Additional Open House Scheduled at KES Feb. 4

Quite a few people braved the snowstorm on January 14 to attend the Open House at Kewaskum Elementary School.

Those in attendance toured the building and were informed of the options available to the taxpayers, as the District attempts to formulate a building plan that will meet the needs of the community for the next 10 to 20 years. School Board members and Facility Committee members conducted tours, answered questions and listened to ideas and suggestions.

To accommodate those who chose not to attend because of the weather, the school district has decided to schedule another Open House at Kewaskum Elementary School on Wednesday, February 4, from 6 to 9 p.m. in the cafeteria.

It is hoped that many citizens will attend. You may arrive anytime between 6 and 9 p.m. as tours will be on-going all evening. This is your opportunity to see and hear first-hand the proposed options available which include three educational models:

- * K-4 (new high school, move KES to KMS, grades 5-8 at KHS)
 - * K-5 (new KES)
 - * K-6 (new KES)
- All of the above plans would include some remodeling of KES and WES and the possible remodeling and opening of BES. Other areas of concern include an auditorium for KHS and moving the District Office to another building.

Your attendance at the Open House will not only afford the school district the opportunity of hearing your viewpoints, but it will also provide you with the valuable information you will need to make sound decisions when you are asked to vote at a future referendum.

Please be sure to attend Open House on Wednesday, February 4 at Kewaskum Elementary School.

Village Board Given Update On Sewer Relief Project

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

The Kewaskum Village Board faced a light-weight agenda at their mid-monthly meeting on Monday, January 19, and handled village business in near record time.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles reviewed bids for a new roof for the Water Pollution Control Department's blower building. The low bid of $5,950 from Dehling-Voigt, Inc. of Newburg was unanimously accepted by the board.

Gilles also reported on the village snowplowing efforts and luckily no water main breaks since the previous meeting.

Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt gave an update on the tax collection process, stating, "We were actually about $7,700 less in receipts than we were last year at that same time." Schmidt attributed it to the fact that many out of state mortgage companies have been slow in responding.

Trustee Gary Gavin inquired what would be done considering the last day to pay taxes, January 31, fell on a Saturday. Schmidt assured him as long as the payment was postmarked January 31, the accounts would be credited accordingly.

Schmidt also reminded board members the Mid-Moraine Municipal Association meeting scheduled for January 28, was being hosted by the Village of Kewaskum.

The Administrator informed the board the State Department of Transportation would be attending a county highway committee meeting on January 29 to discuss the Highway 45 project schedule date, the typical cross sections of the intersection at Highway H East and Badger Road and the bicycle lane proposed for the east side of Highway 45, between the Highway and the railroad tracks.

A discussion of Capital Improvement projects for 1998 was held including the authorization to advertise for bids on the construction of the Park and Ride Lot at the corner of Highways 45 and H West.

The Village Administrator also gave an update on the relief sewer project. According to Schmidt, they are working on finalizing the plans for it and the elevations of the storm sewer work.

Schmidt stated, "The estimate regarding the storm sewer, we were hoping to at least get an 18" culvert for the storm sewer. The bulk of it will be 27" so we will have alot more depth to play with than originally thought."

Schmidt added they were not sure if the railroad crossing at Main Street would be on the south side or the north side, but he said as of last Friday it was indicated it looked like it would be on the north side, "because of it being all in railroad right-of-way, basically between the two buildings from the old firehouse to Rookies to handle the bore."

Schmidt said they (the railroad) were in town checking the elevation, and the village was not 100% sure of it but that's the way it looks at this point.

He also stated, "To do that relief sewer from the west side of the railroad tracks to Railroad Street and then all the way down lying adjacent to the relief sewer, the project is estimated to cost right around $125,000 to $130,000. The asphalt work for that section, would be roughly $35,000 as well, but that is also in the relief sewer project so that is an automatic savings because it is shared between two projects."

Schmidt announced he would be meeting with Holy Trinity Parish regarding an easement. He said as soon as he knew the status of the exact location, he could have the documentation to the railroad engineers and as soon the village gets that approval, it would be brought back to the village board for authorization to advertise for bids on the project.

Village Will Mail EDAC Surveys This Week to All Utility Bill Recipients

The Economic Development Advisory Committee, along with Dan Wilson of the Washington County UW Extension Office, met on Thursday, January 15, to refine the final draft of the Village of Kewaskum Vision for the Future Survey they have been creating and compiling for the past several months.

The survey is being mailed this week to all recipients of Village of Kewaskum utility bills, to obtain a variety of opinions to better address the future directions and goals of the community.

Results of this survey will be used to establish a long-range vision and an action plan for the Economic Development Advisory Committee to work on in the future. The results may also be used to schedule a visioning community work session or to establish focus groups.

Many hours went into the compilation of this survey. Your help in completing the survey and returning it in the self-addressed, postage-paid envelope that will be enclosed with the survey will be very much appreciated and will give the committee a needed direction to focus on for the future.

The surveys must be returned by February 12, 1998 and the results will then be compiled for the EDAC to review at their next meeting on March 5.

A farmer visited his son's college. Watching students in a chemistry class, he was told they were looking for a universal solvent.

"What's that?" asked the farmer.

"A liquid that will dissolve anything," he was told.

"That's a great idea," agreed the farmer, "but when you find it, what are you going to keep it in?"

WB Art Museum to Unveil Early Wisconsin Collection

The West Bend Art Museum has quietly gone about collecting, preserving and documenting the early art of Wisconsin for almost a decade. Now, almost ten years later the art museum is poised to unveil its collection during the state's sesquicentennial year.

