By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

TOWN OF AUBURN- A 19 year old Campbellsport man lost his life in a two-car traffic vehicle accident that occurred on Friday, July 22, at 12:43 a.m. on CTH V one tenth mile north of Century Dr. in the Town of Auburn, just south of the Campbellsport village limits.

According to the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department, Michael J. Bartoli, of rural Campbellsport, driving a Plymouth Horizon, was southbound on CTH V.

Bartoli attempted to turn eastbound into his driveway from CTH V. As he made the turn he was sideswiped by a Chevrolet pick-up truck driven by Patrick G. Lindsley of Campbellsport. Lindsley was attempting to pass Bartoli in the northbound lane. The vehicles collided and came to rest in the east ditch.

Heather M. Mitchell, 23, of Kewaskum, was a passenger in the Lindsley vehicle.

It is alleged alcohol may have been a contributing factor in the accident in regards to the Lindsley vehicle.

Bartoli passed away approximately 30 minutes after the accident, following extrication from his vehicle.

Lindsley and Mitchell were transported to St. Agnes Hospital, in Fond du Lac, where they were treated and released.

According to a representative of the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department, they are not searching for a third vehicle rumored to be involved in the crash.

The crash is still under investigation.

Bartoli's obituary can be found on page 12.

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

Summer is slowly drawing to a close with school opening in a short, short, two weeks, but there's still time to pack in a few of the remaining favorite warm weather social events.

Topping the list for the weekend is the annual Kewaskum Lions Club Chicken Barbecue for this Sunday in River Hill Park.

The Lions will be serving their delicious grilled chicken while runners from throughout the State of Wisconsin vie for the coveted first place finish in the 20 kilometer (12.4 mile) foot race event. If a shorter distance is more appealing to you try the five mile run. Both runs will take you throughout the gorgeous Kettle Moraine State Forest. Also both races will feature various men's and women's divisions.

The race is scheduled to begin at 8:30 a.m. in River Hill Park. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. and runs through the time of the race. Registrations have also been taken in advance.

Divisions for the Kettle 20 include six men's age groups: 1-17, 18-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, and age 60 and over. The five women's age groups are 1-17, 18-29, 30-39, 40 and over, and 50 plus.

Top male and female competitors will receive a trophy, followed by medals for second and third place, with ribbons being awarded for fourth and fifth. The five mile race will also offer awards to the top place winners.

The entry fee for all racing events is $10 with T-shirt, and $11 with T-shirt on the day of the race. For more information on the race please contact Dale Squier at 626-2731. Squier was expecting around 75 to 150 runners to register.

All runners also have the option of purchasing their chicken dinners for a special price of $4.00 each but they must order their tickets before the race begins.

There will be six water stops along the route, located every two miles. Showers will be made available at the Kewaskum Middle School.

The Lions Club will be serving the delectable dinners throughout the day, beginning at 11 a.m. and running until 4 p.m. The cost is $6.50 with all the trimmings for 1/2 chicken. Carryouts will be available from 11 a.m. until closing.

Editor Mom Celebrates Birthday

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

On Tuesday, August 4 my mother, boss and best friend celebrated her birthday. With the hustle and bustle of getting the paper out to our readers not much time was left to tell her or show how much she means to me. So I'll have to do it now.

On February 9, 1980 I met this woman, she said her name was mom. She turned out to be my best friend. This woman, mom, has been here for me for 18 years now, and every day I realize how much I could not get along without her. Her infinite wisdom astounds me.

No matter what I do she's always there for me and I LOVE HER VERY MUCH and I want everyone, including our 3,000 readers to know how much I care about her. In a way I thank you, by your subscribing to our newspaper you've helped me and my mother develop an awesome relationship. Why, because every week we work together as a team to bring you the best local news coverage we can.

Most "kid's" my age hate going to work every morning because they hate their jobs and they don't make enough money. I, on the other hand, love my job, I get to work every day with my best friend and our relationship grows stronger and stronger every week. I get paid not only with money, but love, knowledge and friendship.

So mom, I just want to say-sorry we couldn't celebrate the way we wanted to, I hope this helps to say HAPPY BIRTHDAY MOM! I LOVE YOU AND MANY MORE!

