Hammen Third at State

Matt Hammen proudly displays his third place medal won by clearing 6'5" in the Division Two high jump competition at the WIAA State Track and Field meet on Saturday, June 6, at UW-La Crosse.

Matt Hammen, Kewaskum High School star high jumper, placed third in the Division Two high jump at the WIAA State Track and Field Meet on Saturday, June 6, at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse.

Hammen cleared 6'4" without any misses to give him third place. Three other jumpers also cleared 6'4" each but had misses at earlier heights and therefore placed fourth through sixth.

Scott Berggren of Hortonville won the high jump with a height of 6'8" and Ladell Pope of Monona Grove placed second with a height of 6'5".

"Matt's consistency has been a major reason in his success this season. Clearing 6'4" without a miss was the determining factor in his third place finish. We're all very happy and proud of him," reported coach Jerry Gosa.

High jump coach Keith Amundson remarked that, "Matt's done a great job all season. He handled the pressure at the state meet without a problem. I've really enjoyed working with Matt. He had a great ending to his high school career."

$14,684,272 Proposed Budget to Be Presented At Annual Meeting

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

With only a few slight changes, the school district's 1998-99 proposed budget was approved for presentation at the Annual Meeting.

The proposed budget of $14,684,272.00 in anticipated revenues reflects an increase over last year of 0.11%, and $14,918,945.00 in proposed expenditures shows a percent change of 0.18%.

Business manager George Allmann discussed the budget with school board members, explaining some of the line items and reasons for the change in dollar figures over last year.

Approximately $36,500 represents money that will be received from other districts who have students attending Kewaskum district schools, up 104% over last year's budgeted figure of $25,000. In turn, the district has allocated $121,500.00 to pay the tuition of students who attend other districts under the state's open enrollment program.

Other major changes in expenditures occurred in the following areas: undifferentiated curriculum rose $145,507.00 or 6.73% from the inclusion of a contingency fund of approximately $80,000.00. Differentiated curriculum increased due to the addition of an at-risk teacher, a .5 alternative high school instructor, and a .6 reading teacher at Wayne Elementary School. The major increase in both accounts, and in special education funding and co-curricular activities represents salary and fringe benefit increases.

Allmann indicated that there are no plans to allocate any monies from the fund balance at this time. Last year, $285,000.00 was allocated to blacktop the parking lots and fence in the football field.

As presented and estimating a 3% growth in the equalized value of the district from 1997-98 to 1998-99 ($584,000,000.00), and utilizing the same general state aid as last year, the estimated tax rate would be $10.56 per thousand of equalized value, the same as the last two years.

The school district is also planning to ask taxpayers to defuse $500,000 to reduce long term debt. That amount would reflect a 22% drop in debt service revenue, and a 19.58% decrease in expenditures.

"I believe that the entire district has made a concerted effort to hold costs in line, and yet provide the fiscal means whereby all students of the district will receive a quality education," Allmann told the board.

The new budget will be proposed and decided upon by the electors at the annual school district meeting, set for July 27th.

Annual Meeting Electorate Will Also Decide on Sale Of Beechwood School

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Electorate attending the Kewaskum School District Annual Meeting will decide if Beechwood School should be sold.

School board members voted 6-1 Monday night on a resolution to allow listing the sale of the vacant Beechwood Elementary School as one of the agenda items at the Annual Meeting and Budget Hearing scheduled for July 27th at 7 p.m.

After last month's vote to keep the opening of Beechwood School off future building referendums, the board majority backed a plan that would level the red brick Kewaskum Elementary School to make way for a new school on the same site. With Beechwood out of the picture, school board members thought it fiscally responsible to eliminate the neighborhood school from the district's budget after twelve years of unuse as an elementary school.

"This should have been done twelve years ago," Larry Fechter told other board members. Fechter, who previously backed voter's choice regarding reopening Beechwood school, seconded the motion to let the public vote on selling the building. President Jean Goeden, who served on the school board in 1989, said the sale of the school was voted on at that year's annual meeting, and failed." The public was given a chance to do it," she

Village Board Discusses Emergency Situations

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

The Kewaskum Village Board met last week Monday and swiftly handled matters at hand. Trustee Warren Dums was absent, all other members were present.

Assistant Fire Chief Mark Herges gave his report for the month of April. Trustee Gary Gavin asked "When the power went out what kind of problems did the fire station have?" (Referring to the storm that hit the area on Sunday, May 31.)

