New Two-Year Teachers Contract in Effect

By Gerry Mueller

While an arbitrator's decision finally ended wage negotiations for a new two-year agreement between the Kewaskum School District and the Kewaskum Education Association (the union which represents the district's teachers), the contract in part, could be considered old. The 'old' portion being the fact that the pact covers the 1991-92 school year, during which the teachers worked without a contract. The second segment of the agreement covers the present 1992-93 school year which has just begun. In settling the contract impasse, the arbitrator chose the package presented by the school district.

The first year of the contract (covering 91-92) provides for a 5.11% salary only increase. With the addition of fringe benefits, that raise increases to 5.43%. Those percentage figures resulted in an 'average' per teacher raise of $1,701, including the benefits raised that figure to $2,528.

Based on that contract, the base salary for a teacher with a Bachelor's Degree and no experience was set at $20,994 plus fringe benefits, while a teacher at the top of the scale with a Master's Degree, experience and additional college credits was earning $41,988 plus fringes.

Those figures brought the 'average' per teacher 'salary only' up to $34,969. The addition of fringe benefits brought that 'average' salary, under the 1991-92 portion of the contract to $49,089.

Under the second year of the contract (covering 92-93), teachers will receive a 5.15% salary only hike. With the addition of fringes, that raise increases to 5.9%. Those percentages represent figures of $1,800 and $2,895, on average.

Base salary for the second year of the pact is $21,748 plus fringes, with the top salary being $43,496 plus fringe benefits.

For 1992-93, the 'average' teacher salary comes out to $36,769. With the addition of the cost for fringe benefits, that increases to $51,984.

Of the 125 teachers employed by the district, approximately 25 fall into the top salary range earning over $43,000, which does not include their fringe benefits. Several more teachers are earning over $41,000 a year, which also does not include the additional fringe benefits.

Beside the wage increases there were three major changes in contract language, affecting health insurance, prescription purchases and mileage.

For 91-92, teachers were required to pay 4% of their health insurance costs. For 1992-93, they will have to pay 5%. Prior to the new contract, teachers were contributing 3 1/2% to those costs.

For the purchase of prescriptions, KEA members will have a '5-3-3' Drug Card. What that means is participants will now have to pay $5.00 towards brand name drugs, $3.00 toward generic and $3.00 for mail order prescriptions. The old cost had been '2-0-0'.

Mileage payments were also increased, from 21 1/2 cents per mile, to 27 1/2 cents per mile.

The cost of teachers salaries and fringe benefits for 1991-92 amounts to $5,688,409. For the 1992-93 school year, teacher salaries and fringes will cost the district $6,023,881.

Kiwanis Club Annual Turkey Shoot Sunday

KEWASKUM — The Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum has announced that its Turkey Shoot will be held on September 20 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the New Fane Sportsmen's Club grounds, four miles north of Kewaskum on County Trunk G in the beautiful Kettle Moraine.

There will be a firing line, as well as trap shooting. Winners will receive fine frozen turkeys. In addition, there will be a golf shoot, trout fishing, archery, compound bow shoot, pistol shoot and children's games. There will also be crafts and cooking closeouts on sale. Bring the whole family!

Young and old anglers participating at the trout pond will keep the fish they catch. There will also be a grand prize for the person catching the largest fish. Brats, hamburgers, hot and cold beverages will be available.

Tickets will cost $3.00 for five shots. Advance sale tickets may be purchased by mailing your check to Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum, P.O. Box 68, Kewaskum, Wisconsin 53040.

In addition to advance sale tickets, being accepted at all events, cash prizes will be awarded at a special drawing. Raffles will be held during the day for turkeys and sausage. Proceeds will benefit the "Jaws of Life" for the Kewaskum Fire Department.

Grand Opening for New Tennis Courts and Service Road

By Gerry Mueller

Construction of the new high school service road, two new tennis courts and resurfacing of the four original tennis courts has been completed. Construction of the road, lower than the courts, and the addition of curbs and gutter is expected to eliminate the water run-off problem, and has damaged the courts in the past.

The two new courts are to the north of the old courts (where the vehicles can be seen).

A grand opening to view the new courts and road was held Tuesday, Sept. 15th.

School Board Approves New Daycare Contract

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

Despite the objections of board member John Schulte, the Kewaskum Board of Education voted to approve a contract with Kids Port Ltd. of Port Washington, to provide before and after school daycare services at Kewaskum Elementary School. Kids Port will be solely responsible for the operation and will not be connected with the school district in any way other than the fact it will be housed at KES.

The board, last month, approved Kids Port's request to open the daycare facility in the school to provide after school services at a nominal fee. At that time KMS teacher Diane Stangl and Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand advised the board there was also interest expressed in the "before school" services. Monday night's action allows for both periods.

Schulte told fellow board members, "In the past I have been opposed to bringing private enterprise into the schools and I still am, but the law says differently."

Board member Jeanne Goeden asked District Administrator Dr. David Heather if the school children would be liable to take the district if the daycare service decided to discontinue operations. He said he did not think so and, felt if that situation should arise, another operator would be willing to take over. The contract was approved with one 'no' vote cast by Schulte.

In other action the board approved Dr. Heather's request to increase substitute teachers pay. He reminded the board that the district is in an area where Kewaskum, along with neighboring districts, are competing for the services of a limited number of available substitute teachers. Heather also reminded the board the district had not raised the pay rate in two years. His recommendation to increase the pay from $27 to $31 for half day and from $53 to $60 for full day service was approved.

The board also approved Heather's recommendation to add an extra $5.00 per day to a teacher's pay after they have

KES Parents Unveil Volunteer Program

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

Kewaskum Elementary School parent Laura Waehler appeared before the school board Monday night, as spokesperson for a new program now in effect at the school. P.A.R.E.N.T.S. (Parents Actively Reinforcing Educational Needs Through School), evolved from a group of parents who were involved with the Quest Program and Climate Committee. We are not working in conflict with the PTO, noted Waehler, it is doing an excellent job for the school. What we are trying to do is address the need of parents to become actively involved in their

Waehler told the board, she and Connie Schulist, met during the summer with district Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand to discuss the need of parent volunteers in the school. She said, through their efforts the women had found there are many parents, fathers as well as mothers, who want to help. She stated however, "Only those parents who took the initiative to become involved the past few years were in the school". "We're finding an unbelievable number of parents who are just waiting for someone to call and ask them to help. Right now we have a list of over a hundred parents who have responded to our request."

"Our current goal is to involve as many parents in the school system as possible," stated Waehler, "all parents can help. Before, after and during school." During school hours, they can help by their physical presence in school tutoring, listening to a child read, doing flash cards, paper-work helpers, etc. The parents will not be there to teach but to reinforce. They will not be there to take the place of aides, but to supplement the needs of the school

Accident Injures Two Teens

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

A one-car crash early Thursday morning involving four teenagers injured two of them when the vehicle they were riding in left the road and traveled down a steep, heavily wooded embankment in the Town of Farmington.

The accident occurred Thursday, September 10th, at 7:25 a.m., on Maple Tree Road, 1/4th of a mile south of County Line Road, when a car driven by Chris Gerlach, 16, of W7754 Highway S, Adell, traveling south on Maple Tree, left the road and traveled for several hundred feet on the grassy shoulder.

According to the Washington County Sheriff's Department report, Gerlach tried to brake but was unable to stop because of the wet grass. The car then traveled down the steep embankment on the west side of the road where it hit several large trees and broke off some smaller trees before coming to a halt against some more trees about twenty feet below the roadway.

Two of Gerlach's passengers,

Nicole Knutson, 15, of 9347 Boltonville Road and Julie Tackes, 17, 9411 Bolton Road, both of Kewaskum, were injured and transported by the Kewaskum Rescue Squad to St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend.

Tackes was treated and released. A hospital spokesman said Knutson remained hospitalized, listed in good condition. A fourth passenger, reportedly, was not injured and not identified in the Sheriff's Department release.

Gerlach's car was demolished.

of $15,953 for benefits brings that figure to $64,813.

Kewaskum Middle School principal David Jones received the largest raise, 8.6% or $3,800, increasing his salary to $48,000. He also receives $3,672 in fringe benefits, for a total of $51,672 for salary and fringes.

Averaged out, the raises represent a 5.36% salary only increase over 1991-92, and a 6.19% increase based on salaries and fringe benefits.

Two Graduate From MPTC

Sandra Harmon, 709 Pleasantwood Drive, and Keven Stelzel, N541 Highway S, both of Kewaskum, recently graduated from Moraine Park Technical College - West Bend campus. Harmon and Stelzel received diplomas in the emergency medical technician - basic program.

School Board Approves 1992-93 Administrative Salaries

By Gerry Mueller

At Monday night's meeting the Kewaskum Board of Education approved the 1992-93 salaries for its administrative and non-represented personnel (those individuals not represented by the KEA or KAP unions).

Of the eleven people affected, ten were given raises ranging from 3.84 to 8.6%. Because assistant high school principal Dr. Christopher Ruhm has just joined the district, his salary was not subject to an increase.

