Board Rehashes Solutions to Overcrowding in District Schools

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

With deliberate deter-Kewaskum mination, School Board members have been dedicating more time to their appointed jobs by attending worksessions in an effort to come up with solutions to alleviate overcrowding in the district's public schools while meeting long range needs, and trying to fill in the blank, "Kewaskum needs a new

The results of last week's worksession indicated the consensus still agrees the number one priority is the purchase of land, while the "getting is good," with approval of any land purchase dependent on an April 1st referendum asking taxpayers to OK the issuance of general obligation school building bonds in an amount not to exceed the purchase of land doesn t mean a new school will be built next year. "We want kids in town to be able to walk to school. I don't want our school to be so far out of town. That's why we have to act (on the land purchase)

The majority also agreed a public hearing was essential before any referendum takes place, since there was still some confusion within the community regarding where the money was coming from.

In laymen's terms, last year the taxpayers voted at the school district's annual meeting and budget hearing to allow $1 per thousand of equalized value of their property tax relief (from state aid) to go toward paying off the school district's debt owed for additions and remodeling of the high school and middle school. This move saved taxpayers money by relieving some of the interest payments so that they need to emphasize the debt could be retired

Now the school district is asking for the same thing, but this time the money would go toward acquiring land that will be needed in the future, to expand the school system and accommodate the students within a growing pop-

Board member Tom Timblin indicated that he felt timing was very important on the land issue, since parcels that would serve their purpose were dwin-dling fast. "We could've done this by ourselves, but we chose to let the people have a voice," he said in support of the referendum, adding that he felt the reopening of Beechwood school should be included on the referendum as a separate issue. Fellow board member John Schulte agreed that Beechwood is an issue that should be addressed now.

Winter Parking Ban Lifted

During an extremely light agenda Monday evening, the Kewaskum Village Board, sans Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt and in the very capable hands of President Robert Wagner and Clerk Janet Knopps, handled the issue of lifting the winter parking ban.

The parking ban was unanimously lifted as of Midnight on Monday, March 3, however the stipulation was made that in the event of a storm or significant snowfall, a snow emergency can be announced at any time by the Village Administrator or the Board President.

If a snow emergency is declared, the winter parking ban would go back into effect and would be announced over radio station WBKV-WBWI. So if you see those little white flakes falling out of the darkened sky, please tune in and remember not to park on the street. But until that time, feel free to take those cars off the front yard and put them back on the street.

Confused?? Not really... but if you are, feel free to call Administrator Dan Schmidt on Monday for clarification. Welcome home Dan and Phyllis... hope you had a good time!

Funds for Fireworks Needed

Many thanks are extended to the "early bird" contributors to the Kewaskum Fireworks Fund, namely, Isabelle Muckerheide, Ella Weddig, Jerry and Kathleen Gilles, Tom and Ellie Jalas, Freddy and Janet Gildersleeve and Mehring's Dairy Queen.

Their dollars help so much, but if we want a "really big show" we need some more help from the rest of you out there. You don't have to wait until April... honest... it's much more fun to see your dollars explode in the sky on July 3rd rather than to just hand it all over to Uncle Sam for taxes... right?

If you can make a contribution to the "Big Boom," olease fill out the coupon on the bottom corner of page 14 and mail it to the Kewaskum Statesman, P.O. Box 98, Kewaskum, WI 53040. We will coordinate the contributions, keep a list of those fantastic community-minded residents and businesses that care to donate and pass them along to the Village Administrator who will be buried under a mountain of paperwork come Monday.

A list of all donations will be printed in a future edition of the Statesman ... so if you want to buy fireworks in honor of someone else ... please feel free. More will be printed about the fireworks in the next few weeks.

KMS, KHS Super Concert March 13

Here is your chance to see all the bands and choirs under one roof! On Thursday, March 13, at 7 p.m., the Kewaskum Middle School and High School will present a Super Concert that will start with the sixth grade and move up the grades to the senior bands and choirs.

The concert, which will be held in the high school fieldhouse, will conclude with a combined choir and band piece featuring a patriotic theme. Come and see this once in a decade performance.

District Installs New Phone System

The Kewaskum School District has installed a new telephone system for the District Office, Kewaskum High School, Kewaskum Middle School and the Kewaskum Elementary School.

Under the new system, callers are transferred by an auto-attendant to which every building is requested. The system provides voice mail to the four buildings so callers may contact a teacher, administrator or support personnel directly.

Residents with rotary dial phones will have their calls received by a district receptionist while push-button phone users will have access to the system automatically.

Board Rehashes

"Whether we package the referendum, or do anything different, Beechwood is something that shouldn't wait," he emphasized, stating he has always been an advocate of smaller class sizes, and this would allow that at the elementary lev-

Opening up debate, Board member Neal Weare was concerned that the board has chosen not to be definitive on what it is going to take to the public, such as land use, what grades will be included at the elementary schools, how to address the overcrowding and where it will hit the hardest, KES and the cost of remodeling, as well as traffic and safety factors.

'As far as reopening Beechwood, we have to be up front and tell people this is how we feel. Almost eleven years ago, this board saw fit to close Beechwood, and never went to a referendum. It was our responsibility. Until we decide exactly what we are about, we're going to sit here and flounder around in a dead sea, Weare related.

The whole personality of the board has changed, times have changed," Timblin disagreed. "I think people should decide this issue (Beechwood). It's been festering for all these years." He also expressed concern over the traffic flow around KES, when school and Regal Ware lets out, and other board members agreed that a decision about KES should be a high prior-

This school district is growing -- we need to keep saying that, we need to deal with the issue of KES in particular," Board member

Larry Fechter maintained. Both Schulte and Timblin stated KES could be used by the district for administrative purposes, if a new elementary school was built, which seemed to be what the board was leaning toward, although a definite decision was not discussed.

Board member Mary Andera told the group that her understanding of the strategic plan was long range, although she did back the land purchase. "Now all of a sudden we're asked to make some decisions on this, and I think we're moving way too fast."

