New Library Director Hired

Board Votes for No Parking Along Portion of Parade Route on July 12

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

A discussion regarding the possibility of limiting parking on Fond du Lac Avenue and Main Street during the Kewaskum Firemen-Legion parade on Sunday, July 13 opened the April 7th meeting of the Kewaskum Village Board.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt passed out a sketch of the area, depicting the number of parking spaces which would be lost along the route, adding, "There are some parking lots that some of the businesses have along there where parking has been allowed in the past and we would try to work with those people and help promote parking this year."

Trustee David Goeden asked, "Do we have a problem with the width of the road, as far as corners, or what?"

Schmidt answered, "No. It's basically for the vision. It's been asked for by a group of citizens, maybe three or four years ago, and at that time, the board rejected it and it came in again through requests made to the fire department and Legion."

Trustee Goeden suggested, "Another idea would be, because you have a lot of older people that sit right in their cars, maybe just allow parking on one side and then the chairs on the other side."

President Bob Wagner asked, "Didn't part of the discussion (during the Park and Rec meeting) entail offering permits for the handicapped and elderly that they could contact the village?"

Schmidt stated something could possibly be worked out on the village lot (former Sentry property) and the Engelhardt lot.

Trustee Gary Gavin added, "I think having no parking will help promote Kewaskum because then people are actually going to have to walk past what businesses we do have. It's going to give them a chance to maybe get out of their car and mingle with people instead of being isolated in their vehicle and then leave. At least they're going to have to walk and maybe even socialize."

Police Chief Richard Knoebel asked the board how they wanted to enforce the parking rules and it was decided the No Parking signs be put up the night before if necessary.

Trustee Bob Stoltzmann brought up another good reason for the parking limitations and that was the safety factor of children darting out from between parked cars. He added, "Make it a wider street so you don't have quite so much congestion. We (the firemen) do not allow the throwing of candy, but we do encourage the giving out of candy by people walking. And that rule is not always adhered to. The (parade) committee felt with the wider street, it would be easier for the people to walk along the parade route and hand out the candy."

Trustee John Kenworthy added another point, stating, "You can't even walk on the sidewalk half the time because you have 15 chairs sitting there, so you have to work your way through families doing that. I think it makes sense to do the whole thing."

Trustee Gavin made a motion to eliminate parking on Main Street, both sides, and Fond du Lac Avenue, both sides, as was indicated on the map passed out by the Administrator. To clarify, the map shows the elimination of 25 parking spaces on Fond du Lac Avenue from Second Street to Main Street, and 26 parking spaces on Main Street from Fond du Lac Avenue to Railroad Street.

The motion was seconded but more discussion followed, before the board got a chance to vote on the motion.

Trustee Goeden stated, "So on the widest road that we have, which is Fond du Lac Avenue, we're going to take parking away on both sides. The parade does go past Railroad Street down to Riverview and there we're not taking any parking away."

Trustee Stoltzmann explained, "That was the suggestion that was brought up at that committee meeting to give this a year's trial, this far, rather than take the whole Main Street, you take half of it the first year. If it works out as well as everybody feels it's going to, next year they're going to ask for the rest of it."

President Wagner commented, "I would like to see us work something out for anyone that is handicapped, disabled or the elderly where we could give them the privilege of at least getting the choice spots along a couple of parking lots that face the streets."

However, Wagner added, "Most people that are parked along the street in their cars are being very inconsiderate to most of the other people that want to come and watch the parade. For the most part, they don't really have to be parked along the street. There's a few elderly people... but the mentality of most people nowadays is if you can't do it in the car, you don't do it. They want drive-up hamburgers, drive-up marriages, drive-up banking... that I think it's being a little inconsiderate for the majority of the people when they take up sidewalk space and viewing space for a lot of the people that came to watch the

Appreciation Luncheon, Fashion Show April 23

Once again, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the 7th Annual Appreciation Luncheon and Fashion Show at Hon-E-Kor Country Club in Kewaskum on Wednesday, April 23 on Secretary's Day.

There will be two seatings with the first one scheduled from 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. and the second from 1 to 2:15 p.m.

Due to limited seating, the sooner you make your reservations the better. Seating preference will be honored based on the order in which paid reservations are received.

