Boltonville Mill is Now A County Landmark

Shown left to right are Kathy and Tom Mueller after receiving a plaque from Norbert Dettmann. The Muellers were honored by the Washington County Landmarks Commission on Saturday for the building which houses their feed mill. The dedication was a continuation of the efforts of the Landmarks Commission in recognizing historical landmarks in Washington County. Harlow Bolton formed a partnership with Asa Varney and William H. Willis in 1853 to build the mill, along with a mill pond. The mill, known for many years as the Reliance Roller Mills, was the first business in Boltonville, built in 1814. A complete story will follow in a future edition.

Boltonville Fire Department, First Responders Answer Calls After Dry Spell

The recent hot days and cool nights produced some very foggy weather, especially during the morning rush hour along STH 144. They say bad things happen in threes; for the Boltonville Fire Department and their First Responder unit, this myth recently has some merit.

The recent fog left the department with three major accidents along Highway 144, three days in a row, and each more traumatic than the last.

The first call was on STH 144 and CTH H, for a rear end collision. One of the vehicles caught fire during loading on a flat bed tow truck. The fire department extinguished the fire.

The next call was a two-car rollover crash. That crash occurred as William D. Gabrich, Fredonia, was driving westbound on CTH A and failed to stop at the CTH A and STH 144 intersection. He collided with Bruce Theusch, of Boltonville.

Kewaskum EMS took both Gabrich and Theusch to St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend. They were treated and released.

Boltonville First Responders and Fire Department handled the crash scene.

The last call happened Thursday morning just before 7 a.m., one half mile north of CTH H, when a car ran into the back of a dump truck towing a 10 ton flat bed trailer.

The driver, Nicholas A. Walters, 30, Kewaskum was transferred to Froedtert Hospital by Lifestar Ambulance after being extricated by Boltonville First Responders and Fire Department and then transported to St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend by Kewaskum EMS. Walters is said to have suffered head and internal injuries.

The operator of the truck, Richard McKee of the Town of Farmington was uninjured.

According to a report from the Washington County Sheriff's Department, headlamps and tail lamps were working on both vehicles and the trailer at the time of the crash.

Walters is said to be in satisfactory condition at press time.

"The most difficult task of the volunteer firefighter or First Responder is waiting for a call. The time between calls is spent training and practicing to help sharpen your skills along with vehicle maintenance and fund raising duties. When the call finally comes in, the rush is on to respond, only to realize that

Town of Kewaskum Cuts Staff, Changes Recycling Center Hours

By Andrew Kuehl
 STATESMAN EDITORIAL STAFF
 akuehl@kewaskumstatesman.com

The town of Kewaskum held their monthly meeting Monday evening with a short agenda and without a planning commission meeting.

The meeting was opened with a citizen in the audience requesting information on permits being required for moving buildings onto property in the town as well as the storage of automobiles that are not used.

Town chairman Mike Lettow seemed to have knowledge of the property in question and stated that the town is working with the property owner.

The supervisors approved a driveway permit for Timothy Butschlick on Ridge Road.

The board, along with the treasurer reviewed the town's expenditures and revenues. Treasurer Dan Stoffel told the supervisors that they should start thinking of what to do in terms of creating a budget and whether they wanted to start making cuts or if they wanted to raise the levy.

Lettow, along with the two supervisors, all agreed that raising the levy was not something they wanted to do. Supervisors Jim Koepke and Bill Butzlaff stated they wanted to hold the millrate.

The next order of business was to change the hours at the recycling center. Currently the center is open Wednesday from 5 to 8 p.m. and Sat. from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The new hours that will take effect November 1 are Wednesday; 5 to 8 p.m., and Saturday from 8 a.m. to noon.

The board also decided to cut the staff from one to two people effective immediately.

Treasurer Stoffel gave the treasurer's report that indicated $3,154 in the checking account and $61,233 in the savings account.

Also on September 2, while on a routine patrol a Kewaskum Police Officer observed that unknown actors vandalized Kewaskum High School.

The officer started to clean up the mess, but advised the school liaison officer that he would not be able to clean up the mess himself.

In addition to the toilet paper, the vandals moved a concrete picnic table into the street, ruining the table and propped a picnic table up against the fence of the football field and dragged one in front of the access gates along the west side of the school.

There are no suspects at this time.

On September 3, Kewaskum Police were dispatched to a Bel-Ric Drive residence in reference to a criminal damage to property complaint.

The complainant showed the officer his car with a broken out windshield. The complainant stated that he heard something from the front of his house and walked around and hid behind some bushes. He watched the suspect hit his windshield three times and the group walked away.

The officer then met with the suspect who stated that he did not do the damage. The officer advised the suspect that at the time there was nothing more he could do because the complainant identified him as the person who did the damage.

The suspect was issued a citation for criminal damage to property and restitution.

The tour itinerary started on Wednesday with check-in at Cedar Valley, vehicle safety inspection, and tours to the Hartford and Holy Hill area and a visit to the Wisconsin Automotive Museum, home of the Kissel automobile built in Hartford.

On Wednesday evening a kickoff dinner was a true Wisconsin eating experience.

Thursday, the group had the opportunity to drive a lap on the famous Road America race track at Elkhart Lake. After that they toured to the Old Wade House, Wesley Jung Carriage Museum, and Herrling Sawmill in Greenbush. They enjoyed a catered lunch on the grounds. On their return to Wayne they stopped for a visit to the Henry Reuss Ice Age Center in Dundee.

Free S.P.I.R.I.T. Riders Benefit from Golf Outing

Checks totaling $1,070.59 were recently presented to Mary Narges, representing Free S.P.I.R.I.T. Riders. This organization was the charity of choice for the Auburn Bluffs Tuesday Morning Ladies Golf Group because it is a local non-profit organization serving local citizens including a child of a Tuesday morning golfer.