Andera also pointed out she was not ready to make a decision as to what should be built on the land, and wanted more time to explore a K-8 concept in which townships own and govern their own school.

She considered public relations between the community and the school district lacking, and pushed for better understanding, explanations and time to evaluate all options thoroughly. "Academic standards needs to be addressed. I'd rather see us make an academic statement.'

'I don't think we're being rushed, I think we have the feeling we're being rushed," Schulte noted, repeating concerns over which need to be addressed now. "There's not much time left at the middle school before it becomes dire again (space wise)."

Board member John Downs thought all issues were being addressed at the worksessions, and continual discussion would be needed to hash through all the information. "There's no perfect model, each one has its strengths and weaknesses. We have to decide what is important, and I'd like to see more of these open sessions to go through the real issues on all the different models," he said.

School board candidate Lisa Maul told the board they needed to come up with one solution they think is best, to present to the community, not several to choose from. "Get everyone's opinion before you make a decision," she advised.

A closed session followed the meeting for the purpose of discussing land purchase negotiations. A Public Hearing to discuss the referendum and future building sites is tentatively scheduled for March 17th.

Village of Kewaskum NEWS NOTES

RECYCLING TIPS  GLASS **

Type of Glass: Bottles and Jars Only. NO window glass, mirror glass, etc. Colors: Clear, Green and Brown

Preparation: Remove covers and rings and discard. RINSE CLEAN. This is the most important aspect of a successful recycling program. Bottles and jars that are contaminated with food residue cannot be recycled.

Tip: Many homeowners place their glass jars in the dishwasher along with their other cooking and eating utensils.

Place bottles and jars in your dark green recycling bin or blue recycling bag. Avoid breakage. Place the bin or bag at the curb on the same day that your solid waste is to be collected. Pick up will be on Wednesdays for both solid waste and recyclables. Multi-family dwellings of six or more, remember, your recycling pickup will be the first and third Wednesday of each month.

NEXT WEEK: Plastic #1 P.E.T. Bottles

Classic Arts and Crafts Spring Show on Sunday

If you have spring fever... the Classic Arts and Crafts Show at the KC Hall just north of West Bend on Highway 45 and D is the place to be this Sunday, March 9, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Wendi Dreher of Kewaskum, coordinator of the Classic Arts and Crafts Show will present some of Wisconsin's finest and juried crafters.

Dennis and Susan Clough of Janesville are just two of the many exclusive exhibitors who will have their exquisitely handmade crafts like the ones shown above, on display. Sue has a variety of wood items with a "country look" that will fit in any decor. Dennis has numerous styles of wood shelves for any room in your home.

Look for Dennis and Sue when you take the time to stop and shop at the Classic Arts and Crafts Spring Show on Sunday, March 9, at the KC Hall north of West Bend. They will be easy to find... they always have a friendly smile for all the shoppers.

There will also be some new, creative crafters at this spring show. Bob Wucinski, "Grandpa Bob's" of Big Bend, will bring his woodworking talents to the show. Grandpa Bob has quilt racks of all shapes and sizes, wall plaques and nostalgic wood carved signs for all seasons.

Another crafter, new in this show, is Chris Dixon of Slinger, with her beautifully appliqued sweatshirts. These excellently made sweatshirts would make a wonderful gift for Easter or Mother's Day. She also will have plenty of Packer accessories for that "true-green" Packer fan.

Misty Nyleen will travel from Lakewood, Wisconsin to display her unique rustic decorations. If you like that "up north," "wild animal," or "little log cabin" atmosphere, Misty's craft items will give you just what you are looking for.

This craft show would not be complete without a display of the spring and Easter bunnies made by Kathy Moebius of Kewaskum. This year she wants to surprise the customers with an exclusive craft. Look for her booth at the spring show on Sunday.

Maybe the hottest items in any craft show are the clothes for the collectors of All American Girl Dolls. Wendi Dreher is proud to present the talents of Lori Boudry of West Bend with her variety of outfits for Addy, Molly, Kristen, Samantha and Felicity. Lori will also have a display of the not-to-be-forgotten Barbie clothes and accessories

West Bend's own, Joan Habersetzer, who is synonymous in the world of crafters will show her many excellently painted wood items. You will find that "one-of-a-kind item" on display in Joan's booth.

These are only a few of the quality crafters that will be on hand at the Classic Arts and Crafts Spring Show. It's always fun to shop when the admission is free and a door prize is announced every half hour.

At this show, Coordinator Wendi Dreher has acquired the services of Joanne Hall of Campbellsport, for a Children's Craft Corner. For a small fee, the children can "make and take" a craft item.

Bring your appetite because the Northern Kettle Moraine Tourism Council will be serving a variety of sandwiches and desserts at the concession stand. Hot dogs, hot turkey sandwiches, grilled brats, carrot cake and brownies are just a few of the mouthwatering food items you'll be able to choose from. All proceeds from the concession go to promote the beautiful scenic Kettle Moraine area.

For the ultimate enjoyment of crafting, join Coordinator Wendi Dreher at the KC Hall, north of West Bend on Sunday, March 9th.

Red Cross Faces Transportation Crisis

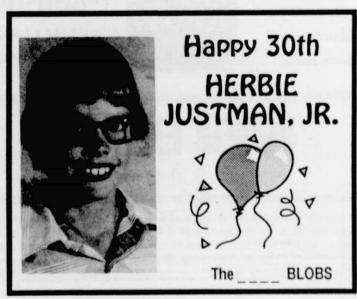

The local chapter of the American Red Cross will conduct its volunteer and fund drive in March. Here as well as throughout the nation, "March is Red Cross Month" has become familiar. The West Bend chapter encompasses the Villages of Jackson and Kewaskum and the Towns of Barton, Farmington, Jackson, Kewaskum, Trenton, Wayne and West Bend, and the City of West Bend.

