Approve Raise for School Board Members

Electors Approve $10.7 Million School Budget

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

With virtually no discussion and no opposition, a small group of Kewaskum School District electors at Monday night's Annual Meeting, voted to approve the budget and levy proposed for the 1992-93 school year. The $10,741,565 budget carries a tax levy of $5,216,514. Including members of the school board itself and signed-in eligible voters, only 35 people attended the meeting.

For district taxpayers, that represents a 7.04 percent or $1.12 per $1,000 increase over last year's levy, from $15.90

(which was down 2.81 percent over 90-91, due to extra state monies) to $17.02. On a $50,000 home, that represents a tax increase of $56, on a $70,000 house, $78 and on a $90,000 home, $100.

In presenting the budget, District Administrator Dr. David Heather told the electors the district is losing approximately $153,000, in state aids because of two factors, a revision in the state aids formula and low increase in the district's student population. While Heather hopes the district's at least value will increase by at least 7 percent, he anticipates the district's state aids will drop to about 41 percent.

In his opening speech, Heather, who is beginning his fifth year as district administrator, talked about some of the district's positive highlights of the past school year, from athletics to academics. He then addressed some of the concerns facing the district in the next year or so.

Among those concerns was the need to address the issue of additional classrooms. "We anticipate that the Kewaskum School District is going to grow significantly over the next several years in the southeastern portion of the school district and in the Village of Kewaskum. Also, state mandated programs are creating a need for more classroom space especially at the Middle School." Heather said it will be the Facilities Sub-Committee's job to survey the district and report back to the board with its findings and recommendations.

In his closing comments, Heather noted that while student population growth may put a strain on the district's facilities, he found it encouraging that "people are moving into the area and are willing to look at housing in the Kewaskum District on account of the school system." A turnaround from years past.

In the course of meeting business, the voters approved the standard annual resolutions regarding transportation, food

It's Never Too Late To Achieve Your Goals

Bob Merkt

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Former Kewaskum resident, Bob Merkt, has proved recently that success can be achieved at any age.

A Kewaskum high school drop out, Merkt was never a good student, and school was a place he didn't want to be.

In 1968, he gained an interest in the family business, selling the famous Merkt Cheese at various fairs and shows. He opened a cheese store in West Allis and was very successful for ten years. In 1978 Bob moved to Florida, and continued to do shows and fairs, as well as distribute Merkt's cheeses. In 1981 he was named regional manager for Merkt's Cheese Co. in Bristol, WI.

Five years later Bob and his wife opened a new gourmet deli in Lakeland, Florida, finally retiring from the cheese business in 1991 after a fruitful career.

With the dream in mind of owning a restaurant, Merkt went back to school, attending Johnson and Wales University in Charleston, South Carolina. He qualified for the advanced standing programs, and on May 24, 1992, received an A.O.S. degree in Culinary Arts.

Bob graduated Summa Cum Laude at the top of his class of over 300 students. He received awards for perfect attendance, the Silver Key honor society, Who's Who in American Colleges, and Universities, was on the Special Functions team and Alpha Beta Kappa House Sorority.

"I never dreamed I could do this after being out of school for over 30 years," says Merkt. "I'm very proud of these accomplishments."

Neumann's Host Japanese 4-H/Labor Exchange Program

Akiko Hirai

Akiko Hirai, 12 of Tsuyama City, Japan is spending 27 days with the Roger Neumann Family. Akiko arrived to Wisconsin on July 23 with 44 other Japanese exchanges and two chaperones. Chaperone, Misako Wantanabe, is staying with the Steve Liegl family. They are with the 4-H/Labo Exchange Program. The exchanges spent two days at Upham Woods, Wisconsin Dells for orientation.

The Labo Kyouiku (Education) Center is one of Japan's largest non-formal educational organizations. Established in 1966, Labo's major goals are to help children grow into independent, confident, and well-rounded citizens of the world.

Through the 4-H/Labor exchange, young people get the opportunity to learn first-hand about one another's country. Living as a member of a foreign family, with a brother or sister of about the same age, participants are not only able to make close lifelong friends, but they are able to learn the best of family values and lifestyles in their host country.

But most of all, through the program, young people of both our countries are able to come to a personal realization that all people share a commonality greater than the differences which so often lead to war and hatred, and that by living at peace with one another and with nature happiness can become a reality in our lifetime.

Akiko loves all kinds of animals, belongs to a music club in her school, collects stamps and enjoys drawing cartoons.

Akiko's father, Masahiko, is an operator of the Printing Company and her mother, Katsue, is a graphic designer. Akiko has one brother, Nobuaki, age 17. Akiko's grandmother, Saiko also lives with the family.

Akiko's American Family is Roger and Ann Neumann, three sisters - Nancy, Chrissy and Carol and two brothers - John and Michael.

Junior Women Attend Summer Workshops

Four members of the GFWC Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club attended the summer workshop sponsored by the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs held in Oshkosh on July 15 and 16th. Those attending included Terry Christie, President; MeriLou Chambers, Sixth District Junior Director; Gayle VanEss, WFWC Convention Chairman and Louise Martin, Club Corresponding Secretary.

The workshops familiarized members with the 1992-94 administration's theme, "Volunteering - Our Carousel of Commitment". Workshops focused on the arts, international concerns, home life, fund raising, public affairs, education, conservation, child abuse and a literary program for pre-school children.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC International) is the world's largest and oldest volunteer women's organization. Guests are welcome to attend the local club's meetings. For more information contact Terry Christie, 626-4920 or Holly Knurr, 626-4893.

Burglary Suspects Arrested By County Deputies

On July 24, 1992 at approximately 3:43 a.m. the Washington County Sheriff's Department received a call from a paper delivery man that Navin's Mobil was being burglarized. The paper delivery man gave descriptions and a license number for a suspect vehicle. That suspect vehicle was later stopped in the Village of Germantown by Deputies, and Officers of the Germantown Police Department.

The two suspects in the vehicle were taken into custody by the Sheriff's Department, and a short time later a third party was arrested by Sgt. Randy Boudry and Sheriff Robert Schulteis. The suspect was walking in the area of Highway 41 and Hillcrest Drive in the Town of Addison.

Entry was gained to the Mobil station through a window on the south side of the building. It appeared as if the suspects had placed several cartons of cigarettes and some motor oil in a basket to take with them. When they were first observed, one of the suspects was carrying a couple cases of beer which he dropped outside the station.

The three suspects are in custody and will be referred to the District Attorney's Office. Investigation will continue.

FIREMEN TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Kewaskum Fire Department will be held at the fire station on Thursday, Aug. 6, at 7:30 p.m.

P.A.R.E.N.T.S. Making a Difference At Kewaskum Elementary School

P.A.R.E.N.T.S. will be making a difference at the Kewaskum Elementary School this year. P.A.R.E.N.T.S. (Parents Actively Reinforcing Educational Needs Through School) is a pilot program at K.E.S. to organize and monitor volunteer work in the school. It will encourage more volunteering by making parents and/or grandparents, as well as other interested community members aware of what they can do to get involved in the educational system.

The program is being coordinated by a committee of concerned parents with the assistance of the Kewaskum School District school. Every time an adult volunteers for school related activities, he/she reinforces a child's understanding of the importance of education.

It's time to join those people already donating their time and talents. Let's show the children at Kewaskum Elementary School that we care about their educational experience.

On Thursday, August 6th, parents of KES students will need to register their children for the 92-93 school year. At that time, there will be a special booth set up for potential volunteers to provide the P.A.R.E.N.T.S. Program

Kiwanis Clubs Celebrate Family Day

The Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum urges every family in Kewaskum to observe Family Day on Sunday, August 9, 1992, said Club President Jerry Stollenwerk.

Family Day seeks to dramatize family solidarity and pride, reaffirming the family's role as the cornerstone of society and the best vehicle for teaching basic truths and morality to children.

