Village Approves Summer Help

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - After a lengthy discussion, the Kewaskum Village Board last Monday night approved the hiring of two summer workers in the Public Works Department.

Questions were raised by a couple of Board members, asking DPW Director Jerry Gilles whether the two individuals were needed. Trustee Harry Roecker pointed out that a total of 1500 man-hours were gained by the Village's decision to contract out for garbage removal.

But Gilles said the additions were justified, noting that the Board has called for additional work to be done this summer, including the painting of half of the communities' fire hydrants.

"I don't have a problem not hiring help if there is nothing for them to do," Gilles told the Board. "But you can't cut back on personnel and keep adding work."

While Roecker and fellow trustee Gary Gavin cited their concerns over the additional workers, trustee Robert Beisbier backed Gilles, saying, "I think we should trust (Gilles) enough to make the decision (about hiring the additional help). That's what we pay him for."

Van Ess Family to Be Recognized At Circus World Ceremony May 8

Educators, students, parents and friends will celebrate the important role that families play in their children's educations during the fourth annual "Family Day at the Circus," Saturday, May 8, at the Circus World Museum in Baraboo.

As part of the 200th anniversary of the circus big top show, State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover will recognize 12 Wisconsin families for their support of family involvement in education. In addition to the recognition at Circus World, the families, chosen by each of the state's cooperative educational service agencies (CESAs), will receive plaques and certificates.

At the noon ceremony, 12 "Family Friendly" schools also will be honored. Each school will receive a $500 grant for its efforts to involve families in the educational process.

The Steve and Gayle Van Ess family of Kewaskum and the Kewaskum School District have been chosen to receive awards at this year's ceremony.

The Circus World Museum is offering half-price tickets for

In the end, the rest of the Board agreed, but trustee Tom McElhatton, serving as President in the absence of Mary Krueger, told Gilles he should keep close watch over worker's duties this summer.

In other matters before the Board, Protection and Public Safety Committee Chairman Beisbier recommended placing a stop sign at the intersection of Timblin Drive and the Kewaskum Mall entrance.

The intersection has been the spot of several accidents, as drivers entering the Mall often fail to yield the right of way to oncoming traffic heading east on Timblin.

The Board voted to place a stop sign east-bound on Timblin, and will approach the mall owners about adding a warning to drivers coming out of the mall. Drivers entering the mall will now have the right of way, with no stop sign heading west.

The Board also acted on an ordinance requiring construction sites within the village to have portable sanitation facilities on the premises. An exception to the ordinance could occur if public access to a sanitation facility is provided within 300 feet of the construction.

Family Day at the Circus. Half-price admission for adults is $5.50, $5 for those 65 and over, and $3 for children ages 3 to 12. Youngsters under 3 are admitted free.

Tickets include admission to the Big Top Circus Show which features performing baby elephants, flying trapeze artists, juggling clowns, and wild animal acts. Visitors also will be able to attend a magic show, the circus street parade, a miniature circus, and a variety of other attractions.

Coupons for the half-price admission rates are available at participating Hardee's Restaurants and at school offices. A single coupon will allow an entire family to receive the special May 8th rate.

The Department of Public Instruction initiated the Families in Education program six years ago to foster greater family participation in K-12 education. The program is based on research findings that indicate that strong home and school collaboration contributes significantly to increased school achievement and better school climate.

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is currently compiling information to be printed in their Visitor's Guide.

The soon-to-be-printed brochure will contain the name, location and telephone numbers of area businesses, information about the Kettle Moraine area and a map.

The guide will be available, free of charge, throughout the Kewaskum area in most business places. The brochure will also be included in all Chamber of Commerce inquiries and in the the new "Welcome to Kewaskum" bags that will soon be distributed to all newcomers to the area.

All Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce members will automatically be included in this brochure at no charge. Any other business in the area, interested in being included in the brochure should call Jane Korth at 626-2520, Sharron Miller at 626-2184 or Lana Kuehl at 626-2626 for further information.

The fee for non-chamber members is $60, however there is another option. If you join the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce for the 1993 annual fee of $45 you will automatically be included in the brochure. As an extra incentive, you will receive your 1994 membership at a reduced cost of $35.

The layout of the brochure is now being finalized, so don't hesitate. Call today to make sure you won't be omitted. There will be 15,000 copies printed and distributed to countless tourists and newcomers interested in finding out more about the businesses located in and around the Kewaskum/Kettle Moraine area.

