Third Generation at Thiemer's Tap

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Thiemer's Tap along Highway 45 just north of Kewaskum, has been in existence since the summer of 1954 when Evelyn and the late Richard Thiemer Sr., purchased the tavern, Kohn's Kurb, and 8.5 acres from Spanny Pete, with the intentions of starting their own business.

There were living quarters around the back, and it wasn't until the late 50's, early 60's, that the Thiemers decided to build a house next to the tavern.

"There was a nice home located on the corner of Highway V and 45," Richard Jr. explains, "and my dad couldn't go out there on the day they were selling it, so he sent his friend, Pete Neckuty, to go bid on the house for him. He got the house, and Pauly Cechvala moved it to its present location, where dad and his buddies like Al Liegl, Math Kohn, Matt and Leo Wiedmeyer, Maynard and Bobby Bartelt, they all pitched in and revamped the entire house, even adding a big upstairs and a first floor addition."

Richard Jr. was four-years-old when his parents moved to Kewaskum and remembers life back then as, "something always exciting happening at the Thiemer household." For a few years, the extra acreage was planted with corn or navy beans, but after awhile Richard Sr. told his son that Pauly Cechvala was going to turn it into a baseball diamond, and sure enough, by the late 50's, the Thiemers had their own baseball park.

During the 60's, the popularity of fastpitch softball died down for awhile, "so dad decided to buy me a horse," Richard recalls. "It was my eighth grade graduation present, and the baseball diamond was used for a pasture for the new horse. My sister, Carol, and I bought a couple more, so that's the way the field remained for about three years."

Carol now resides in Newburg, with her husband David, and their two children, Lisa and Matt.

"My dad worked for the electric company for just six months shy of fifteen years, until an injury ended his career in 1962." Still his father continued to keep busy with his own business, and was the kind of man who wasn't afraid to try out new ideas.

In 1966, he approached his dad and asked him if he and his friend Richard Schmidt could make a go-kart track in the field, and when they got the go ahead, they picked out some old tires from Raynor Herriges to

This annual highlight features bands, baton groups, and other musical units, sensational floats, novelty and military units, children's specialties, comic and clown entries, clubs and organizations, visiting fire departments, legionnaires, antique cars, horses and wagons, and much, much more.

This year's parade centers around the village's centennial and uses its theme, "Centennial in the Kettle - A Heritage Experience." The route will be the same as previous years, beginning up at the high school campus area, and proceeding to River Hill Park to join the festivities.

Just a reminder to all participants... be ready to line-up no later than 11:30 a.m. Many great prizes will be awarded for the best floats and children's specialty entries. Anyone still interested in sponsoring units or bands, or donating money towards sponsoring units, can contact Jeff Boden at 626-4161.

Always a welcome community event, the Kewaskum picnic offers everyone a chance to relax with family and friends, capping off a memorable holiday weekend.

Family Living an Important Focus At Wisconsin Farm Progress Days

Visitors to the 60' x 150' tent will find a big range of speakers, stage presentations, cooking demonstrations, educational and informational displays. Visitors also can register to win prizes, including a 40-piece Noritake china set donated by West Bend Glass and China.

"We've tried to have a variety of events to appeal to everyone in the audience," said Kathy Muth, chairman of the family living tent.

Events on Tuesday, July 11, include "Blue Chip Attitudes," an address on taking charge, by noted motivational speaker James L. Schneider. Memories use for the outline of the track.

"We had our own go-kart club, with Tory Russell as president," Thiemer recollects, "with such racing celebrities as Jim "Jonesy" Korth, Mark Schaeffer, Bobby Thorn, and the Mariucchi brothers tearing up the track. Oh yes, we had our thrills, and when we went off the track, we ended up in Buss's corn field."

Thiemer's racing era lasted until the Vietnam War was upon the world, taking many of his local friends away for military duty. So once again, the horses had the field to themselves, at least for a short while.

In 1965 Richard Sr. got the idea into his head that he wanted a pond put in the lowland area of the property, so he secured the help of Mr. Thompkins to dig the hole, and after several months of clearing trees, a new pond was added to the Thiemer estate.

"Dad called it his 'Ponderosa,'" Richard points out, "and I'd have to say we had a lot of parties back there. If only those trees could talk!"

