Rev. Bettin Retiring

Rev. James and Betty Bettin

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

After eleven years of service to Peace United Church of Christ and the community of Kewaskum, Reverend James Bettin will be retiring from his role as pastor at the end of July, when he and his wife Betty relocate to their new home in Oshkosh.

Leaving with only "thoughts of love," the Bettins look forward to moving back to Jim's hometown, where they will be near their daughter and grandchildren. Their newly built home is handicapped accessible ("after three back surgeries, I'm not taking any chances," he quips), and they will also have more time to enjoy their cabin up north surrounded by woodlands that once belonged to Betty's father.

James Bettin was ordained June 9, 1957, choosing to serve in the United Church of Christ, which formed in 1957 through the merging of Congregational Christian Churches, United Evangelical, and Reformed Churches into a new faction.

"Every church is an independent church, and has the right to be locally autonomous. That's the strength part as I see it, churches can retain their own individual flavor," Rev. Bettin expresses.

He began serving his ministry in a United Evangelical and Reformed Church until 1961, when he was called to St. Paul's United Church of Christ in Sheboygan. In 1966, he and Betty traveled to Buffalo, New York, and Jim became the youngest pastor to work as Administrator/Chaplain of the United Church Retirement Home, where the average age was 85.

"Our children were then one and seven, and they had lots of grandparents," Bettin recalls. He put his art background into play (Jim was an art teacher before he chose the ministry), and had a wonderful time developing social activities for the residents, but he continued to miss the parish, and in 1972, had the chance to transfer back into church life, serving the 950 member Immanuel UCC in Lafayette, Indiana, as senior pastor.

Ten years later, the Bettins relocated to Arlington Heights, Illinois, where Jim served St. John UCC, and finally, in August of 1986, Rev. Bettin became pastor of Peace UCC in Kewaskum.

"Here I have had the privilege to meet and serve the most loving congregation," he declares, quickly confirming that he and Betty have worked side by side as a team, ever since they met in college, and married in 1952. Through his years in the seminary, Betty supported the both of them working as an English teacher at North High School in Sheboygan.

Besides regular church involvement, Betty has written an advent booklet every year for Peace UCC, and a four day Lenten piece, planned annual retreats, was a leader for women's programs and continuously knitted for the church's "Caps for Kids" program. "She has truly been an integral part of the ministry," Rev. Bettin points out. "The congregation will also miss her wearing a hat to church every Sunday!"

During his ministry in Kewaskum, Rev. Bettin's career has been highlighted by the congregation's involvement in Habitat for Humanity, which began the summer of 1987 with 15 volunteers, and is now going into its 11th year in the program, with 14 houses credited to church donations and volunteer labor. "We'll be building a new house in Frankfurt, Indiana this year," he states, "with the organizing turned over to lay leadership."

Other milestones accomplished have been the handicapped accessible project with the installation of an elevator, which was dedicated this past March, the addition of a new heating system and an organ, numerous building improvements and the expansion of the parking area, along with the introduction of the choir to choir musicals, with

School Board Addresses Miscellaneous Issues

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

A long list of appointments on a hot summer night before the school year begins, along with a variety of odds and ends, kept school board members hopping at their monthly meeting.

District-wide secretarial hours were increased by seven hours, which called for board clarification from the district administrator, Dr. Johnson, whether it meant a new position, or additional hours for present positions. "We're not asking for a position, we're asking for the hours," Johnson explained. "This is not a person, it's the number of hours we need in the district."

He went on to explain that the increase would cover approximately four hours of food service (to expand help with the computerized lunch ticket program), and three hours focused on moving substitute teacher coordination out of the district office, and into a new position. Since there was still confusion when differing statements indicated it was and was not a new position, the topic will be discussed again at another board meeting, when more details have been finalized.

The lease to purchase agreement in the amount of $315,300 for 110 computers was authorized by the board in a 6-1 vote, with Mary Andera voting against the resolution. Last month's approved computer hardware proposal listed a figure of $277,000, and when questioned by Andera, business manager George Allmann stated the 15% increase reflected interest on the lease amount. She also asked what plans were being proposed to get teachers acquainted with the new computer hardware, which includes Windows '95.

Allmann explained district contracts with BIT and NET, two suppliers of hard and software, who handled the installation of the servers. Interviews took place last week for the district's new technology position, with board approval slated for the August meeting. He added that the supplier has guaranteed the computers and printers will arrive and be installed by the first of August, with an in-service for middle school and high school staff scheduled for August 18th.

The final bid for the computers came out to $1,231.00 each, with credit

Wayne to Celebrate Sesquicentennial

The Wayne Historical Committee has been meeting and making exciting plans for the 150th Anniversary celebration of Wayne Township which will take place in 1998.

They are collecting old photos and information about the town's past history. A display is being planned and a book will be published with pictures and articles relating to the history of the Town of Wayne.

several being performed throughout the years.

Jim mentions another positive change he has seen taking place since he was first ordained, the transformation of Ecumenical relationships, using Holy Trinity Catholic Church, located across the street, as an example.

"These two parishes have worked together so harmoniously through the years, and I have enjoyed my relationship and conversations with the priests who have been here while I served Peace Church."

The decision to retire this year has been a difficult one for the Bettins, since Peace UCC will be celebrating their church centennial in 1998. In June, 1898, a group of community members broke away from the Lutheran Church, formed the "Friedens Evangelische Kirche" (Peace Evangelical Church), and functioned as an independent church until 1946, when it joined with the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

"It has been very difficult to decide to do this, because I became the wrong age at the wrong time," Rev. Bettin remarks. "If I stay, I won't be able to retire until I'm 69, and there's things I'd like to accomplish yet in my life. I didn't want to wait until that age to retire."

Bettin leaves Peace Church with a positive outlook for its future. "Attendance has been excellent through the years, and it continues to attract young couples and individuals," he observes. "We never did that before, can never be said of this church -- it's a total joy to work with these people."

Just recently reelected to the Board of Directors for Cedar Lake Campus after serving a decade, Jim has only high praises for the group of committed people he serves with on the board, and is looking forward to continued commitment to this organization.

The couple also looks forward to leisure time spent traveling, and a trip to Wales planned for 1998. Jim hopes to spend time painting, weaving, reading and building a doll house for his granddaughters. Their daughter Amy (Funnel) lives in Oshkosh with her husband, Steve, and girls Sonja and Eve. Another daughter, Ivy, resides in Belgium.

It would be a big help to the committee and of great interest to others if anyone who has pictures and information would LOAN it to the committee to use in preparing for this event.

At the present time, the search is still on for a new pastor for Peace Church. Rev. Bettin's last service will take place Sunday, July 26, with a farewell reception following for all members of the community who would like to attend. An interim pastor will be provided until a new pastor is found.

