A Campbellsport mother of four who was slain by her ex-boyfriend in the Campbellsport Fire Station Saturday evening is being remembered by local friends as "being very special".

Kimberly A. Paswaters, 34, of Campbellsport, was tragically shot to death in a place she was honored to be a part of, the Campbellsport Fire Department. Being the department's first female member, Paswaters enjoyed helping others as a firefighter and was in EMT training.

Her assailant, David Beck, 35, of Campbellsport, was charged Monday in Fond du Lac County Circuit Court with first degree intentional homicide and pointing a firearm at another person. He is in custody with bail set at $400,000. A preliminary hearing is scheduled for January 18. If convicted, he faces life in prison.

A criminal report issued by the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department states that Paswaters and Beck had an intimate relationship for the last three months and that Paswaters had recently ended the relationship. David's brother, Harold Beck, agreed to speak to Paswaters in David's behalf at the Campbellsport Fire Department to help end their dispute.

The report also stated Harold said that his brother made remarks that he was "going to take care of business tonight" and that "he was going to kill her tonight." Harold further explained that he told his brother that he did not need to go to such drastic means and never thought his brother would carry out those threats.

Harold and Kim agreed to meet at 7:00 p.m. inside the fire station. David arrived shortly before Kim and went to an above mezzanine area in the building. When Kim arrived, her and Harold talked about the relationship. During that discussion Harold stated Kim said she didn't want to hurt David, and that she wanted to be friends with him, but he wanted more, and she at that point, could not give him that type of relationship to him.

Harold said he then heard footsteps coming down the stairs at a rapid pace, turned and saw his brother with the gun pointed at Kim. Harold said he heard the round go off, saw the muzzle flash and smoke and turned back to see the round hit Kim. In the end, five rounds were fired, all striking her in the torso.

David pointed the gun at his brother and then walked over to where Kim was lying on the floor.

Harold bolted out the door, fearing for his life, ran across the street and dialed 911. EMT's responded and transported Kim to St. Agnes hospital in Fond du Lac where she was pronounced dead at 8:23 PM.

Kim leaves behind four daughters, Crystalynn, 15, Mistie, 14, Noel, 9 and Heather, 8.

This is the first homicide remembered by Campbellsport area residents.

A Kewaskum Family Remembers Kim

The Menzel family, Don, Lori and Emma of rural Kewaskum, will especially miss Kim Paswaters. Kim babysat for their daughter Emma, 3 1/2 years old, who is deaf.

Emma's aunt Joan Herriges, also of Kewaskum, initially contacted this newspaper to explain how Kim Paswaters became a part of the Menzel family's lives.

"(She) changed their lives forever and helped them through what seemed like such a crisis at the time. She's just a special person," said Herriges.

She added "Nobody even knew Emma was deaf when Kim was hired to babysit her and she took it upon herself to learn fluent sign language attending class after class. She took Emma down to the Center for the Deaf twice a week in Milwaukee until she turned three. Presently the speech therapist and teacher came to Kim's house to work with

"She was just such an incredible person and devoted parent. I looked to her as my parenting resource for so many things."

Lori Menzel,
Friend of Kim Paswaters

Emma."

Kim was also a substitute teacher for three months at the Center while another teacher was on maternity leave.

According to Herriges Beck and Paswaters met while studying to be EMTs.

Village Accepts O&R Annexation Petition

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

The Kewaskum Village Board met Monday evening to hear reports by department heads and address a variety of agenda items.

One item was the issue of whether to accept or reject an annexation petition from Dr. Charles Ogi and James Reigle, who would like to bring 125 acres into the village. The properties are located southwest of the village on County Highway H.

Fire Chief Mark Groeschel opened the meeting with his report informing the board of a water problem at the firehouse. Groeschel stated that the gutters are tight full of ice and that his department has been working at getting the gutters clean.

Heat strips have been ordered and they hope that should remedy the problem. While working on the roof the firefighters found soft spots on the rubber roof that was installed in 1987. "That rubber roof scares me," said Groeschel.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel told the board he has selected another officer to hire under the COPS grant. The Kewaskum man will begin training upon completing a drug and psychological evaluation. He was previously a full-time officer in Theresa.

The annual Spring Clean Up was set for April 7, from 9 am to 1 p.m.

Kim Paswaters

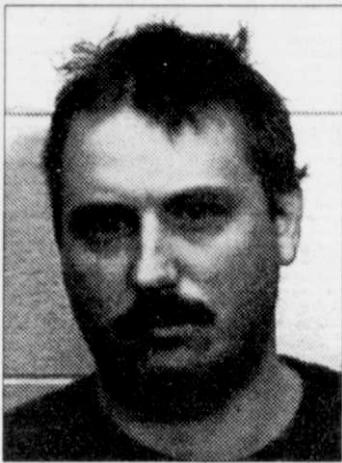

Kim spoke highly of him and they began dating after her divorce in November of 2000.