Appropriate Family Day activities include family reunions or outings, religious worship, and work on family trees.

Family Day was begun in the late 1960's by Kiwanis International and received the immediate endorsement of civic, church, governmental, educational and labor leaders.

Last year, Kiwanis clubs raised and spent more than $65 million on community service activities, with a special emphasis on meeting the needs of young children. Today, Kiwanis numbers 8,700 clubs and 327,000 members in 77 countries around the world.

Lung Transplant at St. Luke's Medical Center Gives Wisconsin Woman the Breath of Life

Kewaskum Statesman, Thursday, July 30, 1992, Page 5

MILWAUKEE... Just two months ago, Joyce Wonders didn't have enough breath to walk from her bedroom to her kitchen. Today, after she became the second patient to receive a lung transplant at St. Luke's Medical Center in Milwaukee, she says she is "Joyce" again.

"I couldn't cook or clean. I couldn't even pick up my 10-pound granddaughter or play with her," Joyce said as she described her condition prior to her transplant. "Since I've had surgery, it's fantastic."

Joyce, age 45, suffered from a condition known as pulmonary fibrosis, which caused progressive scarring of both lungs. Doctors told her a year and a half ago that she needed a lung transplant to survive.

On June 10, her physicians received word that a single left lung was available. (Because of the scarcity of donor organs, patients requiring lung transplants typically receive one lung.) Transplant surgeons Alfred J.

Tector, M.D., and John D. Crouch, M.D., performed the three-hour surgery. After several weeks of recuperation and close monitoring by the Midwest Heart Surgery transplant team at St. Luke's, Joyce returned home. She now moves freely, without the tank of oxygen her diseased lungs had required her to wear 24 hours a day.

"Joyce has progressed very well since her surgery, and should be able to enjoy an active and full life," said Dr. Tector, director of St. Luke's Organ Transplant Program.

"People take the breath of life for granted," Joyce said after returning to her home on Milwaukee's north side. "Now that I've received the gift of breath and life, I want to tell people about it so they can understand the importance of organ donation."

St. Luke's Medical Center is the site of the largest heart transplant program in Wisconsin. Nearly 150 heart transplants have been performed here since the introduction of improved anti-rejection medication in 1984.

Drs. Tector and Crouch performed the hospital's first lung transplant on the 44-year-old Victor Bohachek of Oconomowoc in February. He has resumed work and is doing well.

St. Luke's lung transplant program offers intensive pre- and post-operative pulmonary rehabilitation designed to increase patients' lung capacity and muscle tone. For more information about heart and lung transplants and to receive an organ donor registration card, call St. Luke's Organ Sharing Network at 1-800-472-2022.

programs, etc. After several years, however, the electors finally voted to give school board members a raise. Their salaries will increase by $200, from $800 to $1,000 a year.

Former school board member Donald Nowak made a motion to increase the board's salary to $1,500, but that motion was defeated. In discussing the salary, Board President Neal Weare was asked how many meetings members attend during a month. He indicated it ranged from a minimum of three, to eight or more meetings a month, which include regular monthly and committee meetings. Then there are workshop sessions and occasional special meetings for things like expulsion, employee evaluation, etc.

The electors also approved increasing the reimbursement when board members have to take off from work to attend meetings. That was increased from $15 a day, to up to $50 per day.

The question of selling the Beechwood School again came up. Bob Gavin questioned the board about the cost to maintain the building and why the district had not made an effort to sell it. Dr. Heather said the building's annual upkeep cost was about $11,000, which included heating.

As for selling the building Weare noted it had been an unofficial and non-binding agreement that the building would not be sold for at least five years, which is now up. Weare also stated, however, that the law requires two appraisals and, "because these companies are apparently so busy, the district has been able to obtain only one appraisal so far". "So, for that reason, I was forced to remove the Beechwood School issue from this year's annual meeting agenda." He also noted that the board cannot take any such action on its own without approval of the electors, either at an annual or special meeting of the electors.

Mrs. Irene Gnacinski of Beechwood wanted the question of selling the school clarified. "The object of waiting five years, as requested by the Beechwood residents, was to see if the student population was going to increase," said Gnacinski, "not for any other reasons." Jerry Secor, another former school board member in attendance, told the board, "I think its a real mistake to try selling the school when you're talking about adding rooms, it could turn into a real legal hassle."

The board was then asked what area they meant by the 'southeastern portion' of anticipated student increases. Heather replied, Farmington. Several residents then noted that school boundaries had recently been redrawn for the schools and they could be redrawn again.

Share Program Offered in Kewaskum

The SHARE program of Southeast Wisconsin is now available to residents in this area.

There are no eligibility requirements, no forms to fill out or questions to answer. Just find the nearest host site and the time they are open for registration, and bring $13.00 in cash or food stamps (no personal checks) for each SHARE package ordered.

In return for the food supplies you will receive, the SHARE program requires two hours of volunteer service.

Many people are perplexed about what community service is and isn't, and others wonder why it is a required part of SHARE. Some people are already doing community service but don't call it that. Very simply, community/volunteer service is being a good neighbor and becoming involved in the concerns of others where you live. In every town, city, neighborhood, block and house, there are needs which go unattended, opportunities to improve the quality of life for all of us. We don't have to go far to discover them.

For starters, there is, of course, the SHARE program itself which is in need of your help. Many volunteers are needed each month to make this program work. Your Host Site, where you pick up your food, is run totally by volunteers. Each site needs help with registration, help spreading the word by distributing flyers and newspapers, putting up posters and just telling others. This is community/volunteer service.

There may be people in your community who would like to participate in our program but have no transportation to get to the host site for pick up of groceries. You could provide transportation or deliver the groceries to them, perhaps staying a while to visit as well.

While you're there, you might notice other ways to extend a helping hand. Community Service.

On the day the food is distributed, many hands are needed again. Offer your help. The truck needs to be loaded; boxes and bags are needed; and often items need to be bagged. Strong backs are needed to assist older or disabled folks to carry their boxes to their car.

Besides helping within the SHARE program itself, you can choose any type of service that appeals to you. This could be through a church, a school, a hospital, a non-profit organization or it could be improving the neighborhood by organizing or helping with clean-ups, painting, fix-ups, etc. There are lots of opportunities.

The Kewaskum SHARE program takes place at the Municipal Building. Please call 334-2297 or 334-3902 for information on when the food packages will be distributed.

For just $13, you'll receive meat, fresh fruit, staples, fresh vegetables and more each month you choose to participate.

Expect a 60 percent savings in groceries once each month through SHARE.

There are so many things we can do to make life better in our own community. It can be a great feeling to say, "We made a difference" instead of waiting for someone else to do it.

Yes, it takes a little initiative, but soon you'll have such good feelings about being a part of something that is making a difference that you will find yourself energized when you thought you were too tired to move.

SHARE indeed offers a great food value, helping us all stretch our food dollar, but it is much more than that. It's a way to bring "community" back to the community. It's a way to reach out and say, "I care," and it's a way to be cared for in return. No man is an island. Reach out, get involved and you will be pleasantly surprised to see how good it makes you feel.

Benefit Dinner Planned Aug. 31 For Child Abuse Prevention

The Youth and Family Project is sponsoring a benefit evening of dinner and music to raise funds for child abuse prevention programs. All proceeds will benefit Washington County residents.

Currently, the organization umbrellas a myriad of programs such as the TLC Hotline, serving children and teens, the Crossroads runaway program, H.I.R.E., a program which places at risk youth with jobs, and the Parents Anonymous support program, which reaches parents experiencing stress in raising their children (nurturing children's programs run in conjunction with the parent groups). All programs are offered free of charge to Washington County residents.