This year, Wendi Dreher, coordinator of the event, has some very interesting fashions to share with all who attend the luncheon.

The latest fashions in Western wear for men and women will be presented by West Bend Elevator. The J.C. Penney Store of West Bend will be the main source for that business style and comfort zone clothing. This year, Hon-E-

Kor will be featuring some of the latest golf attire available at the club house pro shop.

A special treat for men and women in attendance will be the designs of Harley Davidson apparel from the Van Beek Cycle Shop in West Bend.

So you see, the hour you and a friend, your boss or secretary, your mom, sister or brother spend at this year's Appreciation Luncheon will be well spent and one to remember.

The cost is $13 per person and includes a delicious salad, appetizing meal, beverage and dessert (tax and tip included). Door prizes will include certificates and gift items from area businesses. There will also be some special surprises available up for raffles.

For more information, call Wendi Dreher at 626-2428 or send your check/payment with reservations to: Wendi Dreher, P.O. Box 209, Kewaskum, WI 53040. Please be sure to state seating preferred and number of persons in your party.

Kettle Kountry Meeting, Monthly Chamber Meeting, Moved to Statesman Office

There will be a general meeting of the committee members of Kettle Kountry Kolers on Wednesday, April 16, at 6 p.m. at the Kewaskum Statesman office at 250 Main Street.

Not all committees have been filled at this point in time. Anyone who would like to become involved in the organization and planning process of this ever-growing festival is encouraged to please attend and become involved.

The monthly meeting of the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce will be held following the Kettle Kountry Kolers meeting at approximately 7 p.m. Those attending the Kettle Kountry meeting do not have to attend the Chamber meeting unless they choose to do so.

Due to a scheduling conflict, the Chamber of Commerce does not have access to their usual time slot in the Community Room on April 16. Therefore the meetings were moved to the Statesman office for this month only.

Trustee Goeden reiterated his position on allowing the parking on one side, to which Trustee Kenworthy added, "If you look at West Bend parades, they don't allow parking. The unobstructed view is nice. The area where people are going to be congested, that's the natural center of the parade. I think that's the area to open up both sides. Go ahead and do it on a trial basis and if we find we have problems, it's a one year thing and we can change it."

With there being no further discussion on the issue, the board proceeded to vote, 6-1, on the no parking stated in the motion. Trustee David Goeden was the lone dissenting vote.

In other matters, the board gave authorization to Police Chief Richard Knoebel to begin the process of hiring a new police clerk to replace the part-time clerk who resigned to seek a full-time position, and also authorized Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles to prepare specs and advertise for bids for the construction of a salt shed.

District Administrator Schmidt reminded board members that the assessor's Open Book is scheduled for Tuesday, April 15, from 1:30 to 6:30 p.m. and the Board of Review is set for Monday, May 12, from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Representative to the Library Board, Trustee John Kenworthy, asked the board for authorization to hire Ms. Shellie A. Anderson of Milwaukee as the new Kewaskum Library Director.

Library Board Chairperson Clark Pearson commented, "(Ms. Anderson) is a real strong candidate and we're pretty happy to get her because it's very difficult to get candidates because it is a part-time job." Pearson added, "The Library Board may sometime down the road, recommend to the village board that they may want to increase it to a full-time position but this is not why we're hiring her at all."

Kenworthy stated, "There were others who indicated they wanted it full-time down the line, and we weeded them out immediately because we couldn't offer them that."

Pearson added, "We had 13 applicants. We set up seven interviews. One couldn't make it, so we interviewed six people and this is the one we chose."

Kenworthy also said, "They all knew the hours; they all knew the pay rate. I think that says something about Kewaskum and what are people's perceptions of us. They want to come here to work."

Trustee Goeden again brought up discussion on saving tax dollars by combining the school library and the village library.

Kenworthy gave his opinion, stating, "If you're talking about putting the community library on school property you're killing the community library. It will only be perceived as a really cool school library. If you have a separate unit where you have a joint school library-community library, it might be an ideal thing but it won't be accessible to the schools then. It'll be separate from the school building. They're just different animals. Right now, part of our funds come from Washington County. A lot of those folks aren't going to go into a school to get their books. Here we have a community library that folks can go into and use and we get funding for that."