Board Raises Lunch Prices

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

This month's school board meeting included the approval of raising school lunch prices per recommendation from food service director, Kathy Robinson.

Although prices have remained the same since the 92-93 school year, food, supplies, and labor have continued to increase in cost. Beginning in the 1997-98 school year, the food service department will be required to pay its share of the secretarial wages, at an estimated figure of $33,000 per year.

Prices will increase at the elementary level from $1.10 per meal to $1.30 for a weekly rate of $6.50. Both Kewaskum Middle and High School will raise rates from $1.25 per day to $1.55 per day, or $7.25 weekly.

Business manager George Allmann stated that the focus of the program has always been to provide students with a good quality lunch, and a better diet, which leads to a healthier body, hopefully resulting in increased learning capabilities.

Based on an average increase of 25c per meal, the gross increase in revenue would be estimated at $46,000, considering 185,000 meals were served last year in the district.

given to George Allmann and high school principal Larry Wilson for their vigor in negotiating a lower price.

This past Monday, work began on the district's resurfacing project, with Scott Construction handling the job. To finance the project, the board approved a state trust fund loan for $225,000, less $75,000, which will be deducted from the district's fund balance. Barring any complications, work should be completed before the beginning of the new school year.

Board member Jon Downs, chairman of the Policy committee, voiced his support for the new staff member manual, created and compiled with a great deal of consideration and effort. Dr. Johnson commended administrative assistant Jeanie Jacak, who put the whole thing together, and ran the faculty and support committee that met over a period of several months to help the policy committee develop the draft. He also thanked board member Mary Andera for her expertise and detail work in making the manual professional and readable. Board members will review the manual for endorsement at the next meeting.

After six months of debate and discussion, the policy committee's "Religion and Religious Expression in School" policy was brought to the board for first inspection. "It's had a lot of input, it's grown and in some ways has been cut down," Dr. Johnson remarked. "I believe it's a very good policy. I think it achieves the purpose for which it was designed and I highly recommend it."

Board president Jean Goeden indicated there may still be questions regarding the policy, and asked if it could be discussed at the school board's August 3rd workshop. Downs pointed out that the policy committee would not be meeting again until September 16, so questions could be directed to President Goeden or himself.

Under new business, the board approved the Annual Meeting Agenda and the preliminary budget, which will be presented and discussed with the public on Monday evening, July 28, at 8 p.m. in room 12 of the Kewaskum Middle School.

Topping a long list of personnel appointments, James Botting was hired as the new full time Farmington principal for the upcoming school year. A newly created position for Hearing Interpreter was filled by Candi Block.

The payroll and accounts payable were approved in the amount of $1,334,394.85.

Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there.

A Stroll Down Main Street...

Our "Stroll Down Main Street" (traveling east on the south side of the street, nearly 50 years ago,) brings us this week to the building where Grand Larson is now located. At the time the photo was taken it was the Modernistic Beer Garden, owned and operated by Jake Meinhardt. The tavern business was later purchased by Louis and Agnes Heisler, who ran the tavern business and served lunches, including a free "Fair Day" spread once a month. (For the younger readers... "Fair Day" was held on the main thoroughfares of the village, whereby farmers would bring their livestock and produce into town to sell one day every month.) The building, since that time has always housed other taverns, including Milton Flynn's Tap and the Kewaskum Saloon.

Charles Kuralt

By Isabelle Muckerheide

The recent passing of Charles Kuralt, world wide traveler, prompts me to write this. I'm proud to say, Mr. Kuralt visited my home town of Neshkoro, Wisconsin several years ago. In his paper back book "On the Road," he devoted one chapter on Wooden Boats of Neshkoro, Wisconsin.

What led him to Fred Nimphius, a master boat builder, whose shop is five miles in the country, hundreds of miles from the ocean. Fred has since retired. His son, Alex, one of seven children, is in charge now, but Fred, who is in his eighties, is still the brains behind the scene.

Being interested in wood, Kuralt wanted to see boats made from birch, oak and imported teakwood and mahogany. Some woods even came from the Kewaskum area. Speed in building boats is not the criteria. Do it slow, and do it right is Fred's philosophy. He has several apprentices learning the trade from all walks of life. Some boats take several years to build. They work on more than one boat at a time. He has completed one hundred and eleven boats. The most recent one was a Dutch frigate called "The Red Lion." It was towed to Sheboygan where the mast was assembled, as it would have been too high to travel under wires on the highway. Fred's daughter, Barbie, carved the figurehead for the "Red Lion," identical to a Dutch Man-of-War which sailed the seas three hundred years ago. The boat is now in Tahiti.

Mr. Kuralt thoroughly enjoyed his visit with Fred Nimphius, and thought it worthy to include in his book "On the Road with Charles Kuralt."

THANK YOU

We would like to express our sincere thanks to the Kohlsville Fire Department for their fast response and quick action during our recent fire. Many thanks also go to the Kewaskum Fire Dept. for their back up service, and all the concerned neighbors who offered help in any way. We are very grateful for all your help.

KMS Intramurals A Great Success

This past school year, Kewaskum Middle School offered the first-ever evening sixth grade intramural program. There was an average of 25 students in each sport: volleyball, basketball, and softball.

KMS and the teachers involved with the sixth grade intramural program would like to thank all the parents and volunteers who made the program such a wonderful success!

Conference Season Ends for KHS Indians

Kewaskum traveled to Kiel on Monday, July 14, for the last conference game of the 1997 season.

Unfortunately for the Indians, they had the Monday blahs. As a matter of fact, both teams had the blahs as 16 runs were scored, but only four were earned. The Indians lost by a score of 10-6.

None of the Kewaskum runs were earned and only four of the Raider runs were earned. There were nine errors in the game; five by Kiel and four by Kewaskum. Added to the errors were 12 walks; eight by Kewaskum and four by Kiel. "All in all, it was probably the worst-played high school game I've ever seen," said Coach Mark Heise.

There were very few highlights in the game, other than the 3x4 by Josh Christophersen and 2x4 by Kevin Martin. Bruce Gundrum had three RBI's and Dan Jeserig, Todd Wolfenberg and Troy Staehler each added singles, but that was the only offense the Indians could produce.

The Indians threw three pitchers at the Raiders, but to no avail, as errors and walks allowed Kiel to score ten runs. Erik Kopecky took the loss for the Indians as he was pitching in the sixth inning when Kiel broke a 6-6 tie. The Indians had scored three in the top of the sixth, but Kiel answered with four runs in the bottom of the sixth to put the game away.

The Indians finished with a 9-7 conference record and a tie with New Holstein for fourth place. Sheboygan Falls was the conference champion with a 14-2 record.

