Centennial Celebration Saturday

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

Opening ceremonies for Kewaskum's "Celebration of the Century" will begin on Saturday, June 10 at 10 a.m. at River Hill Park.

The kickoff for the Centennial festivities will begin with a short invocation by Rev. James Bettin of Peace United Church of Christ. Village President Robert Wagner will welcome Centennial celebrants and visiting dignitaries including State Representative Glenn Grothman, Washington County Board Chairman Ken Miller, County Board Supervisor Dan Stoffel and Washington County "Fairest of the Fair" Brenda Pasek.

Governor Tommy Thompson had a previous commitment though for the life of me, I cannot figure out what could be more important. President and Mrs. Clinton neglected to R.S.V.P. Guess that means the Kewaskum is definitely not on the campaign trail this year.

Time Capsule Additions Can Be Made at Century Celebration

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

The Centennial Time Capsule will be set up in River Hill Park during our long awaited celebration, "Centennial in the Kettle," on June 10th.

This special event is being sponsored by the Kewaskum Jaycees, and spokesperson Kathy Broecker states that the Time Capsule will be set up inside a tent, located straight west of the flag pole.

The 3,000 pound cement burial vault was donated for the project by Larry and Louise Martin of the Miller Funeral Home, and will serve to hold contributions the community makes, in the form of letters to their children, photographs, records from meetings of various organizations, newspapers, lists of businesses and construction changes the village has undergone, to list just a few examples from the hundreds of ideas people have come up with.

The concept of the time capsule is to paint a picture of what life is like in 1995, living here in the community of Kewaskum.

School children have written essays on this topic, and they will be included among the other memorabilia. Anyone that would like to include something for the future generation to uncover, should bring it to the park on the day of the event.

The Time Capsule will be uncovered, and has quite a bit of room to fill up, but once it is full, it's full, so get to the park early to ensure your treasure will make it in. Space is available, on a first come, first served basis.

On Saturday evening, after the close of the celebration, the vault will be cov-

Native American Dancers To Perform at Centennial

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Members of the Potawatomi Tribe from Forest County will be traveling down to Kewaskum to share in the Centennial Celebration and demonstrate some of their Native American traditions on Saturday afternoon.

Scheduled for performances at 2, 3 and 4 p.m., the Potawatomi Indian Dance Ceremonial will take place on the east bank of the Milwaukee River.

The group travels all across the United States, participating in Pow Wows, sponsored by various Native American tribes, and Tribal Spiritual Leader and Language and Cultural Specialist Billy Daniels has arranged for a group of ten or eleven dancers to perform a number of dances at our Centennial in the Kettle.

"They will be demonstrating five different categories of dances," Billy explains, "including the grass dance, traditional male and female, jingle dance, shawl dance and fancy dances for both men and women.

The dancers will be dressed in various traditional costumes, and will spend some time explaining how they are made and the symbolism behind what they wear.

Audience participation will be allowed and everyone will have a chance to join in dancing some traditional steps, Pow Wow fashion.

Don't miss this rare opportunity to meet some of the first inhabitants of this land Kewaskum rests upon.

T & Vern's Sports Bar And Grill to Open July 1

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

T and Vern's Sports Bar and Grill will be opening July 1st at 143 Main Street, in the building that was previously Eckl's Main Street Inn. Tom Piwoni and Dennis Butz are partners in this new venture and Tom describes them both as being ardent sports enthusiasts.

"We've been looking around quite a while for a good location for this," Tom states. "I've had five places before this, and it's been about three years now, so the time is right to make this a reality."

Sports bars have been rising in popularity through the years, and they plan on staying with this theme. T & Vern's will accommodate five TV's to cover a wide range of sports games, with an additional satellite dish in the near future.

The decor will revolve around all Wisconsin teams, especially Rose Bowl paraphernalia from the Badger's big win. The bar and table tops are being custom made from the wood of old bowling alley lanes. Dart games and video sports games will also be available to customers of the new Sports Bar and Grill.

With Tom's experience in the pizza business, and the grill and deep fryer left over in the building from the restaurant business, it's also an ideal place to serve food. The far door on the side will be converted into a carryout counter, for easy pickup of orders to go. Their menu will include homemade pizza, sandwiches, fries and appetizers, soups, and a possible fish fry on Friday nights planned for fall or winter.

"We're going to bill ourselves as the smallest sports bar in Wisconsin," Tom

Great Prizes Await First Centennial Baby

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Calling all village of Kewaskum expectant mothers! If your baby is due on or near June 10th, you may be the winner of a huge basket of goodies in honor of the village's first Centennial baby!

