Children's Activity Tent at Kettle Kountry Kolors Full of Artistry, Animals, Juggling, Puppets, Music, Clowns and More

By Louise Martin

An annual feature at Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Fun Festival is the Children's Activity Tent in which many interesting fun-filled events take place for both children and adults. This year will be no exception with many outstanding activities scheduled during the weekend on Saturday and Sunday, October 9 and 10 in River Hill Park in Kewaskum.

Bingo the Clown makes his first appearance at Kettle Kountry Kolors performing a show that is centered around the idea of Bingo producing a bunny rabbit. Bingo combines silly clown humor with loads of audience participation before successfully producing the bunny rabbit. This high energy one hour show can be seen both Saturday and Sunday beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Learn about exotic and unusual animals by attending the Animal Encounters show presented by Dr. Robert James of Chicago. Animal Encounters is an outreach educational program that began in 1969 which reaches out to students in over 400 schools per year. Dr. James is a zoologist, teacher, entertainer and the author of many books. He carries live zoo animals such as a porcupine, hedge hog, ostrich, alligator, snake, bat and armadillo through the audience so all can meet and pet the animals as he talks about them. One hour shows are scheduled at noon and 2:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Another new addition to Kettle Kountry Kolors, Dancercise Kids is a program which includes a variety of exercise, tumbling, music, creative moments, jazz, ballet and tap dancing. Watch in wonder as Dancercise Kids perform Saturday at 1:30 p.m. and Sunday at 1:15 p.m.

The Juggler with the Yellow Shoes by Dan Kirk, a full-time professional juggler and entertainer, always includes exciting family comedy routines, a wide variety of juggling, zany balloon twisting and audience participation in his shows.

Juggling since 1983, The Juggler with the Yellow Shoes has completed over 1,200 performances throughout eight states. Performances at Kettle Kountry Kolors are scheduled for 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday at 2:15 p.m. in the Children's Activity Tent. Following the Saturday performance, the Sunshine Puppet Theater will present a 30 minute show beginning at 4:45 p.m.

Another new family entertainer to Kettle Kountry Kolors is Randy Peterson from Green Bay. His concerts are a fast-moving mix of music, humor, and storytelling that is geared for kids, but yet one that everyone will enjoy. Audiences participate throughout the show, which Peterson likes to call "sing-along, clap-along, laugh-along concerts."

Performing over 200 shows a year throughout the Midwest, Peterson has also been featured on radio and TV programs as well. His one hour shows can be seen on Sunday at noon and 3:30 p.m.

Children can design their own picture frame in the activity tent reflecting their own personal creativity and style on both days under the direction of staff members from Tuttle Creek Learning Center in Kewaskum and Little Folks School House in Wayne. Visit Faye's Fun and Learning to make bouncing zoom balls or beautiful jewelry. Or does carving pumpkins sound like more fun?

JoAnn Hall of Campbell-sport is excited to again be at Kettle Kountry Kolors in her "Make-It-and-Take-It" ceramic booth. JoAnn and several of her assistants will be ready to help you create a ceramic piece that you paint and take along home with you. There are lots of items to choose from. Perhaps something for Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, an item with the Packer colors or just that little special item you'd like to do.

Parents bring the kids to Make-It-and-Take-It... Kids, bring your parents to Make-It-and-Take-It. Either way, you'll both enjoy it. The cost begins at $2.50 and goes up depending on what item is selected. If you have something special you would like JoAnn to bring along, you may call her at 533-4252 and request it.

Returning for her seventh year at Kettle Kountry Kolors, JoAnn will be in the park both days and will be located on the south corner of the Beer Garden right next to the Craft tents. Kids can paint their favorite ceramics while mom can shop to her heart's content in the craft tent. Come try your hand at some ceramic creations!

This is just a brief sampling of the events planned by members of the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce for the 10th annual Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Fun Festival. Take advantage of their hospitality... join in the fun!

If you coat baked potatoes with vegetable oil before you pop them in the oven, they'll come out a beautiful golden brown.

Bingo the Clown's "Flight of Hand" is a great fun-filled single performer act. Bingo combines nonsensical clown humor, with loads of audience participation. This show is centered around the idea that Bingo is trying to produce a bunny rabbit, but failing miserably as clowns usually do. Live doves make their appearance before Bingo finally comes up with a beautiful bunny rabbit. Bingo will be one of the main features in the Children's Activity Tent at Kettle Kountry Kolors this weekend. Performances are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday at 10:30 a.m.

Which of the Five Finalists Will Kiss the Pig Sunday?

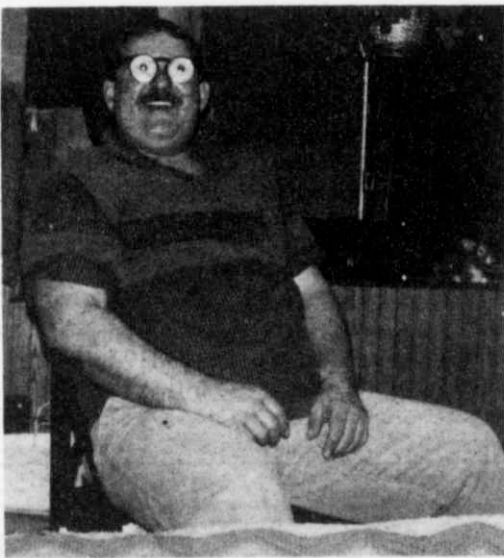

According to reliable sources, the above is a picture of Jeanne Amerling. I've seen Jeanne recently and man has she changed! Actually I think Jeanne is going incognito for the contest on Sunday, but never let it be said that Jeanne wasn't capable of having a few tricks up her sleeve. But Jeanne, piggy likes to pucker up to the real thing, ya know!

Finally... we all get to see Paul Becht! If I had a dime for everytime someone asked me who Paul Becht was, I could retire and invest in his Prudential Securities! Your secret's out Paul, no longer can you keep a low profile! Your family can rejoice in the fact that you made it to the finals of the Pig Kissing Contest... you will go on in infamy. But I'm just a little confused... the photo above has Paul posing with the likeness of Samson of Milwaukee Zoo fame... He must have a genuine love for animals the way he's hugging Samson! (Leave it alone). Better watch out Paul, I know that Piggy is a very jealous little porker. I'll try to hide this photo from him... He has a tendency of becoming real violent when he goes into a jealous rage!

Ohmygawd... can we really subject our precious little piggy, that we've all come to know and love... to this "lady?" (And I use the term loosely). This "lady" is none other than finalist Bob Bonenfant of WBWI-WBKV fame. We can handle Bob, but the Dallas Cowboys cheerleader? Puh...lease! Piggy said he finds the lady rather "stimulating" but under no circumstances can he kiss a Cowboy cheerleader. Bob will have to lose the Cowboy image and switch to being a Packer fan... for Sunday anyway. Because I can't even PRINT what Piggy had to say about the Cowboys! And usually Piggy has a pretty clean mouth. (Should I go there or just leave it alone?)

Looks like pig-kissing finalist Roy Garbisch, our favorite chef at the Silver Platter, only has "eyes" for our little piggy! I told Piggy not to worry, however, he's still afraid that Roy wants to make pork chops out of him! I became a little concerned myself when I realized the specials at the Platter next week on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday all revolve around pork dishes... eeeek!

