

A local youngster was wondering the other day what he would be when he grows up. The answer seems obvious. He'll be a taxpayer.

Clinton Wins, Feingold Upsets

By L.L.K.

An anti-incumbent movement seemed to be prevalent in Wisconsin, as well as the nation, as Arkansas Governor Bill Clinton raced over President George Bush in Tuesday's General Election.

Clinton will become the 42nd President of the United States at his inauguration on January 20, 1993. Latecomer Independent candidate Ross Perot placed a respectable third, garnering one-sixth of the American electorate.

Baby boomer Clinton, 46, will become the third youngest president in U.S. history, upstaged only by Theodore Roosevelt and John F. Kennedy. Clinton's running mate, Vice-President Elect Al Gore is 45.

Voters, anxious about the economy, and "looking for change" flocked to the polls in massive record numbers in Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin and nationwide. One polling place reported that out of 821 registered voters, 812 turned out to vote.

In Wisconsin, the anti-incumbent movement wave rolled over U.S. Senator Bob Kasten as he was handily defeated by upstart democratic longshot Russ Feingold. Kasten had served in the Senate for 12 years.

Preliminary returns, however, did seem to indicate that at least seven of the state's eight incumbent congressmen would retain their seats in the House. Included were: 9th District - Republican F. James Sensenbrenner (inc.); 1st District - Democrat Les Aspin (inc.); 2nd District - Republican Scott Klug (inc.); 3rd District - Republican Steve Gunderson (inc.); 4th District - Democrat Gerald Kleczka (inc.); 5th District - Democrat Thomas Barrett; 7th District Democrat David Obey (inc.) and 8th District Republican Toby Roth (inc.). Thomas Barrett in the 5th District is a newcomer.

In the District 20 State Senate race, Incumbent Republican Donald Stitt won easily over Democrat Delmore Beaver.

Area State Assembly seat winners included: District 33 - Republican Daniel Vrakas (inc.); District 58 - Republican Michael Lehman (inc.); and District 59 - Republican Mary Panzer (inc.).

Wisconsin voters soundly defeated a confusing state referendum proposing a selective form of property tax relief.

Republicans, as expected, swept Washington County government offices handily as Democrats failed to find candidates to run for the posts that were up for re-election. Retaining county offices were incumbents Sheriff Robert Schulteis, who fended off a last minute write-in campaign effort by 17 year department veteran Sgt. Jim Grover; District of Attorney J. Dennis Thornton; Register of Deeds Dorothy C. Gonnering; County Clerk Arthur G. Degnitz;

Kewaskum Christmas Parade Set for Dec. 6

by Sharon Callaway Roznik

If you listen closely, you can hear the sound of marching feet throughout the village. That's because Kewaskum is already practicing for its' upcoming Christmas parade, scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 6th at 5 p.m.

Main Street will once again come alive with dancing lights, magical elves, jingling bells, and good tidings of comfort and joy throughout the community on this very special evening - all made possible by the jolly old members of the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce.

Now is the time to start the spirit moving, the wheels turning, building floats, shining up the band instruments and pressing those uniforms. Don't wait until the last minute - reserve your space in the parade. All individuals, clubs, businesses, civic and school organizations are encouraged to participate in Kewaskum's grand parade. 1992's version promises to light the hearts of everyone involved, from the littlest waving hands to the oldest smiling face.

To make this parade a success, we need everyone's support and involvement. If you'd like to participate, or have any questions, please call Jane Korth at 626-2520 (work) or 626-4172 (home), Adeline Halfmann at 626-2121 (work) or Tim Miller at 626-2171 (work).

You wouldn't want to miss out on welcoming Santa and the Christmas Spirit to Kewaskum.

K-12 Curriculum Open For Public Viewing

The Human Growth and Development committee of the Kewaskum School District has announced two informational meetings and dates for community members to view the proposed K-12 Human Growth and Development curriculum.

On November 10th, at 7:00 p.m. in the K.H.S. library, the proposed K-12 Human Growth and Development curriculum will be introduced. The curriculum will be divided by grade level and subject area. Committee members will be on hand to answer questions.

From November 10-17th, the proposed K-12 Human Growth and Development curriculum will be available for viewing at the following libraries: Wayne Elementary, Farmington Elementary, Kewaskum Elementary, Kewaskum Middle School, Kewaskum High School and the Kewaskum Public Library.

On November 17th, from 4-7 p.m. in the K.H.S. library, an informational meeting will be held for the proposed K-12 Human Growth and Development curriculum. The curriculum will be divided by grade level and subject area. Human Growth and Development committee members and classroom teachers will be on hand to answer questions.

The proposed K-12 Human Growth and Development curriculum is the product of seven years of committee and teacher development, and includes such topics as self esteem, responsible decision making, personal responsibility, interpersonal relationships, discouragement of adolescent sexual activity, family life, skills required of a parent, human sexuality, reproduction, contraception, prenatal development, childbirth, adoption, available prenatal and postnatal support, male responsibility, sex stereotypes and sexually transmitted diseases.

The Human Growth and Development committee encourages the public's attendance and input prior to final review and submission to the Kewaskum School Board.

GUYS & DOLLS at KHS This Weekend

They have grace, poise, style and best of all, rhythm. The nightclub dancers are the "dolls" all the "guys" are talking about. Angie Bindrich, Becky Yogerst, Stephanie Heberer, Melissa Junk, Chrissy Neumann, and the other "dolls" dance up a storm with Miss Adelaide (Jenny Stelter) in "Take Back Your Mink." Miss Adelaide and her Debutantes (also including) Ali Bruendl (Mimi) Rachael Chambers, Becky Braun, Suzie Gauvin, and Melissa Piaro tell the "guys" to "Take Back Your Mink" because it wasn't really a token of esteem as they had hoped.

Earlier in Guys & Dolls the "dolls" do a down-on-the-farm number. They are introduced by the Master of Ceremonies (Josh Kurtz) as the Farmerettes. In the Grand Finale of their round the world revue at the Hot Box Nightclub, Joanne Lemke, Sandy Schmidt, Sabrina Maul, Kara Palmer, Jessica Gerlach, Missy Rohrer and the others are fetching farmerettes, who dance "a bushel and a peck." And it's love — not corn — they're talking about.

