Quad Tool and Design is Latest Area Business

Quad Tool and Design Inc. is located on Highway 45, just south of the Village of Kewaskum.

by Sharon Callaway Roznik

A need for toolmakers in the Kewaskum area has inspired four men to join their talents in the trade, and after two years of planning their own tool and die shop, the dream is nearing completion.

"It's been difficult to work full-time and setup this business," admits Vernon Jung Jr., of Kewaskum, a leading journeyman tool and die maker for a Germantown business, with 13 years of experience. Over the last few years he's recognized a growing need in the industry—customers are seeking new vendors due to increasing changes in the field.

Quad Tool and Design, Inc. is set up to produce inhouse work from the initial engineering design to the final product. Vernon is joined by David Bublitz, Kewaskum a five year journeyman tool and die maker with over ten years experience, Aaron Kuhlow, Port Washington, a CAD (Computer Assisted Design) involved with the design portion of engineering; and Michael Spuhler, Hartford, a programmer with a degree in teaching, and journeyman toolmaker for ten years.

The atmosphere is different from shops of the past - the walls are white and custom built work stations line one side of the building. Air cleaners and a vacuum system ensure clean working conditions so important to precision die making. Lots of windows let outdoor lighting to

Dillman Hired as KHS Assistant Principal Board to Discuss Beechwood School Options

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - On a suggestion by Board of Education member Ron Beimborn, the Kewaskum School Board will discuss its options regarding the Beechwood School building at its November monthly meeting.

Beimborn said several residents had approached him recently inquiring about the building's future. Overcrowding problems at Farmington Elementary School has once again sparked debate about whether or not Beechwood should be re-opened.

"When we closed it, we said that five years down the road we would look at enrollment figures and make a decision," Beimborn told fellow board members. "Well, those five years have passed, and we should address it, not just let it stand there and gather dust."

Board President Neal Weare said that he had no qualms about discussing the building's future, but wanted to know what kind of effect that its opening would have on this year's budget. After further discussion, it seemed that the possibility of re-opening the school this year wouldn't be feasible, but that the topic would be put on next month's agenda for discussion.

In another matter, the Board voted to approve the hiring of David Dillman as the assistant high school principal for the remainder of this year. Dillman replaces Christopher Ruhm, who resigned last month to take a similar position with the Mount Horeb School District.

Dillman's contract will be for 220 days, with a salary of $46,225. Both provisions would be pro-rated from October 1 to June 30th of next year. The board also requested a special emergency certification issuance from the DPI for Dillman.

Also at last Monday's meeting, the Board greeted visiting students from Langensbold, Germany, who are on an exchange program with KHS. The group of 10 students arrived recently and will be staying with a KHS student for about three weeks.

District Administrator David Heather presented the students with several gifts, including rulers and lapel pins with the KHS logos on them. The board members were also presented with pens from the German village, and later snacked on German bread.

The program is an ongoing commitment between the two schools. Last summer, a group of KHS students traveled to Langensbold to experience life there for a couple of weeks.

Farmington Residents Defeat Moratorium

By Louise Martin

Over 150 town residents attended a special Town of Farmington meeting on Tuesday, October 19, 1993. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss and vote on a proposed moratorium.

The moratorium was to direct the Town Board to restrict new commercial development or enlargement of present commercial uses on any such lands in the Town of Farmington for a period of one year until a master plan would be adopted by the Board.

At the onset of the meeting the town's attorney, Kevin Delorey, advised that the legal status of this special town meeting would result in an advisory capacity only and any final decisions would remain with the Town Board members.

The floor was then opened to anyone wishing to speak on the moratorium. Views were expressed by several members in the audience on both sides of the issue. Discussion was on general commercial development and enlargement. Discussion on specific developments was not allowed.

Following the open forum, a ballot vote was taken. The results were 36 in favor of the moratorium and 133 against it.

The town's plan commission is concerned about growth in the township and has held extra meetings to discuss planning issues including commercial and residential growth, preservation of farmland and protection of environmentally sensitive areas.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Town Chairman Jack Theusch thanked everyone for attending and for their input.

Town of Kewaskum Board and Poultry Farm Reach Agreement

By Louise Martin

Representatives from the Town of Kewaskum and Brookside Poultry Farms, Inc. met on Monday, October 18th, prior to the monthly board meeting, in an attempt to resolve the problems created with the disposal of animal waste from the farm.

In an amiable meeting between the parties involved, an agreement was reached which hopefully will result in the coexistence of the farm and township residents.

Under a verbal agreement, Brookside agrees to incorporate into the soil animal waste that has been applied within 24 hours of application, do spreading of waste without incorporating into the soil during 50 degrees or below weather, and at least 1,000 feet from any residence, unless permission has been granted by that homeowner.

Steven Bliesner, farm manager of Brookside, wants this arrangement to work out and stated he wants to be a good neighbor. If there is a problem, he encourages residents to notify him either at the office, 692-9535 or at home, 692-6242. The agreement will be reviewed in six months for any changes or additions.

Other business before the Town of Kewaskum Board was the preparation of preliminary budget which reflects a no tax rate increase for township residents.

United Way Drive Making Progress

United Way of Washington County officials report that as of October 1, the campaign was at $275,626 in pledges and gifts received. This represents 33 percent of the $840,000 county wide goal.

"We've been making steady progress during the campaign, and are pleased with the results so far," said Andy Gumm, Campaign Chairman. "Many of our divisions have already surpassed the 50 percent mark, and others are closing in."

"One major key to our continued success is the use of Loaned Executives from area companies," said Gumm. There are 13 professional men and women "on loan" to United Way during the campaign. They average one to three days per week; their main role is to do employee group presentations for each of the Divisions.

Loaned Executives for this year and the companies they represent are: Monica Kannel - B.C. Ziegler and Company; Diane Rizzardi - Bank One; Judi Weber and Nancy Schmitt - Broan Manufacturing, Hartford; Judi Zacher - Hartford Memorial Hospital; Lori Spath - M & I First National Bank; Bob Swanson - Regal Ware, Kewaskum; Sean Torinus and Laura Muth - Serigraph Inc.; Randy Bertram - West Bend Company; David Nycz and Julie McElroy - West Bend Mutual Insurance; and Kirk Emerich - West Bend Savings Bank.

Local Clergy Attend Conference

Reverend Lance Lackore, of Salem United Church of Christ in Wayne, attended the 1993 Pre-synod Rural/Urban Gathering in St. Louis Missouri.

The conference was held from July 13 to July 15. The focus of the three day session was rural and urban renewal with emphasis on bringing the church into the twenty-first century, while retaining the small church tradition and vitality. Participants in the workshop came from across the continental United States to share ideas and models of effective ministry.

Morning devotions were held as a group, with the sessions divided to specifically define the problems facing the rural churches as opposed to our urban brethren. As the gathering progressed, it became apparent that the overall problems facing the church were the same across the board, with only the schematics differing.