It's a possibility that perhaps Candi Heberer could win the Pig Kissing Contest and perform the "drum roll" as the finalists are announced on Sunday. Can you bring the drum, Candi? Actually, the poor girl looks like she's still in shock, wondering how she managed to get into this. Through no fault of her own, she got smacked down right in the middle of this and probably would like to know how to get out of it. (Nicely... ask your relatives to vote for someone else, Candi.)

This is it Pig Kissing fans. Our fun-filled journey with (and at the expense of) all the Kiss the Pig candidates will come to an end on Sunday around 4:30 p.m. in the Beer Garden at Kettle Kountry Kolors. That's when we will announce the winner and witness firsthand one of our five finalists puckering up for our new friend Piggy.

Before we go any further, our gratitude goes out to the five candidates, as well as all the other candidates, who have taken this nonsense "all in good clean (?) fun" and have been such good sports! Thanks to their good will and participation,

Kettle Kountry Kolers Offers Variety of Music

Randy Peterson
Children's Singer
And Storyteller

Music is a part of every festival. Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolers is no exception and will feature an interesting variety of talented musicians on Saturday and Sunday, October 9 and 10 at River Hill Park in Kewaskum.

Inti-Raymi will make their second appearance at Kettle Kountry Kolers on Saturday from 1:30 to 5 p.m. and will be performing traditional music from the Andes in front of the gazebo. "Inti-Raymi" in the South American Quechua language means, "Festival of the Sun," or "Festival of the Harvest," a fitting title for the festival.

Most of the instruments are originals from the Andes including string, wind and percussion instruments. The musicians play happy and reflective music composed by the group to promote the music, cultural and social values of the Andean people. As a group who have traveled extensively in South America, Europe and the United States, we are fortunate to have these interesting musicians return to Kettle Kountry Kolers. Hear the musicians also from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. in front of the gazebo on Sunday.

If you're strolling along the banks of the Milwaukee River on Saturday, enjoy the Twin Hill String Band strumming some country sounds for two one-hour periods beginning at 1 p.m. and again at 3 p.m. On Sunday, along the river bank, from noon until 5 p.m., sit back and enjoy as Joey Minz of Kewaskum entertains with a variety of soothing melodies.

The Kewaskum High School Jazz Band starts the day on Sunday at 11 a.m., playing their brand of catchy tunes for your listening pleasure in the gazebo. The talented Kettle Kountry Twirlers of Kewaskum will follow as they perform under the direction of Cindy Marquardt at 1 p.m. The performers range in age from three to 17 years and will delight you with various routines using batons and pompons.

Blues Blisters, a four member band from Fond du Lac, will entertain with a variety of Jimmy Hendricks, Bob Dylan, Jon Lee Hooker blues and classic rock songs in the Beer Garden from 1:30 to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Family entertainer,

Oklahoma Comes Sweeping in to KHS

"Oklahoma" is a lot closer than you think.

Rehearsals are already underway for the crowd-pleasing musical, coming to Rose Hall at KHS on November 5 and 6.

It's a story about the lives and loves of bygone days in the Sooner State, with great songs such as "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," "Surrey With the Fringe on Top" and, of course, the stirring title song, "Oklahoma."

It's been at least seventeen years since KHS last staged the popular musical, and cast and crew are looking forward to the upcoming production.

"It's a fun show," says director and KHS choral music instructor Mr. Dave Bertelsen, "and everyone's having a lot of fun with it."

KHS senior Josh Stangl, who plays Curly (who Josh describes as "a guy a girl would want to bring home to mom"), agrees. "I was excited when I heard it (would be the musical)."

"It's a lot of fun," adds Bethany Hermann, who plays love-torn Laurey. Being in the musical, "you make a lot of friends."

Rehearsals continue

most weeknights until the evening performances on November 5 and 6, with dress rehearsals coming Nov. 1 and 2, followed by performances at KMS on November 3, and the afternoon senior citizen performance on November 4.

For ticket information, contact any cast member of KHS.

Cast members include: Jinna Bertelsen (playing Aunt Eller), Josh Stangl (Curly), Bethany Hermann (Laurey), Matt Seymour (Ike Skidmore), Adam Disler (Fred), Justin Weninger (Slim), Joel Hermann (Will Parker), Josh Krahn (Jud Fry), Katie Waranius (Ado Annie Carnes), Dustin Melzark (Ali Hakim), Jessica Parrent (Gertie Cummings), Virginia Feind (Ellen), Carrie Gayan (Kate), Rachel Brunner (Virginia), Kristina Olewinski (Vivian), Matt Schroeder (Andrew Carnes), Jay Pamperin (Cord Elam), Eric Braun (Mike), and Katie Gosa as Daisy.

Playing farmers and cowfolk are Ann Bausch, Pat Bohn, Jenny Kraft, Aileen Chambers, Colleen Gosa, Josh Hawig, Megan Hammen, Jill McKee, Lauren Nelson, Briana Obright, Jessica Schmidt, Julia Shaw, Molly Schweder, Kim Survis, Crystal Uecker, Joyce Wagner, Erin Bandler, Mitch Hawkinson, Scott Herman, Maggie Herriges, Erica Kudek, Jamie McKeever, Jason Ramirez, Courtney Schultz, Heidi Terlinden, Elizabeth Werdermann, Kelli Jo Will, Martana Zeman, Tricia Brath, Stephanie Broughton, Amy Fehlhaber, Jacqueline Chambers, Curtis Cochran, Amanda Klahn, Wendy Rahlf, and Alison Yanke.

EDUCATION... It's Everyone's Business

By Wayne P. Graczyk
Kewaskum
Superintendent Of Schools

Since last week's article came out, I have received a number of telephone calls from readers and I sincerely want to thank them for their interest and their questions. The callers, in one way or another, questioned how the tax rate could remain unchanged for 20 years. I think that it's critical for me to clarify earlier statements by offering the following clarifications.

The school district's tax rate is actually made up of two tax rates, one for operations and one for debt service. When I stated that the tax rate would remain unchanged, my intent was to refer to the debt service tax rate, not the operating tax rate. It would be extremely difficult, if not impossible, to keep the operating school tax rate unchanged for a period of 20 years. There are far too many variables, including student enrollment, revenue limits, inflation, changes in equalized property values, changes in state law, how long the state will remain committed to funding two-thirds of the cost of public school education, etc., all affecting and influencing the operating school tax rate.

The point I need to make clear is that the repayment of the bonds issued for this referendum will be structured so that the debt service tax rate is held constant over the life of the bonds, meaning that there will be no increase in the debt service tax rate. I hope this clarifies this critical point and again wish to thank the interested readers for calling and asking the question.

While having your attention, I would like to mention that a caller also questioned the statement regarding how the state would pay the school district for the referendum. After re-reading my earlier article, I realized that the statement could be misinterpreted due to my use of the word, "pay" vs. "reimburse."

When I said that you are helping pay for other school districts' referendums through your tax dollars, that is true. By saying that through the state aid formula, as it's currently written, the state will be helping Kewaskum residents pay for the $11,700,000 referendum for the elementary program, that is also accurate.

The point I wish to clarify, and the point the caller seemed to question, is that I said in the article the state would pay approximately 50-55% of our referendum. The point I need to clarify, so it is not misconstrued, is that the state does not pay the district, it reimburses us through the state aid formula. That reimbursement is about 50-55% of the costs incurred by the school district, including debt service costs.

