Information on all the candidates can be found in this issue of the Statesman.

Winterfest Being Planned For Parade Weekend Here

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is happy to announce their annual Kewaskum Christmas Parade will be held on Sunday, December 4 at 5 p.m.

To make an already good thing even better, the Chamber has decided to expand the parade festivities to include a "Winterfest Weekend." Members of the committee are working on special raffles at business places, an ice sculpting contest, serving hot food and drinks, and activities prior to the parade. The annual tree decorating contest is also being planned.

Another added attraction that has been decided on for this year is a Make-It-and-Take-It gift shop which will be located at the former Hair On Main building on Main Street. There on Saturday and Sunday, children will be able to paint ceramics and make crafts and special gifts for their parents, grandparents and

Donations Are Needed For Christmas Parade

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is in dire need of financial assistance if they hope to again sponsor the annual Christmas Parade on December 4. Due to a late start, and a decrease in contributions last year, there is less than $80 left in their Christmas Parade fund.

As in past years, the Chamber is asking community and area residents for donations towards the annual Christmas parade, through the purchase of the individual tree lights that will adorn the Christmas trees placed adjacent to the visitors' gazebo and the new

Bush, Gore Continue to Run Tight in Presidential Race

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

Presidential candidates George W. Bush and Al Gore continue to run a close race in the preliminary polls. According to a Reuters-MSNBC poll taken Tuesday Bush was ahead of Gore 46% to 41%.

Tuesday voters will decide the better man for the job of running this great nation. George W. Bush is the 46th Governor of the State of Texas and the Republican nominee for President of the United States. Gov. Bush has earned a reputation as a compassionate conservative who shapes policy based on the principles of limited government, personal responsibility, strong families, and local control.

In his five years in office, Gov. Bush has delivered the two largest tax cuts in state history, totaling nearly $3 billion, to Texas taxpayers.

Gov. Bush's first priority is the education of our children. He has worked with the Legislature to increase the state's share of funding for schools, to restore local control, to strengthen the state's accountability system, to give parents and students greater choice of schools, and to foster competition and creativity through charter schools and an expanded menu of educational opportunity.

As President, Gov. Bush

plans to pursue the same common sense agenda in the same bipartisan way that he has in Texas. Gov. Bush has proposed bold initiatives to ensure that America's prosperity has a purpose. He has proposed plans for improving our nation's public schools by strengthening local control and insisting on accountability; reducing taxes on all taxpayers, especially those on the outskirts of poverty; strengthening the military with better pay, better planning, and better equipment; saving and strengthening Social Security and Medicare by providing seniors with more options; and ushering in the responsibility era in America.

Bush grew up in Midland and Houston, Texas. He received a bachelor's degree from Yale University and an MBA from Harvard Business School. He served as an F-102 pilot for the Texas Air National Guard. He began his career in the oil and gas business in Midland in 1975 and worked in the energy industry until 1986.

He served as managing general partner of the Texas Rangers until he was elected Governor on November 8, 1994, with 53.5 percent of the vote. In a historic re-election victory, he became the first Texas Governor to be elected to consecutive four-year terms on November 3, 1998 winning 68.6 percent of the vote.

Bush and his wife, Laura, a former teacher and librarian who grew up in Midland, reside in the historic Governor's mansion in Austin with their 18-year-old twin daughters, Barbara and Jenna.

Bush is a Methodist and has served on the boards of various charitable, business, and civic organizations.

Bush has chosen Dick Cheney as his running mate.

Cheney, 59, comes to the table with a nearly ideal resume. He boasts experience as an elected official, at a high level inside the White House and in running a major federal agency. Cheney is a former six-term congressman from Wyoming and served as defense secretary under Bush's father. Cheney also served in the Nixon White House and was chief of staff to President Ford.

Cheney was born in Lincoln, Nebraska, married to Lynne, they share two children.

Cheney graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1965. He currently is the chief executive officer of the Dallas-based Halliburton Company, an oil-services company.

For Wisconsin Bush has proposed tax cuts for everyone, higher standards in education, improved

Mayville Man Dies In Late Night Crash

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

Town of Kewaskum-- A 20 year old Mayville man became Washington County's 15th traffic fatality as a result of a two-vehicle accident just before 11 p.m. Wednesday evening. The driver of the second vehicle, a Kewaskum man, was left uninjured.

According to the Washington County Sheriff's Department Terry L. Volm, 42, was driving a feed truck alone. He exited from a private driveway onto County Highway H westbound and upon accelerating was rear-ended by Jason S. Skelton who was also driving westbound, alone.

Skelton suffered head and internal injuries and was pronounced dead at the scene by Washington County Coroner Marlene Yoost.

Kewaskum Rescue and Fire Department responded to the scene.

Although moderate fog was in the area, it is not believed to be a contributing factor in the accident.

The accident remains under investigation by the sheriff's department.

Correction

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

In regards to an article we ran on last week's front page about an early morning single-vehicle accident that took the life of a 26-year-old Campbellsport man we incorrectly stated the man, Brian C. Nyberg was burned while still inside the vehicle. Nyberg was ejected from the vehicle and died of injuries he received from the accident.

Our apologies go out to his family for any inconvenience this caused.

EDUCATION... IT'S EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

By Wayne P. Graczyk,
Kewaskum Superintendent of Schools
www.ksd.k12.wi.us

Growing up, I often heard people say, "a person must stand on his scruples." I assumed scruples were principles, seeing as how being scrupulous meant being concerned with what is honest and right. But actually scruple means a small, sharp stone. The phrase to stand on your scruples derived from the idea of being bothered by a small, sharp stone in one's shoe, but standing there anyway. In other words, standing on your scruples means standing firm, but doing so with tender feet, with sensitivity.

I shared this story at this year's Annual Meeting.

I stood on a corner in a busy town watching workers tear a building down. With a yo-heave and a lusty yell, they swing a boom and things simply fell. I asked the foreman of this mighty crew, "Are these workers as skilled as those who build new?"

"Oh, no!", said he. "Oh, no indeed. Common labor is all I need. Why, I can tear down as much in a day or two as it takes skilled workers a year to build."

I asked myself, which is better? To stand on your scruples, with sensitivity, or to tear down, which requires much less sensitivity? What has been your experience in dealing with people, or institutions? Do most people stand up for things with sensitivity, or do they tend to tear down? I believe we need to build things up, not down. However, in saying this, I'm not implying that we should be seeing the world through rose-colored glasses.

In the next couple of articles, I will be addressing two areas that unfortunately get torn down more often than being built up, with sensitivity. These are Test Scores and Local Control.

We continue to read about the low test scores of students in public schools. Do you realize that Wisconsin continues a long and strong tradition of leading the nation in the quality of education provided to our students? Leading the nation is a phrase we don't hear as often as hearing and reading about our students not doing well, or that our schools are failing children.

