$5.3 Million Revamped School Referendum on April 5 Ballot

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - The Kewaskum Board of Education last Friday night voted to scale down the proposed building plan for the Middle and High Schools, and send the revised plan to the voters in a referendum for the April 5th Spring Election.

The original plan, which would have cost taxpayers $7.5 million, was voted down in a February 15th referendum election, 1,093 to 771. Many who voted against the original plan said they did so because they viewed the inclusion of an auditorium a "frill" for the district that was unneeded.

That obviously stuck in the minds of Board members, who voted to drop the $1.7 million addition from the plan. The new scaled-back version of the plan calls for bonds to be issued in an amount not to exceed $5.3 million. The cost to taxpayers would be about a .60 increase per $1,000 of equalized value over the 15-year span of the loan. The original plan would have meant a $1.20 increase per $1,000.

Board President Neal Weare was one of two members, Ron Beimborn being the other, to vote against the new plan. Weare says that he doesn't think that all of the district's residents are being included in the process.

"I feel that we have three different groups of people," Weare said, including those who were in favor of the original plan, those who felt that the auditorium wasn't needed, and those who felt that nothing needed to be done. Weare is in favor of giving all voters a chance to voice their opinion, and providing those three options on the referendum.

As it stands, there again will be just a single question on the referendum, whether the voters supports the scaled-back building plan or doesn't support it. Weare vehemently disagrees with those who think renovations are not needed.

"It is something we need and that has to be addressed," Weare said. "We can't just sit back and do nothing. There's too much that needs to be done."

The new plan is identical to the original, with the exception of building the auditorium. no classroom space will be lost, and all other aspects of the original plan would be included.

This means that the present stage and band area in Rose Hall, which is to be replaced by expanded art and music rooms, will no longer exist. Any future plays or performances would have to be held off school grounds.

"As far as putting on plays and so forth, we would have to look at renting out other facilities," Weare said, noting that West Bend High School and UW-Washington County auditoriums would be considered. "I think it will be inconvenient to have to travel," but because of the original referendum's defeat, "we have to make other arrangements."

Wanda Jacobs to Study in Madrid

Wanda Jacobs

RIPON -- Wanda B. Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Jacobs of Kewaskum, is spending a semester in Madrid, Spain, through Ripon College's International Study Center.

Jacobs, a Spanish major, is a junior at Ripon College.

Madrid study, open to all majors, is part of Academic Year Abroad, a program available to students from colleges and universities across the United States. Students take 15 to 17 semesters hours of courses, including a language class and three to four elective courses in their major. Students live in a home with a Spanish family, an apartment or a residence hall.

Ripon College provides the option of off-campus study for the enrichment of educational and cultural experiences and the exploration of career options.

Ripon College, founded in 1851, is a private, residential liberal arts college with an enrollment of more than 700 students from 39 states and 15 foreign countries. Ripon is nationally unrecognized for its quality undergraduate education.

Wastewater Treatment Superintendent Pete Albers Retiring Subway Restaurant Opening Here

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

Dick Kapinos topped the agenda at Monday's Village Board meeting.

Kapinos who resides just north of Boltonville, was present at the meeting to introduce himself and announce that he and his partner, Tom Steffic of West Bend, will be opening a Subway Restaurant in Kewaskum.

The restaurant will be located in the Kewaskum Mall in between Kettle Moraine Agency and the Kewaskum Pharmacy. Barring any unforeseen circumstances, it is hoped the new business will be open by May 1.

Kapinos, who previously owned Badger Cable, said he is looking forward to becoming an active member of the Kewaskum business community and would help wherever he is needed.

In other business brought before the board at Monday's meeting, Peter Albers, Superintendent of the Wastewater Treatment Plant, officially submitted his resignation, effective April 20, 1994. After 26 years of loyal service to the Kewaskum community, Pete is now planning his retirement.

President Robert Wagner and members of the board thanked Pete for all his efforts on behalf of the village and were in agreement they hated to see Pete retire, but all understood his

Beechwood School Opening Considered

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - The Kewaskum Board of Education will meet in a workshop session to tackle the question as to whether Beechwood School should be re-opened.

That decision came at a board meeting last Monday night, after Board member Ruth Schmitt asked for the item to be put on that agenda. Exactly when the workshop session will take place is up in the air at this point, although the Board may set a date at its Building and Grounds Sub-Committee meeting February 28.

Discussion never reached a serious stage at this meeting, however, as District Administrator Dr. David Heather urged the Board to give the topic more discussion than a few minutes at the meeting.

Schmitt proposed to the Board that Beechwood could be reopened as a state charter school. Charter schools, of which there are ten operating in Wisconsin, are exempt from

Sparks Named New Board Member School Board Hears Parent Concerns Regarding Dyslexia

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - In an emotional plea to get the School Board to understand the problem, parents voiced their frustration and concern about how the district is handling children with dyslexia.

Several parents told of problems they have encountered in trying to have their children diagnosed with the learning disorder. While some openly expressed anger, others, like Kelley Peterson, shed tears as they told of their child's problems in being diagnosed.

"When is it going to be time to worry about these kids?" Peterson asked, fighting back tears. "All I heard (when trying to get her son diagnosed) was 'don't worry, your child is intelligent. Wait another year and see what happens.'"

Currently, the district doesn't have the capability to diagnose a child suffering from dyslexia. Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand said that the district is taking steps to educate teachers, but "(dyslexia) is not something that you can write a curriculum for."

The district has purchased a computer program called "LEXIA" which addresses the kinds of needs that a dyslexic student has. New tests at the kindergarten level are also being administered, as well as training teachers to be able to diagnose the problem.

Board President Neal Weare said that he received complaints from parents who thought that some administrators, including Elementary School Principal Richard Zarling, wanted to phase out the computer program, which Zarling himself had helped to install as a pilot project. Zarling took exception to the complaints.

"I have been constantly encouraging staff members to get kids (who needed help) on the LEXIA program," Zarling said. He added that KES recently expanded from a single version of LEXIA to a network version, and said, "I believe this year we have the only network version in the state of Wisconsin. No school within 20 or 30 miles has it."

Board member Jean Goeden said she sympathized with the parents, and added that, "We are aware of the problem, now we have to find a way to solve it."

Weare agreed, saying that he has sometimes been accused of becoming passionate for causes, this being one of them.

"As long as I'm on this board, we will do something about the problem," he said. "If I have to go to the taxpayers and ask for one cent or two cents per $1,000 (of equalized value), that's what I'll do. This district will address the problem with, or without funding from the state. Maybe we can be a leader in the state on this one."

In another matter, the Board voted unanimously to appoint Karen Sparks to fill the vacant board opening created when Janet Wolfenber resigned last month. Goeden administered the oath of office, and Sparks took her position on the board before the new business was started.

Sparks was the lone resident to apply for the position, and currently has children attending Kewaskum schools.

Observes 100th Birthday

Every year, we celebrate my grandaunt Ethel's birthday with a special dinner. Even if it's in a restaurant, we bring the traditional centerpiece -- an antique doll of General George Washington on his grey spotted horse, as Ethel shares her special day with our nation's first president.

The daughter of Dr. Ralph Elmergreen and his wife, Clara (Rosenheimer) of Kewaskum; Ethel was born 100 years ago in Milwaukee and has resided in Milwaukee and on Big Cedar Lake in West Bend, where the summer house built a year before her birth still stands and is enjoyed by the family. She had two younger sisters, Hazel and Margery, who both recently passed away. Although she and Paul had no biological children, her very close family - her loving "children" - include three nieces and nephews, seven grandnieces and nephews and five great-grandnieces and nephews.

Community Blood Drive To Be Held in Kewaskum

A blood transfusion isn't one of the things we think about every day. But somewhere, someone is getting a blood transfusion right now.

The only source for blood is people, so hospitalized patients must depend on the generosity of people who take time to visit one of The Blood Center's eight donor centers or a community blood drive, like the one being held for the Kewaskum community on Wednesday, March 2. The drive will be held at the Kewaskum Field House, 1510 Bilgo Lane, from 1 to 6 p.m.

Anyone in good health, age 17 and over, who weighs at least 110 pounds may donate blood. There is no upper age limit. All donors are asked medical history questions prior to donating.

The actual amount of time involved in drawing one pint of blood is about seven minutes, but donors should anticipate spending a total of approximately one hour, including time for the medical history, donating and refreshments. Donors should bring their Donor ID card or a picture I.D.

The drive will supply volunteer blood donations for The Blood Center of Southeastern Wisconsin, a non-profit service organization which provides all of blood and blood components used by patients in 29 southeastern Wisconsin hospitals.

The hospitals cover the six-county region of Kenosha, Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Waukesha, and Washington counties. The Blood Center also offers specialized laboratory service on a regional and national level, and is recognized internationally as a leader in blood-related research.

Sign Language

Sophisticated diagnostics can tell a lot about what's going on inside a person. At St. Joseph's Community Hospital, we have the experience and capabilities to recognize the signs.

By using MRI, CT scanning, mammography, gastrointestinal imaging and ultrasound in addition to traditional imaging techniques, we produce clear pictures of body tissue, fluid and bones. Your physicians will interpret these images for the diagnosis necessary to provide the care you need.

At St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend, we have the technical language of diagnostics. But more importantly for our patients, we know how to interpret the signs.

Blood Drive Coming Soon... Kewaskum, Can You Help?

