Civic Committee Formed to Promote Erection of Area Performing Arts Center

KEWASKUM, — When we ask ourselves what the future holds in store for the small communities that dot the geography of the northern Kettle Moraine, certainly the most important question that we can ask ourselves is this: what will the future bring for our children? Will they be able to prosper and grow in a culture that fosters learning, tolerance, character building and achievement?

Our jobs as parents, as community leaders, as workers, and as educators should be to guarantee that our children can lay claim to their future through every possible opportunity that we can provide for them. We have provided them homes in which we can train them, teach them, and nurture them. As communities we have provided schools for additional educational and athletic opportunities. We have established churches for worship and spiritual growth. Our communities are dotted with malls, shops, arcades and numerous other opportunities for entertainment, for socializing and for employment. Yet, there is one large absence in this complex arrangement of buildings a center for the performing mobile, catch a football, or shop in their favorite mall. Unfortunately, they have limited opportunity to compete in a local piano competition, meaningfully display their artistic talent, dance across a well-designed stage, or participate in a drama or musical. The reason is, performance facilities in the area were not designed with acoustics, staging or multi-faceted performances in mind.

Aggressive development is taking place all around us as shopping centers, commercial housing developments, business parks and private homes spring up everywhere. This growth is also spurring an increased demand for community centered cultural, social and educational events. We need a performing arts facility that can accommodate this demand.

We believe that there is a need to provide our children and all the citizens of this beautiful part of Wisconsin with a place where they can experience the performing arts. We believe that with such a facility, our children will grow and prosper intellectually and our communities will benefit socially and culturally. We believe that all of us bear the responsibility for making this happen--that is why we need YOUR help!

OUR MISSION

Recently, a group of concerned citizens from this established the Moraine Area Performing Arts Council (M.A.P.A.C.). We would like to build a performing arts facility that would serve communities in the northern Kettle Moraine and surrounding areas. We believe that we can make a difference in the lives of our children by insuring that they have every opportunity possible to grow and develop into responsible citizens and

It is our goal to build a performing arts center which would provide our children with a place to:

- Perform in musicals, dramas and other stage presentations.
- Compete in speech and forensic competitions.
- Display artwork, crafts and other handiworks.
- Hear talented guest performers, musical groups, and lecturers.
- Dance and let their imaginations soar.
- Experience live concerts and community events.
- Be entertained by comedy, magic, and drama.

Lauren Nelson

The Kewaskum Lions will be sponsoring Lauren Nelson and Colleen Gosa to attend the World Affairs Seminar at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

Lauren is the daugther of Jan and Rick Nelson and Colleen is the daughter of Mary and Gerald Gosa.

This June, over 1,000 young people from North America in association with 250 foreign exchange students from throughout the world will spend a week on the University Campus at Whitewater.

The purpose of this very unique youth activity is to provide a forum for future leaders to be introduced to, and discuss some of the most perplexing global problems of our times. Hopefully, this will contribute to future world peace.

The World Affairs Seminar is a personalized educational program for select high school students to learn about people from around the globe through personal association with young people from other countries. While the seminar program has been fashioned by a dedicated staff, it still remains in the final analysis what the students make of it.

The Kewaskum Lions are honored to send these two outstanding students to a seminar where tolerance and world peace will be the important issues.

Newcomers Dickman and Heiser Acquire Board Seats

By Andrew R. Kuehl Staff Writer/Photographer

Village of Kewaskum residents will see a new face on the Village Board as write-in candidate Mathew Heiser won the expired seat of trustee Warren Dums with 25 votes. Dums decided not to run for re-election.

Heiser has been a resident of the village since 1997. He is 34 years old and the father of two children. He is employed as a Systems Analyst at an area hospital.

A very small number of voters, only 373, showed up at the polls Tuesday. The current population of the village is 3,207.

Incumbent Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, received the highest number of votes with 283. Trustee John Kenworthy, received 262 votes.

Former Trustee Gary Gavin

received seven write-in votes and did not obtain a seat.

In the School Board Election, newcomer Gordie Dickman, took over the seat of outgoing vice president, Jean Goeden who did not run for reelection. Dickman received 769 votes, while incumbent Lisa Maul received 758 votes.

The Town of Wayne had a referendum asking voters if they thought that the Town Clerk should be an appointed or elected position.

Voters responded that they thought that the postion should remain elective with 150 NO votes. Fifty-five town voters thought that the town board should appoint the town clerk.

The current town clerk is Orville Kern, 75, who won another term in last year's spring election against Marilyn Filber.

Republican In the Presidential Preference vote George W. Bush took the county receiving a total of 9,655. As of press time Bush also had led throughout the state. In the county John McCain received 1587, Alan Lee Keyes received 1194, Steve Forbes received 126, Orrin G. Hatch received 40 and Gary L. Bauer received 39. Uninstructed Delegate had 95 votes.

Rummage Sale Benefits Kettle Kountry Kolors

The Kettle Kountry Kolors festival committee has begun their planning for Kettle Kountry Kolors 2000! This years chairmen for the festival will be Scott Timm and Andrew Kuehl.