Presently, funds are sought to expand their helpline to include more parent counseling and referral help which aids the entire family. Since the addition of the Parents Anonymous support program, the agency has had an increase in parent stress calls.

They've seen that their helpline is the vital link in connecting families under stress to the best resources for them. There is also an immediate need to expand the number of Parents Anonymous support groups and to continue to provide more educational programs such as "The Family Affair" series. More and more parents are seeking their help in coping with the stresses that can ultimately lead to child abuse.

The Youth and Family Projects' staff also feels the need to offer yet another program, called "Rainbows for All Children." This is an educational support curriculum designed for children who have experienced divorce or the death of a parent.

The group model provides a different dynamic to the child's healing process (other than individual or family counseling) and helps them share their experiences and feelings with others who have experienced similar losses. Children often perceive that they are to blame for the divorce and perhaps such a program would ease the traumatic effects of separation and divorce.

The theme for the benefit evening will be "Hope for the Children" and it will be held Monday, August 31, at the West Bend Country Club. A silent auction will be held in conjunction with the benefit dinner. Music will be provided by "No Breaks" a country bluegrass band from Milwaukee. Anyone wanting to donate silent auction items or wanting information on the sale of the tickets can contact Joy Breese at 626-4715 or 338-1661. The Youth and Family Project anticipates launching their new programs in 1993.

Time is Running Out...

NOMINATIONS CLOSE JULY 31!

By L.L.K.

After spending several sleepless nights, I have come to the profound conclusion there is a conspiracy against me. NO! I'M NOT PARANOID! The whole world is out to get me!

Where did I go wrong? Basically, I've tried to be a nice person. I go to church almost every Sunday. I don't beat my children (yet). I RARELY drink (the Kewaskum picnic does not count... kind of like calories if no one is watching you eat). I never smoke (lie) or swear (only in emergencies). I spoil my husband (sure, I do). I love my mother (now that's the truth). I always have treated both my sisters with the utmost respect. I am kind to my employees (don't ask). I have never learned to be assertive, so if anyone asks me for a favor, I can't say no (Mommy gets so upset with me). Why does everyone want to see me kiss a pig?

Every day this week my paranoia has been reaffirmed. I have received nominations for yours truly from every other city, coast to coast: Tacoma, Washington; Denver, Colorado; Portland, Maine; Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Indianapolis, Indiana; Cincinnati, Ohio, and all points every city anyone ever heard of in this state (Alma, Wisconsin??). Isn't that going just a little too far?

I am the first person to admit I am gullible to a fault. I generally believe almost everything anyone tells me (why would they lie?). But really people... not even I am naive enough to buy the signatures on these nationwide nominations. I mean, come on... George Bush? I guess that's understandable though, George has been reading the Statesman for years! Dan Quayle?? (they had trouble spelling that one... get it... potatoes). Other nominations included Paul Harvey (I thought he was dead), Pete Rose (did they let him out yet?), McGruff (I thought he ran off with Smokey the Bear), Mr. GreenJeans (I know, the Captain made him do it!), Winnie the Pooh (now that one really hurts), Leonardo, Minnie Mouse, and get this... Charles Manson (where is my police protection?)

I am crushed because I was snubbed by Clinton, Gore and Ross Perrot. (Boy, Judy, I can tell how impressed Perrot was with your campaign work). I hope you do as much good for me as you did for him. (Ross, who?) Speaking of my pal, Judy... she tells me you can send an envelope and have it postmarked anywhere in the country. How would you know that Judy, unless YOU are already doing it? Caught ya!

PLEASE people, I'm begging... get out to Finishing Touches and "shop 'til you drop" so Judy stops coming up with all these "wonderful" ideas to aid my campaign. I DON'T HAVE A CAMPAIGN JUDY! NOT... NIX... NADA! (Isn't this how Nixon got started?) If you only knew Judy's devious plans!

Paranoid? You bet! Who is doing this to me? Twenty dollars to anyone who talks, following the arrest and conviction of those responsible for causing me all this distress! Even my girls at work are concerned. I'm getting downright cranky. Right, Linda? At least I got them to stop wearing their stupid buttons. Now, if I could only get Larry's button away from him! (Give ya three away from Luke to snatch it!)

Stupidly, I ask people who is really responsible and all I get is BIG smiles and "I don't know... I didn't do it... NOT ME." It's like talking to my kids! For four years, all I heard was "Ross (my youngest) did it." Thank goodness Ross finally got old enough and smart enough to defend himself.

There was SOME good news this week, however. Our own "Mutzie," the now-infamous Sharon Callaway Roznik, received 15 additional votes, thanks to one kindred soul who also desires to "SAVE THE PIG." Surely there must be more people out there who are against spanferkel. Hurry, then... vote for Mutz. Needless to say, after last week's writeup, I had to come into work on Friday "waving a white flag." (Wasn't sure if Mutz would take too kindly to being immortalized as a pig saver). The writeup was a surprise... she left Tuesday before I finished writing it. I knew she wouldn't physically harm me because she is a pacifist. Couldn't kill a fly if her life depended on it. I was on safe turf. Now her husband, Greg, was another story.

As he gently wrapped his large hands around my neck, he dispassionately and quietly announced through clenched teeth... "I don't want ANY MORE animals at my house!" (Where is my police protection?) Don't let me con you... Greg is really a teddy bear... he just gets a little "testy" when his home becomes overrun with puppies, kittys, etc. He's not real crazy about the idea of possibly "adopting a pig." I dunno Greg... Sharon still thinks it's a good idea. (No pen behind the Statesman girls... out of the question... be glad you got me to agree to a picnic table!)

Well, enough gibberish for this week... except Carole... I want you to be real careful when you are walking down dark streets. Watch your right shoulder... at all times... somehow, somewhere... I'm gonna get ya! (That goes for you too, "FEEDIE!"). And I am perfectly serious when I say to my OLDER sisters... "TOO BAD! Mom still likes me best! NA, NA, NA, NA, NA! Can I help it if I was always a model child?"

As you are probably aware of by now... these nominations close on Friday. There's not a whole lot of time left... so pull out those dollars and nominate someone you love, or "save the pig" and nominate "Mutz." Keep in mind (I'm trying... believe me) that all this so-called fun is for a good cause. Every dollar goes towards the entertainment at Kettle Country Kolors. If you want to see Billy Ray Cyrus (and you doesn't) next year, you'll have to start sending in lots of those dollars... better make that fives... on second thought's, maybe Bennie and the Jets.

Voting boards will go up hopefully this weekend with the names of our twenty finalists so we can get on with this boy-are-we-having-fun-now contest. We'll try to get boards in as many businesses as possible providing they don't get physically violent when we ask permission. If nothing else you can always drop off your money in the Statesman voting booth (of course, I will be waiting at the door, to make sure you vote for someone else).

Preliminary plans tell me there will also be voting boards at Home-Kor and Video Post. We'll let you know next week the names of our lucky twenty, along with where else you can vote.

Each vote costs a dime and if you are not comfortable with voting in public (could be hazardous to your health), send your check or money order (stamps and pesos also accepted) to the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 300, Kewaskum, Wisconsin 53040.

More voting tip... this one courtesy of Jeanne Marchant, who gave me the idea last summer when we were in the middle of voting for the kings. (Thank you Jeanne... I am forever in your debt). Every Thursday will be "MINUS VOTES" day. And paper will be counted as plus votes. I'll expand more on this next week... just in time for our first "MINUS VOTES" day on Thursday, August 6.

We're here to help you... just keep thinking Billy Ray Cyrus and send in those dollars. Not to change the subject, but I just remembered what Linda said... Billy Ray Cyrus has a haircut similar to Troy... without the ponytail. Maybe you should send in nominations for Troy. That's probably as close to Billy Ray Cyrus as we're gonna get. (I didn't say it Troy... Linda did!)