Beginning in February 1998, the museum's entire lower level exhibition space will be used to display this collection which spans a time frame from Euro-American settlement to 1950. The collection includes paintings, drawings, graphics, sculptures, photographs sketch books, models and video displays.

The art museum's earliest works, which will go on display are five hand-colored lithographic portraits created in the 1830s as a result of Native American treaty agreements that were signed in 1827 at Prairie du Chien. The portraits depict five different chiefs representing the various Indian nations that took part in the treaty signing. In speaking of the collection, West Bend Art Museum Director, Tom Lidtke stated that, "the collection is particularly strong in the area of academically-trained European immigrant artists who settled in Wisconsin as a result of a business venture which placed Milwaukee at the center of America's panorama painting phoneme, an artistic venture which produced enormous paintings on canvas, some as large as five stories high and 400' long."

Wisconsin's earliest sculptors, Vinnie Ream-Hoxie and Helen Fansworth Mears, are both represented in this collection. Ream-Hoxie was the first woman and youngest artist ever commissioned by the United States Senate to do a national sculpture. She was chosen to do the posthumous life-size portrait of Abraham Lincoln, which today stands in the National Capital Rotunda.

Lydia Ely, whose work is included in this collection, is another woman artist who made a major impact in her time. She was responsible for organizing Wisconsin's first art exhibitions.

The West Bend Art Museum's early Wisconsin art exhibition focuses on significant Wisconsin artists who are today, for the most part, lesser known. During the last two decades, there has been a renewed interest in this type of regional art and the West Bend Art Museum has experienced this resurgence of interest most recently in 1996 when it participated in and loaned three paintings to an exhibition at the German History Museum in Berlin, Germany. The director of the museum, Thomas Lidtke, also contributed a chapter to the exhibition's book, VICE VERSA: German Artists in America and American Artists in Germany.

The collection has been studied and written about by eminent American and European art historians and Governor Tommy Thompson has recently endorsed the museum's collection goals.

Many 19th to mid-20th century works, which will be exhibited including those, created by artists from the Works Progress Administration and the Wisconsin Regional Arts artists program. Modernists who introduced abstract art to the state, which had been immersed for 80 years in European tradition, will also be included.

The art museum has also received a Wisconsin Sesquicentennial Commission grant administered by the Wisconsin Humanities Council to produce a related temporary exhibition that examines the early origins of this state's strong visual arts history. Foundations of Art in Wisconsin opens for six weeks in the summer of 1998. It features a seven-part exhibition and publication. The exhibition travels to Manitowoc and Sturgeon Bay after it closes in West Bend.

The art museum is also producing color reproductions from the collection and three related publications including a chronology of Wisconsin art and history to 1950.

1998 also marks the year the art museum introduces its random access CD audio tours of the museum's Carl von Marr collection, written, produced and recorded entirely in West Bend. The professional-quality state-of-the-art tours were accomplished "in house" by a serendipitous series of events which linked the three West Bend residents who accomplished this project for the museum.

The West Bend Art Museum is open free to the public from Wednesday - Saturday 10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. and Sundays 1:00 - 4:30 p.m. The art museum's early Wisconsin art archives have listings of more than 1,500 early Wisconsin artists. Its resources are open for public research on Wednesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. The art museum is located at 300 South 6th Avenue in downtown West Bend. Group tours can be arranged by calling 414-334-9638.

Also this evening, will be featured "The Gospel Strings," from Algoma. This group of three men will bring a mixture of Bluegrass, country, gospel and Christian rock. Their music is filled with variety and inspiration.

Lighthouse meets at Silverbrook School, 120 N. Silverbrook Dr., West Bend, (enter and park in the rear of the school). There will be door prizes, Domino's pizza, refreshments and free admission. For more information, call 677-2952 or 338-0205.

Free Christian Concert Feb. 13

Lighthouse Ministries, Inc., a non-denominational ministry invites the community to a free Christian concert on Friday, February 13, from 7 to 10 p.m.

Their guest will be singer and songwriter, John Newman. If you like the sound of Michael Card and Randy Stonehill, you will love John. He recently released his newest CD, "The Faithful One."

Packer Fans Loyal... No Matter the Outcome

Local Packer Backers showed their support for "America's Team" by sculpting this huge green and gold Green Bay Packer helmet out of the massive piles of snow we've been accumulating. The helmet is located in front of the Scott Fiderer residence on Fond du Lac Avenue in Kewaskum. Someone got a freezer big enough to keep this frozen until next January??? It sure won't stay frozen very long in Miami... get my drift?? (No pun intended).