Following further discussion, the board voted unanimously to hire Ms. Anderson. Trustee Kenworthy also brought up for discussion the possibility of installing a used 24-hour book drop for the library. According to a survey, this was the most requested item by library patrons. The board agreed the proposed $150 expenditure for the used book drop would be worth it to use on a trial basis before spending money on a new one.

Library Board member Frank Beesten added the unit could always be resold if it did not work out for some reason.

President Wagner thanked the Library Board for all their time, effort, work, and dedication, stating, "I deeply appreciate the work the Library Board has done and I imagine the rest of the board feels the same." He also asked the Administrator to draft a letter to the Library Board stating the same.

Under unfinished business, the board unanimously approved the installation and adjustment of street lights on Edgewood Road between Knights Avenue and Forest Avenue and the discussion was held on future relief sewer installation adjacent to the railroad tracks.

Under new business, low bids were approved from Payne and Dolan for $39,120 for resurface/overlay asphalt work for 1997 and to Gitter Construction for $11,400 to remodel the main lift station.

The board also designated April 26 Spring Cleanup Saturday in the Village from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Trustee Stoltzmann said, "It must be working. I already got two phone calls asking when it's going to be."

President Wagner concluded the meeting by thanking outgoing senior Board Member David Goeden, who chose not to run for re-election. Wagner stated, "It's good to have people like you in the village that serve their community the way they do." Goeden interjected, "And actually have a difference of opinion once in awhile."

Goeden received a round of applause for his dedication to the community, serving on the Village Board for the past four years. He is officially a member of the board until April 15 when he will be replaced by newcomer Andrew Pesch, who was in attendance and was also introduced by President Wagner.

Where There's Smoke... There's FIRE!

Smoke billows out the kitchen window as a result of an overheated toaster which caught fire in a fire training exercise on Saturday, April 5th. The event was coordinated by the Washington County Fire Investigators Association Training Committee, the U.S. Department of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, and the Criminal Investigation Division of the State Department of Justice at the home of Sue and Bill Kohlwey in the Town of Farmington. The Kohlweys have built a new home and offered this building for fire training.

Approximately 70 firefighters attended from Allenton, Boltonville, Fillmore, Hartford, Jackson, Kewaskum, Kohlsville, Newburg, Slinger and West Bend departments, as well as representatives from the Washington County Sheriff's Department and West Bend Police Department.

Four different fires were set using different combustibles. Special cameras were mounted inside the home which projected on TVs in a nearby garage what was happening in a room. Heat sensors were also mounted in the room where temperatures were recorded at four different levels: floor, ceiling and two in between.

The first fire was in the family room where a trail of newspapers was set on fire to simulate an arson. After 4 1/2 minutes, the temperature at ceiling level registered 994 degrees! The heat sensor data will be used for statistical reports while the camera action recorded on videos will be used in fire training.

Another fire was in a bedroom where a lighted cigarette was carelessly thrown away in a wastebasket and the final blaze took place in the attic where papers were accidentally lit on a couch.

After the fires were extinguished, firefighters and investigators walked through the rooms to view the extent of damage, find evidence and determine the causes of ordinary home fires.

The Boltonville Fire Department will burn down the house in another training exercise later in April.

Donations for Fireworks Deadline Nears

Shown above is a photo of one of last year's grand finale boxes. These are the ultimate aerial fireworks that give you the "goosebumps" with a myriad of brilliant colors and shapes exploding in all different directions almost simultaneously. The only drawback to these breathtaking explosions is their price tag. Naturally, because they contain more shells, they cost more money. If you would like to see more of the grand finale boxes bursting mid-air on July 3, won't you please consider making a small donation towards the annual fireworks extravaganza? We don't all have to contribute a large amount of money, but if we ALL contribute a little, collectively, we can really make a difference in the show that will be displayed for our enjoyment. Up to this point only 29 people and businesses have contributed. What percentage of our population is that? Not too many. Are there only 29 people in this community that care enough to see this annual celebration enlarged for all our enjoyment? The deadline to contribute is approaching next week. Won't you please fill out the coupon on page 11 and send in your donation towards something that brings smiles to the faces of so many? Thanks to recent contributors: Amanda and Matt Smolinski, Anonymous, Mike and Judy Berger, Miller's Furniture, Jerry and Patty Marx, Dr. John and Renee Lawrence, Ivan and Byrdell Schulz, Butch Gengler, Kettle Moraine Electric, Michael and Jill Semerad, Rain Dance Car Wash, Robert and Joan Succa and Deborah Goodsell.