Love Always- Andy

Beyond this cell

Walls of white

Ink and lead,

The World's PLAIN JANES

by AMI

During those teenage years...now that I have grown old, I frequently recall...one did not think twice when pinning a rather insulting name on ones associates! Like "Air Head" or "Fatso," "Bimbo" or "Dream Boat."

It is interesting to note that nature lovers tend to follow a like pattern when addressing certain species they do not find interesting. I recall from a child on, the rather rowdy flocks of English sparrows in our little village were called everything except English Sparrows!

I remember as a young boy quoting an Uncle's line to my friends: "She is so homely, he'd say, that the other day when she walked into Smith's dairy store all of the cream turned sour." Of course, we all had a good laugh over that one...but...returning to the lowly sparrows how frequently we fail to admire them for their tenacity. Even on the below zero winter days they are out there looking for a next meal; and always are nurturing their young in a most responsible manner.

Even the plainest of Janes in the animal world have positive qualities if we take the time to discover them. Sort of like people, wouldn't you say?

I have learned that real beauty can be found in the most common subjects over and over again if one but takes the time to seek for it. Just like within human society, we seldom appreciate a glass of cool, refreshing water until we find ourselves in a hospital bed trying to survive a very restricted diet.

This was the temporary location of the Yoost Butcher Shop while the new building was being erected.

The month of August begins a debut of the harvest about to come. And September reminds us that those warm, cozy days are about to end...giving in to chilling rains and a need for jackets and gloves. Like the black bear seeking their time of hibernation, we wash the storm windows and check any needs we have for a bit more of insulation.

Indeed, be it plain Janes or noiseful sparrows, the exciting blessings of life abound all around us. The gold of the maple tree; the bronze of the tamarack; the red berries of the Jack in the Pulpit; the ocean depth blue of the Blue Lobelia wild flower; who can put a realistic price on any one of these? Including the blue Bottle Gentian?

For each one of us, Washington County provides a multitude of inspirational opportunities including the fun adventure of seeking out those opportunities. I know for I was fortunate enough to marry the most beautiful "Plain Jane" the Lord ever graced this earth with. And this is not a Believe it or Not for Ripley.

MESQUITE GRILLED CHICKEN WITH HONEY HORSE RADISH SAUCE

6 chicken breasts, boneless and skinless, 4 oz. each
1 large onion, sliced in rings
6 tablespoons prepared horseradish
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1 1/2 teaspoons white pepper
3/4 cup honey
3/4 cup dijon-style mustard

1/2 cup warm water

Grill chicken breasts using mesquite chips. While chicken cooks, prepare sauce: saute onion in large skillet on low heat until translucent. Add Worcestershire sauce and cook onions until completely done. Add all other ingredients and cook an additional 12 minutes. When chicken is done, remove from grill, add directly to the sauce and coat well. Serve on a bed of rice garnished with chopped parsley and lemon slice.

Washington County's Most Admired Senior Citizens

"...she is a very special lady who is constantly giving her time, talents and works to help others." This is only one of the comments about the six Washington County senior citizens recognized for outstanding contributions at a special presentation at the Washington County Fair on Saturday, July 25. Awards were presented to Florence Brown of Hartford, Eleanor Ihlenfeld of West Bend, Evelyn Rosenthal of Cedarburg, Gordon Schalla of Jackson, Esther Shirley of Hartford, and Bernice Fay Weber of Slinger.

Florence Brown

Florence Brown was nominated by Rosalin Klireg of Hartford. Florence is a life time resident of Hartford, is active in many activities and volunteers often. Just to name a few, she is active at the Hartford senior Center, at the Bethesda Thrift Store, with Mission Society, and has served as an officer for Branch 51 of Aid Association for Lutherans. Florence enjoys crafts, play cards and spectator sports.

