King Shannon Mitchell and Queen Melissa Rohrer

The Kewaskum High School Junior Class held their prom on Saturday, April 16, 1994.

A large crowd of students and parents enjoyed the evening in the jungle rendezvous decor. The song theme for the Junior Prom was The Dance by Garth Brooks.

At the 10 p.m. Grand March, the court members were introduced and the King and Queen were crowned. Shannon Mitchell and Melissa Rohrer were selected as the reigning King and Queen.

The Junior Class would like to thank all of their parents and teachers, especially Ms. Pritzlaff, class advisor, for helping to make it a memorable evening. Also a big thank you to all of those who donated time and material for the Prom.

Ruth Schmitt is New School Board President

KEWASKUM - There was a passing of the guard at the Board of Education's annual reorganizational meeting last Monday night.

After five years as the School Board's president, Neal Weare will no longer fill that capacity after members cast their ballots for the Board's officers.

Ruth Schmitt, who is currently serving in her eighth year as board member, was elected as the new president.

Other new officers include Vice President Ron Beimborn, and Treasurer Karen Sparks. Sparks is the newest board member, after she replaced Janet Wolfenberg, who resigned earlier this year.

Jean Goeden was re-elected the Board's Clerk.

New Village Board Faces Light Agenda

The first meeting for new Village Board members Bill Kulas, John Borland and Robert Stoltzmann was relatively short and sweet Monday evening.

Department Heads Fire Chief Mark Groeschel and Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles were absent from the meeting due to prior commitments. This, coupled with the fact that new board members have not really had a chance "to get their feet wet" with their new committee appointments, enabled President Wagner to "zip" through the mild agenda in near record time.

New appointments include the naming of John Borland as Chairman of the Protection and Public Safety Committee, Robert Stoltzmann as Chairman of the Public Services Committee and Bill Kulas as Chairman of the Public Works Committee. Kulas also agreed to serve as Board Representative for the Legislative Committee of the Mid-Moraine Municipal Association.

Trustee Robert Beisbier introduced the motion made by Trustee Bill Kulas to hire Jim Noren as the Plant Operator/Lab

Centennial Committee to Meet Monday

There will be a meeting of the Kewaskum Centennial Committee Monday evening, May 9, at 7 p.m. in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First St., Kewaskum.

All representatives of Kewaskum community organizations are encouraged to attend this meeting.

Items on the agenda include a review of the calendar of events; establishment of a common theme and discussion regarding the event itself and fund-raising possibilities.

In order for the Centennial Celebration to be a success in 1995, input is needed now from civic organizations and the citizens of the community.

If you have any ideas you would like to share with the committee, please call members Dan Schmidt at 626-8484 (days) or Lana Kuehl at 626-2626 (days).

KHS Concert In the Park

The Kewaskum High School musicians will soon be playing and singing in the park.

That's right... the yearly outdoor concert is just about here. All that is needed is a little more practice and some cooperation with the weather man.

On Tuesday, May 17, the bands and choirs of KHS will be set up in the large shelter area at River Hill Park. These groups will be presenting an evening of fun music beginning at 6:30 p.m.

They will also be serving brats, hamburgers, soda, coffee and more beginning at 6 p.m. So reserve the date for the music students at KHS, bring the family and friends (and some money for the food) and come and enjoy an evening in the park.

KHS Excels at State Forensics

Kewaskum High School forensics participants earned top honors at the WHSFA State competition in Madison last Friday, April 22.

Gold medal winners achieving a perfect score of 25 points were Christa Fleischman and Michelle Thull in the poetry category. Jenny Goodsell proved her fine acting skills in the category of solo acting and also won a gold medal for a perfect score.

Close behind the gold medal winners were eleven students with near perfect scores of 24 points. Winning silver medals were senior Ali Bruendl (a fine actress and veteran of KHS musical performances) in the category of solo acting; Anne Mertz demonstrating tennis skills; Kara Palmer in the category of farrago; Melissa Rohrer in public address; Carrie Krell in prose; Katrina Gilles also in prose, and Jennifer Ebert, Jennie Theisen, Tammy Theisen, Tina Kamrath and Jill Weiss in a humorous group interpretive selection.

Bronze medal finalists, with scores of 20 to 22 points, were Laura Dehler, discussing toys used by children in the 1840's, in the category of moments in history; Carrie Stoffel, defending the use of BGH, in four-minute; Jennifer Schmidt in a food demonstration; and the play-acting group of Renate Wilke, Maureen Leitheiser, and Jenny Straub presenting "Welfare Lady."

Bronze medal achievement awards were earned by Lisa Pamperin, who explained cattle herding in the 1840's, in the category of moments in history; Laura Fleischman, who read poetry by Dr. Seuss; and the group interpretive team of Jason Czaja, Suzi Gauvin, Sabrina Maul, Jake Thull and Rachael Chambers, interpreting the antics of "The White Rabbit Caper."

These talented students are continuing the tradition of excellence in the Kewaskum High School forensics program. They are to be congratulated for their hard work, fine skills, and accomplishments in forensics. Coaches Elizabeth Rydzik and Judith Jacak thank them for their efforts and enthusiastically await next year's competition and another successful season.

Badger Boys and Girls Selections Announced

This year some 2,000 junior boys and girls throughout Wisconsin will represent their schools and community at a state gathering of Wisconsin school students. Kewaskum High School delegates are sponsored by both the local American Legion Post and Kiwanis organization.

This year Melissa Rohrer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Rohrer; Suzanne Gauvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gauvin; Christine Neumann, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Roger Neumann; Jacob Thull, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thull; David Gosa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gosa, and Timothy Strigenz, son of Dr. and Mrs. Anthony Strigenz were the six junior representatives who were selected from the top third of their class.

The selection of delegates is based on the students' scholastic standing, their participation in extra-curricular activities such as athletics, music, speech, journalism, clubs or other school organizations and their adaptability to the Badger State Program.

The girls will attend camp June 4 through the 10th at Madison and the boys will go to Ripon, Wisconsin, June 11 through 18th. During these Badger State programs, the high school leaders of the future will develop a sense of individual obligations to their community, state and nation.

Poppy Day Is May 20

"The measure of a man is his willingness to serve his country. The measure of a country may be its willingness to honor those who served."

Poppy Day sends the message to all of America's veterans that they are respected for serving their country.

Americans must understand the Poppy Program of the American Legion and Auxiliary, is not to glorify war but to honor the patriotism of the millions who served. Wearing the poppy is a personal statement which simply says... "I REMEMBER."

The Robert G. Romaine Post and Auxiliary of Kewaskum will be out in force on Friday, May 20, to sell you a poppy. Help us to honor those who served their country.

All money collected for poppies can only be used for helping veterans.

Tourists are people who travel thousands of miles to take pictures of themselves standing next to the car.

Village Board

Technician in the Wastewater Treatment Plant. Board members also agreed to post the vacancy of Jim's former position as General Maintenance Worker.

Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt reviewed correspondence with the Board and reminded them of the upcoming Board of Review which will be held Monday, May 9, from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. Administrator Schmidt also presented and explained the new 1994 Village Directory, listing all committees, chairmen, members, etc. to the board.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel, speaking on behalf of the Kettle Moraine Sportsmen's Club, informed the Board that 3,000 panfish had been planted in the Milwaukee River at River Hill Park recently. He further explained he had contacted the DNR in regards to having the area where the fish were planted declared an Urban Fishing Area. The idea behind this plan is according to Urban Fishing Rules, you are allowed a daily bag limit of 10 panfish, thereby allowing the fish to last longer.

The area which would be placed in the program would run from the bridge on Highway 28 (Main Street) to the dam. A gentleman from the DNR came up to view the site and said they would be willing to place this area into the Urban (Community) Fishing Program.

All the DNR requires is the posting of signs along the site, which the members of the Kettle Moraine Sportsmen's Club have already agreed to take care of.

Knoebel also made mention that with this program, the DNR would plant trout in the river as soon as the ice goes off the river in Spring. The season on trout would be open right away with the limit being three fish.

When asked if trout could survive in the river, Knoebel said they could survive until about the end of May. According to the DNR most of the trout would be caught by that time anyway.

Trustee Charles Waala asked, "If we go on this (program), how long would we have to stay on? Is there a certain amount of time we would have to stay on it or not?" Knoebel stated he did not believe there was. It was mentioned, however, that you would have to purchase a trout stamp before you try to catch the trout.

Knoebel said, for now, he was looking for a motion to go ahead with the program. A motion was then made by Trustee Kulas, seconded by Trustee Beisbier, and unanimously decided to go ahead with the Urban Fishing Program. The Board asked Chief Knoebel to keep them posted.

