as a white male, 35 to 40, 6' tall, also with shoulder length hair, a beard and mustache. Both men were reportedly wearing motorcycle type jackets.

Gavin's car is described as a 1979 blue, four-door Buick Electra, Wisconsin license plate HGA-600.

Relatives arranged for his return home.

Math Class Makes Population Prediction

What will the population of Kewaskum be in the year 2000, 2010, 2050? Kewaskum High School's Precalculus classes have come up with a formula to predict the population of the Village of Kewaskum while studying logarithms. Two students, Tammy Schmidt and Marty Schlice, did some research and found the census figures for the Village for the past 70 years.

1930 - 799
1940 - 880
1950 - 1183
1960 - 1572
1970 - 1926
1980 - 2381
1990 - 2515

Using this information and using the mathematical formula for growth and/or decay $C(t) = Ce^{kt}$, where

$C(t)$ = population in t years
 C = population of a base year
 $e = 2.7182818$
 k = constant the class determined by studying and analyzing data

t = time in years
Students were able to come up with a value for k of $-.01812533$. Using this value of k , we can predict the population of the Village of Kewaskum for any year. Here is the estimate for the year 2000, using 1920 as the base year.

$e^{(-.01812533)80}$
 $C(2000) = 707$
 $C(2000) = 3014$
Therefore the estimated population for the year 2000 is 3104, the year 2005 is 3300, the year 2010 is 3613 and the year 2050 is 7460.

The Precalculus classes are taught by Clark Pearson.

Yamaha Disklavier Grand Piano Donated to West Bend Gallery

The West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts recently received the latest in music technology. An anonymous and generous donation of a Yamaha Disklavier grand piano has been made to the West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts. The donor's contribution was supplemented by an in-kind contribution by Mathis Music of West Bend.

Besides being a fine instrument for standard play, the Yamaha Disklavier grand piano makes use of modern technology which allows the piano to play a wide range of music that has been prerecorded on computer discs. The prerecorded piano play is activated through a complex and compact mechanical system which is driven by the computer program. The original recording is played back on the piano and duplicates every detail and subtle nuance of the original recording rendering an exact likeness of the original. Furthermore, the instrument cannot nor is it intended to replace the personal variations a pianist achieves on performance to performance. The intended use is to supplement standard musical performances. The piano will be played at many of the gallery's scheduled functions.

The West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts is a community art center and museum open to the public free of charge from 10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Wednesday - Saturday and 1:00 - 4:30 p.m. Sundays.

American Family Boasts Third Best Year

MADISON — American Family Insurance Group proved its strength by continuing to grow in 1991 despite difficult economic conditions, according to company president, Harvey Pierce. "It was our third - best year ever in new business applications, creating a policy count of 4,970,811. That's a growth rate of approximately 1 percent in a year of war and recession in our country," said Pierce at the company's Annual Policyholders Meeting March 3.

Pierce reported that the company increased its policyholders' surplus by 19.4 percent in 1991, to a total of more than $971 million. He cited several underwriting, claims and actuarial programs the group began in 1991 which helped increase revenues more than 10 percent, to nearly $2.45 billion.

American Family made net claim payments of $1.38 billion on its property and casualty policies in 1991, and $22 million on its life insurance policies. Although 1991 costs increased 3.5 percent over 1990, strong performance by the Group provided a net income after taxes of more than $68 million.

Pierce said during the past 10 years, American Family has reduced its expense ratio (the company's cost to do business) by 5.5 percent. On a base of premiums of $2.2 billion in 1991, this lower ratio resulted in a premium savings to policyholders of $121 million.

Chairman Dale Mathwich

spoke about the healthy overall condition of the insurance industry despite drastically increasing costs for medical care, car repair, lawsuits and fraud. He said the industry is fighting to reduce those costs and keep insurance affordable.

During the meeting, held at the company's office, 3099 E. Washington Ave., in Madison, Barbara A. Parish, president of Wis-Pak, Inc., Watertown, was elected to the Board of Directors. Re-elected to the Board were Robert E. Walton, president of Grace Animal Services, De Forest; and Carl A. Weigell, president of Motor Castings Company, Milwaukee.

American Family is the largest insurer of autos and homes in Wisconsin and offers auto, home, health, life, business and farm/ranch insurance in 12 states.

Panic Buttons.

When it comes to emergencies, most people have been taught a few basic rules. We'd like you to learn one more. It's simply 9-1-1, the 24-hour emergency hotline. Dial it from either a rotary or touch-tone telephone, and you're in touch with the fire department, police or sheriff's department and emergency medical service within seconds. 9-1-1 may also be dialed from a public telephone at no charge.

If you live in Ozaukee County or Washington County, 9-1-1 is ready for your emergencies. Please be aware that when calling from certain business lines you will need to dial a code (9, *, etc.) first, if that is how you usually access an outside line.

But the key here is emergency.

In non-emergency situations use the administrative numbers on the inside cover of your telephone book instead.

With 9-1-1 there's no need to panic. So commit it to memory. One day, it just might save your life.

St. Joseph's Hospital Offers Cardiac Rehabilitation Program

Improve the Beat of Your Heart in Three Part Harmony

Imagine waking up one morning with an excruciating pain and pressure in your chest. It makes you feel sick, dizzy and short of breath. You call an ambulance and are rushed to the hospital. After tests, the doctor says you've had a heart attack and will need bypass surgery.

How can this happen to you? Will you be able to go back to work? Your family is so scared. Who will help them?

Coronary heart disease (CHD) is the leading cause of death in the U.S. Half a million people die each year from heart disease. Many people develop symptoms of CHD when they are in their 40's and 50's, interrupting a most productive time.

The coronary arteries supply blood to the heart muscle. In CHD, these arteries become blocked, decreasing blood flow and causing angina (chest pain), the need for bypass surgery, or angioplasty. When the artery becomes completely blocked, a heart attack, or myocardial infarction (MI), occurs. 250,000 suffer MIs each year.

Chances of a person developing CHD are increased when one or more risk factors is present. Risk factors include cigarette smoking, high cholesterol level, obesity, stress, and age. More men than women develop heart disease, but it is the leading cause of death among women.

Cardiac rehabilitation is an important tool to fight CHD. Cardiac rehabilitation has three main features. The first is education. Patients and their families learn how to modify lifestyles to reduce their risk factors. Since CHD is lifestyle related and can be an inherited disease, it is important that the patient's spouse and children do all they can to decrease their own risk of heart disease.

The second feature of cardiac rehabilitation is an exercise program. Patients exercise at an individually prescribed level indicated by their medical history and personal goals. Heart rate, blood pressure, and electrocardiogram may be monitored as they exercise. Patients gain confidence by being active in a medically supervised setting.

The third feature of cardiac rehabilitation program is support. Patients and their families benefit greatly from sharing experiences with others who are in a similar situation. They don't feel as alone in their fight against heart disease, and encourage each other to keep up the good work.

100,000 people participate in cardiac rehab in this country each year. Participants include those who had a heart attack, coronary artery bypass surgery, or coronary angioplasty, people with angina, heart arrhythmias, hypertension, or other risk factors. Most insurance plans cover all or part of an EKG-monitored exercise program. A physician's referral is needed to enter the exercise program. Close contact is kept with each patient's physician.

