New Ambulance Arrives

Kewaskum Fire Chief Mark Groeschel, right, and Rescue Squad Captain Larry Weston, left, recently received the keys of their new ambulance from Bill Rockafellow of Foster Coach Sales. The total cost of the unit was $56,840. The department is now awaiting the delivery of more equipment and then the ambulance should be in service.

Grothman Seeks 59th Assembly District Seat

Glenn Grothman

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Linda Cross, who ran for state superintendent of schools, made an appearance at Dick's Pizza in West Bend last Saturday, to endorse Glenn Grothman for the 59th Assembly District.

Cross stressed the importance of local control and back-to-basics in education. Linda came to West Bend to help Glenn fight the Madison bureaucracy and backs his commitment to educational reform and conservative values.

Grothman grew up in Thiensville and earned a law degree from the University of Wisconsin. For the past nine years, he's practiced law in West Bend, working for both the Schloemer and Shanebrook Law offices. His specialties include estate planning, taxation and real estate.

His Republican ticket carries with it some urgent issues, including families and welfare, taxes, crime, schools and pro-life. "Wisconsin currently has the sixth highest tax burden in the country," Glenn explains. "This is ridiculous. We must cut spending and remove mandatory arbitration for school districts. Cut the Madison bureaucracy and save 70 million dollars a year by ending the state subsidy to the Milwaukee busing program."

As a conservative Glenn leans toward less government regulations. "I've watched the legislature pass laws and regulations apparently unaware of the huge cost to our businesses and homeowners. This decline is largely the governments' fault."

Grothman also indicted the need to cut welfare for irresponsible families and provide taxpayers with more tax credits for dependent children.

Elections will take place Tuesday, November 9, throughout the 59th Assembly District.

Seven Vie for Assembly Seat In Tuesday's Special Election

Gov. Tommy Thompson has called a Dec. 7 special election to fill the 59th Assembly seat left vacant by Mary Panzer's election to the state senate, but a Nov. 9 primary election will be needed to narrow the field of candidates.

People who filed papers for campaigns in the 59th Assembly District include:

Glenn Grothman, 38, of West Bend, who is running as a Republican. A member of the Executive Committee of the Republican Party of Washington County, Grothman is making his first bid for elected office.

An attorney with Shanebrook Law Office, Grothman earned a bachelor of business administration degree in accounting and a law degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Betty Pearson, 49, of West Bend, is the executive vice president of the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce. Running as a Republican, Pearson is making her first run for public office.

She earned a bachelor's degree in communications and a master's degree in urban education from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

William Reid, 24, of West Bend, is another Republican making his first bid for elected office. Reid worked two years as an aide in Gov. Tommy Thompson's office.

He earned a bachelor of arts degree in government from Lawrence University.

Kevin Scheunemann, a 21-year-old West Bend resident majoring in finance at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, is running as a Libertarian. The Assembly race will be his fifth bid for public office in the last two years. His four previous campaigns all ended in defeat.

Ruth Schmitt, 53, of the town of Barton, is running as a Republican. A member of the Kewaskum School Board since 1987, Schmitt is the only candidate in the field who has served in an elected office.

A substitute teacher in the West Bend School District, Schmitt earned a bachelor of

Not all spiders make webs. The bolas spider spins a single line of silk with a drop of sticky silk at the end. When an insect flies near, this spider swings the line at it and traps the insect in the sticky ball.

The tarantella, a popular Italian folk dance, gets its name from the city of Taranto. According to folklore, the people there danced the tarantella as a cure for the bite of the tarantula spider.

Annual Christmas Parade to Feature the 'Spirit of Giving'

By Joan Herriges

It's time again for the annual Christmas parade. I know right now we are thinking more about Thanksgiving dinner and deer hunting, but it's coming up fast and folks, let's make this a "Christmas to Remember." Why don't we all get involved and make Christmas '93 the best Kewaskum has ever had?

First of all, let's all participate! Kewaskum has loads of talent, so let's see it all at the Christmas parade... church choirs, school choirs, school bands, bands of any kind and people of any age.

If you know anyone who has something to offer, talk them into joining in the holiday spirit on Sunday, December 5, at 5 p.m. in Kewaskum. Get your group or organization together and have some fun.

If your organization is interested, please call Joan Herriges at Video Post (626-8131) or Shawn Roberts at My Little Friends Day Care (626-4155). We are strongly urging all businesses to get in the Christmas Spirit this year and enter a float in the parade or if that's not possible, perhaps you would be interested in sponsoring a band or new elf costumes for our elves that hand out the treat bags, or even purchasing treats or donating money towards the cost of the treat bags. Please call Joan or Shawn at the above numbers if you can help in any way.

Second, most of us will be enjoying a very festive holiday season. Most of us are pretty fortunate and Christmas is a special time we sometimes take for granted. I say most of us, because there are some less fortunate, some whose holiday is not so festive.

I thought perhaps, we could all get together and make sure that everyone in the Kewaskum area has a warm and wonderful Christmas this year.

We could truly make Christmas '93, "A Christmas to Remember" in Kewaskum. The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce float this year will consist very simply of a Christmas tree. But we don't think of it as "just" a Christmas tree... we are calling it our "Mitten Tree."

We would like to decorate the entire tree with mittens and hats to donate to the people who are in need of them. Under our special tree, we will have large, gaily wrapped packages. However, there is a catch... most of the large, wrapped packages will be open and empty.

This is where you, the parade watcher comes in. You can help us make Christmas a little better for everyone by bringing something along to the parade to give back to the community. Non-perishable food items... gifts... whatever you care to give to make sure someone in need in this community has a little better Christmas, due in part to our efforts.

