Board Unanimously Approves Coaching Appointment Timblin Reverses His Decision To Resign from School Board

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Stating that he was, "not a quitter," school board member Tom Timblin reversed his decision to resign from his seat on the board, and announced he would take on the dual role of elected official and newly appointed boys varsity basketball coach at Kewaskum High School.

Timblin had previously declared in an interview for the coaching position that he would resign from the board if chosen, to avoid any potential conflict of interest.

"I apologize to the interview team," he said at Monday night's board meeting during a heartfelt speech in which he announced his intentions to remain on the board, after counseling from the district's attorney, Mike Spector, and district administrator Dr. Charles Johnson.

"I made this decision just about three hours ago," he confirmed, after he was flooded by phone calls from constituents asking him to retain his board position.

Timblin, who has some previous experience coaching Holy Trinity School's seventh and eighth grade basketball team and a summer basketball league, has never coached a high school team, but feels confident he can help the high school basketball program, which, in his view, has been troubled by lack of spirit. "I want to help the basketball program like we helped the school district," he stated Tuesday afternoon.

After Dave Shaw resigned as basketball coach in May, the job opening had been posted internally. No other applicants applied for the position, which pays around $2,645 the first year. "I plan on donating my salary to KEYS (scholarship fund)," Timblin emphasized during the meeting.

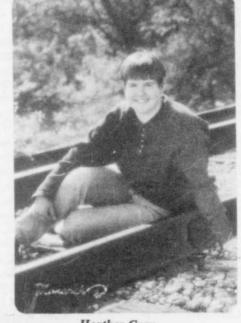

His plans for reviving

the basketball program include getting the best athletes to go out for the sport, playing a more "up-tempo" game, and doing a lot more "full court pressing."

"I want to take advantage of the skills our athletes have... I want to tailor make a package that fits my athletes," he expressed, noting that all players get playing time on his team. "I want to be open to parents. This is the community's basketball team."

Dr. Johnson recommended that another form of evaluation for job performance would have to be implemented for Timblin, who also serves as chairman of the Finance-Transportation-Building and Grounds committee, the Athletic committee, and the Special Education committee.

Following Timblin's announcement, the board unanimously approved his coaching appointment.

School Board Approves Computer Lease Package

Construction has begun on the $210,000 contract to replace the 63-year-old deteriorating bridge over the Milwaukee River, East Branch, on WIS 28 east of Mill road in the town of Kewaskum.

The contractor, Pheifer Brothers Construction Company of Neenah has closed off the portion of eastbound WIS 28 where the bridge is being replaced as of Tuesday, June 10 and scheduled, weather permiting to reopen to local traffic August 23.

Presently traffic is being detoured to US 45 south to cty

H, east to WIS 144, and north to WIS 28.

The new bridge will be a 30foot-wide, two-lane single span, prestressed concrete girder structure.

Federal funds will cover 80 percent of the expenses, and the state will pay the remainder.

The recommendation came through the JET committee after two years of reviewing district technology needs. "If we miss tonight, then we're behind significantly in the real possibility for having this implemented for the beginning of the year," district administrator Dr. Charles Johnson told the board.

The proposed plan would include replacing the current 286 and 386 computers in two high school labs with Pentium PC's equipped with CD roms, and replacing ten printers, at an estimated cost of $150,000. The middle school project would do the same, along with replacing a number of printers. Costs at this level would come in around $100,000.

High school principal Larry Wilson told the board the school's computers are outdated, and no longer meet the needs of the students as far as preparing them for the demands of the current business world, and the future. Upgrading would create a sinSoftware to update this program will cost $27,000, including nine McIntosh computers.

Business manager George Allmann, who also serves as the JET committee chairman, stated the lease/purchase arrangement would be spread over a five year period, with a net cost (at 5.5% interest) of about $65,000 per year. The present JET budget, less the lease payment of $22,000 for cabling done last year, is $104,000. With the new cabling and servers already in place, the district is prepared to accept state of the art equipment.

"Our intent is to move 20-25 of the old computers (from KMS) out to Farmington and create a lab just like we did at Wayne Elementary school," Allmann explained. According to administration, most of the outdated computers would be trickled down to the elementary schools for use in labs and individual classrooms.

A small, desk top unit, called the Dream Writer, will be implemented at the middle school level, that will allow the students to practice word processing and take the computer home to work on. Thirty of these machines can be purchased for $10,000, with the power unit.

Allmann told the board the installation process would be completed by August 1st, followed by staff training for the use of Windows 95. So far, five different companies have been contacted for price bids.