St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend, is conducting a three part Cardiac Rehabilitation Program to condition your heart. By participating in the three part exercise program, not only is the healing of the heart facilitated but the quality of life of the cardiac patient is also enhanced. That is why we say that the beat of your life is improved in three part harmony.

PART ONE: The first phase begins in the intensive care unit where a physical therapy program gradually conditions the patient's heart and body. It commences while the patient is still in bed and progresses to standing, walking and stair-climbing exercises. This gradual progression in variety and intensity gets the cardiac patient ready for the challenges of returning to home.

PART TWO: The outpatient phase of the program consists of three visits a week to physical therapy at the hospital. Duration of this phase varies with the specific condition of the patient. It usually lasts between six and twelve weeks. Each session begins with light warm-up exercises. A controlled aerobic exercise program (walking on a treadmill, riding an exercise bicycle, cranking an arm ergometer) is the heart of the session. It is meant to bring the heart rate up to a prescribed level and to sustain it here for 20 minutes. Heart rate, blood pressure and/or EKG are carefully monitored during this activity. The session ends with a cool-down exercise at low intensity. The result is that there is a conditioning effect on the heart allowing it to work more efficiently.

PART THREE: After the outpatient phase has been completed, an at-home program of exercise (walking, biking, aerobics) is continued. The patient also takes his own heart beat and monitors his own symptoms. It is important to continue with a consistent program of exercise at home to further promote conditioning of the heart and maintain levels achieved during the previous phases of the program. Of course, exercise is only one aspect of cardiac rehabilitation. The program also addresses all existing risk factors including cholesterol, smoking, high blood pressure and stress.

Clarification Regarding 911 Service In Fond du Lac, Dodge Counties

The Washington County Sheriff's department has been advised by Wisconsin Bell that some customers in Dodge and Fond du Lac counties will not be connected to their local sheriff if they dial 911.

The affected residents have Kewaskum (626) phone numbers in Fond du Lac County (289 customers) and Allenton (629) phone numbers in Dodge County (57 customers). These persons will be connected to a telephone operator if they dial 911. They may wish to consider using the appropriate 7-digit emergency numbers for police, fire or rescue services to save time.

This is contrary to previous understanding from Wisconsin Bell and GTE, which this agency relayed to the public, indicating that such telephone customers would be routed to their local sheriff. Such an option is not available until those counties either arrange for special routing of those customers or convert from their current Basic-911 system to Enhanced-911.

The Dodge and Fond du Lac residents should contact their local government officials if they desire 911 service. Washington County does not have any role in this process.

Wisconsin Bell has advised us that Sheboygan County residents with Kewaskum (626) phone numbers can dial 911 and be connected with their sheriff, because that county has an Enhanced-911 system.

Back packing and different types of cooking stoves (Coleman, reflector, LP gas, etc.) will be featured. How to estimate and buy foods will be discussed. Participants are asked to bring their favorite outdoor recipes to share with the group.

Cub Scout personnel will gather in the All-Purpose Room where Tricia Clark and her staff will explore two adventure themes, "Bugs and Things" and "Genius Night." The agenda includes animal games, "Animal Pursuit II," Insect Charades, "The Thing" participation skit, "Back to Nature," songs, a genius demonstration and genius kits. A mock Tiger Cub Graduation Ceremony to be used in the Pack will also be conducted. At 8:30 split sessions will be held as follows: Cubmasters and committee members, room B-18, Summer Program and Tiger Graduation; Webelos Leaders, Room B-20, Aquanaut, Family Member, Geologist and Outdoorsman Activity Badges; and the Den Leaders will remain in the All-Purpose Room to construct genius kits.

Roundtable Rap-Ups will be held May 5 in lieu of the regular meetings. The Cubbers Pot Luck and the Scouters Dutch Oven Cooking will both begin at 6:30 p.m. at the school.

Vietnam Veterans Donate $250 to D.A.R.E. Program

(Newburg, WI) — Thanks are extended for a $250.00 donation from the Vietnam Veterans of America, Chapter 448, to the Washington County's D.A.R.E. Program. They will utilize the money to purchase supplies for approximately 43 additional students who will go through the D.A.R.E. Program this year. The donation was made on Sunday, Feb. 23rd when officers of the Chapter presented the check to Deputy Sheriff Brian Bausch, D.A.R.E. Officer, coordinator of the program.

D.A.R.E. is the largest and most successful drug education program in the United States today. In Washington County D.A.R.E. is a partnership between the county, local police departments, school districts and the private sector. Donations such as this are crucial to D.A.R.E.'s continued operation in the community. In the Fall, 1991, D.A.R.E. was taught to the 5th graders in the Germantown Schools which include MacArthur, Rockfield, Amy Bell, and County Line School. Also in the fall D.A.R.E. was taught for the second year in the Kewaskum School District at the Wayne and Farmington Schools in addition to St. Hubert's School in Hubertus. This Spring, D.A.R.E. is being taught for the first time at St. Boniface in Germantown, Erin School, Hartford, Richfield School, and for the second time at St. Kilian School in Hartford and St. Peter's School in Slinger. At the present time the Slinger Elementary School District which includes Allenton School is considering and studying the feasibility of having the D.A.R.E. Program in their district for the 1992-93 school year.

D.A.R.E. is a nationally acclaimed program in which highly trained veteran police officers are assigned to the classroom "beats" where they teach an 18 week anti-drug curriculum to elementary school students. D.A.R.E. teaches students ways to reduce pressures to try drugs and the life skills necessary to stay drug free. While an officer is in a school district he makes visits to the other grades, in addition to spending time on the playground and eating lunch with the children.

The D.A.R.E. Program was established in 1983. Since then law enforcement agencies from around the country have joined the crusade. The program is now extended to more than 150,000 classrooms in all the states in addition to many schools overseas.

If you have any questions concerning the D.A.R.E. Program, please phone the D.A.R.E. Division at 335-4378.

KHS Forensic Team Having Best Season Ever!

 Second Row — Carrie Fellenz, Jenefer Van Assche, Karen Junk, Anne Mertz, Aaron Dollen, Adam Pilachowski, Meredith Frac.

A record-setting thirty KHS speakers are on their way to the state forensic contest, which will be held at UW-Madison on April 10. Those thirty qualified recently when they scored twenty or more points in at least two of the three rounds of competition at the March 14 Menomonee Falls District Contest. The most speakers who had qualified for state in the past were twenty-four.

The team also placed first in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Contest at Chilton on March 10, scoring 547 total points, which was thirty-five more than the second place team Kiel. Barbara York, head coach at KHS, said, "This is the first time since I've been coaching that our team placed higher than third at conference."

The first contest the team attended was held on March 2 at the Cedarburg sub-district. There all but one of twenty-five KHS entrants met the requirements to advance to the district meet. Scores of 16 or more points were required from at least two of the three judges in the ten-school meet.

Receiving the highest total was the group interpretation team of Chad Harlow, Angie Klug, Sabrina Maul, Shelly Farchoine and Weston Duenkel, whose scores were 25, 20 and 24.

The other group receiving one perfect 25 was a trio of senior girls, including Heidi Gruhle, Jessica Rohrer and Kim Petrie, who also had marks of 21 and 18 for their presentation of "What I Meant to Say Was."