"I liked Kim so much and this is just the biggest waste ever. It makes me so sad," Herriges concluded.

Don and Lori met Kim while finding a babysitter for their daughter. "Don and I had picked a sitter before Emma was born but then after we had Emma she said she took a different baby and only wanted one baby. Don and I then decided to just look in the paper and I came across her name in the Kewaskum Statesman and I still have the ad, "Stay at Home Mom to babysit at home". I went to her house to interview her and meet her kids and fell in love with her instantly. Her kids were so well behaved and polite and I just had a great feeling about her. Don and I decided to hire her. It was the best decision we ever made," says Lori.

Lori recalls some of the special qualities that made Kim such a wonderful, caring person. "Kim was willing to do anything for anyone, no matter what. She was so kind and giving and always happy and cheerful. She had some really crappy things happen to her but she always stayed positive and never took any frustration out on the kids. She was strict with her children but yet so loving to them that there was no question she loved them to death."

She added, "an example of her devotion was the day we found out Emma was deaf, Kim already had sign language books and was ready to teach the kids sign language. When she started homeschooling the girls she made sign language a part of their curriculum and on Friday's they would sometimes wear ear plugs and only sign to each other. She did things for Emma that I didn't even think of doing. She took Emma to Milwaukee two days a week for me to the Center for the Deaf so Emma could join a Playgroup there and get speech therapy and other services. She drove her down because I could not rearrange my work schedule to do so. She was just such an incredible person and devoted parent. I looked to her as my parenting resource for so many

Lori recalls Kim as being a loving person who gave her family many wonderful things. "Emma would not be the incredible child that she is without Kim," said Lori.

She refers to Kim as her guardian angel because in all the hard times and grief over Emma being deaf and some of our other struggles, Kim always gave me strength. Kim took care of my family. She made my challenge with Emma so much easier. My most pleasant memory of her is Christmas of 1998. She taught her girls and Emma how to sign "The Little Drummer Boy" and when I came to pick up Emma they told me to sit down because they had a surprise for me. So I sat down and they played the song on tape and signed the whole song. I cried through half the song because I couldn't believe that she did that. The next week I asked them to do it again and the youngest girl Heather asked me if I was going to cry again, which made me laugh.

The Menzel's will be one of the many people who will miss Kim Paswaters and will have fond memories of how she touched their lives.

announced a plan commission meeting for Tuesday, January 23 at 7:00 p.m. At this meeting the commission will be discussing the zoning on the annexation petition.

Over 10 town residents attended the meeting to gain information on the annexation petition. Town of Kewaskum board chairperson Scott Sager said he wanted to make sure the two had everything in order.

Claire Lehman, a resident affected by the annexation, said that the way the signatures were obtained was unfair.

Another resident, Steve Spoerl, was concerned about the cost of hooking up to village sewer and water. "The benefits aren't worth the cost," he stated.

Reigle countered that once the properties are annexed it will raise their property value.

Attorney Gerald Kiefer advised the board not to have anyone discuss the pros and cons of the plan until the public hearing and the board agreed.

Trustee Matt Heiser made a motion to accept the petition and Trustee Larry Ammel seconded the motion.

Jeaneen Kudek Receives Award

A member of the Kewaskum School District's Support Staff, Jeaneen Kudek, of Kewaskum recently won the Dorie Techtman Support Staff of the Year Award. Jeaneen was nominated by the KAP union.

According to her co-workers, Jeaneen is a warm, generous, caring person who gives of her time and talents to many worthwhile projects, concerns and people.

Her church, Holy Trinity,

Kewaskum has recognized her for being a person who takes hold of projects and missions and enlists other people to not only help but brings out the best in her volunteers. A huge write up on this achievement was featured in the Kewaskum Statesman a few years ago.

Jeaneen has been treasurer of the KAP (Kewaskum Auxiliary Personnel) since it began. She is very meticulous in her duties and very conscientious, doing a great job. She always encourages members to participate at meetings and in activities. She volunteers her help in many areas. For many years she has been on the negotiation team.

Jeaneen has worked in the Special Education Department as an aide for 22 years, primarily in the Early Childhood and Developmentally Impaired programs as an aide. She has accompanied the Special Olympics teams to various meets - swimming, bowling and track events on weekends, always giving encouragement and praise to these young students participating. Her care and guidance has shown in countless students who have passed through her classrooms. She has kept the concern of all of the teachers she has worked with to be there and take much of the load off their shoulders.