Although the consensus of the board indicated support for technology upgrading, it was not without mixed feelings. With the present computers equipped to instruct students in keyboarding, spread sheets, accounting, and business record keeping, one of the main concerns was how far beyond that do we, as a district, have to go to prepare students for future specialized employment? Board member Mary Andera, who cast the lone vote against the proposal, asked administration if they were at all concerned with the recent announcement that an upgrade is needed on Window 95, due to a glitch in the system, that has yet to come out. "If the business world upgrades from Windows 95, aren't we jumping the gun by not waiting?", she asked. Although no one could answer when the upgrade would become available, Mr. Wilson pointed out that updating the technology would only increase the ease in which the upgrade could be implemented when it did occur.

"I'm just concerned with do we need it," Ms. Andera emphasized. "I don't think as a public school, we can keep up with what's going on." As the owner of a graphics arts business, she pointed out her computer is six years old." Our last payment will be on obsolete machinery," she related. Other factors in her decision included lack of standards for measuring the benefits of advanced technology, the affect it all has on student's using books and reading as a life skill, and the abuse of computers presently in the schools.

Board member John Schulte saw the whole idea as a plus for the district, since it would allow elementary students enough equipment to complete assignments without waiting around for a computer to open up. "I just asoon take the upgrade now, and we can meet those needs at the elementary level.'

Audience member Scott Waranius, who works with computers on a daily basis, told the district he would rather see one lab installed as a prototype to get the bugs worked out first. "I worry more about my kids learning the basics," he stated.

The board approved the $277,000 technology purchase 6-1, with Mary Andera voting no.

Memories

A Stroll Down Main Street...

A few weeks ago, we featured a picture of the Republican Hotel (now The Gateway) in the Memories column. At that time it was mentioned that "Tiny" Terlinden took that photo and every other business in the Kewaskum community around the year 1938. One of our readers gave us the idea to feature one of those businesses every week (space permitting), which is what we have put into play beginning this week. We will start this feature by traveling east of The Gateway, on the south side of Main Street this week, and continue until we have published all the oldtime photos of how Kewaskum looked, "way back then." We sincerely hope all our readers enjoy this new segment and extend our thanks to "Tiny" for sharing his picture collection with us. Shown above is "Kluever's Barber Shop," around 1938. C.R. Kluever was the proprietor. Since that time the building housed Homer's Barber Shop for many years, and it was thought that at one time, Endlich's Hat Shop might have been located there. At the present time, it is the business home of Main Street Tattoo.

'Just Say No' Says 'Yes' to Fun!

Balloons and crepe paper surrounded the dozens of dance-goers in the Kewaskum High School cafeteria as the "Just Say No" club held their year end dance.

Music, prizes, and fun filled the KHS cafeteria as the "Just Say No" Clubs of the District's elementary schools held their end of the year dance.

Strains of everything from Coolio to the Macarena kept the students dancing while names were drawn for door prizes. The dance, which was paid for using money from Club sucker sales at the elementary schools, featured the help of parent volunteers and KHS students Renee Dahman, Sara Bauer, Jennifer VandeBoom, Michelle Broughton, Heather Brown, Jessica Schmitt, Jeanette Knoeck and DeeJay Andrew Kuehl.

Dairy Queen of Kewaskum provided certificates for free sundaes, Elementary Librarian Mrs. Roehrig helped in obtaining prizes, and club advisors (and district staff) Ms. Taylor, Ms. Mundigler and Ms. Piotrowski helped make sure everyone had fun.

More important than the fun, though, is that the "Just Say No" dance also provided a chance for elementary school students to link up with KHS students -- the chance to see positive, older role models. Over the course of the year, the Clubs also donated to local causes and proved a major influence in promoting positive lifestyle choices for area students.

Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce Member of the Month for June

Lisa Stockhausen, administrator of Maple Dale Manor in Kewaskum, is the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce June Member of the Month.

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Lisa Stockhausen plays an active role in the community, both as treasurer of the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, and administrator of Maple Dale Manor, a privately owned Community Based Residential Facility (CBRF), located in Kewaskum.

My main reason for joining the Chamber of Commerce was to get to know people and help with community projects," Lisa relates, "but I also wanted to educate people to realize what Maple Dale Manor really is." Originally created by LMR & Associates, whose president and owner is Stockhausen's mother, Mary Renzaglia, Maple Dale Manor operates out of two buildings rented by the corporation from Dr. Cesar Sison.