Well people, there's only two days left. Remember there will be twenty candidates to begin this next round and I'm sure there are lots of people out there who are so much more deserving of this dubious honor than I... PLEASE vote for them!

Letters to the Editor

Letter to the Editor and Concerned Citizens:

With the concept of giving our community the best prehospital cardiac care, the Kewaskum Rescue Squad is pursuing the defibrillation program. When brought together with early access to the EMS system, early defibrillation and early cardiac care, the potential for increased improvement in survival from cardiac arrest is immense.

Needless to say along with this skill, the equipment needed in defibrillation is very costly; approximately $9,000 to $10,000 for each ambulance. Most area ambulance services already offer this type of care. We would like to offer this skill. Along with the cost of the equipment is the training and maintenance of the defibrillation skills which the members of the squad will dedicate themselves to even more.

We need your help and support and contributions in upcoming fundraisers. On Sunday, August 30th the squad is sponsoring a Co-Ed Decathlon. Family fun, food, and refreshments are on the agenda for that day. Please come and support our community. Details for this event can be obtained from local businesses, Rescue Squad Members or at the Kewaskum Statesman.

Thank you in advance for your support.

To the Editor:

Is anyone else concerned that our "Top Cop" doesn't seem to care about our most important law?

Sheriff Schulteis has admitted to firing Deputy Kurt Vogelsberg with two decades of service because Kurt Vogelsberg supports Sheriff Schulteis' opponent, Jim Grover, for Sheriff. This style of politics may be acceptable in South America, but not in the United States.

Things are different here because our Founding Fathers thought the right of every citizen to support whomever they chose to represent them without having to fear retribution from those in power was a right worth dying for... and many did.

These rights are so important that people place their hand on the Bible and swear to uphold the Constitution of the United States. We count on these people to protect our rights.

I wonder what our Sheriff was thinking when he won an election and swore that oath?

Dear Indian Football Prospects,

The season is fast approaching, and if we want to make it a memorable one, we are going to have to make some sacrifices so we will be better prepared than our opponents. Since none of our coaches can help us until practice starts, we are going to have to work on our own.

Some area graduates have offered their time to help us become better football players. During the week of August 3 thru the 7th, a football mini-camp will be held at the high school. Camp will run from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. during which time we will be doing some basic drills, conditioning work, as well as practicing some of the old and new offensive plays.

This mini-camp is not mandatory, however any days(s) that you will be able to make it will make you, as well as our team, more prepared for the upcoming season.

Sincerely,
Dan Schulteis

Dear Lana,

I would like to thank you publicly for all the nice things you said about me in last week's issue of the Statesman. In fact, I appreciated your kind words so much that I've enclosed a check for $20, to be used for 20 nominations for, you guessed it, LANA KUEHL, to "Kiss The Little Piggy". You pucker so cute. Keep up the good work.

Love,
Your older (but not much) Sister
Carole Timblin

EDITOR'S NOTE: Don't let those sisters fool you... I'm actually MUCH, MUCH younger than BOTH the sisters. It's just I've aged more from all the aggravation and "schlepping."

St. Joseph's Community Hospital's Baby Reunion Parking

On Sunday, August 2, 1992, the staff of the New Life Center at St. Joseph's Community Hospital will host the annual Baby Reunion for the returning 1989 "graduates" and their families. Reservations are confirmed for the 1,200 guests who will take part in the activities from 12:00 noon until 3:00 p.m.

Because of the large attendance, including many small children, parking will be available in the Oakbrook Medical Complex parking lot, on the south side of Oak Street. There will also be parking in the hospital's east employee parking lot. Guests are encouraged to use these parking lots and keep on-street parking to a minimum.

Weekend Programs At Ice Age Center

Are you an avid fisherman? Or do you wish to become one? If you answered yes to either question, the Long Lake Fishing Club has a program for you at the Ice Age Center on Friday, July 31, at 7:30 p.m.

"Family Fishing Fun" will give you tips on how to fish Long Lake, knot tying, equipment rigging, and fish identification and habitat.

If there is enough attendance at the Friday program, the Club will provide an actual fishing experience at Long Lake starting at 7:30 a.m. Saturday, August 1. Some fishing equipment will be available but the Club asks that if you have fishing gear, please bring it.

Ancient hunters and man's "leavings" are the subject of two presentations at the Ice Age Center on Saturday, August 1.

At 4 p.m., the ATL ATL will be the subject of discussion, and audience participation when Dick Grybush presents "Hunting the Mammoth".

Then at 7:30 p.m., Grybush will present some "flint knapping" facts in a discussion entitled "Romancing the Stone."

WISCONSIN TRAVEL FACTS

Kohl's State Fair Milk House To Feature Kemp's Dairy Drink

WEST ALLIS — U.S. Senator Herb Kohl will again promote Wisconsin's dairy industry by sponsoring "Herb's Superb Milk House" at the Wisconsin State Fair August 6th - 16th.

Kohl initiated the milk house in 1990 to offer support and recognition to Wisconsin's dairy industry. "The milk house is an opportunity for me to help promote our dairy industry in a new and somewhat interesting way," Kohl said.

The milk house is located at the south end of the grandstand at State Fair Park in West Allis and will be in operation from 9:00 a.m. - 10:30 p.m. throughout the fair's run.

The milk house will offer fair visitors a variety of flavored milk including chocolate, strawberry, root beer, raspberry and this year will be introducing cherry vanilla. Last year the milk house served over 124,000 cups of the flavored dairy drink produced by Kemp's Dairy in Kewaskum. Kohl also noted that the milk house was important as a gathering place for fairgoers to drop by and visit with him.

"This is a great chance for fair visitors to drop by, and say hello, enjoy a cool dairy drink and let me know what's on their minds," he said. "I plan to be there as much as I can, and I hope to visit with people from all across the state."

Kewaskum Area Youths Dominate Fair

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

While all the clubs did an excellent job at this year's Washington County Junior Fair, the Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club has extra reason to pop a few buttons with pride. Club members' entries represented several champion winners in both the market hog and beef categories.

In the Market Hog competition Crusaders entries finished in four of the top ten places, taking champion, reserve champion, homebred and raised reserve champion and a blue ribbon winner.

Brothers Kevin and Sean Parish walked away with the top honors. Kevin's champion hog brought $3.00 a pound at Thursday night's meat animal sale, earning him $774. The animal was purchased by Pick N' Save of West Bend.

Sean's 250-pound reserve champion went to Loehr's Market of Campbellsport for $2.25 a pound, netting him $562.50.

Keith Herman's HBR reserve champion animal went to Waubeka Mill. Selling for $2.50 a pound, his hog brought $712.50.

Keith Novotny's 262-pound blue ribbon hog sold to Farmer's Inc., for $1.75 a pound, bringing $458.50.

"per day."

While Kewaskum area exhibitors dominated the hog and beef classes, showmen from Slinger, Hartford and West Bend showed their skill in the sheep class. Two families also dominated in those top ten places.

Theresa Ganhs of Slinger, sold her 126-pound champion lamb to Kewaskum Frozen Foods for $4.75 a pound.

Last, but definitely, not least, thanks to all the businesses who made this year's sale another success. Whether you were a successful buyer or one of the many companies who added their bids to the auction, we thank you all for supporting our young people and recognizing the hard work they put into their projects.

No one will ever know.

Sadly missed by wife and family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of JOHN SPOERL, who passed away one year ago, Aug. 2, 1991:

At the end of this first year.

Sadly missed by his wife and sons.

Kewaskum firemen were called out at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday when a fire broke out in a house trailer owned by Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Socha at the Johnson Trailer Court on Hwy. 45. The blaze was confined to the kitchen area of the trailer and started in wall paneling behind the stove. The walls, ceiling and cupboards were burned and there was considerable smoke and water damage. The cause of the fire was not determined. Firemen fought the blaze for about a half hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Serwe announced they have taken over Buczek's Tavern at the corner of Fond du Lac Ave. and First Street. They began operating the business on July 1. The Serwes, who formerly were in the tavern business in St. Michaels, also moved into the Buczek home adjoining the tavern. The Buczek family moved to Campbellsport. Buczek also operates a milk route.

