Celebrate Families February 7-13

Families are a concern of everyone. As our society is changing, what has long been known as the "traditional family" has also changed.

Today's families come in many shapes and sizes. Families may be nuclear, extended, blended, single-parent, dual-parent, multi-generational, bi-racial, elderly, yours-mine-and-others. The key is that they all exist right here. They all function, and they are ALL important.

Agencies, organizations, businesses, schools, churches and concerned citizens in Washington County have joined together for the eighth year to develop and implement a unified approach to "Celebrating the Family." A week-long program, February 7-13, is designed to emphasize the importance of the family. The theme, "Celebrate the Family," focuses on the family as a changing place, a growing place, a learning place, a belonging place, a doing, playing, working place, and a place to celebrate.

The belief is that through joint effort, we can have a significant impact on all types of families in Washington County. It is essential, in our changing society, that we try to meet the needs of our changing families and that we celebrate the importance of family in our own community. It does not matter what family type you belong to, our goal is to emphasize that all families are an integral part of the community.

On Sunday, February 7, a Family Resource Fair will showcase organizations that offer services to strengthen families. Displays and activities by non-profit agencies and organizations will be held at the Kettle Moraine YMCA in West Bend.

Various groups will be performing in the dance studio and gymnasium. Special ethnic entertainment includes the Mexican Folklore Dancers of Milwaukee, sponsored by B. C. Ziegler Company and the American Indian Center Dance troop of Milwaukee, sponsored by The West Bend Company.

The Kettle Moraine YMCA will provide their facilities to families from 11:45 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday, February 7. Families can participate in open swim, on the track and open gym.

Fire Dept. Looks Into Replacing Pumper Truck

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

The Kewaskum Village Board met Monday and listened to Fire Chief Mark Groeschel as he asked for permission to negotiate a deal to replace the 1963 pump truck.

Groeschel told the board they were not required to bid it out which makes it much easier. "You can sit down with one company and negotiations go much easier."

"As a business person it's wiser to get more than one bid, how do you know you are getting a good deal if you have nothing to compare it to?" said Trustee Gary Gavin.

Groeschel replied "I think if we went through Pierce we'd be getting a good truck for the money."

"We're spending a lot of money and it's not our money we're spending so somewhere along the line we have to be responsible to the people. How do you justify if we're getting a good deal if we only get one bid? If there's a difference between $20,000 that's a lot of money! If it's your own money I don't care who you go to, but your spending the taxpayers money! I would like to see two bids," stated Gavin.

Groeschel agreed he would sit down with two companies and get a bid from each one.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel asked to be able to sell the 1997 squad car. It will again be sold through an auction service.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles gave his bi-monthly report.

Under unfinished business, Schmidt updated the board on the proposed downtown parking lot. Schmidt told board members that the state DOT will not allow angle parking on Main street. He said he will keep the board posted on any further developments

Washington County Supervisor Dan Stoffel was present and gave the board an update on things at the county level.

WB Kiwanis Family Day to Feature Trinity Irish Dancers

Bring your family to the special performance of ethnic Irish Dancers, February 13, at the West Bend High School Auditorium, sponsored by Kiwanis Noon Club of West Bend in cooperation with the Family Center of Washington County.

The Trinity Irish Dancers have performed all over the world and have won coveted competition in Ireland.

There will be one show at 11 a.m. Free tickets can be picked up by calling the Family Center at 338-9461. Following the show, there will be an ice cream social sponsored by the Washington County Dairy Promotion Committee and hosted by Badger Boosters 4-H Club.

This event will be the closing of Washington County's Celebrate Families Week. Don't miss out on this wonderful performance.

Kindergarten Registration

This year's annual "round-up" for the parents/guardians of all prospective kindergarten pupils in the Kewaskum School District will be held on Thursday, February 18, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Registration will again be held on Friday, February 19, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Registration will take place in the Farmington, Kewaskum, and Wayne school offices. Please register your child at the school in your area on one of the above days. Children need not attend while being registered.

To be eligible for enrollment in kindergarten, children must have attained their fifth birthday on or before September 1, 1999. Evidence of date of birth, either a birth certificate or a baptismal certificate, must be brought to the office at the time of enrolling. Social security numbers are also requested.

Parents will register their children for next year's term and be given the necessary health forms. Please speak with your health care provider to make sure your child has received all of their required immunizations. If you know of any new families in the district, please pass this information on to them.

I would like to impress upon you the importance of registering your child on either of these two days so that we are able to plan accordingly for next year.

The district will also be screening children who are 4 years old on or before September 1, 1999. This pre-kindergarten screening will help to identify students who might benefit from the First Steps program or Early Childhood classes. This screening will take place on June 3rd and 4th from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. and on June 5th from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Parents/guardians may call the District Office, (414) 626-8427 ext. 8001 after May 1st to set up an appointment with Ms. Debbie Goodsell.

Lynn Qualifies For Nationals

Marni Lynn, former Kewaskum High School cross country and track standout, qualified for the NCAA Division III Indoor Championships at Ohio Northern University on March 12 and 13.

Lynn, a sophomore at Carroll College in Waukesha, qualified in the 1500m run when she posted a time of 4:46.3 at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point on Saturday, January 30, to meet the provisional qualifying standard of 4:48.

Lynn's time broke the Carroll College school record of 4:50.42. When contacted by phone, Lynn reported that she was surprised with her time, especially since it was accomplished without any speed workouts or short intervals at practices at this early stage of the season.

Another surprise for Lynn, who was running the 1500m run for the first time indoors, was that she led the whole race from start to finish. Lynn continued by saying that, "The coaches were really excited with her time and her qualifying for Nationals." So far Lynn is the only track athlete from Carroll to qualify for Nationals.

