Presidential Election Tuesday

Candidates from the presidential race on down will be making their last bids this week to garner last-minute votes for the election on Tuesday, Nov. 5th.

Presidential hopefuls Democrat Bill Clinton and Republican Bob Dole made stops in Wisconsin recently as they traveled nationwide in an effort to draw uncommitted voters into their camps.

This year's campaigns seem to have been directed more at personalities than policies with more name calling, finger pointing, and mudslinging than has been heard and seen in the past, leaving voters to wonder if they're really listening to a political arena, or a school yard at recess.

Voter apathy remains high, and could perhaps spur on a much needed rise in third party appeal. Republicans had hoped Colin Powell would represent their platform in this year's presidential election, so it looks as if settling "for Bob Dole wasn't the wisest choice," according to national polls, which indicate Dole is trailing by a considerable margin. Both Ross Perot and Ralph Nader may do better in Wisconsin than previously expected since popular opinion shows voters feel the candidates have not really addressed the true issues and concerns of the people, despite recent televised debates.

Many electors still have not made their final decision as to who will receive their vote come Tuesday, wondering what is the lesser of two evils, but with ten presidential candidates on Wisconsin's official presidential ballot, a third party vote would at least reveal a nation looking for a change in the way the country's political system is run.

In the 9th Congressional District race, democratic candidate Floyd Brenholt of West Bend is challenging incumbent Republican F. James Sensenbrenner of Menomonee Falls. Brenholt is a former superintendent of the Kewaskum School District.

A three way battle for the District 20 State Senate seat is taking place between Republican incumbent Mary E. Panzer, and challengers Kevin Scheune-mann, Libertarian, and U.S. Taxpayers representative Barry Moder.

Representative Glenn Grothman of the 59th Assembly District for Wisconsin is running unopposed. Republican District Attorney David Resheske is also unopposed.

On the county level, whether it's an indication of more apathy on the part of Washington County voters or just supporting good people already in office the following candidates are running unopposed on the November ballot:

Republican Marilyn H. Merten for County Clerk; Fredric A. Seefeldt, Republican for Treasurer; Republican Jack Theusch as Sheriff; Republican Marlene M. Yoost, running for Coroner; Kristine Deiss as Republican Clerk of Circuit Court; and Register of Deeds, Republican Dorothy C. Gonnering.

Tuesday's election will also include a chance for Wisconsin residents to participate in a state wide referendum to decide if the state constitution should be amended to prohibit persons convicted of a crime from holding a public office.

Nighttime Trick or Treat

Little tikes Tiffany Crites, left, and Lucille Crites, of Kewaskum are all dressed up in their best Halloween garb as they tried out the new Trick or Treat hours held in Kewaskum last Sunday. The Village Board recently compromised and tried something a little bit different this year by changing the annual Trick or Treat time from 4 to 6 p.m. instead of the traditional 2 to 4 p.m. The time change enabled the smaller children to take advantage of leftover daylight hours, while the older kids could also enjoy the spookiness of nighttime Trick and Treating during the later 5 to 6 p.m. hour. No unusual incidents were reported and the later hours seemed to fit in very well with Packer fans who sometimes get a little feisty with an omnipresent doorbell ringing. Seems other years the ding-dong was always going just when the Packers were ready to score a touchdown. How did you feel about the new hours? Let your opinion count by filling out the questionnaire submitted this week by Trustee David Goeden on page six.

Town of Kewaskum Approves Zoning Ordinance Amendment

By Louise Martin

Following a public hearing and the recommendation of the Plan Commission at the October 21st meeting, the town of Kewaskum board approved a zoning ordinance amendment that applies to property of ten acres or less which specifies the species and number of animals allowed on such property. Town zoning administrator, Gordon Hoffmann explained that any current operation can continue to function as long as they do not stop that operation for over a 12 month period. Although this issue is likely to be addressed in the new zoning ordinance (currently being drafted) the intended purpose of its passage was to have an ordinance in place in the event a problem arises before the new zoning ordinance is adopted.

Curt Backhaus from the Lloyd Backhaus Estate came before the board requesting a conditional use permit to separate the farm dwelling from the farmland and a land division to construct a one-family residence on the farm property located on Highland Drive. Acting on the recommendation of the Plan Commission, the board approved the separation of the farm dwelling from the farmland but postponed action on the land division request until the moratorium ends in April 1997.

A request was made to have the weight and load limits on Badger Road posted past the driveway into Best Trailer Corporation. A local trucking firm is interested in purchasing approximately ten acres of land from Maurice Struebing and was hesitant to proceed if semi trucks would not be allowed to use Badger Road to access State Highway 45. According to town maintenance employee, Don Stern, the area of Badger that would be utilized is in good condition and has required no patching.

Town chairman, Dave Dorn remarked that business development in the township is preferred along Highway 45. The minutes will reflect the granting of the request.

An agreement was reached between town resident, Charles Schultz and the board regarding a conditional use permit for occasional gravel sales from a pit located on his property. A review of a 1992 permit was conducted at the June town meeting and at that time it was determined that additional language was necessary to clarify terms of the permit.

At the request of the board, the town zoning administrator drafted a permit that defines occasional sales as limited to two trucks hauling per day for a duration of 14 days for any one project. Projects of greater size or longer duration will require town board

School Board Approves District Budget

At a special meeting held Monday, Oct. 28, the Kewaskum School board formally approved its 1996-97 budget of $13,258,947 and a resulting tax levy of $4,342,583. The school tax rate will drop to $10.56 per thousand equalized value from the $14.42 per thousand last year.

