43 Living Units Proposed for New Subdivision

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

Forty-three living units have been proposed for the first 21-acre parcel of the new Whispering Willow Creek subdivision which will be located in the southwest corner of the Village.

The plat for Whispering Willow Creek subdivision, (see page four) along with a rezoning request for a portion of the land from R-1 to R-4 was brought before the Kewaskum Plan Commission at their monthly meeting last Tuesday, by Gary Gavin of LB Entrepreneurs, L.L.C.

Parcel one of the subdivision will contain 33 single family houses, along with 10 duplexes. The average lot will range in size from 12,000 square feet for a two-story unit to 15,000 square feet for a one story home, however, the lots can vary in size with a few being as large as 27,000 square feet.

According to Gavin, 6.4 acres of parcel two, which is located near the center of the 36-acre subdivision and runs along a creek, will be dedicated to the Village of Kewaskum, with the stipulation that the undisturbed parcel be left in its natural state. The parcel is situated on land that has been designated as conservancy.

The balance of the former Meilahn property will be retained by LB Entrepreneurs for future development.

The Plan Commission gave a favorable recommendation on the rezoning and the plat and the matter will now be brought before the Village Board at their scheduled meeting on November 4.

Construction on the proposed subdivision is expected to begin in early March of 1997.

Kettle Kountry Kolors Here This Weekend

By Louise Martin

The rich hues of autumn, reflecting on the lazy Milwaukee River, is the setting for the fall family fun festival, Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors, making it's seventh annual appearance on Saturday and Sunday, October 12 and 13 at River Hill Park in Kewaskum.

This fall event is made possible by Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce members who have been diligently working to provide another outstanding weekend here in the Kettle Moraine. This year's festival has many popular returning attractions plus a host of new activities all offered at no charge... a gift to the Kewaskum community from the local Chamber of Commerce.

Making a return along the banks of the Milwaukee River will be the camps and lodges occupied by the ever popular Buckskinners. At this teaching encampment, members will willingly explain to you the "tricks of the trade," during "Bucksinner times." Cheer at the "hawk throwing contest," marvel at the expert whip demonstration, enjoy the sights and sounds of the era a long time ago.

Children will find lots of fun things to see and do. A children's activity tent will feature Scott Sled kite making, K'Nex for Kids, ethnic workshops and fun with flowers.

Dazzling magic and professional ventriloquism by Bruce Dicker will fascinate many with shows scheduled at 1:15 p.m. both days. Clowns, roving mimes and balloons will mingle among the sights on the festival grounds.

Ethnic dance troupes, hay rides, pony carriage rides, a video game contest, and volleyball tournament are some of the activities sure to delight many. Add to those a remote control airplane demonstration, a basketball shoot out, make-it and take-it crafts, a BB gun shoot, water balloon sling shoot, and a hole-in-one golf contest.

Also scheduled are the Alaskan Malamute Club dog carts, an aerobic bi-plane demonstration and sky divers who can land on a dime.

Two popular favorites, The Wisconsin State Patrol safety equipment "buckle up" demonstration and the U.S. Reserve National Guard helicopter landing exhibit are scheduled to make another appearance at this year's Kettle Kountry Kolors.

'Haunted House' Opens Friday

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Are you ready for something more frightening than the presidential debates? More hair raising than your teenagers new hairdo? It's Kewaskum's ghostly and ghastly Halloween Haunted House, brought to you by those scare-ifying members of the Kewaskum BOO-ster club.

Volunteers have been diligently working their fingers to the bare bones to create a chilling spectacle of doom and gloom, rumored to top even last year's house of horror. Ghosts and Goblins are setting up house in Kohn's Citgo Station (Hwy 28 east), along the haunted Main Street of the village. Sightings indicate witches have been flying in from near and far, accompanied by a host of vampires, to attend this very special event.

Parents, don't venture out alone! Bring all the little ghoulies along for a screaming good time. There will be nine hauntings, taking place Oct. 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, and 27th, between the witching hours of 6 and 10 p.m. Admission is $3.00. A special "Kid's Night" is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 12, from 2 to 4 p.m. at a reduced rate of $2.

The last traces of the former Sentry Foods building on Main Street come tumbling down as the area was cleaned up last weekend to make room for the new community parking lot downtown. The building was purchased last year by the Village of Kewaskum to help alleviate a growing parking problem downtown.

School District Policy For Emergency School Closings

The District Superintendent, Charles Johnson, has released for publication the 1996-97 policy for school closings.

As in the past, radio stations WBKV (1470 AM and 92.5 FM West Bend), KFIZ (107 FM and 1450 AM Fond du Lac), WHBL (1330 AM and 97.7 FM Sheboygan), and WTMJ (620 AM Milwaukee) will be used to announce school closings. News stations will only announce a closing. If they do not announce Kewaskum, it means our schools will be open. The announcement will be on the air as early as possible.

When school has opened but weather turns bad, it is recommended that parents listen to one of the above radio stations for a possible school closing announcement. The district is extremely hesitant about closing school during the day. Every effort will be made to announce school closings during the day at least an hour at least an hour before they dismiss the students.

It should be remembered that if school has been cancelled it means that all activities for that day and evening are cancelled as well.

Also, parochial school students and special education students will not be transported when district schools close. If school is delayed by two hours, morning kindergarten and First Steps programs will automatically be cancelled.

Before trying to remove a splinter from a child's finger, first numb it with ice.

One Man's Dream of Free Clinic in County Soon to Become a Reality

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Washington County's first free health care clinic will be opening soon, thanks to the efforts of a retired Jackson physician who believes his great faith has been preparing him for this momentous achievement.

Dr. James Albrecht has been a practicing physician since 1948, who firmly believes health care should take a few steps backward, to the way it was in "the old days."

A friend and colleague of the late "Doc" Edwards, Kewaskum's well known country doctor, Albrecht can recall the days when physicians weren't so insistent on getting paid. "Our patients would give us what they could, be it chickens, potatoes or strawberries," he relates. "They were so grateful, even if they had no money, it was their way of letting us know in tangible terms that our efforts were appreciated."