The money was raised through the Ladies Fun Day golf outing at Auburn Bluffs Tuesday, August 19. The total amount includes $870.59 from the golf outing, $100 donated by the Camelot Golf Course Ladies Association and another $100 donated by Auburn Bluffs Golf Course. This is the group's fourth annual charity golf outing.

The Tuesday morning group organized the event, hosting 63 golfers from Campbellsport, Mayville, Lomira, Fond du Lac, West Bend, Kewaskum, and Ozaukee County. Golfers competed for hole prizes and in day events, received door prizes, and participated in raffles.

Free S.P.I.R.I.T. Riders is a United Way funded organization located on Highway 23 east of Fond du Lac, providing therapy through horse riding.

Physically challenged students benefit from improved balance, range of motion, circulation and stamina. The action of the horse relaxes and stimulates unused muscles, builds muscle tone and improves coordination. Students with cognitive disabilities develop better attention spans, listening skills and concentration. They learn to follow directions and enjoy the responsibility of giving directions to their horses.

For more information about this service or organization, contact Mary Narges at 920-533-5025.

The Tuesday morning lady golfers at Auburn Bluffs invite area lady golfers to join them any Tuesday. There are no formal teams and a personal point system is used. Golfers are not committed to being there every Tuesday. Check with the pro shop at Auburn Bluffs at 533-4311 to confirm tee time which is 9 a.m. during the summer and 10 a.m. in the spring and fall.

Town of Scott Handles Busy Agenda, Complaints of Dilapidated Buildings

By BERNADETTE MONDLOCH
bmondloch@kewaskumstatesman.com

Several months ago Chairman Steve Junge received complaints related to buildings that are falling down, or are in disrepair and are becoming unsafe and hazardous.

Former Town of Scott Supervisor Irene Gnacinski has volunteered to round up a few Scott residents who will work with her in putting together an ordinance that will deal with eliminating the nuisance and making the owners of these buildings accountable.

The new ordinance will also deal with other items such as junk vehicles, ignored garbage, etc.

Jim Vetter, member of the Beechwood Sportsman's Club expressed his concern about members of the public who have asked the organization to continue maintenance on the pier on Beechwood Lake.

Vetter explained that the pier is not the responsibility of the Sportsman's Club. In the past, the town board has contributed funds on the pier and volunteers did the work.

Supervisor Ivan Kumrow has been in contact with the DNR. And obtained forms which when completed will give the Town permission to do some dredging at Beechwood Lake. At the present, the pier is on dry land due to a drop in the level of the lake.

A zoning change from A-1 to A-6 was approved for Wilfred Strack. The change involves 1.75 acres with buildings.

A conditional use permit was issued to Kevin and Brenda Kempf, Cherry Hill Drive for 1.5 acres on which to build a home, with the condition that the driveway meets all specifications regulated by the Fire Department.

A letter from the Sheboygan County Treasurer offers the town the opportunity to have the county collect the taxes for the town.

The county would have a charge for the service and the board's choice was to continue as in the past with the collection of taxes being done by the Town Clerk/Treasurer. It felt that the local collection is more favorable to town residents than dealing with Sheboygan County.

Many do not favor mailing their payments and would definitely not be in favor of lines that form at the County Treasurer's office during tax season.

With budget time near at hand, the Scott Town Board is looking at items which may need changes in an attempt to lower the budget figures. One of these is the use of the Scott Community Center.

The building is open to local organizations for no charge with a stipulation that the building must be returned to its original condition when the building is used.

Supervisor Bruce Birenbaum reported that at this time the only reservations for the building up to the end of the year are those for the local 4-H club (Scott Pioneers).

He felt that the cost of heating and cleaning the building far out ways the benefits. The board is looking into the possibility of moving those meetings to the Scott Town Hall which would not require additional heating expenses, however, the club will be required to clean up after each meeting, something which has been slipping at the community center. A recent meeting left a large spot on the rug and it may need special treatment, which is not included in the town's budget.

Lakeview Community Library Representative Irene Gnacinski reported that the front of the library is in need of paint, the annual audit has not been completed, and installation of a phone in the lift has been completed and is ready for State Inspection.

Friends of the Library have completed renovation of the lower level and have taken out a loan for the renovation and are accepting donations.

The Road Committee reports that in preparation for the snow season, seven semi loads of salt has been stockpiled. Gravel shouldering in front of the Roger Garbisch home has been removed and replaced with topsoil and seeding. Seal coating on Maple Tree Road and Mink Creek Road has been completed.

Scott Happenings

During the month of August Batavia First Responders assisted at one fundraiser, held one drill and had seven medical calls.

The Batavia Fire Department answered one fire call, held one meeting, one "wet down" at the Newburg Fire Department and held one practice.

Their next fundraiser will be the Volkswagen Show on October 4th. More information will follow in an upcoming issue.

The Beechwood Firemen responded to one fire call, held one meeting, one work detail and one fundraiser.

Are We Facing Another Possible Referendum?

By NICOLE KUEHL
STATESMAN STAFF WRITER
nkuehl@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Finance, Transportation, Building and Grounds Committee met on Monday to discuss the big "R" - referendum.

The committee first discussed the five-year maintenance plan for the district. Business manager Paul Reichert stated that the total cost of everything on the list would be about $1.7 million, but it would be over the course of five years. However, the maintenance budget is the first one that money gets pulled from for emergency type situations, and this year, there is a maintenance budget of $61,000.

The maintenance plan is broken down into categories of importance and what issues each item addresses and only applies to existing facilities. The committee agreed that the costs for maintenance will never go away and they need to look at another way of funding the projects.