Mr. George Allmann, the District Business Manager, indicated the drop in the tax rate (mill rate) would mean a reduction of $361 on a property with a fair market value of $100,000 over taxes paid on land of this same value last year.

The tax rate decrease is due to a 46% increase in State aid, an increase in the average student population, and a 13.8% increase in total equalized value of district property.

approval and the posting of a cash bond to defray any damage done to town roads. The permit will be reviewed and reissued on an annual basis.

The board approved a one time assessment fee to support the Wisconsin Towns Association in their effort to build a permanent building near Shawano. The $265 fee will be included in the 1997 budget. Town treasurer, Dan Stoffel informed the board the land for the building was donated. He also shared the monetary support was "well worth it" because of the assistance offered to townships by the association.

In other matters before the board, an assessment service contract with Grota Appraisals for 1997 in the amount of $3,800 was approved, reassessment of township property will possibly be done in 1998, the board approved hiring Attorney Karen Christianson of the law firm O'Meara, Eckert, Poulos & Gonring to represent the town on any legal matters and the township population count was 1,175 as of January 1996.

The next Plan Commission meeting will be held Monday, November 18, 1996 at the town hall at 7:30 p.m. with the town board meeting to follow.

Town of Scott Board 'Left In the Dark'

By Bernadette Mondloch

If you attended the September meeting of the Town of Scott and you felt that you were "left in the dark" on whatever took place during the meeting, you were not imagining things, you are correct.

A public hearing on proposed zoning issues was conducted under ordinary conditions but a power failure interrupted the regular meeting which followed, thus everyone was kept "in the dark" as stated previously. The meeting was conducted by light supplied by two flashlights.

A request by Harold Laux to create three lots on an eleven acre wooded parcel and to change the zoning from A-1 to A-6, was denied. One of the lots is currently occupied by Laux's home. The denial was based on the existence of Class One and Two soils on the Laux parcel.

A zoning change was approved for John and Patty Mudlaff, to rezone a 3.30 acre parcel from A-1 to A-2 to be combined with a 6.128 acre parcel located in Section 16.

James and Janet Wolfenberg were granted a conditional use permit to build a primary non-farm residence on A-1 Ag Land in Section One.

A certified survey map was approved for Paul and Jill Rhoads. A Resolution was passed to request exemption from the County Library Tax in the amount of $26,370.16. A similar amount will be expended to support the Lakeview Community Library.

Plans to update the pier at Beechwood Lake include the addition of 32 feet and removal of ten feet of the existing pier which does not meet ADA requirements. A solution to the problem of goose droppings on the pier is also being investigated. One suggestion was to install a wire mesh arch over the top so birds could not land on the pier. Other suggestions are being sought.

Floyd Klug and John Melius were reappointed to the Planning Commission, with their terms to expire in September, 1999.

The volunteer schedule for assistance at the recycling center is in need of additional help. Scott residents who are interested can contact Chairman Benzschawel to add their name to the schedule.

Other items under discussion were replacement of the old town computer, budget requests, November or December newsletter, rising property assessments, compliance with assessment ratios and mowing of road right of ways.

Auxiliary Kicks Off Lovelight Program

St. Joseph's Community Hospital's Auxiliary recently began its tenth annual Love-Light Christmas Tree Program on October 23, when auxiliary members gathered to check hundreds of lights to make sure they are in working order.

The Love-Light Christmas Tree Program is a community tradition in which people remember loved ones, living or dead, by purchasing lights in their honor or memory. Through the years, the colored and white lights have shown throughout the holidays for special relatives, teachers, neighbors, friends and others. The lights will be placed on a large evergreen tree on the hospital grounds and will be officially lighted during a public ceremony Sunday, December 8, at 4:30 p.m.

Love-Light donor forms are available at the Auxiliary's Well Wisher gift shop at the hospital, at local banks, stores and businesses. A minimum donation of $3 is suggested. Donations are being accepted until January 1.

Funds raised by the project are donated by the Auxiliary to the hospital for the purchase of equipment.

Bereavement Support Group to Meet Nov. 7

St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend is sponsoring a bereavement support group Thursday, November 7, to help individuals who have lost a baby during pregnancy or the first year of the baby's life. The free support group is meeting from 7 to 9 p.m. in the hospital's conference room A.

Jennifer Klug, RN-MSN, is the lead facilitator for the group and Kathy Valind, R.N., is a facilitator and trained bereavement support counselor. Both are nurses at St. Joseph's Community Hospital's New Life Center.

The purpose of the group is to offer encouragement and support; women, friends and family members are invited to attend the meetings.

The group meets on the first Thursday of each month. More information about the support group is available by calling the New Life Center at 334-8361.

Learn to Laugh

St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend is inviting people of all ages to learn how to put humor into their lives with a program, "Laughter for the Health of It," Thursday, November 7, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the hospital's fourth floor east conference room.

Barbara Knutzen, a registered nurse and director of professional and support services at St. Joseph's, will present the humorous and informative program.

"Health professionals recognize the value of laughter and positive emotions in the healing process and wellness," said Knutzen. She said laughter enhances respiration and circulation as well as acts to suppress stress-related hormones.

The fee for the program is $5. Registration is requested by October 31. To register or for more information, please contact St. Joseph's Health Promotion Services Department at 334-8268.