I hope that those who have gotten to know me over the past couple of months know that it was never my intent to give misinformation or to mislead anybody. I truly appreciated the telephone calls and questions from people because it showed a genuine interest in the referendum process.

I will continue to do my best to answer questions and provide explanations in an honest and forthright manner. In return I hope people continue to read all information provided and ask good questions.

THINK OF US AS PERSONAL TRAINERS (FOR YOUR HOUSE)

Before spending the time and money on your next home improvement project, make sure your house spends some time with a personal fitness trainer — a HouseWorks™ contractor. By using the simple, low-cost HouseWorks inspection, your house can be more comfortable, more energy efficient, and safer.

A HouseWorks contractor has been trained to treat your house as a whole system. They know how air flow downstairs affects comfort upstairs, how heating and cooling systems affect drafts, and where drafts are best stopped.

A thorough home inspection conducted by a HouseWorks contractor will benefit your house in these four main home improvement areas:

- heating & cooling projects
- remodeling: additions, renovations, general projects, and installing or adding insulation
- a general home efficiency check-up
- problems that are symptoms of poor air flow: high energy bills, drafts, hot and/or cold rooms, hard-to-heat areas, exterior ice build-up, fog or condensation on windows

The basic HouseWorks inspection includes: a blower door test to measure the amount and location of air leaking into or out of your home; an insulation test; a carbon monoxide test; a gas-fired equipment test; and a chimney draft test. Other energy-saving services are also available.

Ready to get fit? Call a HouseWorks contractor listed below. For more information call Wisconsin Energy Conservation Corporation at 888-543-8155.

Kiss the Pig Contest

Kettle Kountry Kolers has benefitted immensely! Not only with monetary contributions, but also we have all gotten caught up in the gemuetlichkeit of the occasion. Thank you also to all those who spent your money voting for your favorites. It made this contest VERY interesting!

We hope you have enjoyed the articles, no matter how foolish they sometimes sounded. I guess they all depended on the mood of the writer (felt much better that I wasn't a candidate) and the feedback we got from our readers who basically seemed to enjoy the frivolity.

We also thank the candidates who got into the "sport of the contest," by submitting the above photos. (Sorry Bob... I couldn't resist using our file photo!)

I tried to narrow Piggy down, hoping I could get a little insight about which candidates he preferred but he was pretty non-committal. He feels real strongly about not showing any favoritism, but he did say he felt a little out of character kissing someone as young as Candi Heberer. He doesn't want to "spoil" her for the future men in her life. You know what they say... once you've kissed a pig, you may never want to go back to a human!

Piggy has a definite affection to Roy Garbisch but he is really afraid that he just may end up along with his brothers and sisters on a plate at the Silver Platter. You can understand his concern.

He thinks it would be really super to kiss one of the Kewaskum Mobil girls, aka Jeanne Amerling. Jeanne has been supportive every step of the way and Piggy really appreciates that!

Piggy has the goofy notion though, that if he kisses Bob Bonenfant that he (the pig, not Bob) will become famous and will be headed off to Hollywood to star in the next sequel to Babe. He's already started to practice calling Bob "Boss." (Like the movie!)

Last, but certainly not least, Piggy said he would feel honored to kiss Paul Becht. He realizes how important this is to Paul's family would be, and would like to see Paul put up on the pedestal he deserves.

But like he said before, Piggy would be happy to accommodate the voters and kiss whoever they deem destined to kiss the pig. The voting continues until 2 p.m. on Sunday. You will be able to vote at Silver Platter, Kewaskum Mobil, Video Post and the Statesman until Saturday evening.

The boards will be picked up at those places on Saturday night and then the only place you will be able to vote will be in the park at Kettle Kountry Kolers.

At 2 p.m. the last of the monies will be counted and the winner will be announced at approximately 4:30 p.m. in the Beer Garden. We realize that the candidates got into this whole situation, strictly for the vast amount of prizes they will receive... actually a T-shirt and $50 for the winner, but now that all seems to be secondary. Now it's a question of gaining the prestige and honor of kissing the pig. It's a question of honor... and ethics for animal lovers near and far.

Keep on voting... we haven't decided if we will be doing this again next year. Frankly, I think we should have a "Kiss the Donkey" contest. I could have a field day with that, one! Let us know what YOU think... Can we really subject the citizens of the Kewaskum area to this kind of insanity next year again?

"I admit I spend all your money... but, it is my only vice!"

Dairyland Seed Executives Named to Industry Posts

Steve Strachota

Tom Strachota

Dairyland Seed President, Steve Strachota, and CEO Tom Strachota were recently named to important positions in the seed industry.

At the annual June ASTA (American Seed Trade Association) meeting in Indian Wells, CA, Steve Strachota was elected as incoming officer to the Farm Seed Division. Steve will serve his first year as Secretary, will move into the position of Vice-Chairperson in year two and will become Chairperson in year three. Steve has previously served as Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Alfalfa Seed Committee for ASTA and has been participating in major discussions regarding other forage seeds as well.

"I look forward to the opportunity to work with the Farm Seed Division in developing policies and guidelines that can help increase productivity," stated Steve.

marily deals with alfalfa seed and forage seed issues.

It holds its annual meeting in November in Kansas City. Strachota will serve one year each in the positions of Secretary, Second Vice-President, and Vice-President before serving a one-year term as president.

"The seed industry recognizes Dairyland's strong position in alfalfa plant breeding. This recognition carries over into other facets of our business which allow us to have an opportunity to provide input as to how the industry shapes its future," stated Tom.

Founded in 1907 in St. Kilian, WI, Dairyland Seed Co., Inc. is the only family-held seed company that conducts proprietary plant breeding programs in hybrid corn, soybeans and alfalfa. In addition to the West Bend, WI, headquarters, there are breeding and nursery facilities in Gibson City, IL; Otterbein, IN; Clinton, WI; Gilbert, IA; Sloughouse, CA; as well as winter sites in the southern U.S., Hawaii, Mexico and South America.

Andersons Bring Cranberry 'Scent'sations to Kettle Kountry

Visitors to the Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Fun Festival in River Hill Park this weekend will find some innovative entrepreneurs in Dennis and Paulette Anderson, the Wisconsin couple who found a way to make dollars and cents using cranberry scents.

The leaves and vines that are discarded at most cranberry marshes are used by the Andersons to produce cranberry potpourri and other assorted specialties.

Under the umbrella name, Heph-Zi-Bah, they manufacture natural "Cranourri" that can be steamed, simmered or used as a dry potpourri. They also make a natural cranberry aerosol which is like an air freshener, except that it won't hurt skin, fabrics, or lungs and it is ozone safe.

Those other specialties include cranberry fragrance, candles, gourmet cranberry jelly beans and gourmet cranberry dried treats.

The family dries the leaves and vines, grinds them and adds dyes and fragrances, including cranberry oil. They ship out hundreds of thousands of packages every year to stores, art festivals and fairs.

What started in the fall of 1985 as a small venture has turned into a big business for the Andersons, which now fully supports their family. They are located in Wisconsin Rapids.

Still Time to Take Part In KEYS 5K Run/Walk

Good weather should bring a huge turnout for the sixth annual KEYS Scholarship Run/Walk on Sunday, October 10, being held in conjunction with Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival.

