Miller Funeral Home Introduces New Tribute Program Which Enhances Service with Video

A new way of enhancing funeral service with video has recently been introduced locally by the Miller Funeral Home in Kewaskum.

Entitled The Tribute Program, it is a moving, yet dignified presentation of a life remembered, combining sophisticated video technology with a sensitive production style.

The Tribute Program combines favorite photographs from the life of the deceased with tasteful moving background scenes of the area. Music, which may be selected by the family, is added to form the soundtrack. A favorite scripture or other quotation completes the package.

The result is a six minute videotape featuring cherished pictures complimented by respectful audio and visual imagery. The Tribute Program is based on pictures chosen by the family, not a videotape of the funeral service itself. Only photos that show the deceased as the family wishes to remember him or her are used.

Miller Funeral Home has been serving the area for a number of years, and is dedicated to providing meaningful funeral services in line with established traditions. The Tribute Program is innovative, yet still well within the bounds of respectful funeral customs.

I had the opportunity to view The Tribute Program videotape and found it to be profoundly moving. It can span the entire lifetime of the deceased and gives mourners the opportunity to reflect on cherished memories.

In certain instances, it can also aid the grieving process by intertwining the precious moments of living with the eventual end of life's cycle.

Storms Brought Some Rain, But Little Relief

A tree on the Peace United Church of Christ property was broken off at ground level.

By Gerry Mueller

Last Wednesday's line of storms which traveled through our area did little to relieve the dry conditions. With 40 to 50 mile-an-hour winds and gusts up to 65 mph, the storm which passed through Kewaskum in the early afternoon brought considerable rains for a short period along with some minor wind damage. The downpour, however, was so hard, little of the rain had a chance to soak into the ground.

A stretch of the area running from southwest of Kewaskum to the northeast, averaged between a quarter to slightly over a half inch of rain. People living just to the north reported strong winds but virtually no rain. From Campbellsport north, only a trace of rain was officially reported.

An employee of a Kewaskum business said he saw a funnel cloud start to develop and descent but then it drew back up into the clouds.

A large tree next to Peace Lutheran Church was toppled, snapping off at the ground. A huge Elm tree in front of the Village of Kewaskum ★ NEWS NOTES ★

The entire State of Wisconsin is suffering because of the dry weather and Kewaskum is no exception. The Village of Kewaskum reminds everyone that fireworks are banned (illegal) in all Village Parks other than those permitted for July 3, 1992. The Village will not permit sparklers or any other fireworks in the park at any time including the 3rd of July.

We urge everyone to refrain from the high risk of any other type of fireworks on private property.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

C of C Sponsoring 'Kiss the Pig' Contest

"How about a little kiss, Honey?"

Yes, Kewaskum... and you thought you had seen it all last summer... NOT!

Did you ever, in your wildest dreams, think you would have the opportunity to see your "best friend" (HA!) and/or your "better half" (HA!) kiss a pig? (I did overhear one local businessman say he dated a few in his time, but he NEVER kissed them!)

Well, "pay back time" is here, folks! Here is the chance for all you unwilling "King" candidates to finally get your sweet revenge. It's been over a year, but we are now again giving you a chance to get even with all those well-meaning people who nominated you for "that other contest" last summer. (I swear, Larry, it wasn't me!)

In lieu of any other bizarre ideas, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce has

Win a 'House' with the Beechwood Fire Dept. Auxiliary Fundraiser

Beechwood Auxiliary members Sue Buechel, Marian White, Marge Krahn (Auxiliary Treasurer), and Lauren Krahn with the play house to be raffled off October 5th.

By Gerry Mueller

The Beechwood Fire Department Auxiliary has come up with an unusual idea for a fundraiser this year. The organization, beginning this week, will be selling raffle tickets on a children's custom-made play house.

The 4 x 6 foot play house was constructed by Doug White, from materials provided by the Auxiliary. Tickets are $1.00 each or six for $5.00, and they will be on sale until the drawing October 5. The tickets can be obtained from any auxiliary member.

If you want to get a close look at this charming little domicile, it will be in the Beechwood Annual Picnic parade this Sunday. Proceeds from the fundraiser will be used to benefit the Beechwood Fire Department.

April Wulff Wins NASA Wisconsin Space Scholarship

April Wulff

RIPON, Wis. — April Wulff of Kewaskum, is on her way to becoming a space engineer.

The class valedictorian of Kewaskum High School in 1990, she has won one of nine NASA Wisconsin Space Scholarships.

A Ripon College sophomore, Wulff plans to become an engineer. She applied for the scholarship to help support her study of physics and mathematics to prepare her for graduate study in engineering.

At Ripon College next year, she will research space vehicles now being developed.

"At Ripon College, we have had many students go on to be successful in prestigious engineering graduate programs, and April is as bright or brighter than any of them," said her mentor, Mary Williams - Norton, chair of the physics department.

Wulff said she was "curious at how space shuttles and rockets have enough power to escape the Earth's atmosphere and how they are able to maneuver in outer space." She plans to research new features on space vehicles now being developed, the obstacles the engineers are encountering and what is being done about overcoming them.

Ripon College students won three of this year's nine undergraduate NASA Wisconsin Space Grant Consortium Scholarships.

"NASA Wisconsin Space Grant Consortium Scholarships are awarded after a rigorous search for the most promising aerospace students in the State," wrote Gary T. Moore, director of the consortium, in his letter May 26, announcing the award.

Students from University of Wisconsin - Madison, University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee and Carroll College won the awards.

"Given the size of the institution, Ripon College was by far the best represented," said Susan Weistrop, program coordinator of the WSGC. The only institution to also win three grants is 24.5 times as large as Ripon.

Awards, which totalled $25,000, will allow students to pursue undergraduate aerospace or space-related studies in 1992-93.

Wulff will receive her award at the Awards Luncheon Aug. 17 at the Experimental Aircraft Association in Oshkosh.

She will present the results of her aerospace activities and research at the 1993 Wisconsin Space Conference.

Rachel Gosa Recipient of 1992 Greater Milwaukee Scholarship

Milwaukee, Wis. — Marquette University has announced the recipients of the 1992 Greater Milwaukee Scholarship, an $8,000 four-year scholarship ($2,000 per year) for qualified Wisconsin high school seniors who rank in the top quarter of their class and are enrolled in a high school located in Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Washington or Waukesha counties.

Rachel F. Gosa, daughter of Gerald and Mary Gosa, 1536 Stark St., Kewaskum, is one of the 19 award recipients. She is a graduate of Kewaskum High School.

Worship Services At St. Lucas

Services this weekend at St. Lucas Lutheran Church, 1417 Parkview Dr., Kewaskum, are as follows: Communion Worship Saturday, June 27th at 7:00 p.m.; Communion Worship Sunday, June 28th at 8:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m.; Communion Worship Monday, June 29th at 7:00 p.m.

Campus Notes

Marian College, Fond du Lac, has announced the names of 217 students whose second semester academic standing qualified them for the dean's list.

Students from the Kewaskum area are: Angela M. Brath, West Bend; David A. Kuphal, Campbellsport, and Jennifer J. Lettow, Kewaskum.

Sherry Becker Receives Degree

Sherry Becker, 4196 Hwy. H, Kewaskum, received a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee at commencement exercises held Sunday, May 10, at Milwaukee's MECCA Arena.

Sherry was among 2,191 candidates awarded degrees at the ceremony. This number includes 48 doctoral degrees, 386 master's degrees and 1,757 bachelor's degrees.

UWM, with an enrollment of nearly 25,000 students, is the second largest university in the state of Wisconsin.

Russell Kirchner Receives Degree

EAU CLAIRE — Spring commencement exercises for 918 students at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire were held Saturday, May 23, in Zorn Arena.

A total of 881 students received bachelor's degrees, including 417 from the School of Arts and Sciences, 226 from the School of Business, 152 from the School of Education and 86 from the School of Nursing. Master's degrees were awarded to 37 students.

Russell Kirchner, Kewaskum, received a degree in management information systems and management.

Van Beek, Steinert Receive State FFA Degree

James Van Beek, and Jeff Steinert of the Kewaskum FFA Chapter received the State FFA Degree at the 63rd State FFA Convention in Green Lake, on June 10. Wisconsin conferred the State FFA Degree to 403 members.

The State FFA Degree is the highest degree a state association can bestow upon its members. Only three percent of the membership can receive this honor per year. To be considered for this honor the FFA member must meet the following minimum qualifications: have productively earned and invested $1000 or worked 600 hours; been an FFA member for at least 2 years and had 360 hours of agricultural classroom instruction; given two speeches; each a minimum of five minutes in length; been involved in at least five FFA activities above the local level and participated in five cooperative activities.

The State FFA Degree charms were sponsored by Farm Credit Services of Wisconsin as a special project through the Wisconsin FFA Foundation.

The Wisconsin FFA Association is comprised of 261 local chapters preparing over 15,200 students preparing for careers in agriculture. FFA activities and award programs complement instruction in agriculture education by giving students practical experience in the application of agricultural skills and knowledge gained in classes. The FFA's major objectives are to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation and citizenship.

Wisdom is one treasure no robber can touch.

Jennifer Beimborn Awarded Scholarship

Jennifer Beimborn

Don Seymour, director of financial aid, has announced that Jennifer Beimborn of Adell has been awarded a United Church of Christ Pastor's Scholarship worth $500 and a Dean's Scholarship worth $2,000 to attend Lakeland College, Sheboygan, this fall.

Beimborn, the daughter of Ronald and Carolyn Beimborn, is a 1992 graduate of Kewaskum High School. She was active in baton twirling, forensics, Odyssey of the Mind, band, choir, Future Homemakers of America, Future Teachers of America, Minds and Music Club, German Club, AFS and a member of the National Honors Society. Beimborn will be an elementary music education major.

UCC Pastor's Scholarships are awarded to new Lakeland students who are members of a UCC congregation and have been nominated by their pastors. The $500-per-year award is renewable each year. Beimborn, a member of St. John's UCC, Beechwood, was nominated for the scholarship by the Rev. Hilda Seater.

Dean's Scholarships are awarded to new Lakeland students who have a grade point average of 3.0 or better. The $2,000-per-year award is renewable each year provided the student maintains a 3.0 or better grade point average.

Lakeland, founded in 1862, is an independent liberal arts college affiliated with the United Church of Christ.

Receives Degree

Northland College, a private Environmental School, held their 100th commencement exercise on May 24th, 1992 in Ashland.

Among the 136 graduates, was Wendy Jo Struebing of Kewaskum, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology with honors. She is the daughter of Ralph and Carrie Struebing of Kewaskum and a 1988 graduate of Kewaskum High School.

50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Roman J. Breit of West Bend, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on March 29, 1992 with a Mass followed by dinner and a reception at St. Mary's Immaculate Conception Church.

Church and the former Irene Wiedmeyer were married April 18, 1942 at St. Michael's Church, St. Michaels. Roman owned and operated his own barbershop in West Bend for 26 years, and has been a Red Cross volunteer driver for 12 years.

The couple has four children: Roman A. (Carole) of Franklin, Gerald L. (Marilynn) of Campbellsport, Christine M. Breit of West Bend, and Judith A. (Tom) Sweet of Raleigh, N.C.; seven grandchildren, Gary, Brian, Kerry, and Kelley Breit of West Bend, Cynthia (Roger) Skibinski of Oak Creek, and Benjamin and Melissa Sweet of Raleigh, N.C.; and two great-grandchildren, Brian and Kyle Skibinski.