On Wednesday, March 2, the Kewaskum Blood Drive will be held at the Kewaskum High School from 1:00 - 6:00 p.m. This will be your opportunity to help others who might find themselves in need. More than 450 pints of blood are needed every day to meet the needs of patients in 29 southeastern Wisconsin hospitals. All this blood must come from volunteer donors.

Donors must be 17 years old or older, weigh at least 110 pounds, be free of symptoms of a cold, sore throat, flu or allergies on the day you donate and not have had hepatitis.

All donors will be asked to provide their social security number and must present some form of identification when making their blood donation.

Acceptable forms of identification are a picture I.D., blood donor i.d. (plastic type) or identification with signature.

The actual donation of a pint of blood takes approximately seven minutes. Plan 20 minutes prior to the donation to give medical history and to have your temperature and blood pressure taken and 10-15 minutes after the donation for some refreshments. The whole process takes about one hour.

You will feel special for having done something so important. You may help a total stranger or someone in your own community.

Please seriously consider donating. Those you help will be forever grateful that you took the time and gave such a generous gift.

Over 2000 in D.A.R.E. Group at Milwaukee Wave D.A.R.E. Day

Two hundred and thirty D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) students and parents from the Washington County Sheriff's Dept. D.A.R.E. program attended the Fifth Annual Milwaukee Wave D.A.R.E. Day. The D.A.R.E. To Say No Milwaukee Wave professional indoor soccer game was held on Sunday, February 6, 1994, at 1:00 p.m. at the Bradley Center against the Kansas City Attack, the defending N.P.S.L. Champions. The D.A.R.E. students received free tickets as a reward for their efforts to stay drug free. The WAVE won 11-10.

"Our children are our most important resource", says Deputy Bausch, D.A.R.E. Officer, who has been involved with the D.A.R.E. program since the Fall of 1990. The D.A.R.E. program offers kids realistic approaches to avoid peer pressure and drug use. By educating and motivating this generation of young people, we will be helping to significantly reduce drug abuse. Parental involvement, which is encouraged at these D.A.R.E. events, is a key component in the battle to keep kids off drugs. By reinforcing the D.A.R.E. message at home, parents can help support their children's decision to remain drug free.

their D.A.R.E. t-shirts and accompanied by their parents attended the Milwaukee WAVE D.A.R.E. day. These students represented the following schools: Richfield, Erin, Rockfield, Farmington, St. Peters, St. Kilian, Amy Belle, and Allenton Schools. They were escorted by three of the Washington County Sheriff's Dept. D.A.R.E. Officers, Deputies Bausch, Buth and Joers.

A D.A.R.E. Night At The Bucks is scheduled for Friday, March 11th at the Bradley Center, featuring the Bucks versus the Kings. Ticket order forms may be picked up at any school offering the D.A.R.E. program, or at the Washington County Sheriff's Dept. This Order Form should be returned by February 22. The D.A.R.E. Night at the Bucks offers D.A.R.E. students and graduates a free ticket, but these students should be chaperoned or accompanied by a parent or guardian.

need to pursue the capture of elusive area fish.

In reference to our "fishy" friends, Police Chief Richard Knoebel made mention that the Kettle Moraine Sportsman's Association is organizing an effort to plant numerous panfish in the Milwaukee River this spring to encourage more people to fish the river.

Chief Knoebel also gave his monthly report stating January was a bit slower possibly due to the cold weather. He stated February, thus far, seems to be right back to normal.

Superintendent of Public Works Jerry Gilles reported the village crew has had 8 or 9 water main breaks since mid-December, which has "been hard on their budget," and this was not even considering the repair work that would have to be done on the breaks in spring.

Gilles also mentioned he had visited the Farmers Union to inquire on their new addition and was informed they would not be up and running until mid-to-late summer.

Fire Chief Mark Groeschel gave his report, mentioning there were 33 fire calls in 1993 and 201 transports by the rescue squad.

Lengthy discussion followed on the Town of Auburn fire contract and Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt was instructed by the board to work out the details with the township.

President Wagner gave an update on his attendance at the monthly meeting of the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, where discussion was held on downtown renovation, the upcoming 1995 village centennial and a possible "Community Pride - Spring Cleanup Day" with members of the community. More information on these matters will be sure to follow.

The board also approved operator's licenses for Sharyl Ramthun and Marian Taylor, both of Kewaskum.

Wilson Receives Investment Award

WEST BEND - Gwen M. Wilson, vice president in B.C. Ziegler and Company's West Bend investment brokerage office, was recently recognized for her outstanding achievements in 1993.

Wilson received the honor at the firm's annual retail sales conference held February 3-5 in Brookfield, Wisconsin. She has served as an investment broker with Ziegler since 1981. She joined the firm in 1967. A resident of Kewaskum, Wilson and her husband, David, have three daughters.

B.C. Ziegler and Company is an investment banking and brokerage firm headquartered in West Bend. Widely known for underwriting church, healthcare and long-term care debt, Ziegler is an innovator and specialist in income investment. Ziegler has retail brokerage offices nationwide, including offices in 12 Wisconsin cities: Appleton, Fond du Lac, Fort Atkinson, Green Bay, Kenosha, LaCrosse, Madison, Mequon, Milwaukee, Sheboygan, Wausau and West Bend.

Legislation has been introduced in Madison proposing that twenty additional charter schools be opened. A school district would have to petition the state in order to be considered for charter status.

But in his letter to Board members, Heather noted that "my information indicates that this proposed legislation will not be successful in this session."

Still, other board members said that they would be interested in examining the idea further.

"I think this merits discussion," Board president Neal Weare told fellow members, suggesting the workshop session. Schmitt agreed.

"We have the ideal situation for opening a charter school," Schmitt said. "We should look at (Beechwood School) as being an asset instead of a problem."

Heather, meanwhile, noted in his letter that he felt opening Beechwood as a charter school was a moot point. He felt that the Board should look at the concept of opening the school, period.

If Beechwood were to be reopened, it would serve approximately 60 children in grades kindergarten through fifth.

Having a Bad Hair Day???

Happy Birthday!

Katie is Dyslexic. She has dreams of becoming a teacher. WDI is a big step in fulfilling that dream. Dyslexics are not dumb or stupid. They are gifted and talented people that need a different approach to education. She is pictured above presenting Village Administrator Dan Schmidt with a proclamation from Governor Tommy G. Thompson, proclaiming Feb. 27 thru March 5 as Dyslexia Awareness Week.

Dear Editor:

I have just finished reading through a stack of letters written by Gail Ramirez, a mother of a child living with Dyslexia, as well as the responses and research articles sent back by public officials and special organizations surrounding the issue of Dyslexia - a specific language disorder having to do with the way the brain processes information causing difficulty in learning how to read, write and spell. I am amazed, and I commend, the courage and determination Ms. Ramirez has to continue her fight for more legislation and educational reform. But I am extremely angry and disappointed at how far behind we are as a society in dealing effectively with Dyslexia. I question why this has to be so complicated.

I do not live with the learning difference of Dyslexia; I am not a parent of a child with Dyslexia; nor am I a teacher. But I did have the opportunity to counsel students diagnosed with Dyslexia in the Project Success program under the direction of Dr. Robert Nash at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. The most important lesson I learned there was that unrecognized Dyslexia brings forth students who are frightened, frustrated and angry. These students are at risk for increasingly serious emotional disorders. Many lose their self-esteem, drop out of school, experience anger and hostility and ultimately fail to recognize their potential.

The basic bottom line is that these students can and do successfully live with Dyslexia if it is diagnosed, if they are given the chance to learn by specific educational methods, and if they have the understanding and support of their parents and teachers. As a professional counselor, I am aware that this learning difference may be a factor in my work with clients - with both children and adults. With statistics showing that possibly one out of every seven students is dyslexic, the chance of a professional helper coming into contact with this issue is great.

Gail Ramirez has begun a tremendous campaign to get policy enacted in hopes that others will recognize this invisible difference as a major contributor to our educational and illiteracy problems. I issue a call to all professional helpers to recognize your responsibility of educating yourself about Dyslexia, and to not assume you know everything you need to effectively assist individuals living with it! And I encourage you not to wait for a system to force you to learn and understand. As a good start, I recommend the book "About Dyslexia: Unraveling the Myth," by Priscilla L. Vail.

Let's not waste gifted minds anymore!

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Because our family is dedicated to Dyslexia Awareness, we would like to tell everyone our story.

After three years of increasing frustrations with Katie's schooling, we finally wanted to stop thinking "it might be better next year." We put our foot down and realized if the school couldn't find out what Katie's problem was, we would have to pursue it ourselves.

Katie, reluctant to start 4th grade, was unable to sound out the words and sounds she learned in 1st - 3rd grade. She hated reading because nothing made sense and was nervous, frustrated and unhappy. Imagine, having this child we love so dear, but unable to help her. So, she started 4th grade only to find 3 to 4 hours of homework each night.

Thank God for Gail Ramirez's letter to the editor last July. She shed light on our problem and made us realize we are not alone.

In August of 1993 we had Katie tested at Wisconsin Dyslexia Institute in West Bend. After finding she was dyslexic she began the tutoring program offered by the institute. In six months, my daughter has made tremendous progress. Finishing on her own, her first 14 chapter book, has given her renewed self confidence. Also with help from her aide at school she has lessened her homework load significantly.

