10,000 Square Foot Expansion for Ben Franklin

Shown above is a view of renovations being done to the Ben Franklin store in Campbellsport. According to owner Chris Shanen work is progressing nicely.

BY SHERI BALDIKOWSKI
 STATESMAN STAFF WRITER
 sbaldikowski@kewaskumstatesman.com

Digging has begun for the extensive addition to the newly named Ben Franklin True Value store at 131 E. Main Street in the village of Campbellsport.

The name has been changed as a large part of the store will now be devoted to various hardware items. To accommodate the new construction and the renovation of the current store, the parking lot is also being greatly enlarged so their will be ample parking.

Chris and Barb Shanen along with Chris's sister and brother-in-law Brian and Sue Perry own the Campbellsport store along with a store in Mayville.

The corporation owned by the four purchased the building next to their store that was home to Walter's Floral Shop. That building was razed to make room for the newly expanded store that will be increased from 8,000 square feet to 18,000 sq. ft.

Chris and Barb are extremely excited about all the new things they will be handling.

The large complete hardware department will handle True Value paint, and have a special "Tool Shop". Chris has received specialized training on mixing paint as well as the uses of paint on various surfaces. This information will be passed on to their customers as Chris wants to make sure the hardware department, as well as the entire store, are user-friendly.

Another new feature of the store will be a rental department featuring many party rental items such as tables, chairs, and tents, as well as tools and other items to be announced at a later date.

In spring a lawn and garden center will be added with bedding plants, perennials, stone, sand, and mulches, just to name a few of the items that department will be carrying. This alone will be a big undertaking and additional employees will need to be hired.

Barb also wear the hats of florist and bookkeeper who will have a special work area in the newly enlarged floral boutique. They will be expanding their crafts, variety items, pet shop, and scrap-booking materials, as well as many other areas in the store. In addition, they plan on having some computer and printer supplies, which will make it convenient for the people in the area.

The store itself has been a mainstay in Campbellsport's downtown. It's doors first opened on February 1, 1951 under operation of Gil and Rose Howard.

Jerry and Flora Schanen purchased the business in 1965 and ran it themselves until their son, Chris, and his wife, Barb, bought into the business in 1980 and ran it together with them. Jerry still helps in the Campbellsport store to this day. In 1997 they moved the Mayville store, expanded it, and added the True Value Hardware line. They went on to add Radio Shack to the store in 2002.

They also had a third store in Waupun, but when it burned down in 2001, they decided not to rebuild in that area. Instead, they concentrated on the Campbellsport store.

Since Campbellsport is their home, they felt they could serve the local people better by expanding and having everything under one roof. They have been working on the plans for this renovation and addition for the last one and a half years.

Chris firmly believes in creating a happy, friendly atmosphere in the store, helping people with their needs. He intends to have a service desk right on the floor, where he will be visible to his clientele as much as possible. His goal is to make sure customer satisfaction continues to be a high priority.

Chris believes the key to life and to a successful business is to have fun.

The store will stay open during construction. An estimated completion date of the new building is hoped for by December. They are planning a grand opening in spring of 2004.

Motorcycle Crash Kills Two in New Prospect

On Tuesday, August 26th at approximately 3:14 p.m., Officers from the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Office, The Wisconsin DNR rangers, and Campbellsport EMS/Fire Department responded to a two vehicle accident on CTH G and CTH SS in the Town of Auburn.

The accident involved a motorcycle with a side-car vs. a van.

As a result the operator, Donald T. Trainor, 70 of West Bend and his great-niece passenger Lydia J. Trainor, 11, also of West Bend were killed due to injuries they received.

The driver was not wearing a helmet. The 11-year-old passenger was wearing a helmet.

According to a press release from the Sheriff's Department the motorcycle was westbound on CTH SS, failed to stop for the stop sign and struck the van which was north bound on CTH G.

The accident remains under investigation by the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department.

Complete obituaries for the victims can be found in this edition.

Harley-Davidson Cyclelists Enjoy Homecoming

The Club H.O.G. XX mainstage at the Washington County Fairpark Grounds

BY SHERI BALDIKOWSKI
sbaldikowski@kewaskumstatesman.com

Business is back to normal at the Washington County Fairgrounds that was adopted by Club H.O.G. XX to hold their 20th anniversary of Harley Owners Group festivities in conjunction with Harley-Davidson's 100th Anniversary.