Memories

A Stroll Off Main Street

This week, our "Stroll Up Main Street" will take a short, temporary, northerly detour as we take in a few buildings just off of Main Street, some still standing, others not, but nevertheless, they played a very integral part in the history of the Kewaskum business community. Our first stop, just a sidestep off Main Street, heading north on Railroad Street, is the Five Corner Apartment building as shown below as it looks today. Jim and Sue Wessing of Kewaskum are the current owners of the apartment complex. Before the present building was erected, the land housed a large manufacturing building, called Rimmel Manufacturing. In 1871 two brothers, Math and Nic Rimmel, came to Kewaskum and started a blacksmith shop and ran it successfully until 1875 when they started a machine shop located at the corner of First Street and Railroad Street. By the following year they produced wagons, buggies and plowshares and shoed horses. During the late 1800s Math Rimmel relinquished his interests in the machine shop and started a sawmill, located on First Street just east of the shop on the opposite side of the road. He also operated a feedmill and a planing mill. In June of 1906, Math Rimmel tore down the sawmill and two years later he offered his flour mill for sale, ending his business involvements in Kewaskum. Meanwhile, the machine shop was producing drilling-boring machines, brass and iron goods, shafting, iron pipes, fittings, engineers' tools, fire extinguishers, pulleys and pumps in 1895 and continued to grow so that by September and October of 1898, a shed 16' wide and the length of the shop was added, as well as an office on the southwest corner. By 1900 the shop made iron pumps, hand engines, drilling and boring machines, and fire, factory, tank and well pumps. In addition it sold hardware, stoves, ranges and building materials. The shop consisted of a 20' x 85' salesroom, a 30' x 60' machine shop, a 20' x 30' blacksmith shop, a 20' x 75' warehouse and an office. Nic Rimmel had invented the corn husker and cement mixer, business flourished and after 1912 produced mostly these two most famous products. In September of 1919 the shop was purchased by local entrepreneurs and incorporated. The new owners took possession on October 21, and manufactured corn huskers, cement mixers and grinders. During the depression, the business floundered and consequently the shop was rented to Louis Bath, who conducted a general machine and repair service. In 1936 the foundry was torn down and the following year Mr. Bath purchased the business and property from the Rimmel Corporation and resumed business under the name of Rimmel Manufacturing. In 1972 the business was discontinued with all of the equipment, machinery and inventory, including the last corn husker and cement mixer, being sold at an auction. The building was then torn down. (The above information was taken from the book, "Kewaskum Then and Now.") If anyone has historic information or a fond memory to contribute about the upcoming businesses traveling north on Railroad Street or the north side of Main Street, (heading west), please send the information to the Kewaskum Statesman or call 626-2626. Kewaskum Schools Tutoring Program

Dear Parents, Grandparents, Relatives and Friends, WE NEED YOUR HELP!!

It seems like everybody has a job to do and time is always a premium item. It seems like there just isn't enough time in the day to cover the things we like to get done!!

BUT!!!

Moms, dads, grandparents, and friends or someone you know if you are knowledgeable, empathetic, and could spare us here at school an hour or two per week tutoring a child, everyone will be greatly appreciative.

WE NEED TUTORS!!

We have an excellent school district, but we could use tutors in all areas of the elementary curriculum, especially reading and math. The paycheck will be zero dollars, but some students will greatly benefit from your knowledge, expertise and kindness. Please, please help us make this tutorial program work. Only you can do it!

Dr. William Glasser in his fine book, Schools Without Failure, Glasser says: "Unless children gain academic success, they will continue to have serious problems. In most schools where children fail, the major academic failure recognizable to both the children and teachers is the failure to learn to read well."

As we analyze Glasser's statement, the underlying logic of its argument comes into focus. Children must experience academic success. They cannot experience this success if they don't read well. Therefore, we must do everything we can to help them become good readers.

To become a volunteer, contact Tom Larsen, Volunteer Program Coordinator, 1500 Partridge Ct., West Bend, WI 53095, or call 334-4945.

Old Settlers' Banquet to Highlight Jackson History

The Washington County Historical Society, in conjunction with the Jackson Historical Society, will host its annual Old Settlers' Banquet on Sunday, February 22, from noon to 3:30 p.m. at the Jackson Town Hall, 3146 Division Road.

The event is now in its seventh year after being successfully revived in 1992. However, as a tradition, such a meeting can be traced back to the original Old Settlers Club of Washington County, which organized back in 1875 with annual meetings held on George Washington's Birthday at the Washington House in West Bend.

A few artifacts that were donated at that very first meeting are on permanent, rotating display in a case exhibit in the lobby of the Old Courthouse Museum. In addition to such obsolete items as a carpeted foot-warmer for a buggy, the small display also features hand-made programs from early meetings, meeting minutes and other memorabilia -- all in the original case that was donated to the county for the purpose of such an exhibit.

In addition to the Old Settlers' case exhibit, the Society will soon open a temporary exhibit featuring historical items and information on the Town of Jackson. The exhibit will open on Sunday, February 1, from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Old Courthouse Museum, 320 S. 5th Avenue, West Bend, and will remain on public display through March.

Self-guided or tour-guided tours of the museum are available during the museum's new hours of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sundays from 1 to 4 p.m.

Tickets to the Old Settlers' Banquet on February 22 can be purchased at the Old Courthouse Museum and are available for $18.43 per person. The event will feature musical entertainment by the Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School Ensemble, a full buffet banquet catered by Schwai's and a special presentation by Susan Mikos of Archaeological Rescue, who will report on the progress of the Bublitz Farm Dig in Jackson Township. Please call the Society at (414) 335-4678 for more information.

Owens, Grothman Introduce Open Competition Pact

MADISON -- On January 23, State Representatives Carol Owens (R-Oshkosh) and Glenn Grothman (R-West Bend) introduced the Open Competition Act. This bill will create a fair playing field for those contractors who choose to operate a non-union shop.

"This bill is about fairness," Owens said. "I believe that both open shop and union contractors should have the same opportunity to bid on public projects."

The impetus for the bill is a contract provision for the construction of Miller Park which requires all employees on the job site to join a labor union in order to work. This provision is known as a project labor agreement. Unlike any other major project in the state, the stadium district board decided not to allow any non-union workers on the job unless those workers are employed by a minority contractor.

A similar situation recently arose at a school district construction site in south-central Wisconsin. Most government construction projects are required to pay prevailing wage rates, but non-union workers are permitted to bid on those projects and to work on them, as long as the prevailing (union) wage rate is paid.

Grothman commented on the measure at a press conference at the State Capitol. "The Brewers Stadium contract has been signed and it cannot be affected by this bill. A union-only agreement, however, must not be allowed to happen again."