Eleanor Ihlenfeld

Eleanor Ihlenfeld was nominated by Audrey Yahr of West Bend. Eleanor has had several careers. 1st as an executive secretary at the West Bend Co., then as Director of Medical Records at Cedar Lake Home and now as a member of the Washington County Board of Supervisors. Eleanor is a long time volunteer with the American Red Cross, her church, at the Cedar Lake Home Campus. Although Eleanor has many hobbies, genealogy, local history, and spectator sports, she says her greatest achievement was being a wife and mother. This is what Audrey Yahr says about this nominee "At the age of 77, she is still a tireless worker for the interests of the people of the Town of West Bend and Washington County. She encourages people to attend meetings so they can be informed."

Evelyn Rosenthal

Evelyn Rosenthal has been active in Washington County for over 40 years as a 4-H leader, Home and Community Education Club member, County Fair Superintendent, church member, and all around good neighbor. She helps at the Senior Center by making quilts for raffles, at church with fund raisers, and has been taking care of ill neighbors, friends, and family members whenever they are hospitalized or in need of assistance. It sounds like Evelyn is a good friend to have indeed.

Gordon Schalla

Gordon Schalla was nominated by Larry and Susan Schalla of Jackson. Gordon has lived the area for 45 years and is active in his church and in Kiwanis. He is an avid sportsman (both competitively and recreationally), a world traveler, and enjoys photography.

Gordon is active with the Medical Mission Society of his church as a volunteer medical aide. In 1997 he went to El Filon, Honduras as a dental aide and in 1998 he went to Tezante, Guatemala. He donates blood regularly and to date has donated 50 pints of blood and given 30 special platelet donations for heart surgery.

Gordon not only participates in fishing, hunting, shooting sporting clays, and is an expert archer. He ranks sixth nationally in his age category in archery and has participated in Senior Olympics. He also holds three state records in swimming for his age group statewide and is competitive nationally as well. He is an active member of the Ozaukee Great Lakes Fishing Chapter and has received recognition for a Lake Michigan rescue.

We could go on and on about the interests and activities of Gordon Schalla. The nominators say, "At 72, he is inspirational to all you meet him."

Esther Shirley

Esther Shirley was nominated by Joyce Ojstrsek of Hartford. Esther is a long time active member of her church.

participating in the Ladies Guild and teaching Sunday school. She now is a greeter at the meal sight, organizes bingo and rummage sales at Meadowbrook Manor, and is known as the "mother of Meadowbrook Manor." She has many hobbies including crocheting, playing cards. The nominator of this award winner says, "She is the very best mother and grandmother. She loves spending quality time with her children and grandchildren."

Bernice Fay Weber

Bernice Fay Weber was nominated by Liz Ritterbusch of Slinger. Bernice is a long time member of her Home and Community Education Club, and AARP. She is very active with church and is a Slinger food pantry volunteer. She has many hobbies including painting, crafts, quilting, reading, traveling and other educational activities. This 80 something woman learned to cross country ski at the age of 72 and has a desire to fly in a hot air balloon which may be in the near future. In the words of the nominator (her granddaughter-in-law) "She has a great enthusiasm for life...she has opened her arms to me and gone out of her way to make me feel like her own granddaughter. I thank her for loving me as much as I love her. In my eyes, she is a true humanitarian and wondrous senior citizen."

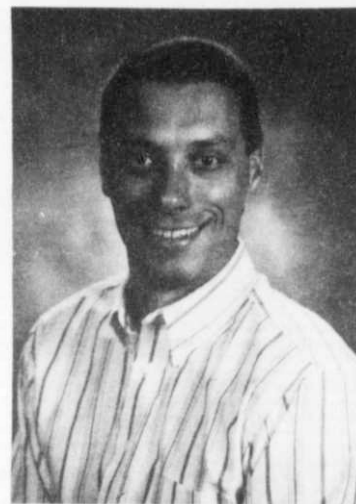

This program was created to show our appreciation for the many things that older adults contribute to the Washington County community. They are selected on the basis of what they do for the community presently, not on past accomplishments. Any one can nominate a candidate for this event. All candidates must be over 62 years old. We hope that you will consider doing so next year. If you are interested in having your name on the mailing list to receive nomination papers next year just contact the UW-Extension office in West Bend at 335-4479.

