Readers...Please Note

As many of you are aware, the Kewaskum Statesman is in the process of converting this newspaper over to computers. It is a very slow process.

During this process, as you have probably noticed, there are two different machines being used to set the news in the paper. This means you are reading two completely different typefaces. Some news is set on one of our new Macintosh computers and the rest is being set on our old Compugraphic typesetter. The news from Both machines is set in a 10 point size on 11 point spacing between the lines. The size is the same; only the typefaces are different.

Eventually, everything will be set on the Macintosh computers. Please bear with us until this time. Once our transformation is complete, we will ask our readers to decide which typeface is easier to read.

Thank You

David Mertz to Receive Honors

UW-System President Katharine Lyall will be on hand to congratulate 400 sixth, seventh and eighth graders for their outstanding academic achievements at the Southern Wisconsin Talent Search Awards Ceremony on the UW-Madison campus on May 27.

Twenty-six students from eastern Wisconsin are among those participating in the awards ceremony, which is being hosted by the Wisconsin Center for Academically Talented Youth (WCATY).

Area participants include David Mertz of Kewaskum.

Students qualified for the academic awards through their participation in Talent Search, a national program for administering advanced-level tests to upper elementary and middle school students. Over 4,400 Wisconsin sixth, seventh and eighth graders who scored in the 95th percentile or higher on their grade-level standardized achievement tests elected to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the American College Test (ACT). Both tests are typically administered to juniors and seniors for college admission.

The Talent Search program encourages school districts to have qualified children take the advanced tests to assess students' capabilities in math and verbal reasoning beyond their current grade level. Schools can then use the test score information to plan course work appropriate for students' needs and abilities. Many Wisconsin schools participate in Talent Search as part of an overall program for gifted and talented students.

The award winners in the Madison ceremony have scored at or above the mean score for college-bound seniors on either the SAT or ACT. All students taking part in the ceremonies will receive medals and certificates to commemorate their achievement.

Ellie Schatz, Executive Director of WCATY, explains, "The Awards Ceremonies are really very important for these young people and their families. Our society likes to reward other sorts of talents in young people, particularly athletic ability. These ceremonies are, in a way, modeled after athletic honors banquets. Such recognition serves to strengthen the pursuit of academic excellence not only for these students, but as a goal for all society."

The Wisconsin Center for Academically Talented Youth is a non-profit organization that provides programs and services for gifted and talented students in the state. WCATY offers programs beyond what local school districts can provide, including weekend enrichment workshops, summer residency programs, and parent and teacher guidance and support services.

The Southern Wisconsin Talent Search Awards Ceremony is made possible in part with support from American Family Insurance Group in Madison and the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Major funding for WCATY has been provided by the Norman Bassett Foundation, Madison, and the Lynde and Harry Bradley Foundation, Milwaukee.

Letter To The Editor
We Understand The Concerns;
Let's Continue To Work Together

Re: Kettle Moraine Country Music Festival

Although many area residents disagreed with our proposal for holding a Country Music Festival in the Town of Auburn, I appreciated the opportunity to present my thoughts and ideas.

The proposal was one I believed in and still believe in, but I accept the decision from the people of the Township who continue to be my neighbors and friends.

I thank the Planning Commission for allowing Gary Runge and Bill Greiner to make the presentation and for the respect they were both extended. I do understand how different individuals feel about things, and will always be grateful that the discussion stayed away from personalities and remained very professional . . . it isn't always easy to do that.

I look forward to continue working with my neighbors to do what is best for our area and township.

Sincerely,
Bill Heberer

New Addition at Kiwanis Park

If any residents have visited the Kewaskum Kiwanis Park with younger children this past week, no doubt the children located the new playset that has recently been added to the park.

The playset constructed of smooth, finished redwood features a variety of swings, a slide, a Jacob's rope ladder, a trapeze, rings, overhead monkey bars, a clubhouse and lots of climbing surface.

The GFWC Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club provided the funding for the set as a part of a Community Improvement Project. Chairman for the project were Ruthie Butler and Caryn Lewandowski.

Proceeds for the playset were raised by Kewaskum Juniors through community support of their annual quilt raffle and "A Kettle Country Christmas" art and craft fair.

Kewaskum Juniors would like to thank Dan Schmidt for all his help in finalizing the project.

St. Joseph's Hospital Honors Employees

WEST BEND... Fifty-five employees of St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend were honored for their years of service at the hospital's annual awards dinner held Tuesday, May 11, at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

According to Greg T. Burns, the hospital's associate director, this year's award winners have collectively dedicated 660 years of service to the community, the hospital, and the treatment of area patients.

Burns expressed his gratitude and complimented the recipients for their "enduring commitment."

"Most patients would have difficulty judging the quality of their clinical care. But all can judge the cleanliness of the hospital, the taste of the food, and the extent to which hospital staff are friendly, caring and genuinely concerned. In these areas, you are consistently rated very high by patients, families and visitors we serve," Burns said.