Herges stated there were none. The generators were used which made some of the lights and all of the garage doors operational.

President Robert Wagner asked why the siren did not go off that morning. Administrator Daniel Schmidt explained that the county did not issue a warning and therefore the siren did not go off. The Village attempted to activate the siren but could not due to loss of power.

Schmidt also explained that "there is only one location where it may be possible to hook the siren up and have it be here at the municipal building."

Police Chief Richard Knoebel stated it is being looked into at this time. Schmidt reiterated that the generator may not be large enough to handle the siren.

Another point brought up by President Wagner, was the fact that all the gas pumps in the village are run by electricity and in the case of a power outage, fuel may be inaccessible to police officers on duty. Chief Knoebel answered, "as soon as we found that out, I called the Sheriff's Department. They said we could fill up down there and they'd keep a car in the area."

He went on to say in this situation "The Sheriff's Department was going to provide us with gas."

President Wagner asked Department of Public Works Director Jerry Gilles "what would it take to have the pumps wired up at the village garage?" He answered, "The village garage does not have any auxiliary power. I've been looking into this. I asked Lakeview Electric for the different costs (of doing this). It is an expense to get emergency power into the building," Gilles concluded.

Chief Knoebel reported that the 1996 Ford Crown Victoria was sold at an auction for $7,200. "We realized about a $1,000 more selling through the auction." Knoebel also introduced the board to the new speedboard purchased by the village. The board is set on the back of a squad car and monitors speed of oncoming traffic. He also indicated that if residents would like the sign put in their neighborhood they should call the station. Trustee Gavin applauded the speed board saying "I think it's nice."

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles gave his bi-weekly report. He indicated the generator purchased last winter at the number two pump house worked very well. In general there were no real problems. "I'm happy we weathered the storm as well as we did," he concluded. Chipping has also been going well he stated.

Administrator Schmidt added that mutual aid was given to Lomira and Campbellsport with portable generation and the brush chipper. With that Gilles said he was impressed with the command center and communications they had at Lomira and hoped maybe the village would want to purchase a high-band radio for the department of public works to keep communications open between everyone in case of an emergency situation.

Knoebel agreed, stating "one of our problems we have is the DPW is on low-band. They are the only ones on low-band in the whole area, and that's a problem with the radio system."

Knoebel continued by saying, "I don't know how long your (radio) system is going to last. Eventually you might want to think about switching to high-band." Schmidt finished the conversation by saying it is listed on the capital improvements for next year.

Administrator Schmidt informed the board of 18 operators licenses for 1998/99 and they were approved. He also indicated that the final order for fireworks were placed. "We ordered an additional $700 worth (of fireworks) from donations we received through Lana (Kuehl) at the Statesman office in the containers she's been manning" as well as other donations.

Trustee Gavin summarized his earlier public works committee meeting stating four areas of unfit storm sewers are being looked at. "Two are being tabled and the remaining two are being sent back to (DPW director) Jerry (Gilles) to check into having a fifty-fifty split with the property owners."

Trustee John Kenworthy gave an update on the tree planting occurring on Fond du Lac Avenue in front of the Kewaskum Mall and Timblin Property Management Building. Administrator Schmidt stated "Bill Geidel from the Sentry store is not happy with them (the trees), and he would ask we not put any more trees in. He says they are going to be a detriment to his customers, a safety hazard and so forth."

Trustee Gavin asked how Mr. Geidel felt it was going to be a detriment.

Schmidt answered that, Geidel said, "It is going to block vision, it's going to block the view from the road, from the store." The board then was informed that three trees were pending being planted.

Gavin reiterated, "We're not planting them cause he (Geidel) didn't want 'em."

Gilles added, "We're not planting them pending a board meeting."

"He wanted us to talk about it tonight and that's why those three were not planted," said Wagner.

Trustee Gavin said, "We can solve the problem, if three years down the road it's a problem, cut 'em down. I mean it's not that big of a deal."

President Wagner asked Gilles if he talked to Kewaskum Mall owner Tom Timblin. He said yes, that there were not any problems brought to him so far from Mr. Timblin. After further discussion, Trustee Gavin, with a sigh said, "plant the trees."

Trustee Kenworthy summarized his meeting with the library board saying, "Circulation again was up. One thing that was not good is the circulation for within the county outside the village limits is still down."