District Administrator Dr. David Heather received the smallest increase of 3.84% or $2,400, bringing his base salary up to $64,900. Heather, however, also receives an additional $3,800 for acting as the district's business manager. That brings his wages up to $68,700. With the addition of his fringe benefits, amounting to $20,110, Heather's total salary, including those benefits, comes to $88,810. His vacation time was increased from four to five weeks. Also included in Heather's contract was the district's commitment to pay the full cost of college credits, with a maximum of three credits a year, and a buy out by the district, of up to ten unused vacation days per year.

Kewaskum High School principal Charles Heidner received a 6% or $3,210 raise, bringing his salary to $56,710. Adding the cost of benefits, $17,644, brings Heidner's total salary including those benefits, to $74,354.

Kewaskum Elementary School principal Richard Zarling received a 6% or $3,120 raise, bringing his 1992-93 salary, excluding benefits to $55,120. Adding the cost of $13,737 in fringe benefits, brings that figure to $68,857.

Farmington/Wayne principal Tom Larsen's 6% raise amounted to $2,856, increasing his salary, less benefits, to $50,456. Fringe benefits amounting to $10,496, brings Larsen's total salary and fringes to $60,952.

Buildings and Grounds Superintendent Fred Boehlke received a 6% increase of $2,160, to $38,160, plus fringes of $13,750, that equals $51,910.

Food Services Supervisor Kathy Robinson was also given a 6% raise which amounted to $855, increasing her annual salary to $15,105, adding fringe benefits brings it to $24,062.

Administrative office personnel

Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Jacak also received 6% increases. Jacak's salary went up $1,525 to $26,950. She also receives an additional $2,000 for business management duties, bringing her salary only figure to $28,950. With the addition of fringe benefits $11,788, her total wages amount to $40,738.

Russell's raise of $1,491, increased her salary to $26,354. She also receives an additional $1,000 for business management duties. Her salary along with fringe benefits of $11,646 for 92-93, comes to $39,000.

District Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand received a 6% or $2,760 increase, bringing her salary to $48,760. Adding the cost

Joanne Katchever of Kewaskum, was recently featured in a national magazine, "Reminisce," published in Greendale, Wisconsin.

She was contacted by the magazine, when they discovered her unique talent that's already made her famous in this part of the country - personalized paper dolls.

Katchever's dolls are created to look like your son or daughter, mother or grandmother by working from customer's photographs. They're painted on thin sheets of wood for endurance, and come complete with favorite outfits and accessories. People are charmed by these personalized paper dolls, and orders flock in every day from around the country, requesting them for themselves and also as gifts.

"I've had a great response from the magazine article," Katchever says. "I can't believe it - it's amazing!" Her new ideas include making paper dolls from old photographs. "If someone wants a doll made in the likeness of their mother as a child, I work with them on these projects, and the results have been great!" The resemblances are very striking. So far, Joanne has created 450 paper doll sets, filling orders throughout the continent.

"I enjoy meeting and talking to my customers," Joanne says. "The people have been so wonderful and friendly over the phone."

1937 Class Reunion Held

Ten members, along with spouses, attended the 1937 class reunion held at the Glacier Inn, Kewaskum, on Saturday, Sept. 12, denoting the 55th year of their graduation from Kewaskum High School. The 1937 class graduated with 30 students, 15 boys and 15 girls. A delicious family style dinner at five o'clock, preceded a cocktail hour.

Attending the reunion were Fred Dorn and his wife Margaret, Ruth Mary Beisbier and her husband Andy, Bill Gutekunst and his wife Lynn, Ruth Borchert, Marcella Krueger, Orville Reysen and his wife Betty, Arthur Weddig and his wife Ella, Clarence Werner and his wife Dee, Laura Miller and her husband Joe, Marcie Harbeck and Bernice Ramthun, who was enrolled at KHS, but transferred to Plymouth High School. Willard Prost and his wife Dolores attended the cocktail hour, but couldn't stay for the dinner due to a previous commitment.

Deceased members are Iris Bartelt (Weinberger), Myron Belger, Marvin Koenig, Rose Lecher (Bauer), Ralph Marx, Orlin Reysen, Helen Rosenthal (Scott),

Kewaskum Women's Club

The Kewaskum's Women's Club will hold their start-up meeting for the fall season at the home of Mrs. Alma Edwards on September 24 from 3 to 5 p.m. with a tea. In case of rain, the meeting will be held at the community room. Hostesses for the day will be the new officers.

Plans for the coming year will be discussed and dues are will be collected by the treasurer.

Doris Seil (Burg, Heimann), Dorothy Smith (Lebb), Howard Walters, Jeanette Werner (Westerman) and Walter Werner.

The committee appointed for the next class reunion, which will be held in three years, is Fred Miller, Fred Dorn and Marcella Krueger. The committee for this year's reunion was Marcie Harbeck, Laura Miller and Clark Werner.

Natural Weight Loss Surprises Researchers

SUGAR ABSORPTION CAN BE REDUCED

A weight loss tablet has been developed that will enable virtually anyone to reduce weight without dieting, without giving up favorite foods and without fear of side effects. While researching the medicinal effects of an herbal extract on controlling blood sugar levels in diabetics, scientists in Japan and India discovered that the herb acted as a sugar blocker thus reducing the amount of sugar absorbed into the body. Studies published in respected scientific journals such as The American Journal of Clinical Nutrition showed that by limiting the amount of sugar that is absorbed, calories are reduced and less sugar is turned to fat. The effect is a natural weight loss.

The amazing herb is now available to the public in tablet form under the label MEGA-THIN 100. It is available immediately because it is not a drug and contains only natural ingredients.

The discovery of MEGA-THIN 100 has been a windfall for overweight people. One satisfied West Virginia resident said, "I began taking MEGA-THIN 100 on the advice of my pharmacist. Within 5 weeks I had lost 18 pounds. I'm so glad that I found an easy all-natural product to help me in my battle against excess weight. I could eat normally and lose weight." A Wisconsin resident and a pharmacist himself, began taking MEGA-THIN 100 to shed a few extra pounds and I not only lost the weight, I was able to use MEGA-THIN 100 to help control my weight after I reached my goal."

Pharmacists are praising MEGA-THIN 100 as a safe, effective, drug-free alternative in weight reduction. MEGA-THIN 100 is available at this pharmacy:

The above memories photo shows pictures of men, camp pennants, address board and arm insignias, which were displayed during World War II at the Grand View Lunch Room, Kewaskum. The tavern and lunch room was the "headquarters" for all servicemen home on furlough. Servicemen would send the pennants, pictures and addresses to Tiny Terlinden, who in turn would post them on the display boards. The pennants were displayed all around the walls of the tavern. The addresses were also posted on the board. When Tiny entered service, his sister Lone, kept up the good work, along with his sister "Toot" and his mother, Tillie.

Now, 50 years later, we will be publishing the pictures of the area young men who were either drafted or enlisted in the different branches of service.

The pictures this week are of those who gave their lives in service. Robert G. Romaine was the first soldier from Kewaskum who was killed in action. The local Legion post was named after him, American Legion, Robert G. Romaine Post 384. Sylvester Harter, Walter Werner and Walter Kohn were also killed in action.

'Pig-Mania' Invades Kewaskum

By L.L.K.

The piggy and I apologize to all of you who scoured through last week's issue trying to find the pig article. (Ha, Ha... fooled you!) The holiday weekend caught us one day short to get the issue out and of course, the pig was of no help whatsoever. He figured it was probably his last week here this weekend, so he was "outta holiday" on some type of "fling" I presume. He's not talking about where he actually was or with whom!

I had thought he had been back up to the Dells for more miniature golf until I saw his sunburn and realized there is no way he could have burned that badly just riding the Big Kahuna! He had to be at the beach. It took six jars of Noxema just to cool his parched little pigskin. (Do you have any idea how burned pigskin smells?)

Frankly, I think he was in the Bahamas. I can't wait to see my credit card bill. He promised me he would only use it for emergencies. And how on earth did he get on the plane without his sunglasses? He had to have help! Does anyone know if Larry was in Kewaskum all weekend? Or was he mysteriously absent also? Don't worry... I fully intend to get to the bottom of this. And piggy is grounded until October 11th. I don't know if Larry is...

Everywhere I go... I hear is pig... pig... pig. I'm beginning to wonder if when this is all over if I will be able to carry on a normal, adult conversation. We attended Richard's son's wedding near Random Lake on Saturday. (You should have seen how dashing Richard looked in his tux!) I figured no one in that niche of the world would "talk pig." WRONG! Before I had two sips out of my "stress-reliever" someone asked me "Who's leading the pig contest?" Then I turned around and my dear friend, Richard, said, "I think you're gonna hafta kiss old piggy." NOT-NOT-NOT!!!

Is there no where I can turn to escape this pig business? He practically follows me everywhere I go. It's embarrassing! But I guess that's the idea... go ahead... make me suffer! I'll become a better person for this, right? WRONG! I still seek revenge!

I realize I probably do blabber alot about revenge, but actually that is just wishful thinking. Anyone who knows the "real me" knows I can't be cruel. Can you believe one candidate (I don't want to mention any names... but his initials are TM) actually accused me of sending him a pig head in the mail! From what I understand, it was just a pretend pig head, not the real thing, but can you imagine? What sick, twisted, demented person could do such a thing? (I wish I'd thought of it!)