Strengthening Stepfamilies Reassures Washington County Stepparents

The potential rewards -- and -- challenges of stepparenting will be the focus of a three week series of discussion sessions beginning Monday, April 14 from 6:15 to 8:15 p.m. The program is sponsored by The Family Center of Washington County.

The discussion will be based on Strengthening Stepfamilies, by Linda Albert, syndicated columnist and author of the Coping with Kids parenting books, and Elizabeth Einstein, stepfamily expert and author of nationally acclaimed The Stepfamily: Living, Loving, and Learning.

With Strengthening Stepfamilies, Albert and Einstein have combined their expertise to produce a program that helps stepfamilies build the rewarding family lives they want so badly. Among the topics discussed:

- * the myth of instant love
- * the difficulties children face in sharing a parent and acquiring new stepsiblings
- * how to recognize and overcome unrealistic or incompatible expectations about new stepfamily relationships
- * the discipline dilemma

Stepparents will begin developing communication and listening skill, a process for resolving conflicts and making decisions, a way to structure family meeting, and methods for building new family traditions.

An important feature of the course is the support participants receive from one another. As one stepparent says, Just learning that my secret worries are okay was invaluable. Or another -- This was great! I realize even with all our uniqueness we have problems that are normal.

In addition to the reassurance stepparents receive at group sessions, they learn how others have dealt with difficulties they are now facing. These experiences help them work out similar issues in their own families.

The program also provides at home activities where the entire stepfamily gathers to get to know each other better, to listen to needs and feelings, and perhaps most importantly, to just have fun. As another participant reports, "Strengthening Stepfamilies taught me how to know my family..."

For more information about Strengthening Stepfamilies contact The Family Center of Washington County at 338-9461.

Parkinson Support Group to Meet

A guest speaker from the Community Arts Center will discuss art therapy for people with disabilities.

The Parkinson Support Group meets the third Monday of each month. All those affected by Parkinson's Disease, their family, friends and caregivers are welcome to attend. Long Term Caregiving Program Set for April 16

Nearly everyone has been touched by a friend or relative who has suffered from a long-term illness such as cancer, Alzheimers or AIDS. Millions of Americans each year are caregivers for those dealing with prolonged illness.

Family members, friends, hospice staff, health care professionals, social workers, teachers, members of the clergy, funeral directors and others working with persons with long-term illness and their families are invited to a national video satellite program, "Living With Grief: When Illness is Prolonged," April 16 from 12 to 3 p.m. at the Public Agency Building, 333 East Washington Street in West Bend.

Co-sponsors are the Association for Death Education and Counseling, the American Medical Association, Project on Death in America, and the Washington County Health Nursing Association and the Washington County UW-Extension.

Most locations will include a discussion after the program. "The program is designed to help professionals and families in mourning deal with the complex set of emotions and circumstances occurring when a loved one has a long-term illness," said Faith Lerner, director of bereavement services at Dane County's Hospice Care.

Experts from around the country participating in the program include: Betty Davies, Ph.D., professor of nursing at University of British Columbia; Kenneth Doka, Ph.D., Lutheran minister and professor of gerontology at the College of New Rochelle; Dr. William Lamers, Jr., a founder of the American Hospice Movement; Therese A. Rando, Ph.D., clinical psychologist and executive director of the Institute for the Study and Treatment of Loss.

The program will be hosted by Cokie Roberts of ABC News, and will include interactive call-in segments to the panel.

Participants will discuss how grief is defined and how specific losses influence individuals' experiences of grief; factors complicating the grief process when illness is prolonged; end-of-life decisions and caregiving during different stages of illness; sources of assistance when anticipating death and after death; self-care for caregivers; how caregiving changes over time, especially when the caregiving period stretches from months into years.