Grothman continued, "I am not anti-union. But over 80% of Wisconsin's workforce is non-union. They should not be treated as second-class citizens. They pay stadium taxes too! The time has come for politicians who care only about organized special interest groups to realize that other people have rights too!"

Owens and Grothman are hoping that the measure will be acted upon by the Legislature prior to its adjournment later this Spring.

Protecting Your Children From Carbon Monoxide

(NAPS)—Don't take your furnace for granted.

Check home furnaces regularly for potential carbon monoxide leaks. Carbon monoxide (CO) is the number one cause of poisoning deaths in America and children are even more susceptible to this deadly poison than adults. This is due to children's faster metabolic rates and greater activity levels.

Fortunately, early warning of a potential CO hazard is possible with carbon monoxide detectors. First Alert, the leading maker of smoke detectors, has a patented "Biomimetic" sensing technology that simulates blood hemoglobin's response to the presence of carbon monoxide and is battery operated for reliability.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission recommends you have at least one detector at home, located in the sleeping area.

Smoke detector? No, it's a carbon monoxide detector that simulates blood hemoglobin's response to the presence of that deadly gas.

In addition to the furnace, other potential carbon monoxide sources include: chimney pipes or flue, clogged or blocked chimney openings, water heaters, gas refrigerators and clothes dryers and portable heaters, fireplaces, woodburning stoves and charcoal grills.

Remember, regular maintenance of furnaces and appliances can help eliminate the potential causes of this invisible, deadly poison.

Kewaskum FFA Attends Leadership Conference

Ben Propson and Peter Muth of the Kewaskum FFA Chapter attended the Wisconsin FFA's Half-Time Leadership Conference held at the Holiday Inn in Stevens Point, January 9 - 10. More than 300 FFA members, advisors and state FFA officers participated. This year's theme focused around "FFA - The Force Within You" since FFA is an organization that helps students realize their full potential and provides valuable experiences that help prepare young people for real-life leadership.

The Half-Time Leadership Conference provides FFA chapter leaders from around the state the opportunity to set goals and prepare for the second half of their year of service in their local chapters. FFA members attended workshops focusing on leadership, team building, scholarships, careers, personal development and self esteem. They also worked on areas such as planning chapter banquets, applying for awards and recruiting new members.

This leadership conference was conducted by the 1997-98 State FFA Officers. "Half-Time is one of the premier leadership conferences in our state. It allows chapter leaders to develop their leadership skills, learn more about FFA activities and meet people while having fun," said Cheryl Zimmerman, State FFA Executive Director.

The Wisconsin FFA Association is comprised of over 250 local chapters in high schools across the state preparing over 16,300 students for leadership and careers in the science, business and technology of agriculture. FFA activities and award programs complement instruction in agriculture education by giving students practical experience in the application of agricultural skills and knowledge gained in classes. The FFA's major objectives are to develop premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education.

DARE Graduation Held at FES

With a gymnasium full of family and friends, the fifth graders at Farmington Elementary celebrated the completion of their DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) program with guest speakers, skits, essays, and even cake.

The program, taught at FES by DARE officer Washington County Deputy Sheriff Bausch, is a one semester course designed to provide fifth graders with the tools to make smart choices to promote a healthy, happy lifestyle over drugs and violence.

As part of the afternoon's festivities, local dignitaries such as the honorable Judge Annette Ziegler and Washington County Sheriff Jack Theusch were on hand to congratulate the students and reiterate the importance of the DARE program's message.

Other speakers included Mr. David Goeden (from Team Goeden Racing), KMS Counselor Mr. Nell, School Board President Mrs. Goeden, Superintendent Mr. Pearson, Director of Elementary Education Mr. Kriewaldt and FES Principal Mr. Botting.

During the DARE class, each student had been required to write an essay describing the benefits of DARE, as they saw it. Four students read theirs to the audience - Jackie Vandrell, Justin McDaniels, Chad Peplinski and Samantha Hedlund -- sharing often intense, personal messages of how the lessons learned in DARE would help them in their lives.

DARE teddy bears were given to Krystal Cochran and Whitney Pfeiffer recognizing their positive attitudes in the school, while Chad Peplinski and Jackie Vandrell were given medallions for their "high impact essays."

Skits, too, were performed by the DARE graduates. Within the student-written and acted skits (which were very nicely done) was humor and still the serious message offered by the DARE program.

Following the ceremony, graduates and visitors alike were treated to delicious sheet cakes provided by the Farmington PTO and served by DARE parent volunteers.

For the fifth graders, DARE graduation marked the end of a semester's worth of learning, but hopefully, it will be but a beginning toward making smart choices for a lifetime to come.

KES On Target for Snowball Fun

A snowball thrown by Kewaskum Elementary fifth grader Chris Gatsos, left, is powder as it smashes into the Mickey Mouse snowball target on the south end of the KES playground, while classmate Matt Seefeldt reloads to throw at the "sledding bear" target.

Recess has just gotten a bit more fun for students at Kewaskum Elementary School, as long as it snows.

Thanks to an idea from administration and staff members, and the hard work of students in the Art Enrichment class at KES, the playground now features "snowball targets" so students can safely enjoy a favorite activity: throwing snowballs.

The targets are large sheets of treated plywood, painted with colorful figures and designs (a sledding bear, Mickey Mouse, a roaring lion and a frog). There are also holes with point values to encourage games and even addition.

The targets took shape through a group of 12 students in the KES Art Enrichment class. After brainstorming ideas, students put the designs on the plywood, painted them, and even cut the holes. Money for the supplies was provided by the KES PTO and the G/T and Enrichment department.