My husband and I would recommend W.D.I. to all frustrated parents as a possible solution to open their child's door to the future. If anyone would like to know more, please contact us at 626-4375.

February 18, 1994

Dear Editor,

In conjunction with Governor Thompson's official proclamation that February 27 through March 5, 1994, be observed as Dyslexia Awareness Week, I would like to take advantage of this forum once again (as I am much better at letter writing than public speaking) to commend and extend my sincere gratitude to the Kewaskum School Board for their insight, support and willingness to attack the issue of Dyslexia.

I'll be the first to admit it is not an easy task, but as "Partners in Education" (parents, teachers and administrators), I am confident that we can come up with an effective way to help children with Dyslexia not only compensate, but overcome, many of their difficulties. I want to thank Connie Strand, our curriculum coordinator, for her ongoing efforts to get this accomplished. It is also my feeling that Ms. Strand deserves at least a part-time assistant.

In the meantime, I will continue to urge parents and concerned citizens to learn about Dyslexia and its effects. A successful program cannot be implemented overnight, but our kids can't wait. We can be extremely proud that our school district is one of very few to take Dyslexia seriously. I am a mother against unrecognized and untreated Dyslexia and I'm happy to discuss it with anyone concerned. Call 626-4372, generally after 3 p.m.

Sincerely,
Gail E. Ramirez
Kewaskum, WI

Letter to the Editor:

I urge everyone to tour KHS and KMS facilities for a definite vote of YES to the needed Kewaskum School District referendum. Having graduated in 1958 with pride from the "new" KHS and 36 years later to see the building problems from consistent neglect, I cannot understand how the students and staff have any positive attitudes or pride.

My parents placed their heart and soul for 50 years into this community, day and night for the health and safety of all. Our children's health, safety and pride are being defeated!

YES - KMS needs additional rooms to create an efficient school system and positive approach for healthy minds. Hallway passage and new exits will benefit the students safety.

YES - KHS locker areas are unhealthy and have the appearance of the gas chambers in Auschwitz. The chemistry and science rooms area hazard area that OSHA codes would condemn. The southwalls of the cafeteria and offices are rusted out and unsafe.

Health standards for students eating in overcrowded conditions is awesome. The auditorium benefits levels of all school systems in the community. Renting a stage for performances would pose a safety factor with the commuting problems.

Consider your heart and soul to say YES to our children. We should innovate students with pride and raise academic standards. Pleasing people and taxes is not a YES vote for the betterment of the community.

EW Art Show At Two Rivers

The 7th Annual Eastern Wisconsin Conference Art Show opens Monday, February 28, at the Two Rivers Washington High School with an opening reception for the public from 6 to 9 p.m. Schools representing the Eastern Wisconsin Conference in this year's show are: Chilton, Kewaskum, Kiel, New Holstein, Plymouth, Sheboygan Falls and Two Rivers.

The exhibit runs from February 28 through March 4 in the WHS library and coincides with the opening of March - YOUTH ART MONTH. The exhibit provides an opportunity to expose students in the conference with one another's work as well as provide a means to acknowledge exceptional student work.

Judges for the exhibit are art instructors from Silver Lake College Art Department. A "best of category" ribbon will be given in the following categories: Black and White Drawing, Color Drawing, Oil Painting, Acrylic Painting, Watercolor Painting, Ceramics, Sculpture, Graphic Design, Crafts, Design, Photography, Print Making and Jewelry. The judges will award first, second and third place ribbons in all categories as well as a Best of Show in two-dimensional and a Best of Show in three dimensional work.

The exhibit may be viewed during the week of February 28 to March 4th at the Two Rivers High School Library during regular school hours. In addition to the opening reception, the exhibit will also be open if viewing the evening of Thursday, March 3, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Because there are no classes in the afternoon of Friday, March 4, the exhibit will not be open after 12 noon on that day. Any school groups wishing to tour the exhibit should call Washington High School (793-2291) and make arrangement through Jim Sustman, the art instructor. There is no fee to view the exhibit and the public is cordially invited.

County Separated, Divorced to Meet

Washington County Separated and Divorced Men and Women Support Group meet every Friday evening at Sacred Heart Church in Allenton, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The purpose of the meeting is to provide a group to share ideas, concerns, support, fellowship and love from a Christian perspective. There are guest speakers, panel discussions, small group sharing and activities.

This group is open to singles, widows and widowers. Many of the topics pertain to single parents and other individuals rebuilding their lives and relationships.

"Basic Principles of Healthy Relationships" by Rev. Vernon Smith of Hope Community Church of West Bend, will be the topic on Friday, February 25.

Think twice before you say you'll love someone with every beat of your heart: Over a lifetime, the average person's heart will beat about 2.5 billion times.

Spring Fling

A gala "SPRING FLING" will be held at Frank's on the Lake on Saturday, March 5th, 1994. This will be a dinner/show and you don't even have to drive to Milwaukee or Chicago to see and enjoy it.

FOR YOUR ENJOYMENT, the Dundee Mill Park Committee will present "LIGHTNING & THUNDER", the Neil Diamond/Patsy Cline Revue. This couple will keep you entertained with not only Neil Diamond and Patsy Cline but Elvis, Barbara Streisand, the Big Bopper, Tammy Wynette and more. Four full hours of listening, singing along or dancing.

The prices for this evening of fun are $15. for the dinner and revue, or $10. for just the revue. The dinner is a broasted chicken and ham buffet and will be served from 6:30 to 8. The show will start at 8:30 and go until 12:30. The Frank's have assured us that they will have waitresses during the show so you don't have to miss a beat.

Tickets are available from any Mill Park member or can be purchased at the Dundee Bank, Dins Mini Mart, Merri-Lore Market, and Frank's. Tickets can also be ordered by mail by sending a check to SPRING FLING, Dundee Mill Park Committee, N3164 Hwy. 67, Campbellsport, WI 53010.

Wisconsin Business Gives Thumbs Down to Clinton Health Reform

WISCONSIN RAPIDS - As the battle over national health reform heats up, the Wisconsin Business Community gives the plan a resounding thumbs down, reflecting the views of The Business Roundtable, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers. These groups voiced their opposition to the Clinton Plan earlier this month, citing the burden of the hidden tax of the employer mandate being placed upon the business community to fund this program.

In "The 1994 Wisconsin Business Survey on Economic Development," which is being released this month, 60% of the respondents believe that the Clinton Health Reform Plan will have a negative impact on their business. The overall sentiment of the respondents is that if these mandated burdens are to be placed upon their business, hiring will be sharply curtailed. Additionally, many indicated that current employees would be laid off. What is more alarming is that many indicated that they would close their doors altogether.

The implications of this portion of the survey is very startling. While a statistical sample of the entire Wisconsin business community was taken, the majority of the respondents were businesses with annual sales of $50 million. Without doubt, these are the engines of the National and Wisconsin economy. While the Fortune 1000 companies are laying off employees by the tens of thousands, the independent smaller business community is expected to pick of the slack in the economy. Since the 1980's, the small business community has been the true engine of the economy. If the government insists on crushing this segment of the economy, it will have deep negative implications for the state. A damper is being placed upon wage increases and job creation, the opposite effect of what Clinton had promised during the passage of the 1993 Tax Reform Bill. The survey indicated that 74% of the respondents did not expect to see their businesses increase employment in 1994.

Respondents were deeply upset by comments made about the small business community by Hillary Clinton during her initial Congressional Hearings on Health Care where she said: "I can't be responsible for every undercapitalized entrepreneur who fails...", when asked about the burden being placed upon the business community. Many respondents wrote independent comments about Mrs. Clinton and her lack of accountability to the American public. Many felt that a socialistic program was being forced upon the country.

The survey indicated that over 41% of the respondents felt that government and the increasing burden of government regulation were the biggest problem facing their business. Only 4% felt that health care was the major problem being portrayed by the White House.

The implications of these results indicated an overall trend toward contending with the outside influences of government, rather than focusing on marketing and financing, the most cited problems facing the business community in past surveys. This clearly demonstrates the drag on the economy that social programs are placing on the economy. Many respondents indicated that the health care debate has forced them to slow future plans for expansion, until either they know what specifically will happen or until there is a change in Administration.

Jobs and economic growth are on everyone's mind. 69% of the businesses surveyed indicated that they did not expect their business to expand within the next twelve to eighteen months. Unfortunately, those who have to foot the bill, when the dust settles over the health care debate are outraged over the entire issue. "Any additional mandates placed upon us, such as health care will put us out of business..." Echoed their senti-

As a group, they strongly voiced the opinion of one respondent: "They should put themselves in the businessman's shoes and see how really tough it is!"

The survey indicated a very high degree of apprehension and frustration about the negative impact of the Administration's policies, now coming quickly into focus, which will be mandated upon them. The overall sentiment is that the business community cannot afford to bear anymore of the social burdens, being placed upon them. They feel that the overall restraints already placed upon them by government are too excessive. They can no longer afford to carry any more without a strong negative impact on the growth of their business, the economy and job creation. If their fears are true, the impact upon the state of Wisconsin and the Nation will be very severe.