Regarding local control, we first must recognize that education is a state function, not a federal government responsibility. Local control is you, the taxpayer. Local control is the locally elected school board, the people, it's the administration, the staff, and yes, the parents and children. Yet as you listen to our Presidential candidates, you would think that the federal government has not only the right, but has the answers to every conceivable problem imaginable in our schools today. Did you know that right now, local control, your voice, is being challenged in Wisconsin by a proposal being floated at the state level calling for the state to assume 100% of the funding of our schools. While this may sound good to some (the money will still come from someplace, or someone), the person paying the bills (the state) generally has more say, and thus control, over what will be done and not be done in your schools. The question is where do you think local control should emanate from? My goal is to address friends. They will also have the opportunity to design their own wrapping paper and wrap their handmade gifts.

This year the theme for the parade will be "A Fairy Tale Christmas." The Chamber invites ALL BUSINESS PEOPLE, school groups, church groups and civic organizations to please join in on the festivities. The more groups that participate and get involved, the greater the parade will be.

This year's route will be the same as last year as the adjusted route helped the flow of traffic and gave test scores and local control in future articles, and do so "with sensitivity". I hope you will look for these articles.

everyone an ample opportunity to view the parade. The starting point will be at the Kewaskum High School. It will proceed to Parkview Drive, traveling south and turn right (west) on Main Street. It will then turn right at the stop and go lights onto Fond du Lac Avenue, heading north. At First Street another right will be taken as the parade makes its way east towards the Municipal Building.

More will be published on the ice sculpture contest and other events being planned for Sunday in future editions. If anyone has any ideas or is interested in helping plan the festivities, please contact parade chairman, Kevin Stautz, at 626-2995, or Andrew Kuehl at 626-2626.

Guidelines for entering a float include: no additional Santas as there will only be one Santa allowed in the parade and he, as in other years, will be at the end, providing anticipation for all the good little girls and boys. Candy or gifts may not be thrown from any float, however it may be given out by someone walking alongside the float. There will be cash prizes for the top five floats and deadline for entries must be received by December 1, 2000.

If you cannot possibly see your way clear to build a float this year, a contribution toward the parade would be most beneficial. Donations are used to help offset the cost of the bands, rental of the parade costumes and the goodie bags handed out. If you would like to show your support for the parade, donations may be mailed to the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 300, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

Thanks for any way you can help to make the parade the success it has been in previous years. Your input, no matter how big or small, makes this event a huge attraction for the young and young-at-heart in this community.

Local KHS Student on Motion Picture Shoot

Rachel Brunner

"OK everybody! Quiet! Lock the set! Take three! Roll film!" That familiar phrase echoed in the ears of a local KHS student, Rachel Brunner, dozens of times last month as she and her family traveled to Deer Isle,

Maine to spend a week on the set of a major motion picture shoot. The film, Finding Home, starring Lisa Brenner and Misha Collins, and directed by Lawrence Foldes, is being shot on location in Maine by ClearStar Productions, Inc., a Milwaukee based Christian film production company.

Rachel was given the opportunity to help out on the set because her mother, Holly Brunner, served as the set nurse for a week. Rachel's dad is a staff minister and advancement director for Christian Life Resources in Milwaukee, ClearStar's parent company.

While on the set Rachel was asked to stand-in for Miss Brenner when the cameras were being prepared and the shots measured. Rachel also was asked to man the other end of the director's walkie-talkie while lying on the floor of a speeding car as she reported Foldes's directions to Miss Brenner in one of the movie's action scenes. When her week on the set was done, Rachel was ready for more. "I sure wish that I could stay here through the entire shoot. Making motion pictures is really cool and the crew, actors and actresses have already become my friends in just a few days!" Nonetheless, Rachel and her family returned to home in the Town of Wayne in early October as high school classes and teachers beckoned.

Finding Home will reach theaters nationally next summer and internationally next fall. For more information about the film, contact Christian Life Resources at 1-800-729-9535 or, just ask Rachel!

Police Reports

On October 14, Kewaskum police met with a complainant in reference to a possible theft.

The complainant stated that her child's bike had been stolen from the High School football area. It had been parked on the east side of the field.

Both the officer and the complainant drove around the school and did not find the bike.

The bike was found three days later in the bushes outside of the school.

On October 14, Kewaskum police were dispatched to a Braatz Drive residence in reference to a vandalism.

The complainant stated that someone had painted a profanity on his garage door with blue water soluble paint.

The complainant washed off the door and the officer checked for any other signs of vandalism. The individuals have not yet been found. If anyone has information contact the Kewaskum Police Department at 626-2323 or the Washington County Chief's Tip Line at 1-800-232-0594. All calls are confidential.

On October 15, a Kewaskum police officer was stopped by a complainant in reference to a vandalism complaint. The officer was then asked to follow the complainant to a Edgewood Drive residence.

The officer observed a car with the same blue paint that had been used in an earlier vandalism. There was a profanity written on the window and squiggly lines were drawn all the way around the vehicle.

The individuals have not yet been found. If anyone has information contact the Kewaskum Police Department at 626-2323 or the Washington County Chief's Tip Line at 1-800-232-0594. All calls are confidential.

Police reports are compiled weekly by Statesman staff member Nicole Rawley with the help of the Kewaskum Police Department.

United Way at 72%

The United Way of Washington County campaign has announced that as of October 27, the campaign has passed the 72 percent mark, with $804,915 in gifts and pledges counted toward the county-wide goal of $1,100,000.

"We are impressed with the efforts to date, and thank our volunteers and donors for the results thus far," said Gaytha and Charlie Hillman, Co-Chairs of this year's area campaign.

A number of divisions are already at or above the 72 percent benchmark: Accountants and Business Services, Attorneys, Clergy, Professional Specialties, Washington County Employees, Special Gifts, Transportation, Commercial, Retail, Hartford, Jackson and Allenton. Other divisions are also doing well as fun raising efforts continue.

According to the Hillmans, "Our campaign theme of 'Give Help, Give Hope' is reflected in the results of donor dollars, which enables our agencies to deliver effective and efficient programs and services. One out of four individuals in the County has used or will use a United Way-funded service sometime in his or her life. Our campaign volunteers have also taken the 'help' and 'hope' message to heart," they said. "We compliment them on their efforts to help us raise funds and favorably impact thousands of lives here in Washington County."

One highlight of the week was a group of 6th Grade students at Badger Middle school in West Bend, who had a "penny war" among classrooms. The students collected pennies to count toward their class' credit, and placed different coins in other classrooms, which had to be "subtracted" from the total - with United Way receiving all the proceeds. Approximately $780 was raised from about 100 students. "What a tremendous effort," said Charlie Hillman. The kids had fun doing this, and we're pleased they gave so much to benefit United Way!" he said.

"The giving spirit of the students was certainly evident," said Gaytha Hillman. "We applaud their effort, and encourage other schools to consider doing something similar," she said.

More than 99 percent of funds stay right here in Washington County. "Many people are unaware of this statistic and are pleasantly surprised to learn that such a large part of their donation stays right here in the area," said Executive Director, Barbara Hurula. "Our local volunteers decide funding amounts for our member agencies, including the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Senior Citizens Activities, Full Shelf Food Pantry, Citizen Advocacy, the Threshold and other agencies. A total of 25 agencies will be funded in 2001 from this Campaign effort," said Hurula.