Police Organization Soliciting Residents

Telephone soliciting on behalf of the Wisconsin Professional Police Association (WPPA) has resulted in many inquiries to the Washington County Sheriff's Department by area residents.

The WPPA is a well known Madison-based labor organization which represents law enforcement officers in many Wisconsin agencies. It maintains a lobbyist in Madison to present matters of interest to elected officials.

The WPPA has contracted with Midwest Publishing, an Eau Claire firm, to sell memberships in the organization to the public. The solicitors are not law enforcement officers. Members receive a card, decal, and accidental death and dismemberment insurance, among other things.

In response to an inquiry by the Washington County Sheriff's Department, the WPPA has stated that the solicitation's intent is solely to sell memberships and is not for charity. It has asked to be notified if any solicitor makes deceptive or impolite remarks. The calls are recorded and if the time and date of the call is known, the WPPA will investigate and discipline the solicitor. The WPPA has pledged to be both lawful and ethical in its solicitation.

The sheriff's department received one complaint about a rude solicitor. No complaints have been made alleging misleading statements. Residents must judge on their own if a membership is worthwhile to them.

Pilots and air controllers in all international airports use English to communicate with each other.

As I Remember

The following is an excerpt from the memories of Marvin Martin, entitled "As I Remember." Marvin was kind enough to share some of his historical writings with the Statesman, and we will be sharing some of his memories with our readers throughout the year.

Our swimming consisted of going into the river. We did skinny dipping at the Backhaus pool, which was on the river, north of Reigle Drive and also at the south side of Hon-E-Kor there was a large rock in that park area that we used. It was under water, one would sit on the rock and we would use that for diving. The area was just below the mill dam at the northwest side of the bridge, between the dam and the bridge, but there we had to have swimming suits. Early swimming suits for the boys were full suits and the girls were more like a dress and pantaloons.

We had two dams in Kewaskum which provided power for the flour mills. The last one went in 1911 and was never rebuilt. That is probably the reason the flour mill was no longer in existence.

Baseball was a popular sport and although we had no particular area for a permanent field, the first one I remember was in back of the early high school and the playground of the Holy Trinity Catholic Church and near the Slaughter House Road.

For baseball, we furnished our own balls, gloves and chipped together to buy a ball, and one ball would be about all we had. It was not unusual to see a catcher catching without a helmet, and I have a mishap nose from that. After the high school ball grounds were put into order, we started the Waffondo League, and often the pitchers or some other player was hired. Kewaskum Aluminum Company would often put some player on the payroll because there was a limit to the number of people you could hire.

MEMORIES

The Theodore Stern Family is pictured in the above photo. Theodore was born April 2, 1854 in the town of Kewaskum. His parents were Gottlieb and Fredricke Reimer Stern. Theodore had two sisters and four brothers, Minnie, Hannah, August, Otto, Julius and Herman. He was married to Bertha Ebert on June 28, 1880, and they were blessed with ten children of which Edna Wendelborn, the youngest of the family, is the only surviving member. The family photo was taken on Edna's confirmation (approx. 1916) Front row: Anna Ramthun, Bertha, Theodore, Kate Ramthun. Back row: Frieda Kutz, Herman Emma Meinecke, Edna Wendelborn, Henry, Lilly Marquardt, Ida Meinecke and Fred. The Stern Family 7th reunion will be held in River Hills Park, Kewaskum on July 19th.

Stern Family Reunion

The 7th Reunion of the Stern Family will be held in Kewaskum at River Hill Park on Sunday, July 19th. The event will begin with a potluck luncheon at 12 noon. All descendants of Gottlieb and Fredricke Stern are invited and urged to attend.

The luncheon will be followed by an afternoon of live music, games for the young and old along with lots of reminiscing and looking over any old picture that family members care to share.

Those planning to attend are asked to bring a dish or dessert to pass, plus their own dinnerware, sandwiches and refreshments. Coffee will be provided.

A large tree on the Gerald Dreher farm north of St. Michaels fell victim to last Wednesday's strong winds.

Storms

Gerald Dreher home north of St. Michaels was broken off by the winds. Leaves and branches were also scattered on village lawns and streets.

Some communities to the north reported utility outages. The city of Plymouth suffered a major power loss for almost two hours. Trees and utility poles in that city were also toppled.

As if the dry conditions weren't enough for area farmers to contend with, some of them were hit with a double whammy. After the front passed through, temperatures dropped. A couple of night time temperatures fell to freezing. Struggling young corn fields already suffering from a lack of moisture, were further attacked by frost.

Driving around the area you can see proof of the chilling weather with fields showing various degrees of damage from slight browning of the leaves to black and lost.

About the only good thing we can say about last week's weather is that we were much luckier than residents and communities in the Madison area where storms and tornadoes caused millions of dollars of damage.

Area Poet Published In National Anthology

Julie Jean Sarauer, N2021 Hwy. 45, Campbellsport, has just had original poetry published in "In a Different Light," a treasury of today's poetry compiled by The National Library of Poetry. The poem is entitled "My Circle," and the main subject is someone's heart being broken.

The National Library of Poetry seeks to discover and encourage poets like Julie Jean Sarauer by sponsoring contests that are open to the public and by publishing poems in widely distributed hard-back volumes.

Julie has been writing for two years and her favorite subjects and ideas are friendships, relationships and depression.

Poets interested in publication may send one original poem, any subject or style, 20 lines or less, to The National Library of Poetry, 11419 Cronridge Drive, No. 10, P.O. Box 704 NR, Owings Mills, Maryland 21117. Please be sure to include your name and address with your poem.

All poems received are also entered in The National Library of Poetry's North American Open Poetry Contest, which awards over $12,000 in prizes annually.

FDA Offers Advice For Summertime

The sun is out and there's not a cloud in the sky. It's another beautiful summer day in Wisconsin. Whether it's a trip to the beach, a round of golf, a fair or festival, or whatever the activity might be, what's important is not wasting one of our all too few sunny summer days.

Yet while we're determined to enjoy as much of summer as possible we are constantly bombarded with news of the health risks associated with exposure to the sun's rays.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration is offering a free packet of information designed to answer your questions about the harmful effects of the sun's rays. Some of the questions addressed:

How does the sun damage skin and how can we detect the early signs of skin cancer?

What does the SF number on sunscreens mean and how can I choose the proper product for me?

How does the sunlight affect my eyes and what are some tips for selecting appropriate sunglasses.

For this free information write to: U.S. Food and Drug Administration, Office of Consumer Affairs, 517 E. Wisconsin Ave., SB-06, Milwaukee, WI 53202.

Holy Trinity Circus Under the Big Top

Everyone loves a circus, and Holy Trinity School's circus held on Thurs., May 21, was no exception. There were, "lions and tigers and bears - oh my!" "There were ring masters and clowns galore.

There were also elephants, fish, birds and every other type of animal, even a French snail named Henri.

Oriental ribbon dancers offered a beauty of movement to the evening.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Gail Filzen, Holy Trinity Phy. Ed instructor and Mrs. Terri Christie, Holy Trinity music instructor, Rose Hall at the Kewaskum High School was transformed into a "big top" with assorted circus wagons, circus posters, a real Mime, Homer the lion, McGruff the anti crime dog, teachers, and Holy Trinity students dressed in costumes which only parents with fantastic imaginations could create.

The festivities began with the "great circus parade" followed by each grade performing skits, musicals and acrobatic acts. Despite the heat, the talents of the staff and the students were outstanding. Two representatives from the Baraboo Circus Museum, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Chamberlain were special guests for the evening. It was an exciting and fun filled time, just like the "real thing."

"Chief Clown" Mrs. Gail Filzen, above, physical education instructor at Holy Trinity, coordinated the circus along with music instructor, Mrs. Terri Christie.

The circus mime dug into her "bag of tricks" as fascinated children observed.

Holy Trinity students were magically transformed into circus personnel through costumes and makeup.

The first photograph made in the United States was taken by Samuel F. B. Morse in 1839.

Poison Hotline Keeps UW Experts Busy

By Judy Kay Moore, UW-Madison Center for Health Sciences

MADISON, WI... The calls for help are frequent.

A worried mother says her child just ate some wild mushrooms, and she thinks they could be poisonous. The phone rings again. This time it's about a man who accidentally sprayed insecticide into his eyes. Later, another caller says a friend was siphoning gasoline from the snowmobile to the lawn mower, used his mouth to start the process and swallowed some of the fluid.

Accidents like these are common this time of year and spark an increasing number of calls to the Madison Area Regional Poison Center at the University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics. Pharmacists provide expert advice, 24 hours a day, on proper steps to take following an accidental poisoning or exposure to a toxic substance.

"It's a busier season because more is going on outside, and people are just more active," says Donna Lotzer, a poison information specialist and pharmacist at UW Hospital and Clinics.

On the average, the poison center receives as many as 300 more calls per month in the spring and summer compared to other times of the year. In 1991, for example, the center handled 1,180 calls in January and 1,136 in March. Those numbers jumped to 1,409 in May and 1,466 in July.

Plants are a major source of accidental poisonings once the warmer weather arrives, says Lotzer. Poisonous mushrooms pop up as soon as the ground is soft and wet, and curious kids eat them. Another culprit: garden flowers, such as daffodils and lilies-of-the-valley, which may be pleasing to the eye, but also may be toxic if ingested.

"Kids should be taught early on not to eat anything they find growing outdoors," says Lotzer. Parents should also be able to identify all of the plants and flowers in their neighborhood to speed proper treatment in case of accidental poisoning.

Many other outdoor accidents occur in the garage, where antifreeze, lighter fluid, gasoline and other potentially dangerous substances are carelessly placed within children's reach. Another common, but dangerous, practice involves pouring gasoline and other substances into soft drink bottles, cups or plastic squeeze bottles for more convenient storage and use.

"Kids associate these containers with good things to drink," says Lotzer. "Keep these substances in their original containers and store them safely and immediately after use."

Not all accidental poisonings occur outdoors, however. One of the biggest mistakes spring cleaners make is mixing cleaning agents, such as bleach and ammonia, in the belief that the solution will work better, says Deb Bardon, a pharmacist at UW Hospital and Clinics.

The result is often a dangerous mix of gases. Respiratory distress, for example, can occur, especially in the elderly or with smokers. If you experience coughing, chest pains or a severe burning sensation in the eyes, mouth and throat, leave immediately, cautions Bardon.

Experts also offer this advice for preventing and treating poisonings during the spring and summer:

*Call your local poison center or physician immediately if you suspect a poisoning has occurred. The Madison Area Regional Poison Center at UW Hospital and Clinics can be reached at (608) 262-3702. In the Milwaukee area, dial (414) 266-2222. In the Green Bay area, the number is (414) 433-8100.

*Buy a bottle of syrup of ipecac. This substance, available over the counter, induces vomiting and is the recommended treatment in some poison cases. NEVER use syrup of ipecac without consulting a health professional. In certain cases, vomiting can make matters worse.

*If poison is on the skin or in the eyes, wash immediately. Flush the skin with lukewarm water for about 10 minutes, wash with soap and then rinse. Flood the eyes with lukewarm water from a pitcher for approximately 10 minutes. In both cases, follow-up with a call to the poison center or your physician.

*Wear protective clothing and eye wear when working with toxic substances or chemicals that could spray or splash. Pesticides, for example, can be absorbed through the skin and cause serious injury.

*If it is necessary to go to the emergency room, take the poisonous substance with you. This will expedite proper medical treatment.

New Fee Structure at Washington County Humane Society, Inc.

