Town of Barton Woman Dies in Fire at Her Home

A town of Barton woman died Saturday, April 17th in a fire that destroyed her home.

Minerva Biersack, 75, of 3540 Town Hall Road, suffered from smoke inhalation, and was pronounced dead at the scene, according to West Bend firefighters. They arrived at the scene after a neighbor and passerby reported the fire, reported Chief Arlyn Sarauer. The home was already fully engulfed in flames.

Firefighters immediately began a search for Biersack, who lived alone, and she was located on the floor, near the bed. A later autopsy confirmed she had died from smoke inhalation.

The Kewaskum and Kohlsville Fire Departments were called to help fight the blaze. Firefighters remained on the scene for about 5 1/2 hours.

The cause of the fire is still under investigation. The origin of the fire is believed to be near a sofa in the dining room of the house, near the bedroom. Possible causes include faulty electrical wiring or careless use of smoking materials.

Wagner Seeks Cooperation Between Village, School Board

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM -- Kewaskum Village President-elect Robert Wagner wasted little time in acting on his campaign message of communication.

"Right now there doesn't seem to be any (communication between the two Boards)," Wagner told the group. "Hopefully, I can help improve upon that."

Wagner told the School Board of his plans to set up a citizens advisory committee. The committee would look at, among other items, how prospective multi-family housing would affect the school system. There have been concerns that too much housing will overcrowd the Kewaskum School District.

There has been a Citizens Advisory Board in existence for quite some time, "It just hasn't been utilized much," according to Wagner. The original Board was set up to look at cable T.V. concerns.

Now, Wagner wants to expand the Board, from five to possibly seven members. He also plans to form a larger committee, with a more diverse cross-section of citizens on it. Townships, and possibly even the student bodies of the district would be included on that committee, Wagner told the School Board.

Wagner's ideas got support from the School Board, as Ruth Schmitt called the proposals, "a great idea." Board president Neal Weare agreed.

"I think that all forms of government should work together," Weare said. "I'm sure that it would be no problem finding a (School) Board member to serve on the committees."

Wagner also provided a bit of levity to the meeting later, as the subject of a state-mandated foreign language program at the Middle School was discussed.

"I know this may be a dumb question, but since the state has mandated this, are they going to be providing any funding?" Wagner asked the Board.

"Welcome to the real world," Ron Beimbom joked, as Weare told the president-elect that there would be no state funding.

In other action taken by the Board, the District's policy of home school transfer students was addressed. The old policy was discriminatory, according to Superintendent David Heather.

"The old policy didn't allow

Board Member Engelking Donates Pay to Start Scholarship Fund

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - In this age, the term politics is usually associated with other negative phrases such as dirty, money or power-hungry, and vested interest. Kewaskum Board of Education member Ray Engelking is doing his part to clean up the business.

Engelking announced last week that he will be donating his $1000-a-year salary as School Board member to set up a scholarship fund at Kewaskum High School.

"I'll probably add to that in the future," Engelking said of the monetary figure. "I want to encourage student involvement, and reward educationally and socially-active students."

Engelking said that the scholarship fund would benefit those students who noticeably improve education in the district. "It's going to reward activism, is the best way of putting it," he said.

Elected to the School Board last year, Engelking says that he ran for the spot on the platform that he had no vested interest, and that he wasn't in it for the money. "We (Board members) put in a lot of hours," he said, "so you really can't be in it for the money."

"I wanted to do it (run for the board) because I'm concerned about the direction that education is headed in the district," Engelking said. "My parents always told me to do something positive... leave a place better than the way I found it. So that's the way I'm looking at it (the scholarship)."

Many view the job of public officials as that of a thankless one, which is often overlooked by members of a community. But Engelking doesn't necessarily believe that line of thinking.

"There's an awful lot of rewards," he said of the job. "If I can see some positive things happening in the system, then that's more than enough reward for me."

Sheriff Honors Rescuers

Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis has issued commendations to individuals who were involved in the effort to rescue Kristy and Timothy Kirton. The two children had fallen through the ice on Wallace Lake on December 18, 1992. Despite heroic efforts, Kristy lost her life while Timothy suffered serious injuries.

Receiving commendations were Sgt. John P. Buck, Dep. Jeffrey A. Schwitz, and Dep. Douglas G. Kocher of the sheriff's department, Daniel Bruesch and Jeffrey Peterman of the West Bend Fire Department, and volunteer rescuers Michael D. Dehling and John Schwai.

The sheriff also sent West Bend Fire Chief Brian Mayer a letter of commendation which acknowledged the efforts of fire department officers Edward Geidel, Gerald Kudek, William Lutz, Jeff Phaneuf, George Rochrig, Mike Tennes, William Storey, and Ron Kostritza.

The sheriff expressed his appreciation, on behalf of the department and the county, for the teamwork and courage of the rescuers, many of whom entered the icy water to help.

Immanuel Lutheran Church Town of Scott To Begin 125th Anniversary Celebration

"Our Faith, Our Hope, Our Trust" is the theme that has been chosen for the 125th Anniversary Celebration of Immanuel Lutheran Church in the Town of Scott.

The church has planned four special events beginning with "Organizational Sunday" on May 2, 1993. Organizations that will be recognized at the special service include the Ladies Aid, the Women's Evening Guild, Aid Association for Lutheran's, and the Lutheran Youth League.

Organizational Sunday will begin with a church service at 10:15 a.m. conducted by Pastor Paul Robinson. Elizabeth (Robinson) Berg will perform the duties of organist, Jane Robinson will be the soloist, and the Immanuel Anniversary Choir will sing. A pot luck dinner and fellowship will follow in the church basement. Meat will be furnished, and participants are asked to bring a dish to pass.

"Reunion Sunday" will be held Sunday, August 29, 1993. An outdoor service is being planned with special recognition going to all confirmands. Former pastors will be invited to conduct the service and a dinner will be served.

On October 24, 1993 the District President will focus his sermon on "historical trust and looking back" as the congregation celebrates "Mother and Sister Congregation Day." A brunch is being planned.

"Anniversary Sunday," will be celebrated May 1, 1994 which is the exact day of Immanuel's 125th Anniversary. The Synodical President will conduct a special service. A dinner will be served and in the afternoon the Bellsingers and Special Choir from Concordia will perform.

Members of Immanuel have been busy preparing for the Anniversary Celebration for over a year. Several redecoration projects have been completed and an Anniversary Booklet is being assembled.

Three mementos are available to purchase in commemoration of the church's anniversary. An Anniversary Cookbook containing recipes from members of the congregation, Anniversary Plates with a picture of the church, and Anniversary Trivets (one depicting the old church and one of the present church) are available for ordering. Samples and order forms are located in the church narthex.

The members of Immanuel Lutheran Church Town of Scott welcome you and your family to join them as they begin to celebrate the church's 125th Anniversary with Organizational Sunday on May 2, 1993.

women). This piece of string can be used to each golfer's discretion, to improve his/her lie.

To all you rookies out there, (present company included) this "lie" does NOT mean how you mark down your score. It means how your golf ball lands on the ground. If that little white pimple-face lands somewhere you prefer not to have it land, (and this is supposed to be fun?), it's OK... you can move it! However, you'll have to cut off a piece of your designated string the same length of the space you're using to improve your lie. I guess this means if you don't have a real straight aim, you're in big trouble! Especially if you don't happen to have an extra $20 to tip the string man.

Also, if you use your entire string on the first hole like I plan to, I think you might have a problem with the other seventeen holes. But... we'll cross that bridge when we come to it, right? I think I'll pray for rain.