The main focus of this year's campaign is to raise funds to replace vehicles that transport area residents for vital medical treatments in southeastern Wisconsin. Four of the six Red Cross vehicles have over 132,000 miles on them. During a period of one month, these vehicles average approximately 9,000 miles. The need for more medical transportation is increasing and during January, 1997, over 12,000 miles were logged. At this rate, funds are urgently needed to obtain new vehicles.

In 1996, 42 volunteer drivers made these medical trips possible. More volunteers are needed, however, as requests for transportation increase.

Other missions of the Red Cross continue to be help in time of disaster, including local fires; health and safety classes; and service to military personnel and their families. In 1996, over 3,850 people were assisted by the area chapter.

To donate financially or to volunteer, please contact the Red Cross office at 2410-B S. Main St., West Bend, or call 334-5687.

Bereavement Support Group to Meet Mar. 6

St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend is sponsoring a bereavement support group Thursday, March 6, to help individuals and families who have lost a baby during pregnancy or the first year of the baby's life. The free support group is meeting from 7 to 9 p.m. in the hospital's conference room A.

Jennifer Klug, RN-MSN, is the lead facilitator for the group and Kathy Valind, R.N., is a facilitator and trained bereavement support counselor. Both are nurses at St. Joseph's Community Hospital's New Life Center.

The purpose of the group is to offer encouragement and support; friends and family members are invited to attend the meetings.

The group meets on the first Thursday of each month. More information about the support group is available by calling the New Life Center at 334-8361.

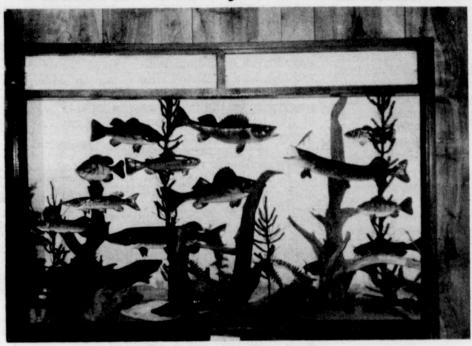

Unique Craft Show at Amerahn March 16

CABIN FEVER!?! Feeling like running away from it all!?! Let's go fishing, at the Unique Craft Show on Sunday, March 16, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Amerahn Hall on Highway 45, just north of Kewaskum. Crafter Thomas JeanPierre will be exhibiting his hand carved fish and his unique glass birds.

Has cabin fever got you down?? The perfect cure is to visit the "Unique Spring Craft Show." on Sunday, March 16 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Amerahn Hall on Highway 45, just north of Kewaskum.

Kathy Smith of Fond du Lac will be attending with her assortment of bears, wreaths and miscellaneous wood crafts. NBC Embroidery of Campbellsport will be very busy with her assortment of embroidered sweatshirts.

Also in attendance this year will be Mary Steffen of Appleton with her American Doll, Doll Clothes. Another treat will be D & P Creations of Watertown, with their unique display of Southwestern style jewelry, dream catchers and mandellas. Set aside a little time for yourself.

Stop in, look around and enjoy yourself. Food and refreshments will be available for consumption from Amerahn. Hope to See you there!

Senior Glen "JR" Schnabel came in fifth in the state wrestling championships. He is shown above in the process of taking down one of his opponents.

Joel puts an excellent move on Ben Conley Jr. of Westby at the State Wrestling Tournament.

Kenny Schmidt, a senior at Campbellsport High School, son of Don and Gwen Schmidt of Campbellsport, brought home his second championship crown from the WIAA State Wrestling Championships. Last year, Kenny won the championship in the 103 pound weight class and this year he took the 112 pound crown. He is shown above trying to put John Gasper of Chetek, Prairie Farm to the mat.

By Sally N. Cochran

Joel Dziedzic did more than just show up at the state wrestling tournament this past Saturday. Joel went there to wrestle his best and that he did.

In the first round, Joel was down 7-0 and instead of feeling defeated, Joel put everything into that match and came back to win, 15-10.

The championship match was a tough one. Luke Arneson from Mt. Horeb/Barneveld, had one or two big moves and Joel just couldn't catch up. The final score was 12-9. Joel placed second, quite an honor, in his fourth consecutive appearance at the state level competition.

"Joel has the heart and the mind of a true winner," Coach John Nell raved. He sure has been a winner in wrestling these four years in high school. Joel finishes his high school career with 131 wins and only 11 losses.

In fact, Joel will go down in the record books as the first Kewaskum wrestler to go to state all four years and also place those four years. "He has put a lot of time into the sport," Nell commented, adding, "He has been a spark in this community."

Glenn "JR" Schnabel, also a senior, did an excellent job. Although he lost in the first round, Schnabel had a shot at fifth place by winning in the consolation round, where he beat Brooks from West Salem/Bangor, 11-4. Glen went on to win the match for fifth place against Gillet/Surling's Hansen.

"He really wanted fifth place," said Nell. "He dominated the match." Glen took Hansen down, let him up, took him down and let him up a couple of times and then went in for the pin in 2:50.

This was Glen's first time competing at the state level and to walk away fifth in the state, out of 112 teams, is super!

Congratulations to all the Kewaskum wrestlers and the coaching staff for a great season. The entire community is extremely proud of you and your excellent representation of our community.

The team consisted of, left to right, Maggie Herriges, Rachel Wolf, Cindy Reindl and Aileen Chambers. The did a group interpretation on "Noah's Ark" by Bill Cosby. They received a merit award for getting an "A" and an "A+" on their reading. They also took first place in their room for their reading. This was their first and only meet.

Can't File Now?

People who can't meet the tax filing deadline can send Form 4868 to the IRS and get a four-month extension of time to file. But, along with the form, they should send in the estimated tax they owe. People who can't pay the full amount should still send in the form, and pay as much as possible, because the penalty for not filing, or filing late, is higher than the penalty for paying late. And the IRS charges interest on any taxes paid after the due date.

