Village to Sell Low Cost Seedling Trees

by Lana Harbeck Kuehl

The Kewaskum Village Board decided at last week Monday evening's meeting to purchase 400 small, broad-leaf seedling trees to resell to Kewaskum area residents at a very low cost.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles, along with Parks and Recreation Committee Chairman John Kenworthy brought the idea to the board through a program being offered through the Washington County Land Use and Conservation Department.

Gilles explained the trees are small, native-species trees that would have to be purchased in lots of 10 or 25. The size of these inexpensive trees could run between 12 inches to possibly 36 inches tall.

He told the Board, "I guess the thought was that if we wanted to purchase some of these trees and then turn around and advertise them for sale back to the public, we could offer people in the village a very low-cost tree."

Gilles added the cost per tree could possibly run as low as $1.00 to $1.50.

Board President Robert Wagner added the program would be "more of offering a service to the people of the village."

Trustee John Kenworthy, a proponent of Urban Forestry, stated, "I think what we're talking about here is the first step for a program that we very gradually can work out of over a course of many years."

Kenworthy favored purchasing the broad-leaf and hardwood seedlings that could be resold to the community at a very low cost.

Trustee Gary Gavin questioned the cost and asked what would happen if the trees did not sell. Kenworthy answered, due to the low cost, the remaining trees could be planted on village land.

President Wagner added he felt it "would be a good PR thing and it would start getting people interested (in urban forestry)." He also felt it "would be a real good thing for the people of the village."

Gilles stated the trees were scheduled to arrive around May 1 and the intention would be to advertise the trees would be for sale, probably on a Friday afternoon and for a few hours on a Saturday morning.

The board directed Gilles to go ahead and order the trees and proceed with the additional advertising and arrangements for approximately $400 worth of the seedling trees.

In other business, Village Administrator Dan Schmidt gave the Board an update on the controversial state tavern license fee, which seems to be in a "hold pattern" for right now. Also on the back burner is the TIF Public Hearings and legislation to limit Impact Fees.

He added the tax collection process went very well and the Village is ahead of last year.

The administrator also briefed the board on the status of the relief sewer project, stating he was working on the easements and permits with the Department of Transportation, the (Holy Trinity) church personnel and the railroad. He added, "it is progressing, slow, but hopefully, sure."

It was announced the Village had received donations from the Kewaskum Kiwanis in the amount of $1,000 towards the purchase of the Kiwanis Park pool water fountain equipment scheduled to be installed, and $800 towards the stone park benches.

Donations were also made from the Kewaskum Woman's Club and Larry and Cheryl Ammel towards the purchase of permanent flower planters for the community.

Town of Scott Clerk Resigns

By Bernadette Mondloch

Effective May 31, the Town of Scott will be without a Clerk. Current clerk, Colleen Narbotovics tendered her resignation at the February meeting, stating the financial position taken by the board being a contributing factor in her decision to depart from the job which she has held for several years. Her term would have expired in April of 1999.

Narbotovics explained that the $100 given to her for assisting the new Town Treasurer with tax collection calculated to $1.35 per hour. The current salary for the town clerk is $5,500. No decision was made on how to fill the unexpired term.

Glen Soehner, W8093 S. County Road A, informed the board that he had been contacted by the Town Constable who indicated that Soehner was in violation of the zoning ordinance.

He explained that a friend of his was using the large machine shed on his property in which to do repair work on large machinery, which is used in the friend's business. Being no work in the winter time, the Soehner property was ideal for working, sheltered from the winter weather.

Soehner expects that the machinery will be removed within the next month or two. It was the consensus of the board that it is not a problem.

A special meeting was scheduled for Monday, February 16, to discuss the problems which have occurred due to errors in the assessment roll. Town Assessor Ernst Matthies was invited to the meeting to explain the reasons for errors and omissions found in the roll during the tax paying season.

A number of properties which had split during the year were not recorded in the tax roll, so new owners did not receive a bill, while former owners received the entire bill for both parcels. Another parcel was assessed as being 35 acres when in reality it was only five.

Another bill did not include an assessment for a house which had existed for several years previous. In another case, four identical lots were assessed with one being valued at $9,500 and the other three at $29,000 per lot. The owner was questioning, "Why?" These are the types of problems which were expected to be resolved at the special meeting.

Board members advised that the 1998 reassessment project which should already be in progress should be put on hold until after the meeting with Matthies.

United Way Elects New Board

"We've laid a great pathway into the coming year." So said Dan Johnson, newly elected President of the Board of Directors of the United Way of Washington County. Johnson, General Manager of Johnson Bus, addressed about thirty incoming, current and departing board members at the annual meeting in late February.

Department Board members Rick Edwards, Sharon Ziegler, Nancie Heaps and Michael Wiziard were thanked for their years of service, and given a chance to reflect on their tenure in leadership roles with the local United Way. All were complimentary of the organization, and while admitting that serving on the United Way Board is time-consuming and hard work, they also pointed out the great personal satisfaction and a sense of accomplishment in being charged with the responsibility of helping raise and distribute funds in the Washington County community.

The financial audit presented at the meeting confirmed the recent fundraising success of raising $1,031,530 in gifts and pledges in the 1997 campaign. In addition to finishing the campaign at 7.4 percent over the 1996 total, this is the highest amount of money ever raised by the local United Way in the organization's 61-year history.

"We have much to be thankful for," was the message of outgoing Board President Michael Bloedorn.