Kewaskum ended their season with a .275 batting average, (127x462). "This was the year of the pitcher in the EWC," stated Heise. Two years ago the Indians led the conference in hitting with a .306 batting average. Last year they were second with a .282 team average.

"We didn't hit as well as I thought we would," commented Heise. "With all the returning seniors, I figured we would get real close to the .300 mark. But with Hilbert dropping out of the schedule, it gave all the teams a bye before they played us. In other words, everyone got an extra day's rest for their pitchers before they met us. We usually faced their No. 1 pitchers, which accounted for some of our batting deficiencies."

Next year, the Eastern Wisconsin Conference will include Manitowoc Roncali. This addition will again make up a 10-team baseball conference. Also, every two years, the EWC reschedules the schedule, developing a new competition rotation. These factors should help bring about league parody.

Coach Heise's only concern is the inexperience of next year's squad. After graduating eight starting seniors, next year will see only four returning lettermen, in which there is no varsity pitching experience.

"Next year will be a real challenge. I'll need some sophomores and juniors to step up to do the job. But I'm looking forward to the opportunity of developing our young baseball talent," remarked Heise.

Washington County Junior Fair Set for This Weekend

The 4-H Clubs of Washington County have been busy preparing for the 1997 Washington County Junior Fair on July 23-26 in Slinger. The Washington County 4-H Program has over 700 youth that have all been busy completing their projects to be exhibited at the county fair.

The Llama Project members took a trip to Pike Lake on June 8. The Washington County 4-H volunteer leaders, Dennis and Sharleen Przekurat from Cedarburg, furnish the llamas for the youth to work with for the project. The skills being worked on were handling, walking, showmanship, grooming and caring for the llama. The llama project has 11 youth exhibiting at the Washington County Fair on Friday, July 25, at 12 to 3 p.m. at the main stage area for all to enjoy.

The Archery Project held a family fun day on June 8 at Daniel Boone Park for all families. The program was set up for different skill levels depending on the age and skills of the youth. It was a great opportunity for families to have time together and get ready for the fair.

The volunteer leaders hold meetings throughout the year to teach the youth safety and shooting skills. The youth will exhibit safety/educational posters, equipment for archery that they have made, quiz boards and other items relating to archery. Look for the exhibits in the main building at the fair.

The Cloverbud and Exploring Project had workshops on "Let's Get Ready for the Fair." The workshops had over 90 youth participating. Youth learned how to enter their projects at the fair, and what the ribbons/judging means at the fair.

They had the opportunity to make homemade ice cream and meet other youth in the Cloverland and Exploring project. Youth leaders help work with the youth on their projects and demonstrated judging with the Cloverbuds and Explorers. A great learning experience for the youth 5-9 year old in the 4-H program.

Check out the Washington County Fair and see what the youth have accomplished. The 4-H program continues to offer and work with community programs as well as many other opportunities for the youth of Washington County.

If you are interested or have questions concerning 4-H contact the UW Extension Office in the Public Agency Building in West Bend at 335-4478, 644-5204 or stop at the 4-H information booth in the Main Exhibit building at the fair. See you at the fair!

Better Air Quality, Better Health

(NAPS)—Three for the price of one. Over 30 percent of the U.S. has been getting this three for one deal since the beginning of 1995. The Deal—clean burning gasoline, also called reformulated gasoline or RFG.

Why is it such a great deal?

First off, using RFG reduces air pollution. This program has already accounted for removing nearly 700,000 tons of pollutants from the air.

The second reason is better health, the removal of these pollutants and other toxins from the air have improved the air quality as well as reducing the cancer risk from gasoline by around 30 percent.

The third and final reason is that the use of domestically produced oxygenates has improved the country's energy security by reducing the amount of petroleum used in gasoline.

The latest studies have shown that nationwide use of RFG, by the year 2010, could reduce petroleum for gasoline use by almost 10 percent or 777,000 barrels of petroleum per day. These fuels would be replaced by cleaner, domestically produced ethers and alcohols made from domestic products like natural gas and corn. The bottom line is domestic products and less foreign oil.

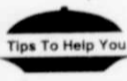

Energy security, better air quality, and health benefits—all from using a gasoline that is recommended by all the major U.S. auto makers. That is a heck of a deal.

For more information on how you can get clean burning gasoline in your area, or to see if you are already using reformulated gasoline call 1-800-GO-TO-RFG.

POULTRY DELIGHTS

(NAPS)—There's more than one way to cook a chicken and a new cookbook will tell you how.

Although the stomach cavity is the usual place, stuffing under the skin also has its advantages. According to The Chicken and Poultry Bible (Penguin Studio, $27.95), this method helps chicken cook more evenly and keeps sensitive breast meat juicier.

This cookbook for poultry lovers brims with information on purchasing and storage; cooking techniques in pan or oven—poaching, steaming, stewing, braising, grilling, baking, and deep-frying—with recipes from simple to sophisticated.

Recipes range from Cream of Turkey Soup to Foie Gras Parfait with Snow Peas and Apple Salad, Smoked Chicken Pizza to Squab Risotto and Guinea Fowl Pie.

The beautifully illustrated book is written by Christian Teubner, Sybil Grafen Schonfeldt and Siegfried Scholtyssek. Teubner is the author of the award-winning cookbook series, that also includes The Pasta Bible and The Herbs and Spices Cookbook.

The world's best-selling video is Disney's Beauty and the Best. Released in October 1992, it reached sales of $22 million by March 1993.

Helping Children Deal With Anger

(NAPS)—How can parents help children grow up to be teenagers and adults who work out conflicts in non-violent ways? Here are some suggestions:

Mister Rogers

• Plan for warm and caring times together. When there's a close, trusting bond, children are more likely to try to please their parents and it's within a loving family we all learn to control our behavior.

• Talk about angry feelings. When children know parents care deeply about them and what they're feeling, they are more likely to talk about feelings rather than act them out.

• Find healthy outlets, so children can channel their energies when they're angry. Offer things like crayons and paper for painting a mad picture, clay for making puppets, musical instruments, or puppets for making a play.

"Angry feelings are a natural part of being human," says Fred Rogers of the television program, Mister Rogers' Neighborhood. Rogers features constructive ways to deal with anger in his newest week of Neighborhood programs, "What Do You Do with the Mad that You Feel?", broadcast on PBS stations across the country. This week of programs is part of the Act Against Violence campaign of the Public Television Outreach Alliance.

"When we were children, and the adults we loved allowed us to know that our angry feelings were a normal part of loving and being loved, those adults gave us a great and life-long gift," says Rogers.

Mister Rogers' Neighborhood is underwritten by Public Television Stations and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

Tips

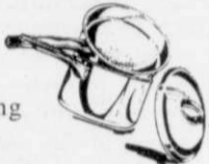

Recipes for safer cooking

Whether stirring up a quick dinner or creating a masterpiece four-course meal, there are recipes for safer cooking to ensure you and your family are safe in the kitchen.