The next item on the agenda was a budget update. The committee approved hiring two aides for kindergarten classes at Farmington and Wayne. The two aides would work two hours a day, one at each school, to help the kindergarten teachers with their 25 students. The positions now go before the full school board for approval.

The last item on the agenda was the discussion of a possible Textbooks/Technology referendum. At the current rate, the district is on a 15 year cycle for replacing textbooks, where it should be five. The $50,000 a year budget for textbooks is barely enough to make a dent in what the district needs.

They then addressed the technology issue. Beth Steiner reiterated the point that they have wonderful technology in the elementary school, but it goes down considerably from there. The high school has very poor technology and that, the committee feels, is where the best technology should be. As Wade Roberts pointed out, "Textbooks are a no-brainer, but technology is where we fall behind."

There were no concrete decisions made on the referendum issue. The committee will meet next month to discuss the issue further.

Kiwanis Turkey Shoot Wet Success

Rain sure didn't stop die hard trap shooters and fans of the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club's 51st annual Turkey Shoot that was held Saturday on the New Fane Sportsman's Club grounds.

Kiwanis president, Larry Ammel, at one point thought about canceling the event. That was until cars started pouring in along with the raindrops.

Jim Dorn chaired this year's shoot with lots of help by Kiwanis members Gary Gavin, Charlie Walls and Mike Heberer who co-chaired the event with Dorn.

Lots of raffles helped to boost revenue for the group who just finished razing and rebuilding the kitchen in Riverhill Park. The group says they plan to tackle more buildings in the park with funds raised at this event and their food stand at Kettle Country Kolers, which is being held on October 10-12.

Winners of those raffles are as follows:

Cash Raffle

$1,000- Wayne Huberty of Fond du Lac

$500- JoAnn Grode of Wisconsin Rapids

$100 (5)- Jeff Butler (2) of West Bend, Wayland Tessar, Mike Smith and Norm Zuehlke all of Kewaskum.

Gun Raffle
Browning Gold 10 gauge- Joe Arreduno of Port Washington

Gild Hunter 12 gauge- Kieth Heberer of Kewaskum

Safari 30-06 Semi Automatic- Don Straub of Campbellsport

7 mm- BJ Schaub of Fond du Lac

410- Gary Gavin of Kewaskum

A Bolt- Gary Esser of Kewaskum

The group is quite pleased with the turn out people and the support they received. Talk of discontinuing the Turkey Shoot surfaced last year and rumors continue to float around the area, the group wishes to let everyone know they have no intentions of discontinuing the event and already are beginning planning for next year!

Food was first served on a commercial airplane in 1919.

United Way Helps Here In Washington County

The United Way campaign continues to build momentum in the early stages of the fund drive. As announced at the first Campaign Report meeting on September 12, the campaign is at the 15.4% mark, with $153,557 in Gifts and Pledges received toward the county-wide goal of $1,000,001.

"We're pleased to report that a number of our divisions are off to a good start," said Campaign Chair James Hodges. "We'll continue with our regular Report Meetings to build on our success, and inspire each other as we move forward," he said.

"One key to our success is dividing the goal into manageable divisions - 26 for this year. We'd like to compliment one group of volunteers who are vital to our success in the next few months: the Division Leaders. These women and men have been hard at work for many months to prepare for the Campaign," said Hodges. He continued, "Some are first-time United Way volunteers, and others are seasoned veterans. The mix works very well for our fundraising approach," she said.

Division leaders for 2003 are: County-Wide Division: Neil Narveson, Accountants and Professional Specialties; Susan Van Schaik, Attorneys; Rev. Robert Kirchman, Clergy; Jim Becker, Contractors; Larry Porter, DDS, Dentists; Tom Hopp, Financial; David Slinde, Non-Profits; Dr. Steven Holcomb and Dr. Mark O'Meara, Physicians and Health Care; Mercedes Loomans and Jenny Buddenhagen, Real Estate; Kelly Kraemer, Washington County Employees.

Communities Division: Ray Wolf, Allenton; Tom Hostad, Hartford; Sandy McGrath, Jackson; Kevin Bartelt, Kewaskum; Jonathan Isselman, Newburg; Lynn Brummond, Richfield; Hubertus and Colgate, Kelly and Judy Held, Slinger.

West Bend Division: James Vest, City of West Bend Employees; Jenni Hanson, Commercial; Gary Britton, Education; Joseph Ehr, Industrial and Manufacturing; Suzanne Hall, Retail; Roger Stephenson, Special Gifts;

Dan Johnson Transportation and James Hodges, Key Firms.

Tom and Lori Yahr, who successfully led the 2002 Campaign as Co-chairs are heading the Leadership Circle portion of the campaign this year, which focuses on individuals donating $650 or more.

"Outstanding leadership and service from our volunteers reflects favorable on our ability to raise needed dollars each year," commented United Way Executive Director Barbara Hurula. "We have a great team of dedicated 2003 volunteers who are committed to seeing this campaign through to a successful conclusion," she said.

The 2003 Campaign Theme is Give From the Heart - and Change a Life. Funds raised will support clients served in 48 programs among 24 nonprofit agencies in the coming year. These programs target four key areas for our local United Way: Meeting Basic Needs, Supporting and Strengthening Families, Building Strong and Healthy Communities, and Serving Children and Youth.

100th Anniversary of the Ice Cream Cone! Dairy Queen to Give Out Free Cones Sept. 22

The ice cream cone turns 100 years old on September 22, 2003. To celebrate, West Bend and Kewaskum Dairy Queen® will give away free 5 oz. ice cream cones on Monday, September 22. Dairy Queen employees also will be collecting donations for Children's Miracle Network (CMN). CMN is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping children by raising funds and awareness for children throughout North America. The free 5 oz. vanilla ice cream cones will be served at participating Dairy Queen restaurants nationwide.