The facility provides independent living for 76 residents, with needs that range from none (independent apartment living) to 24-hour assisted care. the residents' own furnishings. A large dining room, open air kitchen, and beauty parlor are located on the first floor. "We even serve meals made from recipes the people who live here bring us," Lisa mentions, adding that part of her job as administrator, is coordinating structured activities, like weekly bingo, crafts, and the popular pickle making day.

Accounting, business, and organizational skills, have always been Lisa's strong points, and previous work as an accountant in the health care field helped prepare her for the job of administrator of Maple Dale Manor.

"At first, I started working for my Mom just doing the accounting, but after a year, she wanted to move on to other projects, and I took over completely," she states.

There's no getting around the fact it's a 24 hour a day, seven days a week job, with no punching in or out, but Lisa is the first to acknowledge the rewards far outweigh any inconvenience. "It helps to have a computer and an office at home," she maintains, since she's also kept busy as a mother of three children: Erin, age 19, a sophomore at UWM, Shannon is 17 and attends Kewaskum High School, and nine-year-old Ross is a student at Farmington. Her husband, Dean, is employed as an excavator for Ray Wollner.

Stockhausen joined the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce in 1993, and has enjoyed her title as treasurer because it's something she can work around her free time schedule. "It's definitely given me the opportunity to meet a lot of people in the community. The business people have been very welcoming. I like getting involved, and I try to do whatever I can to help promote Kewaskum and the surrounding area."

Lisa also serves as treasurer of the Well Wishers Gift Shop at St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend, where both her daughters work as volunteers.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce Member of the Month is a new monthly business feature in the Kewaskum Statesman. To find out how you and your business can become the Member of the Month, please attend the next upcoming Chamber of Commerce meeting at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, June 18, in the Community Room of the Municipal Building. Chamber meetings are held the third Wednesday of every month.

If the odds are a million to one against something occurring, chances are 50-50 it will.

Kewaskum has recently begun its beautification program with the placement and planting of the annual flower pots along the business district, as displayed above. Thanks are extended to Kewaskum High School and the FFA for filling the pots and placing them in their locations, namely Lynn Kudek, Adam Helsell, Charlie Berres, Brad Oelhafen and Bruce Gundrum; to Kewaskum Women's Club members Joan Lauters and Gwen Dreher for planting all the flowers; to Village President Bob Wagner and First Lady Joyce Wagner who have been growing the canna bulbs since March; to the Village crew for the stones, soil and the pickup in the fall, and last, but not least, the local businesses who water and care for the flower pots throughout the summer months.

"People need to know that this is not Dr. Sison's nursing home. He's just our landlord," Lisa explains. A CBRF offers assisted living to community members in a setting licensed and inspected by the state.

"Everything is run by the book," Stockhausen points out, and contributes a lot of Maple Dale Manor's success to an excellent staff and great managers in each facility (two are located in Kewaskum and a third is in Slinger).

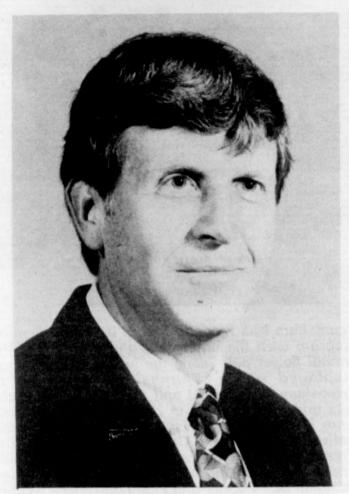

The 24 independent apartments come with a variety of optional services that include housekeeping, laundry, meals and medication monitoring. All 24 hour care residents have their own private rooms, with 20 located in the main building, and 14 in the adjacent facility.

To keep things as homey as possible, private rooms are decorated with

Confirmation Held at Salem Church in Wayne

There was much joy and celebration at Salem United Church of Christ at Wayne (Hwys. W & H) on Sunday, May 18, when 10 young men and women made their pledge to God and their fellow Christians. They confessed Jesus as their Savior publicly and vowed to be faithful to Him in prayer and worship, in faith and life.

The church was completely filled as families, relatives and friends joined in praising God and imploring His blessings as these young adults walk life's passage from adolescence to adulthood.

Pastor Flegel, using Daniel from the Old Testament as text, urged these pledging Christians to be faithful and courageous, as was young Daniel and his friends, in the face of all obstacles that may come their way. Even as Jesus walked with Daniel's friends in the fiery furnace, Jesus will be with them as they may have to face fiery trials of life. Congratulations were given all around at the reception following this memorable service.

than on his special day. If he's a "meat and potatoes" man, you might want to dress up this plain, but substantial, fare with the savory addition of mushrooms and onions, thinly sliced and sauted in butter till tender.