Yes, your baby could have the distinction of being the official Centennial Baby, in recognition of the great celebration June 10th at River Hill Park.

The GFWC Junior Women's Club of Kewaskum is sponsoring the event, and chairwoman Louise Martin tells us the juniors have been busy collecting special gifts from area businesses to include in this unique gift basket. This will be presented to the parents of the first baby from the Village of Kewaskum to be born on the day of June 10th, or closest to that date.

Kewaskum merchants have been generous enough to donate a variety of great presents for baby, as well as for parents, including a $50 Savings Bond from West Bend Savings, a portrait package from Hollywood Studios, a gift certificate from the Kewaskum Pharmacy, four free toning sessions for Mom from The Toning Shoppe, a gift certificate from Village Hair Stylists, a Hon-E-Kor dinner certificate, a year's subscription to the Kewaskum Statesman and Avon crystal products as well as several items for Mom from area Avon representatives Connie Gasner, Cindy Ratzel, Kathy Giese, JoAnn Bauer and Carol Oelhafen.

"If time permits, we'd like to take a photograph of the new baby and parents, and include this in the time capsule," Louise adds. Any area business interested in contributing something to the Centennial Baby Gift Basket, can contact Louise Martin at 626-4291.

The Sixth District - GFWC Wisconsin Federation of Women's Club was held at the West Bend Country Club on Tuesday, April 25. Those attending from the Kewaskum Women's Club was Ruth Schmitt, LaVerne Hron, Maude Rose, Minerva Martin, Malinda Seifert, Agnes Schaefer and Rita Etta, V.P.

Five members received 50 yr. pens and a rose from Kathy Stephani, First Vice President - District 6, including LaVerne Hron, Maude Rose, Agnes Schaefer and Minerva Martin. Alma Edwards received her awards at the nursing home.

The Kewaskum Woman's came into existence on January 14, 1913 when Mrs. David Rosenheimer invited thirteen ladies to her home for the purpose of organizing a Woman's Club. Issues of concerns of the group at that time included public education and health. The first Club project was the organization of the Kewaskum Public Library. In June of 1914 the library books were insured by the Club. Through the years the club women staffed the library, as well as cleaned it. They held fund raisers, such as candy and apron sales and card parties. Proceeds were used to purchase books, library materials and furnishings.

In addition to continuing its support of the library over the past eighty-one years, the club supports the AFS and other community programs. Since 1988 the club awards a Woman's Club scholarship. Our present membership is thirty-six with meetings held at the Municipal Building. Our main fund raiser is the Kettle Kountry event, where we offer a sweet shop. The Club will participate in a sweet shop at the Centennial celebration featuring cream puffs, chocolate eclairs, homemade tortes and cakes, strawberry and chocolate sundaes, ice cream cones, coffee, white and chocolate milk and lemonade and orange drink.

Money raised at this event will help pay for the High School Swing Choir and Jazz Band. We have placed large flower pots in the village. We will also feature a team of horses, pulling a carriage in the local Firemen's Parade.

ered, so June 10th is the only day residents will have the chance to contribute their items. If you can't make it to the park that day, be sure to give your items to someone who is attending.

Kathy says she will try to be at the Time Capsule as much as possible, to organize everything neatly and utilize all available space, so everyone has a chance to include something.

On Monday, June 12, the burial will be taking place, at the same spot in the park, and will be commemorated with a special marker donated by Miller Monument of Jackson.

In fifty years, in the year 2045, when the Village will be celebrating their Sesquicentennial the Time Capsule will be reopened, and the community can then look back to a day when the entire village of Kewaskum gathered with pride to celebrate their 100 year anniversary: How many of us will be there to see the unveiling? Only time will tell. Perhaps our children or grandchildren will cherish a special memento that was included just for them, so take the time to send a message into the future in the Kewaskum Jaycee's Centennial Time Capsule.

Badger Boys, Girls Selection Announced

This year some 2,000 junior boys and girls throughout Wisconsin will represent their schools and community at a state gathering of Wisconsin school students. Kewaskum High School delegates are sponsored by both the local American Legion Post and Kiwanis organization.

This year, Michelle Thull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thull, Jenny Goodsell, daughter of Deborah Goodsell and the late Thomas Goodsell, Rebecca Wulff, daughter of Thomas and Jean Wulff, Andy Rix, son of James and Margaret Rix, Kevin Dobke, son of Roger and Suzanne Dobke, and Jason Liegl, son of Steven and Diane Liegl are the six junior representatives who were selected from the top third of their class.

The selection of delegates is based on the student's scholastic standing, their participation in extra-curricular activities such as athletics, music, speech, journalism, clubs or other school organizations and their adaptability to the Badger State Program.