It opened to H.O.G. Members only on Wed. Aug. 27, 2003, with a special H.O.G. welcome ceremony, and stayed open through Sat., Aug. 30, 2003.

A major transition took place on the grounds with huge tents, Harley/H.O.G. logo signs, food, drink and clothing vendors and large grassy areas with numerous tables and chairs. The elaborate parking facilities on the grounds were for motorcycles only.

H.O.G. Membership Benefits and Service (Hog. & Co.), and the hog.com Cyber Cafe' were both on site. At the Cyber Cafe', H.O.G. members could check their E-mail and/or update their membership profiles. MDA was also represented at a booth on the site selling 100th anniversary commemorative pins, having an ongoing raffle and an auction.

They had three musical stages with the main one being the gigantic H.O.G. XX stage featuring top-notch entertainment such as B.B.King and Jeff Beck, The Fabulous Thunderbirds, Kenny Wayne Shepherd, and The Funk Brothers. Members were also dazzled by fantastic feats and precision motorcycle riding while watching the shows of the Indianapolis Motorcycle Drill Team and the Seattle Cossacks Drill Team.

It was quite a distinction to have this group of numerous H.O.G. Chapters celebrate this huge event at Washington County Fair Park.

HARLEY FEVER

Hearing the rumble of bikes in the area, it was not hard to catch the contagious excitement and give everyone "Harley Fever". It was a time where many people were set into motion in so many different ways.

Harley enthusiasts were overwhelmed with anticipation of the "Ride Home". Nightly newscasts kept even the non-Harley lover interested in "how" and "where" the various rides into Milwaukee were going.

Once all the bikers were here, everyone was enthusiastic about seeing them and going to activities that would not have existed if there was no 100th Harley Bash. Some people just walked along looking at all the beautiful bikes or checking all the different license plates.

Those that could not attend the activities, could still look forward to the news media which covered the days events so everyone knew what was going on around the whole Southeastern Wisconsin area.

For the many vendors, hotels, motels and restaurants it added profits which could have meant the difference between feast or famine for some businesses. Various clubs and non-profit organizations were able to hold various concession sales as fund raisers for their groups.

The excitement of having Larry Hagman (JR) and former Gov. Tommy Thompson "ride in", or hearing a special message from President George Bush over all the screens at the Veteran's Park party, are truly things you do not see everyday. This, plus the many hospitable Wisconsin people, put Milwaukee and all of Southeastern Wisconsin back on the map with new dimensions.

The signs hung over the freeways and the numerous people all over Southeastern Wisconsin who just wanted to show their welcome enthusiastically with a "wave" to the bikers as they rode by, was most impressive.

Seeing the interview of a couple from The Netherlands who saved for three years to make this trip to fulfill their dream puts perspective on the magnitude of this event.

The initiative that took place with so many businesses is also very commendable, like the Hilton who saved their old towels for two years so Harley-Davidson riders could use them to wash their bikes.

The churches, including Archbishop Dolan at Holy Hill, who wanted to bless all the bikers so they had special drive-up ceremonies. And who can forget the story of the little boy who had a little stand with a sign that read "Lemonade 50 cents---Harley drivers FREE".

First place in the excitement category, however, had to come from the MDA when it was presented with a check for over seven million dollars from the Harley riders. Truly the Harley Birthday Bash "reved up" all of Southeastern Wisconsin and although we wish they could "Stay just a little bit longer", we know they are anxious to get back home to their families. Hopefully there will be a 105th party so we can see them all "come home" and share "Harley fever" with them again.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

Special thanks should be given to the law enforcement officers and the Harley-Davidson staff of workers in keeping things running so well with such a magnitude of people. They are the unspoken heroes of the events as without them, it could have been a fiasco.

Harley-Davidson is to be commended for planning so many events with so much finesse. And, special thanks should be given to all the area people who helped their fellow man (bikers in this case) with directions, repairs, and just about anything the bikers needed, making sure our guests were treated hospitably, even though it might have meant they would have to travel a half an hour out of their way.

"THANKS FOR THE MEMORY" HARLEY-DAVIDSON DRIVERS

Bob Hope could not have recorded a more appropriate song than "Thanks for the Memory" to describe how so many people felt about the Harley-Davidson 100th. It could be called the "Five year olympics of cycles", since people came from all over the world, WITH their Harley's, to participate in the biggest birthday party of the century.

News From The Capitol

By Rep. Glenn Grothman

A New Government Program

I've always felt that if you give an organization money they will find a way to spend it, claim all the spending is necessary, and ask for more in future years. An interesting case study is proved by the Tobacco Control Board.