"The ice cream cone, like Dairy Queen is an American icon," said Chuck Mooty, president and CEO of International Dairy Queen, Inc. "So its natural for Dairy Queen to take the lead in this celebration. At the same time, this great occasion allows us to make a difference in the lives of so many by raising money for Children's Miracle Network."

As Dairy Queen kicks off a yearlong celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the Ice Cream Cone with free cone day, other events and promotions are being planned throughout 2004.

While September 22, 2003 is recognized as the official 100th birthday of the ice cream cone, the date is not without controversy. Italo Marchiony, the legally credited inventor, immigrated to New York from Italy in the late 1800s. He began wrapping paper and making a crude form of the cone we know today. He later replaced paper with pastry and on September 22, 1903, he applied for a patent for a cone shaped mold. On December 15, 1903 it was granted under U.S. patent number 746971.

Although Marchiony is credited with the invention, a similar creation was introduced at the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis. There, Ernest A. Hamwi, a Syrian concessionaire, provided an ice cream vendor, who ran out of dishes to serve ice cream in, with his wafer like pastry called zalabis which were rolled up and filled with ice cream. This marked the beginning of the evolution of what today has become the ice cream cone.

Time Running Out for 'Mr. October' Semi-Finals

It was another terribly slow week at voting headquarters and much to the relief of our readers, I'm running out of encouraging words to get you voters to the polls. Guess someone should have nominated Arnold Schwarzenegger for Mr. October.

Now I suppose I'll have to scold again. By now, everyone is aware that half of all the contest proceeds go towards funding the Kettle Kountry Kolors festival. The volunteers who have undertaken organizing and planning this festival have been working diligently and I think their efforts are commendable.

They have lined up a wealth of entertainment, especially in the children's tent, where shows will run almost continuously. Unfortunately entertainment does not come cheaply. Part of the funding for the children's tent will come from the Mr. October contest.

At last week's meeting, the Friends of Kewaskum, wrote an estimate on how much money would be needed to fund this year's festival. It was determined roughly $6,000 would be needed. So please make sure you cast your vote for your favorite Mr. October candidate. Thus ends this week's portion of begging.

Word has it that Dennis Fechter has now resigned himself to the fact that he IS a semi-finalist. I believe up to this point he was in denial. I haven't heard how many votes he garnered at the Boltonville Fire Department's Street Dance last Saturday, but those weren't rain drops in his eyes.

He has admitted though, if he should be "lucky" enough to win, he plans on donating his half of the proceeds to the training tower for new recruits that is being built on the Boltonville Fire Department property.

Chief Joe Enright has graciously volunteered to be campaign manager for Dennis, so if you desire, you may also contact Joe with your votes. Now if someone could only think up a campaign slogan. Perhaps the little mouse could come up with something appropriate. I'm beginning to think the Boltonville firemen traded in their regular mascot for the now-famous mouse.

Rumor has it that Gil DeLaurier is REALLY excited about the opportunity to become a finalist. (I find that hard to believe!) But his campaign slogan and battle cry is "Bring On the Votes!"

He's even making it easy for you to vote for him! You can vote for Gil at his business, Ike's Repair Shoppe in Boltonville (ya gotta love these Boltonville fellas!), or you can vote for him at Hon-E-Kor Golf Course where fellow Grid Iron coach Jonesy Korth is trying to "drive" in some votes for Gil or you can also stop at the American Legion Brat Fry stand on Sunday, September 21, during the Classic Car Show on the community parking lot and cast a vote or two. Who knows... you'll probably even catch the star candidate there turning a brat or three.

Sat in front of candidate Tommy Cannestra in church on Sunday and "accidentally" called him "Mr. October." Boy... did I get a look! But then I got that charming smile, so I know he won't come looking for me down a dark alley if he wins. Tommy will donate his half of the proceeds, should he win, to the juvenile diabetes foundation, which is another good reason to vote for him.

And speaking of church on Sunday... everything sure is awfully quiet in Father Mark's camp. I wonder if he and Larry Martin have called some sort of truce and not told me. Now that wouldn't be any fun at all. This rivalry was just starting to get real interesting. Their supporters need to get fired up again!

Oh yeah... heard from son Dustin that someone has erected a voting booth for him up at the Silver Platter Restaurant. Gee... I wonder who that could have been. Sure am glad I'm innocent on that one. There's another rivalry going on between the Kuehl brothers and it's not Moochie and Gumby! Andrew and Dustin are constantly at odds fighting for the crown.

Votes have been nearly non-existent this week for Tubby Boden and Paul LaBonte. There were a few votes for Scott Rohlinger, but what I can't understand is there are so many Rohlingers in Kewaskum, Scott should have the lead. Work with me, Shirley! You're supposed to be drumming up support for Scott!

There were also votes this week for one of Kewaskum's finest, Bob Buddenhagen. No word yet though on what charity Bob has in mind or if Chief Knoebel and his fellow officers are campaigning for him.

A spattering of votes were also received for Gil DeLaurier, Father Mark and Andrew Kuehl. Nothing to brag about, though.

Someone also has to let me know about Paul LaBonte. Must I be nice... or can I give him as much grief as I have the other semi-finalists.

We're getting down to the wire now. By the time you read this, there will only be 12 voting days left. October 1 is when the field will be narrowed down to six finalists. Now is the time to figure out who is the most worthy of your votes. The contest up to this point has made over $450. Half of that to another charity is nothing to sneeze at.