For more information, or to register, contact Joyce Albrecht at 335-4479. Cost for registration is $6. Pre-registration is requested.

Controlled Burns Proposed To Improve Wildlife Habitat

MILWAUKEE -- The Department of Natural Resources is proposing to conduct controlled burns this spring in Washington, Ozaukee and eastern Dodge counties.

The parcels are located on the Theresa, Allenton and Jackson Wildlife Areas and include scattered parcels on private lands. Parcels range in size from one to 200 acres.

Controlled burns, also known as prescribed burns, are conducted to increase plant diversity and improve grasslands. A primary goal is to improve nesting habitat for grassland bird species such as mallards, blue-winged teal, pheasants, bobolinks, dickcissels and grasshopper sparrows.

This type of project typically does not have the potential to cause significant adverse environmental impacts; therefore, the DNR has made a preliminary determination that an environmental assessment is not required for this project.

The proposal may be reviewed at the DNR Pike Lake office located at 3544 Kettle Moraine Road, Hartford. Public comments on the proposed projects are welcomed and should be received no later than April 15, 1997. Please direct comments to DNR Wildlife Biologist, Tom Isaac or DNR Wildlife Technician, Edward Eilert at (414) 670-3409.

Women's Health Survey

The Public Health Nurses at the Washington County Community Health Nursing Service with the assistance of senior nursing students from Marian College will be conducting a phone survey of women over 50 years old in the month of April. The purpose of the survey is to better understand the health habits and beliefs of local women.

Healthcare is changing. High costs and fewer resources have forced healthcare providers to look for new ways to ensure quality care while keeping costs low. One way to do this is through increased collaboration with other agencies with similar goals.

The Wisconsin Women's Cancer Control Program (WWCCP) is an example of multi-organizational collaboration going on in Washington County and all over the state. Public Health Nurse, Shari Winter, is the local coordinator and is also organizing the Women's Health Survey. Information from the survey will be used to plan and organize better health care for all women in Washington County.

The Healthy Washington County 2001 Assessment completed recently reported that cancer is the primary cause of death in females aged 45-64 and the second leading cause of mortality in women over age 65. Insights into the health habits and beliefs of local women will assist in planning and delivery of care to all women.

The WWCCP also provides resources to cover the costs of mammograms and Pap tests to screen for breast and cervical cancer for women who are 50 or older, income eligible, and have no health insurance. Women who think they might be eligible should contact the Health Department at 335-4462.

Weekly Meeting of Separated, Divorced

The Washington County separated and divorced support group for men and women meets weekly every Friday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Sacred Heart Church in Allenton.

Their purpose is to provide a means to share ideas, concerns, support, fellowship and love from a Christian perspective. There are guest speakers, panel discussions, small group sharing and other activities.

The group is open to singles, widows and widowers. Many of the topics pertain to single parents and other individuals rebuilding their lives and relationships.

The group depends on donations at the meetings to pay for speakers and other expenses.

"New Horizons" with Julie Porter will be the featured topic at the April 11th meeting.

The meeting on April 18 will feature the topic, "How Does Your Garden Grow" with Sr. Caroline Sullivan, The Bridge Between... Dominican Retreat Center.

Red Cross In Need of Funds

The local chapter of the American Red Cross assisted over 3,850 people in our area during 1996. The chapter includes the Villages of Jackson and Kewaskum and the Towns of Barton, Farmington, Jackson, Kewaskum, Trenton, Wayne and West Bend, and the City of West Bend.

In 1996, the chapter conducted approximately 70 classes in First Aid and CPR. It conducted 363 water safety classes. It provided disaster assistance to 13 area families, primarily due to fires. The chapter also assisted 41 area families in conjunction with Service to Military needs.

During 1996, the chapter also transported numerous individuals for vital medical treatments in southeastern Wisconsin. During a period of one month, the Red Cross vehicles log approximately 9,000 miles.

Now the chapter is conducting a fundraising campaign, so that it can continue to meet these needs. Funds are especially needed to replace vehicles used for medical transportation. At present, four of the six chapter vehicles have over 132,000 miles on them. Drivers are also urgently needed, as well as volunteers to assist in the other programs.