Those elected to three year terms were: Patricia Hrobsky, Moraine Park Technical College; James Hodges, WBWI-WBKV Radio; Patrick O'Connor, Bank One; Allen Schaez, St. Francis Bank; Craig Devenport, West Bend Air; John Engstorm, West Bend High Schools; Doug Fitzgerald, Shanebrook Law Office, Terri Fredrich, Prudential Preferred Properties; John Gonring, Wisconsin Pharmacal; and Tom Ross, B.C. Ziegler & Company, West Bend.

Elected to two year terms were Linda Dymond of the Family Center, and Andrew Gumm of Wisconsin Electric.

Those elected join other Board members: Michael Bloedorn, Washington County Department of Social Services; Gregory Burns, St. Joseph's Community Hospital; Allen Ceshker, Weasler Engineering; William Gehl, Gehl Company; Mike Hron, M&I First National Trust Co; Dan Johnson, Johnson Bus; Bruce Kelly, West Bend Company; Jeanne Kreilkamp, Kreilkamp Trucking; Ray Lipman, West Bend Savings Bank; Brenda Raad, Big Brothers and Big Sisters; Jeff Reigle, Regal Ware; Joe Salmon, Serigraph Inc.; James Schwartz, City of West Bend; Kevin Steiner, West Bend Mutual Insurance;

Rev. James Taylor, Emmaus Bible Church; Carol Vetter, Regal Ware; and Doug White, Broan Manufacturing Co.

Board Officers through February 1999 are: President - Dan Johnson; Vice President - Kevin Steiner; Secretary - Michael Hron; and Treasurer - Patrick O'Connor.

United Way Executive Director Barbara Hurula complimented the efforts of the board volunteers. "The lifeblood of our organization is the volunteer leadership," she stated. "Being on the United Way board is a unique and enriching volunteer experience. Not only are they helping and impacting thousands of lives in Washington County, but their own lives and outlook are changed forever, too."

25 Years Ago

March 9, 1973

After three costlier referendums and one advisory referendum were unsuccessful, electors of the Kewaskum School District approved a $1.6 million building program for district schools on the fifth try Tuesday. The result again was quite close with the final vote showing 1,079 for and 918 against the program out of the close to 2,000 ballots cast in the district. The margin was 161 votes. The $1.6 million package includes a new middle school in Kewaskum and additions to the Wayne, Farmington and Kewaskum Elementary Schools and Kewaskum High School, including a new gymnasium.

Dr. Nolting's office has been remodeled to make three complete operatories. Mrs. Filete (Jackie) is a registered nurse and will assist her husband temporarily. Dr. Nolting will continue his practice on a part-time basis and will confine his work mostly to dentures, braces and surgical procedures.

Members of the Village Board gave their approval to two items Monday night that will spell more expansion for Kewaskum. They approved what is known as "Amendment D" to the official map and the final plat for the Z and R Subdivision. The major change in the official map involves the extension of Edgewood Road in a subdivision on the former Wallace Geidel property, plus addition of two streets in it that will exit separately on to Highway 45 and Highway 28. Ideal Land Company is the subdivider. The L and R subdivision, planned by Howard Zemlicka and Jan Rosenthal, both of Kewaskum, involves 14 lots on an extension of Stark Street at the east end of the village. Final approval of the subdivision is contingent upon installation of sewer and water by the subdividers.

Two sophomores on Kewaskum's varsity basketball team finished among the top 15 scorers in the Scenic Moraine Conference. Both boys will be back for two more years of competition and this speaks well for the Indians' future. Soph Mike Koepke wound up fifth in scoring with 196 points for a 14.0 average. Soph Scott Koth finished close behind in seventh place with 184 points for an average of 13.2.

Memories

Settling back in on our weekly stroll up Main Street over 50 years ago, we now come to another landmark business long since gone from the community. As a matter of fact, this reporter does not even remember the building (guess I'm not as old as I feel!) The large building on the left was the home of the Lay Lumber Company. (Ironically, the tiny little building on the right was once home to the Kewaskum Statesman, a long, long time ago.)

According to "Kewaskum Then and Now" (thank you to the late Mark Smucker for all his time and efforts), the Lay Lumber Company was started by Henry J. Lay in 1879 on the site which was later occupied by Marx Sentry (now a parking facility). On September 11, 1884, the company traded a parcel of land to the Rosenheimer family in exchange for a warehouse adjoining the yards. In that same year, land was purchased from Nic. Guth. The first store was built in 1886 and was the main building for only one year when a larger store was built just west of it. Storage sheds were added along First Street in 1893 and along the railroad tracks in 1898.

In 1907, Mr. Lay died and his son, Otto E. Lay, took over the business. Otto Lay died on January 10, 1940 and Henry J. Lay, his son, took over the business which became a corporation in 1942. In 1950 the original building was torn down and 14 years later, in 1964, the main store and the warehouse located along the railroad tracks were leveled when Marx Sentry was built. In the fall of that year a new store was built on the northwest corner of the lot. In February, 1970, the business was leased to Minz Supply Company, Inc. by Mr. Lay for health reasons. Minz Supply Company was opened for business on February 16, 1970, on the site of what is now the rear of the Regal Outlet Store.

NEXT STOP ON MAIN STREET: The Bank of Kewaskum. If anyone has historic information or a fond memory to contribute about the bank or upcoming businesses traveling west on the north side of Main Street, please send the information to the Kewaskum Statesman or call 626-2626. Any historical information you can contribute on the balance of the buildings on Main Street will be appreciated.

The pottery of KHS senior Lisa Sharpee, right, captured a "Best of Show in Three-D" award at the EWC Art Show. Senior Krista Chapman's "Pollution" was awarded "Best of Category" in sculpture.

Honors abounded for Kewaskum High School students during February's Eastern Wisconsin Conference Art Exhibit.