If businesses or individuals (or schools) are interested in contributing to the fund drive, they are encouraged to call the United Way office at (262) 338-3821.

Flu Clinics Cancelled Through Thanksgiving

The Visiting Nurse Association of Wisconsin received an initial shipment of flu vaccine earlier this week, with the balance of its order promised next week. The VNA was notified early this afternoon that the promised delivery of more than 75% of its flu vaccine will not be shipped on time by the manufacturer, Aventis, Inc. As a result of having insufficient vaccine at this time, the VNA will be canceling all scheduled Shoo the Flu and Pneumonia Too clinics through Thanksgiving.

The Surgeon General of the United States, Dr. David Satcher, and the U.S. Centers for Disease Control have asked Aventis, the largest United States manufacturer of flu vaccine, to revise its distribution plan. Shipping plans will be revised to assure that flu vaccination programs nationwide that had ordered from Aventis will receive at least 25% of their orders by November 17. As a result, Aventis is altering shipment dates. The balance of shipments is expected to be made in early December.

VNA and Aurora leaders will hold a meeting early next week to develop a plan to use the vaccine received to date to immunize those individuals at highest risk. Every effort will be made to ensure that those people at highest risk for influenza will be vaccinated. The VNA will release further details as soon as information is available next week.

As a general thing, people marry most happily with their own kind. The trouble lies in the fact that people usually marry at an age when they do not really know what their own kind is.

OVER 65 YEARS OF LEGAL SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

health care with more choices and plans to save and strengthen social security.

In his tax cut plan Bush says there are only two things that can be done with a surplus. It can be taken by the government or it can be returned to Wisconsin families, to save and build and dream. Bush says his choice is the family. His proposed tax cut will reduce rates for every taxpayer and return $483 billion to the people over the next five years.

Bush also plans to set aside $2 trillion, half the surplus, to strengthen Social Security and pay down the national debt. Furthermore he plans to abolish the earning test on Wisconsin's working seniors and end the death tax.

On education Bush says he will insist on local control, high standards, strict accountability, phonics and charter schools. He also states that he will encourage states to measure results with their own state test.

Bush says Wisconsin can have confidence in his leadership, trust in his values, and pride in his service as president.

Al Gore is the Vice President of the United States and the Democratic nominee for President of the United States.

He was born on March 31, 1948, and is the son of former U.S. Senator Albert Gore, Sr. and Pauline LaFon Gore and was raised in Carthage, Tennessee, and in Washington, D.C.,

Gore received a degree in government with honors from Harvard University in 1969.

After graduation, he volunteered for enlistment in the U.S. Army and served in Vietnam. Returning to civilian life, Gore settled in Tennessee and studied religion at Vanderbilt University while working as a newspaper reporter with The Tennessean in Nashville.

Gore married Mary Elizabeth "Tipper" Aitche-son on May 19, 1970, while he was in the Army.

Gore later attended Vanderbilt Law School.

Gore began his career in public service in 1976 when he was elected to represent Tennessee in the U.S. House of Representatives. He was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1984 and was re-elected in 1990, when he became the first statewide candidate in modern history to carry all 95 Tennessee counties. A candidate for the Democratic nomination for President in 1988, he won Democratic primaries and caucuses in seven states.

Al and Tipper Gore have four children: Karenna Gore Schiff, 27, is a recent law school graduate. She and her husband, Dr. Drew Schiff, are the proud parents of Wyatt Gore Schiff, the Gore's first grandchild. Kristin, 23, is a comedy writer; Sarah, 21, is a senior in college and Albert, 17, is a high school senior.

From the simple lessons about work and responsibility he learned from his parents, to his strong, life-long partnership with his wife Tipper, to their four children—Al Gore's family is his proudest accomplishment of all.

"My faith sustains and renews me," says Gore, "and we all find fulfillment in our families."

While most Americans know Al Gore for his leadership in Congress and as Vice President, it is the families and values of Tennessee that have most shaped his life and career.

Gore has chosen Joseph Lieberman as his running mate.

Joseph Lieberman was born in Stamford, Connecticut on February 24, 1942 and attended public schools there. He received his bachelor's degree from Yale College in 1964 and his law degree from Yale Law School in 1967.

Lieberman was elected to the Connecticut State Senate in 1970 and served there for 10 years, including the last six as Majority Leader. He also spent time in the private practice of law, and as an Assistant Dean of the School of Art and Architecture at Yale.

He is the author of five books. The most recent, "In Praise of Public Life" (2000), is a spirited defense of public life that draws on his personal experience.

From 1982 to 1988, Lieberman served as Connecticut's 21st Attorney General, and used the post to fight for consumers in Connecticut. He won a multi-million dollar case against supermarket chains, and even took on a powerful insurance company from his home state. He took on the oil industry and brought legal actions to promote women's rights. Lieberman also was an aggressive enforcer of the state's environmental protection laws.

In 1988, Lieberman won the biggest upset victory in the country, by beating incumbent Lowell Weicker to win election to the U.S. Senate by just 10,000 votes. Six years later, he made history by winning the biggest landslide victory ever in a Connecticut race for a Senate seat, with a margin of more than 67% of the vote.

Lieberman, who is Jewish, lives in New Haven with his wife Hadassah.

They are the parents of four children: Matthew, Rebecca, Ethan and Hana. He also has two granddaughters, Tennessee and

Gillespie Hopes To Unseat Kohl

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

Republican John Gillespie is hoping to have a chance at a U.S. Senate seat currently occupied by Democrat political stalwart Herb Kohl.

Gillespie visited the Statesman office to share information on his background and his dream of representing Wisconsin in the U.S. Senate.

John Gillespie was born and raised on a family farm in Outagamie County. He attended the same one-room, country schoolhouse that his father and grandfather attended.

While growing up, he was surrounded by a close knit, loving family who taught him the value of hard work and of being a person of character.

John received his bachelors degree in agriculture from the UW-Madison and was the owner of a successful landscape company. He understands the pressures small business owners and farmers face and wants to work to make a difference for them and their families.

Having served as a Captain in a combat engineer company, John believes in a strong military and supporting our servicemen and women and our veterans.

Gillespie is married to wife, Jan. Together, they raised two sons and have three grandchildren. He says he knows firsthand the challenges of raising a family; not only from his experience with his own boys, but with the hundreds of others who have passed through the doors of the Rawhide Boys Ranch. He also knows that it's important for children to have access to the best education. He also knows that working families should be able to keep more of the money they earn and that grandparents need the financial stability to be able to play a role in their grandchildren's lives and not spend time worrying about government promises to fund Social Security.

Herb Kohl was elected to the Senate in 1988 and reelected to a second six-year term in 1994. Kohl was born and raised in Milwaukee, where he attended public school. He earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1956 and a masters degree in business administration from Harvard University in 1958. Kohl served in the Army Reserve from 1958 to 1964.