It was during the 70's that slow pitch softball took off, and Richard Jr. and a friend, Wayne Riekkoff, ran some very popular ball tournaments at the "Thiemer Dome," with only one problem, which his dad was quick to point out. "He knew that people didn't like running uphill, which was caused by the six foot hill in the center of the field," Thiemer explains. "He always said people were just too picky. It just so happened that a neighboring farmer, Art Buss Sr., needed fill for a new piece on the side of his barn. Dad and Art got together, and after moving 6,000 yards of dirt, we got our diamond somewhat leveled off."

They ran spring and fall tournaments, with teams from Milwaukee, Fond du Lac, Random Lake, Cascade, West Bend and Kewaskum joining in on the fun. The Jaycees also used Thiemer's ball diamond, as well as the Kewaskum summer ball league, until their diamonds were done in the village. "The highlight of the season was when Tom Bartelt, the insurance man, ran the Thursday Night League, and called it the Thiemer Dome, with his witty write-ups every week and his celebrity umpire, Tom Larsen."

From the time Richard was six-years-old, he knew his dad always wanted to have a barber shop next to the tavern, and he started telling his young son, that when he grew up he was going to be a barber.

Richard Sr.'s dream came true, and his son has been in business for the past 23 years, with Thiemer's Kut and Style. Richard Jr. began his training in 1968, at Milwaukee Tech, and first worked for Grover Brandt in Kewaskum, and later for a barber in Allenton, before opening his own business, connected to the tavern.

Now it's time for the family business to change hands, and Evelyn is passing the tradition down to Richard Jr. and his son, Richie, who will be running Thiemer's Tap as partners. Evelyn will still be there to help out in the afternoons, as well as part-time bartender, Mark Larsen.

Mark remembers when his father, Darryl, helped Richard Sr. clear the woods for the pond 30 years ago.

Richie and his wife, Lori, had a two-and-a-half year old daughter named Ashley, and are expecting their second child in November.

Apart from the barbershop and the tavern business, Richard has been an active member of the Jaycees for the past 15 years, and now holds the title of Senator through their national organization. He is also known as an avid car buff, and can be seen around town during the summer months, touring in his red '63 T-Bird convertible, which has earned him awards at car shows. His other "baby" is a '55 Cameo truck, previously owned by "Cocky" Keller.

Richard's wife, Mary, has been a great support through the years, and is busily employed at the Samaritan Home in West Bend, where she's worked for the past 26 years. She is their Activities Volunteer Supervisor. "We believe in family," Richard asserts, "and that's why we've never opened the bar on Sunday. That's a time we set aside to be together."

As Richard puts it, "yes, the baseball diamond lies quiet now, but the old memories are always there, and people like to stop in and talk about the good old days. Now the kids who were in diapers back then, are old enough to select a beverage over the bar, and they bring up the days when their parents would bring them to Thiemers, and Evelyn would be there, handing out suckers."

"I guess that's why I want to hang on to the place... for future generations to have the memories that we've enjoyed. Besides, my dad was proud of his little "Ponderosa," and so am I, and I know my boy, Rich, is too. So stop on out for a little socializing, on Tuesdays through Saturdays, from 3:30 until 10 p.m. You don't have to come to the bar just to drink, we have soda, too!"

Boltonville Firemen Join Carnival

Could this be true? Would Joe Enright give up his "cushy" electrician job for a life of travel and excitement on the midway? Or will he pursue his singing career with his karaoke machine singing "Little Willie," or could these men just have had one-too-many old fashioned after a long and wet Boltonville picnic? What's New at the Kewaskum Public Library?

Congratulations to the "Readers of the Week" for Week No. 2 of SPORTACULAR SUMMER at the library! They are Andrea Gust and Luke Terlinden. Kids, be sure to sign up each week for your chance to become a "Reader of the Week." The lucky winners will receive a SPORTACULAR tee-shirt, and have their pictures taken for the newspaper and library.

The lucky winner of the "Sportacular" jar filled with gum and candy was Jared Seefeldt. The actual number of pieces was 2,162, and Jared's guess was 2,159... only off by three pieces! Jared promised to share his "loot" with family members and friends! Guesses ranged from 65 pieces to 100,080 pieces.

Don't forget... the "Sportacular" trivia contest! It is available now, and due back no later than Monday, July 17, at 8 p.m. This is a HARD contest, with difficult questions, aimed at kids with the ability to look things up and do some simple research. A bit of ADVICE on where to find things can be given by adults, but the kids should find the actual answers themselves. We like when parents are involved in helping with research skills, but to be fair, we want kids to "discover" the answers themselves. The winner will receive a SPORTACULAR trophy!