Student work earned honors in each of the top three categories: Best of Show, Best of Category, and Special Merit Awards.

Grabbing the "Best of Show in 3-D" top honors was stoneware pottery by senior Lisa Sharpee.

"Best of Category" awards were captured with works by Tiffany Zehren (a charcoal drawing called "Solitude"), Melissa Wagner (an oil titled "Melissa"), and Krista Chapman, a ceramic and found materials sculpture called "Pollution."

Earning "Special Merit Awards" for their charcoal drawings were Joanna Stevens, Heather Justman, and Julie Haberman, who had two of her works receive such distinction.

Additional "Special Merit Awards" were given to Rhett Engelking (one for a pastel drawing and another for an acrylic work), as well as to Rebecca Stoffel and Jessie Repovsch for their acrylic paintings.

Erin Judnic's pastel received a "Special Merit Award," too, as did Jim Menger's batik work, and Melissa Wagner's garnet and sterling ring.

Town of Scott

obtained from towns throughout the State of Wisconsin, and has concluded, "The Town of Scott electorate are the tightest people this side of the Mississippi."

He requested that town supervisors take a look at the survey and start talking. This may be the subject for the annual meeting in April.

The recycling committee has reported its current project of contracting various vendors in the recycling market for prices. It appears that the bigger quantity the town would have to sell, the higher the price per pound that it could receive.

Although garbage can only be taken to the locality of your residence, recycled material is welcome at any collection site. Scott officials are considering a plan which would invite recycled material from their neighboring municipalities.

The Town will be borrowing approximately $82,565 from the State Trust Fund for the purchase of a tanker for the Beechwood Fire Department. The Town will hold title to the tanker as part of an agreement with Beechwood.

It will take seven to nine months to obtain the chassis and several additional weeks for the balance of equipment associated with a tanker. This tanker will be replacing a 1976 International. The new truck will have automatic driver friendly transmission in order to maintain a lower ISO rating. A low rating decreases fire insurance premium prices in the area.

A suggestion was made at the last meeting to change the meeting night to make meetings available to firemen who meet on the second Thursday of the month (the same as the town). The suggestion will be considered after the April election.

Irv Haugen, N1418 S. Cty. Rd. A, Kewaskum was the successful bidder to the used lawn tractor being sold by the town. His bid was $228 as compared to Phil Schmidt at $110 and Spencer Krahn at $126.26.

The Tar Kettle, also offered for sale, is being purchased by LeRoy Reysen for $21.51. He was the lone bidder.

Other approvals included: Holding Tank Agreement - Paul Hoeft; Picnic Licenses for Smelt Fry - Batavia Fire Department; Mobile Home Park Licenses to Hoefts, Four Seasons and Mazer; Picnic License for March 1 brat fry to Batavia Athletic Association.

Building Permits included James Buechel - HVAC; Daniel Arndt - Electrical; Floyd Klug - Windows; Jeff Scannell - Basement Rooms and Electrical; Time Warner - Service; Jim Ramel - Roof and siding.

Letter to The Editor

March 12, 1998

Dear Residents of the Kewaskum School District:

Three years ago, I debated whether or not to pursue representing the taxpayers of this school district by running for the Kewaskum School Board. I was very hesitant to do so, as, by nature, I am more a behind-the-scenes type person and being in the public eye was a very unappealing thought.

However, I felt strongly on several school-related topics such as raising academic expectations, fiscal responsibility, accountability for board, administration, staff and students, and preserving the values set down by our Founding Fathers. These beliefs were fundamental to me and still are today. I knew that I would never vote against my conscience on these issues.

On the other hand, I have been irritated on more than one occasion when our politicians cast votes that ignored their constituency with this justification, "I had to vote my conscience." Never wanting to find myself in that untenable situation, I decided back then to let my thoughts become known on these topics by "running on my conscience," so to speak. I reasoned that if you folks felt the way I did, you'd vote me in. If not, so be it. When you elected me to the Board, you basically told me that I was thinking along the same lines as most of you and therefore I have felt very comfortable in voting the Lori L. Bunkelman and Richard D. Ours, both of Campbellsport, are pleased to announce their engagement.

Parents of the couple are Jim and Jackie Pfantz, Lee and Debbie Bunkelman, and Dave and Mary Ours.

The bride to be is a 1986 Kewaskum High School graduate and is employed with Jim Pfantz Construction.

The future groom is a Campbellsport High School graduate, class of 1986. He is currently attending Moraine Park Technical College, and is employed at Weasler Engineering.

way I have. Thank you.

The end of my three-year term is drawing near and, after much deliberation, anguish and prayer, I have decided to run for reelection to the Kewaskum School Board. I realize that three years is a long time and much can change in that time period. I continue to hold the same strong opinions in the areas I've mentioned but I'm not sure if you are still in agreement with me. Again, I will not vote against my conscience so once again, I will make my views known in series of letters to the Statesman. You can then decide for yourselves if you want me to continue to represent you on the Board. If we're still in sync, great!

Social Security Has Retirement Planning Aids

Social Security has a number of retirement aids that people thinking about retiring should know about. These aids can help them plan their retirement and avoid future problems.

When you start thinking about retirement, the first thing you should do is to get a copy of your Personal Earnings and Benefit Estimate Statement from Social Security to find out how much you have coming. If you're age 60 or older, you should have received one in the mail this year, but if not, you can request one by calling the toll-free number -- 1-800-772-1213.

In addition, Social Security offices have publications that can answer the important questions you should have about Social Security. These include whether you can continue to work and receive some benefits (you can); whether your benefits will be taxed (maybe); who in your family may receive benefits when you retire.