Some of the topics covered included: the plight of rural family farmers, and how they are being affected by conglomerate monopolizing; the effect the North American Free Trade Agreement will have on the United States labor force; the welfare system that ignores some children to an extent that they go to bed without enough to eat; and the need for ecumenicalizing the protestant churches to remain strong throughout the twenty-first century.

The event was moderate by the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries community Mission secretary, Paul Peters. Keynote speakers included: economist Dr. James Crotty; the executive vice president of the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries, Rev. Dr. Thomas Dipko; and the executive director of the California State Council of Churches, Rev. Patricia Whitney-Wise.

Eight people from Wisconsin attended, including Denise Goetsch, also of Salem UCC, Wayne.

Homecoming 1993 is apart of history now, but the memories will linger with many students for some time. The Homecoming activities that ran all week with float building, dress up days, door decorations and more continued on Friday, Oct. 15 with a parade lead by the KHS Band.

Several floats, convertibles, trucks, marching groups and even a hay baler made the parade a success.

The football game was as exciting as ever and the team didn't let down their fans as they beat Kiel 28-16. The half-time show presented by the KHS Band was well received along with routines by the high school baton twirlers and the Varsity Cheerleaders.

After the half time show the winners of various competitions were announced, and the float competition is as follows; 1st place - Senior Class, 2nd - Juniors, 3rd - Freshmen and 4th - Sophomores. The FFA float was also very well done. Thanks to all of the students for their hard work.

After a long day of decorating on Saturday, Rose Hall was transformed from a gym into a beautifully decorated dance hall featuring the colors of the rainbow and the theme "Stayin' Alive".

A large turnout made for a very exciting dance with music played that kept everyone moving. The Grand March took place at 9:00 p.m. at which time the Homecoming Court was introduced by Mistress of Ceremonies and Class President Mandy Thiemer and this year's King, Beau Coulter and Queen, Sara Tykac was crowned.

Hospital Offering Program to Promote Breast Cancer Awareness

West Bend -- This year more than 3,500 women in Wisconsin will be diagnosed with breast cancer; approximately 900 of these women are expected to die as a result.

In an effort to promote the early detection of breast cancer, St. Joseph's Community Hospital, in conjunction with the American Cancer Society, will participate in a special breast cancer screening program during November.

A comprehensive mammography program will be offered through the hospital's radiology department at a special rate to help increase awareness in women on the merits and mechanism of early diagnosis of the disease.

The program will include a mammogram and individual instruction in breast self-examination.

A mammogram is a safe x-ray examination that uses a minimal amount of radiation to reveal the internal structure of the breast. The American Cancer Society states that a mammogram can detect a breast cancer when it is the size of a freckle or the head on a pin, up to four years before it can be detected by the most experienced physician.

The American Cancer Society recommends women ages 35-39 receive a baseline mammogram. Women 40-49 should have a mammogram every one or two years, and those 50 and older should have the screening done annually.

Those women having a personal family history of breast cancer are encouraged to have exams at an earlier age and more frequently.

Those women who meet the eligibility requirements may refer themselves directly to St. Joseph's radiology department for an appointment by calling 334-8343 or 334-8581.

Mammograms will be scheduled by appointment only and registrations will be taken the weeks of October 18-22 and October 25-29 between the hours of 7 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.. The actual exam will take place the first week of November between the hours of 12 noon and 4 p.m.

A fee of $55, which includes the radiologist's interpretation, has been set for this special breast cancer screening program. Women participating in this program must have a physician to whom the results can be sent.

For more information, call St. Joseph's Community Hospital's radiology department.

St. Joseph's Community Hospital Offers Needle Disposal Program

West Bend - In response to community ecological and safety requests, St. Joseph's Community Hospital is offering a biohazard container program for the disposal of needles and syringes.

According to Jim Horner, director of the hospital's plant operations and maintenance, the new "sharps container" program has been designed specifically for those individuals who require insulin therapy or who are administering allergy medications.

"We have received several requests from area citizens who are concerned about the environmental aspect of needle disposal, as well as the safety of our sanitation workers. In response, we formulated a hospital task force to address these concerns and have developed a comprehensive program," Horner said.

Program participants will receive four "sharps containers" that can be used as needed throughout the year for a fee of $10.00. These receptacles are safe, sealed and puncture resistant.

Persons interested in the program can receive their enrollment card and "sharps containers" from the hospital's admissions department. When a container reaches capacity, individuals are requested to return it to the admissions area for proper medical waste processing. New containers will be exchanged at this location on an ongoing basis.

For more information on the program, call Jim Horner at 334-8578.

County D.A.R.E. Program Expanded

In an effort to expand the nationally recognized D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) Program in Washington County schools, Deputy Paul Buth of the Washington County Sheriff's Department recently completed a special 80-hour training course at the Illinois State Police Academy.

D.A.R.E. Officer Buth started his duties this fall, by teaching D.A.R.E. at Farmington School, in the Kewaskum School District. This will be a total of three D.A.R.E. officers that the Washington County Sheriff's Department utilizes to teach its fourteen schools for the 1993-94 school year.

The training prepared Deputy Buth to teach an 18-week series of lessons that will give Fifth Graders the skills they need to resist drugs and understand youth gangs. The Deputy was instructed in teaching techniques, Elementary School operations, the use of visual aids, Officer/School relationships, communication skills, child development, and classroom management. The final training session involved the officer's "Student Teaching" D.A.R.E. lesson in a St. Louis classroom.

Deputy Buth received his B.A. degree in Criminal Justice from Marquette University in 1990 and completed the 10-week Police Recruit School training at Waukesha Technical College in October, 1991.

The D.A.R.E. curriculum includes Officer-led lessons on drug resistance, self-esteem, assertiveness, self-stress management without drugs, and decision making. It concludes with a Culmination Ceremony, in which the students pledge to stay off of drugs, in front of their peers and parents. The D.A.R.E. Program was designed to be taught by Police Officers, because students are frequently much more sophisticated about substance abuse than classroom teachers.

Experienced Police Officers, with a minimum of two years on-the-road experience, answer student questions based on their training experience. D.A.R.E. Officers are selected based on their interest in working with children, their ability to maintain a positive rapport with students, schools and the community.

D.A.R.E. is the largest, and most successful, drug education program in the United States today.

Haylist Links Buyers With Sellers

By Jack Trzebiatowski
Washington County
Agriculture Agent

Producers that need to buy or sell hay can get together with the help of the Great Lakes Haylist. The listing service will link sellers throughout the United States and Canada with buyers in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Producers that have hay for sale can contact their local University of Wisconsin Extension Office for a copy of the hay listing form. This form is used to provide information about the type, quality, amount, and price for each lot of hay available. The listing forms are entered into a computer system.