Everything is arranged to show everyone a real good time at the Kewaskum firemen's annual picnic to be held in the village park Sunday afternoon. The event will be as big as ever and there'll be entertainment and enjoyment for both young and old alike. Concerts will be given throughout the day by the Campbellsport and Kewaskum bands and a combined mass band concert featuring those two bands and Uncle Louie's Rangers all playing together, will be held at 4:30 p.m. A total of $250.00 in merchandise prizes will be promptly awarded at 9:30 p.m.

An electrical storm, accompanied by high winds and a heavy rain, on Tuesday evening caused damage here and in surrounding communities. Damage in this village was confined to trees and flag poles. Damage expected to run into several thousand dollars was caused to installations and wires of the Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company. An old landmark, the huge Oak tree on the August Bilgo property on First Street was snapped off by the wind. The tree was probably the largest one in the village. Old residents estimate the age of the tree at 100 years. Some said it was as old or older than the village itself.

Expand Household Recycling to Your Yard This Summer

Summer days are ideally suited for Wisconsin residents to expand their recycling and waste reduction habits beyond the kitchen door.

"It's time to go 'green' with yard care and leave your grass clippings on the lawn," said Department of Natural Resources yard waste reduction specialist Georgia Reay.

Radio announcements echoing Reay's message were aired June 13 to July 4. The statewide announcements, were heard most frequently in eight communities where large volumes of grass clippings go to landfills and incinerators, launch the DNR's information efforts to prepare citizens for January 1, 1993.

"That's the date when the state recycling law kicks in with a ban on putting homegrown recyclables... grass clippings, leaves, sticks, brush and other lawn and garden resources... in landfills and incinerators that burn without energy recovery," Reay said.

According to Reay, this will mark the second time the state's recycling law hits home.

"The first time was in 1991, when the law required recycling of used motor oil, vehicle batteries and large household appliances," Reay said. "If you haven't already started, consider reducing yard wastes now. It'll make the transition easier next spring when you'll need to comply with the law."

It'll be worth the effort in terms of waste reduction, she added.

"In residential areas, grass clippings account for up to 50 percent of what homeowners dispose of during the summer months," Reay said.

Many municipalities and counties are setting up neighborhood or community-wide composting services to make it more convenient for residents to recycle yard resources.

"Some communities offer curbside pickup services that deliver homegrown materials to a community compost site," Reay said. "Others are set up for citizens to do the transporting. Still others leave yard resource management entirely to homeowners."

Regardless of what your community does, leaving grass clippings on your lawn is more energy- and cost-efficient than sending them to a community facility.

"And it makes sense for your yard, too," she said. "Grass clippings are green gold. A bag of clippings contains up to a quarter pound of organic nitrogen plus potassium, phosphorous and other nutrients important to healthy turf."

When you mow your lawn just let the clippings fall to the ground, where they are recycled naturally and replenish the soil as they decompose.

"It's simple, saves your back from hauling the clippings around, and reduces fertilizer costs," she said.

Here are a few lawn-care tips from Reay:

*A new mulching mower is not necessary. Many lawnmower retailers offer inexpensive kits that change bagging mowers into mulchers. Reay cautions that it is not safe to operate a bagging mower without the bagging attachment unless it has been retrofitted for mulching.

*Mow more frequently. Clippings left on the lawn should be no longer than one and one-half inches. Keeping clippings short is the secret to mulching for a lush, healthy lawn.

*If you skip a mowing, compost clippings that are longer than one and one-half inches.

*Use a sharp blade.

*Mow when the lawn is dry. Reay noted that this autumn the department's yard resource information efforts will switch to leaf management and composting.

SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS

CHILDREN ON SSI DISABILITY

By David W. Becker
Branch Manager

Many people know that there are new rules for deciding whether a child is disabled under the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program. But there still may be questions regarding what the new childhood disability rules are. Under the new rules, children are considered disabled and eligible for benefits under the SSI program if their impairment(s) substantially affects their ability to function the way that children of a similar age normally would.

Because a child's functional abilities usually change as he or she grows and develops, the new regulations reflect this variability. They include specific guidelines for considering how a child functions as he or she ages and provides examples of the kinds of things children can do at age groups of: birth to age one, 1 to 3, 3 to 6, 6 to 12, 12 to 16, and 16 to 18.

Other new regulations provide detailed guidelines for evaluating mental disorders in children and, for the first time, specifically cover drug and alcohol dependency disorders, anxiety disorders, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, personality disorders, autism, tic disorders such as Tourette's Syndrome, and anorexia.

The SSI program now provides assistance to more than half a million disabled children with limited family income and resources. And while we have undertaken a wide-ranging outreach campaign to locate children who might qualify for SSI disability benefits under these criteria, more remains to be done. You can help.

If you know of a disabled or blind child who may qualify for SSI payments, you should refer the child, parent, or guardian to a Social Security office. Appointments can be made by calling our toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213, any business day from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Also, if you know someone whose SSI claim as a disabled child received a less than fully favorable decision, or whose childhood disability benefits were terminated on or after January 1, 1980 through February 27, 1990, advise the claimant... or someone who can act on the claimant's behalf... to contact Social Security for a review of the past claim under the new rules.

If you would like more information about the SSI program and childhood disability, you can call our office at 338-6182.

Crendon Morris Men to Visit Wade House in August

The weekend of August 1 and 2, 1992, will see the Wade House State Historic Site in Greenbush, Wisconsin, transformed into an English country setting when the Crendon Morris Men of Long Crendon in the county of Buckinghamshire, England demonstrate their traditional dance form. The team, as they are called, will demonstrate and dance from 1 to 4 each afternoon.

A highlight of the weekend will be an evening dance at 7 on Saturday, August 1, held in the site carriage museum, where local square dancers will trade dances with the Morris Men. Please call (414) 526-3271 to register for the evening dance, regular site admission rates apply during the daytime performances, and a $2.00 admission will be charged for the evening dance.

1992 is the 25th anniversary of the formation of the Crendon Morris Men and as a special event to commemorate the occasion, a tour to Wisconsin has been arranged. The team will be performing at the Wisconsin State Fair and other functions in Sheboygan, West Bend and Kewaskum in addition to the Wade House.

One of the main features of morris dancing is the costume which is usually comprised of a white shirt and trousers bedecked with colored cross bands (baldricks) and ribbons. On the legs are worn pads of bells, which ring loudly, supposedly to frighten away the devil. Depending upon the particular dance, the performers wave handkerchiefs or clash sticks. The sticks usually represent agricultural implements, and the purpose of waving the handkerchiefs was believed to frighten away the devil.

Crendon Morris Men wear ribbons in red and green, and their emblem is the wild boar. This comes from the Bernwode Forest which once covered large parts of Oxfordshire and which was a favorite hunting place of King Henry VIII. The green signifies the trees and the red the blood of the wild boar he hunted.

When you watch Crendon Morris in action, you will notice two people taking leading parts in the performance. The person who does most of the talking is the Squire. He is the leader of the side and makes final decisions regarding which dances will be performed, etc. The other character is the fool. You will see him dancing outside the set and sometimes among the crowd, and is there to help provide a link between the audience and the dancers. He is easily recognizable as he will be dressed more outrageously than the rest of the dancers.

A third character is the animal sometimes referred to as a hood 'n' horse. This is one of the dancers wearing an animal's head (usually modelled out of papier mache) with a long cloak covering the rest of him. He chases the dancers and sometimes the audience and generally entertains the crowd. In Crendon's case the animal is a wild boar. The use of the animal is another old tradition which originates from the street plays in medieval London.

