Track athletes who place in their conference meets are good. Those who advance from the regional to sectional competition are better, and only those who qualify for the WIAA State Meet can be considered the best, the cream of the crop.

That being the case, Kewaskum High can boast it has plenty of cream as three girls qualified in individual events, along with all three relays, and one boy will be traveling to La Crosse this weekend along with the boys 4x400-meter relay after competing in the Kewaskum sectional, which drew 500 athletes.

Leading the KHS contin-gent is junior Amanda Magnus, who amazingly qualified to compete in four events in the state competition. She may be the first girl in school history to qualify for four events at state.

"Awesome ... very impressive," KHS Coach Jerry Gosa said about Magnus' effort. She placed second in the long jump, with a personal-best jump of 16 feet, 10 and 3/4 inches (16-10.75), and was a member of the first-place 4x400 relay team, the fourth place 4x200 unit and the third place 4x100 team.

All Magnus could say about her day was, it was "cool."

"My best at the beginning was 16-2," Magnus said about her long jumping in the preliminaries. Then, in the finals, she went 14-9, scratched on her second attempt and finally broke lose with the 16-10.75.

"I was pretty warmed up," Magnus said about her final jump, indicating the recent improvement in the relays was definitely a case of "everyone becoming more focused," and extra coaching help provided on handoffs by former Carroll College coach, Richard Vargas.

The 4x200 was the first team to qualify for state, and the quartet of Amanda Donath, Magnus, Lindsay Keller and Jessie Butler seemed to break the ice for the remainder of the meet.

They combined to finish fourth — the top four finishers in each event were automatic qualifiers — with a time of 1 minute, 48 and .67 seconds (1:48.67), which was 1.53 seconds faster than they ran at the Grafton regional on May 24.

Gosa said he remarked to Vargas if the girls could qualify

New Village Zoning Ordinance Passes 4-2

By AMY SWANSON
 STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
 aswanson@kewaskumstatesman.com

After five years, three village presidents and countless hours of work, the Kewaskum Village Board adopted a revised zoning ordinance into law last Tuesday with a roll call vote of 4-2.

According to Matt Heiser, Village President, the Village Planning Commission with help from Dan Schmidt, village administrator and Rick Kania of SEWRPC combed through the book of ordinances one at a time, reviewing and revising where needed.

In March, a preliminary draft of the ordinances was rolled out for public input, while the plan commission waited for final approval from the DNR and FEMA.

A public hearing was held on the final draft at a joint meeting between the village board and the plan commission last Tuesday. Although there were no concerns from private citizens, Trustee Kevin Scheunemann suggested the

Sheriff's Deputies Investigate Over 30 Vandalisms at Picnic

By ANDREW KUEHL
 STATESMAN MANAGING EDITOR
 akuehl@kewaskumstatesman.com

Washington County Sheriff's deputies may have suffered a severe case of writer's cramp late Saturday night and well into the morning on Sunday. Over 30 vehicles were vandalized well their owners were showing support for the Boltonville Fire Department's Rain Days.

Lieutenant Buck of the Sheriff's Department stated his department is busy investigating each vandalism case. The department received its first call at 11:47 p.m. and the calls quickly multiplied.

Most of the vehicles involved were parked along Scenic Drive and Boltonville Road, a few feet from the festivities. Purses were the hot item taken. One victim, when realizing her ATM card was taken immediately called to cancel the card, upon doing so the victim learned the thieves already removed $500 from her checking account.

Sunday, a Kewaskum Police Officer was dispatched to PJ Magoo's for purses found in their dumpster.

Lt. Buck is asking for anyone to come forward with any information if they witnessed anything either at the Rain Days at the time prior to the first call in the vicinity mentioned above. All calls are confidential, the Sheriff's Department can be reached at 262-335-4378.

POLICE REPORTS

On April 30, Kewaskum Police received a radio call to meet a subject at their office to report a theft.

The complainant stated that her vehicle had been vandalized and items were removed from it. The items were removed on the 10th, and because of that it was impossible to track any physical evidence left on the vehicle.

There are no suspects at this time.

On May 1, Kewaskum Police were met at their office by a complainant.

He stated that his building had been vandalized. The officer stated that he had seen the damage on Friday. The unknown actors either drove in with the front bumper of a car or backed into it using a truck with a trailer hitch. When the vehicle drove away, one or two boards were pulled away from the garage.

The officer stated that he thought it would be next to impossible to find out who caused the damage because there was no paint transfer.

There are no suspects at this time.

On May 9, Kewaskum Police received a complaint regarding a criminal damage to property.

The complainant stated that his truck had been egged.

On May 10, the officer was dispatched to the same residence for a vehicle that had oil or some other sticky substance on it.

There are no suspects at this time.

****

On May 12, the school liaison officer was advised by the Assistant Principal of the high school of a complaint.

The Asst. Principal stated that the science teacher at KHS observed and heard a student yelling obscenities at another student.

A citation was issued to the student for disorderly conduct.

On May 13, the school liaison officer received information from the Asst. Principal at the high school that a student had shown up at an after school study hall with nothing to do.

The student was told to find something to do and became extremely disruptive.

The student was issued a citation and was given a suspension.

****

On May 13, the school liaison officer received a complaint from the Asst. Principal.

The student was yelling obscenities at another student and when asked to stop he continued.

The student received a conduct referral and a citation was mailed to him. He was also issued a three day suspension.

****

On May 13, the school liaison officer was advised by the Asst. Principal of a student that had possibly been drinking.

The student stated that she had not been drinking, however the officer could detect a faint smell of alcohol. When asked to blow into a breathalyzer, she agreed and blew a .032.

At this time the student admitted to mixing alcohol with her soda. The student was given a First Time Offender referral and a three day suspension. She was then released to her mother.

Dettmann 'Elected' Mayor of Boltonville

Mayor Norb Dettmann, upper left receives a proclamation from Boltonville Sesquicentennial Chairman Ann Enright. Shown in the foreground is an exact replica of Boltonville from the early 1900's. The idea came to Dettmann in the fall of 2002 right after the Sesquicentennial planning began. According to Enright, Dettmann squeaked ahead to victory by just three votes over his neighbor Elmer Belger. Tavern owner Bill Enright received 143 votes. The voting was a fundraiser for the Sesquicentennial and those voting paid $1 for each vote. Dettmann's official duties start on June 26 when the festivities are kicked off at the Boltonville Fire Station at 8 a.m. The Statesman will feature weekly updates and announcements of the upcoming festivities in Boltonville. Anyone having old photos of the Boltonville area are asked to submit them to celebrate this 150 year heritage.

Drivers in Two USH 45 Crashes Die

BY ANDREW KUEHL
STATESMAN MANAGING EDITOR
akuehl@kewaskumstatesman.com

Two drivers in two separate crashes that occurred on USH 45 have died as a result of the injuries they received in the separate crashes.

Marilyn S. Klippel, 77 passed away at Froedtert Memorial Hospital in Milwaukee on May 27. She was the driver in a crash that occurred on May 21 in the Town of Barton just north of Friendly Drive. Klippel was Washington County's sixth traffic fatality of 2004.

Melvin O. Seibel, 75 of West Bend passed away at Froedtert Memorial Hospital in Milwaukee on May 29 at 11:22 a.m. Seibel was the driver in a May 6, three vehicle crash that occurred in the Town of Kewaskum just south of CTH H/Badger Road.