Did you know that your children under age 18 or disabled can receive Social Security benefits if you retire? It helps to know this for retirement planning purposes. The booklet, Retirement, available from the Social Security office, can answer most questions people have about Social Security retirement rules.

Contacting Social Security can also help you determine which month is best for you to claim benefits. In some cases the month you choose for retirement could mean additional benefits for you and your family. And, depending on your earnings and benefit amount, it may be possible for you to collect Social Security benefits while continuing to work.

Girl Scout Week March 8-14 Girl Scouts... We Change the World

March 12 marks the 86th Anniversary of Girl Scouting in the U.S.A. With more than 3.5 million members, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. is the largest organization for girls in the world. Some 850,000 volunteers give their time through the support of 319 Girl Scout Councils that are chartered by the national organization, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. (GSUSA) to administer and develop Girl Scouting in specific geographical areas of the United States. Manitou Girl Scout Council serving more than 7,000 girls and adult volunteers in the seven counties of Calumet, Dodge, Fond du Lac, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Sheboygan and Washington is one of those chartered councils.

Girl Scouts benefits parents and volunteers as well as girls, age 6-17. Parents and volunteers benefit from Girl Scouting as much as the girls themselves, according to a just-released outcomes study called Girls, Families and Communities Grow Through Girl Scouting. Among the findings, 54-percent of the parents polled report that Girl Scouting allows them to spend more quality time with their daughters and nearly 50 percent find that their relationship with their daughter has improved. "This statistic is significant because study after study has shown that a stronger parent-child bond means a stronger child - emotionally, academically and socially," says Ms. Elinor Ferdon, National President of the Girl Scouts of the GSUSA of the largely female volunteer pool studied, 87 percent say that they have developed leadership skills and 74 percent feel that their self-confidence has increased because they served as Girl Scout troop, group or assistant leaders.

When Girl Scouts and non-members of the same age group were surveyed, Girl Scouts reported greater opportunities to achieve nine positive outcome measures - self-reliance; self-competence; social skills (ability to make friends); respect for others; feelings of belonging; helpfulness/concern for the community; teamwork; leadership, and values clarifications/decision-making.

Among the findings that confirm these and other positive effects:

* Brownie Girl Scouts (age 6-8) report experiencing teamwork, feelings of belonging, leadership, helpfulness and values/decision-making more often in their troops or groups than in school

* Junior girl Scouts (age 8-11) see leadership opportunities as 14 percent higher in their Girl Scout troops or groups compared to school

* Cadette Girl Scouts (ages 11-14) experience such positive outcomes as concern for others, feelings of belonging, and values/decision-making more often in troops or groups than in school.

* Senior Girl Scouts (ages 14-17) say troop activities versus school activities provide substantially higher levels of experiencing leadership, respect for others, teamwork, helpfulness, feelings of belonging and values/decision-making opportunities.

* 76 percent of parents indicate they are building friendships with other adults through having a daughter involved in Girl Scouting and 67 percent report they feel that they are giving back to the community.

* 95 percent of volunteers felt they had a positive influence on the development of girls, 83 percent say they developed skills they otherwise would not have developed, and 85 percent agree they receive rewards they don't typically receive in their daily lives.

"We know there are factors that place girls "at risk" and we know there are factors that are building blocks for girls choosing healthy behaviors," says Sylvia Barison, Ph.D., National Director of Research and Evaluation, GSUSA. "For more than 86 years, Girl Scouting has been providing those building blocks and now we have data to show that girls and their parents benefit from their participation."

"GIRL SCOUTS IS NOT FOR EVERY GIRL"

By Scarlett Maria Spagna

Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who want to expand their imaginations.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who want to build their realizations.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who want to improve their communities.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who want to succeed.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who want challenges to discover.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who like to influence each other.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who have the potential to learn.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those with the confidence to earn.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who are proud of who they are.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those both near and far.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But it's for those who have the time.
Girl Scouts is not for every girl,
But are you a girl who could add to this rhyme?

Hundreds of Teens Expected at Teen Breakaway in West Bend

Fishin' Musicians

EVERETT DARREN

On Friday, March 13th, Lighthouse Ministries, Inc., a non-denominational ministry, and area business people will present its 5th teen rally -- TEEN BREAKAWAY '98 -- at the West Bend high school auditorium, 1305 E. Decorah Rd. The rally will be held from 7-10 p.m.

Teen Breakaway, with its theme, "It's Time for a Change," is tailored to meet the needs of teens today. National youth speaker and recording artist, Everett Darren, will be featured artist and keynote speaker. Everett speaks to thousands of students each year combining his musical, comedic and speaking skills in high school assemblies across the country. Having lost three close friends to drug and alcohol related auto accidents, Darren knows first hand the dangers associated with negative teen behavior. He has dedicated his life to encouraging teens to make the most of their lives and to examine how choices made today can effect their tomorrow.

There will also be music presented by recording artists, Fishin' Musicians from Brodhead, Wis. This four piece band will ring contemporary Christian music with a mixture of folk and alternative to the Teen Breakaway event. Their raw honesty through song and talk will challenge Generation X to make right choices.

We will also have special guest appearance by Tom Pipines, sports director for TV6. Tom will be our Master of Ceremonies for the event.

The event is free, and there will be over 50 door prizes, including a mountain bike, donated by area businesses, given away.

For more information, call (414) 338-0205, 334-1231, 677-2952 or 527-4303.

students and staff at FES used the day to celebrate the joy of reading.

Students dressed as Seuss characters, brought in Seuss books, and helped with Seuss and reading displays around the school.

