Sesquicentennial Wagon Train Gets $25,000 Push from Ameritech

The corridor, a trade route between Chicago and Green Bay, eventually paved the way to Wisconsin's statehood on May 29, 1848.

The wagon train reenactment, consisting of over 20 authentic horse-drawn carriages and over 200 costumed participants, will leave Pleasant Prairie on May 30, 1998 and travel through various Wisconsin towns, ending its journey in Luxemburg on June 13. Also pictured at the check presentation held in October at Milwaukee Veterans Park are other members of Wagons of Wisconsin, a group of horse enthusiasts who are donating their time and resources to re-enact the historic wagon train journey.

District Gifted and Talented Coordinator Presents Overview of Program to Board

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Kewaskum School District Gifted and Talented Coordinator Curt Casetta recently presented an overview of the program to school board members during a special session meeting to explain how it has evolved over the last few years.

"It began as a resource guide (and developed) into a hands-on pro-active program where I'm actually out working with the kids and the teachers, as well as providing the resource material," Casetta stated, and went on to explain the three primary ways the program services students.

The pullout program identifies students and brings them together on a regular basis to work together on thinking activities, as well as directed and independent studies. An art enrichment program is also in force at all three elementary schools in which artistically talented students work together on projects that benefit the school and the community, such as the Wayne Sesquicentennial quilt and stenciling of the

D.A.R.E. Program to Begin At Junior High Level Here

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Beginning the second semester of this school year, the D.A.R.E. program will be implemented at the junior high level for the first time in the Kewaskum School District.

During a recent special meeting of the school board, board member Lisa Maul said she had originally expressed the desire to start a seventh grade program. "I want my kids to have this in middle school," she told the others.

Officer Tom Bauer from the Kewaskum Police Department gave information regarding the history of the D.A.R.E. program within the district, which began in 1983, and said he believed "it will work significantly better with a seventh grade followup."

According to a letter and handout from Police Chief Richard Knoebel to the schools, studies put out by the NIDA (National Institute on Drug Abuse) indicate a decline in illicit drug use by teenagers for the first time since 1992, and a decrease in drug usage by 11 and 12 year olds, the very age group currently receiving the core of D.A.R.E. instruction.

In favor of some type of drug education program, though not necessarily D.A.R.E., board member John Schulte cast the lone vote against the motion, which would include approximately $2,500 in costs to train Officer Bauer.

halls at Farmington Elementary.

Whole class enrichment brings Curt into the classrooms to work with all students and their teachers by providing thinking activities and assisting through modeling lessons pertaining to specific classroom subjects. This includes working with smaller groups in special interest topics, like a writing workshop, and enrichment activities such as the Harmony in the Arts field trip to the symphony and a Milwaukee museum for all students in grades third, fourth and fifth. "We're hoping to spark an interest in something they may not even know about yet, that lies within their interests and abilities," Casetta told the board.

As a resource person as well, Curt works as a sort of clearing house for Schulte questioned some of the past curriculum and recent criticism D.A.R.E. had received at a national level as his reasons for wanting to investigate other programs as possible options.

Audience member Brian Bausch, a deputy sheriff who has served as a D.A.R.E. officer for many years, told the board the program's curriculum has been rewritten and tested as many as eight times since its beginnings, and further studies show D.A.R.E. works significantly better with a seventh grade followup instruction. "D.A.R.E. would be quite ineffective if we didn't have parent involvement," he added.

Officer Bauer pointed out great emphasis has to be placed on the interaction between the students and the police officer, which includes spending time with each other during lunch hours and recess. "It helps build a positive bond that carries into their future," Bauer expressed. He will be sent to a three day D.A.R.E. training seminar in Jefferson, Missouri to prepare for seventh grade instruction.

The 17 lesson D.A.R.E. course will begin in January, 1998, and will expand on social issues, violence, and refusal skills training. Kewaskum School District students having received D.A.R.E. instruction now reaches into the senior class.

any seminars and activities, and provides teachers with materials, books, and information about activities that help enhance student thinking. Extra curricular activities aimed at enhancing the entire program give kids a chance to put their skills to the test. Odyssey of the Mind, Geography Bee, and the Spelling Bee are examples of enrichment related district activities.

Students with Gifted and Talented needs are identified through test scores (95-97 percentile), and teacher and parent nominations, working with a list of characteristics used to distinguish the child gifted in general intelligence/learning, creativity, leadership, and visual/performing arts.

This year, 66 students have been participating in

'Coats for Families' Distribution Saturday at West Bend

The "Coats for Families" coat drive collection phase is completed. Distribution is the key and the sole purpose of the drive. Please help us get the message out to the citizens of West Bend and the surrounding communities. It is very important for us to be able to get the message to those that can use our help.

We have collected over 2000 coats and over 300 of these coats and snowsuits are for children. These are good quality coats that anyone would be willing to wear home. The response in donations has been phenomenal. It goes to show that all of those that donated and those of us involved in the drive support the people in our community that have to work hard to make their money last from month to month. We all want the people that could use the boost of a new coat to come to the distribution on Saturday Nov. 8th from 9 a.m. to 3p.m. The following message was sent before but it is the message we need to get out to the community. Please help us get as many coats as possible distributed this year. Thank you.