Kindergarten and Fifth Grade Team Up for ABC Big Book

by S. Callaway Roznik

A cooperative effort by Kindergarten and fifth graders at Kewaskum Elementary School has led to the creation of poster-size ABC books, designed to enhance their language arts curriculum.

Each Kindergarten student chose a letter of the alphabet to illustrate and write about. Included on each page was a photo of the child posed in some action that helped define the letter.

Fifth graders assisted the younger students with ideas, typing, and posing for the photographs. The short, written description was then printed on a computer, and laid out on the page with the accompanying illustrations.

The pages were laminated and bound into an alphabet booklet, with each child taking a turn bringing it home to share with their families. Funding for film, developing, and plastic laminate were funded by a grant written by fifth grade teacher, Mrs. Lazarevic, and approved by the district.

Identification Made On Drowning Victim

On April 18, 1993, at approximately 8:00 p.m., Deputies of the Washington County Sheriff's Department were called to investigate a report of a body floating in the water on the west shore of Big Cedar Lake.

The body was recovered and taken to the Washington County Morgue. Positive identification was obtained by the examination of dental records.

The victim, Gary P. Codere, d.o.b. 10-10-43, of Menomonee Falls, was reported missing on August 25, 1992, after a boating accident on Big Cedar Lake. The victim and a friend had been sailing when a sudden storm came up. The victim fell over board in approximately 80' of water. The body was recovered approximately 3/10 of a mile southwest of the accident. Augusta Schlegal Foundation, The Ziegler Foundation and The Enger-Kress Company.

Sheriff's Department, Coroner Investigating Accidental Death

Washington County Sheriff's Department officers and Washington County Coroner Marlene Yoost, are investigating an accidental death which occurred April 22, 1993, some time between 8 a.m. and 11:53 a.m.

The victim, Norman W. Hembel, 69, of 3855 Sherman Road, Town of Polk, was apparently burning some brush using a flammable accelerant, when his clothes caught on fire. Mr. Hembel was found by his son, Norman A. Hembel, at 11:53 a.m., lying near the brush pile. It appeared that the flammable accelerant flared up, causing Mr. Hembel's clothes to start on fire, and causing his death.

An autopsy revealed that the cause of death was burns and smoke inhalation. The fire occurred in Mr. Hembel's salvage yard, which is Hembel Auto Parts at the same address. The cause of death was ruled to be accidental.

Schuppel Family Reunion

The descendants of John and Marie Schuppel held their 6th biennial family reunion on April 17, 1993, in the Fellowship Hall of Trinity United Methodist Church, Lomira, WI. They also celebrated the 97th birthday of Marie Schuppel of Hope Nursing Home, nearby, who was the oldest family member present. She formerly lived on Ridge Rd., Kewaskum.

The event was planned by Jackie Eichstedt of Brownsville and Dawn Hanson of Plymouth, daughters of Rita Schuppel Justman; and Ginny Ketter, Eden, and Sheila Streen, Fond du Lac, daughters of Alice Schuppel Furlong.

Ninety people attended. Traveling the farthest were Jean Schuppel Peterson, of John's family, Marcy Peterson and friend, Doug Stone, all of Des Moines, IA.

The youngest child present was Chelsea Watry, 9-month-old daughter of Tom and Susie Watry, Elkhart Lake, of Myron's family. Two of the great-great grandchildren were present. From Milton, came Trevor and Sierra Klizez of Helen Schuppel Ahlers' family, with their parents, Todd and Jody.

After a potluck dinner, the afternoon was spent visiting and viewing family albums. The family tree, recorded on a window shade, was displayed so anyone could review their roots and their relation to each other. The children were captivated by the magic and antics of two clowns of Archie and Company.

As Grandma returned to the Home after supper, and the other families prepared to leave, the question of the next reunion came up. Donnie's daughters, Debbie Stephan, Neosho, and Nona Thums and Patti Lamberty of Medford volunteered, along with Helen's daughters, Bonnie Oliver, La Crosse, and Gayle Wald, Wausau. So the 1995 reunion will be somewhere "up north".

The Kewaskum Fire Department was summoned to the Ed Mumm tavern (formerly Ludwigs) on Hwy. 45 about six miles north of Kewaskum at 9 a.m. Saturday. The blaze is believed to have started in the transformer on neon lighting outside the building. The flames caused scorching to one of the rooms next to the neon lighting.