HOW THE SURVEY WAS CONDUCTED

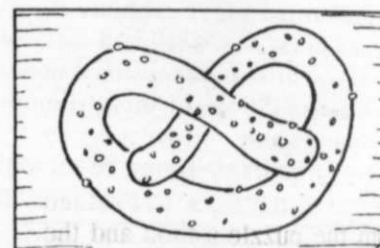

A random sampling of 185,000 Wisconsin businesses was selected. During October and November, 1993, a mail and phone survey was conducted. A total of 1,883 responses were received through December, 1993. The majority of the respondents had sales under $50 million annually. The respondents were evenly distributed by business type (Manufacturing, Retail and Service). The survey has a 98% level of confidence and sampling error of +/-3%.

Campbellsport Medical Center Provides Family Health Care

Drs. David Maruska and John Koepke welcome you to the Campbellsport Medical Center. We have both completed residency programs in Family Practice, preparing us to provide health care to all members of your family. Our training has included obstetrics, gynecology, pediatrics, internal medicine, and surgery, allowing us to take a holistic approach to your care, rather than focusing in on a single organ, disease, or complaint. As Family Medicine specialists, we are particularly challenged to help people understand their health care needs, involve them in the decision-making process and empower them to take charge of maintaining their own health.

As a Satellite of the Fond du Lac Regional Clinic, we also offer access to over 30 specialists if the needs of your family extend beyond primary care. Our office offers a full range of laboratory and x-ray services for your convenience.

KHS Fund Raisers Net Over $2,000 for Cancer Society

On Friday, Feb. 12, the KHS Student Council had an auction during the pep rally. There were seventeen volunteers to get a pie smashed in their face. The volunteers included fourteen KHS faculty members, Mr. Heidner, Ms. Rydzik, Mr. Westphal, Mr. Eichstedt, Mr. Rockhill, Ms. Molebash, Mr. Rizzardi, Mrs. Martin, Mr. Schaatz, Mr. Nell, Mr. Bertelson, Mrs. Heather, Ms. Pritzlaff, and Mr. Amundson; two KHS students, freshman, Gabe Luedtke, and senior Jay Enright; and Officer Troy Ellis.

The pies consisted of whip cream, Hershey's chocolate syrup, and a cherry. The Student Council of KHS would like to thank Homeplate for donating the whip cream, Mike Paul for being the auctioneer, Gabe Luedtke who got the highest bid of forty-five dollars, Mr. Heidner and Mr. Schaatz, who got the second highest bids of forty dollars each, and everyone else who participated in this event.

Over four hundred dollars was raised and will be donated to the American Cancer Society along with the profits raised from the puzzle-a-thon and the chain-link contest.

During Snowball week at the Kewaskum High School, the Student Council sponsored a Puzzle-A-Thon to raise money for the American Cancer Society. The students participating in this event were required to raise pledges and then on Friday, Feb. 12, worked on a 1000 piece puzzle during their study halls. There were students working on these puzzles from 7:45 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. but not one of the puzzles were fully completed.

A chain-link contest between classes also brought an extra $163 which will be included with the money from the puzzle-a-thon and auction. The class that ended up with the longest chain was the Seniors!

All-in-All we raised close to $2000 for the American Cancer Society and we all hope that this can make a difference in someone's life. Again we would like to thank everyone who participated in our Snowball week activities.

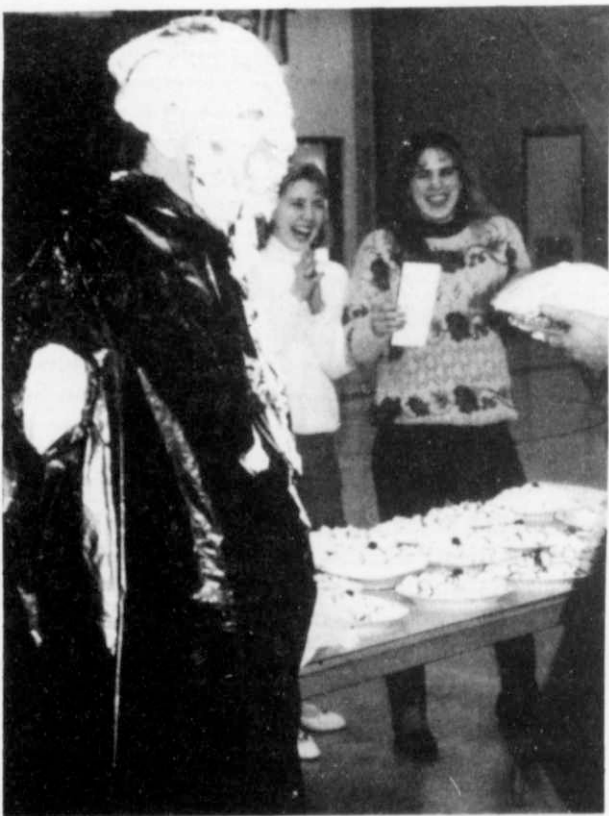

Editor's Note -- The participating teachers and students are to be commended for their $2,000 donation to the Cancer Society. It's good to see students becoming involved in their community and the troubled world around them.

Mr. Rockhill was hit with the pie by Pat Bertram.

Mr. Rizzardi was the recipient of a "pie in the face" from Frau Rosenthal Onlookers seem to enjoy Mr. Westphal being hit with the "pie in the face" by Travis Jacak.

Jesse Korth had the honors of smashing a "pie in the face" of Ms. Rydzik.

St. Lucas Awarded AAL Grant

St. Lucas Lutheran School, Kewaskum, has been awarded a $300 grant for the 1993-94 school year by Aid Association for Lutherans (AAL), a fraternal benefit society based in Appleton, Wisconsin.

AAL's Lutheran Elementary School Grant Program is designed to enable Lutheran elementary school faculty, through in-service training, to grow in their ability and commitment to carry out the ministry of their school.

Lutheran elementary schools that include grade 1 were eligible to apply to AAL for the $300 grant. The funds may be used for consultants, speakers and resource materials for in-service training. Activities may concentrate on such as teaching strategies, classroom organization and management, interpersonal relationships and communications, a teacher's role in the promotion of the school and in ministering to the needs of families.

"So much of our country's future depends on the quality of education that our young children receive," said Barbara Kuxhaus, a manger of AAL's elementary school grant program. "For this reason, AAL is especially pleased to help teachers in Lutheran elementary schools enhance their professional skills."

AAL provides educational grants totaling more than $2.7 million annually to Lutheran colleges, seminaries, high schools and elementary schools across the country each year. In this first year of the AAL Lutheran Elementary School Grant Program, a total of $450,000 was offered to 1,500 schools.

As a fraternal benefit society, AAL also provides its 1.6 million members with life, disability income and long-term care insurance and retirement products. It also offers members a variety of volunteer opportunities to help individuals, communities and institutions.

Treatment of Urinary Incontinence in Women

WEST BEND - St. Joseph's Community Hospital's health promotion department will sponsor the program, "What's the Matter With My Bladder?" on Monday, March 7, at 7 p.m. in the hospital's 4 east conference room.

The program, presented by Dr. R. Scott Owens, urologist, will focus on lack of bladder control for women, and will explore treatment options currently available.

The program is free of charge and a community service of St. Joseph's Community Hospital.

To register or for more information, call the hospital's health promotion department at 334-8268. The registration deadline is Monday, February 28.

Gregor Hall, who has been in partnership with Leo Rohlinger in the Sinclair Oil Agency in this village for a number of years, has severed his connection with the agency. The former has entered into a similar business in West Bend. Mr. Rohlinger wishes to inform his many patrons that he will conduct the business in the same prompt and efficient manner as heretofore.

Ronald Dins, Kewaskum High School Senior, completed his courses at the close of the first semester in January. It was necessary for him to finish school in January to have the credits of a high school graduate. Ronald transferred here from Roosevelt Junior High School, Fond du Lac, when he was a sophomore and attended Kewaskum High School the following years. Ronald passed the Army-Navy college qualifying test for the army specialized training program which he took last November. He has enlisted in the army air forces and expects to be called for service sometime this month.

The firemen were called to the Frank Kohn home on Fond du Lac Avenue early Saturday when a passerby on his way to work saw flames in a shed to the rear of the home. Ashes and hot coals removed from a stove the night before had been dumped into a container in the shed. Apparently some of the hot coals fell outside of the container and wood shavings on the floor started to burn slowly. It took several hours for the flames to get a start. Firemen were notified before leaving the fire house that the flames had already been put out. No damage resulted.

In a conference game Friday, February 4, in the home gym, the Kewaskum High School team took Oakfield in a hard struggle by a score of 28 to 26. Dave Bartelt was high scorer with 17 points.

New officers were elected for the Young Wings Society at the High School. The second semester officers are as follows: President - Marilyn Buss; Secretary-Treasurer - Gerald Gottowski; Vice President - Loran Backhaus. The society is planning a combined Valentine's Day and Lincoln's birthday party on February 14.

The Kewaskum High School Freshman Section A has organized itself into a club designing to better itself in spelling and penmanship. The officers are: Augie Bilgo, President; June Degner, Vice President, and Eugene Keller, Secretary/Treasurer.

Sgt. Robert Kroncke of Camp Eibes, Needles, California, arrived Saturday to spend a furlough with his wife, Mrs. Linda Kroncke, and baby, and his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. N.W. Rosenheimer, as well as his parents in Milwaukee.

Pfc. Gregor Nigh arrived from Camp Campbell, Kentucky, Monday to spend a 13 day furlough with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nigh and family in the Town of Auburn. Nigh was sent to Camp Campbell after completing maneuvers at Nashville, Tennessee.

