Senate Approves $1 Million For Wisconsin's Ice Age Trail

WASHINGTON - The U.S. Senate recently approved $1 million for Wisconsin's Ice Age National Scenic Trail to accelerate the pace of land acquisition for the glacial footpath, U.S. Senator Herb Kohl announced. The funding is part of the FY2004 Interior Appropriations bill. Kohl serves on the Senate Appropriations Committee and had identified the Ice Age Trail as a priority for funding.

"I will continue to support efforts to accelerate land acquisition that will bring the Ice Age Trail to completion.. It is truly a treasure and an important natural resource for our state, and I am pleased the Senate has provided funding for it in the appropriations bill," Kohl said.

The Ice Age National Scenic Trail is one of eight National Scenic Trails located throughout the United States. The trail winds through 31 Wisconsin counties, generally following the terminal moraine. When complete, this 1,200 mile footpath will explore some of the world's finest examples of glacial features. The protection, development and management of the trail are dependent on its primary partners: the National Park Service, Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources and Ice Age Park and Trail Foundation, Inc. Many local governments and private organizations have also contributed to the development of the trail.

Today's funding will stimulate more in state and local matching funds and will provide landowners the option to preserve trail lands rather than selling for development.

The Interior Appropriations Bill must now be approved by a House-Senate conference committee.

Supporting Students and Strengthening Families

Fifth Annual Indian Invite

The annual Supporting Students and Strengthening Families program sponsored by U.W. Stout, was held in Menomonie on Friday, September 26.

The event was attended by over 300 Family and Consumer Educators from across the state, and included many Minnesota educators. The keynote presentation titled Teaching Minds: Touching Hearts featured Marilyn Peplau of the Search Institute. Attending teachers reflected on the importance of connecting with youth in a caring school climate, affirming attitudes and beliefs that support youth in their academic achievements, and empowering youth by creating communities of learning in the classroom.

Concurrent workshops were held throughout the day on various topics including High Tech Clothing for Today and Tomorrow, What's New in Food Technology, Grant Writing, Brain Development, Work Based Learning, Teaching Consumer Education, and Taking Benevolent Action in Family and Consumer Education.

Mary Koch won a copy of the recently published Assessment Strategies for Family and Consumer Sciences Food and Nutrition National Standards. The publication was developed by the National Association of State Administrators for Family and Consumer Sciences (NASAFACS) in partnership with the Vocational-Technical Education Consortium of States (VTECS) and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. U.W. Stout professors Karen Zimmerman Ph.D and Judy Jax Ph.D contributed to the development of the publication.

Thursday, September 25, the Kewaskum High School boy's and girl's cross country teams competed at home in the 5th Annual Indian Invite. Running against teams from Milwaukee Lutheran, Campbellsport, Markesan, Laconia, Howards Grove, Elkhart Lake, and Ozaukee, the boy's finished in fourth and the girl's finished in sixth. Milwaukee Lutheran won both ends of the meet.

The Kewaskum harriers met the challenge of the meet by posting nine personal best times for the year. Josh Meyer, (medal winner) the number one runner for the Indians, took a second place overall losing by inches to Pat Buffington from Howards Grove, and posting his best time ever covering the 5000 meter course in 17:03. Zack Van Wormer and Bobby Gibson (both medal winners) battled for the next two spots with personal best times of 18:53 and 18:58 respectively.

Rounding out the counters were Justis Clayton and Adam Wagner, also with personal best times of 19:33 and 19:36. Jon Hawig and Adam Janz finished up the tough race with times of 20:03 and 21:05.

Not to be outdone, the JV squad also turned in their own personal best times. Competing for the squad were John Carpenter, 20:47, Michael Neumann, 21:13, Tristin Wright, 23:34, and Jeffrey Paulus, 23:34.

The girl's race was a first for all competitors as they also ran the 5000 meter course. Normally their race is 4000 meters. Times were comparable and most of the runners said they hardly noticed the longer distance. Top lady runner for the Indians was Nicole Stern, (medal winner) covering the course in a blistering time of 22:49 followed by Allison Janz, (medal winner) 23:33, Rachel Shea, 25:42, Katie, 26:34, and Crystal Treptow, 27:39.

'State Fair' Coming to KHS

State Fair is a story that has been told for over seventy years. Phil Strong's novel was published in 1932 and its first motion picture version was released the following year. Rodgers and Hammerstein musical the story for the 1945 movie and an updated remake was released in 1962.

So this stage version is the next incarnation of STATE FAIR and while modern tastes and mores have changed with the times, this story's appeal has never waned. STATE FAIR is coming soon in the Kewaskum area, and the students involved are in high gear with rehearsals, memorization of lines and trying to get that little dance step correct.

Members of the cast include Kyle Lickel as ABEL FRAKE, Sarah Hoerig as is wife MELISSA FRAKE. Lora Jo Christie plays their daughter, MARGY FRAKE, and her brother, WAYNE FRAKE, is played by Randy Hestiken. Other cast members include; Sarah Karrels as EMILY ARDEN, Abe Foerster as PAT GILBERT, Nate Behring, Nick Zolecki, Frank Cole, Katie Kowalczyk, Cassie Delgado and many more. You need to see the show in order to appreciate the work these young people are putting into it.

Tickets will be available on Monday evening, October 20, in the music area of the high school. They will be available in person from 6:00 to 8:00 PM.

Cost of the tickets is the same as the past few years and all seats are reserved. You will be able to purchase $5.00 seats, which puts you close to the stage, $4.00 seats, which aren't as close, but are still on the floor, and the $3.00 bleacher seats. After October 20, tickets may be reserved in person in the choir room, or by simply calling the high school at 626-8427, extension 5471. So set aside Friday, November 7, or Saturday, November 8 and get your tickets soon.