Or, make the potatoes a special dish — au gratin, if he's fond of cheese, or puffy souffle potatoes, the Rolls Royce of fried potatoes.

To prepare Pommes Souf-fles, simply slice potatoes into thin rounds, fry quickly in a large skillet over high heat (oil should cover potato slices).

Remove and set aside till all potato slices have been cooked, then briefly fry again. The potato will puff out wonderfully for a light and crispy taste treat. If he's partial to chicken, why not prepare quick-andeasy chicken cutlets, sparked by the taste of lemon. Pound cutlets, coat in flour (flavored with salt, freshly ground pepper and a little Parmesan), then saute quickly. When both sides are golden, add white wine to cover. Allow to come to a boil, then cook slowly till alcohol has evaporated. At this point, add freshly squeezed lemon juice to taste, sprinkle with chopped fresh parsley, and serve.

Michael Neumann Receives 'Parvuli Dei' Emblem

On Friday, May 30, at the all-school Mass at Holy Trinity Church, Kewaskum, Michael Neumann of Kewaskum Cub Scout Pack 3744 received the "Parvuli Dei" emblem.

The "Parvuli Dei" (Children of God) emblem is given in special recognition by the Catholic Church to a Cub or Webelos Scout for advancement in religious knowledge and spiritual growth. The purpose of the program is to help young boys explore a wide range of activities in order to discover the presence of God in their daily lives as members of their family and parish, and also to develop a good positive self-image through the contributions they can make to the group or community.

Michael completed a booklet which consisted of five steps: God and His Creation; God Our Father, His Son Jesus Christ, and I; Jesus, Our Church and Jesus, His People and I, and Children of God, Other Cubs and I. The "Parvuli Dei" program is the second of five religious emblems available for Catholic youth involved with Scouting. Congratulations Michael.

WES Students Dig for Past and Future

Earlier in the dig, (clockwise, from right) Kaitlyn Ogi, Nick Bartley and Abe Foerster, scrape through layers of dirt in their search for artifacts.

Fifteen years from now, some current Wayne Elementary students may be coming back.

After working to dig up clues from the past, students in Wayne's Gifted and Talented Needs class buried a school time capsule as the culminating event of an archaeological dig on the Wayne Elementary school grounds.

The time capsule is to be opened in fifteen years, at 1 p.m. on June 2, 2012.

The time capsule includes a tennis ball can from each Wayne classroom, with photos, stories, names and meaningful items (including a rock from first grade, and football cards from fourth) of the students attending WES.

One of the students, fifth grader Shannon Dwyer, included a letter addressed To Future Diggers," which includes details of the school, 1997 current events, and a description of the sunny day on which the time capsule was buried.

Students in the Gifted and Talented Needs class began their archaelogical dig in April because of an interest in the subject. With the district's okay, students determined what they thought would be the best place to dig on the Wayne Elementary School grounds.

explained fourth grader Abe Foerster.

Fourth grader Kaitlyn Ogi added, "When we found the first nail, we had to decide, too, whether to still dig all over, or just dig more in one spot.

Following archaeological procedures, students mapped the site, scraped through the dirt, and listed the location for any artifacts found.

And find things, they did. Nails, glass pieces, brick fragments, a small hinge, and even some charred wood were found from twelve to fourteen inches into the dig.

"There was probably a building there," summed up fifth grader Allison Janz. Students also speculated that the area may have been near a building that burned down earlier this century.

Students cleaned and discussed the artifacts they found, offering suggestions for future display at Wayne Elementary.

In their dig, the Wayne archeologists learned about scientific methods and recording while thinking about ... and comparing ... different historical eras. And, according to Nick Bartley, "It was fun."

Graduate of Farm, Industry Short Course

Corey M. Enright, 1207 Highland Drive, Kewaskum, has received a oneyear certificate of graduation with a specialty in Dairy Farm Management from the Farm and Industry Short Course at the University of Wisconsin-Madison College of Agricultural and Life Sciences during the recent graduation ceremonies held in Madison, according to Rick Daluge, Short Course Director and Assistant Dean.