The "Coats for Families" coat drive is for the mothers and fathers that have to decide whether to pay the heating bill, buy more food for the kids or buy clothing for winter weather. This is for the elderly on Social Security or pension making the same decisions. It is for those having a hard time making ends meet caring for themselves and their families. This drive is for people having a hard time stretching a dollar to stay afloat each month.

All the people donating coats and all of us working on the coat drive appreciate and respect your day to day efforts. This coat drive is our way of showing our respect and support for you.

We want you to come to the distribution on Saturday November 8th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Penny's store in the Paradise Mall in West Bend.

We will help you find coats and other outer winter clothing that will work for you and your family. Please avail yourself of our services-we want you to come. If you want to you can leave your current coat with us for us to clean and make available so someone else can use it later this year-thanks.

Getting coats to people that can use them in the West Bend and surrounding area is the ONLY point of the drive. We are sending this information to all the areas we are serving including Slinger, Jackson, Newburg, Allenton, Kewaskum, Theresa, Lomira and Campbellsport and their surrounding areas.

Readers Asked to Share Favorite Holiday Recipes

As you bring back delicious memories of Christmases past by baking tasty treats and homemade traditions for family and friends, why not share your favorite holiday recipes with other Statesman readers.

You remember, the wonderful flavors and smells of grandma's kitchen during Christmastime.... chocolate, gingerbread, and cinnamon. One step into the aromatic room could help anyone forget about the stress of the hectic holiday season.

This year, the Kewaskum Statesman would like to join in the spirit of the "ultimate baking and cooking" season by asking all their readers to send in a copy of their special holiday recipe for publication in upcoming issues, including our Christmas issue being mailed to our readers December 17.

Share your family's favorite holiday foods with the community to help make the season bright and delicious! We will print your name under your (or grandma's) recipe to identify the holiday treats you make for your family.

Whether it is cookies, breads, candy, stuffing, punch, stollen or a main dish, without these treats, perhaps your Christmas just wouldn't be the same. So take a little of that precious holiday time to jot down those recipes (and if you like, the reason the recipes are so much a part of your holiday celebration). Send them to The Kewaskum Statesman Holiday Recipes, P.O. Box 98, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

You may send them as soon as you like, for as soon as we receive them and depending on the number we receive, we can begin to fill the upcoming issues with the favorite holiday recipes of your family and your neighbors that you might like to try this year.

Please include your name, address and phone number, as all recipe contributors will be entered in a special drawing for a very unique holiday prize. And... by all means, if you feel it would be absolutely necessary for the Statesman to sample any of these treats... feel free to stop in.

A Stroll Up Main Street

Our "Stroll Up Main Street" this week on the north side of the street, heading west, brings us to the former Kewaskum Floral building. The windows in the photo are barely readable but they do advertise some type of shoe store. However, no one seems to remember the shoe store, but do remember when the building housed Kewaskum Floral. Tragedy struck the building on New Year's Eve in 1963, when fire burned the establishment to the ground. A residence was built on the land and it was purchased by the Merlin Dreher family. The home now is owned by the Randy and Wendi Dreher family as shown in the photo below. If anyone has historic information to contribute about the upcoming businesses on the north side of Main Street (Eberles, The Kewaskum Statesman), please send the information to the Kewaskum Statesman.

Christian Education Sunday Held At St. Lucas Church and School

Sunday, October 19 marked the celebration of Christian Education Sunday at St. Lucas Lutheran Church and School. A special church service was held on Sunday morning with the Christian Day School children singing, "We Are Family Under God," "Father Welcomes," and Psalm 78. The Junior Choir sang the Verse of the Day. Pastor Henning delivered his sermon on the importance of Christian Education based on Deuteronomy 11:1-7, 16-21. A potluck and topic were then enjoyed at Hoenecke Hall. An interesting, informative and Biblical topic, "Principles of Christian Parenting," was given by Pastor Don Sutton from St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Watertown. Food and fellowship were enjoyed by all.

Preliminary Deer Zone T Antlerless Harvests 7,000

MADISON -- Deer hunters participating in a special four-day "Zone T" deer hunt from October 23 through 26 harvested 7,055 antlerless deer according to preliminary figures compiled by Department of Natural Resources wildlife managers.

The special hunt was held in seven deer management units and three state parks, primarily in the southern farmland regions of the state. The Zone T hunt concept was created to control deer populations in management units that were well over prescribed management goals, explains Bill Mytton, DNR deer and bear ecologist.

Last October, hunters harvested more than 25,000 deer during a special four-day hunt held in the 19 management units. Along with the hunt being held in half as many deer management units as last year, another reason for the reduced harvest this year is that the units included in Zone T this year were not as overpopulated as many of the units were last year.

