By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Parents of students from Wayne Elementary School were present at this month's school board meeting to voice their disapproval of a suggestion to move a third grade class from Wayne to Kewaskum Elementary School.

Although it was only one of many points school members were discussing in order to come within revenue caps established by the legislature as they began to work on the upcoming budget, parents wanted their opinions to be heard before any decisions were made.

Parent Roland Wall expressed his concern. "We don't think it's fair to the children, just because the number of students in the class is small, we don't feel they should be moved. It's a short term solution to the problem, from a financial standpoint."

Another parent pointed out that it would create a problem, because she had students in other grades at Wayne Elementary, and would have to divide her time between two schools.

The group of parents also brought up what had happened with the eventual abandonment of Beechwood School, and did not want this happening at Wayne. "They're getting one on one with the limited class size," one of the mothers expressed. At the present time, there are 12 students in the third grade class at Wayne, and moving them to Kewaskum would create a classroom size of 23 students.

Board President Ruth Schmitt explained to the parents, "We're in the very beginning of (working on) the budget, and it was only one of many points. Never before have we been faced with such difficult choices."

The audience members also voiced their dismay at having heard about a major change such as this "through the grapevine," and wanted to know how they could be made aware of decisions such as these before they reached this point. It was suggested that they attend the May 1st budget workshop, which is open to the public. The preliminary budget is usually approved at the June board meeting.

The Finance, Transportation Building and Grounds committee brought a proposal to the board regarding a new, district-wide GTE telephone. The total cost would be approximately $175,000, and would include a five year municipal lease, after which the equipment would belong to the school. The proposal had included recommending to the board adding $40,000

Commemorative Centennial Postal Cancellation Received

CENTENNIAL IN THE KETTLE
A HERITAGE EXPERIENCE
CENTENNIAL STATION
KEWASKUM, WI 53040
JUNE 10, 1995

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

As a community service, the Postal Service offers pictorial cancellations to commemorate local events celebrated in communities across the nation.

Kewaskum's Postmaster, Bonnie Eldredge, has arranged for a one of kind, Centennial postal cancellation to be issued on the day of the event, in honor of the village's 100 year celebration.

People attending the festivities on June 10th at Riverhill Park may obtain the cancellation in person at a special booth set up by the Centennial Committee at the park. It will not be available at the post office on that day. Bonnie will be manning the booth, with postcards and envelopes for those interested in the pictorial cancellation, or anyone is welcome to bring along whatever they would like stamped on that day.

The cancellation, as shown above, contains a profile of Chief Kewaskum, the date, and the wording, "Centennial in the Kettle, A Heritage Experience," Centennial Station, and the town, state and zip code. Never before has Kewaskum been honored with such a one time, collectible item. Since these stamps have to adhere to strict guidelines, after it's use the stamp will be sent back to the main office to be destroyed, according to postal guidelines.

Those who cannot attend the event, but who wish to obtain the cancellation, may submit a mail order request. Pictorial cancellations are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 DAYS following the requested pictorial cancellation date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class mail postage (32 cents per envelope or 20 cents per postcard). This means that customers wishing to obtain a cancellation should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice. Then address the envelope or postcard to yourself or someone else you would like it to go to. Insert a card of postcard thickness into the envelopes to insure sturdiness and then tuck in the flap of the envelope (rather than seal it or you can't reuse it, if you so choose). Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope, seal it, and address it to: PICTORIAL CANCELLATIONS, CENTENNIAL STATION, KEWASKUM, WI 53040.

After applying the pictorial cancellation, the Postal Service returns the envelope or postcard through the mail. Customers who would like their serviced items returned under protected cover, should also include a larger, stamped, self-addressed envelope. Remember this special service will only be available for 30 days following June 10th.

Cancellations of this sort are collected by enthusiasts across the nation, and are considered a valuable souvenir, to be treasured for years to come. Don't miss out on this very special collectible item, offered in honor of the village's centennial.

KHS Prom Note

Due to concerns expressed by parents, students, faculty and other community members, Police Chief Richard Knoebel of the Kewaskum Police Department has agreed with school administrators to equip the auxiliary police assigned to the Prom with portable breath-alizers.

Any student behavior raising questions about absolute sobriety will result in checking him/her. This applies to all students and their guests.

Area Girl Scouts Prepare For Kewaskum Centennial

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Area Girl Scouts from the Manitou Council are busy preparing for their part in Kewaskum's Centennial Celebration.

The girls, under the direction of leader Sharon Shaw, are putting together a fashion show of era clothing, that will begin at 3:30 on Saturday, June 10, at Riverhill Park. Bob Kirst will be transforming his snowmobile trailer into a runway for the show, as the girls are trying to make this special event as professional as possible.

Clothing will be acquired through a number of different sources, with some fashions lent from the Historical Society. They will also be checking out the West Bend costume shop, and talking to parents and grandparents about what they may have in their closets. Old photographs have been helpful to the girls, who have been using them as a guideline for their ideas on clothing ensembles. If anyone in the community can lend their resources or sewing talents, it would be greatly appreciated.

Everything is in the planning stages right now, and the troops will also be researching old music from the era, to accompany the fashion show. With all the great musicians we have in this area, they're bound to come up with many possibilities. (Anything in that record collection of yours, Tiny?)

The main scouting office in Sheboygan is contributing two girl scout uniforms for the occasion -- one dating back to 1919, and the other from 1944. The Manitou Council has their service unit in Kewaskum, containing 12 troops, for a total of 156 registered girl scouts.

As a fund raiser, the girls will also be setting up a fishing booth, and a craft area where they plan on selling old fashioned wooden toys, necklaces, games, candy, some of which will serve as prizes for the fishing booth.

