Help Light ALL the Candles During the Month of July

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is asking everyone's help to light up ALL the candles on the Celebration Cake located in the front window of the Kewaskum Statesman during the month of July.

The "cake" which was begun in Mid-May, only had the candles on the first two tiers lit in May. In June, we just got a start on the third tier. We're hoping to have all three tiers fully lit by July 31st.

Everyone must know SO-MEONE to congratulate this month with a lit candle. Isn't it your mother-in-law's birthday? Oh my gosh... you didn't forget your anniversary? How about lighting a candle for Uncle Sam in honor of the 4th of July? Or buying a candle for your own birthday?

Remember, all proceeds from

Lonely Pig?

some prince. Stranger things have happened... just ask Bob Wagner!

Kewaskum, you are scaring me! I thought you would rise to this challenge. If you didn't send in very many nominations over the holiday weekend, how can I ever expect you to fill out all those coupons during a three-day picnic weekend? And after this weekend, there is only two more weeks left to send in the names of all your loved ones (?).

I don't know if I should pout and refuse to share the names of those who have already been nominated or what! I know some of you have guessed a few, but I don't think anyone has gotten them all right! And you'll never guess the new ones.

Yup! I guess I'll just have to wait until I get more response before I reveal the names of our potential pig kissers.

Maybe it has something to do with the fact you can't think of someone to nominate. NOT! From the conversations I've been overhearing, there are probably too many people available. That must be it. You're all waiting for the field to narrow down so you won't have to spend your entire paycheck on nominations.

It's a little too early in the game to mention any names, but I heard a few of the guys bragging that they had no problem with kissing a pig. (Guys... this is the four-legged kind!) I don't know, but I would be a tad worried... you just never know where that snout has been. And then there's always the question about what the pig has been up to!

I guess I'll have to do a little name dropping here. I'd send out some mental messages, but I don't have a whole lot of mental to spare. I tend to use them up on these goofy contests! OK... I know we don't like to get the youngsters and teenagers involved in this "piggy" business, but how about nominating the teacher who gave you a "D" when you are sure you deserved an "A". Food for thought?

There's always political candidates. But... will Ross, Bill and George travel all the way to Kewaskum just to pick up a dozen or so votes. Probably. Besides, we don't want them kissing our pig and then our babies... YUCK!

How about the umpire who called your kid out simply because some hot shot in centerfield caught his pop fly? Or your neighbor from down the block who has trained his dog to do a number on your back lawn?

Like I said, I really don't care to drop any names, but have you taken a good look in the mirror and seen the last haircut Richard gave you? There's always your boss. Of course, if you're as nice a boss as I am, you don't have to worry about it. (Right, girls?... RIGHT, GIRLS???)

Well, I've given you enough clues for this week. Now take pen in hand and jump to it! Because I'm not sharing my secret candidate's names until I have at least thirty of them. So keep those cards and letters coming in folks, or it will be rather difficult voting for these people when you only know their initials. Besides that, I'm a woman... it drives me crazy to have to keep a secret this long without blabbing. Come on... twist my arm! Have mercy on my sanity... send me some candidates!

Initials of those already pig-puckered are: L.M., T.E., T.M., C.T., J.E., S.B., J.T., T.B. and G.E.

HINT OF THE WEEK: Ladies... DO NOT, I repeat, DO NOT

nominate your husbands. Think about it! If your "better half" (ha!) wins, who do you figure gets to take care of "el piggio"? You got it! Not to mention the fact that when our little pink friend grows up into spanferkel, guess who gets to prepare dinner for 50 or so close pals?

Nominate your brother-in-law or your next-door neighbor. That way you still get to eat spanferkel, but you only have to make a dish of Jello. Better yet, nominate relatives from out of town. That way you'll get to go to their house (with all the kids, of course) for the entire weekend. Ah... a mini-vacation! Sorry Sheri... consider yourself nominated! (Could I do that to my own dear sister? YOU BET I COULD!)

Of course, nominating your son is always another option. I figure if one of my sons wins, I'd just toss the pig into his bedroom and let the chips fall where they may. Dumb pig would probably feel right at home.

Stoltzmann, Groeschel Attend State Fire Chiefs Conference

On June 26-28, Bob Stoltzmann and Mark Groeschel of the Kewaskum Fire Department, took part in the annual conference of the Wisconsin State Fire Chiefs Association in LaCrosse. The conference attracted chief fire officers from throughout the State of Wisconsin.

The highlight of the conference was an appearance by Governor Tommy Thompson during the conference's opening ceremonies.

Other featured speakers included Al Kirschner, Superintendent of the National Fire Academy. His presentation provided Wisconsin's fire service leaders an overview of how the Federal fire programs can assist efforts at the local level. Workshops provided attendees the opportunity to study topics ranging from protecting responders against blood borne pathogens, to response planning requirements for hazardous manufacturing processes. In addition, the state's largest display of fire related apparatus, equipment and services provided the opportunity for chief officers to research the latest that technology has to offer fire protection.

President James Franke reported that the association was an active participant in many projects during the past year. Most notable being the legislative activity involving Regional Hazardous Materials Response Team, and the Uniform Multi-Family Dwelling Bill.

The conference, which was held at the LaCrosse Center, is an annual event directed at assisting fire chiefs in protecting the local community against fire and other emergencies.

Candles

the candles on the Celebration Cake are used to fund Kettle Kountry Kolors. The festival this year is featuring many new ideas including Native American storytellers who will share their customs and heritage with the audience through song, dance and legend.

Another new feature this year will be the children's activity center which will house lots of fun things to do for children of all ages. Preliminary plans include a clown/magician, a puppeteer and a storyteller. There will also be things for the children to see and make.

However, none of these things are possible without financial assistance from the community. Remember, all these features at Kettle Kountry Kolors are designed for your enjoyment and come to you free of charge.

Show your support by donating a candle... if not this month, reserve one for next month! The coupon was printed in the June 25th edition of the Kewaskum Statesman or you can pick one up at the front desk of the Statesman.

Thanks for your support!

Valley Bank Introduces Telecommunications Device for the Deaf and Hearing Impaired

Valley Bancorporation announced the introduction of a new telecommunications device for the deaf and hearing impaired (TDD).

Valley's TDD service allows people who are deaf or hearing impaired to use the telephone to talk with their banker. To use a TDD, a person types messages on the keyboard and reads the conversation on a display screen.