Starting July 1, 1992, The Washington County Humane Society, Inc. cost of adoptions will be $35 plus tax for any altered (spayed/neutered) cat, kitten, dog or puppy.

For unaltered animals, the fee will be $65 for a female dog (this includes a $30 rebate to be returned after the dog is spayed), $60 for a male dog (this includes a $25 rebate to be returned after the dog is neutered), $55 for a female cat (this includes a $20 rebate to be returned after the cat is spayed), and $50 for a male cat ($15 to be returned after the cat is neutered). Small mammal adoptions will be $3 plus tax and birds will be $10 plus tax.

Unlike the so-called "free" puppies and kittens offered in newspapers, all animals released from the shelter are examined for health and compatibility. Humane Society cats receive Feline Leukemia test, preliminary shot and deworming, flea spray, fecal, Pet Packet and a free health exam. The dogs receive a Heartworm test, preliminary shot and deworming, nasal bordetella, flea spray or flea bath, fecal, free health exam, $5 off any dog training class offered by WCHS, Pet Packet and a leash and collar.

The Humane Society will also do follow-up calls to make sure that your new pet is adjusting well to its new home. Because they feel strongly about pet overpopulation, they send spay/neuter reminders to the pet owners so that their pets are altered on time to prevent unwanted litters.

DESIGNATED DRIVERS!

Welcome to Our World

By Dianne Horlamus, Executive Director
Washington County Humane Society

Each year, thousands of baby wild animals are taken from their wild animal parents by well-intentioned, but misinformed humans.

Last year alone, the Wildlife Department of the Wisconsin Humane Society cared for over 7,500 injured and/or orphaned wildlife, returning them to the wild when possible. Of those 7,500 animals, over 400 were from Washington County. Many were babies which should have been left alone.

During the Spring, you may find yourself face-to-face with wild baby animals. Rabbits and ducks make nests in lawns, baby squirrels fall out of trees, and baby birds hop out of nests.

As a general rule, leave baby wild animals alone! They probably aren't orphans at all. The real mothers are most likely nearby waiting for you to go away so they can return to their young. Many animal mothers hide their babies while they go out to hunt. This prevents the mother's scent from drawing the attention of a predator to a nest full of babies. Unfortunately humans sometimes think the young are abandoned. For example, cottontail mothers only visit the nest once or twice each night. Being a nocturnal feeder, the mother does not return to the nest in the daytime. The young are on their own at 3½ weeks of age when they are only 4½ inches long!

Juvenile birds hop out of their nests before they are able to fly as a normal part of their development. On the ground they learn to fly and feed themselves while their parents support and protect them. Taking a young rabbit or bird away from their protective and caring parents at this stage could result in their deaths. Even a well-meaning human is no substitute for an animal's real parents.

There may be times when baby wild animals do need human intervention. If you find a baby squirrel or a featherless baby bird on the ground, pick it up and warm it in your hands. The mothers will not reject them because a human has touched them. Most birds have a poor sense of smell and a mammal parent will wash the foreign smell from the baby.

Because mammals such as squirrels can pick up their young and carry them, place the warmed baby squirrel at the base of a tree. The warmed baby bird should be returned to the nest. Leave the immediate area and observe the results of your labor from a distance, because wild animal parents will not return with a predator around! The parents should return soon to care for the young.

If you suspect that a wild animal is injured, call Washington County Humane Society for assistance. You may obtain a free brochure about handling various wildlife situations by calling the Washington County Humane Society at 677-4388.

Alliance Church Invites Public to Eye of the Storm

Pastor Doug Birr and members of the Campbellsport Alliance Church invite the public to see the new film, "Eye of the Storm," on Sunday, June 28th at 7:30 p.m. in the Campbellsport School's Chorus room (entrance K off Hwy. V).

"Eye of the Storm" is the new dramatic movie from World Wide Pictures (Billy Graham, Evangelistic Assoc.) starring Connie Sellecca, Jeff Conaway, and Deborah Tucker.

Returning home from covering the Persian Gulf War, award-winning TV journalist, Tom Edwards (JEFF CONAWAY), and his producer, Patricia "Pete" Peterson (CONNIE SELLECCA) are given the task of "keeping the ratings high."

It puts them at odds, since Tom feels the best "story" is one which would trash the faith of returning servicemen and women. "The war is over, what role does God play now? Is He out in the open or has He been put back in the closet?" asks Tom in his TV interviews. "Pete" urges him to let God "speak" for Himself.

EYE OF THE STORM addresses vital, timely issues very relevant in today's society. Families will be captivated by this contemporary story of what faces many single parents and their children as careers are juggled with personal relationships.

This film will pierce the hearts of viewers, both young and old, as they identify with very human hurts and find hope in very real answers.

An offering for the film will be taken. For more information, please call the church office at 533-4516.

Florals: A Study in Nature is July Exhibition at West Bend Gallery

The West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts is pleased to announce its July exhibition. FLORALS: A STUDY IN NATURE celebrates the flower and its myriad of interpretations, both historical and contemporary. It highlights Wisconsin artists: Sarah Aslakson, Madison; Carol Bohn, Lac du Flambeau; Jane Boller, Milwaukee; Rita Crooks, Wausau; Lee Weiss, Madison; Patricia Winer, Milwaukee; and Peggy Flora Zalucha, Mt. Horeb.

The exhibit also includes a survey from the collection of the West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts and loan pieces from selected Wisconsin museums, including the Rahr-West Museum of Art in Manitowoc, The Haggerty Museum of Art, Milwaukee, and the Milwaukee Art Museum. This portion of the exhibition features a variety of media and approach to the flower, through paintings, drawing and photography.

While lily and lotus flowers may be seen in the ancient art of Egypt and Asian cultures, the flower takes on a more highly charged role in later western European works. Flowers play a shy but symbolic role in sacred dramas of 14th century paintings of Giotto and Duccio. Having emerged as an independent art form in the late 16th century, the floral still-life persisted in conveying an allegorical significance, as symbols of resurrection, love, and the fleeting beauty of life.

In the 17th and 18th century paintings, the flower continued to offer a challenge as the artist attempted to match the brilliant color, texture, and form of the rose and tulip. Flowers have been portrayed throughout history for their power to communicate, heal the body, soothe the soul and inspire the heart. Everyone relates to flowers on a personal and intimate level. It is through this work that we understand and explore the important role of the floral perspective and realize how dull life would be without it.

A public reception will be held for all of the artists on Sunday, July 12, from 1:30 to 4 p.m. West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts volunteer, Joan Albers of Kewaskum, is the hostess for this reception.

The West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts is located at 300 South 6th Avenue in downtown West Bend. Normal gallery hours are Wednesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Sunday from 1 to 4:30 p.m. For more information call the gallery at 334-9638.

Campus Notes

GREEN BAY — Choral rehearsals, choreography sessions, sectionals, performances and social and recreational activities fill the schedule of the 16th annual Show-Jazz Choir Camp, in session June 21 through 27 at the University of Wisconsin - Green Bay.

Among the 127 high school musicians registered in the camp is Rachel F. Gosa, 1536 Stark St., Kewaskum.

Heading the camp faculty are vocal jazz educator and artist Chris Paquin - Salerno and her husband, John Salerno, a jazz artist and professor of music at UW-Green Bay.

The camp concludes with a public concert at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, June 27 in the University Theatre. The program is open to the public and admission is free.

The Stoffel Family Reunion

The family of Gilbert and Barbara Stoffel were reunited on June 6, 1992 for the first time in over twelve years, with some members of the family traveling from Colorado, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. The reunion took place at Family Acres, the farm where all thirteen living children were raised. Twenty-five of the twenty-seven grandchildren were present along with approximately fifty other family members.

County Fair Premium Book Dedication

The 1992 Washington County Fair Book is dedicated to Anita and Alvin Beder of St. Lawrence.

Each year the fair book is dedicated to an outstanding contributor to the fair as a way of saying thank you.

Anita and Alvin have been involved with 4-H and the Washington County Junior Fair for over 29 years. Their commitment to helping youth develop into responsible citizens is evident over the years of time and dedication. Anita and Alvin are always willing to lend a helping hand.

Anita has been the general leader of the St. Lawrence Eager Beavers. Their children and grandchildren have been involved in the 4-H program and county fair over the years, making it a family tradition. Anita is always willing to do something to help.

Alvin has been involved in the county fair for years working as a car parker and clean up on the grounds. He has been an eager worker willing to help out as needed.

Congratulations and special thanks to Anita and Alvin for their continued support of the youth of Washington County.

Ice Age Center Nature Programs

CAMPBELLSPORT — Kettle Moraine flora and fauna will highlight discussions at the Ice Age Center's nature programs this weekend. Forest Naturalist Roger Reif presents an illustrated overview of animals in the state forest, starting at 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 26.

"Outdoor Wisconsin's" Nancy Frank will then give an illustrated talk about one of Wisconsin's "gems", the Ice Age Trail, one of only eight National Scenic Trails in the United States. This discussion, entitled "Hiking a Trail Through Time," begins at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 27.

A.R.P. to Hold Picnic

On Wednesday, July 1, the Association of Retired Persons Chapter No. 401 will hold a picnic at Sandy Knoll Park, 2064 Wallace Lake Road, West Bend, beginning at 10 a.m.

If you plan to attend, please bring a dish to pass. Hamburgers and brats will be furnished. All persons, 50 or older, are invited to attend and enjoy the games and fellowship.

For more information, call Lucille at 334-9033.

A dishwasher uses about ten gallons of water. Washing the same dishes by hand would use around 20 gallons.

Lead screening tests will be available for children, up to age 6, at a clinic offered once each month by the Washington County Community Health Nursing Service.

Childhood lead poisoning is one of the most common pediatric health problems in the United States and is entirely preventable. Children at greatest risk of lead poisoning are those who live in a house or building built before 1960 or those living in an older home that is, or recently has been, remodeled. Lead poisoning can occur in a young child without the parent being aware of the problem.

A clinic will be held on the first Wednesday of each month in the Community Health Nursing Service office. The next scheduled clinic is:

July 1, from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. by appointment.

A parent must bring the child to the clinic. There will be no charge for the lead screening test. Call 335-4462, 644-5204 or 342-2929 for an appointment.

WB Chamber Offering Customer Service Seminar

Who, in your company is the first to convey your firm's attitude toward customers? Which employee has the "power" to instill confidence and cooperation to your potential customer, and, in fact, has the ability to gain and retain customers for your company?

The West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with Moraine Park Technical College, is offering a seminar designed for front role employees. The two-day seminar will instill a solid service foundation for new employees and will reinforce good customer service techniques and habits in established employees.

Businesses are encouraged to send those employees who deal with the public either in person or by phone. These employees will learn the importance of appearance and promptness, how to deal with conflict, how to communicate a positive attitude, and other components essential to their position in a company. Those attending will have the opportunity to practice dealing with conflict in role playing situations.

The Customer Service Seminar will be held Tuesday, June 30, and Wednesday, July 1, from 8 to 11:30 a.m. at Moraine Park Technical College in West Bend. The course has been developed

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of JAKE BRUESSEL, who passed away twenty years ago, June 16, 1972: Beautiful memories woven in gold. A gift from God we tenderly hold. Deep in our hearts, his memory is kept.

To love and cherish and never forget.

Sadly missed by his wife Audrey and children Joan, Gerald, Ronald and Cheryl.

by West Bend area businesses and retailers in cooperation with Moraine Park Technical College.