Additionally, last year, there was an "earn-a-buck" requirement that hunters who planned to hunt in Zone T units during the regular season had to harvest an antlerless deer before they could harvest a buck. That requirement was dropped this year.

"This was really a very good harvest considering we didn't have the 'earn-a-buck' incentive that we had last year," Mytton says, "and considering that the weather was not ideal."

Mytton said wildlife managers won't know how successful the special Zone

T hunt was at controlling the population in these units until after all of the deer seasons are completed.

"We have to see how many antlerless deer are harvested during the archery and regular nine-day season. The special season is just one component of our efforts to control deer numbers. There are also a lot of bonus and hunter's choice permits that can be used in other seasons," he said.

Although there was no effort made to count the number of hunters participating in the special hunt, Mytton says that even with a conservative hunter success rate of around 20%, there would have been more than 25,000 hunters in the field for the special hunt.

"That is a significant number of hunters who participated in the Zone T season, and that's what's really important. The season provided hunters with additional opportunities to enjoy their sport, and it was a safe hunt," Mytton said.

No accidents were reported during the special hunt, but conservation wardens did report that hunting pressure on public hunting grounds within the Zone T units was very heavy.

A listing of registrations by county includes: Kenosha - 50; Racine - 19; Walworth - 19; Waukesha - 7; Oconto - 859; Door - 363; Shawano - 700; Outagamie - 224; Waupaca - 1044; Calumet - 8; Brown - 45; Sauk - 1107; Richland (included in Sauk County total); LaCrosse - 8; Vernon - 646; Pierce; Pepin - 343; Buffalo 826; Portage - 141; Trempeleau - 639; unknown 7.

Almost 32 million people in the US speak languages other than English--a 38 percent increase over 1980. Programs do not have enough space to serve everyone who wants to learn English. Most cities have waiting lists of several months to several years, and some rural areas have no available classes.

WHAT'S FOR DINNER TONIGHT?

(DM)—Old family favorites, like pot roast, are back in fashion, but now they're called "comfort food" because they remind us of our childhood. Often, there's a flavor-twist added to bring these classics up-to-date. In New American Pot Roast the savory difference comes from using Kikkoman Teriyaki Marinade & Sauce as the base of the braising liquid. A blend of naturally brewed soy sauce, wine, sugar and select spices, bottled teriyaki marinade & sauce is the only seasoning needed to give this roast and gravy a rich, piquant flavor. Serve this one-pot meal with a savory fig-studded bakery bread, or a bread of your choice, and treat your family to a new taste in pot roast.

NEW AMERICAN POT ROAST

- |  |                                       |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| 4- pound boneless beef chuck pot roast   | 1½ pounds small red potatoes, halved* |
| 2 tablespoons vegetable oil              | 1 bag (1 lb.) baby-cut carrots        |
| ¾ cup Kikkoman Teriyaki Marinade & Sauce | ½ pound pearl onions, halved*         |
| 1 large bay leaf                         | ¾ cup all-purpose flour               |

Brown beef slowly on both sides in hot oil in Dutch oven or large saucepan. Stir in teriyaki sauce, 2 cups water and bay leaf. Cover and simmer 2½ hours, turning beef over every 30 minutes. Add potatoes, carrots and onions. Cover and simmer 20 minutes, or until beef and vegetables are tender. Meanwhile, blend flour and 1 cup water. Remove beef and vegetables; keep warm. Discard bay leaf. Bring pan juices to boil; gradually stir in flour mixture, cooking until mixture thickens. To serve, cut beef across grain into thin slices and serve with hot gravy and vegetables.

Makes 8 servings.
* If using larger potatoes, cut into quarters. Substitute 1 medium onion, cut in wedges, for pearl onions.

Varsity Volleyball Team Concludes Season

By Scarlett M. Spagna

The Kewaskum High School girls' varsity volleyball team set themselves into cooperative play by reinforcing strength and values in competition.

Coach Dave Rizzardi commented that his goals for the team this past season were, "to win, to improve, to learn and grow as a team, and to nurture each other's volleyball ability."

Coach Rizzardi explained that, "We had nine seniors start the year that had playing experience. We had three returning all conference players: Dawn Felix, Carrie Wiesner and Ali Heise."

The varsity team learned to deal with their weaknesses by improving on their strengths. Coach Rizzardi also noted that, "we didn't have much experience at the setting and blocking positions."

He added that, "We mixed lineups at the start of the year to try and find the best combination. I really wanted to improve our middle. It was one of the positions Kewaskum has never been really strong at. We tried to improve our middle and that led us to more successfully control the net."

The team held many personalities because of the diversity in players. Coach Rizzardi explained that, "the unique personalities came together to create a successful team." He added that sometimes it's hard to blend different personalities, but they were able to do it.

The varsity team knew that if they stayed in tune with themselves and the game, their result would be well-played.

"We had a hard time maintaining a consistent level of play. We sometimes had a hard time focusing on our game because of those unique personalities," Coach Rizzardi observed.