If you find the fashions too enticing to resist, the scouts will give you a chance to try them on and have your picture taken as a souvenir of the historic event.

Sharon has been looking through some of the old records and has found meeting minutes dating back to 1952, but she hopes her search will find some that go back further. Shaw found that some of the very first fundraisers their group organized were card parties for the senior citizens. Photos will be on display, showing some of the different events and activities the girl scouts have enjoyed through the years.

All the troops in the area are looking forward to their special role in the Centennial, and are also making plans to include something in the time capsule for future generations to enjoy fifty years from now.

Kewaskum Frozen Foods Wins State Awards

The quality of meat products produced by Kewaskum Frozen Foods of Kewaskum was recognized at the 56th annual convention of the Wisconsin Association of Meat Processors, held in Madison on March 31 and April 1. At the huge Meat Product Show held in conjunction with that meeting, Kewaskum Frozen Foods received product awards for their summer sausage, ring bologna, skinless wieners and "Little Hots" snack sticks.

The Wisconsin Meat Product Competition is the largest of its kind in the United States. Meat processing plants and meat markets from throughout the state this year entered 822 individual products into 31 product categories, including summer sausage, bratwurst, ham, bacon, smoked poultry and many other types of meat products.

Over 30 judges including food scientists, out-of-state meat processors, and other food-industry professionals were required to effectively evaluate the many products during a marathon session on Sat., April 1. Each product is scored for external appearance and eye-appeal, internal appearance (if relevant), and aroma and taste, using a scale of 1,000.

The size of this product show and the quality of its entries demonstrates the important role that sausage and processed meats play in Wisconsin's meat industry and among state consumers. The state ranks third in the nation in total sausage production, and is well known around the U.S. for the quality of its meat products.

There was a group of Bavarian meat processors visiting the convention this year. They did a separate judging on the 822 products entered. Out of five awards they gave out, Kewaskum Frozen Foods won 2nd place for a new pork product, which was pork tenderloin rolled in bacon.

Attending this year's convention was owner Bob Beisbier, manager Al Schickert, and Cindy Schickert.

Watch for our award winning sausage sale in early May, at our Kewaskum location and our West Bend location Sausage Plus.

Memories

The "Deutsche Apotheke" was built and was operated for 37 years by Charles Miller, who died in 1913. It was the first drug store in Kewaskum and Mr. Miller also established the first photographic studio. He took this picture in the early 1890's with the young lads, Edward C. Miller (his son), Oscar Koerble, August Backhaus and Carl Meinhardt posing on the store steps. Main Street has been lowered by almost three feet since that time. Edward C. Miller then operated the photographic, patent medicine and sporting goods store for 24 years. Charles F. Miller later conducted Miller Electric and Miller Studio at the same historic Kewaskum location (formerly Village Sport Shop, across the street from the Post Office). Charles F. Miller was the grandson of the founder. Note the shed at the left of the photo where the Randy and Wendi Dreher home now exists, the dirt street in the foreground, the wooden sidewalk and steps in front of the store and the old lamp and water pump in the yard.

County Farm Bureaus Conducting Property Tax Petition Campaign

Sixty-one county Farm Bureaus are conducting a property tax relief campaign by having farmers sign petition cards to state legislators in support of property tax reform efforts promoted by the Farm Bureau.

Over the next month, county Farm Bureau leaders will circulate petition cards for farmers to sign, expressing their support for use value assessment legislation and the Governor's budget to shift two-thirds of school costs off property taxes. The petition cards will be forwarded to their state representatives.

"Property tax relief is one of the major concerns to my economic success," the petition card reads. "I support the use value legislation and the Governor's budget to shift two-thirds of school taxes off property. I urge you to support Farm Bureau's efforts to lower my property taxes and improve the success Wisconsin's farmers," the card says.

Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation president Dan Poulson said this campaign will be an effective way to let legislators know how serious farmers are about needing property tax relief. He said this effort will show legislators there is unanimous support to shift school costs off property taxes and to have use value assessment of farmland.

Farmers and property owners interested in signing the Farm Bureau petition card can contact the county Farm Bureau office.

There's still time left for those interested in participating in the Historic Wagon Train taking place June 10th as part of the Centennial Celebration to sign up, but organizer Bud Schmitt, would like to remind everyone that it's important to contact one of the members of the Wagon Train Committee so they can get an indication of how many travelers they can expect, along with horses, wagons, buggies, carriages, and the like. In this way, they can plan on the event running smoothly, making it enjoyable and memorable for everyone involved.

Once again, the contact person and their numbers are Bud Schmidt at 626-4278, Matt Harvey at 533-8267, and Dan Nauman at 626-2208. These three have been working diligently and enthusiastically to organize the trail the Wagon Train will be blazing, beginning at the West Bend Elevator and Feed Mill, and making its way to River Hill Park. Arrival time is scheduled for noon at the park. As far as they are concerned, all interested parties are more than welcome to join the ride, as long as they sign up prior to the event.

They have also been steadfast in their hopes of maintaining authenticity, and remind everyone that it's time to start planning their costumes so they can lend to the theme and festivity of the day by dressing in period clothing. "Although it's fun to imitate a wild west theme, this is not how the immigrants and our ancestors traveled to this region." Bud reminds us. "They weren't from the wild west and they weren't cowboys." Clothing from the 1895 circa included simple farmer's clothing, starched shirts and long skirts, high button shoes, bonnets and hats, Sunday suits and ladies' finery.

Many good ideas can come from studying old photographs, talking to grandparents or other older members of the community, or visiting a local costume shop. If you chose the latter, get your orders in early, since several other organizations as well as members of the community plan on dressing up to fit the 1895 theme.