New Counseling Center Opens in Campbellsport

The Counseling and Wellness Center is pleased to announce the location of their new satellite office at 105 East Main Street, Campbellsport.

The Counseling and Wellness Center is state certified for both mental health counseling and alcohol and drug abuse treatment. The staff consists of a psychiatrist, a psychologist, three psychotherapists and two certified alcohol and drug counselors.

The addition of a new satellite office will enable the Center to provide counseling, psychological and psychiatric services to the Campbellsport and surrounding communities.

SPRING TIME IS BIKE TIME

The Kewaskum Police Department would like to take this time to remind everyone about bicycle safety and laws pertaining to them.

Wis. s.s. 346.03(9), Rules of the Road, states: "Subject to the special provisions applicable to bicycles, every person riding a bicycle upon a roadway is granted all the rights and is subject to all the duties which this chapter grants or applies to the operator of a vehicle..." In short, this means that all laws pertaining to motor vehicles apply to bicycles, including, but not limited to: Riding on the right side of the road, abiding by all traffic signs and signals, riding single file, etc. NOTE: In the event a child needs to ride on the sidewalk due to safety reasons, they should be aware that pedestrians have the right of way and ride only in single file.

Also, Village of Kewaskum ordinances require that all bicycles operated on the streets of Kewaskum to have a current license affixed to them. The cost of these licenses, which are non-expiring, is $5.00. They can be obtained at the Municipal Building between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

A few safety tips to everyone operating a bicycle are: Keep your bike in good working order, wear bright colored clothing to make it easier for motorists to spot you, put a safety flag on your bike, ride single file, be aware of the area you are riding in and be ready to take evasive action if an obstacle appears and make sure the bike is the right size for the person riding it.

If we all follow these rules and safety tips, we should have a safe bicycle season.

Kewaskum Police Department*

Grandparents Visit Students At Kewaskum Elementary

Mrs. Harjus students building rockets with grandparents.

Mr. Schneider's class demonstrating their Right to Write computer program.

The week of April 25 was a BIG week for Kewaskum Elementary students.

On Wednesday, April 27 we hosted over 200 grandparents and friends for our first ever Grandparent's Day. It was a huge success! Some rooms were bursting at the seams with over 30 grandparents, or in some cases an older family friend. Each classroom planned their own special afternoon, ranging from plays and poems to computer projects to rocket building and grandparents sharing special items or stories with the children.

Grandparents were introduced to our "high tech" school as they witnessed their grandchildren operating computers from Kindergarten through 5th grade. Each classroom was escorted to the cafeteria for lemonade, coffee, cookies and snacks provided by the PTO.

At one point a chorus of Happy Birthday could be heard on behalf of James Skarda, age 71, former elementary school principal and grandfather of Kathryn Schneider an another grandpa taught us an "I'm Glad You're Here" song. And then there was Dr. Ogi who came in his track shoes so that each of his four grandchildren received equal time. Grandparents could also be heard reminiscing about their school days at KES when it was the High School.

We look forward to seeing you all back next year. Thanks for making it a BIG success!

Kiwanis Observe Prayer Week

Kewaskum Kiwanis members will recognize Worldwide Kiwanis Prayer Week May 8-14, 1994, said Roger Neumann, president of the Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum.

The observance, which began in 1980, provides Kiwanis Clubs with an opportunity to promote religious activities throughout the community, as well as recognizing individuals for their outstanding contributions to spiritual welfare, said Neumann.

The first Kiwanis Club was chartered on January 21, 1915, in Detroit, Michigan. Today, Kiwanis has grown to number 8,630 clubs and 325,584 members in 76 countries around the world. Clubs sponsor community service projects under the motto, "We Build."

Last year, Kiwanis Clubs raised and spent more than $65 million on community service activities, with a special emphasis on meeting the needs of young children. Kiwanis members also donated more than 22 million volunteer hours to these service activities.

Call Jerry Stollenwerk at 626-4485 for more information on the club's community service projects and activities or if you would like to come as a guest to one of the meetings.

Gerald W. Thompson, 53, of Campbellsport, died Saturday, April 30, 1994, at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac.

He was born Aug. 14, 1940, in Fond du Lac, to Alvin and Elsie (nee Voigt) Thompson, and married Patricia Kaehne in August, 1961. He later married Sue Weiland on April 16, 1982, in Kewaskum.

He served in the National Guard and on active duty in the U.S. Army from 1960-'62. He worked at Regal Ware, Kewaskum, from 1958 until 1989, and at the time of his death was the owner and operator of Jerry's TV in Campbellsport.

He was baptized and confirmed at Trinity Ev. Lutheran Church, Dundee, was a member of St. Lucas Ev. Lutheran Church, Kewaskum, and was also a member of the Campbellsport Lions Club, the National Rifle Association and the Campbellsport Chamber of Commerce.

Survivors include his wife; three children, Richard (special friend Dawn Bohlman), Connie (James) Gleason and Timothy, all of Campbellsport; his mother, Elsie Thompson of Campbellsport; four step-children, John (Lisa) Weiland of Campbellsport, Jackie (John) Krebsbach of Cascade, Julie (Kevin) Schmitz of Menash and James Weiland of Campbellsport; two grandchildren, James and Tami; two brothers, Thomas (Sharon) and David (Colleen), both of Campbellsport; several foster brothers, a special friend, Mary (Marvin) Waldschmidt of Fond du Lac; and other relatives and friends.

Preceding him in death were his father; an infant daughter, Debbie; and a sister, Sandra Beisbier.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 4, at 2 p.m. at St. Lucas Ev. Lutheran Church, Kewaskum. Rev. Edwin Fredrich officiated and burial was in Union Cemetery, Campbellsport.

Visitation at the Twohig Funeral Home, Campbellsport, was Tuesday from 4 to 9 p.m., and Wednesday at the church from noon until the time of services.

Memorials to the church are appreciated.

CARL O. HAUCH

Carl O. Hauch, of Fillmore, died Thursday, April 28, 1994, at the Samaritan Home, West Bend, at the age of 76.

He was born Sept. 13, 1917, in the town of Farmington, to the late Hugo and Selma (nee Geidel) Hauch, and married Sylvia Hetzel on Feb. 26, 1938, at St. Martin's UCC, Fillmore.

He served in the U.S. Army during World War II, and upon his discharge was employed at the Washington County Highway Department for over 40 years, retiring in 1980.

He was an honorary member of the Fillmore Fire Department, served on the Farmington Town Board for many years, was a longtime board member of the Fillmore Union Cemetery Association and a former member of the Fillmore Turner Society.

Funeral services were held Saturday, April 30, at 2 p.m. at St. Martin's UCC, Fillmore. Rev. David Jerger officiated and burial followed in Fillmore Union Cemetery.

Visitation at the church only was Saturday from 11 a.m. until the time of services.

Memorials to St. Martin's UCC appreciated.

The Myrhum Funeral Home, West Bend, served the family.

HATTIE W. KRUEGER

Hattie W. Krueger, nee Pagel, of Mesa, Ariz., formerly of West Bend, died Monday, April 25, 1994, at the Mesa Sunrise Center, at the age of 81.

She was born Jan. 26, 1913, in Oberhausen, Germany, to the late Richard and Hedwig (Voss) Pagel. The family came to the U.S. in 1923, settling in Iowa until coming to West Bend in 1926.

After her marriage to Burton Krueger on Aug. 7, 1943, at St. Lucas Ev. Lutheran Church, Kewaskum, they settled in West Bend where she was employed as a telephone operator for Wisconsin Bell for 36 years, retiring in September 1974.

Her husband passed away July 17, 1989.

Survivors include a brother, Otto (Dorothy) of West Bend; three sisters, Edith Veers of Mesa, Ariz., Ruth Slabic of Bay City, Mich., and Gertrude Schlosser of Kewaskum; special friends, Frank and Ann Matenaer, Dede and Dick Fischer and Maurice Ward, all of West Bend; nieces, nephews; and other relatives and friends.

Preceding her in death were a brother, Herbert and three brothers-in-law, Eugene Veers, Carl Slabic and Harold Schlosser.

She was a member of the Telephone Pioneers.

Funeral services were held Friday, April 29, at 8 p.m. at the Schmidt Funeral Home, West Bend. Rev. Victor Hackbarth officiated and burial of the remains was in Wisconsin Memorial Park, Brookfield.

Visitation at the funeral home was Friday from 5 p.m. until the time of services.

Memorials to the charity of the donor's choice may be given.

LEVINA B. DETUNCQ

Levina B. Detuncq, nee Baer, of Beechwood, formerly of West Bend, died Sunday, April 24, 1994, at the Beechwood Rest Home, at the age of 97.