The following employees from the Kewaskum area were recognized for their respective years of service: 25 Years - Judy Schuh; 20 Years - Audrey Heriges and Mary Wietor; 15 Years - Mary Theisen-Faber; 5 Years - Cynthia Cartwright, Paula Hoerig, Lisa Kertscher, Brenda Kober and Timothy Potter.

St. Joseph's Community Hospital wishes to salute its Kewaskum area 1993 award recipients for their years of service, commitment and dedication. Their work continues to provide our patients with a tradition of caring!

"READER-OF-THE-WEEK" drawings - Each week we will draw one name from the "Read-to-Me" participants and one name from the "Readers" participants who have turned in a reading list (read at least two books) during that week. These kids will be honored as "Readers-of-the-Week". They will receive a special certificate and have their pictures taken for the newspaper and our scrapbook AND get a special prize! It doesn't matter what group you belong to, as long as you turn in a weekly reading list!

BUTTONS - You will receive a "GO WILD - READ" button after you turn in your first reading list (read two books)!

STATE PARK PASS - All participants will receive a one-day pass to any Wisconsin State Park, Forest or Recreation Area after reading at least six books. The park staff will exchange the pass for one free daily courtesy sticker that will allow you and your family to explore and enjoy Wisconsin State Parks for the whole day!

PICNIC finale - All participants who turn in at least five weekly reading lists (with at least 2 books per week) will be invited to our final activity, a PICNIC for you and your family! There will be food, certificates and awards, and door prizes (if you are invited, you DO NOT have to attend to win a prize, however).

CHALLENGE - If the total number of books read during the six week program is more than 4,000 three names will be drawn at the picnic. The two winners will have the pleasure of squirting the librarians with "silly string"!

T-SHIRTS - "GO WILD - READ" shirts will be available for purchase when you register. They will be $4.00, with $1.00 going towards our picnic finale. You may see a sample at the check-out desk.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Geraldine (Geri) Gavin, who passed away three years ago, May 28, 1990:

A million times we've thought of you.
A million times we've cried.
If love alone would have saved you
You never would have died.
In live we loved you dearly.
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place.
No one else can ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you.
The day God called you home.

Sadly missed and loved by Mom, Dad and Family.

Don't know what to give for a birthday or anniversary? How about a subscription to the Statesman. 626-2626.

IN MEMORY

We remember DAVID LOUIS LEITHEISER. He was born on March 7, 1989 and died on May 31, 1989.

Angel child we did adore.
Dark eyes and curly hair you wore.
No mom or dad could have loved you more.
We expected that now you would be four, but didn't forsee what life had in store.
God gave you to us as a favor, then called you back to His splendor.
Changes in life like none before taught us to deal with the struggles we bore.
Now, give us the strength to together explore.
The good ahead life holds once more.

We love you and miss you- Mom & Dad

Dedicate 1993 County Fair Premium Book

Each year the Washington County Junior Fair Book is dedicated to an outstanding contributor to the fair as a way of saying, "thank you."

The 1993 Fair Book is dedicated to the American Red Cross, West Bend and Hartford Chapters.

When you hear the cries, "I need a band-aid, I cut my finger!" or "We need some help, a child just fell off of a horse!" or "I think I'm going to be sick, I was on the tilt-a-whirl!" or "Is there any place I can get a glass of water?" Who comes to the rescue? The volunteers of the Hartford and West Bend chapters of the Red Cross.

For many, many years, these volunteers have helped treat and care for the injured and sick at the Washington County Junior Fair. Many fairgoers may not know they exist at the fair, but when in need of a Red Cross volunteer, they are always there, willing to serve.

The Washington County Junior Fair says a special "thank you" to the many helpful, caring volunteers for their continued support.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR POLICY

On April 8, 1988, the Statesman adopted a new Letters to the Editor policy, stating letters would not be published without the name and/or address of the writer. (Please include your phone number, however this will not be published.) This policy has been in effect since that time, so please bear this in mind while you are doing the writing. The Statesman also reserves the right to edit all letters and/or grammatically correct them. Letters that are personal, libelous, malicious or commercial will not be published

Dear Editor:

I would like to commend the KHS Class of '93 for their decision to include prayer in their commencement program.

This is a terrific decision for a group of young adults to make, especially in this day and age.

What is uniquely special, is that they will not have a member of the clergy saying some prepared message, rather a "peer" will prepare and deliver the address.

If our youth can make commitments to their "Creator", at this important moment in their lives, I have great optimism for them to make other great decisions.

Have a great life seniors, and may God always be with you.

St. Judes Bike-a-thon

Jefferey Shaw II shows how he feels to learn he's getting both prizes (he really wanted that sport bag.)

Jeffery Shaw II was 1st to start and 1st to qualify for sport bag as well as T-shirt.