To register, send the names of the people attending along with the appropriate fee to the Chamber office. The fee for the first employee from a Chamber-member business is $35, and $25 for each additional person. The fee for employees of businesses not belonging to the Chamber is $50 per person.

For information, call the West Bend Chamber office at 338-2666.

CARD OF THANKS

A very sincere thank you to our relatives, neighbors, and many friends, who shared in our loss to my beloved wife, our dear mother and Grandmother Beulah Koch.

A special thank you to Rev. James Bettin, donors of floral and memorial tributes, Barb Breitag and Lori Schoofs for the music, Millers, and to anyone who showed their respect and helped us. These kindnesses will long be remembered.

Efforts Result in Sweet Reward Wayne Elementary Students Participate in Recycling Contest

Students at Wayne Elementary School recently participated in the Reynolds Aluminum "Great Balls of Foil" contest. The competition was designed to encourage and develop an awareness to recycle.

The students collected a total of 23 pounds of foil, ranking WES 20th of the 69 schools from southeastern Wisconsin which participated in the program.

Wayne Elementary, with an enrollment of 133 students, collected an average of .1729 pounds of foil per student. Reynolds gave the participating schools 20 cents per pound of aluminum foil collected in addition to special prizes for the top ten finishers.

Students in southeastern

Wisconsin collected the equivalent of 83 miles of foil recycled, or 17,354 rolls (the 25-foot length) of Reynolds Wrap. Nationally, nearly one million students collected more than 35 tons of foil to be recycled.

The students at Wayne began collecting the used foil during the fall and were able to watch their ball of foil grow daily through the month of March. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Larsen took the ball of foil to the recycling center located in West Allis, where it was weighed and recorded. The proceeds from the recycled aluminum were used to purchase an ice cream treat for all the Wayne students.

"Uncle Ezra" entertained the group with his harmonicas and stories about the Lions News Gazette.

Rummage-O-Rama's Popularity Growing

For those of you who didn't think there were very many people in town for Saturday's Annual Rummage-O-Rama sale, you obviously weren't one of the above who stood in a line that sometimes extended a half block long. These hungry shoppers waited for brats and burgers at the food stand of Kewaskum Frozen Foods during the noon hour.

Shown left are bargain hunters looking over the merchandise at a clothing stand located in front of Schmitt's Never Inn on Fond du Lac Avenue. Over 50 rummage sales and vendors were scattered throughout Kewaskum. The sale drew many shoppers into the village, but because the sales were set up on all ends of town, it was somewhat deceiving as to how many people were shopping. It's probably fair to say the "cool breezes" kept some shoppers away, but this year's event definitely drew more people than last year. So if you neglected to get involved this year, plan on getting in on the action next year, as Rummage-O-Rama's popularity steadily grows.

Quality Assurance Program

By Jack Trzebiatowski, Washington County Agriculture Agent

Healthy herd management and a valid farmer/veterinarian relationship... two key points of a new Milk and Dairy Beef Quality Assurance Program... can boost farmers' profits when a new anti-residue law takes effect July 1.

Under a new state law, dairy farmers who ship milk containing drug residues will be required to complete the 10-point quality assurance program within 45 days. Voluntary participation will dramatically reduce the chances of a bad shipment, while enhancing profits and helping to maintain consumer confidence in the purity of dairy products.

Practicing healthy herd management and establishing a valid veterinarian/client/patient relationship, the first two points of the program are already part of most top Wisconsin dairy operations.

However, formal participation in the quality assurance certification program is likely to improve even the best dairy operation.

Farmers can find out more about the 10-point program, which emphasizes cooperation among producers, Extension agents, veterinarians, field representatives and employees, by contacting any of the above individuals.

Investments in disease prevention are more cost-effective than disease treatment. Comprehensive herd management guidelines included in the 10-point program help farmers decide such things as the medical effectiveness of a given drug and the economics of treatment versus culling.

A checklist, which allows farmers to evaluate the health status of their herds, focuses on housing and sanitation, nutrition, reproduction, vaccinations and parasite control, the introduction of disease and mastitis prevention. Herd performance also is detailed under the program. A valid veterinarian/client/patient relationship is mandatory if drugs are to be used on a dairy farm. Such a relationship exists when:

*A vet assumes responsibility for making medical judgements on animals' health.

*A vet has on-going knowledge of animals to make sound diagnoses.

*A vet is readily available for follow-up.

The 10-point program helps dairy producers and vets to work together in making herd medical decisions. It also helps producers:

*Communicate with family and employees in following a vet's instructions.

*Monitor how a vet maintains contact with animals.

*Keep track of veterinarian follow-up.

All of the program's 10 points are important. Producers should work closely with their veterinarian to implement the program on their farm.

Building Boom in Kewaskum

By Kate Gauvin

If you are in the market for a new place to live, this just may be your lucky year! Construction appears to be the buzz word around town as four different complexes, two with apartments, one with condominiums and one with CBRF units, are being built in Kewaskum this summer.

Country Reflections Condominiums, being built by John and Mary Ellen McElhatton, is located at 1711 Wildlife Drive in Kewaskum.

Construction on the eight unit complex began on April 23. The four lower units are 1135 square feet and the four upper units are 1150 square feet each. Every unit consists of two bedrooms, two baths, washer, dryer, stove, refrigerator, dishwasher, gas heating, central air, and one car detached garage.

"I felt it was time for condos in Kewaskum," says Mary Ellen, whose son, Robert, came up with the idea to begin construction. "They're going up in Slinger and West Bend, so why not here?"

The condos, being sold by Ann Enright of Hometown Realty, will be completed in early September and are priced at $69,900. "Special financing is available through Valley Bank," says Enright. "This is a high-quality construction located in the newest part of Kewaskum. There is a really nice view. It's an affordable option for people just starting out or those who are retiring."

Also going up on Wildlife Drive is an eight unit apartment building being constructed by Kim and Mary Rodenkirch. Kewaskum Scenic View Apartments are complete with vaulted ceiling, air conditioning, appliances, one-car garage, extra storage, patio, deck, sliding glass doors and separate entrances.

"They are really well sound-proofed, which is nice," says Mary. "There is a little park going up near by and a beautiful view of rolling hills and a farm."

Construction began in Mid-May and the apartments are scheduled to open on August 1. Each unit is 1000 square feet and can be rented for $510.

On the other side of town, at 129 and 131 Elm Street, two complexes being built by Norman and Reenie Heberer are under construction. Wildwood Apartments consist of two buildings, one with eight units, and the other with nine, the ninth being for the apartments on-site manager, Mike Heberer. Each unit is over 900 square feet and contains air conditioning, stove, refrigerator, dishwasher, garbage disposal, super insulation, soft water, cable and regular television hookup, soundproof walls, cement floor on the second floor for sound insulation, and security entrances. Laundry facilities are available in each building and garages are available for each unit.

The Heberers worked very closely with the Electric Company to be sure they were building totally energy-efficient apartments.

"We've got the most energy-efficient appliances we could find," says Norman. "And there is on-site management."

Construction began on April 3rd and will be completed on September 1st. The units are going for $475 plus $40 for the garage. "We're looking forward to having some of the people of Kewaskum living in the apartments," says Heberer.

Work has also recently begun on Dr. Cesar Sison's newest CBRF facility. The basement has been dug and spancrete poured for the 14 unit building. The one-floor complex will also contain a commons area, dining room, conference room, whirlpool, a small beauty shop and an office. Pictures and more information on the construction of the CBRF facility will be forthcoming in the near future.

For more information on Country Reflection Condominiums, contact Ann Enright at Hometown

Realty, 338-5656. To find out more about Kewaskum Scenic View Apartments, contact Kim and Mary Rodenkirch at 626-4141, and for more information on Wildwood Apartments, call Norman and Reenie Heberer at 626-2491.

The Wildwood Apartments, located on Elm Street, are owned by Norman and Reenie Heberer.

The Scenic View Apartments, also located on Wildlife Drive are owned by Kim and Mary Rodenkirch chosen a "Kiss the Pig" contest to round out this year's fundraisers that will help to underwrite the many expenses of Kettle Kountry Kolors. For example, did you know the rental on the portable facilities ran over $400? Or gun powder for the guns used in the skirmishes and the live cannon came with a $250 price tag?

Everyone, I'm sure, realizes the cost of the entertainment, but the "little" expenses add up quickly. There is no admittance fee charged and all the entertainment is free. All residents are given a chance to enjoy a beautiful fall weekend in River Hill Park with their family at no cost to them, other than food and drink purchases.

This is why we ask your support of the "sometimes strange" fundraisers and hopefully also our raffle tickets which will be going on sale very soon. The more you support our efforts, the better we can make Kettle Kountry Kolors for your enjoyment.

Hence, we have our "Kiss the Pig" contest. This contest will run basically pretty much the same as last year's "King" contest. However, this contest will be a little simpler. (Guaranteed that I will throw a few different irons into the fire, specifically designed to totally confuse you).

The contest, though, will not be limited this year to only our male counterparts. (Gee, give us girls a chance to kiss the cute little piggy! I'm kidding guys... forget last year... revenge is NOT healthy!)

As I said, the contest is wide open to everyone, male and female, any age... baby to grandma. (Hmmm... forget what I said about revenge... one or two of my sons really deserves this prestigious honor... believe me!)

Nomination forms to announce your favorite as "piggy kisser" will be printed in next week's Statesman, and more details will be disclosed with it. There will be a time limit on the nominations, along with semi-finals and, of course, finals. The eventual winner will get to kiss "that special piggy" at Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Oh yes, I forgot to mention, the lucky winner gets to keep the lucky pig. (OK guys... its time to start drawing the blueprints for the pig pen!) Calm down, now, just think of it as a future spanferkel for a hundred or so of your closest friends.

So start preparing your list of candidates... let's see... who's been naughty and who's been nice? (If you need any help, call me... I can always think of one or two!) Nominations, which will cost $1.00 each, will open July 1st. (Forms will also be available at the Statesman). So beat the rush, send your list (along with your check) to the Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 300, Kewaskum, WI 53040. Or... stop in at the Statesman and let's compare lists to make sure we don't forget anyone!

Obituaries

MRS. MARTHA 'HATTIE' WEDDIG

Mrs. Martha "Hattie" Weddig, 85, of Kewaskum, passed away on Thursday, June 18, 1992, at Cedar Lake Nursing Home in West Bend.

She was born on November 11, 1906, in the Town of Scott, the daughter of the late Henry and Margaret (Kurtz) Marquardt.

On June 2, 1928, she was united in marriage to Henry J. Weddig and he preceded her in death on January 15, 1985.

Burial was at Holy Angels Cemetery. The Rev. Thomas DeVries officiated.

Visitation was from 4 to 8 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home, with a prayer vigil at 7:30 p.m.

Memorials may be directed to St. Frances Cabrini Church roof fund.

REV. SCHLAEFER

The Rev. Austin Schlaefler, O.F.M. Cap., 67, of Saginaw, Mich., and formerly of Campbellsport, died Friday, June 19, 1992, at Saginaw.

He was born May 26, 1925, in Campbellsport, a son of Mathias and Maria Berg Schlaefler.

He entered the Capuchin Order on Aug. 31, 1943, and was ordained on Sept. 5, 1951. He served various positions in Milwaukee, Detroit, Chicago, and Gary, Ind. He was presently the retreat promoter and preacher for Queen of Angels Retreat House in Saginaw.