Over 750 participants have pre-registered with more expected on the morning of the event. If you have not yet registered, it is not too late to be part of this event that annually brings our community together for education.

Both of last year's winners, Sue Daggett and Matt Thull, will be back to defend their titles as fastest of the women and men in the 5K race. Walkers are equally welcome, and anyone can register up to 10:30 a.m. on Sunday morning.

KEYS would also like to thank all of the sponsors for their tremendous support in this race. Without their continued help, the scholarship fund could not achieve its great success in helping so many of the community's students continue on with higher education.

KEYS is also grateful to the many individuals who have contributed through pledges, and to the many organizations and companies who have contributed prizes and incentive awards. Parent organizations in each of the schools have also helped by offering competitions to involve more of the students.

KEYS extends a special thanks to Tim Rohlinger and his business education students for their help with computerizing all the registration data.

See you at the starting line, Sunday, October 10 at 11 a.m.!

THE WONDERMENT OF IT ALL!
by Ami

Many of my friends tell me that October is their favorite month of each year. When asked the Why & How of this, their retort points to the hardwood show of colors we are treated to each October by Mother Nature. Indeed, the East coast has nothing better than the array of color Wisconsin trees can boast. I will never forget my first trip East to join their thousands of cars containing "leaf watchers" out to enjoy the Color-Rama of fall. Actually, those cars drove bumper to bumper for mile upon mile. An experience that I could barely believe.

However, that experience welled up in my heart this past week as I enjoyed the sight of a tiny gold finch, sitting astride a tall downy thistle. Its sleek little body providing a splash of bright yellow and shiny black against the light blue of the sky. An instant flash of colorful wild birds suddenly came to mind...the Baltimore Oriole ... the raucous Blue Jay and delicate Blue bird...the brilliant red and black winged Scarlet Tanager ... the swamp Red-Winged Black birds and the long legged Blue Herons and Pure White Egrets. Indeed, the Creator's brilliance in fashioning such a show of colors in the bird families, alone, is a fit almost magical to whet the eye of men and women and their offspring to freely enjoy.

And then, one dare not forget to mention added to the showy tree leaves...the families of Goldenrod, Aster, Blue Bottle Gentian and the shocking red berries of the Jack in the Pulpit! Just a few of the many floral colors fall parades across meadow and roadside. Add to that the small and large pure WHITE PUFF balls so delicious to eat and delicate to handle . . . and the many edible and poisonous mushrooms of varied colors and textures.

Indeed, our Maker has provided us with a masterful array of lovely colors the world-over.

RINGSIDE SEATS...

A limited number of ringside seats will be available for Saturday's wrestling matches at Kettle Kountry Kolors in River Hill Park. The seats will be available on the west and east sides of the ring and on the stage area, slightly above the ring, for $5.00 each, on a first come, first serve basis.

These are the only seats available, other than the picnic tables in the beer garden and the standing room only space.

To reserve your ringside seat, please contact Lana or Andrew at 626-2626.

Clowns, kids, and balloons are part of the reason the Kettle Kountry Kolors festival is so appealing for the entire family.

SHARE the Season
Local Volunteers Prepare for the Holidays

All across Wisconsin, upper Michigan and northern Illinois, volunteers are getting ready for SHARE the Season, a special project to brighten the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. SHARE, an organization that distributes low-cost food all year long, sponsors SHARE the Season as a way to make sure there's a festive holiday dinner available for everyone's table.

"It's a neighbor-to-neighbor kind of project," said Paulette Hardin, SHARE's Executive Director: "People in the community contribute money to buy a holiday dinner for a family that may need a helping hand. Businesses and other organizations get involved too. It's heartwarming to see the way people reach out to one another."

SHARE's holiday dinner package contains a 9-pound turkey and the trimmings needed to fix a meal for six people, including dessert. The dinners must be ordered in advance and cost only $15 each, plus a small shipping charge. Anyone wishing to save time and money on their holiday dinner, or wishing to purchase one for someone else, is welcome to place an order. Volunteers at local SHARE host sites handle the distribution.

"The volunteers at our host sites are like Santa's elves," said Hardin. "They work hard to make sure no one is left out of the light and love of the holiday season. What's remarkable is knowing that they do this every month, not just in November and December. But during the holidays they really shine."

SHARE has more than 15 years experience with community-based volunteer food distribution. The not-for-profit organization's purpose is to build and strengthen the community by promoting volunteer service and helping people save money on groceries every month. Everyone is welcome to participate. There are no income or eligibility requirements.

For information on how to be a part of SHARE the Season activities, call 626-2804 or call SHARE's main office at 1-800-548-2124.

November orders must be received by Oct. 28. December orders must be received by Nov. 24th.

Letter to The Editor

To the voters of the Kewaskum School District:

I think most of you would agree with me when I say that we want our children to become productive, respectful and responsible members of our society who will make worthwhile contributions during their lifetimes.

When our children go to school, we want them to work hard, to do their best, to take pride in their accomplishments, and to make us proud. We want them to care for others and care for their schools. We want them to think school is important.

But wait-- what is the message we are giving these, our children, when we continue to vote against decent school buildings for them? We send them to a Kewaskum Elementary School that is hopelessly inadequate, where little kids are in rooms with windows meant for high school students, where getting anywhere in the building means up-the-stairs-down-the-stairs-up-the-stairs! We sent them to a Farmington Elementary School that is bursting out of its skin, where classes are jam-packed into spaces that should have housed far fewer children, and a library must now be located in a hallway! We send them to a Wayne Elementary School where classes are getting larger, and crowding looms on the horizon.

What are we saying to our kids day after day after day, when we send them to dilapidated, crowded buildings that cannot meet their educational needs? Is this the way to give a message of hope and caring, hard work and pride, and say, "You are very important to us"?

I think not.

It's time to give our children the message that we REALLY want them to have, a message we can be proud of, a message that is productive, respectful and responsible. We need to show them that OUR SCHOOLS AND OUR CHILDREN ARE IMPORTANT. Change that message and vote YES on November 2.

Connie Zemlicka

Dear Editor,

First I'd like to thank our district's school superintendent Wayne P. Graczyk for his eloquent articles in the 23rd and 30th of September issues of the Statesman. His urging to make a stand to vote on the referendum November 2nd and to consider only facts before you vote, as I believe there is no more obvious a fact that there truly is an urgent need for the construction referred to in this referendum.

This week I will dwell on the need for a new elementary school in Kewaskum. There are many people who believe the school should be built at a new location. This certainly has many good points but it also has many drawbacks so the board's decision to build on site was the plan with the least drawbacks plus it was the plan voters indicated they favored in the advisory referendum.

If it wasn't plain to the people who visited the school when tours were available, that it does not meet state and federal requirements, plus that it is deteriorating in areas, they couldn't have been paying attention. If it isn't decided soon to replace it, the state or federal government will make the decision for us and then we'll be forced to pay through the nose.

If we all get out and vote this referendum will pass as I honestly believe that the majority of us are intelligent enough and have the welfare of the children in mind to recognize the urgent need, so once again, please vote November 2nd and vote "YES."

Thank you,
Lloyd A. Koch

KMS Sixth Graders Enjoy Camp Whitcomb Experience

This year Kewaskum Middle School sixth graders attended Camp Whitcomb on September 16-17 or September 23-24. Camp Whitcomb is located in Hartland. It contains 284 acres of forests, lakes, marsh, ponds, open fields, cabins and lodges.