To prevent a cooking fire in the kitchen:

- Keep an eye on your cooking and stay in the kitchen.

- Wear short or close-fitting sleeves.

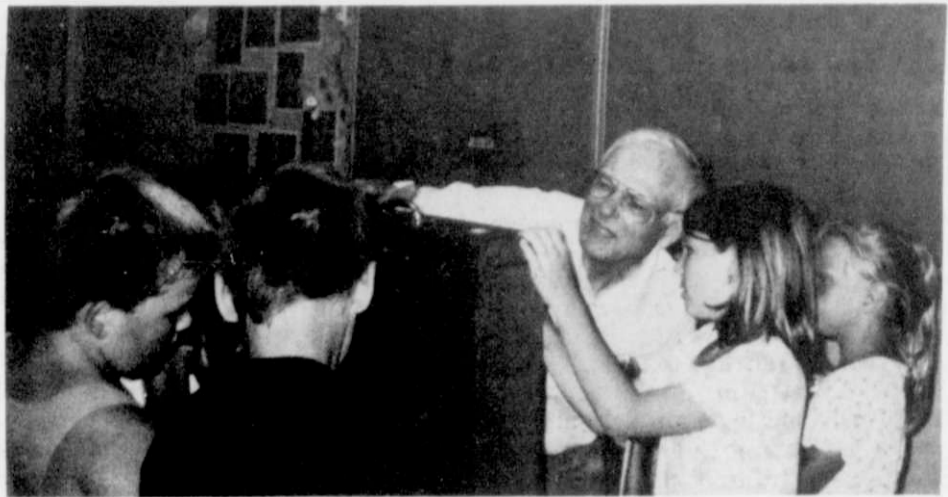

- Watch children closely. Teach children to cook safely.

- Clean cooking surfaces to prevent grease build-up.

- Keep curtains, towels and pot holders clear of flames and hot surfaces, and store gasoline, solvents and some cleaners away from heat sources.

To put out a cooking fire in your kitchen:

Mr. Bohn answers questions as students witness metamorphosis first-hand, as new bees emerge from the pupal stage in the honeycomb.

Jim Bohn, from the Ozaukee-Washington Counties Beekeepers Association visited the summer school Bugs! Bugs! classes at KMS.

His presentation included information on the life cycle of bees, the structure of hives, and the process of honey production and extraction.

Students were excited to handle beekeeping equipment and able to view live bees at work. Mr. Bohn has been an active beekeeper for 60 years.

Ziegler Company Invites State Investors to 'Share' in Wisconsin with Commission-Free Stock Purchases

WEST BEND, WIS -- On July 24 and 25, Wisconsin investors will have the opportunity to "Share in Wisconsin" through B.C. Ziegler and Company. On those two business days, Ziegler invites Wisconsin residents to purchase shares of common stock in Wisconsin's publicly traded companies, and companies with substantial operations in Wisconsin -- without paying a sales commission.

An investment banking and full-service brokerage firm, B.C. Ziegler and Company began offering independent equity research to its nationwide investor clientele in early 1995. "We're working to raise awareness in Wisconsin that we offer common stocks and independent research in addition to the fixed-income investments with which we've traditionally been associated," said Charles G. Stevens, vice president and marketing director of B.C. Ziegler and Company. "We've expanded our product offering significantly," he said.

Ziegler's sales volume of common stock is growing rapidly, Stevens noted. "As an example, our stock sales in June of 1997 were more than double that product's sales in June of 1996," he said. "Share in Wisconsin is a way for more investors to associate Ziegler with stocks, and it's a cost-effective way for Wisconsinites to share in the ownership of the companies they know. These are the companies they work for and whose products they buy."

For two business days of July 24 and 25, 1997, B.C. Ziegler and Company will purchase at the market price the shares of any publicly traded companies, which are based, or have substantial operations, in Wisconsin. This offer is available only to individual investors who are residents of the state of Wisconsin. A maximum of three orders per individual will be honored.

A cash deposit in advance may be required. Investors who are not existing clients of B.C. Ziegler and Company will be required to open an account. Street name accounts only. No certificates will be issued. Round-lot orders of 100 shares or $500 minimum per issue. Maximum trade of $15,000 per account.

B.C. Ziegler and Company reserves the right to determine investment suitability and reserves the right to refuse any transaction deemed to be unsuitable. Investors should be aware that certain stocks may be thinly traded and the market orders are subject to price and liquidity limitations of individual issues.

A listing of eligible stocks is available from any of 13 Ziegler offices statewide: Appleton, Fond du Lac, Fort Atkinson, Green Bay, Kenosha, LaCrosse, Madison, Milwaukee, Mequon, Port Washington, Sheboygan, Wausau and West Bend. Ziegler's offices in Rockford, Ill., Bloomington, Minn., and Arlington Heights, Ill. will also assist Wisconsin residents during this promotion

25 Years Ago

July 14, 1972

Howard Backhaus, 53, of 1550 Riverview Drive, Kewaskum, passed away early Thursday morning, July 13, at Hartford Memorial Hospital, of injuries he suffered on June 29, when he accidentally fell 25 feet through an opening in the roof while at work at the Chrysler building addition in Hartford. He was employed as a construction worker with the W & B Corporation of West Bend. Backhaus suffered internal injuries, a broken pelvis, fractured ribs and a broken wrist in the fall and had been hospitalized since.

Mrs. Sylvester Muckerheide, Sr., 58, of 528 N. Indiana Avenue, West Bend, the former Lucille Heberer of New Fane, also died Tuesday, July 11, as a result of injuries she received in a two car crash that took the life of her husband on July 2. Mrs. Muckerheide had been hospitalized at St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend since the accident with severe head lacerations, hip and possible internal injuries. The two vehicle crash took place on Hwy. 45, several miles south of Kewaskum. Her husband was pronounced dead on the scene of the crash. Mrs. Muckerheide was scheduled to undergo surgery Wednesday, but passed away the night before.

area, three offices and four conference rooms. The basement will house a community room, lounge, storage and utility space. The expected completion date for the new bank building is April of 1973.

The Village of Kewaskum has been told by the Department of Natural Resources that its present incinerator does not meet new air pollution emission standards. Members of the Village Board in regular session on July 5, discussed what to do about it. No decision was reached. The Village has three alternatives. It can install another incinerator that meets the state standards; it can go to a sanitary landfill, or it can contract with a commercial hauler for regular pickup and disposal of refuse. Unless the Village files an alternate plan with the DNR by August 1, it must abandon the present incinerator by October 1.