He saw changes take place during the fifties, the rush of industrial expansion and the nine to five workday, that led to limited medical services. "People would call on the outlying doctors to schedule appointments in the evening because they couldn't get them anymore in the larger communities," Albrecht points out. "Doctors were once an integral part of the community."

Poverty is not an unfamiliar term to him. He was forced to drop out of high school to help support his family, and later struggled with unfailing determination to complete his studies and go on to enroll at UW-Madison.

His strong religious beliefs have led him to wage a lifelong campaign as an advocate for social services, from his role as the county's first ambulance provider, to establishing the first Alcoholics Anonymous program in the area.

He relates in his book, "The Life and Times of a Country Doctor," that his ideals compelled him to become the first medical student in the United States to become drafted due to his insistence on being known as a conscientious objector to war.

Early in October, 1995, Dr. Albrecht was urged by an associate to retire from his profession, while he still could. Always under the impression he would continue to work "as long as he could," the 80 year old doctor fell into a depression, equating retirement with "a living death."

Never forgetting that God put him on this earth to serve, he remembered viewing some literature advertising a free medical clinic in Dodge County, set up in a Methodist Church.

Once the seed was planted in his mind, Albrecht sent out a letter to all employees of West Bend's General Clinic, announcing his retirement and his intentions to investigate the possibility of opening a free clinic in the county.

His long standing relationship with persons in county government led to meetings with Don Ryd, head of Social Services for Washington County, and county nurse Dolores Harter, along with St. Joseph's Hospital Administrator Greg Burns, and Associate Director Barb Knutzen. Others in attendance were Nurse Marge Lloyd, Director of the Hospice Program, Nurse Sylvia Cihler, who will serve as coordinator of the free clinic, and Pastor Gruenstern.

The discussions revolved around the problems low income families face in trying to obtain medical care. "Health care was worse than I thought, and getting worse every day," Dr. Albrecht pronounced.

From their initial meeting and 21 others since, it was determined there was sufficient community support to launch an effort to achieve this vision, and as of last December, the group incorporated under the name of "Donated Health Care Services, Inc." otherwise known as Proj-Hope.

An offer for occupancy came from St. Joseph's Hospital; six rooms were available adjacent to the emergency room in quality medical space. Community leader and President of Bank One, Dave Heying, agreed to accept the position of Fund Raising Chairman, working with M & I Bank President, Tom Bast.

The West Bend Clinic, General Clinic, and Hartford Memorial Hospital have all pledged their support for the project. An estimated $200,000 is needed for start-up costs and first year operating expenses.

Dr. William Listwan, internist at the General Clinic, has volunteered to serve as medical director of the new free clinic. His list of credentials include president of the General Clinic, president of the Washington County Medical Society, and past president of the State Medical Society of Wisconsin. Many other contacts in the medical community to arrange for doctors, nurses, and other providers to participate at the clinic, and accept referrals for follow-up care.

Albrecht hopes to see the clinic functioning by Saturday, October 26th, the date set for a much promoted Thank You Celebration and Fund Raising Party, sponsored by the Volunteer Center of Washington County, and the West Bend Daily News. The party coincides with "Make a Difference Day," a national day set aside for doing good.

The event will take place at the Addison Town Hall, 127 First Avenue, in Allenton, from 3 to 7 p.m., featuring entertainment by Milton Bullock, of the 50's group, The Platters, who performed such hits as "The Great Pretender," and "Only You."

Local entertainer Jerry Becker and West Bend High School's PRIDE group will also be performing. Food will be provided by Washington County caterers and restaurants, St. Joseph's Hospital, and other volunteers.

People interested in donating their time and talents to the benefit, are still needed in the way of face painters, clowns, and general setup and clean-up. Neighborhood groups, schools, and businesses are encouraged to help raise funds. Contact Patti Christensen, Volunteer Center Executive Director, at 338-8256 if you would like to help make the free clinic a reality. An account for donations has been set up at Bank One, 801 W. Washington Avenue, West Bend 53095.

Plans are still in the making for the opening of a second free clinic in Slinger, through Aurora Health Care's offer of its unused clinic building. Dr. Albrecht hopes to see this vision also become a reality, sometime earlier next year. "We might need to be open two nights a week at each location very soon. There is a crying need for this," he maintains.

The free clinic in

West Bend will initially be open on Thursdays evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. at the hospital. "Everything has come together in a way no one can plan," Albrecht declares, never forgetting his gratitude to God and those who have helped wake up a county doctor's impossible dream.

This is Fire Prevention Week

By Louise Martin

Every year a week in October is designated Fire Prevention Week. Each year in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week the Kewaskum Fire Department holds an open-house for all area first and second grade students and day-care children.

At these visits the children observe first hand fire engines, a firefighter dressed in full fire gear, tour the fire station, see the operation of a fire truck, are shown smoke detectors, the stop, drop and roll technique, discuss the importance of an escape route from their home and what to do in case of a fire. The primary purpose of this visit is to show and discuss with the children things they may see or encounter if they are ever involved in a fire situation.

The Kewaskum Fire Department is staffed 24 hours a day by volunteer members, male and female. Firefighters attend numerous training and classroom sessions enabling them to respond as efficiently and as effectively as they can in fire situations.

Additionally, the Kewaskum Fire Department Rescue Squad is staffed with firefighters who have extended their training to be an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT).

The Kewaskum Fire Department serves the area with fire protection and rescue services with over 30 fire calls, over 35 Jaws of Life calls and over 200 rescue calls annually.

The department is always looking for personnel to serve in the department. If you are interested, contact Fire Chief, Mark Groeschel at 626-2842, Assistant Fire Chief, Mark Herriges at 626-2375 or stop at the fire station on Thursday evenings.

Meet the School District Staff: Principal Kieth A. Kriewaldt

Principal
Kieth A. Kriewaldt

Kieth A. Kriewaldt, principal of the School District of Kewaskum's elementary schools, has this belief about the future: "The Kewaskum School District is positioning itself to take education into the next century. The school board, administration, staff, and parents are moving forward together and taking our children to new places."

New places are something Mr. Kriewaldt knows quite a bit about. In fact, he's lived in places around Wisconsin and around the world. Mr. Kriewaldt, however, has special ties to Kewaskum, as well.