Kiwanis/Lions Donate to River Walk Project

KHS science teacher Bill Lickel, left, accepts a donation from the Lions and Kiwanis Clubs for the "River Walk" project. Presenting it is Kiwanis treasurer, Jim Reuther.

Nature... and education... got a boost from two local organizations recently. The Kiwanis and Lions Clubs of Kewaskum presented the "River Walk" project, run by Kewaskum High School staff, with a check for $765. Both clubs have long been supporters of the "River Walk," a community environmental area, which runs along school grounds, adjacent to the Milwaukee River.

The "River Walk" started as a project to reduce erosion along the steep river banks along school grounds. Since then the "River Walk" has evolved into an area for environmental studies and nature appreciation, for the students as well as for the community.

The proximity of the environmentally-approved ponds and the river allow for comparison of different ecosystems (where living things interact with one another). It also provides a home for a wider variety of plant and animal life, according to Kewaskum High School teacher Bill Lickel, a longtime proponent/co-ordinator of the project.

The actual physical creation of the "River Walk" has been a cooperative effort. Student and teacher volunteers, classroom participants (such as Mr. Stradtman's KHS construction class, and Mr. Stephani's fifth grade, among others) and volunteers from throughout the community have all had a hand in its transformation from river bank to "River Walk."

tions have been invaluable, too. Through the help of several organizations, including the Kiwanis and the Lions, the "River Walk" now includes two created ponds, a walking trail through lowlands, and numerous plans for the future. By next spring, for example, the areas surrounding the ponds will provide an abundance of wildflowers and native grasses to further enhance the ecosystems.

"The support from both the Lions and Kiwanis has been great," Mr. Lickel stated. Because of such help, Mr. Lickel believes that the "River Walk" project has been able to expand as a tremendous district and community asset. With continued work and community involvement, the "River Walk" will continue as a boon to the community, the schools, and, perhaps most importantly, the environment.

GTE Advocates Washington County Customers Remain in 414 Area Code

Sun Prairie, WI -- In reply comments filed before the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin, GTE has advocated that customers in Washington County retain the "414" area code.

In the past, GTE has favored an overlay with 7-digit dialing to resolve the 414 number depletion problem. In an overlay, customers would keep their assigned telephone numbers in the 414 area code. As existing telephone numbers exhaust, numbers in the new area code would be assigned to new lines or services. There would be no need to change numbers presently in use.

However, public opinion at recent PSC hearings has generally been in favor of a geographic split rather than an overlay. In response to customer comments, GTE is encouraging a geographic split line allowing more GTE customers to remain in the 414 area code.

Under GTE's proposal, customers served by centralized call-processing equipment at Random Lake and Slinger would remain in the 414 area code.

The Random Lake centralized computer serves customers in the exchanges of Belgium, Cedar Grove, Oostburg, Random Lake and Waubeka. The Slinger centralized computer serves customers in the exchanges of Allenton, Clyman, Hustisford, Lebanon, Kewaskum, Mapleton, Neosho and Slinger.

"Through this proposal, we are responding to our customers' requests to retain their 414 numbers," said Steve Pitterle, GTE Director of External Affairs. "At the same time, this plan would ensure that no GTE centralized switch is split between two area codes. Such a split would incur additional implementation expense, require ongoing administration, and would have the potential to affect future customer service."

With revenues of $20 billion in 1995, GTE is one of the largest publicly held telecommunications companies in the world. GTE is also the largest U.S.-based local telephone company and a leading cellular-service provider -- with wireline and wireless operations that form a market area covering more than one third of the county's population.

Florida is the leading honey producing state in the U.S. and Canada.

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 5, 1996

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a partisan election to be held in the several wards in the County of Washington, on the 5th day of November, 1996, at which the officers named below shall be chosen.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot.

At the November general election, if an elector wishes to cast a straight party vote for all candidates nominated by any party, the elector shall select the party of his or her choice and:

Where lever machines are used, the elector shall depress the lever or button under the party designation of his or her choice printed at the top of the ballot.

Where a markense system is used, the elector shall fill in the oval next to the party designation of his or her choice.

A straight party vote is a vote for all the party's candidates listed on the ballot, unless the elector casts a vote for a candidate for the same office of another party, writes in the name of a candidate, or applies a sticker.

Where lever machines are used, depress the lever or button at the right of the candidate's name. Where a markense system is used, fill in the oval next to the candidate's name.

A STRAIGHT PARTY VOTE CANNOT BE CAST FOR THE OFFICE OF PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. AN ELECTOR MUST CAST A SEPARATE BALLOT FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT.

To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the elector shall write the name of the candidate of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote.

A separate vote must be cast for President and Vice President jointly on one ticket. A write-in vote only for a vice presidential candidate will invalidate your vote.

Where lever machines are used, to vote for candidates whose name appear on the ballot, depress the lever or button next to the President and Vice President candidates of your choice.

Where markense system is used, to vote for candidates whose names appear on the ballot, fill in the oval next to the president and vice president candidates of your choice.

On referendum questions, where lever machines are used, depress the lever or button next to "yes" if in favor of the question, or the elector shall depress the lever or button next to "no" if opposed to the question.

If an elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector.

After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the voting booth, properly deposit the ballot, and promptly leave the polling place.

After an official markense ballot is marked, it shall be inserted in the ballot sleeve provided so the marks do not show. The elector shall then insert the ballot in the voting device and deposit the ballot sleeve or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing, or understanding English, or that due to disability it is unable to cast his or her ballot.