KMS Art Instructor Lynn Molenda

"Art embodies the best accomplishments of mankind (over time which) helps us to see how the past shapes who we are."

Kewaskum Middle School Instructor Lynn Molenda is an ardent believer in the importance of history for her students, as well as for her teaching. Her classroom at KMS is brimming with proof of that conviction: a time line highlighting accomplishments of past civilizations travels around the walls, a portfolio is lined with works in progress of students paying homage to artists from different periods of art, majestic Greek columns outline the classroom door. "I love to tie history into (my art class)."

One way in which history is brought into the class-room is through the students themselves. Ms. Molenda described a class-room activity in which students learn about their own time lines, and then express those time lines in a narrative vessel (a piece of pottery which tells a story through symbol and design).

"(Students) go out and talk to their parents, their grandparents, to see where they came from, who they are, and then build a narrative vessel with symbols that tell the tale of their lives," Ms. Molenda explained. "It gives a real sense of history and personal meaning to their work."

On her own personal time line, Ms. Molenda is new this year to KMS, but not to teaching. After growing up on the south side of Milwaukee, she taught in Brookfield and Milwaukee (including the Milwaukee German Immersion School), sandwiched around developing a design business (named "Ideen II" after a German word meaning "idea") with her husband, Jack Lutz, in which they designed home and business interiors all over the coun-

She came back to teaching because she missed working with the students. "I missed seeing the whole learning process that takes place within them."

Ms. Molenda believes that art is a language and a vehicle that students can use to learn about the world, and about themselves. As she has shown in her history connections, art can be utilized with other subjects too.

In her free time, Ms. Molenda paints with water-colors, in a subtle style that friends compare to the gentle work often associated with the Orient. She enjoys travelling, as well ("Just hike, or go to a rural area and get lost"). However, as of late, free time has been in short supply.

On a piece of land near Beechwood (purchased some 20 years ago), she and her husband have recently completed building a house -- they actually built it themselves -- following their design which embodied their love for the area. As was the practice in their "Ideen II" business, and in Ms. Molenda's art classrooms, they used common materials -- including previously used boards and beams -- in uncommon ways. The result was a cozy, nature-friendly home, one that was even featured recently in the Plymouth newspaper.

At this point on her own time line, Ms. Molenda is enjoying being at KMS. "There's a good mix of students here," she said, "and a good mix of creative thinking."

If history is any indication, it seems that "good mix of creative thinking" will be just the right fit with the new art teacher.

By Louise Martin

The Town of Wayne began their February monthly board meeting with a full house as several Town of Wayne Elementary School students were in attendance to proudly present a Sesquicentennial banner to town board members. The Town of Wayne will celebrate its 150th birthday in 1998.

In recognition of reaching this milestone, twelve students designed a cloth square of their choice depicting some historical moment, structure, feature or item in the township. The students did research of the town in the library looking for pictures and ideas.

Under the guidance of Peggy Henke, school art instructor/advisor, the students glued together a paper mock of the banner so they had some idea how the finished product would look.

Weekly Meeting of Separated, Divorced

The Washington County separated and divorced support group for men and women meets weekly every Friday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Sacred Heart Church in Allenton.

Their purpose is to provide a means to share ideas, concerns, support, fellowship and love from a Christian perspective. There are guest speakers, panel discussions, small group sharing and other activities.

The group is open to singles, widows and widowers. Many of the topics pertain to single parents and other individuals rebuilding their lives and relationships.

The group depends on donations at the meetings to pay for speakers and other expenses.

The meeting on March 7 will feature the topic, "Relaxing on the Ice Age Trail," with Bob Stodola, Washington County Chapter of the Ice Age Trail.

A panel discussion by former members and an election of officers will be held at the March 14th meeting.

Then the real work began. The squares were painted, hand embroidered and/or appliqued by each student. Each square took approximately three to four weeks to complete and required about eight hours of work per square.

Mrs. Nancy Stoffel placed the finishing touches on the quilted banner setting the ivory background pieces between patriotic red/blue print strips which was then hand-tied by the students. The very attractive banner will be on display at the town hall. Watch for it to be part of any community cele-

The artistic students who contributed a square include Luke Artymiuk, Kristy Asmondy, Sami Bothwell, Brittany Burdick, Shannon Dwyer, Jon Hawig, Katie Kurer, Jena Martin, Jon Maul, Kaitlyn Ogi, Scott Rhoad and Jamie Sabish.

Congratulations students on your accomplishment and ... Happy Birthday, Town of Wayne.

Odyssey of the Mind Teams Prepare for Competition

The KMS Odyssey of the Mind team practices on the "spontaneous" problem, "If the whales are worth saving, what is NOT worth saving?" Creative answers included, "The Chicago Bears Football Team," and "ABC (Already Been Chewed) gum."

Creativity at fast forward is one way to describe the activity at Odyssey of the Mind teams from Kewaskum High School, Kewaskum Middle School, and Farmington and Kewaskum Elementary Schools gear up for Saturday's regional competition at New Holstein. Students have been preparing for the competition since first semester.

Odyssey of the Mind is a national competition in which students design and perform a solution to a specified problem, such as create a robot that performs human functions, as well as come up with spur of the moment answers to a "spontaneous" problem, such as name a kind of seat or chair (extra creativity points may be given for answers such as "hot seat" or "SEATtle").

The purpose of the contest is to provide situations for creative and cooperative problem solving.

Town of Wayne Board Approves Developers Agreement

By Louise Martin

After several months of negotiating, the town of Wayne board approved at their February meeting a developers agreement presented by Kim and Mary Rodenkirch to develop land on Broadview Lane in the town of Wayne. As part of the agreement, Broadview will be expanded from a two rod road to a four rod road with the Rodenkirchs providing the necessary land and fill.