"I attended school here during eighth grade and part of ninth," he said. "It was during that time I met Kewaskum's Julie Bunkelmann. Years later, she became my wife."

Before and after his school years in Kewaskum, though, Kieth resided in a variety of locales.

He was born in Tigerton, Wisconsin. After several moves while growing up, Kieth took over a small dairy farm in Grafton, while still attending high school. Upon graduation, he studied agriculture in Madison, and then managed a farm in Port Washington.

He followed that with military service in the U.S. Army, spending time stationed in Seoul, Korea, as well as Monterey, California. It was during this time that he married.

After the Army, Kieth completed his schooling at UW-Milwaukee, and accepted a teaching job at Plymouth. He recently completed his Masters program in Educational Leadership, and came back to the School District of Kewaskum.

The Kriewaldts have two children: David, 4 1/2 years old, and Laura, 2. The family likes to camp, travel, take bike rides, watch movies and play in the snow.

When it comes to education, Kieth believes that "as educators, we are responsible for finding and teaching children in a way that they will learn and enjoy what they have just learned."

By doing so, and with the teamwork of the school community, Kewaskum's children will be able to reach a multitude of new places for a long time to come.

Historical Society Meeting Tuesday

On Tuesday evening October 15th members of the Kewaskum Historical Society will meet at the community room at 7 p.m. On the agenda is discussion of our annual dinner on November 10th. All members are urged to attend.

Students and family members had a lot more to do than just check for clean student desks at Farmington elementary School's Open House recently. In addition to the traditional visit to the classrooms and the teachers, a "Wellness Fair" was held in the gym, with booths and displays promoting healthy activities and suggestions. D.A.R.E., the Boltonville Fire Department, and the Farmington Area 4-H were just some of the groups or wellness ideas that were represented. The community response to the evening was termed "tremendous."

St. Matthew's Fall Festival Sunday at Campbellsport

CAMPBELLSPORT - The festival of the year is about to happen! The St. Matthew's Fall Festival Family Fun Day. It's filled with wholesome entertainment for the entire family. This fun day for everyone will be held on the grounds of St. Matthew's Church and School on Sunday, October 13, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

A taste-tempting ham and chicken dinner, complete with all the trimmings, will be served in the gym from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Throughout the day there will be games for children and adults, including a Make-It and Take-It booth. Bring your own T-shirt, sweatshirt or purchase one at the festival and you may create a spectacular fall design to be treasured for years. Many more ideas and projects will be available for the creative one in the family.

Another feature that is very popular is the craft and fancy work booths with all of its lovely handmade treasures. Come early for the greatest selection.

The Bird Lady, as she calls herself, (Barbara Harvey), a birds of prey rehabilitator, will be talking about the role of hawks and owls in the world. She will be bringing live birds for this presentation which will spark an interest in all. Her presentation will begin at 11:30 a.m.

New to the festival this year are a number of things. Outside on the grounds of St. Matthews, "Sedona," Wisconsin's hottest new country band, will be performing. They are a high energy, high impact band that has captured the attention of crowds all over the state. The band mixes contemporary country music with their own style and flare. The band has opened for national recording artists such as Tracy Atkins and James Bonamy. Their most recent accomplishment is their victory at the 1996 Hodag Music Festival where the band was crowned state champions.

The St. Matthew's Pom Pon squad, as well as the tumbling and gymnastics classes, have also been invited to put on a show.

The games this year are all exciting, like a live slot machine, cribbage tournament, bingo, cake walk, marshmallow golf, fish pond, face painting, and many, many more. For the kid in all of us, there is a new petting zoo, a gathering of farm and domestic animals.

The food menu is also being expanded to include plenty of brats, burgers, hot dogs, popcorn, caramel apples and beverages, all will be served under the big top.

Come with your family and join the activities. Or simply enjoy the sights and sounds of St. Matthew's Fall Festival Family Fun Day, and the camaraderie of parishioners and neighbors. Arrive early and spend the day!

St. Matthew's Church is located on the corner of Main and Helena Streets in Campbellsport.

Common Acne Myths

(NAPS)—While the exact causes of acne are unknown, there is information on factors that do and don't cause breakouts. Dove® Beauty Bar examines some of the most common acne myths:

• Chocolate—There is no evidence that foods like chocolate cause or aggravate acne, although some people may have an allergic reaction to it. If an acne condition worsens after eating a specific food, it is best to avoid that food.

• Harsh Scrubbing—The most common mistake made by people with acne-prone skin is excessive scrubbing. Dermatologists now recommend washing skin gently; harsh scrubbing or overwashing with abrasive cleansers can actually make an acne condition worse. Instead, try a non-soap cleanser like new Sensitive Skin Formula Dove; it's non-comedogenic (won't clog pores) and non-acnegenic (won't aggravate an acne condition).

• Sun—Although it's true that a good tan might help to hide acne and "dry up" pimples, don't expose your skin to direct sunlight. The sun's UV rays do cause damage to the skin.

• Junk Food—According to Dove Advisory Council dermatologist, Dr. Diane Berson, eating potato chips or greasy foods does not cause oily skin or acne breakouts. If oil from greasy foods actually rubs onto the skin, it may trigger a breakout. However, an increased intake of fats has no influence on the amount of oil produced by the skin's sebaceous (oil producing) glands.

• Smoking—Nicotine use constricts blood vessels but smoking doesn't have any effect on the blockage of pores or oil production.

WIN! WIN! WIN!

Support Kettle Kountry Kolors

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is offering a nice variety of raffles this year to help underwrite the cost of their seventh annual Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival. Shown above are two gorgeous cocktail rings any woman would love to find in her stocking on Christmas morning. The ring on the left is a beautiful diamond and ruby setting and the ring on the right is a perfect combination of an opal and garnets. For a $1.00 investment, you might possibly go home with one of these rings on your finger! And the hand that could be home to one of those rings, could also carry off the $500 shown in the other photo. The cash raffle, which features a $500 first prize, also includes prizes of $300, $100 and $50. And, last, but certainly not least, is the Tourism Council's raffle for the framed and matted Terry Redlin print shown to the right. To date, this has been the most popular raffle. Everyone wants a Redlin and a fight is expected when the winners names are drawn at the close of the festivities on Sunday. A nice feature on all the raffles is the fact that there were not thousands and thousands of tickets printed, narrowing your chance of winning. A minimal number of tickets were printed for the rings and the Redlin and not a lot more for the cash raffle, so your odds on these raffles are very good... but not if you do not buy a ticket! All tickets will be available for sale during the festival, however, there are not alot of tickets left for the rings, so it is suggested you purchase them soon or you may lose the chance to wear one of these little sparklers on your finger. All winners will be drawn on Sunday, towards the end of the festival.