She was born Jan. 10, 1897, in West Bend, to the late Christ and Mary (nee Rothenmaier) Baer, and married Arthur P. DeTuncq at Immanuel UCC, West Bend, on Oct. 10, 1919. He passed away April 20, 1970.

After her graduation from Badger State College in Milwaukee, she was employed at a West Bend law office for a short time, at First National Bank and then Birkholz Enterprises for a short time prior to working at Regal Ware in Kewaskum, where she worked until retiring Dec. 31, 1971.

Survivors include a daughter, Mary Lou Hahn of West Bend; a daughter-in-law, Ruth DeTuncq of South Milwaukee; four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; a brother, Earl (Elaine) of Milwaukee; and other relatives and friends.

Preceding her in death were a son, Harold; a son-in-law, Jerome Hahn; a brother, Oscar; two sisters, Dianna Weiss and Florence Herman.

Funeral services were held Monday, May 2, at 2 p.m. at Immanuel UCC, West Bend. Rev. James Eckblad officiated, and burial followed in Pilgrim's Rest Cemetery.

Visitation at the church only was Monday from 10 a.m. until the time of services.

The Schmidt Funeral Home, West Bend, served the family.

EDWARD L. GREGORY

Edward L. Gregory, 55, of the Town of Wayne, passed away on Tuesday, April 26, 1994 at his home.

He was born on November 11, 1938 in Milwaukee, the son of Milton and Katherine (Johnson) Gregory and on June 29, 1962, he was united in marriage to Yvonne White at Divine Peace Lutheran Church in Milwaukee.

Mr. Gregory was a member of Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in the Town of Wayne and was employed as an engineer for Allister Fabricating Company in Menomonee Falls.

Survivors include his wife, Yvonne of the town of Wayne; his mother, Katherine Gregory, and a brother, Michael Gregory, both of Oshkosh.

He was preceded in death by his father.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. on Friday, April 29, at the Miller Funeral Home in Kewaskum, with Rev. Dennis Strong officiating. Burial followed in the Zion Lutheran Church Cemetery.

Friends called from noon until the time of services at the funeral home on Friday.

LEONA WILKENS

Leona Wilkens, nee Dickmann, of West Bend, died Monday, May 2, 1994, at the Samaritan Home, at the age of 93.

She was born Aug. 23, 1900, in the town of Auburn, to the late Gustave and Louisa (nee Dins) Dickmann, and married Clarence Wilkens on June 7, 1924, in Campbellsport. He passed away Jan. 13, 1981.

She was a member of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, West Bend, St. John's Ladies Aid, St. John's Guild and the Bethesda Auxiliary.

Survivors include a daughter, Audrey (Paul) Watzlawick of West Bend; three grandchildren, Terry (Gloriann) Watzlawick of Treasure Island, Fla., Steven (Karen) Watzlawick of Merrill and Jeff (Debbie) Watzlawick of West Bend; five great-grandchildren, Jay, Amy, Kristy, Stacey and Paul; nieces, nephews; and other relatives and friends.

Preceding her in death were three brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services will be Friday, May 6, at 11 a.m. at St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, West Bend. Rev. Robert Hoehner and Rev. Kevin Jones will co-officiate, and burial will follow in Washington County Memorial Park, West Bend.

Visitation at the Myrhum Funeral Home, West Bend, will be Thursday from 4 to 9 p.m., and Friday at the church from 9 a.m. until the time of services.

The family appreciates memorials to Kettle Moraine Hospice or St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church.

ELIZABETH STAEHLING

Elizabeth A. Staehling, infant daughter of Steven and Renee (nee Gross) Staehling of Wausau, passed away on Friday, April 29, 1994, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Marshfield.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by her maternal grandparents, Ronald and Carol Gross of West Bend; paternal grandparents, John and Lois Staehling of Waupun; great-grandparents, Dorothy Staehling and Gladys Kastein, both of Waupun; aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

A Mass of the Angels was held at 11 a.m. on Monday, May 2, 1994 at St. Matthias Catholic Church in the Town of Auburn with Father Elroy Pesch officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

The Miller Funeral Home in Kewaskum served the family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of CHESTER STEINER, who passed away one year ago, May 3, 1993:

Though your smiles are gone and your hands we cannot touch,

Still we have so many memories of ones we loved so much;
Your memories are our keep sake

With which we'll never part,
God has you in His keeping
We have you in our hearts.

KHS Student to Attend 1994 ArtsWorld Program

Jenny Goodsell

Jenny Goodsell, daughter of Deborah Goodsell, was chosen as one of 300 students statewide to participate in ArtsWorld '94.

The summer program for students talented in creative writing, dance, music, theater, or the visual arts will be held at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point. ArtsWorld was established in 1984 after a two-year pilot project. It is a cooperative project between the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, the Wisconsin Arts Board, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, and the Alliance for Arts Education.

The State Superintendent explained that ArtsWorld encourages students to develop their talents. "This program provides an opportunity for artistically inclined students to work with professional artists and master teachers in the company of other students who share artistic interests. Over 1200 students have received direct benefits since the beginning of ArtsWorld."

Two one-week sessions will be held: June 26 to July 2 and July 3 to 9. Students attending ArtsWorld will work on independent projects during six-hour studio sessions, participate in evening performances and special arts events, and attend programs by guest artists.

Jenny Goodsell will attend the June 26 to July 2 session. She was nominated to ArtsWorld in the area of music, representing the Kewaskum School District, according to District Administrator Dr. David Heather.

KMS Students to Present 'Happy Valley High' Musical

The Kewaskum Middle School Music Department presents, "Happy Valley High," at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, May 13, in Rose Hall in the high school. This musical takes place in the 50's and is filled with lively tunes from that era.

The main story centers around teenage life in the town of Happy Valley: the high school, football team, cheerleaders, and local soda fountain. The new football coach, Al (played by Matt Fehlhaber), tries to turn the losing team into a winner. Richie (Troy Staehler), Fred (Jason Fideler), and Harvey (Scott Schreffler) are eager teammates who try to get the new guy, Olie (Kevin Pamperin), to play football and join their quest for the conference championship. Among those that cheer them on are Beth (Joanne Thull), Thelma (MacKenzie Downs), Betty (Jenny Immel), Hilda (Jody Schmidt), Barbara (Lisa Dehler), and Sarah (Lynelle West). They all hang out a lot at the malt shop owned by Cynthia (Erin Theusch).

Butch (Josh Dieringer) is the bully from the next town and wants his ex-girlfriend Cathy (Krissy Krell) to steal some plays from the team. His new girlfriend, Patsy (Dawn Markeland), accompanies him to Happy Valley for a surprise visit and stirs up a lot of trouble.

Tickets are $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children, students and senior citizens and may be purchased at the door or from any cast member.

KEWASKUM DECORATES FOR MAY DAY??? Good old Mother Nature was a little mixed up and decided to play a cruel and sick April Fool joke on the last day of the month instead of the first day of the month. The lovely lady dumped six inches of that icky white stuff, usually requested for the Christmas holiday, not for May Day celebrations. As much as we abhor seeing those fancy falling flakes this time of the year, you have to admit the s-n-o-w was kinda pretty. It was the heavy, wet variety that clings to trees and budding limbs as witnessed in the above photo, shot around mid-day last Saturday. What made it even prettier was the fact the temperature rose to almost 60 degrees on Sunday and made water out of the leftover Christmas decor.

PROCLAMATION
MUNICIPAL CLERKS WEEK
May 1 through May 7, 1994

Whereas, The Office of the Municipal Clerk, a time honored and vital part of local government exists throughout the world, and

Whereas, The Office of the Municipal Clerk is the oldest among public servants, and

Whereas, The Office of the Municipal Clerk provides the professional link between the citizens, the local governing bodies and agencies of government at other levels, and

Whereas, The Municipal Clerk has pledged to be ever mindful of their neutrality and impartiality, rendering equal service to all.

Whereas, The Municipal Clerk serves as the information center on functions of local government and community.

Whereas, The Municipal Clerk continually strives to improve the administration of the affairs of the Office of the Municipal Clerk through participation in education programs, seminars, workshops and the annual meetings of their state, province, county and international professional organizations.

Whereas, It is most appropriate that we recognize the accomplishments of the Office of the Municipal Clerk.

Now, Therefore, We, the Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum, do recognize the week of May 1 through May 7, 1994, as Municipal Clerks Week, and further extend appreciation to our Municipal Clerk, Daniel S. Schmidt and to all Municipal Clerks for the vital services they perform and their exemplary dedication to the communities they represent.

By order of the Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, this 2nd day of May, 1994.

Speaking Contest is a Success for Area 4-H'ers

Thirty-four area youth used their special speaking talents at the Washington County Public Agency Center in West Bend on April 19. The 4-H'ers, ages 5-18, centered their speeches around the topic "Health....The 4th H."