He also informed the board of an officer's election. Frank Beesten is now the president, Clark Pearson is Vice President, newcomer Margaret McFadden is Secretary and Cheryl Ammel will remain as treasurer. Concluding his summary, he stated that the summer help is now in full force, shelving the books.

The board finished up discussion on financing options for the relief sewer, sanitary sewer, storm sewer, water main and street improvements and will be financing $750,000.

The board ran through granting licenses and permits for summer functions and gatherings and then moved to setting one meeting for July instead of two because of the holiday.

Before members called for adjournment, Trustee Gavin commented on the recent vandalism done at the High School Field House. He commended Superintendent Clark Pearson on his moving speech and also class speaker Joshua Dieringer. Gavin stated "I was disappointed in the vandalism that occurred at the school the night before. When I say vandalism, that wasn't to me a hoax or something funny! I think it was a shame what happened and I think the village should recommend something to the school system that these kids don't spend any jail time or something like that, but, along with their sentencing, they should have to do some type of community service to show these other kids in the school that this isn't something that should be taken lightly. They're all real good kids and if they weren't caught that night, who knows who they would have been going after, there might have been a stated. "We have a right to lease it if it isn't sold (this time around); lease it or board it up and close it down completely. They (the town residents) can use Farmington's (summer) library."

If voters fail to approve the sale, the district does have the option of leasing the building to a group or organization. Board member Jon Downs said he hoped that consideration would be given to offering the building and land to the Town of Scott, an option that would allow Beechwood residents a chance to put the building to a community use, if voters approve the sale.

Casting the one vote against the resolution, John Schulte said he was concerned with the fact referendums have not yet been passed, so deciding the fate of Beechwood was premature. "I think the (building) plan we have right now is a poor plan. I think the public distrusts us and a new approach has to be taken. The board was narrowly split (on the Beechwood referendum), there was a lot of public support, and I think this will have an affect," Schulte pointed out, regarding future support of a building referendum.

District Administrator Clark Pearson admitted it was still an emotional issue for constituents in the Beechwood area. Putting it to a vote at the annual meeting would let school district residents decide to keep it or get rid of it. The resolution passed on a 6-1 vote.

Rollover on CTH V

By Andrew R. Kuehl

TOWN OF KEWASKUM- A one car motor vehicle rollover occurred on Tuesday, June 9, at 5:55 a.m. on CTH V at USH 45 in the Town of Kewaskum.

Edward A. Dean, 52, of Mequon, was driving his Pontiac Grand Prix, turning westbound on CTH V from US 45. While turning onto CTH V he crossed the centerline. Dean attempted to correct and lost control. He then left the roadway, overturning onto a railroad track.

Dean required medical transport to St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend by the Kewaskum Rescue Squad for treatment of injuries he sustained in the accident.

New Child Care and Preschool Opens Here

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

At Dream A Little Dream Child Care and Preschool, the children spontaneously present visitors with pictures they've drawn on raggedly cut out bits of paper. It could amount to a squiggle of brown across a paper scrap, but nonetheless it's a genuine creation, much encouraged at Kewaskum's newest child care facility.

Located at the home of teacher and caregiver Julianna Colson, the business opened on Park Place, approximately four weeks ago. The Colson family moved here from Menomonee when Julianna's husband Michael decided to take a new job as a computer programmer at Dairyland Seed. Given the opportunity, and after nine years as a child care provider, Julianna says she is happy to be able to pursue her career choice in their new home town.

"A lot of people don't see family child care as a business. This is a profession that goes unrecognized as a career, but we are not just babysitters," Julianna points out. "We have a set curriculum that focuses on quality time and specialized attention." Her list of credentials define the high level of devotion and dedication Julianna sets for herself and her business. Participating in a program sponsored by the National Association for Family Child Care Providers, she is currently in the process of earning national validation granted to child care providers that meet stringent criteria.

To be granted accreditation, the provider has to be licensed for a certain number of years, earn points through six hours of evaluation by a validator, and meet with another six hours of evaluation by a parent validator. These assessments are then sent to a national board for final grading and accreditation. "In this town, as far as I'm aware of, I'm the only one who has achieved this," Colson explains. "In large group centers they experience too much of a turnover to be able to evaluate caregivers. You have to work at one place for a certain number of years."

Julianna's career in child care began when she chose to say home when her son Kyle was born, and later chose to home school both her children. She is certified by the state to teach preschool, and attends 120 hours each year of continuing education, seminars and workshops. (State laws discourage unlicensed childcare providers, limiting them to caring for no more than three children in their home).