Kewaskum will be the center of three important events on the same night this Saturday, which should provide much activity in our little city. The annual Junior Prom will be held in the Kewaskum high school gymnasium. The Land o' Lakes Basketball league awards banquet will be held at the Wigwam Supper Club with John Erickson, former UW basketball coach and new general manager of Milwaukee's NBA team as featured speaker. And members of the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club, husbands and friends will hold their annual dinner-dance at the Hon-E-Kor Country Club, also on the same night.

The Helen Mears Art Contest sponsored annually by the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs, and locally by the Kewaskum Woman's Club, had approximately 20 entries by 8th grade students of the Kewaskum Elementary School. First place winner was Steven Schaefer. Other winners were Ellen Secor, second place; Pat Semb, third place; Sandy Schleif, honorable mention, and Carolyn Degnitz, honorable mention.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cudnohoske, Kewaskum, on April 20. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schommer, West Bend, on April 22.

April 30, 1913

The Grand View Lunch Room in Kewaskum has on display a large collection of camp banners, pictures of our servicemen, sleeve insignias and pillow covers sent by the men and women in service from this community, along with the names and addresses of most of those from here in the armed forces. The collection now totals 56 different banners or pennants from the various camps, a Chinese flag, two pillow covers, 53 pictures of our sailors and soldiers and 17 sleeve insignias. The list of names, pictures and insignias are posted on large, patriotically designed bulletin boards and the banners, pillow cases and Chinese flag are hung on the walls. Many requests have been received from the local men and women in camp for information regarding the collection and the above totals will answer their questions. The collection was started by Sylvester "Tiny" Terlinden and when he was inducted into the army last October, his sister and co-partner, Ione Terlinden, took over the work of keeping the collection up.

A total of 43 men from Washington County were accepted for military service at the Milwaukee induction station on April 22, and left April 29 for Fort Sheridan, Illinois to enter active service. Two from the group are from rural Kewaskum. They are Cyril N. Wietor, Route 3, Kewaskum, and Roger J. Reindl, Route 2, Kewaskum.

A class of six little children will receive their First Communion during mass at Holy Trinity Church May 2. The 1943 class of communicants is: John Van Blarcom, Floyd Dreher, Leon Weddig, Paula Kohler, Gladys Lauters and Beulah Prost. The angels will be Lawrence Nigh, Ronald Lauters, Wayne Rimmel, Dale Buntjer, Leroy Metz, Gerald Staehler, Kathleen Staehler, Janice Bruessel, Arlene Backhaus, Eileen Volm, Regina Ketter and Mildred Wallenfels. Mass servers will be Merlin Dreher, Allen Schoofs, Gregor Rohlinger and Daniel Staehler.

75 Years Ago

APRIL 27, 1918

This week Friday, Kewaskum with many other villages and cities of the United States gave up several of its popular young men to take part in the world's conflict to fight for Democracy. The men called to the colors are Alex Klug, Alvin Haug, Peter J. Haug, Robert Little and Edward Guth and Art Bassil of the village, and Herbert W. Ramthun, Arthur K. Laatsch and Arthur Bertram of rural Kewaskum. The young men were ordered to report at the local board of exemption at West Bend on April 25, and will leave for Fond du Lac on April 26, where they will join other area men. The men called to the colors for May 1 thru 10 are as follows: Art. F. Martin, Kewaskum, Route 3, and Richard E. Ruel, Kewaskum, Route 5.

A hearing was held at the courthouse in West Bend last Saturday morning in the matter of the proposed new highway between Kewaskum and St. Michaels. Some of the farmers asked exorbitant prices for land needed for the new road, as high as five hundred dollars an acre. They had the choice between coming down voluntarily with their price or having commissioners appointed to appraise the land and be compelled to sell to the town at the fixed price. At the hearing they agreed to a reasonable figure, and no coercive measures will be taken. They will receive at the rate of $150 to $200 an acre for their land.

The saloon property of James B. Day of this city located at 143-145 South Main Street, and purchased by Mr. Day from Mrs. Rudolph Herman last fall, again changed hands Wednesday, when Mr. Day traded it to Anton Liska of North Lake, besides a cash consideration which is private. Mr. Liska takes possession of his property May 1, as also does Mr. Day. Since purchasing the place last fall Mr. Day had had the building rented to John Courtney, who conducted the saloon and occupied the living rooms upstairs. Mr. Liska is no stranger in this city as he formerly owned the Badger, a general saloon and rooming house business here. About four years ago, he sold out and moved to North Lake where he conducted a saloon up to last spring when the village went dry after which he conducted a soft drink and near-beer parlor.