The Wagon Train will be accepting sponsorships, and for your contribution, a recognition sign will be placed on one of the wagons or participating units, listing the sponsor's name, photo, or other specifics you care to add.

Area Chamber of Commerce Welcomes Bighorn Forge

Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce members welcomed Dan Nauman of Bighorn Forge Ironworks to the Kewaskum area business community recently. Bighorn Forge specializes in ironwork, hand forged in the tradition of old world craftsmanship. The business is located at 4190 Badger Road. Dan and his wife, Toni, have already become actively involved in the Kewaskum community. Dan has recently joined the Chamber and has become involved with the Centennial Wagon Train and is on the committee for Kettle Kountry Colors where he will be demonstrating. His wife, Toni Farrell, was seen in last week's issue of the Statesman with the Centennial quilt she is making. Shown above is Dan, left, who was presented with a plant and a newcomers welcome bag by Chamber of Commerce President Lee Kempf, center, and Chamber Ambassador Tim Miller, right.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Kewaskum
School District Residents,

I'd like to take this time to thank all of you for your kind words and good wishes during the school board campaign. Your encouragement was appreciated because your sincerity was obvious. I, too, am sincere in all that I have stated. I believe we need to bridge some gaps that have existed between segments of our community, board and district employees. I encourage all members of our district and those employed by our district who are not residents to try to look past old wounds and begin a new spirit of cooperation.

We, as a nation, are facing very tough times. Right now events are taking place nationally and globally that economically and morally threaten the very foundation of our nation -- the family. However, all across the country communities such as ours are trying to reclaim our founding fathers' intentions for this country. We need to be united as a district in order to effectively take a stand toward that reclamation.

I will work my hardest to do what I think is best for our district and will state my beliefs as clear as I can on issues we face so that there will be few or no misunderstandings. I don't want to be taxed out of my home either so I will try to ensure that the money the district spends will be used as wisely as possible.

Toward that end, I again encourage all of you to attend school board meetings and committee meetings whenever possible. We need your input. If you cannot attend, please read your Statesman as the minutes of the school board meetings are always published toward the back of the paper. By doing so, you will be kept up on the issues and how we voted.

Thank you again for your encouragement and see you at the meetings!

Sincerely,
Mary P. Andera
Kewaskum School
Board-Elect

April 18, 1995

Dear Editor,

I would appreciate having this letter shared with all school district residents. The letter speaks for itself. Hopefully, further misunderstandings and misinformation can be prevented by gathering the facts first. All schools in our district welcome the opportunity to provide accurate and up-to-date information.

Sincerely,
Ruth A. Schmitt

To School Board Members
And Administration:

We, the undersigned teachers of Farmington School, District of Kewaskum, wish to set the record straight regarding our use of the Pledge of Allegiance. The Farmington staff never voted to stop saying the Pledge. We decided to have the Pledge said over the intercom on Monday mornings, while we could continue to say it in our rooms the other days.

We would like it known we were not the only school in the district or in the area that did the Pledge in this manner. In fact, there are still schools in the district and the area who recite the Pledge in this way, or not at all.

Fact: Farmington School has a history of regular recitation of the Pledge.

Fact: When the staff heard about the public reaction to our proposal of one day intercom/4 days in-class recitation, we went back to using the intercom every day, just as before.

Farmington's staff has been declared "guilty" ever since our October staff meeting. The original facts were misconstrued, and in spite of continued efforts by staff to correct the misconceptions, the uproar continues.

Teachers and support staff are concerned about our students' education, wishing to instruct them to be productive in a world of the future. We need the positive support of parents, School Board, and administration. We need parents to come to us with concerns. We will be better able to deal with misconceptions if they're brought to us directly, rather than coming to us, "through the grapevine."

50 Years of Girl Scouting

LOIS BARTZ

KEWASKUM -- On several pieces of loose-leaf notebook paper, Lois Bartz has created a living history. On these pages are important milestones in her family's development, interwoven with an almost to-the-date listing of her 50 years in Girl Scouting.

"I joined as a third and fourth grade Brownie in November, 1944," she says, verifying the dates on her notebook pages. "Now, people see my 50-year pin and say, 'You can't have been in 50 years!' but I've never been out. It's a lifetime commitment."

Her lifetime commitment spans several important historical events, as her first camping trip, in 1945, shows.

"We got two permission slips for that trip," she recalls, again double-checking the date. One slip was for parent permission, and the other went to the local grocer -- a ration ticket for a small tin of eight marshmallows.

"Everything went to the servicemen."

As a Senior Girl Scout, Bartz and her friends did their community service project working every Friday night for the St. Camillus Monastery fish fry at a parish on 27th and Lincoln in Milwaukee, Bartz's hometown. Their reward, she says, was getting to go camping at the monastery's Merrimac retreat house for 1 1/2 weeks every summer.

"I still laugh when I think about it. They sent 20 giggly Senior Girl Scouts to a facility where they were training new priests," she says, adding it was always a fun trip. When Bartz completed the girl program of Girl Scouting, she registered as an adult volunteer, and helped with area troops. Then, not surprisingly, when she found herself the mother of two daughters, she was also the leader of two Girl Scout troops.

Bartz credits Girl Scouting for helping her cope with her husband's death in 1971. Bartz says although her husband died in '71, it wasn't before he had taken Boy Scout Webelo training (with her) and was leading a pack of Webelos. So for awhile, Bartz was also leading that group.

"That's what saved my winter," she says of her youth involvement. "I couldn't think about sadness - I was too busy. I must say Girl Scouting saved my sanity."