Highlighting the season was their eight win, four loss conference record and their 16 win and eight loss tournament and non-conference record.

Overall, Coach Rizzardi noted that, "In general, they enjoyed the game and wanted to get better. They wanted to learn volleyball above a basic level which is what we try to do. They're a pretty good team to coach and to be around."

The varsity volleyball team consisted of Jessie Repovsch, Tricia Krebs, Joanne Thull, Erin Theusch, and Erin Krueger, hitters; Amie Stephani and Ali Heise, back row; Carrie Wiesner, hitter/setter; Becky Repovsch and Jackie Korneli, setters; and Dawn Felix, Amy Rettler, and Renae Hills, middle.

Because the girls had worked together for some time, they were used to each other's skills and expectations. As expressed by Ali Heise, "This mostly senior dominated team has given us the chance to really come together over the past couple years."

"The juniors benefitted a lot because they learned a lot from the seniors. It was a great experience," Jackie Korneli added.

Joanne Thull observed that, "We've been working with the same group since middle school. We know each other pretty well. We can talk and get along."

Erin Krueger agreed, saying, "We pulled together this year after working together as a team for three years."

Positive attitudes helped shape a positive team. Carrie Wiesner noted that, "when we played to our full potential we had the ability to carry ourselves very far."

Jessie Repovsch said, "I think I've improved since last year because I've been on a club team in Fond du Lac last winter with Dawn Felix and Amy Rettler. We had more time to practice. We can't get it all in in a regular season."

"When we want it, we got it," added Joanne Thull.

Amie Stephani agreed, explaining that, "Overall, it's been a lot of fun."

Grand Opening at Woodview Veterinary Clinic This Weekend

After breaking ground on November 11, one year ago, the Woodview Veterinary Clinic proudly announces its Grand Opening on Saturday and Sunday, November 8 and 9, 1997, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

Woodview Veterinary Clinic, owned and operated by Dr. Daniel Bushard and Dr. Mary Hanrahan, is located at 3284 Lighthouse Lane in West Bend on the southeast corner of Lighthouse Lane and Highway D.

The new facility is a full service veterinary hospital and is the first in Washington County to have facilities to hospitalize and perform surgery on large animals. The new facility will allow clients to have horses cared for on an inpatient, as well as outpatient basis.

There is a large treatment area including stocks for safety and restraint of large animals. Several horses are available for those patients requiring extended care. A closed circuit television system is in place.

The small animal portion of the clinic includes a reception area, complete with retail area featuring animal health supplies including premium and prescription pet foods.

There are several exam rooms plus an expanded treatment area with enlarged surgical, dental and radiology facilities. Ample space is available for indoor runs and expanded kennel space for boarding cats and dogs.

In addition to routine medicine and surgery, the practice, which serves animals in Washington, Ozaukee and Sheboygan counties, also offers dentistry, radiography and ultrasound.

Woodview Veterinary Clinic provides veterinary services 365 days a year and offers emergency service 24 hours a day. Routine service is scheduled by appointment, with day, evening and Saturday hours available. The new facility is handicapped accessible with ample parking and easy access for horse trailers.

Chad Harlow Cast in Lead Role in UW-SP Musical

Chad Harlow of Kewaskum has been cast in the lead role of the upcoming University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point musical "Secret Garden" which opens at the Jenkins Theatre this Friday night, November 7.

Harlow, a senior musical theater and dance major, will play Archibald Craven, who inherits an 11-year-old niece, Mary, after she is orphaned in India.

The setting of the play is India during 1911.

Mary is not allowed to see Archibald's son who is very ill but she defies the grownups and visits him anyway.

The play centers around their relationship and the fact that Archibald is haunted by visions of his dead wife Lilly.

Dream sequences and flashbacks are used to tell the stories of Mary's childhood in India and of Archibald's love for Lilly.

Other characters in the show are Martha, a chamber maid, and Dr. Neville Craven, Archibald's brother. "Secret Garden" is based on a children's classic written by Frances Hodgson in 1911.

In 1991, "Secret Garden" was turned into a Broadway musical. It was nominated for 14 Tonys that year and ended up winning three of them.

The show will be run November 7 and 8 at 7:30 p.m. and November 9 at 2 p.m. It will also be presented November 12, 13, 14 and 15, at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

During the past four years, Harlow has held many roles in dramas and musicals at UW-Stevens Point. Last year, he drew rave reviews for his portrayal of Brindsley in "Black Comedy", a role which earned him an Irene Ryan nomination.

Harlow also played the part of Jimmy Powers in "City of Angels" and he starred in "By George," a musical revue saluting George Gershwin. He was also named as actor of the year by the UW-Stevens Point Theatre Department and the chancellor's award for academic excellence.

During the past summer, Harlow worked professionally at the Fireside Theatre in Fort Atkinson, taking the role of Simeon in "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

Over 71,000 saw the show which broke all attendance records at the popular dinner theatre.

Weekly Meeting of Separated, Divorced

The group is open to singles, widows and widowers. Many of the topics pertain to single parents and other individuals rebuilding their lives and relationships.