Big Government Waste-Municipal Recycling

By Kewaskum Village Trustee Kevin Scheunemann

We all have heard the same line, "We're running out of landfill space, we HAVE to recycle." As a result of this "feel good" platitude, the State of Wisconsin in the early '90s mandated all municipalities to spend millions of dollars to pick-up "recycled" materials. While passing this costly mandate onto municipalities, state officials over and over again promised, "This program will pay for itself once the market for recycled materials has developed." After all, municipalities were at least getting some revenue at the time for recycled materials.

Ten years later, we have one small problem. Many state politicians don't understand the free market economy. Their mandated action and meager subsidies to local governments created an over-supply, making recycled materials essentially worthless in the marketplace. The Village of Kewaskum gets $0 in revenue for glass, $0 in revenue for newspaper, $0 in revenue for cardboard, and we get $0 for "feeling good" about recycling. In fact, Kewaskum is wasting $40,000 a year on a contract that needlessly consumes diesel fuel, manpower, and equipment on a recycle route following the regular garbage route to duplicate what the first truck already does, to pick-up worthless garbage.

What are we doing about this terrible government waste? Nothing. If the Village Board did the sensible thing, and voted to save village taxpayers money but not picking up curbside recycled materials, we would be inflicted with even MORE costly mandates from the DNR through transfer station requirements and DNR mandated volumetric garbage charges.

The village does a good job dealing with this wasteful mandate relative to other municipalities through private contract (equaling $2.57 per household per month). Some Wisconsin municipalities can spend as much as $10 to $20 per month per household performing this wasteful task. The nature of recycling is to conserve and preserve natural resources. Consuming $2, $10, or even $20 of resources per household per month to fund an activity determined to have no market value meets the classic definition of government waste.

Right now, many of these items are cheaper to make from raw materials. In many cases, the cost of the input resources is cheaper to deal with then recycling the resources. That scenario may change in the future, but if it does, an economic incentive (demand) will result. That non-government market incentive will encourage people to take the time and the effort necessary to pursue the economic reward attached. No government mandate is needed. We see this at work in the area of aluminum cans today. In fact, it has long been rumored that some entrepreneurs in the village collect cans out of the curbside recycle containers before the truck arrives. At no charge to the village! Why, An economic incentive exists. The marketplace reward says aluminum cans can be recycled more efficiently then making them from "scratch." Unfortunately, this is the rare exception.

Consider the alternative. Landfills. Landfills can have many alternative uses. West Bend has a thriving commercial complex sitting on top of a closed landfill. WE Energies experiments with harnessing methane gas from landfills to generate electricity. Some landfills are even considered to be prime locations for future ski hills. Wings Over Wisconsin is using Kewaskum's closed landfill for creative alternative uses as well. As a society, we have to stop thinking about landfills in a negative context. Landfills can be a very productive resource for the future. We may find uses for landfills in the future we could not even conceive of today. 50 years ago, no one would have guessed sand would be a valuable resource in Silicon Valley. Given the current NOT IN MY BACK YARD (NIMBY) attitude about power plants and windmill generation in this state, landfills may possibly be our only hope for future power generation. Arrogant politicians need to stop believing they are smarter than the trillions and trillions of marketplace decisions that are made by consumers everyday as the result of technological advancement.

Many of the people in favor of this wasteful government program do not realize that much of the recycled material in Kewaskum is shipped to Illinois rendering plants, out of DNR control. Once in Illinois, these materials sometimes end up in the place we spent all this money to prevent, the landfill. If just makes more economic sense from the rendering plant standpoint, given the glut of some of these materials. At the same time, our "caring and compassionate" state politicians allow Illinois residents to ship their non-sorted, non-separated garbage to Wisconsin landfills. I'm sure some Illinois residents will still be secretly laughing at our ignorance on that issue even after the Packers stomp the Bears this football season.

I still like the ideal of recycling, but only when it has an economic incentive. So if you still want to redeem your aluminum cans for cash, more power to you. I'll even let you redeem my cans, if you want to take the time. But if you really seriously care about "preserving and conserving natural resources," you should call your State Representative, State Senator, and the Governor and oppose all municipal recycling mandates.

Municipal Recycling is a decade long trail of wasted taxpayer money, broken promises, and ignorant state politicians. If it turns out your State Representative, State Senator or Governor support mandated municipal recycling, you should send him/her to the landfill on election day.

Thoughts on The War Against Terrorism

With the second 9-11 anniversary just past, people have been asking, "Are we safer now than we were two years ago?" The answer is "yes," although we felt much safer on September 10, 2001 - a time when ignorance was bliss.

Before that date, terrorism seemed abstract and distant. Even people who knew better, including those of us in government, were able to hope for the best while turning our attention to issues which seemed more urgent. Now, the increased security in Washington, the check points, anti-aircraft missiles, emergency escape hoods and evacuation drills all serve to remind us that we are at war and under continual threat.

We are safer now that Osama bin Laden no longer owns Afghanistan, and Saddam Hussein no longer owns Iraq. Safe havens, training bases and massive sources of funding have been taken away from our greatest enemies. Others have been put on notice that America is not the paper tiger that bin Laden has claimed - that threats to our security can bring about a decisive response.

For several months after September 11, we all held our breath as we waited for the other shoe to drop - for the next big attack in the U.S. That attack hasn't come, probably because much of Al Qaeda has been put on the run or is hiding in bunkers.

Meanwhile, in Iraq we are finally coming to terms with the difficult task of stabilizing the situation so that we can safely get out.

It's important to recognize that the early stages of rebuilding a country are often frustrating, but once the foundation is laid, things can improve rapidly. I don't want to sugarcoat the situation, but there are a lot of good things happening in Iraq which, unfortunately, can't compete for media attention with car bombs and suicide attacks.