Persons that are in need of hay can also request a hay listing form and indicate the type, quality and amount of hay they may need. This information is sent in and entered into the same computer system.

Each county U.W. Extension office will have access to the computer system and be able to generate a listing for producers. They can then use the information to make contact with either a perspective buyer or seller.

Buyers and sellers must work out all arrangements of any sale. This includes price, quality, delivery and payment. The program does not verify the integrity of the information, or the ability of persons to make payment. Sellers may wish to check references of potential buyers or request a letter of credit from the buyers bank. This is important if the buyer is not well known.

Hay and straw listings will be on the database for a maximum of 21 days. If a sale does not occur and the seller wishes, they may relist for additional periods.

There is no fee for either buyers or sellers to participate in this haylisting program.

For more information, listing forms, or a copy of the listings, contact your County U.W. Extension Office.

Old Country Ridge Inn Bed and Breakfast

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Old Country Ridge Inn, Kewaskum's newest Bed and Breakfast establishment, will be celebrating their recent opening this past summer with an Open House for their family, friends and clients on Wednesday, October 27.

Karen and Ron Ellefson have opened their hundred-year-old cream city brick farmhouse to travelers and tourists, offering three different rooms overlooking a natural setting of rolling farmland and open countryside.

Located on nine acres of land, Ron shares the homestead with a flock of geese, just one of his many hobbies which include a new tree farm planted this spring. Approximately 6,400 baby trees grow in the field adjacent to the house.

In the distance you can see a man-made lake and surrounding campground created years back by the Ellefsons, now owned by someone else. "Ron loves to start new businesses," laughs Karen.

The Bed and Breakfast offers three rooms that are available to the public... each with its own distinctive decor. The Country Collection offers a southern view, with antique bed and dresser, for those who love a feel of the past.

The Garden View overlooks the fruit trees and garden to the west. Both these rooms have twin beds and share a bath.

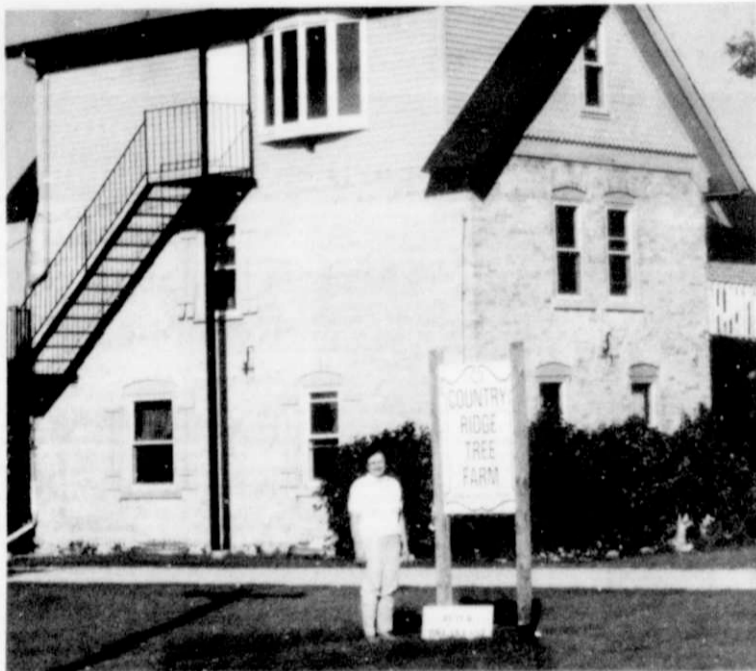

The Eagle's Nest is a very bright and private room located on the third floor. From this room visitors have a great view of the countryside and a big bed with a country quilt.

During the week, the Ellefsons serve their guests a continental breakfast of homemade muffins, fruit juice and coffee. Karen works three days a week as a beautician at Cedar Ridge in West Bend.

But on the weekends, the kitchen table is a breakfast lovers dream with homemade breakfast casseroles, country quiche, hearty muffins, coffee cakes, fresh fruit, juices and coffee. "I like to serve everything homemade," Karen says. "If you go buy everything at the store, well that just defeats everything I'm trying to do here."

Visitors have come from as far away as Vermont, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania. They get alot of guests from the Milwaukee and Chicago area. "We've got a big house with five bedrooms, and we love being with people," remarks Karen. Their family has grown up, with daughter Rachelle married and living in New Berlin and their son, Brian, at the University in West Bend. They are expecting the arrival of their first grandchild soon.

Space Day at Farmington

In keeping with this year's theme, "SPACE," the third grade classes at FES under the direction of Mrs. Marschner and Mrs. Pecher, held a Space Day on Oct. 8.

Everyone had an "out of this world time"! One of the special things planned for the day was a tele-lecture from NASA. Students talked to a speaker from "NASA on a speaker phone and were shown slides about life aboard a space shuttle.

Students and teachers dressed as astronauts, aliens, planets, spaceships, the moon and the sun.

Students worked at home and constructed a model of the solar system using Talents Unlimited Thinking Skills.

During the day, students rotated through a variety of learning stations that dealt with the space theme. The students built rockets and launched them into space. Star cookies and moon shaped jello followed the successful launch!

It was a totally "airiffic" day.

The country collection room is just right for antique lovers.

Each room has special touches that convey a home-like atmosphere.

State Tobacco Growers Will Fight Back

MADISON -- Tobacco growers in Wisconsin are upset over the President's proposal to tax tobacco products to fund his health-care plan. Their plan, they say, is to fight back.

"Tobacco has been paying its way for a very long time in this country," Robert Bartz, president of the Wisconsin Leaf Tobacco Dealers' and Growers' Association said. "But in their zest to make everyone's behavioral choices conform to theirs, the President and his wife are ignoring that detail."

"American smokers pay more than $11 BILLION A YEAR in local, state and federal cigarette taxes," Bartz said. "That's a lot of money to raise from a tax that is considered the most regressive in this country."

Bartz said that the appeal of this tax seems to be based on misinformation propagated by antismokers that smokers cost the system more than nonsmokers. "Perhaps they should read their own literature," he said. "The Journal of the American Medical Association in March 1989 said, and I quote: 'On balance, smokers probably pay their way with the current level of excise taxes on tobacco.' And that was before the 1991 and 1993 tobacco tax hikes the federal government levied."

The proposed tax increase not only will have a significant impact on Wisconsin growers, it will affect the state at large, he said.

"In 1993, over 2,000 Wisconsin farmers produced nearly 10 million pounds of tobacco worth more than $15 million to the state economy. If the president succeeds in getting a huge excise tax increase passed... a dollar is on the table... sales of tobacco products will drop 17 percent. That will come out of our pockets," he said.

Bartz added that Wisconsin's state pockets will be emptier when revenues collected on cigarette and other tobacco product sales, currently collected on cigarettes at 38 cents a pack, drop. "The state treasury will lose some $29.3-plus million annually, according to figures based on an independent study by the accounting firm Price Waterhouse."