See the Nightclub Dancers and all the other Guys and Dolls at Kewaskum High School, this Friday, November 6, and Saturday, November 7, at 8:00 p.m. Call the high school at 626-2166 to reserve your seats. Tickets may also be available at the door, the nights of performance. A free performance for senior citizens will be presented Thursday, November 5, at 4:00 p.m.

The cast and crew of Guys & Dolls are looking forward to entertaining you with a fun-filled show.

Student-Principal Roundtable

A new program to increase communication between students and the principal is starting at KHS in November. Called the Student-Principal Roundtable, this program involves one student from each homeroom meeting with the principal once a month. These meetings will be held during the school day so that transportation and extra-curricular activities do not limit student participation.

Topics of discussion will include issues the students are concerned about. The principal will work with the students to develop plans and programs that address the student's concerns. Special meetings can be held if sudden problems develop.

All students in each of the forty homerooms are eligible to represent their peers. Elections for homeroom representative will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 4. The first meeting of the Roundtable will be held on Monday, November 9.

Parent-Principal Roundtable

The next Parent-Principal roundtable will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 11. It will be held in the KHS library and run from 6-9 p.m. The major item of business will be to select a parent to attend the Site Base Management/Shared Decision-Making meeting required by the state of Wisconsin.

There will also be discussion of current high school activities and a report from the principal. Parents/guardians of all Kewaskum High School students are invited.

Veterans Service Award

Time to Sign Up For KHS Pre-School

The child development classes of Kewaskum High School will be conducting their 1st semester preschool from Dec. 8 through Jan. 8. The preschool will meet 4 days each week, Tuesday through Friday from 8:15 to 9:15 at the high school. The preschool is in its 15th year of operation and is under the direction of Mrs. Carol Martin and the juniors and seniors in the child development classes. The children will have the opportunity to participate in creative time, music, art, and other creative activities during the 12 day session. Parents with 3, 4, or 5 year old children should call the high school office at 626-2166 for information or to register their child. Registrations will be taken on a first-call basis before November 16th.

Clinton

Treasurer Fredric A. Seefeldt and Clerk of Courts Carol A. Puerling, Marlene Yoost, also a Republican, who ran unopposed, was the only newcomer elected to county office.

There were 1,278 voters that turned out to cast their ballot in the Village of Kewaskum. In the Village, President Bush garnered 555 votes over the 335 cast for Clinton and 294 for Perot. In the Senate race, Kewaskum voters chose Kasten over Feingold, 646 to 553. Rep. F. James Sensenbrenner received 800 votes here compared to Ingrid Buxton's 331.

Also in Kewaskum, the State Senate, 20th District Race found Donald Stitt defeating Delmore Beaver by a 697 to 432 margin. Incumbent Mary Panzer won the 59th District Assembly seat easily over Kevin Scheunemann 914 to 120.

County office votes went as follows: Thornton (unopposed) - 981; Degnitz - 905; Lemmons - 111; Seefeldt - 912; Kutz - 131; Schulteis - 666; Write-In Grover 353; Ameringer - 62; Puerling - 930; Chantelois - 96; Gonnering

- 859, Scheunemann - 87, Nelson - 98, and Marlene Yoost (unopposed) 982.

The statewide referendum was also defeated in Kewaskum with 769 voters casting no votes and 215 casting yes votes.

More election numbers for the surrounding townships will be printed in next week's issue.

Scouts Ready for Massive Food Appeal

This weekend more than 20,000 Bay Lakes Council Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts will spend their Saturday doing a "Good Turn" in an effort to help feed the hungry of area communities.

The boys will visit neighborhoods in communities throughout a 22 county area and distribute food bags door to door on Saturday, November 7th.

The following Saturday, November 14th, the Scouts will return to the same neighborhoods and collect those bags filled with canned food items. The food will then be transported to local food pantries which in turn offer it to families and individuals in need. The Scouts hope to collect one million cans through their effort...enough to stock food pantry shelves for several months.

James Asmuth, collection chairman for "Scouting For Food Good Turn," says that last year thousands sought help in obtaining food for themselves and their families, so this project is very much needed to feed the hungry in our communities.

The food collected in the communities will be brought to the food pantry serving that area. Allenton, Farmington, Jackson, Kewaskum and West Bend will stock the Full Shelf Pantry, 121 Island Street, West Bend; collection sites are the Allenton Town Hall, Jackson Fire Department, Kewaskum Sentry Food Store and St. John Lutheran Church, 899 S. Sixth Street, West Bend.

Army Reserve and National Guard personnel and trucks will make the deliveries from collection sites to the designated pantry.

DELCORE PROMOTED

Henry C. Delcore

WEST BEND — The board of directors of B.C. Ziegler and Company has elected Henry C. Delcore to assistant vice president.

Delcore serves in Ziegler's non-healthcare acquisition area, where he is involved in underwriting and acquiring church bond business. He joined B.C. Ziegler and Company in 1970 in computer operations, and he has also held positions in statistical operations, bond purchasing and trust accounting.

He was instrumental in setting up procedures which established Ziegler as a self-clearing securities firm. Delcore helped Ziegler establish a custodial department for securities, and earlier this year was promoted to his current position in acquisition.

Delcore has attended the University of Wisconsin - Washington County and Moraine Park Technical College.

Delcore and his family are residents of Campbellsport.

B.C. Ziegler and Company is an investment banking firm headquartered in West Bend. Widely known for underwriting church, healthcare and long-term debt, Ziegler also has retail investment offices nationwide, including 11 in Wisconsin.

County Historical Society Awarded Grant

The Washington County Historical Society Museum was awarded a Conservation Assessment Program Grant (CAP) from the National Institute for the Conservation of Cultural Property (NIC).

The $6,200 grant will be used to provide the museum with an overview of its collection and facilities and environmental conditions from a conservation standpoint. This information will assist the Historical Society in establishing sound practices and procedures in caring for and preserving their holdings and the Old Washington County Courthouse and Jail buildings that house the collections.

