Board Approves Rezoning Request for New Subdivision

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

The Kewaskum Village Board met before about 10 village residents Monday night and opened their meeting by addressing a public hearing on a rezoning application. The parcel is known as the Spoerl land and is located on CTH H, west of USH 45. The developers are Gary Gavin and Joel Fehlhaber of LB Entrepreneurs. The land was annexed into the village last February as B-2 General Business District.

In October the developers brought a plan before the board that called for a portion of the 37.83 acres to be a 64 home subdivision. The other portion was to be a hotel and convention center. That plan was defeated without even a motion.

The developers proposed to make all 37.83 acres R-1, single family. After the rezoning they propose a 94 home subdivision to be developed over a five year period.

Legal counsel for the developers, Karen Christianson, informed the audience of supporters for the project and Trustees what the developers intentions were.

James Reigle and Dr. Charles Ogi who are residents of the Town of Kewaskum expressed their approval of the project.

Reigle stated, "My family and I have lived there for 36 years. We knew that the road was coming through there at some time. We weren't encouraging it, we like it just the way it is but... times change. We knew the Spoerl land was for sale. We chose not to buy it, collectively or individually. We could have protected it if we wanted to, but we chose not to.

We have all seen the type of development these people have done in the past in our community. We don't have any complaints about what they have done in the past," said Reigle.

Ogi agreed with Reigle's statement, complimenting Gavin and Fehlhaber on their past developments.

Trustee Andy Pesch expressed a concern over the safety of Edgewood Road going from two lane thoroughfare to boulevard.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt said that in order to have it all stay boulevard land would be needed to be annexed from Mr. Reigle and Dr. Ogi.

Reigle stated he thought it was a legitimate question. He also stated that he and Dr. Ogi would be cooperative in helping with this safety factor.

The public hearing was closed and the board went into the reviewing of sealed bids for the UV Disinfection Retrofit for the Water Pollution Control Plant.

Fire Chief Mark Groeschel was absent but Schmidt gave the board the new list of officers for next year. They are: Fire Chief for a three-year term- Mark Groeschel. Assistant Fire Chief- Mark Herriges. First Captain- Pete Dickmann. Second Captain-

Foreign Exchange Students Assist Local Man In Finding WWII Flag Owners

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

With the help of two Kewaskum High School Foreign exchange students, a local World War II veteran is trying to return a piece of the past to its rightful owners.

Elmer Hallen met with Sakiko Kugimoto and Masako Agario last week in the conference room of Kewaskum High School; a tattered Japanese flag laid out on the table between them. A red sun on a white background with rays extending outward from the center, the cloth symbol carried with it the faded names of sixteen Japanese soldiers who fought together in battle during World War II.

Studying the hand written names in an effort to find them or their relatives and send the flag back to Japan, Hallen said this would make him happy. "At first it (the flag) was a big thing for me, but now after 54 years, I want to get it back to the grandchild or great-grandchild of one of these veterans." He told the girls, along with district administrator Clark Pearson and assistant high school Principal, John Wolfenberg, that he found the flag during a battle on the island of Mindinowa in the Phillipines in 1944.

Sakiko and Masako were able to translate ten of the sixteen names from Japanese into the English alphabet, but the rest were blurred or torn from the ravages of war. The flag bears no indication of a unit name, a town, or any identifying mark, making it difficult, if not impossible, to trace back the origin of 16 soldiers from Japan.

Both Pearson and Wolfenberg suggested posting the names and inquiring on the internet as a start. The girls indicated it would be helpful to contact Japanese libraries, war museums, or the military branch of their government. The search may even turn into a project between history classes at KHS and Sakiko and Masoko's schools. Teacher's will be contacted to see if they are interested in tackling such a challenging endeavor.

"The way its worn, I think it was flown as a banner on a ship, but I can't be sure," Hallen relates. "This is exactly the way I found it. Age wise, these veterans would be in their 70's."

Sakiko Kugimoto is from Saga-Shi, Saga Ken, Japan. She is with the 4-H Youth Development Program, and is staying with James and Judy McCabe Krudwig of West Bend since Nov. 19th.

Masako Agario is from Osaka, Japan, and is visiting Wisconsin with the Council for Education Travel, USA. She is staying with Diane and Paul Lemke of Kewaskum.

KM Sport Riders Win Parade's First Prize

FIRST PRIZE - Kettle Moraine Sport Riders

It looked like the scene off a Christmas card from home. Huge, wet, white snowflakes started to fall just before Sunday's Christmas parade and continued throughout, pushing hundreds of spectators that lined the streets into a long-overdue, wonderful holiday spirit.

The warm weather is now a thing of the past autumn, and it's time to THINK CHRISTMAS! The wet juicy snowflakes were all that was needed to make the parade picture perfect, and oddly enough, you didn't hear anyone complain about "that awful white stuff" because it was just too pretty and it seemed to put everyone into that "right mood" that we all seem to have been searching for.

Prize winners in the annual Christmas parade included: First - Kettle Moraine Sport Riders; Second - St. Lucas Lutheran School and Continued, with additional photos, on pages 10 and 11.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel gave the board his November report. It was also noted that the winter parking ban has now taken effect.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles gave his bi-monthly report.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt informed the board of one operator's license.

Schmidt also said the tax bills will be in the mail by Friday at noon.

Under new business the board acted on an ordinance to amend the zoning of the parcel of property talked about previously in the public hearing. The ordinance was approved on a 5-1-1 vote, with Trustee Harry Roecker voting no and Trustee Gary Gavin abstaining from voting.