The following is a facsimile of the official ballot:

Section 3 of article XIII of the constitution is amended to read: [Article XIII] Section 3 (1) No member of congress, nor any and no person holding any office of profit or trust under the United States (postmaster excepted) except postmaster, or under any foreign power, shall be eligible to any office of trust, profit or honor in this state.

(2) No person convicted of any infamous crime, a felony, in any court within the United States; and no person, being a defaulter to the United States or to this state, or to any county or town therein, or to any state or territory within the United States, no person convicted in federal court of a crime designated, at the time of commission, under federal law as a misdemeanor involving a violation of public trust and no person convicted, in a court of a state, of a crime designated, at the time of commission, under the law of the state as a misdemeanor involving a violation of public trust shall be eligible to any office of trust, profit or honor in this state unless pardoned of the conviction.

(3) No person may seek to have placed on any ballot for a state or local office in this state the name of a person convicted in a felony, in any court within the United States, the name of a person convicted in federal court of a crime designated, at the time of commission, under federal law as a misdemeanor involving a violation of public trust or of the name of a person convicted, in a court of a state, of a crime designated, at the time of commission, under the law of the state as a misdemeanor involving a violation of public trust, unless the person named for the ballot has been pardoned of the conviction. Now, therefore, be it resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the foregoing amendment to the constitution is agreed to by the 1995 legislature; and, be it further Resolved, That the foregoing amendment be submitted to a vote of the people at the general election to be held in November 1996; and, be it further Resolved, That the question concerning ratification of the foregoing amendment be stated on the ballot as follows:

QUESTION 1: "Eligibility of convicted persons for office. Shall section 3 of article XIII of the constitution be amended to prohibit a person from holding public office or from appearing on a ballot for state or local office if the person has been convicted of a misdemeanor involving a violation of public trust or a felony and the person has not been pardoned for the conviction?"

EXPLANATION

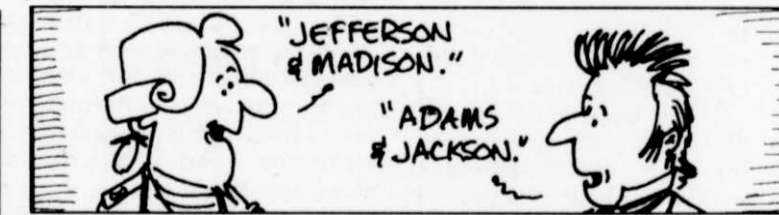

Article XIII, section 3 of the Wisconsin Constitution now makes a person ineligible for any office of trust, profit or honor in this state if the person has been convicted of an "infamous crime" or if the person is a "defaulter" to the United States, to this state, to any county or town in this state or to any state or territory within the United States.

This constitutional amendment would change the grounds for disqualification and instead provide that a person is ineligible for any office of trust, profit or honor in this state and is prohibited from appearing on a ballot for state or local office if the person has been convicted, in any state or federal court, of either a felony or a misdemeanor which at the time the person committed it was designated as a misdemeanor involving a violation of the public trust. A person convicted of a felony or of a misdemeanor designated as involving a violation of the public trust would be eligible to hold an office of trust, profit or honor and could appear on the ballot for state or local office if the person had been pardoned for the conviction.

A "yes" vote on this constitutional amendment would mean that anyone convicted of a felony or of a misdemeanor involving a violation of public trust would not be eligible to seek or hold office unless the person had been pardoned for the conviction. A "no" vote would retain the present language of section 3 of article XIII of the Wisconsin Constitution which makes a person ineligible for office only if they have been convicted of an infamous crime or if the person is a defaulter to the United States, to any state or territory, or to any county or town in Wisconsin.

Brettingen in 'Who's Who Among American High School Students'

Nicholas A. Brettingen

It has been announced that Nicholas A. Brettingen will appear in the 30th annual edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1995-96.

Who's Who, published by Educational Communications, Inc., Lake Forest, Illinois, is the largest high school recognition publication in the country. Students are selected by high school principals and guidance counselors, national youth groups, churches or by the publishing company based upon students' performance in scholarship award contests or extra-curricular activities.

Final selection is determined on the basis of criteria which include high achievement in academics and leadership in school activities, athletics or community service. Traditionally, 99% of Who's Who students have a grade point average of "B" or better and 97% are college-bound.

The 29th edition of Who's Who, published in 18 regional volumes, featured approximately 750,000 students, or 5% of the nation's 12,000,000 high school students. They represent 15,000 of the 22,000 public, private and parochial high schools in the country.

Who's Who students also compete for $180,000 in scholarship awards and participate in the publication's annual opinion poll of teen attitudes. The book is distributed on a complimentary basis to over 15,000 high schools, colleges, universities, and public libraries throughout the country.

Career Workshop for High Schoolers Set at Trees for Tomorrow

High school Juniors and Seniors who are considering a career in forestry or a related natural resource profession should consider attending Trees For Tomorrow's annual workshop on the subject in early December, said "Trees" forester Sandy Lotto today.

"The 14th annual Careers in Forestry and Natural Resources Workshop will be held December 4-6 this year in Eagle River," said Lotto. "This unique and highly regarded workshop gives 40 high school students from Wisconsin and Michigan direct exposure to a variety of career opportunities in the forest management/natural resources field."

The three day program, which is co-sponsored by Michigan Technological University, includes a tour of MTU, a seminar on forestry careers, and visits to logging operations, research facilities, and forest product companies.