Shawn Graff, President of Graff and Associates, a museum consulting firm in Hartford, prepared the grant for the Society and will help to coordinate the assessment. Graff has contracted with collection specialist Jane Ketcham, from Beloit College, to conduct the collection survey, and Richard Eschner, of Kahler Slater Architects of Milwaukee, to assess the buildings.

"Our goal is to create one of the finest historical museums in the state, and this grant is a major step in that direction," Graff stated.

KFD Fire and Rescue Squad Calls

Wednesday, October 28, 4:33 p.m. - The Kewaskum Fire Department was summoned to N460 Hwy. S, Kewaskum, to put out a chimney fire that started due to a bird's nest in the chimney. The fire was seen by a neighbor.

Thursday, October 29, 6:11 a.m. - The Kewaskum Rescue Squad responded to a call to Hwy. 144 and Cty. Trk. HH when a female patient suffered a possible heart attack. She was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend.

Friday, October 30, 10:18 a.m. - The Kewaskum Rescue Squad was summoned to Fond du Lac Avenue in Kewaskum when a female patient suffering from asthma and pneumonia complained of chest pain and trouble breathing. She was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend.

Sunday, November 1, 8:17 a.m. - The Kewaskum Rescue Squad was called to Forest View Road in the Town of Farmington when a male patient suffered a laceration to the head when a piece of wood he was splitting, flew up and struck him. He was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend.

The new second story addition to Holy Trinity Catholic School in Kewaskum will be dedicated on Sunday, Nov. 5, by Archbishop William C. Cousins of the Milwaukee Archdiocese. Archbishop Cousins will attend and preach at the last Mass of Holy Trinity at 11 a.m. Sunday and will dedicate the school addition at ceremonies immediately following the Mass. This will be followed by a dinner served in the parish hall for a limited number of officials, guests and parishioners. The second story addition was built atop the original one 1948 school building, erected in 1948-49, and is the same size in length and width. The addition was necessitated by overcrowding in the initial building. The latest addition provides four extra classrooms for the pupils of the eight grades to have a separate room. Prior to this some classes had to be taught in the old school building on Main Street immediately north of the new school.

Kohn Bros. Farm Service, Inc. has been appointed the franchised dealer for the Gehl line of farm machinery in this area. Gehl is an internationally recognized short line manufacturer headquartered at West Bend. According to Joe Ecker, sales manager for the firm, Kohn Bros. Farm Service of Kewaskum, was chosen to represent its machinery in this area because it more than any other, seemed best qualified with personnel and facilities to handle the complex distribution and service problems of a rapidly expanding line of farm machinery.

Dave's Music Center, Kewaskum's Music Center, expanded store hours effective Monday, Nov. 6. Because of an increase in business, Dave Skrentny, owner of the store, will devote full time to his business in the future. He has resigned as an employee of Gehl Bros. Manufacturing Company in West Bend to devote full time to his local business and giving music instructions. The new store hours will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays and until 9 p.m. on Monday and Friday.

50 Years Ago

NOVEMBER 6, 1942

Charles Krueger, 39, of the Town of West Bend, steam shovel operator for Jaeger Bros. Inc., West Bend-Barton construction company, was caught in a slide of sand and gravel and buried alive under from five to seven feet of the material at about 4 p.m. Monday afternoon. The fatal accident occurred at the Jos. Batzler gravel pit located a half mile south of Highway 28 and about a mile south of St. Kilian. Krueger was operating his steam shovel when he alighted from the shovel to loosen more sand and gravel with a crow bar on a slope of the pit. He lost his balance and sand, tons of which caved in, buried him. Fellow workmen and other rescue workers dug for 25 minutes they found Krueger's body and removed it. There was no longer any sign of life in his body.

The war saving staff of Washington County through official arrangements with the war department through the treasury department of the United States, made arrangements to apply all purchases of United States war bonds during the next 45 days towards the purchase of a flying fortress. These big four motor bombers cost $300,000. If the people of Washington County will purchase $300,000 worth of war bonds between the period of November 1 and December 15, the United States Army will dedicate one of these flying fortresses as, "The Spirit of

Washington County."

At the present time in the collection of salvage materials, tin cans are only being asked for in certain sections of Wisconsin. As increased detinning facilities become available, requests will be made from housewives to turn in their prepared cans. In the meantime, it is requested that tin cans be prepared for detinning and retained until called for. No tin cans should be thrown away.

The West Bend Motor Company has engaged John Klessig of this village to take charge of their office here. He will also act as their agent in selling Ford automobiles to the people of this community. Mr. Klessig is well known and respected throughout this section, having been salesman for the Hawk's Nursery of Wauwatosa for a number of years.

Report cards were given out Tuesday in the Grammar Room. The pupils receiving an average of 90 or above for the first six weeks rank as follows: Norma Bunkelman, Lusia Moses, Raymond Quade, William Klein, Edward Brandt, Hazel Geidel, Otto Backhaus, Edwin Morgenroth, Margaret Schlosser, Ella Guth, Walter Buss and Elmer Martin.

August Heberer of New Fane had the misfortune of getting his left hand shredded by one day in to corn shredder getting it into week.

Anton, the eleven-year-old son of Henry Backhaus of New Fane had the misfortune of having two fingers of his left hand cut off, while filling silo at Henry Backhaus' place Thursday.

A silver grey fox was shot by some hunters at Greenbush in Sheboygan County recently. This species being very rare in this section of the country. It will prove a very valuable hunting trip for the marksman who was lucky enough to get it, as they are worth hundreds of dollars.

Odyssey of the Mind Coaches Named

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM — The Kewaskum School District recently named the coaches for the various Odyssey of the Mind teams in the district.

This will be the 10th year of OM in the state of Wisconsin, with Kewaskum participating for the ninth year. The Kewaskum School District has a strong history of doing well in the competition, even making it to the World Competition.

This year's Regional competition will be held in late February or early March, with the State Finals to be held in Stevens Point April 17, 1993.