The board signed an Animal Control agreement with the Washington County Humane Society.

In this agreement the Humane Society would be responsible for all animals in the village. They would collect stray animals along with carcasses of deceased animals.

Discussion took place on bids received for the UV Disinfection Retro-fit. Gillies recommended going with WEDECO Ultra Violet Systems who are represented by Energetics of Cedarburg. The bid came in at $27,995.

In miscellaneous business President Robert Wagner complimented the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce for a wonderful job on the annual Christmas Parade.

United Way at 96.6% Not Finished Yet!

Still hard at work to give Help and Hope to thousands of individuals in Washington County in the coming year, the United Way of Washington County is continuing its efforts to raise $1,065,000 in 1998. As of December 3rd, the campaign is at 96.6 percent, with $1,028,535 in gifts and pledges towards the goal of $1,065,000.

"We're ahead of where we were at this time last year," said Ray Lipman, Campaign chair. "We've got a great deal of momentum going, and now we have to put in an extra effort to finish the job. The best part is that our volunteers are still working."

The remaining 3.4 percent to raise toward the goal equals $36,500 in gifts and pledges.

"I feel strongly that the Washington County community -- businesses and individuals -- will respond favorably and help put us over the top," said Lipman.

Lipman continued, "Our success to date is based on the generosity of hundreds of volunteers and thousands of donors who have given generously of their time and dollars thus far. We need the rest of the community to respond -- to give Help and Hope -- in these final weeks of the year."

Disaster assistance for victims of fires; help for children who have suffered from their parent's death or abandonment; socialization for those who are lonely or disabled; food for the hungry; shelter and safety for victims of domestic violence -- these are just a few of the 63 programs that will be funded through 24 human service agencies serving Washington County in the coming year.

"These very needed services will suffer without the donations," said Lipman. "The Washington County community is caring and has met the challenge in the past. We need everyone's help to do so again."

Those divisions still working toward their Goals and amounts needed are: Attorneys - $1,130; Dentists - $640; Financial - $6,060; Nonprofits & Health Care - $3,610; Professional Specialties - $480; Jackson - $183; Kewaskum - $4,065; Slinger - $1,797; Newburg - $432; Richfield, Hubertus and Colgate - $666; and the West Bend Divisions; Commercial - $3,620; Education - $695; Special Gifts - $4,600; Transportation - $1,131; and Key Firms - $23,984.

To help United Way reach its goal, mail a tax-deductible contribution to United Way at PO Box 304, West Bend, WI 53095, or call the United Way office at 338-3821.

AHA Suggests Caution When Winter Arrives

MILWAUKEE - The weather outside is frightful and your fire is so delightful. Unfortunately, winter's first snowfall is just around the corner, which means many Wisconsin residents will need to bring their snow shovels out of storage.

The American Heart Association says shoveling snow is safe if you follow some simple precautions, particularly if you are middle-aged or older and haven't been physically active.

The AHA has the following recommendations specifically for people not used to strenuous physical exertion: Don't lift a heavy shovel piled high with snow. The combination of sudden physical exertion and the cold increases the heart's workload. It's natural for the arteries to narrow when in cold weather. The cold can be even more dangerous if they are already narrowed due to fatty deposits. Too much strain on the heart during these conditions could cause a heart attack.

Here are more tips from the AHA for safe winter exercise. Wear several layers of clothing instead of one heavy layer. Put on a hat or scarf because most heat is lost through the top of the head. Protect ears and hands too, because they are most susceptible to frostbite.

Before going out in the cold to work or play, the AHA suggests you should ask a doctor first, if you:

* have a heart condition and were advised to participate only in medically supervised physical activity;

* experience shoulder or arm pain during or right after exercise;

* have developed chest pain within the last month;

* tend to lose consciousness or fall due to dizziness;

* feel extremely breathless after mild exertion;

* were told by a doctor to take medicine for high blood pressure or a heart condition;

* have bone or joint problems that could be made worse by shoveling snow or other strenuous activities;

* have some other physical condition that might need attention.

The American Heart Association also advises heart patients to make sure they know their safe exercise limits and stay within them.

For more information about year-round safe physical activities, call the AHA in Milwaukee at 1-800-242-9236 or visit the AHA's Website at www.american-heart.org.

The American Heart Association spent more than $312 million during fiscal year 1997-98 on research support, public and professional education, and community programs. With more than four million volunteers, the AHA is the largest voluntary health organization fighting heart disease, stroke and other cardiovascular diseases, which annually kill more than 960,000 Americans.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

It is time the Kewaskum School District moves forward with providing the facilities needed to ensure our children receive the kind of education they need and deserve. Past attempts at funding building plans have been complicated by wording the referendums to include several issues in one yes or no vote.

There have been two referendums presented to address the fact that the elementary school in Kewaskum needs replacement. A yes vote on the first referendum would have effectively kept Beechwood School closed. That was a result which for many voters was unacceptable to the point that they would rather vote against any building proposal rather than have that happen.

The second referendum tried to gain support by appealing to different groups with specific desires. Passage of this proposal would have opened Beechwood School and would have included an auditorium (actually a compromise gymnasium). All of this was offered as an attempt to answer the need for a new elementary school.

There seems to be some consternation as to what the people of this district would support. To find out the school board must present the relevant questions individually to the voters. The first question to be resolved is the status of Beechwood School. It is an issue that has been a persistent source of conflict and discord. It is time to let all the voters decide the status of Beechwood School. Ask the question whether the school should be opened and included in the district's long range facilities plan or disposed of in an appropriate manner.