Outdoor Worship Service, Picnic Sunday at Fillmore

This year, the congregations of St. Martin's and St. Paul's community will be holding an outdoor service of worship followed by an all church family/friend/community picnic on Sunday, August 9. There will be no worship service at St. Paul's Community in Waukeba.

This event will begin at 10 a.m. at the Fillmore Turners' facilities outdoors in Fillmore. If there is severe rain, worship will be held at St. Martin's Church at 10 a.m. in Fillmore instead, but this event will be held rain or shine.

After worship, activities are planned for the children and youth, while the food is being prepared. St. Martin's is hosting this event and will provide brats, hamburgers, hot dogs, beverages and dinnerware.

All participating are asked to bring a dish to share in the pot luck for the rest of the meal. To help plan for food, it is suggested you let them know how many are attending by calling 414-692-2913 and leaving a message. For further information, please call the same number.

In the afternoon, there will be athletic equipment, cards, games, etc. available depending on the interest of what those attending want to participate in. Of course, one can also just watch the others participate or engage in conversation.

All are cordially invited to join for the day beginning with the worship at 10 a.m. and then the community picnic that continues into the afternoon. See you in Fillmore on Sunday, August 9.

Letters to The Editor

August 3, 1998

Letter to the Editor:

August 1, 1998
Dear Editor,

As most residents of the Kewaskum School District already know, there will be a referendum concerning the building of a new KES, additions and improvements to FES and WES, improvements to the KHS and a new administration building. The total cost of these projects would not exceed $12,000,000.00. The way it has been set up by the school board, it would have an impact on your property taxes of $35.00 on a home assessed at $100,000, $52.00 on a home assessed at $150,000 or $70 on a home assessed at $200,000 per year. I think the school board has done an exceptional job of keeping the cost minimal.

There are some people in the district that believe they have a grievance about the Beechwood issue and perhaps rightfully so, but the schools in this district have been operating as is for 12 years and have had few problems. This means that an entire generation of students have gone through the system with excellent results.

I believe that residents who are sincerely concerned for the welfare of the students and in having a happy, healthy and safe environment for the students in our schools, will not construe the Beechwood issue with this referendum and think of the children while voting.

I have information on the improvements, additions and costs, but they are too numerous to include in this letter. Copies will be available at local businesses and banks, etc. during the next month and I would be happy to give you all the information I have if you call me at 692-2954.

Thank you,

Lloyd A. Koch

On July 27, at the annual school district meeting, a vote was taken to sell the Beechwood school. Residents of the district and especially residents of the Town of Farmington -- where were you? Do you want your children bussed to Beechwood to justify reopening that school?

On September 8, you will have another chance -- we can vote on a referendum to build a new Kewaskum Elementary and make improvements to our Farmington and Wayne schools. Let's pass this referendum and spend our money where our students reside. A home assessed at $150,000 will see a $52.50 yearly increase in property tax. That's only $1.00 a week. More important, with interest rates low, borrowing money will probably never be cheaper than now. Vote on September 8.

St. Bridget's Parish Holds Closing Mass

A large gathering of parishioners were in attendance for the closing Mass of St. Bridget's Catholic Church. The small, country church, located on Townline Road, west of Kewaskum, has merged with Holy Trinity Congregation in Kewaskum.

The St. Bridget's banner shown above, designed and hand-crafted by Mary Kuphal, now hangs in Holy Trinity Church in Kewaskum.

Sharon Ellefson and Carol Oelhafen Photos

St. Bridget's parishioners, their families and friends, gathered after the closing Mass for an outdoor breakfast.

Realizing it now takes a wedding or a funeral for the former St. Bridget's parishioners to get together in prayer as well as to share each other's concerns, they already had this opportunity a week ago.

And although it was a sad occasion burying a former member, it felt good being back. It has only been a month since St. Bridget's held their closing Mass, but it seemed much longer.

That day brought to light many memories, both joyous and sad, and the parishioners will not soon forget it. The choir led the congregation in exuberant praise and thanksgiving. The neighbor's animals grazing in the fields must have known something special was happening. The bells had tolled that final Sunday beginning the service.