UWWC Announces Cast for 'Zombie Prom'

West Bend - The University of Wisconsin-Washington County's (UWWC) Theatre on the Hill is currently in rehearsal of Zombie Prom, written by John Dempsey with music by Dana Rowe. A cross between "Grease" and "Rocky Horror Show", Zombie Prom captures the 1950's Eisenhower American humor in a high school/rock and roll setting. "Wild, loud and crazy fun for all" is how Theatre Director, Brad Ford describes the fall musical production.

The setting is Enrico Fermi High School (EFHS), named for the father of the atom bomb. It's a seemingly normal high school with seemingly normal students. The strict, storm-trooping principal, Miss Delilah Strick (played by Mary Wittmann, West Bend) rules the school with an iron hand. Miss Strick senses trouble in Johnny Warner (played by Morgan Isle of Slinger), a transfer student. What's not so normal is the relationship between Johnny, a defiant teen who wins the affection of a classy girl named Toffee (played by Meaghan Morrissey, Slinger). When pretty Toffee bows to parental pressures and breaks up with him, Johnny takes a flying leap into the nearby power plant. He returns glowing - as a nuclear zombie - determined to take Toffee to the senior prom. Smelling a hot story, the editor of a scandal magazine, Eddie Flagante (played by George Caldwell, Fond du Lac) heads to EFHS.

The remaining six high school characters are right out of an Archie and Veronica type comic book. The names are not meant to be funny - but rather mocking of what used to be funny in the 1950's. UWWC students, Katie Steerman, Amanda Averill and Kori Nienow all of West Bend play the parts of Candy, Coco and Ginger. Jonny's friends include Joey, Josh and Jake and are played by UWWC students, Kevin Emmer, Slinger; Patrick Erdmann, Hartford; and T.J. Rosbeck, West Bend.

The high-energy, fun and fast-paced musical is directed and designed by Theatre Professor Brad Ford. Assisting Ford are Assistant Director, Nicki Neu and Technical Director Kelly Crandall, both of West Bend. Performances are planned for two consecutive weekends: Friday, October 31 and Saturday November 1 and Friday, November 7 and Saturday, November 8. Curtain time is 7:30 pm. The show is suitable for family viewing and a great way to celebrate the Halloween season.

Ticket prices are $8 for adults and $6 for seniors (over 62) and youth (under 18). For tickets and reservations, phone (262)-335-5208 (Monday through Friday 8am - 4:30pm).

The University of Wisconsin-Washington County is located at 400 University Drive (off Hwy. 33 West) in West Bend. For more information, visit the campus website at www.washington.uwc.edu.

OPINION - EDITORIAL

That's What I Think

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Editorial Staff

Football Coach Responds

I want to thank everyone for reading last weeks column and responding. Contained in this weeks column is a great response from football coach Jason Piittman who explains the rationale used for keeping our football greats out of the homecoming parade a few weeks ago.

Dear Mr. Kuehl:

I am writing response to your editorial regarding the football team and our procedures concerning the Homecoming parade.

First, rather than having sleepless nights over this, please contact me if you have questions concerning the football program and I would be glad to answer them for you.

Secondly, the people to whom I'm responsible, were made very aware of our procedure regarding parade participation and the rationale for it.

Those people would be the players and the high school administration. They understood the rationale, which I am about to explain.

The origin of Homecoming has to do with welcoming your school's alumni back to the community for festivities surrounding that week's football game. Although the members of the current student body are the participants in the festivities each year, the general idea is for the community, especially the alumni to be invited back for the parade, game, etc.

Homecoming has definitely changed over the years and has come to include many other organizations and athletic teams. In fact, some schools without football programs will hold Homecoming festivities based around a basketball or soccer game.

As you know, Mr. Kuehl, our homecoming opponent was the Kiel Raiders. Both schools are members of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. One of the goals of the football program each year is to compete for the EWC championship or to place as high as possible in the conference. Our conference record determines our eligibility for the WIAA Play-off series. These are two of the primary reasons our players are not involved in the parade. They are preparing physically and mentally for that night's game, just as they do for every other conference game.

The parade was scheduled to start (and has in the past) at 5:00 PM. For each game the team meets at approximately 5:30 PM and our kickers, holders, punters, passers, receivers, and long snappers take the field at 5:50 PM. It would be extremely difficult for the players representing the football team to be in the parade, return to school, be dressed, taped, etc. and ready to meet at 5:30. Could we change our routine for that game? Yes we could, but then we would also be changing something that has been working very well for us for the past four years.

One other reason we prefer to withhold the football players from participating in the parade is the fact that before I came to Kewaskum five years ago there was an incident in which a football player fell off the back of the car in which he was riding in the parade. I don't know much of the details surrounding that incident, but would prefer not to be missing a senior leader for the game.

One of our goals for our Homecoming game was to provide a great effort and hopefully a victory for our returning alumni, especially the players and coaches of the 1983 State Runner-up team. The most important goal we talked about throughout the week was for us (underclassmen and coaches) to be able to help these seniors help make a great memory of their senior Homecoming game, something they will remember at future class reunions with great pride.

Fortunately, things went well for us on the field Friday night and we were able to provide a great memory for these seniors.

Mr. Kuehl, as a member of the media you are afforded many opportunities to ask people the questions you have. Rather than trying to stir up a controversy, it would be greatly appreciated if you would talk to the people involved and try to get answers. I am at school almost every day from approximately 7:00 AM until 6:00 PM or later. You or any other player, parent, or community member can contact me any time and I will do my best to answer the questions that I am able to answer.

Thank you for your time and thank you for the citizens of the district for supporting your schools and programs.

Go Indians!