S/Sgt. William Key Jr. of Washington D.C. arrived Monday to spend a 13-day furlough with his folks, the William Keys at West Bend and his fiancée Miss Bernadette Kohler and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kohler here.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Fellenz, Route 2, Kewaskum, at St. Joseph's Hospital at West Bend, on Tuesday, February 8.

Pfc. and Mrs. Arnold Schladweiler are the parents of a son, Daniel Joseph, born at Macon, Georgia, on Sunday, February 6. Pfc. Schladweiler, of near St. Michaels, is stationed at nearby Cochran Field. His wife is the former Mary Riley of Boltonville.

The Grand Prize Masked Ball, which will be given by the local camp of Modern Woodmen of America at the Opera House on Saturday evening, February 22, promises to be one of the best and most enjoyable affairs ever held in this village. Tickets are being sold in advance by members of the camp and are selling fast, which gives fair warning that the Opera House will not be large enough to accommodate all who may attend. The committee was successful in engaging the Biel Girls Orchestra of Beaver Dam to furnish the music which goes a long way in making good the promise of a good time.

Before one of the largest crowds of basketball fans ever assembled at the Opera House last week Friday evening, the local five lost at the hands of the Campbellsport Guards by a score of 14 to 8. The lineup in the game was as follows: Campbellsport - Wm. Guenther, lf; C. Vande Zande, rf; M. Knickel, c; Zook, rf; Rudolph, lg, Hodge, sub. Kewaskum - Bilgo, lf; Rosenheimer, rf; Schnurr, c; Ralph Schaefer, rg; Harry Schaefer, lg; Perschbacher, sub.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Backus Jr. received a telegram on Monday announcing that their son Edwin had arrived safely at Newport News, Virginia, from France. Edwin enlisted in the old Company E of Fond du Lac at the time of the Mexican trouble, and served several months at the border. After returning home from his duties in the south, he was placed on the reserve list on account of not being a resident of Fond du Lac County and therefore could not attend regular drills. At the outbreak of the European war, he was transferred from Company E to Company M, together with Ralph Petri, Jack Tessar and Charles Guth, also from here and left for Camp Douglas, then to Camp MacArthur, Waco, Texas, from where he was sent overseas. While in France, Edwin has seen lots of active service. He was gassed in one of the early battles of the war and was placed in a convalescent camp in France to recuperate. That he will soon be mustered out of service is the opinion of his many friends and relatives here.

One of the biggest events in the history of Kewaskum's local talent career will be staged at the Opera House here on Friday evening, February 28, when the entire talent of the village will be heard and seen in one of the most extensive vaudeville entertainments ever attempted in a village the size of Kewaskum. The entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Kewaskum Woman's Club, which has a reputation par excellence of making a success of anything they start to do. There will be a variety of musical numbers such as singing, instrumental solos, duets, quartettes and orchestral selections. Kewaskum for years, has borne the reputation of harboring some of the best musical and dramatic talent in this section of the country, and we have little doubt that this entertainment will be no exception to the rule.

Pvt. Peter Beisbier, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beisbier, residing near St. Kilian, has arrived safely in New York and is now at an embarkation hospital, where he will remain until he has recovered from his wounds received in action. Private Beisbier was cited for bravery and gallantry while on a raid within the enemy's lines on October 2, 1918, in which raid he was wounded in the left arm in the muscle. The bone was also broken. He was later taken prisoner by the Germans and held for several months. His parents are anxiously awaiting his return and are proud of the fact their son is returning with honors resting upon his shoulders.

On February 5th, the St. Michaels Church was an agreeable scene when a quiet but pleasant ceremony took place when Mr. Jacob Schaeffer of Saukville was married to Miss Rose G. Bremser of St. Michaels.

William Endlich, our popular jeweler, this week erected a combination electric globe sign in front of his store, which consists of two large round globes. The lower clock globe burns steady illuminating the store front. The top, or eye globe, is of flesh color, and has two natural colored eyes, one on each side, which flash on and off automatically, giving the appearance of a winking eye. This makes a very attractive advertising medium and draws the attention of all pedestrians.

The Kewaskum Advancement Association, at its last meeting, unanimously decided to hold a Welcome Home Boys program at its next regular meeting to be held on Thursday evening, March 13. Not having a complete list of all returning boys on file in the office of the secretary, a general invitation is hereby extended to all those who have returned. Arrangements are being made to make a very enjoyable affair. As by this time all the boys will not have returned, programs of Welcome Home Boys will be given at different times. In order that the Advancement Association may have a complete list of all returning soldiers and sailors from this vicinity, all are requested to register with the Secretary, George H. Schmidt. A notice will appear in due time as to where the program will be held. Welcome Home Boys Roll -- William Eberle, Isadore Keller, George H. Schmidt, William Brandstetter, Louis Bath, Leo Marx, Harry Schaefer, Elroy Backhaus, August Bilgo, Jr., Erwin Schmidt, John Schmidt R.D.3, Alex Gilbert, Wendel Petri R.D.3, Byron Martin, Louis Seefeldt, William Vorpal, Edwin Miller, Carl Westerman.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ketter of Valley View on Monday.

Catholic Schools Week Celebrated

Holy Trinity Catholic School in Kewaskum recently celebrated Catholic Schools Week January 30th through February 6th. The theme for the event was Support Catholic Schools... Your Choice for Education.

In its 113th year of providing a Catholic education, Holy Trinity has proudly served generations of families who made the Catholic Education Choice. Holy Trinity School currently serves 107 area families with an enrollment of 177 students. Although enrollment is open to anyone, students currently attending Holy Trinity are from St. Kilian, St. Michaels, St. John of God, St. Bridget and Holy Trinity parishes. The school is represented by several first, second, third, fourth and even fifth generation families. This year members of the Harbeck/Kuehl families are represented in each one of the eight classrooms.

A variety of fun and educational activities were scheduled for the week. Monday was designated as Student Appreciation Day. The teaching staff provided snacks for their students. Students also enjoyed a "Just Say Yes to Science" program on Monday. Approximately 12 different hands-on stations were arranged in the church hall each portraying a different aspect of science.

Tuesday was Big Buddy / Little Buddy day when upper classmen were paired with students in grades 1 to 4. Students did a variety of activities together including reading stories, making origami Valentines, Lincoln log cabins from rolled newspapers and some shared treats.

On Wednesday students and the teaching staff were in "red and white" as they celebrated Badger Day. Thursday was open house when parents, grandparents, younger siblings and others were invited to visit school and enjoy refreshments.

Several activities transpired on Friday beginning with the celebration of the all-school Mass. Each teacher was presented with a corsage in recognition of Faculty Appreciation Day from the Home and School Association and finally, in the afternoon, students were able to enjoy an all-school skating party at Skate Country in West Bend.

WEST BEND - County Board Chairman, Reuben Schmahl, presented Ray Lipman with a framed proclamation Friday, February 11, 1994, declaring February as Heart Month in Washington County. Lipman is the President of the Washington County Division of the American Heart Association. The Division provides county residents with education and community programs on making heart healthy decisions in reducing their risk of contracting heart disease and stroke. Heart attacks, strokes and other cardio vascular diseases are the leading causes of death in the state and in the country. In Washington County alone, nearly 680 people died from some form of heart disease in 1991. If you are interested in supporting the Washington County Division of the American Heart Association either through private contributions, business fund raising or volunteering please call 1-800-242-9236.

A blood donor is good for people who go through windshields and red lights. For someone with cancer, hemophilia, or anemia. Or hepatitis. Or ulcers. For people being operated on. For people into feudin' and fightin'. For people who are almost out of life because they're almost out of blood. For a little girl who doesn't know that leukemia has happened to her. Or why. For a little boy who needs something revved up that wound down. Like energy. For people who have open-heart surgery. For people who need a blood donor and also an organ donor—a part as well as a pint—a new heart or new liver, a lung or a kidney. For new babies needing new blood. Or new mothers needing a transfusion. For little kids who get onto something poison or fall into something sharp. For people who fool around with something that explodes, goes off, bites or shatters. For people burned pretty bad. For daredevils. Tree climbers. For people in the wrong place at the wrong time. A blood donor is good for people who are in a lot worse shape than most people you know. For someone who needs a little of your blood a lot.

What good is a blood donor?

Bzzz. Bzzz. Bzzz. Unfortunately, this busy signal can be all too familiar to many Americans trying to call the IRS for answers to their tax questions. You see, when you're busy dialing our special toll-free number, 1-800-TAX-1040, so are millions of other taxpayers. Which means you may have a hard time getting through to us. So here's a tip. Call between 8 and 10 in the morning, or after 2:30 in the afternoon.