All through her adult volunteer years with Girl Scouting, Bartz has served girls and her community beyond her role as troop leader. With the former Wau-Bun Girl Scout Council she was a troop consultant, council trainer, on the Day Camp Committee, a delegate, a Program Aide advisor and area cookie manager - a volunteer post she has held for 19 years. Last October, when the Kewaskum area joined the Manitou Girl Scout Council, Bartz became a Manitou Council trainer, and again handled the cookie sale for community troops. And she's one of the first people Kewaskum troops contact when they have a question about earning a badge or planning activities involving Bartz's true love: camping and outdoor cooking.

With the enthusiasm of a true gourmet, Bartz tells stories of Kewaskum-area troops making mouth-watering dishes while camping. Menu items like cheese torte, meatloaf, surprise roast, cakes, breads (for which the butter was made by Girl Scouts shaking the cream during a two-mile nature hike) are just a few of the dishes created under her watchful eye. For the last few years, she has helped Girl Scouts adventure into a new realm of outdoor food preparation - solar cooking.

"You should see my chicken," Bartz says, leading one to question the safety of cooking chicken in the sun. "Oh no," she says, dispelling any fears. "A solar oven heats to 300 to 350 degrees, depending on the sun's angle. You just have to turn the oven every couple of hours, with the sun."

Bartz's commitment to staying contemporary is one of the reasons for her longevity in Girl Scouting. But Bartz is quick to say Girl Scouting has continued to change with her changing needs.

For the past eight years, Bartz has needed a wheelchair to help her get around. She says society can be cruel to people with a disability, but that hasn't been the case in Girl Scouting.

"I'm so glad to see Girl Scouting has stepped forward to include changes for handicapped girls and leaders," Bartz says. "I have always been fortunate in Girl Scouting to find I am welcomed."

"I love camping. Fortunately, I work with these two troops (Kewaskum troops 625 and 255) and they are tolerant. They don't see the wheelchair, but they know it's there. They know my limitations."

Bartz's limitations don't stand in her way of using Manitou Girl Scout Council Camp Evelyn either, as her troop found out.

"The girls walked through Camp Evelyn and were able to pick out two handicapped accessible units we could use," Bartz says, adding being sensitive to her needs teaches the girls about being aware of the needs of others.

Manitou Girl Scout Council's Camp Evelyn, located near Plymouth, is equipped to meet the special needs of adults and girls in all its camping programs. Registration is currently underway for this summer's resident camp program, and the Camp Director works with families of girls with special needs.

Bartz's volunteerism was honored in 1993 by a Milwaukee television station, when she was recipient of the "Channel 12 Who Care Volunteer Award." Getting that award, her Girl Scout troop's involvement in the TV interview and the accompanying kudos helped create what Bartz says was, "one of the biggest parts of my life."

What keeps this lively 58-year-old coming back year after year?

"Fun," she says. "I think I have as much fun doing all these activities as the girls do, no matter what level." But her love and commitment to Girl Scouting go even deeper.

"I'm trying to bring girls to the same fun and knowledge I had. Granted, it's changed over the years, but I think I've adapted."

Bartz says its important for all moms and dads to "get in there and help" with things important to their children. Doing so, she says, helps adults pass their knowledge on to the next generation.

Her knowledge has been shared with many girls over the years, as well as her own family: two daughters, one son and eight grandchildren. Grandchild number nine is due in July.

As she neatly folds her notebook pages in half to tuck them safely away, Bartz sums up why its important to volunteer time and experience.

"Time is precious. Time is money," she says. "Anyone who can give that time to (Girl) Scouting is giving a precious gift."

Open House, Ribbon Cutting at New Manitou Girl Scout Center

An open house/ribbon cutting ceremony will be held from 2:30 to 5 p.m. Saturday, April 22, at the new Manitou Girl Scout Council Center, 5102 Highway 42, Sheboygan. The public is invited to tour the new center, located west of Highway I-43 on Highway 42 north. A special ceremony will be held at 2:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Art work submitted by Girl Scouts from the council's seven county jurisdiction will be displayed throughout the center. The building is handicap accessible. Parking will be provided in the Haysen Company parking lot located directly across from the center on Highway 42.

The new center is central to the seven counties served by the council, and will provide cost saving efficiencies and better service to the girls and adults. The building's design was carefully considered for effective and efficient support for volunteer and staff activities, which include meetings and training sessions. A large conference room near the lobby entrance is available for meetings and trainings. Previously the council was headquartered in Manitowoc with a service center in Sheboygan. Both locations lacked not only conference room accommodations, but were marked with cramped and substandard offices. In addition, the infrastructures were in need of updating and neither facility was in compliance with the American Disabilities Act.

The Manitou Girl Scout Council currently serves more than 5,400 girls and 1,300 adult volunteers in the seven counties of Sheboygan, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Calumet, Fond du Lac, Dodge and Washington. The council's annual operating budget is funded by contributions to United Way, Community Chest, the annual giving campaign and the annual cookie sale.

RR Crossing, Kemps Closing, New Tanker, Audit Addressed by Board

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

A representative of the accounting firm of Conley McDonald Certified Public Accountants opened Monday evenings Village Board proceedings.

John Knepel, a partner in the accounting firm, was present to review and answer questions on the latest audit prepared for the Village. Knepel stated the audit showed positive, favorable variances and it was "a very positive year (1994) for the village." He also added the figures reflect favorable signs

Student Council Sponsoring Post-Prom Party

The Kewaskum High School Student Council, along with the Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County, is planning a Post-Prom Party for the students of KHS.

Students going to the Y.M.C.A. in West Bend will either board school buses at 11:30 p.m., right after the dance, or drive themselves on this short trip to the "Y". The party will run from 12 midnight until 4 a.m., at which time the students who rode the buses will load up and return to Kewaskum High School by 4:15 a.m. Students who drove to the "Y" will also be able to leave at 4 a.m.