No-Hassle Fishing at Hide-A-Way Springs Trout Farm

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

At Hide-A-Way Springs Trout Farm, you can spend the day catching delicious rainbow trout, take it home with you all cleaned, and enjoy it for dinner that evening, with none of the hassle of hauling boats or finding a fishing license, and then wondering why the fish aren't biting.

The 55 acre trout farm has been owned and operated by Ron and Brenda Knoeck for the past 25 years, after Ron expressed an interest in raising trout as a business. He started out working at a fish hatchery to learn the trade, and after purchasing the land in 1969, started out on his own. At the time he was mainly interested in hatching and raising trout, but eventually an increased demand from people asking him to let them fish there led to the fishing aspect of the business.

The process of raising trout begins with quality eggs Knoeck purchases from the Trout Lodge in Tacoma, Washington, and are hatched in indoor tanks under ideal growing conditions. 40,000 hatchlings live in one tank, and are fed automatically seven times a day until they are about three inches long. "We always buy just the eggs, which arrive here disinfected," Ron stresses. "We never introduce any other fish here, and in all these years we've never had any kind of health problem." He also owes the secret of his success to keeping all tanks and ponds clean, and maintaining proper density levels in each one.

The baby fish are then transferred into one of two circular cement tanks, also kept indoors. Each holds approximately 10,000 fish. "They could grow up to 9" in one year," Ron explains, "depending on weather conditions. In colder seasons, they don't grow as fast because the water is cooler. It usually takes about two years for the fish to reach two pounds."

The fish remain in their first outdoor tank for about seven months, which measures 6 1/2 feet wide by 40 feet long, and are progressively moved into larger holding tanks, and eventually into one of 12 outside ponds. Knoeck uses a high quality fish meal product he purchases from Murray Elevator in Utah. The food is very high in protein, containing soybean and corn, which contributes to the flavor of the fish. "To get a good quality product, you have to buy directly from a fish food manufacturer," Ron points out. All the outdoor trout are hand-fed.

The ponds are constantly aerated to ensure a good supply of oxygen for the fish, and to keep the ponds from freezing up in the winter. Trout like a cooler water supply as a rule. Fake owls are hung from nearby trees to discourage predators like raccoons and mink. When a fish gets to be over two pounds, it's moved out of the fishing ponds and into a holding tank, to be sold to area restaurants or to stock private ponds. "We try to keep the size of the fish down, since customers that come to fish pay by the pound," Knoeck states.

All the fish Hide-A-Way Trout Farm sells are always fresh, never frozen. About 50% of their business comes from selling and stocking trout. As winter sets in, the bigger fish are moved out, creating a constant turnover for the business.

The farm operates under a Class A Hatchery License, licensed by the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. Fishing at Hide-A-Way Springs does not require the customer to purchase a fishing license, and there is no limit to the number caught.

The Knoecks have had customers come from around the world to enjoy the sport of fishing. They have also entertained groups of boy scouts, elementary students, day car centers, and nursing home residents. "Our biggest advertising is from repeat customers and by word of mouth," Ron maintains. "We make our customers happy by providing them with a great tasting product." There has been a steady increase in demand for commercial fishing farms due to the increasing costs of licenses, boat

Fishing poles and bait are supplied free of charge, and the fish are cleaned and put on ice, so customers need only bring a cooler to transport their catch of the day home -- all ready for the pan or the grill. Recipes are gladly supplied. Hide-A-Way Springs can accommodate groups for family gatherings, vacations, field trips, or birthday parties. Everyone pays for only the fish they catch. Picnic tables are supplied for those who want to pack a picnic lunch and spend the entire day, surrounded by the beauty of the northern Kettle Moraine State Forest.

During the busy season, it's easy for the Knoecks to put in 85 to 90 hours per week. "Our reward is the look on children's faces when they land their first trout," Ron remarks. During the winter months, the couple keeps busy preparing for the Milwaukee Sentinel Sports Show, where they set up a huge portable tank filled with trout. The event is always a great success and draws a large crowd of people wanting to try their hand at fishing.

Hide-W-Way Springs is located on Highway A, north of Kewaskum. They open the first Saturday in May, weekends only, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. After June 6th, they remain open seven days a week. After mid-August, they suggest calling for hours at 626-4721.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

June 26, 1995

The "Let There Be Lights!" Committee would like to keep you updated on our progress. As you know, the Kewaskum Booster Club is sponsoring a fundraiser to erect lights at the football field and build a new grandstand. In only a few short months we have collected over $7,000. We are very happy with our progress so far, but we realize we have a long way to go.