Before coming to the Senate, Kohl helped build his family-owned business, Kohl's grocery and department stores. He served as president of the business from 1970 through the sale of the corporation in 1979. In 1985 he bought the Milwaukee Bucks to ensure the basketball team remained in Milwaukee.

During his time in office,

Senator Kohl has been recognized as a leader in Congress for his work in balancing the federal budget. Independent nonpartisan groups have consistently given him high marks for his votes against wasteful spending. Senator Kohl has been honored by the Concord Coalition, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Taxpayers for Common Sense and Citizens Against Government Waste for his voting record.

On the first day of the 106th Congress, Senator Kohl introduced the Child Care Infrastructure Act, a bill to encourage private companies and institutions to build on- or near-site day care centers to meet the rapidly growing demand for child care.

The bill has been featured in Working Mother and Parents magazines. Senator Kohl said he will make passage of the Child Care Infrastructure Act one of his highest priorities.

Senator Kohl also has focused on anti-crime legislation, especially crimes related to kids. He reauthorized juvenile justice programs in the federal government, and authored laws which prevent the sale of handguns to minors and prohibit handguns from being brought into a school zone. Senator Kohl is the sponsor of the Child Safety Lock Act, a bill to require the sale of safety locks with handguns to prevent accidental shootings by children.

Kohl serves on the Senate Appropriations Committee, the Judiciary Committee, and the Special Committee on Aging. When the 106th Congress convened, Kohl became the senior Democrat on the Agriculture Appropriations Subcommittee, which has jurisdiction over the budgets of USDA, the FDA and other agencies which include many programs important to farmers and consumers. He also serves as the ranking member of the Judiciary's Subcommittee on Antitrust, Business Rights and Competition.

Voters will also choose from three other tickets.

Willie.

Gore is fighting to make sure every child in America has health insurance. As President he plans to expand the successful Children's Health Care Insurance Program to ensure every child in America has access to affordable, quality health care coverage while parents can buy health insurance at a reasonable cost.

Gore also plans to make revolutionary improvements in our public schools. As president he plans to offer universal pre-school; Reduce class sizes by completing the hiring of 100,000 new teachers and helping schools recruit and train one million qualified new teachers; Demand higher standards and accountability from all our students, teachers and schools; enable local communities to rebuild and modernize crumbling schools and create new, tax-free savings accounts to help families save for college.

As president Gore plans to increase funding to help working middle class families who are struggling to pay for the cost of child-care and will fight to expand the Child and Dependent Care Tax Credit to parents who stay home with small children.

Gore strongly supports increasing the minimum wage to $6.15 per hour.

Maybe the most talked about Gore plan yet is his plan to expand Medicare to help seniors afford prescription drugs. In his plan seniors would pay no deductible for their prescriptions under his new Medicare prescription drug benefit.

SAMPLE BALLOT NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 7, 2000

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY

Notice is hereby given of a general election to be held in the several wards in the County of Washington, on the 7th day of November, 2000, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, together with the question submitted to a vote, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth or machine and cast his or her ballot except that an elector who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the elector's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

At the general election, if an elector wishes to cast a straight party vote for all candidates nominated by any party, the elector shall select the party of his or her choice and:

Where lever machines are used, depress the lever or button under the party designation. Where a marksense system is used, fill in the oval next to the party designation.

A straight party vote is a vote for the party's candidates listed on the ballot, unless the elector casts a vote for a candidate of another party, writes in the name of a candidate or applies a sticker. A straight party vote cannot be cast for independent candidates.

To vote for individual candidates, where lever machines are used, depress the lever or button at the right of the candidate's name. Where a marksense system is used, fill in the oval next to the candidate's name. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the elector shall write the name of the candidate of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote.

An elector must cast a vote for President and Vice President jointly on one ticket.

To vote for persons whose names do not appear on the ballot, write in the names of individuals for both offices on the lines provided. A write-in vote for only a vice presidential candidate will not be counted.

On referenda questions, where lever machines are used, the elector shall depress the lever or button at the right of "yes" if in favor of the question, or the elector shall depress the lever or button at the right of "no" if opposed to the question.

On referenda questions, where marksense voting is used, the elector shall fill in the oval next to "yes" if in favor of the question, or the elector shall fill in the oval next to "no" if opposed to the question.

If an elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initialed by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in marking his or her ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the voting booth, properly deposit the ballot, and promptly leave the polling place.

After an official marksense ballot is marked, it shall be inserted in the secrecy sleeve provided so the marks do not show. The elector shall then insert the ballot in the voting device and return the sleeve or deliver it to an inspector for deposit.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing, or understanding English, or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the elector's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the elector.

NOTICE OF REFERENDUM ELECTION NOVEMBER 7, 2000

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that an election to be held in the several towns, villages, wards, and election districts of the State of Wisconsin, on Tuesday, November 7, 2000, the following question will be submitted to a vote of the people pursuant to law:

EXCERPTS FROM 1999 WISCONSIN ACT 182

Section 68. 6.24 (1) and (2) of the statutes are amended to read:

6.24 (1) Definition. In this section, "overseas elector" means a U.S. citizen who is not disqualified from voting under s. 6.03, who has attained or will attain the age of 18 by the date of an election at which the citizen proposes to vote and who does not qualify as a resident of the state under s. 6.10, but who was last domiciled in this state or whose parent was last domiciled in this state immediately prior to the parent's departure from the United States, and who is not registered to vote or voting in any other state, territory or possession.

(2) Eligibility. An overseas elector under sub. (1) may vote in any election for national office, including the September primary and presidential preference primary and any special primary or election. Such elector may not vote in an election for state or local office. An overseas elector shall vote in the ward or election district in which he or she the elector was last domiciled or in which the elector's parent was last domiciled prior to departure from the United States.

Section 70. 6.24 (3) of the statutes, as affected by 1999 Wisconsin Act 182, is amended to read:

6.24 (3) Registration. If registration is required in the municipality where the overseas elector resides resided or where the elector's parent resided, the elector shall register on a form prescribed by the board designed to ascertain the elector's qualifications under this section. The form shall be substantially similar to the original form under s. 6.33 (1), insofar as applicable. Registration shall be accomplished in accordance with s. 6.30 (4).

Section 224. Nonstatutory provisions.

(1) There shall be submitted to the vote of the electors at the general election to be held in November 2000 the following question:

"Shall sections 68 and 70 of 1999 Wisconsin Act 182, which extend the right to vote in federal elections in this state to the adult children of U.S. citizens who resided in this state prior to establishing residency abroad, become effective on January 1, 2001?"

If the question is approved by the majority of all votes cast on the question at the election, Section 68 and 70 of this act shall become law; otherwise, those sections shall not take effect.

EXPLANATION

Under present Wisconsin law a United States citizen living overseas who has met the other qualifications for voting except residency in Wisconsin may vote in federal elections in Wisconsin if the person was last domiciled in Wisconsin and he or she is not registered to vote or voting in any other state, territory or possession. The law provides that the person votes in the election district or ward in which he or she was last domiciled in Wisconsin.