I would NEVER, everyone knows I would NEVER do something like that! I saw "The Godfather" just the same as everyone else, and I thought that horse head scene was totally uncalled for (especially after buttered popcorn!) Besides, give me credit for being a little more original than that. When I start "payback time" I'll take great pleasure in letting you know it was me! Still I wish I could have seen his face when he opened it. Beware of someone bearing gifts...

Strange things have been happening in this town since this contest has been unleashed. I don't know if this is fact or fiction, but I've heard people are deliberately speeding through Kewaskum just to get an autograph of "Billy Ray" Ellis. Expensive autograph... and I bet you don't even get to keep the original!

I think his hours are now being posted at the Tourist Information Center so you don't have to speed during his off duty hours. Rumor has it that he's picked up an old guitar and has been practicing his do-re-mi's nightly. The question is... will he make the "career move?" His wife says if his singing in the shower is any indication of things to come... it will be a brief career. Another thing... will he be physically able to withstand "guitar picking?" I heard he has "weak knuckles." Better think this all through again. "Billy Ray." Of course voice and knuckles are inconsequential... what's really important is... can he dance???

Another thing... isn't it customary to wish the boss a good morning at the start of the day? When I come in to work, instead of being greeted with a cheerful good morning or hello, I hear someone from the front of our office yelling at me... "LET THE PIG LIVE!"

I don't know why everyone is getting in such a tither... someone recently told me that in some obscure country (I think it was Mepos) it is actually an honor, reserved strictly for the town's hierarchy, to kiss the royal pig. WHEW! That leaves me off the hook! I know nine others who are much more honorable than I!

Mama always told us little Harbeck girls, "Nice girls don't kiss pigs." (Actually, they wait until the pigs come to kiss them, right Mama?) So please do not vote for C.T. or myself or you'll really make our Mama feel bad. She'll think she didn't raise us "good and proper."

Of course she did! She also taught us all about feeding our husbands a good homecooked meal nightly, making sure they always have nice, clean, freshly-ironed clothes and of course, fetching their slippers. But we didn't listen to her about that either! I, on the other hand, am trying to teach my SONS to do all those things... to no avail, I might add.

One more thing, I want to urge all of you to vote for village board member Bob Wagner. For any of you who attended the Donkey Basketball Game sponsored by the Kewaskum FFA Alumni last spring, and watched the firemen's team... you must remember how good Bob is with animals. You must take this into consideration when you vote. The pig deserves someone who will be good to him.

Also, after collecting the last batch of money, I noticed the Goring-Donath feud must have called a truce. I don't want to let out any secrets but... one of you boys is in for a big surprise! You guys know you can't trust each other!

Well, I guess I've stepped on enough toes for this week. Will I never learn to keep my mouth shut, my pencil and my mouth on hold? Next week... maybe!

Mom... Carole voted for me again! Make her stop it! (Ha, Ha! Mom likes me best!)

Money Used for Local Projects

See BIG Savings Two Ways... when you switch to a propane water heater.

When compared to electricity, you can typically save hundreds of dollars in annual operating costs with a propane water heater...that adds up to thousands of dollars over the life of the unit.*

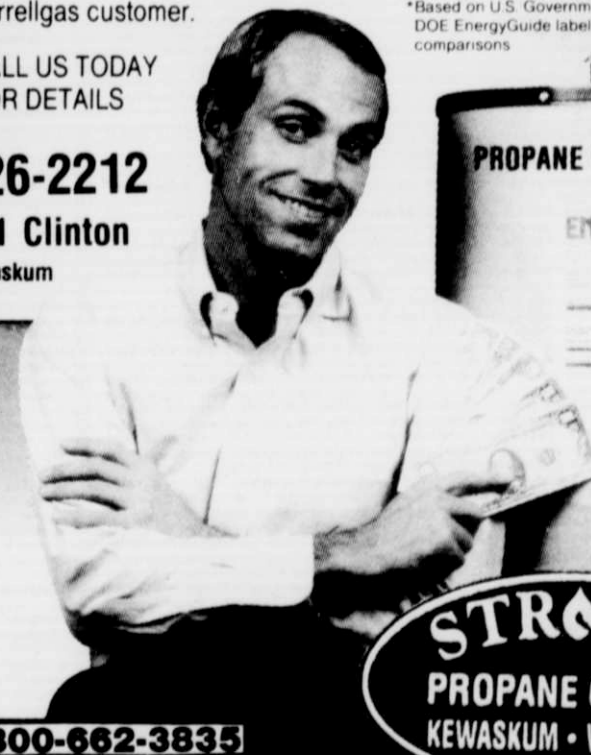

In addition to operating cost savings, Ferrellgas is currently offering you $25 off the purchase price of a new propane water heater when you trade in your existing unit and become a regular Ferrellgas customer.

CONSTITUTION WEEK 1992

WHEREAS It is the privilege and duty of all Americans to commemorate the two hundred fifth anniversary of the drafting of the Constitution of the United States of America with appropriate ceremonies and activities; and

WHEREAS Public Law 915 guarantees the issuance of a proclamation by the President of the United States of America, designating September 17 through 23 as Constitution Week.

THEREFORE I, Mary Krueger, as Village of Kewaskum President, Kewaskum, Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim the week of September 17 through 23 as and urge all citizens to study the Constitution and express gratitude for the privilege of being an American in a Republic which functions under the oldest constitution still in active use today.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Village to be affixed this 10th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ninety two and the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred sixteenth.

worked eleven days of casual sub work. He said some of the districts were already doing this and had found the extra pay helped as an incentive to encourage teachers to return to the same district rather than accept a job with another district. "During certain times of the school year lining up good substitute teachers is almost a cutthroat operation and this extra money may help," said Heather.

The board in other action approved a contract with low bidder Chemical Waste Management, to remove and dispose of the district's leftover hazardous chemicals.

Contracts for Julie Butcher and Lynn Heinz as third and fourth grade teachers, respectively, at KES were approved.

The request of Mrs. Alvarado to plan a 1993 KHS students trip to Mexico, received board approval.

The board accepted the recommendation of KMS principal David Jones to appoint Richard Straub as KMS head wrestling coach.

staff. Outside of class time parents can help with special school related projects such as science fairs, etc.

As for the parents, they can learn the importance of school and their role in it and what actually goes on in school. They can become more informed about their school, making it easier to discuss school issues.

As for future goals, Waehler said they would like to involve the community in helping in the schools. People who do not have children in school but who would like to know what the schools are doing now. "We would also like to have classes for parents on things like how to be a parent of a student, how to help your child with their homework, working with special needs children or the gifted and talented. We would like to have teachers meet with groups of parents by grade for one of the reasons that, teacher conferences, as set up now, do not allow the time for either the teacher or parent to go into any detail on topics of concern.

District wide, Waehler said she would like to see every school set up a PARENTS program and perhaps join forces for special classes. "The bottom line," said Waehler, "is, parents are the key to a school's success." The coordinators of PARENTS want you to know about this program and perhaps we can be utilized to accomplish some of the school board's goals. Waehler stressed her presentation was not a request for any financial support but an effort to make the board aware of the existence of the program.

Constitution Week To Be Observed

September 17-23 is Constitution Week, according to several proclamations issued in Washington County.

"With the presidential election in November, this is an appropriate time to consider the freedoms, the system of checks and balances, and the type of government established by our Constitution, according to Mary Beth Winkowski, a member of the Joseph Marest Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The DAR annually celebrates Constitution Week, which in 1992 marks the 205th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution, the oldest constitution still in active use today.

The chapter urges citizens to study the Constitution, and all who are 18 years old or older to exercise their right to vote.

General Hallen Returns From Battalion Reunion

Elmer and Betty Hallen recently returned from Elmer's 658 Amphibious Tractor Battalion Reunion held in Northbrook IL, Ramada Inn Aug. 26-30.

Attendees came from Texas, New Jersey, North Carolina, Virginia, Georgia, Florida, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin.

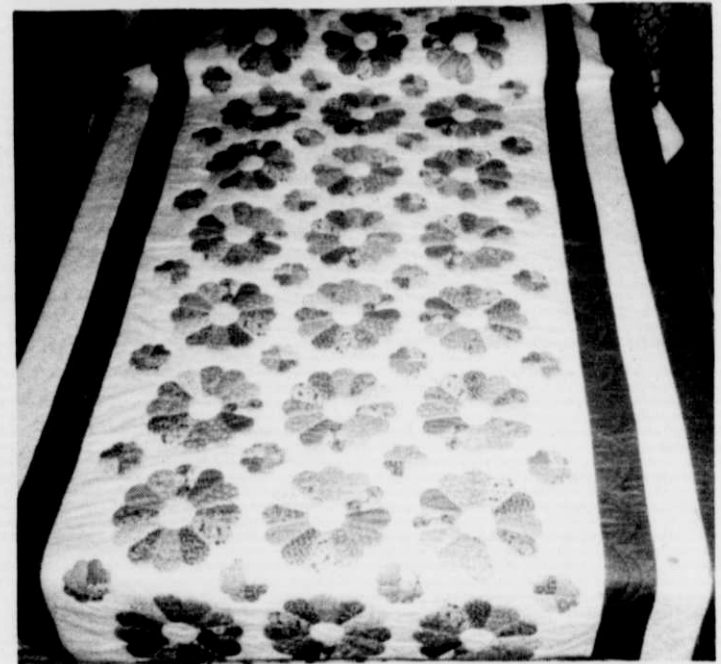

The group visited the Brookfield Zoo in Chicago and held their annual golf outing.