"Kids feel at home here, and they are treated like my own children," Julianna confirms, pointing out bulletin boards in the entry way that inform parents of the weekly meal schedule, a dental hygiene program, and the basic philosophies that guide Dream A Little Dream. "Children really blossom when we read and sing to them. There's no television here, it's hands on learning. We use the computer for a half hour each day for educational purposes."

An outdoor play area provides an opportunity to explore science, like bubble making, and a nature trail leads from the backyard through a wooded area, to Kewaskum's Kiwanis Park.

"It's important for them to be able to interact with nature, plant things and watch them grow," Julianna relates.

More often than not, Julianna's business carries over into the off hours, and twelve hour days are not uncommon. "I'll be watching a movie at night with my husband, and cutting out a flannel board at the same time," she smiles, acclimated to a career that demands much of her time. Always looking for new ideas and learning techniques in education, Colson served as a secretary of the Dunn County Child Care Providers, and is a member of the National Assoc. for the Education of Young Children, the National Assoc. for Family Child Care (NAFCC), the National Assoc. for Early Childhood, the Wis. Early Childhood Assoc. (WECA), the Adult and Childrens Alliance, the Assoc. for lot of hardship. The whole ceremony might have been interrupted. I don't think this should be taken lightly; it shouldn't be brushed under the rug. My feeling is they should do community service, and I'm talking, if it means going up to the high school and cutting the grass during the summer or whatever it might be."

He continued by saying he attended two graduation parties and many of the kids felt they (the vandals) should not just be slapped on the wrists and let go. That would be very unjust.

Knoebel stated they were being charged with criminal damage to property and restitution, "it could reach into thousands of dollars." Knoebel also stated he did not know if our court has a community service option.

Gavin recommended the village send a letter to the judge asking for this option.

Knoebel also stated, "it is not being swept under the carpet." Gavin interrupted "I said I DON'T want it swept under the carpet, I didn't say it WAS being swept under the carpet. If they (the vandals) weren't caught that night, they would have went after totally different kids than these kids. These kids would have been on the bottom of the totem pole. It would have interrupted these other kids' night. Fortunately these kids were caught. There could have been a lot of bad feelings put out on this whole thing- It shouldn't be taken lightly! There is no reason to send these kids to jail or anything else, but on the same token, if their not out there in the public, seeing that they can't get away with this, other than a fine-money... you can make it zero as far as a fine. I'm talking about going up there and letting these other kids see what these kids did. That there is a price to pay for it."

Gavin again forcefully made his point that something other than a fine should be done. Misunderstanding Gavin, again Knoebel again said it was not being swept under the carpet. Gavin's voice rose as he repeated, "I said I don't want it swept under the carpet! I'm saying let the other kids know this won't be tolerated!"

Trustee Kenworthy jumped in, saying he thought it looked bad for the community and many people outside of the community are saying "Those are A students what are your F students like?"

Gavin then made a motion that a letter be sent to the municipal judge asking that community service be imposed upon these vandals. The motion passed with all voting in favor except Trustee Andrew Pesch.

It's Hollywood for Holy Trinity

Holy Trinity School Band instructor, John Ahlstrom, far right, introduces the next selection to be performed by the 17-member band.

Granny Award winners for the Best Rap were Little Red Riding Hood (Katie Staehler), the Three Pigs (Lisa Boden, Scott Herman and Keith Boegel) and the Big Bad Wolf (Bryan Kraft).

Goldilocks (Lanaya Martin) and the Three Bears (Becky Herriges, Amanda Schladweiler and Kala Rettler) treated the audience to the Walkie Talkie dance before accepting the Granny Award for Best Choreography.

Snow White (Virginia Feind) enthusiastically accepted the Best Female Vocalist Granny Award.

No, it wasn't the Grammy awards... but a hint of Hollywood stardom did come to Kewaskum on Monday, May 18, as Holy Trinity School students presented "The Granny Awards" under the direction of their music instructor, Terry Christie.

The concert opened with an impressive presentation of three songs by 17 members of the Holy Trinity School Band under the direction of band instructor, John Ahlstrom and a trio by Maggie Herriges, Becky Herriges and Candi Heberer.

Mr. Ahlstrom gave special recognition to graduating eighth grade students, Maggie Herriges, clarinet; John Neumann, trombone; Candi Heberer and Dan Timmers, percussion, for their years of hard work, many hours of practice, the contribution they made to the band program and their dedication to be the best they could be.