During November a Food Pantry food drive will be held for the holiday season. A subject yet to be announced will be held at the November 7 meeting.

"Making It Through the Holidays - With Some Help from God" with Doug Kivacevick will be featured at the November 14 meeting.

The topic for the November 21 meeting will be "Don't Sabotage Yourself" with Mary Ihm.

All members and alumni are welcome to attend the annual Thanksgiving potluck scheduled for November 28.

You hold in your hand a living textbook.

Many years ago some newspaper people recognized that the newspaper is a "living textbook." The simple process of writing and printing a textbook means that most of them are out of date as soon as they are published.

So the concept of using newspapers in the classroom was born. Today, newspapers are used in classrooms and in other continuing education programs throughout the country, not as substitutes for textbooks but as supplements to them.

When learning math is not cool to a youngster, perhaps using the newspaper to open the door to percentages -- as in baseball averages -- may be a major breakthrough. When trying to learn about adjectives, finding examples in newspaper stores may make them come alive in real situations.

Parents can pick up on this concept and read newspapers to their children, and encourage them to read the newspaper themselves when they are able.

Since textbooks aren't cool, don't tell your children they are holding a living textbook when they pick up a newspaper. But watch their grades improve and watch them grow into well-rounded citizens.

A survey of workers at a large Detroit industrial plant attempted to find out what it was that employees objected to in their supervisors. The overwhelming response was that the bosses were "always asking us to do something."

Humane Society Invites Kewaskum to Join National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week

In recognition of National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, November 2-8, The Washington County Humane Society and The Humane Society of the United States are asking citizens of Kewaskum to take a closer look at the valuable role their animal shelter plays in enhancing the quality of life in their community.

In a time of declining public services, The Washington County Humane Society still provides a much-needed safety net for companion animals and the public. From reuniting families with their lost pets, to investigating animal cruelty, to adopting animals into loving, responsible homes; and providing food, care, shelter, and comfort to injured, lost and abandoned animals. The Washington County Humane Society provides vital services not available anywhere else in the community.

Last year alone, the Washington County Humane Society:

- *Adopted over 435 dogs and 340 cats to re-sponsible, loving homes;
- *Rescued countless injured animals;
- *Returned 600 lost pets to their owners;
- *Responded to 27,000

Deer Can Be a Deadly, Costly Driving Hazard

MADISON -- Deer are a deadly and costly driving hazard on Wisconsin highways.

Last year there were nearly 40,000 deer/auto collisions in Wisconsin resulting in three deaths and more than 800 injured. About 40% of those accidents occurred in October and November.

Deer/auto collisions also cost the auto insurance industry about $2,000 per claim, according to the Wisconsin Insurance Alliance (WIA).

WIA reports that five cents of every auto insurance premium dollar goes to pay for the costs of deer/auto collisions.

Among Wisconsin counties, Dane, Marathon and Columbia had the most deer/auto crashes last year. In Florence, Adams and Marquette counties, deer/auto collisions actually outnumbered non-deer crashes.

To avoid hitting a deer, the WIA suggests the following defensive driving tips:

* Be extra cautious during early morning and evening hours, the most active time for deer. Use your high-beam headlights, which reflect in the deer's eyes, to see the deer better.

* Slow down and blow your horn with one long blast to frighten the deer away.

* Brake firmly when you notice a deer in or near your path. Do not swerve. It can confuse the deer as to where to run. It can also cause you to lose control and hit a tree or another car.

* Be alert and drive with caution when you are moving through a deer crossing zone.

* Always wear your seat belt. Most people injured in deer/auto crashes were not wearing their seat belt.

* Look for other deer after one has crossed the road. Deer seldom travel alone.

If your vehicle strikes a deer, do not touch the animal. The frightened animal, in attempting to move, could hurt you or itself. According to WIA, the best procedure is to get your car off the road, if possible, and call the sheriff.

Contact your insurance agent or company representative to report any damage to your car. Collision with an animal is covered under the comprehensive portion of your auto insurance policy.

animal-related calls;

*Supplied permanent identification to over 55 animals;

*Taught humane education lessons to more than 1500 school children;

*Investigated over 60 complaints of cruelty to animals;

"Our pets are part of our families, and they add so much to our lives," says Lynn Eurich, Director of Development. "The Washington County Humane Society will continue to serve the community, so that, together, we can provide the best possible care for our four-footed companions."

Breast Feeding Support Group

St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend is holding a breast-feeding support group meeting on Monday, November 10, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. and Wednesday, November 12, from 1 to 3 p.m. in the hospital's New Life Center classroom. "Common Concerns" will be this month's topic.

The free, informal support group addresses common concerns for those who are breast-feeding and those who are interested in learning about breast-feeding.

To register or for more information, please call St. Joseph's Community Hospital's New Life Center at 334-8361.

Zarling Retires After 29 Years Community Service

History was made when Mrs. Evelyn Zarling officially announced her retirement from the Washington County Historical Society.