The girls will attend camp June 11-17 at Madison and the boys will go to Ripon, Wisconsin, June 10-17. During these Badger State programs, the high school leaders of the future will develop a sense of individual obligations to their community, state and nation.

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM NEWS NOTES

The Village is accepting yard waste on the east side of the Village Garage. A designated area for the drop off of yard waste has been established and a large dumpster placed east of the Village Garage. These deposits may be made between 7:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The Village does ask that the yard waste be deposited into the dumpster free from other debris and that the plastic bags are placed into the garbage container adjacent to the dumpster.

A reminder when mowing your lawn the grass clippings are not to be deposited/blown into the street. These grass clippings block the storm sewer and add additional expense to the maintenance of the storm sewer system. Your cooperation in reference to this matter is appreciated.

Seventh in a Series of Centennial Recollections Oldest Resident Lorinda Tessar Shares Memories of Her Family

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Lorinda Tessar will be 97 this year, and is, as far as we know, the oldest living resident in the Village of Kewaskum. It is well known that she never acts her age, and doesn't intend to, and her list of accomplishments is a reflection of her dedication to the community.

She was born during the winter of 1898 on a farm in rural Kewaskum, to August and Mary Schaefer, and remembers life as being "beautiful." "We were so happy, and did everything together as a family," she recalls. "I can't explain how wonderful it was to grow up then." Lorinda enjoyed attending school with her five siblings - two sisters and three brothers, and it was convenient since they lived right next door to a school out on Badger Road. As she grew older, she had to walk the distance to the village to go to Kewaskum High School.

Her parents maintained a small dairy farm, and Lorinda points out that most of the land surrounding the village was made up of small, family run farms at the time. "No one had a lot of money, and they had to make do with what they had," she expresses. "I think that's the way it should be."

"I can't tell you enough good things about my parents," Tessar emphasizes. "They were so great to us. Sometimes they were a bit strict, but they had to be, and they always meant well." She describes her mother, Mary, as a real farmer's wife. "She was the kind of person who would do anything for anybody." When Lorinda was 18, her family sold the farm and moved into the village, where her father worked in Nic Rimmel's factory for a number of years.

Mrs. Tessar graduated from Milwaukee Teacher's College in 1918 (now UW-Milwaukee), and first taught at the Stoffel School, which was a one-room country schoolhouse located on Highway 28. She later transferred to Barton Elementary School, teaching grades one through four. She retired from the profession when she was 70 years old. "To be a teacher is one of the best things that has happened in my life."

She married Jack Tessar in 1918. He served in World War I, and Lorinda describes him as, "an avid sports fan... all baseball and football." She was a sports enthusiast herself in college and enjoyed her position on the girl's basketball team. They were blessed with four sons: Wayland, Allen, John and Tom. Jack died in 1976.

Two of her sons served in World War II, and a third son served during the Korean War. When they all came back alive, she promised to help those families who weren't as fortunate, and has since been an active member in the Veterans of Foreign Wars for the past 67 years. In 1928, she helped organize Post 1393 in West Bend, named after her cousin, Fred Schaefer. She is now one of the oldest active members of the VFW in the entire state.

Lorinda recently suffered a painful fall in her home, which shattered her elbow. She has been recovering at Cedar Lake Rehabilitation Center, but it's been difficult for her to sit still this long, and she's looking forward to coming home.

Up until her accident, she kept busy as an active member in the Women's Guild at Peace Church in Kewaskum, never tired of creating her famous homemade braided rugs, canned fruits, jams and jellies, and enjoyed spending time with her family, which includes eleven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Tessar had been chosen as the honored guest to ride with the wagon train to the Centennial Celebration on June 10th, but it looks like that's not going to be a possibility right now. "It was something that was very important for me to do, and participate in," she sadly states. But right now her most important job is concentrating on her physical therapy and making sure she gives her elbow enough time to heal.

Residents of the community and the village of Kewaskum honor Mrs. Tessar, wish her a speedy recovery and want her to know she will be in their thoughts on June 10th as the Centennial Celebration by the river recognizes the village's 100th anniversary.

Third Klessig Reunion Being Planned

A family reunion of the descendants of Johann Andreas Klessig is being planned to be held at the Turner Hall in Fillmore, Wisconsin. The reunion will take place in August 1997, to celebrate the arrival of the various children of Johann Andreas Klessig in America.

