Frightfully Good Time!

Two in Critical Condition After Monday Accidents

By Andrew R. Kuehl

TOWN OF BARTON- A family of three were sent to the hospital after the van they were traveling in was broadsided by a car that allegedly failed to stop at the intersection of CTH A and STH 144 Monday.

The mishap occurred at approximately 7:40 p.m. in front of Club 144.

According to a report issued by the Washington County Sheriff's Department (W.C.S.D.), Tinsley A. Gamerdinger, 42, of West Bend was the driver of a Pontiac Grand Prix that was traveling west on CTH A. He was the only occupant of the vehicle that allegedly failed to stop for a stop sign.

Julie L. Harris, 42, West Bend was traveling southbound on STH 144 in her Ford Aerostar van with her two children, Rachel M., 15, and Elizabeth A. Harris, 13, both of West Bend, when they were broadsided by Gamerdinger's vehicle.

After the impact, Gamerdinger's car spun around and overturned in a ditch after hitting ditch marker posts. The Harris van tipped on its side, but came back up on its wheels after hitting a grass lip on the shoulder.

The Boltonville Fire Department responded along with the Kewaskum Rescue Squad.

The three injured were transported to St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend where they were treated and released.

TOWN OF WEST BEND- A one car accident resulted in critical injuries to two men late Monday night.

Daniel Junk, 21, of West Bend was driving his vehicle northbound on STH 144 one half mile south of Cedarview Road when he allegedly failed to negotiate a curve and his vehicle left the roadway, went down an embankment and overturned several times. Two passengers, Aaron J. Gruhle, 22, of Kewaskum and Jeffrey S. Tetzlaff, 21, of Jackson were ejected from the vehicle. The two were not wearing seatbelts according to a report from the W.C.S.D..

Junk was transported by West Bend Rescue to St. Joseph's Community Hospital where he was treated and released.

Gruhle and Tetzlaff were also transported to St. Joseph's Hospital but were then transported to Froedtert Memorial Lutheran Hospital by Flight for Life helicopter.

The two remain in critical but stable condition said a hospital spokeswoman.

Both accidents are under investigation by the W.C.S.D..

A Washington County Deputy speaks with the driver of a mini-van that was hit broadside after the vehicle to the right allegedly failed to stop at the intersection of CTH A and STH 144. All victims in the mini-van were transported to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend and were treated and released.

Community Blood Drive Recognizes Area Donors

A blood donor recently stated "I donate blood out of a sense of service and supporting others, just as they would do for me if I needed medical support." This statement could very easily come from any one of the 52 registered donors who participated in the Kewaskum Community Blood Drive held on Wednesday, October 4th at Kewaskum High School.

Congratulations to Nancy Kulas who made the pin list reaching the 40 pint level and special recognition to Amy Donnelly and Linda Kiser who attained the eight pint level.

Vial of Life Program Coming to Community

The Kewaskum Women's Club is presenting the American Red Cross Vial of Life program to the community at NO COST to you!

Vial of Life is an easily located source of emergency medical information for rescue squads, ambulances, police officers, fire departments, medical personnel and relatives, if their services are needed in your home.

Washington County individuals who live alone or are not able to communicate when the need arises, could be provided with a vial and identifying stickers for their home.

Vial of Life is a small cylinder bottle with a cap and strap to attach to the upper right hand shelf in the refrigerator. A form with your medical information is inside this vial for the emergency crew to obtain as they see the Red Cross on the front of the refrigerator to assist in your care.

A copy of this form is maintained by the American Red Cross Chapter in West Bend, so a volunteer can contact you to update any changes in your medical information at no charge.

The Kewaskum Women's Club will present an informative meeting on the Vial of Life Program on Thursday, October 19, 2000 at 10 a.m. at the Meadow Creek Apartments, 1119 Roseland Drive, Kewaskum. Call 626-2666 for more information, assistance or to obtain this FREE Vial of Life for your benefit.

One more thing to remember is, are your house numbers visible from the road? Can they be seen quickly day or night? If not, please take steps to make them visible. You know where you live, but firemen, rescue squad drivers or police officers may not. Get them out where they can be seen all year round.

United Way Update

As of October 2, the United Way of Washington County campaign is near the 30 percent mark, with more than $300,500 in gifts and pledges counted towards the county-wide goal of $1,100,000.

"A number of divisions are at or above the 30 percent mark so far," said Campaign Co-Chairs, Gaytha and Charlie Hillman. These divisions are: Accountants and Business Services, Attorneys, Clergy, Contractors, Financial, Physicians, Professional Specialties, Washington county Employees, City of West Bend, Commercial, Retail, Special Gifts, Allenton, Kewaskum and Slinger.

"The other divisions are moving in the right direction as well," said Charlie. "Donor mailings to retirees and seniors in the county are being prepared and sent, and should be in their homes shortly," he said. "We extend our heartfelt thanks to the businesses, individuals and organizations who have given so far."

United Way's Communications Committee volunteers are planning a Mid-Campaign Report meeting on October 13. "Our goal is to be at the 50 percent mark ($550,000) or better by then," said Gaytha.

The event will have a "Friday the 13th" theme, building on the Puzzles, Mysteries and Other Oddities fun theme of the 2000 volunteers. It will be held at The Threshold, one of 25 member agencies benefitting from this year's campaign effort.

According to Barbara Hurula, Executive Director, "Fund raising is hard work; we like to have some fun and build camaraderie among the volunteers, too. This team spirit helps us raise funds for the many programs and services our agencies provide - programs that are vital to so many here in Washington County," she said. Such programs include feeding the hungry, helping the homeless, providing service for the disabled, giving help to the terminally ill and their families, and helping seniors, families and youth.

"We're continuing a strong tradition of helping people in our local area through United Way - a movement that started here in Washington County more than 64 years ago," said Charlie Hillman.