On Sat., May 15, St. Judes Childrens Cancer research center held a fund-raising bike-a-thon at Kewaskum High Schools track with the help of Sentry Foods, Kewaskum and Mike Miller, Kewaskum Elementary teacher. Coordinators Marge Farley and Marty Peterson had 14 riders "pedaling for life" of childhood cancer victims.

With so few riders, everyone seemed to catch the spirit and pedaled a lot of miles. About 1/3 of the riders had enough sponsors and went enough laps to qualify for both first and second prizes offered by St. Judes.

Totals are not all in yet, but St. Judes Hospital and coordinators Marge and Marty wish to thank all who helped and participated to make this a successful bike-a-thon. Special thanks to Bobbi Jo Thorn and Missy Rady our "last minute" volunteer helpers Mandy Rom and Amy Fehlhaber were the two "top money" riders.

A few older teens showed up to support the bike-a-thon: Missy and Bobbi Jo punch lap cards for Michelle Zolp and Edie Farley.

Former Wisconsin State Journal baseball-bowling editor Joe Dommershausen, Madison, is the only other person to receive (1980) this honor.

Alvin Krewald, 41, Kewaskum, was injured when his car was struck by a Chicago and North Western passenger train at the Kettle Moraine Drive crossing to the rear or east of Lighthouse Lanes bowling alley, south of Kewaskum last Friday. The crossing is located a short distance east of Hwy. 45. The mishap occurred when Krewald's auto, traveling in a generally westerly direction across the tracks, was struck in the right rear by the southbound train. The impact swung the car around, throwing it against the railroad crossing marker on the west side of the tracks, breaking it off. Krewald was reported to have suffered extensive lacerations to his forehead, head injuries and lacerations to his arms and abrasions and contusions to his knees.

Regal Ware, Inc. has started construction on the first phase of an ultra-modern, three-unit Office Administrative Center on a 17-acre plot adjacent to its Kewaskum plant. The central Wisconsin location for the proposed expansion was chosen because of the cooperation of the Kewaskum village board in developing a natural park area contiguous with the office complex. According to James D. Reigle, president of the cookware manufacturing firm, the Administrative Center will be constructed in three stages totaling not less than 50,000 square feet. The first stage, now underway, will house its vast electronic data processing facilities and related accounting functions. Expected completion date on this first 12,000 square foot unit is about August 1, 1968.

Sunday, May 23, will be observed as confirmation Sunday by the members and friends of the St. Lucas Evangelical Lutheran church. Ten children have completed their instruction of the six chief parts of Luther's small catechism and are ready to make a public confession of their faith. These children are as follows: Gertrude Okrusch, Lizzie Lubitz, Gertrude Pagel, LaVerne Kirchner, Robert Faber, Ray Keller, Donald Backhaus, Junior Kaniess, August Bilgo Jr. and Lester Schaub.

The cyclone-like wind which struck this community Sunday morning did quite a bit of minor damage throughout this section. At some places shingles were torn off roofs and even the tar paper covering on other roofs was ripped off. Some trees were uprooted and other destruction resulted. The wind was more damaging south of here. The unseasonably chilly weather which has prevailed has held back farm crops and seeding as well as victory garden progress.

Five little children will receive their First Holy Communion during Mass starting at 8 a.m. Sunday at St. Bridget's Church. The communicants are Rita Mary Boegel, Lorraine Barbara Westerman, Harold Francis Strohmeyer, Robert Renner and George Hanrahan.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF KEWASKUM

By an act of the Legislative in 1846, the Town of Kewaskum was part of West Bend. In 1847, it was divided and named Kewaskum in honor of an old Indian Chief of the Pottawatomies, who owned this land before the white man settled here. The town is watered by the Milwaukee River and a few tributary streams and has a dearth of lakes. The first election of the Town of Kewaskum was held at the home of Nathan Wheeler, April 2, 1850. The first settlers here were Mr. P. Barnes and wife who settled here in 1844. The first post office was established in Kewaskum Village in 1847, with James Thompson as first Postmaster. The first school was established in 1851, with L. Clarke, Supt. and Calista Colvin, teacher. In 1852, J.H. Myer built the first loghouse on the banks of the Milwaukee River. He then built a sawmill in 1854 and a grist mill in 1856. The first frame house in the village was built by Henry P. Eames, near the river on the south side of Main Street, opposite West Water. The nearest settler was William Pickel, a half mile away. The first store was built by William Spicer. In 1852, F.W. Buchtel started a blacksmith shop. In the spring of 1854 the first religious society was organized, The Dutch Reformed with Rev. M. Davenport as Pastor. There were four attendants at the first meeting. The first church was built by the Catholics. The first Sunday school was organized in 1855 with Mrs. Eames as Supt. The school was very successful and was maintained until 1879. The village has grown to be the thriving business center of the surrounding county. The C. & N.W. Railroad passes through the town and village. We now have several stores, butcher shops, blacksmith shops, garages, elevators, milliners, etc. The Catholic Church was built in 1862. The Lutheran Church in 1868, and the German Methodist in 1866. The latter congregation has disbanded and a new congregation has been organized, known at the Ev. Peace.

