Plans for Kettle Kountry Kolors well underway

Shown above is the Buckskinner Encampment along the Milwaukee River during last year's Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival. This year the festival will take place October 8, 9 and 10 in Riverhill park in Kewaskum.

The Friends of Kewaskum have been busily planning the 15th Annual Kettle Kountry Kolors fall festival. This year's event will take place October 8, 9, and 10 in Riverhill Park in Kewaskum.

Friday night will once again kick off with a fish boil by Woody's Steakhouse of Kewaskum. There will also be other food items available for those who prefer not to have fish.

Gary Cross will provide entertainment for the night from 7 to 10 p.m. There will also be many games and prizes, including the famous "Wheel of Prizes" that was first introduced at the Mardi Gras dance.

Raffle tickets for the big prizes to be drawn on Sunday at the festival's close will also be for sale, along with Regalware cookware. The raffles for this year include: an autographed Brett Favre "Passing Through the Years" print complete with letter of authenticity; a handmade Oak and Cedar chest; a money clip with $100 and a beautiful diamond and sapphire ring set in 14k white gold. Tickets are $1 each or six for $5.

Saturday's festivities will include various activities in the beer garden and children's tent from 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. A more detailed list will be in an upcoming edition of The Statesman. However, the popular Lip Sync Contest and Talent Show will be held at 2 p.m. in the beer garden. For information on how to be in the contest or talent show, contact Wendi Dreher at 262-626-2428.

New this year to the line up will be the "Newlywed Game." The Friends of Kewaskum are looking for couples that would be interested in participating. Nominations for either yourself or a couple who would love to participate but are to shy to nominate themselves are $1. The group is looking for couples in two different groups - almost married to married five years and married six years plus. More details on the game may be found on page XX.

Sunday will once again begin with the Sno Chief's pancake breakfast from 8 to 11 a.m. and the ecumenical church service will be at 9 a.m.

There will also be great entertainment including a magician, the Milwaukee County Zoo's Care for Critters program and the ever-popular Downtown Harrison. More details will follow.

Going on throughout both days

Democrat enters state senate race

A young activist for the democrat party of Ozaukee County has now been added to the mix in the 20th Senate District race here. Elysse Chay, 25, has started a write-in campaign to add her name to the November 2 general election ballot.

Elysse Chay

Chay, who lives with her partner in the village of Grafton, is a complete contrast to the two Republican candidates vying for the seat. On her website, Chay says, "As a resident of the 20th Wisconsin State Senate District, I am disappointed with the leadership of the two Republican candidates. Their views are often the opposite of mine, and many of my neighbors have expressed similar concerns."

Chay is running on a completely different platform than her two Republican counterparts. On the heated issue of a taxpayer bill of rights (TABOR) Chay says she supports policies that promote restrained spending at the state level. "This Republican constitutional amendment would not address the negligence of Wisconsin state legislators' past spending decisions," she said.

When asked about her stance on life issues she stated that she is pro-choice. Chay further stated that she is not advertising her pro-choice platform but not trying to hide it either. A number of other issues she supports can be found on her website at www.chayforsenate.org

Chay is running against Republican stalwarts Glenn Grothman and Mary Panzer who currently holds the seat. If Chay can collect enough write-in votes on September 14 she could have her name added to the November 2 ballot and face Grothman or Panzer. The state elections board is working on a definite percentage of votes needed to get Chay's name on the ballot.

Please see page 3 for more news on the campaign.

Jenny Legaspi of the American Red Cross visited the school age children of Little Folks School House.

Jenny is from the American Red Cross Disaster Education Outreach program. She met with the children to teach them about disaster preparedness and explained that disasters can strike quickly and without warning. Families are able to cope with disasters by preparing in advance and working together as a team. The children watched a video entitled "Disaster Dudes" which covered floods, thunderstorms, fires, blizzards, hurricanes and tornadoes. The group was taught about and practiced the crouch ball position which can be used if they are ever caught outside during a thunderstorm. The children were also educated on preparing a disaster supplies kit.

The American Red Cross started the Prepare Wisconsin AmeriCorps program to provide disaster preparedness education to local communities in our state. Their goal is to reach community members and provide information that will help them prepare for disasters. Before the presentation was concluded, Jenny answered many very good questions. She passed out disaster preparedness coloring books and brochures for the children to share with their families.

The staff of the Little Folks School House wish to thank Jenny Legaspi and the American Red Cross for helping to educate our children.

Wash. Cty. Sheriff's Dept. participates in alcohol enforcement grant program

The Washington County Sheriff's Department continues its participation in the alcohol enforcement grant program sponsored by the Wisconsin Department of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety. A special nationwide alcohol enforcement mobilization August 22 to September 6 focuses on enforcement for intoxicated drivers and a public information and education campaign.