Despite the challenges ahead, I'm optimistic that our successes in Iraq will become obvious to most people in the coming months. A freer, more democratic and more prosperous Iraq would be a nightmare to terrorists and anti-Americans everywhere. I think we can bring it about, and we will be safer as a result.

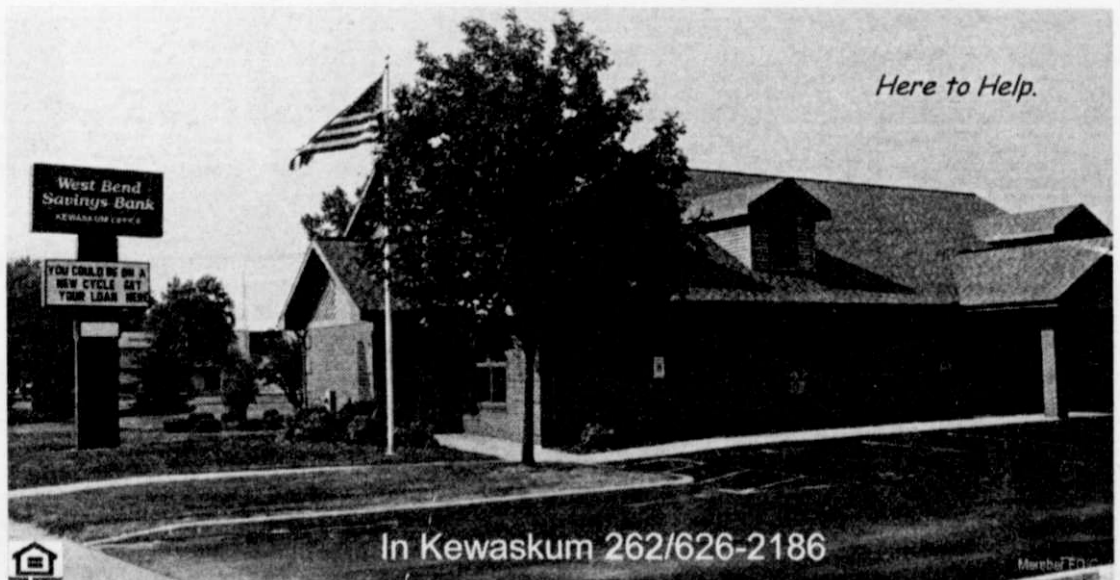

Still, our successes can be our undoing if we allow it. Already, people are feeling safe enough to worry about other things.

The economy is growing again strongly, but it isn't yet producing the jobs which we must have. Health care and prescription drugs are too expensive, and Congress has to do more to improve the situation. War or no war, we need to get on with other important issues.

But we dare not lose sight of the fact that, despite our many victories against Al Qaeda and others, they haven't gone away. Their capabilities have been reduced, but their hatred for us continues.

While we are safer now than we were before, it remains the case that to be successful, we have to stop every plot while terrorists will rejoice even if their major operations succeed only one out of 100 times. Safer does not mean safe. We have a long struggle ahead, and it's too early to imagine that our lives and our concerns can return to normal.

Comfort Foods Chase Away Chills

(NAPSA)-Your meeting ran late, it's your turn for carpool and traffic is backed up for blocks. After a tiring day, the thought of trying to come up with a warm, home-cooked meal to satisfy your family's cravings seems out of reach. But here's a comforting thought: Classic "comfort foods" don't have to mean hours in the kitchen. With the help of some simple, readily-available products, preparing wholesome meals can become a nightly routine.

Bone-in ham can be a great ingredient. Simply heat it in the oven or add cubed or shredded ham to hot stews and hearty casseroles to complete a nourishing and almost effortless meal. Because today's bone-in hams are so lean, you can rest assured your family is eating nutritiously.

"Pampering your family with a tasty dinner they will find truly delicious does not have to be time-intensive," said Jon Lewallen, director of marketing at ConAgra Foods, maker of Cook's Ham. "Bone-in hams offer versatility and convenience because they can appear at your dinner table as the main dish or as an ingredient in a quick, flavorful meal."

POTATO HAM SOUP

2 cups Cook's brand Bone-in Ham, leftovers (shredded) or Ham Steak (cubed)
2 cups potatoes, peeled and diced
2 cups water
1/2 cup onion, diced
1 cup celery, diced
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
10 tablespoons flour
3 cups milk
4 tablespoons butter, melted
1/2 cup chicken broth

Combine potatoes, water, onion, celery, salt and pepper in a large saucepan. Cook until vegetables reach desired tenderness. In separate bowl, mix flour and one cup milk, blending well. Add flour/milk mixture, butter, chicken broth, ham and remaining milk to large saucepan with potato mixture. Simmer on medium heat for about 20 minutes or until heated through and thickened. Cooling slightly before serving will thicken soup.

Yield: 4 to 6 servings
Preparation time: 30 minutes
Cooking time: 30 minutes

A Tribute

You say you will never forget where you were when you heard the news on September 11, 2001. Neither will I.

I was on the 110th floor in a smoke filled room with a man who called his wife to say "Good-bye". I held his fingers steady as he dialed. I gave him the peace to say, "Honey, I am not going to make it, but it is OK... I am ready to go."

I was with his wife when he called as she fed breakfast to their children. I held her up as she tried to understand his words and as she realized he really wasn't coming home that night.

I was in the stairwell of the 23rd floor when a woman cried out to Me for help, for the very first time in her life. "I have been knocking on the door of your heart for 50 years!" I said. "Of course I will show you the way home - only believe in Me now."

I was at the base of the building with the priest ministering to the injured and devastated souls. I took him home to tend to his flock in Heaven. He heard my voice and answered.

I was on all four of those planes, in every seat, with every prayer. I was with the crew as they were overtaken. I was in the very hearts of the believers there, comforting and assuring them that their faith has saved them.