The students enjoyed a variety of activities this year, and many KMS staff members volunteered their time and expertise to help make this a memorable experience. Students rotated through eight different activities: Archery taught by John Breese; Box Baking taught by Mrs. Kathy West (seventh grade teacher); Cooperative Challenge Course led by Ms. Leslis Bruss and Mrs. Diane Stangl (sixth grade teachers); Wet and Wild Pond Study led by Mrs. Karen Larson (seventh grade teacher); Walk on the Wild Side led by Erv Uhlman (sixth grade teacher); Wax Works Candle-Making taught by Mrs. Robin Dorst (FACE teacher); Lucky Lures Fishing taught by Mrs. Kris Dreher (sixth grade teacher), and Canoe Safety led by Erica the camp's environmentalist.

Also helping out with overnight cabin supervision was Chuck Dreher and Bill Stangl. A great big thank you goes to all of these people who made this trip a huge success.

Other favorite activities that the students participated in were campfire songs and activities, a night hike with only one flashlight, passing the "Suzy" secretly around, tug-of-war competitions, and many cabin-time activities. Rest assured, any sixth grader would love to share their positive thoughts about their experiences while at Camp Whitcomb. They all seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves while learning and gaining knowledge about the environment.

What a Hunt!

On Saturday, September 18, in the Nicolet National Forest, near Wabeno, Kris Dreher, wife of "Chucker" Dreher of Kewaskum, successfully bagged the above 264-1/2 pound bear. Kris is an educator in the Kewaskum Middle School. She also coaches volleyball and basketball at school. She must be a pretty multi-faceted woman, as it seems she can do it all. On the following Monday night, from her tree stand, she struck her first deer, a doe, with her bow and arrow, shown in the photo below. A hunting weekend can't get much better than that. Congratulations Kris on a very eventful hunting season.

JV Football Team Is 5-0

The Junior Varsity football team defeated previously unbeaten Campbellsport, 16-0, last Thursday, to run their season record to 5-0.

It was a huge victory for the Indians in that it is Campbellsport's first year in the conference and they have been arch rivals for many years.

The Indians' defense scored the games first points when Kevin Schneider tackled a Cougar running back in the end zone for a safety. The other two touchdowns were both on scoring passes from Tom Ogi to Tony Fitts. Josh Bullette successfully kicked both extra points.

The JV Indians play at Manitowoc Roncalli on Thursday, October 7. They will then finish the year with a game at home against Two Rivers and a game at Plymouth. The Indians wins this year include impressive victories over St. Mary's Springs and previously unbeaten Sheboygan Falls.

Neumann Leads Women's CC Team at Invite

University of Wisconsin Stevens Point freshman Carol Neumann, a native of Kewaskum and a graduate of Kewaskum High School, led the UW-Stevens Point women's cross country team at last weekend's UW-Eau Claire Invitational.

Neumann finished 27th overall at the meet with a time of 20:35 to lead the team for the first time this season.

The Pointers finished sixth of seven teams in the invitational and received votes in the latest NCAA Division III rankings.

The Kewaskum High School cross country team hosted the first Indian Invitational on Thursday, September 23. Including Kewaskum, five other schools were invited to participate.

Both the boys and girls ran the five-kilometer course, the set racing distance for girls is four kilometers. Kewaskum coach Dave Drexler wanted to try the distance, just in case the WIAA changes the girls' racing distance next year.

Drexler commented, "For the first time the girls ran a 5K race, most of the runners said they didn't notice the difference!"

Overall, Campbellsport won the girls' meet with a total of 36 points. Kewaskum finished second with 47 points. Third place was Markesan with 67 points, and fourth place was captured by Laconia with 124 points. Ozaukee was one runner short of a complete team.

Colleen Gosa of Kewaskum led the entire race on her home course, winning with a time of 22:23. Campbellsport's Shannon Kleine finished second in 23:01. Jacki Hill of Ozaukee finished third in 23:06. Emily Rinzel helped Kewaskum's effort with a fourth place finish in 23:13. Kathy Wess of Markesan, finished fifth in 23:22.

Heather Hackbarth and Kelly Darmody of Kewaskum finished 12th and 13th in 24:05 and 24:27. Michelle Zingsheim finished 17th in 25:23. Lauren Schultz finished with a time of 27:12 and Joyce Wagner ran the course in 27:18.

Coach Drexler said, "For being a longer distance the girls ran a tough race. Colleen Gosa ran an exceptional race, taking the lead early and never giving it up. Heather Hackbarth is coming into her own, moving up and tightening up the pack."

Ozaukee won the boys' competition with a total of 36 points. Campbellsport finished second with 45 points. Markesan finished third with 71 points. Kewaskum was fourth with 95 points. Laconia finished fifth with 104 points.

Campbellsport's Nick Martiny led for the entire boys race to win in 18:01. His teammate, Dusty Mueller, finished second in 18:48. Brad Mayer of Ozaukee finished third in 18:51. Markesan's Aaron Burbach finished fourth in 18:59 and teammate Casey Kuehn finished sixth in 19:04.

Brendan Weinhold ran the course in 24:06.

Coach Drexler commented, "The boys also ran a tough race, six of them turned in personal bests. Koh turned his ankle early in the race but still managed to finish strong. Bryan and Josh are becoming good team leaders."

Times for the KHS JV team were as follows: Cory Wendegatz, 22:10; John Neumann 23:24; Adam Woebeking, 24:01, and Darin O'Neill, 26:11.

Lady Indian Golfers Advance to Sectionals

Stephanie Brettingen

Niki Dreher

Coach Carol Martin

The varsity girls golf team advanced to sectional play with their third place finish at Rolling Meadows Golf Course in Fond du Lac this week despite the strong winds.

It was unusual to have to step back from the ball as the winds added an additional challenge for all the golfers. The scores were higher than normal but the Lady Indians shot well enough to qualify the entire team with their 405 score.

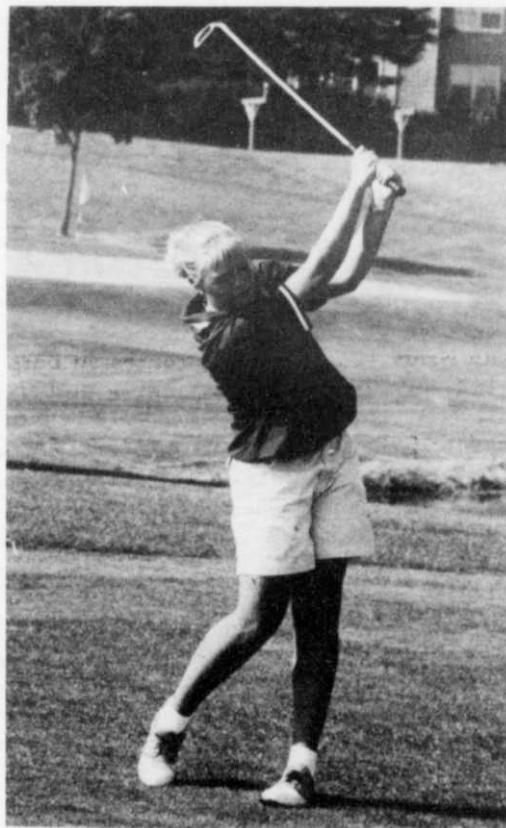

Best for the Indians was sophomore Niki Dreher who posted a 46-45--91. Amy Piwoni, qualifying for her second sectional competition shot a 50-50--100, while Stephanie Brettingen had a 52-55--107 and Courtney Timblin shot a 59-50--109. Jody Wichtoski had the score that didn't count this time with a 114.