Marilyn Krantz, one of the teachers she has worked for, offered these comments.

"Everyone that works with Jeaneen says she is the most efficient person they know. She spins on a dime. If there is a project to be done she takes over and gets the job done, whether it being copying papers or some special project in the room. She even accompanied students to the 6th grade outdoor camp this fall.

The greatest compliment the district could give Jeaneen was to send her to clinics with the teachers. The district has benefited greatly from what she has learned at the clinics and autism workshops. Jeaneen receives great joy seeing the progress of her students. She loves her work and it shows in the progress of the students?"

Abigail Fillmore, First Lady of President Millard Fillmore, created a stir by installing a bathtub in the White House.

Veronica Weinreich to Celebrate 100th Birthday

Area residents are invited to attend an open house on Saturday, January 13, 2001, from 2 to 7 p.m. in honor of the 100th birthday of Veronica Weinreich at Fillmore Turner Hall.

Veronica was born to John J. and Catherine (Schmitt) Ternes on January 8, 1901 in Dacada, where her mother and dad made cheese in what she called "The Schueller Cheese Factory."

Her daughter relates it is hard to comprehend how much her mother has witnessed in the past century. The era went from walking on foot, to horses, "the horseless carriage and planes. She has lived through numerous World Wars and Cold Wars, the invention of the atomic bomb and the tearing down of the Berlin Wall.

She has seen everything from writing with pencils, to pens, typewriters and now the computer and technology era. We have gone from talking "over the fence" with our neighbors to cell phones, voice mail and e-mail.

It is interesting to speculate and inquire of one who has lived through all this change, if we have evolved into a "better society," or do we just seem to be going through the motions.

Share the past and the present with Veronica in celebration of 100 years of life on Sunday. A lite lunch will be served.

If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything.

An Indian Trail and The Old Plank Road

The Rock River Archeological Society will hold its monthly meeting on January 17th at the DNR Service Center located on Hwy. 28. This month's program will be presented by the society president, Joe O'Hearn. His presentation will focus on the history of a local plank road.

Although there were many Indian trails that crisscrossed the Mayville and Horicon area, one was chosen by the State of Wisconsin to create an old plank road. This was the Mayville-Iron Ridge-Neosho Monterey-Oconomowoc plank road, which was in use from 1850 to about 1856. The trail initially ran from Kekoskee to Mayville and continued on to Oconomowoc. The distance of the plank road was 25 miles from Mayville through Iron Ridge, Neosho, Monterey and ending at Oconomowoc.

Several pieces of evidence were necessary in order to prove the existence of the road, since there were few documents highlighting the plank road. The most important piece of evidence dates from 1851, which was a sketch of a mound group made by Increase Lapham that included the old plank road. This slide presentation will take us along the route of the road and view illustrations of the building of the road and discern how it was built and who built it.

Please plan to join in on Wednesday, January 17th at 7:00 p.m. for this interesting program on local history. For more information, please call Bill Volkert, Wildlife Educator/Naturalist at 920-387-7877.

Kewaskum FFA Attends State Leadership Conference

Rebecca Baron, center and Matt Propson, right, of the Kewaskum FFA Chapter are welcomed to the 2000 FFA Half-Time Conference in Stevens Point by Matt Reinders, an FFA officer for the state, from the Johnson Creek FFA.

Rebecca Baron and Matt Propson of the Kewaskum FFA Chapter attended the Wisconsin FFA's Half-Time Leadership Conference held at the Holiday Inn in Stevens Point, January 5-6, 2001. More than 350 FFA members, advisors and state FFA officers participated. This year's theme was "FFA - Treasure Hunt". FFA is an organization that helps students realize their full potential and provides valuable experiences that help prepare young people for real-life leadership. The Half-Time Leadership Conference provides FFA chapter leaders from around the state the opportunity to set goals and prepare for the second half of their year of service in their local chapters. FFA members attended workshops focusing on leadership, team building, scholarships, careers and personal development. They also worked on areas such as applying for awards and recruiting new members. This leadership conference was conducted by the 2000-2001 State FFA Officers. "Half-Time is one of the premier leadership conferences in our state. It allows FFA chapter leaders to develop their leadership skills, learn more about FFA activities and meet people while having fun," said Cheryl Zimmerman, State FFA Executive Director. "We are able to provide young people with an excellent experience to develop their leadership skills and get them excited about Agriculture, Agricultural Education and the FFA." The Wisconsin FFA Association is comprised of over 250 local chapters in high schools across the state preparing over 16,000 students for leadership and careers in the science, business and technology or agriculture. FFA activities and award programs complement instruction in agriculture education by giving students practical experience in the application of agricultural skills and knowledge gained in classes. The FFA's major objectives are to develop premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education.