Sincerely,

Jason Piittmann

Rep. LeMahieu Works on Cost Savings For Local Governments

State Representative Dan LeMahieu (R-Oostburg), hearing the concerns of his local government officials with regards to state mandates and local employee health and salary concerns, joined with fellow state legislators to craft legislation intended to provide relief to local government budgets.

At a news conference held within the Capitol, Representative LeMahieu stated, "I believe that any long-term solution that government must make with regards to employee costs must include flexibility, so our local officials can operate their communities cost-effectively. Therefore, we have drafted legislation designed to increase local control and give local governments more opportunities to control costs, and increasing the savings to the local taxpayer."

The proposal outlined by LeMahieu and his legislative colleagues includes two bills encompassing six changes to current law relating to employment relations between local governments and their employees. The purpose of the proposal is to:

- ◆ Encourage prompt and fair settlement of public employee contracts;
- ◆ Making an impact on property tax rates a factor in public employee bargaining;
- ◆ Providing local governments with greater flexibility to work smarter and more efficiently.

The first bill dealing with changes to current mediation arbitration laws will change factors used by arbitrators. Specifically the proposal will require arbitrators to consider the impact of proposed settlements on the property tax rate, and restrict comparable wage comparisons to employees within the community. In addition, arbitration decisions should be based on economic conditions within the local community only. Furthermore, the bill will require arbitrators to specify in writing how they applied the factors that aided in their decisions. The bill will make contracting of services a prohibited subject of bargaining; eliminating the requirement that local government must negotiate the effect of contracting public services. Finally back pay would only be awarded if the arbitrator accepts the union's offer. It is the author's hopes that this will be an inducement to settle more quickly and avoid arbitration.

The second bill would require that newly hired employees must pay the first 3% of the approximately 5% of the employee's portion of their pension contribution. Comparing public employees to those in the private sector the legislators felt it was reasonable to ask newly hired employees to make a small contribution to their pension system. Employers will still be paying between 70 to 75% of all retirement contributions.

LeMahieu concluded, "It is my hope, and the hope of my colleagues that local government elected officials and employees will look at these two bills as opportunities to continue the act of fair bargaining, while at the same time, keeping the thoughts of those that ultimately pay our salaries, the taxpayers, in mind when settling wage and benefit contracts. It is not my intention to limit or decrease the amount of wages or benefits of the hard working local employees of the 59th Assembly District. Rather, I am using my opportunity as a state legislator to make the mediation arbitration process more open and fair to all parties involved, while continuing to remember first and foremost the local taxpayer."

Representative Dan LeMahieu, who was elected to serve the 59th assembly district, currently serves as Vice-Chairman of the Assembly Committee on Urban and Local Affairs. In addition, LeMahieu is a member of three other assembly committees.

Farmers' Computer and Internet Use on the Rise

MT. HOREB - In a survey conducted by SNG Research Corporation in March and April of this year, 225 farmers in Wisconsin and Minnesota with Gross Farm Incomes greater than $150,000 were surveyed. It was found that 78% had internet access. Of those, 18% purchased crop inputs, facilities or equipment for their farm over the internet, 31% visited web sites for financial information about farming or agriculture and 64% used the Internet as a source for general information about agriculture or farming.

"Computers and the internet are used today more than in past years," says Wendy Meyers, e-business specialist for Badgerland Farm Credit Services, Darlington, Wis., a member of the Wisconsin Farm Credit System. "Just the overall capabilities of a computer and the type of information available on the Internet have resulted in an increase in usage."

For farmers, the biggest benefit to using a computer and the internet is the availability of information 24 hours a day, seven days a week, says Meyers. A computer can streamline the record keeping process, as massive amounts of information pertaining to farm management and financial can be stored in one spot, saving time and money. With access to the internet, farmers can conveniently find marketing and other agricultural-related information, as well as make business transactions, without leaving the farm.

The most recent statistics from the Wisconsin Agricultural Statistics Service indicate computer and internet use among Wisconsin farmers is on the rise. In 2001, nearly 55% owned or leased a computer and 31% used it for their farm business, a 7% increase from 1999. The number of Wisconsin farmers with access to the Internet in 2001 was 46%, up from 33% in 1999.

As computer and Internet usage increases, online banking among farmers continues to gain in popularity. In the survey by SNG Research Corporation, 25% of the farmers with internet access were using online banking and 58% used or were very/somewhat likely to use online banking in the next three years.

"Online banking provides secure, convenient and visual access to account information and ACH (Automated Clearing House) transfers at any time," says Shelli Grover, director of market initiatives for AgStar Financial Services, Mankato, Minn., a member of the Wisconsin Farm Credit System. "With farmers' unique schedules, access to account and other information during non-traditional business hours is a huge timesaver."

The convenience of online banking, such as viewing account information and accessing customer statements, initiating online payments and disbursements, paying bills by direct deposit and applying for a loan from a farmer's own home, is very beneficial. Online banking capabilities can be taken to the next level by setting up payroll and sending it by direct deposit to employee's bank accounts online, and state withholding and unemployment taxes can even be paid online by direct deposit. Transactions can be set up to occur today, tomorrow, next week, a few months from now or even sometime next year, saving farmers both time and money.

"Client service is very important, so providing this avenue of convenience for our customers is critical to their continued success," says Grover.

Although computers and the internet are more user friendly than ever before, they can be overwhelming to those farmers who don't have experience with these tools. That's why Badgerland Farm Credit Services and AgStar Financial Services, as well as the other Farm Credit associations, have designed easy-to-use online banking websites and simple enrollment processes (for more information, visit www.badgerlandfcs.com or www.agstar.com). Plus there are specialists and other staff available to help those interested enter the world of online banking. Call 1-800-444-3276 to find the Farm Credit officer nearest you.