Lynn's personal best in the 1500m run was 4:45 last spring towards the end of the outdoor season. With this early success, Marni stated that she is hopeful that the best is yet to come.

Keep up the hard work and good luck to Marni!

Volunteers Needed for Music Festival

Saturday, March 20, marks a big day in the music schedule of Kewaskum High School.

On that day, our school will host the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Solo and Ensemble Festival. Band and choir members from Chilton, Kiel, New Holstein, Plymouth, Sheboygan Falls, and Two Rivers High Schools will be here to compete in this festival.

In order to make this event a successful and memorable experience for our students, we will need many volunteer helpers to act as room chairpersons, office workers, and adult supervisors for contest rooms.

We are looking for people who can help for the day or half day, but even those parents who can spare a couple of hours will be greatly appreciated.

Please call Mr. Ammel (ext. 4570) or Mr. Bertelsen (ext. 4571) at the high school at 626-2166.

Your Local Library . . . Take a Look

February will be a busy month for our children's department. Along with our regular Half-Pint storytime on Wednesdays at 11:30 a.m., we will be having a Family Storytime program on Monday, February 8th at 6:30 p.m. This program is hosted by us in conjunction with the Celebrate Families activities that week. The main focus of Celebrate Families week is getting families involved with storytelling and reading as a leisure activity. Our program will be about a half hour long with a guest appearance by Margaret McFadden of Serendipity books in West Bend. We will be giving away three books to three of the children that attend the program that evening. Families, bring your children, and discover the joys of reading and hearing a story. Sign-up for a library card if you don't already have one!

The other new addition to our children's department is an elephant. That's right, a blue elephant book display, which should be arriving this month. This is what we have purchased with the Darlene Rohlinger Memorial funds. Thank you again to all of the people that donated money, this will really brighten up our children's section!

Not that anyone wants to think about this is February, but we have received the 1998 tax forms at the library. We have most of the common forms available, and the more unusual ones can be copied on our new copy machine. You no longer have to ask a staff member to copy something for you, and the fee is just 10¢ a copy!

Did you get some videos or audio books for Christmas that you really didn't want? Or did you get presents that you do want, but need to weed out your collection to make room for them? Consider donating your slightly used videotapes and audio books to the library. We would be happy to take them off of your hands! We will either add them to our collection, so other people can use them, or we will sell them to someone who will enjoy them.

The library is open: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

The following is a partial list of items that the library has purchased in December. If you see something you like, please come to see us. We are on the corner of Railroad and First Streets in the heart of the village. You are entitled to a free library card, no matter where you live in the state.

Turning Kids On to Reading

Storytime Programs at Area Libraries

Reading should be included in a child's leisure time activities. Because television-watching competes with reading, parents need to make an extra effort to encourage kids to read. Here are some ways to do this.

READING AND STORYTELLING AS A FAMILY ACTIVITY

Reading aloud to your children and storytelling may be better competition for TV than having children read on their own.

Set aside an hour or two each week for family reading or storytelling sessions. Parents and children can be involved in selecting and reading the stories. Books or long stories can be read in installments.

You can establish rituals such as telling ghost stories on rainy nights. Make reading aloud as exciting as possible. Use different voices for dialogue and add comments about what has happened or what will happen next.

With fidgety young listeners, skip over long descriptive passages and remember that toddlers have short attention spans. While you read, cuddle little children on your lap. They will then associate good feelings with reading. Although you may want to tape a few stories to be played when you are unavailable, this can never substitute for cozy, in-person reading.

TEACHING THROUGH STORIES

Storytelling is an ancient way of teaching lessons, morals and ideals. Children will listen to and learn more from a story than with a finger pointed at them.

For example, a story about a little beaver who got lost because he strayed from his mother, can teach a lesson. Family storytelling entertains and teaches children at the same time and because it requires nothing but your imagination, it can be done in any setting at any time.

SET A GOOD EXAMPLE

It's one thing to tell children that you want them to read, but if kids don't see you reading they won't become readers either. To encourage them, have books around the house and give them as gifts. You can also read interesting items aloud to your children from magazines and newspapers.

DON'T TURN LEISURE READING INTO A CHORE

One of the reasons children don't like to read is that it may seem too much like homework. It's up to parents to expose children to reading for pleasure. Discuss books and stories with your children. Ask how they feel about a character or why they like a particular scene, rather than quizzing them on facts or details.

LIMIT YOUR CHILD'S TV TIME

The average American child spends three to four hours a day in front of the TV. Try to limit TV time to one hour a day with exceptions for special programs. The other hours can be spent reading or doing other constructive activities. Never use TV as a punishment or reward because it makes it seem too important. Instead, make reading a special privilege. Let your child stay up half an hour later than usual if the time is spent reading.

MAKE YOUR

PUBLIC LIBRARY A FAMILY RESOURCE

Visit the library regularly to show your children the kind of books available. Children who are taken to the library regularly learn early that reading is for entertainment as well as for learning.

This plays an important role in their success in school. Ask the librarian to recommend books suited to your children's reading levels and interests and become acquainted with the children's books available there. To show children that books are important, teach your children to handle books carefully and make a fuss over the child's first library card.

KHS Dance Team Gives Awesome Performance at State Competition

The KHS dance team traveled to Wisconsin Rapids on Saturday, Jan 30 and fell just 30 points behind the first place team, according to coach Jennifer Bault. The team placed higher than half the schools who had competed at regionals and improved their score drastically. In last weeks Statesman we inadvertently mixed names and faces. We apologize for our mistake and present this correction. Dance team members are shown above, left to right. Bottom: Jill McKee. Middle: Mary Lehmann and Theresa Schultz. Top: Robyn Wolf, Brandon Weinhold and Vanessa Current. Missing from photo are Jessica Parrent, Stephanie Carlson and Kelli Jo Will. GREAT JOB!!!