Valley customers around the state can use the TDD service by calling 1-800-236-8823. The service which will become available on July 1, is monitored by a trained representative during the hours of 8:00 a.m. through 8:00 p.m., seven days a week. Bank personnel who will operate the equipment have also been schooled to understand the codes and abbreviations used by deaf and hearing impaired people and the etiquette involved in communicating through a TDD.

According to information provided by the Regional Office of the Hearing Impaired in Madison, Wisconsin, there are 300,000 people in Wisconsin who are hearing impaired 40,000 of whom are deaf and need to rely on interpreters or written communications.

Chairmaine Ponkrantz, Vice President Marketing, Valley Bancorporation said, "We look at the TDD as a win-win situation. For the deaf and hearing impaired person it means a source of communication independence. For Valley, it gives our bankers the opportunity to communicate with the 40,000 customers we currently are not talking with by phone."

Consumers can purchase a TDD telephone unit for a very affordable price. Some units start as low as $200 with the price increasing with the number of additional features that are included. Most models are easy to use and completely portable for those individuals that travel.

Valley Bank is an affiliate of Valley Bancorporation, the third largest bank holding company headquartered in Wisconsin. Valley, with assets of $3.9 billion, currently serves Wisconsin through 137 banking offices with additional financial service companies engaged in trust, insurance, brokerage, leasing, credit card servicing and bank support services. The company's common stock is traded on the National Market System under the NASDAQ symbol VYBN.

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM ★ NEWS NOTES ★

The Village Board would like to remind the residents of the Village of a topic covered in the Village's Municipal Code. The topic is covered in Chapter 10, Public Nuisances, we shall refer to this problem as a health hazard. The Village has undertaken several steps to improve the clearwater (storm water) discharge in the entire community, but yet people are not cooperating. We find that people cut their grass and catch it just to dump it in a designated clearwater collection point to help plug up and eventually cause water to back up during certain times of the year. The Village would ask that all residents keep their grass clippings and leaves away from the catch basins in the curb area. Also, to refrain from dumping their grass clippings and leaves in ditched areas.

TV Winners, Expanded Home Player Drawing Highlight New Magic Double Moola Game

MADISON... More than 500 TV Winners, an expanded Home Player drawing, the popular "Doubler" feature and instant cash prizes of up to $1,000 are highlights of the newest Wisconsin Lottery instant scratch and win game MAGIC DOUBLE MOOLA.

MAGIC DOUBLE MOOLA, which made its initial appearance at more than 5,000 Wisconsin Lottery retail locations during the week of July 6, offers players a chance to be a TV winner which pays a $100 cash prize instantly along with an invitation to attend a taping of the weekly MONEY GAME television show.

At the MONEY GAME show, TV winners win additional cash prizes ranging from a minimum of $400 up to $64,500.

Meanwhile, the start of MAGIC DOUBLE MOOLA sales means Home Player Drawing entrants have an increased chance to win a prize.

The Lottery will award special Lottery jackets to each of the five Home Players winning cash prizes of $750 to $3,000 each week and will give jackets to an additional 45 Home Player entrants on a weekly basis for nine weeks, beginning with the July 10th drawing.

"We're asking Home Player entrants to put their jackets size, M-L-XL, on the same ticket they have written their name, address and telephone number, so we can send the winners their jackets promptly," Lottery Executive Director William F. Flynn Jr., explained.

"We are using the jacket drawing to reward loyal Home Players over the next several weeks," Flynn added.

To enter the weekly Home Player drawing, send five non-winning Wisconsin Lottery instant scratch tickets from any current game, including MAGIC DOUBLE MOOLA to: HOME PLAYER, MADISON, WI 53775.

MAGIC DOUBLE MOOLA players win by matching three dollar amounts on a single ticket.

Matching three TV symbols on a single ticket wins $100 instantly and a trip to a MONEY GAME television show taping at a later date.

Matching two like dollar amounts and a "Doubler" symbol (a top hat) doubles the prize, so two $500s and a "Doubler" on a single ticket wins $1,000 ($500 doubled).

"Wisconsin Lottery players really go for the Moola games. It seems like when we put the Moola Sisters on a ticket, players immediately recognize the game as one with TV winners, and ticket sales are very strong.

"I've been hearing recently from players who have taken the time to remind me that they especially enjoy instant scratch and win games and the TV Winner prize.

"We've packed a number of very popular features into MAGIC DOUBLE MOOLA, which is why I expect that these tickets will sell so well, our warehouse supplies will disappear," Flynn predicted.

Excerpts From 'As I Remember'

By Marvin Martin

Our lives were far different than today. The cooking was done in the homes usually on wood or coal stoves. Our bathroom facilities were in our back yard. We lighted our homes primarily with kerosene lamps or lanterns and sometimes by candlelight. Families that used milk went to the farms and carried their pail of milk. The first bottled milk was produced at the Habeck farm in back of St. Lucas cemetery.

Road taxes could be worked off by working with your teams and wagons on the road, or by shoveling or raking. There was one person in charge who would set the time on which this was to be done. At this time they would gather at one of the pits of gravel that was in the vicinity and the work was primarily done by hand. They would have a lunch break at which time they would have a keg of beer and some sausage and bread.

It wasn't until the 1920s that we saw hard surface roads.

In leaving Kewaskum, we did not have the overhead on the north end. We had to cross the tracks which came out near Reigle Drive. These roads were not easy to follow going from one area to another. To West Bend we went south on 45 to the area where the "Welcome to Kewaskum" sign is and then crossed the track and again came out down near Mill Tool and kept wandering around to get to West Bend.

We had many trains in the area and for 28 cents, could get a round trip ticket to West Bend, and we could go south or north many times a day. For 78 cents we could go to Milwaukee and back, leaving in the morning and getting back about 10 o'clock at night.

Diet and Exercise Help to Control Childrens' Weight

The best exercise to include in a weight-control program is to push yourself away from the table... true or false?

For children, the answer probably is false. They need to get up and turn off the television.

Studies show that excessive television viewing contributes to obesity in children, because it encourages physical inactivity and reinforces consumption of calorie-laden foods that have little nutritional value.

Obesity in children is difficult to measure, because their rates of growth and development vary. Given time, a child who appears to be overweight may "grow into" his or her weight. But as he approaches adolescence, if a child consistently falls above the 95th percentile on the pediatrician's weight charts, he is at risk for becoming an obese adult... which places him at risk for a variety of health problems, including coronary heart disease, hypertension and diabetes.