In addition to the morris, the side and friends will be demonstrating rapper sword dancing, a mummers play and some local village crafts. The rapper dance originated in the Durham/Northumberland coal field of North-East England, on the banks of the rivers Tyne and Wear and was danced by the miners. In its present form, it probably started about 1830 to 1850, and coincides with the production of larger quantities of high quality steel. A rapper is a short two handled blade made of spring steel. Its origin is uncertain, but it is almost identical in construction to an implement used for scraping dirt from animal skinning.

The Long Crendon Morris Men and the staff of Wade House State Historic Site invite you to join them for this very special event. Wade House is a non-profit organization owned and operated by the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. The historic site is located in Greenbush, Wisconsin, which is located just off of State Highway 23, midway between Fond du Lac and Sheboygan, Wisconsin. For more information, please telephone (414) 526-3271 or write to Wade House, P.O. Box 34, Greenbush, Wisconsin 53026.

Kasten Honored
 For Pro-Business
 Voting Record

Sen. Bob Kasten received the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's Spirit of Enterprise Award recently for consistently voting to support American business.

The U.S. Chamber presented Sen. Kasten the Spirit of Enterprise Award for compiling a pro-business voting record of at least 70 percent, based on key votes cast in 1991.

H. William Lurton, U.S. Chamber chairman and chairman and chief executive officer of Jostens Inc., said, "We commend Sen. Kasten for consistently supporting the policies that will help the United States become more competitive in the world economy."

Richard L. Leshner, the Chamber's president, added, "Sen. Kasten's support of the business agenda in 1991 helps ensure that all business — both large and small — are given the opportunity to prosper, thus creating more jobs for more Americans."

Key business issues addressed by Congress in 1991 included "fast track" trade agreement legislation; a civil rights bill subjecting business to unnecessary financial burdens; a reduction in the Social Security payroll tax rate; an extension of unemployment benefits paid for by increased business taxes; and a mandated family leave bill.

The Chamber presents the Spirit of Enterprise Award to show appreciation for those legislators who have worked to support the American economy and the free enterprise system.

Upsets Tighten Softball Races

By Statesman Staff Writer

KEWASKUM — It wasn't a good week to be among the leaders in the men's softball leagues played at the Kiwanis Community Park last week. The first place teams in both the Tuesday and Thursday night leagues each suffered losses.

In Tuesday night's action, T's Lounge I became the first team to upend T's Lounge II this year, as T's I needed a sliding catch by Brian Reilly with the bases loaded and two cuts in the top of the seventh, to win 4-2. Rick Weitermann homered in T's II's losing effort.

In other games Tuesday, Schlufly's scored four times in the top of the seventh and beat Neuville by a 7-3 count. A six-run third inning helped Campbellsport Building Supply outlast Amerahn 11-6 while C.C. Cody's held on in the final inning to beat Hometown, 8-5.

Thursday night saw one of the tri-leaders fall from the top spot, as Mugshots overcame an 11-5 deficit to overtake C.C.'s and pull out a 12-11 win.

In other contests, Tropical Pool and Spa came out on top in a 19-11 slugfest with On-R-Own, while Emun Mill Gamefarm and L and R Trophy each posted shutouts, with Emun Mill beating McKee Building by a 14-0 score, and L and R handing T's Lounge a 12-0 setback.

In Monday night women's play, T's Lounge won both games of their doubleheader to move into sole possession of first place. In their first game, T's took care of Kohlsville Auto Body 13-4, while Kewaskum Frozen Foods was T's second victim, falling to the leaders 17-4.

In the only other game played Monday, Shefond scored four times in the first, and then had to hold on late in order to down Riverview Tap, 8-5.

Golf Tournament Scholarship Fund Raiser Planned in Honor of Area Coach

Camelot Country Club will be conducting a golf tournament as a means of raising funds for the recently established Bob Caves Memorial Scholarship Fund. Camelot will host this annual event as a Celebration of the Life of Coach Bob Caves, who was tragically killed in an auto accident on April 12th of this year.

Bob had most recently served as the head girls basketball coach at Oakfield High School (for the past 11 years) having previously coached at Valders and Coleman High Schools. Mr. Caves was the guidance counselor at Oakfield since 1978. Bob's wife and three daughters will oversee the use of the scholarship funds.

However, many area educators, coaches, athletic directors, colleagues and friends have requested some friendly competition for a positive purpose as a way to celebrate the life of one of their own associates. Thus, this golf outing was organized as not only a method to enhance the scholarship fund but also as a casual contest in honor of a very competitive coach.

Several media representatives will be participating as well. Jim Irwin of WTMJ in Milwaukee, Larry McCarren of Ch. 2 in Green Bay and Paul Johnson of Ch. 27 in Madison, will golf in this first annual golf outing. Any others interested in joining this worthwhile cause may do so by just calling Camelot CC at 269-4949 for a tee time reservation between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Golf will be followed up with a catered meal and an awards presentation starting at 3 p.m. Prizes and Personal Tributes will be given in Bob Caves name. Entry fees of $25 for nine holes and $30 for 18 holes includes golf, prizes, contests and catered meal. You may contact Glenn Eichstedt for more info. (583-4209).

Nordquist Wins National Judo Title

Nick Nordquist captured the 1992 United States Junior Olympic Judo Championship Juvenile A - Male 68 kg division this past weekend.

He is the first West Bend Judo Club member to win the national title since his fellow club member 1988 and 1992 Olympian Lynn Roethke.

Nick completed his quest to the national title with a four win no loss record this past weekend at the Kalamazoo County Fairgrounds in Michigan. All matches were won by full point Ippon throws, something no other competition at the tournament accomplished. He beat Judoka from California, Colorado and Illinois, all of which held the senior belt rank of Brown and Black belt. His championship match was fought against Ken Diehl of Illinois who Nick had lost to in their prior two meetings in Regional contests in Wisconsin and Illinois. Diehl was coached by 1992 U.S.J.I. coach of the year Bob Corwin. The match ended when Nick threw Diehl with the throw Morote-Seinoge (2 arm shoulder throw) for Ippon (full point win).

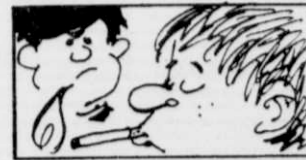

Kerri Sanfilippo was awarded 4th place in the Juvenile 13 - Female 52kg division after matches with 1st place winner Jeanette Lazo (IL) and 2nd place winner Caron Catana (MI).

This Fall's Pheasant Hunting Could Be the Best in Last 10 Years

MADISON, WI — Pheasant hunters can expect higher wild pheasant populations this fall than any year in the past decade, according to Bill Vander Zouwen, upland wildlife ecologist with the Department of Natural Resources.

Volunteers working with DNR personnel have monitored pheasant populations in dozens of areas by conducting spring pheasant crowing counts. The surveys show a 20 percent increase in the breeding population from last year.

The relatively dry June weather helped nests hatch and helped young pheasants survive their critical first weeks of life, according to Vander Zouwen.

"We can also thank the mild weather; however, pheasant populations have been steadily growing in many areas since 1985," Vander Zouwen said.

Improved nesting habitat for pheasants has been a major factor in the population upswing. Large acreages of grassland nesting cover have been added to the landscape by landowners through incentive programs such as the U.S. Department of Agriculture set-aside program.

Efforts by private groups such as Pheasants Forever and Wings over Wisconsin have assisted in maintaining a stable pheasant population. Barring severe winters, Vander Zouwen expects the wild pheasant population growth to continue.

Starting this fall, hunters will be helping the DNR accelerate wild pheasant restoration. Pheasant hunters will be required to purchase a State Pheasant Stamp for $7.25.