The school operetta, "Over the Rainbow," will be held at the Opera House in Kewaskum, at 8:15 p.m. on Friday, May 24.

The cast of characters will include: Aleda Mertes, Elizabeth Quade, Dorothy Dana, Esther Raether, Florence Greve, Maude Hausmann, Marian Schaefer, Florence Rosenheimer, Alpha Meilahn, Lazetta Ramthun, Anita Dreher, Lorinda Meinecke, Hazel Geidel, Erha Quandt, Vinelda Kirchner, Ella Klein, Nathan Quandt, Louis Moses, Norma Bunkelmann, Margaret Schlosser, Cresence Stoffel, Ella Guth, Bernice Perschbacher, Elizabeth Lay, Nettie Kludt, Helen Braun, Elverena Becker, Irene Backhaus, Melicent Backhaus, Grace Krahn, Ocelia Guth, Irma Braun, Sarah Stark, Lucille Radtke, Ethel Pollnow, Sylvia Metzger, Georgia Schmidt, Ruth Rosenheimer, Hildegard Backhaus, Dorothy Dreher, Caroline Backhaus, Florence Backhaus, Myron Perschbacher, Marvin Martin, Charles Miller, Marc David Rosenheimer, Arnold Meilahn, Ralph Kohn, Sylvester Rempel, Frank Groth, Allen Miller, Wesley Haug, John Louis Schaefer, Carl Backhaus, Carl Meilahn, Henry John Lay, Ray Perschbacher, Orlin Backhaus and Henry Rosenheimer.

While in the employ of Oscar Morbus, sawing wood at the Morbus sawmill at Boltonville on Monday, Albert Beger received severe and painful injuries about his face. Mr. Beger was in the act of taking away a piece of slab, when in some manner same came in contact with the saw, which threw the slab into Mr. Beger's face, fracturing the jaw bone and inflicting other bruises. Mr. Beger was the same day removed to Oshkosh, where he is under medical aid.

At a special meeting of the village board at the City Hall last Monday evening, John Klessig, who formerly was one of the village trustees, was appointed Village President for the unexpired term of President William Ziegler, who resigned his office several weeks ago.

Tomorrow, Sunday, the patron feast of the Holy Trinity congregation will be observed at the church with special services. First Holy Communion will also be given to the following children on this day: Rosaline Pflum, Ramona Enders, Lucile Hess, Lucina Martin, Jerome Harter, Harvey Opgenorth, Walter Theusch, Joseph Metz, Theodore Schoofs Oscar Hirsig, Quentin Peters and Arnold Zeimet.

I WAS THERE!

I was there at the dawn's early light. I was there at the twilight's last gleaming. I was there with the bombs bursting in air, torn and tattered, what so proudly you hailed.

I was there, in Germany, France, Italy, Pearl Harbor, Korea, Vietnam and countless other places. I flew proud and honored. What have I done that I'm allowed to be burned, trampled and treated with disrespect?

Why are so few allowed to desecrate what so many died to protect? For 214 years I've flown to represent this country and its people. Who will be there for me when the next call to arms is made? Will I burn on foreign soil as I do on my own? Who will be there for all of us?

It's time to let the government know we will not stand for the burning or desecration of the symbol which stands for this country and its people.

Anyone who feels he has that right should visit Arlington Cemetery, Pearl Harbor or any one of the cemeteries where our war dead lie in honored respect.

There are enough of them.

Tell them about the right to burn their flag. If they say it's OK, do what your conscience tells you to. But not in front of me because I was There.... WERE YOU?

A Message from the Postmaster

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers! Well, Chrystal is at Great America for the summer, mom and dad are all settled in, and I AM BEAT! Rented a van for "all the moves" and think I should just trade the Probe in and buy a van... would be cheaper (in the long run).

In this week's column I have some questions and answers and hopefully many of you will find them interesting and helpful.

QUESTION: Are money orders available at the Post Office and what is the fee?

ANSWER: This is a very good question. PLEASE do not send cash through the mail. Money orders are the safe way to send money. The special color blend, Benjamin Franklin watermark, metal security thread and twice imprinting of the dollar amount are incorporated security features. You can buy domestic money orders at all post offices in amounts up to $700. The fee is 75 cents. If your money order is lost or stolen, present your customer receipt and it can be replaced. For a small fee, you can obtain a copy of a paid money order for up to two years after the date it is paid. Please remember... you CANNOT write a check for a money order.

QUESTION: I went to the post office and the clerk told me that the piece of mail I was sending was "non-standard" and she charged me an extra 10 cents. What does this mean?