The tournament is open to all foursomes, couples and individuals. If you don't happen to have a foursome in your back pocket, the chairmen of this gala event will match you with some other people. Personally, I'd advise you to try and find some other people to round out your foursome, or you might get stuck golfing with me and the way I slice, you better have your insurance paid!

The entry fee is $30 per person, which includes 18 holes of golf and the scheduled 5 p.m. steak fry. There will be lots of hole prizes, raffles, door prizes and fun. Particularly if you are golfing BEHIND me. (NO VIDEO CAMERAS, PLEASE!)

the District to use the same measuring stick (for home-based students as opposed to other transfer students)," Heather told the Board. The new policy, on the other hand, treats home schooled children more like students transferring from another institution.

Under the new policy, which underwent the first reading at Monday's meeting, the same criteria would be used for both groups of students in admission and grade placement.

The problem with the old policy came to light early in the school year. Two students, one from out of state, and the other from another country, had problems with grade and testing placement.

For The Living Workers Memorial Day, April 28

The Occupational Safety and Health Act promises every American worker the right to a safe job.

But America's workplaces are far from safe. Each year 10,000 American workers die from job-related injuries, and tens of thousands more die from occupational disease. Nearly two million workers have been killed by workplace hazards since the OSHA Act was passed.

On April 28, the unions of the AFL-CIO observe Workers Memorial Day to remember those workers who have suffered and died and to renew the fight for safe workplaces. This year we are fighting for passage of OSHA Reform legislation to give workers greater rights and protections.

Join the fight for safe jobs. Observe Workers Memorial Day on April 28.

Vince Condella Visits Farmington In Celebration of Earth Day

Farmington students enjoy a visit from Vince Condella

Vince Condella, TV 6's weatherman and meteorologist was at Farmington School April 14, helping students discover and understand the importance of taking care of the earth. Mr. Condella was welcomed by teachers and students of the school by a mock TV 6 weather forecast, portrayed by a group of students, complete with a stage decorated as the TV 6 Weather Deck. Mr. Condella was presented a bright fuchsia hat for his collection, bearing the Farmington school mascot, a coyote.

Mr. Condella's presentation was a program dealing with environment and air pollution and how it relates to our weather. He demonstrated The Greenhouse Effect explaining the causes that create this global warming. Students learned that they can help stop this by using less energy, protecting and planting trees, and by recycling.

Students also were told how scientists are very concerned about the ozone layer, because a lot of it has disappeared in just a few years. Students learned the importance of the ozone and how it protects us by blocking out rays from the sun that can harm our skin. The ozone layer is being damaged by gases, called CFC's, used in refrigerators, air conditioners, plastic foam, and other things. The CFC's destroys the ozone layer, leaving open pockets, which enables the harmful rays of the sun to get through. We can help stop the ozone layer from disappearing by not using things that have chemicals in them that destroy the ozone layer.

Another important topic Vince talked about is acid rain. Acid rain is extremely harmful to plants, rivers, forests and certainly it pollutes the water that animals and people need to drink. We need to help stop the acid rain. Saving energy is a good way. Electricity is produced by burning coal, which releases invisible gases into the air. Some of the gases get into the rain clouds mixing with the rain, producing acid rain. If we save energy, less electricity has to be produced, so less gas will get into the clouds to produce the harmful acid rain.

Environmental problems are not hopeless to correct. If children learn at a young age to take care of the earth by recycling and conserving energy they are making a better place for them to grow up in Farmington school understands this important and encourages everyone to help preserve the earth.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of LAURA GATZKE, who passed away one year ago, April 11, 1992:

Days of sadness still come o'er us.

Tears in silence often flow.

For memory keeps you ever near us,

Though you died one year ago.

Death can never take away,

And time cannot erase.

The memory of a loving heart,

A dear familiar face.

And there is comfort in the thought,

That as the years go by,

Our memories grow dearer still,

For love can never die.

Sadly missed by her husband, children, and grandchildren.

IN MEMORYREMEMBERING LLOYD KELLER

Who passed away two years ago, April 26, 1991:

A life linked with my own;
And day by day I miss you more

As I walk through life alone.

your hand

Your dear, kind face to see;

To hear your voice, to see your smile

As in the days that used to be.

Deeply loved and missed by Carole.

How to Live with Your Family and Stay Healthy

John Crudele

Family can be the biggest problem for children, or their biggest asset.

John Crudele will talk about drug awareness, values and standards, positive ways to communicate, and making memories with our children at Kewaskum High School's Rose Hall, on May 6th from 7 to 9 p.m. Free child care will be provided.

The following examples are answers to some common questions Mr. Crudele is asked:

Q. What issues do today's youth face?

A. Many of them center on how they value themselves. Am I lovable? They seek to be included. That's part of the reason why they may be afraid to say no to sex or alcohol and drug use. They face decision making and peer pressure and how they view peer pressure.

Teen-agers have a sense of infallibility, that pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases will happen to someone else. Magic Johnson thought it was going to happen to someone else. He wasn't given AIDS, he got it. Oftentimes, we try to blame the people around us -- which means we are giving up responsibility.

People defend alcohol or cigarettes or anything they do because habits die hard. Habits will fight themselves until their death. If you're doing something, you have to defend it. Emotional pain happens when you compromise on your values. We have to get into rationalization otherwise it puts blinders on us, which is denial.

Maturity is when we learn from mistakes. Immaturity is when you recognize the mistake but continue to make it.

Q. For what are today's youth searching?

A. A sense of identity, acceptance and validation that their life means something. They want to be seen positively by friends, family and teachers. They want to be loved and know they are lovable.

They don't want to poison and kill themselves, but some are willing to hurt themselves if it means gaining acceptance.

They are looking for rights of passage, for quick fixes, for a false sense of control. If I can't make friends, one thing about a cigarette or alcohol, it'll be my friend. It might start off as curiosity, but as they get more and more involved, it gets deeper than that.

Q. What advice do you give parents?

A. Kids need to be and feel listened to, to be taken seriously and to feel significant. Rules without relationships leads to rebellion. Look at the relationship. When you love them, they become more lovable.

Parents, grandparents, teens, teachers, community members and anyone who deals with children on a daily basis is urged to attend this laughter-filled, insightful evening.

Free 'Positive Parenting Kit' Available

Governor Thompson Proclaims April 'Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention' Month

MADISON, WI -- Finding positive ways to discipline children can be very challenging for parents. A new booklet, "Positive Parenting: Tips on Discipline" gives parents lots of ideas on positive ways to discipline children that best fit each family's style and personality. The booklet has been added to the Children's Trust Fund's popular "Positive Parenting Kit," according to Jude Morse, Executive Director.

The kit or a single copy of the booklet are available free by calling 1-800-262-9922, Extension "KIDS."

"We are delighted that this free booklet is first available during the month of April as Governor Tommy G. Thompson has declared April "Child Abuse and Neglect prevention Month," Morse said.

"This booklet is also full of helpful tips on how to build self-esteem in children, how to set family rules, and how to focus on positive discipline methods," Morse said.

This booklet contains some helpful tips on how parents can take care of their own needs while addressing the needs of their children. There are also some ideas on how parents can respond when their children have temper tantrums, how to make shopping with children a good experience, and how to reward positive behavior, Morse said.

The new booklet is part of a "Positive Parenting Kit" that also includes:

- A booklet, "Children: Wisconsin's Greatest Resource"
- A pamphlet on preventing child sexual abuse
- A pamphlet on discipline published by the National Parent Teachers Association (PTA)
- A supply of colorful stickers for children; and

• A list of 15 ways to help children feel good about themselves.