Students were briefed on some Dr. Seuss trivia (like his first book was And to Think That I Saw It on Mulberry Street, and he wrote Green Eggs and Ham to win a bet by writing a book only using 50 words.)

Even guest readers stopped by to share a favorite Dr. Seuss book or two. Sheriff Jack Theusch, District Administrator Clark Pearson, former FES Principal Tom Larsen, current principal Mr. Botting, school custodian Mr. Reif and elementary counselor, Ms. Mundigler, all read to the different grades wearing the trademark red and white striped hats of The Cat in the Hat.

The students had some fun with reading, and some fun remembering Dr. Seuss.

Even if they didn't get to eat green eggs and ham.

Museum to Host Free Lecture

As part of the Old Courthouse Museum's recently installed exhibit CRYSTAL CLEAR: A SHORT STORY OF GLASS the Washington County Historical Society will host a FREE public lecture at the museum, 320 S. 5th Ave., West Bend on Tuesday, March 17, at 7:00 p.m.

The presentation will be given by Jan Smith, Curator of the Bergstrom-Mahler Museum, Neenah. Among other things, she will discuss the genesis of the university art glass movement which began in Madison, Wisconsin in the 1960's under the direction of Harvey Littleton.

The exhibit is on display now and includes items that are both historical and contemporary, functional and decorative, and will stay on display through December 31, 1998. Some of these items include a front door, side windows and arch, all of leaded-glass which came from the home of Ernst Frankenberg on the corner of Fifth Avenue and Poplar Street.

Also on display are bitters, beer and gin bottles, glass marbles, ambrotypes, eye glasses and, of course, decorative tableware, vases and art glass designs. Two, unusual pieces on loan from a local family include a flawless, cobalt blue, wide-lipped hand-blown urn and a clear, etched glass bowl from 1844. Both pieces have been attributed to George (aka Jordan) Thode of Newburg who is assumed to be the only glass blower living in the county during its early settlement period.

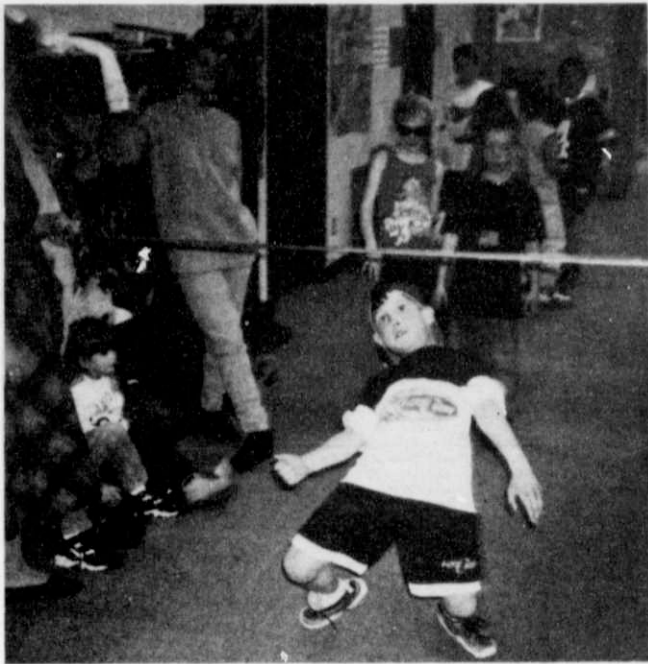

The exhibit also features a variety of glass-making equipment including a blow-pipe, gaffer's bench, crucible (melting pot) and wooden hurricane lantern mold, which are all on loan from Chicago Art Glass, Sheboygan, WI. The exhibit is free and open to public viewing on Wed., Thurs. & Fri., 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. and Sundays from 1-4 p.m. The exhibit is proudly sponsored by Slesar Glass & Gallery.

During your visit, please stop in the Treasurer's Vault Gift Shop to see some of the new glass items now available for the duration of the exhibit. For more information, please call the society at (414) 335-4678.

Donkey Ball... Fun for All!

Ball in one hand... other hand on rein... donkey on the move... riding technique mastered... a Fillmore firefighter prepares to go in for the "touchdown."

While trying to stay "afloat" and maintain ball control, WBWI-WBKV's Bob Bonenfant is obviously "fouled" by the boys from WTKM. (The idea, I think, Bob, is to keep your legs wrapped around the donkey when he moves!)

Hey! These are donkeys... it's not necessary to check under the hood!

Isn't it the game plan to actually RIDE the donkey... not pull the animal all the way down to the hoops? FFA President Ben Propson actually thinks he can convince the donkey to see things his way!

Statesman photos by Andrew Kuehl

On Thursday, March 5, the Kewaskum FFA and the FFA Alumni held Donkey Basketball at Kewaskum High School. There were four teams that competed for honors.

The first game pitted the Fillmore Fire Department, against the Kewaskum FFA, with the FFA coming out on top of the 4 to 2 score. Gaining the points for the FFA was Vice President Jody Schmidt who scored two, and President Ben Propson, who also scored two.

In the second game the WTKM radio team took on the WBWI-WBKV radio pros with WTKM winning that contest, 8 to 6. Then came the championship game between the Kewaskum FFA and WTKM radio.

The two teams ended up in a tie with six points each with FFA Reporter D.J. Neumann scoring two points and Chris Carrier added four.

During the tense sudden death overtime, the first team to score was the winner. The FFA came up with the ball first, but after a missed shot, WTKM took over possession of the ball when ace Steve Wagner made the winning basket for WTKM.

It was a lot of fun for all of the players and great entertainment for over 400 spectators. It was one of the biggest turnouts that the event has ever brought to Kewaskum. The FFA and FFA Alumni would like to thank all who attended and helped to support the activity.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Mid-Monthly Meeting
February 16, 1998
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Regular Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Robert Wagner presided. All other Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the February 2, 1998 meeting were approved as printed.