The first hot air balloon flight was in 1792. It lasted 46 minutes.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

As someone who was privileged enough to fall under Coach Mark Heise's tutelage, I was both saddened and disgusted reading the September 28th edition of the Kewaskum Statesman and finding that Coach Heise had resigned his position as Kewaskum's varsity baseball coach. While I don't know all of the events that led up to his resignation, I am sure that behind the scene politics, and the need for a feeling of power to those involved had a great deal to do with it.

While I have many fond memories of my time at Kewaskum High School, none are so special as those spent with Coach Heise, and the family that was our baseball team.

The games that we won or lost may have been forgotten, but other, simpler things never will. Things like meeting (on our own time) to put up the outfield fence, or holding a brat fry, or mending the tattered bleachers. Or the feeling of walking out of the dugout and onto the field at the Metrodome where for one brief moment, time stood still.

My greatest memory, though, will always be of my last game, one that we had just lost, been knocked out of the playoffs, and realized that, for many of us, it would be the last game we would ever play. As we sat on the ground, many of us fighting off tears, Coach Heise came over, and with a tear in his eye, thanked us and told us that he would never forget us. I can't describe the pride and joy that we all felt... after we had just lost a game.

Coach Heise taught us more than how to throw a better curveball, or to round the bases. He taught us how to conduct ourselves, both on and off the field, as men. In an age where so many athletes, from professionals to those in high school, tend to be overly boisterous and obnoxious, Coach Heise taught us to be humble and respectful.

After every game, win or lose, we walked over to the other team's players and coaches, and congratulated them on their effort. We were not allowed to scream at an official, or use profane language, not because those were the rules, but because they were Coach Heise's principals and therefore, ours as well.

Perhaps Coach Heise's greatest lesson, to me anyway, were four words that he told me during a game, when I had made an error and was letting it affect the rest of my play. Those words were: KEEP IT SIMPLE STUPID! I cannot count the number of times in life when forced to make a difficult decision, that I found myself uttering those very same words.

The School District of Kewaskum has pushed away not only an excellent coach, but an excellent role model and friend as well, as I'm sure many of his former players can attest to. From his constant teaching and wisdom, to his love and devotion towards his players and their families, Coach Heise meant more to Kewaskum than any one baseball coach ever could.

Thank you, Coach, and keep it simple, stupid!

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

As we go into the Regional play at the end of our season, we must recognize the personnel that made soccer happen for the Kewaskum men's varsity soccer program.

Without the effort of those people behind the scenes, the athletes would not be able to participate in soccer. The following personnel must be recognized for their efforts: Coach Mike Miller, who assisted in the direction of this young team; Athletic Director John Wolfenberg; Assistant Athletic Director Jim Westphal; Athletic secretary Karen Kissinger, and their staff, who supervise, coordinate, organize and develop future planning for all sports; main office personnel, Janet Hogan, Betty Mertzig, and Mary Krell, who assisted us on so many occasions; coordinator of grounds, who with his crew maintained our fields; Beth Hermann, who sang our National Anthem; Mrs. Lori Long, who also sang our National Anthem and assisted with so many other ideas to support our young athletes; the referee staff for their quality game conduct; the Booster Club for donations; all the parents, grandparents, family members who supported their athletes on parents night and by being at the games; the team captains who shared in the guidance of our team and became good leaders; the players for their hard work and play and a never-give-up attitude to get us through a building year program; the newspapers for publishing our results; the radio stations for announcing our game results; to all who invested time and effort in our young adults. Thank you all!

Looking for a Different Kind Of Coach

Coaches are needed for Destination ImagiNation (formerly Odyssey of the Mind) teams at the Kewaskum schools for this school year. Interested parents are especially encouraged to consider coaching, the only requirements being some free time over the next several months and an excitement to see kids learn and create.

Destination ImagiNation teams consist of seven students working together on a project that allows them to use quick thinking as well as long-term creative problem solving. Teams then present their projects in a March meet against teams from other regional schools. It's an exciting and fulfilling event for students and coaches.

Training and support is provided for those adults interested in these paid coaching positions, and there are openings at the elementary, middle and high school levels.

Call Curt Casetta at KES (626-8427, ext 1316) for more information.

Vetter Retires After 45 Years at Beechwood Cheese

An intimate retirement party was held at the Idlewild Inn in St. Cloud for Roger Vetter to honor his forty-five years of service to the Beechwood Cheese Factory.

In attendance were his wife Elaine, daughter Amy Nelson, with husband Don and children Amanda and Adam, and son Mike, wife Annette and their daughter Serena. Hosts Mark and Kris Heise, owners of Beechwood Cheese, presented Vetter with a gift of cash in appreciation for his loyalty.

Vetter, a lifelong resident of Beechwood, quit high school at the age of sixteen and began at the cheese factory on June 1, 1955, working for Norbert and Vannie Heise. During his time at the company he became a Wisconsin licensed cheese maker, observing many changes in the dairy industry. Going from can milk to bulk tankers, and switching from wooden equipment to stainless steel were the most significant. In his role as Plant Manager, he was instrumental in much of the updating.

The former Beechwood Fire Chief plans to use his new free time building a getaway home near Wild Rose, fishing, hunting, spending much time with his grandchildren and traveling with his wife.

Marian College Receives Million Dollar Grant

FOND DU LAC - Marian College has received an anonymous gift totaling a million dollars over four years to maintain and improve the school's EXCEL program, which provides under-prepared students an opportunity to succeed in college.

"This news is very exciting!" said Dr. Richard Tidenour, president of the college. "The grant will allow us to improve an innovative program that is already popular and successful. Our EXCEL program is about providing opportunity and rewarding hard work and determination to students and families that would not otherwise have a college opportunity. Many of our EXCEL students have come to play vital roles in all areas of campus life here at Marian. It is a program that clearly echoes our core values."

The grant will provide funds in the form of EXCEL opportunity grants to entering program participants who demonstrate moderate to very high financial need. To ensure retention of these students, who often withdraw from college due to their lack of financial resources, the grant is guaranteed for four years, provided the student maintains good academic standing and full-time student status.