He was born in 1789, and lived in Schlagwitz, Saxony, Germany. He was married to Johanna Claus. The couple had 24 children, four sets of twins, of which 8 survived infancy. Five boys and a girl immigrated to Wisconsin between 1845 to 1860. Ernst Klessig, Henry Klessig and Henrietta Klessig settled in Fillmore and Fredonia, Wisconsin. The other three boys, August Klessig, Louis Klessig and Ferdinand Klessig settled in Manitowoc County, Wisconsin.

Ernst married Liberta Poetsch in 1850. They lived in Fillmore and built the Saxonia House, which was an inn and a brewery. The grand opening of the Saxonia House was a historic event in the community. They had five children, Mary Witt, Augusta Bratz, Emma Goetter Bratz, Ida Kane and John who married Selma Gruble. After Ernst Klessig died in 1864, Liberta married Ernst Jachnig. Their children were Alma (Jachnig) Wittig, Edwin, Louis and Bertha.

Henry was already married to Julia Hiersemann when he and his wife and four sons immigrated in 1860, and bought a farm just north of Wabeka. All four sons married: Henry married Bertha Schilbach, Robert married Didericka Tietgen, Julius married Agnes Gruble, and Richard married Emelia Fisher.

Henrietta married Carl Aurig in 1849, and lived in Fillmore. They had six children, Agnes Dreher, Amanda Goldammer, August, Adolph, Aurelia and Anna. Adolph married Mary Gerner, August, Aurelia and Anna did not marry.

Klessig reunions were held in 1987 and 1992 in Cleveland, Wisconsin. About three hundred persons attended each of these reunions. A family history book was published after the 1987 reunion and a supplement is planned to be published in connection with the 1997 reunion.

Those interested in the reunion should contact Mrs. Laverne Hron, 125 N. University Dr. #3195, West Bend, WI 53095.

THANK YOU

We would like to express our sincere and heartfelt "thank you" to the Kewaskum Fire Department and our neighbors for all their help and prayers.

Roast Turkey With Glaze

A succulent holiday meal, Roast Turkey with Glaze, is also wonderfully low in fat.

(NAPS)—Here's one more thing to be thankful for this Thanksgiving: That delicious, juicy turkey is wonderfully low in fat and calories, so you can enjoy eating plenty without worrying about your waistline.

One way to make your turkey dinner even more delicious is with a flavor enhancer found at many local stores. Called Ac'cent®, it heightens food's own natural flavor, without adding any fat or calories. It's naturally derived from corn, sugar beets or molasses, but doesn't provide a flavor of its own. It's great on low fat foods such as turkey, other poultry and vegetables. It also brings out the flavor of meats, sauces, soups, gravies and casseroles. It gives salad greens and dressings a garden fresh flavor. You can use it during or after cooking; even shake it on salads and vegetables right at the table.

You'll find Ac'cent really brings out the flavor of this recipe for Roast Turkey With Glaze:

Roast Turkey With Glaze

Follow directions on package for cleaning and roasting turkey. Use one of the following glaze recipes to baste the turkey before placing in oven. Baste with additional glaze every 30 minutes during cooking.

Honey Mustard Glaze

- 1 can (6 ounces) frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed
 - 1/2 cup prepared mustard
 - 1/2 cup honey
 - 2 teaspoons AC'CENT Flavor Enhancer
 - 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- In small bowl, combine all ingredients. Makes enough for 12 to 15 pound turkey.

Cranberry Orange Glaze

- 1 can (16 ounces) whole berry cranberry sauce
 - 1 can (6 ounces) frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed
 - 1/4 cup honey
 - 2 teaspoons AC'CENT Flavor Enhancer
- In small bowl, combine all ingredients. Makes enough for 12 to 15 pound turkey.

Free Booklet

For a free booklet with more recipes, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: The Chefs Collection from AC'CENT-M, Pet Incorporated, P.O. Box 66718, St. Louis, MO 63166-6718.

declares, adding that most sports bars are so big they contain volleyball or basketball courts right inside. Right now the entire building is in the process of being remodeled inside, to make room for the new bar, and tables. "We're moving a wall out, making the kitchen smaller, and opening up one of the windows," he explains, with help from the landlord and hired laborers. They hope to someday add outside volleyball courts, but for now they're concentrating on opening by July 1st.

T & Vern's Sports Bar and Grill will be serving food Mondays, from 6 to 10 p.m.; Tuesday through Thursday from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Fridays and Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. and Sundays from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. They are still hiring bartenders, cooks, waitresses and cleaning help.

"I also want to remind everyone that there's extra parking available in the rear of the building," Tom adds, "so there's plenty of room to bring your friends."

Kewaskum welcomes this new business to the community, and Tom and Dennis hope you'll stop by and share your favorite sports stories, have a bite to eat, and enjoy watching the games in an atmosphere that shares your team spirit.