The first place team at Regionals was Neenah/Menasha with a 398, while second place went to Fond du Lac with a 405. Individual meet medalist was Carrie Detjen of Two Rivers with an 87. Carrie qualified last year for the state meet as a junior.

The golfers were scheduled to face the toughest competition in the state on October 5, as they headed into the Beaver Dam Sectional. The #1 and #2 ranked teams in the state in Arrowhead and Homestead were there so the golfing was as tough as the state tournament will be. Results will be published next week.

Indians Lose First Kettle Moraine Bowl to Cougars

The Kewaskum Indians and the Campbellsport Cougars went head-to-head last Friday night in the First Annual Kettle Moraine Bowl which the Cougars won, 12-3.

The Indians #30 David Lettow eludes a Campbellsport tackler as he tries to gain more yardage.

The First Annual Kettle Moraine Bowl was all that it was expected to be as the third ranked Campbellsport Cougars came to do battle with the Kewaskum Indians.

As expected, it was a defensive battle which is often the case when two good teams go head to head. The Indians won the toss and received the ball. Three plays later quarterback Chris Koth fumbled when 235 pound linebacker Clint Beck put a big hit on the 165 pound quarterback.

The Cougars Dan Mueller pounced on the ball at the Indian 25 yard line to give the Cougars the first big break of the game. It only took three plays before Clint Beck ran the ball in from the five for the first score of the game. Jason Strobel, however, blocked the extra point leaving the score 6-0 with 9:28 left in the quarter.

The Indian defense turned it up a notch the rest of the half, holding Campbellsport's high-powered offense to only 44 yards for the remainder of the first half.

The Indian offense, after starting slowly, began to move the ball, thanks to senior fullback Mike Farchione's hard running up the middle of the Cougar defense. The Indians moved the ball 65 yards to the Cougar five yard line and with five seconds left in the half, Chris Koth kicked a 26 yard field goal to make the half time score 6-3 in favor of Campbellsport.

The second half saw both defenses playing hard-nosed defense as the Indians swarmed to the ball and gang tackled on a regular basis. Field position like the week before turned against the Indians in the second half and made it difficult for the offense to get the lead.

In the third quarter, the Cougars came up with the play of the game as quarterback Ziegler connected with Mueller for a 47 yard pass to the Indians four yard line. Clint Beck scored shortly afterwards with a one yard run to make the score, 12-3 (the extra point was no good) with 19 seconds left in the third period.

The fourth quarter found the Indians throwing more but with the Cougar defense attacking at the line of scrimmage, there was little time to throw the ball which resulted in some scrambling by Koth and some interceptions.

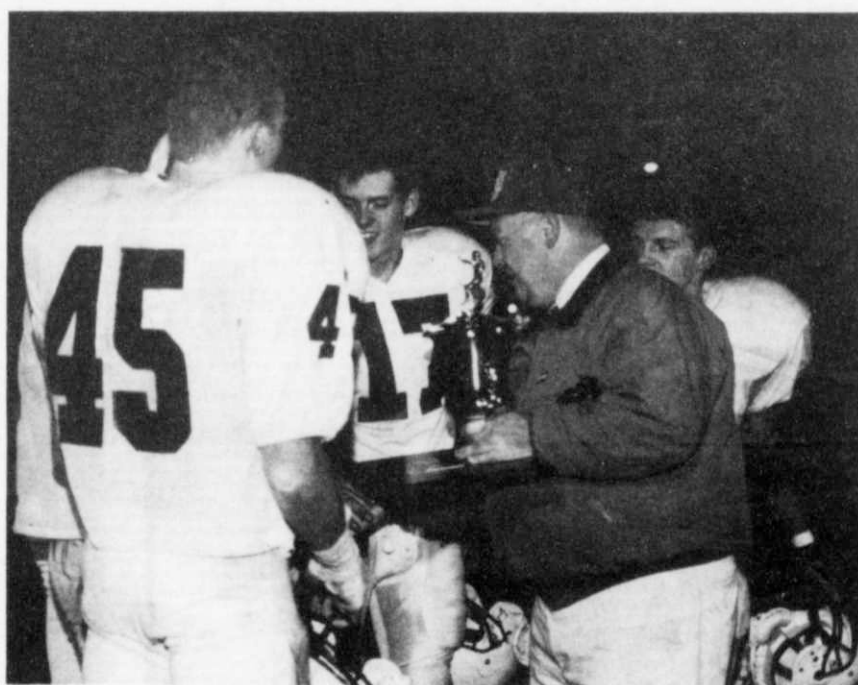

Kewaskum had several chances to make some big plays but two long passes just went off the hands of Indian receivers and one pass into the endzone just missed being a touchdown while in the fourth quarter, a 25 yard pass reception to Chris Canter was called back by a holding penalty.

"I'm very proud of the effort that the kids put out tonight," said head coach Perry Koth, adding, "We knew whoever made the fewest mistakes would probably win the game and we made the mistakes. We have played the second and third ranked teams in the area, back to back, and played both of them tough. The kids have nothing to feel bad about. We'll bounce back for Roncalli this week, for our Homecoming game."

Statistically, the game was even with the Indians putting up 167 yards of total offense compared to 176 yards for the Cougars. Kewaskum turned over the ball three times on three interceptions, while the Cougars also had three turnovers, two fumbles and one interception.

Odekirks Were Original Buckskinners At Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival

By Laurie Ottery

Kettle Kountry Kolors offers a great way to turn back time, visit the past and preserve the historical days of the "Rendezvous." The word rendezvous is French, meaning a meeting place or a place to gather. Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors includes a Buckskinners Encampment as part of the annual event.

John, better known as "Jack" Odekirk and his wife, Millie, became interested in the Rendezvous in the early 1980's when Millie was working on genealogy. They attended events around the state and became hooked on the reliving of the pioneer days.

"Jack and I enjoyed the new found friends that quickly became our pioneer families," said Millie. "We met people from all over and learned about the history of days of cooking over an open fire, trading for goods and the attire that was worn. Jack and I met people who were our like-minded friends."

In visits with their friend, Richard Thieme, a local barber, they discovered that he too had visited some of the Rendezvous and enjoyed them. Together they organized and brought the Buckskinners Rendezvous to Kewaskum.

Buckskinner is a term used to describe a group of people who enjoy reliving the North American Fur Trade era. They are also known for the many adventurous tales they tell.

In the early 1800's few roads existed in Wisconsin. The rivers were the super-highways of travel. Fur traders and trappers would transport their heavy bundles in dugouts and birch bark canoes to a rendezvous. Farmers and settlers soon began to join them transporting goods by rafts, flatboats and some by wagon train.

The rendezvous became a way for people of all cultures to meet, visit, exchange ideas and understandings, as well as trade goods to see them through the following year. The time period represents the beginning of French colonization to the 1840's, when fur trading seems to have ended. The fur business was replaced by silk as the choice fabric in New York,

Paris and London.