Obesity is the result of consuming more calories than are burned. But that doesn't mean children should be placed on low-calorie diets, registered dietitians at Dairy Council of Wisconsin (DCW) caution.

Children need calories for energy, growth and development. For children, ages 7-10, the Recommended Dietary Allowance (RDA) is 2,000 calories a day. Boys, ages 11-14, need 2,500 calories a day; at ages 15-18, boys need 3,000 calories. The RDA for girls ages 11-18 is 2,200 calories a day.

To ensure a healthful diet, these calories should come from a variety of foods from the basic food groups... three to four servings of milk, cheese and other dairy products; two servings of meat or meat alternatives such as eggs or legumes; two servings of fruits; three servings of vegetables; and six servings of breads and cereals. These may be eaten as snacks as well as at mealtimes.

In addition to a balanced diet, DCW registered dietitians recommend that children exercise regularly... a minimum of 20-25 minutes at least three times a week. Sedentary activities such as watching television or playing video games should be limited to one or two hours per day.

School-age children are forming many of the attitudes and habits they will have throughout life. Therefore, it's important that parents set a good example by providing a nutritionally balanced diet and encouraging regular physical activity.

Dairy Council of Wisconsin (DCW) is a non-profit nutrition and marketing association whose work in Wisconsin, northern Illinois and northwestern Indiana is made possible through funds provided by dairy farmers.

Dairy Council Reminder: 'It's Summertime and the Livin' Is Easy'

The sunny, summer months are ideal for escaping a hot kitchen and packing a cool, light meal to enjoy outdoors with family and friends. But summer's higher temperatures require extra planning in the choice and storage of picnic food, say Dairy Council of Wisconsin nutrition experts. Smart picnickers will select cool, nutritious foods and snacks that tote easily and store well in portable coolers.

Good choices for healthful but convenient, easily packed foods include:

- *String cheese and cheese cubes, no-mess finger foods that store easily.

- *Pudding or blended yogurt in sealed, individual snack-size cartons. These can be frozen and used to keep other foods cold. Let them thaw, or eat as a cool, frozen treat.

- *Fresh fruits and vegetables, for dipping in yogurt dressings packed in airtight containers.

- *Individual cartons of cold unflavored or chocolate milk that store easily.

- *Tossed salads topped with cheese strips.

- *Bagels spread with cream cheese, including the more festive pineapple and strawberry varieties.

Heavily insulated coolers provide safer storage than less expensive, foam coolers. Keep the cooler in the shade, and open it as few times as possible.

County Criminal Justice Seminar

The Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County presented a Community Education Seminar entitled, THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM on June 23, at the City of Hartford Common Council Chambers.

The purpose of the program was to bring together key figures representing a variety of Criminal Justice agencies to address their specific roles within the system, particularly as they pertain to the intoxicated driver or alcohol use among juveniles. This initiative was in response to one of the three top concerns addressed by the Washington County Prevention Planning Council last November regarding legal consistency.

The panel consisted of Lawrence Waddick, Washington County Circuit Court Judge; Daryl Laatsch, Washington County Municipal Judge; J. Dennis Thornton, Washington County District Attorney; Chief of Police James Skidmore, City of West Bend; Thomas Froehlich, Juvenile Office, West Bend Police Department; Lt. Jed Dolnick, Washington County Sheriff's Department Juvenile Intake Worker; Sgt. Thomas Jones, Hartford Police Department; Trooper Glenn Haroldson, Wisconsin State Patrol, and James Scheele, OWI Assessor from the Council on AODA. The Moderator was Bill Skadden of Channel 21 Cable TV.

Prior to the event, the Council had solicited some questions from key members of the community. Invited members of the audience representing human service agencies, schools and concerned parents also directed questions to the panel. Not only were the individual positions on each issue explained, but the reality of legislative barriers and societal attitudes were addressed.

The program was video taped and will be distributed to all Washington County Public Libraries, High Schools, and Cable TV systems. A copy will also be available at the Council on AODA of Washington County, 279 South 17th Avenue, Suite 4, West Bend.

The Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County is a private, not-for-profit agency whose mission is to encourage the awareness and promotion of healthy life styles within the community.

Veterans Service Officer Completes Training Session

WEST BEND... Richard W. Baker completed a training session in Eau Claire, May 12th to 15th, held in conjunction with the spring conference of the Wisconsin CVSO Association.

The purpose of the workshop was to provide information on changes in State and Federal programs. Veterans programs, which once were relatively stable, are now undergoing considerable change.

State Officials conducted workshops outlining changes in home loans and education grants available through the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, as well as admission policies for the Wisconsin Veterans Home at King. Representatives from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) discussed modifications in Medicare and vocational rehabilitation programs.

The training session also enables CVSO's to maintain their accreditation as legal representatives of veterans in matters involving the VA.

In his address to the conference, Raymond G. Boland, secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, said that CVSO's are the vital link between veterans and government agencies. He added that the CVSO's are a tremendous economic resource for local governments because the amount of veterans' benefits they bring into their countries far exceeds their salaries and administrative expenses.

With the planned cuts in military personnel, the mission of CVSO's will become even more critical, according to Boland. "These new veterans have the discipline and desire to succeed in civilian life, but some may lack marketable job skills. The CVSO's will play a vital role in helping those who must leave military service, get the training and education they need to get a job," he said.

The IRS estimates that fewer than one percent of tax returns will be audited in 1992.

Wartime Vets May Get 7.4% Home Loans

WEST BEND — The new interest rate for the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs' (WDVA) Primary Mortgage Home Loan Program has been set at 7.4 percent. The 7.4 percent interest rate also applies to WDVA home improvement loans.

Because these primary mortgage home loans to veterans are financed through the sale of $30 million in state general obligation bonds, the WDVA Home Loan Program is completely self-supporting and requires no state tax funds.

Interested veterans should contact their county veterans service office, or Washington County Veterans Service Office, 335-4457 for a list of approved lenders, information on the availability of WDVA mortgage funds, and other details about the WDVA Home Loan Program.

Summer Can Be Time To Bring Family Together

As the summer season begins, many people plan activities to bring their families together — picnics, cookouts, vacations.

But families can strengthen their relationships without leaving their living rooms this summer, according to Trisha Day, UW-Extension 4-H youth development specialist.

"Research from UW-Madison and elsewhere shows that the strongest families have several common traits," Day said.