An obituary can be found in this edition. Seibel was Washington County's sixth traffic fatality.

Amanda Herriges and Scott Rady worked on the miniature Boltonville village as part of an art project at Kewaskum High School. The replica will be on display at the Boltonville Sesquicentennial festivities on June 26 and 27.

Weather Forces Memorial Day Celebrations Inside

'Friends of the Library' To Meet June 14

SFC Shawn A. Russo addressed a packed Rose Hall at Kewaskum High School on Memorial Day. Russo's address highlighted those who gave their life on September 11, 2001 who were not in the military. He closed his address by also honoring those in Iraq.

Members of the West Bend VFW Honor Guard and Firing Squad demonstrated the correct procedure for folding a flag while ceremony organizer Marlene Domasky announces what each fold represents. The flag was later given to a family member of a veteran buried in the Fillmore Union Cemetery. Also addressing the over 50 in attendance were Farmington Elementary students who spoke of World War II. The keynote speaker for the service was Assemblyman Daniel Lemahieu. Lemahieu honored those who have given their life in service to our country saying "We struggle to find the right expressions to convey our gratitude for the gift of freedom they provided." He then spoke of another war being waged on American soil, a "culture war." He addressed the younger attendees, "teenagers, they want you to believe that sexual immorality, deviant behavior, dishonesty for person gain and eliminating the Christian religion from all areas of our lives should not only be accepted as normal but should be promoted in the name of political correctness and diversity." He went on "parents, grandparents, church leaders, friends you need to enter this battle. This is one battle we can't afford to lose." "What does this have to do with Memorial Day? Not only does this cultural battle affect the future of the traditional family, the ability to practice your Christian faith in all areas of your life and many other things we take for granted. It also threatens patriotism, freedoms we enjoy and service like the one we are participating in this morning." He later honored all of the fallen Wisconsin men and women who gave their lives in Iraq fighting for our freedom.

Are you among the growing number of village residents who are pleased with improvements made in the library in recent years? Do you want to see even more books and more DVDs at the library, and more programs offered there?

If your answer to the above questions is yes, circle the date June 14th on the calendar. That's the date a new group, Friends of the Library, will officially meet for the first time.

The idea originated from dialogue during Library Board meetings, and both Steve Baker, the head librarian, and Village President Matt Heiser, who also serves as the village board representative on the Library Board, concur the initiative could have very positive results.

Heiser said currently the promotion of the library and fund-raising projects fall on the members of the Library Board, and by creating a larger base of volunteers, more projects can be undertaken.

Heiser said the board's plan is to have "Friends" set up a master document to define its role. "We're trying to get people who are interested (in the library) to attend," he said.

"They would set up fund-raising events," Baker said, indicating other projects members of the "Friends" group could undertake are decorating the library for holidays, assisting in the summer reading program and helping with publicity. Already the latter portion of the project must be under way because more people are taking advantage of the library's offerings.

"We've seen our circulation increase every year since I've been here," Baker said. "We definitely have a corps group in the community who use the library," and, "It seems like people are happy with the selection we have here."

"We know there are people out there to help the library. We've just got to organize it (the help)," Heiser said, referring to a project about a year ago when volunteers put new numbers on all 25,000 books in the library so the library would be connected to a new circulation system, using new computer software.

Heiser said Baker, who has been the librarian for three and a half years, would determine future needs of the library not financed through the village's budget, then the "Friends" would work toward obtaining those items.

Two areas Baker points to as future needs are an enlargement of the DVD offerings and an expansion of programs for adults in the community.

"I would love to have more programs for adults," Baker said, explaining with more funds, he could bring in authors from Wisconsin to speak at the library, and he could also possibly expand the computer offerings. "We could have more specialized computer teachers come in," he said.

Heiser is also proud of the village's library facility. "I love it. It is actually very full, very busy for a library its size," he said.

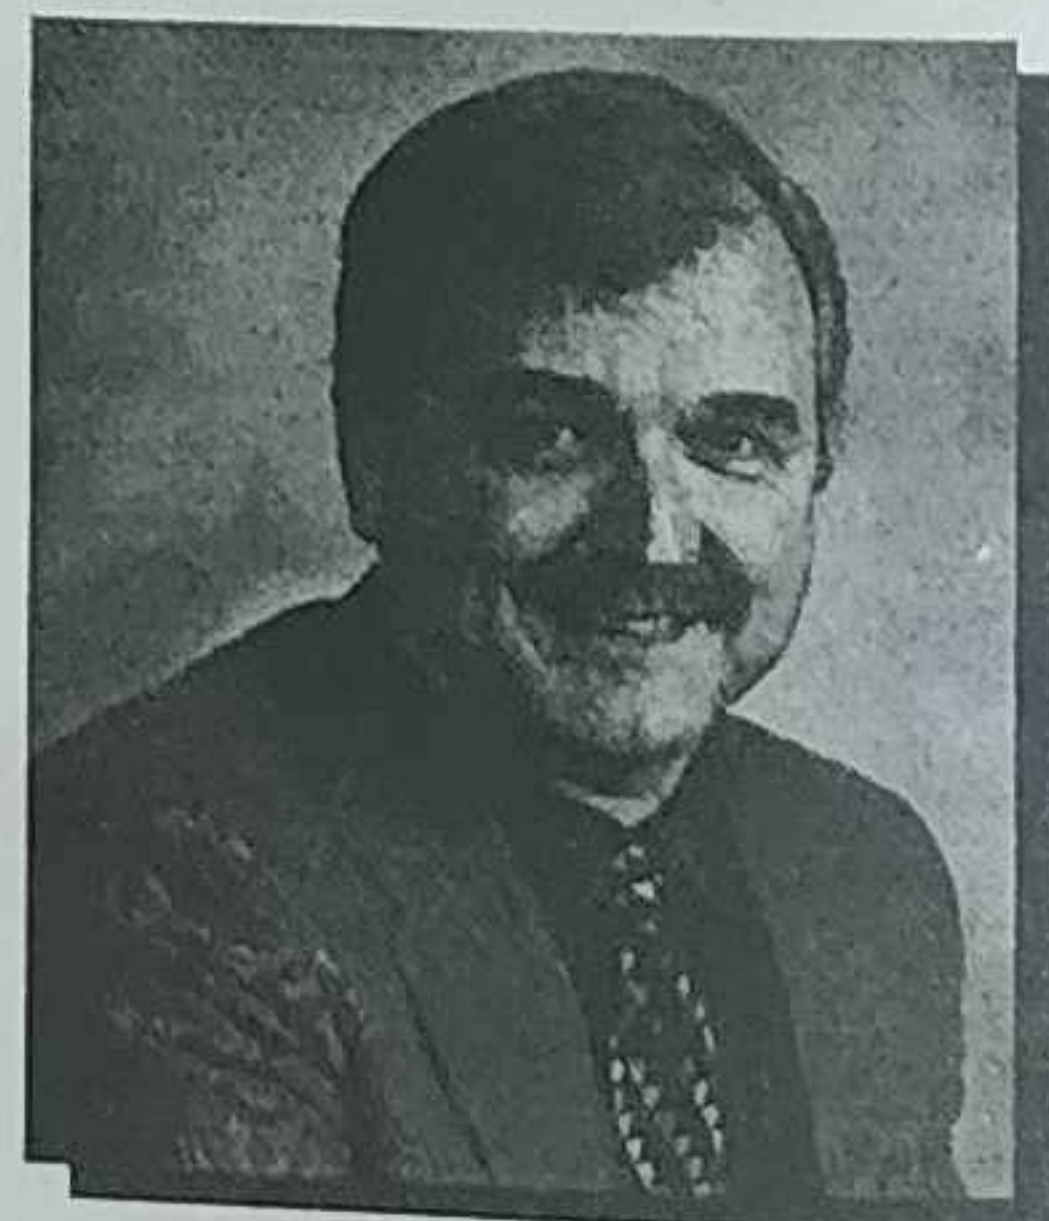

The meeting on the 14th will be held in the Community Room of the Village Hall. It will start at 7 p.m.