We, as a community organization, will make sure all donated items stay in the village and immediate surrounding area and go where it is most needed.

There will be special elves

Hazlewood to Appear In College Production

MINNEAPOLIS - John Hazlewood of Kewaskum will play Malvolio in Augsburg College's production of William Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," opening November 12. John is the son of John and Carol Hazlewood, Kewaskum, and is a senior majoring in theatre.

"Twelfth Night," is a romantic comedy that explores the mystery of love in its various disguises and guises. The favorite comic characters Tony Belch, Andrew Aguchek and Malvolio are introduced in the play. Romping from episode to episode, they come face to face with truth.

Performance dates are November 12-14 and 18-20 at 7 p.m. and November 21, at 2 p.m. Performances are at the Tjornhom-Nelson Theatre, Foss Center, at the corner of Riverside Avenue and 22nd Avenue in Minneapolis. Tickets are $5 and may be ordered by calling (612) 330-1257.

The theatre arts major at Augsburg builds on the foundation of the liberal arts, integrating literature, music, art, dance, history, philosophy and religion. In addition to a fall and spring play, the department offers an experimental production during January.

95th Birthday

Theresa Volm celebrated her 95th birthday on October 27 at the Americana Healthcare Center, Fond du Lac. She received many good wishes. Congratulations Theresa!

The complete works of Johann Sebastian Bach fill about 60 volumes, but only nine or ten of his compositions were published during his life-time.

A Personal Note From Glenn

As those of you who are acquainted with me know, I have for a long time had an interest in conservative politics. As a lawyer, I've watched the legislature and bureaucracy pass laws and regulations apparently unaware of the huge cost to our businesses and homeowners.

Our country was much better off 20 years ago. Families were stronger. There was less crime. Taxes were much lower. More men could support their families. This decline is largely the government's fault.

As I have met with you door-to-door, it has not surprised me to find out that almost all of you agree with me on these issues.

Like me, you've worked or voted for other candidates in the past, only to see them change once elected. I will not change in Madison - Madison must change for us!

ISSUES

FAMILIES/WELFARE:

Most of society's problems are family problems. Help traditional families by increasing the Wisconsin Dependent Tax Credit. Stop encouraging irresponsible families by immediately reducing AFDC payments to Illinois levels.

TAXES:

Wisconsin currently has the sixth highest tax burden in the country* This is ridiculous. We must cut spending and remove mandatory arbitration for school districts. Cut the Madison bureaucracy! Save 70 million dollars a year by ending the state subsidy to Milwaukee busing program.

CRIME:

Crime is really a family problem. Enact tougher penalties on juvenile crime. Support Gov. Thompson's Boot Camp initiative and anti-gang legislation.

SCHOOLS:

Madison must stop mandating expenditures, curriculum and staff requirements. This will allow local districts to lessen administrative expenses and have more back-to-basics education. Tax credits for private schools will force improvement in public schools and help parents who want their children to have a more traditional education.

ABORTION: PRO-LIFE.

Stop the abortions!
LIFE IS A BEAUTIFUL CHOICE.

TERM LIMITS:

Politicians who have been in Madison too long find it easy to believe that government is the answer. A 12 year term limitation will help solve this problem

Letters to The Editor

November 1, 1993
TO THE EDITOR,

We have some comments to make about the picture of a dummy hanging from a tree that was in last week's paper. We hung the body as part of our Halloween decorations. We're sorry if it hit "too close to home" for anyone, although it will continue to be a part of our decorations as it was last year, also.

We feel that what we had for decorations was no worse than the "body hanging out of a toilet with fake blood running down the side of it," or "the man severed in half with a chainsaw" that we saw trick-or-treating in Kewaskum. We think it was "great" how some people still get into the Halloween spirit! Some people just want to take the fun out of it! What holiday will be next? Maybe Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day or how about Mother's Day and Father's Day, or even Christmas?

We had our property vandalized for the way we decorated our yard! What is THIS teaching our children? That if we don't like something in someone's yard, that it's OK to damage their property? It's kind of like TV... if you don't like what's on, then you change the channel, not damage the TV.

We weren't breaking any laws when we hung the dummy from the tree, but vandalism IS against the law! We will have a reward for any positive information leading to the conviction of this vandalism. If the guilty person(s) comes forward and pays for the damages done, all pending charges will be dropped!

Please call the Sheriff's Dept. at 335-4411 with any information! In closing, we would like to thank you for being caring citizens that want to put an end to the crime problem so that we can be safe in our own homes once again!

working double-overtime cooking and baking to tempt you while you still have time to lose the weight you might put on sampling our treats.

The Holy Trinity Alumni Association will be sponsoring a Bake Sale in conjunction with the Craft Fair. You may purchase homemade delights by the piece or by the plate. (Before you leave the house, make room in the freezer... it's only seven weeks until Christmas!)

Have lunch with us! Try one of our handfull sandwiches... (pick one up... you've got a handfull!). There will also be snacks, coffee, soda, hot cider and much more! And don't forget to stop off at the Alumni Sweet Shoppe for a sugar rush. You'll need that so you have the energy to continue shopping.

Any woman alive will tell you shopping is not an easy chore. It's very tiring, so hopefully, we have made it easier for you by having all your gift items and holiday decorations in one small area. That's what I like... One-Stop Shopping! Not to mention the sustenance taken internally to get you through the decision on what to get Aunt Mary for Christmas. We've made it easy for you, so join us... you'll get the bulk of your shopping done early, meet some real friendly people, satisfy your

"chocoholism," get some holiday baking done early, and still burn off some of those extra calories consumed "test driving" the holiday treats.

Besides all proceeds will benefit the school's scholarship fund and the bake sale will benefit the Holy Trinity Alumni Building Fund.