Activities for the evening include swimming, racquetball, basketball, volleyball, table tennis, movies, Karaoke, as well as lots of food and soda for the students. Help is still needed in the form of cash donations, prizes for the students, baked goods and volunteers to help chaperone the many areas and events that are being planned.

If you can help in any way, please contact Larry Ammel, Student Council Advisor at 626-2166 (school) or 626-4731 (home) by Friday, April 21. The Student Council members, as well as The Council of Washington County, wishes to thank you for your interest and help in the Post-Prom Party.

that bond agencies look for.

Assistant Fire Chief Mark Herriges gave his monthly report and brought to the board proposals and drawings on the new tanker the village is looking into purchasing. The two preliminary figures Herriges quoted were $77,843 and $81,399, which includes the body, tank and chassis. He stated, "these are all just proposals. We haven't sat down and gone through all the specs on anything. I guess what we're looking for how you want it handled."

The figures, specs and proposals will be placed for discussion on an upcoming agenda.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles shared information on the annual water sampling done in the village and stated hydrant flushing will be done on Wednesday and Thursday. He also stated the work on the bathhouses have been completed.

Gilles further explained seven light poles which belong to the village have been repaired and an additional six or seven poles have been erected on the south end of the village in conjunction with the Highway 45 project. This should provide an adequate amount of additional lighting.

The board voted favorably on the hiring of part-time summer employees for the Department of Public Works and the Water Department.

Administrator Dan Schmidt reported he had received correspondence from the State Commission on Railroads regarding the Wildlife Drive crossing. They indicated a crossing should have 5,000 exposures, or 3,000 on a severe angle, before a crossing signal would be considered. The traffic study that was recently completed at the crossing showed an exposure of only 1,569.

Schmidt added the village will be monitoring the situation during construction periods and would continue to pursue the crossing signal issue.

The administrator also reported he had received a letter from Kemps Marigold Foods stating they would be completely shutting down the operation of their Kewaskum plant effective June 24, 1995.

It will be a 100% shut down.

Trustee Bill Kulas brought up the fact he had discussed an idea with DPW Director Jerry Gilles and they felt it would be advantageous and more cost effective this year due to the Centennial celebration, to raise the flags on the light poles and leave them up from approximately May 10 (prior to Memorial Day) until July 10 (following the Firemen-Legion picnic). This would eliminate the need for village workers to spend additional time raising and taking down the flags three times during this time frame. The board voted unanimously in favor of the idea.

Due to time limitations and the extremely lengthy agenda, further discussion and the action taken on items on the second half of the agenda, including an electronic scoreboard at Kiwanis Park, volleyball court, conditional use permit on the latest planned unit development, a sidewalk issue with Kewaskum High School and the establishment of a new position with the Department of Public Works, will all be reported in next week's issue.

Disapproval

to the 95-96 budget.

Committee member Ron Beimborn, told the board that this recommendation had been considered before the recent referendum, "but I refuse to vote for this now, when the roofs need repair." The communication system was unanimously voted down, which would have provided a phone and data terminal in every classroom.

The school board did approve the committee's recommendation to sell to the public foundation blocks for the new press box at a cost of $10 per block. This fundraiser would offer each buyer free admission to the 1995 home football games, with 1,500 blocks available for purchase. Dr. Heather estimated the cost of building the press box at approximately $12,000. Board member Ray Engelking commented that, "I think it's a creative way of financing," and donated the first ten dollars to the project. The next committee meeting is scheduled for April 17th.

KES student Heidi Terlinden, daughter of Marilyn and Karl Terlinden, was present to read her state award winning essay on what it means to be a good citizen. It was also announced that the Washington County Farm Bureau Women had sponsored an Ag./Ed. scholarship, and sixth grade KES teacher Irv Uhlman was one of the recipients of this scholarship.

Mr. Dillman made the board aware that Gateway Gobblers recently donated $2,500 to the school district to be used for the Riverwalk project.

Board member Jeanne Goeden addressed the subject of the time capsule that is being sponsored by the Kewaskum Jaycees as one of the special events at the Kewaskum Centennial Celebration, and inquired as to what the schools would be doing to participate. Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand said she would be checking into this and reporting back to the board. Goeden suggested putting in the school annual, the Cheiftain, and photos of the construction work being done on the schools, along with the minutes of the school board meeting just prior to June 10th.

Since the district has not had any success in locating a Driver's Ed instructor for either the summer school session or the upcoming school year, the board voted to drop the class from their curriculum, 4-2, with Goeden and Beimborn voting no, and Ray Engelking abstaining. Ray suggested the possibility of trying to create a bid package with the private sectors.

Other board approvals included the '95 summer school schedule, presented by Mr. Dillman, and the DPI Model Special Education Policy Document, which is provided by the state. A number of resignations were also approved as follows: Mrs. Dehnel as KHS chess club advisor, Mr. Westphal as head varsity basketball coach and assistant football coach, Mr. Schatz as assistant boy's basketball coach, Mr. Shaw as assistant boy's basketball coach, Ms. Susan Wagner as KMS assistant girl's basketball coach, and Theresa Galligan as KHS Social Studies teacher. She will be replaced as of April 8, by Mr. Joe Kinney as a limited term teacher. Mr. Shaw was appointed as head boys's varsity basketball coach, and Ms. Brenda Badura was made KMS assistant girl's basketball coach.

Cardinal Environmental was hired as a contractor to sample for lead and asbestos in the remodeling area at the high school, with a low quote of $1,797.00. The cost will have to come from the construction contingency fund or from the accrued interest from the invested referendum money. Also, any hazardous material removal will have to be paid by either of these ways.

The payroll and bills were approved in the amount of $1,464,975.48. Senior Angie Donath, daughter of Robert and Debbie Donath, was chosen as Student of the Month for April.