Bartz said the bleakness of the Wisconsin picture wouldn't be complete, however, until lost income taxes and new unemployment payouts were figured in.

"At a dollar increase in the cigarette tax, we'll lose 262 jobs in the growing sector alone. If you add in the wholesale and retail sectors and businesses that depend on their business, figures indicate some 7,100 jobs will disappear in Wisconsin... jobs that now put more than $194.6 million into paychecks."

"When Jean Nicolet first landed at Green Bay in 1634 to trade with the Indians, tobacco was the most prized commodity the newcomers had to offer," Bartz said. "Our fertile farms in southern and western Wisconsin produce a substantial part of the nation's cigar binder leaf. And nearly 10,000 of our residents have jobs in distribution and retailing dependent on tobacco sales."

"It doesn't take much to figure that Wisconsin will be sacrificing a lot... more than Mr. Clinton has a right to ask... for this tax," he said.

Bartz stressed that his members support the concept of health care for all Americans, but expressed the hope everyone would alert the state's senators and representatives that a tobacco tax is not the way to pay for it.

co tax is not the way to pay for it.

"The Council of State Governments in March of this year issued a report that says excise taxes on products such as tobacco and alcohol are 'worn-out' sources of revenue, and it urges policymakers to look elsewhere for funds for their programs and services."

"For the well-being of Wisconsin, I intend to send that message to Washington."

Coulter Rushes for 240 Yards Indians Dance Past Raiders; Title Game Next

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Kewaskum football coach Clark Pearson didn't have to give any pep talks to his team before its game against Kiel here, last Friday night. Pearson's biggest concern was that the Indians may have been too fired up for its Homecoming contest against the Raiders.

After a slow start, however, the Indians kicked it into gear in the second half, riding the play of senior running back Beau Coulter. The 5-9 speedster rushed for 240 yards on 22 carries, including a pair of touchdowns, to lead the Indians past the Raiders, 28-16.

The win improved the Indians' record to 4-1 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, and set up a showdown on Thursday night at Sheboygan Falls. The Falcons are on top of the EW standings with their 5-0 mark, but a win by the Indians would give the team its first EW title since 1983 (see accompanying story.)

"The kids were really ready to play," Pearson said of his squad. "We were able to move the ball really well. And we played outstanding defense. We really shined on that side of the ball."

The offense wasn't too shabby either, as it gained 388 total yards, including 331 on the ground. In addition to Coulter's huge night, fullback Mark Strobel gained 64 yards on 12 carries, while making some huge blocks to free Coulter.

"As our leading blocker, he's done the job all season long," Pearson said of Strobel's work. Pearson also praised the blocking of wingback Brad Jackson as well. "He throws a lot of key blocks too. All of our backs block very well."

After a scoreless first period, Coulter got the Indians on the board with a monster 82-yard scamper. The standout wasn't too winded by the effort, as he tacked on the two-point conversion as well, making it 8-0 at the half.

"He had a couple of really nice runs again," Pearson gloat-ed about Coulter. "He had another great game. If we can get him into the secondary, he's very difficult to stop. He's going to gain his yards."

Coulter gained five more on a touchdown run at the beginning of the third period. Later in the quarter, Indian quarterback Dan Survis hooked up with Jackson on a 27-yard score, making it 20-0, Indians.

Kiel quickly countered as their star back Mike Schuler took the ensuing kickoff and raced in for an 85-yard kickoff return. The Raiders made it 20-8 with a two-point pass from Chris Gaedtke to Tony Longenfelt.

Paul Reis then sealed the Indian victory, as he picked off a Gaedtke pass and returned it nine yards for a touchdown. Survis converted on the two-point run.

"I think our defense did a great job," Pearson said, noting that the Raiders scored their lone offensive touchdown with about a half-minute to play. "We shut them down good. It was just an excellent team defensive effort."

Pearson said the defensive front of Paul Stoltzmann, Jay Enright, Shawn Larson and Andy Mathias were big in holding the Raiders to just 83 yards rushing. They got help from Coulter, Strobel, Tim Strigenz and Mark Stephani, who picked off his third pass in the last two games.

Offensively, "we had pretty good ball control," running a total of 57 plays to Kiel's 32. "The offensive line did a nice job once again," Pearson went on, praising tackle Steve May and guard Dane Dorn. In addition, sophomore Jason Schmidt has stepped in "and he's done a real nice job," filling in for his brother Mike, who was hurt against Two Rivers.

About the only sore spot for Pearson was that his team amassed 100 yards in penalties. "We got called for four clipping penalties," he said. "I guess that would be a place we need to improve on."

Kiel 0 0 8 8 - 16
Kewaskum 0 8 12 8 - 28
SECOND QUARTER -
Kewaskum - Coulter, 82 yard run; Coulter, two-point run.

THIRD QUARTER - Kewaskum - Coulter five-yard run; run failed. Kewaskum - Survis 27 yard pass to Jackson; run failed.

Kiel - Schuler 85 yard kickoff return; Gaedtke pass to Longenfelt.

FOURTH QUARTER - Kewaskum - Reis nine-yard interception return; Coulter two-point run. Kiel - Schuler seven-yard run; Gaedtke pass to Schuler.

EW Conference Title Up for Grabs Thursday at Sheboygan Falls

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Kewaskum's easy win over Kiel, coupled with New Holstein's upset over Plymouth, means that the Indians will be playing for the Eastern Wisconsin Conference football championship Thursday night at Sheboygan Falls.

The Falcons are atop the EW standings with their perfect 5-0 record (8-0 overall). If the Indians would beat Falls, the Indians would win the title because the first tiebreaker would be head-to-head competition. The Falcons, with Plymouth losing, have already clinched a playoff berth.

The top two finishers in a conference qualify the Indians, since they would have just one loss in the EW, while Plymouth and New Holstein each have two losses.

The Huskies' 12-0 win over Plymouth last Friday helped the Indians' chances immensely, as KHS would have likely been the odd team out in a three-way tie involving Falls and Plymouth. Now, the Indians' fate is in their own hands.

"This is going to be the biggest game so far in my coaching career," said KHS boss Clark Pearson, in his sixth year at the helm. "Sheboygan Falls is a good, solid team. They don't make a lot of mistakes."

The Falcons enter the contest off the heels of an impressive 22-0 win over Campbellsport, whose only previous loss came to Kewaskum, 6-0. The Falcons allow an average of just 55 yards per game rushing, which just happens to be one of the Indians' strengths.

"We hope to be able to run against them," said Pearson, who spent the weekend studying Falls' game films. "Right now I don't see any more weaknesses for them defensively. We just may have to throw more, I really don't know."

A loss would significantly hamper the Indians' playoff hopes, as that would most likely drop them into a three-way tie for second with New Holstein and Plymouth, who face Chilton and Kiel, respectively, this week.