In addition to providing financial aid funds, the grant supports student service enhancements that include: tutoring program development, the addition of a professional EXCEL advisor and faculty staff development opportunities.

The development of a comprehensive tutoring program, specializing in serving under-prepared students, will assist EXCEL participants in achieving academic success their first year. Academic support service enhancements would include: career planning and development counseling for "at risk" populations, personal inventory assessment, computer-aided software programs, study materials and study groups to support diverse learning styles.

The addition of a professional staff person dedicated to serve EXCEL students will greatly enhance the program, thus elevating it from a good program to one of superior quality.

In addition, faculty and staff will be appropriately trained to serve under-prepared students in need of additional support services and academic preparation. Opportunities for faculty and staff to attend professional development activities will now be available.

Students admitted into the EXCEL program are often not eligible for admission to public, four-year universities and are often overlooked as candidates for private colleges and universities, due to their lack of academic preparation. Marian is committed to providing this special population with the resources and skills necessary to achieve academic success. This year-long program provides new students with the optimum "first-year" college experience, thus allowing them a seamless transition to life in college.

Marian College is a Catholic applied liberal arts college located in Fond du Lac. The college offers more than 40 graduate and undergraduate programs at its main campus and a variety of adult accelerated degree programs at convenient sites in Green Bay, Appleton, Fond du Lac, Milwaukee, Watertown, Hartford and West Bend. The size of the College permits a very favorable faculty-student ratio, one of the lowest in the state of Wisconsin. The six academic divisions offer programs of study designed to meet a full range of professional and pre-professional academic needs. The primary divisions and programs include business, education, nursing, technology and the humanities.

LIBRARY LEDGER

By Steev Baker
Kewaskum Library Director

When days were much longer than now, and the air much sweeter, we were adventurers. We would hunt for ghosts and werewolves by the old train tracks, hike out to The Cliffs, where the big kids raced bikes, and coast down Cemetery Hill, our bikes rattling, to see how far we could go without pedaling.

I developed a fear of heights one October from our adventures. Railroad tracks used to criss-cross our town, heading south to Chicago and north to Milwaukee. By the time we were in junior high, the lion's share of the old tracks, long since abandoned, were pulled rusty from the ground like rotten teeth. Most of the train bridges were dragged away that year, hulking specters rising in the air on the end of a crane, and taken wherever old train bridges go when their usefulness has gone.

I have a faint memory of a dilapidated train station somewhere that must have been allowed to fall to its knees on its own, humbled by gravity and the slow-moving roots of young trees. It was one of the last relics of that era of our town's history. In fact, to my knowledge, only one final symbol of those steam-powered days remains: The Train Bridge.

It was a proper noun to us. Too big to be moved with a single crane, too out-of-the-way to be bothered with, the Train Bridge came to be a legendary rite-of-passage among us kids. Towering above Nippersink Creek, the Train Bridge's dark reflection could be seen in the moving waters below it.

Whether our minds created it or whether it was really true, it seemed that, at the point directly below the Train Bridge, there was actually a small section of rapids in the usually sluggish creek. Rumor had it that somewhere in the middle of the Train Bridge was the state line—that on the other side of the Bridge was Illinois and that the rail-bed led south from there into Richmond where we could get ice cream. I never found out what was on the other side of the Bridge.

As each of my friends crossed the Bridge's broad, iron back I watched in growing dismay. When my turn finally came, I edged out onto the widest beam. For those of you who have never been on a train bridge, let me clarify: the Train Bridge was old and unused. The tracks had been taken off, the wood rotted away, until there was nothing left but a series of rusted I-beams running over the creek.

Some of these beams were a mere shoe's width and required near-circus-performer agility to maneuver; other beams were wide enough to straddle and slide forward comfortably—either way was an acceptable method of crossing. I chose one of the widest beams and shuffled awkwardly forward.

The rusted metal beam beneath my feet was like sandpaper, threatening to trip me up unless I lifted my feet confidently. Unfortunately, to lift my feet would mean that I was at the mercy of my poor sense of balance. If there were to be even the slightest puff of wind in that brief moment when I was on one foot, I would surely topple into the foaming creek below. I scraped my way almost to the center of the bridge, then I froze. Never in my life had I had such a feeling of fear. I was literally rooted to that spot. When I realized that I could neither go forward or back, I began to shout.

My friends urged me to use the straddle method to finish my bridge walk, but I could not get my body to comply with my brain.

Horrified, I had pictures in my mind of the town fire department trundling a ladder through the woods to save me. Even more horrifying, my parents watching from the Wisconsin side of the Bridge, hanging their heads in shame at their cowardly son. And then I thought of the city blowing the Bridge to red flakes with dynamite, forever depriving the kids of their forbidden, but necessary, test of courage.

While these bleak visions coursed through my head, one of my friends had made his way out to where I was and offered a hand to me. I grasped his arm, swaying as my legs turned to pumpkin guts, and limped my way back to the Wisconsin side of the Bridge. I don't remember how I felt immediately afterward, only that I knew that I had lost my one chance to conquer the Train Bridge.

I returned there a few more times before I got too old to sneak into the woods below the radar of adults, but I was content to play beneath and around the Bridge and toss rocks across to the fabled other side that I would never reach.

Why this talk of adventures? Because our other adventures, which were just as dangerous but not nearly so physically draining, were found in books.

When we weren't blazing trails or hunting squirrels through corn fields, we were reading about hobbits and dragons, lost cities and haunted houses. I will always connect the gray and orange of fall with adventures, read or experienced. I encourage all of you to go out and experience something new this week. Hike, enjoy the land; read, learn a new story; live your life and create a memory.

Coats for Families Coat Drive

Coats For Families coat drive for 2000 is getting into gear now. If we keep pace with the past three years of collection and distribution we will need about 2500 coats, mittens, and scarves for adults children and infants again this year. The great majority of these go to people in the West Bend area and every item gets put to good use. The limited extras we have left over go to a rescue mission in Milwaukee that serves and houses hundreds of men, women and children through the winter months.