Since this was Ray Engelking's last board meeting as a school board member, he exercised his voting power, by voting no to the resignation of Mr. Westphal. Engelking has in the past, donated his salary on the school board to the KEYS Scholarship Fund. The board wished him the best in the future and thanked him for his service to the community.

Board of Education April Student of the Month

Senior Angie Donath, daughter of Robert and Deborah Donath, is the Board of Education Student of the Month for April. Currently, she is taking writing workshop, art 4, concert choir, computer literature, human relations and fine arts seminar. First semester she also took college prep literature, architectural drafting, and money and parenting skills. Outside of class, Angie is active in the yearbook for four years, including editor-in-chief one year, co-editor one year, and she designed the cover for this year's edition. She has also been in choir and on the school musical tech crew for four years.

Ms. Donath's teacher nomination says, "This student manages to be on the high honor roll and keep track of all the work due for classes (even after being gone for a week), plus she helps others in class and makes her peers accountable for all of their work. Angie has been especially helpful with one peer in particular -- a person who isn't usually motivated, but who is motivated by Angie. I admire a person who tries not only to improve upon her own work, but to help peers improve as well. This is a truly deserving individual who shows great motivation and maturity but who, perhaps, isn't always recognized for that."

When New Year's Day was changed to January 1, some people still celebrated it on April 1. These people came to be known as "April Fools."

Jessica Schulist Recognized By U.S. Achievement Academy

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Jessica Schulist has been named a United States National Award winner in English.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students. Jessica, who attends Kewaskum High, was nominated for this national award by Mrs. Jacak, a teacher at the school. Jessica will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Collegiate Yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly, United States Achievement Academy winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of my husband, our dad and grandfather, ROBERT WESENBERG, who passed away one year ago, April 22, 1994:

We hold in our tears when we speak your name. But the ache in our hearts remains the same. No one knows the sorrow that we share, When our families meet and you're not there. Nothing will ever be more beautiful than the memories that are of you. To all of us you were someone very special. God must have thought so, too.

Sadly missed by his wife, Gordy, Maggie, and Dennis, Carol and Kyle.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of SAM LAWRENZ, who passed away April 18, 1994:

Life goes on and a year has gone by, But - precious memories never die, After the end of one sad year, Our hearts ache with sadness and God only knows - How much we miss the one we loved so dear. Living on, in this world of sorrow and strife Until we will meet again in heaven To live "together forever" in that happy life.

Sadly missed by wife and family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of ARMIN OPPERMANN, who passed away April 19, 1975: The world may change from year to year,

And friends from day to day But never will the one we loved From memory pass away.

Sadly missed by Ginny & family.

The second-grade teacher strained to help a pupil don his boots. After five minutes of grunting and struggling, the boy panted. "They were hard to get on because they were not mine."

In despair, the teacher struggled to get them off again. Just as soon as she got them off, the boy said, "They're my brothers but I wear them because I don't have any."

A friend is a person who is there when you need them, and someone you can talk to at a trust.

Thirty-one youth and adults from Dodge and Washington County recently completed a "Friends Helping Friends" training held at Erin Town Hall. The workshop focused on the importance of self-esteem, communication, cooperation, and the role of being a friend.

The workshop was taught by Sally Schoenike, Dodge County 4-H Youth Agent and Kandi O'Neil, Washington County 4-H

Youth Agent. Agnes Wagner, Washington County 4-H Volunteer Leader assisted with the training.

Washington County 4-H youth and adults attending were: Melissa Ebel, Katie Larsen, Jodi Neitzel and Mary Ebel, Kirchhayn Trotters 4-H Club; Jenny Commons, Brenda Herther, Becky Lawton and GERALYN UNDER, MYRANCEERS 4-H CLUB; KARLA KOCH, ELISE TOBIN, JACLYN SCHULZ and JOYCE SCHULZ, WAYNE CRUSADERS 4-H CLUB, and AGNES WAGNER, ST. LAWRENCE EAGER BEAVERS

4-H Club.

"Friends Helping Friends" is an educational program sponsored by the University of Wisconsin-Extension, 4-H and Youth Development. The program has been designed to be presented by young people who are concerned about problems youth must face in their communities. It is based on the theory that youth are powerful teachers and role models for one another.

The club teams will be teaching educational activities in their local 4-H clubs and other groups for the next six months.

It's Really Hurting!!

There's this empty space inside,
All I can ever really do is cry,
To think about you everyday,
And it's really hurting me,
To know that your in heaven now,
And not by my side,
It's really hurting!
To sit and talk to you is really hard,
It would take forever to tell you what's happened in my life,
I wish we could have talked more,
I also wish we could talk like we used to,
You don't know how bad we're suffering without you, I would do anything if you could come back, or I could get one more chance to hug you and tell you how much I love you, I can't do that to your face anymore,
It's Really Hurting
Just one more thing, remember I love you,
And one day we'll be together!

Annual Secretaries Day Banquet at Hartford

The Kettle Moraine Chapter of Professional Secretaries International will host its 25th Annual Secretaries Day Banquet on Wednesday, April 26, at the Legendz Great Hall of Hartford. Tom Green, a nationally recognized expert on Elvis Presley's life and career, will provide the entertainment.

Professional Secretaries International is the originator and sponsor of Professional Secretaries Week and Professional Secretaries Day. This year's theme is "Degrees of Excellence," an appropriate statement for a profession that has seen tremendous advances in technology and also strives to keep on the cutting edge of the business world. Founded in 1942, PSI is the largest professional association for secretaries, executive assistants, and other office professionals.