The Children's Trust Fund was created by the state legislature in July 1983 as a way to fund community programs designed to prevent child abuse and neglect. Funding for the program is derived from three sources: a $5.00 surcharge on duplicate birth certificates, federal matching funds, and private contributions, gifts and bequests.

PRIZE WINNING PIES

FAMILY'S FAVORITE LEMON CHEESE PIE

|----------------------------|---|
| Crust | 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour |
| 1 cup all-purpose flour | 2 tablespoons yellow cornmeal |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 4 eggs |
| 1/2 cup Crisco Shortening | 1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted |
| 3 tablespoons ice water | 1/4 cup milk |
| 1/2 teaspoon white vinegar | 2 tablespoons freshly grated lemon peel |
| Filling | 1/4 cup fresh lemon juice |
| 2 cups sugar | |

Crust: Combine flour, salt and Crisco in plastic bowl with tight fitting lid. Seal. Shake one to 2 minutes or until mixture resembles coarse cornmeal. Add water and vinegar. Reseal. Shake one to 2 minutes or until mixture will form a ball. Press between hands to form 5 to 6-inch "pancake".

Heat oven to 375°F.

Flour rolling surface and rolling pin lightly. Roll dough into circle. Trim one inch larger than upside-down 10-inch pie plate, reserving scraps. Loosen dough carefully. Roll loosely over rolling pin. Slip into pie plate. Press to fit. Trim edge even with pie plate. Moisten pastry edge with water.

Cut tiny lemon leaf shapes from pastry scraps. Place around edge of pie shell, overlapping slightly.

Filling: Combine sugar, flour and cornmeal in medium bowl. Mix lightly. Add eggs, butter, milk, lemon peel and lemon juice. Beat with wire whisk or spoon until well blended. Pour into unbaked pie shell.

Bake at 375°F for one hour, or until golden brown and set, covering entire pie or edge with foil the last 30 minutes, if necessary, to prevent overbrowning. Cool to room temperature before serving.

Makes one 10-inch pie.

Construction Underway at Moraine Park's West Bend Campus

The first phase of construction, which involves building a new campus library, is well underway at Moraine Park's West Bend campus. Completion of the project is set for this Spring.

Computer lab space, undated nursing facilities, additional instructional space and relocation of the campus library are some of the needs that will be filled when construction and remodeling is completed at Moraine Park Technical College's West Bend campus this spring.

The first phase of the project involved the construction of a new campus library. "We needed additional space to allow room for instructional changes," said Maureen Josten, West Bend campus administrator, "and building the new library was the best option to give us the space."

Approximate cost of the construction project is $495,000, said Rodney Pasch, Moraine Park's vice president of academic affairs and support services. According to Pasch, all of the construction, which is part of Moraine Park's five-year facility plan, has been approved by the Vocational, Technical and Adult Education (VTAE) state board and is within the state statutory limits for program growth. "By law, we are allowed to spend $500,000 for new construction per campus every two years," said Pasch.

Once the construction is complete, the remodeling of the space previously occupied by the library will begin. "The greatest student need is for computer access and this was the reason for the construction," said Josten. "We needed additional computers for students in our medical records and accounting programs as well as for students in general education courses," added Josten. "We also wanted it to be more accessible for business and industry retraining courses which also use computers."

In addition to the new computer lab, the remodeling will also help meet the high tech needs of the nursing and medical records programs. "With the changes in health care and the resulting nursing curriculum changes there was a definite need for a more high tech lab area," said Josten. "The construction and remodeling will facilitate the implementation of this new curriculum."

Although the construction won't solve all of the West Bend campus' space problems, the construction and remodeling project will allow Moraine Park to be more customer-centered and responsive to student needs, said Josten.

New Lab Information System at St. Josephs

An almost instantaneous laboratory information system went on-line February 28, at St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend.

Benefits to all hospital personnel using the new computerized service are faster reporting and improved accuracy of laboratory results from the analysis of blood, urine and other body fluids, according to Kathy Zahn, laboratory information system manager.

"In addition to faster turnaround time, the new system provides for a more comprehensive format for diagnosis. Therefore, physicians are able to see trends in a patient report and to detect abnormalities more rapidly," Zahn said.

The laboratory staff of St. Joseph's Community Hospital have spent several years researching the best lab system to meet patient care needs. Site visits were made to hospitals in Milwaukee, Detroit, Michigan, Libertyville, Illinois and Elkhorn, Wisconsin, to view the operational functions of similar equipment. Through this search it was determined that Flexilab, a product of Sunquest Information Systems, Inc., of Tucson, Arizona, most appropriately met the hospital's criteria and needs.

According to Zahn, in the past medical technologists spent considerable time reporting their findings manually. "As an example, it is now possible to have a hematology report on the unit within minutes after a technologist has reviewed and verified the results," Zahn stated.

"Not only was the laboratory staff involved in the selection of the Sunquest system, but they have all been trained in its operation," Zahn noted. "In essence, they have all had to make sacrifices and learn new procedures. This cooperation and commitment is the key to enhancing efficiency and accuracy of diagnostic care," Zahn added.

Currently, the hospital has the Flexilab and microbiology software module on-line. A module for blood bank usage will be added within the year. The addition of a module for tissue diagnosis is planned to be made within the next four years.

When It Comes to Your Yard, Let Nature Do the Work for You

MADISON... It's spring and time for yard work. This spring, however, the state is encouraging residents to let nature do some of that yard work.

"This is the year the state waste reduction and recycling law bans sticks, leaves, grass and other lawn and garden resources from Wisconsin landfills and incinerators," said Georgia Reay, waste reduction and compost specialist at the Department of Natural Resources.

Reay offered the following tips for residents needing information on how to clean up this year's spring yard mess without generating waste:

*Pick up small sticks and brush. They can go into your community or neighborhood compost facility; or you can use them to start your own backyard composting pile.

*Separate larger branches for chipping by your neighborhood or community service. Use the chips to mulch under trees and shrubs.

*If you have log-sized branches or fallen trees, find someone who can cut and use them in a wood-burning stove or fireplace.

*Pick up dirty papers, plastics and other recyclable junk and put them in the household trash.

*Leave soggy, matted leaves on the lawn until they're good and dry. Then, taking care to avoid rocks, sticks and other things that could get stuck in the mower, mow the leaves where they fell, chopping them as you go. For safety's sake, don't mow leaves in piles.

"Mulching leaves assures that they won't block sunlight and moisture needed by your grass," Reay said. "There's no need to rake and bag leaves. In fact, it's better not to. Leaves are rich in three nutrients essential to healthy grass... nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium."

Another option is to take part in community or backyard composting, Reay said. However, the department does not recommend backyard burning, she said.

"Outdoor burning of debris, even in a burn barrel, may cause air pollution problems for neighbors," Reay said. "It's also a waste of resources and the leading cause of forest fires in Wisconsin."

"The department is concerned about outdoor burning and we're taking an informational approach. It's our hope that people will understand the options and reuse and recycle instead of burning."

Reay expects the ban on lawn and garden resources in garbage to reduce landfill and incinerator-bound wastes by 460,000 tons per year. Many communities are ahead of the state law in banning yard materials from landfills because of local needs to conserve landfill space or save on waste disposal costs, she said.

"People in those communities led the way," Reay said. "If they can manage lawns without waste, we all can, especially if there's access to good information."

To help get the word out, the department is launching a statewide informational effort, with announcements on radio and television which were scheduled to begin last week in the southern half of the state, and during the coming week in the north, said Reay.

The announcements encourage residents to "let nature do the work," she said.