Other qualifiers, their categories and scores are as follows:

- * Play Acting — Krysten Ammel and Aaron Dollen (19, 18, 21)

- * Story Telling — April Bruckert (20, 14, 19).

- * Oratory — Anne Mertz (16, 16, 21)

- * Moments in History — Tim Lettow (24, 24, 16).

- * Prose — Stacey Pamperin (21, 21, 23), Carrie Fellenz (23, 21, 18), Adam Pilachowski (18, 23, 20), Jenefer Van Assche (17, 23, 20).

- * Demonstrations — Rachel Chambers (16, 20, 22), Jennifer Beimborn (15, 18, 17), Teressa Anderson (15, 18, 23), Melissa Rohrer (19, 17, 19).

- * Poetry — Jennifer Brigham (22, 23, 18), Kara Palmer (21, 19, 19) and Karen Junk (17, 23, 14).

- * Four-minute speech — Allison Bruendl (23, 19, 19), Meredith Frac (18, 20, 19), and David Horner (19, 15, 15).

- * Humorous Solo Acting — Rachel Gosa (24, 24, 20), Matt Kuehn (22, 21, 21), Suzi Gauvin (17, 22, 20) and Christa Fleischman (19, 24, 19)

- * Farrago — Aimee Marshall (19, 18, 21).

Scoring three perfect 25's at district on her march to state was Christa Fleischman as she performed her selection entitled "A Day in the Life of a Lemon." Karen Junk read a poem about Snow White and scored a 25, 24, and 20. Stacey Pamperin also scored a 25 and a 20 and 22 as she read "Waiting." Aimee Marshall also achieved another perfect 25, plus two 21's. Meredith Frac presented her original speech about Colorado's CAT Centers and scored 25, 23, and 21. Jennifer Brigham read Sandburg's "They Have Yarns," and two 24's and a 20 were her reward. Allison Bruendl presented her original speech about Alex Haley, receiving 23, 22 and 21.

Adam Pilachowski read "What Is a Parent?" and was awarded a 24, 20, and 22. Jenefer Van Assche read "Somebody's Son," receiving a 24, 22, and 20 for her efforts. Matt Kuehn recited "How To Make a Board" for the results of 24, 23, and 21.

Rachel Gosa performed "I Fall in Love" and received two 24's and a 21.

Also setting the pace were "Ark and Tower" readers with 23, 23 and 22. Melissa Rohrer received two near-perfect 24's and a 21 as she demonstrated juggling techniques. Tim Lettow's speech about Malcolm X and the 1960's was awarded a 23 and two 21's. Kara Palmer read Frost's "The Man with the Broken Fingers" and had a 23 and two 21's. Scoring in the 20's for all three rounds were the following:

Jennifer Beimborn demonstrating how to make play dough - 23, 20, 22. Suzi Gauvin reciting "The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life" - 23, 23, 22, Rachael Chambers demonstrating wrestling techniques - 23, 20, 20.

Rounding out the team at district were the group of Gruhle, Rohrer, and Petrie with 23, 22, and 19; April Bruckert with 23, 20, 19; Anne Mertz with her original persuasive speech about recycling - 23, 23 and 19; Carrie Fellenz reading "The Littlest Angel" for 23, 24 and 17; and Krysten Ammel and Aaron Dollen performing "Graceland" for 22, 15 and 23. Teresa Anderson demonstrated interview techniques for a 23 and two 18's. Terry Roe and Karla Kirst have also assisted Rachael Chambers in her demonstration speech.

Coach York and her assistant Judy Jacak are also extremely pleased with this year's team for another reason: of the thirty-two team members eleven are seniors, five are juniors, seven are sophomores, and an amazing percentage are freshmen - nine in number. This large number of underclassmen presages good things for future years. It will be hard to beat both the quantity and the quality of this year's fantastic team, however!

Pediatricians Can Guide Parents, Teens with Information

Developing a healthy attitude about sexuality in a time of strong and conflicting messages from society is a tremendous challenge for both young people and their parents.

But pediatricians and others in the health care community can ease the way by providing support and accurate information throughout the maturing process, according to an expert in adolescent medicine.

"Parents are, of course, the primary sex educators of their children," says Dr. John Stephenson, a pediatrician and director of the teenage and young adult clinic at University of Wisconsin Children's Hospital in Madison. "But we must recognize that society also sends out messages about sexuality — and many of those messages are unhealthy and destructive. Parents and youngsters need an ally — and the health care community has a key role to play in the whole process."

Stephenson will be featured in "Raising Responsible Teens II," a two-part videoconference on teen sexuality. The videoconference will be held March 30 and April 6 from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m. In Washington County, the program will be offered by U.W. Extension at St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend.

Sex education, says Stephenson, really begins at the birth of the child, when parents begin to communicate their feelings and expectations for the new baby. The child's developing sense of self-esteem and of the value of being male or female is powerfully dependent on parental judgments. It's important, therefore, that parents understand what's normal in sexual development and why certain behavior may make them uncomfortable. Parents who understand, for example, that young toddlers commonly explore their bodies as part of their natural curiosity may feel less shocked when they discover that behavior in their child and be less likely to punish a child for normal behavior that is part of the development process.

As the child matures and becomes more independent, he or she needs access to accurate information about how the body changes in puberty. Most adolescents have great curiosity, but only vague notions about what is normal and what isn't. Typically, they have come to rely on friends for information and guidance on a whole range of matters, including sexual behavior.

Pediatricians and others who treat adolescents, says Stephenson, can offer a comfortable and non-threatening atmosphere in which to discuss such concerns. Ideally, parents and health-care professionals should work together in eliciting young people's questions about their health and development so as to reduce misinformation and confusion.

Information, however, is not enough. Stephenson urges the health-care community to go even further, educating both parents and young people about community resources that are available to provide support.

"One of the most important things we can do is help people connect with sources of help in their own community," he says. "Parents may feel ambivalent, threatened, or isolated in their attempts to deal with the changes teens are going through. They need to know they're not alone. The task of raising healthy and responsible young people is, in part, a community concern."

The program is being sponsored by U.W. Extension, Washington County. To obtain registration information contact Joyce Albrecht, Extension Home Economist at 335-4479 or Kandi O'Neil, 4-H and Youth Agent at 335-4478. The workshop is free, however, limited seating is available.

Democratic Video Tax Targets Middle Class

Despite many attempts at both the state and national levels to ease the burden of the financially strapped middle-class, a leading Democrat has targeted video rental sales as a budget balancing device. Representative Marlin Schneider (D-Wisconsin Rapids), the Chairman of the Assembly Education and Urban Education committee, has proposed a $.25 tax on all video rentals.

This proposal has been rightly criticized on the grounds that it is particularly ill-timed during the recession. Among the worst ways to increase consumer confidence is to batter those same consumers into submission with more and more taxes. Everyone else in this country has been forced to tighten their belts during the recession. State government should be no exception.

Schneider's video rental tax has also come under fire because it unfairly punishes the few who can afford it least; the middleclass. Realistically, it is not the millionaires of this world who are going to the local grocery store to rent a few movies.

Video renters tend to be middle-class people who are trying to save a few dollars while spending time with their families and friends. A tax aimed solely at the middle class is ill-conceived indeed.