The World Finals will be at the University of Maryland at College Park, Maryland, June 3rd, 4th and 5th.

The following coaches were named for the Kewaskum School District:

Farmington Elementary - Doris Oik, Wes Weinhold.

Wayne Elementary - Marie Ritger

Kewaskum Elementary - No coach at this time.

Kewaskum Middle School - Jackie DePonte, Cathy Courtney.

Kewaskum High School - Len Sollner, Suzanne Wagner.

Valley Bancorporation Reports Record Quarterly Earnings/Declares Dividend

Valley Bancorporation today reported net income of $11.258 million for the quarter ended September 30, 1992, an increase of 41.1 percent from the $7.979 million earned in the same period last year. Earnings per share for the third quarter amounted to $.85, compared to $.65 in 1991, an increase of 30.8 percent. On a year to date basis, Valley earned $28.735 million or $2.27 per share in 1992 versus $22.473 million or $1.84 per share in 1991.

On July 1, 1992, Valley completed the acquisition of the $320 million-asset United Savings and Loan Association ("United"), headquartered in Sheboygan, Wisconsin. In this transaction, United was converted from a mutual to a stock institution and concurrently issued all of its stock to Valley. As part of the transaction, Valley sold to United's account holders and the general public 1,002,225 shares of its common stock at a price of $32.75 per share. Part of the proceeds from the sale ($18 million) were infused into United. This transaction was accounted for as a purchase and therefore, Valley's consolidated results of operations only include the operations of United from July 1, 1992 forward.

Shareholders' equity totalled $318.780 million, an increase of $52.558 million over the $266.222 million on September 30, 1991. At September 30, 1992, book value per share was $32.86 compared with $21.69 per share a year earlier, an increase of 10.0 percent. The increase in shareholders' equity and book value per share are partially due to the issuance of 1,002,225 shares of common stock on July 1, 1992 in connection with the United acquisition. Net proceeds from the sale added about $30 million to Valley's equity. Weighted average shares outstanding totalled 12,645,000 for the first nine months of 1992, and 12,206,000 for the same period in 1991.

At its Board meeting yesterday, Valley's Board of Directors declared a dividend of $.32 per share ($1.28 annualized). This dividend is payable December 4, to shareholders of record November 27.

Valley Bancorporation is the third largest bank holding company headquartered in Wisconsin. Valley, has assets of $4.3 billion and currently serves Wisconsin through 150 banking offices and additional financial service companies engaged in insurance, trust service, securities, credit card servicing, and bank support services. The company's common stock is traded on the National Market System under the NASDAQ symbol VYBN.

DVA Conducting Research Project

West Bend, WI — The Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Reno, Nevada is conducting a research project involving the development of Parkinsonism-dementia complex (PDC) in those service men who were stationed on Guam during World War II.

Although the causes of these two neurological diseases are unknown, both Parkinsonism-dementia complex (PDC) and amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) on Guam seem to be associated with a plant which only grows on Guam and the neighboring islands.

VA researchers are asking U.S. service members who served on Guam during World War II to write or call for a mail-in questionnaire. Responses to the questionnaire are to be kept confidential.

Questionnaires are available at the County Veterans Service Office, Courthouse, 432 E. Washington St., West Bend, WI 53095.

One Deer Processing ($40 value) at Kewaskum Frozen Foods, Haircut and Style ($10 value) by Brenda Hansen, Baby Buggy, Two pc. Table Pad (42 x 60), VCR Cleaning ($25 Value) at Jerry's TV-Campbellsport, Three Flashlights, Case of Anti-Freeze, Case of Phillips 66 10W30 Oil, Two Year Subscription to Kewaskum Statesman, Bowling Passes at Weiland's, Hair Cut, Storage Ottoman, Boom Box, Two Organs.

Outstanding Parent Honored

Connie Schulist

During its Friday night, Oct. 2, banquet at the Annual Fall Conference in Stevens Point, Wisconsin Council for the Gifted and Talented presented its Outstanding Parent Contribution Award to Mrs. Connie Schulist of Kewaskum.

Mrs. Schulist was nominated for this award because of her extensive support and involvement in promoting gifted education and parent involvement in the School District of Kewaskum. She has worked as a classroom volunteer and her helped prepare multitudes of materials. She established a core of parent volunteers who work as tutors to provide classroom enrichment. She appeared before the school board as a parent supporter for gifted programming and has served as a volunteer member of the Leadership Council for the Gifted and Talented in Kewaskum. She is helping to expand the Great Books program to the primary grades. Last year, as a licensed bus driver, she drove the bus taking students to the Odyssey of the Mind regional competition in Menasha, returning in a blinding snowstorm; then she donated her salary for the day to purchase materials for learning centers. Mrs. Schulist's energy as an organizer of parents, and support for programs for all children have earned her this award.

Wisconsin Council for the Gifted and Talented is a 600 member non-profit organization of parents, students, educators and others who are dedicated to fostering a climate that allows each child to reach his or her potential. WCGT's goals are to create channels of communication, increase public awareness, and provide information concerning development of high potential in children.

For information, write Wisconsin Council for the Gifted and Talented, 5912 Schumann Drive, Madison, Wisconsin 53711-5103. Or call (608) 277-9248. At the conference's Annual Meeting, the sixteen-year-old council voted to combine with Wisconsin Council of Educators for the Gifted and Talented, beginning January 1, 1993. A new name was chosen for the larger organization: Wisconsin Association for the Talented and Gifted (WATAG). The office address and phone number will continue the same as WCGT's.

Local Post Office Expands Saturday Window Hours

The Kewaskum Post Office has expanded their front window hours on Saturday beginning Saturday, Nov. 7, through Saturday, Dec. 19.

The front window will now be open on Saturdays until noon. It is hoped these expanded hours will assist local customers in mailing out their Christmas packages and give them ample time to beat the rush and mail early.

Craft Sale Nov. 7

Residents of the Cedar Campuses invite the community to attend their annual craft sale on Saturday, Nov. 7 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon. The sale will be held in the Friendship House on the Cedar Lake Home Campus located at 5595 Hwy. Z, West Bend.