The Kewaskum Indians wound up the season with another busy week of baseball, playing four games, winning two and losing two of them (besides playing for the third night in a row in the WIAA tournament at Campbellsport Wednesday evening). Kewaskum finished the season with an 8-6 mark. Last Wednesday, the Indians shut out Germantown there by a lopsided 13-0 margin as they pounded out 12 hits. Gary Marx pitched a three-hitter. Freshman Mike Koepke, brought up from the JV's, hit a homer with two on and a single. Marx, Tom Theusch and Jeff Koth also collected two hits for the winners. Kewaskum put the game out of reach with five runs in the fourth.

Humane Society Awarded Grant

DENVER -- The Washington County Humane Society was one of ten shelters nationwide selected by the American Humane Association to receive a grant from the Meacham Foundation Memorial.

Grants are given in amounts up to $4000 for financial assistance for shelter expansions or improvements which directly affect the quality of animal care.

In order to provide cats with safe and comfortable quarters and to control the spread of disease, the Washington County Humane Society will use the grant money to help purchase cat cages.

"The grant helps agencies to increase their quality of care for the animals in their community," says Robert Hart, Executive Director of the American Humane Association's Animal Protection Division. "We are pleased to award the grant to the Washington County Humane Society."

Getting Back Out Of Pain

(NAPS)—There could be good news for many people with severe back or leg pain. In certain cases doctors can relieve this problem without surgery by a method many consider better than surgery.

It involves injecting people suffering from herniated discs with a naturally occurring enzyme marketed by Knoll Pharmaceutical Company and called Chymopapain (chymopapain).

Once injected, the enzyme, which comes from the latex of the papaya plant, breaks down and partially liquifies the jelly-like material in the inner part of the disc. The disc's ability to absorb water is greatly reduced, thus reducing pressure on the nerve root and so relieving pain.

Studies suggest this method of treatment has a low complication rate and is a far safer procedure than standard discectomy, though with the same "rate of return to work at one year."

Recently, the Agency for Health Care Policy and Research determined that chemonucleolysis was proven effective in controlled clinical studies "and an acceptable treatment for selected patients with herniated discs and nerve-root dysfunction." The agency went on to say "No studies to date have shown that any of the newer indirect methods of disc surgery, such as indirect automated percutaneous and percutaneous laser discectomy produce better results than standard discectomy or chymopapain in appropriate patients."

The agency was established by Congress to improve the quality, appropriateness and effectiveness of health care and to improve access to health care service. Its guidelines, developed by multidisciplinary panels of health professionals and consumers, are based on systematic reviews of relevant scientific evidence as well as professional judgement.

If you have back or leg pain, you should see your doctor who is best able to decide what's the optimum treatment for you.

People with leg and back pain caused by a herniated or slipped disc can call The International Intradiscal Therapy Society at 1-800-426-4868 for information about alternative surgical procedures.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Recently, a group of us mothers and grandmothers traveled to our state's capitol to hear the debate on Partial-Birth Abortion.

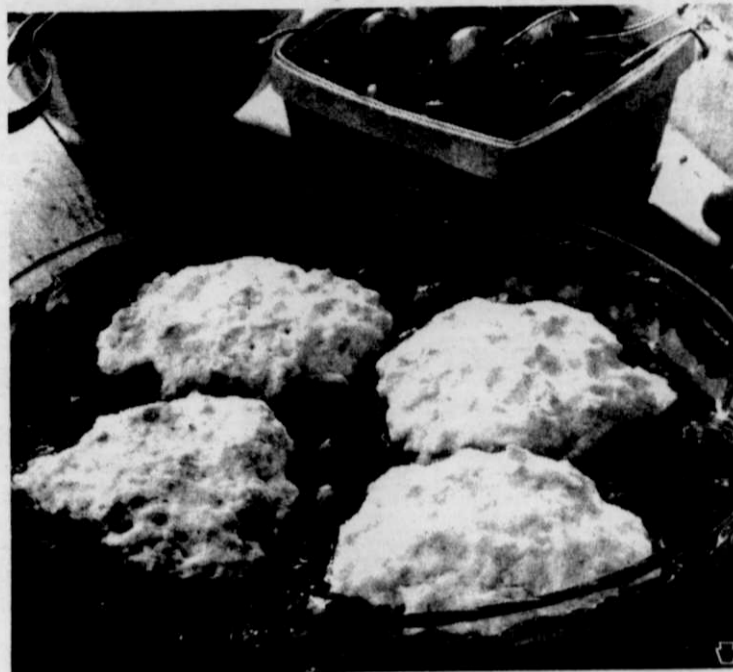

We had both the privilege and the honor of hearing Representative Glenn Grothman stand for the Sanctity of Life. You should be very proud of sending a true statesman like Glenn to the Capitol!

Representative Grothman set the standard on issues that are important to the families of our state. It is apparent how the other legislators look to him for leadership. Glenn is truly a voice for working families and homeschooling families in liberal Madison.

Friends in the 59th Assembly District, you are being well served by Representative Grothman as are all the citizens of Wisconsin. We might live in the stateline area many miles away, but we have adopted Representative Grothman as our voice in Madison.

Sincerely,

Cherry Cobbler

(DM)—No one can resist a homemade cobbler straight from the oven. Long on flavor but short on effort, this easy recipe from the Convection Oven Cookbook developed by KitchenAid home economists is sure to become a family favorite. The secret to a flaky biscuit topping is to have the fruit filling bubbling hot when you drop the dough onto the filling.

CHERRY COBBLER

1/2 cup all-purpose flour	4 cups fresh or frozen unsweetened, pitted, tart red cherries
2 tablespoons granulated sugar	1/2 cup water
3/4 teaspoon baking powder	3 tablespoons milk
1/4 teaspoon salt	1 tablespoon coarse sugar (optional)
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3/4 cup granulated sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch

For biscuit topping, in a medium bowl stir together flour, the 2 tablespoons granulated sugar, baking powder, and salt. Using a pastry blender, cut in butter until the mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Make a well in the center; set aside.

For filling, in a medium saucepan combine the 3/4 cup granulated sugar and cornstarch. Add cherries and water. Cook and stir over medium heat until slightly thickened and bubbly. Reduce heat and keep hot.

Add milk all at once to dry ingredients. Stir just until moistened. Transfer hot filling to a 1 1/2-quart round casserole. Immediately spoon biscuit topping into 4 mounds on top of filling. If desired, sprinkle biscuit topping with coarse sugar.

Convection Bake in a preheated 375°F oven for 18 to 20 minutes or until a toothpick inserted into biscuit topping comes out clean. (Or, standard bake in a preheated 400°F oven about 20 minutes.) Serve warm. Makes 4 servings.