Visit is Part of Judicial Exchange Program Judge Ziegler to Take Waukesha Appellate Bench

WEST BEND -- Judge Annette K. Ziegler, Washington County Circuit Court, has been selected to participate in the Wisconsin court system's Judicial Exchange Program. The program gives trial and appellate judges an opportunity to swap benches for an enhanced understanding of the issues facing the different levels of the courts, which can help them do their own jobs better.

Ziegler will participate in conferences with the Court of Appeals, District II, headquartered in Waukesha. She will study nine cases and participate in court conference discussions on all nine.

She will be assigned to write the opinion in one of the cases. In addition to Ziegler, the following circuit court judges will participate (one at a time) in the exchange with District II: Dale L. English, Fond du Lac County; Gary J. Langhoff, Sheboygan County; Robert G. Mawdsley, Waukesha County; Emily Mueller, Racine County, and S. Michael Wilk, Kenosha County.

District II, with four appellate judges, handles appeals from courts in the following counties: Calumet, Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Kenosha, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Racine, Sheboygan, Walworth, Washington, Waukesha and Winnebago. In the spring, District II Court of Appeals judges Daniel P. Anderson, Richard S. Brown and Neal P. Nettesheim will hear jury trials and motions calendars in the trial courts.

The Judicial Exchange Program started in Wisconsin in 1997 and was modeled after a similar program that has operated for years in the federal court system. Federal judges have found their program to be rewarding, but humbling.

100 Days Celebrated

Because the concept of 100 anything is important and difficult for younger students to grasp, classes in the district celebrated the 100th day of school this year with everything from math to reading activities. Here, Mrs. Ammel's second grade at Kewaskum Elementary School proudly wear their 100 days hats.

Cast Set for UWWC Spring Musical

WEST BEND -The cast has been chosen for the spring musical, "Blood Brothers" at the University of Wisconsin Washington County Theater-on-the-Hill.

The clash of life's stations -- the upper class British superiority -- is the theme of "Blood Brothers," whose story deals with the separation at birth of twin brothers. One is kept and raised by their impoverished single mother, the other adopted into a comfortable middle-class household.

In spite of their diverse circumstances, the brothers form a lasting friendship bond in childhood but are never aware of their real blood connection until an instant before they die -- as with their birth, only moments apart.

Mary Wittman of West Bend will play Mrs. Johnstone. Brad Herbst of Jackson will be the narrator of the story. Gregory Waala of West Bend will play Mickey. Paul Wolf of Menomonee Falls will play Eddie. Jan Ford of West Bend will play Mrs. Lyons. Becky Borkenhagen of West Bend will play Linda. Michael Heidenreich of Germantown will play Sammy and Jim Wittmann of West Bend will play Mr. Lyons.

Matthew Duket of West Bend will play the Policeman/Teacher. Kate Yahr of West Bend will play Donna Marie and Charlotte Bott of West Bend will play Miss Jones/Gynecologist. Arick Groth of West Bend will play Perkins/Rifle Range Man. Brenda (Linda's mate) will be played by Tiffany Sutton of Slinger.

Jade Scott of Slinger will play Catalog Man/Bus Conductor and Bruce Towell of Kewaskum will play Finance Man/Policeman II/Judge. Andrea Naffin of Mayville will play the New Tenant of Lyon's House and Christopher Minz of West Bend will play the Milkman.

Brad Ford, Professor of Theatre and Artistic Director of Theatre-on-the-Hill, has chosen Lisa Sharpee of Kewaskum to assist him with this performance.

"Blood Brothers" will be playing at the Theatre-on-the Hill at UWWC on February 26 and 27 and March 5 and 6. All performances begin at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $7 for adults and $5 for seniors and under 18 and can be reserved by calling 414-335-5208.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

January 28, 1999

Let me begin by saying I've been a Town Scott resident for 48 years and a taxpayer for 37. I now feel it necessary to step forward and speak out against what we now have going on at the present time. I never had any complaints in prior years.

I, first of all, want to begin by saying I express my thanks, respect and appreciation to our faithful former board members for their dedicated service who represented this community so well. Most of them have passed on, the fact, one quite recently, and to these loyal people again my hearty THANKS!

Now we have reached a new era, totally different logic and reasoning. I'd like to address two (2) issues at the present time, there are others, but this will suffice for now.

Back on August 25th I appeared before the Board of Review, as you all know. I left with the impression I might expect a 20% increase. Fellahs the math does not equate. I don't pretend to be a Harvard graduate, but to me it's a 62% increase.

Here are the figures and do your own math. A year ago we paid $1,591.63. This year the tax bill is $2,549.85 which is an increase of $958.22. Where I went to school this represents 62%, does it not??? This is quite different from what I expected. NO gossip or rumors Larry, these are facts.

The good news arrived at the mail box on 12/15 just in time for Christmas, made our holidays.

I want to say Larry, I am not a candidate for anything, so now that everyone knows that, I do want to say I think we are on a crash course headed for disaster.

Let me ask two questions. No. 1 How can anyone in good faith promote, vote for and convince themselves that they can justify a 100% salary increase. Unrealistic isn't it? Even I understand that from time to time salaries need to be re-evaluated, but how do you justify 100%?? Even our fat cats in Washington don't come close. I talked to some town officials in neighboring townships close to us and they are well aware of what's happening in Scott.

No. 2 is that project we now have going in Batavia. My question is this. What is the Town of Scott doing in the entertainment business?? Looks to me like we could better channel our resources, time and effort to a more useful purpose. We, as voters, had NO voice in this matter. Now our tax dollars are supposed to support it. I say to this present board and the people in the township who feel this is necessary and warranted LETS put it on a user fee basis and let the user's pay for it. In laymen's language this means make it pay for itself. I, for ONE don't need it and if I'm looking for entertainment I know where to find it.

