United Way: $1,080,000 Campaign Underway

Community volunteers began the 1999 United Way Washington County Campaign on September 2 at the Paradise Movie Theaters in West Bend. The fun theme for volunteers this year is MOVIES, and the theater provided the perfect setting. The local campaign video was shown on the big screen, and many movie references were made by the speakers.

In the Kewaskum Division, the Division Leader is Doug Reigle of Regal Ware. A thermometer charting the progress of the county-wide campaign is at St. Francis Bank in Kewaskum. Eleven other thermometers can also be seen around the County.

Twenty-four area businesses and organizations are Pacesetters for the 1999 United Way campaign. United Way pacesetters started their campaigns on August 20. They run early campaigns and "set the pace" for their divisions in the campaign. Results for Pacesetters were announced on September 2nd. To date, $113, 792 has been raised in gifts and pledges, which is 10.5 percent of the overall the In our area, Pacesetter was the Kewaskum School District, Mo Josten, Campaign Chairperson, stated that "The Kewaskum School District continues to shine as a star of the campaign. They had a 9 percent increase over last year's giving. Congratulations and thank you!"

Ten Contestants Will Lose the Opportunity to Kiss the Pig

Everytime I back off and do not chide and cajole you voters, you slack off on me. To put it bluntly, voting was very light this past week. Everyone must have been saving up for the long holiday weekend, or perhaps you're all just waiting until the big finish on Saturday to stuff the ballot bags.

It was that or the fact I didn't do any nagging in last week's issue. Now it's common knowledge that, like every other woman, I HATE to nag... just ask my husband and kids. Right, guys?? RIGHT GUYS!/!??

Of course, men, the common sense theory is, if you would only do what we women ask... the first time we ask... then we'd shut up. (Somewhat).

It must be a gender thing, and I think it starts at birth, I mean the ability to just tune out the female voice. I live in an "all male" household... three sons and one husband. (Yes folks, I'M the one who has to put the toliet seat back DOWN!)

In the past 19 years, I have observed male selective hearing starts at a very early age... perhaps even at birth. Nah, at birth the male species just loves to hear the soothing sounds of mama's voice... or do they? When DO they start turning a deaf ear on the female vocal chords?

I guess I've really strayed off the beaten (piggy) path here. The point is, I truly don't want to nag you normally generous voters, but if I don't nag, you forget to vote and then on Sunday, everyone will be complaining because their favorite contestants will be eliminated. I take this very personally and I just can't handle all the guilt.

And at this stage of the game, we have to start getting serious here. There's only a few days left before 10 more candidates are eliminated. It's getting down to the wire here folks... ten candidates WILL FALL! These people need your support!

And, believe me, I just know how awful these candidates will feel if they have to fall by the wayside. Everyone knows that all of our candidates want to remain as contenders... (yeah, right!) The truth is, I guess, that 10 will be breathing much easier next week at this time. That's no fun!

To make an already long story short, I really didn't have the opportunity to see piggy much this long weekend. I did make contact with piggy's cousin, Ziggy, on Sunday. Of course, he was rotating on a spit and didn't have much to talk about other than the heat... if you get my drift.

However, I finally did get through to piggy on his cell phone on Monday as he was traveling home from a holiday fishing trip up north. He just loves those long holiday weekends! He was, however, a little upset that he had to miss Ziggy's "hot" party on Sunday. Guess he didn't have a chance to say goodbye.

Piggy was doing quite a bit of bragging about all the fish he caught up north. Seems he's developed a real taste for that "other white

Piggy also stated that he was not ready for an interview until after the elimination on Saturday. He simply cannot discuss all those lips to kiss and precisely who is his favorite. He seems to be very excited by all the attention but he still maintains it will be much easier to talk about when there are only ten contestants remaining.

Piggy asked me to remind all the voters that they only have a few days to vote for his favorites and that you can vote at the Silver Platter Restaurant, the Video Post, the Kewaskum Statesman and the newest polling booth at Kewaskum Mobil.

And if you still want to remain anonymous, as many of you have done voting for Police Chief Richard Knoebel, send your money

Keeping Track of Your Social Security Record

If you're like most people, you're much more likely to know how much you have in your savings account or your 401 (k) than you do in your Social Security record. The fact is, most people take Social Security for granted, probably because the tax is automatically taken from their paychecks.

The stakes are high. The amount of earnings credited to your Social Security record determines whether you can qualify for retirement or disability benefits, or survivors benefits for your family, as well as the amount of your benefit. These benefits are likely to constitute a substantial portion of your retirement income, and perhaps your major income if you become disabled or for your family when you die.

There are definite steps you can take to make sure your Social Security earnings records are correct. They include:

They include: PROTECT YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

You should protect your Social Security card and number, the key to your Social Security earnings record. The nine digit number identifies your earnings records and permits Social Security to credit your earnings correctly.