Highlight of the banquet was Elmer's promotion to SIX-STAR GENERAL. He was presented with a jacket with "General Hallen" embroidered on the pocket and the Battalion patches sewn on the sleeves. Also on the shoulders were six-stars indicating his rank. Be sure to salute next time you meet him on the street.

Plans for a mini reunion April 2, 3, 4, 1993 at Ft. Hood, Texas were made. This will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the organization of the battalion.

The annual reunion will be held August 19, 20, and 21 in the Chicago area, 1993.

St. Michael's and St. John of God Christian Women's Group made this hand-stitched quilt and will be raffled off at their annual Fall Festival to be held on Sunday, Sept. 27. Raffle tickets are available at Valley Bank, and any Christian Women member.

Excerpts From Birth As I Remember

By Marvin Martin

In the mid 1920s, with the village becoming larger, there was a need for a larger school. There was a lot of controversy for moving the school from its original area to what is now Reigle Drive and Second Street. Several meetings were held before the voters were convinced to build a new school. This new school gave us our first real gym.

We had primary, intermediate, upper grades and high school. There were six teachers, including the principal. Sports were usually taught by the principal.

Track was not done until after our second school building was built, and there was no formal football. We did play football of sorts, but never really had enough players to make up a team and didn't know enough about the game to play it. What we played was more or less a tag type football game.

STAEHLER — A son to Jack and Vickie Staehler of Culver City, California, Joseph Zachary was born August 12. Grandparents are Bob and Jeanne Staehler of Kewaskum and Hank Werner of Jupiter, Florida.

Auxiliary Presents $5,000 Check To Hospital at Fall Luncheon

The fall luncheon for the St. Joseph's Community Hospital Auxiliary was held on Tuesday, Sept. 1, at the West Bend Country Club. Marge Kieckhafer, president of the auxiliary, presented a check for $5,000 to Fred Bury, hospital administrator. The money was raised through various club projects and it is part of the hospital auxiliary's pledge to the hospital.

Fred Barry of the "Make A Wish Foundation of Wisconsin," presented a video and a very informative and touching talk on the make a wish foundation. It is a non-profit organization whose purpose it is to fulfill the wishes of children under 18 years of age who are afflicted with a serious illness. Mr. Barry's own son was the 205th recipient of the foundation. Through the foundation, his son and the entire family were able to take a trip to Disneyland, all expenses paid, by the foundation.

If anyone would like more information in becoming a member of the auxiliary, please contact Ellie at 644-8002.

Early Farm Days a Success

People stood in line for the delicious beef stew, beef sandwiches, hot dogs and home made pie.

A complete miniature farm was displayed by Andrew and Linda Otten of Kewaskum. They are farm toy collectors.

On Sunday, Sept. 13th the Kewaskum Historical Society celebrated their 18th annual event. I would like to thank everyone who helped us out.

A special thanks to Bud and Dean Schmidt for the horse drawn wagon rides, Lee and Pat Hames for the rug weaving demonstration, Ann Lagorio for her work on the spinning wheel, the Kettle Country Cloggers and The Kettle Squares for their fine entertainment. To all the exhibitors for displaying their farm equipment. Again we had exhibition from as far away as Madison, Oshkosh and Howard, Illinois.

Finally a special thanks to all the members of the society who helped, and all of the people who came out to watch the old kids playing with their toys. Again thank you for helping support the Kewaskum Historical Society.

County Seeking Host for 1995 Farm Progress Days

Washington County is seeking applications from county farm families to host the 1995 Wisconsin Farm Progress days show. The show is scheduled to be held in July of 1995.

The Executive Committee, organized to conduct the show, developed criteria and application forms to be used as a part of the selection process. Site selection criteria include the following major items.

1. The farmstead and major land owned must be in Washington County. A minimum of 350 to 400 acres is needed for the show.

2. The farm must have access to parking area or areas from at least two directions and readily available by good roads with a good traffic flow pattern.

3. Land should be under the control of one operator with a maximum of two operators.

4. Land owners must be willing to cooperate with the committee on use of cropping acres and must be willing to sign an agreement to this affect.

5. The owner must allow at least 160 acres of reasonable level land, in sod, to be used for Tent City, exhibitor and other parking, and demonstration areas.

6. In addition to the above, about 200 acres of hay must be available for harvest during the three day event.

7. Owners must have adequate silo and hay storage space for harvest of haylage and dry hay.

Applications must be completed and returned to the Washington County UW-Extension Office by no later than October 23, 1992.

All applications will be kept confidential. The Executive Committee will meet on October 26, 1992 to review applications. A farm visit will be made to finalists in early November to assist in making a selection of the host family or families.

Application forms are available from the Washington County UW-Extension Office, 333 E. Washington St., Suite 1200, West Bend, WI 53095. For more information call 335-4477, 644-5204, or 342-2929.

Attention Horicon Marsh Duck Hunters

A safety inspection of the Horicon Dam has resulted in mandated repairs for this fall. The Department of Natural Resources will be repairing the Horicon Dam from September 8 - October 7.

The Horicon Dam gates will be open during this time period. The water level on the state end of Horicon Marsh will be one foot to one and a half feet lower than normal fall water levels. This will impair mobility in the marsh during the waterfowl season.

Repairs are scheduled for completion as of October 7th. At this time, Horicon Dam gates will be closed in hopes of restoring higher water levels to the marsh for the second half of the duck season.

In the Service

Marine Sgt. Keith A. Rowe, a 1980 graduate of Campbellsport High School, recently returned from a six-month deployment to the Western Pacific with the 13th Marine Expeditionary Unit (Special Operations Capable).

The 13th MEU departed San Diego as the Marine Landing Force for the amphibious assault ship USS Okinawa Amphibious Ready Group (ARG). Rowe embarked with his fellow Marines aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Okinawa, the amphibious cargo ship USS Durham, the amphibious transport dock USS Duluth, the dock landing ship USS Fort McHenry and the tank landing ship USS Tuscaloosa.

While deployed during "WestPac-92," Rowe participated in numerous exercises which enhanced the 13th MEU's ability to serve as a force-in-readiness for contingency operations throughout the world. He also participated in civil action projects in several countries by helping build schools, delivering books, medical supplies and food. Rowe also had the opportunity to visit many countries including the Republic of the Philippines, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Africa, Thailand, Singapore and Australia.

He joined the Marine Corps in October 1986.

LORETTA R. THELEN

Loretta R. Thelen, nee Woltring, of West Bend, died Tuesday, Sept. 8, 1992, at St. Joseph's Community Hospital, at the age of 81.

She was born June 23, 1911, in Grafton, to the late Louis and Rose (nee Fischer) Woltring.

After her marriage to Theodore P. Thelen in Milwaukee on Jan. 26, 1932, they lived in Milwaukee, then in Thiensville and Grafton until 1953 when they moved to Newburg.

She retired from Doerr Electric, Grafton, in 1976, and for the past seven years has lived in West Bend.

Her husband passed away Aug. 4, 1970.

Survivors include eight children, Marlene (Donald) Jackson of Cedarburg, Donald (Shirley) of Bedfordshire, England, Ronald of West Bend, Nancy (Lowell) Jenz of Minocqua, Mary (William) Weyker of Fond du Lac, Diane (Jerry) Lecher of Port Washington, Karen (Wayne) Kirst of Kewaskum and Michael (Gail) of West Bend; 30 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; three sisters, Lois (Elmer) Fick and Delores (Franklin) Boesch, both of Grafton, and Cora Retzer of Bullhead City, Ariz.; two brothers, Louis (Lois) and Clifford (Ruth) both of Grafton; and other relatives and friends.

Preceding her in death was a son, Daniel, a sister and two brothers.

She was a member and past president of the Lt. Ray Dickop Post 36 of the American Legion Auxiliary and the West Bend Chapter 732, Women of the Moose.

Funeral services were held Friday, Sept. 11, at 8 p.m. at the Schmidt Funeral Home, West Bend, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 8:30 p.m. at Holy Angels Church. Rev. Jerome Rinzel was the presider, and burial was Saturday morning in Holy Trinity Cemetery, Newburg.

Visitation at the funeral home was Friday from 4 p.m. until the time of services.

JOHN STANCHFIELD

Funeral services for John B. Stanchfield, 61, of 96 21st St., Fond du Lac were held at 11 a.m. Thursday at Mach Funeral Chapel, Fond du Lac.

The Rev. James Klein officiated. Entombment was at Shrine of Rest Mausoleum, Ledgeview Memorial Park.

Visitation was from 5 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral chapel.

Mr. Stanchfield died Sunday, Sept. 6, 1992, at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac.

He was born April 8, 1931, in Fond du Lac, a son of Samuel and Bertha Gillis Stanchfield. On Sept. 22, 1964, he married Annabelle M. Casetta at Waukegan, Ill.

Mr. Stanchfield was a graduate of Fond du Lac Senior High School. He was employed for 27 years at Johnson Bus Co. and Specialized Transport Services where he was service manager.