Follow-up summer and autumn messages will encourage leaving grass and leaves where they fall to nourish the soil, Reay said. "It's the easiest way to care for your lawn," she said, adding "it sure beats bagging."

The information effort includes brochures on yard care, mulching and backyard composting, including a "lazy person's" recipe for compost. The brochures are available from many department offices, listed under "Wisconsin" in telephone books. Lawn and garden centers and UW-Extension county offices are also good sources of information, as are local recycling programs.

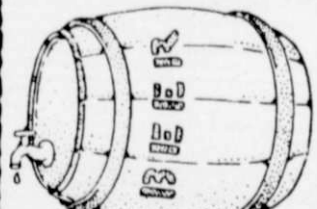

A brochure about the risks of burning garbage outdoors may be available from your local fire warden or DNR office. Or order from Debbie Genna, Bureau of Information and Education, DNR, P.O. Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707-7921.

National Week of the Young Child, April 18-24, Focuses On Family Child Care Providers

By: Ann Biese

The demand for quality, regulated and affordable child-care is high and continues to out run supply. Statistics show that almost 65% of mothers are in the work force and 40% of these mothers are working full time. This demand has made providing home-based child care a new career option for many people.

"I think the greatest reward for me everyday is seeing a child's smiling face," said Lynn Zander, owner of "Little Lambs Daycare" in Kewaskum, a child care center she has operated in her home for the past year. "Children are so honest and funny that's the only way they know how to be."

Zander became a certified provider and feels that this is the business she belong in. "I am providing a very important service to children and their families," said Zander. "And I'm happy to be doing child care for them." Zander's child care center has been filling up quickly in the past year.

"Many providers are in the same predicament" according to Mary Foote, resource and referral manager at 4C(Community Coordinated Child Care) which serves Milwaukee County and has recently expanded into Ozaukee, Washington and Waukesha counties. "The greatest need is for providers willing to care for infants and part time children," said Foote.

4C is a non-profit United Way member agency which promotes affordable, available and quality child care for young children and their families. The agency serves child care providers by offering technical assistance to current and potential providers through basic certification training, accreditation services and a network of neighborhood support groups. Child care providers may also participate in the 4C Food program which reimburses the provider for serving nutritious meals to the children in their care.

In addition to providing a valuable service to children and families, providing child care has other rewards as well. "This business accommodates my family life as well," said Zander. "I have three children of my own and wanted to be home for them." Zander feels having her family support has also helped in making her business such a success. "I think the child care business has affected my family in a very positive way, they have helped with it and become responsible."

Child care providers can be either licensed or certified. A provider caring for four or more children needs to get licensed by the State of Wisconsin. When caring for less than four children, a provider can get certified by the county Department of Social Services. "Becoming licensed or certified is another step in adding to the professionalism of child care providers," said Foote. "Providers also participate in training, workshops and seminars offered by 4C and other child care advocacy agencies," she added.

"Becoming certified has helped me become more knowledgeable about child care issues," said Zander. "It gives me a more positive and professional outlook on doing child-care in my home." Zander also feels the family child care support group which she belongs to has helped connect her to professional people who take this business seriously.

Zander agrees that the decision to become a child care provider should not be taken lightly. "You need to have a great love of children and lots of patience," said Zander. "You also have to be a good role model for children, but most of all you must be committed to serving children and their families."

"You also have to be a good role model for children, but most of all you must be committed to serving children and their families."

"The 90's are presenting a great need for quality child care than ever before," said Foote. Finding quality child care can be a job in itself. "Parents don't always know where to look or what to ask," said Foote. 4C's Resource and Referral provides counseling to parents and listings of licensed and certified child care programs in their area. "Parents receive a computerized printout of the homes or centers that match their specific needs as well as information on selecting child care," said Foote. "In addition, 4C also provides a personalized service to employers to help meet the child care needs of their employees."

Parents should do a lot of research before choosing a provider for their children. "Don't be afraid to ask a lot of questions," said Foote "and visit at least three or four facilities before making a decision." Zander offered suggestions on what parents should look for or ask.

"Parents need to conduct an interview with the provider and be looking for a warm, safe, happy and quality environment," said Zander. "Many parents will ask me first how much do I charge?" "Most important should be the provider's experience and training," said Zander

"Does the provider have first aid training and nutritional knowledge?" Zander feels a good provider should do a variety of activities with the children like walks to the parks, going to the library and other field trips.

"When a parent tells me that they are so happy with the job I'm doing and that they wouldn't take their child anywhere else but to my home," said Zander "that's just one of the benefits of being a child care provider, knowing you make families feel safe and happy that their child is with you."

For more information on becoming a licensed or certified child care provider please call 4C at 933-5999 ext. 129. Or if you are looking for child care and would like referrals from 4C please call 933-KIDS.

Dad Was a Sailor? For Father's Day Enroll Him in the Navy Memorial Log

Video Archive at U.S. Navy Memorial Grows to 200,000 Records

Dear old Dad, or some grandfather before him, proudly served in the U.S. Navy, and just for serving, a national monument has been built for him in Washington, including a place to record his name for generations of Americans to see. The U. S. Navy Memorial honors all who have served in the Navy, and there are more than 200 - thousand records in its high-tech, interactive video Navy Memorial Log of active, retired and former blue jackets and officers, living or dead.

Putting Pop in the Log is a great gift for Father's Day, according to Master Chief Petty Officer Dave Michael, coordinator of the Log. "You never get the wrong size and it's a gift that lasts forever," said the master chief. "A large percentage of our enrollments are gifts -- for birthdays, holidays, anniversaries and Father's Day."

Displayed in user-friendly video consoles in the Log Room of the Navy Memorial's Visitors Center, each log record includes the name, date and place of birth, period of naval service and highest rate or rank held. The $25 tax deductible contribution requested for enrollment helps defray the cost of building and operating the Memorial and Visitors Center.

For Father's Day gifts, the Memorial will acknowledge enrollments with a special greeting card and Log registration forms for presentation to the father being honored. The cards will be sent in time for Father's Day for requests received by June 1. For requests received after that date, delivery by Father's Day, June 20, is not assured.

Navy vets or their kin desiring to enroll them in the Log should send in the sailor's name and address (plus name and address of donor, if different), date and place of birth and, if known, Dad's highest rank or rate and dates of naval service. Enrollment, including check, should be sent to:

U.S. Navy Memorial Log
701 Pennsylvania Ave.,
NW, Dept. M
Washington, DC 20004-2608

A clearly identified photograph also may be entered for another $25; photographs cannot be returned.

Authorized by Congress in 1980 with the stipulation that funding come solely through donations, with no taxpayer funds to be used, the Memorial was completed in 1987. The memorial includes the statue of the Lone Sailor, bronze relief sculptures, a granite map of the world which serves as an amphitheater for concerts, a Visitor's Center with the Log Room, a Ship's Store, and a big-screen motion picture about Navy operations, aptly entitled "At Sea."

A Message from the Postmaster

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers, and how are you all doing today?

As I write this week's column, it is sunny and very mild outside... I LOVE IT!

Like many of you, I am hoping that last week's little snow showers mixed with sleet is finally the END of this mess! Let's hope so, okay? I am thinking of my daughter as I write this week as... did you know that the Great America Theme Park opened this past Saturday? Yep... and Chrystal was "running the double-decker carousel."

She will be working the "Crawler" and "Batman" during the summer, so if any one of you are going down... please look for the blonde, with the nametag "Chrystal" on either one of these rides and say "Hi" okay? On to this week's postal messages:

First of all, I want to thank you for the tremendous "feedback" I have received about the "proposed new window and lobby hours on Saturdays. I drove over from Fondy, with a friend and talked to many of you, either at the Post Office or during breakfast.