Armed with the answer to that question the School Board can then ask the voters to approve a plan for the elementary schools which either includes Beechwood School or not. At the same time the desire for an auditorium/gymnasium can be dealt with in a separate question. Let each issue rise or fall on its own merit.

It is important that the issue of reopening Beechwood School be settled before another attempt to pass a building referendum is made. A possible time line would begin with the Beechwood question being presented to voters in February at the time primary elections for local positions are held. A building referendum then could be included in the April elections. Having done all of the groundwork for a variety of building proposals the School Board should be able to meet that time line.

Letter to the Editor:

Opening day of deer season was nothing but mundane in the Theresa Marsh on Mohawk Drive and Refuge Lane. At 5:30 a.m., I entered the woods, and proceeded to my old stand that I had been sitting in for almost fifteen years. A man with a flashlight whom I had recognized as being in there for the past three years, flashed me by and I went a little further and stopped as I did not want to run into other hunters.

At 6:05 a.m., this fellow shot, 25 minutes before the opening of the season. It was pitch black and I saw the muzzle flash. I felt a slight breeze as the slug passed close by me, then I heard something fall and kick around about 15 to 20 yards in front of me. I said to myself, this guy actually shot a deer in the dark. I could not believe this! Without seeing where he was shooting, he could have killed me or someone else. I thought I would wait to confront him when he picked the deer up.

At 7:30 a.m., a lot of wild shooting took place out on Refuge Lane which sounded like the invasion of Normandy. Slugs were flying everywhere, and I took refuge behind a tree. At about 8:00 a.m., the fellow that shot the deer in the dark and a young boy emerged.

The man took his jacket off in preparation to gutting out the deer and tagging it. I confronted them and asked them what the heck was the sense of shooting in the dark, which was totally illegal. The man replied that they shot when it was light out and I stated that no shots were fired in this vicinity during daytime.

From the time daylight came, I had visual sight of the dead deer laying 20 yards ahead of me. Then the young boy upon taking his clue from his father, also stated that the deer was shot in the daylight.

I said I heard the deer fall and was standing and waiting for these "so-called hunters" to come out. I also stated that at any time, I could have walked over and tagged that deer but I am not that kind of sportsman. I shoot my own deer. I also told them I had a half of a notion to take their deer tags and turn them into the warden. With that, they hurriedly dragged the deer out of the woods without even gutting it out.

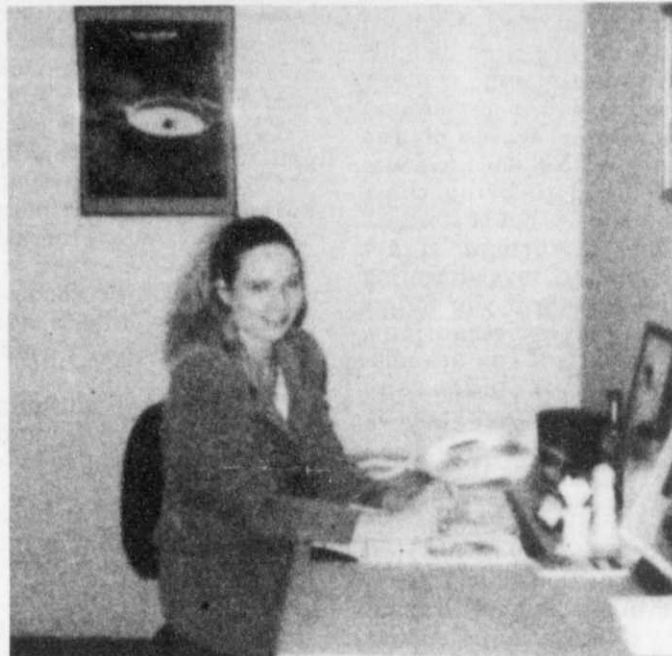

This young boy was probably one or two years out of Hunter's Safety DNR course. This is not a way for a father to be a mentor or role model to his son. I am quite sure that this is the fellow that had been shooting in the dark for a number of years. We had one law breaker and now his is breaking in another so that now we have two running around in the woods.

This is intentional homicide and premeditated murder when a person shoots in the dark before the season opens. All this amounts to is greed. There is no sport, just a poor little inquisitive fawn stopping to scent him and he got shot.

I have hunted for over 50 years, 40 of those in the Theresa Marsh, and the caliber of hunters is getting worse. I will no longer walk into the woods in the dark, no longer hunt that area, and warn all good hunters that if you value your life, stay out of the north end.

'Eggs'-cellent Adventure

"If at first you don't succeed, fry, fry again!"

That advice was shared with participants in the "Egg Drop Eggs-stravaganza" at Wayne, Farmington and Kewaskum Elementary Schools.

Students in Mr. Casetta's class were required to design a plastic cup module to hold an egg and keep it from breaking, even when dropped off the school roof.