Survivors include four sisters, Mary Schlaefler of Sussex, Sister Cecelia Schlaefler, C.S.A., of Sierra Vista, Ariz., Theresa Weber and her husband Robert of Sheboygan Falls and Rose Dreyer and her husband William of Scottsdale, Ariz.; two brothers, Bishop Salvator Schlaefler, O.F.M. Cap., of Bluefields, Nicaragua, and Anthony and his wife Marjorie of Campbellsport; and nieces and nephews.

Funeral Mass will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at St. Lawrence Seminary Chapel. His brother, Bishop Schlaefler, will officiate. Burial will be at the friary cemetery.

Visitation will be after noon Thursday to the hour of services at the chapel.

Huss Funeral Home, St. Cloud, is handling arrangements.

ROBERT R. KAPPLER

Robert R. Kappler, of West Bend, died Saturday, June 20, 1992, at St. Mary's Hospital Ozaukee, Port Washington, at the age of 57.

He was born Jan. 27, 1935, in Delmont, S.D., to the late Robert and Ruth (nee Rittel) Kappler.

In the early 1950s, he came to West Bend and was employed at Regal Ware, Kewaskum, for 35 years.

He served in the U.S. Air Force for four years, prior to his marriage to Dianne M. Labott at Holy Angels Church, West Bend, on June 3, 1961.

Survivors include his wife; five children, Keith (Paula), Kurt, Karla Kappler and Kent, all of West Bend, and Kris (Brian) Mayr of Lannon; a grandson, Travis; his mother-in-law, Martha Weidman of West Bend; four brothers, Fred (Ileen) of West Bend, Merl (Shirley) of Rochester, Minn., Gerald (Carol) of West Bend and Benjamin (Maryann) of Wausau; three sisters, Luella (Elmer) Werkmeister, Martha Conzemius, both of Amor, S.D., and Shirley (James) Watson of Coos Bay, Ore.; and other relatives and friends.

Preceding him in death were a sister, three brothers and his father-in-law, Harvey Labott.

He was a member of the 25-Year-Club at Regal Ware.

Funeral services will be Wednesday, June 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the Schmidt Funeral Home, West Bend, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 8 p.m. at Holy Angels Church. Fr. Jerome Rinzel will be the presider, and burial will be Thursday morning in Holy Angels Cemetery.

Visitation at the funeral home will be Wednesday from 4 p.m. until the time of services.

ROBERT S. JOHANSON

Robert S. Johanson, 75, of 634 Fairview Dr., Plymouth, editor-publisher of The Review in Plymouth from 1963-85 and associate publisher since 1985, died at his home Thursday afternoon, June 18, 1992, following a lengthy struggle with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (Lou Gehrigs disease).

A funeral mass was held Tuesday, June 23, at 6 p.m. at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Plymouth, preceded by family rites at the Wittkopp Funeral Home in Plymouth at 5:30 p.m. The Rev. Wayne Bittner, pastor, was the celebrant. Following cremation, interment was in the parish cemetery.

Friends called at the Wittkopp Funeral Home from 2 p.m. Tuesday until the hour of services.

A memorial fund is being established in his name for the Plymouth Ambulance Service and St. John the Baptist Catholic Church.

Johanson was born March 25, 1917, in Menden, N.Y., a son of the late Richard and Barbara Strobert Johanson. He was raised in Webster, N.Y., where he graduated from high school. He then attended the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, class of '39.

He later received his BA degree in journalism from the University of Wisconsin in Madison. He was employed by the Associated Press for a short time before being called up to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

He served in both the European and Asiatic theatres of action, receiving the American Defense and Theatre ribbons as well as the European Theatre ribbon with one star, the Asiatic and Pacific Theatre ribbons with two stars, and the Presidential Unit Citation.

On April 11, 1942, he was married to Margaret Foley in Malone, N.Y.

Following the war, they moved to Albany N.Y., where he continued to work for the Associated Press. They later moved to Rochester, N.Y., where he was employed in public relations at Eastman Kodak Co. He was then employed by General Motors in Detroit, also in public relations. In 1961, they moved to Milwaukee where he was Public Relations Director for Marquette University.

In 1963, he and his wife purchased The Review newspaper in Plymouth, which they later expanded into Wisconsin Newspress, Inc. In 1966, the family moved to Plymouth from Shorewood.

Johanson has been honored in the field of journalism numerous times by being awarded the Wisconsin Newspaper Association's "Publisher of the Year" honor in 1972, '78 and '79.

He also received several first place national and state awards for his editorials, columns, news coverage and general excellence, as well as numerous photo journalism awards.

He was an active participant in both the Wisconsin and National Newspaper Associations.

He was a member of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, Plymouth, and a member of the Plymouth Council Knights of Columbus.

An active community leader, he was a member of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club, the local and county Historical Societies, and was a member of the Ladewig-Zinkgraf American Legion Post 243 in Plymouth. He was also an active member of the Sheboygan Yacht Club.

The Johansons lived part of each year at their home in Fairfield Harbour, New Bern, N.C. where he was also active in the Kiwanis Club, and was a member of the Fairfield Harbour Yacht Club and the Blackbeard Sailing Club. He also served on the board of the Greenville Montessori School.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret; two sons and one daughter, Barry and his wife, Christie, of Elkhart Lake, who now publish The Review; Kathleen and her husband, Dr. Dennis Sinar, of Greenville, N.C., and Bruce and his wife, Sharmaine, of Chanhassen, Minn.; five grandchildren, Ian and Tyr, sons of Barry and Christie; Evan, son of Kathleen and Dennis, and Vanessa and Arne, daughter and son of Bruce and Sharmaine, and one sister, Mrs. Jean (Chet) Woodle of Chicago.

The Kewaskum Statesman is printed at the Wisconsin Newspress, Inc. in Plymouth. We express our condolences to the family.

MRS. VELMA M. YAHR

Mrs. Velma M. Yahr, 85, of Boltonville, passed away on Tuesday, June 23, 1992, at St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend.

She was born on June 9, 1907 in the Town of Farmington, the daughter of the late Emil and Sarah (Kraemer) Dettmann. On June 18, 1932, she was united in marriage to Julius "Jake" Yahr at St. Paul's United Church of Christ in Silver Creek. He preceded her in death on August 5, 1989.

Mrs. Yahr was a member of St. John's United Church of Christ in Boltonville and it's Ladies Guild. She was a member of the Beechwood Senior Citizens and a 50-year member of Royal Neighbors.

Survivors include two sons: Curtis (Bonnie) of Boltonville and Richard (Lynn) of Kewaskum; three grandsons, Steve Yahr of Germantown, Robert Yahr of West Bend and Michael Yahr of Kewaskum, and two granddaughters, Julie and Mary Yahr, both of Kewaskum.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a sister, Hazel, and a brother, Harold "Mick" Dettmann.

Funeral services will be held at St. John's United Church of Christ in Boltonville at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, June 26, 1992, with Rev. Edwin G. Stanford officiating. Burial will follow in the Boltonville Union Cemetery.

Friends may call from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 25, 1992, at the Miller Funeral Home, Kewaskum, and from noon until the time of services at the church on Friday.

Cedar Campuses Offering Summer Discover Day Camps

Do you have children in your family who are looking for things to do this summer? Consider the two Discover Day Camps offered this summer by the Cedar Campuses. These two summer camps provide exciting and purposeful activities for youth.

Discover I, entitled "Ecology: Caring for Our Planet," is a camp for youth ages 8-13 and older adults. The camp will be held at the Learning Center on the Cedar Lake Home Campus from June 29-July 3 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

This ecology camp emphasizes the things children and adults can do to be good stewards of our world's natural resources and creatures. Camp participants will be exploring the various ecosystems found on the Cedar Lake Home Campus. Furthermore, they will watch environmental films and take a field trip to a recycling plant. Recreation activities include swimming, hiking and ecology related projects.

Discover II, called God and Nature, is a camp for youth ages 8-13 and older adults. It will be held at the Cedar Valley on July 20-24 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. On Thursday evening the children will be staying overnight to observe the night sky. Summer is a good time to enjoy the gift of creation with hay rides, nature/art projects, swimming, hiking, creative writing and reflection on God as the Creator.

Transportation will be available between Cedar Valley and the Cedar Lake Home each morning and evening for both of the discover camps.

Rates for the Discover I and II camps are as follows: $50 - first child, $40 - second child, $30 - each additional child.

These summer day camps can be given as a gift to a child, grandchild, niece or friend. Gift certificates are available from Kathy Nyhof at the Cedar Lake Home Campus. Grandparents or an older adult are welcome to attend Discover I and II camps along with your sponsored child. Reservation space is limited to the first 25 participants.

More details and the registration forms are in the 1992 Discover Camp brochures which are available at the various brochure racks at each of the Cedar Campuses reception office areas. For questions or information contact Kathy Nyhof at 334-9487.

Two Historic Sites Located in Washington County Part of Six Added to the National Register

The State Historical Society of Wisconsin has announced the listing of six new entries in the State Register of Historic Places and the National Register of Historic Places. This brings the number of Wisconsin designations to 1,438. The new listings are located in Columbia, Milwaukee and Washington counties.

- Columbus Downtown Historic District, Columbus, Columbia County. The Columbus Downtown Historic District includes 79 historic resources built primarily of cream brick between 1852 and 1938.

A large majority of these two- and three-story buildings were designated in Italianate and Commercial Vernacular styles. There are also several examples of Neo-Classical Revival- and Romanesque Revival-style structures, and two Prairie School design buildings.

The six-block district is significant as a collection of resources which illustrates nearly the entire history of commercial activity in Columbus and as a representative collection of 19th- and early 20th-century commercial and institutional buildings.

- Society Hill Historic District, Portage, Columbia County. Situated on a small hill northwest of downtown Portage, the Society Hill Historic District is a large residential neighborhood containing approximately 200 historic structures built between 1870 and 1910.

The neighborhood combines both the high-style residences of former prominent business figures and the vernacular housing that represents the skilled or white-collar railroad employees of Portage a century ago. The most common architectural styles in the district include Italianate, Second Empire and Queen Anne styles, with a significant number of Gabled Ell and Side Gable vernacular forms.

- Congregation Beth Israel Synagogue, 2432 N. Teutonia Ave., Milwaukee, Milwaukee County. The former Congregation Beth Israel Synagogue is an example of a Byzantine Revival synagogue displaying fine craftsmanship and careful design, notable for its stained and leaded glass, handsome art tile floors and intricate plaster work.

This massive one-story building was built of brick in 1925 on a full raised basement. The entrance, flanked by large square towers with copper domes, consists of three pairs of double oak doors and is a full story above grade.

The congregation was the most prestigious Orthodox Jewish congregation in Wisconsin prior to World War II due to its large size, extensive social and cultural activities, school facility and leadership.

The organization moved to a new building in 1959 and sold its former synagogue to the Greater Galilee Missionary Baptist Church in 1960.

- Milwaukee-Western Fuel Co. Building, 2150 N. Prospect Ave., Milwaukee, Milwaukee County. The Milwaukee-Western Fuel Co. Building is a sophisticated example of late Art Deco design. This two-story concrete frame structure was erected in 1934 of buff brick.

The building's most dramatic feature is 23 engaged columns covered with orange-colored terracotta. In addition, ornamental terra cotta bas-relief spandrel panels are located between the first and second story windows. These decorative panels consist of three different scenes depicting an aspect of the coal industry.

The Milwaukee-Western Fuel Co. Building represents the mature work of Herbert W. Tullgren, one of Milwaukee's leading 20th-century architects. It was designed during the phase of his career when he was turning away from historical revival styles to explore more modern design idioms.