I will be "gathering your input" for the next four weeks and after that, will make a decision on the permanency of these hours. As your Postmaster, I want to insure you, OUR CUSTOMERS, receive the best possible service that we can give you. I welcome your comments and/or questions ANYTIME! Please feel free to call me at 626-2575 and/or stop in and "walk right in" to my office, say hello, and let me know "what's on your mind" with our service, okay?

SOMETHING NEW AT THE POST OFFICE — yes, we have made yet another change at the local post office. Any of you that deposit your mail inside will see that we have given you yet another "added touch to customer service."

There are three slots to deposit the mail. One for "local mail" (in that slot you are to deposit any and all mail for Kewaskum); one for "out of town mail" (in that slot goes the rest of your mail) and the slot right above those two has a new sign attached.

It reads: "mail to be postmarked Kewaskum." Please allow me to explain: any mail that is deposited in the "local mail" slot WILL NOT leave Kewaskum and will be delivered the following day to addresses in the Kewaskum delivery area. The out of town mail is "faced" (taken out of the slots and put in trays so that the envelopes are all in order and the stamps appear in the right-hand side of the envelope).

Doing this, by our local employees, assists the Milwaukee Post Office and YOU, our customers, to "move the mail" just slightly faster. What it does is bypasses the "facing" operation in Milwaukee. I might just add that "bundles" of 10 pieces or more, brought to the window, assists us, Milwaukee, and you, in "getting the mail moved" more efficiently.

We can just take this mail — it is already "faced," and place it in the appropriate tray. I want to thank you, in advance, for any co-operation you can give us in this matter. Now... that new slot... what it is for and what type of mail should you place in there.

When I started with the Postal Service, 1975, in Fond du Lac, we faced, cancelled and sorted the mail to many separations around the entire United States. Those days are gone, as automation took place and that part of the local services were moved to another city.

Here, in Kewaskum, mail that is deposited in the out-of-town slot goes to Milwaukee and receives a Milwaukee postmark on it. To many people, many of you might "identify" with this, it was almost like "losing your town." Many of you, like myself, take a great deal of pride in having "KEWASKUM" in that little postmark. ALL of the mail deposited in the "out-of-town" slot by 5:30 p.m. will indeed get that day's postmark but it will show Milwaukee, not Kewaskum, as the postmark.

To many of you, it is important that "Kewaskum" be NOTED in the postmark. That is where this "new slot" at your Post Office plays the part. ALL "OUT OF TOWN" mail deposited in this slot will receive the day's postmark (just like it would if it went to Milwaukee) BUT instead of Milwaukee, it will show KEWASKUM as the originating city.

This is just another idea, for your complete "customer satisfaction," that we have implemented at the Kewaskum Post Office. Again, please feel free to call me at 626-2575 or stop in to see me with your questions on this or any other Postal matter. CUSTOMER SATISFACTION IS MY PRIORITY!

POSTAL TIPS FOR YOU:

1. Going on an extended vacation and wondering about your mail? Stop in. We will give you the alternatives for mail being "held," what can be forwarded, picking up upon return or just having it delivered when you get back.

2. Need your mail BEFORE the carrier leaves for the street — this is for those serviced by the rural carriers. ONE DAY HOLDS have to be authorized by the Postmaster... IF it is an emergency situation, please feel free to call me, "explain the situation" and we will do it but on the other hand, please refrain from doing this on a "daily basis" as it does impede the efficient delivery to the rest of our customers.

I will mention that "food stamps and welfare checks" CANNOT be "picked up at the window" as your address on the mail is not the Kewaskum Post Office and our instructions from Social Services are that this mail is to be delivered as addressed on the envelope.

Well, that is it for this week. As your Postmaster, I do look continually to improve the service and satisfaction that you should expect and should receive from each and every one of the employees of the Postal Service. I welcome EACH and EVERY ONE of your comments. Just call and ask for Bonnie or stop in to see me. My door is open to our customers.

Again, I thank you for your continued input into this column. Do stop in and see the "tree." It is adorned for Mother's Day. Hope you all enjoy! Until next week... TRY to have a GOOD day...

A HAPPY EVERYDAY!
Your Postmaster, Bonnie

Announce 1993-94 Chapter 2 Allocations To Wisconsin School Districts

MADISON -- Wisconsin school districts that conduct innovative programs to enhance student achievement are among the educational agencies that will share about $6.9 million Chapter 2 funds, according to an announcement by Acting State Superintendent Lyle C. Martens.

Wisconsin will receive $8,565,402 in federal Chapter 2 money, a decrease of about 2 percent from last year's award of $8,772,171. Local education agencies will share $6,852,322 of the state's award, and 20 percent of Chapter 2 funds will remain with the Department of Public Instruction to provide state-level activities.

The Chapter 2 law and regulations, which are part of the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), list seven targeted assistance programs eligible for Chapter 2 funding. They include programs to

- meet the educational needs of children at risk of failing in school or dropping out and students for whom providing an education exceeds average costs;
- acquire instructional and educational materials;
- provide school wide improvements, including effective schools programs.
- provide training and professional development for school staff members;
- enhance the personal excellence of students and student achievement;
- develop other innovative projects that would enhance school educational programs and climate; and
- provide training for teachers and school counselors to help them identify students with reading and reading-related problems that place the students at risk for illiteracy in their adult years.

The DPI computed grants using a distribution formula approved by the Wisconsin Chapter 2 State Advisory Committee in March. The formula, which is the same as last year's, distributes funds based 50 percent on enrollment, 47 percent on the number of families receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children, and 3 percent on a sparsity factor calculated from the number of residents per square mile.

School districts must apply to the DPI for Chapter 2 funds. private schools can receive Chapter 2 services by participating through public schools.

The DPI uses its Chapter 2 funds to support activities related to the seven targeted assistance programs, to administer the Chapter 2 program, and to support educational improvement projects.

"The Chapter 2 program is one of the best offered by the federal government because it supports creative and innovative activities on the state and local levels," Martens said. "The Academic Decathlon, Science World, Teacher World, several Families in Education activities, and other special activities would not be possible without Chapter 2 support."

The 1993-94 ESEA Chapter 2 Allocation for the Kewaskum School District is $7,494.

county. Plans have been made to contact every home as a reminder to pick up your old and worn out silk and nylon hosiery. Remember that our gunners need the silk and nylon stockings for powder bags. When used as a powder bag, it is possible to recharge and refire the guns without wasting time to clean them again. Village Board Meeting Minutes

Regular Meeting
April 5, 1993
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Regular Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Mary Krueger presided. Trustee David Goeden asked to be excused and was absent. All other Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Harry Roecker and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the March 15, 1993 meeting were approved as printed.

Nicholas Quartaro of the accounting firm of Conley McDonald Certified Public Accountants & Consultants, Brookfield, WI was present to review the audit for the year ending December 31, 1992, and to answer questions anyone may have regarding the Village of Kewaskum's financial status. Mr. Quartaro explained the entire audit and financial statements regarding the General Fund and Utilities portion of the audit and associated financial statements. The audit revealed the Village is in a healthy financial position.

It was further noted that the General Fund ended with a positive balance. The Water Utility reflected a rate of return equal to 4.5% and that the Public Service Commission had authorized a 6% rate of return. The Sewer Utility reflected a rate of return equal to 6.8%. It was noted that the TIF District and Debt, if all goes as currently expected, will be paid off approximately four years early. The Village's overall debt is at 50% of what the law provides.

President Mary Krueger thanked Mr. Quartaro and the accounting firm of Conley McDonald for the informal review of the Village of Kewaskum's financial condition.