The speakers were challenged to demonstrate both their speaking skills as well as their knowledge of health. There were a variety of creative topics including such titles as, "Family Health," "Not So Perfect Health," and "What Does Health Have to Do With Me." Cash awards were provided by the Belle Albright Memorial.

Sr. Janet Heder, JoAnne Schacht, Mary Breuer, Stephen Sexton, Doris Sexton, Eugene Roos, Joan Stoffel and Kathryn

Scholwarter served as judges for the contest.

Top Speaking Awards went to Sara Puestow and Stefanie Westerman, Junior Team Reading; Annie Feutz, Junior Interpretive; Cassandra Luft, Junior Original; Katie Klabunde, Intermediate Interpretive; Sara Larsen, Intermediate Original.

Other youth participating in the speaking contest and receiving awards were: Dawn Felix, Colleen Harry, Anne Mert, Jessica Harry, Becky Harry, Brian Dourn, Billy Klabunde, Paul Mertz, Katie Feutz, Rachel Westerman, Alicia Windall, Shown above is a groundhog's eye view of the new ramp which was recently constructed at the west end of the dam in River Hill Park. At Monday night's Village Board meeting there was a unanimous vote to grade and pave the area from the circle on the south end of Park View Drive (in front of the lift station) all the way back to the ramp. This will enable the handicapped and those confined to wheelchairs an even greater accessibility to our beautiful park.

SPEAKING CONTEST.

Hana Johnson, Marta Johnson, Erin Craig, Angie Lawton, Mary Ann Feutz, Patty Klabunde, Dan Sengpiel, Jason Carter, Renee Bellin, Jason VandeBoom, Mindy Holl, Jenny Popp, Brian Hakes, Jennifer Rogowski, Jenny Ebert, and Michelle Lunde. In the Cloverbud category they were: Chelsea Popp, Timothy Dumouchel, Chad Dhein, Nick Gutermann, Stacy Sengpiel, and Heidi Luft.

Helen Kiefer, Weston Duenkel, Rob and Bonnie Motl, and Judy VandeBoom evaluated over 60 posters that were entered into the Poster Contest. Youth illustrated their originality as they created posters with the theme "Health... The 4th H."

The Speaking and Poster Program was coordinated by 4-H volunteer leaders: Shirley Duenkel, Weston Duenkel, Eric Duenkel, Mary Koch, Mary Mertz, Anne Mertz, Christine Schmidt and Brenda Wenzel.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

April 29, 1994

DEAR EDITOR:

Why do many lawmakers make it hard on people pursuing the American dream of being their own boss? On behalf of small-business owners throughout Wisconsin, I urge legislators to pause and reflect during National Small Business Week (May 1 - 6) on all that Main Street businesses contribute to their communities and the nation as a whole.

Too often, state and federal lawmakers fail to recognize that businesses are the backbone of our economy and the engine of economic growth. Entrepreneurs employing fewer than 50 people have created 85 percent of all new jobs in America over the last 12 years. Those with fewer than 20 workers produced more than half of all net new jobs.

If our nation is going to sustain the economic recovery, we need to encourage -- not inhibit, the job-generating capabilities of small firms. We need lawmakers who understand the risks and challenges small business owners face. They need to know that business owners don't oppose proposals like mandated health insurance out of insensitivity to their workers' desires. In fact, our studies show that the majority of business owners who don't offer insurance would do so if they could afford it. The fact is every benefit has a cost. And business owners can't afford to buy something that threatens to drive the business into bankruptcy and put themselves and their employees out of work.

We need people to understand what it takes to meet monthly payrolls with no guaranteed funding source. It's tough. Yet, it's exhilarating to run a business you can call your own. On behalf of those brave enough to risk their all in running a business, we at the National Federation of Independent Business work to preserve their opportunity to do so.

If there are lawmakers out there who want to work alongside a small-business owner for a day, I urge you to contact me. We'll show you what it's all about. At the very least, stop and consider their challenges and dreams during Small Business Week.

Bill B. Smith
State Director

Dear Editor:

This letter is in response to many "Letters to the Editor" I've been reading in this column for the past several months, and in particular to Mr. Hallen's letter of April 21.

My husband and I were hugely disappointed when the referendum failed. We find it hard to accept that any money spent on education is an extravagance. A neighbor of ours, an Addison farmer with most of his acreage in Wayne, put it succinctly: "I'd vote for it if I could. I'd rather pay now to educate them than pay later to keep them in prison."

We found the plan well thought out, the auditorium no frill. Travel to the other schools in our conference; Sheboygan Falls, where the Honors Band and Choir performed in the fall, has a beautiful auditorium. Kiel High School also has a lovely auditorium, where we enjoyed a COMMUNITY production of "The Wizard of Oz."

It's not just about keeping up with the Joneses, however. It is about keeping music and art, and that is to say culture, in our high school. The plan without the auditorium leaves no area for student productions; musicals, talent shows, concerts. In that respect, I had mixed feelings about the second referendum failure; glad that we weren't getting half a loaf, outraged that district voters wouldn't even give that.

Now the recent news is that the teachers are getting a raw deal. I know these people, have seen how hard they work and all the extra things they do for our young people in less than comfortable surroundings. We've tried to tell them individually how much we appreciate their efforts. But they have to be getting pretty discouraged, making do, working in a building where snow actually sifts in through the wall in places, working with archaic equipment and shabby tools.

Then there is Mr. Hallen's letter, referring to "Chief Kewaskum" and "pride." I'm not a scholar on Native Americans, but I do know that the native cultures all placed high value on their children, and the care, nurture, and education of those children was the responsibility of the entire tribe. The Chief proud? I doubt it. Wimpville may not be so far off the mark. Or perhaps, as I've heard the kids themselves say in those hallowed, decrepit old halls, just plain "scum," something not worth time, effort or money. That does seem to be the message we send. A rose by any other name will in this case still be an inadequate learning environment with underpaid teachers.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Cynthia Kuehn

Dear Editor:

This letter is in response to the article in the Living Section of the April 1, 1994 edition of the West Bend Daily News. I congratulate Gay Griesbach for her determination and success. However, I am continually frustrated by various articles that mention dyslexia as if everyone knows and understands what it is.

It has been my experience that what most people know about dyslexia is, "that's when they have trouble reading, right?" or "that's when things are backwards." It is so much more. For this reason, I find the article basically meaningless.

A great deal has changed since Ms. Griesbach's primary education, but the only change for dyslexic children these days is that things are moving faster and faster, and more and more is expected of them. I wonder if Ms. Griesbach realizes that if one, or both of her children were to exhibit dyslexic tendencies, it would be up to her to identify it because the teachers have not been trained to pick up on the signs and symptoms. Does she know that even if children are "tested," most schools will not identify dyslexia? I see absolutely no excuse for dyslexic children, and their families, to continue struggling unidentified and unhelped! (If dyslexia isn't a "real" problem, why is it mentioned at college age, or ever? Is it to see if kids are tough enough to make it that far? This is very distressing to me.)

I expect much more from my son's education than for him to manage to "scrape by" and learn to compensate. This is not nearly as easy as it might sound, and it's just not good enough. Although there is much to be said for hard work and determination, nobody knows just how hard these kids are trying to do what is expected of them. I resent the experience we had with our son's early education. I resent it a lot. These children have been, and continue to be robbed of their enthusiasm to learn. It is a disgrace to our communities, and society as a whole, to allow this to continue.

Research shows that as many as one in seven people has this "learning difference," and educators have known for years that children have different learning styles. Is dyslexia so hard to accept because it has a name? Usually something is easier to deal with when you know what it is! There is a method of teaching that is proven to work with dyslexics, and I feel we have no time to waste in getting it into practice.

I continue to urge citizens who are concerned about illiteracy in our country, to learn more about dyslexia. It could affect someone you know.

A mother against unrecognized and untreated dyslexia,
Gail E. Ramirez

Dear Editor:

Two things drive legislation: campaign finance and reelection. Thus, voter pressure in this election year could still force repeal of school property taxes - if every property owner takes action.

Frankly, if you have done nothing, you deserve your tax bill!

To cut your tax bill 50-70%, call and write Governor Tommy Thompson and your legislators weekly. Drive them nuts! Call 1-800-362-9472 and ask for their home and office phone numbers and addresses. Leave this message with every aide and every politician:

1. Demand a special session to get schools and the state permanently out of the property tax business before the November election. Taxes must be based on income and ability to pay!

2. State that education and equity are constitutional duties; income should fund education as education benefits income; general revenue is also our tax money; local control can remain the law; and that education is too important to depend on the size of our homes, an unfair 19th Century tax, or the anger of homeowners.