"They know how to communicate and make decisions, they care about each other, they are proud of each other, but also have ties to the extended family and the community. Families can enhance these strengths with a few simple activities. They don't have to travel 2,000 miles together in a car on an extended vacation to benefit."

Day said knowing how to communicate is a first step. It doesn't mean talking as much as listening to what other family members say. Parents' actions should correspond with their verbal messages.

"The same goes for spouses. Sometimes we get too wrapped up in making time for our children to make time for each other. If necessary, schedule some time alone together to talk about each other's goals and needs."

Some family activities that can create better communication emphasize "I" messages. Day said criticizing, blaming or finding fault with family members usually causes resentment and can lead to fights. It's more constructive to describe how you feel about the things that are bugging you and what you want to be done about it.

Decision-making skills show that family members know how to share power and include everyone in choices and responsibilities. An activity to build a sense of shared responsibility is the "10-minute pick-up."

"Each family member is assigned to a part of the house that needs cleaning," Day said.

"You set an oven timer, that each person cleans as quickly and efficiently as they can for 10 minutes. It's not a huge time investment, and everyone is amazed at what gets done."

Demonstrating to family members how each feels about the others can be a challenge.

"It's easier to find fault and dwell on the negative, rather than offering encouragement and honest praise," Day said.

"But kids — and parents — need to know that they are loved for who they are, not how much they accomplish. A child needs to know he or she doesn't have to be a super athlete or scholar."

Finally, Day said healthy families enjoy being together, but also have strong ties to extended family members and the community.

Some other activities she suggested for building these strengths this summer include:

— Family quizzes. Draw up a list of likes and dislikes for your child, then try to fill in the answers. Try to name their best friend, least favorite chore, which movie star they want to meet and why, what they like to do on Friday nights. Draw up a similar set of questions to test your knowledge about your spouse.

— Family Fun-Raiser. Ask each member to list ideas for activities they can do together, including free activities and events that cost money. Share ideas and draw up a final list, discussing how the family will pay for events that cost money. Schedule the final list on your calendar.

— Anytime Games for car travel. "I'm Thinking" lets someone think of an object, then give a clue — its color or where it's found. The next person asks 10 questions that can be answered yes or no to try to guess what the object is.

These activities and others are available in the UW-Extension publication "Family Ties". For more information, contact the Washington County Cooperative Extension office at 335-4479.

Sen. Stitt Requests Federal Assistance For State Farmers

MADISON... State Senator Donald K. Stitt (R-Port Washington) has asked the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to open up emergency assistance for the Wisconsin farmers hit hard by poor weather.

In a June 24, 1992 letter to Agriculture Secretary Ed Madigan, Stitt, along with 28 other state legislators, cited frost damage and drought-like conditions as having "taken a toll on the state's agriculture."

"Cold weather and lack of rainfall have combined to create a severe situation for Wisconsin farmers," Stitt said. "The potential damage this year could match that of the 1988 drought."

Stitt urged Secretary Madigan to consider giving Wisconsin farmers greater access to the federal Emergency Feed Program, access to the Total Crop Loss Assistance Program, lower prices on Credit Commodity Corporation Corn (CCC) and greater flexibility to open up Conservation Reserve Set-aside land (CRP).

"Access to these programs will go a long way toward alleviating some of the damage incurred by this year's poor weather," Stitt said. "I'm hopeful Secretary Madigan will understand the magnitude of our situation and respond accordingly."

MEMORIAM

In memory of Adeline Tessar who passed away fourteen years ago, July 3, 1978:

The tide recedes but leaves behind
Bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth
Still lingers on the land.

The music stops, and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains.
For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains.

I still love you, Mom...

Dan

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Ferdinand Weiland who passed away July 14, 1986:

They say time heals all sorrow.
And helps us to forget
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.
But what it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.

Sadly missed by wife Lucy and family.

Lehman Announces Candidacy for Re-Election

HARTFORD... Representative Michael A. Lehman (R-Hartford) has recently announced his candidacy for re-election in the State Assembly.

Lehman currently represents the 59th Assembly District. New boundaries for Wisconsin's legislative districts were done to comply with shifts in population that were determined by the 1990 Census. Under the final redistricting map unveiled recently by the three-judge federal panel, Lehman will now be seeking office in the 58th Assembly District.

Areas included in this new district are: DODGE COUNTY - a) Town of Rubicon; b) village of Neosho; and c) city of Hartford (located in the county).

OZAUKEE COUNTY - a) Town of Cedarburg (wards 1, 2, 3, 6 and 7; and b) the city of Cedarburg.

WASHINGTON COUNTY - a) Towns of Addison, Hartford, Jackson, Polk (wards 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6), Trenton and West Bend; b) villages of Jackson and Slinger; and c) city of Hartford (located in the county).

Lehman stated several goals he would like to work towards and address during his third term. One goal is educational reform, not only the needs of the education system, but also possible alternatives for financing education.

"I will also be working with my constituents to see that the state be required to periodically go to a zero-based budget so all programs can be reviewed and stand on their own merit," stated Lehman.

Lehman stands committed to be available for communication with local government officials and residents of the district as to their support or opposition to proposed legislation.

"Communication with the residents of the 59th district has always been appreciated and valuable during my decision making on the floor of the Assembly," said Lehman. Lehman further noted that by working together, we can keep individuals, the communities and the state financially stable.

Residents of the 59th Assembly District's concerns will still be addressed by Lehman until January 4, 1993, even though he will be campaigning in the new 58th Assembly District.

Lehman and his wife, Mary-Ellen, will be doing grass roots campaigning by going door-to-door. By doing so, they hope to familiarize themselves with the concerns of the new 58th district and gain the support of the people in the upcoming fall elections.

If you would like to contact Representative Lehman, his address is: 1317 Honeysuckle Road, Hartford, 53027 or you can reach him at his office at 414-673-7979.

Cap Your Chimney!

The Washington County Humane Society urges all homeowners to cap their chimneys now, before wild animals move in. Cavity-nesting wild animals, both birds and mammals, are exploring hollow cavities for potential homes to raise their young.

Since there are few dead, hollow trees left standing to provide natural nesting cavities, these animals are forced to resort to other structures resembling their preferred nesting sites. Chimneys, unscreened vents, and rotting wood on the sides of human homes are common target areas for homeless wildlife.