Last Minute Donation Sweetens Fundraiser for Bronkhorst Family

Eager buyers await purchasing ice cream from a semi donated by Perron Trucking of Campbellsport. Ice cream lovers were able to purchase half gallons of their favorite flavor for $2 each.

Almost $2,000 was raised for the Bronkhorst family who lives in Kewaskum. A fundraiser was held for two daughters of Lisa Bronkhorst who received a multitude of injuries in an auto accident in May.

thanks to Ed Larson, owner of Erin Enterprises in Campbellsport. Larson saw the fundraiser being advertised in The Statesman and he just happened to have a whole semi load of the dairy treat.

Larson called The Statesman office Thursday and got in touch with a family friend of Lisa Bronkhorst saying he wanted to donate the ice cream for the social. By Friday his excitement grew, he called The Statesman again and said he wanted to donate the entire truckload to benefit the girls. Thus an ice cream frenzy began. Local media also latched onto the story and got the word out and by Sunday the parking lot at the Kewaskum Municipal Annex was parked full along with First Street. By the end of the day $1,815 was raised.

As far as conditions of the two girls, Amy is still considered very serious at Children's Hospital. Ashley has been released and is undergoing therapy at home.

Make-A-Wish Program Beams Disney for Kewaskum Girl

Submitted Photo

By SHERI BALDIKOWSKI
STATESMAN FEATURES EDITOR
sbaldikowski@kewaskumstatesman.com

Twelve year old Christina Behling, daughter of Tammy and Todd Behling of Kewaskum, was the recent recipient of a wish granted by the Make-A-Wish (MAW) Foundation. Christina, her nine-year-old brother, Michael, her grandmother, Sheila Clement, and her parents were all treated to a trip to Disney World this past April.

MAW Foundation of Wisconsin grants wishes to children with life-threatening medical conditions to enrich their life experiences, as well as their families, with hope, strength, and joy. Many people think that MAW works with children on their "last wish," which is very much not the case. In fact, MAW has children who've had their wishes granted several years ago who have since become volunteers or are involved with MAW in other ways.

Christina has Cerebral Palsy, is legally blind and has respiratory problems among some of her health problems. She is confined to a wheelchair, has had a feeding tube since age three, and cannot do anything on her own. She develops pneumonia often due to her respiratory problems and must be admitted to Children's Hospital in Milwaukee whenever it occurs.

It is not uncommon for Tammy to drive to Children's Hospital twice in a day and back home again when Christina is there.

It was Dr. Himmelstein at Children's Hospital in Milwaukee who referred Christina to Make-A-Wish last March, as he knew she was an avid Disney fan and loves to listen to all the programs on the Disney Channel.

To qualify for a wish, children must be between the ages of two and eighteen and only a doctor, social worker, parent or child can make a referral for a wish. Children also cannot have had another wish granted by another wish-granting organization.

The average cost of a wish is $5,000 and the maximum varies depending on the wish, however, budgets and guidelines are set. The grant was originally for the immediate Behling family, but since grandma Sheila assists a great deal with Christina's care, both at home and at the hospital, the doctor also wanted her to go along to help out. So, MAW got the ball rolling and a special donor came forward to defray expenses so grandma could also go along.

Prior to departure, many plans had to be made above and beyond the usual vacation plans. First and foremost, Christina had to fly in an airplane that provided oxygen. This was an onerous task, as oxygen on board most planes is used only for a short while and many planes are not equipped to maintain a constant supply of oxygen for a long trip. Furthermore, once you find a plane you may not be able to get right on a particular flight as there can be only two people on the plane that can use the oxygen.

Christina's medical suitcase had to include a Nebulizer machine which breaks up secretions and helps her breath better, as well as a finger pulse detector which measures her oxygen content.

Once at Disney, an oxygen and suction machine had to be provided as well as formula and diapers.

Because it can be so overwhelming making sure every detail is covered, MAW assigns two "wish granters" (volunteers) who go to visit with the family to get the details about all their special needs during the wish, what they specifically want out of the wish, the family availability and many other arrangements.

Christie Heckel, formerly of Kewaskum was the MAW volunteer from the Appleton office that met with the Behling family several times at their home to assist in this planning.

To become a volunteer, one must complete a volunteer application, provide three references and pass the background check. Once this was finished, she had to attend orientation for volunteers.

The family left April 23rd, by limousine and were taken to the Milwaukee airport. One of the highlights on the plane was Michael getting to sit in the cockpit of the plane.

They went to their lodging in Kissimee, which has a miniature village called "Give Kids the World" (GKTW). Only MAW families are allowed to stay in this village of approximately two hundred, two-family villas and they are only allowed to stay there once however visits are allowed.

Upon arrival Christina received a stuffed animal and a special pin to wear throughout her stay. The pin had "Give Kids the World" written on the top and her name, city, state and dates of her stay on the bottom.

The pin has a magnetic affect on the Disney characters as they pay special attention to kids with it on. It also helped defray some costs for parking.

The village includes restaurants, a carousel, a pool, an ice cream parlor and a story time building among many other things. All the buildings are decorated for kids and the best part is it is all free to the MAW family. GKTW is a secure community totally gated around the whole property and was created for the handicapped.

JAKES Fishing Day June 5

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

With all the wet ground from the recent rains, finding worms should be no problem for all those young fishing enthusiasts planning to come to Saturday's JAKES Fishing Day sponsored by the members of the Gateway Gobblers, an organization comprised of avid turkey hunters.

Catching fish may be a little more difficult than securing bait, still the day promises to be one participants, both young or old, will long remember.

This will be the 13th year in a row the event is being sponsored, and it has always been a big draw in the village, with children and their parents lining both sides of the Milwaukee River in River Hill Park in an effort to land the prize-winning fish.

"Yup, it's going to happen," Jim Schaub, one of the major organizers of the event said at the start of the Memorial Day weekend. "We've got fish ordered. They're coming Saturday. There will be 450 blue gills planted."

Phil Enders is currently the president of the Gateway

Gobblers, and Schaub serves as the chairman of the JAKES Fishing Day, but he says it takes the efforts of his entire committee to make the day a success. Helping out this year are: Ralph Miller, Dick Adee, Scott Boedeker, Gary Panzer, Enders, Wally Seibel, Earl Kleinke, Dennis Petermann and Shirley Giese. Some of the wives of the Gobblers also volunteer to help serve the lunch.

A Jake is a young turkey, and Schaub explained, "Anything you do (in Gateway Gobblers) for kids is always a JAKES event."

The acronym for JAKES is Juniors Acquiring Knowledge, Ethics and Sportsmanship, and that is what the Gobblers are interested in teaching young sportsmen.

For the first couple years, the event was held at the Boltonville Pond, according to Schaub, who said, the number of participants outgrew the facility, and it was decided to move to the Milwaukee River.