Dear Legislator ...

“Public schools work for Wisconsin. Let them work for all our children.”

Wisconsin Senators and Representatives
State Capitol
Madison, WI 53702

June 1995

Dear Legislator:

The people of Wisconsin decided long ago that they wanted to build one of the best systems of public education in the country. And they did! Today, our public schools are the envy of other states. And this state's economic successes are a direct outgrowth of having a foundation of high-quality public schools.

Now, however, we are at a crossroads. Some forces, which appear to us to be terribly misguided, are supporting proposals to change how we structure and finance education in Wisconsin. These changes will seriously undermine the quality of our public schools and begin to undermine what it has taken the people of Wisconsin decades to build.

We strongly support a wide range of positive school reforms. Our schools need to constantly change to meet new challenges. We are continuously working to implement those changes. The record proves we are on the right track.

The proposals in the state budget bill will take school reform in the wrong direction. If implemented, they could quickly undermine our past successes. Please consider these issues carefully:

State-imposed revenue limits. The budget provision to permanently extend limits on how much money school districts can raise presents two major problems. First, the limits are robbing schools of badly needed resources. Since revenue controls were first instituted two years ago, 31,000 additional students have enrolled in our public schools, and we have lost 1,900 teachers. This trend can only lead to less attention to students' needs, more unresolved discipline problems, lower standards, and, ultimately, to graduates who are less prepared for the jobs of the future. We need to support local control of our schools.

Public funding of private schools. The state budget bill as currently written would divert millions of dollars from public schools to private schools, including religious schools in Milwaukee. Our own survey and an independent survey by the Wisconsin Public Radio/St. Norbert College Survey Center have both found that Wisconsin citizens are overwhelmingly opposed to financing private and religious schools with tax money. Research shows that private schools, as a whole, do not perform any better than public schools. These tax dollars are needed right now to support real learning opportunities for children who are not doing as well as they could.

Dismantling of the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. This department has played a key role over the years in helping to shape our excellent school system. Citizens strongly oppose this politically motivated proposal. Why should we rip apart a professional, highly successful education agency headed by an elected state superintendent who is accountable to the people and replace it with an inexperienced political appointee of the governor? Our state constitution provides for an independently elected nonpartisan state superintendent. The proposal you're about to vote on will simply create another new bureaucracy.

Public schools work for Wisconsin. They are among the best in the nation and the world. They deserve better than to be treated as average or worse. Please consider these changes carefully. By supporting real reform over budget-battle politics, you will help our public schools work for all children.

— The teachers and support staff of Wisconsin Public Schools.

The teachers and support staff of Wisconsin Public Schools — through their organization, the Wisconsin Education Association Council — have sent copies of this letter to each of the 99 state representatives and 33 state senators who are scheduled to finalize a state budget bill by July 1.

Letters to the Editor

June 1, 1995

Dear Editor:

Following is a letter I have written and sent to members of the Kewaskum School District School Board. I plan to read it at the next board meeting and would also like to share it with the public and invite anyone interested in these topics to attend the next school board meeting on June 12, 1995. Thank you.

Dear School Board Members

My oldest son will be entering high school next fall and my youngest will be starting at middle school. I've always felt that I was involved with my children's education and schoolwork. It wasn't until I looked to the school for help for my oldest son, who is moderately dyslexic, that I realized the state our educational system is in. My interest and frustration has increased.

I didn't know about whole language or inventive spelling. I didn't realize it had become acceptable for work to be turned in late without much said about it. These are philosophies that have sneaked in and taken hold that I find difficult to support. I have great respect for the teaching profession and felt that I was supporting my kids' teachers by trying to get them to do their best and have their work turned in on time. But what I thought I was supporting isn't there anymore.

Teachers have a tremendous influence on our kids and I can see with my own, there comes a point where teacher influence is greater than mine. When I suggest that something could be done more neatly or that more is needed for something to be acceptable, I'm told, "the teacher doesn't care about that," or, "it's good enough." And sure enough, it's brought home with a decent grade. I feel like I'm beating my head against the wall. Of course, these aren't the attitudes of all teachers, which doesn't make it any easier for parents to follow through. Why, as a district, can't we have some unity and consistency? If that is what would be called micro-management, I think we need some.

As a parent, I trust and expect that teachers are helping to prepare my children for the work world. But first, we have to make sure they're mastering the skills they need to successfully get through school. If reading and writing skills are truly the emphasis, there needs to be more reading required; more writing required. I'm not talking about journals or other creative writing. But something that would show reading and comprehension ability. I think there are very few children who will do more than what is expected of them so I don't feel that the voluntary reading and writing "contests" are an honest effort in addressing the mastery of these skills.