We need coats for larger men and women as special items that we seem to run short of each year and we usually give away about 500 kids items for kids of all age ranges down to toddlers.

We appreciate the support we have been given each year by the community and our community businesses. We especially appreciate the support we get from schools and churches and the volunteers that take the time to knit mittens for us; they all get put to good use.

This is supposed to be a tougher winter than the last few so we hope for extra success this year.

The following dates and information are for your information and release.

Collection dates and locations, October 27 thru November 5, at Pick N Save north and south stores; General Clinic; Clothes Clinic sites in West Bend.

The coats will be cleaned by the staff at the Clothes Clinic and taken to the distribution site where volunteers from the Vytol Teens of the Volunteer Center and from the Key Club from the West Bend high schools and adult volunteers will help sort and distribute the coats.

Distribution dates: November 11 and 12, Saturday, the 11th, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.; Sunday, the 12th, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Coats are likely to be distributed at the Wisconsin Power and Electric Building near Indiana and Decorah as in the last two years - final confirmation later this week.

County AODA Receives $30,000 Grant Award

The Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County is receiving a $30,000 grant from the Milwaukee Foundation beginning January 1, 2001. Through a community based and countywide prevention strategy of Youth Developmental Assets, people who live and work in each of the four main communities in Washington County will address the issue of youth substance abuse in their community.

The Community Coalition Initiative will expand on the Council's Community Model of Services emphasizing the unique needs of the different communities within Washington County. It will also allow the Council to actively involve community members, with a special emphasis on youth, in their efforts to prevent youth substance abuse.

Auditions Set For Production

Musical Masquers will present a whimsical New Year's Eve production of My Three Angels by Sam and Bella Spewack at the UWWC Theater.

The scene is French Guiana, where on Christmas, the temperature has dropped to a moderate 104 degrees. Three convicts from Devil's Island, employed as roofers for a family in need of salvation, repair more than a roof this holiday season. All three possess the true spirit of Christmas, in spite of their unfortunate pasts, and intervene as "angels" for this grateful family in distress.

This comedy calls for seven males and three females. Production dates are December 29, 30, and 31, and January 5 and 6.

Auditions will be held at Immanuel UCC, 501 Walnut, in the basement of Fellowship Hall on Thursday and Friday, October 12 and 13, at 7 p.m. For more information please call Mugs McFadden at 626-4638.

This is a free program for children and adults of all ages. The program will last about 30 minutes and include a chance afterwards to take an up close and personal look at the animals after the speakers are done. The institute gave workshops, ideas, and information on "Diversity" -- You Can Make a Difference.

The keynote speaker for the conference was Wendy Mannering who spoke about "It's Your Life, Why Not Live It?" She gave five important characteristics of a consistently motivated person and shared steps an individual can take to learn to create an environment where a person can maintain a high level of motivation. She believes strongly in the volunteer spirit of HCE members. The Cultural and Textile Arts Show displayed entries of photography, writing and stitching. Washington County had four entries in categories of painting, crochet, and counted cross stitch.

There were 40 workshops offered during the conference to help officers and chairmen of the standing committees; International, Membership, Marketing, Cultural Arts, and Young Family. Other workshops dealt with hobbies and topics popular with the women. All went home inspired with new information, inspiration, and friends.

UWWC to Offer Special Weather Forecasting, Storm-Chasing Class

WEST BEND -- Forget watching those high-paid TV weathermen. Forget checking the weather forecast on the Internet.

Kyle Howard, licensed commercial pilot, experimental aircraft owner and storm chasing enthusiast, says all you have to do to know what the weather's doing is look at the clouds.

"Weather has always interested me, and as a pilot, I learned to appreciate and respect atmospheric dynamics even more," Howard said. "But I have also found that with a little ability to read the sky, and a little weather theory, one can do a reasonable job forecasting the weather where one is for the immediate future. This comes in handy whether flying or enjoying any kind of outdoor activities," explains Kyle Howard, pilot and storm chaser. "There are simple rules of thumb for looking at the sky and being able to tell what is going to happen in the next 6 to 12 hours."

Howard will be teaching a one night class at UWWC, Thursday evening, October 24, from 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Howard's personal and professional life recently has involved some notable storm-chasing.

She chased the supercell that spawned the Oakfield Tornado on July 18th, 1996, and was able to witness the whole life cycle of the tornado as it dropped down just west of Fredonia and travel for another 15 minutes southeast toward Belgium and Lake Michigan.

This year, she also chased the Iron Ridge Tornado and was on the backside of the storm watching the area west of Iron Ridge where the tornado damaged a barn and uprooted trees.

Although Howard does the vast majority of storm chasing on the ground, she does get the opportunity to witness weather phenomena from the air. On July 13th of this year she was able to photograph a supercell - a weather and cloud formation which generates ferocious storms - from the air as it moved out over Lake Michigan after pounding East Central Wisconsin.

The National Weather Service sought out Howard's photographs of the event, saying they don't often get aerial photographs of weather events.

For more information about Kyle Howard's Weather Class, or to register for the class, please contact the UWWC Continuing Education office at (262) 335-5218 or send the $25 registration fee to: UWWC, 400 University Drive, West Bend, WI 53095.

Are you looking for a non-scary Halloween event? The Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest is offering Centennial Halloween Nature Hikes on Friday, October 27, and Saturday, October 28, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. The hikes will take place at the Long Lake Recreation Area located off of Division Road just north of Hwy. HALLOWEEN HINTS

Fun Has More Than A Ghost Of A Chance

(NAPS)—Cast a happy spell this Halloween with some bewitching costumes and decorating hints from the experts at Velcro USA Inc.