The annual spring concert continued proving to be quite entertaining and colorful as talented students in kindergarten through sixth grade, select choir and drama class students presented musical pieces to an audience of nearly 500.

One only needed to use a bit of imagination to return to their childhood as Snow White and her seven helpers; Jack in the Beanstalk and the Giant; Cinderella, her step-sisters, the fairy godmother and the Prince; Goldilocks and the Three Bears and Little Red Riding Hood, the wolf and the Three Little Pigs magically appeared before them all with a song... and sometimes a dance.

And, of course, what awards ceremony would be complete without commercials. Grades one and two had popcorn to sell in the "Popcorn Parade," kindergarten had "Hickory, Hickory Dock Clocks" with special effect "I'm Late" rabbits (Elisa and Katie Schoofs) from Alice in Wonderland, Jack and Jill (Andy Rinzel and Mona Faber) and the kindergarten class had spring water to sell and Select Choir members presented "Munchkin Mart," a shop to meet all your needs.

Throughout the show, acceptance speeches were given by well-known stars as they received their "Granny Award" for Best

Holy Trinity School Music Instructor, Terry Christie welcomes the audience to the "fairytale land."

Female Vocalist, Best Male Vocalist, Best Dramatic Scene, Best Choreography and Best Rap Award.

As the fairytale concert entertainers bid farewell, all in attendance were invited to "live happily ever after."

Letter to The Editor

To the Residents of the Village of Beechwood:

Being a volunteer fire department, we, as well as all departments, are sometimes called upon to drop what we are doing and come to the aid of others, either for E.M.S. or for fire. When we are called upon, we do not expect payment or any other retribution for our services. More often than not, a simple "Thank you" or "Good job people" goes a long way.

However, last weekend's windstorm brought to our realization that this was one event that would take more than our own department to deal with. Last Sunday mornings storm left our park in total disaster. Thirty-four trees were either toppled, broke off, uprooted, or hanging precariously over buildings, with some even in buildings. Wires were down, and roofs and walls had newly-formed holes. When daylight broke, our park was a sight to behold. The awesome power of nature reminded us of who really is the boss.

One by one, cars drove by, taking pictures and looking at the mess. People were walking around inspecting the damage. Shortly after noon, our members started arriving with chainsaws in hand, ready to start the enormous undertaking of cleaning up. After all, our annual picnic was just two weeks away. Before long, the residents of Beechwood and the surrounding area also started to arrive with saws and rakes, ready to go to work.

One by one, the trees were cut, the brush piled, the wood stacked, and the leaves raked, just like a well-oiled machine. By 2 p.m., there were over fifty men, women and children pitting in to help us. At the peak, there were 16 chainsaws running at the same time. The comment was made that the park sounded like a racetrack on race day due to all the chainsaws roaring. K & D Excavating brought their equipment up to lift trees from buildings. (Keep in mind this is on a Sunday). By 8 p.m., the task was about 60% complete. On Monday and Tuesday evenings, the process was repeated until each and every tree was taken care of.

It would be almost impossible for us to mention names, simply because the list would be very long and we would hate to inadvertently forget someone. However, a special thank you must go out to Kurt Schmidt and K & D Excavating for their services and for the use of their equipment, the Town of Scott for the use of their brush chipper, Heberer Brothers Construction for the building repairs, Russel Herriges and the masons for the repair of the block wall, Enright Electric of Bolt-onville for restoring our lights and wiring, and most importantly, the people that helped us.

The Beechwood Volunteer Fire department would like to say thank you for all your help and invite all of you to our picnic on June 13 and 14 to celebrate what can be accomplished when we all work together.

Thanks again,
Beechwood Volunteer
Fire Department

Welch Leads Sesquicentennial Wagon Train

Kewaskum resident Rick Welch, wagon trail boss of the Wagons of Wisconsin Sesquicentennial wagon train, is shown above using modern communications technology to keep in touch during the historic journey made by over 200 costumed participants re-enacting the travels of early pioneers on the Green Bay corridor.

The corridor, a 200-mile trade route between Kenosha and Kewaunee, eventually paved the way to Wisconsin's statehood on May 29, 1848. Twenty-five authentic covered wagons, pulled by over 70 horses traveling at speeds of less than four miles per hour, made overnight stops in 15 Wisconsin communities during the first two weeks in June.