Professional Secretaries Week will be observed April 24-28, with Professional Secretaries Day being observed on April 26. This week provides an ideal opportunity to recognize all administrative office support personnel, including receptionists, clerks, secretaries, administrative assistants, office managers, and others who represent the many facets of ever-changing administrative support professions. At every level, these vital professionals should be supported in efforts toward educational and professional achievement and career growth.

Kewaskum Celebrates Youth Art Month

March was Youth Art Month in the Kewaskum Public Schools. Student art work was displayed at the Kewaskum Post Office, Bank Wisconsin and West Bend Savings Bank during the month. As a result of this, a Kewaskum Middle School student, 8th grader, Jessica Knoeck, sold a piece of her art work.

Jessica, a third year art student at Kewaskum Middle school, created a two dimensional charcoal drawing as part of the eighth grade drawing unit. The art curriculum, under the direction of Mrs. Kris Schumacher - Rasmussen, exposes students to still life, proportion, shading and highlighting techniques.

In addition to her talent in art, Jessica likes math and has tutored 4th and 5th grade students in that subject. She enjoys playing volleyball at Kewaskum Middle School, helps on the family farm, and in her spare time does babysitting.

Jessica, a former Farmington Elementary student, has a younger sister Julie who received a gifted and talented Art Enrichment summer scholarship to attend classes at the West Bend Art Museum while she was at FES. Artists talent seems to run in the Knoeck family.

The still life was purchased by Kathy and Neal Weare who took a special interest in Jessica's picture while it was on display at the Kewaskum Post Office.

There is No Ozone Problem!

By Glenn Grothman,
State Representative

Over the past two months, I have been trying unsuccessfully to persuade the Federal Government to change our area to an ozone attainment area so that we will not have to deal with reformulated gas, mandatory car pooling and much tougher emission standards. The most irritating aspect of this crisis is that we do not have an ozone crisis in southeastern Wisconsin anyway.

The four county Milwaukee area is considered by the Federal Government to have an ozone problem. If at any one of the eight testing sites in the area there are four days in a three year period in which there are more than 125 parts per billion of ozone in the air for at least one hour, we are a non-attainment area. Ozone forms on very hot days - particularly near Lake Michigan. During the hot summers of 1987 and 1988 - right before the Clean Air Act was passed - there were several high ozone days.

It is by now well known that there have been no high ozone days at the Washington County test site in summer for five years. It is not as well known that there has been only one high ozone day at a test site at 76th and Appleton Avenue in Milwaukee in the last six years. This is an incredibly busy part of Milwaukee but is about six miles from Lake Michigan.

Meanwhile, the highest reading in the Milwaukee area last year was at the test site at Harrington Beach - very unpopulated, but near the lake. Indeed, even on hot days, the only ozone problems occur within two miles of Lake Michigan - even in the City of Milwaukee!! When the sun goes down, or the temperature drops, the ozone breaks apart.

Furthermore, computer models not available when the Clean Air Act passed, show on these few high ozone days 40 to 60 percent of the pollution causing the ozone comes from the southeastern regions of the United States. It doesn't even come from Milwaukee or Chicago.

Finally, anything we do with the formulated gas is insufficient compared to the reduction in pollution which is automatically caused as older, high polluting cars are scrapped. Nationwide, one-half of the ozone causing pollutants are caused by cars which are more than 20 years old. Therefore, the ozone problem is disappearing even if we do nothing with our gas.

Unfortunately, it looks as though Washington will not move on its own.

When I talk to the people in our nation's capitol, they are afraid the combined power of the environmental lobby, the oil lobby, the grain lobby (corn is used to make ethanol) and the high-contributing companies that make the additives are too powerful.

Because Milwaukee is one of the cities with one of the highest readings in 1988, we cannot opt out like states with lower readings. We must therefore, find grounds to file a lawsuit.

If the Congress won't intervene, maybe the courts will. Three years without a high ozone reading allows us to petition the Environmental Protection Agency to be re-designated as having no problem. If we have one more year in the Milwaukee area without high ozone, we can ask to get out anyway. I am trying to get the Department of Natural Resources to move their test sites in from the lake. They never should have been put there anyway. Meanwhile, let's hope for a cool summer.

If you have any questions about this, or any other issue, please feel free to call me at 338-8061.

Beimbom/Sparks motion to approve the KHS drawings for additions/remodeling. Motion passed 6-1 with Neal Weare voting no.

Goeden/Engelking motion to approve the excavation and steel work bids for the KHS project. Motion passed 7-0.

Erin Krueger was honored as the March Student of the Month.

There was no student representative report.

Audience to visitors: The results of the OM competition were announced. The high school team will be going on to state competition.

Mr. Engelking advised everyone that a citizen's committee has been formed to raise money to purchase lights and bleachers at the football field/track athletic field. Mr. Engelking also mentioned a Milwaukee Journal news article in which Kewaskum was listed as one of 44 school districts in Wisconsin who spend less than the average per pupil and yet had above average student performance.

Mr. Boehlke reported that during the February 27th D.I.L.H.R. structural inspection, deterioration of the roofs at KHS, KMS and KES was noted. Had the district not been in the process of attempting to pass a referendum to repair the roofs, the district would have been cited.

Dr. Heather informed the board the post office will be displaying student artwork throughout the year.

Dr. Heather reported that Peggy Henke has been nominated for the Herb Kohl Fellowship Award, and that Len Soller's KHS OM team won the Renata Fusca Creativity Award at OM competition.

Charles Heidner announced that Nadalie Reindl took second place on the balance beam at the State Gymnastics Meet.

Ruth Schmitt encouraged board members to review the WASB resolutions results and highlights of the speeches given at the recent WASB Convention.

Jean Goeden thanked the administration for providing information regarding the $1,000,000 borrowing exemption.

Goeden/Weare motion to approve the regular meeting minutes of February 13, 1995. Motion passed 7-0.