Daluge indicates that students may still apply to the Farm and Industry Short Course program until October 1, 1997 for the 1997-98 program. Application forms are available by writing to 105 Agriculture Hall, 1450 Linden Drive, Madison, WI 53706, or by

Dear Diary,

As part of the recent KMS Civil War reenactment, students in Ms. Powers eighth grade writing classes were given personal histories of characters they were to write as. The following are excerpts from several papers (the student writer's name is in parentheses):

May 4, 1863 Dear Sally and Billy,

The last four days have been pure Hades. We dropped to a difficult defeat these last three days ... I hope I'll see my home again in Philadelphia... I really shouldn't say that, but at the age of 48, I don't know how good my chances of survival are ...

This year's theme for the summer reading program at the Kewaskum Public Library is "Zap Into the Past," which has a historical flavor. It runs from June 16 to August 8.

Signup began Monday, June 9, for the reading program and the Monday programs. The reading program is geared for ages three through 12. The children will have the opportunity to earn points for reading time. They then can turn those in for prizes, including a free pass compliments of the State Historical Society.

This pass can be used at Madeline Island Historical Museum at LaPoint (with insights into Apostle Islands exploration and settlement), Old World Wisconsin at Eagle (an outdoor museum of immigrant farm and village life), Pendarvis at Mineral Point (a restored Cornish miners' colony), Stonefield at Cassville (a museum of agricultural history and village life), Villa Louis at Prairie du Chien (a Victorian-era country estate), or Wade House at Greenbush (an 1850's stagecoach inn located on the same grounds as the Wesley Jung Carriage Museum).

Dr. Campbell has experience with modern bio-technological research and tissue culture techniques.In his capacity at Dairyland, much of his effort will be devoted to incorporating value-added traits into elite germ plasm. In that role, he will be working with hybrid corn, soybeans and alfalfa -- the three major crops in which Dairyland conducts plant breeding efforts.

According to Dairyland Vice-President of Research, Dr. Paul Sun, "The addition of Dr. Campbell will help assist us in the incorporation of new technology without sacrificing the proven performance of our current genetics. We are excited to have an individual of his caliber on our research team." Dairyland See is headquartered in West Bend, Wisconsin, and has research stations in Clinton, WI; Gibson City, IL; Otterbein,IN; Ames, IA; and Sloughouse, CAL. Dairyland Seed is the only family-run seed company in the industry with plant breeding programs in hybrid corn, alfalfa and soybeans. Dairyland Seed was the first seed company in the world to release herbicide tolerant soybeans in maturity Groups I, II and III.

Dairyland's dealer sales network can be found throughout the Midwest with distributorship in other parts of the U.S. as well as foreign countries. For more information on Dairyland Seed, call 1-800-236-0163.

A's Rained Out, Lose Sunday

Weather beat Kewaskum on Saturday and Oakfield beat them on Sunday.

The Athletics were scheduled to travel to Oshkosh to face the Merchants in a Rock River league contest on Saturday but the game was washed out by lingering rain showers. It will be rescheduled at a later date.

The front running Oakfield Oaks came to town on Sunday and handed the A's a 15-9 loss. It was an offensive show as the Oaks banged out 22 hits and the Athletics collected 13, including four home runs.

Kewaskum jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning when Doug Gonring lined a shot over the right field fence. The lead was short-lived as Oakfield went on a tear, scoring four in the second inning, three in the third, and four in the fourth to run the score to 11-1.

That is how it stayed until Curt Schroeder led off the fifth with a double. Gonring singled to send Schroeder to third. Scott Donath then brought him in with a sacrifice fly.

With the score 11-2, the A's did some heavy damage in the sixth inning scoring seven times. Todd Muckerheide started the fireworks with a solo blast. Ryan Hall followed with a single and Matt Sternig walked. Kevin Klahn singled, scoring Hall and moving Sternig to third.

Schroeder grounded out but Sternig scored on the play. Doug Gonring hit a long drive to right center field for his second homer of the day scoring Klahn in front of him. After Scott Donath greeted a new Oakfield pitcher with a double, Terry Koth closed out the scoring for Kewaskum with a home run to the right field corner.