- Barton Historic District, West Bend, Washington County. Containing 53 historic structures, the Barton Historic District is a six-block area made up of modest homes and businesses that represent an early phase of development of the former village of Barton, now a part of West Bend.

The focal point of the district is the Milwaukee River and the old Barton Roller Mill and its dam. A large portion of buildings in the district were built of locally produced brick.

Much of Barton was built between 1840 and 1870 in older architectural styles, especially Greek Revival, Italianate and Gothic Revival. Barton experienced another period of growth between 1910 and 1935, when many homes were built in Bungalow style and several 20th-century style commercial buildings were erected.

- Holy Hill, 1525 Carmel Road, Erin, Washington County. Situated on an elevated rural landscape, Holy Hill is the site of religious pilgrimages. The historic district, maintained by the Discalced Carmelite Fathers, was built between 1914 and 1938 and includes several features.

The Shrine of Mary, Help of Christians is a pilgrimage church built of red brick in 1926 in Romanesque Revival Style. Two monasteries, also Romanesque Revival style, were built in 1920 and 1938 to house the Carmelite community. The site also includes a modern hermitage and a modern guest house complex.

Several outdoor features, including a Carmelite Cemetery, enhance the natural beauty of this historic district. An entrance arch, built in 1914, marks the entry to the Via Crucis, or stations of the cross. These 14 life-sized sculptures, nestled in a wooded setting, were created between 1914 and 1928 by sculptor Joseph Aszklar. Finally, the Lourdes Grotto, built in 1932, is a replica of the 1858 grotto in Lourdes, France.

Persons interested in nominating properties to the State Register of Historic Places and the National Register of Historic Places, or in learning more about the state's historic preservation program, should contact the Division of Historic Preservation, State Historical Society of Wisconsin, 816 State St., Madison, WI 53706, (608) 264-6500.

Miss Jean Schuppel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schuppel of Allenton and Jeanne Felix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felix, Kewaskum, will leave Saturday, June 24, for a two-and-a-half month stay in Europe. The girls took advantage of a program which offers work or study abroad. The program, called WSA, offers students the chance to see Europe at a minimum fee, which would be impossible with any other mode of travel. The girls will take advantage of the work program and have been assigned to Butlin's Holiday Resort in Minehead England on the Bristol Channel.

James Korth, 18, of Kewaskum and Miss Jacqueline Volk, West Bend, were injured at 7:30 p.m. Sunday when Korth's motorcycle, on which Miss Volk was riding, left a Hwy. 67 curve in the Town of Osceola. The crash occurred near the north end of Long Lake when Korth's motorcycle reportedly got onto loose gravel on the shoulder and he lost control momentarily. The bike struck a sign post on the edge of the road and was thrown into the ditch. Korth suffered a fractured hip and possible cracked knee cap, while Miss Volk escaped with bruises. Both were transported to St. Joseph's Hospital.

Two Kewaskum youths were injured Sunday, when a car driven by Dennis Backhaus, 16, of Kewaskum left Hwy. 28 west of Paradise Rd. when Backhaus braked sharply as he came up behind another vehicle and apparently lost control and the car veered into the ditch striking a sign post, telephone pole and tree. Injured were Edward Weddig, 16, Kewaskum, bruises, and Charles Bunkelman, 17, Kewaskum, a bump on the head.

The Woman's Club of this village will on Tuesday evening, June 26th, give an entertainment in the local opera house, known as "The Marriage of the Midgets," or the Tom Thumb Wedding, composed of a number of small boys and girls between the ages of three and ten years, who will give a complete imitation of a "Society Wedding" an entertainment, the kind of which has never before been presented in this village and ought to make a great hit with all who may attend same. So bring your friends and relatives and enjoy an evening of continual fun. Admission, adults 35c, children 20c.

The new industry which will be established in West Bend and of which only a precursory mention could be made last week in connection with the purchase of Strube's Park and the Schloemer's lots by Joseph O'Meara can now be named outright. It will be a milk condensery of large proportions and capacity. The name of the new concern is "White House Milk Products Company". It will be a corporation with a working capital of $125,000. The condensery will be erected on the site of what is now known as Strube Park, an ideal location near the railroad and in the center of great milk producing country.

Minutes of Village Board Meeting

Mid-Monthly Meeting
June 15, 1992
8:00 P.M.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Mid-Monthly Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First St.

President Mary Krueger presided. Trustee Harry Roecker asked to be excused and was absent, all other Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present. The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Wagner, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the June 1, 1992 meeting were approved as printed.

Fire Chief Robert Stoltzmann shared the May 1992 monthly report with the Board as follows:

Fire calls - 2, Year to date - 12; False alarms - 0, Year to date - 1; Jaws of life (used) 1, Year to date - 6, (not used) 3, Year to date - 6; Rescue calls - 26, Year to date - 82; Miles ---, Burn permits - 2, Year to date 22.

Chief of Police, Richard L. Knoebel gave the May monthly report as follows: Traffic citations - 44, Traffic warnings - 164, Parking violations - 0, Parking warnings - 0; Property stolen - $128; Criminal investigations - 23; Adult arrest - 14; Criminal arrest - 18; Juvenile arrest - 19; Property recovered - $30.

Trustee Gary Gavin brought up for discussion stricter guidelines and enforcement regarding cars parking by the open air shelter and large concession building in the Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park. Warnings should be given out with the possibility of citations if the matter is reoccurring.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Gary Gavin and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board acknowledged receipt of a letter from Ruckert & Mielke, Inc. regarding work progressing on the Water Pollution Control Department's sludge storage.

A brief discussion was held on how the dairy's pretreatment is helping reduce the amount of sludge and on the installation of grease traps at those establishments that do not currently have them. Director Gilles was asked to approach those without grease traps and ask them to voluntarily install them.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles reported that the street painting was completed and that Alan Kuehl took the water certification test and had passed it, giving him both the ground water and distribution certification. Also Brad Rodenkirch took the certification test and had passed it, giving him both the ground water and distribution certification, but under a one year training mode.

On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the applications for operator's licenses upon proper payment of fees and documentation and authorized the office to issue said licenses as follows for 92/93:

Bonlender Leo, Kewaskum, WI., Gross Judy, Kewaskum, WI. Koch, Harry, Kewaskum, WI., Krahn, Nancy, Kewaskum, WI., Roecker, Harry, Kewaskum, WI., Roecker, Lori, Kewaskum, WI., Schlice, Shirley, Kewaskum, WI.

Note: The Police Department had no objections to any of the applications.

A review of the budget control sheet for the period ending May 31, 1992 was conducted.

A brief review of the building permit report was held.

On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee Robert Wagner and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the signing of the Sincerity & Condolence Policy.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Gary Gavin and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the signing of the Flag Policy. It was noted the street flags would be placed for Memorial Day, Flag Day, Independence Day, Firemen Legion Picnic and Labor Day. Flag Day was added to the list.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt informed the Board of the Sidewalk bid opening scheduled for June 18, 1992 at 10:00 a.m. and reviewed a variety of related correspondence.

Chairman of the Administrative Committee, Thomas McElhatton recommended the hiring of Mark Hartmann, Todd Stange and Robin McBride as Recycling Site Managers. It was noted that the Village may re-advertise the end of August if the need exist. On a motion by Trustee Robert Wagner, seconded by Trustee Robert Beisbier and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the hiring of those individuals recommended by the Administrative Committee.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee David Goeden and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board waived the KKCP fees for the fund raising event for the Kewaskum Fire Department/Rescue Squad for August 30, 1992.

Chairman of the Park and Recreation Committee, Gary Gavin announced a Committee Meeting scheduled for June 22, 1992 to inspect the parks at 7:30 p.m.

Board Representative for the Plan Commission, Trustee Gary Gavin announced that the June Commission

Meeting was canceled.

Action was taken on Ordinance No. 92-6, regarding the establishment of Guidelines for Abandon E9-1-1 Emergency Calls as attached hereto:

Discussion was held on the proposal received from Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission to prepare a master community land use plan. On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Robert Wagner and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized said work indicating the need to budget for the work in 1993 and 1994. The total estimated cost for said work is $17,500. The project will take an estimated two years for completion.

Discussion was held regarding the disposal of bulk type garbage items. A review of what other communities are doing relating garbage and recycling was looked at. The existing, new and proposed laws regarding these types of materials are forcing the communities to take a variety of actions. Mr. Ken Nelder was present and asked why the Board was contemplating a charge for bulk items. It was explained the Village had not been accepting those type items for nearly two years and that the State laws are what cause the need as well as concerns for our environment. The consensus of the Board was to have a policy prepared using a $5.00 charge per bulk type item. The $5.00 would be paid to the Village and a sticker would be issued to be placed on the item/material to be disposed of.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Robert Beisbier and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board rejected the claim for reimbursement of $137.00 by a resident.

Action was taken on Resolution No. 92-14, Approving North Park Estates and authorized the signing of said plat as attached hereto:

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Robert Wagner and carried by the majority roll call vote, to adjourn. Roll call vote was 6 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 1 "Absent."

MEETING NOTICE School Board Work Session Monday, June 29, 1992 Kewaskum High School Library 7:00 p.m. AGENDA

The Kewaskum School Board will meet in a workshop session to discuss the following issues.

1. Mediation/Arbitration discussion and possible WASB actions.
2. Presentation by Mr. Ken Cole, WASB Executive Director and Mr. Charles Peters, WASB District Representative.

The meeting is open to the public.

NOTICE TO ALL DOG/CAT OWNERS

All dogs and cats are not to run at large or cause damage to other peoples property. As per Chapter 12.02 of the Kewaskum Municipal Code and State Statutes Chapter 174.02. The owner or keeper of any dog or cat licensed or unlicensed, shall not permit the same to cause damage (leave body waste) on others property. This includes sidewalks, streets, alleys and other public areas. These matters are redefined in both Chapter 9, Peace and Order, and Chapter 10, Public Nuisances, of the Kewaskum Municipal Code.

Any party violating these codes are subject to the penalties as defined in Chapter 25.04 of the Kewaskum Municipal Code.

The Village of Kewaskum "Park Rules and Regulations" prohibits all dogs and cats from entering any park. However the Village Board recently made provisions for one exception to this rule. Dogs will be allowed in the area adjacent to Pump Station No. 2, 439 Main Street and just east of the Milwaukee River. The parking lot area may be used to provide access to the Milwaukee River for training and exercising of dogs.

NOTE: The owners and keeper of dogs are reminded that they are responsible for any damage caused and body waste. Children and adults use River Hill Park for all types of activities and should not have to contend with unsanitary conditions.

Your cooperation and consideration of others would be greatly appreciated. The same rules apply to railroad right of ways, boulevards and the like.

Thank you!

Thursday Softball Rained Out

By Statesman Sports Writer
KEWASKUM — A heavy downpour just after supertime was enough to wipe out the slate of games in the Thursday night men's softball league at Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park last week. The cancelled games are tentatively rescheduled for Wednesday, July 1st.

The women's league was played as scheduled last Monday, though, as T's Lounge maintained its hold on first place with a 9-4 win over Riverview Tap. Riverview, playing the weekly doubleheader, posted a win in its first game of the night, outlasting Shefond in a slugfest, 15-13.

In the lone other contest played Monday, Kewaskum Frozen Foods couldn't find a way to post their first win of the year, losing to Kohlsville Auto Body/C.C.'s by a 15-2 count, as the winners crossed ten runs in the fourth inning.