Smashing Weekend for A's In Spite of SWABA Loss

The Kewaskum Athletics racked up a pair of victories last weekend, rebounding from a hard fought loss on Friday night. Their busy weekend opened with a hotly contested loss to Oconomowoc at Hustisford in the opening round of the Southern Wisconsin Amateur Baseball Association (SWABA) Tournament. The score was 5-4.

Getting back to Rock River League action, the A's defeated division opponents on Saturday and Sunday. A trip to Pardeeville on Saturday ended in a 10-9 win in a game which lasted 14 innings.

Iron Man Bob Bothe went the distance for Kewaskum on the mound to pick up the victory. Bothe threw 161 pitches, striking out five and walking five.

Kewaskum jumped out to a quick lead in the top of the first. Powered by a three run homer by Curt Schroeder and a solo blast by Tim Gundrum, the Athletics grabbed a 4-0 lead. It was the second consecutive game in which Schroeder hit a first inning homerun.

The Braves answered right back with three runs in the bottom of the first to make the score 4-3. The A's built their lead to 7-3 after 4 1/2 innings only to have Pardeeville cut it to 7-6 with three runs in the bottom of the fifth inning. Having added a run in the sixth inning, Kewaskum went into the bottom of the ninth inning leading 8-6.

That was short-lived as the lead-off hitter for the Braves doubled, leading off the inning. Shortstop Matt Denure then cracked a game-tying homer to set the stage for extra innings action.

Both teams scored a single tally in the 13th inning before the Athletics plated the game winner in the top of the 14th. Terry Koth singled with one out. After a fly ball for the second out, Tim Gundrum moved Koth around with another single.

Player/manager Dave Donath sent Koth home with the lead run with his fourth hit of the day. Bothe made that run stand up as the game ended with Todd Muckerheide doubling a runner off first base after catching a fly ball.

Dave Donath led the 15 hit attack with four safeties in seven trips to the plate. Tim Gundrum and Curt Schroeder each had a home run among his three hits. The offense was energized by eight stolen bases including three each by Kevin Klahn and Ryan Hall. Hall also picked up two hits.

Waupun left town Sunday on the tail end of a 15-6 score. The A's jumped out to a 6-1 lead after the first inning. The Athletics combined four hits, two walks and two errors to fuel the rally.

The big blows were a two-run triple by Curt Schroeder (his first of two) and a two-run homer by Dave Donath. Kewaskum was never seriously threatened after that.

Shawn Schneider pitched eight innings. He walked four and struck out four and was credited with the win. Dane Dorn pitched the scoreless ninth inning.

The hit parade was led by Curt Schroeder who closed out his weekend tear by going three for four with four runs scored and four driven in. In three games over the weekend, Schroeder collected nine hits in 14 at bats. He had two triples, two homers, scored six runs and drove in nine.

Dave Donath and Matt Sternig each contributed two hits with one of Donath's being a home run. Sternig drove in three runs.

The lead changed hands several times in Kewaskum's loss to Oconomowoc. The Athletics took the lead in the top of the first on back-to-back solo homers by Curt Schroeder and Terry Koth.

Oconomowoc scored three times in the bottom of the inning to gain the lead. The lead changed hands twice more before a promising Kewaskum uprising in the top of the seventh (and final) inning came up short. With one out, the A's loaded the bases, but were unable to push across the tying run.

Ryan Hall turned in a solid performance on the mound against a good Oconomowoc team. He walked six and struck out 3 as he went the distance. Schroeder had three hits while Kevin Klahn, Ryan Hall and Tim Gundrum each added two.

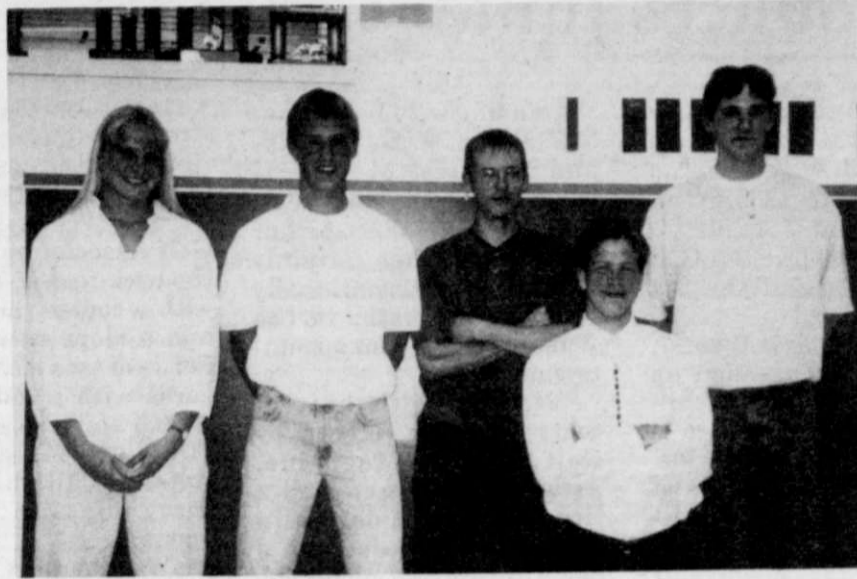

The weekend's action left Kewaskum with a 6-7 record in the Rock River League. Their mark in Tri County play is 5-3. Overall, the Athletics sport a 13-12 record for the season.

This weekend the Athletics travel to Clyman on Saturday to make up a Tri-County Nite League tilt which was rained out early in the season. On Sunday, the Oshkosh Merchants come to town for a Rock River League contest. Both games start at 1:30 p.m.

A pair of Kewaskum veterans picked up what has been an annual honor for them. Doug Gonring and Terry Koth were named to the Northern Division All-Star team. Gonring was selected to start as the designated hitter. He led the league in nearly every offensive category at the time of voting. Koth was selected at first base, after many years as the All-Star third baseman.

The North beat the Southern All-Stars, 5-3, in a game played at Watertown on July 11th. Koth played and hit safely to aid the Northern cause. Gonring was unable to play because

On May 27th, students of Terry Christie performed in a piano recital held in the Kewaskum High School band room. Piano solos and duets depicting many different styles of music entertained an audience of approximately 100 persons.

The audience soon learned that there was a budding composer in their midst as Katie Survis performed a piece she composed entitled, "Daydreams." Two of the students have become piano teachers for beginning students. Emily Boettcher and Aggie Friedel each have several of their own students. Two of Aggie's students performed in this recital.

Students were recognized for their accomplishments during the past year performing at Solo and Ensemble Contest and the Moraine Musician's Festival. Many of the students took advantage of these performance opportunities and did a wonderful job. The overall "Student of the Year" honor was awarded to Jenny Koth for musical quality and effort she displayed on a consistent basis all year.