Contingent on a developers agreement drafted to the satisfaction of the town board, legal counsel and zoning administrator, the rezoning of 78 acres from agricultural to residential A-1 has been a very controversial issue with many town residents. The rezoning request was granted at the August, 1996 town board meeting. As part of the rezoning approval, the developers agreement was required providing the town with more control over how the land would be developed. In addition to the agreement, review of land development plans by the town engineer was also required. Four lots of approximately ten acres each in size will be developed. Bids for the necessary road work and construction of a cul-de-sac will be sought after the March town board meeting.

Board members reviewed road profiles with surveyor Ted Meilahn for proposed work on St. Kilian Drive. The board anticipates seeking bids for this road work this spring.

In other matters before the board, a more cost-effective cellular phone package will be checked into, approximately 750 tons of salt/sand mix has been used this winter with the remaining supply anticipated to be sufficient for the rest of winter and very few water problems were reported with town culverts from the recent rains and snow thawing.

The next town of Wayne Plan Commission meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 18, 1997 at 7:30 p.m. at the town hall with the monthly board meeting to follow on Wednesday, March 19, at 8:00 p.m.

Kewaskum School District Boundary Lines

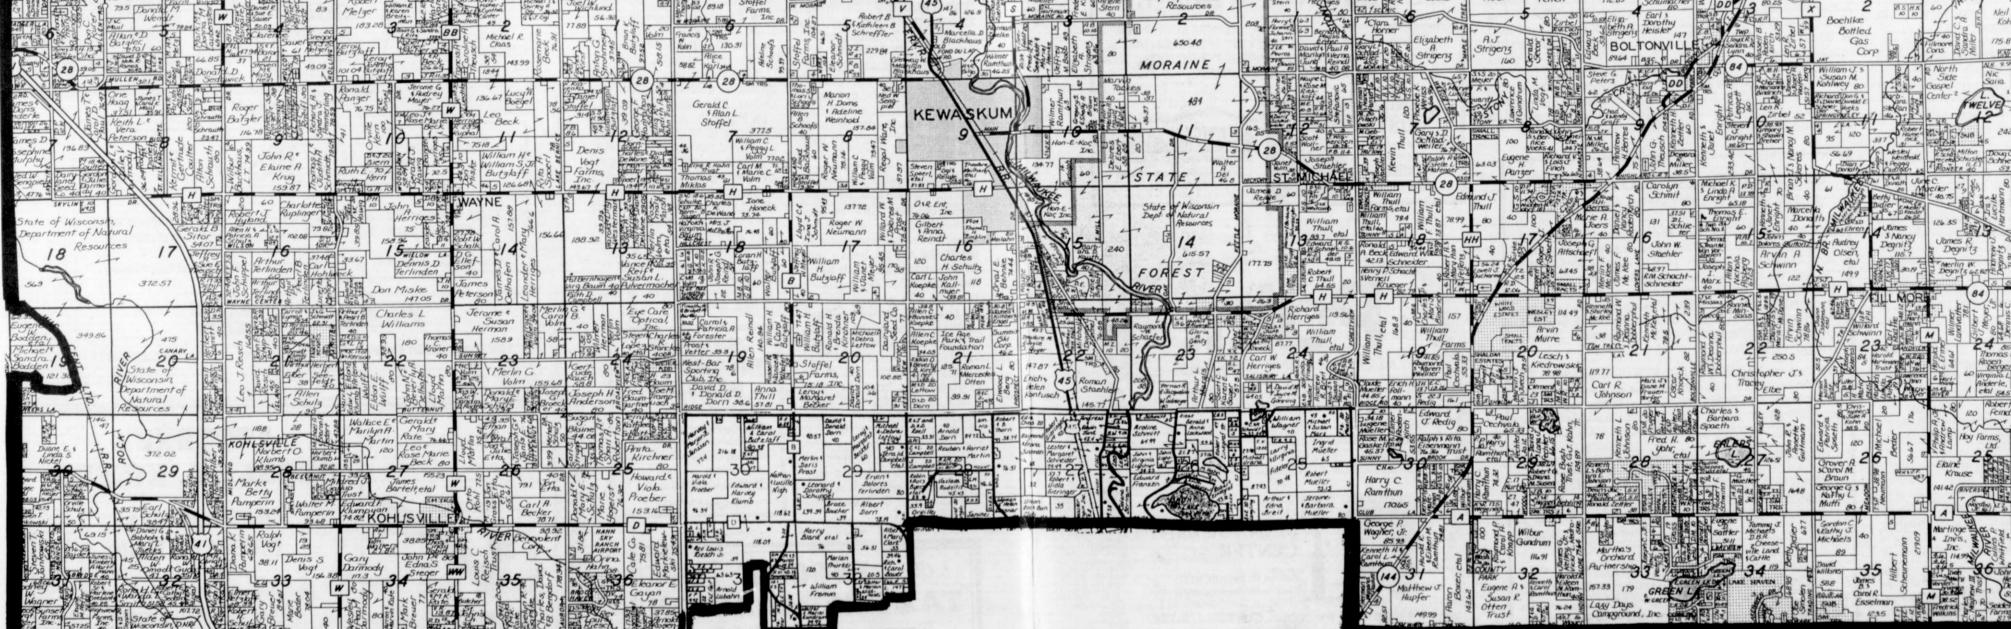

One of our readers recently called and brought to our attention that it would be very nice if all our readers could become aware of the boundary lines of the Kewaskum School District, due to the fact that most residents simply did not know them.

In light of the many issues confronting administrators and board members concerning the overcrowding in the district, we thought this was an excellent idea. When consulted, administrators, board members, other readers, and our school reporter agreed.

The problem lay in finding a map of the boundary lines that included street and road names that was also readable. Through much effort by Sharon Callaway Roznik, the Statesman school reporter, the Statesman staff, the Village of Kewaskum employees, and school administrators, the map was pieced together from a plat book and the boundary lines were drawn in.

The map below is not perfect... but we think it will help all residents see where the Kewaskum School District ends and begins and hopefully will help all make the decisions we have upcoming.