The Athletics' onslaught made the score 11-9 but that was as close as it was to get. Oakfield answered with four runs in the top of the seventh inning to get to the final count of 15-9. The Oaks had many hitting stars as five players collected three or more hits. Doug Roedl went five for six and scored three times. Jim Grater and Bart Brauer each rapped four basehits. Gary Ryan supplied much of the power, blasting two home runs and driving in five. Lance Neely picked up the mound win despite allowing ten hits and seven runs. Doug Gonring continued his season long tear, going four for five. Gonring scored twice and drove in three. Ryan Hall and Kevin Klahn each contributed two hits. Mound duties were shared by Hall and Sam Blahnik with Hall getting the loss. The loss left Kewaskum's record in the Northern division of the Rock River at 2-4. The A's are 3-1 in Tri-County Nite League play. Overall they are 7-6 for the 1997 season. The Athletics host a pair of games at the Kiwanis Park this weekend. Hustisford comes in for a Tri-County game on Saturday. On Sunday, Kewaskum entertains the newest team in the Northern division when Berlin

Mid-Monthly Meeting May 19, 1997 8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Mid-Monthly Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Robert Wagner presided. Trustee Roecker asked to be excused and was absent. All other Trustee members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Warren Dums and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the meeting of May 5, 1997 were approved as printed.

Assistant Fire Chief Mark Herriges presented the April 1997 monthly report: Fire calls - 3, Year to date - 8; Jaws of Life - 2, Year to date - 10; Rescue Calls - 15, Year to date - 76.

Chief of Police Richard Knoebel reviewed the Police Departments Annual Report for the year ending December 31, 1996 as follows:

1) Total index crimes, those reported to the State on a monthly basis, increased by 6.5% in 1996 largely due to an increase in theft and burglary.

2) During 1996, all crime rates in Kewaskum were considerably less than both of those of comparable cities and those of the entire state.

3) During 1996, 30 of 82 or 36.6% of reported index crimes were cleared by arrest. This 1996 clearance rate is greater than the 1996 Statewide clearance rate 27.5%, it is less than the 1995 Kewaskum clearance rate of 46.8%,

4) Total adult arrests decreased by 9.5% from 227 in 1995 to 206 in 1996

5) Total juvenile arrests decreased by 23.2% from 241 during 1995 to 185 in 1996.

6) The 1996 property recovery rate for Kewaskum of 66.7% was much greater than both its 1995 rate of 37% and the 1996 statewide recovery rate of 42%.

7) There were a total of 396 traffic citations issued in 1996, while there were a total of 1,786 traffic warnings given during the same period. That is 1 citation issued for approximately every 4.5 vehicles stopped by the Kewaskum Police Department in 1996.

8) The Kewaskum Police Department handled 1,902 complaints in 1996 compared to 1,892 in 1995.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Village of Kewaskum supports Assembly Bill 262 and Senate Bill 150, exempting village and city taxpayers from paying county property taxes for some duplicated services; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be forwarded to Governor Thompson and the Legislation.

RESOLUTION NO. 97-12 A RESOLUTION SUPPORTING STATE TRANSPORTATION FUNDING FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

WHEREAS, since 1980, funding for local transportation has not kept up with the rate of inflation or local development needs, putting an increased pressure on local property taxes; and

WHEREAS, according to the Legislative Audit Bureau, state payments for local transportation costs have fallen gradually since 1989 as local costs surpassed both aid appropriations and inflation; and

WHEREAS, the Legislative Audit Bureau reported that the acceleration of new state highway construction projects in the last ten years has dramatically increased the percentage of revenue devoted to debt service, such that even if the Governor and Legislature decide to increase transportation revenues this biennium, the higher debt service to state road projects will effectively prevent any real increase in local aid; and

WHEREAS, the Local Transportation Coalition has proposed that a larger share of state Transportation user fees be directed toward local government. The local share would be raised from the current level of about 42% to 65% over ten years. Federal revenues would continue to be spent on state and interstate highways. Under this proposal, the total state Department of Transportation budget would be split evenly between local and state transportation needs, reflecting the vehicle miles carried by each system. Local funds would continue to be distributed in the same proportion as it is now: 75% for local transportation aids, 5% for local transportation project assistance and 20% for local transit aid. The Distribution among cities, villages, towns and counties would remain the same.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Village of Kewaskum goes on record in support of the proposal offered by the Local Transportation Coalition to shift more state transportation aid to local governments; and

RESOLUTION NO. 97-13 A RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE LEGISLATURE'S SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE FUTURE OF RECYCLING

WHEREAS, the Legislature is considering as part of the 1997-1998 Wisconsin Biennial Budget the transfer of Recycling Fund surplus to non solid-waste programs, and this funding currently helps municipalities pay for about half the cost of the mandated local recycling programs; and

WHEREAS, there is public support for recycling (97% of state households now recycle their waste in some way), and State law bans eleven specific materials from landfills, and

WHEREAS, half of all household waste which was previously buried in landfills is now collected and resold, thus reducing the demand for landfill

9) The Kewaskum Police Department patrolled a total of 67,752 miles in 1996.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the advertising for sale of the 1995 Ford Squad Car.