Labels to Warn Consumers About Lead Paint Hazards

Paint manufacturers have agreed to affix warning labels on their products as part of an agreement with attorneys general from 46 states, including Wisconsin. The agreement was reached with the National Paint and Coatings Association and requires paint manufacturers to affix warning labels on paint cans and provide consumer education and training, alerting consumers to the hazards of lead paint exposure and how to avoid it.

While lead paint has not been manufactured in the United States since 1978, it still presents a serious health risk, especially to young children. About 80% of homes built before that year contain lead, according to federal estimates. Children can be exposed to hazardous lead levels from ingesting lead dust on surfaces in the home generated during repair and renovation work. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that one million UW children under the age of six have high levels of lead in their blood.

The agreement requires both a lead exposure warning on the side of the can, as part of the manufacturers preparation instructions, and an abbreviated warning on the top of the can or a separate sticker where warning is less likely to be obscured once the paint is used. The agreement went into effect on September 30, 2003 and requires the warning label to be affixed to all paint cans for 19 months and provide consumer education and training from 2003 to 2007.

To learn more about working safely with lead paint, consumers should contact the Washington County Health Department at 262-335-4706 or 262-335-4740, the Environmental Protection Agency Lead Information Hotline, 1-800-424-LEAD (5323) or visit www.epa.gov/lead. ### United Way: Nearing 35 Percent Mark

At the October 3rd Report Meeting, the United Way of Washington County volunteers announced they are at the 34% mark, with $339,820 in gifts and pledges counted toward the county-wide goal of $1,000,001.

"We extend our heartfelt thanks to the businesses, individuals and organizations who have given so far," said James Hodges, Campaign Chair. "All of the divisions are making good progress," he stated.

"Our volunteers strongly believe in United Way's impact in giving people help and hope and changing lives through the various programs United Way funds," he said. Such programs include feeding the hungry, helping the homeless, providing services for the disabled, giving help to the terminally ill, and helping seniors, families and youth.

"Many of the funded programs focus on prevention, helping deter problems from escalating in our County," said Hodges. "And when problems escalate, the very expensive solution is often borne by the taxpayers."

The next report of funds raised will be announced at the Mid-Campaign Breakfast Report meeting on October 17th. "Our goal is to be at the 50% mark, or $500,000 by then," said Hodges. The event will be a "Halftime Report" theme, building on the football fun theme for this year's campaign. It will be held at The Threshold, one of 24 member agencies benefiting from this year's fund drive. Individuals attending include campaign volunteers, agency representatives, United Way Board members and other friends. Those attending will pay a nominal cost to attend.

Hodges commented, "Donor mailings to retirees and seniors in the county have been sent, and we're continuing to organize employee group campaigns." If a business is interested in having a campaign or hearing more about how United Way works in the community, they can contact United Way at 262-338-3821.

"Ninety-nine percent of funds raised stay here in Washington County, with local volunteers investing the funds in four key impact areas: Serving Children and Youth, Building Strong and Healthy Communities, Supporting and Strengthening Families and Meeting Basic Needs," said Hodges. "We're continuing a strong tradition of helping people in our area through our local United Way effort - a movement that started here in Washington County 67 years ago."

Fall Turkey Hunting Season Opens Oct. 11

MADISON -- Wisconsin's fall wild turkey hunting season opens Saturday, October 11 and state wildlife officials say turkey population estimates indicate hunters should again have another excellent year of turkey hunting.

There were 78,750 permits issued for the 30-day season that runs through Nov. 9. This is an increase of about 4,000 permits over the 2002 fall permit level, according to Keith Warnke, upland wildlife ecologist for the Department of Natural Resources.

Last year's (2002) fall harvest of 10,850 birds represented an overall success rate of 14.5 percent. The 2001 fall hunt produced 11,029 birds for a 15.4 percent success rate that year.

The Wisconsin turkey population now extends well into the northern part of the state. Expansion is occurring in part due to statewide mild winters, available habitat, and expanded habitat development and improvement. Revenue from the sale of the turkey stamps directly funds much of this habitat work. Warnke says that turkey reproduction appeared to be good to excellent this year, with broods seen throughout the state's wild turkey range.

During the fall, Warnke says, turkeys spend more than 90 percent of the daylight hours in hardwood habitats. "Both brood flocks and adult male flocks make extensive use of areas dominated by oak and hickory," he says. "Turkey hunters should monitor the acorn crop in the area they hunt, as the success or failure of acorns will determine where turkeys will be feeding. In years of poor acorn production, turkeys spend proportionately more time in cornfields."

DNR officials say that all successful applicants for the fall turkey season should have received their permit. A total of 91,082 people applied for fall permits this year, up from 86,997 in 2002. There were more than 74,300 hunters who received a single permit, and approximately 4,300 who received two permits. Drawings are held to issue the permits for units that have more applicants than permits available, with preference given first to landowners in the zone, second to Wisconsin residents, and third to non-residents.

Since most turkey hunting occurs on private land, it is important for hunters to keep landowner relationships a high priority. Landowners in Wisconsin are usually willing to allow hunters to use their land as long as they ask politely for permission to do so.

Blaze orange requirements are in place for turkey hunters again in 2003. Turkey hunters must wear at least 50 percent of blaze orange during the period Oct. 30-Nov. 2 in many areas due to the early Zone T antlerless gun deer hunt and the youth firearm deer hunt. Details are spelled out in the Wild Turkey Hunting Regulations Fall 2003 pamphlet available at any DNR service center or online through the DNR Web site. There are also blaze orange requirements in effect for turkey hunters due to special chronic wasting disease hunts in certain management units. Refer to the 2003 Wisconsin Deer Hunting Regulations prior to the turkey season.

Recreation safety specialists say there are some special safety concerns that hunters need to pay attention to when turkey hunting. Primarily, they need to be aware of other hunters in the field during this time, both turkey hunters and those pursuing other game. Turkey hunters should not stalk a turkey. A turkey hunter who tries stalking a calling turkey is often actually stalking another hunter. Turkey hunters who are wearing camouflage should let others know of their whereabouts by shouting out to them.