Fink - Roffers

Debra Ann Fink and Scott Michael Roffers were united in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, Sept. 6th, 1992 during a 2 p.m. ceremony at Trinity Lutheran Church. Pastors Jennifer Johnston and Ken Merckx officiated.

Parents of the couple are Ronald and Rosemary Fink, of West Bend, and Jerome and Sharron Roffers, West Bend.

Music was provided by organist Kari Reckner, friend of the bride, and soloists Donald Deetjen, the groom's friend, Sharryl Akins, the bride's sister, and a friend of the bride, Terri Kramer.

The bride chose her friend Cyndee Kirsch of West Bend as her maid of honor. Bridesmaids in attendance were Tamara Fink of Oshkosh and Bonnie Link of West Bend, sisters of the bride; the groom's sister Sharryl Akins of Sparta; and Elizabeth Johnson and Karen Skinner of West Bend, the bride's friends.

Donald Deetjen of Grafton, friend of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen included the groom's brothers, Terrance and Darryl Roffers, both of Grafton; Jeffrey Fink of Ripon, brother-in-law, Daniel Akins of Sparta; and Peter McClelland of Grafton, the groom's friend.

Serving as flower girl was Erica Akins the groom's niece, and Jaushua Van Beek, godchild of the groom, was the ringbearer.

Ushering duties were shared by cousins of the bride and groom, Kevin Smith of Fond du Lac and Gary Furman of Grafton.

A dinner and dance followed at the Amerahn Hall in Kewaskum.

The bride is a 1992 graduate of MPTI and is employed as an accountant with Charter Mfg. Co. in Mequon.

The groom is a 1988 graduate of Grafton High School and is employed at Tri-Mfg. Co. in Mequon.

The couple enjoyed a honeymoon trip to Disney World in Florida, and are now residing in Grafton.

President Signs Deadbeat Bill Crafted by Kohl

WASHINGTON — Fleeing across state lines in order to avoid making court ordered child support payments will become a federal crime under legislation co-authored by Sen. Herb Kohl and signed into law this week by President Bush.

"This bill will improve the financial and emotional welfare of millions of children," Kohl said. "Because it says to deadbeat parents: 'pay up or go to jail'." The new law provide for up to two years in prison for repeat offenders.

Deadbeat moms and dads owe 16-million children in this country more than $18 billion in back child support. The measure, which was originally authored by Sen. Richard Shelby (D-Ala.), as revamped by Kohl following hearings he chaired in his Senate Juvenile Justice Subcommittee.

The Wisconsin senator amended the bill to require that federal authorities prove that a parent willfully is refusing to pay child support and is not making payments, because he or she is unemployed or underemployed.

Kohl also added a provision creating a commission which will study visitation rights.

"The commission is not an attempt to link child support and child access, because I do not believe that linkage is important. But I do believe that some non-custodial parents, most of who faithfully pay their child support, have legitimate concerns. They want to contribute to the emotional, as well as the financial well being of their children," Kohl said. "We should look at this issue just as we studied interstate non-payment. That is what the legislation charges the commission to do."

Each year as many as 300,000 people die of heart attack before they reach a hospital, says the American Heart Association. Many of them might have been saved, because studies indicate that 50 percent of heart attack victims wait more than two hours before getting to an emergency room.

Excerpts From As I Remember

by Marvin Martin

The flour mill was located between Riverview Drive and the river on Main Street. There was an area between Main Street and the Mill where people could go into the river and out again on the other side. They did this with their wagons so they could lighten up the irons on the wagon wheels.

On the northeast side of the bridge, before you got to the river, there was a water tower. This was used for watering the streets and washing the ice.

Directly across the street was a property which was closed in my time. This is in the area of where pump house No. 2 is located.

Going west on Main Street, after crossing the bridge, the first building was the Stark Blacksmith Shop. Next there was a long building that was used for a wagon shop, and later as a pocketbook factory.

On the southeast corner of Parkview and Main was the Dr. Drissel residence and hospital.

Directly across the street, going west, was a scale at which the farmers would stop to weigh their full wagons and again their empty wagons. Next to that was the Schaefer Tavern.

Next was the Koch building. It was a grocery store, and both the east and west side of the building were used for the post office at one time or another.

'Children In Nature' Water Color Exposition

Artist Patrice Hamm will display her most recent works in a show entitled "Children in Nature" in the octagon of Riveredge Nature Center. Of these works, Patrice writes, "Nothing in my life surpasses the pure joy upon my children's faces as they first explore the wonders of the natural world. During the past year I have tried to capture those split-second bursts of awareness through the spontaneity of watercolor."

The collection of works, many drawn from experiences at Riveredge, will hang through November 30th at Riveredge.

Call Riveredge at 675-6888 (local) or 375-2715 (metro) for more information.

Riveredge is a non-profit, 350 acre sanctuary and educational organization, providing environmental programs for all ages.

Den 2

In October we learned about safety. We did a few simple things to help someone in the water. Our den leader also told us about boat safety. We even put together his sailboat.

As part of fire prevention for this month we made our own posters. We even visited the Washington County Sheriff's Department.

We also played games and had lots of fun.

Chicago Art Trip Sponsored by UWWC

An annual day-long art trip to Chicago will be held Saturday, Nov. 14. The trip, sponsored by Continuing Education Extension at the University of Wisconsin Center - Washington County, will be led by UWWC Professor of art Tom Gross.

The highlight of the trip will be the Art Institute of Chicago's Art of the America's exhibit. "The Sacred Landscape." The exhibit features North American, South American and Central American art before the arrival of Columbus. The showing includes works of native Americans and some objects from the major pre-Columbian civilizations of Olmec, Teotihuacan, Toltec, Mayan, Aztec, and Inca.

In addition to the Art Institute exhibit, trip participants will be able to take self-guided walking tours of the Chicago loop area. Maps will be provided.

The trip leaves at 7:15 a.m. from the UWWC parking lot. Participants should meet at 7:00 a.m. to board the motor coach. The estimated time of arrival back to West Bend is approximately 10 p.m.