If you lose the card, you can get an application for a duplicate card by calling your local Social Security office. You should show your Social Security card to your employer when you start a job and try not to give it verbally.

UWWC Offers a Variety Of Non-Credit Classes

West Bend -- The Continuing Education Department at the University of Wisconsin Washington County will be offering a variety of noncredit classes during the fall and winter months.

Introduction to the Internet will meet from 6:00-9:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 29. Keep up with your children and grandchildren, find out how to surf the web. Learn how the internet can make your life easier through online travel reservations, banking, and shopping. The fee is $45.

Introduction to Swain Personality Styles - A Key to Understanding People will meet from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. on Tuesday, September 28. Learn how our personality preferences affect our relationships at work, our communication with others, and our ability to problem solve at home and at work. The fee is $20.

For further information on these classes or to register contact the Department of Continuing Education at 335-5236.

KEEP YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY RECORD UP-TO-DATE

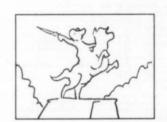

You should be sure to keep your Social Security record up-to-date. For example, if, because of marriage, divorce, adoption, etc., you change the name you use for work or other official business, be sure to apply for a corrected Social Security card

And once you make the change, be sure to use the name consistently for work, banking and filing income tax returns.

CHECK YOUR EARNINGS EVERY THREE YEARS

Social Security suggests that you check the earnings credited to your account at least once every three years. You can keep track of your earnings record easily by calling and requesting a Personal Earnings and Benefit Estimate Statement (PEBES). If there is an error in the earnings reported to your record, you should contact Social Security as soon as possible. If you have the necessary documents showing your earnings, the correction can actually be made online. If you wait longer than three years, it may be difficult to correct the earnings record using the employer's records.

As of October 1, 1999, all workers over 25 will be receiving the statement automatically. This will make it easier to stay on your Social Security earnings record.

New Exercise Program Tailored For Diabetics' Special Needs

Diabetics are taking steps toward healthier living thanks to a new exercise program made just for them. Rehabilitation specialists at St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend developed the diabetic exercise program based on growing evidence that exercise can lower blood sugar, help the body better use its food supply, and reduce the risk of cardiovascular disease, a leading killer of people with diabetes.

The program benefits people with Type I and Type II diabetes, and other complications such as neuropathy, blindness and amputation. Participation has grown since classes began earlier this spring. According to the hospital, it is the only exercise program of this kind -- hospital-based and designed for diabetics - in the state.

Maggie Seideman, R.N., of the hospital's rehabilitation services department, said several long-term studies have shown a sustained improvement in glucose control for diabetics who maintain an exercise program on a nearly daily basis.

"With this program, we're mainly looking to get people to exercise when they have diabetes, and to exercise the right way," said Seideman. "They know that the exercises they do here they can do at home also, and they feel comfortable with that."

Other benefits of exercise for those with diabetes, she explained, are:

Improved strength and ability to do work and other activities; Decreased risk of heart attack and stroke; Decreased total cholesterol and LDL (bad cholesterol), and an increase in HDL (good cholesterol); Increased sensitivity to insulin; Decrease in the amount of insulin needed to maintain normal blood sugar. Increased amounts of insulin in the bloodstream is a risk factor for building up plaque in the arteries leading to heart disease and stroke; Reduction in body fat and weight; Increase in muscle mass; Prevention of osteoporosis and bone fractures; Control of high blood pressure; Improved quality of life and reduction in psychological stress.

The diabetic exercise program consists of twice-weekly classes of an hour and 15 minutes in length. Each class has an educational component, in which participants learn about diet, timing of medications and food, foot care and sick time, and also share experiences and insights on the disease.

The exercise segment of the class starts with warm-ups and proceeds on to light hand weights and exercise equipment, such as stationary bikes. The exercise level is determined on an individual basis, and blood sugars are monitored.

Program instructors are Seideman, R.N., Judy Schuh, R.N., and Michelle Simpson, R.N. In addition, the hospital's certified diabetic educator provides education and assistance.

For more information about the program, call Maggie Seideman in the rehabilitation services department at St. Joseph's Community Hospital, 334-8595.

Dirty Denim Is Making A Splash On Runways

(NAPS)—Here is the dirt on what's in fashion: Worn, used and even paint-stained jeans have been spotted this season. Fashion experts anticipate that these styles will become even more popular in the coming months.

Denim has been heralded as the fabric of the millennium and as technology catapults itself way beyond what the average Joe could have imagined trends and styles are shifting. Denim dives into the future reinventing itself for the approaching decade by getting inspiration from the working class hero.

That Last Rose

by Ami

Somehow I never seem to get over the deep yearning always called forth from my heart when discovering "that last rose of summer." Its abiding beauty ever stirs within me an unexplainable sadness. And one cannot help but admire its courage to bloom so late in the season. Like the maternal old hen hatching a batch of downy chicks recklessly counting on sunny-warm days when in reality the cold of fall will "do them in!"