We will first feel the impact of these expenditures on our next tax bill. Then come spring, we in the Kewaskum district (Ward 1) will be looking at another referendum for schools and it keeps going on.

This brings me back to square one. If we don't control spending in the township, what are we to do about this outside of our control such as reassessment???

I have no choice but to agree with Ira. If I understand him correctly, he is calling for sensible, necessary and conservative spending in a reasonable way.

Thank you!

A Concerned Citizen,
Henry P. Schacht

January 30, 1999

To the Kewaskum Statesman,

In response to Mr. Martin:

There are two things necessary to create a budget.

First make out a wish list --- then sit down to decide absolute necessities and whittle down the wish list to the affordability of the town.

Now two things could only have happened to our town budget. No. 1 The Board did not sit down to get the budget to our town affordability, or No. 2 The board figured the town could afford the budget as presented, therefore the town needed to take out a new loan of over $90,000 and increase the town tax of way over 30%.

When I was on the Board Mr. Martin would tell me that I should be ashamed of myself on some things. Now I think this board should be ashamed to even have presented a budget of this magnitude to the public.

It is time to get out and vote this election for individuals that can see the light (taxes) at the end of the tunnel.

Sincerely,
Ira Weber

Dear Editor,

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank all of the parents involved with the PTO at Farmington School for the wonderful work they do in supporting the staff and students there.

Through one-time and on-going fund-raisers, such as Market Day, they are able to provide money to be used for library books, extra classroom supplies, permanent equipment, and a variety of extras that we would not otherwise have.

A tremendous amount of effort goes into the production of the Christmas program, Halloween party, and spring concert. The PTO also organizes a Christmas craft workshop, in which children are taught to make a variety of beautiful Christmas gifts for the most important people in their lives. To organize the event, order materials, and find volunteers to help is an enormous job, since each child in the school makes two projects that day!

To the PTO at Farmington and at our other community schools: Thank you for all you do! Your efforts are appreciated by parents and staff alike. You make our schools a better place, and show our children what commitment to a community is all about.

Farmington D.A.R.E. Class Graduates

Farmington Elementary School fifth graders Katie Smith, left, and Pam Seil hold the DARE bears they were awarded for their positive attitudes they displayed throughout the DARE course. Jimmy Basterash and Danielle Yanke sport medallions they received for exceptional essays about what DARE had taught them.

Dignitaries and family members came to the Farmington Elementary School gym recently to watch the graduation ceremony of fifth graders who had successfully completed the D.A.R.E. program.

Over the past several weeks, Washington County Sheriff's Deputy Bausch taught the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) program to fifth graders, helping them learn reasons and strategies for saying "no" to drugs and violence.

Fifth graders read essays, performed skits, and sang a song pertaining to the lessons they had learned over the course of the program. James Brigowatz, Danielle Yanke, Jimmy Basterash and Jackie McKee were chosen to share their essays during the ceremony.

Pam Seil and Katie Smith were recognized with the "DARE bear" for positive and helping attitudes over the course of the class. Jimmy Basterash and Danielle Yanke received medallions for exceptional DARE essays.

Joining in the ceremony were a number of special guests, including State Representative Glenn Grothman, Milwaukee WAVE member Michael King, a representative sent by Governor Tommy Thompson, district administrators and D.A.R.E. role models from Kewaskum High School: Josh Gaffke, Ann Bausch, Joel Hermann and Emma Chambers.

Cake and other refreshments, sponsored by the Farmington PTO, followed the festivities.

Milwaukee WAVE soccer all-star Michael King poses with fifth grader Leann Kison. Leann had written to King, calling him one of her role models. He responded by coming out to Farmington to speak during the DARE graduation, and by providing Leann with some special WAVE souvenirs.

State Representative Glenn Grothman signs the shirt of DARE graduate Adam Nothem as a memento.

Record Numbers of American Robins Are Spending the Winter in Wisconsin

Over the past few weeks many people have commented about large numbers of robins which have been sighted around Wisconsin this year. Many have been asking why they are here and what they can do.

Every winter a few robins remain in southern Wisconsin and are found on the winter bird surveys, however, this year was exceptional. The robins were essentially fooled into remaining in the state during December's mild weather.

The unusually warm weather of the first three weeks induced them to stay longer than they should have. Around Christmas we experienced the first cold weather that brought ice to the remaining open water followed soon afterwards by deep snow. The robins now had to use their remaining energy just to stay warm and for most of them they probably didn't have the fat reserves to undertake a migration even if they wanted to.

With so many robins being stranded in Wisconsin during a season of deep snow and cold temperature many people are encountering flocks in small numbers to as many as 50 to 100 birds or more.

Their presence draws our sympathy and raises a lot of questions. Perhaps some of the reasons that people are drawn to robins is that they are easily recognized, they are our state bird and are so widely distributed that everyone knows and sees them. Also, as our traditional sign of spring we recognize that they don't belong here at this time of the year -- or at least not this many!

The challenges for these stranded robins is to maintain their body temperature and condition during the cold weather. Fortunately we only experienced severe weather for a short time, but there's a lot of winter remaining. Most of these birds are feeding on dried berries during the day. In particular, they are eating high bush cranberry, mountain ash, crab apples and hackberries.

Unfortunately, this is a finite food supply and may eventually run out. During the evenings they are seeking thermal shelter -- protection against the cold. Dense stands of spruce trees provide the best shelter for them.

So what can we do to help them? Keep in mind that robins are not seed eaters so will not be attracted to a traditional bird feeder. They might be lured near the house simply because the activity of other birds may catch their attention. Among some of the food that can be offered are small bits of cut up apples and raisins.