Our apologies to all our letterwriters. Due to the space used up by the map, we had to eliminate our weekly Letters to the Editor column. But we promise, it will be back in full force next week. Thank you for your patience.

Town of Scott Board Hears Rezoning Requests; to Develop Comprehensive Plan

By Bernadette Mondloch

Due to the absence of vacationing Town Chairman Lester Benzschawel, Supervisor Richard Bemis presided at the February Town of Scott Board Meet-

A representative of the Beechwood Fire Department stated plans are being considered by the department which would relieve them of the liability of their ball park located at the corner of County A and S, by either the sale of or a gift to, either the "Diamond Club" or to the Town of Scott if either would accept it.

He did not require an immediate answer but hoped the board would be ready if either of these offers becomes a reality in

Farmington 4-H Holds Meeting

The Farmington 4-H meeting started at 7:40 p.m. We played an all-around the world game in which there are items on a table and you guess what country the item is from.

Secretary Tim McKee and Treasurer Korey Fay gave their reports. For attendance 30 people were present. The Drama group is putting together a play called, "Sam's Sled, Private Investigator." We will be having our play on March 2 at Cedar Lake Campus in the theatre.

Our club is having a collecting cans day. Ashley and Amber Kegely will be coming to pick up the cans at the end of each meeting.

We will be going to an Admirals game on March 1 at 7 p.m. The cost will be $8 a ticket. There will be an arts and crafts meeting on March 4 at 6:30 p.m. at Rayelle and Krista Miller's house. There will also be a drama meeting at 5:30 p.m. at the Boltonville Fire Department on February 16. Our club will be dong the annual Bowl-A-Thon on Sunday, March 16. There is no decision on where to have it yet.

Our club will also be doing a poster contest. The theme for it is "Our World." There will also be a Cloverbuds meeting on February 20 at 6:30 p.m. at Eric and Jessica Spaeth's house.

There will also be a demo on Dogs and Drama. Priscilla Richter led the 4-H and the American Pledge of Allegiance. Katie Schneider, Nick Pankratz and Dean Pankratz gave a report on our sledding and skating party that we had on January 25.

Carissa Fay motioned to adjourn the meeting and Kyle Kedroske seconded the motion. The meeting ended at 8:33 p.m.

Carissa Fay, Farmington 4-H Reporter the future. However, there would be some strings attached. The firemen are considering to include, as part of the offer, a stipulation that if the Town would be the recipient, the town would make it available to the "Diamond Club" as long as the ball club has a needfor its use.

Rick Deyamaren, representing the Department of Natural Resources, explained the various grants available through his agency. He used the ball diamond as an example of the availability of 50% funding if the land were to be purchased.

Proposed projects must be part of the County Comprehensive Outdoor Plan. Scott is part of that plan. The grant year ends annually on May 1st and only one grant, if any at all, is allowed per municipality.

A request by Ray Gerlach to rezone from A-1 to A-6, allowing him to construct a house on one acre was denied. The planning commission had recommended the denial, reasoning that a one acre lot should not be "skinned off" of a 60 acre parcel.

Gerlach was awarded a conditional use permit which will allow construction of a house on a 68 acre A-1 parcel located in the N 1/2 of the NE 1/4 of Section 8. The planning commission recommended a zoning change of A-1 to A-6 for James Gerlach on a 2.7 acre parcel located in the SW 1/4 of Section 8, because it meets the criteria of the zoning ordinance.

The lot is on a steep hill on a corner lot. The board agreed and granted the zoning change. A certified survey map was also approved. A request for a conditional use to establish a gravel pit on property owned by David Stange, State Highway 28 was tabled.

The Town of Scott is joining other municipalities in the county to develop a comprehensive plan. Guidance is being given by the county resource agent, David Such.

A committee has been formed and titled, "Town of Scott Future Directional Committee." Committee members will meet again on March 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the Scott Town Hall.

A highway committee meeting is scheduled for April 3 for the purpose of putting together specifications for the summer blacktopping program and to draw up a job description for highway employees. Current highway employee Leroy Gnacinski will be retiring on September 1.

Obituaries

RUTH O. KANIESS

Mrs. Ruth O. Kaniess, age 91, of Kewaskum, passed away on Saturday, March 1, 1997, at her son's home in Appleton.

She was born on October 10, 1905 in Milwaukee, the daughter of the late William and Laura (Gutwald) Orloff and on July 28, 1928 she was united in marriage to Rev. Gerhard Kaniess at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Milwaukee. Her husband preceded her in death on July 6, 1979.

Mrs. Kaniess was a member of St. Lucas Evangelical Lutheran Church in Kewaskum and it's Ladies Aide. She was a 1927 graduate of the Wisconsin Conservatory of Music and taught at Nazareth-Bethel Lutheran in Milwaukee for 4 1/2 years.

Survivors include a son, Gerhard (Ruth) Kaniess, Jr. of Appleton; three daughters, Jeanette Cudnohoske and Judith (Roger) Groeschel, both of Kewaskum, and Irene (Dr. Daniel) Thearle of Neenah; 14 grandchildren; 22 greatgrandchildren, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Vanessa Hansen; a son-in-law, Wallace Cudnohoske and a great-grandson, Peter Schleif.

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. on Tuesday, March 4, at St. Lucas Evangelical Lutheran Church in Kewaskum with Rev. Timothy Henning officiating. Burial followed at Lutheran Memorial Park in Kewaskum.

Friends called from 1 p.m. until the time of services at the church only on Tuesday.

Memorials may be directed to St. Lucas Debt Fund.

The Miller Funeral Home in Kewaskum served the family.

MERVIN C. THOMPSON

Mervin Carl Thompson, 86, died at his home in Hot Springs, Montana, early in the morning on Monday, February 24.

He was born in Estherville, Iowa, on May 9, 1910, and left home as a young man to join the cavalry in Kansas.

He met Pearl Peterson on Valentine's Day in 1934 and the two celebrated 61 years of marriage last August. Merv served in the Army, Navy and Seabees during World War II and was a lifelong member of the VFW, the American Legion and the Forty et Eight.