Transform old sweat suits, leotards and tee shirts into costumes for little tricksters. Add a simple cape to create superheroes, fairies, animals and wizards. Decorate with colorful felt cutouts, sparkling jewels, sequins and fancy trims. Make it easy with a glue gun and VELCRO® brand fasteners.

Arrange for kids to do their trick-or-treating while it's still light out. Then invite friends over to enjoy Halloween goodies and listen to scary stories.

Create a spooky entrance for your child's party by cutting inexpensive black fabric to fit the doorway. Cut it into strips lengthwise so children can pass through. Attach the fabric to the door frame with VELCRO® brand STICKY BACK® tape.

For decorations, make fabulous cardboard cutouts of witches, black cats and jack-o'-lanterns, securing them to windows and walls with STICKY BACK® coins.

For a free booklet with more ideas, write to Velcro USA Inc., Dept. HG, Box 6441, Riverton, NJ 08077-6441.

Winter Spoils Fall's K

A Kettle Kountry Kolers Thank You

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Festival Chairman

Earlier in the week when the weather forecasters said snow I laughed, "Snow in October? The first week in October?" I forgot something though-- this is WISCONSIN!

First, I want to thank everyone on the planning committee who volunteered many hours to make this festival the best it could be.

I want to thank all the vendors who even though they saw the forecast came out and braved the cold.

I want to thank everyone who dug out their winter clothes, long underwear, hats and mittens to come up to the park and see what was going on and buy raffle tickets to support the festival.

I want to thank the crew members of the Kewaskum

Department of Public Works who were on hand the week prior to the festival setting up and making the park look great. Thursday I walked onto the stage in the beergarden and found a few weak spots, I called the guys and by 7 a.m. Friday they were working on resurfacing the stage. THANK YOU to: Alan, Dennis, Craig and Denis for all their work.

Lastly I want to thank the most important people of all, MY FAMILY. Dad who made three trips to Ashford to get the gators and at the last minute found straw bales to use as decoration throughout the park. Brother Dusty for the use of his truck and for all the errands he ran. Brother Ross who made sure things at my business went smoothly while I "lived" in Riverhill Park. My mother and boss Lana who previously chaired the festival knew what to expect and helped with everything I asked of her without question. My fiance, a newcomer to the festival did not have any idea what I was getting her into. She was the best of all. She surprised not only me but everyone she worked with and these two women were what held me together through everything. THANK YOU from the bottom of my heart to both of you.

A special thank you to Johnson Bus of Kewaskum for the perfectly-run shuttle service that saved miles for everyone and numerous parking nightmares were averted; Serwe Implement for the use of the Gators that saved many miles on the feet, Mueller's Sales & Service for the use of an implement trailer that doubled as a stage, Floyd Klug for the use of straw bales, Ruth and Judy Campbell for the use of cards from Par-O-Dice Casino, Kewaskum Fire Department for the use of tarps, Wade Roberts for his electrical expertise, John and Mike Meisser for all their efforts in preparing and taking down the park, Pat Hafermann who for four days verbalized a line that warmed all of our hearts--"What do you want me to do next?", Patsy Panzer for all her efforts with signage. Also thanks to Patsy's dad and brother who helped with the putting up and taking down of signs; KHS law and government students who needed service hours and were not too proud to help with the odd jobs of garbage and clean-up; also thanks to their instructor, Glenn Eichstedt who referred them to me.

There are so many, many people to thank for favors big and small. I don't want to list them all for I am sure to forget someone and I do not want to offend anyone by forgetting to mention their name. From the bottom of my heart, thank you all!

We are planning a wrap up meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 18 at 7 p.m. at the old Hair On Main building, if you would have suggestions for next year, like to volunteer for 2001 or help with fundraising please attend or call 626-3312.

I hope everyone can join us next year, October 13 and 14. We are planning many fundraisers throughout the year, please support them to make Kettle Kountry Kolers what you want it to be.

Students visited the Buckskinner encampment on Friday. The Buckskinners gave demonstrations to the students as they passed through. Students were also able to sample foods and buy memorabilia from that time period.

A Birthday Memorial To Robert Felten October 14

Another year gone from this life with us,
So we can't help you share your Special Day,
But just the same we will think of you and remember you anyway.
We will remember you in our own special way.
The times that we had spent together will be thought of everyday.
When you left, part of us went with you, so alone you would not be in a place where you are free.
The tears are meant to be today,
Because I know someday we will meet again so we can smile and laugh together again.
HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

KMS Seventh Grade Girls Seventh at Conference Meet

Seventh grade Scenic Moraine Conference shot put champion, Erica Brock, threw a season best distance of 24' 11.25" to win the shot put competition.

Seventh grade Scenic Moraine Conference discuss champion, Liz Harris, threw 61' 1" to win the discuss competition at the conference meet on October 2 at Germantown.

GERMANTOWN - The Kewaskum Middle School seventh grade girls' track team, handicapped by only having nine athletes on their team, managed to score a respectable 42 points in the Scenic Moraine Conference Track and Field Championships. The Kewaskum seventh graders did manage, however, to bring home two conference chamions. Host Germantown won the conference title with 96 points and Badger Middle School finished second with 80 points. Pewaukee and Slinger tied for third and fourth with 69.5 points, Kewaskum scored 42 points for seventh and Waupun scored 25. Highlights for Kewaskum included first place in the shot put and the discuss. Erica Brock won the shot put with a season best throw of 24' 11.25" and Liz Harris won the discuss with a season best throw of 61' 1".

Jaque Kwaterski finished third in the 400m dash with a time of 74.0 seconds and sixth in the 200m dash with a time of 32.1 seconds. Kwaterski also placed sixth in the long jump with a jump of 11'8".

Sammie Czerwinski placed third in the high jump with a jump of 4'1". Czerwinski's height tied with four other athletes for the highest height cleared. Placing was determined on what attempt an athlete cleared 4' 1" and number of misses. The KMS seventh grade girls' track team was coached by Jeff Grotenhuis and Jerry Gosa.