On Monday, April 22, the Holy Trinity Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Miss Mary Ann Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt of the Town of Kewaskum, and who for many years successfully conducted a millinery store in the Mrs. Jacobitz building on Main Street in this village, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Joseph Honeck of Milwaukee.

Herman Gilbert, who is manager of the Leather Novelty Manufacturing Company at Kewaskum, sold his residence property at West Bend to Martin Rilling and will move his family to this village where he will occupy the upper flat of the George H. Schmidt building at the intersection of Main Street and Fond du Lac Avenue.

A baby boy was born last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. William Baumgartner.

WIS 143 to Be Reconstructed in Washington, Ozaukee Counties

Road construction was expected to start this week on the reconstruction of WIS 143 from County P in Washington County to County Y in Ozaukee County. The work will consist of grading hills and filling low areas to improve site distance throughout the project.

A 24-foot wide asphaltic pavement will be constructed having eight-foot shoulders, three-foot paved. A new wider bridge and a box culvert will be built at project stream crossings. Intersections will be widened and in some cases realigned.

The work will be performed under a contract let to James Peterson Sons, Inc. of Medford, Wisconsin, at an estimated cost of $3,364,000. Financing will be shared on approximately a 76/24 percentage by the Federal government and the state of Wisconsin respectively, from funds provided primarily by gas taxes. WIS 143 will be closed to through traffic during construction operations, with access only to local property owners. It was anticipated that WIS 143 between County P and County Y will be closed during the week of April 26. Traffic is urged to use caution in the construction.

County G (Jackson Road), County M and County Y will be kept open to through traffic across WIS 143 during construction operations.

A marked detour will be provided and will follow County P, WIS 60 and County Y.

Every possible effort will be made to provide continuous and safe ingress and egress to all business and residential properties during this reconstruction, but pedestrians and motorists are urged to use caution in the construction zone.

Governor Approves Contract to Rehabilitate 4.7 Miles of County V in Fond du Lac County

Governor Tommy Thompson has approved a $2.14 million contract for major rehabilitation of County V between Lime Road in the Town of Eden and Pioneer Road in the city of Fond du Lac.

The contractor, Musson Brothers, Inc., of Rhinelander, is expected to begin work on the 4.72 mile project this spring.

The roadway now carries 2000 to 2600 vehicles each day. By the year 2012, this number is expected to be 3000 to 3600 vehicles per day. Trucks account for 17 percent of the present traffic volume. The road serves both farm and residential areas as well as local trucking of aggregate and asphaltic materials. Time, traffic and weather has caused moderate to severe pavement deterioration on County V.

"In addition to pavement decay, sight distance is inadequate at some intersections and there are deficient acceleration and deceleration lanes. All intersections will be upgraded to present design standards," said Roger Sikorski, design supervisor on this project.

"The roadway will be widened from the present 22 feet with unpaved shoulders to 24 feet with 3 foot paved shoulders and where curb and gutter is added, to a minimum of 36 feet curb face to curb face," Sikorski said.

County V will be closed to through traffic during construction, but local access to homes and businesses will be provided. The marked detour northbound will be County B to US 41 to WIS 175 to County VV and back to County V. Southbound will be in reverse order. All sideroads and all streets, except County K, within the project limits will also be closed to through traffic. County K will be kept open to two-way traffic at all times.

The project is slated for completion in late fall of the year and will be paid for with 20 percent Fond du Lac County dollars and 80 percent federal dollars.

A Message from the Postmaster

Hello Kewaskum Statesman Readers! Well, in just two short weeks, my parents will be returning from "wintering" in New Port Richey, Florida. I am anxiously awaiting their arrival and hope that we can have some great weather when they return. Mom and Dad are looking forward to meeting many of you this summer.

Before I begin this week's column, I just have to tell you all that I LOVE KEWASKUM. Have met so many of you and enjoy all of your visits to our Post Office. So many of you like the "open door" policy. That is just a small part of the "customer satisfaction" that ALL of us at the Kewaskum office take pride in sharing with you.

Being the "new" Postmaster, I have implemented many changes and want each and every one of you to know that they have been made for the betterment of customer service, FIRST and FOREMOST. Yes, we do sell stamps, envelopes, postcards, tape, mailing envelopes... BUT, I would like to feel that SERVICE is our "biggest seller."

YOUR postal problems, questions and concerns are extremely important to my staff and I. We may not always be able to give you the answers that you like but will always strive to provide the best possible service that we possibly can. You have my word (as the Postmaster) on that!

PLEASE... continue to stop in, say "Hi" and let us know how we can better service you, okay? Thank you!