In Tuesday night men's action, T's Lounge II remained undefeated, as they scored 11 runs in the top of the first in beating Campbellsport Building Supply, 12-0 in five innings.

C.C. Cody's took advantage of Campbellsport Building Supply's loss to take over sole possession of second place, beating Amerahn's 11-3. The Klahn brothers did most of the damage for Cody's, as Joel Klahn ripped three hits, and John Klahn high-stepped his way to a two-run, inside-the-park home run.

In other action on Tuesday, T's Lounge I recorded its second win of the year, a 4-1 victory over Hometown, while Schluffy's came back from a 4-0 deficit to beat Neuville Chevrolet, 12-8.

Grand National Tractor Pull at Tomah July 3-4-5

TOMAH, WI - The 17th Annual Budweiser Wisconsin Dairyland Grand National Truck and Tractor Pull promises a red-white-and blue hot July 4 weekend at the Monroe County Fairgrounds in Tomah, Wisconsin. The event, scheduled for July 3-4-5, has pullers anxious to compete for a purse of $120,000. The event is sanctioned by the National Tractor Pullers Association (NTPA), now in its 23rd year. The NTPA is the dominant sanctioning body in truck and tractor pulling--America's most powerful motorsport.

The Wisconsin Dairyland Grand National Pull is one of 15 events on the 1992 NTPA Copenhagen/Skoal Pulling Circuit, which this year comprises events from Nebraska to New Hampshire and will feature nearly 100 competitors who pull exclusively on the Grand National level. The Tomah event is the only pull on this circuit to host all divisions of NTPA competition.

The Tomah pull will be the hotseat of family action as five sets of brothers battle for monies and points in search of NTPA Grand National Pulling Circuit titles.

Defending champs Ernie and Bryan Conner will battle former champs Allan and Dennis Brabec in super stock. Dave and Ralph Banter, winners of 18 Grand National point titles in the exciting modified division, will defend against such competitors as third-place runner-up, Rodalyn Knox, whose son, 1991 Mechanic of the Year, has built her a new engine to be unveiled this season. Jim and Paul Holman will attempt to extend their hot streak to four straight titles in four wheel drive. Contenders Mike and Scott Johnson, however, will try to hold them back.

Father-son LD and Brent Nation will battle between themselves for the two wheel drive win. LD took the title in '89 and '91; Brent held it in '90. Roger Simon of Iowa, runner-up all three years, will attempt to dethrone them.

The action gets underway in Tomah at 7 p.m., Friday, July 3, when the Two Wheel Drives hook to the sled. Sessions continue on Saturday and Sunday with pulls at 1 and 7 p.m. each day.

The Wisconsin Dairyland Grand National Truck and Tractor Pull in Tomah has been recognized by competition pullers as the No. 1 Pull of the Year eight times. Promoted by the Monroe County Fair Association, the event attracts over 70,000 pulling fans each year. Admission is $12 per session and season tickets are available for $50 by calling (800) 368-3601.

A's Down Horicon, 3-1

By Statesman Sports Writer
KEWASKUM - After winning their fair share of blowout baseball games, the Kewaskum Athletics finally found themselves involved in a close contest here, last Sunday. In doing so, the A's showed that they can win those games, too.

Scoring single runs in the second, third and seventh innings, the A's were able to overcome some sub-par hitting, beating Horicon, 3-1.

The win improved the Athletics' mark in the Rock River Northern Division to a league-leading 7-1. The win also improved their overall record to 10-2.

A's starting pitcher Tim Heberer, who experienced some control problems in his previous outing, was superb in this contest, allowing just 5 hits, while striking out 7 and walking 2.

Heberer was the victim of some poor fielding in the second inning, when Horicon scored their only run. After Brian Neitzl reached on an error, Doug Braun hit a shot to the right-center gap. A's rightfielder Don Menzel got to the ball and fired it to second, but missed the cutoff man, and the ball made it past three other A's fielders and out of play, allowing Neitzl to score.

But that was all that Horicon would muster against Heberer. The Athletics, meanwhile quickly tied things in the bottom of the second.

Terry Koth led off with a walk, and moved to third on an opposite field double by Andy Hoenecke. After a strikeout, A's first baseman Rick Peck brought Koth in with an infield out, tying the score at 1-all.

The Athletics used a somewhat similar scoring method to take the lead in the third. Mark Schlosser led off with a walk, and promptly stole second base. After a strikeout, Dave Donath reached on a base on balls.

Doug Gonring followed with a ground ball to first. The Horicon first baseman hesitated a bit, then went to second trying for a double play to end the inning. The throw back to first, however, was in the dirt, getting away from the first baseman, and allowing Schlosser to score from second.

The Athletics tallied their final run in the seventh. Menzel led off with a walk, and after a popout, Menzel scored on a double by Greg Rinn. Rinn was later cut down at the plate trying to score on Gonring's single.

In all, the A's mustered just four hits, and also committed three errors. "It wasn't a very pretty game," Gonring said.

The win enabled the A's to maintain their slim, half-game lead over Oakfield in the Rock River's Northern Division.

The A's were back in action Wednesday when they played St. Cloud at Plymouth, and the A's return home this Sunday when they host second-place Oakfield in a big contest, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

With the importance of Sunday's game looming large, Gonring and the rest of the Athletics are hoping for a big crowd to help them in their quest to hold onto first place.

Kewaskum JV Baseball Boasts 6-0 Record

The Kewaskum JV Baseball Team improved their record to 6-0 this past week as they defeated Plymouth 16-9 and Random Lake 7-4.

Kewaskum had two big innings against Plymouth as they erupted for eight runs in the second inning and also added four runs in the fourth inning.

Kewaskum sent thirteen batters to the plate in the second inning as they took a 10-2 lead. Highlights for the Indians included a two RBI single by Cory Rammer, a two RBI triple by Mark Strobel and an RBI single by Jaimie Brown.

Kewaskum's four runs in the fourth inning came as a result of singles by Rob Donath, Kevin Klahn and Brown plus a sacrifice fly ball by Rammer.

Dane Dorn went the distance on the mound to record the victory. He struck out five, walked five, and yielded 10 hits. Six of the nine runs against him were earned. Offensively the Indians pounded out twelve hits. Brown and Dorn led the way with two hits apiece.

The Random Lake game started slowly as each team turned a double play in the first inning to prevent the other from scoring. Kewaskum scored once in the second inning as Rammer doubled with two outs which scored Brown.

Random Lake tallied twice in the second to take a 2-1 lead. Neither run was earned as the Indians committed four errors in the inning. Kewaskum tied the score the third inning. With one out Donath and Strobel both singled and advanced on a balk by the pitcher and Donath scored on a sacrifice fly ball by Ryan Kurth.

Kewaskum took the lead in the fourth inning as they scored three times. Rammer singled with one out and scored when Dan Survis tripled. Survis scored when Jason Gaffke grounded out. Chad Muckerheide reached on an error, went to second on a balk, and scored on a single by Donath. After Random Lake scored once in the fifth inning, Kewaskum added two runs in the sixth inning. The runs came as a result of a Rammer single and two Random Lake fielding errors.

Random Lake scored once in the seventh inning to make the score 7-4 and had runners on first and second when Kewaskum hurler Jason Gaffke retired the last batter on a pop out to first baseman Ryan Kurth.

Gaffke worked a complete game to pick up the win. He struck out three, walked five, and yielded 3 hits, one of the four runs against him was earned.

Offensively the Indians were led by Rammer who was there for three and by Donath who was two for three. Defensively, centerfielder Kevin Klahn recorded three put-outs which included two diving grabs which prevented two potential runs for scoring.

Athletics Ousted from Tourney

eight hits, didn't threaten after that, while Clyman, who recorded just their three hits, scored another run in the sixth, and almost broke it wide open in the final inning.

The Cannons had the bases jammed, when Joe Warner stepped to the plate and launched a shot to center. A's outfielder Andy Hoenecke went back, however, and robbed Warner of a grand slam, leaping over the fence.

After falling over the fence into what should have been out of play, and a dead ball situation, Hoenecke quickly fired the ball in and doubled the runner off second for a double play.

"It should have been a dead ball, but they didn't call it," Gonring said, noting the messup worked to the A's advantage. Despite the great catch by Hoenecke, the A's were unable to use the momentum to manufacture some more runs.

The loss dropped the Athletics record to 9-2 overall.

Straub All-Academic

By Statesman Sports Writer
WHITEWATER — A pair of University of Wisconsin - Whitewater athletes have been named to the second team District 5 College Division All-Academic At-Large team, selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America, and sponsored by GTE.

Adam Hardt, a junior two-sport athlete (soccer and baseball) from Brookfield East, and Rich Straub, a senior wrestler from Kewaskum were selected to the prestigious group.

Ten athletes were named to the all-district first team and eleven to the second team. District 5 consists of Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota and Wisconsin, and the college division includes schools affiliated with the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) or Division III of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). The at-large team is made up of athletes from sports other than football, basketball and baseball.

Straub majored in elementary education and carried a 3.42 cumulative grade point average.

He earned all-american honors at the 1992 NCAA Division III wrestling championship, finishing fifth at 142 pounds.

He compiled a 44-9 record last season, also finished third at the Wisconsin State University Conference championships. The 44 wins is a school record.

He also recorded 21 pins, third best ever in a season, and accumulated 154 team points, tenth best in the school record books. Straub totaled 116 wins in his Warhawk career, tied for second most ever. In the career UW-W record book, he is also third in pins (59) and eighth in team points (422.75).

"I am very pleased to see two of our student athletes recognized for their combined efforts in academics and athletics. It is a tremendous honor to have two athletes recognized in the same year," UW-Whitewater men's athletic director Wille Myers said of the honor. "Both Adam and Rich have been able to control their time and priorities. Each of them have met the challenge presented in academics and athletics."

Jamestown Track News

By Statesman Sports Writer
JAMESTOWN, NORTH DAKOTA — The Jamestown College men's and women's track team recently completed one of their most successful seasons by sending a school record 18 athletes to the NAIA National Track and Field Championships.

The Jamestown men's team won their 11th straight District 12 Outdoor title, and their 14th straight NDCAC Outdoor Championship. The women's team, meanwhile, captured their 5th straight NAIA District 12 Outdoor, and their fifth straight NDCAC Outdoor title. Both teams completed the outdoor track and field season unbeaten.

Former Kewaskum standout and state qualifier Ingrid Ankerson was listed in the "Other Outstanding Performers" category, made up of those individuals who did not qualify for the NAIA Championships.

Ankerson, a 1991 Kewaskum graduate and a freshman at Jamestown, was slowed down by shin injuries for much of her first season at Jamestown, scoring just two points during the year. Ankerson had personal bests of 33-6.5 (triple jump), 4-10 (high jump) and 15-0 (long jump) during the year.

REASONS FOR NOT DRIVING A BICYCLE ON THE LEFT SIDE OF THE ROADWAY

With the warmer weather of summer the Kewaskum Police Department has received an increase in the number of complaints about people driving their bicycles on the left side of the roadway. This practice is not only unsafe, but it is also in violation of State traffic regulations. Listed below are some of the dangers of this type of activity:

1. Presently, under Wisconsin Statutes, all vehicles going in the same direction keep to the right side of the roadway. To drive a bicycle on the left side would put it out of the normal traffic flow and create another area to search for traffic. An example would be at an intersection where a motor vehicle driver is stopped for a stop sign. He would (1) first look left at the closest lane for traffic, (2) then look for oncoming traffic, (3) then look right at the furthest lane for traffic, (4) and then look left again to check the closest lane. A bicycle driven on the left side of the street, would be approaching in the near lane from the right, out of the normal driver's scan for traffic. (See Fig. 1.)