Starlings, house sparrows, various species of wood peckers, American kestrels, and screech owls are the most common cavity-nesting birds that can take up residence with humans. You can encourage these birds to stay away from your home by offering a nesting box mounted in a tree. Nature centers and libraries have blueprints for the appropriately sized box, suitable for the species with which you are dealing.

Cavity nesting mammals commonly include bats, squirrels and raccoons. You can discourage these animals from nesting in your home by trimming tree limbs, capping your chimney, screening all vents with hardware cloth, and keeping the siding and overhangings of your house and garage in good repair.

For more information, please call the Washington County Humane Society at 677-4388.

Senator Stitt Announces Candidacy

Port Washington...Citing his record of providing solutions to Wisconsin's tough challenges without raising taxes and his continued commitment to education, Don Stitt has announced his candidacy for the 20th Senate District.

Stitt said he intends to run a personal, door-to-door campaign in Ozaukee, Washington and Sheboygan counties that will concentrate on the important issues facing district residents.

"I will be knocking on a lot of doors and talking to many of the people who sent me to be their strong, independent voice in Madison," Stitt said.

"People want to talk about real issues like jobs, taxes and education, not just meet some gladiator at a fish-fry or a bag of hot air on the campaign trail."

A father of four, Stitt said he intends to make education reform his top issue next January if elected.

"The single most important issue facing Wisconsin is our children and their education," Stitt said.

"We need to ensure that our schools provide a caring environment in which our young men and women can receive an education that will allow them to compete in the global economy of the next century."

Stitt said he intends to "continue fighting on behalf of our students and parents."

"This has been a tough order to fill, but I'm confident that I have been doing that for the people I represent and I will continue to do so," Stitt said.

"Our campaign will focus on the need for the State Legislature to address the issues of education and welfare reform and the dangerous expansion of gambling in our state without impairing our ability to raise our families."

Stitt received his undergraduate degree from UW-Madison, a law degree from Marquette University and a Masters in Tax Law from Georgetown Law Center.

He was formerly a Port Washington School Board member, a Washington County Assistant District Attorney and stock broker.

"Anyone who has questions regarding my position on any issue, please contact me in Port Washington at 414-284-4455."

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

FACTS FROM THE FOREST SERVICE,
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Trees Save Energy

If you're a homeowner, here's an energy saving idea that should take root with you: plant trees! USDA Forest Service experts say that strategically placed trees can be as effective as other energy saving home improvements, such as insulation and the installation of weather-tight windows and doors.

The Forest Service offers these tips to homeowners wishing to save energy costs by planting trees:

- Strategically-placed shade trees—a minimum of three large trees around your home—can reduce air conditioning costs up to 30 percent. Plant deciduous trees, which shed their leaves during winter. These trees provide shade and block heat from the sun during the hotter months. By dropping their leaves in fall they admit sunlight in the colder months. Place these trees on the south and west sides of your home. Shade all hard surfaces such as driveways, patios and sidewalks to minimize landscape heat load.

- Use evergreens, which retain their leaves/needles yearlong, in a planned pattern. They will serve as windbreaks to save from ten to 50 percent in energy used for heating. Evergreens offer their best benefits when you place them to intercept winter winds, usually on the north side of your home. Do not plant them on the south or west sides of your home, because they block warming sunlight during winter. These trees also provide some shading benefits during summer.

For more information on America The Beautiful and urban and community forestry programs and how you can become involved, contact your State Forester or your County Extension Office.

Hahn Receives Top Honors

DAVID HAHN

Winner of 1992 Member Service Representative Award, East Central/Select Sires

East Central/Select Sires recently honored David Hahn of Campbellsport, as the 1992 Member Service Representative of the Year. This is the second consecutive year Dave Hahn has received this prestigious award. According to the cooperative's Director of Marketing Tom Anderson, during Dave's 17-year tenure with East Central/Select Sires (EC/SS) he serviced over 40,000 first service cows and expanded his customer base.

Dave Hahn, a professional Artificial Insemination (A.I.) technician, serves Washington and Ozaukee counties and works with over 160 dairy producers. To earn the award, he excelled in seven important job areas including sales growth, total sales volume, credit management and special service programs offered by East Central/Select Sires. Dave ranked first out of 40 East Central/Select Sires technicians.

Affectionately known as "Rooster" by friends and fellow employees, Dave has a reputation for going the extra mile to serve his customers, says Anderson. "Dave works very hard and proves that he loves his job. He commits 100 percent to helping his customers improve their herds and increase their profits. Dave is the kind of person any company would want working for them. He has the people skills, cow knowledge and true appreciation for what his people need. That's what makes him a winner and one of the best in the business," comments Anderson.

Upon accepting the award, Dave praised his wife, Eileen, and children, Lynn and Brian, for their support and understanding. "My family deserves to share this honor. They tolerate a great deal because my job requires me to work seven days a week. Thanks go to Eileen for keeping everything running smoothly on the home front," added Dave.

East Central/Select Sires is a professional, artificial breeding cooperative serving dairy and livestock producers in southern Wisconsin. As a member-owner of Select Sires located near Plain City, Ohio, East Central helps make up the largest Artificial Insemination (A.I.) cooperative in the world.

Mrs. Gregor Weis of near Elmore was injured last week when she fell off a tractor she was driving and out of a barn door on to the ground, a distance of about nine feet. The tractor also toppled through the door and fell to the ground below. The accident occurred on the Weis farm while Mrs. Weis and her husband were hauling hay. She sustained a fractured arm, several broken ribs and painful bruises. The tractor became out of control when Mrs. Weis was driving it into the barn and it went right through. Mrs. Weis was thrown clear when the front wheels of the tractor dropped through the barn door and the machine followed.

After the general business of the Joint School District No.5's annual meeting was transacted Monday evening, Clerk L.D. Guth read a letter from the State Superintendent of Schools, dated December 2, 1916, stating it would be advisable for the district to have electric lights installed in the school building as same could not be properly lighted on dark days. Also that the district make preparations for the building of a new school house, the present one being too small for the number of students attending. It is probable that a special meeting will be called in the near future to discuss matters as to what preparations can be made for the building of a new school house.

Please bring to the library Tuesday or Saturday afternoons any old sheets, pillow cases, turkish towels, table linens and worn spreads that you have no use for. ## Wayne Elementary Seeking Donations To Fund Library

Wayne Elementary is a small rural school nestled in the rolling farmland of southeastern Wisconsin. Many of the youngsters are still sons and daughters of farmers struggling to make a living here in these midwestern surroundings. There is a total enrollment of 133 students in kindergarten thru grade five with a teaching staff of six teachers and five specialists.