3. Insist on a Fair Tax Commission to shift unfair property taxes to fairer, special-interest-free income and sales taxes without any rate increases. Let's tax all people, income, goods and services fairly; exempting only that which would benefit all.

4. Inform your lawmaker that abolishing property taxes will help the economy by putting big dollars into the economy to be taxed after spending which will result in a huge economic boom.

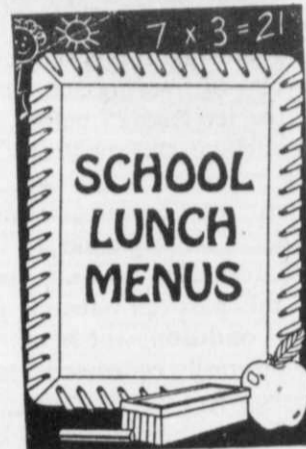

5. Tell them to end promises, delays and partisan politics. Either stop property taxes now, or you will not vote for them! Return incumbent fund requests stamped: "Stop Taxes on Property!"

Remember that the Democrats repeal of school taxes could have slashed your tax bill 70%; and that the adopted Republican compromise will not cut your tax bill, as the tax increases faster than the "promised" relief!

Copy and share this letter with every Wisconsin property owner. Your inaction has been the problem. Your action is the answer.

Sincerely,
Gary Bahr,
Founder and Executive Director

Midwest farmers should inspect alfalfa early this year for signs of heaving and winter damage, according to a university Extension specialist.

Heaving usually occurs in the spring after the protective blanket of snow has melted, according to Dr. Dan Undersander, University of Wisconsin Extension forage agronomist. When saturated soil is subjected to cycles of freezing and thawing, the ice formed below the soil surface can push alfalfa roots out of the soil, breaking the tap root. Crowns can move 6-8 inches above ground level.

Saturated soils were common this past fall, creating the ideal conditions for heaving. "We are really concerned," says Undersander.

"For the first time ever, I've had reports of heaving this past fall," Undersander said. In these fields, the crowns have been pushed slightly above ground level. Repeated cycles of freezing and thawing this spring might further damage these stands, he says.

EVALUATING THE DAMAGE

To assess heaving damage, pull a few plants to look for broken roots. "Tap roots can be broken 4-6 inches below the soil surface," Undersander says. "The stand may green up in the spring and make a decent first cutting, but not too much will be produced after that," he says. When tap roots are broken, the plants recovery after a cut will be slowed. In addition, heaved plants often die from lack of water and nutrients during dry summers when the plant must get moisture from deep in the soil.

Crowns should be split on the sample plants to determine health, recommends Dr. David Miller, station manager of the Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc. alfalfa breeding station in Arlington, Wisconsin. "After splitting the crown and root, look at the color and texture inside," he explains. "You can often predict whether the stand will be productive. Healthy plants will have white, firm tissue inside. The tissue inside dying plants will be tannish-brown, spongy and dry."

TO KEEP THE STAND, OR NOT

It is important to recognize that heaving damage is often patchy. This makes it important to evaluate the entire field.

Three factors should be considered when evaluating stands, Undersander says.

- If the crowns are heaved above the soil surface less than one inch, the stand should survive and produce for one year. Tap roots may not be broken. After the season, growers should reevaluate the stand and rotate to another crop, if production wasn't up to normal levels.

- If crowns are heaved 1-2 inches above ground, growers should check for tap root breakage. If the tap root is broken, these stands may produce a first cutting, but may not be able to sustain progressive cuts, especially under dry conditions. Growers should consider rotating to another crop after the first cutting is removed. If the tap roots are not broken, the stand will probably survive.

- If crowns are heaved more than 2 inches, growers might want to consider plowing the stand under immediately. If forage is in short supply and the stand greens up, it may produce a first cutting.

If growers must consider reseeding, Pioneer agronomists recommend rotating to another crop to avoid disease and insect problems. Also, dying alfalfa plants release chemicals into the soil that inhibit germination and seedling growth.

PREVENT

Placing stands on well-drained soils is the best way to prevent heaving and produce persistent alfalfa stands, says Arnie Imholte, Pioneer field agronomy manager in Madison. "Improved drainage can keep soils from becoming saturated," he says.

"Heaving is caused by fluctuating temperatures and soil moisture," he explains. "It is not connected to stand age. It is not variety related. It has nothing to do with winterhardiness." All varieties are susceptible to heaving.

Planting alfalfa on well-drained soil is the best way to prevent heaving, however, some research data suggests thatch may insulate soil from fluctuating temperatures, thus preventing heaving, Undersander says. "Growers might consider not taking a late-fall cut to provide more thatch as insulation, when soils are wet and heaving may be a problem," he says.

CUTTING REQUIRES CARE

Cutting a heaved stand requires special management, says Miller. Growers should evaluate the stand to see where the crowns lie. "The cutter bar should be about two inches above the crown at cutting," he says.

In addition, good fall management can develop persistent alfalfa stands. Leaving adequate fall growth is important to build alfalfa root reserves and insulate the stand from winter injury. Imholte recommends leaving 10 inches of fall growth to help trap snow to insulate the stand. "Leaving adequate growth also helps build the root reserves," he says. "The plants survive on stored energy in the root. This helps them survive the winter and then come back in the spring."

Alfalfa plants use their root reserves to produce top growth until plants are six inches tall. At that point, leaf surface area is great enough to capture sufficient sunlight to reverse the energy drain. Then the plant stores energy in the roots until flowering. After dormancy occurs, alfalfa plants survive on root reserves until spring.

Holy Trinity Closes Sports Season, All Stars Named

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL "A" TEAM

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL "B" TEAM

The Holy Trinity boys "A" team finished their basketball season with a 10-1 record under Coach Tony Butschlick, assisted by Tom Timblin, tying for first place in the league.

Jim Kopecky, Dave Gerhartz, Derek Dorn, Corey Amerling and Jason Butschlick were the All Star players.

Cathy Westerman served as the "A" team cheerleaders coach. Jenny Strobel, assisted by Trisha Teofilo, coached the "B" team cheerleaders.

A new program in effect this year was the formation of a "Spirit Squad," under the guidance of Shawn Roberts and Cathy Westerman. This group of students made posters, hoops, locker decals, and even had time to prepare their own skit which they proudly presented on Parents Night.

Cindy Gruber and Chris Schoofs served as the boys volleyball coaches in their first year of competition. Lisa Donath, Sarah Bonlender, Nicole Reindl and Jessie Gruber coached the girls volleyball teams.

As this sports season closes, the Athletic Association thanks all the parents, the many volunteers who helped make the year a success, all those who came to support the Wildcats and finally to all the participants who provided many exciting and entertaining moments at the games. We look forward to the 94-95 season and supporting the Holy Trinity Wildcats!

EAU CLAIRE...The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire has named 2,186 undergraduate students to its Academic Distinction list for the fall semester, according to Dr. Marjorie Smelstor, UW-Eau Claire vice chancellor.

To be eligible for Academic Distinction, a student must have at least a 3.2 grade point average (where 4.0 equals A) for 12 semester credits or more of college credit courses. The semester record may not include repeated courses or incompletes. In addition, a student's cumulative grade point average must be at least 3.2.

Students from this area who earned Academic Distinction during the 1993-94 fall semester at UW-Eau Claire include:

KEWASKUM -- Michelle Lee Marx, senior, elementary education.

CAMPBELLSPORT -- Jill Marie Klotz, junior, psychology and sociology.

ADELL -- Julie Jean Cotter, senior, elementary education.

The following students from Marian College in Fond du Lac qualified for the first semester Dean's List.

KEWASKUM - Carrie Fellenz, Patricia Staehler, Melissa Webber, Jennifer Pesch.

CAMPBELLSPORT - Melissa Hall, Shannon Huberty, Brad Jaeger, Joshua Ketterhagen, David Kuphal, Delores Loehr, Carol Ninnemann, Brian Schill, Troy Schill, Brenda Seibel, Todd Stucke.

WEST BEND - Rebecca Balistriere, Angela Brath, Laurie Brock, Todd Carlton, Debbie Ciriacks, Jennifer Frac, Patricia Gonring, Jennie Gundrum, Patrick Lyons, Jill Butz, and Dennis Mazurczak.

WAUKESHA - Nancy C. Neumann, an English major, has been named to the dean's honor list for the first semester of the 1993-94 academic year at Carroll College.

Full-time students are eligible for the dean's list if they earn at least a 3.5 average on a 4.0 scale for the semester.

Carroll is a four-year liberal arts institution. It is Wisconsin's first college, founded in 1846.

EVANSTON, IL-- Jessica S. Rohrer, a sophomore from Kewaskum, in the College of Arts and Sciences at Northwestern University, has been named to the Dean's List for the winter quarter of the 1993-94 academic year.