To donate financially or to become a needed volunteer, please contact the Red Cross Office at 2410-B S. Main Street, West Bend, WI or call 334-5687.

New Executive Director of Moraine Symphony Orchestra

Kathy Keehn

Moraine Symphony Orchestra, Inc. (MSO) is pleased to announce that Kathy Keehn is the new Executive Director. Ms. Keehn will be responsible for carrying out the non-musical aspects of the Symphony, which include generating and implementing ideas to further enhance the public's appreciation and understanding of music as performed by the MSO in the Kettle Moraine Area.

The Moraine Symphony Orchestra began as a community orchestra in 1968 sponsored by the University of Wisconsin, Washington County. In 1987 the conductor, Albert "Bud" Asch moved the orchestra forward; from amateur to semi-professional status. At that time, the orchestra was incorporated as a not-for-profit corporation with an active board of directors. The orchestra currently has approximately 60 members. Their season consists of six concerts.

Long active in community affairs, Ms. Keehn feels it is a privilege to represent the Moraine Symphony Orchestra in such an important capacity. "I look forward to working with this dedicated and talented group of people. It is vital that we, as a community, keep the performing arts alive for future generations."

The toys will be distributed to the community shelters during April. 4C would like to continue doing a drive each year during Week of the Young Child. Call 4C kids line to find out how you can participate.

Walnut St., Milwaukee (933-1300); Family Service, 414 W. Moorland Blvd., Waukesha (547-5567), and Ozaukee Friends for Victims of Abuse, Grafton Manpower (375-0215).

Pamperin Rotary Student Ambassador To Netherlands

West Bend Sunrise Rotary Club is pleased to announce that Jill Pamperin, daughter of Lloyd and Amy Pamperin, Allenton, has been selected as a 1997-98 District 6270 Rotary International student ambassador to the Netherlands.

Jill knew when she entered high school that she desired a youth exchange experience and planned her high school schedule to accommodate a year abroad and yet graduate in four years. She intends to pursue a post-high school education in engineering. If she could combine a career in animal care and engineering, that would be her ideal life's vocation.

Jill is her family's photographer for all special and regular occasions. She especially likes to shoot landscape photos while she's hiking with her family. In addition to photography, Jill spends a fair amount of time practicing a number of brass instruments and has participated in district solo and ensemble contests in the past few years.

As a Rotary American student ambassador to the Netherlands, Jill is looking forward to spending a year overseas. She has prepared for possible speaking opportunities during her year abroad by participating in the debate club and taking speech class at Kewaskum High School where she is currently a sophomore. She has also taken German to lay the groundwork for living within a foreign language culture. West Bend Sunrise Rotary Club is proud to sponsor Jill Pamperin as a well-prepared student ambassador to the Netherlands.

Anyone interested in the Rotary International student exchange program is encouraged to contact the local Outbound Coordinator, Chris Schellinger, at 644-0052.

Farmington Sesquicentennial Tree Search Begins

A qualifying Sesquicentennial Oak Tree has been located and identified in the Town of Farmington at Shalom Wildlife Sanctuary owned by David and Lana Fechter. Based on a ring count of another tree that was recently felled, this tree is approximately 400 years old. Measured at 4 1/2 feet above ground level, the circumference of the tree was nine feet, eight and 1/2 inches. Master Gardener Diana Susen, left, verified the qualifying tree with her daughter, Jenni, Buckley Fechter and his father, David.

By Louise Martin

The Town of Farmington Sesquicentennial Committee continues to plan and participate in a variety of activities in recognition of the town's 150th birthday.

Wednesday, April 9th was the kick-off day for the Sesquicentennial Tree Search and is an activity in which many town residents can easily become involved. Incredible as it seems, there are trees still alive and growing in the town that were here when the township was established in 1847. The Farmington Sesquicentennial Committee would like to identify and document the location of these trees.

According to Barbara Schulz Kluever, a Farmington Master Gardener, oak trees that have a circumference of at least 96 inches (eight feet) measured at 4 1/2 feet above the ground level could qualify as a "sesquicentennial" tree.

Oak trees that qualify will be featured in a pictorial display and a commemorative certificate will be awarded at the Memorial Day celebration planned for Monday, May 26, at Turner Hall in Fillmore.