A rummage sale is being organized to be held in conjunction with the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce's Villagewide Rummage Sale on Saturday, May 27.

The Kettle Kountry committee is asking local residents to donate second hand items like clothes, tools, housewares, collectibles or other things you no longer use for this sale. Items can be taken to Video Post or The Kewaskum Statesman or call 262-626-1831 and we will be happy to pick it up.

Details of the sale will be in a future edition of the Statesman.

All proceeds raised from this sale will benefit Kettle Kountry Kolors, a FREE family festival in Kewaskum's River Hill Park on October 7 and 8, 2000.

Dead Woman's Body Identified

On April 3, 2000, the Washington County Sheriff's Department received verification of a positive identity to the body that had been found along Highway 45, south of Highway 145 in the Town of Richfield on February 28, 2000.

The woman was identified as Sherry Lee Hall who was born on August 16, 1951. Latest information indicates the woman resided in Detroit, Michigan.

The Sheriff's Department has not received the medical examiner's report at this writing and no cause of death has been determined at this time.

Area Performing Arts Center

It is our goal to build a performing arts center which would provide local communities with a place to:

 Establish and participate in local drama, musical, and acting groups.

See their children compete and excel.

■ Gather for community fellowship and other social activities.

■ Be entertained by named artists, national speakers and performing groups.

It is our goal to build a performing arts center which would provide local arts groups and educational institutions with a place to:

Perform their music, dramas, musicals, and dance.

Presently, the facilities that are available in the area are inadequate to meet the needs of our children and the communities in this regard. Halls and auditoriums that do exist lack the proper seating capacity, acoustics, and infrastructure. We believe that our schools and communities are severely limited in what they can do and, in many cases, lack any opportunity at all in undertaking certain types of performances and competitions. We believe that this must change.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

We are seeking two things from you. First, and foremost, we need your support. We would appreciate it if you would fill out the "support form" following this case statement and send it to us at the address provided. Without your support, it will be difficult to proceed with a project of this magnitude and scope.

Once past this initial investigative stage, we hope to proceed with an aggressive fund-raising plan which will enable us to:

■ Develop a feasibility study.

Engage an architect. Purchase property on which a facility could be

 Construct the facility. Maintain and market the facility to the community and surrounding area.

We anticipate that this will be an expensive project; one that will take the commitment of several communities to accomplish. However, with your help, the interest and commitment of local businesses, and the assistance of state and local foundations, we are convinced that we can make this happen. Won't you please help M.A.P.A.C. today by letting us know that you care? Please fill out the "support form" and send it to this address:

First Patients Seen at New Cancer Care Center at St. Joseph's Hospital

The new Cancer Care Center at St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend opened its doors to its first patients Monday, March 27, marking a milestone in the community's ability to provide comprehensive care and services, including radiation therapy, for cancer patients.

It was also an important day for Daniel J. Schmidt of Hubertus, who was the very first patient to have an appointment with radiation oncology professionals in the radiation oncology suite at the Center.

Schmidt, who runs his own carpentry business, said he's pleased that he will be able to receive radiation therapy treatments at the Cancer Care Center in West Bend, where his medical oncologist, Dr. Marjorie Vukelich of Kettle Moraine Oncology, also opened offices Monday.

"I was scheduled to go to

"I was scheduled to go to Milwaukee for radiation therapy, but then we learned that this Center would be opening the 27th of March. I don't mind driving to West Bend, but I do mind driving to Milwaukee," said Schmidt, who also celebrated his 65th birthday this week.

After his diagnosis last year with colon cancer, he underwent surgery before starting chemotherapy treatments several weeks ago. He will begin receiving five weeks of radiation therapy along with chemotherapy

John Flanders, director of patient care services at St. Joseph's and Kim Hunter, Cancer Care Center manager, greeted Dan and his wife Chris on Monday before the couple sat down for a private consultation with Darlene Ehley, R.N., and Dr. Ashima Saini, radiation oncologist.

"I think for the hospital this first day is a dream becoming reality. The hospital and its staff have been working for many years to bring cancer care services to the community," said Flanders. "To see it happen, to care for the first patient, is a wonderful day. The community feels the Cancer Care Center is a great resource."

The over 18,000-square-foot Cancer Care Center is connected to St. Joseph's Community Hospital and includes its own parking area and covered entrance for the convenience of patients. Inside, warm colors, soft lighting, and polished wood accents reinforce the Center's atmosphere of comfort and healing.

The building includes the radiation oncology suite operated by St. Joseph's; the Kettle Moraine Oncology Suite; and the Vince Lombardi Cancer Clinic-

Aurora Health Care suite, which will see its first patients in May. St. Joseph's radiation oncology suite includes exam rooms, a resource center, a reception area, a simulation suite, and the radiation therapy suite, which contains the $1.6 million linear accelerator to deliver radiation therapy. Each of the two medical oncology suites includes reception and resource areas, exam rooms, pharmacies, and spacious rooms with wide windows where patients receive chemotherapy treatments.