Girls Remain Undefeated In Conference Play

Beth Boedeker, Briana Bastian, Danielle DeGroot and Jill Wittmann wait for a return from a Falcon. The Indians showed no mercy to the Sheboygan Falls Falcons as they flew into town last Thursday.

By KYLE DARMODY
STATESMAN SPORTS WRITER
kdarmody@kewaskumstatesman.com

With dominating performances over Kiel, and Sheboygan Falls, the Kewaskum girls varsity volleyball team improved to 9-0 in conference play last week, in Kewaskum. Against Kiel, in Kewaskum on Tuesday, September 30 the Indians won by scores of 15-4, 15-11, and 15-0. "We just had more offensive weapons, and stayed very focused throughout the night," Indian volleyball head coach Dave Rizzardi said. "I was very happy with our seconds. They held Kiel to zero, which is very hard to do in volleyball, and we served very well. Jesse Butler served points one through nine," Rizzardi continued.

On Thursday, October 2, the Indians hosted Sheboygan Falls, on Parents Night for the Indians. The Indians dominated once again this time by scores of 15-4, 15-11, and 15-5. "Falls was probably our best opponent of this week, but our kids just outplayed them mentally, and had more offensive weapons," Rizzardi said.

The Indians week didn't end with the two conference matches however. They played in their last tournament of the regular season when they traveled to Oostburg on Saturday, October 5. In order to advance, the Indians had to play everyone in their pool and earn a good enough record to move on.

The Indians went 7-1 in their pool, beating Roncalli, Racine Park, and Oostburg all 2-0, and then splitting a contest with West Bend East. The 7-1 pool record was good enough to take first in their pool, and move on into the next round. In the next round they played the first place winners of another pool, that being Racine's St. Catherine's. The Indians went on to beat them 2-0, and advance to the championship bracket.

In the championships the Indians faced Kettle Moraine Lutheran, the defending Division Three State Champions. The Indians went on to lose both matches, but it was good enough for a second place finish in the tournament.

"It was a very good day. I was very pleased with the effort. We took advantage of opportunities to play some good Division One schools, but we just couldn't match KML's height," Rizzardi said, in relation to the Oostburg tournament.

The Indians now look to improve their 9-0 conference record when they travel to Plymouth for the final quad on the season, this Thursday, October 9.

Three National Hockey League teams have changed countries in which they play: the Atlanta Flames moved to Calgary in 1980, the Quebec Nordiques became the Colorado Avalanche in 1995, and the Winnipeg Jets became the Phoenix Coyotes in 1996.

KEWASKUM SPORTS

For KHS Boys Soccer Team, Second Time is Not a Charm

The second time through the Eastern Wisconsin Conference boys' soccer schedule is always difficult. There are no longer any surprises - for good or ill - to be had. Weaknesses have been exposed, strengths identified, strategies modified, revised and modified yet again. When the Kewaskum high school boys' soccer team faced New Holstein at home on Tuesday September 30 - Parents Night for the Indians - both teams brought the experience of previously playing to a hard-fought 1-1 tie with them to the soccer pitch.

This time however, New Holstein demonstrated they had learned the lessons of the first encounter and came away with a 3-0 win. Playing aggressively from the outset, Kewaskum attempted to manufacture goals by moving brothers Aaron and Jon Olla - two of the more aggressive ball-handlers for the Indians - to the offense. This strategy seemed at first to be working in Kewaskum's favor as they seemingly controlled the ball for much of the game. Unfortunately, the majority of shot-opportunities for KHS were taken from outside of the 18 yard box and either veered harmlessly off the mark or were readily scooped up by the New Holstein goalkeeper.

Despite the discrepancy in possession time, New Holstein opportunisticly capitalized on several Kewaskum defensive blunders in the back and breezed to a 3-0 shutout. Most disturbing for the Indians was a stark lack of composure in the second half of the match that adroitly demonstrated that the biggest obstacle to their continued consistent success on the soccer pitch for Kewaskum is themselves.

A similar lack of composure on the pitch befell the Indians in a rematch with Two Rivers which occurred on Thursday October 2. Previously losing to Two Rivers 3-1 at home, the Indians committed 17 fouls in the rematch at Two Rivers. Despite these mental lapses, the Indians kept the game close behind the twin efforts of Sophomores Frank Cole and Paul Gaynor on defense which kept the game scoreless until the second half. First blood was drawn by Junior Noah Olla who netted his fourth goal of the season off of a pass by Aaron Olla.

Unfortunately for Kewaskum, Two Rivers roared back in the waning minutes of the game when a Kewaskum yellow card enabled the Purple Raiders to take advantage of a speed mismatch around the corner to score the tying goal. Despite this potential morale-killer on a frigid October evening, Kewaskum buckled down in the first overtime to keep the score tied at 1-1. In the second overtime, however, Two Rivers was able to score when another penalty by the Indians just outside the box enabled the home team to net the victory 2-1.

The two losses dropped Kewaskum's record to 2-6-1 in the conference but with upcoming conference games at Sheboygan Falls, Campbellsport and at home against State Champion Plymouth, the Indians can look to improve as a soccer team and head into the state tournament on a positive note.

The Grand Slam in golf is made up of the Masters, the U.S. Open, the British Open and the PGA Championship.

KHS Girls Golf Team Advances to Sectionals

The competition was as stiff as the wind that was blowing at Hon-E-Kor for the regional golf tournament that featured Kewaskum hosting the strongest competition in the area on October 1st. Temperatures stayed in the 40's which put the course in line to separate the true golfers in the field. Fond du Lac placed first, largely on the shoulders of junior Ann Marie Szubowski who had a round of 36 on the front nine and finished with a 39 on the white nine. The team score for Fond du Lac was a 378. Sheboygan finished second with a 386, Oshkosh West shot 395 and Kewaskum was the fourth qualifier with a 400. Other team scores included West Bend West 411, Oshkosh North 440, Beaver Dam 457, Two Rivers and West Bend East 482.