Principal Mr. Kriewaldt spoke with the students during a recent assembly to discuss the rules for using the targets: 1. ONLY throw at the targets and, 2. Stay behind the green fence. He also reminded students that snowballs are not to be thrown anywhere else on school grounds.

With that said, just let it snow, let it snow, let it snow.

Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club News

The Wayne Crusaders 4-H meeting was held on January 13. It was held for the first time at the new meeting place, at Cedar Valley, on Hwy. D.

Some of the things that were talked about at the meeting were: Bricks to be purchased for the New Fair Grounds are still available and if anyone would like to buy one please contact the 4-H County Office.

Also, the Bowl-A-Thon will be held this year on February 8th. Forms are in the clover line, and will go to Roxanne Heppner. If you are an adult leader, or planning on becoming one, you must attend a ROPES meeting. This is a requirement and you can contact the County Office for more information.

It has been decided by the club that our winter activity for this year will be ice skating. A date has not been decided yet.

A presentation and cake was presented to Lillian Oelhafen who has retired from 4-H. She spent many years helping and volunteering in 4-H and will be truly missed. A big Thank You to Lillian for all you've done.

Also, one of the leaders in our club was seriously injured recently and the club has decided to offer the family a gift certificate to Pick 'N Save. We're hoping for a speedy recovery.

As part of a team effort, from right: Danielle Dreher (grade four), Anna Rick (grade three) and Sam Shulka (grade five), helped design, paint and cut the snowball targets that now enhance the KES playground.

School Winter Assemblies Stress Safety

Principal Mr. Kriewaldt stressed safety to students at Kewaskum Elementary and Wayne Elementary during the schools' recent winter school-wide assemblies. Issues included following proper dismissal procedures and proper attire for playing in the snow on the playgrounds (snowpants for younger grades, plus boots, hats, mittens/gloves for everyone). Mr. Kriewaldt also talked about things to ensure safe walks home for students (i.e., avoiding railroad tracks, limiting play on snow piles near the street, taking approved routes, etc.).

At KES, Mr. Kriewaldt also talked about safety and rules for the newly erected snowball targets. Students, he said, are to remain behind the area's green fence when throwing snowballs, and then throwing only at the colorful targets. Mr. Kriewaldt also reminded students at KES that if parents want to park when picking up their children, parents may use the lot at KHS (which really is surprisingly close to KES).

Mr. Kriewaldt expressed his hope that such reminders might make it a safe winter season for everyone.

St. Matthew's School Selling Woven 'Map'

The Home and School Association at St. Matthew School in Campbellsport has all three of the above covered with one item - a woven "map" of Fond du Lac county with illustrated town in the form of an afghan. The afghans have arrived!

When the idea for a county afghan fundraiser was first considered, it seemed like a simple idea. Get the names and illustration for the various towns together, send them to a South Carolina and receive afghans, ready to sell.

But, Jane Beck and Denise Stoffel found it wasn't quite that easy.

Fond du Lac's famed Lookout Lighthouse proved to be a challenge. Likewise the traditional red barn and concrete silo. The women found that some Wisconsin traditions are not the same as those in South Carolina.

It took numerous phone calls, letters and faxes over a period of one year to come up with the final product - a fringed 44x66 inch, 3-ply woven afghan in mauve, navy and forest green.

Why all this work for an afghan?

The work is, as Jane puts it, "For the kids."

"The kids" are 154 students in the k-8 grade programs at St. Matthew School in Campbellsport. With escalating cost and three parishes to support, the parishioners of St.

Matthew, St. Martin and St. Kilian help with the school where all three parishes have their children educated. Parents of the children pay tuition. And, they have fundraisers to provide more than $20,000 a year to educate their children.

From Fond du Lac's Galloway House and Lighthouse to Eden's baseball and bat, from Dundee's restored mill to the crosses of the Holyland and the Hilltop Cross at Ashford. From the geese flying toward the Horicon marsh to the deer and trees of the Kettle Moraine forest. From Alto to Woodhull, Ripon to New Fane, the county is covered.

And, the afghans assuring the students at St. Matt's that their education will also be covered.

NOTE: Afghans are available at St. Matthew School weekdays from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. After 4 p.m., contact Jane Beck, W2232 Capital Drive, Campbellsport, WI 53010. Phone number is 920-533-4446 (leave message). The cost is $40 (pick up) additional for shipping and handling for mail orders. Afghans are also displayed at Ben Franklin in Campbellsport and Waupun, and Silver Saddle Saloon in Dundee.

For more information, contact: St. Matthew School or Jane Beck.

Letter to The Editor

January 22, 1998

Dear Editor:

Now its $13,400,000.00 for an addition to the county jail. What are representatives trying to build, a country club? We are already paying approximately $7,000,000.00 for a golf course and a county fairgrounds, which was supposed to have a $12,000,000.00 cap, but now is projected to cost over $18,000,000.00. I'll wager that next Ken Miller will again propose a "temporary" 1/2% sales tax to pay for these projects. You will understand what a politician's temporary sales tax is if you observed Ozaukee County's temporary tax to pay for their jail. As soon as it was paid for they found something else to use it for and I'll guarantee you this will go on and on.

I've had the opportunity recently to talk with my county supervisor and he assured me that taxpayers didn't have to pay one cent for the golf facility or the upkeep of the golf course during 1997. That the golf course generated enough money to support itself and that donations by county industries will pay for a large percent of the cost of the fairgrounds, yet not one large donation by large industries has been made. It is constantly heralded that a little over $300,000.00 has been donated by small businesses, which is gratifying, but this is only a minute percentage of the total cost.