However, the apple will soon freeze in extreme temperatures and since they are not in the habit of feeding on food we offer they may not readily recognize that our offerings are there to help them.

Robins also have a real need for high protein food at this time and the dried berries and fruit may not offer them the well rounded diet they require. One suggestion that has been offered by the bird specialists is to take a high protein dog food, such as Science Diet brand, and soak this in warm water overnight.

This should be set out for the birds, but due to the large amount of water in the food it will freeze quite quickly. Therefore, it is suggested to try to put out some raisins and other dried fruit offerings to entice them and once they establish a habit of coming to the food, begin to put out the dog food.

Also be sure not to put out too much food at one time so that it all freezes before it's eaten. Old bread, donuts, hamburger, hot dogs and such food should not be fed to the birds since this is not a well rounded diet to help them maintain themselves over the remainder of the year.

In the end, certainly some, if not a significant number of robins won't make it through this winter. No doubt some have already perished and others will follow. However, we can try and intervene or assist as best as we can to help them survive and get as many as possible through the winter.

From another point of view, this can also be seen as just one of those unusual years where nature caught some of these birds off guard and some of them will pay with their life. Only the hardiest of robins will survive an entire winter like this in Wisconsin.

Still, come next spring, those that remain and the others of their kind that did manage to escape to the south will return to nest and again add to their numbers. While nature may seem cruel and unusual in our eyes, it is just one of those rare natural events which challenge individuals while the population as a whole will withstand this catastrophe in the long run.

Budget Surplus Update

By Rep. Glenn Grothman

There have been many articles talking about a budget surplus at a state level.

This is caused by a strong economy where sales tax receipts are up 6.6% at a time when inflation is 1.3%. It is apparent from the quotes of various politicians from both parties that they view this as a license to expand government.

We can expect proposals in the next month for entirely new government responsibilities as well as expanding spending. Government officials will say we need to spend this money. Hogwash.

A new study by Legislative Fiscal Bureau comparing the years 1977 to 1987 to 1997 proves illuminating in showing that if the money isn't there, politicians don't have to spend it. But when the economy goes well -- everything is a necessity.

The ten years from 1977 to 1987 were bad years for the economy. There was high inflation and high unemployment. And after adjusting for inflation the combined income, sales and property taxes in the state rose only 12.5% after inflation. Real income tax revenue actually dropped 4.0%.

The boom from 1987 to 1997 is well documented. The cut in defense spending from end of the cold war has caused interest rates to drop and the economy to boom. In real terms combined sales, property, and income tax revenue jumped 36.4% and the politicians managed to spend it all.

People frequently say that government is the safety net and must spend more during tough times. Welfare rolls go up. People without jobs go back to school causing university and technical school enrollments to climb, which costs more money. Nevertheless, during the tough times between 1977 and 1987 government grew only a little faster than the population.

In the boom times, it expanded incredibly. Real increased prison costs in the last ten years were only slightly more than the prior ten years and was not the cause of the problem. Oddly, the largest fee in state government -- university tuition -- also rose slightly quicker in the boom times than during bad times.

Inflation is now 1.3% -- that is the cost by which businesses, farms and retail outlets are increasing their costs. In the next few months, the universities, the schools, the prevention programs, the bureaucracies in Madison, and local units of government will all claim they need more money. I disagree.

It is inexcusable that in this budget the total expected take for sales, income and property tax exceed 1.3%. Any excess means tax rates are too high and should be cut.

Don't Lose Sight Of Diabetes Dangers

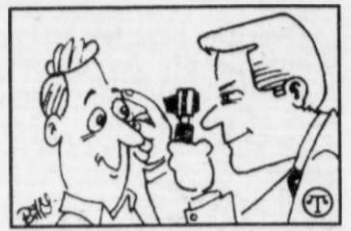

(NAPS)—About half of all people diagnosed with diabetes have at least early signs of diabetic retinopathy, the most common form of diabetic eye disease. Fortunately, there are ways to catch and treat the disease before permanent damage is done.

Diabetic retinopathy damages the tiny blood vessels in the retina, the light-sensitive tissue that lines the back of the eye. As many as 25,000 people go blind from the disorder each year, making it a leading cause of blindness among working-age Americans.

Diabetic eye disease can be detected through dilated eye examinations, which are recommended at least once a year. Severe vision loss or blindness can be prevented in over 90 percent of the cases, if discovered in time.

According to the National Eye Institute, part of the federal government's National Institutes of Health, it is important for people to understand the need for regular dilated eye exams before any vision is lost. Diabetic retinopathy has no early symptoms, and visual impairment does not develop until the disease has advanced into its later stages. At this point, however, lost vision is unlikely to be restored.

Virtually all people who have had Type 1 diabetes for at least 15 years have some degree of diabetic retinopathy. About one quarter of persons with Type 2 diabetes had some retinopathy at the time their diabetes was discovered. After ten years of diabetes, this increases to more than 50 percent. The longer a person has had diabetes, the greater the risk of developing diabetic retinopathy and other eye complications.

By receiving a dilated eye exam at least once a year, individuals with diabetes can protect themselves against vision loss.

"As science moves forward in its study of diabetic eye disease, it is likely that new treatments will result from basic and clinical research," said Dr. Carl Kupfer, Director of the National Eye Institute. "Improved treatment, coupled with heightened public awareness, should go far toward reducing diabetic eye disease as a national health problem."

Dr. Kupfer pointed out that "even with effective treatment for diabetic retinopathy, eye care professionals are seeing only half of the people at risk for this disease."

The National Eye Institute is supporting a number of research studies to learn what causes diabetic retinopathy and how to better detect and treat the disease.