It all began for Zarling back in 1962 when the Historical Society moved into a small portion of the Old Jailhouse. Eventually, they took over the whole building, setting up displays and making room for researchers and events. With the new tenant, the county hired Zarling in March 1968 to oversee the maintenance of the Old Jailhouse. When the Society officially began the renovation of the Old Courthouse in 1991, all the county staff that were employed to maintain the museum at the time became employed by the Historical Society.

Over the past twenty-nine years, Evelyn has done a variety of jobs including everything from cleaning to curating, but her true love has always been research. For the last several years, her attention solely has been focused on providing answers to the numerous requests for genealogical and local history information. In this endeavor, she has also had the help of many terrific volunteers, who she cites as the most important reason for the current success of the museum.

Zarling, who recently gave up housekeeping for the convenience and companionship of living at Hawthorn Manor, will turn 80 in December. She is looking forward to having sometime off from work after almost thirty years of dedicated service, but she says she'll be back to volunteer when she's needed.

The society will officially host a retirement party for Zarling on Tuesday, November 18, 7:00 p.m. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend to hear some of Evelyn's treasured memories and to share this special occasion. For more information, call the Society at 335-4678.

Art of Meditation Program Offered

The technique of achieving peaceful relaxation is the focus of "The Art of Meditation," a program offered by St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend, on Thursday, November 20. The program will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. in the hospital's fourth floor east conference room.

Meditation is the process of focusing on the present moment, according to educator Diane Lipman, who will present the program. The program teaches the benefits and techniques of meditation, a simple discipline that can enhance the well-being of mind, body and spirit.

The fee is $8. Registration is requested by November 13. For more information, please call the hospital's health promotion services department at 334-8268.

I believe in the discipline of silence and can talk for hours about it.

We have started a new fund raiser selling cheesecakes from Suzy's Cheesecakes and anyone interested should contact Marilyn Filber by November 1 at 629-9900.

We are also doing a service project by helping several community members with health problems. We will be collecting food for a Thanksgiving dinner to be brought to the November 11 meeting. If you have any questions, contact Cindy Tobin at 629-9009.

There was a county-wide Halloween Dance in Newburg on October 31.

The Wayne Crusaders hold their monthly meetings the second Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. at St. John's Church in the Town of Wayne is anyone is interested in attending.

November's meeting will also be Parent's Night.

Children's literacy levels are strongly linked to the educational level of their parents, especially their mothers. The most significant predictor of success in school is having a mother who completed high school.

Halloween Fun at Kewaskum Schools

Matthew Vana, from Mrs. Schreiber's first grade, works on keeping his heavy wings aloft during the Halloween Parade at Kewaskum Elementary School.

At Farmington Elementary School, Mr. Schneider makes a cut for fourth graders Ryan Hellund and Renee Keeley. It was the culmination for a pumpkin measuring activity.

Stopping in at KES to say "hi" to Mrs. Stradtman's kindergarten class is a friendly troll.

Thank You

My public expression of gratitude to so many of you who helped me through several months of illness has been a long time coming. Sometimes we find it difficult to express inner feelings in words.

In times of distress we become highly aware of God's presence among us through the prayers, generosity and concerns of those around us. My sincere thanks to my husband Roger, my dear family and friends, our good neighbors, the doctors and nurses, and all those who were so faithful in supplying my every need - including love and encouragement.

My prayer is that I now, in return, can follow your examples in helping to make God's presence felt among all those around me. God bless each of you.

Irma Reindl

Happiness is not the absence of conflict, but the ability to cope with it.

PRAYER OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven. Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my Mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days and then you must publish and it will be granted to you.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, you help me see everything and you who show me the way to reach my goal and ideal. You who give me the Divine gift to forgive, and forget the wrong that is done to me. You who know my innermost thoughts and desires, I want to thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory, Amen. Thank you for your love for me and my loved ones. You must pray this prayer 3 consecutive days without asking your wish. After the 3rd day you wish will be granted no matter how difficult it might be. Promise to publish this dialogue as soon as your favor has been granted.

A.S.

A NOTE OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone who visited and remembered me with cards, gifts, flowers and phone calls while I was a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital and since I returned home. Special thanks to the pastors at St. John's Lutheran Church for their visits and prayers, to Dr. Machi and Dr. Kaufmann and the nurses at St. Joseph's Hospital.

'Convenient Care' 24-Hour Medical Service Offered

A new 24-hour medical service at St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend is treating patients for non-urgent illnesses and injuries and providing immediate relief during times when doctors' offices are closed.

The walk-in service, called Convenient Care, is offered to patients through the hospital's emergency department and is less costly than traditional emergency care. A limited number of conditions are treated through Convenient Care, including urinary tract infections, sore throats, sprains, simple rashes, upper respiratory infections and others. The service does not replace a patient's ongoing relationship with a family doctor.

"Convenient Care is one way to help patients make better decisions about their health care and better manage their care. At times when other care is not conveniently available -- outside of local clinic hours, for example -- Convenient Care gives patients the treatment and education they need," said Sandi Walter, nurse manager of the emergency department.