The fishing day will begin promptly at 9 a.m. and run until 1 p.m., according to Schaub, who said a free lunch will be served to all participants at noon.

There is no fee for fishing but all participants — the blue gill contest is open to all fishermen 17 and under — are asked to sign up in the park shelter before they start fishing. All fishing equipment must be provided by the participants. Prizes will be awarded for five or six different age groups to those landing the biggest blue gills. Door prizes will be awarded after lunch and the annual picture.

"Last year, we had 215 (youngsters fishing). The year before we had 247," Schaub said, indicating parents are also invited to fish, and they do not need a license since it is free fishing weekend in Wisconsin on June 5-6.

Schaub said the event is made possible thanks to the generosity of various service organizations and sportsmen's clubs in the area. Those donating toward the fishing day include: Kewaskum Lions Club, Kewaskum Kiwanis, Gateway Gobblers, Wings Over Wisconsin, Kettle Moraine Sportsmen's Club, West Bend-Barton Sportsmen's Club, Kewaskum Chamber of Commerce, the Kettle Moraine Agency, Kohn's Citgo, 7-Up Bottling, Jim Schaub Home Improvement, Strobel Oil, Woodcraft Sign Shop (Andy Cochran) and Piggly Wiggly. Be sure to thank and patronize these local organizations.

Kemps Retirees Get Together

Commercial Space Available For the 2004 County Fair

The Washington County Fair, scheduled for July 20-25 at the Washington County Fair Park, is now accepting applications for commercial space from the businesses in Washington County and the surrounding areas. Historically, this is one of America's traditional ways for a business to show their wares.

Businesses can rent space in either a commercial tent or outside space.

fy, "Maybe things would fall in line ... I was obviously happy I was correct in that."

Next came the 4x100 relay, taking third (when it came in with a sixth seed) with a 51.05, a new school record. Breaking the old mark of 51.5 were Butler, Katie Patterson, Magnus, and Rachel Dums.

Donath had her work cut out for her in the 400, but she was up to the challenge, placing third in a KHS-record time of 59.59, and then Dums came through in her specialty, the 300 hurdles, skimming over the obstacles in 47.65, good for third and a spot in the state test.

The icing on the cake came in the concluding 4x400 relay, comprised of Dums, Magnus, Sam Droese and Donath, who left no doubt the Indians were the best in the field with their time of 4:05.0.

"Holy cow, when Amanda got the baton, she really went after that kid (runner in the lead)," Gosa said. Donath not only passed her but moved out to a comfortable lead, so the Indians won by .54 of a second.

"Not a ton of kids, but a ton of event," Gosa said about the Indian qualifiers.

The Kewaskum girls wound up fifth in the team competition, scoring 44 points. Lakeside Lutheran captured the sectional title with 86.33 points, then came Whitewater at 84, Pewaukee 68 and Milwaukee Lutheran, 56.83.

Eric Nass was the lone KHS boys to survive the sectional test at Kewaskum. Exploding the final 120 meters of the 400-meter race, he passed several other runners to finish second and was clocked in 51.02.

Unfortunately the winner of the race, Isaish Adams of Greendale was in the other heat. He won with a very quick 49.57.

The situation in the final 4x400 relay looked a little dismal as the Indians had trouble staying with powerful Grafton and some of the other teams in their heat, but Nass didn't give up, pulling the Indians up to third place in 3:27.64.

"Someone said we were seventh when Eric got the baton," Gosa said, and he was absolutely correct. With another great spurt, and a supportive crowd cheering him on, he just kept moving up until he got the place the Indians needed.

Other runners in the event were Garret Donath, Nick Bartley and Zack VanWormer. Nass is a junior and all the others are sophomores.

Donath also cleared 12-0 to place sixth in the pole vault, and Bartley set a school record of 2:01.61 to add sixth-place points in the 800.

"I was happy with Nick. I told him his effort was great," Gosa said.

The KHS boys scored 24 points, good for 13th place. Grafton won the meet with 89, far ahead of runner-up Lake side Lutheran, which came in with 55.

"I couldn't even get to sleep last night," Gosa said. "You just couldn't be happier for the kids and more proud of them. The kids worked and trained so hard. It's just great to get these kinds of results."

Preliminaries in the state meet, along with the Division 2 girls long jump (Magnus) will be held Friday. The finals are run Saturday, starting with opening ceremonies at 10:25 a.m.

As soon as results are made available they will be posted on our website at www.kewaskumstatesman.com

Kewaskum Family Receives Wish

On several occasions, the Behling family got to meet the "mayor" of GKTW village, who just happens to be a very tall bunny! The gingerbread house on the premises is actually a restaurant and Christina's name was put on a star and put on the ceiling of the restaurant along with thousands of other MAW kids who have received stars. In the village, both the train ride at Amberville Station and the pony ride have a handicapped lift so Christina was able to enjoy them. As thrilling as all the special effects of GKTH was, they had the added pleasure of Disney World to look forward to each day.

MAWF co-ordinates everything between GKTW village and Disney so all runs smooth. The Behling family was also given a sixty minute phone card and some money for gas, eating and tipping while at Disney. Once again, MAW left nothing to chance.

They went to Magic Kingdom first and Animal Kingdom second, taking the monorails one way and the ferry back. One of the shows they got to see was the Lion King in Animal Kingdom and Michael was chosen from the audience to participate in part of the show, which was a real thrill.

Christina's magical GKTG pin brought many of the parade characters directly to her along the route. It also put her first in line for autographs and pictures with the various Disney characters with no waiting.

MAW kids get to stay with the characters a longer time for pictures and the Behling family got many pictorial memories of the family with the characters, especially with Eeyore and Tigger. They also had a pass for up-front seats at the various shows, with the prerequisite of having to be there one hour before the start of the show to get the wheelchair situated in a particular area.

Christina and family also went to Sea World where she enjoyed listening to the different shows. Although it is impossible to see and do everything in the area in a short week, they did manage to take in parts of Epcot Center and MGM.

The Behling family packed in alot in the short time they were there which could not have been done if it was not for the Make-A-Wish Foundation's extraordinary planning. Unfortunately the time had come all too soon to say goodbye to Disney and catch that plane back home.

What a wonderful uplifting experience for the whole Behling family to be given this incredible trip chock full of so many wonderful memories and enabling them to get away for a while. And, what a wonderful organization, Make-A-Wish, for making it all happen.

KHS Awarded NCA Accreditation

Mrs. Christine Horbas, Kewaskum High School principal, announced recently that Kewaskum High School was granted continuing accreditation for the 2003-2004 school year from the North Central Association Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement (NCA CASI).

The Association recognized the school on March 31, 2004, at its annual meeting held in Chicago. Kewaskum High School joins over 9,000 schools across a 19 state region that were honored for earning accreditation.

To earn accreditation, schools must meet NCA CASI's high standards, be evaluated by a team of professionals from outside the school, and implement a continuous school improvement plan focused on increasing student performance. The accreditation process is voluntary and requires annual review.

"NCA accreditation demonstrates to our students, parents, and community that we are focused on raising student achievement, providing a safe and enriching learning environment, and maintaining an efficient and effective operation staffed by highly qualified educators," stated Mrs. Horbas. "NCA CASI accreditation is recognized across state lines, which not only eases the transfer process as students move from accredited school to accredited school but also assures parents that the school is meeting regionally and nationally accepted standards for quality and successful professional practice."