It's hard for me to see my very capable fifth grader do "fill-in-the-blank" book reports on books he chooses, which are usually below his ability because the teacher doesn't care what he reads. Next year he'll be expected to do research and put together a two to three page typed report. Where did the practice come in? At the same time, I have watched and helped my dyslexic eighth grader struggle with assignments since first grade because no one in our system is trained, understands, or has time to teach him in the way he needs to learn.

Teachers, and maybe some parents, need to raise the expectations we have for our kids. Most will live up to the challenge. The ones that don't maybe aren't able to, and time needs to be spent finding out why not. We cannot continue to pretend there are no problems and continue to treat everyone the same by lowering the standards for all to meet the needs of some. It isn't befitting anyone. We can't keep telling kids they're doing great when they're not.

Another thing I have a hard time understanding is the number of in-class parties, rewards, etc. Why are these kids being bribed to do their work or behave properly? I can't compete with this at home. And yet there is so little time and money for kids who need extra help.

As for my original concern of over two years ago, regarding the identification and help for students with dyslexia, I believe there is progress being made. I hope it continues and that help becomes more accessible to students who need it. Still, I'm totally exasperated when I hear, "tell your son not to worry about spelling -- the computer has spellcheck," or, "I won't grade him on his spelling." Spelling is not the dyslexic student's biggest problem! We need more real in-service time to give teachers a better understanding of what dyslexia is all about if it's going to be taken seriously and dealt with effectively.

Of course, these are my opinions. I am not criticizing our teachers; I feel a change in philosophy and attitude is needed. It is my hope that with a new board and a new school year to look forward to, some major changes as far as responsibility and accountability of teachers, students, and parent will come into place. We can, and need to expect more from our kids, but we need to make sure they have the tools to live up to those expectations.

Finally, with all this said, I would like to know who's in charge here?

Sincerely,
Gail E. Ramirez

Letter to the Editor:
Reason: Centennial
Beautification

The Kewaskum Women's Club would like to publicly thank Gwen Dreher for her work in organizing and the planting of the flowers in the Centennial Planters around the village. This really helps to beautify the area.

The KWC members also appreciate the efforts of Mr. Rizzardi for his organization of the labor and transportation to fill and deliver the planters to the designated spots. The "manpower" was donated by some of the young students in the Kewaskum High School ag. classes. Thank you to all of you.

A special thank you to Dave Runge of Runge Excavating for donating the gravel and ground needed to fill the planters.

This project would not have been possible without these volunteers. I was part of this group and it was a lot of fun and a joy to work with these volunteers. Thank you.

Dear Editor,

As taxpayers of Kewaskum School District, we would like to know how the board members could consider taking away benefits from the support staff.

We believe that there is other ways of saving money that won't have such an impact on the maintenance and cleaning performance as this will. With new buildings going up we need all the custodians and maintenance people more than ever. As a result of the reduced hours it can not be maintained as well as it should be.

The loyalty of the people who have been here for 11 to 15 years should be looked at closely. Maybe, if the District supervisor and the principal of the district would be willing to give up some of their benefits, others would be willing to do the same.

Dear Editor,

I'm going to tell this straight out. My name is Misty Luedtke. I am a 16 year old girl and cannot find enough ways to project my voice so all can hear what I have to say. I was hoping that in some way, you might be able to help. You see, when I look around me today, at the people and places and at the things in this world, I see darkness. I see anger and violence. I see destruction. I see black birds where there should be cardinals and crying where should be joy, and most of all I see silence where there should be singing! Editor, I would like to change this. I am seeking a high-school-aged students who would like to join a Christian Youth Choir. I would like to spread joy and happiness throughout our area. Like I told you before, I need ways so all can hear this. Normally, I would put an ad in your paper or something, but to tell you the truth, I really have no money. I don't even have a director. I feel like a tiny grain of sand trying to cross an ocean. I'm sure any help you give me will be appreciated. No matter how tiny a reply I can get please contact me at 528-7290. Please help me, I really want to make a difference.

Sincerely Yours
Misty Luedtke

The Birth of a Sculpture

Third, fourth, and fifth grade students from Wayne Elementary School participated in a sculpture creating project during the month of May. Under the direction of visiting sculptor artist, Paul Bobrowitz from Colgate WI., the students built a sculpture from recycled auto parts.

Mr. Bobrowitz, a finish carpenter by trade, designs and builds sculptures using recycled materials that he welds together in unique ways. All of his work is interesting and thought provoking. His work has been displayed at the West Bend Art Museum and can be seen at Leeds in Sussex.