Jessica is the daughter of Jeff and Sue Rohrer of Kewaskum.

Students on the Dean's List have attained a grade point average of at least 3.70/4.0. Northwestern University is one of the nation's leading teaching and research institutions, with nearly 17,000 students enrolled in 12 academic divisions at lakefront campuses in Evanston and Chicago.

The following students from this area have been named to the Dean's List at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee for the Fall 1993 semester. UWM is the second largest university in the State of Wisconsin. UWM has ten schools and colleges, as well as a graduate school and a University Outreach Division. It is a major teaching and research institution serving Wisconsin's largest metropolitan area.

Area students include: Traci Lee Bindrich, 9539 Pine Lane, Kewaskum, pre-business administration, and Timothy Walter Kaufmann, 1706 Highway H., Kewaskum, anthropology.

NORTHFIELD, MN... Carleton College students Jennifer Dust and Frankie Iaquina-Ridolfi have been awarded Class of 1963 Fellowships to support independent research projects in their fields.

Iaquina-Ridolfi, a junior geology major from Kewaskum, plans to work as an archaeological illustrator in Greece, and to assist with the design and construction of an archaeological museum display for a local community there.

Class of 1963 Fellowships, funded by gifts to Carleton from the members of this class, enable qualified juniors and seniors to carry out independent research activities in any field taught at the College, or to undertake projects in the creative or performing arts. The awards are meant to expand the number and range of opportunities for students to pursue intellectual and creative interests. Students may pursue their projects during vacation periods or as independent study projects during the academic year.

Iaquina-Ridolfi is the son of Alice Iaquina, Sunset Court, Kewaskum, and Augustine Ridolfi, Norman Drive in West Bend. He is a graduate of West Bend West High School.

Ranked among the nation's top liberal arts institutions, Carleton is a private, co-educational college of 1,750 students, located 40 miles south of Minneapolis and St. Paul. High academic standards, an excellent teaching faculty and a diverse student body contribute to Carleton's outstanding reputation.

SHEBOYGAN... The annual Lakeland College Student Art Exhibition opened Friday, April 15, with an awards ceremony for the student artists.

This competitive exhibit displays the works of 27 Lakeland student artists. Works on display include paintings, pastels, watercolors, drawings, two-and-three dimensional designs, graphics, ceramics and photography.

Freshman Shawn Neldner

of Kewaskum received an honorable mention in photography.

The exhibit is on display in Lakeland's Bradley Fine Arts Gallery. The gallery is open to the public free of charge from 1 to 5 p.m. daily when school is in session.

KHS Softball Team Loses Two at Slinger Tourney

By Noel Stollenwerk

SLINGER - It wasn't a good day for the Kewaskum girls softball team here, last Friday afternoon.

The Lady Indians were blasted in the first game of the Slinger Tournament, losing to Campbellsport, 21-1, in five innings. After dropping the opener, KHS coach Janet Molebash decided to play the Indian JV squad in the second game, and it lost to Hustisford by a single run.

Molebash said the reason she played the JV's in the second contest was because the Lady Indians had too many games (according to WIAA rules) on its schedule this season. And after losing the opener and not being able to win a medal in the tournament, it was a good time to eliminate one varsity contest.

Not that the varsity's performance in the game against Campbellsport gave Molebash any reason to want to watch them again on Friday. The Lady Indians committed numerous miscues on the field, and compounded those problems with 11 walks by pitcher Stephanie Heberer.

We had all kinds of errors out there," Molebash said of the performance. "The mental errors definitely killed us. Nobody looked good for us at all."

Things looked as if it might be a decent day for KHS, as Debbie Neumann led off the game with a solid single. But the Lady Indians had just three hits after that point, two of which came off the bat of sophomore Angie Bindrich.

"Campbellsport was really solid on the field," Molebash pointed out, adding Heberer "did better," than her first outing of the season. But the 11 free passes, "hurt us quite a bit," She said.

Campbellsport scored every time it was at the plate, tallying seven runs apiece in the first two innings, along with four in the third and three in the fourth. Kewaskum scored its lone run in the top of the fifth.

"The varsity has looked real poor lately," Molebash said, adding that the JV's "looked really sharp" in its game against Hustisford's varsity lineup. While she noted that she didn't know the exact score, or any statistics for the game, "I was real happy with the way they played."

The loss against Campbellsport dropped the KHS varsity to 2-4 on the season, including 2-3 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

The Lady Indians have a couple of busy weeks ahead, before opening the WIAA Tournament series on May 20. This week, Kewaskum hosts New Holstein in a doubleheader on Monday, travels to Elkhart Lake on Tuesday, hosts Kiel on Thursday, and is at the Hartford Tournament on Saturday.

Next week, KHS is at Two Rivers on Tuesday, and hosts Plymouth on Thursday.

Lady Indians Split Doubleheader

By Noel Stollenwerk

SHEBOYGAN FALLS - The weather was not conducive for a high school softball game here, last Thursday. Still, Kewaskum and Sheboygan Falls squared off in a doubleheader, and the results were quite predictable taking the conditions into account.

Walks and errors were the story of two sloppy games between the Lady Indians and Falcons. Sheboygan Falls staged a comeback to win the opener between the Lady Indians and Falcons. Sheboygan Falls staged a comeback to win the opener between the teams, 13-11 in five innings. But the Lady Indians regrouped for the nightcap, taking advantage of the Falcons' miscues for a 17-7 win to salvage a split.

"It was raining and really cold," KHS coach Janet Molebash said of the conditions. "It turned into a pitching and catching battle."

Molebash was not, however, referring to the normal pitcher's dual, in which defense plays a key role. The KHS boss noted that both teams had trouble getting the ball over the plate, and then hanging on to it once it reached the catcher.

"There were a lot of walks, wild pitches and passed balls," Molebash noted. "The weather played a big factor."

Things looked promising for the Indians in the opener, as they led throughout the first four frames. After taking a 7-2 lead in the third, KHS added another four runs in the fourth, and held a 11-4 lead heading into the bottom half of the fourth.

That's where the roof caved in on the Lady Indians, however. The Falcons took advantage of several KHS errors and walks to score four times in the fourth, and five more in the fifth. The game was halted after the fifth, due to the hour and a half time limit.

"We helped them out a lot," Molebash said of the Lady Indians' 11 errors. "That's what lost it for us, the errors and walks."

Stephanie Heberer pitches for KHS, filling in for Tanya Krahn, who was on vacation. In her first outing of the season, Heberer gave up just three Falcon hits, but walked 13 batters.

"I thought she did okay for her first game," Molebash said, although admitting, "the walks really killed us. We just kept exchanging runs with them."

Shelly Williams and Kim Resch led the Indians with two hits apiece, while Michelle Gundrum added a two-run homer. The majority of the other KHS runs came via the Falcons' 12 errors.

Things went much better in the second game for the Lady Indians, who started freshman Becky Heisdorf on the mound. Called on from the junior varity squad to pitch, Heisdorf responded well after a less-than-ideal start.

"She began the game very wild," Molebash said, noting Heisdorf walked four of the first five Falcon hitters. "She settled down after that, though," walking just one more the rest of the way. Heisdorf also struck out four Falcon batters.

After spotting the Falcons a 3-0 lead in the top half of the first, Kewaskum came right back with seven crossing the plate in the bottom half of the inning. As was the case in the first game, Sheboygan Falls had its problems finding the strike zone.

"They had lots of problems with their pitching," Molebash said, "They went through three or four pitchers in the second game alone, and it only lasted three innings (due to the time limit)."

Heisdorf did the job offensively, as well, reaching base and scoring two of her three times at the plate. Tanya Laubach added a solid single to center to score a couple of runs, but other than that "we really didn't hit the ball well the second game," Molebash said.

Instead, KHS capitalized on 13 Falcon bases on balls, and scored nine times in the second inning to put the game out of reach.

The doubleheader split gave the Indians a 2-3 mark in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

Kiwanis Donates $2,500 for Construction of New Hardball Diamond

Roger Neumann, right, President of the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club, presents a check for $2,500 to Kewaskum Athletics Ron Theusch, center. Also pictured is Kiwanis treasurer, Randy Schickert, right.

Members of the Kewaskum Athletics at work on the new hardball diamond. At left is a backhoe being operated by John Fischer, of Fischer Excavating. On the right is Don Menzel in the trench and Greg Rinn is directing the dumping of stone into the trench. Ron Theusch is operating the skid loader. There was 1150 feet of drain tile put in the infield area. Fischer Excavating dug the trenches and members of the baseball team laid the tile, covered it with stone, refilled and leveled the trenches. West Bend Elevator donated extensive use of dump trucks and a skid loader. They also have donated the use of 500 feet of snow fence as a temporary outfield fence. Use of the skid loader pictured above was donated by Jack Theusch. Hon-E-Kor donated the use of a sod cutter and even helped remove some of the sod themselves. The labor was provided by members of the Rock River League baseball team, often having as many as 12 members working at once.