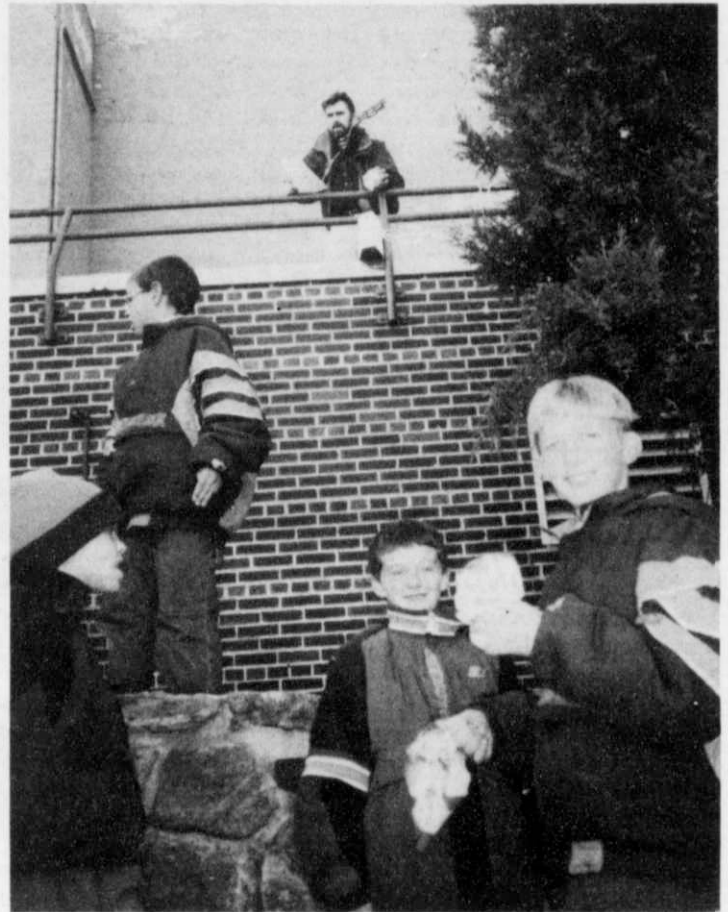

To meet the challenge of finding a material to absorb the impact, a variety of packing materials were tested and utilized, from paper to styrofoam packing peanuts to, believe it or not, rocks (which was successful one out of three drops). Two groups even made and used a parachute, which kept their eggs from breaking all three times.

Student creativity was further tested in making a commercial (for the egg delivery company, Federal Egg-spress), and decorating the module. The two groups that made and used a parachute were able to keep their eggs from breaking for all of those drops.

It's safe to say that the egg drop was an eggs-citing way to do some creative problem solving.

As classmates, from left, Justis Clayton, Ben Johnson and Shane Barrett-Sunday check it out, KES fifth grader Garrett Donath is all smiles when he finds his group's egg was undamaged after its drop. G/T and Enrichment teacher Mr. Casetta prepares to drop the next egg from the roof of the KES courtyard

With anxious expressions, KES fourth grader Allison Kimble and fifth grader Frankie Cole wait to see if their module helped their egg survive a fall from the KES courtyard roof.

SECOND PRIZE - St. Lucas Lutheran School and Church

THIRD PRIZE - Tuttle Creek Learning Center

Church; Third - Tuttle Creek Learning Center; Fourth - Boltonville Fire Department, and Fifth - Lifestar Ambulance of West Bend.

Congratulations to the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce for presenting another wonderful holiday delight, along with the community's gratitude to the following committee people: Kevin Stautz, Andrew Kuehl, Scott and Peggy Timm, and Gwen Dreher. Without their diligent hard work, the parade would have been just a memory. Thank you for the excellent job you did entertaining the community, young and old alike, on Sunday.

Thanks must also be extended to the residents of Mapledale Manor, who so graciously agreed to help out Santa by filling hundreds of candy bags again this year, and to the Aid Association of Lutherans (AAL) for undertaking the delightful tree lighting ceremony after the parade.

The Chamber of Commerce would also like to congratulate the winners of the community tree decorating contest. They are: First - St. Lucas Lutheran School and Church (located in front of West Bend Savings Bank); Second - Wayne Elementary School (located in front of The Gateway), and Third - Tuttle Creek Learning Center (located in front of their establishment).

And last, but certainly, not least, much gratitude goes out to all those who decorated entries for the parade, all who participated, and all who contributed toward the funding of the annual event by purchasing red, green and white memorial lights. Without all of you, the parade would not be possible.

A list of all who contributed towards the lights, more parade photos, photos of the decorated trees, and Breakfast with Santa photos, will be published in our special Christmas edition which will be an additional special insert in your Kewaskum Statesman next week. Watch for it.

A terrific centerpiece for your holiday table can be made quickly and easily by stringing different-sized Christmas tree balls onto a knitting needle and topping with a Christmas tree peak. Set it on a bed of evergreens or a felt skirt.

Wisconsin's Winter Weather Awareness

...Winter Weather Preparedness...

Are you ready for a winter storm? Here's what you can do to prepare for winter weather...

1) Keep ahead of winter storms by listening for the latest weather statements, watches and warnings. You can maintain a direct link to the National Weather Service (NWS) by purchasing a battery-powered NOAA Weather radio (NWR). Be able to differentiate between a winter storm watch and a winter storm warning.

> A winter storm watch means a winter storm is possible in your area

> A winter storm warning means a winter storm is headed your way in the next few hours.

2) Keep your car "winterized" with fresh antifreeze. Consider using snow tires.

3) Keep a winter survival kit in your car. (Blankets, First aid kit, matches, red bandanna and plastic whistle to alert rescuers, bottled water, flashlight, change for phone calls or cell phone, snack foods, and extra winter clothing) Don't let your car's fuel tank get below a quarter tank.

4) Prepare your home for winter weather by installing storm windows, adequate insulation, caulking, and by weather stripping doors and windows.

5) Stock extra batteries for radios and flashlights, keep some bottled water in your home.

6) Start every day with a weather forecast, when storms approach obtain frequent updates and avoid unnecessary travel.

7) Ensure that every member of your household has a warm coat, gloves or mittens, hat and water-resistant boots. Remember that most body heat is lost through the top of your head; if you're cold, wear a hat.