All revenue from the stamp is earmarked for wild pheasant restoration, including habitat projects and wild pheasant releases. Vander Zouwen said the stamp may generate $500,000 for pheasant restoration annually.

Exemptions for the stamp include senior citizen recreation card holders, conservation patron license holders, first-year hunter safety certificate holders, members of the military on furlough, and people hunting on licensed private game farms and shooting preserves.

Vander Zouwen suggested that hunters who are looking to get more involved in wild pheasant restoration efforts should consider joining an active conservation organization such as Pheasants Forever (write Rick Young, 6200 Knollwood Dr., Oregon, WI 53575), Wings Over Wisconsin (write Arnie Mueller, 328 Dayton St., Mayville, WI 53050), or a local conservation club, league or association.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT Bill Vander Zouwen, 608-266-8840.

8687 PROSPECT DR. KEWASKUM

Flat A's Fall to Waupun

KEWASKUM - Doug Gonring, player/manager of the Kewaskum Athletics baseball team, wasn't discreet regarding his displeasure of the A's performance against Waupun here, last Sunday afternoon.

"That was terrible," Gonring said of the A's lackluster hitting in the 4-2 loss to Waupun. "When you strike out twelve times, and get rung up (looking) seven of those... it's just unbelievable."

Even more unbelievable was the fact that the Athletics registered just six hits against Waupun pitcher John Schultz, who looked like an all-star on Sunday, even though his numbers didn't even merit him consideration for the Rock River Northern Division all-star team.

On Sunday, though, Schultz sent 12 A's batters to the bench saddled with strikeouts, and allowed just a single walk. In all, Schultz was involved in 15 strikeouts, as he whiffed three times himself at the plate.

The A's did get in front first, with a single run in the second. Tommy Kuehn, a friend of Gonring's who agreed to fill in as catcher even though he hadn't put on the gear in more than eight years, singled in Terry Koth, who had singled and moved to second on Rick Peck's walk. Kuehn was filling in for Greg Rinn, who was on his honeymoon.

But Waupun quickly struck back, scoring three times in the top of the third. A walk, coupled with, in order, a double, a single, and then another double put the visitors ahead by a 3-1 count.

Waupun added another tally in the seventh by virtue of an error, a sacrifice, and then a single by Greg Gorst.

The Athletics rallied in the eighth though. After a solo home run by Gonring cut the deficit to just two, the next two batters, Koth and Peck, walked and got hit by a pitch. The A's were unable to take advantage of Schultz's wildness, however, as the Waupun hurler came back to get the next batter on a called third strike.

"Timmy pitched really well too," Gonring said of Tim Heberer's hardluck effort. The veteran lefty went six and two-thirds innings, striking out five and walking a pair. Don Menzel came on to work the rest of the way, and he was "incredible," according to Gonring, who noted Menzel struck out five of the eight batters he faced, without giving up a hit.

No Athletic batter had more than one hit, while all A's hitters, with the exception of Gonring, struck out at least once against Schultz, who Gonring said had just a fastball and curve working. "He pitched a good game," Gonring said.

The loss didn't hurt the A's all too badly, though, as they still remain in first place in the Rock Northern Division with a 9-2 mark. Second-place Oakfield also fell over the weekend, so Kewaskum maintained its one-game lead. Still, Gonring said the opportunity was there to pretty much sew things up.

"It would have been a two-game swing (had the A's won)," he said, but added, "you can't hit the ball if you don't swing the bat."

The A's host Brownsville on Sunday, in their final Rock home game.

Athletics in 'Funk'; Lose Again

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Kewaskum Athletics player/manager Doug Gonring called it "the Kewaskum funk." Whatever you want to call it, it's causing the A's to step back and re-focus late in the year.

The Athletics dropped their second straight Rock River Northern Division contest, this time losing at home to Brownsville 7-3, last Sunday afternoon.

"We're in that Kewaskum funk again," Gonring said, noting that the team somehow seems to falter every season, right around this time. "We just didn't hit the ball."

The lack of hits was quite surprising to Gonring, seeing as how the Athletics ripped three Brownsville pitchers on their way to a 21-1 thrashing earlier in the year.

It was a totally different story this time around, however, as Brownsville's Pat Wiesner limited the A's to just seven hits, and just one in the final five innings.

"It's just unbelievable," Gonring said of the turnaround. "But you're not going to win too many ballgames giving up five runs in the first inning."

That's exactly what happened to the A's for the second game in a row (Kewaskum came back to win the first time, 10-9 over Genesee in the SWABA Tournament), as Doug Stern once again couldn't get a break. Brownsville came up with four hits in the inning, and took advantage of a pair of errors by A's shortstop Dave Donath.

Kewaskum came back to score a single run in the bottom half of the frame, getting a double from Rick Peck, a wild pitch, and then-scoring groundout by Gonring.

The A's added another score in the second, as white-hot Greg Rinn singled, stole second, and later scored on a single by Barry Wenzlaff.

Three singles helped Brownsville make it 6-2 in the third, but Kewaskum came right back, getting singles from Donath and Peck, and Donath scored when Gonring bounced into a double play.

That was it for the Athletics scoring, though. A single by Rinn in the fourth, and a base hit by Peck in the ninth were the lone other hits off of Wiesner, who struck two while also walking a pair. Over the final four innings, the A's managed to hit just one

Athletics Advance in SWABA Tourney

WAUPUN — Despite getting off to a rocky start, the Kewaskum Athletics won their opening game of the SWABA Baseball Tournament here, last Thursday night.

The A's scored five times in the sixth inning, which turned out to be just enough, as Kewaskum beat Genesee 10-9 in a game that was shortended to six innings because of a time limit.

"That was a really weird one," A's player/manager Doug Gonring said of the slugfest. "We came back though...hit the ball well."

Things looked bleak for the A's, after Genesee used a series of bloop hits to score five runs in the first. Athletics' starter Doug Stern recorded just one out in the inning, before being lifted in favor of Dennis Aupperle.

The A's got on the board in the first as well, as Gonring belted a solo homer. The homer was the ninth this year for Gonring.

Greg Rinn hit the first of his three doubles in the second inning. A walk to Barry Wenzlaff and a wild pitch put runners on second and third with two away, and Mark Schlosser singled from Rinn to make it 5-2.

Genesee used three singles, a walk and a hit batsman to register three more runs in the third, and the A's put another single tally on the board, via a solo homer, this one by Terry Koth.

John Stillman answered Koth's blast with a solo shot of his own in the fifth, giving Genesee their six run cushion back, 9-3.

In the fifth, Gonring and Koth had back-to-back walks with two out, and Rinn once again made them hurt, as he smacked a double, scoring both runners and cutting the deficit to just 9-5.

After holding Genesee scoreless in the sixth, the A's had just 23 minutes (of the 1 hour and 55 minute time limit) to make something happen in their half of the sixth. And Kewaskum made every bit of that count.

Don Menzel, who replaced Aupperle in the fifth, opened with a single, and the bases were soon loaded after successive walks to Wenzlaff and Schlosser. After a strikeout, Rick Peck singled in a run, making it 9-6.

Gonring then bounced one to first, but the Genesee defender bobbled the ball, and everybody was safe, with Wenzlaff scoring on the play. Koth followed with a walk to score Schlosser, making it 9-8, and Rinn then smacked his third double, scoring Peck and Gonring to give the Athletics their first lead.

Genesee got out of the inning without any further damage, but it was too late, literally, as the time limit expired, and the A's were victorious.

Rinn finished with three hits and four RBI's for the A's, while Peck added a pair of hits, and Gonring and Koth each chipped in two RBI's.

"It was nice to see us come back like that," Gonring said, adding that the A's will face the winner on Monday's Madison B and G-Clymann game this Friday night at Waupun, beginning at 6:30.