"One highlight of the workshop is an opportunity for each student to meet with and "shadow" a professional who works in their area of interest...forestry, wildlife, wood manufacturing, water or recreation," Lotto stated.

Other resource professionals meet with the students during the workshop and talk to them about career options, she added.

The cost of the workshop, including all meals, lodging, materials, instruction and transportation during the three days, is $100. A brochure and registration materials is available by calling 1-800-838-9472.

"Our career workshop always fills up pretty quickly, so we urge students to call soon to be assured of a place for this year," Lotto concluded. "The workshop is a great opportunity for students to learn a tremendous amount in a short time about opportunities available in forestry and resource work, and to interact with those who have been working in the field to see if the day-to-day realities of a job match a student's perception or expectation of that position."

Trees For Tomorrow is a private, nonprofit, natural resources specialty school operating in Eagle River, WI since 1944. The facility specializes in science workshops which are taught in the field and which are designed to familiarize school students and their teachers with the northern forest ecosystem, as well as emphasize the need for conservation and sensible resource management and use. The organization also sponsors specialty offerings like the 1996 Careers in Forestry and Natural Resources Workshop.

Fever, Facts & Fallacies

(NAPS)—Did you know that 98.6° is not a normal temperature? In fact, it is an average of most people's normal temperature. What many people don't know is that everyone has his own "normal" temperature. In any event, when a child gets a fever it can be alarming, especially for first time parents. The following are some common misconceptions and realities, compiled by Dr. Thomas Terndrup, associate professor of emergency medicine and pediatrics at Syracuse University, that should help reduce parental anxiety when a child runs a fever.

• Fallacy: A fever is an illness.

FACT: A fever is a positive sign that the body is fighting an infection.

• Fallacy: If a child has a fever, place him in a cold or alcohol bath.

FACT: Sponge a child in a bath filled with tepid water (85°-90°). Never add alcohol—it can cause serious illness and possibly a coma.

FACT: If a child has a fever, dress him lightly and keep the room comfortably cool.

• Fallacy: A child with a fever should stay in bed.

FACT: A child with a fever can be up and about the house, but should not overexert himself.

Instant ear thermometers, such as the Braun Thermoscan, can take a temperature in just one second.

• Fallacy: Everyone's "normal" temperature is the same all the time.

FACT: Everyone's temperature is highest between late afternoon and early evening, and lowest between midnight and early morning.

• Fallacy: An accurate temperature reading can only be achieved by taking it rectally.

FACT: When your child does have a fever, an easy, convenient and accurate method of taking his temperature is with a Braun Thermoscan™ instant ear thermometer. It takes a temperature in just one second by taking a "picture" of the infrared heat given off by the eardrum and surrounding tissue. The Braun Thermoscan then calculates body temperature, converts it to an oral or rectal reading, and displays it on the digital readout. Reducing the time and hassle surrounding temperature taking can help lessen the anxiety for both parents and children.

Meet the School District Staff

Ellen Kesting
Wayne Elementary

A journey of a thousand miles begins with but a single step. This saying may be from long ago, but it has relevance today, especially, it seems, for Ellen Kesting, a first grade teacher at Wayne Elementary School.

In teaching first grade, Mrs. Kesting realizes that her students are continuing their recently begun journeys... their first steps... into learning.

"In the first few years," Mrs. Kesting explained, "You're really helping set the stage for how (the students) think about learning, how they will learn in the future. It's exciting, but it is also an awesome responsibility."

Mrs. Kesting has been helping Wayne first graders with the "discovery of reading, writing, and becoming thinkers," since arriving at Wayne five years ago.

"I love teaching first graders," she stated. "It's fun to be there when that light bulb goes on, when my students say, 'Hey, I get this!' You see so much growth."

To continue the positive "first steps" of the learning journey, Mrs. Kesting's students get experimental learning opportunities, from observing and analyzing seed growth, to exploring life in urban areas.

In life away from school, Mrs. Kesting has also recently completed her own journey of 26 miles, by running in October's Chicago Marathon. Although she started running only two years ago, Mrs. Kesting finished the race in a time just over four hours, 21 minutes.

"I was so surprised, so excited, just to finish. It felt great, I felt good," she said. "Well," she laughed, "except for about the last three miles."

Mrs. Kesting has described running as a metaphor for her life in many different ways, a life that has included leaving teaching to raise a family, and coming back once her children had grown.

Her husband Bill has a flexible packaging business (Flexigragic Packaging) in Waupun. Together they have raised two sons and a daughter: Josh, a senior in college, Sarah, a college junior, and Peter, a high school junior.

The journey continues for Mrs. Kesting. "I learn a lot from first graders," she said, "and every day is a new learning experience for each of us."

And as her students continue their "journey of a thousand miles" into learning, Mrs. Kesting will be there to try to help to make those first steps a little bit smoother.

Dear Editor:

It is with total disbelief that I have been following the presidential race. Although Clinton, by his performance not only as President but also as Governor of Arkansas, has proven himself to be a liar, a hypocrite, and things that are far worse, he leads in the polls by a wide margin. He - and we sure can't forget Hillary - have both been involved in scandal after scandal. The Whitewater scam alone resulted in nine people being convicted of felonies, including his business partners (the McDougalls). When Clinton first ran for the Presidency in 1992 the media emphasized over and over again how this guy was a Rhodes Scholar and that Hillary was one of the "most prominent female attorneys" in the United States. In spite of these proclaimed credentials both Clintons claim they knew nothing about the illegal activities of their business partners. Bill has dismissed this and numerous other criminal complaints against him as "election year politics." Nine people serving prison terms is not just politics. The American people were bilked out of 65 million dollars and the Clintons were two of the primary players in this swindle and for both of them to claim innocence by ignorance is as incredible as voters of this country believing them.