Flanders said that, because of the tremendous benefits the Cancer Care Center will bring to the community, the hospital made the commitment to acquire state-of-the-art radiation therapy equipment. The equipment is made by Varian, a leading medical systems manufacturer, and is considered equal to or better than the best equipment currently available in the region.

It is estimated that the Cancer Care Center will be able to provide radiation therapy treatments for at least 90% of the cancer patients in this area who require radiation therapy.

The collaborative effort of the hospital, Kettle Moraine Oncology, and the Vince Lombardi Cancer Clinic-Aurora Health Care in making the Cancer Care Center a reality is also significant for patients.

Connolly and his wife, Kristanne, and the other members of the Connolly Dance Company, will perform their athletic, seemingly gravity-defying dance feats in a recital at noon and at 7:30 p.m., April 14, at the University of Wisconsin-Washington County.

Tickets for the noon performance are $4. Tickets for the evening performance are set at $8 for adults and $6 for seniors and those under 18. All performances are open to the public. Tickets can be reserved by calling (262) 335-5208.

Connolly says some midwestern audiences especially are fearful of attending a modern dance performance, confusing it in their minds with classical ballet. "They automatically think 'tutu',"

But Connolly insists anyone who loves the sheer strength and athletic endeavor of college sports can find something to like at his troupe's performances -- except possibly the body contact and high-sticking of hockey. "We don't do bodychecking, either," he laughs.

But Connolly deliberately has his male and female dancers reverse classical dance roles in some of their pieces. "Where you'd normally expect to find the male dancers lifting their female partners, we sometimes have women dancers lifting the men," he says. "And these women are petite, elegant and beautiful."

From the Land of the Rising Sun To the Dark Continent

Julie and friends.

Have you ever done something that you knew was meant to be?

My dream began when I was a young girl, growing up in Campbellsport, Wisconsin. I wanted to be a missionary.

At the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, I participated in a Study Abroad Program in the South Pacific. My adventure began in Fiji where I lived in a native village and stayed with the National pastor and his family. It was the beginning of the many spiritual and cultural experiences of my life yet to come. My expedition continued onto Australia, then New Zealand and the Cook Islands. Memories I will treasure always.

After university, I moved to Minneapolis where I was blessed with many opportunities that have enhanced my knowledge, experience, skills and relationships.

My dream became a reality in the spring of 1998. It began as I was reading an article about a medical mission in Africa. The following week, I attended an event sponsored by the American Refugee Committee (ARC), which premiered a film about Bosnia. I cannot find the words to even begin to express the impact it had on me. I knew I needed to make a difference and share my blessings.

The next week the pastor's sermon focused on the message "Go into all nations, baptizing the in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Matt. 28:19). That passage never meant more to me as it did that moment. At that point, my purpose was revealed. I knew that somehow, somewhere and with the help of someone I would be an active instrument in God's plan.

At that time, I was introduced to Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS) Kingdom Workers, who coordinates WELS volunteers with needs and opportunities existing in home and world missions. We discussed current opportunities and agreed that my experience, skills and desires matched the needs of an opening position in Ashikaga, Japan.

My journey to Japan began on June 17, 1998 and continued for 12 months. I worked with some Nationals. Pastor Oshino serves the congregation of Ashikaga and Mrs. Oshino administers an education center. I assisted Pastor Oshino with mission outreach and taught approximately 25 English as a Second Language (ESL) classes a week at Elpis, the English Conversational School. My students varied from 1 year olds to adults-definitely variety. Each class lasted one hour. I taught in my living room, the Yawata Kumon School, the Yamashita Kumon School, church, Oyama, shops and students' homes.

My children's classes were very structured, but at times, I felt a bit more of an entertainer than a teacher. I taught at a table on the floor. I used an English-Japanese textbook for each class. I used 12 texts all together. I had a Japanese interpreter in each children's class to give students explanations of assignments. My students were very friendly. As I walked toward class, the students come running toward me with excitement, iSensei, Senseiî!

My adult classes were a bit more relaxed. The text was the only bit of structure. The majority was free conversation about their family, work, hobbies or current affairs. We often compared events in our lives. Our relationships went beyond and became strong friendships, some based on faith in Jesus. Another volunteer, Marcie Tillema accompanied me on the assignment in Japan.

returned Campbellsport, another opportunity sprouted. WELS Kingdom Workers was looking for a volunteer to serve as a coordinator of a pilot project of an Urban Learning Center/Reading Room in Blantyre, Malawi-located in Central Southeastern Africa. I will depart for Malawi in the middle of March 2000 bringing with me books and materials for the Centre along with boxes of supplies donated by my church, Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Synod, in Campbellsport. This assignment requires a commitment of one year where I will be managing the inventory and appearance of the Centre, overseeing scheduling, orientation and work of other volunteers, tracking visitors, answering and discussing inquiries and teaching Sunday School, Bible and English classes.