He was a past member of the National Holstein Association and received many awards while farming in the Town of Fond du Lac. Mr. Stanchfield also received awards from The Grange and during his service with the 4-H and FFA. He was a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie No. 270 and was active in bowling and camping.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Martin and his wife Edna of Kenosha, and David and his wife Lois, and Kyle and his fiancée Lisa Donovan, all of Fond du Lac; one daughter, Kathy Johnson and her husband Tony of Fond du Lac; two step-sons, Aaron Starks and his wife Sandy, and Jan Starks and his wife Margaret, both of Fond du Lac; four grandsons; two granddaughters; two brothers, Eugene and his wife Lucille, and George and his wife Carol, both of Fond du Lac; and three sisters, Virginia Willis and her husband Bob, and Ruth Smith and her husband Bob, both of Fond du Lac, and Harriett Murphy and her husband Joseph of Campbellsport.

His parents preceded him in death.

CHESTER KOZLOWSKI

Chester E. Kozlowski, 69, of N3167 Highway 67, Campbellsport, died Sunday, Sept. 13, 1992, at his home.

He was born Nov. 11, 1922, in Dayton, Ohio, a son of Leon and Maryann Makowski Kozlowski. On May 6, 1955, he married Lucille Tetzlaff at St. Gaul's Church, Milwaukee.

Mr. Kozlowski served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He was employed for 35 years at A.O. Smith Co., Milwaukee, prior to retiring in 1981. He was a member of Our Lady Of Angels Catholic Church, Armstrong.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Cynthia Williamson and her husband Lawrence of Port Washington and Suzanne Kozlowski of Mukwonago; five grandchildren; and two brothers and five sisters in Ohio.

Preceding him in death were his parents and 10 sisters and brothers.

Groomed to Perfection

Joy's of Grooming has done it again! Joy Kuhnke, owner of Joy's of Grooming, placed higher than all other entries from Washington and Fond du Lac counties, at the Wisconsin State Professional Dog Grooming Contest and Seminar in June. Making this three years in a row, as your counties top groomer.

Joy placed 3rd grooming a Bichon Frise. This was Joy's first show grooming a Bichon. Not too shabby, since there were seven other Bichons in the grooming ring.

A 2nd placement with a Miniature Poodle, against 12 other poodle groomers. Joy did a pet trim called a Puppy Cut. "This dog was groomed to perfection, everything from your clipper work to your scissoring was great. Someone had to take first, plus her trim was a little more difficult," stated the judge Maureen Parolini.

Joy's Santa was featured on Channel 4, with the perfect pom in the creative styling class. Buffy Shill is a white Miniature Poodle. By the time Joy was done with him, he was wearing a Santa outfit that was scissored from his own hair and colored red. And yes, Buffy loved wearing the glasses!

Scholars believe the first wallpaper was made in Europe during the 1500's.

Parents Can Help Ensure Kids Eat Healthy Lunches During School Year

You may pack tuna fish on whole wheat or think your child is eating a nutritious hot school lunch. But he really throws out the veggies and trades the sandwich for Twinkies.

You can't stand over your child while he or she eats lunch at school, but you can take steps to increase the chances that kids make healthy choices, according to Jan Felthous, Summer Extension Home Economist.

"If you have good communication with your children, you can hope they'll tell you what they want and you can plan accordingly," Jan Felthous said.

A recent Gallup poll showed 58 percent of children in grades four through eight eat a hot school lunch, while 40 percent bring a lunch from home.

Susan Nitzke, UW-Extension nutrition specialist, said research shows kids have a strong sense of what belongs in a healthy meal even before they enter school.

"Starting as early as possible with yourselves as examples will help build good eating habits," she said. "If your child senses from you that dinner isn't complete without a vegetable, he or she will be more likely to include vegetables in meals."

Nitzke also recommended giving children limited choices for each lunch and then including children in food preparation if they choose a sack lunch.

"It's common knowledge that kids will try different foods and be less likely to throw things away if they have a say in what they eat and prepare it themselves," Nitzke said.

Jan Felthous said communication becomes more important as kids become more independent.

"Fads, peer pressure and the need for independence can play a large role in your child's diet. You can still tell them what you prefer and encourage them to make healthy choices, but you shouldn't force children to eat specific foods or certain amounts."

Nitzke said parents also should avoid prohibiting certain foods.

"One sure way to encourage rebellion is to ban candy bars when your child sees his or her friends eating candy after school," Nitzke said.

One thing parents can do, however, is create an atmosphere in which healthy eating is easy and convenient.

Nitzke said almost all children want a snack after school, but many parents don't make nutritious foods readily available. She suggested providing kids with foods like cold cereal and milk, sandwiches, individual cups of fruit, yogurt or applesauce, juice pops, or cut-up vegetables and dip.

Nitzke said parents also can work with the school to encourage healthy eating by:

*Supporting the school lunch program. Take an interest in what your child is eating by having lunch at the school cafeteria once a year yourself. Provide suggestions to school managers or offer to serve on an advisory council.

*Checking with your school on policies about bringing food.

*Telling school administrators you prefer fundraisers that don't emphasize candy bar sales.

Nitzke also emphasized the importance of exercise to children's health. She said parents should encourage physical activity after school, support school physical education programs and involve the entire family in activities emphasizing exercise whenever possible.

For more information on children's nutrition and fitness, contact the Extension Home Economist at 335-4479 or 333 East Washington Street, West Bend, WI 53095.

The appointment of Mark D. Rosenheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Rosenheimer of Kewaskum, as Assistant Trust officer of Hackley Union National Bank and Trust Company, Muskegon, Mich., was announced by Wm. R. Munrol, chairman of the board of directors. Rosenheimer assumed his duties on Sept. 5.

The appointment of Aldwin Seefeldt, son of Alfred H. Seefeldt of Kewaskum, as chairman of the unreserved ticket sales for the Republican State fundraising dinner Sept. 30, in the Milwaukee Arena, was announced Tuesday. Principal speaker of the evening will be California Governor Ronald Reagan, former movie star.

The body of a man found beaten and shot in the head, found on vacant farm near Kewaskum Tuesday afternoon, was identified by authorities as that of Herbert McKinney, 26, of Chicago. The slain man was identified by fingerprints taken from him. Chicago police notified the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department Thursday that they had interviewed two of McKinney's sisters who lived with McKinney. They said they had gone to a tavern with McKinney and his girlfriend Saturday. The three left him there and returned to the McKinney home and that was the last they saw of him. They reported him missing Tuesday morning. The farm is listed in the county plat book as owned by C & B Dombrowski of Chicago, who it was reported, formerly lived there.

Mrs. Anna Ferber, 76, wife of William F. Ferber, and well known native of the Town of Auburn, died Friday, Sept. 11, at her home in Campbellsport.

William J. Koepke, 68, of R.1, Adell, was fatally injured at 11 p.m. Sunday night when he was struck by a car driven by Fred Beyer, 18, of R.1, Kewaskum, on country trunk A, at the north end of the village of Beechwood. According to the coroner and other Sheboygan County authorities called to the scene, Beyer was driving north on A, and Koepke was walking in the same direction. They met a car traveling south, driven by Robert Struebing of Adell, and both drivers were blinded by the lights of the cars as it was raining at the time. Beyer failed to see Koepke walking at the side of the road in time to avoid striking him. Beyer testified he was driving about 30 miles an hour at the time, as did Struebing. Carl Liermann of Kewaskum, was a passenger in Beyer's auto.

Bernard Seefeldt, fieldman for the Kewaskum Creamery, enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard last week at Milwaukee and left for active service.

LeRoy O. Gessner, R.1, Kewaskum, enlisted in the U.S. Navy at Milwaukee this week.

Births — Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ramthun of this village are the parents of a son, born Thursday, Sept. 17. A son was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip McLaughlin, Tuesday, Sept. 15. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Fellenz, R.2, Kewaskum are the parents of a son born Wednesday, Sept. 9.

Herman Krueger, son of Mrs. August Krueger of Dundee, has a narrow escape from being seriously injured last week while returning home in his Ford runabout from this village. When a short distance north of Chas Klabuhn's farm, one of the tires on the front wheel blew out, causing the car to swerve to one side of the road where it turned turtle. Mr. Krueger, losing control of the machine, was thrown headlong to the ground, where he received a few cuts about the head, but no serious injury. The only damage to the car was a broken windshield.

Joseph Eberle, son of Mrs. Kathryn Eberle, who conducts a saloon on Main Street, and Edwin Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Miller, Town of Kewaskum, who has been employed at the A.G. Koch store, were the first two young men from this area to be called into the United States Army by the selection draft. They left on the 4 a.m. Sunday train for Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., where they will be in training.

All arrangements for the opening in our village, of the Kewaskum Pocket Book Factory, a subsidiary of the Enger-Kress Pocket Book Company of West Bend, were consummated. The Altenhofen building on Main Street has been made to accommodate 30 employees at the very offset and as the demand arises provisions for many more will be made. Beyond question the local plant will prove a flourishing asset to our village and give employment to a great many.

After January 1st, there can be no more common law marriages without a marriage license.