In 1999, the Tobacco Control Board was established to spend money the state received from tobacco companies to reimburse the state for medical costs the state paid for tobacco-related illnesses.

Governor Thompson suggested $5 million a year to spend telling people not to smoke. The message is simple-smoking reduces life expectancy, is expensive, and is rude to those around you.

How much could you spend?

A coalition of Democrats and liberal Republicans decided to up this to $30 million a year. After Thompson vetoes, the Tobacco Control Board settled in to spend $15 million a year. A recent evaluation by the Legislative Audit Bureau is revealing. One of the more successful efforts is the tobacco quit line. A Seattle company claimed to receive 24,000 calls in slightly over a year. The state paid $65 per call with over 30% of the calls after hours, when all the caller got was a recorded message.

$94,000 was spent on a young adult pilot study with a goal of getting 100 young adults to quit smoking. Twelve people stayed with the program for six months, of which six quit smoking. $350,000 was spent on a telephone survey to 6,000 people with up to 162 questions. Would you stay on the line to answer 162 questions? The survey was considered not useful.

$500,000 was given to the Wisconsin Ethnic Network to get minorities to stop smoking. Isn't it kind of racist to imply the reasons for not smoking vary with the color of your skin? In any event, they had a nice conference, built coalitions and worked on culturally appropriate advertising, which apparently hasn't been used yet.

A few years ago, before the Tobacco Control Board even started, a local school district informed me they already discussed smoking with 1st through 4th graders as part of peer resistance strategy. In 5th Grade, they had D.A.R.E. and in the rest of middle school they discussed smoking as part of a healthy lifestyles curriculum and in high school they had a health class.

Today more young people smoke than adults. It appears to me that more children smoke today than 35 years ago, when cigarette ads were all over the television. Separately, the cigarette companies, government agencies and the Cancer Society have their own programs. Is it possible this overkill is making it cool to smoke?

Incredibly, the Tobacco Control Board actually wanted to increase funding $15 to $25 million per year. It was cut to $10 million--- I would have cut it more than that.

LeRoy Butler at Fireside Books Sept. 6

Former Green Bay Packer All-Pro Safety, LeRoy Butler, will visit Fireside Books and Gifts in West Bend on Saturday, September 6.

Butler and co-author James J. Keller, executive vice president of J.J. Keller & Associates Inc. in Neenah, will sign The LeRoy Butler Story: From Wheelchair to the Lambeau Leap, starting at noon.

Published this spring by JJK Sports Entertainment, Ltd., the book documents Butler's miraculous rise from the projects of Jacksonville, Florida, to the top of professional football.

With the guidance of his devoted mother, "a lot of prayers," and a dogged determination to improve himself, Butler overcame serious physical problems as a child and escaped the poverty and crime of the neighborhood in which he grew up.

The book discusses his high school and college career - for which he won All-American honors - and highlights his 12 years with the Packers - especially his role in Super Bowls XXXI and XXXII.

It features quotations

Butler who lives in Jacksonville where he runs the LeRoy Butler Foundation for disadvantaged youngsters, is a partner with JJK Sports Entertainment, Ltd. in Neenah.

Though pre-registration is not necessary, several hundred people have already signed up to meet Butler and Keller. Those wishing to meet Butler and Keller should arrive no later than 2 p.m. Books can be purchased in advance or at the signing. Other items can be signed for a fee.

For further questions, call Fireside books at 262-334-1444.

Early Farm Days Sunday In Riverhill Park

Nostalgia is the word as the Kewaskum Historical Society prepares for its 29th annual Early Farm Days which will be held this year on Sunday, September 7 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in River Hill Park.

Set up on the west side of the river, the Historical Society will revisit the farm life of our ancestors during their annual event that promises to give all who attend a glimpse of the "good old days."

The Society's 1847 award winning museum and reconstructed log cabin will once again play host to a variety of old time displays that include gas, steam and miniature engines, antiques, old farm equipment, collector vehicles and craft displays.

Museum tours, free horse drawn wagon rides, homemade treats and special live entertainment are some of the old-fashioned highlights that can be enjoyed by members of the whole family.

Members of the Historical Society will be serving hot ham sandwiches, hot dogs, a variety of mouth-watering homemade desserts and refreshments round off the menu and will be available to eat on the grounds or carry-outs will be available.