The proposed law would extend the right to vote in federal elections in Wisconsin to adult children of United States citizens living overseas whose parents lived in Wisconsin, but who themselves never lived in Wisconsin. Many overseas United States citizens have never resided in a state and, therefore, under current law are not entitled to vote. Generally, they are subject to United States income tax and all other requirements of citizens. Except for the fact that they have never resided in a state they would be eligible to vote in elections for federal office.

Because the law extends the right to vote, article III, section 2(5) of the Wisconsin Constitution requires that the law be ratified by a vote of the people at a general election before becoming effective. A "yes" vote on this question would mean that the right to vote in federal elections in Wisconsin would be extended to United States citizens who, if not eligible to vote in any other state, territory or possession, had a parent who last lived in Wisconsin. A "no" vote would mean that the right to vote in federal elections in Wisconsin would not be extended to people in that class.

Clawson Attempts to Unseat Sensenbrenner

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

For 22 years James Sensenbrenner has represented the Ninth district. In this year's election Sensenbrenner will have to face an aggressive opponent who says "this year is the year he (Sensenbrenner) needs to step down."

F. James Sensenbrenner, Jr. is a Republican Member of Congress representing the Ninth Congressional District (Washington, Ozaukee, Dodge, Fond du Lac, Jefferson, Sheboygan and Waukesha counties)

He was first elected in November of 1978, after serving ten years in the House Science Committee, which is responsible for developing and overseeing government science policy. Previously, Congressman Sensenbrenner served as Chairman of the Science Committee's Space and Aeronautics Subcommittee. He has also served as a member of the Judiciary Committee.

Sensenbrenner has served as a Wisconsin State Senator from April of 1975-78, assistant minority leader, 1976-78.

He also served as the state representative in Jan. 1969 to April 1975.

Mike Clawson is Sensenbrenner's only opposition. Running under a Democratic ticket Clawson, a Beaver Dam native states: "In 1998 I went to the polls and was offended that not one (Democrat) cared enough to run against Mr. Sensenbrenner. I vowed that he would not have a clear field again. There are many important issues that need to be thoroughly examined; with only one candidate there is no discussion."

Clawson, a political rookie, has never run for any public office.

Koski Challenging Incumbent Panzer

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

Mary Panzer has served in the Wisconsin Legislature since 1980. She first served in the Assembly, and was later elected to the Senate in a special election in September of 1993. The members of the Senate Republican Caucus elected Senator Panzer Floor Leader in January 2000. She is currently the longest serving woman in the Wisconsin Legislature.

Senator Panzer's father, Frank, served in the Wisconsin Legislature from 1931 and until his death in 1969. Senator Frank Panzer served as President Pro Tempore for 18 years.

Panzer has served a long tenure as a member of the Joint Committee on Finance. She has been a leader on a variety of issues including juvenile justice, mental health and technology.

Senator Panzer is a graduate of Mayville High School and the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She is a member of the West Bend Rotary, the Wisconsin Farm Bureau, Wisconsin Women in Government, Wisconsin Women's Business Initiative Corporation and Focus.

When announcing her plans for re-election Panzer pointed to the Senate's failure to act on a prescription drug plan for needy seniors as the most disappointing moment of the past legislative session. She also called for legislative action to study and address economic issues including the "brain drain," the problem of skilled Wisconsin workers moving out of state, and the "federal Funds drain," Wisconsin's perennial failure to recapture its fair share of federal tax dollars.

Dale Koski, Panzer's only opposition, is a Port Washington native.

In depth information on Koski was unavailable as well as a biography.

Koski's initiatives are Property tax relief, improving public schools, protecting natural resources and providing affordable prescription drugs to senior citizens.

Hot Meeting for the FFA

Deb Ramthun uses a fire extinguisher to put out a grass fire. Boltonville's Assistant Chief Ken Ramthun verbally assists Deb. In the background, firefighters Tom and Tim Ramthun stand by in case the fire would get out of control.

During the Open House, FFA members look at all the fire equipment. Shown above is Peter Marx who tried on some of the turnout gear.

The Kewaskum FFA chapter held their monthly member meeting at the Boltonville Fire Department on Monday, October 9. Being that it was National Fire Prevention Week, the FFA thought it would be appropriate to hold their meeting along with the fire department open house.

The evening was shortly delayed due to the fire department's response to a car-van accident on Highway 144. Fortunately there was no fire at the scene, so the firemen were able to return to the station and quickly get started with the planned activities.

The FFA members, as well as many others from the community, were amazed as to how fast the model room became engulfed in flames. It was an eye opening experience for many to use fire extinguishers on flaming kettles and pans.

The FFA meeting consisted of discussion on many of the upcoming events including the fall Fruit Sale that is planned to start as soon as possible.

After the meeting everyone enjoyed the great amount of food brought by the FFA and the snacks brought by the fire department woman's auxiliary. Overall it was an interesting and fun way to encourage fire safety and FFA leadership.

Donations

Welcome to Kewaskum sign near the firehouse.

This annual fund-raiser was initiated by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce to help underwrite the enormous cost of the parade and the "goodie" bags Santa hands out to all the children.

This year the purchase of these lights has been altered a little to simplify the process of the contributions. Instead of the option to purchase three different colors of lights, it was decided to have only white lights on the trees. The Chamber is asking for a $10 contribution for each light purchased. You will still have the opportunity to buy a light for yourself and your family, or to specify that the light be designated as a memorial light in honor of a friend or member of your family who will not be here to share the holidays with you.

Another different feature this year is that the lights will be lit only AFTER they are purchased. That will give everyone the opportunity to see how many contributions are received. The goal is to have the trees lit entirely by the time the parade winds itself through Kewaskum.

It is sincerely hoped all who enjoy the parade and want to see it maintained on a yearly basis will once again consider purchasing one or more tree lights.

Businesses (or private individuals) are being urged to enter a float or other unit into the parade, however, a donation towards the goodie bags and additional parade expenses will also be appreciated very much.

Purchase a light for your neighbor or in the name of a friend, co-worker or someone who has done you a recent favor. If you like, we'll send out a gift card as in previous years. When you return your donation with the coupon on page 15 of this issue, please specify on an enclosed piece of paper if you desire a gift card and the name and address of where it should be sent. A list of all who have purchased a light will be printed in an upcoming issue of the Kewaskum Statesman, free of charge.

Take the time now to fill out the light coupon on page 15 and mail it with your donation to the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, %Lisa Stockhausen, Treasurer, 1906 Elm Tree Drive, Kewaskum, WI 53040. For your convenience, the coupon may also be dropped off at the Kewaskum Statesman.

Let us all do our part in giving back to the community an extra special Christmas parade on Sunday, December 4.

With your support, the lights on the trees can illuminate the evening sky as Kewaskum begins their celebration of the holiday season with the annual Christmas parade.

The quality of the parade depends on your participation and the donations of businesses and residents. The parade can be only as good as the effort we are willing to put into it.

Dear Editor:

Wayne Elementary School's major fundraiser has come to a close and I would like to recognize the people who made it a success.

Thank you Andrew Kuehl for your donation of movie certificates. It helped us to achieve 81% participation, which is outstanding.