Yeska Family Reunion

by Isabelle Muckerheide

The descendants of Anton and Stella Yeska gathered at the old home site for their third annual reunion over the three day Labor Day weekend in Neshkoro.

In a short time, a little village developed with tents, campers and an RV. The Lord gave us favorable weather until midnight on Saturday when we had a one inch downpour. My sister discovered that her new tent was not waterproof. A few wet bed rolls did not dampen our spirits however.

About 80 T shirts with a Yeska logo were distributed and the majority of us attended Mass at 5:30 p.m. Saturday. After that a feast of "spanferkel," roast corn and my brother's special crock pickles were on the menu, with other goodies.

In a somber note, a maple and a pine tree were planted in memory of two young men killed in auto accidents since last year's event.

A ball game, road rally and a jelly bean tasting contest were some of the entertainment. At night a huge bonfire was lit, and we had a sing-a-long by the adults, while the children toasted marshmallows.

A hat was passed among the campers and $325.00 was collected for the victims of the Wautoma tornado. We had a chance to view the devastation while going through Wautoma to Wild Rose for a cousin's wake. Later a few of us had a Birthday dinner for my niece at Silvercryst. It had narrowly escaped the tornado's path. Of course, I had to put my two cents worth in as follows:

As once again we gather
For our annual jamboree,
I hope that this is going to be,
A blast for you and me!
Now there's the Kurz's and Kempiaks,
The Goods and Yeska's, too
The Luty's, Kerhins, and the Bahr's
Hlavenka, and yours truly, too

I hope I've not forgotten
A few that might be here,
So please forgive my ignorance
I'm getting on in years
A few loved ones are missing,
That had been here before.
God has them in His keeping,
We could not ask for more.

So let's all join festivities
As long as we are here.
So we create some memories
Enough to last all year!

Indians Beat Kiel; Improve to 4-0;

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — A win is a win, and despite the closeness of the scores in Kewaskum's volleyball victory over Kiel here, last Thursday, the Indians are happy to escape with the victory.

"It was a little closer than we wanted," Indian coach Dave Rizzardi said of his team's 15-12, 17-15, 16-14 triumph over the Raiders. The win improved Kewaskum's record to 4-0 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, and capped off a perfect week for the Indians.

The Kiel match was an important one for the Indians, who had split two games with the Raiders in the season-opening Indian Invitational. And despite Kiel's EW mark of 0-3, the guests continued to their trend of playing the Indians tough.

"They have improved quite a bit," Rizzardi said of the Raiders, who fell behind 6-0 in the opening game. "They played much better defense than they have in the past."

That defense helped the Raiders tighten things up in the opening game, before the Indians finally pulled through for the win. Inconsistency hurt the Indians the entire night, according to Rizzardi.

"We played in streaks," he said. "We would run off a couple of points, and then have a missed serve, or a bad pass or set. It was really frustrating."

Equally as frustrating to the Indian players was the Raider defense, which seemed to return nearly every Kewaskum spike. "They were able to stop us with good back-row play," Rizzardi said. "We'd hit a good spike, and they would be there to dig it."

The Indians finally wore the Raiders down, however, but not before a couple of anxious moments in the second game. Kewaskum found itself down 14-13 late in the second game, before a Raider player missed a serve, giving the Indians a side out, and what turned out to be a momentum swing. The Indians closed the game out, and thus chalked up another win. "Our poise and experience was able to bring us through," said the Indian coach.

"Robyn (Winninghoff) played a real good match," Rizzardi said, noting that Winninghoff and Christa Schmidt tied for scoring honors, each with ten points. "And Beth Kempf is starting to play well also," giving the Indians a strong front line.

As for assist leaders, Kim Sabish was tops with 14, although she didn't seem to be in the flow of things, according to Rizzardi. Sabish also added 11 serves without a miss, while Julie Mertz chipped in 10 good serves, including a pair of aces.

"It's nice to be 4-0," Rizzardi said, although adding that this will be an important week for his team. On Tuesday, the Indians played Sheboygan Falls, while this Thursday they travel to New Holstein for a match with the Huskies, who are among the leaders in the EW. "At the beginning of the year, I thought that we (Kewaskum, Falls and New Holstein) would be the top three teams in conference...I guess we will find out what we're made of this week."

Fall Trout Stocking Suspended This Year

MILWAUKEE — The Department of Natural Resources' fall trout stocking program for Southeast District urban waterways will be suspended this year. It will be resumed in 1993.

"In the past three years the Department has stocked about 20,000 9-to-12-inch rainbow trout in a number of selected urban waters after they cool down in mid October," said District Fisheries Biologist Ron Piening. "This has become a very popular program that is appreciated by urban anglers. Also, some of these fish survive the winter and provide ice fishing and early spring fishing the following year."

However, Piening said the fish are not available this year due to a major renovation at Madison's Nevin Hatchery that curtailed production. He said 1993 production plans will allow resumption of the program next fall. In addition, early spring trout stocking in urban waters for 1993 shouldn't be affected.

Fall Turkey Season Expected to Be Excellent, Permits to be Mailed

MADISON, WI — The combined mild winter of 1991-92 and an abundant acorn crop are the two top ingredients serving up an excellent rating for Wisconsin's fourth fall turkey season, Bill Vander Zouwen, DNR upland wildlife ecologist, said.

"Couple that with good weather conditions during the critical early weeks of brood-rearing and we expect a fine fall population of turkeys," Vander Zouwen added.

Applicants should receive their permits in the mail by September 15 for the three hunting periods October 12-18, October 19-25 and October 26 - November 1. About 18,000 hunters applied for the 24,990 tags available.

"The extra 7,000 tags will be issued using the same applicant selection process as used for the first tags," Vander Zouwen said.

The extra tags will be free, and hunters that receive two tags may use either or both tags. If a hunter receives two tags for the same time period, two turkeys may be taken on the same day provided they are harvested in the zones listed on the tags.

During the fall turkey hunts, either male or female turkeys may be harvested. Permit levels are set to ensure that no more than five to 10 percent of the hens are taken. Research has shown that this level of harvest will not adversely affect future populations.

"Permit levels are also limited to reduce hunter interference by other turkey hunters," Vander Zouwen added. "Surveyed hunters have reported very low interference rates under current permit levels."

The fall harvest is expected to be around 5,000 turkeys although the final count will depend on the number of hunters filling second tags. Hunters are reminded to take that extra second or two to make sure their target is a turkey, Vander Zouwen warned. Each year one or two hunting accidents occur because of a careless mistake.

The application deadline for spring turkey hunting is December 10. About 62,000 tags will be available next spring, Vander Zouwen said, which means that turkey hunters can

Hunters Choice Application Deadline Sept. 20th

The deadline for Hunters Choice Applications is September 20th, a Sunday. The application fee is $3.00/application and this is paid when the application is picked up at local license vendors. There is no longer a unit 69 as there was in the past; unit 69 used to include portions of Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Washington, Dodge and Ozaukee Co.

Unit 69 has been divided in half and is now Unit 69A and Unit 69B. The dividing line begins in the S.W., with Hwy. 144, which runs to Hwy. 57, N to Hwy. 23, W. to Hwy. 32, N. to Hwy. 42, to Hwy. X. For those of us who hunt that portion of unit 69 that contained Fond du Lac Co., the new unit will be 69A, and it is not until you get well into Sheboygan Co. that it turns into Unit 69B.

Why the change? It was felt that the deer population could be maintained at a higher level in Unit 69A and it should be kept at a lower level in Unit 69B. The over-winter goal would be 20 deer/square Mi. in Unit 69A and 17 deer/square Mi in Unit 69B. The number of Hunters Choice Permits available in Unit 69A is 1675 and in Unit 69B it is 1325. The number of permits available last year in Unit 69 was 2225, therefore 775 extra permits are available this year between Unit 69A and 69B.

The Hunters Choice Permits will be mailed starting on Oct. 16, at this same time Hunter Choice Recipients will be notified of Bonus Permit Eligibility. The Bonus Permits will be mailed by November 13th. It is not being planned to sell Bonus Permits at DNR offices as was done last year, all permits should be issued through the mail.

Unit 68 was also divided in half, using Hwy. 49 as the dividing line. You must now apply for Unit 68A or Unit 68B.

If you have any other questions feel free to contact me.

Indian Netters Edged at Two Rivers

By Statesman Sports Writer

TWO RIVERS — It keeps getting closer and closer, but the Kewaskum girls tennis team is still having trouble winning the big matches on the road.

This time around it was a pair of third set heartbreakers that spelled the difference for the Indians, as they dropped a tough 4-3 decision to Two Rivers, the defending Eastern Wisconsin Conference champions.

Indian coach Glenn Eichstedt, who figured his team would challenge the Raiders for the EW title this year, wasn't too disappointed in the showing, though.

"I'm not all that concerned," Eichstedt said of the early loss. "I knew it would be tough to beat them up there, but I figured we would play them tough."

That they did, and if it hadn't been for the third set losses, the Indians would have gained the early lead in the EW race.

Melissa Rohrer (No. 1 singles) got the Indians off on the right foot, easily downing Jenny Kreisla, 6-1, 6-1. The Indians picked up a win at No. 2 singles as well, with Jenny Thull outlasting Jenny DeRosier in three sets 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

With the No. 2 doubles combo of Lisa Berres and Jenefer Van Assche winning their match in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4, the Indians needed just one more victory to make the ride home more enjoyable.