On to this week's column. Questions and answers to things you may just have thought about and "never asked."

QUESTION: I picked up a free "Express" envelope at the Post Office. Decided to send a letter to my son in it. I applied the proper postage (52 cents) and it was returned to me with a note that I could only use this envelope for Express mail specifically. What gives?

ANSWER: Express mail is the ONLY type of mailing that "carries with it" an explicit guarantee. Depending on destination that would mean either a one or two day guarantee (excluding foreign addresses). The envelopes MUST only be used for items specifically meant to be sent EXPRESS mail as every postal employee knows "the envelope," knows it carries a strict guarantee and it is handled accordingly. I am sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused you but... only if you are paying the Express rate, may you use this type of envelope.

QUESTION: What time is the mail in the Box Section at the Post Office?

ANSWER: First and second class mail for the Post Office Box Section will normally be completed by 9:30 a.m. My employees have been instructed of this and unless there is an emergency (incoming mail truck being late), we will always do our best to meet this "time frame."

QUESTION: I have noticed the new deposit slot at the post office. It states that mail for out-of-town wanting the Kewaskum postmark should be put in there. Will my mail be delayed using this slot?

ANSWER: Mail deposited in this slot will not be delayed. The only difference is that it will already be postmarked and will bypass that operation once it gets to Milwaukee.

QUESTION: My roommate has been opening my mail. I feel that is an "invasion of my privacy." What can I do about it?

ANSWER: Tampering with the U.S. Mail is a very serious offense. Willfully opening another person's mail and/or going into someone else's mailbox (without their permission) is indeed an "invasion of privacy" and cannot and will not be tolerated. You will have to file a report with the local police, who will, in turn, give a copy to the Post Office. That report will be sent to the Postal Inspection Service for complete investigation.

QUESTION: I continually receive another person's mail. We both have the same last name but have different addresses. We both must have post office boxes. I put the letter in the Kewaskum "slot" and many times, I get it back again... WHY?

ANSWER: First and foremost, allow me to apologize for the error. Speaking on behalf of all my employees, WE DO MAKE MISTAKES and appreciate it when you bring them to our attention. Dropping the erroneous letter back into the mailstream could possibly give the letter right back to you, through human error. PLEASE... if you receive mail into your box in error, bring it to the window or call us on the matter. Mistakes do happen but I have personally found out that 99% of them can be corrected by just "showing us our mistake." As your Postmaster, I apologize for the error. You can help us and your neighbors by letting us know... "we made a mistake."

QUESTION: I bought a house and am getting some mail addressed to the previous occupant. I called on this matter but still get some of their mail. What do I do?

ANSWER: Please bear in mind that some mail does come addressed with "a name and/or current resident." If YOU are the current resident, you will continue to receive that mail. If it does not bear the endorsement "or current resident"... please call me personally and I will do my utmost to rectify the situation. I have successfully had a program in place at every office I worked at, that I will take your name and phone number. I will talk to those responsible for the error and then call you back after a two week time-frame to make sure that the error has been corrected and the service has improved."

Well, that is it for this week and hope that many of you found the questions and answers to be informative and helpful. YOUR input into our operation is important. I like to feel, "to the best of our ability," we do it ALL FOR YOU.

Like any business, customer input is important to the success of an operation so continue to feel free to stop in and/or call me at 626-2575 for assistance in your postal needs. Until next week, TRY to have a good day... A HAPPY EVERY DAY.

Your Postmaster, Bonnie

KHS Track Teams a Combined Fourth at Red Knight Invitational

By Noel Stollenwerk

MILWAUKEE - The high winds, along with a unique Invitational setup made for an interesting day for the Kewaskum track teams here, last Saturday.

Competing in the Red Knight Invitational on the campus of Concordia University, the KHS track squads combined to finish fourth in the eight-team meet. A total score for both boys' and girls' teams was kept, with points being awarded through 16 places.

Wisconsin Lutheran won the meet with 734.5 points, easily outdistancing runner-up Milwaukee Lutheran (595.5). Burlington was third (485) and the Indians fourth (457).

The Indian boys did quite well in the meet, according to coach Jerry Gosa. Kewaskum registered a pair of firsts, three seconds, and two more thirds in the highly-competitive meet.

Sophomore Tyler Dieringer had a hand in both of the Indian firsts, as he won the pole vault, clearing 9-0, and helped the 800 relay team also take the top spot with a 1:41.2 clocking. Joining Dieringer on the winning unit were Joe Rettler, Aaron Kurth and Wayne Stearns.