The most objectionable aspect of this proposal is the negative effect it will have upon families with children. There are not many young parents who can afford upwards of twenty dollars each time they wish to spend an evening watching movies with their children. Video rentals provide an economic alternative to the theater. Young families should not be victimized simply because they are living frugally.

When asked about this increased cost to consumers, Representative Schneider shrugged, "If they can afford to rent a movie, they can afford a quarter for entertainment." This response is an unacceptable answer to the concerns of the middle-class.

I have served on the Joint Committee on Finance since 1985 and as the ranking Republican on the Committee since 1989. In that time, I have seen many short-sighted revenue bills aimed at funding pet programs. However, these taxation bills have seldom, if ever, been more inappropriately targeted. This bill is a very bad one and deserves to be soundly defeated.

The summer enrichment program for eighth-grade students is sponsored by the Department of Public Instruction in cooperation with the Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Art and Letters. State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover said, "Science World encourages students to expand their talents and interests in science, mathematics and technology.

Carrie will attend the July 5-11 session, one of six sessions to be held at the Pigeon Lake Field Station located near Drummond in Northern Wisconsin's Chequamegon National Forest.

While at the summer camp she will participate in a variety of science activities and interests with visiting scientists and technologists from higher education, business and industry.

Springs Announces Scholarships And Financial Aid for 1992-1993

Scholarships, grants and work-study programs are available at St. Mary's Springs for the 1992-1993 school year. Endowment scholarships, designed to assist students demonstrating financial need, are made possible by gifts from individuals and corporations to the St. Mary's Springs Foundation. Annual interest from this endowment fund provides partial scholarships for Springs students. Endowment interest of $20,425 was awarded to 65 students for the current school year.

This year two new scholarships were established in memory of two longtime supporters of SMS, Raymond C. Colwin and E. Jack Whealon. Both of these men wanted to ensure that any student wishing to attend the Springs, but unable to for financial reasons, would be provided necessary assistance. According to Colleen K. Brady, Principal, "It is appropriate that we name our athletic scholarships after these two men who personally contributed so much of their time and effort to the continuation of Catholic secondary education."

Father Walter N. Gehl, a longtime pastor of St. Mary's in Eden and strong supporter of SMS, established a scholarship up to $750 annually to assist three incoming freshmen from St. Mary's Eden. The Sister Evangeline Kodric Scholarship, named after a former SMS principal, awards $250 to the incoming freshman boy and girl who have the highest placement test scores.

Other available scholarship resources are the SMS Board of Directors, Performing Arts Booster Association, Alumni, Henry Birschbach Memorial, Fond du Lac Reporter, Catholic Family Insurance, Catholic Knights Insurance, National Catholic Society of Foresters and the Archdiocesan grants-in-aid. All financial assistance is based on need and requires students to meet minimum academic requirements. Work-study opportunities are also available for students desiring to earn credit toward their tuition. Students are paid minimum wage and can earn up to $400 per year.

During the 1991-1992 school year, nearly $48,000 in grants and scholarships were awarded to 36 percent of our students. In addition, last summer, freshmen collectively earned $15,000 through work-study.

Forms for financial aid may be obtained from the Springs Business Office. Deadline to apply is March 31, 1992. For further information, please contact the Springs Admissions Office at (414)921-4870.

Wisconsin's Weather Warning System

Wisconsin's approach of the severe storms and tornado season may have citizens interested in the system National Weather Service personnel use to alert anyone in the path of severe weather. The traditional siren warnings cover much of state, but are intended for those who are outdoors. Anyone inside with air conditioning or asleep may not hear the siren's song in time to reach safety.

There is help, however, for those who may not hear the sirens. Robert M. Thompson, administrator of Wisconsin's Division of Emergency Government (DEG), explains that a radio alert system covers most of the more populated areas of the state.

There is a network of special radio transmitters maintained by the Educational Communications board (ECB). These weather radio broadcast warning stations are found in selected locations around the state.

The newest transmitter for this National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) network has recently been activated at Ellison Bay in Door County. This station has a range of about 40 miles and transmits weather warnings from Green Bay's NOAA weather office 24 hours a day. Thompson notes that ten other transmitters cover much of the rest of the state giving weather alerts from Duluth, Minneapolis, LaCrosse, Dubuque, Madison, Milwaukee and Chicago.

Eventually ECB hopes to have funding for an additional transmitter near Sheboygan which will fill in the only gap along the Lake Michigan shoreline. At the same time, they are planning for another transmitter at Adams-Friendship to serve the center of the state.

The 5 frequencies used for these broadcasts are 162.400; 162.425; 162.475; 162.500 and 162.550 MHz.

Note: 162.425 may not be in all weather radios as it was just recently authorized.

WASHINGTON COUNTY WE-TIP CRIME OF THE WEEK

March 18, 1992

The Washington County Sheriff's Department is investigating a forced burglary to a residence on Hwy. 83 north of Hwy. Q in the Town of Erin.

The burglary occurred at about 2:20 p.m. on March 17, 1992. Taken was a substantial amount of cash.

The Washington County Sheriff's Department is looking for any information about a suspect vehicle and it's two occupants. A witness saw a large older model car, probably a two-door, rusty primer in color with lighter primer color to the front, very loud and riding low to the ground, at 2:20 p.m. in the victim's driveway.

The two occupants were white males, late teens to early 20's in age, both 5'8" to 5'10", thin, long dark hair, no facial hair or glasses, and described as messy looking.

Washington County's We-Tip phone line is 1-800-232-0594. Any information can be provided anonymously and if a conviction results from the information obtained, a cash reward will be awarded to the caller. The caller will be identified by using an assigned number recorded at the West Bend Police Department. All law enforcement agencies within Washington County appreciate any information relating to any criminal activity that may have been witnessed or that anyone may have knowledge of. Cash rewards can be quite substantial if a major crime is cleared and convictions are obtained.

Dairy Days Activities at KES Promotes Milk Consumption

On March 3 through the 6th, students from Kewaskum Elementary School were treated to a Dairy Promotion by the Dairy Council of Wisconsin.

Dairy Days, a school food service promotion, offers an assortment of activity ideas and prizes for the students K-6, centered around milk consumption.

Participating schools are selected in fall through a personal interview and provided teacher workshops and support materials.

Because of Dairy Promotions like these, Kewaskum Elementary's nutrition education curriculum will improve and students will gain a better understanding of how to make healthy food choices. Students will learn the importance of consuming milk as a part of a healthy diet.

Producers Need to Assess Alfalfa Stands

Dairy farmers and other alfalfa producers have been raising questions and concerns about the survival of alfalfa this winter. The open condition with the lack of snow and periods of warm and cold weather have increased the stress on alfalfa plants.

University of Wisconsin Extension Forage specialist Dan Undersander, and others have expressed concern that there would be considerable damage to alfalfa fields this spring. Producers will need to assess the conditions of the stand on their fields and make decisions about keeping the field or plowing it down and planting to another crop.

It is important that producers not become impatient and make decisions too early this spring. In many instances fields that may look quite poor early in the season may turn out to have a very acceptable stand if given some time. Some fields may just be slow to start this spring.

It is suggested that producers try and estimate stem density, that is the number of stems per square foot, when making decisions about the alfalfa field. Producers may wish to wait until the tallest stems are six to eight inches tall before making this assessment.