Fees for the trip are $30 for adults, $25 for senior citizens over age 62 and $15 for UWWC students. Museum fees are included. Meals will be arranged individually and are not included. Any participant under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult.

The art trip is very popular and early registration is recommended. For more information or to register contact Joan Laabs or Laurie Meacham at 335-5208.

Visitation was at the funeral home Sunday 1 p.m. until time of services.

The family prefers memorials.

IN MEMORY

In memory of our friend, Barry Beimbom, who passed away November 6, 1967:

Those we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind.
They are cherished in the hearts,
Of those they left behind.
The friendship we enjoyed,
How sweet the memory's still.
Death has left a loneliness,
The world could never fill.

We've missed the devilish grin that never left your face and seemed to light up an entire room...

We've missed the way you had of brightening up everyone's lives...

We've missed you...

Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club Meeting

The first meeting of the new 4-H year of the Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club, was held on Tuesday, October 13 at 7 p.m. at the Kohlsville Fire Dept. Bridget Ritger called the meeting to order. Pledges were led by Kim Resch and Jolie Bingen.

Election of officers were held, with members of the clowning project welcoming new members and handling the ballots. New officers elected were; President - Bridget Ritger, Vice-President, Sarah Ritger, Secretary, Kim Resch, Treasurer, Sheila Martin, Reporter, Jeremy Hawig, Historians, Marie Herther and Melissa Ritger.

The final vote to change the by-laws was read and approved. The by-law reads that for a member to show in junior class at the county fair, they must attend at least eight of twelve monthly club meetings. It was agreed that for a member to remain up-to-date, they must know what the club is actively doing. Members can be excused by calling either general leader prior to the meetings.

It was approved to leave dues at $2.50 per member, plus each family contributing twelve first-class postage stamps to cover the cost of mailing the club newsletter.

Bridget Ritger reported on ME interviews held on October 10.

During National 4-H Week, the club had a window display at Wayne School. It received a blue placing in the county competition. We also handed out flyers regarding our club and the benefits of 4-H to students at Wayne School.

The 4-H Recognition and Achievement Banquet was held on October 14 at Amerahn. Members receiving awards included: Brenda Oelhafen Memorial to the Outstanding 4-Her in Washington County was awarded to Bridget Ritger, Home Economics Career Award, Sarah Ritger, Graduating Members, Theresa Anderson and Julie Schulz, Project Awards - Beef, Brad Oelhafen, Aerospace, Aaron Strong, Child Development, Bridget Ritger, Clowning, Angela Ritger, Cultural Arts/Crafts, Bridget Ritger, Field Crops, Kim Resch, Rabbits, Bridget, Sarah and Angela Ritger, Swine, Jolie Bingen, Keith Herman, Ryan Herman and Rik Novotny, Veterinary Science, Bridget Ritger.

Leaders from our club recognized included, Shelly Oelhafen, Beef Leader 1 year, Ethan and Judy Etta, Activity Leaders, 15 years, Lillian Oelhafen, Cake Decorating Leader, ten years, Jon Etta Pork Production Leader, five years, Jim Hawig, Beef & Woodworking Leader, five years.

County 4-H Open House was held at Paradise Mall on October 3. Members reported on their projects and the on-hands things the public participated in.

The club's booth at Kettle Kountry Kolers was very successful. Members participating in preparations and serving included: Rik Novotny, Ryan Herman, Jeremy, Josh and Joe Hawig, Keith Novotny, Sarah, Bridget and Angela Ritger, Brad Oelhafen, Angela Vogt, Laura Klemme, Kim Resch, Andy Bingen, Melissa Ritger.

Sheila Martin, Pat Herther, Marie Herther, Jolie Bingen, Angela Bingen, and Adam Bingen. Adults who supervised included: Nancy Schulz, Jim and Kathy Hawig, Pam Bingen, Patsy Ritger, Linda Novotny, Diane Kiel, Kathy Vogt, Marilyn Brath, John Bingen, Lillian Oelhafen, Marie Ritger and Carol Oelhafen.

The money raised from this fund raiser will be used to fund projects for the upcoming year and to send youth to various 4-H activities.

New officers will be attending County Officer Training on October 27 at the courthouse.

New members were introduced and welcomed to our club. Project materials were given out and will be turned in at the November 10 meeting. New members will be welcomed at the November meeting also.

Our club is planning a Roller-skating party at Skate Country in West Bend on Nov. 12 from 6-8:30 p.m. Area 4-H clubs have been invited to join us.

Respectfully submitted
Brad Oelhafen, Reporter

Prepare to Set a Good Example This Hunting Season

By Larry Johnson, DNR Hunter Education Coordinator

MADISON... If you are a hunter, leaves turning color and the sound of migrating geese signal a special time of the year. Those cues help hunters set aside everyday concerns and, instead, contemplate the pleasure of going afield.

Hunting brings pleasure that's hard to explain: a combination of getting back to nature and an opportunity to test your skills and knowledge of the game you seek. Even if you come home without game, you know the time will be well spent, whether you hunt alone or with companions.

If you do hunt with a son or daughter, a spouse, or a friend who is new to the sport, however, you have an opportunity to pass on a tradition of responsible and safe enjoyment of the outdoors. And hunting carries more responsibilities than ever before.

Hunters need to understand that rules have been established to protect game species from those who would take unfair advantage; and they must understand that not following these rules can jeopardize wildlife populations and the future of Wisconsin's hunting tradition.

We must impress upon all hunters the gravity of our actions when we go afield with firearms and the corresponding need for safety. There are three basic principles: Treat every firearm as if it's loaded; be sure of your target and beyond; and never point a firearm in an unsafe direction.

As hunters, we must realize that one of the most important relationships we foster in hunting is that between ourselves and private landowners. It's a relationship that thrives best in an atmosphere of friendship but also of respect for property and gratitude for access to it.

Today's young hunters are required to attend and pass a hunter safety training program. They have been instructed in practical applications of loading and unloading firearms, safely crossing fences and other obstructions, and handling and storing firearms in the field and at home.