The blessing flowers bring to the earth indeed is a favor of the Creator Himself. Just to think of the great variety of blossoms, colors and fragrances portends joy. Yes, even to the point, sometimes, or unbelief. Like when I discovered, recently, a prairie orchid delicately adjorning a Kettle hillside. I had never seen this particular species before. What a find. I've lost count as to how many friends I shared this special flower with.

Looking into the blossom of "that last rose" stirs one with a host of thoughts. No more this year. Why bloom at this time when you surely will be bowed to the earth, deadened by the cold? Yes, and wouldn't it be wonderful if you could bloom right into those wintry months approaching?

The seasonal cruelty of Mother Nature sometimes is difficult to accept. Like breaking your leg or arm during your busiest time of the year. That last rose...you want to take it and hold it and wish that magically it could bloom on forever. But this is not possible. Why even allow such thoughts to come to mind?

And thus, as reality strikes home, we bid the wayward blossom a sad goodbye hoping that one day, at another time, there will be other roses to take its place. Other courageous blossoms to brighten our days and years. Yes, OTHER LAST ROSES to lift our spirits and give a ray of hope where there is destruction and gloom. Thanks for letting me share with you "the last rose."

Back To School Goes Online!

(NAPS)—After a successful online Christmas last year, most annual shopping trips are making their way online. The latest addition is back to school. The dread of school-children everywhere, it has become an unpleasant experience with long lines and jammed parking lots.

In order to ease this annual burden on parents and schoolchildren everywhere, a new Web site debuted to make back to school shopping quick and painless.

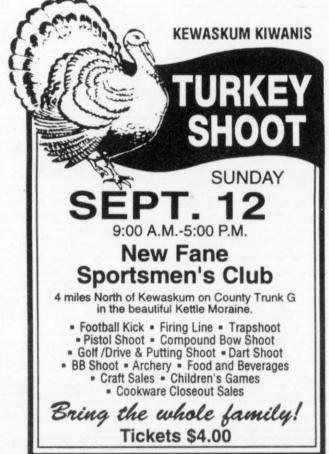

Backtoschoolnow.com is an easy-to-use site that allows parents and children to point, click and buy instead of searching through a store filled with thousands of products. The supplies are bundled according to grade level for students in elementary, middle, and high school as well as students at the university level. For example, for elementary students a bundle of school supplies includes, pens, pencils, colored pencils, paper, spirals, ruler, scissors, tissues, glue, markers, folders, composition notebook and book covers.

"With the long lines and high prices, buying school supplies can prove to be a major hassle," said Paula Jagemann, CEO of Online OfficeSupplies.com, creator of the site. "We decided to offer parents and students an easy way to deal with this annual chore by dedicating an entire site to it."

Lac Lawrann Conservancy Programs for September

change at Lac Lawrann conservancy, with the resumption of the weekend Family Program Series, the return of school classes, and the appearance of fall changes of the land. The prairie plants, like all late summer flowers, are rushing to produce seed in the last days before cold weather sets in. Some trees already show signs of changing color and leaf loss. Most animals take the cue for their fall activities from the shortening day lengths. As daylight hours decrease, winter hibernators and migrators put on extra fat and make their preparations and caterpillars spin cocoons. The life expectancy of most adult insects doesn't extend much past the first freeze, but fall is a noisy season for insects none-the-less. Pond and lake dwellers have the easiest time; water cools very slowly, without the merrygo-round changes experienced by those of us who live in the air.

Visitors are invited to explore the constantly changing face of Nature at Lac Lawrann by participating in a variety of weekend events. Beginning September 1, 1999, the conservancy trails at 300 Schmidt Rd. will be open from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. on both Saturdays and Sunday. Three special weekend programs are scheduled at the Conservancy in September. Do bugs bug you? Do beetles bit you? An "Insect Safari" scheduled for September12, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., may answer your questions about the insect world. Family activities with a Nature theme will be the subject of "In Celebration of Nature," on September 19 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Finally ,the first of two scheduled "24 Hour Experiences" for children ages 10 to 12 will start at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 25 and end at 9 a.m. Sept. 26. Kids will have a chance to explore the Conservancy in a unique way. Advanced registration is appreciated for the "Insect Safari" and "In Celebration of Nature," and is required for the "24 Hour Experience." Please call the West Bend Parks, Recreation and Forestry Department at 335-5080.

The Conservancy offers a variety of educational programs to public and private schools, to adult organizations, and to scout and other after-school groups. For more information, please call the Lac Lawrann Conservancy at 335-5085.

Most activities at Lac Lawrann Conservancy happen because of the dedication of its volunteers, and the school program is no exception. Three Teacher-Naturalist In-Service dates have been set for early September. On September 1, from noon until 3:30 p.m. and repeated on September 7 from 9 a.m. until 12:30 p.m., Teacher Naturalists will tour the prairie and woodland trails and explore the natural history and opportunities teaching available there. On September 14 from 9 a.m. to Professor noon, Ed Dommisse will discuss the geology of the area. Anyone interested in becoming a volunteer Teacher Naturalist at the Conservancy is invited to participate. Please call the Lac Lawrann Conservancy to register at 335-5085.