Thank you to Deb Clifford, our Mr. Z's representative, for all her knowledge and help and her genuine concern that all orders were filled and handled properly.

Most of all I thank the community of parents, teachers, students and those who purchased, for their overwhelming support. It is not an easy thing to do especially in the Fall when we are all loaded down with activities. It certainly shows your concern and pride for our school and our children. We are proud to say we nearly doubled our profits from last year, which will be used for computer software at Wayne Elementary School.

I thank you again for all your support and remember next Fall - 2001, anyone who desires Mr. Z's products, please contact a Wayne Elementary student.

Dear Editor:

Once again it's time for Wisconsin to elect one of our Senators to Washington and once again Herb Kohl is buying his way back into office (this time he is likely to spend 5 million dollars - last time it was around 6 million).

I wish someone would tell me what Kohl has done for this state or the people he claims to represent. His voting record shows he is little more than a Clinton "yes man." He cannot lay claim to any major accomplishment after 12 years in office. As a member of the Senate Agriculture committee he has offered little more than rhetoric to change the outdated federal dairy price support structure that systematically cheats farmers in this state while aiding those out of state (as a Wisconsin farmer are you any better off now than you were 12 years ago?). He touts himself as being "nobody's Senator but yours" and is looked upon by his supporters as being a "nice guy." Well, this nice guy has voted to keep partial birth abortion legal on four different occasions - always voting with the Clintons and keeping the painful death of healthy, well advanced babies legal.

If Kohl had a working record to stand on or if he actually did something in office other than occupy a chair he wouldn't have to spend such outrageous money to win elections. Unfortunately, we appear to live in a state where people are content to sell their votes to the highest bidder so once again he feels confident in buying another term. I hear so much about campaign finance reform and how people are disturbed by "big money" in politics, and I agree. So how is a rich man buying an office and imposing his will any different from large corporate or union soft money? It isn't.

Wake up Wisconsin. Our Senate seats to Washington are too important to sell to the complacent wealthy. We need someone who will represent us. When John Gillespie realized this state needed a place for troubled young men to get their lives back on track he started the Rawhide Boys Ranch. He saw the problem and worked to solve it. He is a man of impeccable character who can get things done. Isn't it time we exchange complacency for action? Isn't it time we send someone to Washington who will do something for our state?

Sincerely,

Douglas Rinzel

Dear Editor,

UNDECIDED? - REMEMBER HOW WE GOT HERE !!!

For many years, DEMOCRATS controlled Congress and were responsible for BIG spending, HIGHER taxes and HORRENDOUS deficits. Federal DEBT and DEFICIT were up every year. In 1994, 6 years ago, REPUBLICANS took control of CONGRESS. Since then, Welfare Reform, Tax cuts and other changes have produced a BALANCED BUDGET and NOW, the BIGGEST BUDGET SURPLUS in history. Even then, Pres. Clinton vetoed some measures.

Mona Charen in a syndicated column wrote, "Even though the Republican Congress had to drag Clinton kicking and screaming into signing a balanced budget, he blithely took CREDIT for balancing the budget".

Al Gore says he wants to 'build on the prosperity we started'. (another lie)

ARE WE BETTER OFF THAN WE WERE 8 YEARS AGO? YES, BUT the credit goes to the REPUBLICAN congress and the productivity of the American workers and American technology. Clinton/Gore cannot take credit for changes they were against. REMEMBER, most questions being DEBATED will be decided by CONGRESS with approval or Veto by the President REMEMBER HOW WE GOT HERE. WE NEED to continue the REPUBLICAN congress AND ELECT a REPUBLICAN PRESIDENT George W. BUSH to sign (not Veto) these laws. They will continue this great economy, and use the surplus to Safeguard Social Security and Medicare, provide prescription drug benefits, improve the Military, pay off the Debt, and provide some TAX CUTS with prudent use of the surplus - This Congress can be trusted to do the right thing OUR FOREIGN POLICY will be best with George W. Bush, Dick Cheney, a Key Leader in Gulf War policy, together with support of Colin Powell and former Pres. Bush who assembled the largest support of Mid-East countries ever, and trounced Hussein's attempt to control that area.

WE'RE LUCKY WE HAVE SUCH A GREAT TEAM TO VOTE FOR.

UWWC Fall Play Opens

WEST BEND - Theatre-on-the-Hill of the University of Wisconsin Washington County will be presenting as their fall production, the hilarious farce, Moon Over Buffalo, on November 3, 4, 10 and 11, 2000 at the University Theatre. Written by Ken Ludwig, the author of another successful farce of the 1990's, Lend Me a Tenor and the musical, Crazy For You, Moon Over Buffalo was presented on Broadway starring Carol Burnett. The play centers on a down-at-the-heel theatrical touring company in 1953 in Buffalo, "like Scranton without the charm," fighting their own internal squabbles, and the coming of television.

This company is headed by a once famous thespian couple, the Hays, whose marriage on the disastrous day of the play's events threatens to come apart faster than the fortunes of the company. The uproarious comings and goings, involving multiple mistaken identities, spiked coffee, a visiting Hollywood film director scouting the Hays, and scenes from Cyrano de Bergerac and Private Lives, the plays which are being presented by the Hay's Repertory Company, lead to an evening of chaotic comedy.

Moon Over Buffalo is being directed and designed by Professor of Theatre Arts, Brad Ford. Performances are at 7:30 p.m. and admission prices are $8 for adults and $6 for senior citizens and children under 18. The play contains mild profanity and adult situations. For reservations call (262) 335-5208.

Work is being completed on the Orv Behnke Office Building at 1051 Fond du Lac Avenue in Kewaskum, and the structure is nearly ready for occupancy. Comprising four suites of offices, the building has been erected by Jack Walters and Sons Corporation of Allenton. One suite of offices will be occupied by Orv Behnke and Gene Bohn and their respective insurance businesses after December 1. A second office will be occupied on November 15 by Dr. Robert E. Filete Jr., D.D.S., and is a dental office suite. Two other suites are available for rental, separately or as one office, and will be completed according to the needs of the tenants. Each of the suites is 1200 square feet.

Earl F. Kutz, 57, of rural Campbellsport, was found pinned under his farm tractor on County Trunk F, between Dundee and Waucousta in the Town of Osceola at 10:15 p.m. Saturday when the tractor he was driving left the road and overturned. He was dead on arrival at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac, where he was taken by Campbellsport ambulance.

Mark your calendars for November 7 and 8 are the dates for the Kewaskum High School production of "Hello Dolly." Leading roles are taken by Becky Brehm, David Ayer, Kevin Neese, Eric Schmidt, Jerry Butz, Kurt Zarling, Connie Slegger, Gay Olson, Joan Rosenberger, Bob Jung, Anne Strancke, Renee Slegger, and Julie LaFleur. Members of the chorus include David Bade, Monty Albers, David Schoofs, David Slegger, Dale Garman, Joe Swanson, Pam Scannell, Jean Scannell, Hanna Berg, Robin Gust, Carol Asch, Carrie Swanson, Mary Kougl, Julie Jeske, Vicki Key, Suzette Van Assche and Diane Brendimihl. Stage design is by David Ayer and the lights are by Tom Ryan. The production is directed by Clyde Brehm.