October is Car Care Month

October is National Car Care Month - the perfect time for motorists to get their cars ready before winter strikes.

"When conditions can be less than ideal and colder temperatures demand more of your vehicle, it makes sense to take preventive measures to make sure your vehicle is safe and roadworthy," says AAA Wisconsin spokesman Michael Bie.

Car components that should be inspected by certified technicians include battery load and terminals, antifreeze, oil, brake fluid, power steering and transmission fluids, belts, hoses, tires and wiper blades.

For motorists who prefer to perform their own preventive maintenance, here is AAA Wisconsin's 12-point Winter Car Care checklist:

- Battery - Check battery terminals for corrosion. Terminals can be cleaned with a wire brush dipped in baking soda and water.
- Antifreeze - Check the antifreeze strength in the radiator overflow reservoir with a hydrometer. Antifreeze should be clean, at proper level and provide protection to 36 degrees below zero.
- Oil - Check the oil level with the dipstick. Check the owner's manual for the intervals between changes and for the recommended SAE viscosity.

- Brake fluid - Keep the fluid level within a quarter-inch from the top of the reservoir.
- Power steering fluid - Follow directions in the owner's manual. If fluid is needed, add slowly to avoid overfilling.
- Automatic transmission fluid - The car should be on level ground in "park" position with the engine running. Then check the indicator stick.
- Belts and hoses - Press the middle of the serpentine belt to test tension. If it gives more than 1 to 1 1/2 inches, tighten or replace it. Check hoses for cracks or fraying.
- Air filter - Hold filter up to a light. If you can't see light through it, replace it.
- Washer fluid - Keep reservoir filled with solvent.
- Wipers - Replace wipers if they are split, leave streaks or skip.
- Lights / signals - Make sure they work. Replace bulbs as necessary.
- Tires - Inspect tread wear and maintain proper pressure indicated in the owner's manual. Check pressure with a gauge when tires are cold.

AAA Wisconsin is a not-for-profit membership organization offering travel, insurance, financial and auto-related services to more than 568,000 members statewide through 14 office locations.

Motorists Need to Be Wary in October, November Record 47,555 Deer Killed in Collisions With Motor Vehicles Last Year

MADISON -- With the combination of a record deer herd and motorists driving more miles on Wisconsin highways than ever before, state conservation wardens are warning drivers they need to be particularly careful in October and November to avoid colliding with deer.

From July 1, 1999, to June 30, 2000, 47,555 vehicle-killed deer were reported in Wisconsin, the highest total on record, according to Department of Natural Resources figures.

"The factors contributing to the highest total of car-deer collisions ever last year still exist this fall," said John Daniel, Department of Natural Resources deputy chief warden. "So people need to be particularly careful when they're driving early in the morning and at night in October and November, when deer are most likely to be moving around."

"The biggest factors fueling the increase in car-deer crashes is the increase in miles traveled on rural highways at the same time we have record numbers of deer in the state," Daniel said.

Wisconsin's fall population of deer is estimated at 1.7 million. DNR wildlife managers consider car-deer collisions when establishing population management goals and hunting seasons. Currently, deer numbers are above established population goals in much of the state. In order to help reduce the deer population, the state Natural Resources Board approved special "antlerless only" hunts on Oct. 26-29 and Dec. 7-10 for much of the state to help reduce deer numbers in high population areas.

Car-deer crashes increase in October and early November because that is the deer mating season - or the rut - and the deer are frequently moving around, Daniel said. Also, deer increasingly move toward roads at this time because vegetation in the woods is dying and the deer can find green, mowed grass on the roadside, he said.

Daniel advises that drivers take these steps to help prevent car-deer collisions:

- Watch the roadsides carefully for movement and be particularly alert in the early morning and evening when deer are moving around to feeding spots.
- Look for more deer to follow when one appears on a roadside.
- Drive more slowly, especially when road signs indicate a deer crossing.
- Become familiar with the car braking system, particularly anti-lock brakes.
- Reduce speed, tap the brakes to warn other drivers or sound the car horn when a deer is visible on the roadside.

Drivers who hit a deer should notify an enforcement agency such as the State Patrol, the local police department, a county sheriff's office, or a DNR office. Drivers who want to keep the carcass need to get it tagged by the law enforcement office responding to the accident, or get it tagged later by contacting an enforcement agency and giving an officer their name, the carcass location, accident date and time. The officer approves the removal and gives the driver instructions and a location for having the carcass tagged within the next 24 hours.

If the driver doesn't want to keep the carcass, he can donate it to another person or a charitable organization, or allow another person at the accident scene to claim it.

People who see dead deer along roadsides that need to be picked up, can call their county sheriff's office non-emergency number to report the location. In a few counties, highway department road crews mark deer carcasses that have already been reported with blaze orange paint. The Department of Natural Resources pays private contractors to pick up and properly dispose of the deer carcasses. Contractors check with sheriff's departments on a regular basis to find where deer carcasses are located. In the last year, DNR contractors picked up 34,425 deer for a total cost of $577,322, or about $18.34 per deer.

Fourth place in the ten-team tournament went to Fond du Lac with a school enrollment of 2,289. Third place went to Oshkosh West, with a school enrollment of 1,767. Second place went to Sheboygan North/South, 3,217, and the first place trophy was won by Kewaskum, with an enrollment of 731.

The girls won in a three-hole playoff with the Sheboygan combined teams as the chill from Lake Michigan overtook the National Course at Fox Hills Resort in Mishicot.

Tied after two holes, the ten golfers headed to the par three 17th hole that is surrounded front and back by water hazards. The girls nailed their shots as Stefanie Brettingen, Crystal Dreher and Beth Degner parred the hole to secure the win.

Sending the team into the playoffs in the first place were the great 18-hole rounds by juniors Courtney Timblin, who was medalist for the entire tournament with an 88, and Niki Dreher, who carded a 95. Courtney had four pars and a birdie and Niki had four pars to complete their rounds.