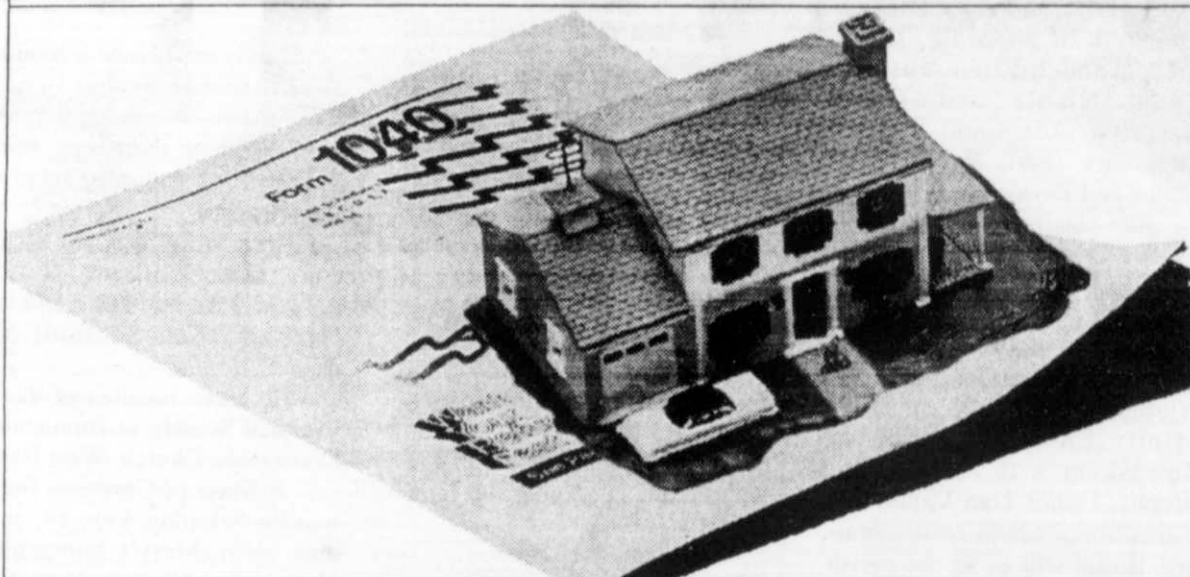

Believe it or not, there is a good time to call the IRS.

When you call on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, you've got an even greater chance of getting through.

So if you have questions, don't hesitate to call 1-800-TAX-1040. But remember, call during a good time. Because we want you to hear good advice. Not a busy signal.

KATHERINE DE LAURIER

Katherine De Laurier, 74, of Glenview, Illinois, passed away February 17, 1994, of cancer.

She was the beloved mom of Gil (Chris) and extremely proud grandma of Ryan, Breann and Gib of Kewaskum. She is also survived by another son Joe (Marj.) of Texas, and two daughters, Kathy Norman (Ralph) and Nancy Herman (Les), all of Illinois; other grandchildren, Katie, Kevin, Emily and Zachary.

Mom will be very sadly missed by all who knew her. She was wonderful with the children, and we have all learned so much from her.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of my husband Merlin Prost, who passed away one year ago February 22, 1993:

Life goes on and a year has gone by,
But precious memories never die,
After the end of one sad year,
My heart aches with sadness and God only knows-How much I miss the one I loved so dear.
Living on, in this world of sorrow and strife
Until we will meet again in heaven
To live "together forever" in,
THAT happy life.

*Sadly missed by his wife,
Doris*

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our Dad and Grandfather, MERLIN PROST, who passed away one year ago, February 22, 1993:

We hold in our tears when we speak your name.
But the ache in our hearts
remains the same.
No one knows the sorrow that we share,
When our families meet and you're not there.
Nothing will ever be more beautiful than the memories that are of you.
To all of us you were someone very special.
God must have thought so, too.

CKIS CATHOLIC KNIGHTS INSURANCE SOCIETY

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers and how are you all doing today? In this week's column, I have some questions and answers that hopefully you will find interesting:

QUESTION: My daughter is in pre-school and recently visited the Post Office on a "field trip." Do you give tours all the time? Is there an age limit?

ANSWER: One of the BIGGEST highlights of my job is to be able to give tours... I LOVE IT. The youngest group I have had included three-year-olds and it was amazing how their "attention" could be kept... it was a lot of fun. We put on our "make-believe hats" and the children could see what happens to their letter after they dropped it into the mail slot. They were shown the cancelling machine and how it cancels their stamp, explained the "little circle" (postmark) to them and then they watched as a clerk sorted their letter to the individual routes or box section. Each child then took their letter to "its place." If the rural carriers were there, they got to put the letter into the slot and if the rural carriers were gone, they made sure that "their VERY important" card was the first thing that the carrier saw upon his/her return. Did they learn anything? Well, the day after one of the tours... a lady came into the Post Office and related to me "how very much her daughter liked the Post Office." She said to her mom: "When are you going to the Post Office again?" Her mom looked at her and said, "Why? You never want to go there with me." At this point and time her three-year-old daughter said: "I WANT TO GO... there is a lady there and she has a BIG desk and a BIG office. She told us that if her "door is open," that means that she is there and we can just walk into her office and say "hi" to her... she is the BOSS. Had to chuckle over that one and then I asked the lady... "Did she learn anything?" She said... "Oh yes, the ZIP CODE of Kewaskum is 53040." THAT WAS A THREE-YEAR-OLD and that group spent about 25 minutes at the Post Office on their "tour." Tours can vary by time and ages. As your Postmaster, I will be more than happy to give any group a "tour" of the Kewaskum Post Office and let you all see... "just what goes on behind those walls with your mail that you deposit." Feel free to call me for an appointment. I think you would find it very interesting.

QUESTION: I moved from Kewaskum to West Bend a week ago and I am not getting any mail. Can't you just "cross off the old address" and send it to me? Is it "sitting" in the Kewaskum Post Office?

ANSWER: When you move, your change of address card is given to the carrier so that mail is not delivered to the old address and then the "card" is sent on to Milwaukee to be entered into the computerized forwarding system. All offices have been in this "system" for over two years. Let's say that a piece of first or second class mail comes into our office the day after you have changed your address okay? The carrier does not deliver it to the old address but instead, sends it to Milwaukee for "computerization" and then it is forwarded on to you. Please keep in mind that you could experience a 5-7 day delay in starting to receive your mail at the new address (and that is only if you are within the Milwaukee 530 area)... as if you moved "further" it could take a bit longer. Feel free to check with us to insure that your change of address has been received, but other than that... please be just a bit patient as we cannot just cross off your old address and send it "on to you." Mail must go through the "computerized system." Any questions on this... give me a call okay?

QUESTION: I saw an ad in a Milwaukee paper that was advertising postal jobs. I called the number and they wanted a "sum" of money to get some training materials on the test. Are YOU hiring at the Kewaskum Post Office? Why do I have to pay to get information on the test?

ANSWER: Classified ads are done by a private company... NOT by the Postal Service. The training materials that can give you "guidelines" on the Postal exam are available at any library... you would be looking for the "Clerk-Carrier Study Guide." It will give you ample questions and do remember that the biggest part of the exam is "memorization." At the present time, we are NOT hiring at the Kewaskum Post Office. We ARE accepting, on an ongoing basis, applications for a rural exam. You just come in, fill out an application and we send these to Milwaukee on a weekly basis. This is JUST to set up a register for FUTURE applications throughout the entire area. IF and WHEN the Postal Service decides to give the Clerk/Carrier exam, notices will be posted at the Kewaskum Post Office and prominent locations around Kewaskum plus there will be a notice in the Kewaskum Statesman. Please keep in mind that "taking the test" when and if it is given, only places a person on a so-called register for FUTURE vacancies. Feel free to call me with any questions on this okay?

Well, that is about it for this week. Is Spring "sprung" yet? Don't know about you but "I AM SICK OF WINTER with its cold and snow!!" I do love Wisconsin and would not mind the snow... if I did not have to drive in it... oh, well... such is life, huh? Hope you all have a good day... a happy everyday!

Your Postmaster,
Bonnie

Historical Society Seeking Recipes

The Washington County Historical Society is currently in the process of developing a historical cookbook, and we need your help. This is more than just a cookbook, it is a historical snapshot of life in Washington County. We want this cookbook to not only have quality recipes but recipes that will tell the story of immigration to Washington County in the nineteenth century and how your mothers or grandmothers changed old family recipes in the early twentieth century.

The book will have thirteen chapters, one for each township in the county. Each chapter will include township history, information on nationalities and ethnic groups that settled in the township and excerpts that will explain life in the 1800's.

Besides recipes on food and drink, old family home medical remedies, household products

Ronald Reagan was president of his high school student council and of the student body at Eureka College.

(soap for example), and interesting family stories will be included in the cookbook.

We have had good response but we are in need of more recipes from the towns of Wayne, Farmington, and Kewaskum as well as the Village of Kewaskum. If you have any recipes to contribute, please send them to: Zona Miske, 5990 Wayne Center Dr., Allenton, WI 53002 or Marlene Reinders, c/o Washington County Historical Society, 340 S. 5th Ave., West Bend, WI 53095.

Also include your name, address, and phone number. If possible, let us know who used the recipes, and where they were from and also any stories you may wish to relate in regard to the recipes. We are extending our deadline to accept recipes to April 1 to give you time to send them.

If you have any questions, please call the museum at 335-4678 or Zona Miske at 629-5778.

Indians Lose Thriller At Team Sectional

By Noel Stollenwerk

CAMPBELLSPORT - When does a tie turn into a loss? When you are involved in a WIAA Team Sectional and other criteria are involved in the decision, that's when, as Kewaskum found out here, last Tuesday.

The Indians put forth a huge rally in their match with East Troy, and came away with a 27-27 tie. But because East Troy had won seven matches to the Indians' six, KHS was the team eliminated from the tournament.

East Troy advanced to the finals, where it lost to Campbellsport, 42-18, as the Cougars advanced to the State Team Tournament for the second straight year.