My whole life is part of God's plan-from the lands of Fiji, through the fields of Japan, extending to the sunsets of Africa. My future is full of many unknowns, but I hold no fear because I have the comfort of the cross and Jesus at my side.

With God's love, Julie Majerus Daughter of Ken and Diane Majerus EDITORS NOTE - - Julie is also the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kaschner of Kewaskum.

Straight Talk About Telemarketing

You know the routine. You sit down to dinner and the phone rings. You answer it. There's a pleasant voice trying to sell you something. If you're tempted by the offer, you'd better get the facts before a potential fraud gets you.

While most phone sales pitches are made on behalf of legitimate organizations offering bona fide products and services, many sales calls are frauds. Consumers lose more than $40 billion a year to telemarketing fraud. That's why we encourage you to be skeptical when you hear a phone solicitation and to be aware of a new law -- the Telemarketing Sales Rule -- that can help you protect yourself from abusive and deceptive telemarketers.

After you read this you will know:

* how frauds work;

* how you can use the new Telemarketing Sales Rule to recognize a fraud and stop unwanted calls;

* how to protect yourself;

* what to do if you've been scammed or want to file a complaint.

HOW TELEMARKETING SCAMS WORK

The heart of a fraudulent telemarketing operation is usually a "boiler room," a rented space with desks, telephones, and experienced sales people who talk to hundreds of people across the country every day. Telephone fraud knows no race, ethnic, gender, age, education or income barriers. Anyone with a phone can be victimized by telemarketing scam artists. Fraudulent telemarketers and sellers may reach you in several ways, but the telephone always plays an important role.

COLD CALLS

You may get a call from a stranger who got your number from a telephone directory, mailing list, or "sucker list." A "sucker list" refers to lists of consumers who have lost money through fraudulent prize promotions or merchandise sales.

These lists contain names, addresses, phone numbers, and other information, such as how much money was spent by people who have responded to telemarketing solicitations. "Sucker lists" are bought and sold by unscrupulous promoters. They are invaluable to scam artists who know that consumers who have been deceived once are vulnerable to additional scams.

DIRECT MAIL

You may get a letter or postcard saying that you've won a prize or a contest. This often is a front for a scam. Instructions tell you to respond to the promoter with certain information. If you do, you'll be called by a sales person who may use persuasive sales pitches, scare tactics and exaggerated claims to deceive you and take your money.

BROADCAST AND PRINT ADVERTISEMENTS

In some cases, you may make the telephone call in response to a television, newspaper or magazine advertisement, or a direct mail solicitation. The fact that you make the call doesn't mean the business is legitimate or that you should be less cautious about buying or investing on the phone.

THE TELEMARKETING SALES RULE

The Federal Trade Commission's Telemarketing Sales Rule requires certain disclosures and prohibits misrepresentations. It gives you the power to stop unwanted telemarketing calls and gives state law enforcement officers the authority to prosecute fraudulent telemarketers who operate across state lines.

The Rule covers most types of telemarketing calls to consumers, including calls to pitch goods, services, "sweepstakes," and prize promotion and investment opportunities. It also applies to calls consumers make in response to postcards or other materials received in the mail.

Keep this information near your telephone. It can help you determine if you are talking with a legitimate telemarketer or a scam artist.

It's illegal for a telemarketer to call you if you've asked not to be called. If they call back, hang up and report them to the Bureau of Consumer Protection.

Calling times are restricted to the hours between 8 a.m. and 9 p.m.

Telemarketers must tell you it's a sales call and who's doing the selling before they make their pitch. If it's a prize promotion, they must tell you that no purchase or payment is necessary to enter or win. If you're asked to pay for a prize, hang up. Free is free.

It's illegal for telemarketers to misrepresent any information, including facts about their goods or services, earnings potential, profitability, risk or liquidity or an investment, or the nature of a prize in a prizepromotion scheme.

Telemarketers must tell you the total cost of the products or services offered and any restrictions on getting or using them,or that a sale is final or non-refundable, before you pay. In a prize promotion, they must tell you the odds of winning, that no purchase or payment is necessary to win, and any restrictions or conditions of receiving the prize.

It's illegal for a telemarketer to withdraw money from your checking account without your express, verifiable authorization.

Telemarketers cannot lie to get you to pay, no matter what method of payment you use.

You do not have to pay for credit repair, recovery room, or advance fee loan/ credit services until these services have been delivered.

Credit repair companies claim that, for a fee, they can change or erase accurate negative information from your credit report. Only time can erase such information.

Recovery room operators contact people who have lost money to a previous telemarketing scam and promise that, for a fee or donation to a specified charity, they will recover your lost money, or the product or prize never received from a telemarketer.

Advance-fee loans are offered by companies who claim they can guarantee you a loan for a fee paid in advance. The fee may range from $100 to several hundred dollars.

If you have the slightest doubt about a telephone offer, wait until you can get information in writing and check it out!

EXCEPTIONS TO THE RULE

While most types of telemarketing calls are covered by the rule, there are several exceptions. The rule does not cover the following situations:

* Calls placed by consumers in response to general media advertising (except calls responding to ads for investment opportunities, credit repair services, recovery room services, or advance-fee loans.)