Paws to Recycle

During September, Octo-ber and November, the Washington County Humane Society is asking animal lovers throughout Washington County to make recycling aluminum cans their "pet" project.

That's when WCHS will join animal shelters across the country in the sixth annual nationwide aluminum can recycling campaign, Paws to Recycle.

Paws to Recycle is the only nationwide can recycling program benefitting animals and the environment. In the past five years, shelters across the country have recycled millions of aluminum cans and have earned nearly $2 million for their programs.

Marnie Brown, Executive Director at WCHS says that "for every pound of cans we recycle, we'll earn cash for much needed operating funds. And we're competing with shelters nationwide to win one of four $3,000 grand prizes for the most pounds recycled. Both the animals and the environment will benefit from this effort."

The Humane Society will accept aluminum cans at the shelter seven days a week. They can be drop off at the rear of the shelter in the northeast corner of the back parking lot. For more information, contact Dale at 677-0731.

The dinner show "Never Too Late!", produced in cooperation with Samuel French, Inc., promises to be an evening of good food and

Friday evening's dinner begins at 7:00 with the show following at 8:30. Saturday's dinner will be served at 6:00, show time will be 7:30. Scouts Go On Canoeing Adventure

The outing took place during the first week in August. Eight youth and six parents went on the trip. The good news is that everyone had a great time and all returned safely (although clothes were quite a bit dirtier).

This is the fourth Canada canoe trip which the Kewaskum Boy Scout Troop has taken part in in the past six years and it really is an adventure worth waiting for.

Roughing it in a wilderness area like this really brings out the team spirit in everyone. These are self guided tours which means that all of the boys receive detailed area maps and must learn how to interpret them! A highlight of this trip had to be locating a small isolated lake on their maps in which they had to break a trail and portage the canoes.

This lake turned out to be a fantastic small mouth bass lake. The group enjoyed several meals of delicious small mouth bass cooked over an open camp-

VARSITY GIRLS GOLF ON A ROLL

The Kewaskum Girl's Varsity Golf Team is off to a solid start in the Little 10 Conference with 2 strong showings this past week but the 1st place finish seems to be just out of their grasp, as they finished 3rd and 2nd in the two meets with a total of five swings of the golf club too many.

In the Tuesday showing at Hartford Golf Club, the girls finished with a total of 196 behind Hartford's 193 and Oconomowoc's 194.

Tied for Medalist for the meet was Kewaskum junior Stephanie Brettingen shooting a 46, along with Hartford's Erin Denis and Oconomowoc's Katie Lange. Other counters for the Lady Indians were sophomore Courtney Timblin with a 49, senior Amy Piwoni with a 50, and sophomore Niki Dreher with a 51.

Hosting the meet at Hon-E-

Kor on Thursday, the Indians finished 2nd with a team total of 192 just two strokes behind Oconomowoc's 190. Hartford finished 3rd in the meet with a 210. After two meets that puts Kewaskum in 3rd place in the Little Ten with the point system but the girls are determined to change that soon with five more conference meets

The best showing on Thursday came from sophomore Niki Dreher who shot a sizzling 44 on the blue nine. Also helping the cause were scores of 49 from Amy Piwoni and Stephanie Brettingen and a 50 from Courtney Timblin.

The Lady Indians have four of the top 10 golfers in the conference in Dreher, Brettingen, Piwoni and Timblin as they traveled to West Bend Country Club for a meet this past Tuesday.

Coach Carol Martin predicts some exciting golf for her team in the next few weeks.

Drumlin Protection Alliance Sets The Stage for Future Actions

A local citizen based organization, the Drumlin Protection Alliance, has made it official and is now incorporated as a non-profit organization. The State of Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions accepted and filed the Drumlin Protection Alliance articles of incorporation effective January, 1999. The directors and officers are all resident landowners from the Towns of Eden, Ashford and Wayne.

This improves the framework of our organization and should allow the Alliance to grow into an effective force that can make a difference" said Alliance president, Mark Sesing, a resident landowner within the Town of Ashford. "We will begin to expand our membership and create links with others affected by land use actions. That includes farmers, sportsmen groups, development interests, local officials, and even the schools, but especially citizens concerned about the future" Sesing said.

The goal of the Drumlin Protection Alliance is to support common sense approaches in the Drumlin area for protecting land, culture and community. Drumlins are the distinctive egg shaped hills that make up the landscape in the Campbellsport, Eden and "Holyland" area. In the past year the Drumlin Protection Alliance has sponsored two citizen forums, several informational articles regarding land use issues, and is working on introducing the alliance to area residents and organizations. The drumlin protection initiative is presently focused on the two major drumlin "fields" in Fond du Lac County but includes the northwest corner of Washington

"The strength of our alliance will depend upon the support of the community" Sesing said. "We welcome hearing from those affected by land and community development issues like farmland conversion and urban sprawl. Simply put, we want to avoid the mistakes made in other areas so we don't end up looking like Waukesha County."