Tourism Council to Feature Display Booth at Festival

The Northern Kettle Moraine Tourism Council will be manning an informational display booth at the Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Fun Festival this weekend in River Hill Park.

Anyone who would like to have their business brochures featured at this informational booth may drop the brochures off at Main Street Crafts or the Kewaskum Statesman.

The model brochure rack will also be on display, so stop in and take a look at it and place your order. The Tourism Council would like to see everyone's business promoted through the display of brochures and racks throughout the Kettle Moraine.

Welcome to Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolers 1996

the Kewaskum High School Jazz Band, the ever popular "Avengers" band and the Mayville Steel Drum Band will be on hand.

Saturday will feature the annual 5K Kewaskum Youth Scholarships Inc. (KEYS) walk/run beginning at 9:30 a.m. The event is open to everyone. The course winds through the Village of Kewaskum and can be completed as quickly or leisurely as one would like. It would take the average person approximately one hour to walk the course.

Sunday's festivities begin with a tasty pancake breakfast served from 8 to 11 a.m. and a church service is scheduled for 9 a.m.

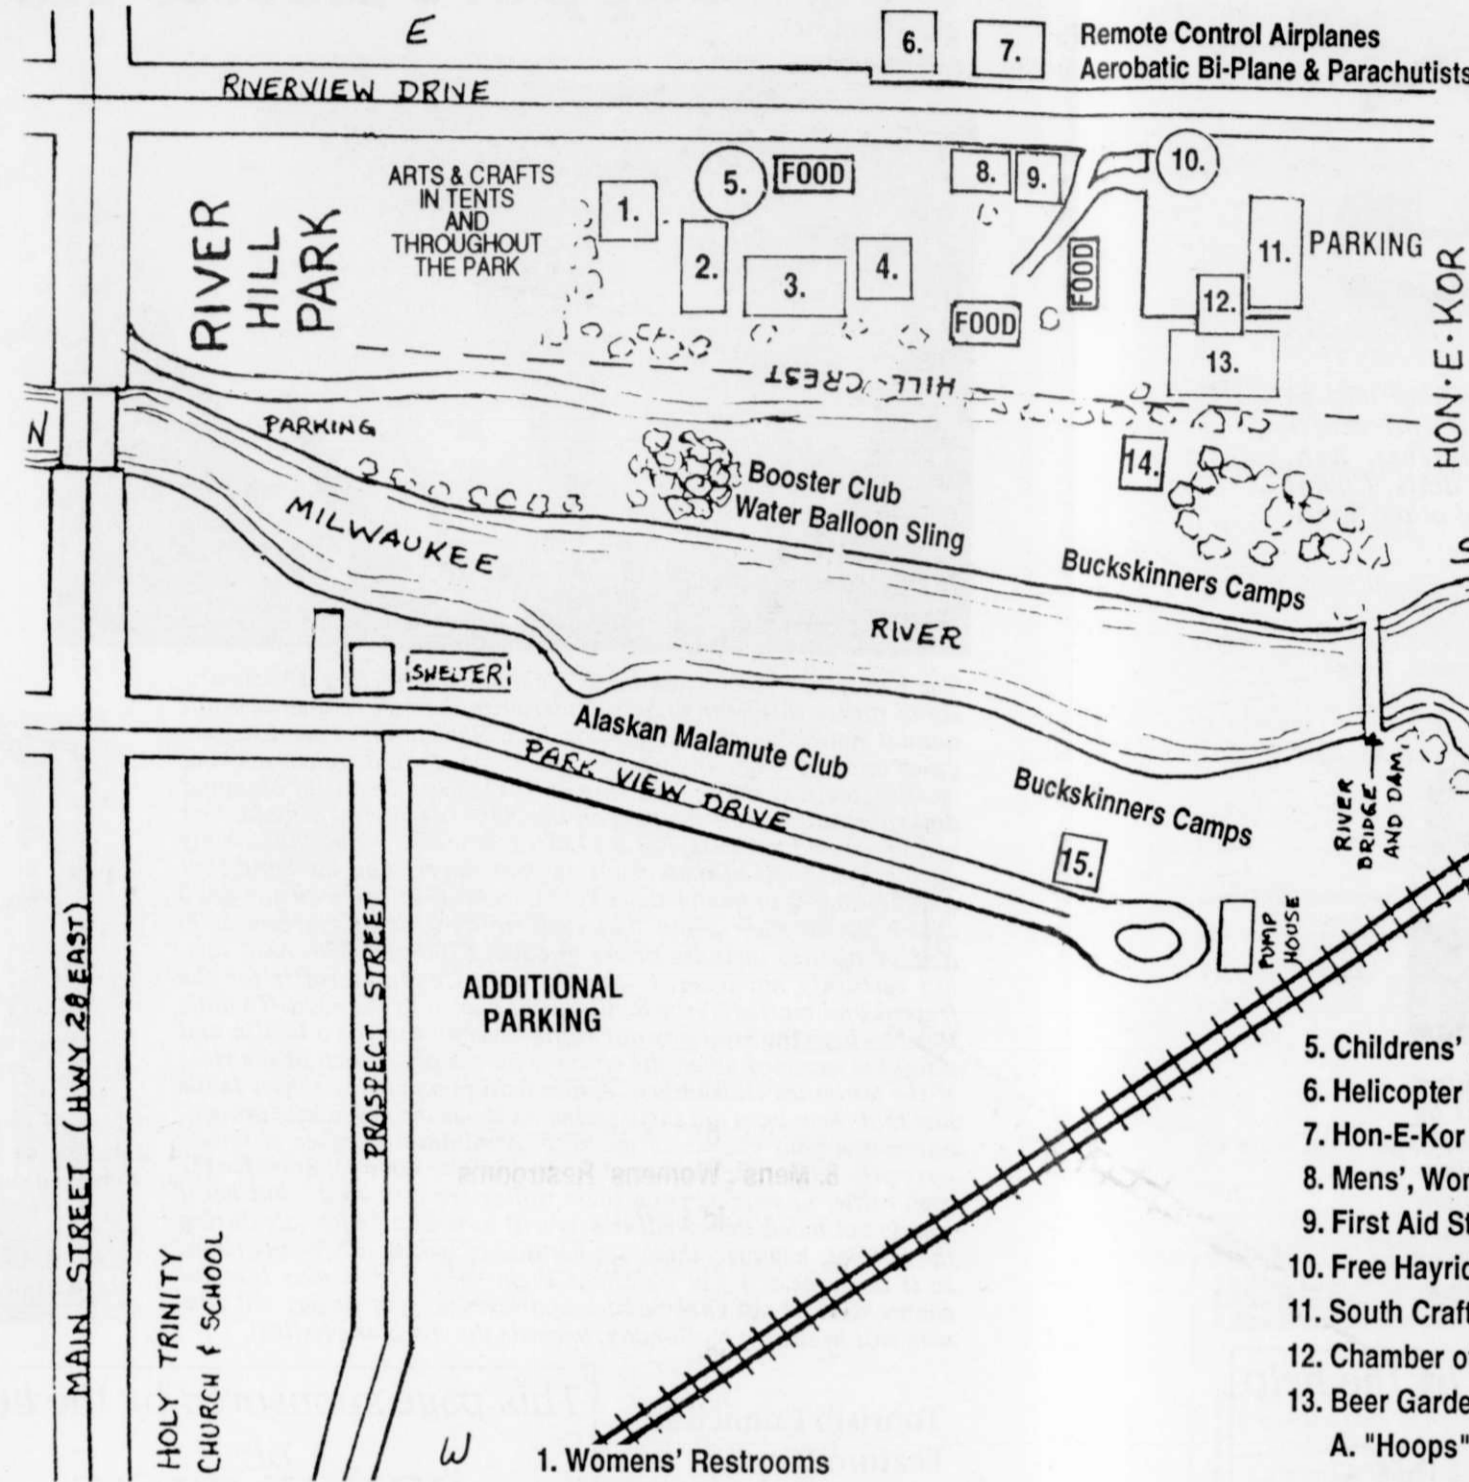

Each year the ever-popular craft tent expands allowing new vendors and your familiar favorites to display their wares. This year, again the craft tent has outgrown itself and has been expanded to include two tents, one on the north end of the park and one on the south. Don't forget to visit both, as each one will contain unique crafters, some never seen in this area before. There will also be numerous vendors located in their own setups throughout the park.

You must bring your appetite to Kettle Kountry Kolers. A large variety of new foods will be offered, along with all your traditional favorites. To even think about dieting at this point is futile, especially when you see all the fresh, homemade desserts that are being sold by the Kewaskum Women's Club.

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, with a lot of help from their friends, cordially invite you and your friends and family to come and enjoy this year's Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolers on Saturday and Sunday, October 12 and 13. Shuttle buses will be available and make the rounds at all parking areas, so you need not even take the car out of the garage.

Come on up to River Hill Park... we'll be waiting to see you and make sure you have a memorable time.

Take Your Tummy on a Tour Of Kettle Kountry Taste Treats

By Louise Martin

Food selections at the seventh annual Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolers Family Fun Festival of Entertainment scheduled for this weekend, Saturday and Sunday, October 12 and 13, will certainly please even the most finicky eater.