There is also limited booth space still available. If you would care to join us, or need more information, please phone 626-2626 or 626-2907.

Get a jump start on your holiday shopping and baking... See you Saturday at Holy Trinity!

PROPERTY TAXES. . . Betty Pearson led successful local "Vote No" campaign for changes in State Tax Uniformity Clause. FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE OF
SPECIAL PRIMARY ELECTION
59TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT
NOVEMBER 9, 1993

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK
TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a special partisan election to be held in the several towns, villages, cities, and wards of the 59th Assembly District, in the County of Washington, on the Ninth day of November 1993, at which the officer named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, each in its proper column, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. The initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot card. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth and cast his or her ballot except that an elector who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the elector's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

At the special partisan primary election, the elector shall make a punch or a hole in the space designated for the candidate's name for whom he or she intends to vote.

To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the elector shall write in the name and office of the candidate of his or her choice on the ballot envelope provided.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the elector spoils a ballot card, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot card in its place, but not more than three ballot cards shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initialed by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in marking his or her ballot card may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official ballot card is punched, it shall be inserted in the envelope provided so the punches do not show. After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the booth and deposit the envelope containing his or her ballot, in the ballot box or deliver the envelope to an inspector for deposit and shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing, or understanding English, or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the elector's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the elector.

Let It Snow

by A.Mi

This is the glorious time of year when precious holidays attuned many folk to kindly thoughts and thankful gestures. Unfortunately, the exact reverse also occurs for those who cannot or do not have their hearts attended to that which can be precious and glorious. The thrust of winter usually just begins in the month of November. And yet, while walking through forest glades this past week I stumbled upon a number of animal corpse. Some caused by the hand of the human, and some, the result of disease or just "not up to being a part of the survival of the fittest."

While walking, I spied a bird or two which still had not left for its wintry stay in a warmer climate. However, I couldn't help but be grateful as I happened upon a host of those brave and colorful winged creatures which decorate our yard bird-feeders and joyfully bring a sense of home to our Moraine woods. Once again I was reminded of a well-known Wisconsin artist who had called my attention to the beauty of the low-key colors nature displays this time of year. My eyes noting the delightful contrasts of the many shades of brown, tan, yellow, grey, black and white. Then to catch the lovely tree silhouettes against a blue-grey sky; leaf-bare arms reaching outward and upward. To picture the glisten of pure white sun-rise frosts topping crisp-green meadows... and best of all, that first, fresh snowfall coating every tree and shrub branch and twig like mother's powder-sugar frosting atop one's favorite cake or butterhorn. A truly delicious treat even for the wariest "winter haters."

This is the time of year not only to know the depths of thankfulness, but also to find the warmth of human compassion, caring, yes, even for "the least of them." Be they human, animal, plant, mineral, or the like. The forests have many tales to tell regarding the love creatures have for one another. True, there is competition betwix and between. However, there is also a grand balance of nature which when allowed, produces a harmony beyond comprehension. Our American Indian forebears knew this fact and respected it. Unfortunately, too many of us are just beginning to be cognizant of its worth. Like the fallen leaves and dead trees which produce the leaf mold, the fertilizer for the forest family. How frequently one can see wildflowers growing mid stumps or decaying branches. Hollow trees and posts provide home to a host of birds and animals alike. And the white egrets and blue herons refuse to nest unless they can provide a safe home some eighty-five feet above ground level in the tops of majestic trees.

Even as we gather together the harvest in preparation for the cold and dormancy to come, our wildlife friends make their due

NOW, THEREFORE, the Town Board for the Town of Wayne do ordain as follows:

SECTION I: An ordinance entitled "Licensing and Regulations of Adult-Oriented Establishments in the Town of Wayne" is created to read as follows:

(1) DEFINITIONS. For the purpose of this ordinance, the following words and phrases shall mean:

(b) "Adult bookstore" means an establishment having as its stock in trade, for sale, rent, lease, inspection or viewing books, films, video cassettes, magazines or other periodicals which are distinguished or characterized by their emphasis on matters depicting, describing or relating to "specific sexual activities" or "specified anatomical areas" as defined below, and in conjunction therewith have facilities for the presentation of adult entertainment, as defined below, including adult oriented films, movies or live performances, for observation by patrons therein.

(c) "Adult motion picture theater" means an enclosed building with a capacity of fifty (50) or more persons used for presenting material having as its dominant theme, or distinguished or characterized by an emphasis on, matters depicting, describing or relating to "specified sexual activities," or "specified anatomical areas," as defined below, for observation by patrons therein.

(d) "Adult mini-motion picture theater" means an enclosed building with a capacity of less than fifty (50) persons used for presenting material having as its dominant theme, or distinguished or characterized by an emphasis on, matters depicting, describing or relating to "specified sexual activities," or "specified anatomical areas," as defined below, for observation by patrons therein.

(e) "Adult cabaret" means a cabaret which features topless dancers, strippers, male or female impersonators, or similar entertainers.

(f) "Town Board" means the Town Board of the Town of Wayne, Wisconsin.

(g) "Adult entertainment" means any exhibition of any motion pictures, live performance, display or dance of any type, which has as its dominant theme, or is distinguished or characterized by an emphasis on, any actual or simulated "specified sexual activities," or "specified anatomical areas," as defined below, or the removal of articles of clothing or appearing partially or totally nude.

(e) Failure or refusal of the applicant to give any information relevant to the application or his or her refusal or failure to appear at any reasonable time and place for examination under oath regarding said application or his or her refusal to submit to or cooperate with regard to any information required by this ordinance shall constitute an admission by the applicant that he or she is ineligible for such license and shall be grounds for denial thereof by the Town Clerk.