A free brochure, "Don't Lose Sight of Diabetic Eye Disease," is available by writing to Diabetic Eye Disease, 2020 Vision Place, Bethesda, MD 20892-3655.

County Requests Grant for Ackerman Property Purchase

MILWAUKEE -- Washington County submitted a request for a $450,000 matching grant from the Department of Natural Resources to help with the purchase of the 63-acre Ackerman property located on the eastern shore of Little Cedar Lake in Washington County.

A combination of a $250,000 Stewardship and a $200,000 Lake Protection Grant will be used for the project.

Washington County will use the parcel as a multi-use, multi-seasonal county park and will apply for permits to provide a public swimming beach, a handicapped accessible fishing pier, improvement of the boat launch and a detention pond to reduce sedimentation and improve water quality of Little Cedar Lake.

The park will also provide play fields, walking and cross country skiing trails, playground equipment, bathroom facilities, a picnic area and a sledding hill. The boat launch would provide 16 car/trailer parking spaces, the maximum level permitted by state code for a lake this size. Shoreline protection measures will be installed, and portions of the parcel will be planted with trees or prairie vegetation.

The Department has prepared an Environmental Assessment (EA) of the Ackerman Park project and awarding the state matching grants is contingent upon completion of the EA review process. As part of this assessment, the Department has made a preliminary determination that an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) is not required. Copies of the Environmental Assessment can be reviewed at the DNR Southeast District Headquarters, 2300 N. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Dr., Milwaukee; West Bend Library, 230 South 6th Avenue; and West Bend Town Hall, 6355 County Trunk Highway Z.

For additional project or grant information, contact Heidi Bunk, Environmental Grants Specialist at (414) 263-8490 or Tom Blotz, Regional Government Outreach Supervisor at (414) 263-8610. Comments on the proposed project are welcome and should be received by the Department no later than 4:30 p.m. on Friday, February 26, 1999.

Sturgeon Spearing Licenses Available

MADISON -- The 1999 Wisconsin Sturgeon Spearing Season will open February 13 and is scheduled to run through February 28. Sturgeon spearing licenses are now being sold using the Department of Natural Resources' new Automated License Issuance System.

At this time there are only about 80 sites that have the new issuance system, which does limit the availability of sturgeon spearing licenses. The following sites around the Lake Winnebago area have sturgeon licenses:

CALUMET COUNTY - Calumet County Clerk, Chilton; Countryside Bar and Grill, Menasha; Fish-tale Inn, Hilbert; Gene and Helen's Bar, Potter; Karl's Hardware, Stockbridge.

FOND DU LAC COUNTY - Dutch's Trading Post, Fond du Lac; Fond du Lac County Clerk, Fond du Lac; Jim and Linda's Lakeview Club, Malone; Ripon Ace Hardware, Ripon; Wendt's on the Lake, Van Dyne.

OUTAGAME COUNTY - The Sportsman, Appleton.

WINNEBAGO COUNTY - DNR Service Center, Oshkosh; Fox River Bait and Tackle, Oshkosh; Krueger True Value, Neenah;

Twin City Bev. Bait and Tackle, Neenah.

In addition, DNR Service Centers throughout the state also have licenses on sale. Licenses can also be purchased by telephone using a credit card by calling 608-266-2621. A social security number will be required when purchasing by phone; and residents are reminded to have their driver's license number available as well as a credit card number.

Program on Landscaping With Wisconsin Native Plants

The Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest invites you to another program in the Evening with Nature Series - Landscaping with Wisconsin Native Plants. The program will be held on Thursday, February 11, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center. The Ice Age Visitor Center is located off of Highway 67, one-half mile west of Dundee.

The snow and cold of winter may have you singing the blues, but it's not too early to think about those warm weather gardening projects. This year why not try something a little different -- planting Wisconsin native grasses, flowers, shrubs and trees into your yard. Plants native to Wisconsin are adapted to our climate, soils and pests so they need much less water, fertilizer and pesticides.

Randy Powers, owner of Prairie Future Seed Company, will share his unique knowledge of native plants. He will offer tips on what plants do well in what areas, on where to find sources of native plants, and on how to care for a native landscape. If you're an experienced gardener or just a beginner, Randy will help you become better acquainted with Wisconsin's beautiful and hearty native flora.

For further information or directions to the Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center, please contact Jackie S. Scharfenberg, forest naturalist. She may be reached at (920) 533-8322, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Hunters Gain More Time to Register Turkeys After Hunt

MADISON -- A change to longer hunting hours for the spring 1999 turkey hunting season also has lengthened the time a hunter has to register a bird, but carcass tags sent to hunters incorrectly list the old registration times. The correct registration deadline is 5 p.m. of the day following the day the bird was killed, according to Department of Natural Resources wildlife officials.

Spring 1999 turkey carcass tags incorrectly read that any turkey harvested must be registered by 2 p.m. of the day it was killed. That 2 p.m. deadline dates to 1983, when turkey hunting started in Wisconsin.

Starting this spring, however, hunting hours have been expanded until 5 p.m., instead of the traditional noon closing turkey hunters experienced in past years. Registration requirements are also expanded, allowed until 5 p.m. of the day following the harvest. Hunters should disregard the registration time requirement printed on the carcass tag and make sure that all birds harvested are registered by 5 p.m. on the day following the day the turkey was killed.

A total of 111,792 permits are available for the spring hunt. This year, 128,000 hunters applied for permits, up from 110,000 in 1997. Hunters applying for specific hunting periods will not be offered permits for other periods unless they indicate that they are willing to accept a permit for a period other than their preferred choice.

Pay Attention to Tires in Winter

The winter of 1999 is proving to be a doozy, and AAA Wisconsin is urging motorists to pay close attention to where the rubber meets the road.