We would like to thank all who have donated to the Lights. Your donation is very much appreciated! I would also like to encourage all those who have been meaning to send in their donation to do so now! Be sure your family is acknowledged on the plaque to be placed permanently in the High school. remember, this will not only benefit your children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews, but also many future generations. Let's give Kewaskum a field we can all be proud of!

The "Let There Be Lights!" Committee also has several other projects in mind. We will be sponsoring a Bike Ride/Race at Kettle Kountry Kolors and also a booth there. We have plans for a raffle in the future also. We'll keep you posted on these projects! Please keep an eye on our progress sign in front of Sentry also!

The Kewaskum Booster club would like to invite all interested parents to join our groups and become active in your school and community.

Our meetings are on the third Monday of the month at 7:00 in the High School library. The first meeting in September will be announced in the Statesman. Anyone interested in making a donation to the Lights can send it to the Kewaskum Booster club, P.O. Box 446, Kewaskum. Again, thanks.

Key to Successful Grilling Is Knowing When to Apply Sauce

This barbecue season, no matter what you're grilling - from chicken to salmon steaks - the key to great barbecue is knowing when to apply the sauce.

"Traditional tomato-and molasses-based sauces can burn if brushed on too early," says barbecue expert Rich Davis.

Even this season's new non-red sauces with honey mustard and honey teriyaki blends need to be applied during the last few minutes of cooking, unless you're marinating food first. To ensure great barbecue flavor next time you "put on the sauce," use these tips with the following recipes from K.C. Masterpiece.

• Barbecued Meats—(cooked indirectly)—brush with barbecue sauce during the last hour of cooking.

• Smoked Meats—brush with barbecue sauce during the last 30 to 45 minutes of cooking.

• Grilled Chicken—brush with barbecue sauce during the last 10 minutes of grilling, turning once.

• Fish—brush with barbecue sauce during the last 5 to 10 minutes of grilling.

• Hot Dogs and Sausage—brush with barbecue sauce during the last 5 to 6 minutes of grilling.

• Grilled Steaks and Chops—brush with sauce during the last 3 minutes of grilling (after the meat has been turned for the last time).

Grilled Chicken with Cool Black Bean Salsa

- 1 can (15 oz.) black beans, rinsed and drained
- 1/4 cup diced onion
- 1/4 cup diced red bell pepper
- 2 tablespoons + 1/2 cup K.C. Masterpiece Honey Dijon barbecue sauce, divided
- 2 tablespoons chopped cilantro
- 1/4 cup lime juice
- Salt and pepper, to taste
- 4 skinned and boned chicken breast halves (about 1 lb.)
- 8 flour tortillas (7 inches)

Prepare Salsa: In bowl combine beans, onion, red pepper, cilantro, 2 tablespoons of barbecue sauce and 1 tablespoon lime juice. Season with salt and pepper; set aside.

Combine remaining 1/2 cup barbecue sauce and 3 tablespoons lime juice; remove 1/2 cup and reserve. Place chicken on covered grill over medium coals; grill 8 to 10 minutes, turning once. Baste with remaining barbecue-lime mixture during the last few minutes of cooking.

Place tortillas around edge of grill to warm. Slice chicken and mix with 1/4 cup of the reserved barbecue-lime mixture. Brush warm tortillas with remaining barbecue-lime mixture. Fill each tortilla with some chicken and a spoonful of black bean salsa. Serve warm. Serves 4.

Teriyaki Salmon Steaks

- 4 salmon steaks, cut 3/4 inch thick (6 ounces each)
- 1/2 cup K.C. Masterpiece Honey Teriyaki barbecue sauce
- 2 tablespoons minced green onions

Place salmon in shallow dish. Combine honey teriyaki sauce and green onions; pour over fish, turning to coat both sides. Cover and refrigerate 1 hour. Remove salmon from marinade, reserving sauce. Grill salmon over medium coals 5 to 7 minutes on each side, or until fish flakes easily with fork, brushing occasionally with reserved sauce. Serves 4.

For more barbecue tips and recipes, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: K.C. Masterpiece Recipes, P.O. Box 24305KCM, Oakland, CA 94623.

Sisters from St. Joseph's Convent in Campbellsport rehearse for their upcoming concert.

You are cordially invited to circle and save the date of July 19th, a Wednesday evening at 7 p.m., at the West Bend High School auditorium!