Thanks to the generosity of Jerry Hart and Mike Schanen, students visited Star Auto, Inc. an auto salvage yard, and collected old auto parts and other "junk" that could be combined to create a "human" figure.

Under the guidance of Mr. Bobrowitz, the students assembled the parts and welded them into bigger than life size "person" that now welcomes students and visitors to Wayne Elementary.

"I learned what sort of things you can weld" said fourth grader Alison Yanke about this experience. Jay Beth a fifth grader said "Going to the junk yard was the best part of this project." "I liked everything!!" said Tom Ogi, a fifth grader. Stephanie Herrick said she liked "the hair and the Nike shoes" on the sculpture. Justin Rhoads said our next project should be to "build a motor or a car."

These creative students are part of the district gifted and talented Art Enrichment program that is under the direction of elementary art instructor, Mrs. Peggy Henke.

A's Notch Two More Wins

The Kewaskum Athletics won two games last weekend to run their overall record to 9-4. Saturday the A's defeated the Pardeeville Braves by a 7-5 score.

The victory gives Kewaskum a 2-0 record in Tri-County Nite League play. Ryan Hall went all the way on the mound, striking out eight and walking only three to pick up the win.

The offensive charge was led by Brian Hill, Corey Abel and Matt Schlosser who had two hits each. Hill and Doug Gonring drove in two runs apiece. Abel walked twice to reach base four times and scored two runs.

The A's beat Brownsville, 11-7, on Sunday in a Rock River League game to even their record at 3-3. For the second consecutive day the Athletics got an excellent performance on the mound. This time it was Dave Pauers going the distance to pick up the win. He struck out three and walked just one. Doug Gonring, Terry Koth, Dave Pauers and Todd Muckerheide each contributed two hits to the offensive onslaught. Koth hit a home run and had four RBI's and Greg Rinn hit a three run homer to key the A's victory. Dave Pauers added two RBI's to his mound performance.

Saturday, June 10, the A's travel to Neosho for a Tri-County League contest at 1:30. Kewaskum returns home Sunday to host Horicon in a Rock River game also at 1:30.

There is a kinship, a kind of free-masonry, between all persons of intelligence, however antagonistic their moral outlook.

The greatest invention of the nineteenth century was the invention of the method of invention.

A Message from Bonnie

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers and how are you all doing today? How about a weather warm-up? I don't know about the rest of you but I am beginning to hate cloudy dreary days and trying to "catch a glimpse of the sun, yuck!" Yes, we had a mild winter but sure hoping that we can enjoy some summer good times- picnics, cookouts and being outside with our families and friends right?

Going to get right into my column and do hope you all enjoy it okay? First of all, by popular request (and with my dear mom's permission)--will give you the No Fuss Pineapple Cake (and bars) recipe that so many of you have wanted.

Use an ungreased pan! In a large mixing bowl, beat two eggs until they are light and fluffy. Add the contents of a twenty ounce can of crushed pineapple (undrained) plus two cups of all purpose flour, a cup white granulated sugar, one cup of brown sugar (packed) and two teaspoons of baking soda. Mix all of these ingredients by hand. (Do not use an electric mixer!) Then stir in 1 cup of chopped walnuts. Spread contents evenly in 9x13x2 baking pan. Bake in 350 degree (preheated) oven for 45-50 minutes or until toothpick inserted in middle comes out clean. Cool completely and then cover completely with cream cheese ginger frosting. That recipe is as follows: In small mixer bowl, beat together three oz. package cream cheese softened, 1/4 cup butter or margarine and one teaspoon vanilla. you can use an electric mixer (it's easier), gradually add two cups sifted powdered sugar and 1/2 tsp. of ground ginger. Beat until smooth and has nice consistency.

Spread on cooled cake and sprinkle additional walnuts on top. Note: Mom used this recipe (a cake recipe) for the bars but used a cookie sheet with sides 12x18 size and then doubled the frosting recipe for the bars. There it is as you have requested and if you have questions, please call me at 626-2575 and I will ask mom and get back to you.

Cold Indian Bats Contribute to Losses

By Tom Menger

Things were looking up for the Indian varsity baseball team at the start of the week, as they beat Pewaukee 5-2 on Tuesday, but it was all downhill from there, with Kewaskum losing the next four games.

The lone win came at Pewaukee, where the Indian batmen touched pitcher Todd Milykovic for three runs in the first inning. Kevin Klahn started things off by reaching on an error, and after a Tim Strigenz single and another Pewaukee error, Kewaskum held a solid 3-0 lead.