But it wasn't to be on this day, as the Raiders got three set wins at No. 4 singles and No. 3 doubles to dash the Indian hopes. Meredith Frac, who has been placing very well thus far, came closest for the Indians, as she lost a third set tiebreaker by a 9-7 margin, losing 4-6, 6-3, 6-7. Kate Berres and Carrie Fellenz also came up just short, dropping their third set 5-7.

With game wins counting as a point in the EW standings, the Indians fell just a single point behind the favored Raiders in conference action.

TWO RIVERS 4, KEWASKUM 3
SINGLES — No. 1 - Melissa Rohrer beat Jenny Kreisla, 6-1, 6-1; No. 2 - Jenny Thull beat Jenny DeRosier 3-6, 6-4, 6-3. No. 3 - Karyn Dossinger lost to Jenny Bowe 3-6, 3-6. No. 4 - Meredith Frac lost to Jenny Meissner 4-6, 6-3, 6-7 (7-9).

DOUBLES — No. 1 - Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank lost to Ragan Prucha and Stacy Tome 1-6, 4-6. No. 2 - Lisa Berres and Jenefer VanAssche beat Leah Nemetz and Chris Neonen 6-4, 6-4. No. 3 - Kate Berres and Carrie Fellenz lost to Kerri Polifka and Jenny Richmond 4-6, 6-4, 5-7.

Indians Drop Second Straight Tennis Tilt

By Statesman Sports Writer

PLYMOUTH — While he's not ready to jump ship quite yet, Kewaskum girls tennis coach Glenn Eichstedt has got to be a bit concerned with his team's progress.

That's because the Indians dropped their second straight Eastern Wisconsin Conference dual meet, this time losing to Plymouth on the road, 4-3. The Indians had dropped a match to conference favorite Two Rivers just a week earlier.

"I really thought that we were going to go to Plymouth and win that match," Eichstedt admitted afterward. "I figured we would give Two Rivers a battle, but I expected that we would beat (Plymouth). It's still early yet, though, so I'm not too worried."

He might start becoming worried if the Indians don't improve on the showing thus far. Expecting his team to challenge for the top spot this season, Eichstedt now finds the Indians 0-2 in conference meets.

"We're only three games out of first," he said, noting that the EW scoring system gives points for individual wins, and that the two losses have come by 4-3 margins.

Eichstedt could not fault Melissa Rohrer for her effort, as she recorded her second straight 6-1, 6-1 win at No. 1 singles, this time beating the Panthers' Angie Zwerg. Jenny Thull (No. 2 singles) also moved to 3-0 in conference with a 6-4, 7-5 win over Alicia Miller.

The other win for the Indians came at No. 1 doubles, where Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank finally got on track. The pair, EW champions last year at No. 3, rolled over the duo of Amy Shaffer and Heather Gebler, 6-1, 6-1.

The closest the Indians came after that was at No. 4 singles, where Meredith Frac went to a third set against Carrie Sippel, before getting beat 6-4, 6-7 (3-7), 1-6.

The Indians, now 0-2 in the EW, return home for their first match at the new high school tennis courts, Tuesday against Sheboygan Falls. The Indians travel to Chilton on Thursday, before returning for a home meet against Two Rivers Tuesday, September 22.

PLYMOUTH 4, KEWASKUM 3
SINGLES — No. 1 - Melissa Rohrer beat Angie Zwerg 6-1, 6-1. No. 2 - Jenny Thull beat Alicia Miller 6-4, 7-6 (7-5). No. 3 - Karyn Dossinger lost to Cassie Noordyk 5-7, 4-6. No. 4 - Meredith Frac lost to Carrie Sippel 6-4, 6-7 (3-7), 1-6.

DOUBLES - No. 1 - Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank beat Amy Shaffer and

Heather Gebler 6-1, 6-1. No. 2 - Lisa Berres and Jenefer VanAssche lost to Angie Goetsch and Rachel Seil 2-6, 4-6. No. 3 - Kate Berres and Carrie Fellenz lost to Amy Adams and Diane Seil 4-6, 6-7 (4-7).

Indian Girls 4th at County CC

By Statesman Sports Writer

HARTFORD — Led by the strong finish of their top three runners, the Kewaskum girls cross country team finished a respectable fourth at the Washington County Cross Country meet here, last Tuesday afternoon.

The host Hartford Orioles, with all of their five runners finishing in the top nine, won the girls portion of the race with 31 points, far ahead of runner-up Slinger's 66. West Bend West was third (67), followed by the Indians (106), West Bend East (123) and Germantown, which didn't have enough runners for a team score.

The Indian boys, meanwhile, finished sixth in their portion of the meet, which was won by West Bend West (36). Germantown was second (70), followed by Hartford (75), West Bend East (103), Slinger (104), and the Indians (120).

The Lady Indians were led by a trio of girls who finished in the 14-15-16 spots. Lynn Thull posted the best time, with a 14:21, with Greta Kuphal (14:23) and Chrissy Neumann (14:24) close behind. The final two counters for the Indians were Rachel Chambers, who finished 29th (15:18) and Suzi Gauvin, who took 32nd (15:54).

Slinger's Amy Davis won the girls race with a time of 13:00, just edging Hartford's Heidi Redeker, who crossed the line in 13:05.

For the Indian boys, Randy Thull led the way with his time of 18:09, which was good enough for 12th place. Jeff Dirmeier was the lone other Indian to break the top 20, as he was right behind Thull, finishing 13th (18:17).

Other Indian counters included David Gosa (25th, 19:00), Damien Doherty (34th, 19:44), and Dean Kreis (36th, 20:00).

West's Scott Hammer won the boys race with his fine time of 16:35, which bested runner-up Dan Murphy of Hartford by just three seconds.

Big Second Half Boosts Indians

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Kewaskum football coach Clark Pearson figured that the Indians would be able to move the ball on the ground this year. He just doesn't want his team to wait as long as they did against Horicon here, two weeks ago.

The Indians fell behind 10-0 at the half, but then rallied in the second half, using a 93-yard touchdown drive to help upend the Marshmen, 14-10. The win was the first of the year for the Indians, who evened their record at 1-1, while Horicon fell to 0-2.

"I was real happy with the way we came back," Pearson said of the game. "We eliminated the mistakes in the second half, and just wore them down."

Things didn't look all that good for the Indians in the first half, as Horicon scored in the opening quarter on a 29-yard TD pass from Kit Reisop to Kevin Murphy, as Murphy outjumped an Indian defender for the ball.

The Indians, meanwhile, had trouble holding onto the ball, as they fumbled once and threw for a pair of interceptions. The second interception of Indian QB Jim Marx led to a 20-yard field goal by Soren Justsen, a foreign exchange student, and the Indians were down 10-0.

But Kewaskum came back strong in the second half, taking advantage of great field position to drive for their first score. Jim Rix punched it in from six yards out, while Marx added the two point conversion, cutting the gap to 10-8.

After holding the Marshmen on the ensuing possession, the Indians fumbled the punt, giving Horicon the ball inside the Indian 10-yard line.

But the Indians held, and followed that up with a long drive, culminated by Dan Schulteis' 1-yard plunge into the end zone, giving the Indians the lead. The defense took over from there, stuffing the Marshmen the rest of the way.

Schulteis finished with 159 yard rushing on 24 carries, while Rix added another 90 yards on the ground. In all, the Indians piled up more than 250 yards on the ground, and over 300 total offense.

"The offensive line did a fine job," Pearson said. "We were able to tire them out, and open up some holes."

Defensively, Pearson cited LB's Andy Reichert, Mark Strobel and Schulteis as well as DB Beau Coulter, who had a couple of nice hits to go along with his two interceptions. Matt Schlosser also added an interception for the Indians.

Indian Spikers Rout Defending EW Champs

By Statesman Sports Writer

CHILTON — Although he will be the first to admit that Chilton, the defending Eastern Wisconsin Conference volleyball champions, aren't nearly as strong as they were last season, Kewaskum coach Dave Rizzardi still was happy with what he saw from his Indians here, last Tuesday night.

"I'm really happy with the team so far," Rizzardi said after the Indians posted a 15-4, 15-11, 15-6 win over the Tigers, who "couldn't match us up front."

Much of the reason for the Indian dominance on the front line was due to the play of senior Christa Schmidt, who recorded a season-high nine spike kills. "I think that was her best match of the season so far," Rizzardi pointed out.

But Schmidt wouldn't have been able to finish off points if it hadn't been for the serving of Julie Mertz and the setting of Kim Sabish, a pair of seniors who have really stepped up in the first weeks of the season.

"Kim was really on in that match," Rizzardi said of Sabish, who recorded nine assists on the evening. Mertz, meanwhile, served 21 times without a miss, and included in that total were a whopping 14 aces, a figure almost unheard of. "What can you say?," Rizzardi said of Mertz's stellar performance.

Rizzardi did note, however, that part of the reason for Mertz's high number of aces was the inability of the Tigers to return even somewhat difficult chances.

"They just couldn't pass the ball," the KHS boss said of the Tigers, who were 11-1 in the EW last year. This year is a different story, though, as Chilton returns just two letterwinners. "Too many errors," Rizzardi summed up.