One of the biggest thrills in life comes from doing.

Adult School Crossing Guard Recognition Week

What better time than a snowy January to recognize the daily efforts of the women and men who help Wisconsin children make their way safely to and from school?

Gov. Tommy G. Thompson has proclaimed January 8-12 "Adult School Crossing Guard Recognition Week" in Wisconsin. It is the first time this observance has been held in the state, and the organizations that have partnered to promote it intend that the week become an annual event.

Gov. Thompson's proclamation indicated his expectation that the week "will help convey the gratitude of our communities for the life-saving, injury-reducing role that Wisconsin's adult school crossing guards play."

The organizations that have worked together to promote Adult School Crossing Guard Week include: AAA Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Police Department, the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, the Bureau of Transportation Safety of the Wisconsin Department of Transportation, the Wisconsin Highway Safety Coordinators Association, and the Wisconsin Traffic and Safety Officers Association.

The organizations cooperated to produce materials sent to schools and police departments across the state to suggest means of recognizing the contributions of adult school crossing guards. Adult crossing guards are typically employed by police departments or schools.

In a cover letter that accompanied those materials, State Superintendent of Public Instruction John T. Benson wrote, "The winter can be unforgiving, yet adult crossing guards faithfully attend their stations and positions to better ensure the safe crossing of thousands of our school children each day."

Recognition actions that schools and communities are being encouraged to implement include:

- * Incorporating crossing guard recognition into daily school announcements and special all-school assemblies.
- * Inviting crossing guards to school for lunch with students.
- * Presenting students' special thank-you cards and other tokens of appreciation to crossing guards.
- * Forging partnerships among schools, parent-teacher organizations, law-enforcement agencies, municipal offices and other local institutions to recognize school crossing guards.
- * Involving parents in crossing guard recognition events.
- * Reminding students to give their adult crossing guards a big smile and thank you.

60th Class Reunion Held

The Kewaskum High School Class of 1940 started with 24 students. In 2000 there were nine students who attended their recent class reunion at Woody's Steakhouse in Kewaskum. Kewaskum firemen were called out at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday to extinguish a fire which gutted a 40-foot unoccupied house trailer on Ridge Road, about 2-1/2 miles southwest of Kewaskum. The trailer had been used for storage of hay by Richard LaFleur and Roy Swanson on property which used to be Kettle Park. Firemen were at the scene for about two hours fighting the blaze and pulling hay from the trailer. The fire appeared to be electrical according to Fire Chief Augie Bilgo, Jr., who reported it was concentrated where wires led into the trailer. Firemen were delayed a few minutes in getting to the scene of the fire by a long freight train which was passing through the village and prevented them from crossing the tracks. The firemen were called in six degree weather with high winds, blowing snow and slippery roads.

Roy J. Esser, a Vocational Agricultural teacher in the Kewaskum school system, has been recognized by the Wisconsin Chapter, Soil Conservation Society of America, for outstanding contributions to the science and art of good land use.

Annexation petitions for property totaling about four acres just south of the present village limits were approved unanimously by the Kewaskum Village Board on Monday. The petitions were submitted by Roger Strack, for a gas station, Joseph Butschlick, for his home, and Howard Laubenstein, for his lawn and garden center and home. After a waiting period of 40 days, the board may pass the ordinance needed to make the annexation official.

Dundee Mill Park... A Winter Wonderland

by Nancy Durn

Located in the northern Kettle Moraine in "downtown Dundee," on Highways F and 67, is a five-acre park that is perfect for a winter outing with the family.

Take a leisurely stroll up the berm following the nature trails. Notice the wildlife and how they have adapted to their winter surroundings. The birds and muskrats bring color to the white background of snow. Maybe a deer will cross your path.

This is a quiet time where human activity is low but animal life is abundant. The two ponds and raceways in the park are not for ice skating due to thin ice caused by the continual rapid water movement. They do however add beauty to the surroundings.

The Mill Park's main attraction is the 145-year-old working mill. Also in the park is a branch of the Milwaukee River, nature trails, head and tail raceways, two ponds, and plantings reminiscent of the area 150 years ago.

Take a step back into the years of long ago 1850s. Tall timber covered the land; there were a few buildings, and life was less complicated. Lumber was needed in the southern section of the growing state of Wisconsin, and a small river was turned into a workhorse. Freshly cut logs were transported downstream to the newly constructed saw mill at the little hamlet of Dundee.

The area thrived and the need for lumber was fulfilled. When the demand for lumber diminished, the harnessed river was used to power a flour mill and then grind animal feed.