- (3) The operator becomes ineligible to obtain a license or permit.
- (4) Any cost or fee required to be paid by this Ordinance is not paid.

(f) The operator shall insure compliance of the establishment and its patrons with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(b) Second Offense. Any person found guilty of violating this ordinance who has previously been convicted of a violation of this ordinance within one year shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00 for each such offense, together with the costs of prosecution, and in default of payment of such forfeiture and costs shall be imprisoned in the County Jail until such forfeiture and costs are paid, but not exceeding 6 months.

(d) EXECUTION AGAINST DEFENDANT'S PROPERTY. Whenever any person fails to pay any forfeiture and costs of prosecution upon the order of any court for violation of this ordinance, the court may, in lieu of ordering imprisonment of the defendant, or after the defendant has been released from custody, issue an execution against the property of the defendant for such forfeiture and costs.

SECTION II: The several sections of this Ordinance are declared to be severable. If any section or portion thereof shall be declared by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unlawful, or unenforceable, such decision shall apply only to the specific section or portion thereof directly specified in the decision, and not affect the validity of all other provisions, sections or portions thereof of the Ordinance which shall remain in full force and effect. Any other Ordinances whose terms are in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance are hereby repealed as to those terms that conflict.

SECTION III: This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon passage and posting or publication as provided by law.

Time to Clean, Fill Bird Feeders

MADISON-- With the onset of colder days and nights, many bird lovers are preparing their feeders for winter bird feeding.

Providing the right mix of food is the key to attracting birds, but it is equally important for people to make sure they keep feeding stations clean and disease-free so they do not promote the spread of disease, according to wildlife specialists with the Department of Natural Resources.

"Winter bird feeding can help songbirds survive Wisconsin's harsh winters, but it can also be fatal to many bird species if feeders aren't properly cleaned," cautions Sarah Hurley, DNR wildlife health specialist.

"When you have birds feeding and defecating in the same area, there's the potential for disease to be spread and any species may be susceptible," Hurley says.

Feeding stations can be sites for birds to transmit parasites and other diseases, including Salmonellosis, a disease caused by Salmonella bacteria, to other birds using the same feeder, she says. Sometimes called "songbird fever," Salmonellosis can lead to an acute intestinal infection that weakens birds and often proves fatal. Parasites can lead to chronic, low-grade infections.

"You'll find dead birds if there's a disease problem at your feeder," adds Hurley. "These problems occur at different locations from year to year. Usually there are pocket outbreaks in certain neighborhoods, not devastating nationwide epidemics."

Keeping your feeding station clean is the best way to prevent the spread of avian diseases. Hurley suggests disinfecting your feeders each time they are refilled.

Using a 10 percent bleach solution, scrub feeders with a stiff brush, making sure to get the bleach solution into the cracks of wooden feeders. After scrubbing, let the feeder air dry. Bird baths can be cleaned this same way.

Remove seed on the ground by shoveling it into a garbage bag and disposing of it with the regular trash.

Hurley advises that you also remember to wash your hands after cleaning feeders...pets and people are also susceptible to Salmonellosis.

USE A VARIETY OF SEEDS TO ATTRACT NEW BIRDS

The best way to attract birds to your feeding stations is to provide a variety of seeds in different types of feeders, and to place them near some type of cover, according to Mark Martin, a DNR natural areas management specialist.

"Most birds prefer seeds that are similar to the type they are naturally adapted to eat," says Martin. "You'll attract more kinds of birds if you put out different kinds of seeds in several feeders."

Seed-eating species such as finches, cardinals and nuthatches are commonly attracted to winter feeders, Martin says. "Cardinals previously weren't found in Wisconsin, but they've moved north as more people have taken up bird feeding," Martin notes. "Finches such as pine siskins and redpolls move with their food source too, they'll stay in an area if seeds are available."

Goldfinches, Martin says, flock to niger seed, a black, oily seed imported from India, which also attracts siskins and redpolls. Special feeders, called niger or finch feeders, he adds allow only smaller birds such as finches access to this comparatively-costly seed.

Ground-feeding birds such as juncos, white-throated sparrows, doves and finches like red and white proso millet and cracked corn. Cracked corn is an inexpensive food high in calories, carbohydrates and vitamin A. Martin recommends putting the ground feed in a different area each week to create a more diverse feeding area.

Sunflower hearts (also called fines) provide energy that birds convert to body heat. Because the hulls are removed, sunflower hearts attract a wide variety of birds, including grosbeaks, chickadees and crossbills.

Small, black sunflower seeds, with the hulls still intact, are higher in oil than striped sunflower seeds and attract many species.

Suet, hung from a tree in a suet feeder or old potato sack, attracts woodpeckers.

Fillers such as wheat, hulled oats and milo don't attract birds but are often added to inexpensive bird seed mixes.

Martin offers several other tips to help attract more birds into your feeder this winter:

*Start feeding in late October and continue through the following April.

*Make sure to clean all the feeders and remove seed left on the ground at least weekly.

*Birds need water and grit too. Grit is available at most farm stores... it helps birds digest and extract necessary nutrients from their food. Water heating devices can be purchased at most garden and hardware stores.

*Provide some low feeders and hanging feeders with perches to attract birds that don't like the conventional feeders.

*Birds prefer feeding stations that offer them some protection from predators. A yard with trees, shrubs, vines and wildflowers all attract many species.

*Squirrels are inevitable. Try diverting them from bird feeders by scattering ear corn on the ground.