8) Avoid overexertion, such as shoveling heavy snow, pushing a car, or walking in deep snow.

Winter Storms are deceptive killers because most deaths are indirectly related to the storm. People die in traffic accidents on icy roads, people die of heart attacks while shoveling snow, and people die of hypothermia from prolonged exposure to cold. Most of these situations are avoidable by staying informed of the weather and making smart decisions to keep safe. And the first smart move you can make is to be prepared. Winter weather preparedness can save your life!!!

IN MEMORY

In memory of HAROLD (SCHNOOKIE) STERN who passed away fourteen years ago, December 11, 1984:

Fourteen years have passed and gone
Since the one we loved so well
Was taken from his home on earth
With Jesus Christ to dwell
The flowers we place upon his grave
May wither and decay

But the love for "Schnook" who sleeps beneath
Shall never fade away.

*Forever loved and missed
by Shirl & Tom*

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of DIANE PROST EGERER who passed away 20 years ago, December 11, 1978:

Twenty years have passed
Since the one we loved so
well,
Was taken from her home
With Jesus our Savior to dwell,
There is a road called remembrance
Where thoughts and wishes meet
We take that road to remember Precious memories, that never grow old.
Her smile for all and a heart of gold.
Our heart ache remains with many silent tears
Time should heal all sorrow
And help to forget
But, God only knows how much we miss her yet.

*Sadly missed by mother,
Doris Prost, sisters, brothers and families.*

IN MEMORY

In memory of ROGER KUEHL, who passed away six years ago, Dec. 17, 1992:

You are not forgotten,
Loved one,
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory
lasts,
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts
are sore,
As time goes by, we'll miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.

Sadly missed by the family.

IN MEMORY

In memory of Ruth Kuehl, Dec. 9, 1997 and Roger Kuehl, Dec. 17, 1992.

When we come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for us,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free.
Remember the love that we once shared,
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the masters plan
A step on the road to home.
Miss you, yes I always will.

Mild Weather Delaying Start of Snowmobiling Ice Fishing and Skiing Seasons

MADISON - With 15,000 lakes for ice fishing and skating, an abundance of cross-country and downhill skiing opportunities and enough snowmobile trails to circle the globe three times, Wisconsin's got everything a winter sports enthusiast could want - except snow and ice.

The state's unseasonably warm weather - temperatures reached historic highs over the Thanksgiving weekend in many locations - is pushing back the traditional season opener for many winter sports. But state recreation officials say the extra time gives people more opportunity to get ready for a winter that forecasters predict will be colder and snowier than normal.

"The next week, and until there's enough snow or ice for winter sports to safely begin, is a time to prepare," said Tom Thoresen, recreation safety chief for the Department of Natural Resources. "If you're a snowmobiler, check your sled over, make sure it's in good condition. Check the belts, check the brakes, and the mechanicals."

Thoresen advises ice fishing enthusiasts to make getting a flotation coat a top priority. "A flotation coat will help protect the wearer against hypothermia and drowning should he or she break through the ice or fall into open water," he said. "Right now, the water's probably about 38 degrees or colder and people are not going to last very long if they fall into water."

Regardless of whether people are snowmobiling, skating, skiing or ice fishing, Thoresen recommends that when snow begins falling and ice begins forming, people check with local contacts to learn whether trails are open and whether ice conditions are safe. "Know before you go," he said.

The first week in December has traditionally marked the opening of the snowmobile season in many areas and the start of ice fishing on northern lakes. The gun deer season is over - it ended Nov. 29 - and people's thoughts are turning to winter recreation.

As of Tuesday, however, the 25,000 miles of snowmobile trails in Wisconsin were bare of snow, most downhill ski operations were closed, and fisheries specialists were reporting open waters in northern Wisconsin. Chuck Johnson, the DNR northern fisheries expert, cautions people to watch for thin ice over the next couple weeks. "People get anxious this time of year to get out on the ice," he said.

National weather Service forecasts - and the state's temperature readings - suggest that Wisconsin's weather is showing the effects of La Nina, usually cold sea surface temperatures in the eastern tropical Pacific Ocean that can affect weather patterns across the globe. La Nina winters are often characterized by strong seasonal fluctuations, so the National Weather Service anticipates periods of "strikingly cold winter weather interspersed with much milder weather" in the Great Lakes region.

"I think we're in one of those milder periods right now," said Mike Majewski, a DNR meteorologist. "Our temperatures are running about 20 degrees above normal in the southern part of the state and 10 to 15 degrees (above normal) in the northern and central part."

However, Majewski said, the National Weather Service forecasts December, January and February to be colder with above normal precipitation in the Great Lakes region, especially after Christmas.

Indian JV Girl Cagers Edged 46-40 by Kiel

The Kewaskum JV girls basketball team played a close game against Kiel, but ended up losing 40-46.

Kewaskum gained the lead in the first quarter, scoring 11 points to Kiel's seven, but after scoring only two points in the second quarter Kiel took a huge lead over Kewaskum. Kiel scored 18 points to make the score in their favor 25-13.

The Indians came out fired up and ready to play for the second half. At one point in the third quarter Kewaskum had pulled within four points. Kewaskum scored thirteen points in the third quarter and Kiel's girls scored 10 points.

At the end for the third quarter the score was 35-26, in favor of Kiel. Kewaskum made another big push scoring 14 points to Kiel's 11 in the final quarter. Despite their come back Kiel held on to the win 46-40.

Sarah Williams was the lead scorer for Kewaskum with 15 points. Emily Rinzel was next with seven points, Colleen Gosa had six points, Milly Strobel and Kelly Dorn each scored four points, and Roberta Rinzel and Bridget Polzean each scored two points.