The team now competes in Sectionals at Black Wolf Run on Tuesday where the top two teams and top five individuals (not members of the winning teams) go to the State Tournament in Madison at University Ridge next week.

Since there are no divisions in girls' golf the Lady Indians will be up against all the best golfers in Wisconsin girls' golf.

position many times in both games halves. Hawkinson, Keith Boegel, Russel Borland, Jason Ramirez, Jacob Clayton, Shane Harlacher, Adam Hickmann and Josh Timblin provided offense for the Indians.

Luke Piwoni controlled his goal area throughout the game, keeping Two Rivers at bay. The Indians defense played their best and the offense clicked, challenging Two Rivers' keeper constantly in the game.

Bryan Becht scored the only goal on a clearing attempt by Two Rivers. He sent a smoldering grounder that found the corner of Two Rivers' net to the dismay of their goalkeeper. Two Rivers scored on a perfect pass to an unmarked forward.

The Indian team is developing synergy and playing great soccer.

KHS Soccer Team Ties Parents' Night Game

KEWASKUM 1 TWO RIVERS 1

The Kewaskum men's varsity soccer team hosted the Two Rivers team on Thursday, October 5. The evening was highlighted by the "Parents' Night" crowd. Parents really came out to support the team.

Mrs. Long announced the starting teams and was assisted by Beth Hermann in singing the National Anthem. Parents provided three of the finest cheerleaders to help rally the spirits of the team and spectators. The parents dressed in their green and white, showing up with noisemakers and a lot of support for their young team members. Congratulations to the parents for making a cold, raining night a spectacular success!

Two Rivers played a crossing game attacking the Indians goal with long passes to the corners. Kewaskum played awesome defense and attacked with a good inside and outside game.

Justin Wessing, Kurt Cochran, Braedy Long, Bryan Becht, Chris Baker, Kevin Lemke and Micah Olla played an excellent game, both in defense and playmaking to challenge the Two Rivers team for game control.

Mitch Hawkinson stirred up the Two Rivers defense with great play. Micah Olla played a brilliant game, moving the ball into scoring

IT'S THE LAW!

Addressing Asbestos: The Silent Danger

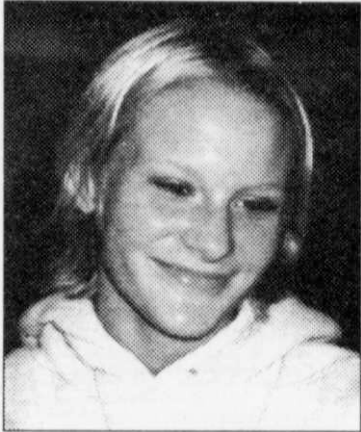

(NAPS)—From the 1930s to the 1960s, hundreds of thousands of men and women worked at shipyards, factories, power houses, construction sites and similar places, not knowing how much their lives were in danger.

Many of these people were exposed to asbestos. Decades later, a cough that won't go away, chronic fatigue or shortness of breath would signal a serious condition such as lung cancer or mesothelioma.

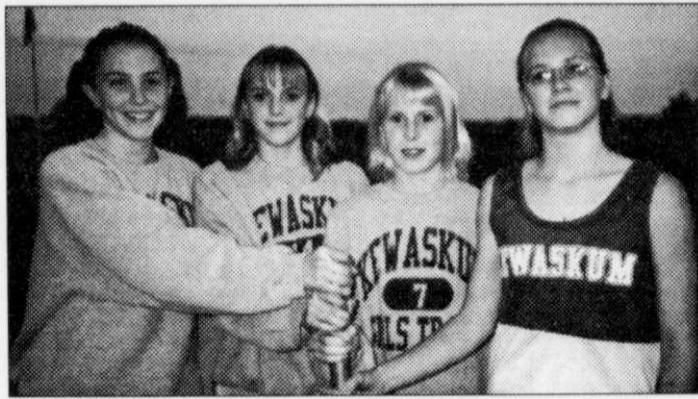

People who suffer from these conditions, and their survivors, can find out what rights and options they have with the help of a lawyer.

Many get a free consultation from the firm of Weitz and Luxenberg, P.C., one of the leading asbestos law firms in the nation.

GERMANTOWN - The Kewaskum Middle School eighth grade girls track team battled to a second place finish at the Scenic Moraine Conference Track and Field Championship at Germantown on Monday, October 2. Host Germantown racked up 118 points to win the conference title. Kewaskum, which impressively won all three relay events and the hurdles, couldn't match the power of Germantown in the field events or the short sprints, finished with 97 points. Slinger finished third with 70.5 points, Badger fourth with 59.5 points, and Hartford Central finished fifth with 51 points. Silverbrook finished sixth with 47 points and Asa Clark Middle School of Pewaukee finished seventh with 45 points followed by Waupun with 16 points.

Amanda Donath, the number one seed in the 75m hurdles, gave everyone a big scare when she fell going over the second hurdle in the preliminaries. She surprised almost everyone when she got up off the track and finished the race. The Kewaskum coaches and athletes eagerly awaited the announcing of the participants for the finals hoping that Amanda Donath had advanced. Finally the names were announced and she had made the finals as the last qualifier and won the event with a career best time of 13.1 seconds. Donath also finished fourth in the 200m dash with a time of 30.1 seconds.

Donath's impressive display of determination set an example that the rest of the team tried their hardest to duplicate. The Kewaskum 4x200m relay of Jessie Butler, Katie Dorn, Whitney Pfeiffer and Leslie Schultz were selected second in lane five with a qualifying time of 2:05.1. Hartford was seeded first in lane four with the fastest qualifying time of 2:04.0. The Kewaskum relay team knew that they would be in for a tough race especially since Kewaskum didn't have a meet with Hartford this season. Butler, Dorn, then Pfeiffer all recorded their fastest 200m splits of the season on both Kewaskum and Hartford completed the last handoff dead even. Schultz and the Hartford runner ran shoulder to shoulder for 150 meters and then Schultz surged ahead and carried the baton across the finish line finishing first with a season best time of two minutes and two seconds (2:02.0) for Kewaskum. Hartford finished second with a season best time of 2:03.0.