At the pep assembly at Kewaskum High School on Friday, Dave Menzel was named as the Homecoming King. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Menzel of Beechwood. He chose Joy Zarling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zarling, Kewaskum, as his queen. They were crowned at the homecoming dance Saturday evening following the grand march.

The Kewaskum Indians moved a step closer to a title by downing Kettle Moraine before a homecoming crowd Friday night, 26-14, to remain tied with Grafton for first place with a 5-1 mark (8-1 overall). The Indians needed only a win in their final game at winless Slinger Wednesday afternoon to gain a share of their first title in 20 years and possibly the undisputed championship depending on the outcome of the Grafton-Kettle Moraine game. Dennis Bremser was the top rusher with 165 yards in 17 carries. Offensively quarterback Jim Bilgo, Keith Mueller, Scott Albers and Gary Bauer stood out. Defensively Tom Rohlinger had two solo tackles and 25 assists. Gary Gavin was two and 15 and Mike Perkins was one and 12.

Tom Bartelt of Kewaskum will be named one of the league all-stars at the Land O'Lakes Northern Division Baseball Banquet on November 1 at the Belgium Community Center.

The Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club members are excitedly preparing for their eighth annual style show, scheduled for November 11, at the Kewaskum High School gym at 8 p.m. Stepping out from a setting of yesterday modeling today's total fashion look will be club members: Mrs. Otto Ramthun, Mrs. James Redig, Mrs. Hugo Straub Jr., and Mrs. Gerald Zimmer. Kewaskum area citizens who will also model are: Mrs. Paul Dean, Mrs. Casey Heberer and Mark Rodenkirch. Kewaskum High School students will include Denise Perkins, Shelby Kempf, Sheila Sonnenberg, Chris Nigh, Mark Miller and Dave Menzel.

A daughter was born to Gerald and Susan Barth, Kewaskum, on October 23.

Sons were born to Michael and Susan Marx, Kewaskum, on October 26; to William and Cheryl Gehl of Kewaskum on October 21 and to Norman and Gloria Fleischmann, Campbellsport, on October 26. A son, Mark Raymond, was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bodden, Kewaskum, on October 13.

KHS Track Nears Completion

A worker from Athletic Field Services applies the liquid latex binder and sealer to the runway for the triple and long jump as part of the Kewaskum High School Track renovation.

Workers from Athletic Field Services of Genesee Depot, Wisconsin, spread the fourth layer of rubber particles on the Kewaskum High School track prior to the spraying of liquid latex binder and sealer later in the day. A total of six layers of rubber particles and liquid latex coats were applied to the track.

Checking a map to see which animals they'll visit next are KES first graders, front to back, Joshua Ramthun, A.J. Reicher and Brooke Bournells.

First grader Eric Perkins colors the wings of his butterfly hat (he's already wearing his antennae) that he made while visiting the zoo with his class.

parent chaperones who helped make it such a great day.

Listening to lions roar, watching penguins swim, and waiting for butterflies to land were all orders of the day as the first graders from Kewaskum Elementary School headed to the Milwaukee County Zoo for a field trip.

Taking advantage of the zoo's new live butterfly exhibit, students participated in a workshop explaining butterflies and made their own butterfly wings to wear on their heads.

Then, they entered the butterfly building. Butterflies of blue, yellow, and orange flitted around the room amid flowering and tropical-type plants, occasionally stopping to rest on an excited student.

Students also took a zoomobile trip past all the animals, and even had time to walk back to revisit some of their favorites.

Public Forums Set for Proposed North Branch Milwaukee River Wildlife, Farming Heritage Area

MILWAUKEE -- The Department of Natural Resources is looking for public input on the draft report to acquire land for protection and recreation along the Milwaukee River North Branch and its tributaries in Ozaukee, Washington and Sheboygan counties.

This is the second series of public forums for the proposed North Branch Milwaukee River Wildlife and Farming Heritage Area. Based on public input received to date, Department staff has modified the feasibility study introduced last year and has prepared a draft report.

It recommends the Department create and manage a new, innovative type of state property along the North Branch Milwaukee River. The purpose of the project is for the Department of Natural Resources, in partnership with local, state and national government, the farming community, conservation groups and citizens to maintain the rural-agricultural character, enhance existing natural resources and provide nature-based outdoor recreation and education opportunities within the project boundary area.

Area residents and others interested in the proposal are invited to attend any of the three informational meetings. They will be held on Thursday, November 9, at the Farmington Town

Cross Country Coach Dave Drexler commented, "It was a great way to finish up the season. Teams ran well, five personal bests with Colleen, Emily and Kelly for the girls and Bryan and Adam for the boys. I was very happy with the girls' team, being their last meet, the seniors pulled together for a great career ending finish. For the boys' team, Darrell, our only senior, will be missed but there is a lot of potential for next year coming up. Bryan and JP will be our leaders for next year and with the good mixture of rookies this year, next season is looking good."

Hall, 9422 Highway 144, north of Boltonville; Tuesday, November 14 at the Silver Creek Volunteer Fire Department, Highway 144 in Silver Creek; and Wednesday, November 15, at the Fredonia Town Hall, W4114 River Street in Waubeka.

Each meeting will be held from 5 to 9 p.m. The meetings are an informal open house format. Stop in anytime between 5 and 9 p.m. to talk with DNR staff, learn more about the project and offer comments.

On Tuesday, November 7, copies of the report will be available for public review at the Farmington, Fredonia, Scott and Sherman town halls; at the Fredonia and Random Lake, Sheboygan and West Bend libraries; and at the Plymouth and Milwaukee DNR offices. The report will also be available on the Milwaukee River Basin web site: www.dnr.state.wi.us/org/gmu/milw/nbranch.htm.

The public review period for this project ends on November 30, 2000. The DNR will then update the feasibility study as necessary, based on comments received. Please send, fax or e-mail your comments on the draft feasibility study to Therese Gripentrog, DNR Regional Landscape Architect at P.O. Box 12436, Milwaukee, 53212, telephone 414-263-8669, fax 414-263-8661, e-mail gripet@dnr.state.wi.us

Want Happiness? Help Someone Else

The holidays are right around the corner, and many agencies are looking for volunteers to help with activities.

• How about escorting a holiday helium-filled balloon along a parade route? Or distributing toys to parents as they come to pick them up for their children?

• Like working outdoors? Then how about helping someone with lawn care, raking, cleaning downspouts and gutters or putting on storm windows?

• A volunteer is needed to work one on one to play with and guide a two year old disabled child.

• Volunteers are needed to knit and crochet blankets, scarves and hats that will be distributed to those who need them in Washington County. Materials are provided but experienced hands are needed!

• Looking for a meaningful opportunity? This is it! Talk with people with developmental disabilities who have been matched with other volunteers to ask how the relationship is going.