Accreditation provides an external mark of quality and a proven process for school improvement.

Mrs. Horbas who leads the school's improvement team, stated, "The real value of NCA CASI accreditation is the school improvement process, which focuses the school staff on analyzing student performance data, identifying areas of weakness, and developing clear goals and plans for improvement. We regularly assess and measure our progress in all goal areas, and NCA CASI holds us accountable for demonstrating growth. The process keeps everyone in the building focused on raising student achievement."

Wisconsin Make-A-Wish Foundation Celebrates 20 Years of Granting Wishes

BY SHERI BALDIKOWSKI
sbaldikowski@kewaskumstatesman.com

On April 29, 1980, a seven-year-old boy named Chris Greicius realized his lifelong wish to become a police officer. Many of those responsible for fulfilling Chris' wish wanted to do the same for other children with life-threatening medical conditions.

This led to the formation of the Make-A-Wish Foundation (MAWF). Today there are 75 chapters in the United States and 27 international chapters.

The MAWF of Wisconsin is proudly celebrating its 20th birthday in 2004, granting more than 2,200 wishes in the state since its inception. Presently there are 155 wishes in progress statewide.

Current wishes include a boy who wants to meet NY Yankee Shortstop Derek Jeter, a little girl who wants her own indoor play area, and a young lady who wants to meet Disney Channel sensation, Raven Simone, to demonstrate the magnitude of these wish requests. Besides the Kewaskum wish that was just completed in April, other local wishes in Random Lake and the Campbellsport area were also recently granted as well.

There are two offices in the state: the chapter office in Butler, a suburb of Milwaukee, and the field office in Appleton covering northeastern Wisconsin. The Chapter Office has a Board of Directors and the field office is a satellite office. The field office concentrates its efforts on the eleven counties in northeastern Wisconsin and the Chapter works with the entire state.

There are eleven paid staff members (two at the field office and nine at the chapter), and the rest are volunteers. There are approximately 600 volunteers in the state of Wisconsin.

The MAWF is always looking for volunteers to meet with the families to help grant these wishes.

Besides wish granters, there are also many other volunteers needed to help out at special events. They are especially in need of volunteers in areas furthest from the chapter and field office, like Madison, LaCrosse, Marinette, and the Northwest part of the state.

If anyone is interested in becoming a volunteer for the Foundation, they should contact Shelly Williamson at the chapter office at 1-800-236-WISH.

There are several events hosted by the MAWF as well as events that other groups take on to benefit the Foundation. There is a walk and run for wishes at the Mexican Fiesta grounds in Milwaukee, at the Thrivent Financial for Lutherans grounds in Appleton, and one on the Mariner Trail in Manitowoc, all hosted by the MAWF offices.

There are also several upcoming golf outings for fund raisers. The Golden K Kiwanis group is doing a golf outing for MAWF at Hickory Hills in Chilton on June 7th. The MAWF chapter has their Morgan Memorial Golf Outing at Mequon Country Club in Mequon on June 14th. The Friends of Make-A-Wish (a group of business people in the Sheboygan area) are doing a golf outing for MAW on September 28th at Quit Qui Oc in Elkhart Lake.

This is only a partial listing, so if you are a golfer, and want to contribute to MAW at the same time, just call the MAW Foundation for more details on any of these or any other outings.

In addition, raffle tickets are sold mainly in northeastern Wisconsin. Local field office volunteers and a few area businesses have raffle tickets. People can call 920-993-9994 for tickets. Other businesses sell the gold paper "wishing stars" for $1.00 to raise funds. In fact, many of the theme/decorations of MAW incorporate stars to signify the wishing star.

Other sources of funding for the Foundation come from grants, community organizations and donations. This enables them to keep costs low and put more money towards the wish. Fund raisers are extremely helpful as they bring community awareness to the Foundation and help generate volunteers, wish families and future donors who weren't previously aware that the Foundation helps local children.

All donations go to grant wishes in the state of Wisconsin. The National Office in Phoenix also works with the chapters through national partnerships. The chapters do work together when there are children out of the area coming to visit Disney World, Disney Land, Hawaii, or other localities to make the wish come true.

If area schools are interested in raising money for wish kids MAW has a program set up called "Kids for Wish Kids" that they could get involved with by simply contacting the MAW office who will send out a packet of information on the program.

No matter if you volunteer your time or your dollars to Make-A-Wish, nothing could be more rewarding than bringing some happiness to a child with a life-threatening illness. In a world of hospitals and doctors for these kids, and their families, MAW is the "Jimney Cricket" that can make their wishes come true and bring a well-deserved smile to their faces.

We remain dedicated to helping improve our distinguished community. Our facility has donated time and energy to many of the local fundraisers to assist and support our community.

We feel staff education is of great importance to the well being of the children we provide care for. Our staff members are currently working to improve themselves by attending college courses directly related to early childhood education.

Partners enjoy a mutually beneficial relationship, making individual toward a common goal. The Wisconsin dairy farm family, the chees chef and consumer are only a few of the many strong partners, each with own independent function and role, that together make up Wisconsin's dairy industry. In honor of June Dairy Month, we salute all the essential partners of Wisconsin's dairy industry that make significant contributions to maintaining a tradition of excellence and our reputation as America's Dairyland.

The Meaning of Sports
By: Michael Mandelbaum

like the pace of growing and harvesting; indeed, the baseball season starts with the planting season and ends about the same time as harvest. Baseball is also loaded with tradition and superstition, much like old wives' tales in old-fashioned agricultural societies.

Mandelbaum says that, conversely, football is a sport of the machine age, in that the game is played like a machine, with strict timekeeping and precise coordination of all team members. Just like the parts of a machine, each football player has a job to do within the team, and rarely does any "job" other than the one he specializes in. Curiously enough, Mandelbaum says, this cogs-in-the-wheel approach often leads to entire teams being nicknamed, as opposed to baseball players who seem to attract individual nicknames.

While no one has an exact date of the "birth" of baseball or football, there is a date for the beginning of basketball: December 1, 1891. On that day, James A. Naismith wrote the rules to a new game for a class of YMCA instructors. Mandelbaum says that basketball is a game that allows for flexibility and fluidity; perfect for a post-industrial society used to a broader sort of workplace.

I'm not sure I found any "meaning" in "The Meaning of Sports". What I found, instead, were some buried nuggets of information that made parts of this book fun to read. Once you get past Mandelbaum's not-so-easy-to-swallow hypotheses on why the game is what it is, you'll find a basic description of the sport, followed by a rich and thorough chronicle of the game, the players, and world events that might have affected the game and vice versa.

Readers who don't understand sports might enjoy this book, because it really does explain a lot about these games, in a simple-to-understand way. Avid fans, however, are probably going to want to go long... and pass.

Wisconsin BBQ Rules!
During June Dairy Month

MADISON, Wis. — The warm days of June are synonymous with two things in Wisconsin — the month-long celebration of our State's dairy industry and the start of another great grilling season.

The Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board (WMMB) has combined these two great events to create one delicious June Dairy Month celebration. So, fire up the grill, gather your REAL dairy products and get ready to celebrate with WMMB's "Wisconsin BBQ Rules! During June Dairy Month" promotion and sweepstakes.