"That's the first time Tyler's cleared event he opening height (8-0)," Gosa said of the pole vault win. That competition didn't count towards the team total, so not many athletes competed in the event, according to the Indian boss. As for the 800 unit, "We don't get to run that event too often," Gosa said, adding that the unit nipped Wisconsin Lutheran by just .1 of a second.

Leading the barrage of seconds for the KHS boys was soph Travis Jacak, who cleared 6-2 in the high jump. Jim Wichtoski surpassed the 20-foot barrier (20-3) in the long jump, also taking second, while Jeff Dirmeier's 2:06.1 in the 800 was just off his personal best.

"He needs to get that down just a little more," Gosa said of Dirmeier, who also added a fifth in the 1600 (4:57.3). The senior also teamed with Wichtoski, Andy Rix and Matt Tonn to take third in the 1600 relay (3:44.3). Wichtoski, meanwhile added a fifth in the 400 with a personal best of 53.9.

Chad Harlow was fifth in the 100 hurdles (17.8), and placed third in the triple jump with an official jump of 41-2.5, although Gosa said that he believed the officials made a mistake. Harlow's previous best mark was almost six feet shorter.

"Jim Rix also did quite well," Gosa said, noting the senior posted a personal best of 122-6 in the discus, good enough for sixth. Gosa also praised the 3200 relay unit (Brian Butschlick, Damien Doherty, Kevin Kohn, Rettler) for their fifth place showing (9:21.6).

"We had some pretty good times," KHS girls coach Perry Koth said of his team's performance. Still missing several key athletes due to injury and vacation, the Lady Indians recorded a first, three seconds and a third in the meet.

Junior Ginger Wiesner got the lone win for KHS, taking the 400 in 1:02.8, her fastest outdoor time of the year.

Taking second for the Indians were Christa Schmidt in the 300 hurdles (50.6), Nicole Hetzel in the 800 (2:39.9), and the 1600 quartet of Schmidt, Wiesner, Mary Yahr and Tracy Jacak (4:24.7).

"That's really getting down there," Koth said of Schmidt's time in the 300. "For Nicole, that's a little off yet," while the 1600 relay "had a pretty good time."

Koth was pleasantly surprised with the 3200 relay's third place showing. Debbie Neumann, Katrina Gilles, Mandy Strobel and Hetzel combined for a 11:43.6 clocking, with Hetzel passing a runner from Milwaukee Lutheran down the stretch for third.

"That was a complete surprise," Koth said of the quartet.

Koth also pointed to several other efforts which came up just short of placing in the top three, while Beth Kempf finished fourth in the shot put.

Both Koth and Gosa are looking forward to the return of the athletes who have been on the trip to Myrtle Beach, although neither coach knows what to expect come Tuesday at the County Outdoor.

"I don't have a clue," Gosa said, adding that the bus carrying the students was slated to reach Kewaskum about 11 p.m. on Monday. "You just never know what to expect out of them the next day."

After the County Outdoor at Slinger Tuesday, the Indians host Kiel in the coed meet on Wednesday. Both teams will travel to Pewaukee Friday for the Pirate Invitational.

The Indian girls will host Two Rivers and Plymouth in a triangular Tuesday, May 4.

Fishing Season Opener on May 1 Offers Anglers Unique Challenges

MADISON... Ice, cold weather and high water may give anglers some unique challenges when Wisconsin's game fish season opens statewide on Saturday, May 1.

Harland Carlson, fisheries manager in Vilas County, says there's some uncertainty as to what conditions anglers will find on opening day in northern Wisconsin.

"Right now it's touch-and-go whether the ice will be out on the bigger northern lakes," said Carlson. "If we get some warmer weather over the next week, most of the ice should be gone. It's pretty rare to have ice remaining at the start of the fishing season, although we have had some years where the ice went out on opening day."

Carlson expects walleye fishing to be good, especially on smaller, shallower lakes where the fish will have finished spawning. On lakes where the walleyes are actively spawning, he said that anglers may have to wait until they've finished spawning and are ready to feed.

"Walleye spawning isn't totally a function of water temperature," added Carlson. "It's also seasonal, and they're ready to go."

In addition to walleye, northern pike and perch should also be biting in the north. "Northerns will be pretty much done spawning, and they'll be catchable," said Carlson.

Carlson emphasized that if the ice isn't out on northern lakes, it definitely WON'T be safe to travel on, even on foot.

High water in southeast Wisconsin brings mixed blessings, according to Doug Welch, fisheries manager in Kenosha County.