Mr. Quartaro thanked the Village Staff for their assistance and good records.

A public hearing on special assessments for municipal improvements was held by the Village Board to exercise its power under Sec. 66.60 Wis. Stats. to levy special assessments upon property within the Village as noticed and described are for special benefits conferred upon such property by improvements of the following storm sewer and catch basins, street/roadway, street base and surface, sidewalk, street lighting and curb and gutter as well as other related specifications contained in section 8 of the Municipal Code.

The noticed project involves 22 parcels. Mr. Ken Ward, the Village engineer with the firm of Ruekert and Mielke, was present to review the project with the Board and to inform the public and the Board that the total project cost of $163,655.00 is being divided, with 71.75% being assessable and 28.5% non-assessable (paid by the Village). It was further noted that some of the assessable costs are also being picked up by the Village. The major improvements as agreed to being paid for by the Village are the storm sewer and street lighting and signing cost.

Mr. Ward explained the need for some retaining walls and the reasoning behind the use of limestone versus road gravel. The use of limestone requires a 10" base while road gravel requires a 12" base. This partial savings and the fact the material creates a superior base is the logic behind the use. The matter of the three options on how or how not restoration was bid was also reviewed. The rough grade and no topsoil and seed equaled a cost savings of $3.78 per foot. Seventeen of the 22 property owners involved with the project had representation at the public hearing. After a considerable amount of debate, on a motion by Trustee Robert Wagner, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton and carried by majority roll call vote, the Board closed the public hearing.

Fire Chief Mark Groeschel reported that the Fire Department has been disappointed in the removal of snow from the parking lot, drives and sidewalks adjacent to the facility. The purchase is from the low bidder Bob Fish at a cost of $11,480 as recommended by Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles.

Mr. Peter Albers, the Water Pollution Control Department Lead Operator, was present to answer questions regarding the blocking of the windows at the treatment plant. Two proposals were reviewed; on a motion by Trustee Robert Beisbier, seconded by Trustee Robert Wagner and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized proceeding with the low proposal that being Bunkelman Builders, Inc. at a cost of $4,800.00.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed several items as follows:

2) On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Robert Wagner and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board agreed to use the limestone base but to pay the difference between it and road gravel. It was noted that the limestone would be installed at 10" and the road gravel at 12" reducing the difference.

3) On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board opted to leave in the topsoil and seed option to begin with until the neighbors resolve some differences and notify the Village Board as to an agreed upon action. IS YOUR SUMP PUMP FLOODING YOUR NEIGHBORS OR WASTING TAX DOLLARS TREATING CLEAR WATER AT THE KEWASKUM POLLUTION CONTROL PLANT?

During the recent wet period the Village of Kewaskum Sewer System has been overloaded with clear water. This causes major problems for residents in low areas. If your sump pump is discharging to the sanitary sewer you are contributing to the problem, and the sewer backup in some residential homes. Please make sure your sump pump discharge is to the storm sewer, curb and gutter, backyard or drainage ditch.

In addition to causing problems in the sanitary sewer lines and flooding of some residential basements, the utility user/tax payer must also stand the cost of treating clear water at the treatment plant. There is no need to treat clear sump pump water, clear water entering the sanitary sewer costs all utility users dollars to run through the treatment plant.

Should larger sewer lines have to be constructed to take care of sump pump discharge water, the village sewer user and tax payer would be facing substantial cost for such a construction project. Keeping sump pump water out of the sanitary sewer lines helps you, your neighbor, and the community. At the present time the calculated costs of treating wastewater is $7.75 for each thousand gallons of water (engineering calculations and rate charges to cover cost of treatment charges established for the treatment plant).

Sump pump regulations are covered in chapter 15 of the Village Building Code, in the Plumbing Code section. For more information or inspections please contact the Village.

UNCLE SAM WANTS MORE!

By Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner

(Washington, D.C.)... April 15th caused fear and anxiety for individuals nationwide for one reason... federal income tax due day. The federal government collected an estimated $1.25 trillion in taxes this year. Yet, President Clinton has asked the American people to "contribute" more. I oppose the new tax increases.

Tax burdens on Americans are at an all-time high with the average American household paying $16,500 in federal, state, and local taxes. Taxes now consume 19 percent of the Gross Domestic Product (GDP), the same figure they did in the late 1970s, however, federal spending now consumes 24 percent of the GDP up from 21 percent in the late 70s. The runaway growth in federal spending has been the cause of the rising deficits. In 1990, Congress passed a Budget Deal raising taxes in the name of deficit reduction; but studies now show that Congress spend $2.37 for every $1 in new taxes.

President Clinton's 1,478 page, $1.52 trillion 1994 budget calls for $266 billion in new taxes over the next five years. He has argued the new taxes are necessary to reduce the federal deficit, but history demonstrates new taxes simply fuel Congress' spending appetite. Federal tax collections doubled from $517 billion to $1,031 trillion between 1980 and 1990, yet the federal debt MORE THAN QUADRUPLED.

In addition to the $266 billion tax increase in his budget, President Clinton may need as much as $100 billion more in new revenue to pay for his proposed health care reforms. Ideas such as a national sales tax or a valued added tax (VAT) have been mentioned as possible candidates. I oppose these taxes because they hurt lower income families hardest. Congress must control its appetite for spending before it reaches further into American taxpayers' wallets.

I supported an alternate Republican budget that would have reduced the federal deficit by $430 billion over five years WITHOUT NEW TAXES, but that budget did not pass the House. I also support a proposal that would cap the growth rate of federal spending at four percent per year. This would allow every federal spending program to grow at a rate greater than the current rate of inflation but would eliminate the current deficit by the year 2000 WITHOUT ANY NEW TAXES. Without a balanced budget Constitutional amendment, Presidential line-item veto authority, a cap on federal spending, or other means of controlling federal spending, taxpayers should start saving now for next year's higher tax bill.

Panzer Reports Wisconsin Companies Set Record Total of Exports

While a larger portion of the nation experienced sluggish growth in 1992, Wisconsin companies were busy setting a record number of exports. Last year alone, Wisconsin accounted for $6.9 billion worth of goods to foreign countries which contributed to the national total of $447 billion.

Overall, Wisconsin finished 17th among the states and led the rest of the Midwest in terms of the percentage of export growth. The reported overseas shipment rise of 13.4 percent easily doubled the national increase according to the latest figures completed by the U.S. Commerce Department which were provided by UW-Madison.

Some of the top destinations for Wisconsin products based on the highest number of total exports include: Canada, United Kingdom, Japan, Saudi Arabia, France, Germany, Mexico, Australia, Netherlands, and Hong Kong. Canada remained the top stop receiving 29 percent of the state's exports which amounts to more than $2 billion.

Exports to the Middle East countries also climbed dramatically. Saudi Arabia's imports of Wisconsin goods rose by 189 percent, to $356 million and Kuwait's imports increased by 160 percent, to $63 million.

Several businesses in the 59th Assembly District deserve to be commended for their contributions toward the state's export total of $6.9 billion. Amity Leather Products Company (West Bend), Regal Ware, Inc. (Kewaskum), and the Gehl Company (West Bend) are just a few of the businesses which have shipped a substantial amount of their products overseas to countries worldwide.

Amity produces personal leather goods such as wallets and billfolds. The Gehl Company sells agricultural and construction machinery and Regal Ware manufactures housewares and cooking utensils.

The combined efforts of these companies have not only contributed to strengthening the state's economy but also have played a crucial role in keeping the communities' unemployment levels down.

If the state is to maintain its economic momentum, Wisconsin companies need to continue to seek and explore these tapped and untapped markets around the globe.