The train originated May 29 in Pleasant Prairie. Their journey ends Sunday, June 14, at Kewaunee County Fair grounds in Luxemburg.

Welch is vice president of Wagons of Wisconsin, a group of horse enthusiasts who are donating their time and resources to re-enact the event. Last fall, Ameritech donated $25,000 to Wagons of Wisconsin to support their Sesquicentennial journey. Ameritech also supplied cellular phones and pagers to help train participants stay in touch.

Ameritech has a strong tradition of giving back to the communities it serves. Last year, the company contributed more than $26 million to over 3,800 nonprofit organizations, and Ameritech Pioneers -- some 46,000 employees and retirees throughout the Midwest -- volunteered 419,000 hours of community service by supporting health and human services, civic and community projects and educational and arts programs. Ameritech provides a full range of communications services, serving millions of customers in 50 states and 40 countries.

Baseball Indians Have Busy Week

Monday, June 1, saw the young Kewaskum High School Indians start conference play at home against New Holstein.

The Indians could muster only six hits and one run off of New Holstein's ace Geoff Lefebber on the way to a 6-1 loss.

Lefebber is a returning All-Conference pitcher and he strutted his stuff in Kewaskum as he struck out 11 Indians and walked only one in five innings of work. With a 6-0 lead going into the sixth, New Holstein Coach Chuck Lefebber pulled his son and let Hadler pitch the final two innings.

The Indians' lone score came in the seventh when Eric Wenninger started the inning with a double and scored when John Immel singled later in the inning. Pitcher John Immel went the entire game for Kewaskum, striking out five, walking six, and giving up 12 hits.

SUBMISSION TO SHEBOYGAN FALLS

The following night, June 2, the Kewaskum boys traveled to Sheboygan Falls to play their conference foe, Falcons. The Falcons are picked to win the conference and showed the Indians why they're chosen as potential winners by beating Kewaskum, 10-2.

As on Monday night against New Holstein, Sheboygan Falls also has a returning All-Conference pitcher in Jim Olafson. Olafson had pitched three innings on Monday against Manitowoc Roncalli before being replaced in that game so he could only pitch four innings on Tuesday.

Coach Roger Jones started Dylan Ottman against the Indians. Ottman pitched well, giving up only two hits and one run. The run he gave up was a long homerun off the bat of Kewaskum's first baseman, Billy Cook. "Cook hit a tremendous blast to right," commented Indian Coach Mark Heise, adding, "Billy really put a charge into that ball."

Olafson then replaced Ottman in the fourth inning. The Indians managed to get one more run in the seventh. That was it for the Kewaskum offense. Billy Cook finished the game at 2x3, including his second inning home run. Jason Strobel, Nathan Mueller, Andy Luedtke and Rhett Engelking added singles.

Bruce Groholski started on the mound for Kewaskum and pitched the first three innings, giving up five hits and five runs. Bruce walked three and struck out one. Jason Calliari replaced Groholski in the fourth and also gave up five runs on seven hits. Calliari walked none and struck out two.

The loss to the Falcons drops Kewaskum's conference record to 0-2.

LENGTHY TRIP PROVES PRODUCTIVE

On Thursday, June 4, the Indians traveled to Manitowoc Roncalli in search of their first conference victory.

Kewaskum rode the arm of freshman Bobby Ogi to overcome a lackluster hitting performance. Ogi pitched the entire game allowing only four hits and three runs. He struck out eight and walked three.

Young Ogi held the Jets scoreless for six innings waiting for the Indian bats to kick in. In the fifth, the Kewaskum team scored the first run of the game when Billy Cook walked and scored on a hit by Rhett Engelking. In the sixth, the Indians scored two more as John Immel started the inning with a single and scored on a Jason Strobel line drive home run to left.

With Ogi's pitching holding the Jets in check, the Indians took a 3-0 lead into the seventh. In the top of the seventh, the Kewaskum offense exploded for five runs. Rhett Engelking started the inning with his changes in his lineup, the game got underway with a first inning disaster for the Indians. Two of the first three Brillion batters reached on errors, followed by three hits and the Lions tallied three first inning runs.

The Indians rallied for two of their own runs in the bottom of the first. John Immel walked to start the inning. He stole second. After a Kewaskum strikeout, Billy Cook walked. Cook and Immel advanced to second and third on a passed ball. On another passed ball Immel scored and Cook moved to third. Cook scored when Rhett Engelking singled to left. Brillion scored a single run in the second inning to take a 4-2 lead.