Both exhibitors and guests will enjoy a special performance by the Kettle Moraine Square Dancers.

Commemorative collector buttons will be on sale for a $1 donation and the money raised will be used to support the operation and maintenance of the museum and log cabin.

Admission is free for all. Exhibitors are always welcome.

State 4-H Dog Show Sept. 5, 6, and 7

Saturday, September 6th starts at 8 a.m. And showing for Junior Showmanship on Sunday, September 7th starts at 9 a.m.

Letter to The Editor

To the Editor,

This is a note in response to the many inquiries I have been receiving concerning a Kewaskum School District Calendar for the coming school year.

I was, and still am, among those who think that this calendar is an important service to our community, not just for the exposure it affords to our students and their art, but also for the easy access of information it furnishes to the parents concerning important school related events.

I felt so strong in these thoughts that last year when the school board decided it was no longer able to fund it, I decided after some serious thinking to take up the project myself. I volunteered a number of weeks of my time in the summer to do the work involved with organizing and layout which had been previously done by others and the former printer, all of whom were accustomed to being paid for their work. I also (contrary to the advice of many) decided to fund the project out of my own pocket. My thoughts at the time were that if people thought it as important as they indicated they would be willing to pay a small price for the calendar. At the time I stated to all that I had no intentions of making any money on the project, and that any funds that exceeded the cost of the calendar would go into a fund for art supplies for the students.

I found however, that many who had been accustomed to receiving this calendar gratis, resisted paying even the very token price ($4.00) asked for it. Even many of those who knew that the calendar existed only because of my effort and money pressured me for a discount for one reason or other.

Though I do not begrudge the time I spent volunteering for the project, and would gladly do so again, I feel I cannot afford to lose almost $1,000 of my own money yearly as a matter of course. So the calendar will be no more, not at

JASON JAMES BUTSCHLICK

Jan. 25, 1981 - Sept. 9, 2002

God opened his arms and said,
"It's time to come with me."

You smiled, and went without a word.

In a dream, you said it was too soon,

You wanted everyone to know that you miss them,
that you were happy, and play basketball with Uncle Dick everyday.

A year has passed since you've been gone.
And we will never ask why.

You were only 21.

You didn't get the chance to live your dreams.
It's like you knew what was to come.

So you made the most out of everything.

Cancun with your friends, a trip to California to look for a job.
Packer Sundays, Fantasy Football, leaving only memories behind.

While babysitting for little Sarah you had your laughs,
Even when she locked herself in the bathroom.

You tried to talk her through it,
and all she could answer was "ah huh."
She now says "Daddy misses Uncle Jay too!"

Little Maya was only two months old then,
She's all smiles when she sees a picture of you.

She knows who her Uncle Jay is,
For you are in her heavenly dreams.

Her Daddy says he prays to you every day for strength.

Your sis will have a baby soon.
She wants to name it after you.

I know Trish will share stories with her,
and probably take her to Mickey D's just as she did you.
You'll be her precious one's very own special angel.

A Best Man you were to be for Brian,
One of the last things you did was write your speech.
Your cousin read it with flare,
With tears in our eyes we listened,
just wishing you could be there.

Just as your friends said,
"Sometimes, there simply are no words!"
They had a tree planted in your memory at HTS.
We know your heart was always there.
This was where your faith was strengthened.
Your life lives on in this Legacy Sugar Maple.

Just as the branches will grow,
You're spirit will not be forgotten.

As for your Dad and I, the days are long.
We put our faith in God to get us through.
We will never forget that little boy
Who grew up to be a young man...
We thank God for our strength and our family and friends for their prayers.
These are what keeps us strong.

Butchy, you will always be in our hearts!

Love always,
Dad & Mom
Tim, Leeann, Sarah and Baby
Keith, Carmen & Maya
Tricia, Shawn & Baby
Brian & Nicki

25 Years Ago

February 17, 1978

Close to 50 people, including many Kiwanians and Lions, attended the buffet dinner at Kewaskum's Baseball Night Monday evening at the Amerahn, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Cecil Cooper, Milwaukee Brewers star first baseman and leading hitter, and Dick Hackett, Public Relations Director for the Brewers were featured speakers.

Alice Schiller of Kewaskum became a grandmother and great-grandmother on the same day, February 7. Also both babies were boys and both weighed around nine pounds. Mrs. Schiller is the paternal grandmother of Todd Thomas Coulter, born to David and Barbara Coulter, Kewaskum on February 7. She is the maternal great-grandmother of Patrick Allen Schuster, born to Patrick and Laurie Schuster of Mayville on February 7.