On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board suspended the rules to take up item D under New Business - Follow up discussion on mail delivery/cluster boxes. Roll call was 7 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 0 "Absent".

Attorney Gerald Kiefer was present and reviewed several options that the Board would have. It was noted the new development is of immediate concern, but that the Board should look at the long range issue of maintenance for the entire village. This would appear to be simple if the US Post Office were accountable to their customers and lived up to their liabilities. The discussion took 50 minutes with no action taken. It was noted that the matter would be on the agenda for some action in March.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles reviewed the bid received for the purchase of a snow plow truck, dump box, wing and sander. One bid was received from Cooley's Inc., West Bend, WI for $75,871.00. It was noted that a couple of federal requirements added to the projected cost of the truck; also the equipment was interchangeable with the existing fleet.

On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee John Kenworthy and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the purchase of the snow plow truck and equipment from Cooley's Inc., West Bend, WI at a cost of $75,871.00.

Chief of Police Richard L. Knoebel presented the January 1998 report:

It was further noted a resolution will be coming to the Board on the County-Wide police agreement and that an ordinance regarding the sale of second hand material will also be brought to the Board.

Trustee John Kenworthy reviewed the employment process for the General Maintenance Worker for the Department of Public Works and presented the Board with a recommendation. On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee Warren Dums and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board hired Denis J. Thull for the position of GMW within the DPW at a starting rate of $9.56 per hour. The estimated start date to be March 3, 1998.

On a motion by Trustee Andy Pesch, seconded by Trustee John Kenworthy, and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board authorized the advertising for part-time summer employees for the DPW & WPC.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following with the Board:

1) Review of Mid-Moraine, League and Taxpayer Bulletins.
2) It was noted as of this date 473 surveys have been returned of 52.1%.

3) A review of the January 1998 building permit report.

4) The Board was advised that an adjustment would be forthcoming on the holding tank waste water disposal fee as recently acted upon. It will be going down substantially in comparison to the newly approved rate.

Trustee John Kenworthy, Chairman of the Park & Recreation Committee, reported on the Committee meeting held February 16, 1998 at 6:45 p.m. It was noted the School District, being represented by Mr. Clark Pearson, requested the possibility of using one or more ball diamonds in the future. The various ball associations and clubs were present for the discussion and indicated that if the scheduling could be worked out there shouldn't be a problem. It was further noted a scheduling meeting for the existing teams will be held the end of April.

On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee Harry Roecker and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board authorized proceeding with those items for the ball diamond area as previously budgeted.

Trustee Robert Stoltzmann brought up the question regarding the use of Village owned equipment. The Administrator is to check into the matter for the April meeting.

On a motion by Trustee Andy Pesch, seconded by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board directed a letter of support for the placement of flower pots, benches and waste receptacles be sent to the local organizations.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles reviewed in detail the placement and process for installation of future water playground apparatus. On a motion by Trustee Warren Dums, seconded by Trustee Gary Gavin and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized getting bids/quotes for the water apparatus and ordering said equipment with the balance of said work being completed on a time and material basis.

Board Representative for the Plan Commission, Trustee Warren Dums announced a Commission meeting for February 24, 1998 at 7:00 p.m.

The Mid-Moraine Municipal Association Legislative Committee Representative Trustee Robert Stoltzmann reported that a meeting was held on Wednesday, February 11, 1998 and that Representative Lehman was present to defend his TIF proposed restructuring. Other legislative matters were discussed and some will be brought to the Board for action.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt informed the Board that the permit for the relief sewer work, etc., has been sent and that a meeting with the railroad is scheduled. Work is continuing on the easement with Holy Trinity.

On a motion by Trustee John Kenworthy, seconded by Trustee Gary Gavin and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the sale of miscellaneous items by the Paul Auction Company. It was noted no private in house sales should be held.

What You Can Do To Lower Your Blood Pressure

Lifestyle changes can help Americans lower high blood pressure. New guidelines from the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute recommend these steps:

Maintain a healthy weight.
Excess body weight is linked closely with increased blood pressure. Weight loss of as little as 10 pounds can reduce blood pressure.

Get regular physical activity.
Blood pressure can be lowered with moderately intense physical activity, such as 30 minutes of brisk walking every day.

Eat healthy.
Your diet should be rich in fruits, vegetables, and low in fat, cholesterol and sodium (salt). Potassium is also important in protecting against high blood pressure.

Limit alcohol consumption.
If you drink, drink no more than 2 beers (12 ounces each) or 2 small glasses of wine per day for men and half that per day for women.

Quit smoking.
Cigarette smoking is a powerful risk factor for cardiovascular disease. Stopping smoking will yield cardiovascular benefits that can be seen within a year.

While these activities can help lower blood pressure for some, they may not be enough for all. If your blood pressure remains high, your physician may prescribe medications.

Volunteers Needed to Stand 'Sturgeon Guard'

OSHKOSH -- People interested in assuring the long-term survival of one of Wisconsin's rarest fish species have an opportunity to volunteer time to protect spawning sturgeon from poachers.

Each year, "sturgeon guards" are set up in different locations to protect these prehistoric-looking fish while they make their spawning run up the Wolf River from Lake Winnebago, home to the largest natural lake sturgeon population in the world.

"When sturgeon are spawning along the rocky shorelines of the Wolf River, they are fairly oblivious to nearby human activity and are very susceptible to illegal harvest," explains Carolyn Kelly, who coordinates the Sturgeon Watch Program for the state Department of Natural Resources. "Our volunteers babysit the spawning fish 24 hours a day throughout the spawning season."