On that night forty retired Sisters of St. Francis from St. Joseph's Convent, Campbellsport, will be presenting a lovely, unique ecumenical variety concert for the greater community. Unique, because the bulk of the music to be presented is original. Ecumenical, because the Sisters have invited two Protestant rural choirs to join them. Variety in that the musical presentations include sacred, classical and entertaining secular numbers (swing band, polka, rock 'n roll) plus two humorous readings from the past.

The St. Vincent De Paul Council of Washington County is sponsoring this concert hoping to help the Sisters of St. Francis meet an eight-thousand dollar goal to be used for the purchase of special needed equipment for their nursing home-retirement center in Campbellsport. Since their retirement funding is eighty-eight per cent underfunded, their need is great at this time.

The general public is invited to attend this special inspirational event. A free-will offering will be received at the end of the concert, however, no one is obligated to give. The Sisters are hoping that everyone attending will be both lifted in spirit and entertained...since many of them served the various parish schools in the county. They especially invite former students to attend!

Remember, Wednesday evening at 7:00 p.m., July 19th.

HEALTH ALERT!

The Overlooked Heart Condition

(NAPS)—One in five adults frequently suffers from it. More than a half-million Americans are hospitalized every year because of it.

A new epidemic sweeping the country?

No, it's cardiac arrhythmia, a condition which causes the heart to beat too fast, too slow, or out of rhythm. Although it has been around as long as people have had a heart beat, arrhythmia is often misunderstood, overlooked, and undertreated.

Now, consumers can call the Arrhythmia Awareness Foundation at (800) 600-7111, ext. 233 to receive free information on irregular heart rhythms.

Arrhythmia can be serious, continuing for hours or days, or it can be as simple as a hardly noticeable skipped heart beat. The danger is many don't know if they have a serious health problem.

Many sufferers also are not aware of the various treatments available to control, or eliminate, arrhythmia. Some patients battle arrhythmia daily with drugs, while others seek a one-time, non-invasive procedure that can "fix" the heart and wipe-out their arrhythmia altogether.

For more information, call the Foundation's toll-free line at (800) 600-7111, ext. 233 or write to: AAF, P.O. Box 1626, Ventura, CA 93002. Information about arrhythmia (including a simple test consumers can use to find out if they suffer from arrhythmia symptoms) and a list of local cardiologists familiar with arrhythmia and its diagnosis will be provided.

It seems as though the older generation is the one that worries about how the middle generation is bringing up the younger generation.

GOLF NEWS & NOTES

TRAINING & TRUSTING:

THE SECOND STEP TO THINKING AND PLAYING LIKE A CHAMPION

by Dr. Bob Rotella and Tom Kite, Special Advisors to Chrysler-Plymouth (NAPS)—Tom Kite, like all great golfers, makes a commitment to excellence and trains diligently to improve his skills. But what makes Tom a champion is he knows what to practice and how to practice. When Tom's training, he works hard. But when playing, he stops working on technique and starts trusting what he's trained.

Here are a few tips I recommend to help you train and trust like Tom:

TRAINING:

Improve mechanics:

Work on your set-up, alignment, posture, grip and swing. Aim for perfection.

Work on key shots:

Spend most of your time on tee shots and from 120 yards in. Understand these are the most important shots for scoring.

Transition: To aid the transition from training to trusting, end every session by hitting shots without any mechanical thoughts. We call this "play practice."

TRUSTING:

Trust your training:

Let go of conscious efforts, and allow your swing or stroke to flow.

Put perfectionism aside: Accept that mistakes are part of the game.

Gain confidence: Strive to be more decisive and relaxed as you move from the first tee to the last green.

So, next time you're out there, remember what I always tell Tom—separate training from trusting, and like Tom, you'll enjoy the results.

Scholarship Offer

Chrysler is awarding 40 $1,000 educational scholarships to deserving young golfers, ages 12 to 18. Applications are available at pro shops, Chrysler-Plymouth dealerships and by calling Program Headquarters at 1-800-856-0764.

Allergies: Nothing To Sneeze At

(NAPS)—If you are among the estimated 45 million Americans with allergies—even if you don't know it yet—there could be good news for you.

A recent study shows a medication available at local pharmacies is an effective over-the-counter remedy you can get for relieving allergy symptoms.