Holy Trinity Catholic Church of Kewaskum was the setting of the double ring ceremony on January 28 uniting Cindy Gutjahr and David Amerling in marriage.

February 24, 1978

In another close game, Kewaskum defeated last place Pewaukee for the second time this season here Friday, 65-60, earning the Indians a tie for sixth place with Germantown. After trailing 12-4 in the first period, four baskets by Dale Poling and a pass to Mark Tessar enabled Kewaskum to take their first lead just before the quarter. Pewaukee regained the lead before halftime but the Indians came back midway through the last quarter on a three-point play by Roger Rezel and held it the rest of the way. Tessar tied with Pewaukee's Lawrence for scoring honors at 23 points each. Rezel had 17 and Poling had 16.

A son was born to Anthony and Susan Butschlick, Kewaskum, on February 19. A son, Travis Michael, was also born to Ray and Dorothea Korpela, Oak Creek, on February 19. Maternal grandparents are Mrs. Alice Volm of Kewaskum and the late Aloysius Volm.

August 25, 1978

A record 220 runners, compared to 165 last year, entered the "Kettle 20" foot race held in conjunction with the Kewaskum Lions Club annual chicken barbecue and Kewaskum Historical Society's Early Farm Days in the village park Sunday. The Lions Club served around 1,600 chicken dinners and The Historical Society's Early Farm Days exhibits attracted crowds of interested spectators throughout the day.

A special School Board meeting was held on Monday evening to fill several remaining positions for the coming school year. Dennis Reha was approved for the teaching principal position at Wayne Elementary School after the resignation of Tim Leader from his duties as principal at Wayne was accepted.

A son was born to Larry and Kris Morenzen of Kewaskum on August 18.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Village of Kewaskum
Plan Commission
July 29, 2003
7:00 p.m.

The Plan Commission of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and pledge of Allegiance.

Chairman Mathew Heiser called the meeting to order. Members present were Andy Pesch, Richard Schmidt, Frank Beesten, Leann Butschlick and Theodore Meilahn. Member Andrew Kuehl asked be excused and was absent. A quorum was present. Mr. Rick Kania from SEWRPC was in attendance to discuss the proposed Zoning Ordinances.

On a motion by Andy Pesch, seconded by Theodore Meilahn and carried by the majority voice vote the Plan Commission approved the minutes as amended for June 24, 2003.

Review and discussion was held on the request of The Little Folks House (Wayne & Dodie Sargent) for a conditional use permit to allow a Day Care Center in a B-2 Zoning District. The lot is located 1037 Fond du Lac Avenue (known by tax no. V4-0191-00D-002). Mr. Sargent was present to answer questions. It was noted that the same criteria would apply to this request under both the existing and proposed zoning ordinance. The improvement to the lot will face Fond du Lac Avenue and maintain an address on Fond du Lac Avenue. It was noted that access would come off of Milan Drive or if authorization is received from one of the adjoining properties. The set back requirement in the proposed zoning would be 25 feet front yard 25 feet rear yard and 10 feet side yards. On a motion by Richard Schmidt, seconded by Frank Beesten and unanimously carried by the voice vote, the Plan Commission sent the conditional use permit to the Village Board with a favorable recommendation and public hearing. The motion included the placement of the noted proposed set back requirements. The public hearing would be held on August 18, 2003 at 8:00 p.m.

Review and discussion was held on the proposed ordinance to amend Chapter 86 Subdivisions (Plats Section 86-45 Submittal Procedure) and review of a resolution establishing fees for the submittal process. On a motion by Andy Pesch, seconded by Frank Beesten and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Plan Commission sent the proposed ordinance and resolution to the Village Board for review and possible action.

Chairperson Mathew Heiser brought up for discussion the topic of fences. It was noted that portion of the ordinance was reviewed and allows for the placement of fences. They may be placed on the lot line and are to be maintained. They are only allowed to be 3 feet high in the front/street yard and only 6 1/2 feet high in the rear or side yard. It was further stated that the finished or face side of the fence must be shown to the neighbor.

On a motion by Theodore Meilahn, seconded by Frank Beesten and carried by the majority to adjourn to work session. Roll call vote was 6 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 1 "Absent". Mr. Rick Kania was present from SEWRPC to review a variety of points from previously discussed sections of the proposed Zoning Ordinance. The primary discussion was on the existing and proposed Zoning Map.