Like so many schools across the nation, the Kewaskum School District is finding it very difficult to provide adequate funding for the school library. In an attempt to meet the basic needs of the students, Wayne Elementary School is promoting a special "Read With The Stars" auction.

It is hoped that you will be willing to make a cash donation or donate books or any other item that could be autographed by a celebrity and sold at the auction.

If you would consider such a donation, please contact: Laura Nerad, Wayne Elementary PTO, 9424 Highway W, Campbellsport, WI 53010. Phone: (414)626-8377. It would be appreciated if donations could be received by July 15, 1992.

The reading material may be for adults as well as for children. The proceeds from the auction will be used to purchase additional books, videos, etc. to upgrade the library.

The Wayne Elementary Parent

Teacher Organization wishes to thank you in advance for any item/s you might wish to provide.

Indians 5-0 In Conference Record

Last week started well for Kewaskum's JV Baseball Team as they defeated Sheboygan South 9-3 on Monday in a Central Lakeshore Conference contest to remain undefeated in league play. That would prove to be the lone highlight of the week though as the Indians dropped non-conference games to Sheboygan North 7-6, and New Holstein 9-6.

The Indians blew open Monday's game as they tallied four runs in both the third and fourth innings.

Rob Donath broke a 1-1 tie with an RBI single in the third inning. Mark Strobel later ripped a triple which scored Donath. Dane Dorn's two out bloop single plated two runs to give the Indians a 5-1 lead.

In the fourth inning Dan Survis doubled with one out. After Travis Jacak walked and Donath singled, Chad Muckerheide blasted a grand-slam home run to push the lead to 9-1.

Sheboygan picked up two unearned runs in the sixth inning to account for the final score of 9-3. Dorn pitched a complete game as he walked seven, struck out seven and gave up four hits. Only one of the Sheboygan runs was earned. Strobel led the Indian offense with three hits. Muckerheide and Dorn each collected two hits.

On Tuesday Kevin Klahn made his first pitching appearance of the year and held Sheboygan North hitless until the fifth inning as the Indians took a 6-0 lead.

Klahn yielded his first hit in the fifth inning, but his shut-out bid was still intact with runners at first and second with two outs. Klahn attempted to pick the runner off second base but instead the runner advanced to third when short-stop Cory Rammer dropped the throw. Rammer recovered and threw wildly to first in an attempt to get the other runner. When the dust settled Sheboygan had a run and a runner at second base. Two straight singles brought two more runs across and at the end of the inning Kewaskum's lead had been cut to 6-3.

That lead held until the seventh inning as Sheboygan took advantage of four Indian errors to score four runs. Donath came in to relieve Klahn, and did a fine job as he forced a ground out and recorded two strike outs.

Indian coach Mike Kieser had this to say about the game. "This was a game that we should have won." "Klahn and Donath did a super job on the mound for us, but we just didn't get the job done on defense, especially in the fifth and seventh innings."

Kewaskum's fielding woes continued on Thursday night as New Holstein scored eight times in the second inning to take an 8-1 lead. The Indian defense once again committed four errors in the inning.

Kewaskum got four of those runs back in the third inning. Travis Jacak had an RBI single and Ryan Kurth had a 2 RBI single.

Dorn came on in relief of Donath in the third inning and shut the Huskies down. In four innings he struck out nine and yielded only three hits. The only run New Holstein scored off him was unearned.

With two weeks left in the season the Indians overall record is 8-3, and their conference mark is 5-0. Kieser said, "I'm very happy with how the season has gone thus far. Conceivably we could have won any of the three games we lost, but by the same token we could have lost any of the three one run games that we won." "Our pitching staff led by Dane Dorn has been very strong, and our offense has been steady." "Our number one priority for the rest of the season is to improve our fielding."

Letter to The Editor

Congratulations to Kewaskum on a wonderful fireworks display on July 3rd.

Indians 5-0 In Conference Record

Last week started well for Kewaskum's JV Baseball Team as they defeated Sheboygan South 9-3 on Monday in a Central Lakeshore Conference contest to remain undefeated in league play. That would prove to be the lone highlight of the week though as the Indians dropped non-conference games to Sheboygan North 7-6, and New Holstein 9-6.

The Indians blew open Monday's game as they tallied four runs in both the third and fourth innings.

Rob Donath broke a 1-1 tie with an RBI single in the third inning. Mark Strobel later ripped a triple which scored Donath. Dane Dorn's two out bloop single plated two runs to give the Indians a 5-1 lead.

In the fourth inning Dan Survis doubled with one out. After Travis Jacak walked and Donath singled, Chad Muckerheide blasted a grand-slam home run to push the lead to 9-1.

Sheboygan picked up two unearned runs in the sixth inning to account for the final score of 9-3. Dorn pitched a complete game as he walked seven, struck out seven and gave up four hits. Only one of the Sheboygan runs was earned. Strobel led the Indian offense with three hits. Muckerheide and Dorn each collected two hits.

On Tuesday Kevin Klahn made his first pitching appearance of the year and held Sheboygan North hitless until the fifth inning as the Indians took a 6-0 lead.

Klahn yielded his first hit in the fifth inning, but his shut-out bid was still intact with runners at first and second with two outs. Klahn attempted to pick the runner off second base but instead the runner advanced to third when shortstop Cory Rammer dropped the throw. Rammer recovered and threw wildly to first in an attempt to get the other runner. When the dust settled Sheboygan had a run and a runner at second base. Two straight singles brought two more runs across and at the end of the inning Kewaskum's lead had been cut to 6-3.

That lead held until the seventh inning as Sheboygan took advantage of four Indian errors to score four runs. Donath came in to relieve Klahn, and did a fine job as he forced a ground out and recorded two strike outs.

Indian coach Mike Kieser had this to say about the game. "This was a game that we should have won." "Klahn and Donath did a super job on the mound for us, but we just didn't get the job done on defense, especially in the fifth and seventh innings."

Kewaskum's fielding woes continued on Thursday night as New Holstein scored eight times in the second inning to take an 8-1 lead. The Indian defense once again committed four errors in the inning.

Kewaskum got four of those runs back in the third inning. Travis Jacak had an RBI single and Ryan Kurth had a 2 RBI single.

Dorn came on in relief of Donath in the third inning and shut the Huskies down. In four innings he struck out nine and yielded only three hits. The only run New Holstein scored off him was unearned.