Kewaskum Athletics Open Baseball Season

The Kewaskum Athletics opened the 1994 baseball season with a pair of big victories in non-league games defeating St. Cloud 16-0 and Mt. Calvary by a 30-8 score.

Don Menzel and Dennis Aupperle combined on a two-hit shutout against St. Cloud. Menzel helped his own cause with two hits, including a home run good for four RBI's. Dave Donath added three hits while Todd Muckerheide, Shawn Schneider and Matt Schlosser chipped in with two hits and two RBI's each.

The following day, the A's really cranked up their hitting machine, scoring 30 runs on 24 hits. Terry Koth led the way with an unbelievable performance at the plate. He collected six hits in six at bats, reached base seven times, hit three homeruns, including a grand slam, and nine RBI's.

Greg Rinn hit two homers and a triple among his four hits. He also scored five runs and drove in six. Don (Dinger) Menzel homered for the second consecutive game, this time hitting a bases-loaded blast.

Todd Muckerheide hit two homeruns and a double while scoring three runs and driving in three. Shawn Schneider went four for five with a homer and a double good for four RBI's and three runs scored. Schneider also picked up the victory on the mound as he turned in five strong innings pitched.

Doug Buechel pitched three innings of hitless relief to close out the game. Buechel also had two base hits as did Dave Immel and Barry Wenzlaff.

The Rock River League opener at Waupun was cancelled due to snow on May 1st and will be rescheduled at a later date. The A's next see action against Forest at Dotyville on Saturday, May 7 at 1 p.m. for a non-league game.

Kewaskum will be trying to avenge a pair of 1993 defeats at the hands of Forest who finished the season with a perfect 26-0 record. On Sunday, May 8th the Athletics hope to open their Rock River League season at Hustisford in a 1:30 p.m. ballgame.

KHS Loses Tennis Opener

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Considering the lack of success for the Kewaskum boys tennis team the past few seasons, last week's season-opener against Ripon was quite encouraging.

The Indians lost to the Redmen, 5-2, but a pair of KHS singles players fared very well in their first matches of the year.

No. 2 Jeff Reno outlasted Ripon's Grant, 6-3, 6-3 to record his first win of the season. Meanwhile, No. 3 Chad Landvatter had an easy time, beating Geoff Troyer 6-0 and 6-2.

Despite being tied 2-2 after the singles matches, the Indians were unable to secure a win in doubles competition.

RIPON 5, KEWASKUM 2

SINGLES - No. 1 - Jessie Zander lost to Larson, 2-6, 0-6; No. 2 - Jeff Reno beat Grant 6-3, 6-3; No. 3 - Chad Landvatter beat Geoff Troyer 6-0, 6-2; No. 4 - David Mertz lost to Mike Bowen 0-6, 1-6.

DOUBLES - No. 1 - Jason Liegl and Brian Redig lost to Schultz-Tikker 2-6, 1-6; No. 2 - David Horner and Andy Schiller lost to Geer - Grubb 0-6, 1-6. No. 3 - Adam Schweder and Tony Cayner lost to Lanzdorf-Markonski 1-6, 4-6.

SHEEPSHEAD WINNERS

KHS Tracksters Combine for Third at Red Knight Invitational

By Noel Stollenwerk

MILWAUKEE - The number continues to dwindle for the Kewaskum boys track team, but it seems as if the performance levels continue to rise for coach Jerry Gosa.

Gosa took just 13 athletes to the annual Red Knight Invitational, but several of those turned in fine efforts. Included in those were a pair of firsts earned by senior Randy Thull and junior Travis Jacak.

Thull, running the 3200 run for just the second time all season, outdistanced the competition by over eight seconds to win in 10:22.3. The time was more than 10 seconds faster than Thull's previous season-best.

"He had been injured the past week or two," Gosa pointed out, adding, "to be honest, he could hardly walk, his shin splints were so bad."

"But we are really fortunate to have him back," Gosa continued. "He really ran well in that race."

Jacak, meanwhile, continues to excel in the high jump. The lanky veteran cleared the 6-4 mark, the only athlete to do so. Jacak then tried to better his own school record by clearing 6-6, but came up just short.

"He's been jumping real well," Gosa said, adding that Jacak's attempt at 6-6, "just didn't quite have it."

KHS' 800 relay, consisting of Aaron Kurth, Jake Thull, Jerod Pankonin and Matt Tonn finished third, with a respectable time of 1:39.2. Thull and Pankonin also turned in times of 12.0 in the 100 dash, both of which were personal bests.

KHS got fourth place finishes out of sophomore Andy Rix in the 400 (54.5) and junior David Gosa in the 1600 (4:43), and in the 800 (2:08.1) both of which were personal bests.

"He ran very well," Gosa said of Rix, who bettered his time by a second and a half. Also running in the 400 was Heath Heise, whose time of 55.6 "was much improved," according to Gosa. "He hasn't run that fast in two years."

Senior Wade Kreis also had a personal best, jumping 39-3.25 in the triple jump, more than two and a half feet farther than his previous best. "That's getting to the point where it's very respectable in our conference," Gosa noted. Kreis also finished fourth in the long jump (19-7.25).

The 400 and 1600 relay teams also set new season-best marks, with Rix and Matt Tonn, "doing a super job" in the latter. "Matt's been working hard the last couple of weeks, and it's starting to pay off for him."

The meet was very encouraging for Gosa, who earlier in the week had questioned his team's attitudes and desire. He says he hopes that the meet marks a turning point.

"This was one of the better team efforts that I've seen the past three years," Gosa said. "We had people encouraging each other, and really trying hard."

"Things are looking up at this point," he continued. "We obviously finished (the week) on a much higher note than we started."

Gosa will try and use that enthusiasm to motivate his team this week, as they are at the County meet Tuesday, and the Pewaukee Invitational Friday.

Jacak, Jackson Win Titles at Washington County Invitational

By Noel Stollenwerk

WEST BEND -- Fielding a team of less than two dozen athletes, Kewaskum boys track coach Jerry Gosa knows that his Indians aren't going to contend for any Invitational titles this year.

So despite the Indians' sixth-place finish at the seven-team Washington County Invitational here, last Tuesday, Gosa says he was happy with the results.

"It was a good effort," Gosa said of the outing. "I think we could have maybe been a little higher (in the standings). But without the numbers, it's hard to compete against these larger schools."

Germantown outlasted the two West Bend schools to win the meet with 115 points. WB East was second (109), followed by WB West (106), Hartford (90), Slinger (57), the Indians (43), and Kettle Moraine Lutheran (4).

Two KHS wins accounted for nearly half of the Indians point total. Both wins, by Travis Jacak in the high jump and Brad Jackson in the pole vault, came by large margins as well.

"It was a super windy day," Gosa noted regarding the conditions. "I've never been at a meet where it's been that bad. We were quite surprised our jumpers did as well as they did."

Jacak once again cleared the 6-4 mark to easily outdistance the competition in the high jump. In fact, Jacak was the lone competitor to jump higher than 5-10. Jacak went for the school record (6-5), but came up just short.

"He jumped real well Tuesday," Gosa said of the 6-4 junior.

Jackson also performed quite well, setting a season best mark in the pole vault by clearing 13-0. Like Jacak, Jackson easily won his event, as no other vaulter made it past the 12-0 mark.

"He came close to clearing 13-6 as well," Gosa said of Jackson's effort. "He came physically and mentally ready to jump at that meet."

Gosa was treated to a pair of third place surprises. Randy Thull ran the 3200 in 10:28.9, good enough to finish in the top three. In addition, the 1600 relay, comprised of Matt Tonn, Aaron Kurth, Andy Rix and Heath Heise took third in 3:39.4.

"It was nice to see them do well," Gosa said of the 1600 unit, which had one senior (Heise) and three sophomores. "They knocked another four seconds off their previous best. They really ran well."

As for Thull, "he also ran very well," Gosa acknowledged. "He was a little off of his pace, but not bad."

David Gosa was a double placewinner, taking fourth in the 1600 (4:50) and fifth in the 800 (2:09.5). "That (1600) was an unusual race, the elder Gosa pointed out. "The first three laps were very slow. It was a real tactical race at the beginning. Wade Kreis was also a double placewinner, taking fifths in both the pole vault (11-0) and long jump (19-1). "He was disappointed in his pole vault effort," Gosa said of Kreis. "But I thought he ended up doing well."

The Indians' only other place came in the 400 relay, in which KHS was sixth (48.3).