Despite not being able to pull out the victory, KHS coach John Nell was nevertheless pleased with his kids' performance.

"We did a great job, really wonderful," Nell said of the effort. "They were stacked with seven kids that had twenty or more wins, and our kids fought them to the bitter end."

Things started out favorable for the Indians, as Joel Dzedzic (103) and Jake Thull (119) each recorded pins to put KHS in front 12-3. But East Troy rolled off five straight wins in taking a 24-12 advantage.

"There were some really close matches in there," Nell said, pointing to matches involving Tyler Dieringer (125) and Paul Reis (140). Both Indian grapplers lost leads in the final :20 to lose by identical 5-4 scores. "They were both real tight matches."

But led by Chad Muckerheide's 2-0 win over 26-4 Chris Middleton, the Indians rallied. Brad Jackson and Rich Farchione each posted wins to make it 24-21. Matt Heather then allowed the Indians a chance, as he didn't allow Bill Rozmaryowski (21-9) to score a pin, which would have dashed any KHS hopes.

Heather, despite weighing just 163.5 pounds, lost the 189-pound match by a 9-2 count. The seven-point win made it 27-21 in favor of East Troy, and meant that KHS heavyweight Tim Gundrum needed a pin to tie the match.

Gundrum delivered, putting Josh Chapman's shoulders down in just :55. Nevertheless, the tiebreaker procedure meant that East Troy would advance to the title match, which it eventually lost. Still, Nell was encouraged.

"Heather did real well," in avoiding the pin, or even an eight-point loss, which would have given East Troy an extra team point. He hung in there, and showed a lot of heart. And then Gundrum came up with the big pin."

"Our kids wrestled well," Nell went on, adding, "They want to get back there next year, and I think they can. They are already asking me about wrestling camps and those things, so I know they want to work."

Campbellsport now will take part in the State Team Tournament, March 4-5 in West Allis. The Cougars will face powerful Nekoosa in one semifinal, while Baldwin-Woodville will take on Luxemburg-Casco in the other Division 2 semifinal.

In Division 1, it will be D.C. Everest vs. Pulaski; Middleton vs. Sheboygan North; Waukesha North vs. Racine Park; and Muskego vs. Sussex Hamilton. In Division 3, it will be Royall vs. Cedar Grove, and Athens vs. Boyceville.

JV, Frosh Girls Lose

By Noel Stollenwerk

KIEL - It wasn't a pleasant ending for either the Kewaskum JV or freshmen girls basketball teams in their season finales here, last Saturday.

Kiel came up victors in both contests, winning the JV battle 39-25, and the freshmen game 36-30.

"Kiel was a very aggressive team," JV coach Keith Amundson explained. "We played close to them only in the third quarter."

Maureen Leitheiser scored 12 points to pace the JV's, who finished the season with a 6-14 overall mark, including 4-8 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

The freshmen, meanwhile, fell behind 12-1 after one quarter of play. But the team showed resiliency, as they "came back to make a game of it," said coach Ken Soerens.

Becky Heisdorf scored eight points for the frosh, who finished the year, 4-14.

Gerhartz Leads HT Wildcats to Victory

The Holy Trinity A-Team boys basketball members moved one more game closer to winning the Kettle Moraine Catholic League conference title as they defeated the Knights of St. Mary's, Eden, on Friday, February 11 by a score of 61-45.

Celebrating Parent's Night at the Kewaskum Middle School, Athletic Association Board President Mike Strobel introduced the players, cheerleaders and their parents prior to the beginning of the competition.

Starter Dave Gerhartz had an outstanding game leading his teammates to victory.

In an intense first quarter of play, the Wildcats passed the ball well. The teams were pretty evenly matched. Eden in-bounded the ball on two occasions with long passes trying to beat the Wildcat defense. An aggressive Eden defense in the last seconds was not able to strip the Wildcats of the lead as the quarter closed in favor of Holy Trinity, 15-14.

Early in the second quarter, Holy Trinity didn't seem to be there for the rebounds and Eden tried to take advantage of the situation. The Wildcats quickly regrouped and tightened up their defense. Offensively the Wildcats had several fast moving scoring drives and extended their lead by nine over the Knights, 31-22, at half time.

The Wildcats dominated the second half both offensively and defensively, outscoring the Knights 30-23. Jarrod Gruber forced a jump ball and captured a long pass to score two. The players again passed well, patiently waiting to take a shot.

Dave Gerhartz had two steals in the fourth quarter, driving down court and scoring both times. As time ran out, the Wildcats prevailed in a victory. The win extends their conference record to 7-1 and ties them for first place.

Dave Gerhartz led the Wildcats with an impressive 25 points which included two three-point buckets and led the team with seven steals. Derek Dorn added ten points and was tops in rebounds for the team with ten.

Jim Kopecky scored seven points with Corey Amerling adding six. Shaun Timblin and Chris Wessing each added four, Chad Schoofs, three, Jason Butschlick and Jarrod Gruber contributed two points each to the team's effort.

The Wildcats next scheduled home game is Friday, February 18, when the Mayville Celtics of St. Mary's will be their guests. Play begins at 5:30 p.m. at the Kewaskum Middle School.

H.T. Boys' B-Team Ends Season With Fine 10-0 Record

Mike Struebing and the Holy Trinity Wildcats Boys' B-Team can be very proud of their record. After capturing the conference title one week ago, they won their final two games.

Friday's game against St. Mary's of Mayville was won by a score of 38-21. The leading scorer of the evening was Chris Koth with 15 points. Other players who contributed to the score were: Billy Cook - 9 points, Jason Strobel - 6 points, Luke Piwoni - 4 points, and Jesse Boegel and Paul Mertz with 2 points each.

The Wildcats final game of the season was played on Sunday at Eden against St. Mary's. After leading at the end of the first quarter 12-2 the Wildcats were down at the half by a score of 18-6. The end of the third quarter will showed Eden leading 32-28. In the fourth quarter things began to turn around for the Wildcats. The final score was 47 for the Wildcats and 35 for St. Mary's. Scorers for the Wildcats were: Chris Koth - 16 points, Jason Strobel and Billy Cook with 9 points each, Mitch Strobel - 6 points, Jason Gruber - 5 points and Nick Staehler - 2 points.

Congratulations on a great season!

KEWASKUM - Anyone would love to bow out in the style that Kewaskum senior Ginger Wiesner did here, last Tuesday night.

Playing in front of the home crowd for the final time during the regular season, Wiesner scored a career-high 28 points to lead the Kewaskum girls past Plymouth, 51-41, in an Eastern Wisconsin Conference contest.

The win upped the Lady Indians' record in the EW to 5-6, and improved their season mark to 9-10.

The Panthers battled the hosts tooth and nail, as they wanted to spoil the Senior Recognition Night festivities. But Wiesner would have nothing of it, as she continued her recent scoring surge.

"Ginger has really turned up her offensive production, the past few games," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said. "She seems much more in the flow of the game, not forcing anything."

Wiesner is doing it at the defensive end, as well. She and junior Missy Rohrer combined for seven steals, as the KHS quicker guards hassled the Panthers the entire game.

"Our guards really put the pressure on them," Eichstedt said, including Mary Yahr and Ali Bruendl in the mix. "We really slowed them down. I was really pleased with our defense."

Despite the great play, the Indians could never gain much of an advantage over Plymouth. Although it outscored Plymouth in every quarter, KHS led by just a single point after one quarter, and held a 22-18 lead at the intermission. The lead was pushed to 36-30 heading into the fourth, when Wiesner put the Panthers away with her free throw shooting.

"Late in the game, we want the ball in her hands," Eichstedt said of Wiesner, who hit nine of 12 free throw attempts. For the game, the Indians outscored Plymouth 21-7 at the line. "That really was the difference in the game."

Eichstedt got good performances out of several players, including Andrea Bonlender.

"She really did a nice job, coming in and rebounding," when Missy Radtke got in early foul trouble. Radtke finished with nine rebounds, and Bonlender added five. "They both did an admirable job inside."

Sophomore Kelly Schreffler also "really hustled and gave us a lift," said Eichstedt. Rohrer was also commended for her six-of-eight effort at the line, and for "running the offense well." Rohrer finished with eight points, while Yahr added 10.

The large crowd also gave the Indians a boost according to the coach.

"I really felt that the crowd gave us an emotional lift," he said. "It made for some great enthusiasm, and it was a fun night for basketball. It was the kind of game we needed to have."

Lady Indians to Host Regional Thursday

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - The Kewaskum girls basketball team will have the home court advantage in its opening game of the WIAA Regionals this Thursday, and chances are that it will need some kind of edge.

The Lady Indians will host the winner of Tuesday's match-up between Campbellsport and Mayville. Most likely, the winner will be Mayville (18-2), which is currently riding a 17-game winning streak.

Thursday night's contest will begin at 7:30 p.m., with that winner heading to Sheboygan Falls on Saturday. Waupun (16-4) will likely be the opponent.

The winner of Saturday's game at Sheboygan Falls will head to Sectional action next Friday in Shorewood. The Sectional final will be held at New Berlin Eisenhower the following night.

Ironically, the brackets for the boys Regional are set up in the same manner. Kewaskum will host its first game of the Regional on March 3, facing the winner of Campbellsport-Mayville, which will be played March 1.