During the Mass, Father Elroy Pesch made reference to the thirty-or-so years he had journeyed from Mt. Calvary to celebrate Mass with the parishioners. He spoke gently of many people he had formed friendships with, of the precious social functions observed, but mostly the congregation listened through tear-stained eyes when he cautioned that anger should not be allowed to enter hearts with regard to the closing of St. Bridget's.

Rather, Father Pesch suggested, that when one door closes, another opens, and the Holy Spirit works in mysterious ways. In his remarks, Holy Trinity Pastor Mark Jones added that each person should go forward in faith, and offer their time and talents to the new parish families they join.

All the comments, joys and sorrows of that day were vividly brought back to mind as this funeral of a friend brought a bittersweet reunion of friends, praying and working together. The full choir was in attendance again, leading the faithful in fervent song of praise.

Through teary eyes, emotions soared once again.

Recent Upsets at the Thiemerdome

The Hitching Post had a bye but nonetheless we wanted to show the style and grace of the Post players as Steve Hendrick crosses the plate during a former game. I don't want the Post players thinking we aren't giving them enough attention... it's just I don't know any of them well enough to make fun of them... whadda say, guys... do you mind if I rib you as much as I do the other players???

No mid-season break, no all-star game for the heroes of the Thiemerdome this year. The midway point of the season came and went with no fanfare, no parade, not even an announcement of who was the first-half MVP. I'd like to name a few names, but then, who would really care? Maybe the Statesman will just have to name the MVP for the entire season... it's a good thought... be nice to me. I

WHAT IS THIS TRICK?? Seeing is believing, I guess. I told you these guys rest alot, but I really didn't expect them to rest in the outfield! We're not absolute certain what Mike Kincaide of Commercial Plumbing is doing here. He's either looking for a four-leaf clover, or he is doing strange calisthenics, or he's ducking so that naughty orange ball doesn't hurt him (that would leave a mark!). Irregardless, we don't think he was a contributing factor on the defense in this particular play.

like Bud Light. But on the other hand, I don't know if I could stand to see these grown men weeping over not being selected. These guys are soooo competitive. The brain is extremely willing, it's just the old body that can't seem to keep up. You know men... the first to compete... the last to admit injury or defeat... and always the ones that need to have their boo boos pampered. (Boy am I going to take heat for these statements... where is Gloria Steinem when a person needs her!)

Now for Richard's report (with a few perfectly innocent comments by yours truly).

The gospel according to Richard states during the first game Commercial Plumbing got their old wheels turning and ran the bases like jackals. A stunned Kuehl's Suds and Spirits team thought prior to this game they were a pretty hot nine plus. (Unlike the Thiemer team who rarely can find nine).

Dan "Vottaman" Grem-

enprez (take up all spelling errors with the Thiemerdome management) was an incredible two for three with a double that brought in two runs on two outs to help Commercial's charge. (I like my charge better... it's a gold MasterCard).

Commercial showed some spectacular defense from the whole team (but how can you show defense if the opposing team seemed to leave their bats at home...

Larry Martin barrels down the first base line. Believe it or not, I think he even beat out the throw! Of course, if you saw Larry running towards you with a full head of steam... you'd probably step out of his way, also! And we thought Larry was somewhat sedentary... NOT A CHANCE!

Necessity is always the Mother of Invention at the Thiemerdome. Richard Thiemer isn't about to let more ground balls roll through his players' legs and has come up with the above apparatus to give his team that "extra edge!"

MADISON -- An area students is among College of Agricultural and Life Sciences students recognized for outstanding scholastic performance during the past semester at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Only full-time students with at least a 3.25 grade point average on a 4.00 scale are eligible to make the dean's list.

Dean Elton D. Aberle says the college's new curriculum attracts approximately some 2,200 undergraduates who major in basic sciences, environmental sciences, food science, and agricultural sciences.

The area student is Rebecca Lynn Braun, N327 Tammy Lane, Kewaskum, who is majoring in Landscape Architecture.

In the Service

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Shane J. Oppermann, son of Leander A. and Janis A. Oppermann of W 907 Auburn Ashford Drive, Campbellsport, recently received a Letter of Appreciation while assigned with Sea Control Squadron 38, Naval Air Station, North Island, San Diego.