ANSWER: First class mail weighing one ounce or less is non-standard if it exceeds any of the following size limits:

- Its height exceeds six and an eighth inch
- Its length exceeds eleven and a half inches or
- Its thickness exceeds on quarter of an inch

Postal regulations specify that "non-standard" mail be returned to the sender for the 10 cents surcharge. Please keep in mind that this only applies to mail ONE OUNCE OR LESS.

QUESTION: I love the new display of stamps at the Kewaskum office. I can just look and see "what's new" BUT I was disappointed on the quantity on hand.

ANSWER: A mint set is a collection of every commemorative issued during the year. My daughter is going to be 20 in June and she has every mint set from the year she was born until now. These sets are unique and make a wonderful "baby gift" as each year, the next one can be purchased. The stamps are "mint" and "the worse thing that can happen" is that whoever you buy them for would use the stamps on the letters, etc. These are "collector items." Stop in and check one out today!!

QUESTION: I mailed a card and it was returned to me with an explanation that it was "non-mailable." Why?

ANSWER: Minimum size standards are: Pieces must be rectangular in shape, at least three and a half inches high, at least five inches long (items sent to foreign countries must be at least five and a half inches in length) and at least .007 of an inch thick (about the thickness of a postal card). Mail not meeting these standards will be returned to the sender.

QUESTION: I sent a piece of mail to Germany with a 29 cent stamp and it was returned to me for 21 cents postage. Why didn't it go on "postage due?"

ANSWER: Mail to foreign countries is 50 cents per HALF OUNCE, 95 cents for up to a FULL OUNCE. Mail within the United States is 29 cents UP TO A FULL OUNCE. Foreign countries WILL NOT accept postage due mail. It would behoove you to stop in, have us weigh those pieces for you so that proper postage is applied and you will not be inconvenienced by having the piece returned for extra postage.

Well, that is about it for this week. It is just overwhelming to know that so many of you enjoy my article. I LOVE WRITING IT... that is for sure. Customer satisfaction is OUR PRIORITY at the Kewaskum Post Office. Have met so many of you... it is GREAT! Please remember... my door is ALWAYS open to each and every one of you. Stop in, chat for awhile and remember... if you would like a little tour of the inside of the office, I will be more than happy to show you around. Until next week, try to have a good day... A HAPPY EVERY DAY!!

Your Postmaster, Bonnie

FRIENDS of Abused Families Inc.

of Washington County

Friends of Abused Families is most pleased that the Kewaskum Statesman is going to provide our agency the space on a regular basis. This space will be used to help educate and inform the readers of this publication of the issues and to answer any questions persons may have about abuse.

You may be asking, "WHY IN THE KEWASKUM PAPER?" I would like to share with you that since the beginning of this agency the Kewaskum Community has been most supportive of the work we do.

Unfortunately, a large percenttage of those persons seeking help from our agency come from the Kewaskum area. This is not to infer that Kewaskum has any greater problem than any other area in Washington County, but there is a problem. It is our goal, through this column, to let people know all of the many services which are available to them free of charge.

WHAT IS THE WORK WE DO? I will be sharing that information with you in the next weeks. To start with, we have a 24 hour crisis line which persons may call to receive immediate help with any of the issues of abuse which they may be experiencing. The persons who answer this line are well trained professionals and can assist the caller in sorting out their options and just listening.

In addition to the crisis line, we will accept persons into shelter anytime they need it. We are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The fact is that domestic violence does not take a vacation.

I will share more information about these and other services in future weeks. Should you or anyone you know need help feel free to call 334-7298. Should you have any questions, about abuse, you would like answered, please write me in care of the Kewaskum Statesman.

First Annual String Golf Tournament Held

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce held their First Annual String Golf Tournament on Saturday, May 22, at Hon-E-Kor Country Club in Kewaskum.

It was a perfect game for golf and goofing off and participants took full advantage of the sunshine. (Even though some of us had to take more advantage of the sun than others. Beginners luck, I guess!).

Various prizes donated by many local businesses were won for assorted capabilities and thanks to the generosity of those businesses, everyone who entered walked away with a door prize.

If you passed up the tourney this year, you missed a beautiful day with a smiling Mother Nature, lots of relaxation (yeah, sure), an extremely good time and a super lunch and supper. (Not to mention watching me whiff the ball once or twice.) You also missed your chance to contribute to this year's Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival, for all proceeds from the tourney will be used to underwrite the festival.

But now is the time to mark your calendar for the Second Annual String Golf Tournament... for plans are already in the making.

Louise Martin shows great form as she chooses an appropriate club for whatever.

Which way did that stupid ball go this time??

Sheri Baldikowski is modeling the latest in "on-the-green-in-15-strokes" attire.

Master of Ceremonies (what ceremony?) Tom Timblin announced the winners of the tourney as his captive audience waited apprehensively.