Merv retired to a farm in Kewaskum after a lifetime of superintending big construction jobs throughout the Midwest. He was well known in Wisconsin for his involvement in local government and Legion activities.

An avid conservationist, he practiced water conservation, tree planting and pond maintenance. He loved growing exotic plants, vegetables, geese and chickens on his farm.

When he and Pearl moved to Montana nearly two years ago, his failing health did not keep him from planting 80 trees on a vacant lot next to their home. He wanted to be remembered as a man whose word meant something. He taught by example and seldom gave advice but when asked, he said the most important thing is to keep your own counsel and to keep a clear track. He was proud of his family, his country and his Norwegian heritage.

He is survived by his wife, Pearl, at home in Hot Springs; a daughter, Jo Rainbolt, also of Hot Springs; a son, Mervin Lyle Thompson of Bolinas, California; a daughter, Pat Cardarelle of Denver, Colorado; nine grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

The oldest of eight children, Merv is further survived by two sisters, Millie Hoffman of Kansas, and Arlene Simon of California and a brother, Leonard Thompson of Nevada. He was not only loved but admired by all of us. He will be missed.

A memorial service followed by a supper was held Saturday, March 1, at 5 p.m. in the Presbyterian Church in Hot Springs with a military burial at 1:30 p.m. held the following day at Lone Pine Cemetery. Family members came from coast to coast, Florida to California, for Merv's Montana funeral.

Please plant a tree this spring in Merv's memory.

Preceding her in death was a sister, Patricia Lemke.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, West Bend. Rev. Jennifer Johnston presided, and entombment was Wednesday at 10 a.m. at Washington County Memorial Park.

Visitation at the church only was Tuesday from 4 p.m. until the time of services.

The Schmidt Funeral Home, West Bend served the family.

Nutty Twists Take Top Honors

Individual sour cream twists with a rich maple pecan filling were judged the best sour cream quick bread recipe in the nation from more than 1,000 state fair entries. A sophisticated version of bread sticks, the twists are quick to make, impressive to serve and very delicious to eat.

The grand prize recipe was created by Alan Reid of Detroit, Michigan. Alan entered contests for 20 years, winning hundreds of ribbons before perfecting his first national award winning recipe, Maple Pecan Twists.

Alan's first win in the LAND O LAKES® Sour Cream Quick Bread contest was at the Michigan State Fair where his first place title earned him $100 and a ribbon, apron and award certificate. His recipe was then judged at the national level against more than 40 other state fair winners. His national grand prize was $500 cash plus a one year supply of dairy products.

Alan's recipe is featured here for you to try. Serve these tender, delicious twists for breakfast, tea, dessert or anytime.

New Framework Yields Successful Sturgeon Spearing This Season

OSHKOSH-- A new framework for the sturgeon spearing season on Lake Winnebago was successful at reducing the harvest of larger, mature females, while still providing plenty of spearing opportunity, according to the state fisheries manager charged with overseeing the event.

"The season went really well, both from the spearer's viewpoint and from a management viewpoint," says Ron Bruch, Department of Natural Resources fisheries manager for the Lake Winnebago system.

Preliminary numbers show spearers took 1,290 sturgeon in 1997.

"That is very close to what we would consider a 10-year average," Bruch says. "The harvest was high enough to keep spearers happy, but low enough to keep us within the goals we had set for a safe harvest for the species."

Most encouraging from a sturgeon management perspective, Bruch says, was that the harvest of mature females -- defined as 55 inches and larger -- dropped to 35 percent of the total harvest this season, compared to previous seasons when mature females made up almost half of the harvest, as they did in 1995 when spearers registered an all-time record of 3,173 sturgeons.

"The best news about the new season framework from a management standpoint is that we achieved one of the main goals of reducing the harvest of mature females by reducing the minimum size limit," Bruch says.

The DNR reduced the minimum size limit from 45

Hospital Offers Sibling Class

Children who will soon have a new baby brother or sister are invited to participate with their parents in the "I'm Getting a New Baby" sibling class sponsored by St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend. The class will be held Thursdays, March 6 or 13 from, from 6 to 8 p.m. in the hospital's meeting room three.

Designed for children between the ages of 2 1/2 and 10, the class includes a video presentation, a tour of the New Life Center and activities to help a child express his or her feelings about the birth of a new baby and mother's hospitalization. Children also learn age-appropriate skills they can use to help parents care for the baby.

The fee is $5 per child. Pre-registration is needed. For more information, please call St. Joseph's Community Hospital's New Life Center at 334-8361.

inches to 36 inches this year to alleviate harvest pressure on the biggest fish, which are primarily female spawners. The season length was also set at 16 days, rather than 21 days as it had been in the past. The 1996 season was closed by an emergency order after nine days when fish managers became concerned about the potential for overharvest due to exceptional water clarity that year.

Spearers took a total of 1,221 sturgeon during that nine-day season, which included a spearing season on three other lakes in the Winnebago chain that is held once every five years.

Water clarity was good again this year, and with the exception of a couple days late in the season, spearers generally had good weather for the season.

The new season framework and size limit this year was part of an ongoing effort to develop and implement a safe harvest management program for the Winnebago sturgeon population, which is one of the best sturgeon populations in the country, Bruch says.

"We put the new season framework together with a lot of participation from the public, including our Citizens' Sturgeon Advisory Committee," he says. "We will begin meeting with the committee and the general public again this spring to review the specific results of the 1997 season, and complete our work on the safe harvest management program."

One of the secrets of life is to make stepping stones out of stumbling blocks.

KHS 30-Hour Club Students Sport New T-Shirts

Over 60 Kewaskum High School students are putting in their own time for physical activity. As part of a successful, continuing KHS program, students are challenged to join the KHS Physical Education 30-Hour Club, in which students need to put in at least 30 extra hours of school-supervised physical activity in a semester (PE classes and team and other practices do not count towards the total).