"Tires are the most important safety devices on an automobile," said AAA Wisconsin spokesman Michael Bie. "The very function of steering and braking depends on the traction between the tire and the road."

To prevent a potentially dangerous situation, AAA recommends vehicle owners give their tires a complete checkup, including the amount of tread and inflation level.

"Skidding down an icy road out of control probably isn't the best time to review your tire needs," Bie said. "Take a few minutes now to avoid a scary situation later."

First, check the pressure to make sure tires have the amount of air recommended by the manufacturer. Over- and under-inflated tires have less contact with the road which results in less traction. Tires will also wear out prematurely when not inflated properly.

"There is an old theory that taking some of the air out of your tires will increase traction on ice and snow," Bie said. "This is not true. Tires should always be inflated to the manufacturer's recommended level."

Next, it is important to check the amount of tread on each tire. Although the legal requirement in most states is 1/16 inch of tread, it is best to play it safe and replace tires when the tread becomes 1/8 inch in depth.

"By investing $5 on an air pressure gauge and tread depth gauge, motorists can help ensure safe winter driving this year," Bie said. "It is important to balance and rotate tires on a regular basis to avoid even tread wear and shortened tire life."

AAA Wisconsin is a not-for-profit membership organization offering travel, insurance, financial and auto-related services to more than 538,000 members statewide through 13 office locations.

St. Lucas Shows Heart

The St. Lucas 76'ers spent an exciting weekend playing basketball against a tough opponent, the Peace Hartford Panthers.

The Panthers were gracious hosts to the 76'ers. The girls "B" team went down to the wire, with a shot by the Panthers with three seconds left, but the 76'ers were victorious with a score of 21-20. A superior effort was given by the entire team.

The boys "B" team faced a strong opponent they could not overcome. The Panthers showed strong defensive rebounding and ended the game by a score of 25-8.

The girls "A" team faced some adversity before the game even started, with several of the team members home with sickness. The Panthers took advantage of a small bench, and held the 76'ers to only six points for the entire game. The final score was 29-6.

The boys "A" team came ready to play a strong Panther team. It was an extremely physical and fast paced game. The 76'ers played superlative defense and were able to capitalize on several offensive rebounds and steals by Andrew Marquardt. When the final buzzer blew at the end of regulation, the score was tied. In overtime, the 76'ers continued to play hard. Key rebounding plays by Bryan Becht and Braedy Long earned the 76'ers the final victory with a score of 34-32.

Not only did the "B" girls play against the Panthers on Friday night, but they were also invited to a tournament hosted by Good Shepherd of West Bend.

Their first opponent was Good Shepherd on Wednesday, January 27. Defense and good team effort gave them a three point victory.

They then moved into the next bracket playing Calvary of Thiensville on Thursday. It was a nail biter down to the end, but the 76'ers could not capitalize on this game.

Their next game was against St. Francis Cabrini on Saturday morning for third place. This was the fourth game in as many days that these fourth, fifth and sixth grade girls had to play, and a strong press by St. Francis took all the energy out of the 76'ers.

The 76'ers played hard but St. Francis was fresher and stronger than the 76'ers. We congratulate the "B" girls for showing great sportsmanship and representing St. Lucas at their first tournament.

Monaco is one of the smallest countries in the world. Located on the French Riviera coast, Monaco has an area of only 0.58 square miles and in places stretches only 200 yards inland from the Mediterranean.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Plan Commission
December 8, 1998
7:00 p.m.

The Plan Commission of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Robert H. Wagner called the meeting to order. Members present were Frank Beesten, Warren Dums, Michael Kimble, Theodore Meilahn, Charles Waala and Administrator Daniel Schmidt. A quorum was present. Richard Schmidt asked to be excused and was absent.

Trustee Robert Stoltzmann and Zoning Administrator Gordon Hoffmann were also present for the discussion.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and the Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by Michael Kimble and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Commission approved the minutes as printed, for October 27, 1998.

Discussion was held on the proposed preliminary plat known as the LB Entrepreneurs, LLC parcel located to the north of CTH H (37.83 acres including roadways) rezoned R-1 Single-Family Residence District. The property is known by tax key number V4-0182-00Z. It was also noted the layout is in conformance with the sketches as reviewed by the Plan Commission during the land use planning process by Attorney Karen Christanson. The Commission discussed the radius of the cul de sac and indicated it needs to be 70 feet. One other point of discussion was to have a pedestrian pathway extend south from the park. It was debated if the need exists to have it extend one or two blocks south. It was noted that if the access can be maintained for the trail system by going only through one or one half block that would be okay. Also that there will be several other locations within the village as development occurs that will need pathway access. A few other items were brought up for discussion and it was noted they would be addressed in the developer's agreement. One of those was the connection point to the existing Edgewood Road. The Commission indicated that if possible, to pursue construction of the entire Edgewood Road for safety concerns.

On a motion by Charles Waala, seconded by Theodore Meilahn and unanimously carried by voice vote the Commission send forward the preliminary plat as reviewed with the noted amendments needed.

In response to a sign permit, discussion was held on portable/temporary signs. It was felt stricter requirements needed to be in place and that an ordinance be sent to the Village Board prior to the Zoning Ordinance revision. Zoning Administrator Gordon Hoffmann suggested some alternatives and Rick Kania of SEWRPC did the same. It was suggested some alternative should be brought back to the Commission before sending the matter to the Village Board.

Mr. Rick Kania from SEWRPC was present to review suggested changes to the Zoning Ordinance with the Commission. The new draft zoning map was reviewed in color and black and white. It was suggested that on some map all existing uses even if by non conformance be recorded. Mr. Kania said the matter would be discussed.