Also on the list is Hillary's miraculous parley of a one thousand dollar investment into one hundred thousand dollars in the cattle futures market. This "investment" was orchestrated by the Tyson Foods Company in exchange for Bill's relaxing of environmental laws while he was Governor of Arkansas. If this isn't a bribe, what is? In her own defense, Hillary claimed she made the money by reading the Wall Street Journal. I don't know which is more unbelievable - Hillary's claim or the fact that many people actually believe her.

The list goes on and on and keeps getting longer (the Whitehouse travel scam, the criminal possession of 900 confidential FBI files, the coverup of Vince Foster's records, the illegal Indonesian political contributions, etc., etc., etc., etc....). Meanwhile both of the Clintons claim innocence on all counts while an incredibly biased media caters to the act by downplaying, under reporting or totally ignoring each and every scandal.

The Clintons with their corrupt dishonesty have cheapened the office of the Presidency while the media has prostituted itself in blind support of liberalism. Both the Clintons and the media have, and are, betraying the people they claim to serve. The media has a responsibility to objectively and accurately report the news - this is a trust given to the institution of journalism and is vital to a functioning democracy. That trust is turning into a bad joke, a miserable failure. News reporting that is deliberately slanted and biased to convey a political agenda always has been and always will be propaganda. This type of reporting is nothing new - it's been used throughout history. Among others, the Nazis and the Russian Communists both used it very effectively. However it does not belong in a free society if that society is to remain free. A newspaper opinion page or a talk radio program or a TV news analysis program is the place for editorializing. It does not belong on the front page disguised as objectivity as is becoming the norm for today's media.

You don't think the media is biased? What images do you have of Robert Bork, Dan Quayle and Newt Gingrich? These three men have done nothing wrong, but each were absolutely and totally trashed by the media for purely political purposes. Now picture Bill Clinton and Ted Kennedy. Clinton, among numerous other charges, is facing a charge of exposing himself to Paula Jones and demanding sex in exchange for job related political favors. Kennedy was involved in the death of a woman in a vehicle accident that he was driving while intoxicated. He fled the scene of the accident and did not notify police until many hours after the fact. Meanwhile the woman died by drowning. Had either of these men been Republicans the media would have hounded and crucified both of them like they did Bob Packwood. Instead both are virtually idolized.

When you vote in November keep one thing in mind; When we as a people no longer demand integrity, honesty and character of our leadership we are not only giving approval to, but we are inviting corrupt government. History has shown over and over that corrupt governments always fail, self destruct and collapse. Don't think for a second that our government is somehow immune to the effects of dishonesty and corruption and don't think for a second that we as a society are immune to the moral, social and economic collapse that can result - we are not. By re-electing the Clintons you will be setting a dangerous and self destructive precedent; that corruption and criminal behavior on the part of the office of the President is acceptable.

When we as voters succumb to political propaganda and media lies and cast votes on the basis of public relations image rather than character, performance and issues we are failing ourselves and the democratic system as defined by the Constitution. We have an obligation to our own future and to the office of the Presidency to vote responsibly. This administration has and is making a mockery of the office of the Presidency, this country, the Constitution and of common decency. If this is what the political future holds for us as a people, I am worried because we are in trouble.

Some further points: While Clinton promised a middle class tax cut - he delivered the largest tax increase in history. Clinton promised a balanced budget - he not only refused to sign a balanced budget, he did so twice. Clinton promised to "end welfare as we know it" - but he refused to sign the Republican Welfare Reform Bill until it was watered down to the point of insignificance and he refuses to sign all the waivers for the State of Wisconsin's welfare reform program (something he promised to do during a recent visit - a promise made because it was politically profitable at the time to make it, obviously another lie.) Are you beginning to notice a trend? He also vetoed a bill that would have outlawed the incredibly barbaric procedure known as partial birth abortion (this procedure allows a woman to have an abortion on demand no matter how far advanced the pregnancy is. In this procedure the live baby - which can be up to 8 and 9 months old - initially is partially delivered as a corpse. Clinton said he prayed for guidance when he vetoed this ban. I really doubt that God told him to kill children. The bill that Clinton vetoed contained provisions to save the life of the mother - yet he still refused to sign it. The AMA does not recognize this as a viable procedure and virtually every obstetrician in the country will tell you that in a late term pregnancy where the child can be delivered this far it simply is not necessary under any circumstances to kill the baby to save the life of the mother or to preserve the mothers' health. It is an unnecessary procedure that only serves to allow abortion on demand up to the very moment of birth - something both of the Clintons seem to be obsessed with).

It is beyond my under-

Vandalism Prevention Program at KES/WES

KHS "Peers 4 Peers" members Emma Chambers (far right) and Beth Herriges, both sophomores, lead Kewaskum Elementary School fifth graders in a group activity about vandalism awareness. During the "Vandalism Awareness/Prevention Program" at KES, fifth grade students discussed examples of the vandalism they have noticed with their group leader Melissa Lunde.

Vandalism is bad for everyone. A special program from the area's Nova Services shared that message with fifth graders at Wayne and Kewaskum Elementary Schools.