The Tigers did manage to keep the second game close, although the narrow margin of victory by the Indians was due in part to their own mistakes. "We hit a couple of bad streaks," Rizzardi said of the second game.

In the third game, Rizzardi was able to substitute freely, and as has been the case so far this year, all of the Indian players contributed. "Everybody is getting some experience," Rizzardi pointed out. "Down the road, that is really going to help us."

Ginger Wiesner added five aces for the Indians, while Shannon Breit recorded three. Robyn Winnihoff also is starting to come on strong, recording six points.

The win upped the Indians conference record to 3-0.

Frosh Spikers Remain Unbeaten

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — Things are definitely looking good for the volleyball program at Kewaskum High School, as wins by the varsity, JV and freshman against Kiel on Thursday gave the three teams a combined 11-1 record in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

After both teams disposed of Chilton on Tuesday, the Indian JV and freshman each beat the Raiders; the JV's winning 15-5, 15-10 and 12-15, while the freshman swept all three games, 15-4, 15-6, 15-5.

"(We) played an aggressive match," JV coach Mary Holfeltz said of her Indian squad, who improved to 3-1 in the EW. Shelly Williams, Becky Braun, and Sara Eckes each served well, according to Holfeltz.

As for the frosh, Kelly Schrefler hit on 11 of 13 serves, while Michelle Thull added four spikes. "The girls worked well together," said coach Janet Molebash, who added that the serving was much better for the frosh, who remained perfect in conference, with a 4-0 mark.

Anderson Wins Hon-E-Kor Title

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — The name of the game in golf is consistency, and that's just what Craig Anderson has displayed in his three years as a member at Hon-E-Kor Country Club. And it is that consistency which has made him a club champion.

After reaching the semifinals in 1990, and then losing in the finals last year, Anderson beat Paul Kostelac 3-and-2 in the finals this year to win the Championship Flight.

Last year Anderson was the victim of a bad break, as his ball came to rest in a divot on the final hole, which proved to be the difference in a loss to perennial champion Mike O'Connor Jr. But this year was a different story, as he downed Kostelac on Labor Day Monday.

In other championship matches, Andy Langlois beat Dick Wieter 5-and-4 to capture the First Flight title; Bruce Halfmann downed Jack Holfeltz on the first playoff hole to win the Second Flight; John McKay beat Buck Averill 2-and-1 to win the Third Flight; Larry Yaedtko beat Ray Roskopf 2-up for the Fourth Flight crown; Pat Averill beat Todd Fechter 2-and-1 for the Junior Title; Ryan Doherty beat Dave Ruhland 2-and-1 for the Junior Badger title; Don Woolweber beat Tom Larsen 1-up for the Senior title; Bob Radder beat Earl Conley 5-and-4 for the senior Veteran title; Judy Harlow beat Cornie Kauth for the Women's President Flight; Pat Dorn beat Carol Laatsch for the Women's Vice President's Flight; Shirley O'Connor beat Audrey Pfister for the Women's Senior's title.

Rock River Oldtimers Will Be Guests at Final Round of Grand Championships

Old teammates and diamond opponents will be swapping "remember whens" again Sunday when members of the Rock River League's Oldtimers' Association gather at Lebanon where two Southern division teams clash in the final round of the Rock's grand championship series.

Only Watertown (2-0 won-lost) and Clyman (2-1) are left in the double elimination competition that began last month with eight top teams.

Home team Watertown's field has been conditioned for football, so, at 1:30 Sunday, Lebanon's enclosed diamond will be host, as it had been when Watertown eliminated Kewaskum on Sept. 6.

Also this month, Oldtimers are voting on a ballot to elect five new members to its Hall of Fame.

Candidates are: Roy Maass (Lebanon team), Marv Klawitter (Burnett), Don Beilfuss (Lowell), Bob Kampstra (Randolph), Bob Kay and Art Hauser (Rubicon), Al Alt and Wally Rohrschneider (Hustisford) and Tom Hartwig and Al Micklas (Mayville).

They'll be inducted at the Oldtimers-sponsored 13th Hall of Fame Dinner scheduled for Saturday evening, October 31, at Hustisford's Firemen's Hall.

Indians Overpowered by Falcons

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — It was smash-mouth football at its finest, but unfortunately for the Kewaskum football team and its fans, the Indians weren't the ones doing the talking.

Instead it was Sheboygan Falls, expected to contend for the Eastern Wisconsin Conference title this fall, running up the big number which led to a dominating 20-0 win over the Indians, here, last Friday night.

"They dominated the line of scrimmage," Indian coach Clark Pearson said of the loss, which dropped his team to 0-1 in the EW, and to 1-2 overall. "They opened up some good holes up front."

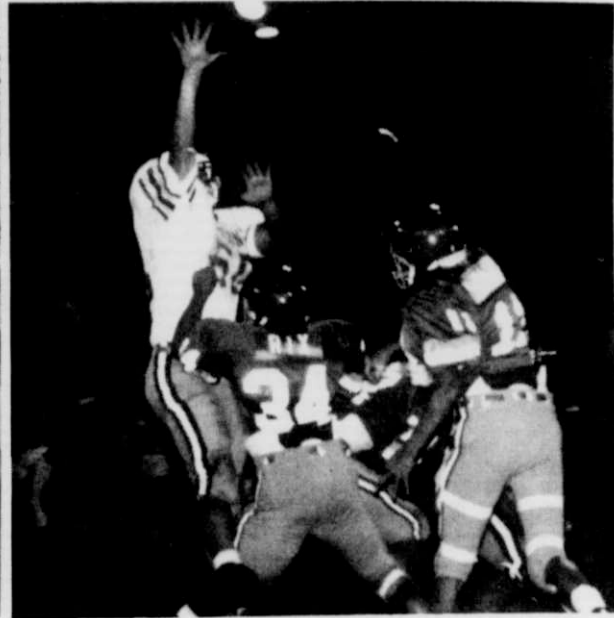

Those holes allowed Falcon backs Bob Lawrence and Dayton Behnke to run wild over the Indian defense, as the two helped Sheboygan Falls to a 241-32 advantage over the Indians on the ground.

Lawrence accounted for 135 of those yards, on 16 carries, while Behnke added a pair of touchdowns, including one as time expired in the final period.

Ball control was the key of the game, and the Falcons set the tone early, taking the opening kickoff and driving for the game's first score. Travis Tank found Rich Flunker from 12 yards out, as Falls used up nearly half of the first quarter, scoring at the 6:29 mark. Josh Oppener's extra point made it 7-0.

The guests struck again in the second quarter, as the Falcons went for it on fourth-and-two from the Indian three-yard line, as Behnke plowed over the left side of the line for the score. Oppener again converted the point after, and the Indians were in a hole, 14-0.

Meanwhile, the Indian offense couldn't get much of anything going for the first quarter and a half. Kewaskum finally got a drive going late in the half, as it reached the Falcon 10-yard line. But that's where the drive stalled, and Falls took over on downs with just over a minute to play.

Sheboygan Falls' Dayton Behnke (23) scored a pair of touchdowns in the Falcons' 20-0 win over Kewaskum last Friday, but Behnke couldn't escape the grasp of the Indians' Matt Schlosser (21) on this play, as Paul Stoltzmann (71) and Mark Morell (79) close in. (Right), Jim Marx (11) gets off a pass, as Jim Rix (34) fights off a Falcon defender.

The Falcons threw a scare into the Indians, as Lawrence romped for a 46-yard gain into Indian territory. But two plays later, Matt Schlosser intercepted a Tank pass, ending the drive and the half.

"We threatened there at the end of the half," Pearson said, adding he had hoped the Indians would be able to punch the ball in for a score, "but we just couldn't get it in."

The second half was much of the same, although the Indians did a better job defensively, allowing just the late score by Behnke. That came after the Indians had turned the ball over on downs late in the game, deep in their own territory.

"Overall, I think our defense played reasonably good," Pearson added, noting that the unit was on the field for the better portion of the game. "They gained some yardage, but we didn't break."

Offensively, "we couldn't sustain our blocks," he said, noting that "they had good size. But I was hoping that we could move the ball better." Pearson did note that starting center Brian Bruendl didn't suit up for the game due to illness. "That hurt as well."

The Indian coach also gave a lot of credit to Falls, saying "I think that they will be right up there (in the EW). They seem to have a nice ballclub." He added that Lawrence "was real quick...ran hard."

Despite the loss, Pearson said "There are some things we can build on," for this week's contest at Chilton, losers to New Holstein last week, 21-20. "We'll have to block a lot better, that's for sure." But the Indian coach expects his team will bounce back. "It'll be a good ballgame," he said. "It's going to be a key game for us."

Indian quarterback Jim Marx had his troubles through the air, connecting on just nine of 22 attempts, but did do a good job scrambling, picking up a couple of first downs in the drive late in the first half. Marx ended up being the Indians leading rusher for the game.

Pearson pointed to LB's Andy Reichert and Todd Muckerheide, as well as defensive lineman Shawn Larson as the top defensive player in the game for the Indians. "Larson did a good job on the interior line," while Reichert and Muckerheide "both had pretty good games."