Whether you are just looking for some munchies or something a little more filling, be sure to include a culinary tour of all the food booths available for your discriminating taste at River Hill Park from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days.

New to Kettle Kountry this year will be the Holy Trinity Greek Church of Fond du Lac, who will be offering rich Greek pastries and gyro sandwiches, while those delectable, addictive funnel cakes will be provided by Black Sheep Companies from Whitewater.

The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club will be tempting you the aroma of the all-time favorites of brats and hamburgers, grilled to perfection, and delicious French fries. The Kewaskum Woman's Club will again be offering their always-room-for, impossible-to-resist, homemade desserts and tortes.

Hot pork sandwiches, mushroom Swiss chicken sandwiches, hot split pea and potato soups, yummy, homemade chocolate eclairs and Snapple will be something a little different that will be available at the Hon-E-Kor Country Club food booth.

If you "feel a little Mexican," then Eckl's Main Street Inn beckons you to their booth, to sample the tacos, taco salad, burritos, nachos and tostados, as well as steamy chicken dumpling and cheesy vegetable soup.

Savor the charcoal-grilled steak sandwiches, adeptly prepared by Chefs Lee, Moochie and Mike at the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce Bar and Grill. The Chamber will also be offering perfectly warmed jumbo pretzels, string cheese and hot sticks.

And to the immediate south of the Chamber's food booth, don't miss Mike Desterhoff's famous Parkview General Store Cappuccino. But don't forget to save some room for your favorite Dilly Bars, Misty Star Kisses and ice cream treats offered by Dairy Queen.

Located next door to Dairy Queen, will be the Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club who will be offering the traditional hot dogs, chili dogs, hot pretzels, caramel apples and hot apple cider.

Another new mouth-watering tempter will be making his first appearance this year at the festival. He is Nic Lyons of Westby who will be setting up his bucksinner lodge and cooking sweet corn over an open fire until the kernels are nearly bursting with flavor. Then the corn is dipped in sweet honey butter and turned over to you to savor. MMMM...

And what party would be complete without popcorn, cotton candy and snow cones? These festival favorites will be available at the wagon of

One Way Sales from West Bend.

On Sunday, treat the whole family to the pancake breakfast from 8 to 11 a.m. in the Beer Garden, where the pancake and sausage chefs of the Kewaskum Sno Chiefs will serve up a hearty meal to start the day.

What a variety? Are you sufficiently tempted? One could eat all day and never eat the same thing twice! Save those mouth-watering thoughts and take a break from the kitchen this weekend. Bring your appetite and let the chefs at River Hill Park do the cooking!

And remember... it will be another whole YEAR before you can savor some of these treats again!