A Message from the Postmaster

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers! First of all, I would like to announce a completely new line of mailing supplies. I'm hoping to have them on display shortly, but to give you a "sneak" preview, these are the items currently in stock and ready for sale: padded bags (three sizes), mailing envelopes (two sizes), one-piece designer gift boxes, mailing cartons (three sizes), audio cassette mailers, video cassette mailers, floppy diskette mailers, photo mailers (two sizes), bubble cushioning material, mailing tubes (four sizes), reinforced tape with cutter, heavy duty paper tape (self adhesive), tape strips, plastic tape (no cutter), and address labels. Got something to mail but need the "packaging"? Stop in and see what we have to offer. I am sure you will be happy and satisfied with our selection.

This week, I will talk to you about Mail Fraud. Mail Fraud is a scheme to get money or anything of value from you by offering a product, service or investment opportunity that does not live up to some of its claims.

Prosecutors must prove the claims were intentionally misrepresented and that the mails were used to carry out the scheme. Consumer complaints are the primary basis for investigation by Postal Inspectors.

I, like many of you save time and money by shopping by mail. Most mail-order companies are honest and stand behind their products and services. Unfortunately, there are a few rotten apples who give direct mail advertisers a bad name.

They cheat people by peddling worthless products, medical quackery, and get-rich-quick schemes. Some fly-by-nights take your money and send you nothing.

Unscrupulous businesses don't mind taking advantage of an unwary customer. Their motto is: "Let the buyer beware"... and YOU might by the buyer. Mail fraud is out there and it does work because people do not recognize it until it's too late. To stop mail fraud, you have to know it when you see it. Let me give you examples:

MEDICAL FRAUD -- Have you seen ads like this? Instant cure for arthritis! Lose weight overnight! Grow more hair! Look years younger! Increase your sexual powers! Most of the gadgets and gimmicks advertised are not tested by competent medical authorities and some are downright dangerous, so PLEASE... DON'T trust your health to a salesman. DON'T believe claims of a sure cure or a miracle drug. DON'T believe claims of excessive weight loss. Don't believe exaggerated claims of regained youth or the perfect figure. Protect your health and your pocketbook. Before purchasing any "cure-alls" check with your family doctor.

WORK - AT - HOME SCHEMES - Have you ever seen an ad like this: "Earn $400-$600 per month in your own home... no investment necessary... choose your own hours"? Thousands of people have responded and helped unscrupulous promoters pocket millions of their hard-earned dollars.

The most common fraud in this category is "envelope stuffing." Typically, there is absolutely NOTHING to stuff... instead, you receive instructions to place ads like the one that you responded to.

Other "like" schemes require you to make baby booties, Christmas wreaths, or other specialty products for which there is little or no market.

BEWARE: Work-at-home schemes will NOT guarantee regular salaried employment. They WILL require you to invest your money before explaining how a plan works or before you are sent instructions. The work you are asked to do often continues the fraud by getting other victims involved. ALWAYS suspect ANY ad claiming you can earn unusual high incomes with little or no effort on your part!

MAIL FRAUD - This is a very serious problem and something that each and every one of you could encounter! In next week's column, I will carry this one step further, to talk about CHAIN LETTERS. I will also be sharing information you can take if you fall victim to being "conned."

Furthermore, I will tell you how YOU can not only help yourself, your friends and neighbors, AND the Postal Service to totally eliminate "Mail Fraud". WATCH FOR IT!

On a personal note, I would like to thank each and every one of you for your encouragement and support with my mom being hospitalized in Florida.

Your care and concern just "emits" the TOTAL FAMILY atmosphere that I have learned to almost expect from the warm community of Kewaskum. Thank you from the bottom of my heart!

Until next week, try to have a good day... a HAPPY every day!

Your Postmaster, Bonnie

A yawn is at least an honest opinion.

Dear Dr. Sylvia,

I want my daughter to know that I work a lot of hours so that she can have the things she needs; but I don't want her to feel guilty about it and I don't want her to think I'm away because I want to be. How can I be a good role model for her?

Industrious Mom

Dear Supermom,

You can be a wonderful role model for your daughter if she understands the real value of your work. Women didn't choose to join the work force only because they wanted to earn a salary. A salary is important, of course, to provide more for your whole family. However, even more important, let your daughter know that your work helps you to feel good about yourself and permits you to make a contribution to our society. Let her know that you take pride in doing quality work and in fully earning your salary. Explain that although you are tired, your weariness comes with the satisfaction of accomplishment.

Of course you miss her when you're working. All mothers feel some guilt at not being with their children. However, in your independence and responsibility, you are fostering her independence and responsibility. She will respect you more because you value yourself. She will also gain confidence by taking responsibility for doing more for herself rather than depending on you to do for her.

Be sure she does her share of home chores so that she knows she is helping to make the extra material goods possible. Work as partners in some of these daily chores so that she doesn't feel punished because you work so much. Also, working together permits you to spend some valued one-on-one time as cheerful working partners. It will even provide some nice times for personal conversation.

Don't apologize to your daughter. Instead, tell her what a good role model you are and what important work you do. She'll take a new pride in your accomplishments and hers. However, Supermom, you must also put aside your work and find time for fun and laughter. Material possessions will never be a replacement for the fun you and your daughter should find time to share.

Most women, and some men too, struggle with the guilt of playing so many roles. Your guilt may not go away, but you will get better at managing it if you stop apologizing for it and pat yourself on the back instead. Incidentally, when your children have their own children and you become a grandmother, you'll relive the stress of find time for grand parenting and career again.

Women wanted the opportunity to work outside the home. Combining work outside the home with family responsibilities is not easy, but we walk with our heads taller, and so will our daughters. Value what you accomplish and your daughter will too.