The Odekirks begin their season with an indoor rendezvous in Oshkosh. From there they had a schedule of the season's events. An average year would include about 11 events ending the season with the Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Fun Festival in Kewaskum each October.

"In the beginning Jack and I slowly started to acquire clothing of the pioneer era," said Millie. "Jack even wore a loin cloth when it was hot years back. We each had a capote, which is a French trader's long hooded coat, sometimes made out of an Indian blanket. We'd wear it during the day and use it as a blanket at night."

Jack was diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease and Millie also faced some health problems, slowing them down in their ability to attend more events. In 1997 they passed their duties of overseeing the Buckskinners and their behavior to friends Willie and Betty Wilhelme.

Rendezvous are held all over the state with each one having its own unique activ-

"Every event holds excitement, anticipation and something different to look forward to," said Millie. "Some have canoe races, muzzle loading shoots, black powder shooting, knife throwing and tomahawk "Hawk" throw contests, basket weaving, pie eating contests, fry pan throws, spear tossing, wood carving and much more. Many of the events we have attended also have someone popping popcorn over an open fire and have the aromas of many other home-cooked meals."

Millie was no stranger to competition. At an event in Prairie du Chien, she once took first place in the knife throw and second in the "Hawk" throw.

"I always did better at the men-type contests than things like speed contests to sew on a button or keeping an entire apple peel in one piece," said Millie. "Mine always broke. I'm not getting any younger and after a couple of falls, I leave the contests to the younger crowd."

The Odekirks traveled mostly within the state but did attend the Midwest Rendezvous held in Illinois in 1983. Other travels included the three biggest events in the state at Prairie Villa Rendezvous in Prairie du Chien, with over 1000 lodges; Cross-Roads Rendezvous in Saukville, and W.B. Place Rendezvous in Hartford.

Other travels include Logjam at Wausau, Sawdust Days in Oshkosh, Smokey Hollow Muzzle-loaders event held near Cascade, Skunk Hollow in Sheboygan, Marsh Haven outside of Waupun, Peshigo, Mayville, Kaukauna, Man-itowoc and Heritage Hill in Green Bay, just to name a few.

Many of the Buckskinners have nicknames like Whip, who gives a whip demonstration and his wife, Honeybear. Cedar Wind is the name of a couple known as Christine Ibach and Al Jewer, who perform and have recorded the music of traditional Native American flutes.

Christine received her first flute at a Mohican pow-wow. The Buckskinners usually include many who show their talents on the harmonica, dulcimer, fiddle and many other instruments.

"Jack and I were known just as Jack and Millie," added Millie. "Sometimes if you did something stupid you'd get tagged with a name like when a lady fell out of the boat into the river in Kewaskum a couple of years ago. She became known as Riverfall."

The rendezvous excursions have added many pleasant memories to the lives of the Odekirk family. Their daughter Kathy and her husband Jon Hughett make and sell silver jewelry at events. They now travel using a tent once used by her parents. Millie speaks highly of another daughter, Shary and her expertise in making fry bread over an open fire.

Many memories of historical rendezvous cover the scrapbooks and photo albums at the Odekirk home. Millie speaks fondly of a beaded dress given to her by a friend that she wears to encampments, weddings that have taken place at Rendezvous, her Zoony Squash Blossom Pattern necklace, the many special friends she has made and treasured.

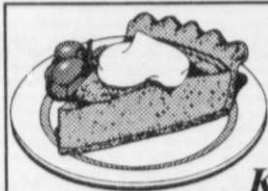

There was the meeting of Tiny Tim at Logjam in Wausau in 1992 and the many evenings enjoying friends, passing the jug and listening to music by a fire.

The last long trip that Jack and Millie made to a Rendezvous was in 1997 to Peshtigo. In 1998 Parkinson's had confined Jack to a wheelchair, making travel difficult. Millie cared for him at home, but they did manage to get out and see the wagon train as it traveled through the state.

Jack lost his battle with Parkinson's Disease on April 30, 1999. He lived a full life enjoying time with his wife, five children, nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He also liked fishing, hunting, woodworking and winemaking and his 18 years as an avid Buckskinner.

"Jack enjoyed making things," stated Millie. "One of his woodworking projects included a gun cabinet built to hold 12 guns. As Jack's health began to fail, he passed out 18 of his treasured guns and muzzleloaders to his children so that he was sure they each received what he wanted for them. He made several tables and stepstools used at Rendezvous. Our home on Auburn Lake is part of Jack's family history once owned by his grandfather and father."

At Kettle Kountry Kolors in 1995 Jack and Millie joined friends in a sacred ceremony. One was part Mohican and another part Winnebago Indian. Together they smoked a peace pipe and drank a swig of rum.

Jack Odekirk's death was a celebration of his life. His funeral was unique. He was buried in his buckskin attire. Included in his casket were tokens like a small tomahawk, turkey foot, turkey feather, a package of his favorite tobacco, which he smoked in a homemade pipe and the casket's inside cover had a beautiful photo of a deer.

The burial at St. Matthew's Cemetery in Campbellsport included a bugle player performing Taps, a bagpipe player performing the song Amazing Grace and an American Legion salute. While all the activity was going on a lone hawk hovered overhead landing in a tree nearby observing.

Following the burial the family returned to the homestead on Auburn Lake. There the children proceeded to Jack's deerstand and shot their own salute to their father. Once again a hawk hovered overhead.

Millie says the days of loading up the antique coffee pot, pioneer clothing, old silverware, cast iron skillets and tent supplies are behind her. She still likes to visit whenever she can to see her friends at the encampments.

The idea of a rendezvous started in the early 1800's with fur traders, farmers and settlers meeting to trade their goods. The tradition now continues with the many Buckskinner Rendezvous held and more people becoming interested in the events. Many learning and living the historical times, now revisit it.

Jack Odekirk helped bring to Kewaskum the pioneer clothing, the lodges (tent and area of the camp), aromas of open-fire cooking and history lessons. The first year there were 11 lodges and this year over 100 are expected to fill both sides of the Milwaukee River in River Hill Park.

Attend the Last Kettle Kountry of the Century

By Louise Martin

It began as a dream. Ideas started to develop. Soon it magnified, deepened and snowballed. Preliminary plans were made. Events were scheduled. Finally, following many meetings and hours of preparation in the fall of 1989, the first Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors was born and the dream became a reality!

Kettle Kountry Kolors celebrates its tenth annual appearance on Saturday and Sunday, October 9 and 10 at River Hill Park and along the banks of the serene Milwaukee River in Kewaskum. Coincidentally, it is also the last Kettle Kountry of the 20th century.

Although committee members have changed over the years, some have come and some have gracefully retired, the emphasize for this event has remained constant over the years... family fun at little or no cost to festival goers.

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce members have been diligently working to provide another outstanding weekend here in the beautiful Kettle Moraine. It is the Chamber's intention to share our own little corner of God's country to all who care to appreciate its fall brilliance.

Many people have enjoyed Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors over the years with an estimated attendance of over 10,000 in 1998. This year's festival has many popular returning attractions, plus a host of new activities, again, at little or no charge!

Making a return along the banks of the lazy Milwaukee River, amid the rich hues of autumn, will be the camps and lodges occupied by the ever-popular Buckskinners. At this teaching encampment, members will gladly explain to you the "tricks of the trade" during the Buckskinner era. Watch a blacksmith create a masterpiece, cheer at the "hawk (tomahawk) throwing contest," marvel at the expert whip demonstration, and enjoy the sights and sounds of a time that seems forgotten.