Farmington, Wayne Second Graders Visit Pioneer Village

Kewaskum auctioneer Mike Paul is an important part of the Social Studies Curriculum in second grade at Farmington School. He has been coming to share his antiques and knowledge of the past for several years now. The students enjoyed his informative presentation.

Mrs. Hartman's class poses outside one of the buildings at Pioneer Village.

Second graders from Farmington and Wayne Schools recently visited Pioneer Village. Experienced tour guides make the past come alive at this 1840-1900's living museum in Ozaukee County. Shown above is the class of Mrs. Wagner and Mrs. Dehler.

WES News

The students at Wayne Elementary are working hard and with a month of the school year behind them, there are a lot of exciting projects in store for all.

The Just Say No Club has held their first meeting and the turnout of students was great. This club is available for all third, fourth and fifth graders at WES, and is also open to any parents who would like to get involved in your children's commitment to be "drug free."

This week (October 3) is Parent/Teacher Conference at WES. Please contact the school if you have not had the chance to schedule a conference. These meetings are very important to our children and give us an excellent chance to get informed about things we can do at home to enhance their education.

The staff at WES has announced the return of the "Read Aloud" program. This will be held on various dates in November, January, March and May, from 11 to 11:30 a.m. This is an opportunity for the parents and community members to select their favorite stories and share them with a group of children at WES.

The children really enjoy this time, and reading aloud to them is instrumental in encouraging reading for enjoyment. If you are interested in signing up for a read-aloud session, please contact the school office.

When we have self-esteem, we call it self-respect; when others have it, we call it self-conceit.

Hospital Offers 'Caring for Baby'

St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend is offering a "Caring for Baby" class Saturday, October 19, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the hospital's New Life Center classroom.

This infant care class is designed for expectant parents, siblings over the age of 12, grandparents, child-care providers and adoptive parents. Topics include: feeding, safety, crying and colic, how to take a baby's temperature and when to call the doctor. An infant bath demonstration is included.

The fee is $5 per person or couple. To register or for more information, contact the hospital's New Life Center at 334-8361.

Breast Cancer Screening Offered

St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend and the American Cancer Society are offering breast cancer screenings on Monday, October 28 through Friday, November 1, from noon to 4 p.m. in the hospital's radiology department.

A mammogram and directions for a breast self-examination are included. To participate a woman must be age 35 or older, have had no mammogram in the past year, have had no radiation treatment to the breasts, not be pregnant or breast-feeding and have no breast lumps.

Registrations for the screening will be taken the weeks of October 14-18 and October 21-25 from 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The fee is $55. To register or for more information, please call the hospital's radiology department at 334-8343 or 334-8581.

The American Cancer Society estimates that there will be 184,300 new cases of invasive breast cancer among women in 1996. Mammography is recognized as a valuable diagnostic technique that can lead to detection and treatment of early stage breast cancers.

A Birthday Memorial To Robert Felten

I know you hated to celebrate your Birthdays, but, it was always a good reason to get together and have some fun. This would have been your nifty fifty one so on your special day I will think of you even more and shed more tears, because you are not here with us to make it a happy one. God took him home, it was his will, but in our hearts we miss him still, gone is the face that we miss so dear; silent is the voice we loved to hear, 'tis sad but true we wonder why, He took you from us so soon.

Although you are out of sight you'll never be out of our hearts. You are with the Lord now I know in your heavenly home. I think of you always and miss you each day I try to be brave and content, but life goes on, I know that's true, but nothings the same since we lost you. We did not forget him, nor do we intend. We think of him often and will to the end.

Happy Birthday

Letter to The Editor

To the Editor,

Kewaskum is once again showing its generous nature in supporting this year's Washington County United Way campaign.

Kewaskum School District Employees, as the local pace-setter group, have donated over $9,000 in pledges, up 5% over last year's total. Thanks to every one of you for your continued support! A special thanks to Jerry Gosa for coordinating the school pledge drive, and to Dr. Steve Van Ess, Louise Martin, Ellie Jalas and Lori Schneider for volunteer work in the business sector.

Other businesses, whose pledges are being counted toward the Kewaskum goal of $34,200 include: A&W Iron and Metal, Bartelt Insurance and Employees, Bonne Belle Motel, Dr. Dennis Connor, Country Ridge Inn Bed and Breakfast, Equitable Life Insurance, F & F Photography, Gust Insurance Agency, Heberer Brother Construction, Henry Timblin Trucking, Hilltop Laundry, Tom Jalas Accounting, Kewaskum-Allenton Veterinary Clinic, Kewaskum Floral Shop, Kiefer Law Office, Orval & Ruth Behnke - CLU, Prime Time Pub, Roger & Dan's, Strobel Oil Inc., Dr. Stephen Van Ess, and Yahr Oil Co.

Many business and employee campaigns are currently underway, and will put Kewaskum closer to its goal. Funding from the Washington County United Way aids 25 local agencies who help nearly 23,000 people in our area. Kewaskum donations have made a significant impact in the lives of family, friends, neighbors and co-workers, but the need continues. Won't you please consider a gift this year? Pledges in ANY amount may be sent to P.O. Box 304, West Bend, WI 53095.

Keep up the great work, Kewaskum!!!!

Minutes of Village Plan Commission

Village of Kewaskum
Plan Commission
August 17, 1996
7:00 p.m.

The Plan Commission of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Robert H. Wagner called the meeting to order. Members present were David Goeden, Richard Schmidt, Theodore Meilahn and Charles Waala, Frank Beesten, John Stephani (arriving at 7:20 p.m.) and Administrator Daniel Schmidt and Richard Zarling (arriving at 7:25 p.m.). A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and the Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by David Goeden, and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Commission approved the minutes as printed for July 30, 1996.

The Plan Commission reviewed the request to amend the Zoning Ordinance regarding the installation of fence in the front yard. It was noted the request was to increase the height to 4 feet. The intent of the Plan Commission and Village Board in 1972 was to maintain a more open concept and not to advocate fences in the front yards. Discussion was held on not allowing chain link fences altogether in front yards or only allowing decorative fences in front yards. It was the consensus of the Commission to leave the Ordinance as is but to review the fence issue in its entirety when updating the Zoning Ordinance after the completion of the land use plan.