Mushrooms: Edible and Otherwise Program Sept. 9

The Evening with Nature Series at the Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest begins this year's season with the program, "Mushrooms: Edible and Otherwise." The program will be held on Thursday, September 9, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center. The Ice Age Visitor Center is located off of Hwy. 67 1/2 mile west of Dundee. The program is free, but donations are always gratefully accepted.

Fall is a great time of year to go mushroom hunting especially if it has been a wet season. Fungi come in all shapes and colors from the white puff balls to the brilliant sulphur mushrooms and craggy coral fungus. Many people enjoy the beauty of the wide array of fungi, but others enjoy collecting edible fungi in particular many mushrooms. Even though mushroom collecting has been called the most dangerous of outdoor sports, foraging for edible fungi in the Wisconsin woods continues to grow in popularity.

John Steinke, a very experienced mushroom collector, will share his unique knowledge of Wisconsin's fungi including mushrooms. He will cover ways to minimize the dangers and maximizing the delights of collecting and eating wild fungi.

For further information or directions to the Ice Age Visitor Center, please contact Jackie S. Scharfenberg, Forest Naturalist. She may be reached at (920) 533-8322, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

PRAYER OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail)

Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven. Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my Mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days and then you must publish and it will be granted to you. Grateful thanks.

Held Enjoys Racing Challenge

When someone speaks about racing, one would think of the NASCAR Series, with drivers such as, Jeff Gordon, Mark Martin and Rusty Wallace just to name a few. Mark and Rusty "cut their teeth," got their "seat time" on the tracks in Wisconsin. Jeff Gordon and the late Alan Kulwicki started at a young age and learned the racing ropes on the go-kart circuits.

Today, 18 year old, Mike Held wants his resume' to read like that of Jeff Gordon or Alan Kulwicki. A 1999 Graduate of Slinger High School, Mike started in gokarting at age 14, at the road course track in Dousman, Wisconsin. He finished in the top 5 in the point standings in the Jr. Briggs Division for the two years he ran in the go-kart circuit. Mike also drove his go-kart in the West Bend Annual Bernie Koenig Grand Prix for two years and finished in the top 3 in his division.

With only his father, Jerry's help and dedication to his son, Mike took on a bigger and different challenge...the Slinger Stingers at the high oval track in Slinger, Wisconsin. This division was indeed a challenge and a learning experience for Mike as a driver and his dad Jerry, as the "set up" man and crew chief. With his, red, white and blue, 1981 Pontiac Grand Prix, with the #72 Mike took Rookie honors and finished 20th in the point standings in the Slinger Stingers.

During the racing season last year, at age 17, Mike suffered a bad crash in the Slinger Stingers. He was OK, but the Stinger car was damaged beyond repair. This set back didn't hinder the Held Family spirit. In August of that year, Jerry purchased a modified (IMCA) chassis and built the car to meet the specs of the Midwest Modified Division at the Slinger Speedway. In October of that year they were able to have the car ready to qualify for the October Classic at Lake Geneva and finished 10th in the series.

This year is Mike's rookie year in the Slinger Midwest Modified division and is currently running 12th in the point standings. This division has some "seasoned" drivers, such as Al Schill of Franklin and Steve Lurvy of Dousman, so the competition is tough. Florian Wiscinski of Milwaukee and Dennis Prunty of Allenton have been the dominating drivers of this division, but that has not hindered Mike's determination to do well and reach for his goal...to finish in the top 10 and be the rookie in the 1999 season.

For the first few years, Dad was Mike's only "helper" in trying to keep the cars in running order and getting ready to racing the next Sunday at Slinger. People who are not involved in any of the aspects of racing do not realize how much preparation there is to be done before heading to the race track. The Held family works at their home in the two car garage. Mike says, "My mom is a saint for putting up with all this car stuff in the garage. I wouldn't be able to continue fulfilling my dreams of racing cars, if I didn't have my mom and dad's support." The race car is in the garage, while the family cars sit outside. Today Mike has his friends, Jim Fuerst and Chris Mc Intee of West Bend to help on the pit crew. "In this type of racing today, we need more help." Jerry said. "It's hard to find dedicated young men to come to the house and work on the car during the week and then ask them to give up their Sundays to help keep Mike in competi-

Mike has a lot of moral support from his family. Needless to say, his father Jerry and mom Jeanne are his most loyal fans. His sister Shannon enjoys the races too, but does not like it when he is in an accident. His mom , Jeanne says, "He (Mike) is so into this racing and working on cars, we just can't refuse helping him. If this is what he is interested in...then we are all for it. At least he knows what he wants to do and we know where he is at all times...in the garage...working on the

Held Motorsports is financially supported by the family. Jeanne owns the Flowers on the Main in West Bend, Custom Greenhouse (Aunt) of Milwaukee. Kruegers Entertainment/ Menomonee Falls Dart League and Greg and Judy Gifford and family (Uncle) all contribute to keeping Mike behind the wheel of his #72.