Registration and assessment is similar to that given an emergency patient. Patients are seen in the order of the seriousness of their illness and injury, and they are evaluated and diagnosed by emergency department staff. The patient is then informed whether his or her condition fits Convenient Care criteria. In some cases, emergency care may be appropriate.

The patient receives instructions on self-care at home before being discharged. Some patients may still need to contact their own physician following a Convenient Care visit.

More information on Convenient Care may be obtained by calling St. Joseph's emergency department at 334-8257.

CORRECTION

An error was mistakenly perpetrated last week when we incorrectly identified the creators of one of the winners of the Scarecrow Contest.

"Friendly Fred" was designed and created by Maura Boyd, Tricia Brath and Brenda Flasch, Kewaskum Middle School students (not Holy Trinity School students as we erroneously reported).

Procrastination has once again reared its ugly head and proven to be mine worst enemy. Forgive me students and you, too, Gwen.

Holy Trinity Third Graders Visit Riveredge

Listening at the creek, Holy Trinity third graders learn hearing is better with hands behind their ears rather than with their hands in front of their ears.

Mrs. Dums (background), Bryanne Timblin, Lindsay Krautkramer, Rachel Tuszynski, Allison Kowalczyk and Katie Schoofs examine each others' samples in their special magnifying boxes.

Elisa and Katherine Schoofs examine their hand-held magnifying glasses.

Bryanne Timblin, Allison Kowalczyk and Rachel Tuszynski.

We rode to Riveredge with Mrs. Theisen, Mrs. Dums, and Mrs. Wade. We were met at Riveredge by Mary, our Teacher-Naturalist and Mr. Goham. We learned about the forest and the field communities.

BRIDGE

Lindsay and Karissa's favorite part was when we were on our way to the forest where the creek was. We walked to a bridge over a creek. We talked about the animals around the creek. We listened to the creek and heard the water rushing down the creek. We heard a Kingfisher. When we put our hands behind our ears we heard better than putting our hands in front of the ears. Elisa found a "yellow with black dots caterpillar."

BLINDFOLD GAME

Katie Schoofs, Bryan Theisen and Dan Shea remembered playing a game where they wore a blindfold. A person's partner would take the person wearing the blindfold to a tree. The blindfolded person would feel, smell and hug the tree. Then the person's partner would take the person back to the group, take off the blindfold, and have them try to find the tree.

PASS THE BOXES

Bryanne Timblin, Rachel Tuszynski and Steve Volm enjoyed the field trip to Riveredge. They caught slugs, spiders, worms and grasshoppers in little magnifying containers. After looking at their own, everyone formed a circle and passed the boxes for all to examine.

MAGNIFYING LENSES

Lauden Belongia, Emily Boden, and Elisa Schoofs investigated with hand lenses. Hand lenses are three magnifying glasses in one. We used them to look at tree bark. We looked at forest soil and field soil with them. The hand lenses were diamond shaped and had a string on them so we could put them around our necks.

DIRT/SOIL

Allison Kowalczyk, Ryan Wade and Nicole Hesprich used hand lenses to see a lot of things that were hard to see with the bare eye. They saw the rings in a tree close up. They looked at dirt with their hand lens and saw little white dots. Karissa let her mom use her hand lens. They saw pollen close up, too. They also learned that some fields have sandy soil.

FIELDS

Mary helped us to find the "green crayon." It has a girl's name and a boy's name and is in every green plant. It is Clor o Phyll (chlorophyll).

We already have our next date set to go to Riveredge. It is January 12 when we will learn about life in winter.

JV Football Team Caps 8-1 Season Defeating New Holstein, 15-14

The JV football team defeated New Holstein, 15-14, in dramatic fashion last Tuesday to cap off a great season.

The Indians first touchdown came on a one-yard run by David Lettow. Kewaskum trailed late in the fourth quarter, 7-14. The offense began their game winning drive with approximately four minutes left in the game and the ball on their own 40-yard line.

Running backs Mike Farchione and David Lettow ran tough and made key first downs to get the ball down to the New Holstein one yard line. Farchione plunged over from the one to make the score 13-14 in favor of New Holstein.

Quarterback Chris Koth then ran a bootleg in for the two point conversion to give the Indians a 15-14 lead. The defense, which played hard all game, shut down the Huskies for the rest of the game.

The victory gave the JV team an 8-1 record for the year. The only blemish for the season was a 0-14 loss at Plymouth.

Neumann Attains Cross Country Goal

At the beginning of the cross country season this past August, Carol Neumann set a goal for herself. That goal was to qualify for the WIAA State Cross Country Championships at the Ridges Golf Course in Wisconsin Rapids.

That goal was realized two weeks ago at the sectional meet in Ripon and this past Saturday the dream came true. With all the excitement and nervousness that takes place at a meet of this caliber, held on a challenging course in weather conditions that one usually bundles up in warm winter clothes, Carol met the challenge.