* Calls placed by consumers in response to direct mail advertising that discloses all the material information required by the Rule (except calls responding to ads for investment opportunities, prize promotions, credit repair services, recovery room services, or advance-fee loans).

* Catalog sales.

* Calls that are initiated by the consumer that are not made in response to any solicitation.

* Sales that are not completed, and payment or authorization for payment is not required, until there is a face-to-face sales presentation.

* Calls from one business to another unless nondurable office or cleaning supplies are being offered.

Girls Scouts Await New Adventures

Senior Girl Scout Troop 252 of the Girl Scouts of Manitou Council would like to thank everyone for supporting their adventure to New York City and Canada. They had a wonderful time visiting all the spectacular sites.

Their new plans include embarking on an adventure to seek out the sites of England in the year 2002 with several other troops of Manitou Council.

They are kicking off their fundraising for this trip with an All-You-Can-Eat Fish Fry or a six-piece Chicken Nugget Dinner on Friday, April 7 from 4 to 8 p.m. at the Kewaskum Middle School.

* Sales of pay-per-call services and sales of franchises. These are covered by other FTC rules.

DEFENSIVE MOVES

* Resist high pressure sales tactics. Legitimate businesses respect the fact that you're not interested.

* Take your time. Ask for written information about the product, service, investment opportunity, or charity that's the subject of the call.

* Before you respond to a phone solicitation, talk to a friend, family member or financial advisor. Your financial investments may have consequences for people you care about.

* Check out testimonials to make sure they're genuine -- not statements that have been bought or paid

* Don't send money -cash, check or money order -by courier, overnight delivery, or wire to anyone who insists on immediate payment.

* Keep information about your bank accounts and credit cards to yourself -unless you know who you're dealing with.

* Before you pay, check out the company with the Bureau of Consumer Protection. Call toll-free: 1-800-422-7128.

TO REPORT A SCAM

Fight telephone fraud. Report telephone scam artists to the Bureau of Consumer Protection at 1-800-422-7128. The Telemarketing Sales Rule gives state law enforcement officers the power to prosecute fraudulent telemarketers who operate across state lines.

You also may call the National Fraud Information Center (NFIC) at 1-800-876-7060, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. EST, Monday through Friday. NFIC is a private, non-profit organization that operates a consumer hotline to provide services and assistance in filing complaints. NFIC also forwards appropriate complaints to the Federal Trade Commission for entry on its telemarketing fraud database.

In addition, you may want to file a complaint with the FTC by writing to: Correspondence Branch, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580. Although the FTC generally does not intervene in individual disputes, the information you provide may help indicate a pattern of possible law violations requiring action by the Commission.

For more information or to file a complaint, contact the Bureau of Consumer Protection at Phone 800-422-7128; Fax: 608-224-4939; TTY: 608-224-5058; E-Mail: datcphotline@datcp.state.wi.us. Website: http://datcp.state.wi.us/

I Do Like Reading, Sam I Am

Elementary schools in the Kewaskum School District celebrated the birthdate of the late children's author Dr. Seuss in March, with stickers, guest readers, Cat in the Hat hats, additional reading time, or rereading favorite Dr. Seuss stories. Mrs. Ammel's second graders at Kewaskum Elementary School had two special guests for their reading time... an oversized Cat in the Hat doll and community member and local blacksmith, Dan Nauman, who read the students the Dr. Seuss story, "Horton Hatches the Egg."

Students throughout Kewaskum Elementary School worked on books that were then published into hardcover books, complete with illustrations. Here, fourth grader Candace Kupahl (inside left) and her fifth grade sister, Samantha, show their books to their parents on the KES author's night.

"Did you remove the crocus, daffodil and tulip plants before you had the parking lot addition blacktopped? I quiered of the administrator - nun of West Bend's St. Joseph hospital some years ago.

"Not that I know of ," was her retort as she peered at me with questioning eyes.

"I will bet you a dozen hot fudges that come spring, that former floral bed's black top cover will be broken up completely by the power of those early spring buds pushing themselves sunward."

"Your on!" was her immediate response...the bet sealed with a handshake. And thru-out the blustery winter I chuckled, dreaming about the oncoming spring and the bet's final moment of truth or fiction?

April had no sooner than welcomed a number of those early spring heat waves when a dozen hot fudge where delivered to my place of business. My staff and I relished the treat and I must confess, after downing them we drove to the hospital to take a "look see." As chance would have it, upon our arrival there, who should we bump into in the parking lot but Administrator Nun. What great fun it was to claim victory after months of waiting. Indeed, every person present absolutely was spellbound by the sight of blooming flowers in a mass of disturbed black top.

To a person, every one present was truly struck speechless by the power of those adorable plants. And the nun, well she conceded the fact that never in her lifetime had she lost a bet so unimaginable! Surely, it richly showed us the POWER of our Heavenly Father, she politely shared as she pointed at me and with a winsome smile stated: "And he was right."