Oppermann was recognized for his superior performance of duty. Displaying remarkable dedication and initiative, Oppermann consistently performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner.

Oppermann is an essential part of today's naval forces as they shift focus away from long-distance war at sea to handling the challenges of regional conflicts affecting U.S. interests.

Whether helping provide humanitarian assistance and disaster-relief or projecting power ashore and providing forward presence, Sailors like Oppermann, are making a difference as they work assigned to ships, squadrons or shore commands around the world. Oppermann is not only improving his knowledge and skills, but is serving as part of the most highly technical naval force in history.

The 1992 graduate of Kewaskum High School joined the Navy in September of 1992.

Saffron, known for its golden color, is the dried stigma of autumn crocus, valued for its color and flavor for culinary uses, as well as its fragrance. Its various applications date back for many centuries. The Greeks sprinkled it in theaters, courts and rooms as a perfume and to deodorize; the Romans scented their giant baths with it, and strewed it in the streets. The Arabs considered it an aid to courtship.

ATV Accidents On the Rise Following Years of Decline

The death July 21 of a six-year-old boy who was injured three days earlier in an all-terrain vehicle accident that killed his mother has brought to four the number of people killed in all-terrain vehicle (ATV) accidents in July, as many as died in all of 1997.

This somber start to the busiest time of the ATV season is spurring Warden Doug Bilgo to caution operators of the recreation machines to slow down and to wear their helmets.

The boy who became the latest fatality was a passenger on the ATV his mother was driving in Oconto County when she lost control of the machine as it struck the shoulder along the side of the route. The ATV hit a tree head-on; the woman died at the scene and her son was hospitalized with head injuries and died on July 21. Neither was wearing a helmet.

Two other Wisconsin residents were killed in ATV accidents in the last two weeks; a 14-year-old boy died July 11 when his ATV struck a car head-on on a gravel road in Marathon County, and a 21-year-old man died July 17 when his ATV struck an obstruction on a trail in Racine County and he was thrown 100 feet.

A 23-year-old man was killed May 31 when his ATV struck a log. The man had a blood alcohol level of .145, over the legal limit of .10.

The five deaths recorded thus far in 1998 reverse what had been a trend of declining fatalities even as the number of people owning ATVs has swelled to more than 90,000, nearly double the number of a decade ago. The fatality rate has dropped from nearly 25 fatalities per 100,000 machines in 1990 to 4.46 fatalities per 100,000 last year. Last year's death toll of four people was the lowest since the DNR began tracking ATV accidents.

Historically, most accidents have involved ATV rollovers or the machines striking a fixed object such as a tree. ATVs have high ground clearance and short, narrow wheel bases, which, combined with seating that straddles the top of the machine and the traction of the wide knobby tires, causes the machines to roll rather than to skid in curves and on hillsides.

Wisconsin law does not set a specific speed limit for ATVs on trails, but states that no operator may travel "at a rate of speed that is unreasonable or improper under the circumstances."

People need to drive at a speed that is appropriate to the terrain, their familiarity with the terrain, and their skill level and experience, Bilgo says, but warns veteran drivers not to get overconfident of their skills.

Last year, more than half of the accidents involved people who had more than 100 hours of experience on their ATVs.

People particularly need to slow down when they are changing surfaces, especially from a road to gravel, Bilgo says. People also can lessen their chances of accidents by taking a safety course and by knowing ATV laws, particularly those regarding operation on or near highways.

Other tips include:

- * Never carry a passenger. ATVs are designed for one operator only.

- * ATVs are for off-road use only. Never operate an ATV on paved surfaces or public roads unless it is a designated route.

- * Always wear an approved motorcycle helmet, eye protection, boots, gloves, long pants and a long sleeved shirt or jacket.

- * Never consume alcohol or drugs before or during ATV operation.

- * Avoid excessive speeds. Travel at a speed appropriate for the terrain, visibility conditions, and your experience.

- * Do not attempt wheelies, jumps or other stunts. These can have disastrous results.