Stem density can be visually estimated very accurately. It is suggested that producers build a square with two foot square (approximately 1.4 x 1.4 feet) out of one half inch PVC tubing. This square should be randomly placed in various areas of the field and the number of stems counted.

If the average number of stems per square foot is greater than 55 there should be no limitation on yield based on number of stems. If stem density is between 40 and 55, stems per square foot then some yield reduction can be expected. If less than 40 stems per square foot are found, producers should consider plowing down the stand and planting to another crop.

When making the decision as to whether or not to plow down a field, other factors need to be considered. Such as, the average condition of all fields on the farm, alternatives that may be available for other forage production and the availability of hay and forage in the area.

Producers may also wish to dig up a few alfalfa plants and examine the top six inches of root or crown and stem rot. Any root with crown rot extending over 2 inches into the root or root discoloration prominent over 4 inches is likely to die within the next year.

Using stem density to assess alfalfa field will give a better indication than number plants per square foot. As plant numbers decline the number of stems per plant will increase and fill the spaces, and still produce an adequate yield.

The leading producers of natural gas are the United States, Russia, the Netherlands and Canada in that order.

Dairy Farmers Needed for Milk Marketing Board

MADISON....Nominations for eight positions on the board of directors for the Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board (WMMB) are open from March 17 to April 11, according to a recent announcement from the Department of Agriculture Trade and Consumer Protection.

The Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board was created by Wisconsin dairy farmers to promote the awareness and sales of Wisconsin dairy products. Producers of dairy products in Wisconsin pay a surcharge on their sales to pay for the Marketing Board's efforts. Representative Mary E. Panzer (R-West Bend) said, "It makes sense that dairy farmers in this area have some control over where their money is spent. By running for a directorship on the Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board, local farmers can contribute their energy and creativity for the good of their industry and their state."

To be eligible for membership on the twenty-five person board, a person must produce and sell milk in the district in which he is running and be nominated by five people. District 18, the district encompassing Kenosha, Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Sheboygan, Washington and Waukesha counties, is up for election this term.

Nomination forms are available from the DATCP through Ms. Margaret Fay, at (608) 266-9482 or toll free at 1-800-462-2765.

Interested parties can also request nomination papers at, Milk Marketing Order, Post Office Box 8911, Madison, WI, 53708-8911.

The Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board can also provide nomination forms. The address of the WMMB is 8418 Excelsior Drive, Madison, WI 53717. The WMMB toll-free phone number is 1-880-747-9662.

March is 'Healthy Habits - Healthy Babies' Awareness Month

March is Healthy Habits - Healthy Babies Awareness Month in Wisconsin. This month has been declared in conjunction with the 'March of Dimes' Healthy Habits - Healthy Baby Awareness Week and is being promoted by The Wisconsin Alcohol, Other Drugs and Pregnancy Work Group. The aim of the campaign is to make citizens aware of Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS), the dangers of smoking and other drug use during pregnancy and ways to prevent harm to the unborn child.

Background: FAS is one of the nation's three leading causes of birth defects with accompanying mental retardation. Lesser fetal alcohol effects include infant irritability and hyperactivity. FAS is caused by the consumption of alcohol during pregnancy, especially in the first trimester. No one knows exactly how much alcohol causes these problems. Many alcohol-related birth defects cannot be cured. However, they all can be prevented if women do not drink during pregnancy and if they get help if they have a drinking problem.

Tobacco and other drugs such as marijuana and cocaine also may be harmful. They can endanger the pregnancy and the newborn's health (low birth weight, higher risk of unsuccessful pregnancy and premature birth, and other health problems).

These problems can be prevented if:

- * All women of child-bearing age are aware of the dangers that alcohol, tobacco and other drugs pose to the pregnancy, the fetus and the health of the newborn;

- * Pregnant women and their partners are informed about the dangers of using alcohol, tobacco and other drugs during pregnancy (it is important that male partners be supportive of healthy behaviors of their pregnant mates); and

- * Pregnant women and their partners, families and friends know that help is available for those who require the intervention of a caring health professional for treatment to deal with alcohol, tobacco and other drug problems.

Residents of this community were shocked Thursday morning to hear of the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. John Weddig, 57, beloved wife and mother of the village. She suffered a heart attack during the night and peacefully passed away in her sleep on March 26.

The fire department was called out by the siren Saturday noon when a blaze was discovered in Dr. Leo Brauchle's dental office on the second floor of the Kewaskum Mutual Fire Insurance company building on Fond du Lac Avenue. The flames were discovered from the street by Nic Stoffel who saw the curtain in a front window in flames. Dr. Brauchle had placed an electric motor on a stand aside of the window before leaving for lunch. Apparently a spark caused by a short in the wiring ignited either the curtain or a stack of papers next to the motor. When firemen gained entrance only the papers were burning. The only damage was the burned off curtain.

Search Warrant Executed by County

On March 19, 1992 a Search Warrant was executed at a City of West Bend residence in the 2100 block of South Main Street. The Search Warrant was obtained as a result of an extensive investigation conducted by the Washington County Multi-Jurisdictional Drug Unit, with the assistance of the West Bend Police Department.

Arrested at the scene were three adult males (ages 44, 40, and 22 years), along with an adult female (42 years old). All subjects were arrested for Possession of a Controlled Substance With Intent to Deliver. The Search Warrant, which was executed with the assistance of a drug detector dog and handler from the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Department Drug Enforcement Unit, resulted in the seizure of approximately one ounce of cocaine, including some crack cocaine, and approximately 1/2 pound of marijuana and a substantial amount of cash. The street value of the drugs seized is approximately $5,000.

Also assisting in the execution of this Search Warrant were members of the Washington County SWAT team. The investigation leading up to the execution of this search warrant spanned several months. This matter continues to be under investigation by the Washington County Multi-Jurisdictional Drug Unit.

The Washington County Multi-Jurisdictional Drug Unit is supported in part by a grant which includes $77,000 in Federal funding. This $77,000 represents approximately 75 percent of the total grant award.

Tips on Speeding Your Refund

By John T. Ader, IRS
District Director for Wisconsin

This week I would like to share with you some suggestions to avoid errors and speed the processing of your return. I am also including some ideas concerning what to do if you are writing to us. I have found these hints to be very useful over the years.

Did you know that three out of four people get a refund and that the average refund is nearly $1,000? It makes sense to get that refund as quickly as possible. If you are unable to take advantage of electronic filing, which is the fastest way to get your refund, and which I'll write more about next week, here are a few helpful hints:

- Use only standard 1991 tax forms or forms approved by IRS.
- Use the IRS preprinted labels from your tax package whenever possible, being sure to check for correct name(s) and social security number(s).
- Do not use red ink. Red is the color used by IRS for editing purposes. When taxpayers use red ink, it sometimes causes problems.

- Complete and attach all required schedules and supporting records, with your name and social security number on all schedules and forms. Also, put the return in order of the "Attachment Sequence Number" that is shown in the upper right hand corner of the schedule. For example, you'll see that Schedule A is Attachment Sequence No. 07. Schedule EIC (for the Earned Income Credit) is Attachment Sequence No. 43. All supporting records should follow the last schedule or form.