Molly Strobel had the most rebounds for Kewaskum, she crashed the boards for eight rebounds. Colleen Gosa led the team with two blocked shots. Emily Rinzel played great defense and recorded five steals.

Heather Heberlien of Kiel was the high scorer of the game. She had a total of 21 points, most in the first half of the game. After the half Kewaskum tried a new defensive game plan on Kiel's tall low post player Heberlien. Kewaskum's Gosa fronted her and held her to only a couple of baskets. "Our girls didn't give up when we fell behind in the second quarter. I'm proud of their efforts," commented Kewaskum JV coach Mr. Ross.

Seasonal Savings

Managing Your Green To Stay Out Of The Red

(NAPS)—More green and less red can mean more enjoyment for families during the holiday season. This does not only refer to the decorations, but also to spending wisely. Thanks to a new pamphlet that provides holiday spending tips, many families can avoid much of the stress and strain of seasonal expenses. The pamphlet, Managing Your Holiday Spending is now available free from the American Financial Services Association's Educational Foundation (AFSAEF).

Among the helpful items contained in the pamphlet is a holiday spending budget to assist consumers in identifying how much they have to spend for each gift recipient on their shopping list, as well as for miscellaneous seasonal expenses such as decorations, wrapping paper, cards and candles. The budget guide then encourages consumers to estimate how much each holiday item will actually cost, compare it with the budgeted amount and make adjustments to their spending plans as necessary. Also included in the pamphlet are money management tips to maximize funds available for covering holiday expenses.

"People tend to overspend

A free pamphlet that provides holiday spending tips is now available to consumers.

during the holidays because they don't budget sufficient funds, succumb to impulse buying or wait until the last minute to do their gift shopping," said AFSAEF President M. Susie Irvine. "They may also try to meet too many gift giving expectations, especially those of children wanting toys that carry high price tags."

Consumers may receive one free copy of the pamphlet by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the AFSA Education Foundation, 919 18th Street, NW, Dept. C, Washington, D.C. 20006-5503. For bulk rates call the Foundation at 202-296-5544.

Founded in 1990, AFSAEF develops consumer education materials and sponsors research on consumer finance issues.

Note: The Police Department had no objections to the application.

On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the payment of bills as recommended by the Administrative Committee. The total of all claims as recommended are as follows:

General	114,583.45
Sewer	27,883.22
Library Fund	159.98
Payroll	15,519.56
Water Fund	4,471.12

TOTAL $162,617.33

Plan Commission, Board representative Warren Dums informed the Board that a Commission meeting was held on October 27, 1998 at 7:00 p.m. and that Rick Kania was present regarding the Zoning Ordinance. A request for re-zoning 37.83 acres of land south of the KKCP and north of CTH "H" was reviewed and a favorable recommendation on the zoning was sent to the Village Board for public hearing. The public hearing was scheduled for November 16, 1998 at 8 p.m.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt reported that the Sewer project has been completed with only the punch list to follow and the surface coat of asphalt to be applied in the spring of 1999.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt reviewed with the Board the Notice for Public Hearing on the proposed budget for 1999. It was noted the budget only reflected an increase of $42,295 or 2.4%, while the tax levy increased $57,998 or 8.4% and that the tax rate per $1,000 of assessed value increased $.207737 or 3.593%. It was also noted that if the village would have had zero (0)% growth and all else stayed the same, the rate would have increased $.64 or 11.042%. The proposed rate is $5.98874 per $1,000 of assessed value. All departmental budgets were reviewed again and the substantial amount of revenue lost was noted. The Debt Service Fund, Library Fund, Special Revenue Fund, Water Pollution Control Department and Water Department were also reviewed. It was noted the public hearing is scheduled for November 23, 1998 at 7:00 p.m.

The Board was also informed that the VTAE rate is projected to be $1.564621, up $.5294 or 3.5%. No other figures were available as of this date for review.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board authorized the signing of the 1999 Fire Services Contracts with the Town of Kewaskum. The contract dollar amount is to equal $76,603.00.

Discussion was held on the authorization to sign the "Agreement for Installation and maintenance of Gaging Station on Public Private Property." Time frame is for a two year study and the location to be southeast of the Fire House. It was noted that verbal permission was given after the matter was discussed with the Park & Recreation Committee. It was further noted we were not told that a formal agreement was going to be sent and that the USGS already planted the post for the gauging station. The Board indicated that if they are proceeding without the signatures why should we sign. It was noted that the area of the station is the same as the fire department's pumping location.

Administrator Schmidt was to talk to the USGS and ask some of those questions. No action was taken.

Action was taken on Resolution No. 98-29 A Resolution Amending the Municipal Court Agreement (3rd amendment) with an effective date of December 31, 1998 as attached hereto:

Action was taken on Resolution No. 98-30 A Resolution Amending the Municipal Court Agreement (4th amendment) with an effective date of January 1, 1999 as attached hereto:

On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee Warren Dums and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the Administrator Daniel Schmidt and Village Attorney to hire outside counsel to represent the Village in the specialized matter brought to the Village by Washington County. (John Schmitt matter).

Administrator Daniel Schmidt reminded the Board of the EDAC meeting scheduled for Saturday, November 7, 1998. Also the Board was informed they would need to adjust the December 1998 meeting schedule at the next meeting.

Motion by Trustee Warren Dums, seconded by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann and carried by the majority roll call vote, to adjourn. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 0 "Absent."