With the score at 3-1 in the third inning, Indian short-stop Joe Rettler hit a lead off single, and catcher Tim Gundrum quickly followed with a homerun, putting Kewaskum ahead, 5-1.

Dane Dorn went on to pick up the 5-2 win for Kewaskum, with Josh Christopherson getting the save.

The Indians weren't able to celebrate for long, however, as they hosted Brillion on Thursday.

Pitcher Dan Jeserig had a stellar performance for the Indians, going six innings and striking out nine, while giving up only three hits. Meanwhile, his teammates had built up a 2-0 lead. The wheels fell off in the late innings however, when the Indians gave up two runs in the sixth to tie the game and four more in the top of the seventh inning, to let Brillion take the lead, 6-2.

Kewaskum mounted a small comeback in their half of the seventh, scoring two runs, but the visitors were able to turn away the Indian attack, handing Kewaskum a 6-4 loss.

The Indians made the trip down to West Allis on Friday night, to play West Allis Central in the Tex Belich Tournament.

Kewaskum came out flat in the game and never really got anything going as they collected only two hits enroute to a 5-1 loss. The Indians lone run came in the sixth inning when Tim Strigenz reached and made it to second base on an error, and then went to third on a passed ball. Strigenz later scored on another error that also allowed Tim Gundrum to reach base.

After dropping the game to West Allis Central, Kewaskum moved on to oppose New Berlin Eisenhower in a consolation game, only to lose, 3-1 and be knocked out of the tourney. The Indians collected eight hits in the contest, but were unable to string anything together.

While the players were upset with the teams' lack of success, they remained focused for their biggest game as of yet, the championship game in the Germantown Invitational. The game between Kewaskum and Franklin was rained out last week, and rescheduled for the same day as the West Allis Tourney, forcing Kewaskum to play one game in West Allis at 12:30 p.m. and then race to Germantown to play Franklin at 3 p.m.

The Indians struggled at the plate once again, but were able to manage a 1-1 tie with Franklin after three innings. A homerun by Dan Reisbacher off of Indian pitcher Dane Dorn gave Franklin a 2-1 lead, and because of the dead Kewaskum bats, that was all Franklin pitcher Jason Sadowski (tourney MVP) needed to erase the Indians and send Kewaskum home with second place for the second year in a row.

"We just couldn't hit the ball...." said Kewaskum coach Mark Heise after the eventual 10-1 loss. "And when we did, it was right at someone... We just couldn't get anything started."

The Kewaskum nine will give it another shot this week with the conference schedule starting off and the Indians facing Kiel, Hilbert, Plymouth and Two Rivers.

Centennial

Chamber of Commerce will be on hand to deliver a gift to the Village during presentation ceremonies and Village Administrator Dan Schmidt will present plaques to Regal Ware Inc. who recently celebrated their 50th Anniversary and to the Kewaskum Statesman, who will observe their 100th Birthday on October 5, 1995. A plaque will also be awarded to Diane Susen who designed the Centennial logo.

Be sure to join us for opening ceremonies, stay with us for all the Centennial events held throughout the day, including the Girl Scouts Fashion Show, the Time Capsule, Old Time Photo Sessions, the free horse drawn wagon rides, the Blacksmith Shop, the Silhouette Cutting artist, and the Indian Dance Ceremonials.

Enjoy the vast array of foods offered by local service organizations and listen to all the special music contracted to take you a step back in time.

While browsing throughout the grounds, make sure you stop at the Photo Display Booth and reminisce with the old photos featured on Kewaskum. The photo committee headed by Jim Yanke, has put many hours in the vast collection that will be on exhibit.

Don't miss the Centennial Stamp cancellation booth or the drawing for the Centennial Quilt and whatever you do, don't go home before the extensive fireworks. It is promised the fireworks will be something the village residents have never seen the likes of before. Don't plan on watching them from your home because you will miss a ground display that has never been equalled in this vicinity.

Be sure to check other pages of this issue for information on the schedule of events and don't miss the wagon train. It will begin at 10 a.m. at West Bend Elevator, travel on Highway 45 to Sandy Ridge Road, continue on Sandy Ridge Road coming out at the Welcome sign at the Village limits on Highway 45. It will then continue on through the village and end up at River Hill Park where the wagons will be on display.

Be sure to attend all the festivities... the event is planned for the enjoyment of young and old alike. You won't want to miss any of the special things planned for the "Celebration of the Century." Most of us will not have a chance to celebrate our next Centennial... so join in on the fun planned for you now!

It's your community, Kewaskum, and it's time to celebrate our birthday!