The cost of the car and the preparation to make it "race-ready" is only the beginning of the financial burden. Keeping it on the track night after night is where the sponsors come in with their support. Mike says "We have a lot of sponsors and we appreciate any monitory amount they can give us. We try to thank them by appearing at their place of business and showing off the advertising, promoting the business and the Mike takes the races." Midwest Modified to car shows at the malls. He also drives the hauler and car through the local parades for the sponsors. This helps

If you have a chance to attend the races the Sunday night Tradition at the Slinger Super Speedway, take some time to go into the pits after the races and visit with Mike and Jerry. You will find welcome smiles and an enthusiasium that never will Determination, the love of racing and the family commitment are the ingredients to keeping the Held Racing team together. Emu oil is a bi-product and has the ability to relieve pain and reduce inflammation of the joints and injured tissues. Emu oil contains high levels of linolenic acid...a substance known to temporarily ease joint pain, and oleic acid...a substance which has a local antiinflammatory offect on dermal tissues. When Emu oil was tested, it proved to be very hypo-allergenic and to have an extremely high purity level. Emu oil has been found to be very effective on burns of all types including sunburn, 1st and 2nd degree burns and radiation burns. It alleviates pain and dramatically reduces scarring and blistering. Emu oil has also been proven to thicken the skin of the elderly by as much as 14%. The benefits of Emu oil are gaining notice from the medical community. Many specialists are adapting the oil into their treatment techniques for relieving the symptoms of arthritis, preventing scars and treating eczema. In addition to reducing swelling and stiffness in joints, Emu oil can reduce bruising and muscle pain. Emu oil is highly penetrating and won't clog pores.

The World Serious-Less tournament started on a "beautiful day in the Thiemerdome." The singing of the National Anthem was performed by the locally famous Earl "I Got a Voice!" Kleinke. It was truly a Kodak moment if there ever was one.

It was standing room only as all the bleachers were sold out. (Every one of them). Before the game, the air was electric with the chanting of the thousands of fans, anxious for the games to begin.

The first game found the dethroned champion Amerahn team pitted against the Hitching Post Wannabes. It continued as a scoreless game as both teams performed some spectacular defensive plays. In the fourth inning the action heated up as Buck "Ace" Guell drove in the first run of the game to put Amerahn in the lead.

The Post held them until the sixth when Amerahn pinched in two more runs in the top of the inning. Mike "Rabbit" Staral contributed to the effort, driving in a run, but again the Amerahners tallied two more runs in the top of the seventh before the Post stopped them. The Post rallied and got one run across the plate with two ducks on the pond (thank goodness winter is coming and the pond will be frozen soon!), but a line shot to John "Eveready" Kleinke who gloved it a newfound finesse and threw it to first for a double play to end the game, 5-2, with the win placed in Amerahn's column.

The second game found Thiemer's Sipper Snippers stacked up against the Commercial Plumbing crew who brought in their secret weapon... their newest cheerleader, two-week-old Sydney Elizabeth Stern, Scott and Amy's latest addition to the Stern family tree.

Commercial came out with their bats smoking immediately when Rodger "Dodger" Schneider smacked one to help score two runs before Thiemers came to and applied the brakes.

Paul "Bush" Lehnerz scored on a hit from Richard "Snipper" Thiemer to make it a 2-1 game until the fifth when the Plumbers ran another run in before a double play halted their action. Thiemer's had ducks on that pond again (puh-lease! NO MORE with the darn ducks!), but couldn't score them with some great defensive plays from Roger "Dodger" and Kevin "I Can Jump" Darmody. Again the Plumbers drove in two more runs and the Sipper Snippers could only answer back with one itsy bitsy run in the seventh. Hence, the Snippers fell, like golden strands of hair that's too long, to Commercial, 5-2.

But then the Sipper Snippers had to get themselves all psyched up again, as they were scheduled to play the next game. You could hear those old bones creaking and all the whining in the world didn't help for the Post showed no mercy on the decrepit Snippers.

Before the Snippers were able to put their leg bandages back on the rub in more Sports Creme, the Post struck paydirt with a high line shot over second which shortstop Paul Lehnerz brought down and caught Ron "Quick Start" Nuoffer off second to double it up.

As the Sports Creme began to warm the joints, Thiemer's came back with hits from Ronnie "RT" Theusch, Thexton, Jim "Secret Squirrel" Flitter and Richard "Wheels" Thiemer, to score two.