In the study, brompheniramine, the antihistamine in Dimetapp® 12-Hour Extentabs®, available over the counter, was more effective than terfenadine, the antihistamine in a more expensive, prescription allergy drug. Allergy sufferers can now consider using an over-the-counter drug to relieve symptoms without having to pay the high cost of a prescription.

Typical symptoms include: sneezing, runny nose, nasal congestion and itchy or watery eyes. If you have these symptoms and they don't go away within a week, you may have an allergy and should see a doctor for a diagnosis.

Your doctor may review your medical history, perform a physical exam and a series of skin tests. If it's discovered you do have an allergy, you'll probably be told to avoid the allergen, if possible. If that's not possible, the symptoms may be treated with medication, such as an antihistamine, decongestant or a combination of the two. In severe cases, treatment may include nasal inhalers and regular allergy shots.

Other ways you can weather allergy seasons include:

Many people with allergies may get relief from an over-the-counter medication.

- Identify the allergens that "offend" you and the season in which the allergy tends to occur. Keep in mind that there may be different "offenders" in different parts of the country.

- Be soft on your nose. Try cotton handkerchiefs instead of paper tissues.

- Use your air conditioner. Pollens from grasses and trees tend to find their way inside your home. Using central air conditioning instead of keeping your windows open will reduce the amount of pollen in your house.

- Hire helping hands.

It may be useful to have someone else perform activities that aggravate your allergies, such as cutting the grass, raking the leaves or sweeping the floor.

- Reduce indoor humidity. Mold and mildew thrive in humid environments. By using a dehumidifier and running your air conditioner, you can keep humidity and mold to a minimum.

Keep these tips in mind and you may be better able to keep your allergy at bay.

It takes about 12 pounds of milk to make one pound of ice cream and about 10 pounds of milk to make one pound of natural cheese.

TOWN OF WAYNE NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO AMEND THE ZONING ORDINANCE OF THE TOWN OF WAYNE

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held before the Town Board of the Town of Wayne on the 19th day of July, 1995, at 8:00 o'clock p.m. at the Town Hall of the Town of Wayne, 6030 Hwy. H, Campbellsport, Wisconsin, for the purpose of considering adoption of the amendments and additions to the Zoning Ordinance of the Town of Wayne, the following proposals will be considered:

1. To create Section 1.27, CULVERT PERMIT as follows:
 1. PERMIT REQUIRED. No person shall construct, install or replace any culvert without first obtaining a culvert permit from the Zoning Administrator or his designee approved by the Town Board. The applicant for a culvert permit shall file the application with the Zoning Administrator.
 2. FEE; DEPOSIT. The fee for a culvert permit is $50.00 and shall accompany the application. In addition, a security deposit of $250.00 shall accompany the application.
 3. SPECIFICATIONS:
 - (a) Size and Location. All culverts placed on, in or along the highways of the Town, either under private driveways leading from the public highways to private property or otherwise, shall be of sufficient size and constructed in such manner and of such materials as to provide means for the flow of water naturally accumulating or flowing along the ditches on such highways. Such culvert shall be of corrugated steel construction and be not less than 18 inches in diameter or of same volume capacity and shall be at least 24 feet (40 feet for property zoned commercial or industrial) in length (plus endwalls) to prevent injury to persons or property in the use of the highways and the entrance to and exits from the highways over and across such culverts. The Zoning Administrator or his designee shall determine the size and length of the culvert required. All culvert shall be installed on a gravel bed of at least 4 inches and be covered with sufficient gravel to prevent injury to the culvert. Any culvert hereafter installed in the Town shall have steel panels; concrete panels are prohibited.
 - (b) Existing Culverts. The Zoning Administrator or his designee may investigate, approve or disapprove the various existing culverts or other drain pipes placed in the highways in the Town. The Zoning Administrator or his designee may require steel and panels to be placed on existing culvert installations where he determines it to be in the best interest of the Town and the abutting property owners. The Zoning Administrator or his designee may also require the owner of an abutting property to remove, or cause to be removed or replaced with adequate facilities, any culverts or drain pipes which do not conform to the requirements as provided herein when, in his judgment, it is necessary to do so, either for the orderly construction, maintenance or repair of any such highway or in providing for a proper drainage system thereon.
 4. CONSTRUCTION PROCEDURE. Upon receiving an application for a new or replacement culvert, the Zoning Administrator or his designee shall provide the owner with specific specifications and cause the project to be staked out within 7 days. After completion of the project (or if new construction, after occupancy permit has been issued), the owner shall request the Zoning Administrator or his designee to inspect it and, if the Zoning Administrator or his designee determines that the construction is in accordance with the specifications, the security deposit required under Section 1 above shall be returned. If not, the owner shall have 30 days to make the required corrections and, if not so made, the Zoning Administrator or his designee shall cause the same to be made and deduct the expense thereof from said security deposit and return the balance to the owner.
2. To repeal Section 1.05, PUBLIC ACCESS and to recreate same as follows:
 - 1.05 Public Access.
 1. No zoning permit shall be issued for construction unless the main body of the lot upon which the building or structure is to be erected fronts on a public road by at least 66 feet, for which a road access permit has been obtained for a vehicular access way located entirely on such 66 feet.
 2. Road Access Permit Required. Before access to any Town road is granted, a permit shall be required from the Town.
 - (a) Administration. The Zoning Administrator or his designee approved by the Town Board is hereby designated as the administrative and enforcement officer for the provisions of this section and is hereby granted full authority to issue permits and to deny applications.
 - (b) Application. The application for such permit shall be made simultaneously with the applicant's application for a culvert permit.
 - (c) Criteria. The Zoning Administrator or his designee shall determine whether such proposed road access location is consistent with public safety, sound planning principals and is the logical extension of roads and public services. The location shall be no closer than five (5) feet from a lot line and the parcel to be entered shall be able to accommodate a 10 foot wide driveway to a residence or garage.
 3. To amend Section 1.48(24), DWELLING, SINGLE-FAMILY to read as follows:

Section 1.48(24)
A detached building designed for or occupied exclusively by one (1) family which is a minimum of 24 feet in width, has a roof with a minimum slope of 3:12, and is on a permanent foundation meeting the state one and two family dwelling code. This definition includes manufactured homes, but excludes mobile homes (mobile homes constructed prior to June 15, 1976).
 4. To amend Section 1.48(25), DWELLING, NON-URBAN to read as follows:

Section 1.48(25)

Your Feet Can Go That Extra Mile

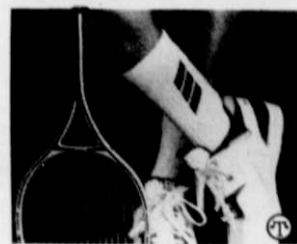

(NAPS)—With the right sock, athletes can go that extra mile. Whether running, roller-blading, walking, hiking, biking or playing tennis, each of these activities will be harsh on the feet, and more likely to bring on the athlete's enemy: blisters.

Athletes put a lot of concern into purchasing the right footwear for their summer sport, but what about the sock? Socks provide cushioning and protection against perspiration and blistering.

Acrylic socks are the number one choice for athletes. Pros Michael Jordan and Steve Young know, because like all of the players in the NBA and NFL, their official playing socks are acrylic. Acrylic sport-specific socks have all of the performance benefits an athlete needs, especially to go that extra mile.

Acrylic socks have superior quality and performance benefits that surpass their natural counterparts. Acrylic socks offer:

- Wickability, the process by which moisture is drawn away from the skin. Unlike cotton socks, which absorb moisture but hold it against the skin causing friction and feet to blister, acrylic socks wick moisture away from the foot and toward the surface of the sock where it evaporates. This wicking action results in fewer friction blisters and a drier, more comfortable sock. Acrylic socks also dry in 1/5 the time of cotton socks.

Athletes can count on acrylic socks for high performance benefits.

- Maintained shape and resiliency no matter how frequently they are worn or laundered. Acrylic socks have built-in elasticity and won't slip, stretch or shrink. Acrylic fibers move with the body, preventing bunching.

- Durability and quality after repeated washings. Acrylic fibers never lose their softness, unlike cotton socks which actually become stiff when washed. Acrylic socks are also color fast and will retain their color brightness, letting athletes look as good as they feel.

Whether you run, rollerblade, walk, hike or bike, acrylic socks are ideal for your feet.

KHS Indians Play in Metrodome

By Tom Menger

It could probably go down in history as one of the most exciting games ever played in the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, and it could also be the only baseball game there to end in a tie, yet there were over 52,000 unsold tickets.

For the close to 300 fans from both Kewaskum and Slinger that did witness the game however, the memories will last a lifetime.

The same holds true for the players and coaches of the Kewaskum and Slinger JV and varsity baseball teams, who had a chance to play there on June 24.

"Wow," echoed from the players mouths dozens of times as they made their way onto the prickly astro-turf and looked around at the huge dimensions of the dome.