Sorry if we didn't get a shot of your golf swing, but it is no easy task trying to hit that little white ball around all that acreage AND snap pictures at the same time! Well, at least I got the ball from start to finish

(with lots of miles in-between!) No Clayton... no birdies... but I did hit a robin and came close to the above turtle. Foolish turtle... it should have known better than to go out jogging when I'm trying to golf!

Are you SURE it hooked to the right, Don???

Badger State Summer Games Add Senior Golf

By Noel Stollenwerk

MADISON... The addition of a senior golf division leads the changes in store for the 1993 Badger State Games golf events. The ninth annual Badger State Summer Games finals are set for the Madison-area June 24-27.

The BSG now features three levels of golf competition: juniors (ages 12-18), adult and senior (ages 55 and older). The junior and senior divisions will be contested during the final weekend in Madison.

"Nationally, senior golf is growing in popularity, and in keeping with the Badger State Games philosophy of 'all ages and abilities,' senior golf was added to accommodate the older athletes of Wisconsin," said Sandra Multry, BSG director of competition.

Cherokee Country Club, one of Wisconsin's finest golf facilities, will play host to the senior and junior competitions. Seniors will play on Thursday, June 24, while the juniors will play on Friday, June 25.

Adult competition will include a qualifying round at the regional level, June 12 and 13. Regional sites are Superior, Merrill, LaCrosse, Manitowoc, Sun Prairie, West Bend, Whitewater and Brown Deer. Qualifying golfers advance to the finals at the University Ridge golf course on Saturday, June 26. The Ridge, host of the BSG finals for the second straight year, was recently named as the nation's third best new public course by Golf Digest.

Registration materials are available at any J.C. Penney store or at the BSG (608) 251-3333. Registration forms must be completed by 5 p.m. on Friday, May 28, for the adult competition, and on Friday, June 11, for the junior and senior divisions. Entry is limited, so early registrations are recommended. The event is open to Wisconsin residents only.

EWSCA Racing News

(PLYMOUTH, WI) Rain cut short the evening program for the Eastern Wisconsin Stock Cars Saturday night.

In the only feature event of the evening, Gary Laack of Glenbeulah took the checkered flag to get his first feature win of the 1993 season. Pole-sitter Lydeil Newby of North Fond du Lac had built a nearly half-lap lead on the rest of the field when it was erased by a red flag after the 15th lap. Laack had worked his way from his seventh row-starting position into 4th on the restart. Laack quickly passed Frank Gelger of Francis Creek and David Herr of Sheboygan on lap 16 and took the lead passing Newby in the front straight-a-way at the start of lap 17. Laack held off a charge by Brad Mueller of Random Lake on the final lap to seal the win. Mueller finished second, Jim Pitzen of Plymouth took third followed by Herr and Randy Markwardt of Sheboygan.

The modified feature was on lap 8 when rollovers by Randy Tracy of Plymouth and Frankie Heimerl of West Bend forced a red flag. At that point, race officials called the race because of heavy rain. The hobby stock feature and semi-features as well as the sportsmen semi-feature also did not run.

In earlier races, Randy Butler of Juneau grabbed the lead on the first lap of the Modified "B" Main race and held on to win the 15 lap event. Pole-sitter Chuck Tuschl of Cato finished second. And Erv Waala of Kewaskum lead from start to finish in the Modified "C" Main race.

Racing action continues at the Sheboygan County Fair Park in Plymouth next Saturday with time trials at 6:00 and racing at 7:00.

KHS Boys Third, Girls Fourth at EW Relays

By Noel Stollenwerk

SHEBOYGAN FALLS -- One team was looking to improve, while the other was looking to relax, and both accomplished their goal.

The Kewaskum boys track squad was hoping to improve on its showing the previous week at the Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet, and it did exactly that, moving from fourth to third in the EW Relays, held here, last Thursday. The Indians scored 71 points, well behind Sheboygan Falls' winning total of 99.

The Lady Indians, meanwhile, were looking to ease up in their meet the same day at Chilton, and ready themselves for the WIAA Regionals, which began this past Monday. The lax attitude was evident, as KHS took fourth (50 points), with less than half of Sheboygan Falls' winning total (102).

Both KHS squads had a pair of firsts in their respective meets. The Indian boys took the top spot in both the pole vault, with Brad Jackson leading the unit by breaking his school record by clearing 13-5. Wade Kreis (12-0) and Dean Kreis (10-0) also contributed fine efforts in the event.

The Indians also won the long jump, with Jim Wichtoski (20-1) paving the way. Wade Kreis and Brian Butschlick also helped out, with Butschlick nailing his best jump by more than a foot.

For the KHS girls, the three some of Robyn Winninghoff, Becky Yogerst and Beth Kempf accounted for the lone firsts. In the shot put, the three combined for an effort of 97-7.5, while the distance in the discus was 273-

4.25, both good enough for the top spot.