I was in Texas, Kansas, London... I was everywhere.. I was standing next to you when you heard the terrible news. Did you sense Me?

I want you to know that I saw every face. I knew every name - though not all know me. Some met me for the first time on the 86th floor. Some sought me with their very last breath. Some couldn't hear me calling to them through the smoke and flames; "Come to me... this way ... take my hand." Some had never heard my voice before. And a few chose, for the final time, to ignore me.

But, I was there.

I did not place you in the tower that day. You may not know why, but I do. However, if you were there in that explosive moment in time, would you have reached for me?

September 11, 2001 was not the end of the journey for you. But someday your journey will end. And I will be there for you as well. Seek me now while I may be found. Then, at any moment, you know you are "ready to go"

...I will be in the stairwell of your final moments.

KHS Varsity Volleyball Team Takes First Place in Tournament

On Saturday, August 30, the girls varsity volleyball team took first place in their tournament which was held at KHS. Teams participating in the tournament included Fox Valley Lutheran, Dodgeland, Howards Grove, Sheboygan Falls, Grafton and Kewaskum. The girls next tournament will be Saturday, September 20 at Waupun. Shown above is the varsity team. ### Peplinski Boots Win Through Uprights

By Kyle Darmody

With the game tied 15-15 late in the fourth quarter, Chad Peplinski booted a 20 yard field goal through the uprights to make the score 18-15, giving the Kewaskum varsity football team their second win of the year, last Friday, September 12, in New Holstein.

New Holstein started off the scoring early on a four yard touchdown run, but were unable to convert the extra point. On the ensuing kick off, David Wicklund returned the kick 86 yards for the touchdown. The Indians then converted the two point try on a pass to Wicklund giving the Indians the 8-6 lead.

The Indians increased their lead when Ryan Koepke hit Garret Donath for a 23 yard touchdown reception. Peplinski's extra point was good, and the Indians took the 15-6 lead. New Holstein would then close the gap with a 22 yard field goal, making the score 15-9. They later tied the score on a 23 yard touchdown reception. The extra point attempt failed, and the game remained tied 15-15 until the Peplinski field goal won it for the Indians.

Ryan DeLaurier lead the Indians offensive attack with 107 yards rushing on 15 carries. Koepke was 5-10 passing for 44 yards and a touchdown.

The Indians (2-1) now come back home to face Manitowoc Roncalli on September 19. Then they face Kiel at home, on the 26, which also happens to be Homecoming weekend in Kewaskum.

Mark Hackbarth of Bozeman, Montana, formerly of Kewaskum, shot this 400+ pound bear early last spring.

KHS Ladies On Winning Roll

By Kyle Darmody

After beating Slinger in three sets on September 26, the Kewaskum girls varsity volleyball team went on to take first place in their own tournament by going 9-1, back on August 30. The Indians went on to beat Kiel last week in three sets also.

"Kiel was a contrast of positives and negatives," Indian coach Dave Rizzard said. "In game one we completely dominated, then in game two it was a complete reverse. We won the first game 15-3 and took any home court advantage they had away from them. Then in game two we were down 9-1 before you knew it," he continued.

After being down 9-1, the lead for Kiel increased to 14-

6. The Indians fought back and eventually tied the score up at 14. They eventually won that set, 16-14.

"Our kids played a point at a time, and then we were tied. I was very pleased with the girls ability to stay in that game, instead of giving up and waiting to play the third game. They had lots of determination," Rizzard said.

Leading the way for the Indians was Amanda Magnus with nine kills, and five aces. Beth Boedeker also helped out with her five aces and ten digs. Jill Wittmann had four blocks and five aces, Briana Bastian had five blocks, and Kristin Mantz had nine digs to round out the leaders.

The Indians traveled to Sheboygan Falls on September 16, and then host a Quad on September 18. At the Quad will be Campbellspport, New Holstein, Plymouth, and Kewaskum. Rizzard and the Indians strongly encourage everyone to come out and support the Indians at their Quad in Kewaskum on the 18th. Three of the top four conference teams will be represented, in what is sure to be some great matches.

K-TOWN SKAT WINNERS

Skat winners on Monday, Sept. 8th were: Butch Schmitt, 26-2--24 net; Wes Darmody, 421 points; Roger Wehrmann, 77 high play.

The next skat will be Monday, Sept. 22, at 7:00 p.m. sharp. Angie D's K-Town Saloon.

The Indians began conference play this week in Kiel on Thursday, then traveled to Sheboygan Falls on September 16. Keep an eye on the

FISHING REPORT

By Mr. Fisherman

There was hesitation on my part to tell you what happened when I caught that 5 lb. bass last week. But a good fishing report tells all the things that happen when someone catches a big fish.

The area where I live is described as one of the best places to see U.F.O.s. There are people here that say they have talked to aliens and have been abducted. There have been crop circles found and sightings seen from the top of Dundee Mountain. Even I've seen something in the sky that was unexplainable. With all these things happening why can't people believe that I can talk to fish? If you believe me or not just read my story.

The five pounder told me her name was Martha and that she was Bertha's cousin. "How could you be a cousin to Bertha when you come from a different lake?" I asked. "God works in mysterious ways", she said. "We all figured that you would start fishing other lakes more when the word got out about the notorious Bagley bb3 and the brown spinner bait. You caught me off guard. That is why you got me. I never saw that type of spinner bait before and it looked good to eat. Now that you caught me, what are you going to do?" Martha asked. "Well, first is to get your weight and length. Then many pictures will be taken of me holding you. Tomorrow, everybody I meet will hear my tale. It will be a brag and tell story! The part about me kissing you and the brown spinner bait will be played down though. As always, with the big fish I catch, they're required to sing me a song before being let go to be caught again. That song is, Please Release Me Let Me Go. So start singing Martha!"