Weare/Schulte motion to approve the second reading of the following policies: 324 - School Closing; 323.2 - Special Observance Days/ Listing of Days Observed; 323.3 - Prayer in the Schools. Motion passed 7-0.

The following policies were read for the first time: 323 - Ceremonies and Observances; 834 - Temporary Use of School Facilities; 834E - Building Use Application; 443.7 - Student Use of "Beepers"; 443.6 - Dangerous Weapons in the Schools; 443.61 - Incendiary Devices in a School Setting; 543 - Recruitment and Selection; 521.1 - Separation-delete; 529.4 - Support Staff Leaves of Absences-delete.

Considerable discussion ensued with regard to policy 323 - Ceremonies and Observances and alternative policy XXX - Ceremonies and Observances. Audience participation included persons in favor of the policy as well as those who opposed it. The policy will go back to the committee for further discussion.

Policy Chairperson Weare referring to Policy 834 - Temporary Use of School Facilities, mentioned that the fees for the computer lab had been recommended to be $15.00 from the FTBG Committee. The chairman asked for a consensus from the board to agree to the increase in fees over and above what the policy committee had originally agreed to.

The next Policy Committee meeting is scheduled for March 20, 1995 at 7:00 p.m. at the Administration Office.

Beimbom/Sparks motion to include in the 1995-96 budget the inclusion of a PA system for the football field as quoted by Select Sound Services in the amount of $2244.00. Motion passed 7-0.

Beimbom/Weare motion to include in the 1995-96 budget the quote from Statewide Fencing, Inc. of $2642.00 to erect a fence along the west edge of the track for crowd control purposes. Motion passed 7-0.

Dr. Heather presented data gathered from the minutes of past school board meetings to review the procedure followed in the past for the adoption of policies. Because it appeared that the procedure varied over time, the board president asked if board members would like to meet in a worksession format to formalize a procedure for the adoption of policies.

Goeden/Schulte motion to approve the first reading of policy 323.1 as submitted by Mrs. Goeden, with the second reading to take place at the next regular meeting. Discussion ensued.

Sparks/Beimbom motion to amend the motion and change the wording of the policy so that the Pledge is said daily K-8, and once a week in grades 9-12 during announcements. The motion on the amendment passed 6-1 with Mrs. Goeden voting no. The amended motion passed 7-0.

Weare/Schulte motion to approve Chapter I services with CESA 6 for 1995-96. Motion passed 7-0.

Gov. Thompson Awards $47,792 to County Drug Enforcement Task Force

Governor Thompson announced the award of $47,792 to the Washington County Task Force to help this unit continue its efforts to fight drug abuse and drug distribution throughout Washington County.

In total, Governor Thompson awarded over $2,852,000 to the 26 Drug Enforcement Task Forces that operate throughout Wisconsin. These units represent over 280 local governmental units in the state. This is the seventh year of funding for the programs which are founded on the cooperation and collaboration of local law enforcement agencies. The funds awarded are available to the state through the federal Edward Byrne State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance Program.

Governor Thompson said of the Task Forces: "They have been a tremendous force in our efforts to move towards a drug-free state. Their combined efforts have had significant impact on drug arrests and the availability of illicit substances on our streets."

According to statistics provided by the Office of Justice Assistance, the Task Forces were responsible for over 3800 arrests in 1993 alone. They are responsible for approximately half of the arrests made for the sale or distribution of drugs in the state.

"I am proud of their efforts and continue to be impressed by the Task Forces' focus on the most serious drug offenders, which is borne out in their arrest statistics." Governor Thompson said, "I believe that these local, state, and federal funds for the law enforcement personnel working in the Drug Enforcement Task Forces will help to ensure that Wisconsin remains a safe place to live, work, and do business." "I will also continue," Governor Thompson said, "to work to maintain and hopefully increase the financial resources available to these units through this federal grant program in the future."

Some Keys to Health: Walking, Weights, Water

News USA

(NU) - For older people, experts say, exercise is an essential part of life. Walking, bicycling, dancing — any kind of aerobic exercise — can lower your blood pressure and keep your cholesterol levels down.

Of course, exercise will also help you maintain your normal body weight. And weight-bearing work-outs deposit calcium in the bones, helping to prevent osteoporosis.

Before you start an exercise program though, be sure to check with your doctor. And once you get going, remember to drink plenty of water.

Doctors recommend drinking six to eight glasses of water each day. When working out, however, it's especially important to have a glass about 20 minutes before exercising and another 20 minutes afterwards to avoid dehydration.

It's also a good idea to take a couple of water breaks while you're exercising. Take along one of those handy squeeze bottles filled with water when you go for a walk.

To make sure your water tastes as good and refreshing as you want it to, you might consider installing a point-of-use water-treatment system.

There are a variety of water-treatment devices on the market, from small, easy-to-carry carbon filter pitchers to elaborate, more permanent distillation systems.

The carbon filter is a proven technique for improving many taste and odor problems that can affect water. It reduces many soluble organic contaminants, chlorine and solid particles.

The filter works by a process called adsorption, which means contaminants stick to the surface of the carbon.

Reverse osmosis units force pressurized water through a membrane. As water passes through the microscopic membrane, most contaminants are left behind.

The system is especially effective at reducing lead, copper, radium, sodium, nitrates, some pesticides and scale-producing minerals, among other contaminants.

A distillation system works by raising the water temperature to boiling. At this point, the water turns to vapor, generally leaving behind contaminants, microscopic solids and organic materials. The water vapor (steam) then enters a condenser, where it cools and returns to a liquid state.

For more information about water treatment systems, contact the Water Quality Association, Dept. NU, P.O. Box 606, Lisle, IL 60532.