- If you owe money, attach your check and any required W-2's or other income statements to the front of the form. Please put your check on top so it does not get overlooked.

- Make sure you put the information on the right line. Many people take a number from a schedule and put it on the wrong line of their 1040 form.

- Sign your return and remember that both spouses must sign if they're filing jointly. If your return was done by a paid preparer, he or she must also sign the return.

- Check your math. Then put your return aside for a day or two, and check the entire return one more time when your mind is fresh.

- Use the coded envelope you received with your tax package. Just like the preprinted label, the coded envelope speeds processing and gets you your refund quicker.

If you follow these simple guidelines, your return should be processed quickly; and your work will be finished. Sometimes, however, we may have to contact you about your return. The best piece of advice I can give is very simple. Answer our letter immediately. In most cases, your explanation will be all that's necessary and the problem will be solved. Not answering could result in additional taxes being assessed and our beginning efforts to collect those taxes, interest and more penalties.

When writing to us, please keep these few hints in mind:

- Make sure that your name and social security number or employer identification number appear as they did on the return.

- If you're responding to a letter or notice, please include a copy of the notice with your response.

- Include your telephone number and the hours you can be reached.

- When submitting an amended return, please be sure that the person who signed the original return also signs the amended return (we'll need both signatures if it's a joint amended return).

- When inquiring about a previously submitted payment, please include a copy of the front and back of the cancelled check if it has cleared your bank.

- When referring to a previously submitted letter, please include a copy of that letter.

Most of our problems in answering your letters happen when we don't receive enough information from you. The more you can tell us, the more quickly we'll be able to answer you.

Folkstyle Wrestling Regional Participants

On Saturday, March 21, the Kids Folkstyle Wrestling Regionals were held in Fredonia. Participants included several kids involved in the KES Intramural Wrestling Program. Placing 1st or 2nd place guarantees a chance to participate in the State Folkstyle Wrestling Tournament which is going to be held in Stevens Point this Saturday, March 28.

Seventh grader Joel Dziedzic and third grader Greg Guellig both did outstanding jobs by pinning all of their opponents, which placed them 1st in their age and weight classes. Third grader Jason Farchione and fourth grader Mike Farchione did a commendable job and took 2nd place in their age and weight classes.

Unfortunately for sixth grader Josh Dieringer, he wrestled a very tough age and weight class and was unable to place for state competition. Nevertheless, all five boys did a great job at Regionals and the four qualifying wrestlers are looking forward to the state tournament. GOOD LUCK BOYS!

Letters to The Editor

West Bend, WI 53095

Kewaskum Statesman
Lana Kuehl

Kewaskum, WI 53040

Dear Lana:

Washington County has been invited to make application to host the "Wisconsin Farm Progress Days" to be held in July, 1995. The Washington County Board has passed a resolution supporting the application to host this event.

Farm Progress Days is the largest agricultural show held in the state of Wisconsin each year. The three day event, which attracts over 50,000 visitors each day, features the latest in agricultural product developments and equipment along with new research and technological information. The show is supported by over 600 commercial exhibitors. Educational programs, field demonstrations, and other events are sponsored by the University of Wisconsin Specialists and local County Extension Faculty.

We are in the process of preparing an application to host Farm Progress Days. This application will be presented to Wisconsin Farm Progress Inc., the statewide coordinating group, on April 13, 1992. If Washington County is selected to host the show, an Executive Committee will need to be established to provide local leadership and coordinate with Wisconsin Farm Progress Days Inc., to conduct the event. A host farm will be selected in the summer of 1992. Volunteers will be needed to establish committees to facilitate the event.

At this time, we are asking for your assistance in the application process to host the 1995 show. A letter of support from you, your business, or organization would be very helpful. These letters of support will be included as a part of the application and will document the enthusiasm of Washington County businesses, communities, organizations, and others for this event. A response by April 3 would be appreciated.

The Washington County U.W. Extension Office is taking a lead role in this effort. If you have any questions, please direct them to the Office at 335-4477, 644-5204 or 342-2929.

Sincerely,
Reuben J. Schmahl

To the Editor:

Recently, a new tax provision surfaced from the omnibus tax bill passed by the State Legislature in 1991. It subject's clergy to a new surcharge imposed by the Wisconsin Department of Revenue on individuals who have a profit or loss from a "trade or business" for federal income tax purposes.

The form 1 State Income Tax Instructions, page 13, define trade or business as including... "other federal self-employed income such as received by Ministers, Priest or other employees of a church or church related institution."

The declaring of ministers as self-employed per Se seems to 'stretch' the income tax laws. The called workers of churches are employees for income tax purposes, and considered self-employed only for Social Security tax purposes.

This is an unfair tax on the clergy, as they neither deal in "trade or business". Therefore I am asking you to contact your State Representative urging them to sign on and vote for a budget amendment sponsored by Representative Mary Panzer, who wishes to exempt clergy from this onerous surtax.

Welcome to Our World

By Dianne Horlamus, Executive Director
The Washington County Humane Society, Inc.

The Animal Count Records are done for 1991. I was surprised to see that we handled over 2,500 animals. I'd like to share some of these numbers with you.

Two hundred twenty-eight, out of 390 stray dogs were reclaimed by their owners. This 58% reclaim rate shows us that Washington County residents really care about their dogs and proves that dogs are an important part of family life.

Sadly, the same cannot be said for cats. Out of the 452 stray cats brought to the shelter, only 18 were reclaimed. This figure shows us that cats are still considered by many to be "second-class citizens" and disposable pets.

Many of these cats come from the rural areas. It seem that many feel every farmer needs one more "barn cat." This "dumping" of cats is unfortunate because cats are territorial and often do not take kindly to a stranger in their midst. Many of these "dumped" cats are declawed. This leaves them virtually unable to defend themselves or find food. Obviously, they were someone's pet at some time.

There were 649 dogs, 774 cats and 82 mammals/birds surrendered in 1991. Many of these surrendered animals were brought in to be euthanized or "put to sleep" because they were very old, injured or very sick. My mind races back to all my personal pets that are no longer with me and I share their pain and tears. These decisions are never made lightly or easily.

On the "down" side, we euthanized over 1,400 animals. These were dogs, cats, small mammals/birds and wildlife. As I said before, some were owner requested, some were not suitable for adoption and some were put to sleep simply because we did not have the room or finances to care for them. Often times we feel guilty because we are the ones who must make these difficult decisions. I know this is a very stressful situation for the staff.

On the "up" side, we placed over 600 animals in loving, permanent homes. Obviously, this is the best part of our job, seeing someone leave with that "just right" pet. Nothing can describe the joy we feel seeing our "kids" going home with loving people. We also now have State and Federal Wildlife licenses. We handled over 60 wildlife last year. This includes everything from a red fox hit by a car, to numerous baby bunnies and raccoons. Perhaps someday we will have a Wildlife Department right here at the Shelter. In the meantime, we are fortunate to have several wildlife rehabilitators in the area that are willing to take in the young and injured wildlife that we receive.

We put over 25,000 miles on our vehicles. That is telling me that either the staff is going to the local Dairy Queen too much or that the residents of Washington County need all of the services we offer.

We are proud and happy to serve residents of the County, but doing so has put quite a strain on our finances. We need YOUR help to continue.