In the case of that scenario, it's possible that a coin flip could decide which team gets the playoff berth.

Breast Cancer Awareness Month

PEWAUKEE - The breast cancer epidemic has been called the nation's best kept secret. There are 2.6 million women in America today with breast cancer, one million of whom do not yet know they have the disease. This year in Wisconsin, an estimated 3,600 women will be diagnosed with breast cancer and 916 will die.

The American Cancer Society, Wisconsin Division, celebrates Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October by focusing attention on early diagnosis for women over age 50. A woman's risk of developing breast cancer increases as she gets older. And over three-fourths of the breast cancers diagnosed each year occur in women over the age 50. Many ACR accredited mammography facilities offer reduced cost mammograms in October.

The American Cancer Society recommends the following guidelines for breast cancer detection: women should have a screening mammogram by age 40; women 40 to 49 years should have a mammogram every one to two years; asymptomatic women age 50 and over should have a mammogram every year. Additionally a clinical physical examination of the breast is recommended every three years for women 20 to 40, and every year for those over 40. The Society also recommends monthly self-examinations as a good routine health habit for women 20 years or older.

FALL

Death of the seasons. That's what I used to think about fall. I mean school started, the summer was ending, everything was dying, and the enemy darkness was coming earlier and earlier each day. Nothing seemed to change. That's what I used to think!

Until a few years ago, I didn't realize the natural beauty of fall. It was my mom who first introduced me to the very thought that fall could be beautiful. She showed me the changing leaves, the birds flying over head (in awesome wonder of which way to go), the start of winter, and the beauty of the stars.

It all started one afternoon. She led me out into the field and there we sat. The bitter cold wind flailed around us as it whispered things into our ears. In her explaining, she grasped my eyes and forced them to look on the look on the good side. She showed me the trees first. Then, she turned me around and showed me the ground. At first I didn't notice a thing, but she encouraged me to keep trying and to look harder. Soon I noticed ants and other small creatures digging homes in the ever-hardening dirt. I also saw those amazing creatures working together in gathering the food that was needed to make it through the harsh winter.

We got up and took a walk to the nearby forest. Here she showed me the changing leaves and pine needles. She told me to look really closely and tell her what I saw. I couldn't. The beautiful patterns keep changing like a multi-colored kaleidoscope. I guess this is what she wanted because she grabbed a single leaf, and then she asked again what this had meant to me. This time I could tell here. There in a single leaf stood many representations of winter, all set together waiting to be let out for a winter's day.

I hadn't realized that darkness now swept the hillside. I was about to get up when my mother sat me down again. This time she told me to listen. After awhile I got tired of listening and told her that I couldn't hear anything. She quickly shushed me up and once again told me to try harder and listen more. This time I heard what could be considered music. My mom explained to me after awhile that what I was hearing was the sound of nature. It sounded like three beautiful pieces of music being played at the same time. Many animals joined in the song. Nobody seemed to care if they could not sing at all but instead helped them to sing better.

After awhile, which seemed to be only half way through the first song, I heard Mom's voice call out softly, as not to interrupt the nature's song, telling me to look skyward. There in the middle of the dull night sky stood many dancing figures ablaze. Softly Mom pointed out all the fall's conciliations and some of her own. I had a terrible time finding fall's conciliations, but Mom's were even worse to find. I did find half the conciliations she pointed out, or at least I think I did. That's when we headed home. Hand in hand, we walked under the moonlight, as nature's song said goodnight.

I thank Norma for showing me her favorite season. Without it, I would have missed the importance of life.

E. Coli Alert

By Joyce Albrecht
Washington County
UW Extension
Home Economist

These days it's important to "look before you bite" to make sure hamburger or any other meat you or your family eat is THOROUGHLY cooked. Check with a fork to make sure the meat is done all the way through with no pink showing.

Why is this necessary? A series of E. coli outbreaks in our western states have underscored the need for extra care. You may have heard about the Jack in the Box and Sizzler restaurant incidents. There has also been an outbreak involving raw milk in the same region.

These outbreaks were caused by a rare strain of the common e. coli bacteria-E. coli 0157:H7. The bacteria survived incomplete cooking in hamburger patties and made people sick. In another case, it was contaminated mayonnaise. In a third case, raw, unpasteurized milk is never considered safe. It has not been heated to temperatures high enough to kill harmful bacteria.

How can you protect yourself and your family? There is one never fail defense... cooking kills the 0157 bacteria. Of course, cooking kills most other bacteria, too. So stay safe by following these food rules.

NEVER DRINK or cook with RAW MILK. It can contain a number of bacteria that can cause food borne illness.

SEND BACK any UNDERCOOKED hamburger, meat loaf, meatballs, veal patty or other dish made from ground meat or poultry.

SHOPPING AND COOKING AT HOME: After shopping, quickly freeze or refrigerate perishable food. USE refrigerated hamburger, patties and poultry in one to two days.

WASH your hands with hot, soapy water before preparing food or eating, particularly after using the bathroom or diapering a child.

WASH your hands, utensils and work areas before and after contact with raw meat, poultry or fish.

COOK ground meat and all poultry until the center is no longer pink. Juices should run clear.

MICROWAVE CAREFULLY. For a low-wattage oven, cook food longer or at a higher setting than the directions stipulate. Cover and rotate food for even cooking. Let food stand outside the oven after cooking if so directed. The food completes cooking as it stands.

CAUTION: When GRILLING, remember that burgers or other patties which look cooked on the outside may still be underdone inside. Check for doneness by slicing to the center to make sure no pink color remains.

SERVE cooked food with clean plates and utensils.

Volunteers Needed for Art Aware Program

The Art Aware Program is a volunteer outreach of the West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts to area schools.

Through this program, students discover and explore the role that art plays in everyday life. Students gain ability to identify, compare and evaluate works of art on a personal and meaningful level. Students also gain a new perspective about cultural history on a global level.

The volunteers in the Art Aware Program are retirees, mothers, teachers, and/or college students who show an enthusiasm for lifelong learning and realize the enrichment this program can provide.

Volunteers are trained and provided with all the necessary materials to facilitate a presentation in the classroom. Volunteer time commitment could be a minimum of 20 minutes a month or up to several hours.

Volunteers are needed for this program. For more information, contact Cheryl Stidwell Parker at 334-9638. If you have a yearning to learn, become an Art Aware volunteer.

IN MEMORY

In memory of Michael Stern, who passed away ten years ago, Oct. 18, 1983.

Dear Mike,
Life goes on and years go by,
But precious memories never die.

Our hearts ache with sadness,
God knows how much we miss you

At the end of ten sad years,
So we go on living in this world
of sorrow and strife,
Until we meet you in heaven
And live that happy life.

We love ya, Mike

A Message from the Postmaster

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers and how are you all doing today? In this week's column, I have some questions and answers. Hope you find them interesting and informative.