In the Service

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Mark A. Ebert, a 1983 graduate of Campbellsport High School of Campbellsport, is among the many crewmembers aboard the aircraft carrier, USS Harry S. Truman, home ported at Norfolk, Virginia, who recently earned honors as the winner of the 1999 Captain Edward F. Ney Memorial Award, for food service excellence in the aircraft carrier - large afloat category.

Ebert, along with other members of the crew, earned the award for the ship's enhanced readiness and superb galleys and general messes.

The dining facility on Ebert's ship demonstrated a commitment to culinary excellence, including nutritional programs and top operating conditions. Many departments throughout the ship contributed to the quality of service and food. For Ebert and fellow crewmembers, and a top-notch galley affects the quality of life and general well-being of the crew.

Carriers, like USS Harry S. Truman, are forward deployed around the world to maintain a U.S. presence and provide rapid response in times of crisis. They serve as a highly visible deterrent to would-be aggressors and, if deterrence fails, offer the most versatile and powerful weapons available, including Tomahawk cruise missiles and tactical aircraft.

Ebert joined the Navy in March, 1986.

KMS Students Write Home Town Poems

To wrap up the 1997/98 school year, in their English class, eighth graders at Kewaskum Middle School studied a unit on Wisconsin writers. At the beginning of the unit, the students read a poem called "Walking Milwaukee" by Harold Witt. In response, the students worked at various times through out the unit, writing their own poems about taking a walk in their home towns. The following are some of the poems written by the eighth graders.

"Walking Down a Country Road"

by Ben Rahoy

If you want a pretty sight to behold,
Come along with me now,
On my walk down a country road.
As you walk out of the steaming, humid garage,
The driveway continues next to the tall pine trees
That sway in the wind.
The wood fencing creaks as it continues with the metal fencing
Beside a smelly swamp that invades the land.
As the beautiful swan swims in the tangled, swaying sea weed,
The wood duck house stands in the private lake that is splashing.
The sagging willow tree sueds next to the long, curvy driveway.
Next to crushed, rusty cars that creak,
A white and brown horse rears in a pasture
That is full of tall grass and flowers of all different kinds.

Two Killed, 15 Injured in 1998 Gun Deer Season Firearms Accidents

MADISON - Preliminary deer registration numbers from Wisconsin's recently completed nine-day gun hunt show Wisconsin hunters bagged 324,514 white-tailed deer. Combined with the harvest of 1,969 from the four-day special hunt in deer management unit 67A, hunters have shot 326,483 deer in gun seasons this year.

That compares to a nine-day gun season harvest of 284,837 in 1997 and a total 1997 gun deer harvest of 292,513, including the nine-day gun hunt, a seven-day muzzleloader gun hunt and a four-day Zone-T hunt.

Like the seasons before it, this year's hunt had its own unique flavor and stories, according to Bill Mytton, Department of Natural Resources deer and bear ecologist. The unseasonably warm weather kept hunters in the woods longer and caused hunters to register deer more quickly to avoid spoilage. One lucky hunter killed two bucks with one shot and a prolonged rut may have contributed to a higher buck kill than anticipated.

"It was quite simply, one of the best hunting seasons I've ever seen in terms of opportunity, weather conditions and healthy animals," Mytton said. "Antler development was way ahead of normal in almost every age class, and especially in 1-1/2 year old bucks, which made for some very happy hunters. I heard of some great stories out there too," he added.

"A young hunter, out on his first deer hunt was lucky enough to shoot a nice buck. He ran to get his father for help and when the two returned, the carcass was gone. They followed a trail for several hundred yards and came upon a partially consumed carcass and a very contented black bear."

"The hunt met our expectations," said Tom Hauge, DNR wildlife chief. "Most of the predictions we made are proving true. Based on the mild winter of '97-'98, we expected a healthy fawn crop and we're getting many reports to that effect. We also expected healthy antler development and that's exactly what registration stations are reporting. Usually, when weather is a factor in the hunt, it's a storm event of some kind that keeps deer down and hunters inside but this year we're talking about nine back-to-back days of extremely mild weather. If that's not a record, it's got to be close."

There wasn't a Zone-T hunt this year but there was a special early antlerless gun hunt to help control deer-caused agricultural damage in the Marquette County area.

"The special early antlerless gun hunt in unit 67A was a success," said Aaron Buchholz, assistant deer and bear ecologist. "Hunters and landowners in 67A cooperated and harvested over 1,969 antlerless deer during the four-deer hunt in late October, which will help us move closer to our population target for that unit. Meeting unit population goals will go a long way toward reducing the large amount of deer-caused agricultural damage farmers are experiencing there."

Officials stressed that the hunt totals are not final until after all the harvest information has been rechecked and records are entered as to where deer were actually shot since not all deer are registered in the county where they are killed. Those numbers usually come out later in the year.

"The actual harvest numbers are important to wildlife biologists because it's the only control mechanism we have to manage our herd but other factors are probably just as important to other people," said Mike Gappa, DNR wildlife biologist from Eau Claire. "One of those is the camaraderie and the gathering of friends and family and the enjoyment of their company."

The close of the nine-day gun hunt also signals the start of the seven-day-long muzzleloader hunt, which ran through December 6. This hunt allows hunters to fill unused hunter's choice and bonus antlerless permits. The continuing mild weather could possibly mean better winter survival for the remaining herd and another good season ahead.

"The prolonged good weather is allowing the remaining deer to maintain energy reserves for the colder weather ahead," noted Hauge.

Hunters Harvest 324,514 Deer During Nine-Day Gun Season

MADISON - A 1998 gun deer season marked by warm weather and bigger-than-average bucks was not the safest on record, but it was close.