The Snippers held the Post until the fourth when Paul "Sneaky" Seymour hit one in the gap (big, big gap... these guys move pretty slow, you know!) on Doodles Strobel to sneak a triple and "Wolfy" Wolf hit him home.

Thiemers rallied to bat around and drive in eight runs and take a big lead. The Post tried to muster some runs but a double play took them down. The Post then replayed the double play on the Snippers which took out Jimmy "Ouch" Klahn out of the entire tourney as he pulled a leg muscle.

In the final inning, the Post came out hitting the gaps as the gaps increased due to the fact the tired old Snippers just couldn't get to the ball before four runners crossed the plate. The fourrun rally was not enough for victory, however, as the Sipper Snippers managed to come up with a 12-5 win.

The next game found Commercial coming out hot as they struck with two runs right away against Amerahn and held on with both teams playing exceptionally well, considering their old bones were screaming! Amerahn scored one run but in the fifth inning, Amerahn, which they are good at, got the hits together and tied the game up and then held the Plumbers with two double plays and they scored on a couple of errors to win the game, 3-2.

Amerahn's were on a natural high (what the dome ran out of Bud Light?) after their latest victory, but Thiemer's took a little wind out of their sails with a single by Jim "Secret Squirrel" Flitter which got stretched into a double and then, miraculously, Richard "I Love the Dome" Thiemer hit the gap and scored Jimmy.

The game stayed 1-0, Thiemers, and then the proverbial slop hit the fan in the fourth. A couple of walks, a couple of mental errors and Amerahn rallied with four runs. Another thorn in the Sipper's side, was the pitching of John "Eveready" Kleinke, who struck out three batters. We won't mention any names as the Sippers always have been "team" players. Amerahn held on and won the game, 5-2, and the Thiemerdome World Serious-Less.

In the consolation bracket, Commercial was still upset about their loss to the Amerahn and the Post was still scratching their heads wondering what happened to burn them out and lose two games?

Both teams played the old three up, three down, for the first inning. Finally Commercial got one run and it looked like the Plumbers were going to walk away with it, but not to be denied the Post came back with some hits and took the game 2-1 to finally end the season.

Amerahn had half their boys (???) hitting over 600. John "Ace" Kleinke, Ray "All Righty" Mauer, Buck "Achy" Guell, the Ludwig boys... Vern and Bill, and good defensive plays from Larry "the mouse" Sabish all year proved to be an asset to the Amerahners.

Commercial Plumbing, still excited about the new addition, managed to seize the "Most Congenialty" award. (You'll have to read in between the lines to figure this one out!)

Thank you to Steve "Wiener" Stern for the canned salmon. It was good and the teams enjoyed it throughout the tourney (I must have missed something). Tournament festivities continued long after the game as many stayed to close the grill down (not to mention the refreshment and concession stands).

Special thanks to Dane Dorn and his astute umpiring.

And now, wives and significant others, you can actually begin to think about putting the Ben Gay on the back shelf again... but never out of sight, for the brave.. the few... will be back again to abuse their bodies next spring!

KHS Cross Country Team Competes in KML Invite

The Kewaskum High School Cross Country team traveled to Jackson on Friday, August 27, for the Kettle Moraine Lutheran Invite. Kewaskum started their season racing against 17 other schools including conference competitors Campbellsport and Manitowoc Roncalli.

Junior Dolly Butz from Winnebago Lutheran Academy won the girls four kilometer run leading the whole race ahead of the 88 other female runners. Her early season fast time of 17:07 was almost a minute ahead of second place finisher senior Kristi Knickel from Campbellsport. Knickel also ran most of the race singly, finishing with a time of 18:05.

Winnebago Lutheran Academy girls' team took first with 67 points. Campbellsport followed with 75 points. Slinger was third place with 91 points. Slinger freshman Crystal Peil led her team by finishing fifth.

Andrea Nickels' ninth place finish helped Manitowoc Roncalli finish fourth with 124 points. Heritage Christian followed closely with 125 points with their top finisher being Kelly Campbell, who finished third.

Kettle Moraine Lutheran finished sixth with 172 points, and Kewaskum's 182 points placed them seventh. Manitowoc Lutheran's Katie Pleuss helped her team with a fourth place finish. Overall Manitowoc finished eighth with 198 points. Martin Luther's 231 points placed them ninth, Sheboygan Lutheran finished 10th with 257 points, St. Mary's Central finished 11th with 271 points and Riverside University High School finished 12th with 332 points. St. Francis. Dominican and Shoreland Lutheran High School did not have enough runners to be a full team.

The Kewaskum girls' cross country team had five runners, just enough for a team. Varsity teams consist of a total of seven runners. The top five are called the "counters" and the next two runners are called the

"pushers."

The counters' finishing places are added up for the team total used to place the teams, with the lowest team total winning. The pushers' responsibility is to push the counters during the race. They are not included in the team total so if your team has only five runners you are not considered an incomplete team.