In the next event of Kewaskum's Paige Thelen and Krystal Cochran competed in the 400m dash. Kewaskum's number one runner, Thelen, was undefeated in the 400m dash all season, but had spent the weekend in bed with the flu. Thelen was seeded number one and Cochran was seeded number three with a Germantown runner sandwiched in between. Cochran, running the open 400m dash for only the second time this season, finished second with a season best time of 1:08.7. Thelen finished third also with a season best time of 1:09.1. Dillon of Germantown won the race with a time of 1:07.6.

The Kewaskum 4x100m relay team of Butler, Dorn, Pfeiffer and Schultz went in to the race with the number one qualifying time of 58.6 seconds. Kewaskum showed the conference that they were indeed the best 4x100m relay team when they posted their season best time of 58.0 seconds beating the Germantown relay team by 1.6 seconds. "I give a lot of credit to the sprint relay team. They really worked hard all season and came to the meet focused and ready to run. Their goal was to win both of these relays and they ran great," reported a proud coach Gosa. Butler also had a good night in the long jump when she placed third with a season best jump of 12' 10 1/2".

The Kewaskum 4x400m relay team of Paige Thelen, Natasha Lawrence, Kayla McCormack and Krystal Cochran made a clean sweep of the relays. Kewaskum had the fastest qualifying time, but Slinger had given the Kewaskum unit everything they could handle earlier in the season in a duel meet before Cochran past the fourth runner heading into the finish line. Slinger's fourth runner won the 800m run earlier in the night at the conference meet with a time of 2:45. Kewaskum knew that they would have to again run their fastest in order to win the third relay. All four Kewaskum runners ran their fastest 400m splits of the season and Kewaskum won the 4x400m relay with a time of 4:51.5. Slinger finished second with a time of 4:55.4.

Kayla McCormack and Lauren Parsons finished third and fourth in the 1600m run with times of 6:22 and 6:26 respectively. Parsons's time and place was very impressive considering that she had only run the 1600m run once before. McCormack, besides running the 1600m run and running on the winning 4x400m relay team, also placed fourth in the high jump with a jump of 4'2".

Katie Dorn finished sixth in the shot put with a season best throw of 25' 9 1/4" over one foot better. Robin Thelen also finished sixth in the 800m run with a season best time of 2:52.0.

Claire Spang and Samantha Hedlund placed third and fifth in the discus with season best throws of 70'11" and 66'11" respectively.

The Kewaskum girls' eighth grade track team finished the season with a 5-0 dual meet record, Conference Relay Championship and runner-up at the Scenic Moraine Conference Track and Field Championships. "I know that the team was disappointed that they didn't win the conference title. Their goal going was to be conference champions. We knew that Germantown was definitely the team to beat. They had a lot of talented athletes back from their seventh grade championship team. Our athletes did a great job. They put fourth a lot of great efforts and should take a lot of pride in how much they improved this season. While we waited for the final results we told the girls how proud and impressed we were with their efforts and told them that they had done well," concluded coach Gosa.

The Kewaskum Middle School girls track coaches, Jerry Gosa and Jeff Grothenhuis wish all the athletes success in the classroom and in sports for the rest of the school year. The coaches would also like to thank all the parents, teachers, Mr. Sorens, the Kewaskum Middle School principal; and all the people who worked the home track meets this season for their support of the girls and the girls track program. The athletes received their Conference Relay and Conference Meet ribbons at their annual end of the season pot luck supper and awards ceremony on Tuesday, October 10th.

Indians Ground Jets, 13-6

The Indians traveled to Manitowoc on Friday to take on the Roncalli Jets in an Eastern Wisconsin Conference game. The Indians found themselves trailing for only the second time the entire season.

The host Jets were able to get on the board first with :54 left in the first quarter when Pat Stangel scored from two yards out. The extra point failed on a pass attempt from Andy Jahnke to Rob Rudolph.

It was a tough defensive game the whole way. The Indians were only able to score on a 29 yard Charlie Sparks field goal in the first half.

In the second half, the Indians were able to move the ball a little better, and set themselves up for their only touchdown of the contest on a 41 yard pass from Tom Ogi to his brother, Bob.

Bob was tackled on the two yard line to end the third quarter. On the very next play, Tom Ogi kept the ball on a quarterback sneak and took it in from the two. The extra point was good by Charlie Sparks giving the Indians their first lead of the game at 10-6.

The only remaining threat of a score came from the Indians in the fourth quarter, when the Jets mishandled a punt snap and Kewaskum took over deep in Manitowoc territory.

The Indians could only pick up one first down and had to settle for another Charlie Sparks field goal. This time from 27 yards out, setting up the final, Kewaskum 13, Manitowoc

The Indians are now 4-1 in conference (6-1 overall) and tied for second place with Plymouth. Kewaskum plays host to Two Rivers this Friday in the annual Homecoming Game at 7 p.m.

Lady Indians First In Conference

The Lady Indian volleyball team is first in the conference with two matches left after Thursday's victory over Kiel in the Indian field-house. The Indians led Kiel 15-6, 15-2 and 14-16.

Senior Emmy Foerster played a very strong game from the middle. She led the team in scoring with 12 points.

"Kathryn Schneider did a tremendous job dispersing the sets to keep all of our hitters involved," stated Coach Dave Rizzardi. She led the team in assists with a total of 14.

Lynn Wiesner was 18 for 18 in serves, and led the team in aces with three.

"We controlled the tempo of the match to run our offense the way we like it. In the second game especially, Lynn held serve and Kathryn worked the offense to perfection," stated Coach Rizzardi.

The team is 11-1 and alone in first place with only two games left of the regular season.

The JV team is ranked 9-3 and the freshman are 12-0 in the conference.