The Kewaskum team was again led by Crystal Dreher with a 95 and Katie Kowalczyk with a 97. Both senior golfers have been consistently improving as has the team throughout the season. Other counting scores for the Lady Indians included a 101 by Cassie Rimmel and a 107 by Nicole Rimmel.

The top four teams from the Kewaskum regional and the Waukesha South regional met at Old Hickory in Beaver Dam on October 8th with the top two teams and top two individuals headed for the state tournament at University Ridge in Madison on October 13 and 14. Individual qualifiers from the regional include the top three golfers who are not members of the top four teams. Those individual qualifiers are Clair Peplinski from West Bend West with a 95, Shasta Thomson from Oshkosh North with a 102 and Samantha Larson with West Bend West with a 103.

The team also finished their conference season to hold onto third place in the Little Ten. The last meet, held at Hartford Country Club saw Crystal Dreher shoot the best round for KHS with a 48. Members of the varsity golf team include Lisa Beck, Nicole Rimmel, Cassie Rimmel, Katie Kowalczyk, Kate Korth and Crystal Dreher.

Indians Back to Even

With just six points scored on offense, the Kewaskum varsity football team, fell to Two Rivers 6-14 last Friday, October 3 in Two Rivers, giving the Raiders their first win of the year.

The Raiders started the scoring off in the second quarter on a two yard run. With the failed extra point, the Raiders led at half-time, 6-0.

In the third quarter, the Raiders struck again on a one yard run. Again failing the extra point, the Raiders increased their lead to 12.

The Raiders got it done on defense when they converted a safety, giving them the 14-0 lead. The Indians finally got on the board late in the third quarter when Dave Wicklund ran one in from 80 yards out. The two point conversion failed and the Indians trailed 14-6, which is how it eventually ended.

Leading the Indians was Wicklund, who touched the ball 20 times for 105 yards. He was also 2-9 passing for 40 yards and an interception. Wicklund also contributed on defense by picking off a Raider pass.

Brett Zimdars also contributed on defense when he recovered a fumble for the Indians. Ryan DeLaurier also had a nice game on the ground when he touched the ball 12 times for 83 yards.

The Indians, now 2-2 in conference, and 3-3 overall, travel to Sheboygan Falls on Friday, October 10, before hosting Campbellsport the following Friday, October 17.

Tequila, indigenous to Mexico, is obtained from the heart-sap of the mesquite cactus.

Please feel welcome to enjoy Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival. Please take the time to support our local businesses and organizations, who have made this festival possible.

In May of 2003 a group of local individuals, concerned about their community formed. They decided to call themselves, Friends of Kewaskum.

They decided at their first meeting that being a friend of Kewaskum, they could not let Kewaskum's largest festival just die.

The first order of business was to take over the festival from the Kewaskum Chamber, after members of that group decided not to sponsor the event after 13 years.

This year will be the 14th annual Kettle Kountry Kolors. The Friends of Kewaskum group decided that with a new group running the festival there should be many new things to attract people to the festival.

The first new thing will be the dance and fish boil on Friday night to kick-off the festival. More information can be found on page three.

The Children's Tent, being run by Dodie Sargent, owner of Little Folks Schoolhouse and teachers from her center has been completely revamped. More information can be found in this guide.

The Gateway Gobblers has discontinued their BB gun shoot and will move to the east side of the river to hold a fishing contest for those under 16. This event will take place on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Of course, not everything has been changed. JoAnn Hall has again organized a terrific craft tent. JoAnn is also responsible for the great food at the festival. A list of vendors can also be found in this guide. The make-n-take craft center is also returning courtesy of JoAnn.

The Buckskinner encampment and marketplace along the Milwaukee River, has returned on the west side of the river, along with the talent show/lip sync contest which will be held Saturday at 3 p.m. in the Sno Chief's pavillion..

Kettle Kountry Kolors has always been a FREE family fun festival. Originally it was decided the festival was a "gift" to area residents from local businesses to thank them for shopping here and supporting the local businesses. Please don't forget to continue doing so.

Without the support of local businesses and civic organizations donating money, time and manpower Kettle Kountry Kolors would

Kettle Kountry Kolors Adds Dance, Fish Boil

BY LANA HARBECK KUEHL
STATESMAN EDITOR
lharbeck@kewaskumstatesman.com

An exciting new feature has been added to kick off this year's Kettle Kountry Kolors family festival here in River Hill Park, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 10, 11 and 12.

The Friends of Kewaskum, new sponsors of the annual event, have announced the festivities will begin on Friday, October 10, with a fish boil and dance.

The fish boil will begin at 5 p.m. and is being prepared by Chefs Craig Gloede and Dawn Lubberts of Woody's Steakhouse of Kewaskum. The fish boil plate will include a 12-14 ounce portion of haddock, potato salad, cole slaw and rye bread. "Woody" Kleinhans, owner of the Steakhouse, has pledged to donate $1.00 of every plate sold to the Washington County Dive Team.

The dance is being sponsored by Modern Woodmen of America Insurance, under the guidance of local agent, Jeff Jaeger. Live music by Gary Cross is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. and the fun will continue until 10 p.m.

Your friendly bartenders from the Kewaskum Sno Chiefs will be taking care of the refreshments portion of the dance. Their bar will be open at 5 p.m. and continue throughout the dance.

Along with the entertainment, Jeff has stated there will be lots of special raffles and games available for your enjoyment during the dance.

All proceeds from the dance will also be donated to the Washington County Dive Team.