QUESTION: Are the rural routes established? Can we expect earlier mail delivery from here on in?

ANSWER: Yes, the four rural routes in Kewaskum are all "set up" and being delivered accordingly. Am sure that many of you will agree with me that as of this time last week, you could see an improvement in the time of delivery. Please be assured that this will continue on a constant basis. To be totally honest with you... Mondays are the heaviest day of the week and carriers will be a little later than normal. This will also "come into play" on days after holidays and when we incur inclement weather. Thank you for your patience and understanding with this matter.

QUESTION: My tenant moved out in the middle of the night and owes me some money. How can I find out where they moved to?

ANSWER: GOOD QUESTION! There are two ways for you to attain this information. The first will cost you only the cost of a postage stamp... 29 cents. You could send an empty envelope addressed to the OLD address. Underneath your return address, print the words ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED. You will receive your envelope back with the new address information. The other way (quicker and just a little more expensive) would be to come to the Post Office where the person received their mail. Ask the clerk for an "address search." The clerk will ask you for the name and old address of the person you are looking for. For the price of $3.00, this information will be supplied to you "on the spot."

QUESTION: I have a Post Office box and will be going on vacation for three weeks. Do I need to notify you to hold my mail?"

ANSWER: This is entirely up to you. Some of our Post Office box patrons have requested that nothing be put in their post office box while they are gone. We put all of their mail on the "hold shelf" and they pick up when they return. Others do not notify us and that is absolutely no problem either. As long as the box rent is PAID... your box will be filled and any overflow will be pointed out to you by the insertion of a yellow card stating... "package too large" (that means we are holding out the rest of your mail.)

TIDBITS OF POSTAL INFORMATION:

Did you know that George Washington and Ben Franklin were the first stamps issued by the U.S. Post Office?

Did you know that our country's first newspapers were often printed and sold by the postmasters? The newspapers were called "broad-sides."

Do you know the six parts of the postmark? City, state, day, month, year and zip code.

What is the difference between a commemorative and definitive stamp? A commemorative stamp honors a person, place or thing. NO MORE will be printed after the original number sells out. A definitive stamp is one that is kept in print for several years. The "flag" stamp is a good example of this.

Another reminder of the "hottest seller" at the Post Office... the no-lick stamps. You can still "lick and stick" but for no extra charge, you can just "stick 'em." Try them and you might just like them and never "lick" again. Christmas cards will be just a bit easier this year as there will be "no-lick" available along with the "lick and stick."

Newest stamp just issued last Saturday: African violets in booklets of 20.

Now, last but certainly not least...MAILBOX VANDALISM!! As your Postmaster, I am abhorred at this! WHOEVER is responsible should be mindful of the fact that this is not only destruction of property but destruction of FEDERAL property and carries stiff penalties.

Rural customers may have purchased that mail receptacle but only matter with postage applied can be put into it. Malicious destruction of these mailboxes will mean a police report that will be forwarded to the Postal Inspection service.

There are hundreds of good people out there... let not the few that are doing this GET AWAY WITH IT. Neighbors... please watch out for each other. We can "pull together" and put an end to this and the criminals will be stiffly dealt with.

Until next week, try to have a good day... a HAPPY every day!

Your Postmaster, Bonnie

the building.

Leaders in the community lent a hand when the bank in Fond du Lac they were working with decided the potential business should relocate in Fond du Lac. All the financing had to begin again, and with the help of Town Board President George Allmann and Marcia Theusch, head of Washington County's dept of Economic Development, they found M&I Bank in West Bend. Customers sent resumes to the bank guaranteeing their work. They obtained a $207,000 loan that came down through the state to the county level. "All that money stays in the community" Vernon comments. State Senator Mary Panzer helped to push the project through.

The one million dollar investment is ready to begin production soon. The new building contains a 28 foot ceiling to house the new overhead crane. So far the business will be running a CNC boring bar, lathe, two brideport milling machines, manual grinder and a 1632 fully automatic grinde, and over $20,000 in small, miscellaneous tools. There are three computer stations, and several rooms for meetings, breaks workouts - even showers.

Besides the four partners, Quad Tool and Design, Inc. employs three additional men, with plans to hire twelve new employees within the next year and a half. "We believe in continuing education," states Jung, "and we'd consider hiring apprentices from Moraine Park." The business is interviewing through Job Service.

Local businesses were brought into do most of the work. John Gitter was the general contractor and "was fantastic helping to pull things through," offers Jung. Others included Al Beisbier, Kettle Moraine Electric, LK Heating, Mueller Excavating, Commercial Plumbing, and Del Ponte Bros. Their families also helped in all aspects of the project.

The location couldn't be better, with access to Hwy. 45 making it extremely convenient for both customers and Quad Tool and Design, Inc. Jung is happy about that. "Kewaskum is a nice, central location and we're lucky to have that access. This will be the gateway to industry between here and West Bend." Because of this they are doing their part to ensure the area stays landscaped and enhances the surrounding area.

An open house is planned for spring for all the people that helped make this new business possible. "This will promote Washington County," Vernon concluded.

Kewaskum 4-H Express

The October meeting of the Kewaskum 4-H'ers was called to order by President Jenny Johnson at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 7, 1993 at the Kewaskum Municipal Building. Heather Hackbarth led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance and Tracy Balon led the 4-H Pledge.

The secretary's report was given by Kathy Deshotels and Spring Gehring gave the treasurer's report.

Tracy Balon reported on Adopt-A-Highway cleanup, telling that a group of club members met on Saturday, Sept. 4, and picked up trash along our section of Highway 28 east of St. Michaels.

Brooke Zanow reported on the window display the new officers put up for National 4-H Week, which was October 3-9. The window display is in the Kettle Moraine Electric window at the stop lights in Kewaskum.

Brooke and Graeme Zanow reported on the 4-H Open House which was on October 2 at the Paradise Mall in West Bend. They showed several of the crafts they made and reported on all the fun they had learning about different 4-H projects.

Kimberly Erdmann reported on the 1993 State 4-H Dog Show where she won showmanship and obedience awards with her dog.

President Jenny Johnson reminded all renewing club members that their $2 dues and enrollment forms are due. New members are encouraged to get their forms in as soon as possible, but have until early December to hand them in. The earlier we have all the enrollment forms handed in, the sooner we can arrange for project leaders and start the project meetings.

New members, Jennifer Rogowski, Graeme Zanow and Erin Backhaus were introduced and welcomed into the club.

Members were reminded about the 4-H Achievement and Recognition Banquet which was held Wednesday, Oct. 13th. Members who forgot, were still able to sign up by calling Mrs. Diane Lemke.

We set the date of Saturday, Oct. 23 to clean up our section of Highway 28 one more time this year for the Adopt-A-Highway program. We will meet in Goeden's parking lot in St. Michaels at 9 a.m.

President Jenny Johnson asked parents to consider sharing their talents as project leaders. Interested parents are to call Mrs. Bonnie Zanow.