Chief of Police Richard L. Knoebel informed the Board that DARE graduation will be taking place next week.

Director of Public Works. Jerry Gilles reviewed with the Board the following:

1) Progress on the installation of the street lights on Edgewood Road, nearing completion.

2) Updated the Board on the installation of the Sprint antenna on water tower number one in June.

3) Hydrant flushing is complete with little problems.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following with the Board:

1) Review of Board of Review meeting of May 12, 1997. The assessed value of the Village had increased by an estimated $6,519, 600 or 6.4% and that the number of parcels and improvement increased by an estimated 23. It was noted

RESOLUTION NO. 97-11

A RESOLUTION SUPPORTING ASSEMBLY BILL 290 REVISING TAX EXEMPTION PROCEDURES

WHEREAS, The Village of Kewaskum has previously adopted and submitted to its legislative representatives a resolution opposing tax exempt status as it relates to Aurora Health Care, Inc., and similar health care providers; and

WHEREAS, Assembly Bill 290 which would codify a presumption that property is taxable, require applications for property tax exemptions, and specify that claims that property is exempt may be made only as claims against a taxation district clarifies the tax exemption request process, but fails to respond to our local governments concerns about the potential exempt status of Aurora Health Care, Inc. and similar providers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Village of Kewaskum that it supports Assembly Bill 290;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be submitted to members of the area legislative delegation and that those in the Senate and Assembly draft and approve legislation that will prohibit the granting of tax exempt status as a benevolent organization to Aurora Health Care, Inc. and to similar health care providers;

WHEREAS, the market has changed and municipalities cannot generate enough revenue from the sale of recyclables to cover costs and, therefore, would be hard-pressed financially to keep the programs operational;

WHEREAS, it is appropriate for business to accept some financial responsibility for their packaging of products which contribute to the waste stream:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Village of Kewaskum supports adoption of the recommendations of the Legislature's Special Committee on the Future of Recycling, which include:

- 1) continue state funding of local recycling efforts; 2) a continuation of the current tire recovery fee at $4.00 per tire;
- 3) maintenance of the current Recycling Fund; and
- 4) efforts to develop markets for recycled materials.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Village Board urges the Legislature to retain revenues in the Recycling Fund and to enact the above-noted recommendations of the Legislature's Special Committee on the Future of recycling.

to all of the parents and

Flowers were supplied by Kewaskum Floral to adorn our wreaths on Monday morning, aided by committee members Minnie and Richard Degnitz and Earl Crass and Bernice Hron.

Our noon program kicked off the day, as current town chairman Jim Dieringer and former chairman Norbert Dettmann came together with memories past, and present. Also featured were the Farmington School children conducted by music teacher Gary Gerhartz.

The Sesquicentennial Flag was presented by committee members Jeanette Miller and Mary McKee.

Thank you to Carol Laabs and Walter Laabs, commander of the Waubeka Flag Day VFW Post 7037 for a moving tribute at the cemetery; truly a touching sight following the Kewaskum High School Marching Band, veterans and the children with their wreaths and flags. Our memory quilt will make a lovely addition to the town hall; our thanks to art teacher Peggy Henke, the children who made their blocks and the Homemakers for their sewing talents.

The baseball games were a highlight of the afternoon, thanks to people who put them together: Lee Martin, Rex Bindrich, Kevin Fay, Dan Rodenkirch and Jane Meyer; and especially to all of the players.

Former manager of the Rainbow League Earl Crass's first toss to Veronica Weinreich was the starter for the "Oldtimers Game," and Lee's rendition of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," was a memorable moment. We are grateful to the Farmington Turner Athletic Club for manning the concessions, with help from the Jerry Beine family of the Modern Woodmen Society which graciously matched the proceeds from concessions, including delicious Bakerei from the Fillmore Happy Hearts Homemakers and friends.

The century tree search was a big hit in the community with the largest tree discovered at the Bob and Pat Hamernick home, circumfence of 13 feet five and 3/4 inches, found by Joe and Mark Weinreich.

Thank you so much to Barbara Schultz Kluever and Diana Susen for all the efforts put into an informative school program. Our pioneer homestead search turned up a dozen homesteads so far, several of which are still with the original pioneers; our thanks to the efforts of Marcia Theusch and Ralph Eisenmann for working on that project.