If you have an oak tree or trees you believe qualifies, please call Barbara Schulz Kluever at 692-2176 by May 15, 1997. Volunteer Master Gardeners will verify the type and size of qualifying trees.

In recognition of Arbor Day and Farmington's Sesquicentennial, Master Gardeners will present an Arbor Day program to the Farmington Elementary School students on Tuesday, April 22. The featured guest speaker will be Julie Peltier, an Environmental Educator with the Department of Natural Resources, who will explain to the students why trees are important to us.

Following Ms. Peltier's presentation, Master Gardeners, Barbara Schulz Kluever, Judy Steinert, and Diana Susen will explain the Farmington Sesquicentennial Tree Search and provide students with details in searching for qualifying trees.

The Arbor Day program will be presented at 9 a.m. and repeated at 9:50 a.m. and is open to the public.

Sesquicentennial Committee members welcome anyone who is interested in becoming involved with the celebration. The committee meets on Monday evenings at Farmington Elementary School at 6:30 p.m. For more information, please contact Mrs. Lisa Lickel at 692-2135.

Of the $40,000 fund drive goal, approximately one-third of that amount has been received. Donations are urgently needed. Tax-deductible contributions can be mailed to the Red Cross office at 2310-B South Main Street, West Bend, WI 53095.

For further information or to become a needed volunteer, please call the office at 334-5687.

In preparation for this national event, the Family Center of Washington County is offering a workshop for parents, "Unplugging the TV," on April 15. Discussions will be held on the good reasons for families to consider participating and how to do it.

April Showers Bring May Flowers

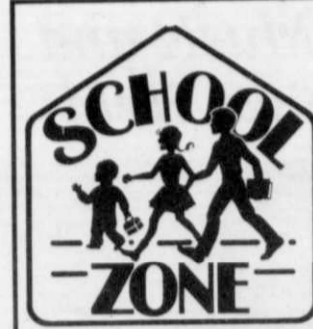

by A.M.I.

...And if you think that not to be a truism, take a little walk in the woods and sure as the sun is beginning to warm up this old earth of ours, you'll find these delicate blue-white blossoms hither and yon! Better known as the hepatica...they share the woods with the lovely lily-white trillium and royal purple violets. Also, if you are a brave "try anything" type of nature lover, I suggest you pick a few of both the May flower and violet and eat them, stem and all.

I trust you will experience a fine and pleasant surprise for both taste exactly like freshly picked peas removed from the pod. Frequently the mandrake plant or May Apple as commonly known also is neighbor to these lovely wild flowers. I warn you not to eat the blossom or leaves of these interesting, umbrella-like plants. However, their fruit, the May Apple when ripened to a delicate yellow is edible and they always feel almost banana-like in taste and texture.

Indeed, nature offers all of us many pleasant surprises and blessings if we but take the time to do a bit of investigating. I will never forget the time a friend and I rode the ranges of Montana for three days...never happening on a person or lived in house! However, there was an abundance of cattle, antelope, and sage hen. Having run out of food, we foolishly caught a sage hen and roasted it over a campfire. To our chagrin, one bit of the delectable looking roasted bird caused us to HATE SAGE from thereon in the rest of our lives. We settled for rattle snake steaks fire-fried and learned a tender food lesson never, ever to try to consume the Montana sage hen...or rooster, for that matter!

These weeks of spring offer all of us the once a year privilege of enjoying the Lord's natural created flower gardens of the earth...for no human has planted nor cultivated these spectacularly colorful beauties. Treat yourself to a time of

PRAYER OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven. Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my Mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days and then you must publish and it will be granted to you.

Goeden Ready for IRA Racing Opener

Don Goeden

Don Goeden of Kewaskum is ready for the racing opener at the Hales Corners Speedway on Saturday, April 19.

All of the regular IRA drivers, such as 1996 Champion Joe Roe, Bob Robel of Oconomowoc, and Jim Melis of Plymouth, will be there to officially start the sprint car racing season in this area.

On Sunday, May 4, Gary Shleffer will host the Second Annual World of Outlaws Special, starting at noon. This event will feature the stars of the WOO, the Kinsers, Swindels and all the IRA competitors who support the Beaver Dam

Raceway on a regular basis.