Young people today can be proud in their knowledge and their role in continuing Wisconsin's hunting tradition. But they will also be closely watching the more experienced hunters with whom they go afield. We need to reinforce their training by setting good examples in the field through ethical hunting and safe firearm handling.

As the turning colors of leaves and honking of geese build anticipation of the hunt, they should also cue us that it is time to plan ahead, to brush up on the regulations, to test our firearms, to make contacts with landowners, and to re-familiarize ourselves with the lands we hope to hunt.

WIAA Makes Rule Changes

By Statesman Sports Writer

STEVENS POINT — The Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association made some rule changes in a couple of sports at their October Board of Control meeting.

A total of five new rules were adopted, headed by the increasing of the number of dates on which spring baseball and softball may play their maximum of 18 games. The WIAA increased the number of dates from 14 to 18, with four dates protected from loss of school time.

The WIAA also adopted the courtesy runner for softball in both the regular season and tournament play.

The Board of Control also approved the addition of the 3200 meter relay to the track and field tournament event list, effective in the 1994 season. Also, the top three performers in track and field Regional tournaments will advance to Sectionals, instead of the normal two competitions. The Board also approved the scoring of eight places in the track and field tournament. The latter two rule changes will take effect in 1993.

The WIAA, however, rejected a proposal from track and field coaches to start the season one week earlier.

At the October 22 meeting, the WIAA Board of Control approved the hiring of Debra J. Hauser of Darlington as a new assistant to the Director, beginning January 18th. Executive Director Douglass Chickering made the recommendation to the Board to hire Hauser, after interviews were conducted with five finalists for the position.

Ms. Hauser will assume sports administration duties in swimming and diving, soccer, tennis and golf, and will also be responsible for the WIAA officials program, including training, recruitment, evaluation and retention. She has been District Athletic Director at Darlington since 1984, and has been with the school district since 1978 in both coaching and teaching.

Don Goeden Honored at EWSCA Banquet

Don Goeden of Kewaskum was the "man of the hour" at the Eastern Wisconsin Stock Car Banquet at the Milhous Supper Club in Kiel. Goeden won the 1992 Modified Championship by accumulating the largest number of points ever recorded in the EWSC Association.

Ninety drivers of three divisions split the point fund money of over $31,000. All drivers received a check and a plaque for their participation in the racing programs held regularly at the Sheboygan County Fair Grounds in Plymouth.

Don Goeden and Sportsman Champion Gary Laack won the Hard Charger Awards in their divisions. This award is given to the driver who passes the most cars in the main events throughout the season and is sponsored by the Riverside Truck and Auto of Plymouth. These two champions along with Hobby Stock Champion, Rick Hed of Plymouth also received $100.00 and a plaque for winning the most features during the year. Meyer Motors of Plymouth was the sponsor of these awards.

In his speech, Don Goeden thanked his many fans, sponsors and fellow drivers for making this year, 1992 "his year" to win the modified championship. Goeden stated, "It's fun, when you can be competitive with the pro's like Frankie Hiemerl and the upcoming drivers such as Joey Gish and K.J. Skelton. I enjoy that."

Goeden broke the 16 year Pogo Chassis championship domination by driving a Trostle/Dodd Chassis from the Hot Rod Shop of Wadsworth, Ill. to victory.

Goeden gave a special thanks and a plaque to his number one crew. With their efforts his goals came true. During his speech Goeden stated, "Behind every man there's a good woman?" "NOT!" "Behind every good driver is a great crew chief, and I couldn't have a better person than my brother Dave." Goeden gave Dave a trophy for his dedication to Don's career. He also gave Dave and Sue, his sister-in-law and statistician, a week-end away at the Vista Bay Motel overlooking the Big Bay de Noc in Escanaba, Michigan. It truly was a special night for the Goeden crew and family.

Schmidt, Mertz Lead EW VB Stats

By Statesman Sports Writer
KEWASKUM — When you lose just two games and finish second in conference, you expect to have some players among the statistical leaders. That's exactly the case for the Kewaskum volleyball team this past season.

The Indians finished 10-2 and in second place in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. Sheboygan Falls won the EW title by going 12-0. Those two squads were the only ones to finish above the Sheboygan Falls and Kewaskum finished 1-2 in the league (91 percent - 90 percent), service aces (122-96) and block kills (85-81), showing the closeness of the two squads. The Indians also led the conference in least amount of service errors, with 76.

Senior front-liner Christa Schmidt, virtually a lock for the all-EW first team, led the conference in spike kills with 82, nine more than the next closest individual, and finished third in total points with 106.

Another senior mainstay, Julie Mertz, also had a fine season. Mertz led the conference in service aces (28) and finished second in serving percentage, missing just two of 110 serves on the year.

Other Indians to finish among the leaders in conference included Robyn Winninghoff, who was second in block kills (27) and Kim Sabish, who was sixth in assists (111).

Falls' Gina Mersberger led all servers, hitting all but two of her 152 tries (99 percent), while New Holstein's Sarah Daun led the league in total points with 122. Two Rivers' Trudi Arnold led everyone with 162 assists on the year.

PORT WASHINGTON — A pair of schools from the now-defunct Scenic Moraine Conference are still alive in the WIAA football playoffs, after wins last week.

Germantown, now of the North Shore Conference, beat Greendale 6-0 on Tuesday, and then came back on Saturday to upset North Shore champion Port Washington 14-7. The Warhawks (now 9-2) advanced to the Division II semifinals this weekend, when they will travel to Janesville to take on defending WIAA champion Monroe (10-0). The two-time Division II champion Cheesemakers will be tough for anyone to beat, considering they have outscored the foes by a total score of 391-20 this season.

Flyway Conference champ Mayville also is still alive, as the Cardinals ran their record to 11-0 by beating up on Reedsville (31-3) on Tuesday, and then downing Algoma 21-7 on Saturday. The Cardinals will try to advance to the Division III final, when they face Columbus (11-0) at Beaver Dam. The matchup is quite ironic, as the two schools faced each other in the Division III basketball finals last year, with Columbus coming out on top.