As to your daughter's feelings of guilt, don't worry about those. She should appreciate the efforts and sacrifices you make to give her extras, and she shouldn't take your contributions for granted. On the other hand, if you don't exhibit guilt, she'll be unlikely to feel too much guilt and will value you as an ideal role model.

Health Experts Say Fall is Whooping Cough Season

By Carrie Hansen
UW Center for Health Sciences

MADISON - Parents know autumn traditionally means back to school, but they may not realize it's the peak season for a disease once thought to be eradicated in Wisconsin.

Public health experts from the Wisconsin State Laboratory Hygiene (WSLH) and Division of Health (DOH) say whooping cough is back and that parents of junior high and high school students should be especially aware of signs of this disease.

Whooping cough testing at the WSLH has increased significantly in the last decade as physician and public awareness of this contagious disease increases. Last year alone, the WSLH received nearly 4,000 specimens for pertussis testing, according to Janet Schrader, WSLH general bacteriology supervisor. In 1992, 536 confirmed cases were reported in Wisconsin, compared to 113 the previous year.

Whooping cough, also called pertussis, is caused by a bacterial infection and is characterized by cold-like symptoms and a severe, prolonged cough that may leave victims gasping for air with a loud "whoop," according to Schrader. Coughing may become so severe that it causes vomiting or inhibits breathing. In young people, complications of the disease may include pneumonia, convulsions or inflammation of the brain.

The DPT vaccine, given in several doses starting at age two months, protects children from diphtheria, pertussis and tetanus. However, by the time a youngster reaches junior high or high school, the vaccine may lose effectiveness. Additional doses of the vaccine, or "booster shots," are not given to teens or adults, according to DOH immunization advisor Jeff Berg.

Fortunately, treatment with antibiotics in the early stage of illness, may reduce symptoms and the contagiousness of the disease. But early diagnosis by a laboratory is important. Berg says parents are urged to seek medical attention if their child has a persistent cough lasting more than two weeks, or a week-long cough that is very explosive or causes vomiting or a disturbance in breathing or sleep.

"When we find a specimen is positive for pertussis, we telephone the patient's doctor and notify the Division of Health right away," says Schrader. "The Division of Health then works with local public health officials to prevent further spread of the disease by locating family members and close contacts of the patient, as well as recommending treatment."

"Some diseases are pretty much gone, like smallpox and polio, but pertussis is still a problem," says Berg. "Parents should make sure their preschool are properly vaccinated and watch for signs in older children that may signal their illness is more than just a cold."

Construction Begun on US 41, Washington County K Interchange

Wisconsin Transportation Secretary Charles H. Thompson, joined by area civic leaders and public officials, broke ground recently for another step to link Milwaukee and Green Bay by freeway.

Thompson's ceremonial shovel of dirt signaled the start of a $6.2 million project, approved by Governor Tommy G. Thompson, to construct a diamond interchange at the intersection of US 41 and Washington County K.

The project, between Allenton and Slinger, is expected to take about two and one-half years to complete. The contractor is Mann Brothers, Inc. of Elkhorn.

The interchange will be another link in Gov. Thompson's Corridors 2020 plan, which calls for multi-phase conversion of US 41 into a limited access freeway from Milwaukee to Green Bay.

"This is a long needed project, both to enhance the economic benefits of linking Green Bay and the Fox Cities to Milwaukee, Chicago and beyond, and to improve the safety of motorists," Secretary Thompson said.

Conversion involves eliminating driveway access, median crossovers and low traffic volume intersections, and transforming other intersections into grade separations.

Robert R. Packee, WisDOT District 2 Director who served as master of ceremonies, noted that US 41 in the area currently accommodates 24,800 vehicles daily, with cross traffic on County K averaging 2,210 vehicles daily. By the year 2014, the numbers are expected to increase to respective daily averages of 33,100 and 3,290 vehicles.

The diamond interchange will be built east of the existing at-grade intersection of US 41 and County K. The existing southbound US 41 will become the west frontage road. The existing northbound US 41 will be removed.

The Arthur Road at-grade intersection with US 41, south of County K, is to be removed. Arthur Road will end in cul de sacs on each side of US 41.

Indian Road will be moved east and the Aurora Road intersection with US 41 will be removed. Aurora Road on the west side of US 41 will turn to travel the west frontage road and Aurora Road on the east side of US 41 will turn to travel Deer Road.

Under supervision and aid of the Wisconsin Dept. of Natural Resources, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and the WisDOT District 2 Office of Environmental Analysis, about 1,100 feet of a trout stream has been rerouted away from the construction area.

Secretary Thompson praised the "spirit of cooperation that has existed between the state agencies, the University and Washington County in preserving and enhancing the area."

"I am also proud of our environmental ethic toward preservation of wetlands across the state," he said, adding that the state whenever possible tries to exceed minimum federal requirements to mitigate loss of wetlands to highways and other public works projects.

US 41 is to be kept open to at least one lane of traffic in each direction at all times during construction. Two lanes will be open in each direction between 8 p.m. and 6 a.m. weekdays. Two lanes also will be open northbound from noon Fridays until 6 a.m. Mondays and southbound from 8 p.m. Fridays until 6 a.m. Mondays.

Much of UW 41 in Winnebago and Outagamie Counties already has been converted to freeway. The southeastern portion of US 41 that still requires upgrading is from Pioneer Road in Washington County, where US 41 and US 45 diverge, through Dodge and Fond du Lac Counties to the Winnebago County line.

Campbellsport, Sheboygan Falls Ousted Mayville Still Alive in WIAA Football Playoffs

By Noel Stollenwerk

MAYVILLE - After coming up short in WIAA championship games the past couple of years, Mayville's football team is still trying to win a Division 4 title.