On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by Richard Schmidt and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Commission adjourned the meeting. Roll call vote was 6 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 1 "Absent".

FISHING REPORT

By Mr. Fisherman

Being almost a senior citizen I'm entitled to mood swings. Sometimes my patience wears thin especially when people come close to me while I'm casting. Twice this happened on Wolf Lake. Am I that good looking that people want to get close to me? Am I that great a fisherman that they want to get my autograph? Is my boat a target to aim at? I just don't know. Am I paranoid? Maybe they are thinking like fish? That I am structure and they are using me as something to hide by? Do they want to see what a person who talks to fish looks like? That's it; they want to see what a fish talker looks like. Now everything is clear to me. It's o.k. but the next time I'll sell tickets.

Can you believe that Wolf Lake got my attention in the very early morning? In the first fifteen minutes of fishing Wolf Lake, three bass nailed my spinner bait. None were big, but at least the morning started out great. Mind you this is a tough lake to fish in the dark. The Eurasian Milfoil is lying on top of the water so you have to watch where you cast. The only surprise of the whole day was a northern that hit my spinner bait and followed it up to the boat. My son and I never had a northern hit or follow the past few days of fishing Wolf Lake, so it kind of astonished me.

The front that moved in

Monday night kept me in the house. It was time to go to bed early and dream of Bertha.

Tuesday morning the Long Lake bass and northern were turned on. With little effort by 9:00 a.m. three legal sized bass had hit spinner baits or a plastic worm.

It has been a while since I've fished Mauthe Lake. After seeing a picture of a 5 lber taken out of this lake I went there Tuesday night. When I got there the water was too low to launch my boat. Were do I go now? The Big A of course! The bass were turned off. Just a few hits at night with a spinner bait. There was a lot of commotion going on in the pads on the west end. It would be almost impossible to fish this area at night so I just fished the outside of the pads.

Lake Ellen is beginning to be a likable lake to fish. This could be our lake to fish on Wednesday evenings. A few strikes with spinner bait and a bb3 is all I had Wednesday morning with one quarter pounder landed.

That night my son and I caught small northern and quarter pounders on spinner baits. The next morning I returned and the northern were hitting buzz baits. They were on the north end of the lake out from the reeds. I did fish the sunken island, the reeds on the east end and a small short weed bed on the south side. The other weed bed that produced at night was just off the beach on the northwest side. These places all had some fish in them. The other spot that always produced was sort of the northeast side. We stayed out in 15 feet of water and cast with deep diving crank baits and blades and caught bass and northern. There is a small weed bed there with a drop off. Some bass came out of the weeds from the bay on the south west end. The word is this lake is the dead sea. It's a tough lake to fish but they all can't be easy. Most of the bass were quarter pounders and the northern were small too.

One of my first lake love affairs was fished Thursday night and Friday morning. I used my small little bass boat. Total bass for both times out was 8 with the biggest one at 17". I fell in love with this bass. It did every thing a bass is suppose to do. She jumped right near the boat, made long runs, pumped on my rod and never gave up. She even moved my boat in the direction she was going. This bass pulled so hard that I thought my little boat was going to tip over. NOW THAT'S A BASS! She deserved a kiss. There were a few 14" and a couple 15" caught plus a few quarter pounders. The bass were tight against the shoreline and blades and plastics persuaded these bass to hit.

The northern were hitting also on blades and were all undersized. I noticed that they were in deeper water and you had to stop and crank to get them to hit.

This lake took two of my spinner baits, one brown and one green and white. My tackle box in this boat has the minimal amount of lures so I was out of blades. It was time to leave anyway because the lightning was getting closer and closer.

Saturday morning the same lake produced 4 quarter pounders and a 26" northern. Can you guess what bait? Not a bb3. Strikes were easy to come by but just these 5 got hooked. Can you guess what lake this is? The lake has floating vegetation that moves around. It has huge northern that are usually caught through the ice. Email me if you know the name.

How's your fishing? Email me at MrFishermanRU2@aol.com.

Drunk Driving Laws Get Tougher in Wisconsin

Under a new Wisconsin law that takes effect on September 30, 2003, the prohibited blood/breath alcohol concentration (BAC) for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated (OWI) violations will be reduced from 0.10 or greater BAC to 0.08 or greater BAC.

The new 0.08 or greater BAC applies to first, second and third OWI offenses. All subsequent offenses are still subject to the 0.02 or greater BAC.