This June Dairy Month, consumers are encouraged to explore the flavor, texture and variety REAL dairy products bring to the backyard barbecue. From sweet butter and sour cream to one of the 350 varieties, types and styles of Wisconsin cheese, dairy plays an important role in many grilling recipes. As part of the June Dairy Month promotion, WMMB is offering a free Wisconsin BBQ Rules! recipe brochure, complete with recipes and usage ideas for grilling with dairy.

Since grilling in the state of Wisconsin is especially unique, the June Dairy Month recipe brochure also outlines some specific rules for a genuine Wisconsin barbecue. First, the barbecue menu is almost sure to include brats and lots of Wisconsin dairy, and cool, perhaps even snowy, barbecue weather, is no deterrent. The brochure's light-hearted rules clarify the definition of a REAL Wisconsin barbecue.

Consumers can obtain an order form to receive a free copy of WMMB's Wisconsin BBQ Rules! recipe brochure by visiting the dairy case in participating grocery stores or by going to the WMMB Web site at www.wisdairy.com. There they can order up to four additional brochure copies or download grilling recipes.

The Wisconsin BBQ Rules! recipe brochures also will be available at special dairy events throughout Wisconsin during the month of June.

In addition, WMMB's June Dairy Month "Wisconsin BBQ Rules!" Sweepstakes offers consumers the chance to win great June Dairy Month prizes, including one grand prize Weber® Summit® Gold A gas grill. Other fabulous prizes include Weber® Baby Q™ gas grills and June Dairy Month gift baskets featuring a selection of delicious Wisconsin cheeses and a Weber® barbecue tool set.

The June Dairy Month sweepstakes is easy to enter. Consumers will find a recipe brochure offer form in the Sunday, June 6 inserts in major daily newspapers throughout Wisconsin, Northern Illinois and Marquette, Michigan. The offer form will also appear in the Wisconsin edition of the June Midwest Living magazine and at the dairy case of participating grocery stores. Consumers who return a completed offer form will be automatically entered in the "Wisconsin BBQ Rules!" Sweepstakes. Additional sweepstakes entry forms will be available at special dairy events throughout Wisconsin during the month of June and can be downloaded from WMMB's Web site, www.wisdairy.com. All entries must be received by July 2, 2004. WMMB's Web site displays complete official rules and prize descriptions, as well as a calendar of June Dairy Month events.

The "Wisconsin BBQ Rules!" Sweepstakes is not sponsored by, endorsed by, or affiliated with Weber-Stephen Products Company. "Weber," "Summit," "Q" and the product configuration of the "Summit" grills are trademarks or registered trademarks of Weber-Stephen Products Company. All other trademarks mentioned in this sweepstakes are the property of their respective owners.

Unless you are a Patriots or a Panthers fan, there's a chance that the only thing you remember about last year's Super Bowl is the Janet Jackson stunt that happened during half time. The question is, if you're not a big Patriots or Panthers fan, why were you watching the Super Bowl in the first place? Because if you hadn't, you would have missed one of the biggest events to take place all year, that's why, and because sporting events are a big part of our culture. And why is that? The answer might be in "The Meaning of Sports" by Michael Mandel-baum (c.2004, PublicAffairs). Football, baseball and basketball are arguably three of America's biggest obsessions. The root of these three sports, Mandelbaum says, is the Industrial Revolution, allowing for more idle time, geographic mobility, and longer childhoods. Who among us hasn't played at least one of those sports? This nostalgia for playing those games carries into adult life, he says, particularly for Baby Boomers. Mandelbaum argues that America's love of baseball comes from the slow, unhurried pace of the game, much

Brides: Do Not Forget to Change Your SS Card

This time of year keeps wedding planners especially busy.

If you are among the hundreds of thousands of women who will be exchanging marriage vows in the next couple of months, you also may be exchanging your maiden name for a married name. (And that would include those women who plan to use hyphenated surnames, such as Smith-Jones.)

So here is one more thing for brides to add to their to-do list: if you are working and will be making a name change - let Social Security know. Telling us about your name change shortly after you have tied the knot will help us accurately keep track of your earnings, and will ensure that you and your family get the Social Security retirement, disability or survivors benefits you are entitled to. Also, if the Internal Revenue Service and Social Security records do not show the same name and Social Security number, your federal income tax refund could be delayed.

You should also know that your employer cannot update your Social Security record to show your name change. Only you can do that.

If you do not plan to work outside the home, you still should report any name change to Social Security so that your Social Security record will show your married

Crop Walk

The Washington County CROP Walk committee recently disbursed $3,535 to local food pantries from funds raised by community members at last year's event. The money is distributed based on the ratio of money raised in each area with West Bend receiving $2,475, Germantown receiving $500, Hartford receiving $300 and Slinger receiving $250.

The 2004 CROP Walk has been scheduled for Sunday, October 10 in Ridge Run County Park in West Bend. This is an annual fund-raising event sponsored by Church World Service to benefit local food pantries and to fight hunger around the world.

Anyone interested in recruiting a team of walkers or pledging to walk alone should contact Wendy Coulter, Washington County CROP Walk Coordinator at her office 262-334-5589, ext. 315 or at home 262-644-7974 for additional information. This is your chance to identify with poor and hungry people who spend much of their life working.

Getting to Know You...

Sharing Your Needs and Wants With Your Realtor

MILWAUKEE - Buying a home is a personal experience that requires insight on your lifestyle and an understanding of your needs. A realtor will help guide you through the discovery process but needs to know you on a personal level to best advise you on this very individual decision.

"Tell your Realtor if you're thinking about starting a family, for instance, and how you plan to live in your next home," said Judy Hearst, regional vice president of Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage. "If a formal dining room sounds impractical with young children, your Realtor can look for open floor plans that will better utilize the space."

* Meeting of the minds. Meet with multiple Realtors before selecting one to represent you. Look for someone you feel comfortable with, who you trust to keep your best interests in mind and has the confidence to be an effective counselor.

* Tell your story. The more your Realtor knows about what needs you have in a home currently and how those needs may change over the course of ownership, the more value they can offer when helping you choose the perfect property.

* Be open. Your Realtor will listen to your wants and needs but may come to you with a different angle or perspective that could prove to be equally as interesting. Be willing to test the waters a little, you may discover unexpected but ultimately worthwhile surprises.

* Don't be afraid to speak up. When you see something you don't like or have concerns you'd like to address, let your Realtor know.

They will appreciate the feedback because it'll help them focus in on what will bring you the most happiness and the best return on your investment.

Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage (coldwellbankeronline.com) is the number one real estate services firm in the Chicagoland, Northwest Indiana, Southeast Wisconsin and Southwest Michigan areas with 66 offices and over 4,700 sales associates. Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage is a member of the NRT family of companies. NRT Incorporated, the nation's leading residential real estate brokerage company, is a subsidiary of Cendant Corporation (NYSE: CD).

name and make it easier to apply for benefits on your husband's earnings record.

Of course, today many women continue to use their maiden name after marriage. If you continue to use your maiden name consistently throughout your working years, you should let us know so that we can update your Social Security record.

The name change process is simple and free. You will need to complete an Application for a Social Security Card, and show us originals or certified copies of either your marriage certificate showing your old and new names or two documents - one with your former name and one with your married name. If you submit the State of Wisconsin Testament to Marriage, you will need to submit another form of identification, such as a driver's license. If you were born outside the U.S., you also need proof of your U.S. citizenship or that you are lawfully living in the U.S.

To get a copy of an Application for a Social Security Card, visit our Internet website at www.socialsecurity.gov; call our toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213; or visit your local Social Security office.