The Cardinals moved with two wins of that championship, as they whipped Reedsville 37-9 last Saturday, thus moving into the Division semifinals. Mayville had beaten Valders 44-14 in their first playoff contest.

The Cardinals, now 11-0 on the season, will take on Lancaster (9-2) for the right to advance to the title game next weekend. Maple Northwestern (10-1) will face Marathon (8-3) the other Division 4 semifinal.

Two other teams with area ties were eliminated in the playoffs last week. Campbellsport, which finished second to Mayville in the Flyway conference, was beaten by Sturgeon Bay 44-12 in their first game. The Cougars finished the season 6-4, with one of those losses coming to Kewaskum, 6-0.

Meanwhile, the Eastern Wisconsin Conference champ, Sheboygan Falls won their first game, 18-7, over New Berlin West. Jer Dentz, who edged Kewaskum's Beau Coulter for the EW rushing title, had 145 yards on 19 carries, including touchdown runs of 14 and 91 yards.

But Dentz couldn't help the Falcons against Evansville-Albany, who eliminated Falls 14-6 in the quarterfinals. Evansville-Albany (10-1) will face Sturgeon Bay (11-0), while the other Division 3 semifinal will pit Ashland (10-1) against Black River Falls (11-0).

There are several unbeaten teams still alive in the hunt for WIAA titles. In Division 1, Appleton West (11-0) looks cap off their perfect season with a win over Green Bay Preble (9-2). The other Division 1 semifinal has Hartland Arrowhead (10-1) against Kenosha Tremper (10-2).

In Division 2, Monroe struggled to beat Kettle Moraine 21-20, for their 43rd consecutive victory. The Cheesemakers (11-0) will go for their fourth straight Division 2 title, and face Menomonie (10-2) in one semifinal, while Ashwaubenon (10-1) takes on Sussex Hamilton (10-1) in the other.

In Division 5, Fall Creek (11-0) will face Stratford (9-2), while Elkhart Lake (9-2) takes on Darlington (8-3). And in Division 6, it will be Hustisford (11-0) against Cassville (11-0), and Lake Holcomb (10-1) facing Thorp (10-1).

Waupun Earns WIAA State Trip Pius XI Wins WISAA VB Title

By Noel Stollenwerk

MILWAUKEE - While winning a state title isn't anything new for the Pius XI volleyball squad, the way it won the WISAA State Division I championship this past weekend was noteworthy.

The Lady Pops fell behind 7-0 in the third and deciding game of the championship match against Waukesha Catholic Memorial, and trailed 15-14 late in the match. But Pius rallied to take the next three points, and beat the Crusaders, 7-15, 15-6, 17-15 to win the WISAA Division I state title.

Milwaukee Heritage Christian beat Eau Claire Regis 15-6, 15-5 to win the Division II crown.

In WIAA action last weekend, Waupun kept its Division II title hopes alive, as they swept through the Slinger Sectional to earn a spot at the WIAA State Tournament in Oshkosh this weekend. Waupun, which beat Kewaskum en route to their Regional win the previous weekend, bested Westosha Central, Whitefish Bay and New Berlin Eisenhower to win Slinger's Sectional.

No Eastern Wisconsin Conference team survived the Sectional competition, although Two Rivers nearly earned a trip to state. The Raiders tied Clintonville for the top spot in the Kimberly Sectional, but Clintonville got the state nod, due to tiebreakers. Joining Waupun and Clintonville for the top spot in Division II will be Lakeland (Black River Falls Sectional winner) and Waunakee (Portage Sectional champ).

In Division I, West Bend East won its Sectional to earn a trip to state. Joining the Suns in Oshkosh this weekend will be Kenosha Tremper, Madison LaFollette, Oak Creek, Green Bay Preble, Waukesha North, Wauwatosa East and Wausau West.

In Division III, it will be Sommerset, Crivitz, Cambridge and Cuba City, all vying for the title, while Turtle Lake, Niagra, Belmont and Whitehall will compete for the Division IV championship.

WAUPUN VOLLEYBALL SECTIONAL

FIRST MATCH - KEWASKUM loses to Campbellsport - 4-15, 13-15.

SECOND MATCH - KEWASKUM loses to Sheboygan Falls - 15-17, 6-15.

THIRD MATCH - KEWASKUM loses to Waupun - 3-15, 5-15.

FINAL RESULTS - 1. Waupun 3-0; 2. Sheboygan Falls 2-1; 3. Campbellsport 1-2; 4. KEWASKUM 0-3.

Schmidt Helping Carthage Quest

By Noel Stollenwerk

KENOSHA - Former Kewaskum High School volleyball standout Christa Schmidt is helping Carthage College's volleyball squad in its quest for a conference title.

In 20 matches through October 27th, Schmidt had recorded 41 kills and 62 digs for the Lady Reds, who have won their last three matches to go over the .500 mark (16-15) for the year. Carthage has a 4-2 record in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin.

The Lady Reds will host this weekend's CCIW Conference Tournament, after having closed out the season this past Saturday against Augustana (Illinois).

Schmidt, a freshman at Carthage, is a hitter/back row specialist for the Lady Reds. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Schmidt of Kewaskum.

The special program will feature all-new segments focusing on deer management, new DNR and private programs to involve the public in deer management, hunting safety and regulations, and more. The program will be broadcast on all public TV stations in Wisconsin, including Channel 10 - Milwaukee, Channel 38 - Green Bay, Channel 31 - LaCrosse, Channel 36 - Menomonie, Channel 36 - Park Falls, Channel 20 - Wausau, and Channel 21 - Madison.