The program, designed to increase awareness and prevention of vandalism, allowed students the chance to role-play, discuss, and ask questions about vandalism. Group discussions were led by Kewaskum High School students from the Peers 4 Peers program.

Topics covered in the problem-solving discussion included defining vandalism, consequences for -- and alternatives to-- vandalism.

Memorial stones from the 50 states, foreign countries and organizations line the interior walls of the Washington Monument.

standing that any thinking person could actually vote for Clinton. He is mocking us as a people. He is making a shamble of the Presidency. He offers no substance as a leader. Every promise, every commitment he makes is subject to changes to suit his whims. His foreign policy is a joke that the rest of the world is laughing at. He is a liar - he is a fraud. If this is the best we can do we are in big trouble as a people and a country.

TO THE EDITOR:

On November 5th, Wisconsin citizens will help determine who will be the next President of the United States. It is a critical election for our state and for our nation.

In a nutshell, this election is about trust. Do we trust big government bureaucracy in Washington? Or do we trust our state and local government, and the common sense of the people who live, work, and raise their families right here in Wisconsin?

Bill Clinton trusts the Washington bureaucracy more than the people of Wisconsin. His record is one of higher taxes, more spending, and bigger government. It is a classic liberal record of trusting "government sense" over "common sense." With four more years, Bill Clinton will be able to construct his "toll bridge" to the 21st century - a span of higher taxes and spending, and more power and control from Washington.

Bob Dole has a different idea. He wants to return power to the states, local communities, families, and individuals. He will cut taxes for Wisconsin's working families by an average

$1,737.00 a year. His plan to balance the budget and cut taxes rightly will make the Washington bureaucracy pinch pennies for a change!

In Wisconsin, we've shown that taxes can be cut and budgets can be balanced every year. All it takes is the will to control government spending. All it takes is trusting the common sense of Wisconsin citizens over the government sense of federal bureaucrats. Bob Dole has what it takes and Bill Clinton doesn't. It's just that simple.

When Wisconsin citizens vote for president on November 5th, they should keep in mind the words of legendary Green Bay Packer Coach Vince Lombardi, who said: "Leadership is based on truth and character."

Those words define the greatness of the Packers and they describe what Americans deserve in a president of the greatest nation on earth.

Wisconsin citizens, please join me in restoring integrity to the White House and common sense to government in Washington. Please join me in voting for Bob Dole and Jack Kemp on November 5th.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Tommy G. Thompson

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles informed the Board of the well work on #3 to be progressing and if all goes well it should be completed within a week; also that a private developer will be installing water and sewer along Fond du Lac Avenue south of CTH "H" soon.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following with the Board:

- 1) Review of Taxpayer and League Bulletins.
- 2) Review of League Resolutions to be considered at the Fall Conference. By consensus the Board supported the resolutions.
- 3) Informed the Board that the Department of Administration estimates the Village having 2,164 residents of voting age.
- 4) Miscellaneous correspondence

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed some options in reference to some of the previously discussed departmental budgets for 1996. It was indicated that the way the expenditures are proposed, the rate would be up 4% to 6%. With the revenues not all in and the final stream lining of the budget, it is hopeful that we can get the rate to about the same as it was for 1996 at $5.26 per thousand of assessed value.

On a motion by Trustee Warren Dums, seconded by Trustee Gary Gavin and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board approved the applications for Temporary Class "B" Retailers Licenses for October 12 & 13, 1996 within River Hill Park for Kettle Kountry Kolors for the following:

It was noted the meeting schedule for November and December are to be reviewed at the November 4, 1996 meeting.

Gwen Dreher, a representative from the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce was present to share information regarding an Area Events Sign. The Board was supportive regarding the placement of the sign at 1106 Fond du Lac Avenue and the possibility of helping with a portion of the cost. It was felt more information is needed. When that is gathered, the Chamber is to come back to the Board for more discussion.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Warren Dums and carried by the majority roll call vote, to adjourn to closed session under Chapter 19.85(1) (e) of the statutes to deliberate and negotiate the disposition of public lands. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 2 "Absent."

Sometime in mid-November one of Wisconsin's most popular free services will be up and running.

The State Department of Transportation says the winter road reports will begin on November 15, or when the first major storm hits. Last year, the first road report was October 31 and the final one on April 30.

The state offers a toll-free service to Wisconsin and surrounding states by calling 1-800-762-3947. Callers in the Dane County area can call a local number, 608-246-7580 and Milwaukee area residents have a local number, 414-785-7140. The same recorded messages are heard on all three lines, but callers who use the local numbers are saving tax dollars.

This year the road reports will be available on the DOT WEB page. The address is <http://www.dot.state.wi.us/dsp/roadcond.html>.

The telephone reports are 2-3 minute recorded messages covering the main highways of the state. They are compiled from reports of State Patrol Troopers and County Highway Departments all over the state. Information is updated at least four times a day, and more often if required by changing conditions.

The ultimate test of the system's capacity often occurs the Sunday afternoon following Thanksgiving. "That's when people are heading home after a long family holiday, deer hunters are going home exhausted and pulling campers or driving recreational vehicles, and it always seems that we get a snow or ice storm," said Tony Paulson, Police Communications Supervisor in the Madison State Patrol District. "That's when the telephone lines plug up and stay busy until everybody is home safely," he added.

This year the service has been upgraded to the point that it will take a real old fashioned blizzard, maybe even one occurring on a holiday weekend, to overwhelm the system, according to the State Patrol.