Jeff commented that the dance will be a Modern Woodmen Matching Funds event, which means that all monies raised (up to a designated amount) by Jeff and his helpers, will be matched by the Modern Woodmen, which actually doubles the donation made to the County Dive Team fund.

The Friends of Kewaskum will also be sponsoring a booth at the dance and are planning to sell their special homemade desserts and hot chocolate inside the beer garden.

They will also have their raffle tickets available. The Kettle Kountry Kolors raffle prizes this year will include an authentic Brett Favre football print, autographed by the famous quarterback. Another prize will be a special evening on the town package for you and your friends. It will include a chauffeur driven limousine, complete with champagne, and a dinner certificate.

Woody, Jeff, the Kewaskum Sno Chiefs and the Friends of Kewaskum, all invite you to come up to River Hill Park on Friday, October 10 to help kick-off the Kettle Kountry Kolors festivities. And don't worry about the weather. The beer garden will be completely tarped and in the event of cool or inclement weather, heaters will be strategically placed inside.

The football team is out of town, so slip on a warm jacket, come on up to the park and enjoy some real good food, lots of refreshments and a good time with your friends, knowing that any money you care to spend is going to an assortment of good causes. What a great way to kickoff a special weekend in Kewaskum!

Wonderful Shows to Be Features in Childrens Tent

Shown above is Dave Parker who will be performing with his friends in the Children's Tent at Kettle Kountry Kolors

By Nicole Kuehl
Statesman Staff

Wonderful and enlightening shows will be in abundance in the Children's Tent at this year's Kettle Kountry Kolors. The tent will be located east of the "bingo" stand.

To start off the weekend, Magician Pat O'Hearn will have his show at 11 a.m. O'Hearn's show "Magic with a Message" is a magic show combined with messages on making good choices on things like drug awareness, gun and bike safety as well as helping to boost self-esteem.

Pat incorporates his 13 years as a Police Officer and D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) Officer into teaching kids about making good choices.

Next up in the Children's Tent are the Reed Marionettes. They will be performing at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday. The Reed Marionettes have been putting on shows for 50 years. The company is well known for superb manipulation, finely crafted puppets and quality stories that educate as well as entertain.

Their show "Jest for Fun" is a series of comedy vignettes performed by a wide variety of puppets including marionettes, rod and hand puppets as well as robotics. The show includes Frankie, who recites poetry and does a comedy routine, the robot who emcees the show, and a very rare "Flugalhonker" bird which interacts with the audience. There is also an uplifting story about a gardener and his garden and a performance by the world's oldest, smallest musician.

Naturalist David Stokes will finish out the day with his program "Laugh with the Animals" at 4 p.m. He will also present his show on Sunday at 1 and 3 p.m. David's program includes songs, stories, riddles and hands-on activities with natural objects and live animals where possible.

David has been educating adults and children since 1972. He held numerous posts in the Milwaukee Audubon Society and worked for the Schlitz Audubon Center. He is now an independent consultant for nature centers, schools, parks and families throughout the U.S. and Canada offering workshops and other programs.

On Sunday, ventriloquist Dave Parker will be performing at 2 p.m. Dave has been a professional musician for more than 25 years. He added ventriloquism to his performance 19 years ago. He has been the opening act for magician David Copperfield.

David counts several "dummies" among his best friends. These include Skippy, Claire, Bat-Man, Quackenbush and Safety Dog. Dave and his crew are sure to entertain all!

In addition to the shows, there will also be a lego table, where children may play as long as they like and a special coloring contest. All events in the Children's Tent were coordinated by Dodie Sargent of Little Folks Schoolhouse, Wayne.

In addition to the events in the Children's Tent, there will be other kid oriented things to do throughout the park. So come on out and join in this year's Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Leave the Diet at Home When Coming to Kettle Kountry Kolors

Food selections at the 14th Annual Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Festival of Entertainment scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 10, 11th and 12th will be numerous and certainly please even the most finicky eater.

Whether you are just looking for some munchies or something a little more filling, it will be available at River Hill Park, Kewaskum, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Kicking off the food temptations will be Woody's Steakhouse fish boil on Friday evening before the opening dance. The fish boil will include a piece of 12-14 oz. haddock with potato salad and rye bread.

Starting at the south end of the park we have the Kewaskum Sno-Chief's who will be serving hot ham sandwiches, chili, and hot and cold drinks. Treat the family to their Pancake Breakfast on Sunday morning from 8 to 11 a.m. where the Sno-Chiefs will be serving up a great meal to start up your day.

In the south food-stand, Woody and his crew from Woody's Steakhouse will be serving up BBQ/plain pork sandwiches and his famous chicken enchilada soup.

Next to Woody's will be another Kewaskum favorite, The Silver Platter Family Restaurant who will be serving breakfast pizza Saturday morning, homemade desserts, German sausage soup, pizza, taco salads, chicken dumpling soup, coffee and soda.

Returning again this year, between the south food stand and kitchen, Black Sheep Concessions will be offering funnel cakes, nachos, lemonade, spiral spuds, slush puppies, cheese curds, fried Snickers candy bars and Oreos.

The Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club will be serving hot dogs, hot pretzels, breadsticks and caramel apples in the new refurbished Kiwanis Kitchen.

The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club will lure one's appetite with everyone's Wisconsin favorite, brats and hamburgers, cheeseburgers, hot dogs, french fries, cheese fries and onion rings.

Then there's the chocolate... Julia Desterhott from Julie's Butter Cream Fudge will be bringing her fresh, yummy, mouth-watering homemade fudge, snack mixes, cappuccino and popcorn. Julia will be located along the main park area path on the south side of the band shelter.

On the north side a new vendor, Cruisin Concessions will serve deep fried candy bars, malts, fish-n-chips, cheese curds, mozzarella sticks and curly cheese fries.