It would be enlightening if our area newspapers would do some investigative reporting and inform their readers financial state of these projects.

Please Statesman, investigate and publish the true financial facts.

Thank you.

Lloyd Koch

Dear Editor:

Almost a month ago, I packed my belongings (cat and all), quit my job and rented out my duplex near Appleton so I could take a better job in West Bend. I was looking forward to helping others by working in a domestic abuse shelter, Friends of Abused Families, Inc. to be specific. I was also bewildered by the idea of leaving everything that I have known career-wise and starting fresh.

On my first day of work, in the heart of the Christmas season, I met Linda W. Linda has shoulder length hair, very light blonde with streaks of almost white. Linda wears glasses all the time and a smile most of the time. Although Linda is small in stature, she has a very large presence. I listened to Linda speak, her voice melodious and her laughter resounding. Linda made me feel comfortable at work, like I belonged. I learned from Linda that she enjoyed spending her holiday weekends bell-ringing at the entrance to Shopko. Linda also told me that she was responsible for the Christmas donations and the "family adoption" program at FRIENDS. As the days went by, the art room turned-north-pole workshop filled with gifts and the colorfully wrapped presents overflowed into the hallway. Soon, the Christmas splendor began to pile in my office. I helped Linda sort throughout the gifts and determine which families were already taken care of and which families were still in need of gifts. I listened to mothers pick up presents and sigh with relief and say, "Sometimes, things just have a way of working out."

Near December 24th, and with donations still being dropped off, Linda told me that FRIENDS had over 25 families "adopted" for Christmas with excess gifts for last-minute needs, and that most, but not all needs were taken care of. Unfortunately, in a shelter setting things are in a constant state of motion and it would be virtually impossible to know or take care of all that is needed. I am still amazed by Linda's hard work and perseverance and even more amazed by the generosity of the people of Washington County. I just want to say, on behalf of Friends of Abused Families, Inc., "Thank You" to the good people of Washington County and a special "Thank You" to the female version of Santa Claus, Linda W.

Mr. Wizard Show Lights Up FES

In testing the strength of a dome-shaped object, Farmington Elementary School fifth grader Alex Muth helps Mr. Wizard demonstrator Ms. Lomasney put a second ten pound weight on top of an egg.

Broken eggs, safety goggles, and even an explosion were the order of the day when "Mr. Wizard Shows" brought its educational science extravaganza to the Farmington Elementary School Gym.

Student volunteers helped throughout the all-school assembly, which introduced scientific principles through exciting demonstrations and experiments.

The show, titled, "Supermarket Science," utilized everyday items for the demonstrations with the help of FES volunteers and "Mr. Wizard Shows" representative Christine Lomasney.

Among some of the demonstrations, cans of diet and regular soda were tested by floating in a vat of water to see which was more dense (the added sugar makes regular soda sink).

The strength of a dome-shape was tried, too, as barbell weights were stacked on top of an egg (it held 20 pounds).

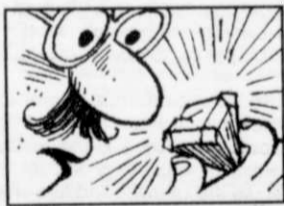

Using water, an extinguished match, and a bicycle pump produced a cloud in a bottle, and a variety of unusual items produced sound for an impromptu song played by the students.

The day's biggest cheers, however, came for the final demonstration, which highlighted the danger of things such as grain dust in a grain elevator. Adding air to a closed can with "flour substitute" inside provided an explosion that sent the can's lid flying several feet into the air, much to the delight of the students.

"Our hope is to get kids excited about science," said Ms. Lomasney about the Mr. Wizard Shows, "so they'll want to go and look things up on their own."

If that is indeed what happens, then certainly as a result of this show, the local libraries and Internet sites can expect a lot of Farmington students coming to call.

Small cracks in a diamond are known as feathers.

CORRECTION ON ELM GROVE SCHOOL

The January 22 issue of the Kewaskum Statesman featured a photo of the Elm Grove School in 1935, along with a class photograph from the same year. The school was located on Hwy. B in the town of Barton, not the town of Wayne, as listed in the paper.

Also, the name Rassman was written on the back of the photograph, when the last name was, in fact, Rossman

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Regular Meeting
January 17, 1997
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Regular Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Robert Wagner presided. Trustee John Kenworthy and Trustee Gary Gavin asked to be excused and were absent; all other Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the December 8, 1997 meeting were approved as printed.

Assistant Fire Chief Mark Herriges presented the December 1997 monthly reports:

Fire calls - 1, Year to date - 24;
Jaws of Life - 2, Year to date - 29;
Rescue calls - 19, Miles - 377.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt reported that First Captain Peter Dickman and himself met with a Representative (Town Board Supervisor John Reigle) from the Town of Auburn to answer questions on the 1998 Fire Service Contract. The meeting went well and it is hopeful the contract will be returned shortly.

Chief of Police Richard L. Knoebel reported that the Value squad car bids were in and the cost for 1998 is $19,503 versus the 1997 cost of $19,017.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles informed the Board of the following:

1) Reviewed with the Board the water main breaks which have occurred so far this winter season as follows:

A) December 10, 1997 River-view and Main Street.

B) December 31, 1997 North Avenue and Fond du Lac Avenue.

On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Warren Dums and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board authorized the advertising for bids on a new snow plow truck and to remove the 1985 from the snow plow fleet.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board directed the Director of Public Works to schedule a Spring Clean Up for April 18, 1998, similar in nature to that of last year.