Many receive advice, few profit by it.

Wiesner, 800 Relay Among State's Best

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - If the latest Wisconsin Girls Public High School Track and Field Honor Roll figures are any indication, the so-called rebuilding year for the Kewaskum girls squad may be anything but an off-year.

The Indians' Ginger Wiesner, along with KHS' 800 meter relay team appeared in the final listing of the indoor results, dated April 11. The Honor Roll, produced by Oostburg High School's Jack Rauwerdink, lists the top 15 athletes and schools in each event, with all Divisions included.

Wiesner's 400-meter time of 62.31, which set a KHS indoor record, was good enough for sixth place in the state. Wiesner also had a hand in the other Indian qualifying time, teaming with Christa Schmidt, Greta Kuphal and Mary Yahr in the 800 relay. The quartet's time of 1:55.3, which tied the school record, was good enough for the 13th best in the state.

"We came close on a couple of others," KHS girls coach Perry Koth said regarding his team.

Robyn Winninghoff was among 14 athletes who tied for the 13th position in the high jump, all clearing the 5-2 mark earlier this season, which would have tied her for the sixth-best jump during the indoor season.

Also, the 1600 meter relay team, consisting of Schmidt, Kuphal, Wiesner and Missy Rohrer missed the 15th spot by just .12 of a second. Ironically, the Indian team was edged out by fellow Eastern Wisconsin Conference foe Sheboygan Falls (4:23.92).

Several other conference and area schools were represented in the Honor Roll. The list was headed by Two Rivers' Amy Erickson, who posted the fastest 3200 meter time of any girls (11:13.1), and had the 10th best 1600 meter time (5:32.2). Erickson's 3200-meter time was the most impressive of any on the list, as only her and Random Lake's Sue Daggett (11:20.0) were able to break the 11:50 mark.

Other EW athletes making the list were Plymouth's Claire Roenitz (12th in the 200, 27.97), Two Rivers' 800 relay unit (7th, 1:53.22), and New Holstein's 800 relay unit (15th, 1:56.14). Daggett also was fourth on the 1600 meter list (5:20.9), while West Bend East's 800 relay (ninth, 1:53.96) and 1600 relay (second, 52.6) also were cited.

UW-Extension Video Satellite to Address Homelessness

West Bend -- Estimates from shelters across the state indicate more than 35,000 Wisconsin residents are homeless. But those numbers are probably very conservative, especially in rural areas where few shelters exist.

People who work with homeless people or who have an interest in the issue are invited to attend a University of Wisconsin - Madison/Extension video satellite program on the issue of rural homelessness, April 30 from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Public Agency Center, 333 E. Washington Street in West Bend.

"Families with children are one of the fastest-growing groups facing homelessness or crisis housing," said Ann Ziebarth, UW-Madison/Extension housing specialist.

"You usually don't see them on the street because they tend to skip around a lot.

They go from home to home, staying with relatives or friends until they can't stay any longer. They may be even more invisible in rural areas, which have no shelters to accommodate them."

The video satellite program will include taped interviews with homeless people and social service professionals around the state, as well as local discussion groups.

The program is sponsored by University of Wisconsin - Extension Family Living Education and Washington County Homelessness Coalition in cooperation with the Wisconsin Division of Housing and the Wisconsin community Action Program Association.

For more information or to register, call the Washington County UW-Extension Office at 335-4479; 644-5204 or 342-2929. Deadline for registration is April 23.

State Enjoyed Landmark 1992-93 Snowmobile Season

State officials are crediting good snow cover across the state and the formation of new alliances to promote snowmobiling safety are being cited as key contributors to the success of the 1992-93 snowmobiling season.

Glistening trails drew a large number of enthusiastic, responsible visitors to the state according to the state Division of Tourism. At the same time, the Department of Natural Resources recorded a 24 percent reduction in snowmobiling fatalities.

"With all the snow we received, people in many parts of the state had riding opportunities they haven't enjoyed in years," said Gary Homuth, DNR snowmobile safety program coordinator. "That may help account for a slight increase we noted in overall accident reports. But snowmobilers themselves deserve a lot of credit for the drop in fatalities."

Homuth said the reduction, from 29 deaths last season to 22 this season, may reflect a growing awareness of the need for responsibility on the trails. This season was notable, Homuth said, for enhanced snowmobiling enforcement efforts, for the publicity surrounding those efforts, and for a responsible snowmobiling campaign sponsored by the Miller Brewing Company and the major snowmobile manufacturers.

In the five counties included in the state's "hot spot" enforcement program, Homuth said, snowmobiling fatalities dropped from last season's total of 14, to seven this season.

According to Dick Decker of Decker Sno-Tours and the Eagle River Derby, communication between site agencies, business owners and community leaders played an important role as well.

DNR Marketing Director Lyn Vest says a task force formed as a result of those early meetings will meet in Rhinelander later this month to finalize strategies for continued snowmobiling safety efforts in the future.

Eight Firsts Help KHS Girls to Triangular Win

By Noel Stollenwerk

WAUPUN - While the Kewaskum boys track team used eight second place finishes to post a team victory in last Tuesday's triangular here, the KHS girls won the team portion the old fashioned way.

The Lady Indians posted eight firsts en route to an easy victory in the triangular. Kewaskum finished with 73 points, while Waupun Christian was second with 50, and host Waupun was third with 40.

Christa Schmidt had a fine meet for Kewaskum, posting wins in the 100 hurdles (17.8) and the 330 hurdles (51.4). The senior also combined with Mary Yahr, Ginger Wiesner, and Missy Rohrer to win the mile relay (4:32).

"Christa has been working real hard," KHS coach Perry Koth said regarding the senior leader. "For this early in the season, I was real happy with her times."

Karla Kirst posted the top mark in the triple jump (28-6), although Rohrer surpassed that leap in the JV competition (29-8.5). Wiesner added a first in the long jump (14-2.5), while other firsts were recorded by Chrissy Neumann in the mile (6:03.2), Nicole Hetzel in the 880 (2:48.2), and Beth Kempf in the shot put (33-1.5).

"She was real disappointed with her throws earlier (during the indoor season)," Koth said of Kempf, who has been coming on steady. As for Rohrer's effort, "That's a real positive... the best jump we've had in two years."

Yahr couldn't overtake Schmidt in the hurdles races, and had to settle for a pair of seconds in both the 100 (18.2) and 330. Wiesner also had to settle for the runner-up spot in her specialty, the 440, as she was nipped by Waupun Christian's Tricia Hopp, 64.5 to 64.55. Wiesner had beaten Hopp by nearly three seconds at the Oshkosh Indoor Invitational the week before.

"It's a yards track, so that kind of throws things off a bit," Koth said of the slower times. Considering the cold and windy conditions, "I was overall satisfied. The girls really weren't up for the meet (because of the conditions)."

Koth also got some bad news when it was learned that Greta Kuphal's injury is a stress fracture in her lower leg. Kuphal has been able to practice on just a few occasions, and now will miss at least six more weeks.

"That's a hard loss to take," Koth said of losing the sophomore sprinter. "It's hard to replace someone like that, especially her attitude. But she's determined to come back by the end of the season."

In the meantime, the Indians will have to make do with what they have, and what the weather allows them to do. KHS is scheduled to take part in a coed meet at Concordia's University County Indoor at Slinger.

Both KHS squads will take part in a home coed meet against Kiel next Wednesday.

DNR at Plymouth Receives Donation

The Plymouth field station of the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources has accepted donations from two local organizations. A 4x4 All Terrain Vehicle (ATV) was donated by the Northern Kettles Chapter of the National Wild Turkey Federation. The Johnsonville Rod and Gun Club presented the Department with a large, two-person post hole digger.