When spawning begins, pairs of sturgeon guards are assigned to the active sites for 12-hour shifts. Prior to each assignment, guards check in at a "sturgeon camp" near Shiocton, where they are fed a meal, go through a short training session, and are given a "Sturgeon Guard" cap that is theirs to keep, directions to their site, and a sack lunch. At the end of their shift, they return to camp for another meal. The camp also has bunk space available for people who are traveling from a distance or planning on standing more than one watch.

While it is difficult to predict the exact dates that spawning occurs each year, guards are routinely scheduled from April 18 through May 5, Kelly said. Spawning generally occurs over a five to seven day period. The biggest demand for volunteers is for the P.M. shifts on weekdays, when many people are unable to volunteer because of work and family commitments. Weekend shifts fill up the quickest.

"We do our best to get all scheduled guards out on a riverbank where they may observe fish, we invariably have to cancel some scheduled shifts if the fish are not active," she said. "We have a number of families for whom volunteering to guard the sturgeons has become

Stacey Darmody from the Kewaskum area, was inducted into Madison Area Technical College's chapter of Phi Theta Kappa during the college's recent 1997-98 spring induction ceremony on February 23, 1998.

Phi Theta Kappa, with more than 1,100 chapters worldwide, is an international honor society that has been recognizing academic achievement in two-year colleges since 1918. The society is dedicated to advancing four hallmarks; scholarship, service, fellowship and leadership. To be eligible for membership, students need a minimum of 12 associate degree credits and a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.75 on a 4.0 scale.

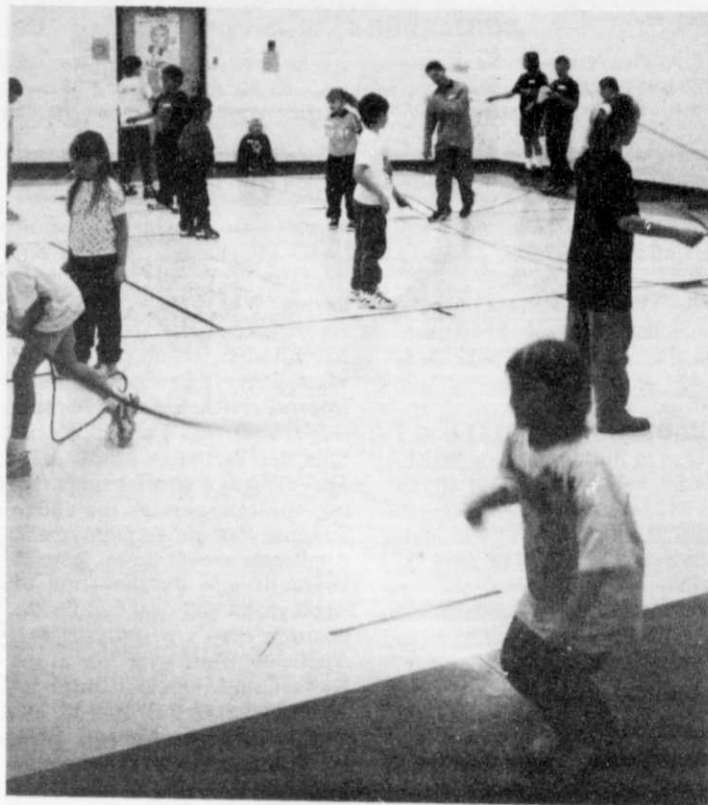

The MATC Chapter, Beta Beta Psi, began in the fall semester of 1995, and quickly became one of the nation's largest. This fall's induction of 55 students brought the total chapter membership to 415.

MATC is the second largest of the Wisconsin Technical College System's 16 colleges. It provides a comprehensive curriculum of technical, liberal arts and science, adult basic education and life enrichment studies and activities, as well as customized employee training. MATC awards associate degrees, vocational diplomas and certificates and offers non-degree courses. The college serves all or part of 12 counties located in south central Wisconsin and offers instruction at seven campuses and various other locations throughout the district.

Jumping Rope For Heart at FES

The Farmington Elementary School gym was jumping recently during the "Jump Rope for Heart" event to raise money for the American Heart Association. Students raised $2,255.60 in pledges for the organization. The annual event had additional meaning this year: it will also bring a plaque to commemorate a fine, longtime FES and district teacher, Mr. Tim Leader, who passed away earlier in the school year. Two-hundred sixty-five students (as well as staff members) took part in the worthwhile event.

Preliminary Numbers Show Spearers Took 2,052 Lake Winnebago Sturgeon

OSHKOSH -- Preliminary results show spearers registered 2,052 fish during the 16-day 1998 Lake Winnebago sturgeon spearing season that closed Sunday, March 1.

The harvest could have been significantly higher, but the thin ice covering the lake at the start of the season actually started to open up before the season ended, essentially closing the season down early, according to Ron Bruch, Department of Natural Resources sturgeon biologist in Oshkosh.

"It was a banner opening weekend," Bruch said, "Seventy-eight percent of the harvest took place in the first three days. Had the ice not begun breaking up, the harvest could have been significantly higher because the water was just exceptionally clear. Some spearers reported they could see mud ripples on the bottom at 20 feet and see 50 feet to the side through their spearing holes."

Preliminary harvest figures show spearers took 900 males, 1108 females and 44 sturgeon whose sex was not identified. The largest fish speared was a 114-pound, 74 inch sturgeon speared opening day by Mike O'Henry of Fond du Lac. Bruch said there was one other sturgeon that weighed over 100 pounds and several other just under 100 pounds speared during the season.