4. If a bicycle is driven on the right side of the road, cars following and unable to allow the legally required 3 feet or more of clearance to pass could move at the same speed as the cyclist until clear to pass, or until the biker yields the roadway -- assuming it is practicable and safe to do so. If a bicycle were driven on the left side under the same conditions, the motor vehicle would have to stop if traffic conditions did not permit a 3-foot clearance, or wait until the bicyclist yields the roadway, if practicable. (See Fig. 2.)

5. If a bicycle were driven on the left side of the roadway, all signs would be on the opposite side of the road where the biker could not see them. (See Fig. 2.)

2. If the bicycle were driven on the left side of the roadway, reaction time for an oncoming motor vehicle operator would be less. Also, in case of a crash, the impact would be more severe. For example, an auto being driven at 50 mph impacting a bicycle being driven on the left side of the road at 15 mph would result in a total head-on collision speed of 65 mph (50 mph plus 15 mph). If the bicycle were driven on the right side the reaction time would increase because the bicyclist would be moving in the same direction as the auto and a rear crash would result in an impact of 35 mph (50 mph minus 15 mph). (See Fig. 2.)

3. During hours of darkness, if a bicycle were on the left side of the road, the front bicycle light would confuse motor vehicle drivers, and auto lights would blind the oncoming bicyclist.

6. If a bicycle were driven on the left side of the road and a motor vehicle in the adjacent lane hit the extending handle bar, the bars would be turned so as to direct the bicycle into traffic. If the bicycle were driven on the right side of the road, a motor vehicle in the adjacent lane hitting the extending handle bar would direct the bicycle away from traffic. (See Fig. 2.)

7. If a bicycle were driven on the left side and was turning left at an intersection, the bicyclist would have to compete for the little available space with a right-turning motor vehicle hugging the right curb or road edge.

If everyone follows these suggestions they will have a safe and enjoyable summer of bicycle driving.

Indian JV's Lose to Campbellsport, 8-7

The Kewaskum JV Baseball Team's six game winning streak came to an end this past week as they were defeated 8-7 at Campbellsport. Kewaskum led for most of the game, but was unable to overcome a seven run Campbellsport outburst in the sixth inning.

Kewaskum took a 1-0 lead in the third inning. Dave Dorn walked and was replaced by courtesy runner Heath Heise. Kevin Klahn advanced Heise to second with a sacrifice bunt from where he scored on a two out single by Dan Survis.

The Indian fifth inning saw Dorn lead off with a single and once again be replaced by Heise. Klahn doubled to left-centerfield to score Heise.

Campbellsport got a run back in their half of the fifth as Dorn walked two and unleashed two wild pitches. After five innings Kewaskum led 2-1.

Kewaskum scored twice in the sixth inning. Survis walked and later scored on a safety squeeze bunt by Ryan Kurth. Jason Gaffke scored the second run. He reached on an error and scored on a single by Mark Strobel.

Campbellsport's offense which had managed only one hit off Dorn over the first five innings, finally clicked in the sixth inning. The Cougars sent eleven batters to the plate in the inning and scored seven runs on eight hits.

Kewaskum attempted to rally in the seventh inning as the first three batters (Steve May, Travis Jacak, and Cory Rammer) walked. May and Jacak scored on a single by Survis. Gaffke reached on a fielder's choice as Survis was forced out at second base and Rammer advanced to third. Chad Muckerheide singled to score Rammer to make the score 8-7. Both Gaffke and Muckerheide moved up a base on a wild pitch to put runners at second and third with one out. That was as much as the Indians would rally as Kurth popped out to the second baseman for the second out and Strobel grounded out pitcher to first, to end the game.

Bob Bothe was the winning Cougar pitcher. Dorn took the loss for the Indians. He struck out 4, walked 4, and yielded 9 hits. Seven of the eight Campbellsport runs were earned. Survis and Strobel each collected two hits to lead the Kewaskum offense.

Indians Rain on Raiders Parade

By Statesman Sports Writer
TWO RIVERS... In Kewaskum's first matchup with Two Rivers earlier this year, Indian pitching ace Shawn Schneider struck out 17 Raider batters en route to an easy victory.

So coach Tom Bartelt gave his other veteran pitcher a try against the Raiders in the two teams' return matchup and senior left-hander Chad Cook responded with another fine effort.

Cook struck out eight Raider hitters, and allowed just three hits as the Indians downed Two Rivers, 8-3, in a game that was called after five innings because of rain.

"Cook pitched a pretty good game," Bartelt said of the three-year letterwinner, who improved to 3-1 on the year with a 3.04 earned run average. Cook has now struck out 27 in 25 and a third innings. He has walked 20, while also giving up 20 hits.

The Indians jumped on Raider starter Jamie Messman right off the bat, scoring five runs in the top of the first. Randy Schlice doubled to start the attack, which featured singles by Brad Weinreich, Scott Donath and Aaron Rettler.

The Indians ran wild in the inning, recorded four stolen bases, and finished with six for the game.

"We're running a little more this year," Bartelt said of the aggressive play. "We have quite a bit more speed this year than we have had."

A stolen base helped the Indians add a couple more runs in the second, as Kim Marx walked and stole second. The throw to second was wild, allowing Marx to move to third.

Chad Cook followed with a grounder to first, and when the first baseman tried unsuccessfully to nail the fast Marx at home, Cook safely reached first. Courtesy runner Matt Schlosser advanced to third on a double by Weinreich, and scored on a groundout.

Aaron Rettler provided the final Indian score, when he drilled a homer in the top of the third.

Cook, meanwhile, held the Raiders in check, allowing just a single hit until the fifth, when Two Rivers scored all three of their runs.

A walk, and then a single and an error scored the first Raider run, although it looked as if Cook would get out of the inning as he struck out the next two batters.

But a single scored another run, and then a stolen base, a wild pitch, and an error brought another runner across the plate.

In all, the Indians committed four errors, too many for Bartelt's liking.

"We had been doing pretty good defensively, until just recently," he said. "Now we're getting three or four a game."

The Indians improved to 5-2 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference with the win, and moved to 8-6 overall.

Cougars Sweep Indians

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — The Campbellsport baseball team has come a long way since the Cougars and Kewaskum first played each other May 28th.

The Indians were 20-2 winners in that affair, but Kewaskum was unable to duplicate that success in a doubleheader with the Cougars here, last Tuesday.

After staking claim to a 6-2 lead in the second inning, the Indians proceeded to throw away a 7-6 decision, as walks and poor baserunning did in the hosts.

In the nightcap, the Indians once again claimed an early lead, only to see the Cougars score in the seventh inning, thus posting a 6-5 win over the Indians, and extending Campbellsport's winning streak to 11 games.

"I knew they weren't that bad," Indian boss Tom Bartelt said regarding the blowout win earlier. "We just didn't seem to be up for the games."

In the opener, the Indians posted six runs in the bottom of the second, using walks, a pair of singles, and doubles by Brad Weinreich and Chad Cook.

The Cougars, meanwhile, chipped away at the deficit, and eventually tied the game with a pair of runs in the sixth. Two walks and an error hurt the Indians, whose wildness would eventually cost them the game.

Shawn Schneider came on to pitch the seventh inning, and he issued a walk to Aaron Buslaff, who then stole second. Schneider struck out the next two Cougar batters, but in the process uncorked a pair of wild pitches, allowing Buslaff to score.

The Indians had a chance to tie in the bottom half of the seventh, as Weinreich went to second on a passed ball with two down, and hot-hitting Scott Donath at the plate. Donath walked, however, and Weinreich, who tried stealing third on the fourth ball, was an easy out at third to end the game.

"He instinctively went, because it was a 3-2 pitch with two out," Bartelt said of the blunder. "He forgot that there was no one on first though."

In the second contest, the Cougars scored a pair of runs in the opening frame, but the Indians answered right back, as Jason Krahn helped the hosts tie the game with a double.

Kewaskum got two more in the second, using three walks and singles by Kim Marx and Doug Buechel to take a 4-2 lead.

Down 4-3 heading into the seventh, the Cougars busted through for three runs, the big blow being a double by Buslaff. That came after a pair of walks and a blooper had loaded the bases. The Indians didn't give up, though, as they put runners on second and third with one out in the seventh.

A sacrifice fly by Aaron Rettler made it 6-5, but that's the way it ended, as the next batter walked but was left stranded as Cougar reliever Brian Walta got a strikeout to end the game.

Errors hurt the Indians in both contests, as the lone miscues by Kewaskum in the first game helped the Cougars tie the game, while three errors in the second game didn't help matters either.

The losses dropped the Indians overall mark to 7-6, while the Cougars, after losing their first two games of the year, improved to 11-2.

Golf Ace

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — A Milwaukee-area man recently became the first person to score a hole-in-one on the new blue nine at the Hon-E-Kor Country Club.

Greg Fuerger of Brown Deer used a 4-wood to sink his tee shot on the 200-yard No. 7 hole, recording the first ace of the year at Hon-E-Kor. Fuerger was golfing in a twosome along with his wife.

The hole-in-one was the 28th recorded at Hon-E-Kor, and the first since Leo Schlafer's in September of last year.

Indian Bats Overwhelm Huskies

By Statesman Sports Writer
NEW HOLSTEIN - Despite getting off to a shaky start defensively, the Kewaskum Indians baseball team found its niche in the field, and at the plate in moving to within a half-game of the lead in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference standings here last Friday.

After spotting New Holstein a 3-0 lead after one inning, the Indian bats came alive, rapping out ten hits in beating the Huskies 9-4. The win improved the Indians mark in the EW to 6-2, a half-game behind EW leading Plymouth (7-2).

New Holstein grabbed the early lead thanks to three Indian errors, a walk and one base hit. "And the hit was questionable," Indian coach Tom Bartelt said, regarding the shoddy defense.

It stayed 3-0 until the third, when the Indians scored a single run. Randy Schlice singled, stole second, and came around to score on a single by Chad Cook.

The Indians took the lead for good in the fourth. Two Husky errors, along with singles by Brad Weinreich, Todd Muckerheide and Kim Marx and a sacrifice fly by Cook gave the Indians a 5-3 edge.

Kewaskum made it 8-3 with three more in the fifth, all coming after two were out. Muckerheide started the rally with a single and then stole second. A wild pitch moved him to third, and Aaron Rettler followed with a walk and also stole second, putting runners on second and third.

Kim Marx's single scored Muckerheide, while Rettler and Marx later scored on Schlice's triple. Each team added a single tally in the sixth, the Indians scoring on an RBI single by Shawn Schneider.

Schneider was the winning pitcher, as he went the distance, giving up five hits while striking out eight, and walking six. He lowered his earned run average to an impressive 1.17, while upping his record to 4-2. The senior righthander has struck out 48 and walked 20 in 36 innings of work, while allowing just 17 hits.

As a team, the Indians have a 2.61 ERA, while sporting a hefty .312 batting average. Scott Donath leads the team with his getting on base almost three-quarters of the time he is at the plate. On the mound, relievers Matt Schlosser and Jason Steier have yet to surrender an earned run in their combined 12 innings of work.

The Indians can pretty much establish themselves at the top of the EW standings with three tough games this week. After home games against Sheboygan Falls and Kiel, the Indians travel to Chilton on Thursday.

Next week could be even more pivotal, as the Indians travel to Plymouth on Monday, before returning home for a doubleheader against New Holstein next Thursday.