The mill not only served the community's need of grinding, it evolved into the social meeting place of the area. After all, TV had not been invented. The mill was "the place" to go. There is even a rumor that the greatest of all helpers visited our area after his footprints formed the Great Lakes.

We are still wondering what Paul Bunyan did to help the physical features of our area. After a visit to the park, maybe you may have some ideas. In 1925 the mill burned and was rebuilt in 1926 to stand as a monument for the pioneers of yesterday.

The 145-year-old mill has three floors. On the first floor, farmers would bring their grain to be ground which would then go to the lower level. At an even lower level, you can see the rushing waters turn the power plant, which is the heart of the mill. You can observe how water power, a renewable natural resource, turns the generator and creates electricity.

Nature trails lead through the central park section, north and east of the ponds. The trail crosses the river and ends at the dam. This dam is responsible for the formation of the 2.5 mile recreational Long Lake. It also converts the once small river into a water power supply for mill operation.

The stream of water that leads from the dam to the mill, called the raceway, carries the water power that turns the mill turbine. A gate controls the amount of water, from the head race, entering the mill. You will note the differing water levels between the head race and the tail race, which exits the mill.

The two ponds are licensed fish hatcheries. The upper pond is presently stocked with a variety of fish for the children of the area to catch. The area immediately surrounding the mill has been constructed and planted to place you back 150 years ago. It is as it would have been back then - wild flowers, tall grasses, and non-poisonous sumacs. The beautiful wild flowers growing on the north side of the mill would have been growing in the area at the time the mill was first running.

In April of 1990 the town of Osceola purchased the mill property which had been closed since 1964. It was in need of major repairs and clean-up. In 1996 the town board declared the Dundee Mill Park a Town Historical Site.

Partners of the Dundee Mill and Park, Inc. was created as a non-profit, non-stock, tax exempt corporation formed and organized for the sole purpose of maintaining, restoring, and preserving Dundee Mill Park. Tours of the Mill are by appointment only. Call 920-533-4750 or come to the annual, free admission, Mill Park Good Ole Days on Saturday, June 23, 2001, 1 to 10 p.m.

The Mill Park Good Ole Days will feature a Spanferkel, tours of the mill and park, exhibits and demonstrations from that era, and a craft fair. If you are interested in being a part of this day please call for information and consideration, Nancy at 920-533-3059 or send an email to NTD102@juno.com. There is a limited area for crafters and the deadline for registration is April 21, 2001.

New Look and Flavor Mark Start of Annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale

Girl Scouts of Manitou Council annual Girl Scout Cookie sale will begin with girls taking orders January 11-27. Girl Scout Cookie deliveries will begin on February 23 - March 13. If a Girl Scout does not come to your door and you would like to purchase Girl Scout cookies contact: Sharon Shaw at 626-2214.

For the first time in nearly a decade, Girl Scout Cookie boxes have a whole new look. Inside the new packages, consumers will also find a brand new cookie called "Aloha Chips with Macadamia Nuts." Aloha Chips with Macadamia Nuts is a distinctive and exotic-tasting cookie containing creamy white fudge chips and, of course, crunchy Macadamia nuts.

As Girl Scouts gear up to use the decision-making, money-management, and goal-setting skills they learn as a result of participating in our Girl Scout Cookie sale, they will have a new marketing tool - the boxes themselves. Emphasizing the investment consumers make in a girl's future by purchasing Girl Scout Cookies, each box now says, "You'd be surprised what a Girl Scout Cookie can Build: Strong Values, Strong Minds, Strong Bodies, Strong Spirit, Strong Friendships, Strong Skills, Strong Leadership, Strong Community."

"Since they first began, the Girl Scout Cookie sales have focused on helping girls to learn real skills that help them succeed in life," said Girl Scout historian, Mary Levey. "Many of today's successful women credit Girl Scout Cookie sales with helping them develop their business and communication skills.

Soon after Juliette Gordon Low founded the Girl Scouts in 1912, Girl Scout leaders and girls sold cookies in order to be self-reliant and to fund their own troop activities. In those early days, girls baked the original shortbread cookies at home and held neighborhood bake sales to raise money for troop activities. By 1934, several Girl Scout councils were using commercial bakers to assist in their endeavors. During the 1940's, Girl Scouts sold fewer cookies during World War II due to limited supplies of flour, sugar and butter. By 1947, a total of 29 bakers throughout the nation were licensed to create Girl Scout Cookies, but by 1980, the number was streamlined to four bakers (now two licensed bakers) to ensure lower prices, and uniform quality, packaging, and distribution. During the 1980s, these same bakers could choose from designs that depicted scenes of Girl Scouts engaged in contemporary activities, and decide which image to put on their boxes. With the unveiling of new packaging in 2000, there are now eight concepts or the same or similar cookie varieties for easier brand identification and promotion.