Mrs. Nadine Lendved will be offering monthly craft lessons for interested craft members. The first class was held on Saturday, Oct. 16, at 10 a.m. at Mrs. Lendved's house. We made clay ghosts and a wooden pumpkin bunny.

We will be having a Halloween party on Saturday, Oct. 23. Several members volunteered to work on a committee to plan our party. Club members will be notified of the party arrangements.

We decided to make a fall craft project at our November meeting for the residents of Maple Dale Manor. Each member is to bring some pressed leaves and a paper plate to the Nov. 4 meeting.

We will be having our annual fundraiser in November. Members will receive their box of candy bars at our November meeting. Mrs. Pat Deshotels will be the chairperson for our candy bar sale.

President Jenny Johnson told members to check their Clover Line for upcoming County meetings and events.

Mrs. Diane Lemke explained that the Washington County 4 Leaders Association is sponsoring a fruit and nut sale. We decided to participate in this special sale to help raise funds for new fairgrounds.

Club members celebrating birthdays in October are Jennifer Butzlaff, Jonathan Lendved and Timothy Trott. We sang happy birthday and presented them with cupcakes.

President Jenny Johnson handed our fair premium checks to members and explained to new members that members exhibiting items at the Washington County Fair are paid based on the award they received. The more items you take to the fair, the more money you'll receive.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:45 p.m.

After the meeting, Brooke Zanow gave a demonstration on making small macrame wreaths. Refreshments were provided by the Zanow family.

Our club meets the first Thursday of every month in the Kewaskum Municipal Building. Our next meeting is Thursday, Nov. 4, at 7 p.m.

Brooke Zanow, Reporter

Cpl. Albert Theusch, of Drew Field, Tampa, Florida, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jac. Theusch of Route 1, Kewaskum, has been promoted to sergeant.

Miss Ruth Reysen of the Town of Auburn received a letter from her fiancé, Cpl. T. Alphonse Schladweiler, of Kewaskum route, who is now stationed in Australia, where he has recovered from malaria. Cpl. Schladweiler was at the fighting front in New Guinea before contracting the illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Krautkramer of Route 3, Kewaskum, received a card on Thursday morning of this week, informing them that their son, Pfc. Ralph Krautkramer of the U.S. Marine Corps, arrived safely at an overseas base. They have not yet learned the location. Before being sent overseas, Pfc. Krautkramer was stationed at the Bombardier and Gunner school, El Centro, California, where he trained as a tail gunner in an airplane. Ralph has a sister, 2nd Lt. Jeanette Krautkramer of the army nurses corp stationed in Africa.

It was erroneously reported 50 years ago (mentioned in last week's column) that a son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Zehren, when in fact, the baby was a girl. (Sorry, Judy... I just wrote down what was in the column 50 years ago, thinking it was David... his name was on the sign at Shefond. Sorry David...)

75 Years Ago

On Tuesday afternoon, at about 5:30, a fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the barn and granary owned by William Miller on North Fond du Lac Avenue, in this village. Shortly after Arthur Eichstedt, a tenant, had arrived home from the village, and noticed flames coming out of the roof of the building. The fire spread so rapidly, that hopes of saving the building were out of the question. Besides the barn, seven tons of hay, straw stack, corn stalks, one single harness and about 300 bushels of oats were also destroyed. The total loss is estimated at about $1,500. The home guards of the village marched to the scene of the fire in the evening and helped to quench the flames, and made themselves generally useful in aiding the fire department.

R.L. Raymond, a farmer living at Campbellsport, delivered to Farrell & Meixensperger for shipment Monday, a hog weighing 985 pounds. This was the largest hog ever delivered at Campbellsport. P.D. Nigh, another farmer, delivered a bull weighing 2,000 pounds. These comprised part of a three-car shipment made by the Campbellsport buyers Monday.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kilian Flasch last week at St. Kilian.

Tips For A Safe Halloween

(PARENTS: PLEASE READ THIS TO YOUR CHILDREN!)

- Try to Trick-or-Treat when it is still light outside.
- Wear a costume that makes it easy for you to walk, see and be seen.
- If you must go out at night, make certain that your costume is light in color.
- Carry a flashlight, so you can see and be seen easily.
- Use reflective tape on your costume so people driving cars can see you.
- A face mask will keep you from seeing well. Take off your mask before you cross a street.
- Why not use makeup instead of a mask?
- Have a parent, older brother or sister go Trick-or-Treating with you.
- If someone older cannot go with you, Trick-or-Treat with a group of children.
- Plan your Trick-or-Treat route ahead of time. Pick streets that are well-lighted.
- Tell your family on which streets you will be Trick-or-Treating.
- Cross only at corners. Never cross the street between parked cars or in the middle of the block.
- If there is no sidewalk, walk facing traffic.
- Wait until you get home to sort, check and eat your treats.

HAVE A SAFE AND HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

Rohrer Eliminated in Tennis Sectionals

By Noel Stollenwerk

KOHLER - The draw looked almost identical to last year's, and the results were pretty much the same as well for Kewaskum tennis standout Missy Rohrer.

Rohrer, seeded third in the WIAA Regional draw at Fond du Lac, won both of her matches last Tuesday and qualified for the Sectionals for the second straight year. Rohrer last season had become the first girl ever from KHS to qualify for Sectional competition.

But Rohrer ran into one of the state's top players at the Sectional here, on Thursday. Kohler's Susannah Wood beat Rohrer for the second time this season, 6-3, 6-1, thus eliminating the Indian junior from the competition.

In the Regionals, Rohrer easily handled Port Washington's top player, Gayce Westfahl, 6-0, 6-1 and then took care of Ripon's Anne Sina 6-1, 6-3, securing her spot in the Sectionals.

"Her second round match proved to be much more challenging," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said of Rohrer's battle with Sina, who pulled to within 4-3 in the second set. "Things got a bit nerve-racking," Eichstedt went on to say. But "Missy's strong groundstrokes proved to be too much."

Wood proved to be too much for Rohrer once again on Thursday. Wood beat her 6-2, 6-1 in a match on September 9th, and the Kohler junior ace showed why she is one of the state's best players.

Rohrer, who won her third straight Eastern Wisconsin Conference title a week earlier, finished the season with a 16-3 overall record.

Teammate Margaret Feind got within one win of advancing to Sectionals, but was ousted by West Bend West's Stephanie Krebs 6-1, 6-1, in the qualifying match. Feind, only a freshman, beat Port Washington's Kristina Zbikowski 6-0, 6-0 in the opening round.

Eichstedt also commended senior Teri Rod, who played her last doubles match with Jamie Lynn at the Regionals. Roe and Lynn fell to Fond du Lac's top duo, Jill Stephanie and Pam Sabel, 0-6, 2-6.