The horse-drawn carriage rides and horse-drawn trolley were popular pasttimes, guided by local residents. Displays both at St. Martin's Church and downstairs at the hall drew many visitors and memories, and even some answers to ancestoral questions. Our thanks to Dan Noennig and Joanne Oneska for coordinating the

The Four-H area was popular with the kids; we appreciate the Weinholds and other members for providing this entertainment. Many of our events and door prizes were sponsored by the businesses; we particulary want to thank the Newburg State Bank for the horse-drawn trolley, Michael's Family Farms for the carriage rides, and TNT for sponsoring the dance. We did have a few folks out there polka-ing, but it seemed that we were too tired to tango!

As we move on to the next phase of our celebration, we still ask for community encouragement with the history book currently being researched and written. Stories and photographs are most welcome. Our next meeting will be on June 24 at 9 a.m. at the Farmington Town Hall. Proceeds from the Memorial Page 23

.... June 1, 1997 Dear Editor:

The Farmington Sesquicentennial Committee enjoyed the unfolding of all our efforts last weekend with a very special celebration well attended by nearly 700 people who braved the breezes and clouds in Fillmore at the Turner Hall. It was so encouraging to see so many people coming from all over the area, including Milwaukee and some from out of state, as far away as Washington State.

What a nice way to spend the weekend with special memories to share about past Memorial Days spent honoring our veterans. The committee wishes to extend a special thanks

Nysse Third at State Track Meet

Rachel Nysse throwing shot put at an earlier meet this season

UW-LaCrosse - Senior Rachel Nysse placed third in the shot put Saturday at the W.I.A.A. State Track and Field meet at UW-LaCrosse Memorial Field. Nysse's throw of 37' 2 1/2" in the preliminaries held up for third place throughout the finals. Last year Nysse placed fifth at the State Meet. "Rachel did a great job! She didn't get overwhelmed by being at State. She was focused and came through with an outstanding throw. Truly a state level effort," according to girls head coach Joe Kinney.

Jessica Kohlmann of New Holstein lead the competition after her first throw and then made a statement on her last throw of her high school career with an impressive 40' 10" effort for her championship.

Many of the discus throwers struggled on Saturday during the intense competition.

John Manke of West DePere, the number three seed won the discus with a 166' 0" throw. T.J. Wagner of Gale-Ettrick-Trempealeau threw 178' 2" at Sectionals, but had to settle for second with a 161' 10" effort.

"Brian Liegl had a good season. He set the school record at the conference meet with a 153' 4" throw and qualified for the State Meet. I know he's disappointed that he didn't place higher, but it wasn't because of a lack of his effort or desire. He has learned that hard work does pay off. His attitude and work ethic will be very valuable assets in his future," concluded head coach Jerry Gosa.

Luedtke and Krebs Make All-Conference Team Lady Indians Place Third Place in EWC Conference

By Andrew R. Kuehl

The Varsity Lady Indians played a weak game May 30 against Two Rivers, 0-12.

Jackie Korneli pitched her best game of the season but it just wasn't enough to halt the conference champs, Two Rivers.

The team's hitting was poor but their field play was very good. Leading hitters for the game were Tricia Krebs and Misty Luedtke each slugging out one hit.

This season the Indians worked together as a team to try and win each game one at a time.

Misty Luedtke, a senior made first team all-conference as an outfielder. She played left field. Tricia Krebs, a junior made second team all-conference as an infielder. She played second base. Holly Cechvala, senior, centerfielder and Susie Vrana, senior, third base, made all-conference honorable mention. Overall the Indians placed third in their conference.

Pam Horn of New Holstien was named player of the year and Lee Nebel of Two Rivers was named coach of the year. (Don't worry coach Molebash, you'll take coach of the year next year!)

The Indians would like to thank all of their loyal fans who came out to cheer the team on.

Misty Luedtke a senior at KHS made first team all-confer ence as an outfielder first to draw glass into sheets for windows, around 400 B.C., but their mild Mediterranean climate made glass windows merely a curiosity. Glass was used primarily in jewelry making.

Jairy Month!

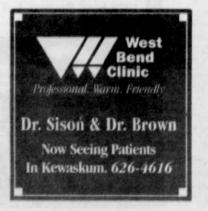

Carrie Wiesner qualified for the 300m low hurdles in the preliminaries on Friday and then came back in the finals to place seventh with a time of 48.46 on Saturday - one place away from a medal. Wiesner ran the 100m high hurdles earlier on Saturday placing ninth in 17.20. "We would have liked Carrie to place higher, yet she had good times. She kept her composure and had two good runs. An overall good performance. And it's comforting to know she will likely be back next year," reported coach Kinney.