Our Girl Scout Cookie sale is an invaluable learning experience," said Denise Scheumenauer Executive Director, Girl Scouts of Manitou Council. "This voluntary program activity helps girls develop self-confidence, self-respect and a strong sense of community."

Girl Scouts of the USA is the world's pre-eminent organization for girls, with a membership of more than 3.6 million girls and adults. Today, as when founded in 1912, GSUSA helps cultivate values, social conscience, and self-esteem in young girls, while also teaching them critical life skills that will enable them to succeed as adults. In Girl Scouting -- and its special girl-only environment--girls discover the fun, friendship, and power of girls together.

Zoological Society Seeks Art Entries

The Zoological Society of Milwaukee invites high school and college students in southeastern Wisconsin to create animal art for the Seventh Annual People's Choice Endangered Species Art Competition. The deadline for entries is February 15 and there is no entry charge. All accepted artwork will be on exhibit at Mayfair Mall February 19 through March 7.

Students may submit entries in any of these categories: paintings, drawings, graphics, photographs, wearable art, sculpture, and textiles (woven cloths). All entries must depict endangered animals, as one of the goals of the competition is to bring attention to the number and types of animals that are endangered.

Students compete to win $100, have their artwork published in the Zoological Society's Alive magazine, and win a year's membership in the Zoological Society, which gives them free admission to the Milwaukee County Zoo and to 120 other zoos and aquariums. The public will vote for six winners (three to college entrants and three to high school entrants). Jurors also will award two Jurors' awards.

For competition guidelines, registration information, a list of endangered species, and entry specifications, call Renee at (414) 258-2333.

Area Snowmobilers Staying Closer to Home

CAMPBELLSPORT - Have you noticed lately how light weekend traffic 'up north' has been? For the first time in many years, southeastern Wisconsin can compete with the northern portions of the state in offering excellent winter outdoor activities.

You won't spend much time in the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit this winter without hearing the throttle of a snowmobile engine or seeing their headlights sweep across the road. The 58-mile network of snowmobile trails in the Forest is well groomed and well used. These trails are groomed by local snowmobile clubs, including the New Fane Kettle Riders, the Kewaskum Sno-Chiefs, and the Greenbush Kettle Moraine Trail Blazers.

There are a few specific snowmobile regulations that operators should be aware of. All snowmobiles must be registered prior to use. If you recently purchased a sled or haven't used it for a few years, transfer and renewal forms are available at the Forest HQ and the Ice Age Visitor Center. They will validate your registration on the spot and you can operate the machine with your validated copy.

Snowmobilers are allowed to cross roadways by cannot operate on the paved portion of any road. On Hwy 67 and other numbered state and county highways, snowmobiles can be operated 10 feet or more from the roadway. On named town roads they can be driven outside the roadway on the shoulder or berm. Travel adjacent to roads must comply with posted speed limits but this is not recommended for any distances because of safety concerns. Snowmobilers within the state forest must stay on marked trails and are not allowed on the frozen surface of Mauthe Lake.

Operators must gain access legally to the designated snowmobile areas, either by complying with the laws listed above of by transporting the machine on a trailer to one of the many snowmobile parking lots throughout the forest. Adjacent private property owners are not allowed to create access trails from their property to the state trail system. Some of the area trails traverse private property but snowmobilers are not allowed to leave the trail or travel on any other portion of the private property without the owner's permission.

The most important rules to remember with snowmobiles involve safety and speed. Operation must be at a proper and reasonable speed at all times. The DNR recently passed an emergency rule limiting night-time speed to 50 miles per hour. When on a frozen water surface, be familiar with the lake and beware of thin ice conditions and open water. Unfortunately, there are snowmobile deaths every year caused by breaking through the ice or driving into open water. The DNR recommends that all snowmobilers wear protective clothing, including helmet and eye protection. There are also strict penalties for drinking and driving on snowmobiles.

Another snowmobile regulation that is new for 2001 is that any person born after January 1, 1985 must have a snowmobile safety education class certificate to operate a snowmobile on public trails or lands. Call the Forest Headquarters at (262) 626-2116 or the Ice Age Visitor Center at (920) 533-8322 for a list of snowmobile safety classes in your area. The listing is also available on the DNR's web site at www.dnr.state.wi.us.