With the temperature hovering in the forties and rain threatening, the race got underway. Carol moved out with the lead group and cruised through the one mile mark in 6:20 in 27th place.

Shortly before the two mile mark, Carol had moved up to 25th place which she held on to with a strong kick through the finish. Carol's finishing time was 16:10, which is her second best time of the season.

When asked how she felt about the race afterwards, Carol's reply was, "I'm happy."

Coach Dave Drexler had a few more things to say however! "I am very happy and proud of Carol for her accomplishments this season. She was very focused throughout the season and knew what she had to do to reach her goal. All I can say Carol is thanks for a great season!"

"This IS all make-believe, isn't it, Dad?"

Despite Winning Effort, Indians Lose Last Game of the Season

The Kewaskum Indians football team traveled to New Holstein for its final game of the '97 season. New Holstein tied for the EWC championship with Sheboygan Falls with identical 6-1 records.

The Indians, who have come alive offensively in four of their last five games, having averaged 332 yards and scoring 114 points, gave the Huskies all they could handle for three quarters before a couple late touchdowns wrapped up the win for New Holstein.

The game did not start too well for the Indians as Jim Kopecky fumbled the opening kickoff. New Holstein wasted no time taking advantage of the Indian miscue as running back Ben Schwoerer took a short pass and ran 23 yards for a touchdown. The missed extra point made it a quick 6-0 score.

After a short Kewaskum drive which resulted in a punt, the Huskies came back with another touchdown as Erik Dekleyn ran 25 yards for a 12-0 lead early in the first quarter. The two-point conversion was not good.

Kewaskum's Ryan Rammer, as he has done so often this season, put Kewaskum back in the game with a big play as he returned a punt 80 yards for the first Kewaskum score. Chris Koth's kick made it 12-7 at the end of the first quarter.

The Huskies once again scored in the second quarter as quarterback Geof Lefebvre snuck it in from the one and the extra point kick was good for a 19-7 Huskie lead.

Once again the Indians demonstrated the ability to come back as Clint Herrick scored his first varsity touchdown on a one yard pass reception from Josh Gaffke. Koth's kick made it a 19-14 Huskie lead that stayed that way as the half ended.

Herrick saw his first start of the season as senior tight end Sean Cotter played only on defense because of a rib injury.

Tim Vetter who entered the game with some leg injuries left the game early in the second quarter, so sophomores David Lettow and Mike Farchione alternated at Vetter's running back spot. Also, Chris Spears and Chad Butzke started at the right offensive guard and tackle spots.

It was Spears' first start at guard and Coach Perry Koth was pleased with his effort, stating, "Spears was very aggressive and really hit some people, he definitely held his own tonight."

In the third quarter it was New Holstein striking first again as Dekleyn ran 18 yards for a score. The two-point conversion was good for a 27-14 lead.

The Indians came back as Rammer broke free deep down the middle of the field for a 23 yard touchdown pass reception. Koth's kick made it 27-21 as the third quarter ended.

The fourth quarter belonged to New Holstein as they rushed the ball 19 times for 114 yards and two touchdowns. The Huskies last touchdown came with only 15 seconds left in the game to make what was a closely fought battle appear to be a one-sided contest.

New Holstein had 433 total yards compared to Kewaskum's 258. Josh Gaffke completed 21 of 35 passes for 205 yards, two touchdowns and one interception.

Rammer finished with 12 catches for 148 yards and one touchdown. He also ran a punt back 80 yards for a touchdown. In the last three games Rammer had 36 catches for 498 yards and seven touchdowns.

EW Announces Football All-Conference Selections

The Eastern Wisconsin Conference football coaches met and selected the All-Conference football team recently.

Leading the way for Kewaskum was senior Ryan Rammer, who made first team defensive back and first team offensive end. Rammer who was a second team defensive back last year led the team in passes defended and was third in tackles. Rammer often was asked to defend the opponents best receivers.

On the offensive side of the ball, Rammer caught 57 passes for 820 yards and eight touchdowns, a 14.3 yard average. Rammer finished the season with 36 catches for 498 yards and eight touchdowns in his last three games. He returned a kickoff for 75 yards and a touchdown in the first conference game and a punt for 80 yards and a touchdown in the last game.

Joining Rammer was sophomore Chris Koth as a first team kicker. Koth made 13-15 extra points and 1-3 field goals. The field goal was a school record 43 yarder against Two Rivers with 37 seconds left to give the Indians a 24-21 lead. Koth also kicked two kick-offs into the endzone for touchdowns and recovered an onside kick.

Being selected to the second team was senior Matt Gundrum as a defensive lineman. Gundrum recovered six fumbles and was a force at nose guard all season.

Receiving honorable mention were Sean Cotter at defensive end, Tim Vetter at running back, Jim Kopecky at running back, Jon Eckes at linebacker, Josh Gaffke at quarterback, and Joe Thull on the defensive line.

Offensive player of the year was running back Pat Dhein of Kiel and defensive player of the year went to linebacker Ben Schwoerer of New Holstein.