Children will find lots of fun things to see and do. A special children's activity tent will feature Animal Encounters, juggling, Dancercise Kids, puppets and music. Bingo the Clown will fascinate many with shows scheduled at 10:30 a.m. on both days of the festival. Pumpkin carving, a basketball shootout, make-it-and-take-it crafts, a BB gun shoot and a hole-in-one golf contest are activities sure to delight young and old alike.

Be sure to check out the State Patrol safety equipment display and you won't want to miss the Reserve National Guard helicopter landing and exhibit on Saturday. Also featured on Saturday, back by popular demand, will be the professional wrestlers, a current trend in spectator sports, featuring The Sodbuster, "Kenny J," who will perform on Saturday during matches at 1 and 4 p.m.

For your listening pleasure, enjoy the sounds of the Kewaskum High School Jazz Band, Twin Hill String Band, Blues Blisters from Fond du Lac, Joey Minz and the soothing, peaceful sounds of InterRaymi, a favorite of last year, playing native music of the Andes.

Sunday will feature the annual 5K Kewaskum Youth Scholarship, Inc.

(KEYS) walk/run beginning at 11 a.m. The event is open to everyone. The course winds through the village of Kewaskum and can be completed as quickly or leisurely as one would like to take it. It would take the average person approximately one hour to walk.

Sunday begins with a tasty pancake breakfast, sponsored by the Kewaskum Sno Chief, served from 8 to 11 a.m. Peace United Church of Christ of Kewaskum will sponsor the annual church service at 9 a.m. again this year in the Children's Activity Tent.

Whatever you are in search of, there's a good chance you'll find that special gift item (and one for yourself!) in the popular craft tents. Each year the tents and outdoor displays expand, allowing new vendors and familiar vendors to show and sell their craftsmanship.

You must bring a hearty appetite to Kettle Kountry

Kolors. A large variety of foods will be available, including soups, hot sandwiches, Italian and other ethnic foods, luscious homemade desserts, French-fried treats, specialty coffees, (Continued on Page 6)

To top off any sandwich in the park the The Kewaskum Woman's Club members will have their perennial favorites, a large assortment of delicious desserts, creme puffs, eclairs and tortes.

A welcome addition this year to the food selections will be that of an Italian fare presented by Presto Italino of West Bend. Gene Presta, owner of Presto Italiano says he will be serving up traditional favorites such as Italian wedding soup, Italian meatball sandwiches and tasty Italian Sausage sandwiches that will leave you saying, "Mama mia!"

Savor a juicy grilled steak sandwich and wash it down with a Coke or Budweiser products. This will be offered by festival promoter, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, or visit the Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club booth for a hot dog, chili dog, hot pretzels, caramel apples or hot apple cider.

You could also be encircled by last minute food vendors with lots of hot, homemade soups to ward off fall's chill, and others who couldn't resist the offer to come and tempt your tastebuds.

What festival would be complete without funnel cakes, lemonade, popcorn and cotton candy? These items, as usual, will be available from other local vendors.

Does your sweet tooth need a quick fix? Try another local favorite... Julia Desterhoft from the Parkview General Store in the Mauthe Lake area will be bringing her fresh, yummy, mouth-watering homemade fudge for you to try.

Did you miss the Kewaskum Lions Club's annual chicken BBQ? Have no fear the chicken will be here along with a selection of Door County wine.

The Silver Platter Family Restaurant will also be taking their kitchen on the road this year. Tammy and Roy "I wanna kiss that Kettle Kountry Pig" Garbisch will be serving up fresh, crisp salads for those with a taste for a vegetarian appetite. Tammy and Roy will also be serving soup and their famous pizzas by the slice.

What a variety! One could eat all day and never eat the same thing twice! Take a break from the kitchen, bring your appetite and let your favorite chefs at River Hill Park do the cookin' during Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Runners, Walkers Keying Up for Sixth Annual Event

Area runners and walkers gathered along Parkview Drive on the west side of the Milwaukee River before the start of last year's KEYS 5K Run/Walk held annually in conjunction with Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Family Fun Festival.

Kewaskum school district students and their families are getting in shape for the 1999 KEYS Scholarship 5K Run/Walk on Sunday, October 10. The race begins at 11 a.m. at River Hill Park in Kewaskum and offers runners and walkers the opportunity to support the student scholarship fund as well as win valuable prizes for themselves.

This sixth annual event is held in conjunction with the community's Kettle Kountry Kolors weekend of festivities.

Runners can win cash prizes of $100, $75 and $50 for first, second and third places respectively in both the male and female categories. Bonus prizes of $200 each are available to the male who breaks the course record of 14:27 and the female who breaks the course record of 17:38.

Many new age groups have been added for runners and walkers this year and medals will be awarded to the first three finishers in each group, both male and female. Race walkers are also urged to participate and compete for awards.

The younger children are offered an opportunity for a short race at noon this year. This race is for fun and has no entry fee.

Runners and walkers who collect pledges at various levels to KEYS are eligible for incentive awards of several different gift certificates, embroidered sweat-shirts, movie passes, portable CD players and Trek mountain bikes.

Advance registrations are taken until race day. The entry fee is $12 per person or $36 for a family of four (each additional family member costs $8.) Race day registration will be held at the race headquarters from 9 a.m. until 10:30 a.m. and will cost $15. Water will be provided along the course and snacks will be available after the race.

The start line for the race is located on Parkview

Drive on the west side of the Milwaukee River, near the Kewaskum Historical Society Museum. The race course winds throughout the streets of Kewaskum.

Join in, just for the FUN of it, and support KEYS, the student scholarship fund.

Mid-American Wrestling Matches Back at Kettle Kountry Kolors

Sodbuster Kenny J, popular wrestler from the '70's, will be a special referee during the Mid-American Wrestling matches, back by popular demand, which will be held at 1 and 4 p.m. on Saturday.

As shown above, wrestling fans from miles around filled the beer garden at last year's festival to see the first-ever wrestling matches at Kettle Kountry Kolors. They requested a repeat performance and the committee was happy to oblige.

The stars of Mid-American Wrestling will once again invade Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors family fun festival this year, with not one, but two, big shows set for Saturday, October 9, in River Hill Park.

The 1 and 4 p.m. shows, to be held in the Beer Garden on the festival grounds, will feature eight stars taking part in a tournament to crown the "King of Kewaskum."

Participants in the single-elimination tournament feature Ian Rotten, star of the IWA in Louisville, Kentucky; newly-crowned

Mid-American Heavyweight Champion Hardcore Craig and WWF signee, The SkullKrusher. Also entered in the tourney are former MAW champion Billy Joe Eaton, high-flying Dino Bambino, and others.

As a special attraction, Sodbuster Kenny Jay has been assigned as a special referee. Kenny is known throughout the country for his valiant battles in the 70's against the likes of Nick Bockwinkel, Mad Dog Vachon, Jesse Ventura and others.

The Sodbuster will also be available for photos and autographs after each show.

Make sure you don't miss your opportunity to witness professional wrestling stars, past and present, at the 10th Annual Kettle Kountry Kolors, at 1 and 4 p.m., on Saturday, October 9th.