Those meeting the challenge, not only get a t-shirt (designed by KHS student Brooke Waala), they also get the benefit of increasing the level of their physical activity.

Lenten Services At Salem Church

Salem United Church of Christ cordially invite their neighbors in the Kewaskum, Kohlsville, Campbellsport and surrounding area of Wayne to join them in their Lenten Services on Wednesday evenings at 7:30

As they take the spiritual pilgrimage from Ash Wednesday to Easter, each service will focus on a specific symbol reflecting the experiences of Jesus during His major Passion.

Because you will be spiritually enriched, church members invite you to join them. During Holy Week the Monday Thursday Communion Service will be held at 7:30 p.m. and the Good Friday Service will be held at 1 p.m.

Salem Church is located at the intersection of Highways W and H. Remember, you are always welcome at Salem Church in Wayne!

nity Hospital of West Bend is holding a breast-feeding support group meeting Monday, March 10, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., or Wednesday, March 12, from 1 to 3 p.m. in the hospital's

HT Boys Basketball Team Are Conference Champs

The Holy Trinity seventh and eighth grade boys' basketball team of Kewaskum has compiled a record of 17-4 for the 1996-97 season. The Wildcats finished first in the West Bend Early Bird Tournament and second in the St. John's Lutheran Tournament. They were crowned conference champions with a perfect 10-0 mark and have a current 23 game conference winning streak intact. Holy Trinity has won 37 out of 40 conference games over the last four years. The boys conclude their season this weekend in the prestigious Padre Sierra Tournament at the Milwaukee Buck's practice facility in the Cousin's Center in St. Francis. The team, pictured above includes: front row, left to right - Josh Repovsch, Nick Thorn, Ty Wietor, John Neumann, Scott Herman, Anthony Laatsch, and Bryan Kraft. Back row: Coach Tom Timblin, Mark Schrauth, Mitch Strobel, Tim Branta, Jacob Stoffel, Paul Mertz, Luke Piwoni, Jon Boedeker and Assistant Coach Dan Rieder.

Daggett Named Top MVC Athlete

NORMAL, ILL -- Random Lake native Sue Daggett, a senior distance runner on the Illinois State track team, was named the Missouri Valley Conference Track Athlete of the Year after winning the mile, 3,000 and 5,000-meter runs at the MVC Indoor Championships, held Feb. 21 and 22.

After breezing to an 18-second victory Friday night in the 5,000 meters with a time of 17 minutes, 35.73 seconds, Daggett came back Saturday afternoon to win the mile in 4:51.07, edging Indiana State's Angie Menser by .54 seconds. She picked up an 8-second victory in the 3,000 two hours after winning the mile with a time of 9:58.70.

Daggett, the league's premier distance runner, has now won 11 conference track titles during her career to go along with a pair of cross country crowns. A cross country all-American last fall, Daggett has provisionally qualified for the NCAA Champion-ships in both the 3,000 and 5,000 meters with league-leading times.

Sue qualified for the national, to be held at the DOME in Indianapolis, IN, Friday,

McChain Bowls 300 Game

Ruth McChain

Former Kewaskum resident Ruth McChain credits her recent 300 bowling game in league play to her father, Gordon, and the fact that she was wearing her Green Bay Packers jersey on the night it happened.

On Feb. 5th, in the Rollingettes League at Harmon Lanes in Sioux City, Iowa, McChain became the first woman in the 64-year history of the City's Women's Bowling Association to bowl a perfect game in league play.

It began during her second game (her first was a 186), she starting stringing strikes and didn't stop. McChain says she didn't get nervous until that first ball in the tenth frame. "On the second one, I got more nervous, and on the last ball, my hands and legs were shaking."

As a crowd began to gather, the only sound she remembers hearing was the voice of her friend and teammate, Cindy Hiatt, telling her to take a breath and keep going." That's what my Dad used to tell me, and that's what I tried to concentrate on - that and keeping up my ball speed."

McChain finished her three game series with a 656, admitting she was still thinking about that 300 during the final game, and just couldn't concentrate her out on a finger tip ball by the time she was twelve. She credits him for teaching her everything she knows about the game, and called him first to let him know the good news.

Bowling since the age of series of 686, she st seven, her Dad, Gordon started heart set on that 700.

Originally from Texas, the McChain family lived in several communities before retiring to West Bend 15 years ago. Ruth operated a tavern there until last fall, when she moved to Sioux City with her friend, Hiatt, who had grown up there. Ruth now works as a home health clinical technician at St. Luke's Medical Center.

Seven years ago, doctors told Ruth she would never bowl again, after Carpul Tunnel Syndrome and surgery left her with numbness in two fingers of her right hand. She took a year off from bowling, and was fitted with a special brace, but she would not accept the fact her bowling days were over. At one time, she had hoped to bowl on the pro tour.

She joined up with a league in Hartford, averaging in the 120's the first year. "I've come back, and now I carry a 198 average. I suppose it will go up now," she adds, with a chuckle. Since she's still adjusting to life in a new town, Ruth has limited herself to one league this season. With a high series of 686, she still has her heart set on that 700.

LOOK FOR THE BIG RED BARN

Northern Fishing Closed On the Winnebago System

A number of fishermen have contacted me asking if the northern pike season is still open on Lake Winnebago and the upper lakes, which would include Butte des Morts, Winneconne, and Poygan.

A rule change has closed the season which began on March 2, 1997. The 1997-98 fishing regulation pamphlet, now out, also shows this rule change, but indicates that it does not go into effect until April 1, 1997.

It is in effect now and fishermen are asked not to fish for northern pike on these waters. I, myself, have told some fishermen that the season is open, according to the pamphlet, until April 1, 1997.

Now, I have been told to advise fishermen that the season should be closed. Obviously, because of the confusion, wardens will be taking a soft-handed approach to persons still fishing for northern pike during the closed season, on these waters.

If you have any other questions on this topic, or any other, feel free to contact me.