With two weeks left in the season the Indians overall record is 8-3, and their conference mark is 5-0. Kieser said, "I'm very happy with how the season has gone thus far. Conceivably we could have won any of the three games we lost, but by the same token we could have lost any of the three one run games that we won." "Our pitching staff led by Dane Dorn has been very strong, and our offense has been steady." "Our number one priority for the rest of the season is to improve our fielding."

Warmer Temperatures Can Spell Increase in Food-Borne Illness

Spring and Summer's social calendar often includes weddings, parties and picnics. But the combination of warmer weather and outdoor meals can also mean increased risk of illness from careless food preparation.

"Many cases of 24-hour flu are actually caused by improper food preparation or storage, Joyce Albrecht, Extension Home Economist at the University of Wisconsin Extension-Washington County.

"Most protein foods and cut-up food mixtures support bacteria growth. Even a fruit salad can be a problem if the cutting board was dirty, or if the fruit wasn't washed."

One in five reported cases of food-borne illness comes from homecooked dishes. But Albrecht said only one in every ten illnesses caused by food is reported.

As a rule, cooked foods can be kept safely at 150 degrees Fahrenheit or hotter, but no more than four hours. Cold dishes should be nestled in crushed ice.

Foods should be kept at room temperature no more than two hours. If the day is hot or the food is in the sun, the time should be even less.

Large amounts of food cooked ahead for a picnic or party must be quick-chilled in a sink of ice and water before it goes in the refrigerator. Small amounts of food can be refrigerated without quick-chilling.

Albrecht said many people believe myths about food-borne illness still exist. For example, they think mayonnaise-based salads are a hazard because of the mayonnaise.

"But mayonnaise and other salad dressings have enough acid in them to actually retard food spoilage," she said. "Salads are a hazard because they contain food that has been handled a lot. Small pieces of food are more easily exposed to bacteria because they have a larger surface area."

Salad ingredients also can be contaminated if counters and knives aren't washed after being used for raw meat or poultry.

To ensure safer food, Albrecht offered these preparation and storage tips:

*Wash hands at least 20 seconds with soap before serving or eating food.

*Wash hands, utensils and counters with hot soapy water after handling raw meat or poultry.

*Wash fruits and vegetables with plenty of warm water, even those you will peel. Use a brush for foods with rough or thick skins.

*Always cook foods completely.

*Spread food out in a thin layer to cool in the refrigerator, or pack it in small containers.

*At the grocery store, shop for perishables and frozen foods last. On hot days, bring a cooler to store perishables in your trunk for the drive home.

For more information, the publication "A Quick Guide to Safe Food Handling" (BG248) is available at the Washington County Cooperative Extension Office, or call the Washington County home economist at 334-4479, 644-5204 or 342-2929.

Another E.W.S.C.A. Feature for Goeden

Don Goeden of Kewaskum wins the 1992 Ed Foy Mid-Season Championship for the Eastern Wisconsin Stock Car Association.

Don Goeden of Kewaskum scored his second modified feature win in as many weeks earning him the 1992 Ed Foy Mid-Season Championship for the Eastern Wisconsin Stock Car Association.

At the start of the 40 lap feature West Bend's Jay Schneider, Columbus's John Hoch and Plymouth's Chuck Melis led the way until the third lap when front row starter Pete Ostrowski experienced mechanical problems and stalled on the backstretch.

On the green, Hoch jumped out in front with Melis and Schneider right behind. Melis would drop out seven laps later. While Hoch began to stretch out his lead West Bend's Frank Heimerl, Newburg's Terry Chesak, and Goeden began to move through the pack.

The second yellow flag of the race came out on lap 17 for Milwaukee's Joey Gish and Cato's Chuck Tuschl's spin on turn four. Both drivers were able to continue racing.

With Hoch's quarter lap lead gone Heimerl and Chesak and Juneau's Randy Butler began to apply pressure to the leader. Two laps later, Gish and Schneider collided in turn four, causing Schneider to flip his car and bringing out another yellow. Heimerl moved on the track to avoid the mishap, causing him to spin in the loose dirt and touch the outside wall.

Heimerl was able to continue and finished fifth. On the next restart, Gish again had trouble in turn four only this time, with Sheboygan Falls' Richard Hed, causing Hed to flip his car.

On the last restart, Hoch held on to his lead with Chesak, Goeden and Heimerl in pursuit. Goeden took the lead two laps later (on the twenty-ninth lap of the 40 lap feature event), and stayed in front for the checkered flag. Hoch finished second, Randy Butler was third and Joey Gish finished fourth.

Indians Walk Past Panthers; Remain in First

By Statesman Sports Writer

PLYMOUTH — To register just three hits and still win a baseball game that decided first place in a conference, a team probably needed some help. Plymouth provided that help here, last Monday night.

In a game that had a great bearing on the Eastern Wisconsin Conference baseball race, Plymouth pitchers walked nine Kewaskum batters in the final two innings, helping the Indians to overtake the Panthers, and record a 6-4 victory.

The win upped the Indians' EW-leading record to 9-3, while second-place Plymouth dropped to 9-5, with just one week to go in the regular season.

Things didn't look all that pro-missing for the Indians until the latter stages of the contest. With the Indians down 2-1 in the sixth though, Panther starter Benji Lisowe walked Chad Cook and Scott Donath. Brad Weinreich followed with a single, scoring Cook, and Lisowe was pulled in favor of Matt Noordyk.

Noordyk struggled through, walking Shawn Schneider and Aaron Rettler to force in the go-ahead run.

But Schneider was unable to hold the lead, as Plymouth came right back in the bottom half of the inning. Tony Miller doubled to start the rally, and he came around to score on Jason Eigenberger's single. After a forceout erased Eigenberger, a passed ball and wild pitch sent Shawn Meyer to third, and he later came around to score on a double steal, making it 4-3 Panthers.

But once again, the Panthers couldn't hold on. After a pair of walks, Donath came through with a run-scoring double, tying the game. Another walk loaded the bases, and then two more free passes forced in the winning runs.

Despite rapping out just three hits, the Indians took advantage of three Panthers errors, as well as Schneider's fine pitching. The senior righthander gave up just six hits in the contest, and got some help in the field from Cook, who made three outstanding catches in leftfield. Cook also drove in the first Indian run with a sacrifice fly in the third.