The Lady Indians were unable to come up with any seconds, but the long jump unit (Ginger Wiesner, Missy Rohrer and Karla Kirst) added a third (40-10), as did the 3200 relay (Rohrer, Rachel Chambers, Nicole Hetzel, Chrissy Neumann).

The Indians boys, meanwhile, added three more seconds to add to their team total. The high jump team of Travis Jacak, Brian Bruendl, and Jeff Dirmeier cleared 16-7, while Dirmeier, Wichtoski, Matt Tonn and Wayne Stearns teamed for a second in the 1600 relay (3:58.3). The lone other second came in the shot put, where Dan Schulteis, Jim Rix, and Kevin Kohn combined for a distance of 128-2.5.

Both KHS squads were scheduled to take part in the WIAA Regionals at Pewaukee on Monday, with those qualifying for Sectionals traveling to Mayville on Thursday.

Close Games Rule VKAA

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM... So far this season, action in the Village of Kewaskum Athletic Association men's softball leagues has been tight to say the least.

Three of the five games played last week on Tuesday night, were decided by a single run. Neuville Chevrolet pulled off a two game sweep, beating Amerahn in the first contest, 7-4, and then besting John Doe in the nightcap, 10-9.

John Doe lost both of its games, falling 8-4 to Dupli-Quik in their other encounter. Other games included Bunkelmann Builders beating Bohn Dry, 7-6, and Park Avenue Pub upsetting the defending league champions, Prime Time Pub, by a 7-6 margin.

In the first week of action on Tuesday nights, it was Dupli-Quik trouncing Bohn Dry, 10-2, while Prime Time Pub beat Bunkelmann Builders, 14-2. In the lone other game, it was Park Avenue Pub beating Amerahn, 12-2.

The first two weeks of Thursday night league have also been quite competitive. Last week, C.C.'s notched their second win of the year, holding on to beat Prime Time Pub, 12-9. In the other games, it was C.C. Cody's coming from behind in the final inning to beat M and I National Bank, 13-10, while Accent Photography bested Emun Mull Game Farm.

The previous week, it was Diamond F edging Emun Mull Game Farm, 3-2, while C.C.'s beat M and I, 9-2, and Prime Time Pub edged Accent Photography, 5-2.

Cougars Oust Indians in Regionals

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM -- The Kewaskum girls softball team has had its troubles putting together both offense and defense. So it was quite fitting the way the team's season ended here, last Friday.

The Lady Indians played fairly well in the field, committing just three errors. But just three hits, one after the second inning, wasn't enough to propel the Indians past Campbellsport, which was victorious 9-2 in a WIAA Sub-Regional contest.

"We didn't play all that bad defensively," KHS coach Janet Molebash said of the defeat, which ended the Indians campaign with a disappointing 3-10 overall record. "We just didn't put together any offense."

KHS did have a little going their way early in the contest. Playing as the visitors in the game, the Indians scored a single run in the top of the first to take the lead.

Rachelle Krahn started the inning with a single, and promptly stole second and third. After a groundout, Krahn scampered home on Julie Mertz's groundout, giving KHS the 1-0 advantage.

The Indians made it 2-0 in the second, as Tanya Laubach walked, stole second, and moved to third on a sacrifice bunt by Angie Bindrich. Michelle Gundrum's groundout to short scored Laubach, and the Indians upped their lead.

That lead quickly evaporated in the bottom half of the inning, as the Cougars erupted for five runs. Four hits, a sacrifice and an error helped the Cougars take the lead, one they would not let hold of.

"They had a lot of extra-base hits," Molebash said of Campbellsport, which is "a real strong hitting team. They didn't make any mistakes, and when you put that together, you're going to win a lot of ball games."

Campbellsport added a single tally in the fourth, and two more in the sixth to put the game away. The Indians, meanwhile, managed just a single by Tanya Krahn in the sixth, and Laubach's single in the seventh.

Laubach "had a couple of nice catches, too," according to the Indians coach, who praised the team's younger players. "When you have such a young infield (three freshman and a sophomore), you're going to commit your share of errors."

With the win, the Cougars advanced to take on Brown Deer on Tuesday in the WIAA Regionals.

KHS Golfers Place Sixth in EW Meet

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM... While the team was hoping that the home-course advantage would give them an advantage in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet, the Kewaskum golfers weren't able to gain any ground on the rest of the competition here, last Thursday.

Two Rivers, on the other hand, did gain ground, ending Plymouth's hold on the conference title. The Raiders posted a fine total of 337, besting Plymouth by three strokes to win the EW conference championship.

Kewaskum, meanwhile, had to settle for sixth (379), edging out only Kiel (400), which was the only team the Indians beat in a dual meet all season.

Jason Gaffke paced the Kewaskum golfers, firing a 90 (46-44) to finish 14th in the meet. Freshman Luke Chesak played well under the pressure of the meet, carding a 93 (46-47), while Jim Marx (97) and Robby Donath (99) were the other Indian counters.