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of JOHN STEGER, who passed away two years ago, April 9, 1998:

God looked around His garden and He found an empty place.

He then looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering He knew that you were in pain,

He knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw that the road was getting rough and hills are hard to climb,

So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace Be Thine." It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his wife, children and grand-children.

A person's true wealth is the good that person does in the world.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of BRENDA OELHAFEN'S 30th Birthday.

What we would give, if we could say,

"Happy Birthday Brenda" again today. To hear your sweet voice, and see your gorgeous smile, Or sit with you and talk awhile.

The loss was sudden, the shock so severe, But we have moved on, trying to persevere.

We all wonder why, so young, you had to die,
Without the slightest chance to say good-bye.

We remember all the happy moments, the special things, And how "our angel" worked

And how "our angel" work to earn her wings. We missed you then, we miss you still,

And beautiful Brenda, we always will.

Happy Birthday, April 10

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Bill McCarty, who passed away one year ago, April 2, 1999:

We think about you every day,
And miss you more
Than words can say.

Sadly missed by Lucy, Mike and Diane.

THANK YOU

My sincere thanks to my family and friends for their prayers, cards, visits and gifts while I was a patient at St. Joseph's and recovering at home.

All your kindnesses will be remembered.

Friends Helping Friends

A friend is a person who is there when you need them, and someone you can talk to and trust. Twenty-two youth and adults from Dodge and Washington County recently completed a "Friends Helping Friends" training held at the Washington County Fair Park. The workshop focused on the importance of self-esteem, communication, cooperation and the role of being a friend. The workshop was taught by Sally Schoenike, Dodge County 4-H Youth Develpment Educator, and Kandi O'Neil, Washington County 4-H Youth

Washington County 4-H youth and adults attending were: Paul Gabor, Tim Klabunde, Patrick Schoenhaar, Audrey Roethle, and Sharon Kiselicka from the Badger Boosters 4-H Club; Chelsea Groleau, Nicholle Roell, Nicole Remmel, Tom Schoofs and Trish Schoofs from Myraneers 4-H Club; Allison Flasch, Bridgette Flasch, Krista Klink and Ruth Flasch from the St. Lawrence Eager Beavers 4-H Club; Alyssa Herr, Becky Patterson and Mary Herr from Thompson Irish Settlers 4-H Club.

"Friends Helping Friends" is an educational program sponsored by the University of Wisconsin Extension, 4-H and Youth Development. The program has been designed to be presented by young people who are concerned about problems youth must face in their communities. It is based on the theory that youth are powerful teachers and role models for one another. The club teams will be teaching educational activities in their local 4-H club and other groups for the next six months.

The board also approved the hiring of Larson, Allen, Weishair and Company, LLP to conduct an executive search for a permanent CEO for the hospital and to provide other consulting and planning services. Reiling is principal of the firm's Health Care Services

Group

Larson, Allen, Weishair & Company, LLP, is a 47year-old professional service firm that helps clients in all industries manage business ventures and finance. The Health Care Group provides services to hospitals, physicians' groups and clinics, skilled nursing facilities, and other health care

"The board is confident that Mr. Reiling and the Larson, Allen firm's expertise and insight will be valuable in helping the hospital renew its direction and vision for the important tasks ahead," said St. Joseph's Chair Attorney Elaine A. Shanebrook.

"Mr. Reiling comes with excellent credentials and a good track record. He seems tuned in to the problems that hospitals and physicians experience these days," said Gary Herdrich, M.D., a family practice physician and member of the board.

Attorney Shanebrook added: "All of us can be proud of the high caliber physicians and dedicated hospital staff who provide compassionate, professional care to people in our community. ### More Than 2,000 Attend Meetings On Proposed Zone-T Deer Hunt

MADISON - State wildlife managers received a mixture of comments on the Department of Natural Resources' proposal for the 2000 white-tailed deer hunting season framework.

The proposal includes additional hunting opportunity and an expanded Zone-T hunt and is intended to reduce the deer herd to established population goals from the current estimate of approximately 1.7 million animals.

More than 2,000 people attended a series of 40 informational meetings between February 23 and March 10 on the proposed season structure. The state Natural Resources Board will make a decision on the 2000 Zone-T hunt at its April 25-26 meeting in Madison.

The proposal includes:

* an antlerless only fourday October 26-29 hunt including a youth hunt day;

* a two-day gun hunt on December 2-3, the weekend following the regular nineday season;

* either sex hunting during the nine-day firearm and seven-day muzzleloader season hunting;

* free antlerless permits and.

* 16 additional days of archery hunting.

The October 26-29 Zone-T hunt would take place in 97 farmland and forest deer management units. The 97 deer management units were selected based upon whether or not the traditional season structure could reduce deer populations in a unit to within 20% of its established population goal.

Comments on specific aspects of the proposed 2000 Zone-T hunt were mixed. Archery hunters expressed concern that the late October four-day gun hunt would cause deer to alter their daylight activity to after dark hours, reducing archery success rates.