Village of Kewaskum NEWS NOTES

The Village Board would like to remind the residents of the Village of a topic covered in the Village's Municipal Code. The topic is covered in Chapter 78, Solid Waste. We shall refer to this problem as a health hazard.

The Village has undertaken several steps to improve the clear water (storm water) discharge in the entire community, yet people are not cooperating. We find that people are mowing their lawns and discharging the grass onto the street and/or catching it, just to dump it in a designated clear water collection point to plug up and eventually cause water to back up during certain times of the year. The Village would ask that all residents keep their grass clippings and leaves off the streets away from the catch basins in the curb area. We also ask residents to refrain from dumping their clippings and leaves in ditched areas.

Village of Kewaskum

- CONSTRUCTION NOTES -

Parkview Drive: Mainline Construction will be proceeding with connection of the water laterals, connecting to the new water main. Watch for notice of new main connection to system, which will require temporary shut down of the existing water main.

Edgewood Rd/Cty H Project: Musson Bros. Construction is anticipating mobilization and posting signs beginning the end of the week of June 15th.

Clinton Street Project: Mainline Construction has scheduled mobilization and pavement work beginning the week of June 15th.

Village of Kewaskum NEWS NOTES

The Kewaskum Village Board has indicated that due to the recent death of Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, a vacant Trustee seat needs to be filled, they will be accepting letters of interest from persons qualified to fulfill the unexpired term of Trustee. This would be an appointment by the Village Board as provided for in Sec17.23(1)(c), STATS. That term would expire on April 18, 2006.

If you are interested please send a letter of interest to the Village of Kewaskum, c/o Administrator Daniel Schmidt, P.O. Box 38, 204 First Street, Kewaskum WI 53040-0038 by June 16, 2004. Please include your name, address and telephone number. If you have any questions please call (262) 626-8484. Thank you from the Village of Kewaskum.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Village of Kewaskum
Plan Commission
April 27, 2004
7:00 p.m.

The Plan Commission of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and pledge of Allegiance.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt called the meeting to order. Chairperson Mathew Heiser asked to be excused and was absent. Members present were Frank Beesten, Lecann Butschlick, Andy Pesch, Richard Schmidt, Andrew Kuehl and Theodore Meilahn. A quorum was present.

On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by Lecann Butschlick and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Commission appointed Andy Pesch as Chairperson Pro-tem.

On a motion by Richard Schmidt, seconded by Theodore Meilahn and carried by the majority voice vote the Plan Commission approved the minutes as printed for March 23, 2004.

The Commission revisited Kettle Country Estates Final Plat. It was noted no major problems exist. On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by Theodore Meilahn and unanimously carried by voice vote the Commission then forwarded the final plat to the Village Board for final approval contingent upon the Village Engineer and Village Attorney signing off on it prior to Village signatures.

Noted FEMA has yet to respond to signing off on the proposed Zoning Ordinance.

Discussion took place on the May 25, 2004 public hearing on the proposed Zoning Ordinance amendment and the information prepared by Mr. Rick Kania. Plan Commission asked the Administrator to review a few points with Mr. Kania prior to the public hearing.

The Commission reviewed proposed amendments to the zoning fees. On a motion by Richard Schmidt, seconded by Frank Beesten and unanimously carried by voice vote the Commission recommended a final draft of the Zoning Fees as reviewed and be brought back to the Plan Commission in May.

On a motion by Frank Beesten seconded by Lecann Butschlick and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Commission adjourned the meeting. Roll call vote was 6 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 1 "Absent".

Lady Indians Earn All Conference Honors

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT

With just three victories against Eastern Wisconsin Conference foes this spring, Kewaskum High girls fast-pitch softball Coach Jeff Gosse could hardly expect to do well in the all-conference balloting, still the coaches did recognize the talents of senior Beth Boedeker and two other Indians.

Boedeker was named as the EW second-team shortstop, while teammates Amy Holm and Laura Schladweiler received honorable mention in the voting which took place last Wednesday in New Holstein.

Boedeker, a two-year starter for Gosse, batted .314 this season, with a .520 on-base average. What was most impressive about Boedeker was her ability to steal bases. She successfully stole 17 bases in 18 tries, according to Gosse, who said her quickness was a great asset for the team.

Boedeker had 11 hits, including five batting left handed, and she drove in three runs.

Defensively, Boedeker committed six errors in the 12 conference games, figuring to a .940 defensive percentage, but Gosse was quick to point out, "She spun four double plays, which is pretty unheard of in girls softball."

Holm, a junior, moved to the catcher spot after the first couple of games, and there were no problems at that position the rest of the way. Base runners from the other clubs were wary about stealing against Holm because of her strong arm and accurate throws.

When asked how many would-be stealers Holm gunned down, Gosse said, "I believe it was eight."

At the plate, Holm batted .394, with a .510 on-base average, a .657 slugging percentage. She wound up with 15 hits, including two triples and a pair of doubles, and she drove in an even dozen runs.

Laura Schladweiler

Schladweiler, a steady defender at first base, only had two errors the entire season. "I think she did a real nice job," Gosse said. Offensively, Schladweiler batted .325, with 13 singles and four RBI. She had an on-base average of .413.

EWC champion Campbell-sport, which finished the year at 11-2, gobbled up plenty of post-season gold. First-year head coach Rick Simpson was named as the Coach of the Year, and pitcher Kristen Muench was named as the Player of the Year.

In 90 innings, Muench, who was 11-2, giving up 56 hits and 28 runs, had only 14 of them earned. Muench walked 42 and struck out 82. Her ERA was a sizzling 1.09.

Gosse reported other Campbell-sport players on the first team included: Julie Crofts, catcher; Sara Glass, infielder; and Sarah Immel, outfield.

Glass had a great year for the Cougars, batting .415 with one triple. "She's a heck of an athlete," Gosse said.

Gosse will be losing four seniors, including Boedeker, Schladweiler, outfielder Becky Junk and infielder Kristin Mantz.

"I've got a catcher for next year, and Rachel (Breese, pitcher) got better and better. She can compete with the best of them," Gosse said.

Remember the tale of Little Miss Muffet? Her curds and whey were an early version of cottage cheese.

Honey Hole on the Rush River

Hello Friends,

Last year, I fished the Rush River in Pierce County for the first time. My target was trout, and I hit a bulls-eye in both number and size of brown trout. There was no doubt I would return.

Friday, May 21
High 72, Low 45

Rain drops keep falling on my head. Or how about, I hope I don't get washed away by the flood waters while wading in the rushing Rush. Last but not least, I hope I don't get zapped by lightning on this trip.

Those thoughts were on my mind as I left my Juneau County home for the 150-mile drive to Trout Paradise. Driving in a hard rain, I was looking at flooded rivers and listening to the radio telling people to take cover.

I was running out of time to take this trip, so I had to go! Good luck came my way as I drove northwest. It appeared there was less flooding and definitely friendlier skies.

By the time I reached Pierce County, the roads were dry, and I noticed the Rush River was at a normal flow. My excitement was hard to contain as I rigged up with spinners, crawlers, and spare line and put on my chest waders.

I headed upstream surrounded by peaceful farms, limestone ridges, and best of all, not another fisherman in sight.

I started tossing a Mepps spinner and was extremely hopeful a big brown trout was going to try to rip my spinning rod from my arms.