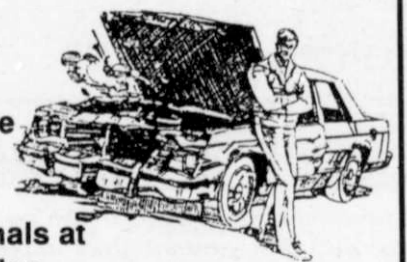

• Have a green thumb? Then your help is needed at a local nursing home! Help water plants and keep them healthy!

The Volunteer Center works with 48 organizations who rely on volunteers. Call to get linked up with a volunteer opportunity in your interest area. Contact the Volunteer Center at 338-8256.

JV Volleyball Team Wins at Waupun Tourney

by Jessica Graham

The Kewaskum JV Volleyball team had quite a high intensity volleyball tournament at Waupun. There were cries of joy, frustrated tears, and chaotic confusion. Nevertheless, absolute victory was also present. The JV Volleyball team was able to dominate the court on October 7th.

The first and second games were easily won with the final scores of 15-8 and 15-5. Kewaskum then went on to beat Slinger easily. Oddly enough though, there was some great confusion on the court due to the fact that the line-up was wrong.

The setters had to become powerful outside hitters, while the outside hitters had to immediately develop the magic fingers of the setters. Luckily, they had some great athletes that learn quickly, like Heather Meyer and Jenny Koth. The games were won 15-1 and 15-7. "We were all fired up from the game against Slinger because if we were able to get through all that and still blow them away, we knew we could win the tournament," declared Jenna Roecker.

The team was in high spirits for their next game against Thomas Moore. The girls knew that this was going to be a tough team. The first game was a real battle, but Kewaskum was able to win it, 15-11. The second game was more like a war.

Both teams wanted to go into the playoffs in the number one spot and you could just see the craving in all the girls' eyes. With great covering and the amazing five blocks made by Becky Herriges, the team was able to win the game, 16-14. The girls were going to the playoffs in the number one spot.

The first team they had to play in the playoffs was Laconia. Now here is where the Kewaskum JV Volleyball team shows that they are made up of just normal teenage girls, and not babies that were born with kneepads on. The first game was won with a score of 15-9, but then the second game was surprisingly lost at 12-15. "We just lost our focus and ended up playing down to the other team's level," reported Jamie Logan. The girls were barely able to win the third game against Laconia with a score of 15-13.

A little shaken, but still greatly relieved, Kewaskum prepared for the final match against Waupun. The fact that Kewaskum and Waupun have to go head to head in Regionals, is the basis for an intense rivalry. "If we can show that "little" Kewaskum won't bow down to the "almighty" Waupun by winning this tournament, then next year Waupun may have to do a whole lot more fighting to beat us at Regionals," challenged Kala Rettler.

Unfortunately, the Kewaskum team didn't look like they belonged in the championship. They lost the first game, 8-15. The over-towering Waupun giants were just too intimidating for the girls to keep focus and their will to win. But never fear, Elliot is here! Coach Elliot did an amazing job of coaching and was able to get the girls' heads back into the game. The game was won 15-7. One last game left. One team would walk away a winner and the other a loser.

It was Kewaskum who adamantly refused to have the "Big L" stamped on their foreheads. They gave Waupun everything they had from Lindsay Gaffke's aces to Katie Klug's spikes. Kewaskum, 15-13, won the final game of the tournament.

"This was definitely an interesting tournament," commented Coach Elliot. "I think these girls gave me a couple of gray hairs, but I enjoyed coaching these young ladies and I hope they can continue to work this well together on Varsity."

All of the players would like to give Coach Elliot a big thanks because they all agree that without him, they would have never been able to win the tournament. Thank you Coach Elliot!

Open Trails at Lac Lawrann Thru November

Although there are no special programs scheduled at Lac Lawrann Conservancy in November, there is still plenty to see as plants and animals prepare for the winter. Walk the trails and watch squirrels and jays collecting acorns for the winter, hear geese come in from the countryside and settle into wetlands for a rest before continuing their migration south, and welcome kinglets and juncos from the north. Because of the warm weather, many frogs are still active in low areas. Enjoy the last of the fall colors. Lac Lawrann, located at 300 Schmidt Rd. on the northeast side of West Bend, is a great spot for a weekend bike. The trails are open on Saturdays and Sundays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Lac Lawrann Conservancy is the dream of the late Lawrence and Ann Maurin, who gave their property to the West Bend Department of Parks, Recreation and Forestry to be used for environmental education. The Conservancy offers programs to the general public from pre-schoolers to adults, to school classes, scouts and other groups. Cross-country skiing and hiking are also featured at the Conservancy. Volunteers do the majority of the teaching and maintenance, and more volunteers are always needed. If you love the outdoors and would like to join a great group of people who work and teach at Lac Lawrann, please call Lac Lawrann at 335-5085 or call the Volunteer Association of Washington County.

Lac Lawrann Conservancy is administered by the West Bend Department of Parks, Recreation and Forestry.

Indians Fall Short to Chilton In First Round of Playoff Game

record overall and sole possession of second place in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. Once again the team and the coaches would like to thank all the fans for their great support over the entire season.

The Kewaskum Indians traveled to Chilton on Tuesday, October 24, for the first round of the WIAA football playoffs.

The game started out in exciting fashion when Tom Ogi took the opening kickoff 87 yards for a touchdown. The extra point by Charlie Sparks was good.

The Tigers bounced right back and took their opening drive down for a touchdown to tie the score at 7-7. The Indians were not able to get their offense on track for their first drive and were forced to punt. Chilton drove the ball down again and with 1:13 left in the first quarter, scored from two yards out. The extra point was good, making the score 14-7 after one.

The Indians once again provided some excitement on their next drive when Travis Kempf hit Chris Canter for a 51 yard scoring strike to tie the game at 14. The Tigers once again answered with a sustained drive that resulted in a three yard touchdown run giving them a 21-14 half-time lead.

To open the third quarter, the Tigers took the ball on a short 32 yard drive to score on an eight yard run to extend their lead to 28-14. The game was not out of reach however, as the Indians answered with a 38 yard pass from Tom Ogi to Charlie Sparks. The extra point by Sparks was good and once again, Kewaskum was back within a score.

However, the Indians were unable to stop the Tigers and they took the ball into the end zone once again, increasing the lead by 14.

The Indians stalled on their next drive and were forced to punt. It looked like the game would be out of reach. However, with the use of timeouts and good defense, the Tigers were forced to punt the ball away.

The Indians were able to get a good rush, and Chris Canter blocked the punt and took the ball into the end zone with :37 seconds remaining. Now the Indians were down by seven points and forced into an onside kick situation. The kick attempt was unsuccessful and Chilton was able to run out the clock for final score of 34-27.

Kewaskum was able to put up some impressive passing statistics in the game. Tom Ogi was 6-12 for 163 yards and a touchdown. Travis Kempf was 3-3 for 82 yards and a touchdown. Charlie Sparks had seven catches for 187 yards and a touchdown, while Chris Canter had two catches for 58 yards and a touchdown.

The Indians finished with a very successful 8-2