Seniors Jeni Keller and Jeff Noren, were recognized for their accomplishments over the years. Jeni performed "Nocturne in E Flat" by Chopin, and "Military March" by Schubert. Washington County Golf Course Announces Junior Golf Camp

Washington County Golf Course is announcing a three day Junior Golf Camp from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. on July 30, 31, and August 1, 1997 to be held at the Golf Course's state of the art practice facility.

Any child, ages 6 to 17, is welcome. Please sign up your children or grandchildren early because space is limited to the first 50 kids. Camp includes 12 hours of instruction by PGA professionals, lunch and beverages every day, a souvenir camp towel, prizes and a certificate of completion.

The registration fee is $45 per child and all children must be pre-registered. Please call John Stutz, Clubhouse Supervisor at (414) 335-6870 or (414) 670-6616, or stop in at the Clubhouse located at 6439 Clover Road, Hartford, to sign up.

Personal instruction will be given daily by John Stutz, PGA professional and several guest PGA professionals. The new learning center which includes three acres of grass tees, a bent grass driving range with six target greens, a three-hole practice course, and a short game area, provides the ideal setting to improve your child's game.

The Washington County Golf Course is an 18-hole championship layout that has all bent grass fairways and measures over 7,007 yards from the back tees. Golf course architect Arthur Hills of Ohio has certainly worked his internationally renowned artistry in the Washington County countryside.

Named golf's hottest course architect recently by Golf Digest Magazine, Arthur Hills has created a fine example of design in orienting the course into a beautiful setting along the Rubicon River environmental corridor. Views off into the distance from the course include Powder Hill to the southeast, Holy Hill, the Rubicon River corridor, and the treetops of Hartford to the south.

The course topography has been designed and shaped with over 500,000 cubic yards of material moved on the site to represent the contours on the horizon. Another element of Hills' design is the use of taller native grass areas between fairways to accent the topography with changes in height, texture and color. The course will be one of very few publicly owned courses in Wisconsin to use bent grass fairways.

This premium feature is used in most of the newer courses because of its superior playing characteristics and appearance. Over 50 sand traps, four major water hazards, several stream obstacles, and three rockwall features come into play on the course.

The Wisconsin State Golf Association measured the back tees at 7,007 yards with a course rating of 73.1 and a slope rating of 130. Forward tees measure 5,200 yards with a course rating of 69.5 and a slope rating of 118. With four sets of tees, golfers of all abilities will enjoy playing this golf course.

Washington County and the immediate area can take great pride in this outstanding golf complex. The original benefactors' interest has been realized by providing a permanent, wholesome and attractive facility for the families of Washington County.

Thiemerdome Play 'Tumbles' On

It's mid-season at the Thiemerdome, maybe a little better even, but no one really seems to know for sure. We can hardly wait for the season to end so someone finally tells who is in first place. We don't even know who is supposed to have pennant fever and who just got bit by too many mosquitoes.

Yes... those pesky little bugs are running rampant at the Thiemerdome... just like everywhere else. Seems Richard forgot to put mosquito spray into the budget this year, along with assorted other amenities, such as VIP parking and indoor rest rooms, and I am still patiently waiting for the press box to be emptied... err... I mean remodeled. (Not to mention, the "fax machine" was out of tissue... err... I mean fax paper)

Management has promised many of these minor problems will be handled by season's end, but I seriously doubt it. Everyone seems to be too busy filling out insurance forms and installing the "911 Hotline."

The "Over 40 Boys" had a technical "recuperation" night off last week (they try to tell the press that the umpire is busy and can't call the game... but we did some investigative reporting and came to the conclusion from inside undisclosed sources that these boys need this "rest period" to heal all those aching muscles.

Things are looking up for the players tonight (Wednesday, July 23) as National Guard Troops were seen in the area airlifting special cases of Sports Creme to be dispensed as needed.

Also, bring a sweater if you are planning on coming out to the game(s) (no one seems to be able to tell me exactly how many are left... frankly, I think the way they plan on ending the season is when everyone runs out of players that are still on two legs... and the team with the most players still standing... WINS! That brings us to another problem. The way Amerahn and Thiemer's are recruiting new players every week, they might have to paint the ball black because these guys will definitely be able to last through December. At least if they paint the ball black they'll be able to find it in the snow! Sounds fantastic! I can't wait until the tailgating begins and the pre-game ceremonies and half-time entertainment. Start working on that, will ya Richard??)

Back to the basics... if you plan on attending all the hoopla at the Thiemerdome (you know you want to come out there... you haven't seen this kind of fun since Abbott and Costello went off the air... actually they were reincarnated and are playing at the Thiemer dome... but I'm not telling for what team... I'll let you figure that one out for yourself... who's in first???)

Seriously now... if you

Thierner's newest recruit, Tim Miller, "digs in" in preparation for that big hit. We're still waiting. This office did receive inquiries from the Brewers' front office on the agile Mr. Miller who said they would have to come up with at least seven figures before he would negotiate. Why not? If Brett Favre can hold out... so can Tim.

Modeling the latest in Thiemerdome baseball outerwear is none other than Steve Stern on first base. For those of you who don't recognize Steve, his jersey sports the number 00.

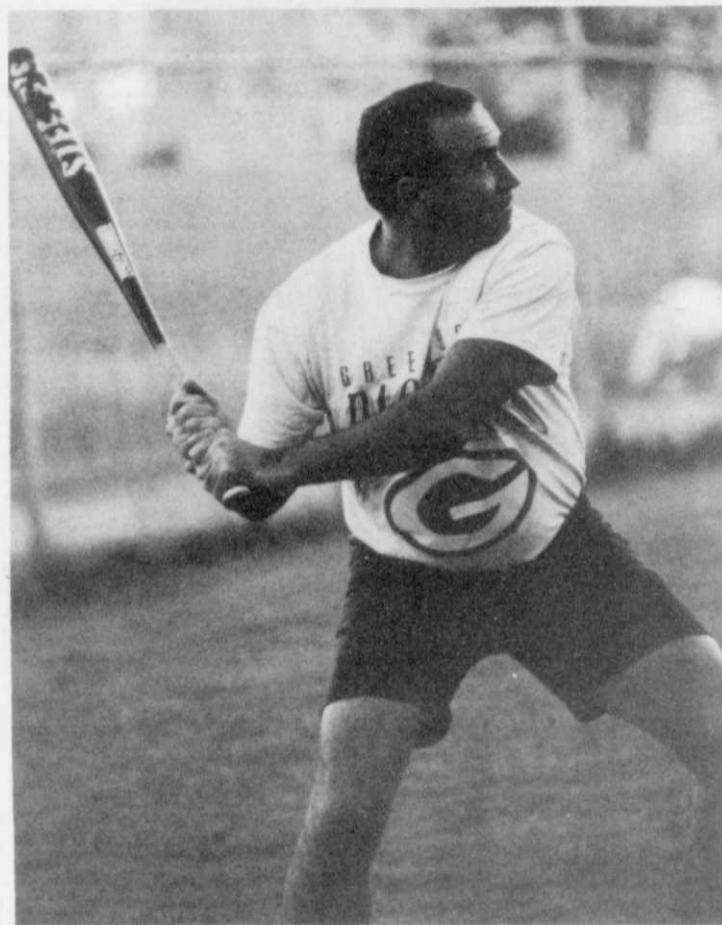

Relief pitcher Jeff Panzer fires one over the plate for Kuehl's Suds and Spirits. Be careful Moochie... he's after your job!