Plan Commission Member David Goeden asked to have the density calculation in reference to wetlands, floodplain and conservancy areas. The same as reviewed from SEWRPC called for a limit of 25% with another being at 80%. Several questions were raised. The Administrator was asked to check with Mr. Roland Tonn of SEWRPC and to report back to the Plan Commission.

Mr. Rick Kania of SEWRPC was present for discussion on the Master Plan. Mr. Kania reviewed potential bicycle trails, central business district and Natural trails in the Kewaskum planning area.

Mr. Gary Gavin brought in a preliminary draft of a plat for Whispering Willow Creek Subdivision. It was noted that the layout is basically the same as proposed in the land use plan. There would be some additional Two-Family Lots. The Plan Commission will be reviewing the matter at the next scheduled meeting.

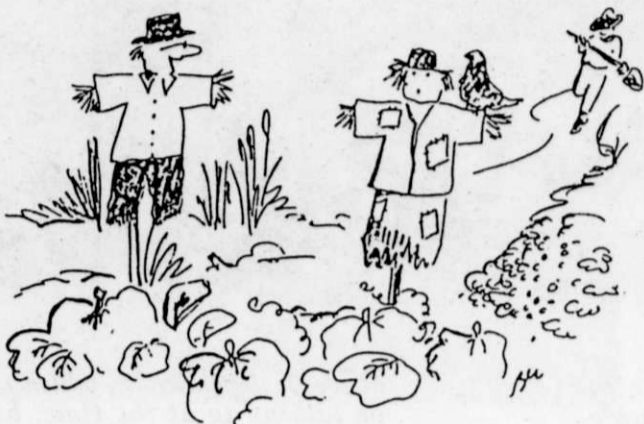

The meeting schedule for the remainder of 1996 was reviewed. On a motion by John Stephani, seconded by Charles Waala and unanimously carried by voice vote, the tentative meeting schedule was adjusted as follows: October 1, 1996 versus September 24, 1996, October 29, 1996 versus October 22, 1996, and December 10, 1996, versus November 26 and December 24, 1996.

On a motion by Richard Schmidt, seconded by Frank Beesten and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Commission adjourned the meeting. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 0 "Absent."

F.Y.eyes

Computer Use And Vision Do's & Don'ts

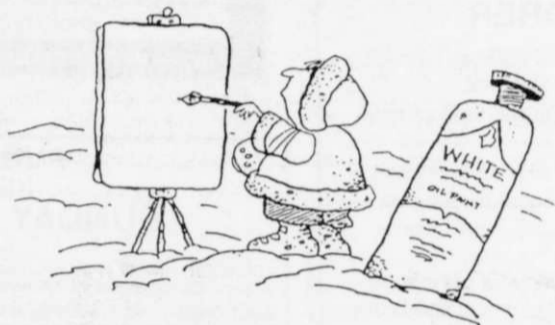

(NAPS)—If your eyes are tired from "surfing" the Internet, help may be just a blink away. When it comes to easing computer-related eyestrain, blinking is the key. This mechanism releases the lubricating oils and enzymes produced by the glands that line the eyelid. When computer users sit in front of a screen for an extended period of time, they blink less, causing eye moisture to evaporate. The result is a condition called dry eyes. The Better Vision Institute (BVI) offers these do's and don'ts to workers who want to avoid computer-related vision problems:

- DO discuss computer-related vision problems with an eyecare professional; determine if your prescription eyewear will meet your needs.
- DO avoid glare. Never keep a bright light right behind the screen and never place a terminal in front of a large window.
- DON'T work in the dark. The contrast between computer generated light and lack of background light strains the eyes.
- DO take a break at least once an hour for about 10 minutes.

A good rule to follow is that when your eyes start to bother you, talk to your eyecare professional. He or she may be able to change your prescription or advise you about how you can help yourself see better.

KMS CC Team Competes At the Slinger Invitational

Competing in their third meet of the season this past Thursday, the KMS cross country runners ran some of their faster times under ideal conditions. The 2400 meter race was held at beautiful Homestead Hollow Park in Germantown. Running some much improved times for the team were Josh Repovsch, 14th overall in 10:21; Brian Wall, 15th in 10:29; Darrell Waubbeking, 25th in 10:59; Tony Keely, 27th in 11:08; Tim Branta, 29th in 11:15; Paul Mertz, 30th in 11:15; Andrew Lickel, 39th in 12:20, and Adam Waubbeking, 40th in 12:24.

"The team ran very well together," commented Coach Drexler, "considering the age difference of the individual runners, the 6th, 7th, and 8th grade all compete together."

The final meet of the season for the KMS team is next Thursday at the Campbell's Sport Invitational.

Lynn Wins

Kewaskum High School runner Marni Lynn surged to a first place finish at the Plymouth Relays meet this past week. Running with the lead group for most of the race, Marni was able to use a strong finishing kick to take top honors with a time of 16:20. Following up only three spots behind Marni was Carol Neumann with a time of 16:43, Emma Chambers finished in 20:03 for 43rd place and Jenny Jagielski 21:26 for 46th place.

The boys division used a different format for scoring. Instead of taking individual places for the total score, the individual times were added up for determining team places. This makes for an interesting scoring format, where, as an overall team place can be determined by as little as one tenth of a second difference in total times.

Top runner for the KHS boys was David Gildersleeve with a time of 20:09, followed by Danny Wall in 21:03; Henrik Lorenz in 21:27, David Mertz in 22:36, and Chris Weninger in 21:33. Over all the boys' team finished in ninth place with a total time of 106:48.

This week's competition will be at the Slinger Invitational on Thursday afternoon.

Illness, Injuries Hamper Harriers

Running with just a skeleton of a team, the KHS harriers competed at the Slinger Invitational Cross Country meet at Homestead Hollow Park. Missing three of the regular runners, the team could not score in the team competition. Individually however, the runners turned in some great times, many of which were personal bests.

Carol Neumann sprinted in for a fifth place finish overall with a personal best of 16:11, followed by Emma Chambers, tying her personal best of 19:16.