Fossil records show that some insects have undergone relatively little change for 200 million years.

Tired KHS Boys Fifth at Pewaukee

By Noel Stollenwerk

PEWAUKEE - Three major invitationals in a six-day span can take its toll on any team. Kewaskum boys track coach Jerry Gosa hopes that was the case here, last Friday afternoon.

The Indians finished fifth in the five-team Pewaukee Altheimer Invitational with 55 points, only three points behind the third-place finisher, Union Grove. Thomas More won the meet with 113.5 points, with Pewaukee second (71) and St. Francis fourth (56.5).

After competing in the Concordia Invitational the previous Saturday, followed by the Washington County Invite on Tuesday, Gosa was happy to get this stretch of the season over with.

"I think we were a little tired," he admitted. "We were still feeling the effects of all those (invitationals) meets right in a row like that."

Junior high jumper Travis Jacak was feeling no ill effects, however. Jacak cleared the 6-4 mark once again, easily taking first in the meet. As has been the case recently, Jacak tried clearing the 6-6 mark to break the KHS school record, but just missed.

"He's getting very close to breaking it," Gosa said of Jacak. The KHS coach is confident that Jacak will be the new KHS record-holder by season's end. "I don't think there's any doubt about it."

The Indians finished 2-3 in the pole vault competition, where Brad Jackson (11-6) and Wade Kreis (11-0) turned the trick. It was a somewhat disappointing outing for the pair, who both have cleared the winning 12-0 height in the event.

"They really didn't have a very good day," Gosa said of the jumping pair. "The mental aspect of it is very important, and I don't think they were quite ready to go (in the event) Friday."

Kreis, however, did end up winning places in three events on the day. In addition to the third in the pole vault, Kreis was third in the triple jump (36-11) and fifth in the long jump (18-9).

KHS got a second place finish from a newly-formed 3200 relay team. Tony Rix, Andy Rix, Randy Thull and David Gosa turned a 8:56.4 clocking in the event, which "is not too bad," according to the KHS coach.

David Gosa and Thull each accounted for three places, as Gosa was third in the 1600 (4:45.3) and fourth in the 3200

(10:37.7). Thull was just the opposite, taking third in the 3200 (10:33.0) and fourth in the 1600 (4:52.6).

"We had them running quite a bit," Gosa said of the distance corps.

Tony Rix added a fourth in the 800 (2:19.2), while his brother Andy was fifth in the 400 (55.6), right behind teammate Matt Tonn's fourth place showing (54.8). Peter Reis took fifth in the 300 hurdles, while Dan Jessorig was fifth in the high jump.

"If things would have went our way in an event here or there," Gosa noted, "we could have very easily taken third. I thought the efforts were really good. I was pretty happy."

Gosa is more happy that his team will have just one meet this week, that being Friday's Vanderpan Invitational on Friday.

Lady Indians Win Five Events Indian Tracksters Combine for Third at Red Knight Invitational

By Noel Stollenwerk

MILWAUKEE - It was business as usual for the Kewaskum girls track team here last Saturday afternoon.

The Lady Indians accounted for five first-place finishes in the second annual Red Knight Invitational, held at the Concordia University campus. The effort helped the combined KHS girls and boys team finish third in the meet, rolling up 593 total points.

WISAA powerhouse Wisconsin Lutheran, which captured the private schools title last season, won the meet with a combined score of 793.5 points, easily beating Homestead's total of 708. The scores represented the total for both the boys and girls' teams, as separate tallies were not kept.

"We had a lot of good performances," KHS girls coach Perry Koth said of the outing, dominated by Wisconsin Lutheran. "They are extremely good. We just couldn't compete with them."

The Lady Indians did well enough to land the five firsts, second only to Wisconsin Lutheran's total of six victories. Leading the way as usual for the Indians was senior Ginger Wiesner, who doubled in the long jump (16-1.5) and 400 dash (63.4).

"That's her best time of the season," Koth said of Wiesner's 400. Wiesner also had a hand in another KHS win, this one coming in the 1600 relay. That unit, comprised of Missy Rohrer, Mary Yahr and Greta Kuphal, teamed for a 4:22.4 clocking, another season-best time.

Rohrer had a hand in another

Indian relay victory in the 3200 race. Rohrer, along with Marni Lynn, Nicole Hetzel and Rachel Chambers, ran a 10:38.3 clocking, winning that relay by almost three seconds.

"That time is right up there," with the best in the state," Koth pointed out. "That team looks like one that we should keep together for the rest of the year."

Lynn was a major force on the day for the Indians. The freshman ace ran a 2:29 split in the 3200 relay, easily the best time in the 800 by anyone on the team all season. Lynn capped off her day by winning the 3200 open race in 12:18.2 That was 37 seconds faster than the runner-up in the race, and is fast enough to probably compete with the best in the state.

"The biggest problem with Marni is deciding which races to run her in," Koth said, noting the timing of the races during the meet will play a big role in that. "She's young, and we have to be careful not to wear her out."

The Lady Indians had several second-place finishes as well, led by the performance of the weights people. Katie Yogerst took second in the shot put (32-9), and added a third in the discus (84-11). Yogerst finished right behind teammate Michelle Thull in the discus (88-9). Thull also added a fourth in the shot.

"Our field events look really strong right now," Koth said, noting that the Indians' top thrower, Becky Yogerst, didn't participate in the meet. "They are all real young. I think we have a really good group there."

Koth also has a good group of hurdlers, as well. Freshman

Heather Downs and junior Mary Yahr each were leading their specialty race late, before hitting the second-last hurdle and finishing close behind.

"Yahr took second in the 100's (17.2), a race that Downs was leading until she faltered late. Yahr also finished third in the 300's (51.4), after tiring late. "She was pretty tired at the end, and jumped the second-last hurdle," Koth said of Yahr's effort. In addition, junior Julie Froemming turned in a good effort in the 300's, finishing in 54.0.

"That was her best of the year," Koth noted. "If she can knock a few more seconds off of that, I think she'll be able to place in the conference meet."

Junior Greta Kuphal took home a pair of thirds in the 100 dash (13.4) and 200 dash (28.3). The 800 relay, comprised of Downs, Jenny Strobel, Erin Stockhausen and Kelly Schreffler, was also third in 1:56.9.

"They ran real well," Koth said of the 800 relay, although adding, "A couple of their hand-offs could still use improving."

Overall, Koth was more than happy with the finish. At this stage of the season, things are going much better than he could have ever hoped for.

"Things are looking very good right now," he said. "We are pretty much on pace, and there are no disappointments anywhere."

The upcoming week will, "tell us a little more about ourselves," Koth said, referring to a pair of invitationals. On Tuesday, the Lady Indians are at West Bend for the Washington County meet, while Friday they travel to Pewaukee to defend their team title there.

First Ace

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Despite the snow that surprised the area last Saturday, the golf season has been underway for a couple of weeks now. And it didn't take long for the season's first hole-in-one to be recorded.

Craig Nicastro, playing in a foursome exactly one week before the snow arrived, recorded an ace on the 157-yard par-3 number 7 hole on Hon-E-Kor's Red Nine layout. The Red Nine is the old "front" nine.

Nicastro used a six-iron for the historic shot, which is the first hole-in-one of the year at Hon-E-Kor.

KHS Golfers Lose at Falls

By Noel Stollenwerk

SHEBOYGAN FALLS - Kewaskum golf coach Joe Harlow is about halfway to his goal of establishing a consistent four-man rotation on his squad, after a week of qualifying and one match last week.

Competing at the Town and Country layout here, last Friday, the Indians were soundly defeated by Sheboygan Falls, 176-197, on the par-36 course. Still, there were a couple of bright spots for Harlow.

Gregg Serwe and Nathan Vetter each recorded rounds of 47, tying for the low score for KHS. Serwe is currently one of two KHS golfers - the other being Luke Chesak - to compete in every varsity match. Vetter, meanwhile, had a very good round going until he finished with two sevens and a four on his final three holes.

"Other than his finish, he was playing pretty solid," Harlow said of Vetter, who "had a fairly decent round."

Harlow was equally pleased with Serwe, who "is showing some consistency in breaking 50."

The two other KHS counters, Chesak (51) and Shane Engeling (52) had some trouble with the tough Town and Country course. "It presents some challenges," Harlow said of the layout. "The green are very big, and that's not really conducive to low scores."

The Indians "have quite a bit going on this week," according to Harlow. After the West Bend Invitational on Tuesday, the Indians have meets Wednesday at home against Plymouth, and Friday at the Port Washington Invitational.

Next week, the Indians have a pair of home meets against Kiel (Tuesday) and Slinger/Horicon (Thursday), before traveling to Chilton on Friday.