It took about 15 minutes and about a quarter of a mile of wading for my first rip, which came from a feisty 10-incher that cleared the skunk, and was immediately released.

Last year I discovered the ultimate honey hole that had rapids at its top end, followed by a 50 yard pool brimming with trout. Today, as I worked my way within casting distance in a light rain, there were literally dozens of trout flying through the air on a feeding frenzy on some type of bug.

Spinners weren't too hot. So I went to the old standby of a crawler and a light split-shot. The action was immediate and non-stop as long as I had a crawler in the water.

I found a comfortable home on top of a deadfall to set my fanny on and tried to catch some trout. For the next two and a half hours (until dark), I experienced some of the best trout fishing of my life.

The limit on this piece of water is three browns that measure at least 12 inches. I had a couple of 13-inchers in my creel, and knew I would be eating good tonight when my pole literally went flying through the air.

I had a big fish on. And a couple of times, we virtually stopped each other in our tracks. Inland stream trout are incredibly strong. I figured this one was going to hang me in a deadfall. So I jumped into the deep pool and fought it to my net.

The tape measure indicated a solid 17 inches. It was a truly big fish for regular trout fishermen but close to a trophy for a guy like me who only goes out a couple of times a year.

My mood on the journey back to the truck in near dark and with a light rain falling was excellent. I had no idea where I was going to sleep that night.

I found a hole on some public land, cooked trout by the light of a Coleman lantern in the rain, pigged out on the trout, and then climbed in the back of the truck for a couple of hours of shut-eye.

The next morning, I was back to the honey hole before sunrise, and the trout were still hungry. I had my limit within 15 minutes and was well aware that come May 2005, I would be returning to Pierce County to fish my honey hole on the Rush River.

Take chances!

Piwoni Qualifies for Golf Sectionals; KHS Third in EWC

By JUDY HARLOW

There was good news and bad from the Kewaskum High School golf camp during the last week of the season.

When the rain finally subsided, the Indians managed to finish fourth in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Tournament played at the Badger Creek Golf Course near New Holstein, meaning they took third place in the overall standings.

The day before the EW test, Kewaskum was involved in one of the Division 2 regional tournaments. The 18-hole event had been scheduled for the Bull in Pinehurst Farms near Sheboygan Falls, but officials there said the course would not be available for play, so it was moved to Quit Qui Oc in Elkhart Lake.

The Indians did just fine on the front nine. In fact, they and the Kiel Raiders were tied for the lead, but they could not match their efforts on the back as they slid back to fourth overall. Teams needed to finish among the top three to advance to sectional action at Elkhorn.

Chad Piwoni's 82 was good enough for individual advancement, so the young sophomore was in Elkhorn Tuesday at the Evergreen Golf Course, battling for a spot in the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association Division Two state meet.

Rain Wipes Out Three Athletics Games

Members of the Kewaskum Athletics home-talent baseball team ought to be well rested after the Memorial Day weekend as all three of their scheduled games were wiped out by the rain.

The A's, who are led by player/manager Jason Strobel this season, hope to be back in action on Saturday when they travel to Slinger for a Rock River league game. Game time is 1:30 p.m.

On Sunday, they host Hustisford in a Rock River game at Kiwanis Park, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Course in Verona on June 7-8, Piwoni would have to have finished among the top three individuals, not including the team qualifying players.

"We accomplished one of our season goals by finishing third in the conference standings," KHS Coach Glenn Eichstedt said, referring to the scenario in EW action.

As expected Plymouth ran away with the conference title, firing a 320 from its top four players. The 320 was 22 shots ahead of the host Huskies (342) and 25 in front of Kiel's 345.

Chad Piwoni

Kewaskum was next at 356, followed by Campbellsport, which lost the tiebreaker with the Indians; Manitowoc Roncalli, 367; Two Rivers, 365; and Sheboygan Falls, 381.

Plymouth wound up with a perfect mark of eight points, winning six EW matches — the match at Kewaskum was postponed by rain twice and finally cancelled — and the conference tournament. Kiel was next with 24 points, and then came Kewaskum with 35, Two Rivers, 37; New Holstein, 43; Roncalli, 50; and Sheboygan Falls, 54.

The all-conference team was dominated by Plymouth, which had all five of its players among the top seven. Eric Born was the medalist with 50 total points. He captured the medal at the EW meet with a 39-38-77.

None of the Indians earned a spot on the all-conference squad.

Luke Koch was the lone Indian to break 90, with his score of 86. Piwoni, Adam Lehnerz and Jason Jahnke all posted even 90s.

In the regional, Kiel's 327 was just good enough to win the title, good enough by a single shot. Campbellsport came in at 328 and advances its team to Evergreen, along with North Fond du Lac, with a 335.

Piwoni had a great outing, starting out with a 40 and holding his game together with a 42 on the back, while his teammates were struggling.

Ryan Koepke, the only senior starter, fired a 38 on the front but then ballooned to a 45, with double bogeys on the final three holes. Still his 83 earned him a spot in the playoff for the third individual spot (members of the sectional qualifying teams do not figure in the individual competition); but unfortunately he struggled on the first extra hole, posting another double bogey while losing the spot to Kerry Fredrich.

Koch had nines of 42 and 43 for his 85, while Jahnke's 88 rounded out the four counters.

WIAA Division Two Regional Tournament at Quit Qui Oc: 1. Kiel 327, 2. Campbellsport 328, 3. North Fond du lac 335, 4. New Holstein 337, 5. Kewaskum. 338, 6. Winnebago Lutheran High 354, 7. Sheboygan Falls 363, 8. Chilton 364, 9. Valders 367.

Indians Fall in Season Opener

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Despite getting a whopping 15 hits, the Kewaskum High baseball team lost its 2004 opener Thursday evening, falling to host Random Lake by a score of 10-8.

"Our pitching and defense need work, but I was real impressed with our hitting," KHS Coach Dave Doanth said afterward. "We hit the ball real hard."

Leading the offensive charge was a freshman playing in his first high school baseball game. Dan Shea went 3x4, with a pair of doubles, according to Doanth, who said the doubles were real tagged.

Others who looked good at the plate included: Ross Stockhausen, who went 2x4, with two stolen bases; Brandon Prom, 1x2, with two runs batted in; Tim Trott, 2x4; Dave Wicklund, 2x4, with two stolen bases; Jon Olla, 1x2; and Matt Parrent, 2x3, with a double.

Doanth called on Prom to start against Random Lake and except for the first inning, when the Rams scored two unearned runs, he was cruising along pretty well until the fifth inning when he may have tired and wound up giving up four runs on five hits.

The game was all tied at 7-7 after five innings, then Prom's reliever, Brett Zimdars had trouble finding the plate in the sixth. He walked three, then Donath brought in Parrent, who walked the next three Rams before striking out the No. 7 hitter and getting the next man to hit into a double play.

"It was tough to watch," Donath said about the string of six straight walks to Random Lake hitters. Still, he knew even before the season started, it will take time to develop several pitchers to replace the four who graduated last summer.

With the three runs they scored in the sixth, the Rams surged ahead 10-8.

"We did threaten in the seventh," Donath said, reporting Trott came through with a one-out single, and after another out, Wicklund singled, putting runners at the corners.

The winning pitcher, Weyker, then got Zimdars to hit into a soft liner to shortstop, ending the Indian threat.

Random Lake is now coached by former KHS baseball coach Mark Heise, who owns the Beechwood Cheese Factory in Beechwood.