The excitement carried right on through the varsity game, which ended in an 8-8 tie. Kewaskum, with coach Mark Heise rotating players every inning and players swapping positions among themselves, fell behind 5-0 after five innings, finally scoring in the sixth, when Erik Kopecky hit a bases-loaded single.

Behind 7-2 in the seventh inning, Kewaskum notched one of the greatest comebacks in the history of the Metrodome, taking the lead 8-7.

The six-run inning was highlighted by an RBI triple by Dan Survis.

The game ended after Jared Stern scored on a fielder's choice, to tie the game.

The varsity game was followed by a shortened JV game, with time restrictions allowing for just enough time to let all of the players receive an at-bat.

The experience ended with fans cheering all of the teams, and an on-field photo session for all.

All of the players and coaches would like to thank everyone who donated their time, money and services toward the trip, it made for an enjoyable time that none of them will ever forget!

KHS Indians Spoilers of Huskies Perfect Season

By Tom Menger

With much of the weight of the conference title off their back, a much looser Kewaskum varsity baseball team traveled to New Holstein and outplayed the Huskies 5-2, or 3-2, depending on how you want to keep the score.

The Indians held on to 3-2 lead going into the sixth inning, and scored twice in the inning to go ahead 5-2, but the game was ended because of darkness before New Holstein was allowed a turn at the plate. Because the teams completed the fifth inning, the game was ruled "official" and over, despite the pleas of players and fans from both sides. Kewaskum's final two runs were then taken away because the sixth inning was not completed, so the score was officially changed to 3-2 and a victory for Kewaskum.

"It's unfortunate that we couldn't complete the game, but any victory over New Holstein feels good," Coach Heise said after the game. "We might run into the same situation. I just hope it doesn't cost us a ballgame," Heise continued, noting that because Kewaskum doesn't have lights either, something as simple as an overcast day could bring about a premature end to a game.

Sophomore Dan Jesserig pitched another solid game for the Indians, allowing just five hits in the game.

The Indians returned home Friday to face Chilton on Parents Night, and were upset by the Tigers, 4-2.

Chilton tagged starter Dane Dorn early, when the first two batters reached base and the No. three hitter, Cory Johnson, smashed a three-run homer to left field. Dorn regained his composure quickly though, allowing just one run the rest of the way, while striking out five and walking just one Chilton batter.

It was the offense that failed Kewaskum in the game, with both of the only Indian runs coming in the second, when Tim Strigenz and Tom Menger both hit singles, and were brought home on a ground out and then another single by all-conference centerfielder Kevin Klahn.

The Indians put together a small rally in the last of the seventh inning, when Cory Rammer and Dan Survis both reached base with one out, but Chilton pitcher Tim Reihl struck out the next two Kewaskum batters, ending the game.

Kewaskum, 10-4 in the EWC, had off for the holiday, but returns to action on the 6th, playing at Sheboygan Falls.

Indians Take Panthers Out of Conference Race

By Tom Menger

After an exciting weekend at the Metrodome in Minnesota, the Kewaskum Varsity Baseball team jumped right back into the "real world" with a tough week against Plymouth, Two Rivers, New Holstein and Chilton.

Indian hurler Dane Dorn had the rare opportunity to pick up two wins in the same day, when Kewaskum traveled to Plymouth to face the Panthers in a scheduled game and to continue a June 7th game that was suspended by rain.

The continued game, which Dorn had started, picked up in the fifth inning with Kewaskum ahead 7-1. Tim Strigenz and Tim Gundrum completed the game, earning Dorn an 8-6 win.

Dane then went on to two-hit the Panthers in the nightcap, enroute to a 6-4 victory.

The fifth proved to be the big inning for the Indians, when they scored five runs behind a two-run single by Dorn, an RBI double by Joe Rettler, and a two-run double by Tom Menger.

With the twin victories, the second place Indians improved to 9-2 in the EW conference, just behind undefeated New Holstein.

The Indians title hopes were dashed the very next night however, when they dropped a 6-2 decision to Two Rivers.

Tim Klinkler grabbed the victory for the Raiders, who scored four times in the first two innings and never looked back.

Kewaskum scored a run each in the first and seventh innings, both times on walks followed by base hits.

"We played a solid game... they (Two Rivers) were just the better team tonight," Kewaskum coach Mark Heise said following the loss, also stating that Kewaskum would have to win all of their remaining four games, while New Holstein would have to lose the next four in order for the teams to tie for the conference championship.