Bruch believes the harvest was within safe levels for protecting this rare species, but that had the season continued at harvest levels of the first three days, there would have been serious cause for concern.

The current sturgeon management goal is to limit the average annual harvest of adult females (those able to spawn, generally 55 inches and larger) to five percent of the total available stock. The preliminary figures show the harvest of adult females between five and seven percent this year.

"We will be reviewing the results of this season and the harvest trend over the past few years to determine whether additional modifications to the harvest regulations may be necessary to protect the species," Bruch said.

A combination of two factors has boosted the spearing harvest in recent years: the water has become clearer in Lake Winnebago and more spearers than ever are participating in the season. Water clarity has been good during at least seven of the last 10 seasons, indicating that some of the long-term efforts to clean up the Lake Winnebago watershed may be having some success.

Meanwhile, the number of people purchasing spearing licenses has gone up from around 6,000 in the 1970s to more than 27,000 last year.

New sturgeon spearing rules went into effect last year to help control the harvest of adult females. They included a reduction in the minimum size limit from 45 to 36 inches and a set 16-day season. After two seasons, the new lower size limit has reduced the percentage and average number of adult females in the harvest.

With the 45 inches size limit, adult females comprised 46% of the harvest, while the 36-inch size limit has lowered that percentage to 23%. Spearers registered 1,290 fish in 1997. The record harvest was in 1995 when spearers registered 3,173 sturgeon.

DNR fisheries managers have worked with spearers, the Wisconsin Conservation Congress and other local interests in developing a management plan for the Lake Winnebago sturgeon population, which is the largest natural lake sturgeon population in the world. Bruch said the data from this past season will be reviewed by a sturgeon management committee at an upcoming meeting to begin discussions of harvest regulation modifications are necessary.

Indians Lose Regional Contest to Mayville

The Annual WIAA state basketball tournament kicked off last Tuesday, as Kewaskum hosted perennial Flyway Conference Power, Mayville, in a regional contest.

The Cardinals (10-10) are led by one of the area's finest athletes in 6'2" Benji Kamrath, who averages 22 points per game. He was voted all-state first team in football this past fall at quarterback.

The Indians again found it hard to get their engines roaring in the first half as an aggressive full court man-to-man Cardinal defense held KHS to a 24% (5-21) shooting effort.

Josh Gaffke paced the Indians with eight points including two three-pointers, as the home team found themselves on the wrong end of a 25-17 score at the intermission.

KHS started to regain confidence as a 12-point deficit was slowly carved down to four points, 48-44, with 2:52 to go in the game.

After a defensive stop, the Indians worked the ball for an open three-point attempt that would have cut the lead to one point, but the effort was just short.

KHS was then forced to make the final two minutes a free throw contest as they trapped full court in an effort to steal every pass. A disciplined Cardinal team held off the upset-minded Indians at the end by converting all six of their free throws in the last 58 seconds. The final score came in at Mayville 64, Kewaskum 53.

The Indians were led by John Warnecke, who fouled out with 3:30 remaining. He had 15 points and again led the team in rebounds. Gaffke added 11, Andy Christophersen netted 10 and David Gerhart scored eight in his last appearance in a green uniform. He is the lone senior.

"This one was closer than the score indicated," Coach Tom Timblin commented after the game. He added, "When John fouled out we were hurting big time on the boards. Next year we need major help in the rebounding category if we are to take it to the next level. We were out-boarded in 19 of our 21 games this year. I'd play a freshman next year if he gives us 10 boards a game. Whatever it takes!"

Timblin closed by praising his entire squad for sticking with it. "It was a privilege to coach this bunch of guys. They're all really nice kids. We're going to play alot of ball this summer at various camps and tournaments."

Bluebird Nest Box Workshop

Lac Lawrann Conservancy's annual bluebird Nest Box Workshop will be held Saturday, March 14, from 9 to 10 a.m. in the Conservancy Niche at City Hall, 1115 S. Main Street, West Bend. The presenter, Mary Holleback, Washington County Coordinator for BRAW (Bluebird Restoration Society of Wisconsin).

Bluebirds will arrive any day now. If you haven't cleaned out your boxes or need new boxes to install, this is the time to make out your check-list. BRAW is a volunteer organization promoting the monitoring of nest boxes.

During the nesting season, the survival of birds nesting in the man-made boxes depends on regular monitoring of their progress. Cats, raccoons, wasps, ants, snakes and other predators can cause problems and discourage the fledgling of native birds, such as Bluebirds, House Wrens, Chickadees and Tree Swallows. A few simple steps can prevent this from happening.

BRAW's spring workshop helps the backyard enthusiast with effective ways to attract Bluebirds and other native cavity nesters, as well as how to handle predator problems. The workshop includes a 30 minute slide program on monitoring nest boxes, hands-on identification of nest types, box types, and time for questions and answers.

For information and to pre-register, call the West Bend Park Department at 335-5080.

Snowmobile Winner

The AWSC in conjunction with all of the Wisconsin Snowmobile clubs held their annual 50/50 Snowmobile Raffle. This year's lucky winner was Craig Erdmann of the New Fane Kettle Riders. Craig won an Arctic Cat ZL500 donated by Arctic Cat Inc. The New Fane Kettle Riders have been together for over 25 years. They groom over 75 miles of trail in parts of Sheboygan and Fond du Lac counties, plus DNR trails, Crooked trails, as well as their own.

All snowmobile owners are invited to become members of a club that is actively involved in promoting safe snowmobiling on Wisconsin trails. With approximately 65 family and single memberships, plus several business memberships, the new Fane Kettle Riders are also involved in many activities within the community.