Two hunters died in firearms accidents and 15 were injured during the nine-day season. The DNR does not track the number of hunters who fall from tree stands of those who suffer heart attacks while hunting.

"The accident total was up slightly from last year, which was the safest season ever, but the 1998 season was still safer than 12 of the last 15 seasons in Wisconsin and safer than the national average," said Tim Lawhern, Wisconsin hunter education administrator. "That certainly is no comfort to the families who lost members, or to the hunters who received injuries."

With an estimated 670,000 hunters taking to the fields and woods, the number of firearms accidents during the 1998 gun-deer season equals a rate of 2.53 accidents per 100,000 hunters. That compares to an accident rate of 1.49 per 100,000 hunters during the 1997 gun-deer season, when one person was killed and nine injured. The 10-year-average in Wisconsin is 4.15 accidents per 100,000 hunters during the gun-deer season, and compares to the 44 accidents per 100,000 hunters that Wisconsin recorded in 1966, the year before hunter education courses started.

"The vast majority of hunters acted responsibly in the field in the 1998 gun-deer season and were a credit to themselves, the tradition of hunting, and to the volunteer hunter education instructors who taught many of them," Lawhern said.

He believes the slight increase in firearms accidents over last year's total reflects weather conditions, and the same trends evident in past seasons.

"Weather was a big factor as there was no snow on the ground in the southern two-thirds of the state," Lawhern said. "That's bad news from a safety standpoint because snow allows for greater visibility, therefore hunters can see other hunters more easily."

The 1998 gun deer season also continued a trend in which about half of the victims of firearms accidents are shot by someone they know -- usually a relative or friend in the same hunting party. About a third of the accidents involved juvenile hunters, also a long-term trend.

"These trends haven't changed much recently, but we continue to use them and others to help target what messages we send before and during each hunting season," Lawhern said.

One area that departed from the trend was the proportion of hunters who suffered self-inflicted wounds. Typically, half of the accidents involve self-inflicted accidents; this season, only about a third of the accidents were self-inflicted.

Most of those occurred during the opening weekend, and the kinds of self-inflicted accidents indicates that safe gun handling continues to be an issue, Lawhern said.

"Most of these injuries were caused by violating the first two rules of firearms safety: Treat every firearm as if it were loaded, and always point the muzzle in a safe direction," he said. "A safe direction is not at yourself."

Lady Indians Down Kiel

The Kewaskum girls varsity basketball team opened Eastern Wisconsin Conference play with a 57-47 win over the visiting Kiel Raiders on Friday evening.

The squad used a strong second quarter and clutch free throw shooting from forward Sarah Schwinn to even their record at 2-2 and 1-0 in conference play.

The first quarter ended knotted at 13 all, based on the strength of S. Schwinn's eight points including six for six free throw shooting, and Amy Piwoni's three pointer.

Kewaskum started to exert itself defensively in the second quarter. The KHS press resulted in numerous turnovers, which the girls were able to convert into scoring opportunities. Point guard Jenny Kraft hit two three-pointers, and center Heather Radtke had two big baskets to lead the Indians to 17 second quarter points and an eight point half time lead.

After a near even third quarter, which the Raiders outscored the Indians by two, Kewaskum answered with a huge fourth quarter.

Piwoni's second three-pointer of the game, along with S. Schwinn's ten points, six coming via the free throw line, propelled the Indians to 19 points and their final margin of victory.

Sarah Schwinn led the Indians with 20 points, including 12 for 13 from the charity stripe. She also added 12 rebounds and five steals. Heather Rieder contributed strongly with 12 points and six rebounds.

Jenny Kraft added ten points along with five assists. Renae Hills was very strong in the defensive post pulling down nine rebounds and helping to shut down Kiel's inside game. Kewaskum totaled 45 rebounds for the game including an amazing 22 on the offensive side.

Next up for Kewaskum is an away match-up with conference foe, Chilton, on Thursday, Dec. 10.

Lions Maul Indians

The Kewaskum Indians boys' basketball team was taught two lessons last Friday night. One was on hoops and the other had biblical significance.

The Lomira Lions have four players 6'6" tall, so David and Goliath came into play but this time Goliath got the last laugh. Unlike the previous week when the Indians fell behind 11-1 at the beginning of the game, KHS started out hot. Lomira played a 1-3-1 zone defense with its big men on the point and at the wings the entire game.

The Indian guards patiently worked the ball around and found enough openings to jump out to a 16-8 lead at the end of the first period. Andy Christophersen slashed for six points and Billy Cook and Josh Gaffke each hit a three to fuel the suddenly confident Indians.

Momentum seemed on the side of KHS, but she is a fickle companion as the Indians quickly found out. For the second week in a row, their shooting touch cooled off dramatically as the second, third and fourth quarters produced a shooting percentage of 19%.

The suddenly-cold-as-ice Indians mustered a lone Shaun Timblin three as the balance of the squad finished 0-14 from three-point land the rest of the way.

The Lions defensively tightened up and denied any post penetration, daring the normally fine shooting Indians to beat them from outside. It was a winning strategy as the Lions held on for a 54-38 win.

"I thought it was a fine effort by the kids. We hustled. Our pressure bothered them, but we just couldn't seem to find the bottom of the net," reported Coach Tom Timblin. He added, "Their size bothered us. Their big kids always seemed to have a hand in our face."

Friday night the Eastern Wisconsin Conference opens as Chilton comes to town for a 7:30 p.m. tipoff. JV and freshmen play at 6 p.m.