The other Indian entry in double competition, Sabrina Maul and Lisa Berres, won their first match against Port's Stephanie Bostwick-Jenny Larson, 6-3, 6-3. Buy in the Sectional qualifying match, the duo lost to West Bend East's Jill Sauer and Abby Kirsch, 1-6, 0-6. Berres is the only other senior on the Indian varsity squad, thus Eichstedt is looking forward to next year's experience at that level.

Indians Beat Huskies to Take Third in VB Race

By Noel Stollenwerk

NEW HOLSTEIN - At the beginning of the season, Kewaskum volleyball coach Dave Rizzardi said he was looking for a top three finish for his squad in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference this season.

The Indians did meet that goal, as the KHS spikers beat New Holstein 15-9, 16-14, 8-15 in their season finale here, last Thursday night. Kewaskum finished the conference slate with a 7-5 mark, good enough for third place behind Kiel and Sheboygan Falls.

"I think that is pretty good for this team," Rizzardi said of the conference finish. "It was a nice way to head into the playoffs."

The Indians pulled away late in the opening game to take the early advantage in the match. Things looked as if they would be over quickly in game two, as the Indians raced to a 10-1 lead.

But the Huskies didn't give up, eventually tying the match at 14-all. But Kewaskum finished the game out, winning in two straight for the match win.

"They made a real nice comeback there," Rizzardi said, proud that his team didn't fold. "It was real close there for awhile. We certainly didn't run away with it."

Rizzardi cited Missy Radtke and Mary Yahr for their fine play, while Sara Tykac was once again the leading setter of the night.

With the conference season ending (the Indians had a bye last Thursday), Rizzardi had a week and a half to get his squad ready for the WIAA Regional at Waupun this Saturday. Joining the Indians and Warriors at the Regional will be the winners of Tuesday's matches between Sheboygan Falls-Port Washington and Campbellsport-Mayville.

KMS Boys Third, Girls Sixth at Conference Meet

Last Friday, October 15, the Kewaskum Boys Cross Country team placed 3rd and the Girls team placed 6th at the Eastern Wisconsin Cross Country Conference Meet at the UW Sheboygan County Campus.

Leading the Boys team for Kewaskum was Senior Randy Thull who placed 7th in 17:29 and earned 1st Team All-Conference honors. "Randy has really improved this year and had been focusing on running well at the Conference Meet - and he did," commented KHS Coach Dave Drexler. Juniors Jason Czaja and David Gosa finished 9th and 12th respectively in 17:43 and 18:08 to earn 2nd Team All-Conference honors. "Jason has been a fine addition to the team and David seems to have started to recover from last week, when he collapsed and didn't finish the race at Campbellsport," reported Coach Drexler. Junior Jake Thull and Sophomore Damion Doherty ran well to finish in 23rd and 28th respectively as Kewaskum's 4th and 5th runners in the team score. Freshman Jesson Benzing finished 48th in 21:28.

New Holstein's Jason Mayer took 1st place in 16:45 which helped his team win the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Championship with 50 points. Chilton was a close second with 53 points, followed by Kewaskum with 79 points. The rest of the team scores were Kiel 98, Sheboygan Falls 119, Two Rivers 119 and Plymouth 134.

Leading the girls team for Kewaskum was junior Chrissy Neumann, who placed 12th in 17:11 and earned 2nd Team All-Conference honors. "Chrissy's goal was to place in the top fourteen overall and she ran well and accomplished her goal," said Coach Drexler. Freshman Marnie Lynn was 30th in 18:29, Juniors Greta Kuphal and Suzi Gauvin were 39th and 41st respectively in 19:07 and 19:44. Kewaskum was without Junior Lynn Thull, who did not run because of injury. Other runners for Kewaskum were Freshman Missy Thull 43rd in 19:45 and Sophomore Katrina "Gilles" 47th in 21:46.

Two Rivers' Amy Erickson took 1st place in 15:25 which helped Two Rivers to the

Gridders Sweep Raiders

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - This winning thing is getting to be contagious for the Kewaskum football program.

The three Indian squads ran their record to a combined 17-4 last week, as both the JV and freshmen teams posted wins over their counterparts from Kiel.

The JV's didn't play all that well, according to coach David Rockhill, but were still able to post a 20-15 win over the Raiders.

"It shouldn't have been that close," Rockhill said of the contest, in which his team held the advantage throughout. "We really didn't do that much offensively."

They did do enough, however. Jim Westerman got KHS on the board with a five-yard TD run on the Indians' opening drive. Kiel scored just before halftime, though, putting them right back into it.

Ryan Herman scored on a 12-yard run in the third quarter, and Nathan Scheel had a nose-guard's dream, intercepting a pass in the end zone for a touchdown in the fourth quarter, sealing the win.

"He didn't get to run the ball, but he did a little dance though," Rockhill said of Scheel's touchdown, in which the ball was batted in the air, right to him.

"We were missing some key players," Rockhill said, noting Tim Gundrum and Aaron Kurth didn't play because of injuries. Rockhill did cite Scheel, Paul Reis, Matt Heather and Jason Liegl with defensive interceptions. The win kept the Indians unbeaten for their careers, and moved them to 7-0 this year.

The freshmen had a much easier time of things with the Raiders, blowing the visitors out

KHS Spikers in Waupun Regional

By Noel Stollenwerk

46-0. The margin of victory was very surprising to KHS coach Jim Westphal, who noted that Kiel wasn't that bad of a team.

"We managed to get outside of them (running the ball), and that just broke the game wide open," he said. "I think that this was our best game of the year so far."

Westphal said that he couldn't recall all the scores and fine plays for the Indians. He did note that Jason Lieburg had a pair of touchdowns, as did Dean Roell, while Kevin Martin added a pair of scoring passes.

"Our defense played very well," Westphal said. "It would be hard to single anyone out on defense, because it was a great team effort."

The easy win improved the freshmen's record to 4-2 on the year.

KEWASKUM - After a successful stint in Eastern Wisconsin regular season action, the Kewaskum volleyball squad will take part in this Saturday's Waupun Regional, beginning at 10 a.m.

In addition to the host Warriors, two more teams will join the field after preliminary matches on Tuesday. The winner of matches between Campbellsport-Mayville, and Sheboygan Falls-Port Washington will also take part in Saturday's action.

KHS Coach Dave Rizzardi knows that the Indians will have their work cut out for them, as Waupun and Sheboygan Falls are both ranked in the top three in the state in Division 2. Rizzardi said that he thinks the Indians will open against the Campbellsport-Mayville winner, which should help.

"That's good for us, because we need to get loosened up and focused before we play those two teams (Falls and Waupun)," he said. "I think we can still put it all together and compete with those types of teams, though."

"We just can't have many unforced errors," Rizzardi went on to say. "Our back-row people are going to have to play well, picking up the ball. Because I know there will be a lot of spiking going on by the other teams. We'll just have to see what happens."