P/R Ck #7951 - #8006

A/P Ck #13452 - #13603

Board Representative for the Plan Commission, Trustee Warren Dums informed the Board that the Commission reviewed the petition for annexation for the Spoerl property on CTH "H" and a permanent zoning classification of B-2 General Retail and Service District. The Commission acted favorably on recommending both the annexation and the zoning to the Village Board. It was further noted that a review of Section 5 of the Zoning Ordinance also took place.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt reviewed a letter received from Senator Herb Kohl which included some Post Office material. It was stated that the door to door type delivery that was asked for by the Village has been discontinued since 1984 and that cluster boxes are a viable option; generally paid for and installed by the developer/owner. Each postmaster handles the maintenance in their own way and that the current postmaster indicated that if the cluster boxes are installed and the keys brought in, the post office would maintain them. As for follow up maintenance, that would be between the property owners using the cluster box and the post office. On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board directed the Administrator to notify the developer to proceed with purchasing and installing the cluster boxes as provided in the Developers Agreement.

Action was taken on Resolution No. 98-1 a Resolution Establishing Sewer User charges and Rates as attached hereto: (The noted adjustment would result in a 6.8% increase to the average 60,000 gallon residential customer.)

Action was taken on Resolution No. 98-2 a Preliminary Resolution Declaring Intent to Exercise Special Assessment Powers Under

Sec 66.60, WI Stats, as attached hereto: (It was noted the area of proposed work is Old Fond du Lac Road and the Fond du Lac Avenue Access Drive. It was noted that Old Fond du Lac Road would be an estimated 28 feet wide with curb/gutter on both sides with sidewalk on the west side only and that the access drive would be an estimated 20 feet wide with curb/gutter on the east side only as well as sidewalk on the east side only.)

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Warren Dums and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the posting and eventual advertising of the General Maintenance DPW position caused by the resignation of Brad Rodenkirch.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and carried by the majority roll call vote, to adjourn. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 2 "Absent."

DOING BATTLE WITH WINTER: Anti-Icing Effort Will Help Reduce Ice on State's Roads This Winter

Keeping state highways ice free is the goal of a statewide effort planned for this winter by the state's county highway departments. In an effort to head off the formation of ice on state highways, deicers will be applied just prior to the arrival of the conditions that cause ice to form on roads.

"Anti-icing is an important technique that's being used to battle the elements this winter," said Dave Vieth, director of the Wisconsin Department of Transportation's (WisDOT) Bureau of Highway Operations. "By getting out early and applying ice-inhibiting chemicals to the road just before a storm hits, we're hoping to prevent ice from forming in the first place. That will make travel safer for Wisconsin motorists."

Vieth said anti-icing operations involving sending out trucks that are equipped to apply salt that has been pretreated with liquid calcium chloride. This pre-wetted salt will better adhere to the pavement when it is spread from the back of the truck, creating a salt brine that will prevent ice from bonding to the pavement.

Vieth noted that counties, which are under contract with WisDOT to conduct winter maintenance activities, should see a reduction in material use when using a pre-wetting strategy. Salt that is not pre-wetted may bounce or be blown off the roadway by passing vehicles, making it ineffective when ice begins to form.

"We're doing what we can to be more efficient when dealing with winter weather," Vieth said. "We're hoping that anti-icing will not only make the roads safer for motorists, but will make our ice control operations more cost effective and environmentally friendly by using less salt."

WisDOT and county highway commissioners across Wisconsin are participating in a number of efforts to test and evaluate the effectiveness of new snow and ice-removing technologies.

Wisconsin has some 2,000 snow plow drivers who work long shifts during the worst weather to keep the state's highways as free of ice and snow as possible. Vieth reminded motorists to slow down and anticipate slippery conditions. "Stay off the roads during the height of a storm -- and just after -- to give snow plow crews a chance to clear highways." He also urged motorists to avoid getting too close behind a snow plow -- they frequently back up, especially at intersections -- and never drive through a snow cloud created by a snow plow. Snow clouds decrease visibility to zero and can hide oncoming traffic or other obstacles that may be in the roadway.

Vieth advised motorists to wait out the storm if they aren't sure if they'll make it home or to work safely. "When in doubt, sit it out," he said.

Ice Conditions Are Poor

On a normal year, area lakes would be covered with ice fishing shanties, cars and snowmobiles by this time. Not this year! All area lakes have very poor ice this year. The warmer than normal weather, along with a blanket of insulating snow, has not allowed the ice to form.

With a number of winter events coming up in the area, people are reminded to use extreme caution when venturing out onto the ice. There are areas where the ice can be eight inches thick and other areas where it is one to four inches thick, which can lead to disaster.

The weight of the snow on top of the ice has also forced a lot of water up onto the ice. At the present time, foot travel is the only option and that too, could be dangerous.

Questions as to the upcoming sturgeon spearing season on Lake Winnebago being closed, have also been coming in. This will not be done. The season will be held as normal, but spears will be limited to areas that have good ice. Reports are that ice varies from 10 inches in areas down to two to four inches in others, again requiring that people use extreme caution when on the ice.

The chances of improving ice conditions are not good with the amount of snow now on the ice and the warm weather predicted. All persons planning on going onto the ice should check with local sport shops and DNR offices for updates.

- BE CAREFUL!

Rettler Named to College MWC Football All-Conference Team

RIPON -- Joe Rettler of Kewaskum was named to the All-Midwest Conference (MWC) North Division Football First Team in November.

Rettler, a sophomore wide receiver, helped the Red Hawks to a 4-1 MWC record and a 6-3 overall record in 1997. The Red Hawks, the MWC Champions in 1996, finished second in the North Division.