The original name of the cartoon strip "Peanuts" was to be "Li'l Folks."

ORDINANCE NO. 92-3

ORDINANCE TO LICENSE SLUDGE HAULERS IN THE TOWN OF WAYNE

THE TOWN BOARD OF THE TOWN OF WAYNE, WASHINGTON COUNTY, WISCONSIN, ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. PURPOSE. The purpose of this ordinance is to regulate the disposal of municipal wastewater sludge within the Town of Wayne so as to safeguard the health, safety and general welfare of Town residents from the dangers of such disposal, prevent the creation or perpetration of public nuisances and protect the roadways of the Town.

Section 2. DEFINITIONS. As used in this ordinance:

- A. "DNR" means the Department of Natural Resources of the State of Wisconsin.
- B. "License" means the license issued by the Town of Wayne pursuant to this ordinance.
- C. "Parcel of Land" means the real estate on which it is proposed to dispose of sludge. Each real estate tax parcel as found on the tax rolls of the Town of Wayne shall constitute a separate parcel of land.
- D. "Person" means any natural individual, firm, trust, partnership, association, corporation, municipal corporation, sanitary district or utility district.
- E. "Sludge" means the accumulated residual solids generated by a wastewater treatment facility for which a WPDES permit has been issued.
- F. "Sludge Hauler" means any person transporting sludge to the Town for the purpose of disposing of such sludge within the Town.
- G. "WPDES Permit" means a permit issued by the DNR under the Wisconsin Pollutant Discharge Elimination System.

Section 3. LICENSE REQUIRED. No person shall, after the effective date of this ordinance, haul and apply sludge to any parcel of land within the Town unless a license to do so has first been issued by the Town Board.

Section 4. LICENSING PROCEDURE.

A. Application. The application shall be in writing, shall be filed with the Town Clerk and shall include the following:

- (1) The name and address of the applicant and if the applicant is a corporation, the name, address and registered agent of the corporation.
- (2) The legal description of the parcel(s) of land on which it is proposed to dispose of sludge and the names and addresses of the owners and/or tenants of that land.
- (3) The length of time the applicant intends to apply sludge on the parcel(s) of land described in the application.
- (4) Copies of all contracts involving the hauling and soil injection of sludge for the applicant.
- (5) A non-refundable application fee in the amount of $100.00, which shall be applied toward the costs incurred by the Town in processing the application, conducting the public hearing and making a determination respecting the issuance of a license.

B. Technical Review. If the Town Board finds that reasonable concern exists as to whether (i) the health, safety or general welfare of Town residents will be endangered, (ii) a public nuisance will be created, or (iii) Town roadways will be unreasonably damaged if the license is issued, then the Town Board may engage the services of an engineer, soil scientist, hydrologist or other person having recognized expertise in the area of concern to advise the Town Board with respect to such matters.

C. Determination. The Town Board shall, after giving due regard to the information contained in the application and by any technical review requested, act upon an application within 45 days after the application is filed. If the Town Board finds that (i) the health, safety or general welfare of Town residents will be endangered, (ii) a public nuisance will be created, or (iii) Town roadways proposed to be used as access to the parcel of land will be subjected to unreasonable damage and that the anticipated damage cannot be mitigated through reasonable measures, then the Town Board shall deny the application and shall set forth in the minutes of its meeting the specific reasons for denial. Alternatively, if the Town Board finds (i) that the health, safety or general welfare of the Town residents will not be endangered, (ii) a public nuisance will not be created, and (iii) that there will not be unreasonable damage to Town roadways used in connection with such license, then it shall authorize the Town Clerk to issue the license, incorporating therein any conditions or restrictions regarding the use of Town roads which it deems necessary to protect such roads from unreasonable damage.

D. Issuance. The Town Clerk shall issue every license authorized by the Town Board upon payment of the applicant of a license fee in the amount of $100.00, which fee shall be applied toward the costs incurred by the Town in monitoring and inspecting the sludge disposal operation. The license shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5 of this ordinance and shall incorporate any conditions or restrictions imposed by the Town Board pursuant to paragraph C above.

E. Term. A license issued hereunder shall be for the term beginning April 1 and ending December 1 of the same calendar year, provided, however, that the license shall automatically expire if the ground is frozen more than 2 inches prior to December 1. A new license must be applied for and obtained for each year.

Section 5. LICENSE CONDITIONS. All licenses issued pursuant to this ordinance are subject to the following conditions:

- A. Such restrictions on the use of town roads as may be set forth in the license.
- B. Operations shall not be conducted prior to 7:00 A.M. or after 6:00 P.M. and shall not be conducted on Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays.
- C. All sludge shall be injected into the soil. There shall be no surface application of sludge.
- D. All transferring of sludge from hauling vehicles to soil injection equipment shall take place on parcels of land listed in the application and for which a license has been granted. No transferring of sludge shall take place within any road right-of-way or on any parcel of land for which a license has not been granted.
- E. Access to parcels of land for which licenses have been granted shall be by way of existing and established driveways.
- F. The Town Board of its representative shall have access to the parcels of land at any time to inspect the sludge disposal operation to determine compliance with this ordinance.

Section 6. REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION OF LICENSE. Upon complaint being made in writing by the Town Zoning Administrator to the Town Board alleging that any licensee hereunder has violated any of the provisions of this ordinance or any condition set forth in the license, the Town Board shall cause a summons and complaint to be served upon the licensee to appear less than 10 days after the date of the service thereof, to show cause why the license shall not be revoked or suspended. The Town Board shall thereupon proceed to hear the matter and, if it finds that the allegations of such complaint are true, may revoke or suspend the license of such person.

Section 7. PENALTIES. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit not less than $100 or more than $1000, together with the costs of prosecution, and in default of payment of such forfeiture and costs, shall be imprisoned in the County Jail until such forfeiture and costs have been paid, but not for a greater period than 90 days for each violation. For purposes of prosecution, each day on which a violation of this ordinance exists or occurs shall be considered a separate offense.

Section 8. NUISANCE ACTIONS. The granting of a license pursuant to this ordinance does not prohibit the Town from bringing an action for the abatement of a public nuisance.

Section 9. SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS. Should any section or provision of this ordinance be declared invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions and sections of this ordinance.

Section 10. PUBLICATION. This ordinance shall, in accordance with §60.80(2), Stats., take effect the day after its publication as a Class 1 notice under Ch. 985, Stats.

Kid's Wrestling - Another Successful Season

Kid's Intramural Wrestling Program participants

For the second consecutive year, the Kid's Intramural Wrestling Program at Kewaskum Elementary School was a success. For seven weeks an average of 25 kids (from 1st to 6th grade) gathered at the KES and KHS gyms every Monday and Tuesday night to learn the art of wrestling.

Wrestling instructions were provided by 7th and 8th Grade Wrestling Coach Steve Ruplinger and Parent Coaches Steve Guelig and Dan Braun. A special thank you goes out to several members of KHS Wrestling Team who did an outstanding job of helping out by coaching the young wrestlers in small groups.

To end the season, several of the young wrestlers participated in a wrestling tournament held in Campbellsport on Sunday, March 22. A good time was had by all.

Any parents interested in forming a Kewaskum Wrestling Club for the 1992-93 school year should contact Steve Guelig at 338-1681.