Nobody has emailed me on were my son and I caught these big fish.

This lake has turned off for a while. It slowly shut down with me only getting a few quarter pounders and small northern. Blades and bb3's have still worked. The northern always hit short but now so are the bass. As the days wear on and the water cools the bite will get better. Being a small lake the fish react faster to weather changes and water temps. Even in the last few days the water has cleared up so that also changes things.

Time to switch lakes, so it was off to Mauthe. My small bass boat works perfect for this lake. Northern were hitting spinner baits but as always they hit short. This is the time of the year when they just like to bump artificial lures. Even cranking and stopping did not help. My son went in his boat Wednesday and caught some quarter pounders on a Moss Boss. I was there with my little boat and had 4 bass, the biggest being 16". We fished the beach and the pads on the left and right side of the launch. The pads at night had a lot of quarter pounders in them. I'm guessing they were small because my Snag proof Frog never hooked one.

Thursday morning: Quarter pounders were hitting on the secret lake. Spinner baits and bb3 were working. The weed beds did not produce anything. The bass were on the flats and near the small island. As said before this lake has slowed down, but I just had to try.

Friday and Saturday morning: Wolf Lake has also slowed down, still some bass were hitting blades and worms. The wind picked up Friday and fishing got tough. When the rain came Saturday the quarter pounders were still hitting blades and bb3's. Some weeds have started to lie down and fishing should improve in the next few weeks. (Always looking for a luncker to come out of this lake.)

Today someone emailed me that Lake Bernice was the place where we caught those big bass, which is the right answer.

How's your fishing? Email me at Mr.FishermanRU2@aol.com

Busy Week for KHS Golfers

Katie Kowalczyk (AKA Chipper) shows how reliable her putter can be.

The Kewaskum Girls Golf Team faced their conference opponents in the Little Ten twice last week. September 2nd, the second meet of the conference season was held at West Bend Country Club with West Bend East playing host. The best score for KHS was posted by number one Crystal Dreher with a 51, followed by a pair of 57's by Katie Kowalczyk and Nicole Rimmel. Cassie Rimmel shot a 58. The team score of 223 was a high for the season and a testimony to the challenging play of the course.

September 4th the team traveled to Watertown Country Club and improved their team score to a 202. Leading the Lady Indians was senior Katie Kowalczyk who had her long game going as she posted a 49. Teammates Crystal Dreher (50), Kate Korth (51), and Cassie Rimmel (52) rounded out the balanced attack for the golfers.

Both conference meets were won by Oconomowoc, the likely conference champ for this year. Currently Kewaskum is in fourth place in the Little Ten but looks to improve that as they play host at Hon-E-Kor on September 12.

KHS Boys Lose Home Opener

After a promising start to its season, the Kewaskum Boys High School soccer team suffered a temporary setback with a dismal effort in its home opener against Two Rivers on Monday, September 8.

Playing with a disturbing lack of enthusiasm, and energy, the Indians earned a 3-1 loss with their effort (or lack thereof.) Coach Dennis Bigley's Kewaskum team started flat, ended flat and remained flat throughout the game against a Two Rivers team that while inexperienced, came ready to play.

Two Rivers' Coach Kurt Becker, one of the best strategic minds in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, is known for having his teams well-prepared come gameday to face any opponent.

And well-prepared they were. In the losing effort, highlights were few and varied for Kewaskum but primary amongst these was an aggressive play by sophomore Frank Cole, who through sheer guts and determination, took the ball on offense and fought his way through the Two Rivers defense into the box where he was taken down hard by a Purple Raider defender earning a penalty kick for the Indians.

Senior Aaron Olla, always precise on stoppage plays, made good on Cole's effort by nailing the penalty kick - the lone goal in the game for the Indians.

Other highlights included a stunning pass play by sophomore Jon Radzitis who slammed a crisp outside-the-foot pass under pressure that caught sophomore speedster Jason Jahnke in stride on one of the few offensive threats for the Indians.

Also just missing were two incredible second half punts by sophomore goalkeeper Nate Kenworthy which sailed for 70+ yards in the air against a strong crosswind and narrowly missed picking up the rare goalie assist when Jahnke's one-touch shot just missed scoring.

Aside from those few efforts and the continued energy brought to the soccer pitch by freshman Jacob Cochran who turned in another energetic, smart performance in a relief role, the Indians lost an important opportunity to step up against a well-coached, worthy, EWC adversary.

With home games against Sheboygan Falls and Campbellsport looming, hopefully the Indians learned that to generate wins, the team has got to come ready to play with the passion, aggressiveness and urgency of

KHS Lady Golfers Post Season Low

The home course proved to give an advantage to the Kewaskum Girls Varsity Golf Team as they posted a 193 on the white nine at Hon-E-Kor on Thursday. Crystal Dreher led the Indians with a 45 and Kate Korth a close 46 as the girls took a second place finish behind the strong Oconomowoc team. Medalist was Oconomowoc's Samara Kluever with a 39 as her team posted a 182 score for first place.

Helping in the Kewaskum effort were Katie Kowalczyk and Cassie Rimmel with a pair of 51's. The non-counting scores of 54 from sophomore Nicole Rimmel and 55 from senior Lisa Beck would still have been good enough to beat the rest of the field if they had to be counted.

Rounding out the Little Ten contest was third place West Bend West with a 201, fourth place to Watertown with a 205, fifth place to Beaver Dam with a 218, sixth to Hartford with a 229 and seventh to West Bend East with a 238. The next conference meet was held at Old Hickory with Beaver Dam playing host on Monday, September 15th.