"The 'higher' lake levels in southeast Wisconsin now are actually near normal after the recent years of drought we've had," said Welch. The water level shouldn't affect angling success, though and he expects a traditionally typical opening day fishing pressure and success.

The situation on southeast Wisconsin rivers isn't so promising, according to Welch.

"The larger rivers are very high, which makes for tough fishing," said Welch. "The fish have a hard time seeing the bait in turbid water, so success will be down. If water levels stay up on the rivers, you'll need to be very careful if you're fishing from a boat. I wouldn't even consider wading into larger rivers like the Fox, Root and Pike."

Welch offered a little advice for opening day anglers: "If the weather stays cool, work your bait or lure slower and you should do well with bass, and OK with bluegills and crappies."

Dodgeville Fisheries Manager Gene Van Dyck says that anglers in southwest Wisconsin can expect essentially normal conditions on opening day of fishing season.

"The Wisconsin River is high now, but it's hard to predict what the water level will be on opening day," said Van Dyck. "If the Wisconsin is a little high, it shouldn't effect fishing too much. Walleye fishing will likely be fair; the spawning run is over, so the fish should be settled down and ready to feed."

Largemouth bass might not be as active on the nests as in previous years, according to Van Dyck, but a little sun will warm up shallow areas and could potentially make for some good largemouth action on opening day.

With the cold spring, the outlook for smallmouth bass in southwest Wisconsin isn't so promising.

"I don't expect smallmouth bass to be up in the streams yet," said Van Dyck. "They need to have water temperatures up near 60 degrees, so they likely won't be moving in the streams, and biting, until much later in May."

Flowages in southwest Wisconsin are not affected by high water, so bass and panfish fishing in them should be good, according to Van Dyck. "Right now we're in a cycle with panfish where the average size is very good. We've got fewer panfish but bigger ones, rather than lots of little ones."

KHS Boys Lose Numbers, Then Meet at Chilton

By Noel Stollenwerk

CHILTON - Not even a nine-point spot by the host team could make up for the absence of several key individuals from the Kewaskum boys track team here, last Thursday afternoon.

Chilton forfeited all three discus places because it didn't have a cage ready, but it didn't matter much. The Indians were missing a dozen athletes who were either on a trip or ill, and the Tigers took advantage, rolling to a 78-57 Eastern Wisconsin Conference dual meet win.

The nine points from the discus competition helped, but it wasn't nearly enough for the shorthanded Indians. But KHS coach Jerry Gosa still was pleased with several strong performances turned in by his squad.

"We were missing quite a few people," Gosa said of the music trip to South Carolina. "Still we had some pretty good times."

Chad Harlow, competing in his first meet of the year after coming out late, turned in a pair of wins in the triple jump (35-8.25) and the 110 hurdles (17.4). The senior also added a second in the 300 hurdles (48.2) as well.

Gosa continues to be impressed with freshman Matt Tonn, who breezed to a win in the 400 (54.6), beating teammate Jim Wichtoski (55.5).

"That's a real good time," Gosa said regarding Tonn's effort. "He's been a pleasant surprise so far."

Beau Coulter also contributed a first, winning the 100 dash (11.9), while soph Travis Jacak got on track in the high jump, clearing the 6-0 mark for another first.

The Indians lone other win came in the 1600 relay, where Wichtoski, Tonn, Andy Rix and Jeff Dirmeier turned in a 3:49.8

State Stewardship Award Goes To Area Lake Association

The Long Lake Fishing Club, Inc. was selected to receive the prestigious Stewardship Award for groups at the annual Wisconsin Lakes Convention held recently in Stevens Point. This award is presented to the lake district or association that has shown exemplary commitment to protecting and improving lakes and their environments.

Long Lake is in southeastern Fond du Lac County in the Northern Kettle Moraine. This is the second time the LLFC had been nominated. The award was accepted by Richard L. Edwards, founder and Executive Director of the LLFC.

The award was presented by Lisa Conley, WAL president and State Representative James Holperin. Conley cited the following LLFC accomplishments: installed rock spawning reefs; conducts an annual Walleye stocking program and placed fish habitat structures; in cooperation with the DNR - administers self-help water quality monitoring; offers the Master Angler program for kids; attacks purple loosestrife annually and has accomplished surveys on lake use, septic, fyke net and creel count; placed "No Wake" and fish size limit signs in appropriate places; holds summer outings for the mentally and physically disadvantaged and senior citizens as well as Big Brothers/Big Sisters groups; conducts public information meetings; produces a quarterly newsletter; provides a $500.00 scholarship annually to UW-Stevens Point. The club recently hosted 200 children and 100 parents at a Kids Free Fishing Clinic at Sandy Knoll Park, West Bend.