For the boys' team, Henrik Lorenz lead the squad with a personal best of 19:50 for 46th place. Also running personal bests were Danny Wall, 20:20 for 51st and David Mertz, 21:13 for 54th. Chris Weninger, while not posting a personal best, ran a 21:44 for 45th place, just eleven seconds off pace.

"All in all, I am very pleased with the times and efforts put forth by these individuals," commented Coach Drexler. "If you would have told any of these runners at the beginning of the season that they would be running these times by now, they would have laughed! They have now become believers in themselves."

Indians Defeat Raiders In Homecoming Attack

It was a great night for football as the Kewaskum Indians hosted the Two Rivers Raiders for Homecoming last Friday night. The Indians made sure that everyone from Kewaskum went home happy as they beat the Raiders, 26-12.

Senior Dan Jeserig led the Indian attack as he hauled in 10 catches for 128 yards and one touchdown.

The game however, certainly did not start out like head coach Perry Koth wanted it to. After a short drive by the Indians, the Raiders took the ball over on downs at their own 24 yard line and marched 76 yards in nine plays for the first score of the game.

The try for two points was no good, so the score read Visitors 6, Home 0, halfway through the first period.

The drive was highlighted by the old "hook and ladder" play in which a receiver laterals the ball to another back after they catch a short pass. The play went for 35 yards before Troy Staehler was able to pull him down on the 12 yard line.

After a Kewaskum punt, the Raiders put together a 30 yard drive that ended when Ryan Rammer intercepted a pass at the Kewaskum 37 yard line. Kewaskum picked up a couple of first downs on runs of 11 and 16 yards by Kevin Martin and Eric Kopecky, as the first quarter ended.

The first play of the second quarter was a good one, as senior end Dan Jeserig took a two yard hitch pass and ran 31 yards for the score. Sean Cotter's kick made it 7-6, Kewaskum.

"We wanted to get the ball in our receivers hands more this week, and Dan just had a great game," said coach Koth. "It was the jump start we needed to get control of the game."

The Raiders coughed up the football on their next possession and the Indians were back in business at their own 46 yard line. This time it took the Indians seven plays to cover 53 yards, as Eric Kopecky scored the first of his three touchdowns from the three yard line, to put the Indians up 14-6, after the Cotter kick.

Kopecky carried 22 times in the game for 121 yards and three touchdowns. "Eric has been our go to guy this year and he has done a great job for us," according to Koth. Kopecky has rushed for 672 yards and ten touchdowns in six games this season."

With the half-time score of 14-6, in favor of Kewaskum, it looked like the Indians had all the momentum as they stopped the Raiders on their first possession of the third quarter on three plays and forced a punt.

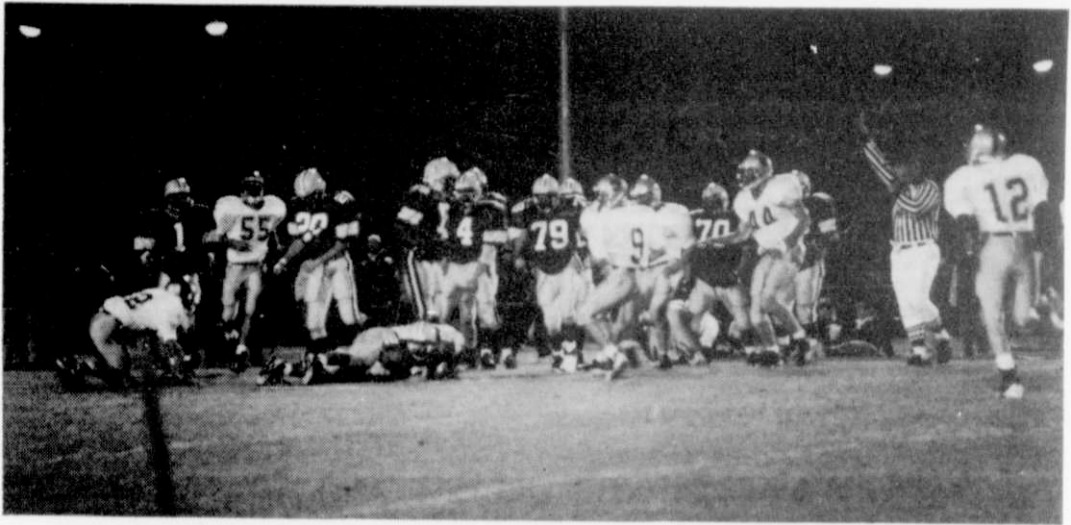

But momentum can swing quickly as the punt by Two Rivers was fumbled by Ryan Rammer and recovered by Two Rivers on the Kewaskum 47 yard line. The Raiders quickly moved the ball down the field on six plays to make it a 14-12 game (the try for two was not good) early in the third quarter. The Indians came back with a 14-play, 57 yard drive that ended when a fourth down play fell just inches short of a first down. The drive consumed the last seven minutes of the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the Indians once again stopped the Raiders and forced a punt. Kewaskum took over on their own 31 yard line and moved to the Raider 14 in six plays before Adam Kennedy intercepted a Martin pass to end the drive.

Two plays later Jeff Satterberg could not handle a pitch from quarterback Josh Blaha and the Indians recovered on the Raider 14 yard line. Three plays later Eric Kopecky scored from the three to put the Indians up by eight, 20-12. The kick for the extra point however was blocked which left the door open for the Raiders to tie the game with a touchdown and two-point conversion.

The Indian defense which has struggled this year at times, shut the door on the Raiders this time, as a fake punt pass fell incomplete and the Indians took over on the Two Rivers five yard line with two minutes left in the game. Two plays later Eric Kopecky walked into the endzone untouched for the final score of 26-12 (Cotters kick was wide left).

The Indians had 285 yards of total offense compared to 311 for Two Rivers. Kevin Martin completed 10 of 23 passes for 128 yards, one TD, and one interception. The win puts the Indians record at 3-3 overall and

2-1 in the conference.

The Indians travel to Plymouth to take on the 3-0 Panthers on Friday (7:00 p.m.). Plymouth is a big physical team that uses its size and strength to wear down opponents and features 6'1" 220-pound running back Nick Mueller.

To win the conference Kewaskum will have to win this game against the heavily favored Panthers. To insure a playoff berth the Indians will have to win two of their last three games.