Mr. Kania informed the Commission that the Shoreland designation was a State requirement on all lands annexed since 1982. The line is to be located 300' from any navigable stream and 1,000' from any pond or lake. Charles Waala informed the Commission that his employer is relocating him and the need for his resignation exists. He thanked the commission for the privilege of serving and for the knowledge he has acquired.

Chairman Robert Wagner thanked Mr. Waala for his years of service on the Plan Commission and his years on the Village Board. He informed him he would be missed. He also asked the Commissioners if they new of some one interested, to bring the name forward.

On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by Theodore Meilahn and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Commission adjourned the meeting. Roll call vote was 6 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 1 "Absent."

Tigers Are Too Much For the Lady Indians

A dismal first quarter showed to be the winning factor for the Chilton Tigers, as they beat the Kewaskum Indians, 54-50, last Friday night.

The first quarter score was 15-2, with the Indians fouling left and right. That score seemed to wake up the girls on Parents Night, and they outscored Chilton in each of the following periods. The crowd was into the game, and the Indians started to play with real intensity and passion.

To start the game, Chilton went on a 13-0 run. Kewaskum's man-to-man defense didn't seem to be doing the trick, so Coach Sonnabend decided to make a defensive change. In the second quarter, the Indians came out in a match-up zone defense.

That seemed to be of help in that the Indians outscored the Tigers, 19-14. Kewaskum out-rebounded Chilton (15-5), as well. The result was Sarah Schwinn hit nine of her ten points. Going into the locker room, the girls were still down, 29-21, but they could feel the comeback brewing.

Point guard Jenny Kraft led the troops in the third quarter, scoring 11 of her team-high 17 points, including two of her three three-pointers. The fans were on their feet and ready for a victory.

The girls switched defenses once again, going into a box-and-one zone against Chilton's star player, Cindy Steffan. Kewaskum went into the fourth quarter down by only five points.

The final quarter of play was exciting for both Kewaskum and Chilton. Little by little, the Indians kept chipping away at the Tiger's lead, until a pair of free-throws by Kraft cut the lead to only two, 49-47.

But that was as close as Kewaskum would get. Steffan made four of six free throws in the last few minutes of the game, and she helped put the seal on the win. Kraft fouled out with about a minute left in the game, followed promptly by Dani Nass, who scored Kewaskum's only points of the first quarter. Amy Piwoni banked in a three-point shot with seven seconds to go, but it wasn't enough, and Chilton won the last conference game they would play against Kewaskum.

Kewaskum's record dropped to 7-7, 5-4 in conference play. Steffan led all players with 22 points. Kraft had 17 for Kewaskum, and Schwinn added 10, with an incredible 18 rebounds, and four assists. Piwoni and Laura Schwinn both chipped in with five. The Schwinn twins each had two steals, and Kewaskum only had nine turnovers on the game.

Kewaskum played at New Holstein on Tuesday, February 2, and will be at Two Rivers on Friday, February 5.

KHS JV Girls Conquer Chilton On Parents Night

The Kewaskum girls JV team won, 42-36, against Chilton on Parents Night. Kewaskum came from behind to win in an exciting fourth quarter. The whole team put forth great effort for the win.

Kewaskum JV Coach Dan Ross commented, "This was the most satisfying win for the team so far this season."

The first quarter was close, with Chilton leading, 9-8. In the second quarter, Chilton pulled away from Kewaskum, 21-15. Kewaskum's foul trouble put Chilton into the bonus free throws, early in both halves of the game.

Kewaskum started the second half fired up and ready to win. Kewaskum narrowed the gap to two points in the third quarter by scoring 10 points to Chilton's six. After trailing Chilton for the first three quarters, Kewaskum came awake at just the right time. In the fourth quarter Kewaskum scored 17 points to surge ahead and seize the win. Thirteen of Kewaskum's 17 points in the fourth quarter resulted from free throws. Kewaskum overall was 14 for 19 from the free throw line.

"It was nice to see the team come from behind and win the home game on Parents Night. Our girls played a good game tonight," commented Coach Ross. Winning in front of the large home crowd of proud parents and students was very satisfying for the team. High scorer for Kewaskum was Lynn Wiesner with 16 points. Colleen Gosa led Kewaskum in rebounds with eight and also had four steals. Bridget Polzean had three assists and blocked two shots.

High scorers for Chilton was Woelfel with 14 points and Gross with eight points.

Indians Bury Raiders

The Kewaskum boys varsity basketball team continued their improved play as they defeated the host Kiel Raiders last Tuesday, 52-34.

The Indians turned in a defensive gem as they held Kiel to single digit scoring in three of four quarters. KHS forced 27 turnovers with their full court pressure defense.

"Our kids handled their full court pressure very well. We knew they'd attack with their 2-2-1, so we worked on it in practice. We countered them with a 3/4 court diamond press that was productive for us. We anticipated well," Coach Tom Timblin said.

John Warnecke scored nine points to stake the Indians to a 19-12 first half lead. Andy Christophersen and Josh Gaffke also chipped in with five apiece.

The third quarter saw Kiel rally to cut the Kewaskum lead down to one point. The Indians regained their composure, withstood the Raiders' run and built up a seven point lead by the end of the third quarter.

Kiel decided to test Kewaskum's free throw shooting ability in the final stanza and the Indians were up to the task, making 13 of 17.

Warnecke led the barrage from the charity stripe, converting eight of 10 attempts. "I'm happy for all the kids, everyone on the roster scored and contributed, especially the seniors," Timblin said, adding, "John continued to put up all conference type numbers. Andy had a great floor game and Josh directed the offense with confidence. Shaun Timblin quietly pulled down 11 boards."

Warnecke is currently fourth in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference scoring race with an 18.2 average.

Kewaskum will host Two Rivers Friday night. The freshmen and JVs play at 6, followed by the varsity at 7:30 p.m.