In the bottom of the second Brad Vetter led off the inning by getting hit by a pitch. John Immel then singled and an error by the left fielder allowed Vetter to score and Immel to move to second. Nathan Mueller's sacrifice bunt moved Immel to third who then scored on a wild pitch. The game was now tied at four apiece.

In the fourth, Brillion scored a single run to take a 5-4 lead. In the Indian fifth, Kewaskum tied the game again as Eric Wenninger singled and eventually scored on John Immel's second hit of the game.

With the game tied 5-5 in the bottom of the seventh, the Indians were one play away from winning. With two outs and none on base, lead-off hitter and pitcher John Immel was hit by a pitch. The pitch hit Immel on his pitching elbow. With John on first and two outs, Nathan Mueller drove a ball down the left field line between the third baseman and the bag into the left field corner. "John hit second in full stride and was flying toward third, so I waved him home," stated Heise. "I thought he would score easily." But unfortunately, Immel stumbled two strides past third and was thrown out at the plate. "If he doesn't stumble, we win!"

After running from first to home, and getting hit in the pitching elbow, Immel may have been a little tired and sore, accounting for the first two Lions to reach on base hits in the top of the eighth. Coach Heise drew his infield in to cut the runner down at the plate. The strategy worked, except the ground ball was misplayed by the shortstop and the lead run scored. In the bottom of the inning, Kewaskum loaded the bases but again failed to score. So the Indians lost a heartbreaker, 6-5.

John Immel pitched eight innings, giving up seven hits, struck out six, and walked four in his second conference appearance.

second hit of the game. Brad Vetter walked; John Immel singled for his second hit in two consecutive innings, driving in Vetter after Engelking had scored on a passed ball. Nathan Mueller ground out, scoring Immel. Jason Strobel walked, stole second, and scored when Adam Donath reached first on an error.

The Indians now took a 8-0 lead into the bottom of the seventh. Coach Heise sent Ogi out to pitch the bottom of the seventh, seeing he had only thrown 84 pitches thru the first six innings. "Bobby tired some in the seventh, but I wanted to get him a complete game. He had pitched so well, holding us in there all along, that I felt I owed him a chance to close it out, and he did!" commented Heise. Ogi ran his season mark to 3-0 with the 8-3 win over Roncalli, and the Indians moved to a 1-2 record in conference play.

BRILLION OVERCOMES INDIANS IN EIGHT

The Brillion Lions came to Kewaskum on Friday night for the Indians' fourth game of the week. The Indians entered the game slightly short-handed as Jason Strobel informed Coach Heise before the game that he had sprained his left hand the night before when stealing second base.

After Heise made a few

EWSCA NEWS

(PLYMOUTH, WI) Brad Dahmer of Sheboygan was the class of the field as he captured his first ever 30 lap Eastern Wisconsin Stock Car Winged Super Modified feature victory in convincing style at Sheboygan County Fair Park Saturday night.

Dahmer, who started on the outside of the front row, powered past polesitter Chuck Tuschl of Cato in turn two to take over the lead on the initial lap of the event. Dahmer then darted out to a quarter-straightaway lead over the next seven laps before the first yellow flag appeared on lap 8 for the disabled machine of Glenbeulah's Gary lack in turn four.

When the race resumed, outside second row starter Ken Jay Fiedler of Sheboygan Falls came up to mount an all out challenge for the lead on lap 15. The rim-riding Fiedler pulled alongside of Dahmer on lap 16 to set up a side-by-side battle for the top spot on the ultra fast one-third mile clay oval during the next two laps. The second yellow flag slowed the pace on lap 18 when Kiel's Dave Enders punctured a right rear tire and stopped in turn one.

After the restart, Dahmer displayed the superior strength of his car as he pulled out to an impressive half-straightaway cushion over Fiedler and three-time and defending track champion Pete Ostrowski of Milwaukee, who started fifth. The third and final caution period came on lap 26 for the stalled car of Kiel's Kevin Schnell in turn two.

Following the final restart, Dahmer again opened up a comfort edge while Fiedler and Pete Ostrowski duelled for the runner-up spot during the closing stages of the race. The fifth year Winged Super Modified racer cruised over the final four laps to post his first career feature win by a quarter-straightaway margin over second place Fiedler.

Ostrowski took third, Plymouth's Tim Melis came back from a hard heat race flip to place fourth and Plymouth's Tim McMullen rounded out the top five. Fond du Lac's Randy Harshbarger claimed his second 25 lap feature win of the year in the 25 lap Limited Late Model main event.