Doherty Finishes With 310

By Statesman Sports Writer

RACINE — Several area golfers made the cut at the State Amateur Championships played at the Meadowbrook Country Club here, last week.

Jason Samuelien, whose home course is Meadowbrook, became the first golfer in more than three decades to win the State Am on his home course, as he shot a four-round total of 287, to better the rest of the field by five strokes.

Hon-E-Kor's Joe Doherty made the cut, and wound up firing a 310 total, while several West Bend Country Club members also fared well.

Randy Warobick finished fifth in the championships, shooting a 294 total, while former Wisconsin senior champion, Frank Tenfel, finished at 308.

Hon-E-Kor's Mike O'Connor Jr. shot an opening round 77, but then withdrew from the tournament, while another Kewaskum native, Gregg Dean, missed the cut after shooting a 174 the first two days.

ball out of the infield.

Stern went the distance for the A's, giving up 12 hits, while striking out nine and walking none.

"We could be three games up by now," Gonring said, adding that second place Oakfield lost for the second time in a row as well, still giving the A's a one-game lead over the rest of the peck. "We've just got to get the bats going again."

After scoring five or more runs in an inning six times already this year, the A's have managed just five in the last two games combined, causing Gonring a bit of concern.

"I don't know what's going on," he said, "we just haven't been ripping the ball like we normally do."

Indians Ousted by West Bend East

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Paybacks are hell, and the West Bend East baseball team showed Kewaskum exactly why here, last Tuesday night in a WIAA Regional game. Suns pitcher Brad Geldnich held the Indians to just four hits, while East batters rapped out nine timely hits to help the visitors from the south escape with a 9-5 victory, thus ending the Indians' sparkling season abruptly.

The situation was reversed just three years ago, as it was the Indians, with a 5-20 mark, upsetting East in the WIAA Sectional finals 6-2, thus earning a trip to state.

This time it was the Indians who had the glossy regular season record, 19-7 with the EW conference championship, who were sent packing, although not without a fight.

East jumped out quickly with a pair of runs in the first. Rich Haczinski, who had singled, came around the score on a fielder's choice, while Geldnich, who had walked, later scored on an RBI double by Curt Schroeder.

The Indians tied things in the bottom of the second, as Matt Schlosser continued his recent power surge, smacking a two-run homer to left to even things at two each.

East then took the lead for good in the fourth. Indians starter Shawn Schneider had his problems adjusting to the umpire's abbreviated strike zone, as he walked the bases loaded. Schlosser was then summoned to relieve Schneider, and got a ground ball to Jason Krahn at short.

Krahn went to second with the throw, forcing out Lance Roell, but the runner who was on second, Jason Miller, kept right on going, rounding third and eventually coming around to score when the throw home was dropped on the tag.

East added a three-spot in the fifth. Chris Guse's one-out triple scored Steve Hemauer, and Guse later scored on a single by Schroeder. Jeff Baker then drilled a double to score Schroeder, and East had built a 7-2 advantage.

Kewaskum helped make it 9-2 in the sixth, as centerfielder Randy Schlice misplayed a single by Geldnich, who came all the way around to score, as did Brent Henschel, who had also singled.

The Indians came back to score a pair in the bottom half of the inning. Krahn started the rally getting hit by a pitch, and he moved to second on Schloss's walk.

Indians Rally To Beat Rams

By Statesman Sports Writer

RANDOM LAKE — For the most part, it was a pretty good way to cap off their best season in years, as the Kewaskum High School baseball team staged a big rally to down a perennial rival.

After falling behind 9-0 in four innings, the Indians came back with four runs in each of the final three innings to outlast Random Lake 12-10 in a non-conference dual.

The win gave the Indians a 19-7 regular season mark, their best overall record since 1986, when the team finished 18-6. The Indians also captured the Eastern Wisconsin Conference championship with their glossy 15-3 conference record.

Things looked pretty bleak for the Indians against the Rams, though, as Random Lake scored four times in the third, and then another three times in the fourth to grab the big advantage.

But the Indians chipped away at the deficit, getting a two-run homer from Matt Schlosser in the fifth to get the ball rolling.

The Rams came back in the bottom half of the inning, scoring a single tally to make it 10-4 in favor of the hosts. Brad Weinreich, who had an RBI single in the fifth, doubled home two more runs in the sixth, as the Indians scored four times, making it 10-8 Rams.

Kewaskum finally seized the lead in the seventh, as Todd Muckerheide's bases loaded double tied the score at 10-10. Kim Marx put the Indians in front with a suicide squeeze scoring Pat McFadden, who had walked, and the throw to first trying to get Marx was wild, allowing Muckerheide to score as well.

That was just enough for Jason Steier on the mound, as he set down the Rams in the bottom of the seventh to pick up the win. Steier didn't allow a run in the pair of innings he pitched, while the two previous Indian pitchers, Muckerheide and Schlosser

Several Indians Snubbed in EW Voting

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — One would think that a team that posted the best conference record in recent history would be honored by the naming of several members to the all-conference team. Apparently, that's not the way it works in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. At least not this year.

Kewaskum's EW championship baseball team had just two of its members named to the all-EW team in the balloting by the EW coaches last week, and had just one other named to the second unit.

Pitcher Shawn Schneider and second baseman Kim Marx were named to the first team, all-EW squad. Both Schneider and Marx are seniors, and posted some impressive numbers this past year.

Schneider had a 7-2 mark in the EW, with an even more impressive 1.98 earned run average. The big righthander had excellent control, walking just 15 batters in 60 innings of work. Schneider also had the power pitching, as evidenced by his 64 strikeouts.

A starter on the varsity since his sophomore season, Schneider has thrown a pair of no-hitters, and was also named to the all-EW squad last year.

Marx, on the other hand, is a first time all-conference selection in the sport. The speedy infielder improved during the course of the season, and finished with a fine .310 mark, and also led the team in stolen bases, despite not playing the first couple of weeks of the season.

That's because Marx was busy trying to reach the WIAA State Track and Field meet, as a top allowed six and four runs, respectively.

Schlosser, Weinreich and Muckerheide each collected two hits apiece, while Weinreich chipped in his three RBI's. In all, the Indians came up with 11 hits, one less than the Rams.

hurdler. Marx also was named to the all-EW football team.

Junior Brad Weinreich was named to the second unit as an outfielder, after batting .333 this year. Weinreich batted fourth in the Indians' lineup, and was a consistent fielder as well as hitter.

Four more Indians received honorable mention status, although an argument can be made for in each's behalf for even higher consideration.

Scott Donath and Chad Cook may have the best gripes, as Donath batted a hefty .440 (third in conference), and was second in the EW with 17 RBI's. Donath was passed over in the balloting in favor of first-teamer Jeff Kopetsky (.446 avg.) of Two Rivers and second-teamer Shawn Meyer of Plymouth (.289).

Cook, meanwhile chalked up a 5-1 mark on the mound for the Indians, compared to first-teamer Travis Tank's (Sheboygan Falls) mark of 2-6. The lone wins for Tank were a pair of no-hitters.

Randy Schlice and Matt Schlosser also received honorable mention votes, as Schlice was one of the Indians top hitters, and Schlosser went for most of the season without giving up an earned run on the mound.

Todd Muckerheide then hit a ground rule double to score Krahn, and Schlosser crossed the plate on Geldnich's wild pitch.

Chad Cook manufactured a single run by himself in the seventh, as he walked, stole second, stole third, and scored on another wild pitch.

Cook's effort wasn't nearly enough, though, as East earned the right to advance to the WIAA Sectionals, as they were slated to face Germantown.

(East went on to beat Germantown 8-5 on Thursday, but then ran into a tough Cedarburg club on Friday, and eventually lost, 6-2. With the win, Cedarburg advanced to this week's State Tournament in Stevens Point.)

The loss was a tough way to end the year for the Indians, who finished with a fine 19-8 mark.