Lady Indians Beat Kiel; Finish at .500

By Noel Stollenwerk

KIEL - Faced with the prospect of having to win its last three games just to finish the regular season at the .500 mark, the Kewaskum girls basketball team rose to the challenge.

The Lady Indians completed that quest here, last Saturday, as they outlasted Kiel 51-47 in an Eastern Wisconsin Conference finale.

The win evened the Lady Indians' EW record at 6-6, and leveled their season mark at 10-10 entering WIAA Tournament action.

"The spirit and effort was just outstanding," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said of his team. "Our level of intensity was noticeably increased."

On a couple of occasions, that high intensity cost the team, as it was assessed three technical fouls during the course of play.

The first two came in the opening quarter, when Eichstedt was whistled for consecutive technicals for arguing with the officials. Another came later, when an Indian player said the wrong thing to an official after not getting a call. But the Lady Indians didn't let the officials get them down.

"We were very motivated after that," Eichstedt said. "We really turned a negative into a positive."

After trailing 14-11 after one quarter, the Lady Indians turned it up a notch in the second stanza. Led by Ginger Wiesner and Mary Yahr, who combined for 14 points, the Indians overtook the Raiders and led 31 to 25 at the half.

Kewaskum extended the margin to 39-27 midway through the third quarter, but then got lackadaisical.

"I started substituting at that point because I felt we were tired," Eichstedt said. "But actually, we just stopped executing our offense."

While Kewaskum wasn't executing, Kiel was. The Raiders hit a pair of three-pointers during a 15-2, and led 42-41 heading into the final quarter.

"I wasn't really too worried at that point," Eichstedt said, noting that his team just hit a bad stretch. But he did begin to get anxious as the fourth period rolled on, as Kiel maintained its hold on the lead, at 46-44 late in the contest.

"But Ginger really turned it on then," Eichstedt said, noting that Wiesner hit a jumper and then converted a three-point play to put KHS ahead 49-46 with under a minute to go.

Kiel called a timeout to try and set up a play, but Eichstedt knew what the Raiders had in mind.

"We knew that they were going to try and put up a three-pointer, and we weren't going to let them," he said of his strategy. "They tried and tried, but we just didn't let them have it."

The Raiders, unable to try a game-tying three, instead put up a short shot that was off target. Missy Rohrer was fouled soon after, and she stepped to the line and calmly sank a pair of free throws with :14 to go, sealing the win.

"It was a real exciting game, and a good confidence builder," Eichstedt said.

Wiesner finished with 27 points, and has now averaged that figure the past three games. Wiesner also contributed seven rebounds and five steals. Yahr added 10 points and eight rebounds, while Missy Radtke grabbed 13 boards, and Ali Bruendl chipped in with eight points and five steals.

"(We) continue to improve," Eichstedt said. "If we play with the same intensity and spirit," the Lady Indians could do well in the Regional and Sectionals the next two weeks.

Dziedzic, Muckerheide Qualify for State

By Noel Stollenwerk

ELKHORN - It's on to state for a pair of Kewaskum High School wrestlers.

Joel Dziedzic and Chad Muckerheide both earned the right to wrestle in this weekend's WIAA State Wrestling Meet in Madison. Both KHS grapplers finished second in their respective divisions at the WIAA Sectional Meet held here, last Saturday.

"I was real happy with the way things turned out," KHS coach John Nell said. "We had two out of the five qualify, so that's pretty good, I think."

While Dziedzic and Muckerheide were successful in moving on, the Indians' three other participants in the Sectional were eliminated in their opening matches. Still, Nell was more than delighted for Dziedzic, a freshman, and Muckerheide, a senior.

"It worked out real well," he went on to say. "Obviously, there are no easy matches once you get to this point, so they both had very good days."

Dziedzic ran his record to 33-2 with a pair of wins and a loss in the finals to Jefferson's Tim Gehrmann. Dziedzic opened against Laconia's Jason Zimmel, beating him handily, 21-6. The young wrestler then had a real scare in the semi-finals against Campbellsport's Clint Dexter.

"That one went right down to the wire," Nell said, noting that Dziedzic trailed 4-3 with under :10 left in the match. Dziedzic then scored a reversal with just :02 to go, securing the 5-4 victory.

That sent Dziedzic into the title match against Gehrmann. It wasn't the first time that a Dziedzic met a Gehrmann in a Sectional final. In 1993, Joel's brother Mark met Adam Gehrmann in the 119-pound title match, only to lose and subsequently get eliminated in a wrestleback.

This year's 103-pound title bout was dominated for the most part by Dziedzic. But a couple of mistakes during the course of the match hurt the KHS standout, and the two wrestlers were tied at 3-3 after three periods. In the overtime, Gehrmann caught Dziedzic out of position, and scored the take-down for the win.

"Joel was clearly the better wrestler, I think," Nell said of the matchup. "He just got out of position in overtime and got taken down. If they wrestle again (at state), there's no doubt in my mind that Joel would beat him."

Muckerheide had a little tougher time of things in the 152-pound division. After opening with a win against Wilmot's Jason Allen, 6-2, Muckerheide ran into Chilton's Larry Meyer, the Eastern Wisconsin Conference champ at that weight. Meyer overwhelmed Muckerheide, scoring an 8-2 victory.

That sent Muckerheide into the consolation bracket, where he took care of Shorewood's Bryce Frazier for the second time in two weeks, 5-2. Frazier lost to Muckerheide in the finals of the Slinger Regional as well.

After Meyer beat Oostburg's Jesse Fryer in the title match, Muckerheide was awarded a wrestleback match, because his lone loss came to the division champion. Muckerheide seized the opportunity, beating Fryer, 5-2, thus earning the right to wrestle in Madison. "He did a great job," Nell said of the senior Muckerheide. "Meyer is a very tough wrestler... probably will be in the top three (at state). Chad really had a good day."

Unfortunately, three other KHS entrants didn't have great days. At 119 pounds, Jake Thull "ran into a buzzsaw," said Nell, referring to Elkhorn's Mark Rathje. Thull lost by technical fall, 15-0, but in doing so was the only opponent of Rathje's not to get pinned. Rathje went on to win the division, and move on to state.

He's a tough wrestler," Nell said of Rathje. "But Jake did about as well as you could ask. He had a good season," Nell said of Thull, who finished the year with a 19-12 record.

At 125 pounds, Tyler Dieringer also ran into a tough foe, losing to Laconia's Troy Jacob, 12-5. In what was a close match, Dieringer got reversed and put to his back midway through the match for a five-point move, and he never recovered.

"It was real tight," Nell said of the match until that point. "But that (five-pointer) really took him out of it." Dieringer ended his junior year with a fine 22-12 mark.

KHS' lone other entrant was at 130 pounds, where Jason Czaja was eliminated by Chilton's Damien Hoerth, 11-2. Czaja had won the Regional title, and after entering with a .500 record on the year, Czaja finished the season, 16-15.

"I was real happy with all of them," Nell said, adding that he is excited about sending two more grapplers to state. "It's going to be fun. Anybody can win it all."

Action Gets Underway Friday for Dziedzic, Muckerheide Indians, Other EW Wrestlers Get Ready for State

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - While Joel Dziedzic and Chad Muckerheide made sure that Kewaskum was represented at this weekend's WIAA State Wrestling Meet in Madison, the Indians are not the lone Eastern Wisconsin Conference member to be in attendance.

Six other EW wrestlers will be headed south this weekend in search of a state title, while other area contenders will also make the trek.

Chilton's Larry Meyer (152) and Kevin Coffen (189), Kiel's

Phil Kirsch (135), Two Rivers' Jason Smogoleski (103) and Plymouth's Matt Warner (130) and Paxton Moore (189) all qualified for the State Meet by finishing first or second at their respective Sectionals. Plymouth's duo will compete in Division 1, while the others will wrestle in Division 2.

West Bend East qualified four grapplers for the big show, including Mike Damrow (103), Scott Timm (112), Brady Berglin (125), and Jason Cairl (160). Campbellsport also is sending four wrestlers to Madison, including John Dexter (112), Chad Rochwite (130), Jason Hall (140) and Aron Oeschner (171).

KHS coach John Nell thinks he knows who will face Dziedzic and Muckerheide in their opening matches day morning at the UW Fieldhouse. Dziedzic, currently the number two rated 103-pounder in Division 2, should open against Chris Voelker of Ellsworth, who is rated fourth by Crossface magazine. Nekoosa's Josh Jensen, who won the Wisconsin Dells Sectional, is rated as the best 103-pounder.

With the number two ranking, Dziedzic has a realistic possibility of challenging for the state title as a freshman, a rare feat. Ironically, there has been just one wrestler - Pittsville's Matt Hanutke - in the 54-year history of the WIAA Tournament to win four state titles. In addition, there have been just 16 wrestlers to ever win three titles. Josh Kurtz (1992) is KHS' lone state champ.

Muckerheide, meanwhile, should draw Nekoosa's John Bowman in the opening round. Bowman is currently the top-rated 152-pounder in Division 2, so Muckerheide will have his work cut out for him.

"He's a real quality wrestler," Nell said of Bowman, whose coach happens to be a good friend of Nell's. "There won't be any easy matches down there, but anybody can win it all."

Action gets underway for Division 1 wrestlers on Thursday night, while KHS' duo will wrestle on Friday morning, beginning at 9:30. Division semi-finals begin at 5:30 Friday evening, with consolation matches set for 10 a.m. Saturday, and championship bouts at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.