Jim Bailey of Oostburg held off a last lap challenge from Elkhart Lake's Brian Gilles to notch his first career 20 lap Super Stock feature win.

In other action, Kewaskum's Bill Wenninger won the 15 lap winged Super Modified B semi-feature and Butch Hafemann of Campbellsport was victorious in the 10 lap Winged Super Modified C semi-feature. Dick Hed of Plymouth captured the 15 lap Limited Late Model semi-feature and Jeff Muehlbauer of Elkhart Lake claimed the victory in the 15 lap Super Stock semi-feature. Plymouth's Mark Sander and Tim Crimmings of Iron Ridge each picked up victories in the special Winged Super Modified mechanic's races.

A Strengthening Of Heart

by AMI

The professional weather folk say it wasn't a tornado! Yet the nearby communities saw roofs, buildings, trees and debris of all sorts recklessly fly thru the air like so many wild-birds or bees. Some reported the winds to have reached one hundred seven miles per hour! The deadly early morning timing of this disastrous event caught many persons by surprise when they awoke and rose from their beds. I, for one, slept thru the whole storm. As a result, it was almost more than I could bare when I saw the destruction left in its wake.

But today topped everything I witnessed ... for I took a stroll thru my favorite local forest. I still can hardly believe what I saw with my two eyes. Mammoth hardwood trees of all varieties twisted and torn from their very roots -- some chopped off as if by a madman's slashing -- others literally uprooted and thrown a great distance from their growth habitat -- and not but one or two, but dozens upon dozens. Very frightening were those boughs still lingering skyward, stayed by a delicate leaning or branch hooked. Also frightening were those trees half fallen to the earth but still erect enough to prove deadly should they suddenly be blown downward to the ground.

Just last week I had tramped these favorite wild flower trails and enjoyed the peaceable beauty of the woods. Today proved anything but peaceable. Destruction has no relationship to that which provides peaceableness. And to think that many of these mature trees were the great age of two and three hundred years. One couldn't help but wonder why...and wherefore???

And life does go right on. Somehow or other we oldsters know that in spite of the destruction nature has a way, a manner of accepting that which befalls it and refuses to give up or quit. On another day, another time peace shall return; flowers again will grace the pathway; and the majesty of the trees shall be restored. Indeed, we have faith in Mother Nature.

Boat Away from Shore to Prevent User Conflicts and Accidents

Operating motorboats away from shorelines of lakes can help prevent accidents and reduce conflicts with other lake users and property owners, Conservation Warden Doug Bilgo says.

The closer a boat is to shore, the more congested the waters are with other boats and swimmers, and the greater your likelihood of having a near-miss or an accident, Warden Bilgo says.

For that reason, and to reduce conflicts with lakeshore property owners, and with anglers and canoeists who are fishing or paddling near the shore, people are encouraged to venture farther out.

Wisconsin has 543,034 registered motorized boats and sailboats and attracts another estimated 300,000 boats from out of state. In addition, Wisconsin residents own an estimated 326,000 canoes, kayaks and other nonmotorized boats.

Statewide, motorboats must obey a slow no-wake speed within 100 feet of any dock, swimming raft, pier, or restricted area marked with buoys. Starting August 1, personal watercraft operators are required to operate at slow no wake speeds within 200 feet of the shoreline of lakes.

In addition, motorboats may not be operated at a speed greater than slow no wake on lakes 50 acres or less having public access, except when such lakes serve as thoroughfares between two or more navigable lakes.

Municipal governments are in charge of setting rules on lakes relative to local conditions, such as no wake zones, and hours for water-skiing. Some municipalities in the state have expanded no-wake zones in recent years as the number of boaters has increased and governments have sought to better protect swimmers and reduce noise complaints from shoreline property owners.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
Michael A. Guido
Metter, Georgia

At the christening, a neighbor asked, "What's her name?" "Hazel," said the mother.

"With all the saint's names available," cried the neighbor, "you name her after a nut?"

I am named after St. Michael and St. Anthony. Who are you named after? An apostle? You don't have to go far to find a Peter, James, or a John.

But have you ever met a person named Judas? He was an apostle, yet he made that name unfit for everyone to use. Why? He sold the Lord.

He could have become a child of God, but he chose to be a child of the devil. He could have gone to paradise, but he chose perdition.

What do you choose?