In addition to snowmobiling, there are many other ways to enjoy this snowy season in the state forest. The cross-country ski trails at Greenbush, Zillmer and New Fane are in excellent condition. The Mauthe Lake Recreation Area has several electrical sites available for winter camping. Ice fishing shanties are popping up on many of the area lakes. Snowshoers, sleds, and hikers can get a breath of fresh air on any of the non-ski trails or hills in the area. Winter is a great time to view the many kames, kettles, and other glacial formations that make our area so special. Or, for warmer activity, visitors can participate in one of the many naturalist programs scheduled this winter or visit the Ice Age Center to learn more about the area glaciation.

If you would like more information on enjoying Wisconsin winters at the Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest, please call the Forest Headquarters (open Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.) at (262) 626-2116 or the Henry H. Ruess Ice Age Visitor Center (open 7 days a week from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.) at (920) 533-5322.

Wisconsin nearing better long-distance rates

Holly Reed

You might not think New Yorkers and Texans are much alike. Tall buildings, fast-paced living and pastrami on rye on the one hand; wide-open spaces, cowboy boots and barbecue on the other. But residents of the Empire State and the Lone Star State do have one thing in common.

They're paying less than you are for long-distance calls.

Increased competition in the telephone markets in New York and Texas is bringing consumers lower prices, better service and new, innovative offerings. Telecommunications companies are fighting to win customers who want the full range of services — local and long-distance calling, Internet, wireless and more.

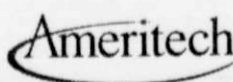

Why New York and Texas? In both states, the local "Baby Bell" telephone company has been approved to enter the long-distance marketplace. Approved first by state regulators and then by the Federal Communications Commission, Bell Atlantic in New York and Southwestern Bell in Texas have emerged as full-service providers, competing for long-distance customers against companies like AT&T and WorldCom.

The results were immediate. Long-distance prices fell overnight as established providers scrambled to meet the low prices offered by Bell. The same companies rushed to match the newcomers' offering of simple, easy-to-understand calling plans with no monthly minimums or hidden charges. And residential customers and small businesses — once ignored by the long-distance giants for being too little — now found themselves sorting through competing offers for local telephone service.

The people of Wisconsin can expect the same savings and expanded choices when Ameritech is allowed to compete in the long-distance marketplace here. And we're working with Wisconsin's Public Service Commission to make that a reality.

IN MEMORY

In memory of ALICE SCHILLER, who passed away one year ago, Jan. 5, 2000.

No longer in our lives to share
But in our hearts you're always there
Silent thoughts, tears unseen
Wishing your absence was only a dream.

*Deeply missed by Marion Schuster & family
David Coulter & family*

IN MEMORY

In memory of EDWARD CZAJA, who passed away 25 years ago, Jan. 10, 1976:

His life is a beautiful memory
His absence a silent grief,
He sleeps in God's beautiful garden

In sunshine of perfect peace.
God saw he was getting tired
And cure was not to be.
So he put his arms around him
And whispered come with me.

Sadly missed by family and friends.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of my husband, our father, grandfather and great-grandfather, LELAND VETTER, who passed away nine years ago, Jan. 7, 1992:

We hold in our tears when we speak your name.
But the ache in our hearts remains the same.
No one knows the sorrow that we share.
When our families and friends meet and you're not there.
Nothing will ever be more beautiful than the memories that are of you.
To all of us you were some one very special.
God must have thought so, too.

Sadly missed by Vivian Vetter and family.

IN MEMORY

In memory of LESLIE ENGELMANN, who passed away Jan. 15, 1997:

Our loved one is not gone away
But rests in peaceful sleep
To awake again another day
His time with God to keep.
Now he rests in peaceful slumber
His tasks on earth were done
Among the angels he will number
Tear his rich rewards are won.

Sadly missed by his family.

January Program At Lac Lawrann Conservancy

Cross-country skiing has been available at Lac Lawrann Conservancy for the last three winters, but this year Mother Nature has provided snow to ski on! Several miles of trails are groomed for classical cross-country skiing; snow shoers and hikers are also welcome to use the trails and are requested to use the edges rather than the groomed part of the trail. Come and put December's record snows to good use, get some exercise, and enjoy the beauty of a Wisconsin winter at Lac Lawrann.

Weather permitting, a program on identifying winter tracks will be held on February 3 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Conservancy. Participants are requested to pre-register by calling the Parks Department at 335-5080.

Lac Lawrann Conservancy is located at 300 Schmidt Road, near the Electric Company substation, and is open to the public on weekends between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. The Conservancy is administered by the West Bend Department of Parks, Recreation and Forestry.

KHS Girls Defeat Falls For First Conference Win

The Kewaskum High School girls' basketball team found their offense and played good defense in the second half to shake a stubborn Sheboygan Falls team to earn their first conference win of the season Friday, December 22.