"Outdoor Wisconsin" personality Dan Small will host the special, which will be produced live in the Milwaukee studios of WMVS, Channel 10 in Milwaukee. LIGHTHOUSE HOSTING 600 CLUB TOURNAMENT

Three Make First Team, Five on Second Unit Coulter Named EW Player of the Year

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Team success is usually the result of fine individual efforts. So it was little surprise that several Kewaskum football players were cited last Monday night for being among the best in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, after KHS finished with a 4-2 record, tied for second place.

The Indians had three players named to the EW's first team, including senior running back Beau Coulter, who was tabbed the league's Offensive Player of the Year.

"He is an excellent running back, and really deserved that," KHS coach Clark Pearson said of the honor. "He was able to make some great cuts... had instinctive moves. Plus he's very strong. He was very valuable to us."

Coulter finished second in

Yahr Named to Second Team

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - After finishing third in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference volleyball race, Kewaskum (7-5) was blanked in the All-Conference first team balloting last week.

But junior Mary Yahr did get named to the EW's all-second team. Teammate Ginger Wiesner also received honorable mention in the voting of EW coaches.

Yahr was the Indians' best spiker, accounting for 56 total offensive points. Of that total, Yahr had 30 spike kills and 11 block kills. The junior standout also added 16 saves to her credit.

Wiesner, a senior, was the Indians' best all-around player and top server. Wiesner connected on an impressive 96 percent of her serves for the season, providing stability in an otherwise weak area for KHS.

Kiel and Sheboygan Falls, the top two teams during the EW regular season, each placed two players on the first unit. Kiel's Karla Niemuth and Lori Steffan joined Falls' Lori Schueffner and Lindsey Specht on the first team. Two Rivers' Jessica Kobes and Plymouth's Sara Scheible rounded out the first team.

the conference in rushing, gaining 718 yards in 88 carries (8.2 average). Coulter would have been a lock for the rushing champ, but played sparingly in a game against Two Rivers, having been injured in practice the week leading up to that game.

For the season, Coulter became the Indians' first 1000-yard rusher (1012 yards) since 1983, when Jim Braun ran for over 1300 yards. The 5-9, 190-pound speedster was also a force on defense, where he lined up at several positions, including defensive back, linebacker and end.

"He probably deserved to make the first team on defense too," Pearson said. "But he didn't play defense all the time, because of how much we used him offensively. I think that hurt his chances (for first team consideration)."

Joining Coulter on the conference's elite team was senior center Jay Enright, and junior defensive end Andy Mathias.

Enright, a 6-2, 210-pounder, was one of the anchors on the line that opened some huge holes for Coulter and the other KHS backs. In addition to his blocking skills, Enright was a consistent snapper, not having a bad exchange all season long.

"We never had any kind of bad exchange or poor snap all season," Pearson pointed out. "That's pretty rare, considering that we played on some crummy nights. He just did an excellent job for us."

Mathias, a 6-2, 304-pound force, was the key link in the KHS defensive front that was among the best in the EW. Quite agile for his size, Mathias even blocked a punt during the season.

"He's very quick for his size," the KHS coach said of the junior Mathias. "The other team usually had to double team him in order to stop him."

Pearson said he was disappointed that his defensive unit, the best in the EW as a whole, had just one player make the first team. He felt that senior linebacker Mark Strobel was particularly deserving of the honor.

"Yes, I was very disappointed (that Strobel was named only to the second team)," Pearson said. He was one of the mainstays on our defense. His main job was to stuff the run, and he did just that."

Pearson also felt that his defensive backs, Tim Strigenz and Mark Stephani warranted first team consideration, but had to settle for the second unit.

"They played well all season," Pearson said of the backfield mates. Strigenz led the Indians in defensive points, while Stephani had five interceptions, tops on the team.

Offensive tackle Steve May also garnered second team status as he teamed with Enright to manhandle defensive lines. "He's one of the big reasons that Beau got his yards."

Several Indians received honorable mention in the balloting, including Shawn Larson (defensive lineman), Paul Stoltzmann (defensive line and offensive line), Corey Rammer (defensive back), Brad Jackson (wing back), and Dan Survis (quarterback).

"You always want to have more players make the first team," Pearson replied when asked if he was satisfied with the voting. "But there were a lot of good football players in the conference this year."

Randy Thull Runs in State Cross Country Meet

KHS senior Randy Thull realized a season goal by running in the state cross country meet October 30. Randy placed 45 in a field of 103 Division II runners with a time of 17:38. The race was held at Ridges Golf Course in Wisconsin Rapids.

The weekend started on Friday with a team jog at a wildlife preserve in Stevens Point; KHS team members traveling with Randy included Rachael Chambers, Damien Doherty, Suzi Gauvin, Dave Gosa, and Jake Thull. They then attended a Spaghetti Feed sponsored by Lincoln High School in Wisconsin Rapids. The rest of the evening was spent relaxing and playing games at the hotel.

Saturday was the race. Randy said, "The race was fun and challenging." He felt like he couldn't run his normal style because there were a lot of people that distracted him, but the crowd was very supportive. He even enjoyed the cold, snowy weather. He also said he was pleased with how he ran by making goals of placing well ahead of area runners that would normally beat him.

KHS coach Dave Drexler said, "Randy did a fine job finishing up his high school cross country career." He also said that after being out for two years, "Randy has been great to work with," and he wishes he could spend another two years working with him.

At an awards ceremony held at Lincoln High School medals were given to the top five individuals and the top two teams in each division. The division II boys race was won by Brett Altergott from Little Chute with a time of 16:00. The first place team was Whitewater with 79 points and second place was

The division II girls race was won by Laura Verwiebe of Mayville with a time of 15:01. The top team was Mayville with 60 points followed by Mt. Horeb with 93 points.