Archers also expressed concern about the possibility of a high accidental buck kill during the four-day antlerless only Zone-T season. Many archery hunters felt the 16 extra archery hunting days would not compensate for lost buck-hunting opportunity in late October, when the deer breeding season is beginning. Still other interests mentioned possible conflicts with grouse, waterfowl and small game hunting and with hikers, bikers and other outdoor activities.

Most comments on the youth hunt for hunters aged 12-17 years, were positive. The preferred day for the hunt was October 29, a Sunday. This would maximize the number of youth hunters that could participate due to school being off and having parents or mentors home from work to hunt with them. In Zone-T October hunts over the last four years, all hunters have been allowed to participate for four total days. Some believe that designating one of these four days as youthonly would decrease the overall effectiveness of the Zone-T herd-control effort.

Some snowmobile enthusiasts objected to any firearm season extension past December 1, citing possible safety hazards for sled riders if trails were open at that time or for snowmobile trail crews putting up trail signs prior to the season.

Other objections to the added firearm opportunity proposed for December 2-3, included concerns that poor weather conditions during this time may preclude hunters from being able to participate. Some people felt that many more private landowners would be willing to allow hunting access during this time period.

Muzzleloader hunters attending meetings noted that they were being asked to share the December 2-3 weekend with other firearm hunters, still many said that they would not object since the special seasons were in the interest of overall herd management.

At large comments not in response to specific proposals mentioned the need for an incentive system to encourage private landowners to allow more hunting access to their properties. Other suggestions for herd control included: a year of antlerless only hunting; a return to the earn-a-buck program where a hunter must first register an antlerless deer before being allowed to harvest a buck in designated units; and the need for an expanded statewide food pantry system that would allow the donation of surplus venison to the needy at no additional cost to hunters.

Bill Mytton, DNR deer

and bear ecologist, indicated the comments are very similar to those received in previous years. "There is good agreement that we have lots of deer and that the herd should be reduced. However, people tend not to agree on exactly how that should be accomplished."

KHS Boys Officially Finish 11th at Oshkosh Invite

By Jerry Gosa

UW OSHKOSH - The official results from the Friday, March 24 Oshkosh Invitational track and field meet showed that the Kewaskum boys' team finished 11th out of the 32 team field with 16 points.

Grafton doubled second place New Holstein's score of 44 points by collecting an amazing 88 points to easily outclass all the Division II schools. New Holstein won the prestigious meet the last three years; 1999, 1998 and 1997; with scores of 64, 51 and 75 points respectively. Grafton's winning score of 88 points is the most points ever scored in Division II in the 28 year history of the invitational.

Other Eastern Wisconsin Conference schools besides the second place finish of New Holstein, included Sheboygan Falls with 32 points for third place, Campbellsport with 23 points for seventh place, Manitowoc Roncalli with eight points tied for ninth place, and Kiel with six points for 25th place in the

As previously reported in last week's Kewaskum Statesman, Josh Parrent and Chris Koth both cleared 12'6" to place second and third in the pole vault respectively. Jon Lubner of Grafton won the pole vault with a height of 13'3-1/4". (Dan Murrary of Grafton won the 400m dash in a time of 51.37 seconds, not the pole vault as was previously reported. Murrary also ran on the winning 1600m relay that posted a time of 3:35.42 and placed third in the long jump with a jump of 20'6".)

Jesse Boegel surprised the Kewaskum coaching staff when he ran an unofficial time of 2:10 in the 800m run last week. When the official results came in the mail last week, Boegel's official time of 2:10.38 again surprised the coaching staff when they saw that his time placed him eighth and added one more additional point to the Kewaskum team total. Andy Kivioja of Grafton won the 800m run with a time of 2:03.23.

Charlie Sparks of Kewaskum also placed eighth in the shot put with a throw of 44'8-1/2". Mike Lorenz of Manitowoc Lutheran won with a heave of 55'0".

The official results show all the times, distances and places of all the athletes that competed in the Oshkosh Invitational. Of concern for the Kewaskum coaches are some of the following results:

Dan Mueller of Campbellsport, placed fourth and Jason Warner of New Holstein placed fifth in the 55m dash with times of 6.85 and 6.92 seconds respectively. Campbellsport's Derek Toshner's fourth place finish in the 400m dash in 52.90 seconds and Kiel's eighth and ninth place finishes in the 400m dash with times of 54.57 and 54.63 seconds are reason for concern, when the closest Kewaskum could come was a time of 57.71 seconds. Nick Martiny of Campbellsport, placed fifth in the 1600m run with a time of 4:50.50. Sheboygan Falls, Cambpellsport, Kiel and New Holstein placed third, fourth, eighth and tenth with times three-four seconds faster than Kewaskum in the 800m relay.

We, the Kewaskum coaching staff, placed the complete results of the Oshkosh Invitational on the bulletin board and told our athletes to look at how the athletes from the other conference schools did at the meet. We would hope that our athletes see that they better be working hard if they have any hope in catching some of these performances.