"Numerous scientific studies show that drivers are impaired at the 0.08 level. Through years of experience in dealing with motorists, we know that braking, steering, lane changing, speed control, judgement and attentiveness are all compromised at the 0.08 level," says Captain David Pichette of the State Patrol district office in Fond du Lac.

The new law will not necessarily lead to more people being stopped for suspicion of OWI. But an increase in OWI convictions could be possible because of the 0.08 law, according to Captain Pichette.

Generally, to reach or exceed 0.08 BAC, a 180-pound man would have to consume approximately four drinks within one hour on an empty stomach (with a drink equaling a shot of liquor, a glass of wine or a 12-ounce beer). A 120-pound woman typically would have to consume approximately three drinks in two hours on an empty stomach to reach 0.08 BAC, according to the State Patrol Chemical Testing Section.

Drivers who've been drinking but have a BAC of less than 0.08 are not immune from an OWI violation.

Captain Pichette emphasizes that law enforcement officers in Wisconsin have the authority to arrest drivers for OWI - regardless of their BAC - if they are impaired after drinking.

Commercial truck drivers have even more stringent BAC restrictions, and drivers under the legal drinking age of 21 are subject to Wisconsin's "not a drop" law, which requires absolute sobriety.

"Nearly everyday, our troopers see tragic deaths and serious injuries caused by drinking and driving. It is a major reason why Wisconsin traffic fatalities in 2003 may exceed 900 by the end of the year. More than 40% of all fatal crashes are alcohol related," Captain Pichette says. "Drunk drivers are a lethal threat not only to themselves. They also can kill or injure other innocent people. The new 0.08 law is another enforcement tool that will help save lives in Wisconsin."

State Patrol Issues Results of Analysis, Reconstruction Of Wisconsin's Deadliest Motor-Vehicle Crash

The State Patrol has released the results of an exhaustive investigation and crash reconstruction of the Interstate 43 crash in Sheboygan County on October 11, 2002, that killed 10 people and injured 50. It is the deadliest motor-vehicle crash in Wisconsin history.

Wisconsin State Patrol Troopers Jeremy VerGowe, Duane Meyers and Timothy Austin, who are crash reconstruction specialists, investigated the crash and reconstructed the sequence of events. Their findings are compiled in a detailed report, which is augmented with an animated depiction of the crash sequence.

According to the report, at the time of the crash, fog in the area had reduced visibility. While some drivers slowed down because of the fog, others continued at normal highway speeds. This disparity in vehicle speeds increased the potential for collision. The probable causes of the crash are drivers' failure to slow down and take appropriate actions in response to the fog.

A fire in the main area of the crash extensively damaged many of the vehicles making the identification and the reconstruction process very difficult and lengthy. The intense fire also diminished the quality and quantity of supporting physical evidence. However, well-trained State Patrol investigators using state-of-the-art data collection equipment were able to determine the sequence of events in the crash. The report includes the following conclusions:

- The collision involved 50 vehicles, including three unknown "hit and run" units.

- During the collision sequence, a fire caused additional damage to approximately 25 vehicles.

- Data obtained from vehicles' Airbag Sensing and Diagnostic Modules confirmed statements from witnesses.

- No vehicle recalls were identified as either contributing to the collision or the fire.

- Several vehicles had compromised fuel systems, and some of these were likely sources of fires.

The report points out that like most crashes, this tragedy may have been less severe or prevented if drivers had been more cautious. It also notes that future automobile safety developments, such as collision avoidance systems that employ infrared or radar technology to warn drivers of upcoming obstructions, might be beneficial in preventing similar crashes.

"The troopers involved in this complex and intense crash investigation have done a tremendous job," said State Patrol Superintendent David Collins. "The State Patrol conducted nearly 200 crash reconstructions last year, usually at the request of local law enforcement agencies. None were more challenging than the I-43 crash. Our crash reconstruction experts provide evidence that can be used in court if legal action is warranted. Their findings also help traffic safety engineers design safer roadways and automobile manufacturers build safer vehicles."

Justice is spontaneous respect, mutually guaranteed, for human dignity, in whatever person it may be compromised and under whatever circumstances, and to whatever risk its defense may expose us.