For information about ATV laws and safety education classes, call your local DNR service center or check the DNR web site: <http://www.dnr.state.wi.us>

KMS Students Write Home Town Poems

To wrap up the 1997/98 school year, in their English class, eighth graders at Kewaskum Middle School studied a unit on Wisconsin writers. At the beginning of the unit, the students read a poem called "Walking Milwaukee" by Harold Witt. In response, the students worked at various times throughout the unit, writing their own poems about taking a walk in their home towns. The following are some of the poems written by the eighth graders.

"Tom's Walk"

by Tom Ogi

When I walk out my door I see grass.
I look to my right and I see trees.
I look to my left and I see trees there also.
I look straight ahead and I see my driveway and the corn field.
I look even farther over yonder and I see Stoffel's farm.
I look farther than that and I see hills, and trees, and grass, and stuff.
Then I walk back up to my house and I see the hay field.

I see the Bonlenders' house. I walk even farther up the driveway and I see the heifers and steers.
I see the swing set that my little sisters play on all the time.
I see the basketball hoop in the back yard on the patio.
I walk through the woods behind our house and I see my brother's treehouse.
I see the four-wheeler trail I see our camping fort; it is an area between a few trees.
It is about fifteen feet by twenty-five feet.
It has sticks and branches standing up against branches nailed horizontally to the trees.

It looks just like a mini cow boy fort.
Then I walk back through the trail and into the house, Where I see the couch and television,
Where I sit down and watch it.

Pain may be eliminated for millions

(SPECIAL) -- A drug that is exciting researchers in the treatment of pain has been formulated into a new product known as "Arthur Itis," and is being called a "Medical Miracle" by some, in the treatment of debilitating conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism, painful muscle aches, joint aches, simple backache, bruises, and more. Although the mechanism of action is unclear, experiments indicate that Arthur Itis, relieves pain by first selectively attracting, and then destroying the messenger chemical which carries pain sensations to the brain, thus eliminating pain in the affected area. Arthur Itis, is available immediately without a prescription in an odorless, greaseless, non-staining cream or new roll-on lotion form. Arthur Itis, is guaranteed to work or your money back.

EWSCA NEWS

(PLYMOUTH, WI) Three-time and defending track champion Pete Ostrowski of Milwaukee took home the overall points title in the special Eastern Wisconsin Stock Car Winged Super Modified twin 20 lap feature Saturday night at Sheboygan County Fair Park.

Ostrowski collected his fifth main event victory of the year in the first 20 lap feature event and came back in the fully inverted second 20 lap race to finish ninth after starting 19th. The solid first and ninth place showings were good enough to give the 17th year driver the night's overall twin 20 feature points crown. Ken Jay Fiedler of Sheboygan Falls picked up his first feature triumph of the year in the second twin 20 lap Winged Super Modified feature race.

In the first 20 lap Winged Super modified feature, Pete Ostrowski jumped into the lead on the opening lap from his outside front row starting slot. On lap 2, Leroy Ostrowski of Milwaukee and Ken Jay Fiedler brought out the red flag after making contact on the backstretch. The collision sent Leroy Ostrowski on a series of wild flips, but both drivers walked away from the accident without serious injury.

Following the restart, Pete Ostrowski bolted out to a comfortable full-straightaway lead by lap 10 as a heated three way battle for second place began to unfold between fourth starter Gary Laack of Glenbeulah, fifth starter Paul Pokorski of West Bend and Steve Bricker of Two Rivers, who started sixth.

Over the final 10 laps, the veteran Winged Super Modified and Sprint Car racer worked his way through slower traffic on the way to his 16th career EWSC Winged Super Modified feature victory by a full-straightaway margin. Laack edged out Pokorski on the final lap to take second. Pokorski was third, Bricker wound up fourth and Tim McMullen of Plymouth rounded out the top five.

Ken Jay Fiedler bounced back from an accident in the first twin 20 lap feature to notch his initial main event triumph of the season in the second 20 lap Winged Super Modified race.

Pete Ostrowski edged Fiedler to win the overall twin 20 feature title. Gary Laack placed third, Paul Pokorski took fourth and Bob Brion wound up fifth in the evening's combined feature points rundown.