Juniors Colleen Gosa and Emily Rinzel were Kewas-kum's top finishers. Gosa led the way by placing 10th with a time of 18:36. Rinzel finished 13th with a time of 19:05. Both Gosa and Rinzel medaled by finishing in the Junior Kelly Darmody 41st finish, was one place shy of getting a ribbon. Darmody finished with a time of 20:57. Junior Heather Hackbarth finished 51st with a time of 21:32. Sophomore Lauren Schultz finished 68th with a time of 23:16. Gosa, Darmody, Hackbarth, and Schultz are returning for their second year on cross country, and Rinzel is returning for her third year.

Phil Gurgel, from Kettle Moraine Lutheran placed first on his five kilometer home course. Gurgel ran by himself ahead of the other 102 male runners to finish with a time of 18:29. Indians Trounce Horicon, 58-0

The Kewaskum Indians wanted to make sure that last week's 60-6 trouncing of Milwaukee North was no fluke, so they traveled to Horicon and repeated the feat by trouncing the Marshmen, 58-0.

Last week it was Jason Strobel who starred offensively for the Indians, and this week it was sophomore Chris Canter as he scored three touchdowns and rushed for 124 yards on only six carries (20.6 yards per carry). Canter scored on runs of 41, 30 and four yards in only his second varsity game.

"Chris is a very mature player for being a sophomore," said Kewaskum Head Coach Perry Koth. "He is very coachable and he knows how to make plays.' Canter wasn't the only one who was scoring however. Senior David Lettow also had another fine performance scoring on runs of four and two yards and rushing for 86 yards on nine carries. "Dave is a very strong runner and punishes people when they get in his way," added Koth

Jason Strobel added to his TD total by scoring from the 16 and rushing for 32 yards on five carries. Mike Farchione, the bruising fullback for the Indians, also scored again on a four yard run and had 53 yards on eight carries. "Mike ran well up the middle again for us. He will really hurt you if you try to take away the outside against us," commented Koth about his senior fullback. The final TD for the Indians came from junior running back T.J. Stopar from 25 yards out in the fourth quarter. "T.J. showed us that he can run the ball pretty well in that last quarter," said Koth. "He wasn't out for football last year and that really put him behind the rest, but he seems to be catching up."

The other score came on Chris Koth's 27 yard field goal with no time left on the clock in the second quarter. The Indians picked up a first down with 13 seconds left on the clock and decided to try to kick a field goal before the time expired.

In high school the clock stops after a first down until the officials set the chains and spot the ball. Kewaskum had all their timeouts left but Coach Koth wanted to see if the field goal team could get out on the field, set up, and get the kick off before the clock expired, so he did not use a timeout.

"They executed it perfectly. They didn't panic. They just went about their business of doing what needed to be done," said Koth. "The snap was made with about three seconds left and we made the kick. It's nice to have seniors on the field in a situation like that."

Koth was 7-7 on extra points and 1-1 on field goals (27 yards). Koth, who was a first team all-conference kicker his sophomore and junior year, as well as a second team punter his junior year, is 14-14 on extra points and 2-2 on field goals (29, 27), but does not have a punt to his credit as the Indians have not had to punt this season.

For the game the Indians rushed for 414 yards on 41 carries (10 yards per carry). You don't rush for 734 yards in two games unless someone is blocking up front. Those blocks are coming from an experienced front line of Brian Prost, Scott Willkomm, Nick Martin, Adam Sauer, Tim Bonlender, along with newcomers Adam Beck and Jason Farchione. All of them are seniors except Farchione who is a junior.

On one play we ran a simple fullback dive up the middle and our line pushed their defensive front eight at least 10 yards down the field. We call it our six second block. It was awesome!" said Koth. "The last two games we have seen eight, nine and even 10 man fronts trying to stop our running game, but our line has still been able to open up holes without us having to throw to loosen them up," added Koth.

The Indians have thrown only four passes in two games, completing two for 16 yards and one touch-

While the offense was rolling up the yardage and points, the defense was once again dominating the line of scrimmage. The Indians held Horicon to negative yards rushing (-12) and only 37 total yards for the game.

Our defense has not been tested yet this season," said Koth about his defensive squad that last week held Milwaukee North to only 19 rushing yards. The first defensive unit has not given up a point yet this

Aaron Seiser and Bob Ogi once again took away the middle of the field behind Lettow and Dave Rabuck. Meanwhile the outside has been controlled by ends Dan Uniewski and Mike Farchione and linebackers Adam Beck and Jason Gruber. Jim Thelen, Koth, Canter and Strobel have shut down the passing attack from the defensive back spots.

Kewaskum continues to take the ball away from its opponent as Rabuck caused a fumble, Strobel recovered a fumble, and Josh Hawig intercepted another pass (second) to add to their list of take-a-ways. Last year the Indians didn't intercept a pass until the seventh game of the season. This year they already have three interceptions and four fumble recoveries in just two games. The Indians have outscored their opponents this year in the first half by a score of