The drivers and their crews are ready to give the race fans who have that "racing fever" a good dose of excitement.

Last year Goeden finished fourth in the IRA point standings and hopes to improve this season with his 1996 J & J Chassis from McKinsey, Tennessee and powered by a LAM engine. In his second full season with the IRA circuit, Don won two main feature events and one clean sweep. (Clean Sweep = fast time, winner of the ten lap heat and the 25 lap feature event.)

Annual Fish and Game Rules Hearing Set

MILWAUKEE...Wisconsin residents have an opportunity to vote on proposed fish and wildlife management rule changes at the annual spring conservation hearing on Monday, April 14 beginning at 7 p.m.

The Department of Natural Resources holds the hearings in conjunction with the Wisconsin Conservation Congress in each county across the state. Highlighting this year's agenda are proposals to establish in 1998 a uniform 14 inch minimum length for largemouth and smallmouth bass on most inland waters, and combine the daily bag limit for both bass species from five of each to five in total on all inland waters. There is also a proposal to expand the area closed to coyote hunting during the firearm deer season. The purpose is to protect timber wolves which are slowly moving southward into the state's central forest region.

Local proposals include changes on Waukesha County's Lac La Belle and Oconomowoc Lake. On Lac La Belle, the proposal would reduce the minimum length limit for walleye from 20 inches to 18 inches and increase the daily bag limit from one to three. The purpose is to bring walleye regulations on this lake into compliance with current policy for low density walleye populations. Because of heavy fishing pressure on Oconomowoc Lake, the proposal calls for an increase in the minimum length from 15 inches to 18 inches for walleye and reducing the daily bag limit from five to three.

There are two proposals that would affect the Loew Lake Unit of the Kettle Moraine State Forest in Washington County. One proposal would create a turkey hunting zone for disabled hunters in the spring and fall seasons. The purpose of this measure is to create a disabled hunters only turkey zone (25A) to expand high quality hunting for disabled individuals. The other would allow muzzleloader hunting by permit only for deer during the regular nine-day gun deer season and the seven-day muzzleloader season. Currently, hunting is not allowed in the Loew Lake Unit. Allowing muzzleloader hunting will address serious deer damage concerns and provide a quality hunting experience consistent with the Master Plan approved for the property.

Following is the location, by county, of the hearings in southeastern Wisconsin:

Kenosha -- Kenosha County Center, Hearing Room, 19600 75 Street, Bristol.

Milwaukee -- Hamilton High School, 6215 W. Warmimont Ave., Milwaukee.

Ozaukee -- American Legion Hall, 435 N. Lake Street, Port Washington

Racine -- Union Grove High School Gym, 3433 S. Colony Avenue, Union Grove.

Sheboygan -- Sheboygan Falls High School, 220 Amherst Avenue, Sheboygan Falls.

Walworth -- National Guard Armory, 401 E. Fair Street, Elkhorn.

Washington -- UW-Washington County Campus,

Room 201, West Bend.

Waukesha -- Waukesha County Expo Center, North Hall, N1 W24848 Northview Road, Waukesha.

Safe Homes Needed

The Kewaskum Booster Club sponsored another very successful Three-On-Three Basketball Tournament on Saturday, April 5, at Kewaskum High School and Middle School.

There were as many as 12 games going on simultaneously, so it was very exciting. The teams were all very competitive but it is hoped everyone had fun participating.

In the mens 18 and over division, it came down to an exciting double championship match with "Phoenix" winning for the second year in a row.

The Booster Club welcomed 72 teams this year from Kewaskum, West Bend, Slinger, Random Lake, Eden, Campbellsport, Ripon and Antigo and it is hoped everyone will return again next year.

The Booster Club would like to thank the three co-chairmen, Terry Cartwright, John Meisser and Rollie Maul. They would also like to thank the many volunteers who pitched in as referees, timekeepers and helped with the registration.

A good deal of appreciation goes out to co-sponsors Bank Wisconsin, Gruber Tool and Die and Paul's Mobil. The proceeds from this event will go into the Athletic Fund for the Booster Club and will benefit Kewaskum High School.