Steve Ziegelbauer of Sheboygan racked up his first career 25 lap feature victory in the Limited Late Model main event.

Sheboygan's Mike Anderson notched his first victory of the season in the 20 lap Super Stock feature.

Sheboygan's Brad Dahmer was victorious in the 15 lap Winged Super Modified B semi-feature. Dale Bauer of Sheboygan Falls won the 15 lap Limited Late Model semi-feature and Brian Genske of Sheboygan captured the 15 lap Super Stock semi-feature.

Thiemerdome

who said that Richard?)
Kuehl's did have a few bright spots as John "Squeak" Strobel slammed one over Virgil "The Kid" (???) Budde's head. (Are you sure about this one RT?)

The hit gave Kuehl's a couple of runs and new incentive, but it was short-lived when Mike "Hot Glove" Kincaide caught a shoe-string grab in right and then threw out the base runner on first to fire a double play. We won't name the base runner so he can keep his head held high. (Isn't blackmail wonderful?? Frankly a double play for these guys shouldn't be all that difficult... have you ever seen any of them attempt to run the bases? That's worth the price of admission alone...!)

Commercial wrenched out the win, 7-2, from the frustrated Kuehl boys and they are now in a three-way tie for first with Amerahn and Kuehls. (Wouldn't it just be a whole lot easier to draw straws for first place and then just show up every week for the refreshments?)

There isn't a whole lot to say about the second game except Amerahn beat up on Thiemer's like a merciless gang leader. Bob "DJ" Bonenfant took the full brunt of the abuse and it is hoped his bodily bruises will heal in time for the next big game. (Otherwise he probably won't be traveling with the team to the big game in Japan).

Giving credit where credit is due (but, why??), Amerahn played a good solid defense and Art "Ace" Buss pitched a great game and also showed his running ability. The Thiemer boys helped the Amerahn cause with a few errors (why should this game be different from all the rest?). Dave "Poncho" Boegel threw to first, but that naughty little ball ran away to right field.

Icing on the cake (who had cake? I didn't get any cake!) came when Dave "Smudley" (what kind of goofy nickname is Smudley... let's take a vote and find Dave a pretty new nickname! Any ideas, readers??), with the able assistance of outfielder Jerry "Crazy Legs" Schwartzkey got one hit over his head which ended up as a grand slam (the only single-base hit in history that turned into a grand slam!) to spank the Thiemer boys, 16-2.

Richard states he's happy the first half of the season is over and he hopes he can find at least nine players to begin the second half of the season. If only some of those close games, (yeh, right) had gone the other way, Thiemer's would be in first instead of only having one win. (Someone please tell this guy to stop sniffing that funny stuff... either that or he is suffering from delusions of grandeur!) The rest of the massive fans in the Thiemerdome stadium truly know better. But let's keep it our secret... Richard is a nice guy... and everyone is entitled to his dreams I guess.

There's just a few of our readers that we haven't seen yet at the "dome" and we are looking forward to hearing your comments on the articles on the next trip to the big leagues! We want to see all the Kewaskum fans out at the dome... otherwise how do you expect to know how to vote on the MVP for the 1998 Thiemerdome season???

This vote has to be on skill... it's not just another pretty face award. Of course, the first job would be to FIND a pretty face out there... enough said, I'm probably in enough hot water for this week!

"THIS is what you meant when you said you had a corner office in the newspaper business?"

Introducing – CBS Whispering White Paint.
Made exclusively for people in the Kettle Moraine.

Most paints are made for some banner waving, national campaign, special time only "sale" price.

Mautz paint, made for you right in Madison, Wisconsin, is made for performance.

We think you'd rather spend more, and get a product that does the job right . . . that goes on easier, protects better, looks better, and lasts longer. So, we carry Mautz Paint, they don't cut things out just to offer a lower price. Mautz adds things in. Like superior binders and pigments.

To brush out easier, go further per gallon, wash easier, and resist dirt and weathering.

Campbellsport Building Supply stands tall in service and quality products, like Mautz Paint. "We design and furnish materials for your dream home."