Pole Vaulters Shine at First Kewaskum Invitational

Freshman Kurtis Cochran clears 7' in the pole vault competition at the Kewaskum Invitational. Cochran cleared 7'6" to finish in fifth place in the junior varsity competition.

Freshman Mike McKee demonstrates good technique clearing the crossbar in the high jump at the Kewaskum Invitational on Saturday, March 18. McKee went on to clear 5'0" in the competition which would have placed him third in the junior varsity competition.

By Jerry Gosa

The Kewaskum track coaches talked about hosting an indoor field event only track meet for the last few years, but this year after sending out almost 30 letters to area high schools asking about interest, six schools accepted invites and Kewaskum hosted the first annual Kewaskum Invitational on March 18.

A total of seven schools including Kewaskum competed in the following events: pole vault, high jump and long jump. The indoor long jump pit was covered up when the new wooden basketball court was installed.

The following schools participated in the field event only invitational and indicated that they would be definitely interested in being invited back next year: Fond du Lac Goodrich, Kewaskum, Lomira, Mayville, New Holstein, Sheboygan Falls and Watertown.

The coed format of having three varsity and three junior varsity athletes for each school, along with the Kewaskum High School field house having a pole vaulting box set into the new wood basketball floor and a new collegiate pole vault pit, helped attract schools to this early season field event only track meet.

The pole vault event as expected, was the bright spot for both the Kewaskum girls' and boys' team. In the varsity girls pole vault, senior Michelle Zingsheim won the competition and set a Kewaskum indoor school record of 8'. Last outdoor season Zingsheim set the outdoor school record, also at 8'.

Zingsheim's teammate, Jacki Krueger finished second by clearing a height of 6'6". Amy Dirtzel of Watertown also cleared 6'6", but finished third based on number of misses.

A total of nine girls competed in the girls event. Pole vault is a new separate WIAA event for the girls team this year. Last year the girls had to vault as part of the boys team and their results if they placed were counted with the boys

This year the girls will pole vault in meets and the boys will pick up the 800m relay, so that each team will be competing in the same number of events in a meet.

The boys' varsity pole vault competition was won by Brian Heins of Fond du Lac Goodrich. Heins cleared 11'6" on his third attempt. Teammates Joel Hermann and Tom Ogi tied at 11' for second and third place. Chris Koth of Kewaskum, competing for Kewaskum junior varsity, cleared 11'6" on his first attempt and thus would have won the varsity competition.

The Kewaskum squad had a vault off on Wednesday before the meet to determine the three varsity entries and Hermann, Ogi, and Josh Parrent did the best and were selected to vault on the varsity Saturday. Parrent missed all three attempts at 11'. Brian Wall of Kewaskum also cleared 11' to finish second in the junior varsity pole vault competition. Ben Lisowe of New Holstein finished third with a height of 8'6"

In the boys' varsity shot put Charlie Sparks of Kewaskum finished third with a good throw of 44' 2-1/2". Chris Winscher of Sheboygan Falls won with a throw of 44' 6-1/2" and David Gogert of Mayville finished second with a throw of 44' 3-1/4". In the JV competition, David Cibulka finished third with a throw of 34'6". Bryan Buechel of New Holstein won with a throw of 38' 5-1/2" and Tom Diebert of Sheboygan Falls placed second with a throw of 35' 6-

In the girls varsity shot put Amanda Scheunemann of Watertown threw an almost unbelievable distance of 41' 3" to easily outdistance the competition. Steph Braunshwag of Watertown finished second with a throw of 34'6-1/2" and Steph Teitemeier of Fond du Lac Goodrich finished third at 34'4". In the girls JV shot it was Lisa Luebke of Mayville, 27' 8-1/2"; Tabatha Martin of Watertown, 26' 7-1/4", and Jackie Hansen of Goodrich

The girls varsity high jump was the last event of the day to finish and gave the spectators a chance to see two jumpers battle it out as the bar was raised higher and higher. Julie Suhr of Watertown and Penny Birschbach of New Holstein both cleared an impressive 5'2". Suhr cleared the bar on her first attempt and Birschbach on her second attempt to sort out first and second place in the competition. Jennae Herschelman of Sheboygan Falls cleared 4'10" for third place. Corrine Yohann of Goodrich, Tara Weston of Watertown, and Brittney Mikles of Goodrich all cleared a final height of 4'6" and finished first, second and third respectively, based on misses.

Andy Toellner of Mayville was in mid-season form as he won the varsity high jump with a height of 6'4". Bryan Buechel and Josh Brandenburg, both of New Holstein cleared 6', Buechel on his second attempt and Brandenburg on his third attempt for second and third place respectively.

In the JV boys competition, Nick Girdt of Mayville cleared 5'4"; Ryan Boll of New Holstein cleared 5'2"; and Kyle Ewert of Watertown cleared 5'.

Many of the coaches liked the idea of having an indoor field event only invitational track meet early in the season and are planning on competing at next year's second annual Kewaskum Invitational.