KHS Golfers Defeat Two Rivers

The Kewaskum Varsity Golf Team didn't have their best outing on Thursday but still managed to defeat Two Rivers on the white nine at Hon-E-Kor. Senior Crystal Dreher led the Lady Indians with a 48, hitting the ball well off the tee but wishing her putter was more cooperative as she carded 21 putts. Crystal's leadership along with Kate Korth's 51 helped with the team score of 217. Seniors Cassie Remmel shot a 56 and Katie Kowalczyk shot a 62 to round out the team score.

Two Rivers best round was a 49 by Eva Fageltanz while the next best was a 62 by Darla Wiegand, Team total for Two Rivers was a 254. The Indians next meet was hosted by West Bend East at the West Bend Country Club on September 2.

Indians Compete in Washington County Soccer Tournament

The Annual Washington County Soccer Tournament is typically a bittersweet experience for the Kewaskum High School boys' soccer team. With strong Division I teams such as Hartford, Germantown and West Bend East and West participating, Kewaskum has struggled in the past to compete on an even playing field. At this year's tournament however, held August 29 and 30th at Kettle Moraine High School in Jackson, the Kewaskum Indians' performance demonstrated that they have dramatically narrowed the gap between themselves and the other county teams with gritty performances on the soccer pitch throughout the three-game event.

Coach Dennis Bigley in his second year at the helm was pleased with the tenacity of his defense in the first game against Tony Zappia's always-tough West Bend West Spartans. Buoyed by the stellar play of Senior Aaron Olla (Second team All-Conference Eastern Wisconsin Conference 2002), the Indian defense contained the Spartans for the majority of the game in spite of giving up two early goals to the crisp-passing Spartans.

In the second half, the Indians valiantly attempted to overcome the two-goal lead and controlled the ball on the Spartans side of the field for the majority of the half before ultimately losing 2-0 to West. Aside from Aaron Olla's dominating performance, the Indians got key contributions from Sophomores' Jon Olla, Paul Goehner and Frank Cole in the losing effort.

In the second game of the tournament (held on Saturday morning against host school Kettle Moraine Lutheran) Coach Bigley shuffled his lineup in an attempt to manufacture more goal-scoring opportunities. Initially, Kettle Moraine was able to use its speed to take advantage of an off-sides trap attempt by the Indians. Breaking the trap with the long-ball, KML repeatedly attacked the Indians goal.

Sophomore Goalkeeper, Nate Kenworthy, aggressively attacked the breakaways causing the KML shooters to shoot wide off the mark. In spite of Kenworthy's efforts, the Indians found themselves down 3-0 near the end of the first half before being able to gather some offensive momentum.

Moving Sophomore Frank Cole to the vital last-man position enabled Aaron Olla to help push the offense up the field. Sophomore Forward Jason Jahnke (Honorable Mention All-Conference 2002) was able to crash a goal home to break the scoring drought for Kewaskum. As in the first game, in the second game Kewaskum was able to buckle down in the second half and contain the KML eleven and more actively move the ball.

Despite losing 3-1, positive accolades were to be garnered for Jahnke, Olla, Cole and Kenworthy.

With a scant 30 minute break between games, Kewaskum faced a spunky Living Word team in their final match of the tournament on Saturday. Living Word, ably coached by John Berst of the West Bend United Soccer Club, came into the match well-prepared for the Indians and despite being outmatched on the pitch, refused to concede until the final whistle.

Offering a complete, well-rounded performance, Kewaskum dominated the ball throughout the match and was able to spark its offense with beautiful passing and speed off the ball. The first goal for the Indians came from Jahnke who again demonstrated the breakneck speed that penetrated the defense and set up the scoring opportunity. Aaron Olla showed his versatility at both ends of the field by following with a goal of his own as he crashed through the middle of the box refusing to be denied.

The Indians third goal was set up by Jonathon Olla who sent the ball up to Jahnke who crossed the ball perfectly to Junior Midfielder Noah Olla who was streaking down the center of the box.

tournament and to uncannily be in a position to score showed why he will be a player to watch as the year progresses. He was in position for many shots during the tournament and was finally able to bring one home in the final game.

Jonathon Olla offered a goal of his own with a fierce shot off the back side as he attacked the goal. Known by his teammates for his relentless pursuit of the ball and excellent contain defense, Jonathon Olla, showed that he can jumpstart the offense from anywhere on the field and that he can finish as well. Olla's goal sealed the 4-1 win for the Indians over Living Word thus ending their tournament on a winning note.

Winning one game and performing well in the other two, Kewaskum set its benchmark one notch higher as it prepared for a tough season of EWC soccer action.