At the end of the park Mike's Country Meats will be serving hot turkey sandwiches, their locally famous beef jerky and sausage. They will also be offering assorted cheeses and black popcorn.

Walking up the other side of the park try a grilled steak sandwich, hot dog or beer and soda offered by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce in the north food pavilion.

Butter Rose Concessions will be offering mini dough-

Jim Reigle, left and Gene Bohn grill experts frying brats and hamburgers at last year's festival. The Kiwanis Club will be serving from the kitchen they re-built with the Kewaskum Fire Department this summer.

nuts, caramel apple chips, stuffed pretzels, cotton candy, soda, popcorn, nachos, soda, water and snowcones.

What a variety! One could eat all day and never eat the same thing twice! Take a break from the kitchen, bring your appetite and let your favorite chefs at River Hill Park do the cookin' during Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Go Home a Raffle Winner After Kettle Kountry Kolors

Shown above is a view of the Brett Favre print that is up for raffle at Kettle Kountry Kolors. Below is a view of one of the luxurious limousines from Phase 1 Limousine Service of West Bend that will be used for a second raffle called night on the town.

Three exciting raffles are being held in conjunction with this year's Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors to help fund the FREE entertainment at the festival. The organizers, Friends of Kewaskum, encourage everyone to enjoy the show but PLEASE help support the festival by taking a chance on some of their raffles.

The first raffle is for an authentic Brett Favre autographed print. This print is framed and matted and comes with a certificate of authenticity. Included on the back of the print is a photo of Favre signing the print.

The second raffle is a night on the town. A chauffeured limousine by Phase 1 Limousine Service of West Bend will pick you up at your door. The evening will also include a bottle of champagne and dinner at the Idlewile Inn located in St. Cloud.

The third prize is a Ducks Unlimited print donated by Joe Berres Insurance of Campbellsport.

Tickets are now on sale at the Kewaskum Statesman, Mike's Country Meats and Kuehl's Suds & Spirits all of Kewaskum. They will also be available through out the weekend at the festival for $1 each or six for $5.

Tickets can also be purchased at the Friday night kick-off dance.

The weekend will also include other games and raffles.

Drawing for the prizes will be Sunday at 4:30 p.m. and you do not need to be present to win.

KEYS Run/Walk Oct. 12

October 12 marks the 10th annual KEYS Run/Walk which raises money for Kewaskum youth scholarships. Each year KEYS administers 22 scholarships which total $67,000 in awards to graduating seniors. Since its beginning, KEYS has given out $512,000 to assist high school seniors with college and vocational school education.

Registration forms for the KEYS Run/Walk are available at all our Kewaskum schools as well as at the Statesman office, Miller's Furniture, all SynergyHealth offices and the West Bend Savings Bank. Many other Kewaskum area businesses support the race and have registration blanks available to form company teams. Registrations can be turned in at local schools or sent to Kewaskum High School, PO Box 124.

Entry fees for the race have remained the same as last year. Preregistration cost is $15 per person or $50 for a family of four. Additional family members can be included in the family registration for only $10 each. On race day the registration fee increases to $20. As always, registration includes a t-shirt especially designed for the race this year.

The race begins at 11 a.m. on the west side of Kewaskum's River Hill Park on Sunday, October 12. Winners in the many age groups will compete for medals as well as cash prizes. KEYS presents a challenge again this year to break the course record by beating the men's time of 14:27 or the women's time of 17:38. Breaking either record is worth an additional cash prize of $200.

As in past years, pledge incentives are being offered to all who register for the race and collect pledges for KEYS. Mountain bikes, sweatshirts, and movie passes are just some of the prizes for collecting various amounts of pledge money.

KEYS, Inc. is a non-profit, all volunteer organization. Come and join hundreds of other runners and walkers for the race on October 12 and stay for the fun and food at Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Vast Array of Crafts at Festival

Lori Severance will have a wide variety of Peek-a-Boo dolls

For those of you who would like to get a start on your holiday shopping, attend the Kettle Kountry Kolers Festival October 11 and 12 to find that unique gift for everyone on your list.

What could be more special than a handmade craft that was hand-picked by you as one of your personal favorites to give to someone you care for?

This year there are new faces and lots of the same ones in the craft area. There will be embroidered sweatshirts, t-shirts and jackets. Again there will be peek-a-boo dolls and life-like dolls. As always, there will be a huge variety of holiday items such as scarecrows, pumpkins, baskets and ornaments.

The following is a list of some of the many crafters and artisans that will be displaying their crafts at the festival this year. Some are new faces with many of the favorites returning for another year.

Patsy Schulz of Allenton will be returning for her 13th year with her beautiful array of wedding accessories and photo albums.

For the little ones, Otto Krueger from Midwest Industries of Oshkosh will be selling Yo-Yo balloons, stove top hats, princess halos and other kiddie novelties.

Lori Severance of West Bend will once again be featuring peek-a-boo dolls and painted furniture.

Shown above is a view of the make-n-take craft booth inside the Sno-Chiefs Pavilion

This is the 14th year for JoAnn Hall and her make-it-and-take-it crafts at Kettle Kountry Kolors. JoAnn will be assisted this year by Lucille Theusch.

They do make-it-take-it projects including ceramics. All projects fit in the 4-H program. JoAnn has been a Fond du Lac county leader for 12 years, has worked with the fair for 14 years and was a fair judge for 10 years.

Some of the make-and-take items they do are ceramics, towel painting and scenes in a jar.

Things they make to sell besides the ceramics are holiday dolls including witches, and Mr. and Mrs. Santa Clauses, Raggedy Ann and Andys, decorative lamps, baby items, crochet items, doilies and towels.

Make sure you stop in to see them and make that special, personalized Christmas gift for someone special.