plan on attending this multi-national event... please remember three things: one -- bring a jacket (and put mosquito spray in the pocket) because the management still refuses to turn the air-conditioning off. It's very chilly. The second thing to remember is to come early. Parking is becoming a real problem and it is never known when the parking attendants are going out on strike. Lastly, bring a chair... the crowd is now at "standing room only" levels, but there is always room in the corn field just past the outfield. (Hey... if you wanted a seat behind, you would have had to fight area fans when the season began).

If and when the season ends it is hoped to take up a collection for new bleachers or a new picnic table, whichever is cheaper. Now the picnic table is a whole other story and someday, I hope Paul Harvey will be able to tell the "real story, America." If I tell it like it is, my entire marriage just might be in jeopardy... and if I slant the story the way it should be slanted, Richard won't be my friend anymore. Seeing that he is a barber and MEN are the biggest gossips, I'd be losing a valuable source of local news.

Enough for this week and

Ron Sabish takes aim to send one out of the park... problem is... no one knows where the end of the park is!

I promised to be kind... my bodyguard can't make it to the next game and I am truly becoming afraid the boys who so generously take all I dish out every week are growing a tad bit tired of the insults. But they work so hard to earn them! Sorry guys... I'll put on the baseball proof vest tonight!

Now for a report on action... if that's what you call it... I call it gymnastics!

There was much missing at the Thiemerdome on game day July 9th. Even Steve "Wiener" (you still spelled it wrong, Richard!) Stern and Al "Legs" Batchen (??) (Richard's spelling... penmanship Richard... penmanship!) both hit triples to squeak out a big win against the coachless Kuehl's Suds and Spirits minus Alan "Moochie" Kuehl who was out due to a flu bug (don't kid yourself... just another instance of mosquito overdose at the Thiemerdome).

With "Moochie" out and "Schnibby" and "Skinny" (someday I'll write about nicknames) sidelined by game-induced injuries, big brother and team General Manager Dennis Kuehl even had to help out behind the plate catching. (I offered but these guys are extremely sexist!) Dennis continued with his motivational speeches to his players, but countless errors were their ultimate downfall. That and the fact that every other sentence was "I should have got that hit" was distracting. It was felt that if Buddy Perkins could have been there "pumping" up the players with a little "attitude adjustment" a win could have been possible. But the injuries took their toll and so did Commercial Plumbing stealing the win from the lackluster Kuehl's team. (The General Manager ordered extra practice but I don't think anyone was paying attention. All this reporter overheard was, "Where's the cooler?")

In the second of the evening's double header, it looked like possibly Thierner's left their bats at home because Amerahn's ace pitcher Artie the Buss, kept the Thierner sluggers down to only three hits. Maybe "Red" Schladweiler should consider taking his vacation after the season is over.

Even the quick glove of Tim Miller, new recruit on second, didn't help when as he didn't seem to have those "quick moves" reaching the ball. (Tim promises to put the glove on the right hand this week!)

The main question on all the other players minds, John, seems to be where is Amerahn getting all these new players? "Who are those guys?"... and how can Amerahn staff such an extensive farm club?? How many farm clubs do they have?? Richard wants to know what kind of "bonus" was promised to Scotty "Sure Hands" Thelen. Richard stated, "He should be behind bars for all the hits he stole!" (It was the promise of "big bucks" from Nike, Richard). Adding to the agony, Dave "Smudley" (where do they get these nicknames???) Schmidt hit a three-run triple to take Thierner's down to the final humiliation, nine to ZIP!

I see by Richard's Report, I have been promised my very own press parking pass for this week... I'll believe it when I see it. He just wants more pictures. We'll bring the entire album to the last game... bring your bi-focals!

Slinger Knocks Indians Out of State Regional

Senior, Josh Christopherson slugs out a first base hit for the Indians.

Slinger's nine-game winning streak continued at the expense of the Indians on Friday, July 18. In a hard fought WIAA state regional, ten inning game, the Owls ended the Indian season by a score of 6-5.

Kewaskum traveled to Slinger and the teams proceeded to put on an exciting show for the large crowd assembled to watch the game. In one of the more exciting contests of the year it was unfortunate that someone had to loose. Good pitching and breath-taking defense were the order of the day.

Kewaskum's Dan Jeserig, in his final Indian career game, pitched all ten innings for Kewaskum. "Dan didn't strike out alot of Owls," stated Coach Mark Heise, "but he was throwing strikes and we were making plays behind him. Every inning I would ask him how he felt, and every inning his response was positive. I wasn't worried about his arm; he worked very hard all spring to get it in shape. He has a very good delivery and a very strong arm. We keep a pitching chart and Dan had only thrown 107 pitches going into the tenth. He's had games where he's thrown 120 pitches and recovered with no problems so I let him go. He deserved better, he pitched his heart out." Jeserig finished the game having thrown 114 pitches of which 84 were strikes and only 30 were balls.

Slinger pitchers, Kevin Tennies and Jason Scherr only had one glitch in their performance and that was in the fifth inning. The Indians scored all five of their runs in the top of the fifth. Dan Jeserig started the inning with a base hit to center.

After the next two Indians made out, Troy Staehler singled. Erik Kopecky and Kevin Martin both walked, which led to Coach Larry Tennes replacing Kevin Tennes with Jason Scherr.

Bruce Gundrum greeted Scherr with a single to left. Josh Christophersen then doubled to center to score the last two runs. At this point, Kewaskum had the lead at 5-4. Slinger scored a run in the bottom of the fifth to knot the game at five apiece.

The sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth innings saw both teams with diving catches, catchers throwing out base stealers, and clutch pitching with runners in scoring position.

All of this led to crowd frenzy. "At times the crowd was so loud that my players in the batter's box could not hear me from the third base coach's box. It was a great game to be involved in but it would have been nicer to be on the winning end," commented Heise.

Slinger scored the winning run in the bottom of the tenth with two out and lead-off hitter Ryan Schultz on second. Eric Kamrath hit Dan's first pitch to left but Indian Ryan Rammer's throw to the plate was too late and the Indian's season came to a heartbreaking end.