Paulson said the service now has 44 lines available to handle calls. "You will get an occasional busy signal, but it'll be only in a really unusual situation like a snowstorm on a holiday weekend when everybody wants to get home at the same time," he said.

Paulson said the service is scheduled to begin November 15, but an early snow storm frequently necessitates an earlier beginning. "Historically, we've usually started the road reports on November 8, or a week ahead of schedule," he said.

The year-around service, which includes detour information during the summer months and road conditions in the winter, costs the DOT $70,000 a year. The system handles up to 100,000 calls a month, depending on the weather.

Indians Lose Last Conference Game of the Season to Raiders

When the Kewaskum Indian football team traveled to Kiel last Wednesday night for the last regular season conference game, they went there with hopes of an upset on their mind. The Kiel Raiders however, had other ideas.

For Kiel a victory would qualify them for the playoffs while for Kewaskum a victory would mean there would be a slight possibility of being chosen as an at-large team.

Kewaskum took the opening kickoff and moved the ball from their own 38 to the Raider 25 after a 36 yard pass from Kevin Martin to Ryan Rammer. Two plays later, Eric Kopecky fumbled a pitch, recovering it for a nine-yard loss.

Faced with a third and 20, Kevin Martin was intercepted on the eight yard line. The Raiders scored quickly, highlighted by Pat Dhein's runs of 29 and 48 yards with Dhein taking it in from the one on the sixth play.

Kewaskum came right back on it's next possession traveling 67 yards in six plays with Eric Kopecky breaking a 47 yard run to set up Kevin Martin's two-yard scoring pass to Dan Jeserig. Sean Cotter missed the extra point to make it a 7-6 Kiel lead.

After stopping Kiel on it's next possession, the Indians started on their own five yard line after a 54-yard Kiel punt. The Indians drove the ball to the Raider 30, before losing it on downs early in the second quarter.

Kiel this time drove 70 yards for another touchdown to make the score 14-6 in favor of Kiel and it looked like both teams were going to do a lot of scoring this evening. The Indians again moved the ball into Raider territory on a 19 yard run by Eric Kopecky.

On the next play however, Kopecky fumbled a pitch and the Raiders scooped it up and returned it 40 yards to the Indian 25 yard line. Six plays later the Raiders scored to take a 21-6 lead and all the momentum. The Indians never recovered after that as the Raiders outscored them 21-6 the rest of the way.

Going into the contest Coach Perry Koth was confident that the Indians could move the ball against the Raider defense but he was not sure if the Indians could stop their power running attack.

Kiel ended up with 449 yards rushing against the Indians while the Indians ran for 123 yards and passed for 126.

Kewaskum's last touchdown came late in the fourth quarter when the score was 42-6. Kevin Martin snuck the ball in from the one yard line and freshman Chris Koth's kick missed to the left for a final 42-12 score.

Kevin Martin led the Indians in rushing with 61 yards on seven carries and was 10 of 21 passing for 126 yards with one touchdown. Dan Jeserig who was leading the conference in pass receptions caught six passes for 57 yards and one touchdown, while Ryan Rammer caught two passes for 54 yards.

The Indians finish the season 2-4 in conference and 3-6 overall. "It was not one of our best efforts," said Koth, also noting that, "The fumble return during the second quarter by Kiel was probably the turning point of the game. After that we seemed to lose our intensity and gave up 12 runs of more than 10 yards including a 43 yard touchdown run."

Koth noted that Dan Jeserig, Kevin Martin, Sean Cotter, Tim Bunkelman and Jeff Heller had solid performances despite the lopsided score. Kewaskum lost two fumbles and threw two interceptions in the game.

Keep Home Fires From Burning

(NAPS)—Fire Prevention Week is October 6 to 12, and for good reason. Home fires are most likely to occur in the late fall and winter, reports ITT Hartford Insurance Group, a leading homeowner insurer and the developer of Junior Fire Marshal, the longest-operating fire safety education program for children. Heeding these hot tips from those experts can help you protect your home and family.

Almost 40 percent of all home fires occur between November and February, probably because people turn on heat and spend more time indoors.

Watch Out During Winter Weather

- Get your furnace and oil burners serviced before turning them on for the winter.

- Have your flues and chimneys checked if you plan to use a fireplace or wood burning stove.

- Keep space heaters, especially gas and kerosene ones, away from curtains, bedspreads, furniture and other flammable materials. Also, place space heaters in an area where they can't get knocked over.

- Do not, under any circumstances, use the kitchen stove or other cooking appliance to heat a room.

- Never use a charcoal burner or camp stove indoors.

Wire Nots

- Do not overload extension cords. Use only one appliance per extension cord.

- Check the wires on portable heaters, radios, lamps, TVs and other electrical appliances for fraying and wear. Repair or replace any as necessary.

People Protectors

- Keep matches, lighters and lit candles out of reach of children.

- Do not leave unattended children in rooms with lit fires.

- Double check smoke detectors to make sure they're working; replace batteries twice a year when you reset your clocks during the fall and spring. If you don't have a smoke detector, install at least one on every level of your home.

- Remove from attics, basements and closets old papers, paint cans and other things that can catch fire easily.

- Have an escape route and communicate it to everyone in your family in case you do have a fire. Specify a meeting place a safe distance from your home.

- Be careful of smoking.

Keep these suggestions in mind and you may find you're better able to keep your family safe from fire through the winter and all year long.