For the season, Rettler led the Red Hawks with 64 receptions for 778 yards and seven touchdowns. Rettler averaged a team-high 86.4 yards per game while notching 12.2 yards per catch. Rettler was tops for Ripon in scoring with 42 points on the year.

After his performance against Lawrence University when he caught 13 passes for 164 yards and one touchdown, Rettler was named the North Division Offensive "Player of the Week."

"Even after his first year as a starter, Joe established himself as one of the top pass receivers in the league," said Head Coach Ron Ernst. "He gave us the scoring threat we were looking for this year."

Ripon College has been rated a "Best Value" by U.S. News and World Report for 1998 and is listed among the best 200 science programs in the country by Peterson's Guides. Ripon is known for excellence in undergraduate education.

Indians Lose to Kiel

Last Friday night the Kewaskum boys' basketball team played a road game against the Kiel Raiders.

The Raiders (6-2) feature the number two and five scorers in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference in Chad Morley and Jeff Niesen. They combine for an average of 36 points and 15 rebounds per game.

The Indians game plan was to employ a triangle and two defense to take away Kiel's big two and challenge their other players to respond.

This theory looked good on paper until Mike Jaschob scorched the nets for a career high of 26 points, including 18 in the first half.

Andy Christophersen scored all nine of his points in the first half, but got little additional help from his teammates offensively as foul trouble again plagued the Indians.

John Warnecke, Paul Wiedmeyer and Christophersen all sat out the major-ty of the second quarter with three fouls each. Kewaskum could only muster seven points in that second period and fell behind 43 to 25 at halftime.

Following some adjustments and some spirited halftime conversations from the coaching staff, the Indians came out and outscored their opponents in the second half, 47 to 42, but it was too little too late as the final score ended up 85-72 in Kiel's favor.

David Gerhartz led the Indians with 16 points, with John Warnecke contributing 13 plus eight rebounds and Billy Cook adding 10. Shaun Timblin sprained his ankle in practice and will be out of the lineup for one to three weeks.

"We shot 9 for 28 in the first half (32%) and 18 for 28 in the second half (64%). We're not going to win too many games with this Dr. Jeckel and Mr. Hyde offensive personality that we seem to have developed lately," reported Coach Tom Timblin.

The coach added, "Our point guards are playing well (Josh Gaffke and Cook), but we once again got shellacked on the boards. It's hard to trigger our fast break when we don't come up with any rebounds."

Timblin praised Jason Strobel, Aaron Seiser and Billy Cook, stating, "Our three sophomores gave us some good minutes tonight."

The Indians, now 4-6 overall, host Chilton Thursday evening at the Kewaskum fieldhouse.

In a game that was close throughout, KHS established an early three point lead in the first quarter, only to see it tied at 15 all by a Kiel three-pointer at the buzzer. ReNae Hills came off the bench to score five points and give her teammates a big boost after the team's early foul trouble.

Five Indians hit the scoring column in the second quarter to help themselves to a two point halftime lead at 28-26. The key to the second quarter was the fact that the girls played solid defense and only committed two fouls.

A 22 point third quarter spurt gave the Lady Indians a seven point lead they would never relinquish at 50-43. Seven players scored in the quarter with no one having more than four.

The fourth quarter became a free throw shooting contest with KHS going 10x14 and senior Carrie Wiesner leading the way going 5x6 from the line. Wiesner led the way in several categories scoring a season high 13 points, seven assists, seven rebounds, and four steals.

Hills finished with ten points, also a season high and six rebounds. Three players finished with eight points each, Laura and Sarah Schwinn and Amy Piwoni.

With the victory, the Lady Indians even their conference mark at 4-4 and 4-9 overall.

The JV and freshmen were both victorious on January 20 against Campbellsport. The JV's won by a score of 48-42. Heather Rieder and Katie Kopecky led the scoring with 14 and 10 points respectively. Kopecky also led with eight rebounds. Sarah Williams led the defense with five steals.

The freshmen used balanced scoring and defense to win by a score of 23-20. The defense only gave up five points in the second half, those points coming only in the fourth quarter.

Lady Indians Lose to Cougars, Defeat Kiel

On Tuesday, January 20, the Kewaskum High School Lady Indians hosted non-conference foe Campbellsport, but came up short in the 62-50 loss. Early on it was evident that the more experienced Cougars would be able to utilize their offensive sets to capitalize on easy baskets as they jumped out to an 18-6 first quarter lead.

Early foul trouble plagued the Indians with three players picking up three fouls before the half time break. The Cougars were able to take advantage of the situation outscoring Kewaskum 15-12 in the second quarter to take a 33-18 halftime advantage.

The Indians were not about to go away without a fight as they continued to hustle through the entire game. Led by the play of two sophomore guards, Jenny Kraft and Amy Piwoni, they led a second half surge by scoring 13 and 10 points respectively.

Piwoni's back-to-back three-pointers in the fourth quarter helped to cut the deficit, but they were never able to get any closer than 12 points. Leading the scoring were Kraft with 17 points and five steals, Piwoni with 11, and Sarah Schwinn with eight points and nine rebounds.

Parents' Night on Thursday, January 22, turned out considerably brighter as all three Lady Indian teams defeated Kiel. The varsity gained revenge from an earlier loss in defeating the Raiders by a score of 60-53.

Balanced scoring and solid defense were the keys to victory with KHS having seven players scoring six or more points each. In shooting 43% from the floor, including 50% (22-44) from inside the arc, KHS broke out of their recent shooting