A similar award for outstanding service was also presented to an individual. This honor went to State Senator Alice Clausing, Menomonie, for her contribution to the Tainter Lake Association.

Over 600 representatives from lakeshore communities throughout the state attended the convention. This is the 15th year consecutive year the Wisconsin Association of Lakes (WAL) have brought leaders from Wisconsin lake districts, clubs and associations together to share experiences and learn at workshops. The keynote speaker this year was George Meyer, the new Secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources.

Anyone wishing to learn more about the Long Lake Fishing Club may contact Dick Edwards, N4155 Boy Scout Drive, Campbellsport, WI 533-4430.

Lady Indians Shorthanded for Meet KHS Girls a Distant Second in Triangular

By Noel Stollenwerk

SHEBOYGAN FALLS - All things considered, the Sheboygan Falls girls track team was not a very gracious host here, last Thursday.

The Falcons won 10 of the 16 events in the triangular with Kewaskum and Chilton, and easily took first place with 93 points.

Men's Softball Tourney May 21-23

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - The C.C. Cody's softball team will be holding its second annual men's softball tournament at the Kiwanis Community Park the weekend of May 21-23.

The tournament is open to any men's team in the area, with the entry fee being $85. The tournament is a 16-team, double elimination format, with trophies and plaques awarded to the top three teams, and prize money awarded to the top five places.

For more information, or to enter a team, call Noel Stollenwerk at 626-4485, or Joe Klahn at 533-5051.

The Lady Indians were a distant second (44), with the Tigers coming in third (30).

Kewaskum managed to win the remaining six events that Falls failed to capture. Three of the KHS victories came from junior Ginger Wiesner, who helped pick up the slack left by 10 athletes missing the meet due to injury or vacation.

Wiesner won her specialty, the 400 dash (1:04.8), and also captured the long jump (14-10), and the 200 dash (29.56). Wiesner also teamed with Christa Schmidt, Mary Yahr and Tracy Jacak to take second in the 1600 relay (4:45.99).

Schmidt added a pair of firsts for KHS, winning both of the hurdle races. Schmidt clocked a 17.47 in the 110 highs and then came back with a 51.4 in the 300 lows.

"Those are some pretty good times," KHS coach Perry Koth said regarding Schmidt. "She's starting to get down there where we want her to be."

The lone other first recorded by the Lady Indians came from senior Beth Kempf, who won the shot put (32-10). Kempf also added a second in the discus with her toss of 85-0.

Koth was also pleased with Debbie Neumann's 14:24.7 in the 3200 run, which represented a drop of almost 40 seconds from Neumann's previous best.

KHS Third in Golf Opener

By Noel Stollenwerk

ELKHART LAKE - It finally got to play in a meet, which was the good news. The Kewaskum golf team showed its inexperience, which was the bad news.

But all in all, things could have went much worse for KHS coach Joe Harlow and his troops. The Indians finished third in a triangular at the Quit Qui Oc Country Club here, last Thursday.

New Holstein won the meet, shooting a 191, while Oostburg came in second with 207 strokes, and the Indians third with 214.

Swinging outside for just the third time this season, the Indians played decent for a squad with no returning letter-winners.

"It was our first time on the (putting) greens," Harlow said of the opener. "We hadn't even shot a practice round before the meet."

Jim Marx paced the Indian shooters with a 50. Marx came close to breaking into the 40's, but settled for a three-putt on the final hole.

Robbie Donath was two shots back with a 52, while Nathan Vetter (55) and Jim Westermann (57) were the other Indian counters. New Holstein's Kurt Bertram took medalist honors with his low round of 43.

"It was pretty much what I expected," Harlow went on to say. "We won't know much about how much progress we're going to make until later in the year. I'm sure we're going to get better."

Harlow also announced that the Indians will make up last week's rainout at the Hartford Invitational this Friday afternoon. An Eastern Wisconsin Conference match with Sheboygan Falls that was originally scheduled for Friday will be made up later in the season.

The Indians also have matches next week at Plymouth (Monday), at West Bend (Tuesday), at Hawthorne Hills for the Ozaukee Best Ball (Thursday) and for the Brown-Port Invitational (Friday).

The meek may finally get the earth, but we'll wager the internal revenue boys will be there to collect the inheritance tax.