Pat Brook of Two Rivers won medalist honors in the meet, firing an even 80, as no player was able to hit in the 70's on the Hon-E-Kor layout. Sheboygan Falls' Shannon Carpenter and Plymouth's Ryan Lisowe finished in a tie for second with a pair of 81's.

EASTERN WISCONSIN CONFERENCE MEET

1. Two Rivers 337; 2. Plymouth 340; 3. Sheboygan Falls 345; 4. Chilton 348; 5. New Holstein 375; 6. KEWASKUM 379; 7. Kiel 400.

onship last season, new skipper Doug "Gonring will not have the same luxuries that his predecessor had.

Gone are three-year starting pitchers Shawn Schneider and Chad Cook, as well as all-conference second baseman Kim Marx. But Gonring does have his share of veterans back, including all-EW second teamer Brad Weinreich (1B), and honorable mention picks Matt Schlosser (1F) and Scott Donath (C).

"We've got a good care of the team back this year," said Gonring who played professional ball in the Toronto and Houston organizations. "I really hope that they can lead by example."

Donath led the team in hitting last season with his hefty same this year. With the departure of Schneider and Cook, the Indians will have to rely more heavily on their bats to produce victories.

"Hitting will definitely be our strength, and pitching our weakness," Gonring pointed out. "I can see a lot of high-scoring games with this team this season."

In addition to the three already mentioned, Gonring also welcomes back seniors Todd Muckerheide (OF) and Aaron Rettler (IF), and juniors Jason Steier (P, IF), Doug Boegel (P, IF), and Shawn Larson (OF).

Boegel, Steier and junior Jason Gaffe will do much of the pitching for KHS this year, with Schlosser and Muckerheide counted on in relief at the outset. With just eight days of practice before the season-opener Tuesday against West Bend East, Gonring will go easy on his pitchers early in the year.

It's hard to do much with just eight days of practice," he said. "It's hard to get them ready that quick. You just have to let them play through a lot of the mistakes that they are going to make."

Others who will see playing time this season include infielder Eric Ankerson, and outfielders Jim Marx, Pat McFadden, Mark Strobel, Mark Morell, Robby Donath and Beau Coulter.

While he is confident that his offense will click, Gonring's main concern is his defense.

"You have to get 21 outs at this level," Gonring said. "You can't be giving teams 30, 32, 34 outs per game. You give them too many outs and you're going to lose, and that's on any level. Defense is where you're going to win games."

Gonring hopes to do as well as Bartelt did in his reign as the Indians boss. Bartelt amassed a 112-107 overall mark as KHS coach, including a 81-63 mark in the EW, a traditionally strong conference. Last season, Bartelt managed the Indians to a 125-3 mark in the EW, earning the school's first outright conference title.

Indians Drop Softball Finale

By Noel Stollenwerk

PLYMOUTH... What had the makings to be a fine season for the Kewaskum girls softball squad finished the same way the year went, on a down note.

The Indians committed six errors, as they capped off a disappointing Eastern Wisconsin Conference campaign with a 13-9 loss to Plymouth here, last Monday afternoon.

With a core of seniors returning from last year's successful unit, the Indians had hoped for a promising year. But instead, errors and some untimely hitting woes left them with a 2-8 mark in the EW, and a 3-9 overall record.

"It's frustrating," coach Janet Molebash said of the Indians' woes. "Our bats just weren't there like I thought they would be this year."

Molebash noted that six of the 13 Indian players batted under .200 for the season in-conference action, and "we had a lot of people hovering around the .100 to .125 range. That really hurts."

Against the Panthers, KHS broke from form as they took the lead in early going. The Indians used four walks, coupled with a bunt by Tanya Krahn, to put a pair of runs on the board in the first.

The lead was short-lived, however, as Plymouth responded big in the second inning. The Panthers scored six times, the key blast being a grand slam home run by Heather Schultz, putting the hosts in front for good, 6-2.

KHS came back, pulling to within 6-4 with two runs in the fourth. But Plymouth answered the call once again, blowing the game open with a four-run sixth inning to put them up 13-7 at that point.

Krahn finished with a pair of hits, as did Julie Wagner, to lead the KHS hitters.

"I really thought we had some talent this year and that we would do well," Molebash said of the disappointing conference showing. "But we had some problems with people not being able to play (due to suspensions) and we just seem to make mistakes at key times."

Golfers Lose To Chilton

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM... The Kewaskum golf team continues to show signs of improvement, but the team is also still a bit behind the competition in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

That was evidenced here, last Friday, as the KHS golfers turned in their best score to date, 183, but was still seven strokes behind Chilton in an EW dual.

All four Indian counters broke 50, with Jim Marx setting the pace with his 43. Robby Donath was next with a 45, while Nathan Vetter and Jason Gaffke carded a 47 and 48, respectively.

Chilton's Brian Nett took medalist honors with his round of 41.