Kewaskum found themselves behind 14-11 after the first quarter, and didn't tie the score until five minutes into the second quarter.

Kewaskum's Heather Rieder broke a 20-20 tie with a layup with just over 2 1/2 minutes left in the second quarter. Behind four baskets from Rieder and scoring from Jenny Koth (one three pointer), and baskets from Dani Nass and Maggie Herriges, the Indians built a 26-22 half-time lead that they never relinquished. Kewaskum limited the Falcons to just eight points in the second quarter.

"We switched to a man-to-man pressure, trapping in the corners to start the second half and Falls was unable to adjust, giving us that huge run in the third quarter," Coach Anne Sonnabend said after the game.

The Indians pressure defense limited Sheboygan Falls to just one point for the entire third quarter, while the Indians equaled their second quarter production with another 15 points. Falls lone free throw came with just over one minute left in the quarter. Kewaskum lead 41-23 at the end of the quarter. Bridget Polzean and Cassie Patterson each scored four points, and teammates Nass scored three points and Colleen Gosa and Rieder each scored a bucket.

The Indians defense completely shut down the Falcons for almost seven of the eight minutes of the third quarter. With the Indians in command, Coach Sonnabend had the opportunity to freely substitute all of her players during the fourth quarter, as Falls never challenged. Kewaskum outscored Sheboygan Falls 12-5 in the fourth quarter to extend their game winning score to 52-28.

Heather Rieder led all scorers with 15 points and six assists. Nass contributed seven points with both Emily Rinzel and Jenny Koth each scoring six points. Patterson came off the bench and had a game high of eight rebounds, while Gosa recorded four steals and Nass blocked three shots.

Commenting after the game, Coach Sonnabend stated, "The girls played together tonight and really seemed to gel in the second half. Everyone on the team contributed tonight - which was great!"

"Colleen Gosa played good post defense and Heather Rieder, Emily Rinzel and Jenny Koth pressured the guards extremely well causing several turnovers. Dani Nass created problems once again with her shot blocking abilities," concluded coach Sonnabend.

Rieder Scores 27 In Losing Effort to Kiel

KIEL - The Kewaskum High School girls' basketball team committed nine turnovers and fell behind 17-9 at the end of the first quarter, but good defense and 11 points by Heather Rieder in the second quarter put Kewaskum just five points down at the half, 35-30, Friday, January 5th.

Kiel came out in the third quarter and duplicated their 18 point performance of the second quarter with another 18 points, while Kewaskum duplicated their offensive total of nine points in the first quarter by only scoring nine points. Kewaskum went scoreless in the third quarter until Colleen Gosa made a basket at the four minute mark, but Kiel's offensive was in high gear and had given them their biggest lead of the game to 47-32. The score at the end of the third quarter was 53-39 in favor of Kiel.

Behind impressive eight for nine free throw shooting by Heather Rieder, two baskets by Gosa, a three pointer by Emily Rinzel and a basket by Dani Nass, Kewaskum started to close the gap in the fourth quarter. With just over two and a half minutes left in the fourth quarter, Rieder was fouled while shooting and made two free throws to make the score 61-56. Kiel called time out and Kewaskum made some steals down the stretch, but failed to convert and thus Kewaskum was unable to put together back to back conference wins. Kewaskum committed 24 turnovers for the game. Kewaskum's record dropped to 1-5 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference and 3-7 overall. Kewaskum did, however, put a scare in their opponents as they outscored Kiel 20-15 in the fourth quarter.

Heather Rieder tied for game high honors with Allison Deubler of Kiel with 27 points apiece. Rieder made 12 of 16 free throws, five baskets and one three pointer for her 27 points. Colleen Gosa was the only other Kewaskum player to score in double figures as she made five baskets for ten points. Kiel's Heather Heberlein, scored 18 points and added nine rebounds to her conference leading rebound total. Abby Klapperich scored 13 points to give Kiel three players in double figures.

Rieder also recorded seven rebounds, five steals, and five assists. Nass also had seven rebounds, five assists and three blocked shots, while Gosa came off the bench to take down six rebounds to go along with her ten points.

Scoring for Kewaskum: Rieder 27, Gosa 11, Rinzel 6, Nass 6, Katie Klug 3, Bridget Polzean 2, Jenny Logan 2, Cassie Patterson 2.

Scoring for Kiel: Deubler 27, Heberlein 18, Klapperich 13, Rumpf 5, Vorpal 4, Neils 1.

Rebounds for Kewaskum: Nass 7, Rieder 7, Gosa 6, Logan 3, Polzean 2, Rinzel 2, Klug 2, Koth 1.