Kewaskum Athletes in Badger State Games

Several Kewaskum athletes participated in the Badger State Games Track and Field Championships in Madison the weekend of June 27th and 28th. Two of the Kewaskum High School athletes were very successful.

Brad Jackson won a gold medal in the Intermediate pole vault competition. Brad, who will be a junior at Kewaskum High School, vaulted 12' 0" on Saturday for 1st place.

David Gosa won a silver medal in the Intermediate 1,500 meter run on Saturday with a time of 4:27.0 - almost three seconds faster than his time at the West Bend Regional Qualifier. David, who will be a sophomore at KHS, also ran the 800m run finishing 6th.

Jeff Dirmeier took 4th place in the Young Division of the 1,500 meter run with a time of 4:37.2. Jeff will be a senior at KHS this fall.

Chrissy Neuman took 10th in the 1500 meter run with a 5:59.2.

Jake Thull long jumped very well but did not quite make it into the finals. Karla Kirst triple jumped but also missed making it into the finals.

Also competing was Katie Gosa in the Midget Division 400m dash and Colleen Gosa in the Bantam division 200m and 400m dashes.

Also competing in the midget division 400m relay were Jesse Boegel, Jason Strobel, Curt and Chris Koth. Jesse, Jason and Chris also completed in 100m dash. Jason was in the 200m dash, Chris in the 800 meter hurdles and Curt in the 800m run.

The father was royally outfitted in complete fishing regalia including a hat with his fishing license prominently displayed on the side. After some hours of fruitless casting his small son said to him, "Daddy, why don't you turn your hat around so the fish can see your license?"

Strong Pitching Helps KHS Sweep Huskies

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM - At the beginning of the season, Kewaskum Indians baseball coach Tom Bartelt pointed to his pitching staff as the team's strong suit. Senior veterans Shawn Schneider and Chad Cook have done nothing to indicate differently.

The 1-2 punch of Schneider and Cook came through again here, last Thursday, as both pitched in the Indians' doubleheader with New Holstein. Schneider three-hit the Huskies in the opener, a 3-1 Kewaskum win, while Cook did nearly as well, in helping the Indians take the nightcap, 5-2.

Schneider had things going his way in the opener, striking out eight Husky batters while not allowing a single walk. Until the guests put up back to back hits in scoring their run in the seventh, the senior righthander didn't allow a single runner to reach second base.

"He pitched a real good game," Bartelt said of Schneider, who moved to 6-3 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. "He only gave up one hit until the seventh inning."

The Indians, meanwhile, put their three runs on the board right off the bat. A double by Randy Schlice and a single by Cook put runners on first and third in the bottom of the first. A single by Scott Donath scored Schlice, and Cook scored when Donath's courtesy runner, Pat McFadden stole second on a double steal.

Schneider helped himself out, driving in the final run with a single to score McFadden.

After collecting those four hits in the first, the Indians dropped off offensively, collecting just two more hits the rest of the game.

The story was somewhat the same in the second game, although the Indians did find themselves down, 1-0, as the Huskies scored on Jerrod Steffes RBI double in the second.

That's the way it stayed until the Indians batted in the fourth. Once again, Kewaskum came up with a three-run inning, as Brad Weinreich and Schneider singled, while Jason Krahn and Matt Schlosser added run-scoring doubles.

After the Huskies tallied one in the sixth to make it 3-2, the Indians came right back in the bottom half of the inning. Three walks, an error, and a perfect suicide squeeze by Kim Marx pushed two more runs across, giving the Indians some breathing room in the final inning.

"They started to hit Cook at the end there," Bartelt said of his southpaw's effort, which lasted five and a third innings. Cook gave up six hits, while striking out six and walking two. Matt Schlosser finished up for the Indians, giving up a pair of hits.

The twin wins helped the Indians maintain their lead in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. The Indians moved to 11-3 in the EW, one-and-one-half games ahead of second-place Plymouth, with just four games to play.

After hosting Chilton on Monday, the Indians had just a doubleheader at Sheboygan Falls (Tuesday) and this Monday's tilt at Kiel left to play.

Athletics Take 2nd in Plymouth Tourney

By Statesman Sports Writer

PLYMOUTH — After beating the host team in the semifinals just two nights earlier, the Kewaskum Athletics baseball team couldn't get by Forest in title game of the Plymouth Baseball Tournament here, last Friday night.

The A's stayed close throughout, trailing just 2-1 in the seventh, but could not pull out a win in the title contest, losing 6-1. The A's had beaten the host Flames in Wednesday's contest, 7-2.

Doug Stern pitched a good game for the A's against Forest, but it was the opposing pitcher who stole the show. Forest's Paul Wagner struck out 14 and allowed just the single run in an impressive stint on the mound.

"He pitched real well," Athletics player/manager said of Wagner. The A's boss also had words of praise for Stern, who "did a really good job."

Forest jumped ahead with a run in the first, while the Athletics couldn't get anything across until the fifth. Mark Schloser, who had singled, scored on an RBI double by Greg Rinn, one of three hits Rinn registered on the evening.

Forest came right back with a run in their next at bat, and then added two more runs in both the seventh and eighth innings to seal the win.

The Athletics reached the title game by virtue of their victory on Wednesday over the Flames. Ric Leitheiser helped the A's get off on the right track with his RBI double in the second.

Leitheiser then capped off a five-run third inning with his second extra base hit of the game, a two-run triple to score Barry Wenzlaff and Kevin O'Brien, each of whom had singled. In all, the A's chalked up five hits in the rally.

That was all that Dennis Aupperle needed on the mound, as he shut down the Flames on one hit over the first five innings. The big lefty ran into trouble in the sixth, though, as a hit batsman, a walk and a pair of singles led to the two Plymouth runs.

All in all, "Aupperle pitched pretty well," according to Gonring, adding that the A's came up with some clutch base hits, none more bigger than Leitheiser's pair.

The second-place showing in the tourney helped raise the A's overall mark this season to 14-3, including a 8-1 mark in the Rock River Northern Division, in which the A's are presently in first place.

Golf Ace

KEWASKUM — For the second time this year, and the second time within a month, a lucky golfer came away with a hole-in-one at Hon-E-Kor Country Club.

Steven Noble of Greendale joined the list of acers, as he holed his tee shot on the 130-yard number 14 layout. Noble used a pitching wedge for his ace, as he took part in an outing last Saturday.

Earlier this month, Brown Deer's Greg Fuergler became the 28th person to record a hole-in-one on the course.