Wildlife Supervisor Dale Katsma said everyone who uses the natural resources in the area will benefit from the generosity of the two organizations. "The ATV will be a great help with a variety of tasks preformed by our field staff to improve and maintain our forest and wildlife areas. The post hole digger will be used to help plant trees and for general maintenance."

The vehicle is a Polarix 350L, 4x4 ATV with an estimated value of $4,950. The General post hole digger Model #330 has an estimated value of $1,000.

Inexperience to Limit KHS Golfers

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - The term "green and growing" used to be a motto for the Milwaukee Bucks about a decade ago. The term will apply to this year's Kewaskum golf team as well.

"We're going to be real green," KHS Coach Joe Harlow said, referring to the fact that his squad boasts no returning letter-winners this season. "We're expecting to improve."

First on the agenda is being able to practice. With all new faces this year, Harlow has no way of knowing what to expect from the team. And, thus far, the team has been able to practice outside exactly once, further hampering Harlow.

"It's still a big question mark," Harlow said, pointing out that the core of last year's Sectional qualifying team graduated. "Our top seven golfers last year were seniors. We have nobody out this year that has taken a swing on the varsity level."

Harlow believes that senior Jim Marx and junior Robbie Donath will be regular varsity players, as those are the only two with substantial JV experience.

"Robbie's had the best success on the JV level," Harlow said, also noting that sophomores Nathan Vetter and Shane Engelking saw limited action as JV's last year. Harlow also pointed to juniors Mark Stephani and Justin Hanson as being candidates for varsity spots. "We also have a lot of seniors that are out for the sport for the first time."

As for the top teams in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, Harlow sees Plymouth and Sheboygan Falls as the favorites. "You have to take Plymouth because of their success in the past," he said. "And Sheboygan Falls... they might have a shot at it."

The KHS boss couldn't help but think if he had the 1992 Indian team back this year.

"This would be a great year to have a veteran team," Harlow said. "It's kind of a down year in the conference as a whole."

Weather Playing Havoc With KHS Sports Schedule

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Just as the recent cold and rain has been a real bummer for most of us, the athletes at Kewaskum High School are also getting a bit eager for the sun to shine.

The weather has played the most havoc with the Indian softball squad, which has had four games cancelled or postponed due to inclement weather. A fifth game, scheduled for this past Tuesday, also stood a great chance for postponement due to wet grounds.

"Softball is kind of a tough one," KHS Athletic Director Dave Rizzardi said Monday afternoon. Rizzardi said that in the case of track and field, practices could be moved indoors. In softball, though, an outdoor facility is almost a must.

So, the girls softballers can prepare themselves for a host of doubleheaders later in the year. Eastern Wisconsin Conference games that have already been postponed will be made up as doubleheaders. Doubleheaders will be played May 3rd, (home, against Elkhart Lake), May 6th (home, against New Holstein), and May 11th (at Kiel). Non-conference games against Mayville and Waupun will most likely not be made up, "unless there's an even night where neither team has anything scheduled," according to Rizzardi.

The girls track team will make up its meet at Chilton on May 3rd, a date originally thought to be that of the Mayville Invitational. But the Mayville Invite was changed to a day later, unbeknownst to Rizzardi. With the KHS girls scheduled for an EW triangular on that day, the defending Invitational champions won't be able to defend their title.

"That's really too bad," girls track coach Perry Koth said, "because we've done quite well there the past couple of years."

The boys golf team has also been set back considerably. As of Monday, the team has been able to practice outdoors just one time.

"We've been outside (practicing) for a total of one-and-one-half hours," golf coach Joe Harlow said. The team had its meet last Friday cancelled, and will try and make that up this Thursday at the Quit Qui Country Club in Elkhart Lake. Hon-E-Kor Country Club, the Indians' regular home, is not nearly ready to open.

The team will also probably be unable to compete in a meet scheduled this Friday at Hartford. "I heard that they aren't open either," Harlow pointed out.

And while the poor weather conditions have been one big headache for Rizzardi, he tries to keep a level head regarding the situation. "You've just got to get used to it, I guess."

Dirmeier Shines in Outdoor Opener

By Noel Stollenwerk

WAUPUN - The times were a bit slow due to the cold weather, but the Kewaskum boys track team didn't let that bother them in the team's first outdoor meet of the season here, last Tuesday.

Senior Jeff Dirmeier paced the Indians' effort, taking two individual firsts and adding another in the mile relay, as the KHS boys won the triangular with 62 points. Waupun Christian was second with 53 points, with host Waupun third with 49.

Dirmeier picked off right where he finished the indoor campaign, as he won both the mile (4:52.7) and 880 yard (2:09.9). Dirmeier also teamed with Heath Heise, Dean Kreis and David Gosa to capture the mile relay (3:53.9).

"He had a real good meet," KHS coach Jerry Gosa said of Dirmeier. "It was a good meet overall for us. I think we did pretty well, all things considered."

Another KHS distance runner continued to shine. Junior Randy Thull, competing in his first year in the sport, won the two mile with a time of 11:03, once again setting a personal best mark.

Kewaskum got two other first place efforts. Senior Dan Schulteis won the shot put with his throw of 43-2, while junior Wade Kreis won the pole vault (11-0). The Indians' best vaulter, Brad Jackson, didn't compete due to a foot injury, and Gosa isn't sure when the state qualifier from last year will return.

"I think he might be out for at least another week," Gosa said, noting that Jackson was to see his doctor earlier this week. "It's a badly bruised heel, we think."

The Indians recorded eight seconds to bolster their team score. Beau Coulter was runner-up in the 100 dash (11.1+), and teamed with Schulteis, Aaron Kurth and Tyler Dieringer for a second in the 440 relay (48.6).

Gosa took second in the mile (4:58.2), while seconds were also recorded by Kevin Kohn in the shot (41-7), Heise in the 440 (57.9), Jim Wichtoski in the long jump (18-9.5), Brian Bruendl in the triple jump (36-8), and Travis Jacak in the high jump (6-0).

The KHS coach was also quite pleased with the performance of the JV's Matt Tonn, whose 57.2 in the 440 would have placed him second in the varsity competition.

"That's a very pleasant surprise," Gosa said of Tonn's effort. "He ran exceptionally well. I think we're going to give him a chance to run on varsity) in our next meet."

The Indians had a home meet scheduled on Tuesday, and are at Chilton Thursday. Both KHS squads will take part in this Saturday's Concordia Invitational in preparation for next Tuesday's County Outdoor at Slinger.

Kewaskum will also host a coed meet Wednesday, April 28th, against Kiel.

Reimer Headed to UW

By Noel Stollenwerk.

CHILTON - Chilton's Stacy Reimer, who helped lead the Tigers to a perfect 26-0 mark and a state title two years ago, is headed to the University of Wisconsin on a basketball scholarship.

Reimer was a key figure in Chilton's consecutive Eastern Wisconsin Conference championships the past two years. The past two years, Reimer had led the Tigers to a combined mark of 23-1 in the EW.

This past season, Reimer was named the EW's Player of the Year, after averaging 15.3 points per game (second in the league). Reimer led the conference in assists (52), was second in free throw percentage (69%) and was third in steals (44).

The 5-7 point guard will help bolster a strong recruiting class for the Badgers this year. UW already landed Lakeland's Katie Voigt, who was the state's Player of the Year two years ago, and is generally considered the state's top player.

Employer: "An executive looking for men between 25 and 30 with 40 year's experience."