Neighboring Campbellsport, which finished second to Mayville in the Flyway, also experienced some success before being eliminated on Saturday. The Cougars rolled over East Troy 26-0 on Tuesday, but then lost to Elkhorn 21-0 in second-round play.

Elkhorn also took care of another area squad on Tuesday, as they outscored Slinger 35-27, despite 354 yards rushing from Slinger's Greg Zuern. The Owls had a chance for a possible tie late in the game, but Zuern was stopped twice at the Elkhorn one-yard line. Slinger finished the year 9-2, with their only other loss of the season coming at Kewaskum on September 25th.

The Eastern Wisconsin Conference's two entries in the playoffs were eliminated in three games. Plymouth, which finished second in the EW, lost to Kaukauna 28-7 in opening round action on Tuesday while Sheboygan Falls, the EW champs, beat Berlin 18-9 on Tuesday. The Falcons ran into a tough DePere squad on Saturday, however, as DePere improved to 11-0 with a 12-0 over Falls. Plymouth ended the year with a 5-5 record, while Falls finished 9-2.

Hartford and Oconomowoc, the Wisconsin Little Ten Conference Representatives, also were eliminated quickly, each falling in the first round. Hartford, which took first in the WLT, was edged by Green Bay East 21-13, while the Cooney fell to Sun Prairie 34-7.

Two other teams of note had early exits. Howards Grove was trounced by Algoma in the first round 40-14, while Elkhart Lake came up short in a great defensive battle, 2-0 against Bonduel.

Waunakee Goes for 2nd Straight VB Title

By Statesman Sports Writer

Oshkosh — It will be an all-out war as the top three Division II teams in the state battle Friday night for the WIAA State Volleyball Championship.

Waunakee, the defending Division II champions, qualified for this year's state meet by winning their Sectional last weekend. Lakeland, which took second last year, losing only to Waunakee, will be looking for revenge, and is led by one of the state's best female athletes, Katie Voigt. Voigt will attend the University of Wisconsin next year on a basketball scholarship.

Also playing in the Division II round-robin will be Westosha Central, which beat Waupun in the Whitefish Bay Sectional last

Indians Opportunistic in EW Play

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — One of the most trendy statistics that experts look at in football is that of the turnover-takeaway ratio. Teams that have more takeaways than turnovers are usually more successful, as pure logic would deem.

And while that generally held true this past season in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, that same logic seems to indicate that Kewaskum should have fared even better than their 3-3 mark.

The Indians committed a total of 13 turnovers in conference play (5 int's, 8 fumb), but more than made up for them by picking off 11 interceptions, and recovering 13 fumbles, both league highs. The plus-11 ratio was by far the best in the EW, equalling the next best marks of Two Rivers (plus-6) and Sheboygan Falls (plus-5). No other squad in the league had a plus-ratio.

It was obvious by year's end that the Indian defense was the strength of the squad, although it rated just fifth in the league as far as yards given up was concerned. Kewaskum held opponents to 219 yards per game, well behind champion Sheboygan Falls stingy 131 per game. The Falcons did not allow a single rushing touchdown this season in conference play.

The Indian offense, on the other hand, struggled at times. The passing game was most ineffective, as Kewaskum was next to last in yards gained (355), and despite having the fewest number of interceptions, the Indians also did not register a single passing touchdown in conference.

The running game was a bit better, thanks to a late-season surge by fullback Dan Schulteis, who finished fourth in the league in scoring (30 points). Schulteis finished the year seventh in conference rushing, gaining 327 yards on 62 carries (5.3 average). Schulteis' 69-yard TD run against Kiel in the season - finale was the longest of the year in the EW.

Todd Muckerheide (26 carries, 144 yards, 1 td) and Keith Herman (21-103, 1 td) also helped anchor Kewaskum running attack, while Herman led the receiving corps with seven catches for 129 yards. Pat McFadden and Aaron Rettler each added six catches on the year.

Sheboygan Falls' Dayton Behnke led the EW in rushing and scoring, as he gained 685 yards on 127 carries, scoring 12 touchdowns. Plymouth's Eric Grueshow was second, with 634 yards on 103 carries.

Plymouth's Matt Beaver easily outdistanced other receivers, catching 29 passes for 305 yards. Two Rivers' Chuck Herrmann was next with 19 catches, with four touchdowns, including an 86-yarder.

Dan Krumenauer of New Holstein led the EW in passing yards with 526, but Two Rivers' Travis Glandt was first in completions (37) and touchdowns (five). Kewaskum's Jim Marx was second in both attempts (95) and completions (34).

Mayville Wins Cross Country Title

By Statesman Sports Writer

WISCONSIN RAPIDS — There were no members of Kewaskum's cross country team at the WIAA State meet held here, Saturday, but still there were several local teams and individuals that did well.

Heading the list was Mayville's girls squad, which won the Division II team title, outrunning Mount Horeb 61-90. The Cardinals' Laura Verweibe led the way, placing second with a time of 11:44. Random Lake's Sue Daggett won her second straight Division II individual title, winning in 11:35.

Also in the Division II girls race, New Holstein's Shelia Kabat placed 13th (12:20) and Kiel's Cindy Halbach was 14th (12:22).

Two Rivers, the Eastern Wisconsin girls team champion, placed eighth in the Division I race, with a team total of 240. Waukesha North won the Division I title with 80 points. Amy Erickson the EW girls champ, finished eighth as well in the individual race, crossing the line in 11:51.

In the boys competition, Campbell'sport's Matt Thull took third in the Division II race, finishing in 16:26, well behind the first-place effort of Amery's Lael Lee (15:54), who had the best time by any male in the meet.

Placing sixth in Division II was New Holstein's Jason Meyer (16:29), while Mayville's Dave Schraufnagel was 19th (17:11), and Sheboygan Falls' Jared Junk was 21st (17:14). Mayville finished fourth as a team.

Middleton won the boys - Division I team title, with 132 points. Hartford's Dan Murphy placed 20th in the individual race (16:40), while West Bend West's Scott Hammer was 27th (16:45).