Chilton's Mlada Named AP Coach of the Year

By Statesman Sports Writer

The Chilton girls basketball team, which captured the Eastern Wisconsin Conference championship, as well as the WIAA State Division III championship, had the best coach in the state, according to this year's Associated Press all-state team.

Ray Mlada, whose extensive preparation helped the Tigers to a 27-0 mark this season, was named by the AP as the Wisconsin Coach of the Year, just edging out Hartford's Bob Halsey, who led his team to the Division I state crown.

Mlada has become well-known for his scouting and preparation for games, sometimes coming up with 40-45 pages of scouting reports on a single team. It is believed that Mlada, along with his coaching staff, has logged over 2000 miles this season, just scouting future opponents.

One of Mlada's best players, 6-3 center Tracey Winkler, also was tabbed by the AP for her skills, as Winkler was one of five girls named to the first team all-state squad.

Winkler, the EW Player of the Year, averaged over 20 points and 12 rebounds per game for the Tigers, and has played on the varsity for all of her four years in becoming the all-time leading scorer in school history.

Also named to the first unit was the AP State Player of the Year, Lakeland's Katie Voigt, who also led her team to a state championship (Division II), and an undefeated season. Voigt, a 6-1 junior, averaged over 20 points per game, and came up with a 26-point, 24-rebound performance in the state semifinals.

Also netting first-team status were Jennah Burkholder of Janesville Parker, Karie Cattanch of Markesan, and Keisha Anderson of Racine Park.

Burkholder, a 6-0 junior, averaged nearly 25 points per game and 13 rebounds in leading Parker to the Division I finals. Cattanch, a 5-11 senior, averaged 22 points per game, and will attend the University of Wisconsin on a basketball scholarship. Anderson, meanwhile will attend Arizona University next year, where she will show her skills which helped her average 22 points, 9 rebounds, 8 steals and 7 assists per game this past season.

Also netting honorable mention status was Winkler's teammate and fellow senior Charlotte Turney, whose three-point shooting helped the Tigers capture their state title.

Beat Two Rivers in Semi's Cougars Finish Second at State

By Statesman Sports Writer

MADISON — The Campbellsport boys basketball team's dream season came to an end here, last weekend, about five minutes too early on offense, though.

The Cougars went scoreless for the final five minutes of their Division II championship game against Onalaska, as the Hilltoppers went on a 15-0 run to close out the game, giving them a 56-36 win, and the state title, their second in four years.

The game was much closer than the score dictates, however, as the Cougars trailed by two (11-9) after one quarter, and were tied (24-all) at the intermission.

It was 35-32 heading into the final period before Onalaska gradually pulled away. The Cougars trailed 41-36 at one point, but Onalaska's John Torrence nailed a three-pointer to give his team the nine-point bulge, and the Cougars were forced to foul in an attempt to catch the Hilltoppers.

Campbellsport's horrid shooting in the second half spelled the difference in the contest. The Cougars were just four of 24 in the second half (17 percent), and finished shooting just 29 percent (13 of 44) for the game.

Much of the reason for the poor shooting belonged to the Onalaska defense. With a front line averaging around 6-6, the Hilltoppers were successful at intimidating Cougar shooters, blocking several shots. Onalaska also held a big edge on the boards, 41-27, with Torrence and 6-9 center Eric Beach each pulling down 10 rebounds.

Brian Bott, who didn't make a single shot in Onalaska's semifinal win over Monona Grove, broke out of his shooting slump to can 18 points against the Cougars. Campbellsport didn't have a single player reach double figures, and was led by Aaron Buslaff's eight points.

The Cougars reached the finals with a somewhat sluggish victory over Eastern Wisconsin Conference champion Two Rivers in the semi's. After averaging over 70 points a game in the regular season, the Purple Raiders ran into a tough defensive squad, and were held to their lowest offensive output of the year in a 53-45 loss to the Cougars.

Both teams struggled in the first half, as the Raiders shot just 17 percent from the field, but still led at the half 19-16. The Cougars picked it up offensively in the third quarter, however, while holding the Raiders in check.

The Buslaff's, Aaron and Jason, combined for 10 of Campbellsport's 19 points in the quarter, as the Cougars turned the three-point deficit into a 35-29 lead heading into the fourth.

The Cougars maintained their cushion the rest of the way, as rebounding played a key role in the win. The Cougars manhandled Two Rivers on the boards, 42-29.

J. Buslaff, along with Sam Durand, led the way for the Cougars, as each tallied 10 points, while the Raiders were led by Matthew Karmen, who pumped in 20 points. Perhaps the key to the game was Campbellsport holding EW first-teamer Jeff Kopetsky to just two points, on one-of-11 shooting. Two Rivers ended the year with a 20-5 mark.

Mayville, the third area team to take part in the tournament lost its Division III semifinals game against Columbus, 68-52.

The Division III final produced perhaps one of the most exciting games ever played in the championships, as Brett Brown's half-court shot at the buzzer allowed St. Croix Falls to beat Columbus 75-72 in double-overtime. St. Croix Falls finished 27-0, while Columbus ended 22-5.

In other finals, Spring Valley won the Division IV crown with a 66-51 win over Cassville, while Madison West upset Milwaukee King 77-63 in the Division I championship, thus ending King's 36-game winning streak, and thwarting the General's bid for back-to-back titles.

DNR Conducting Controlled Burns at Theresa Wildlife Area

The Department of Natural Resources is proposing to conduct several prescribed burns at the Theresa Marsh Wildlife Area in Washington and Dodge Counties in late March, April or early May.

The Department conducts controlled burns to increase plant diversity, control undesirable woody vegetation and reduce grass density. It also prepares the site for planting of warm weather grasses. The species that benefits from controlled burns include mallards, blue-winged teal, pheasants, bobolinks, dickcissels and the grasshopper sparrow. The Department is proposing to burn six separate parcels.

Interested persons can examine the proposal at Pike Lake State Park, 3340 Kettle Moraine Road, Hartford. Contact Tom Isaac, Wildlife Manager at (414) 644-5248.

Public comments are invited and should be received by Isaac no later than 4:30 p.m. April 1, 1992.

Turkey Patterning Clinic April 4

Gateway Gobblers, a chapter of the National Wild Turkey Federation in conjunction with the West Bend Barton Sportsman's Club will be hosting its first Turkey Patterning Clinic of 1992, Saturday, April 4th, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The clinic will be held on the West Bend Barton Sportsman's club grounds which are located north of West Bend on Trapshoot Lane. Directions: North of West Bend on Hwy "45" to Friendly Drive (approximately 1 mile north of CTH "D"), turn left at Mill Tool & Die and follow to Trapshoot Lane, turn right on Trapshoot and then straight ahead to the club grounds.

There will be various brands and different shot size shotgun shells that can be purchased individually.

In this way the turkey hunter can try different loads to determine which brand shell and which size shot provide the best pattern with his shotgun at different yardages.

Being able to purchase shells individually also eliminates the need to buy a full box of shells only to find that the gun does not pattern well with these shells.

Trap shooting will also be available the day of the clinic so bring along your trap gun and shoot a few rounds.

The Gateway Gobblers and the West Bend Sportsman's Club wish all the turkey hunters a safe and successful hunt.