Washington County Sheriff Brian Rahn says "that according to Wisconsin DOT crash statistics, alcohol was involved in more than 36% of the fatal crashes in our state in 2002 and almost 44% of motorcycle drivers killed in crashes in 2002, had alcohol in their system."

"It's unfortunate that we need to continually remind the public of the consequences associated with drinking and driving. Alcohol related crashes impact all of us. From insurance costs to medical expenses to the ultimate price, living your life knowing that you seriously injured or killed someone while you were driving intoxicated," says Rahn.

Extra Sheriff's Department OWI enforcement will begin Friday and Saturday night of this weekend, with extra officers dedicated on various days and shifts through September 6. This coincides with travel over the Labor Day weekend. During this time specially assigned Sheriff's Deputies will be especially committed to zero tolerance for intoxicated drivers as well as safety belt usage, and other violations related to traffic safety.

The Sheriff's Department would like to encourage those choosing to drink, to do so responsibly. Please consider using designated drivers to do your part in avoiding alcohol related traffic crashes and injuries.

Kewaskum men involved in two weekend crashes

Washington County Sheriff's deputies responded to several injury accidents over the weekend. The first took place Saturday. A 51-year-old Kewaskum man was injured when he ran his Harley into the back of a vehicle turping off of Forest View Drive.

Deputies say that accident happened around 1:30 p.m. as Christine Tetzlaff was turning into her drive way. The driver of the bike, John Yancy was taken to St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend. Yancy has been treated and released.

The second crash came early Sunday morning when an 18-year old Kewaskum man was injured when he rolled his car off Paradise Drive and Highway 28.

The accident in the Town of Farmington happened around 5:15 a.m. Deputies say Danny Gessner was cited for absolute sobriety. He refused medical treatment.

WB Company to build new headquarters in Wingate Business Park

Recently Kitchen Craft announced they were building a new plant off Highway 33 and Trenton Road. Another housewares company says they're going to build a new headquarters and distribution facility off Highway 33.

West Bend Housewares LLC will develop a new 160,000 square foot building in the Wingate Business Park. The company, which used to be a division of Regal Ware, had been leasing space at Regal's Schmidt Road facility.

West Bend Housewares needs more space. They're expected to move by June.

Jackson Concrete looking to build plant

The town of Jackson is currently considering rezoning a portion of land on the northeast corner of Highway M and NN. The purpose, is so Jackson Concrete Company can build a ready mix plant.

The area is currently zoned agricultural and residential and the proposal to throw and industrial switch into the mix has neighbors up in arms.

Murray Papendorf lives about a mile from the Highway M intersection. Papendorf feels that the heavy industrial facility will detract from the million dollar homes in the area.

Papendorf is circulating a petition to try and get the town board to rethink the rezoning request. He says he's collected about 200 signatures and he'll try to present the petition during the upcoming August 25th plan commission meeting.

Jackson Concrete currently operates at a site off Pleasant Valley Road in the town of Jackson.

New salon and day spa opens in W.B.

B-Elegant Salon and Spa has opened in Downtown West Bend. The business, owned by Trish Gutmann is opening on north Main Street in the building that was home to Joan's Babylane previously.

The shop will include hair and nail services, body wraps, massages, and cosmetic tattooing. The highlight of the business will be it's state of the art pedicure chair which includes a cast iron whirlpool.

The theme behind the day spa will be "a return to old elegance".

Several injury accidents in Sheboygan County

According to sheriff's deputies a 19-year-old woman was taken via Flight for Life after she jumped out of a moving vehicle along I-43. Deputies say the accident happened around 7:30 p.m. Sunday night as the car was travelling at about 40 miles per hour.

The woman apparently "bailed" after getting into an argument with her husband.

A 49-year-old Michigan woman was flighted to Theda Clark Hospital in Neenah after she fell off a horse and onto her head. The woman, who was not wearing a helmet, was injured while rising Sunday afternoon near Parnell Tower.

Three people suffered minor injuries in a two vehicle accident along highway 57 near Waldo. Deputies say a truck entered the highway and hit a minivan.

The driver of the truck was cited for failing to yield the right of way.

W.B. man charged for firing shots, threatening wife

A 50-year-old West Bend Man could spend the next 14 years in prison if convicted of firing a pistol and threatening his estranged wife. Kevin Berger was arrested early Monday morning at his home on Schloemer Drive. Police say Berger allegedly fired a shot while talking to his wife on the phone. A criminal complaint says Berger fired another shot while standing outside his home. He was apparently talking to his wife about a pending divorce. Police negotiated with Berger for five hours before he finally surrendered. Berger is facing felony charges of reckless endangerment and resisting arrest. He's also been charged with negligent handling of a weapon.

Bade Announces candidacy for mayor

West Bend's First District Alderman made it official on Monday as he announced his intentions to run for mayor. Doug Bade says, even though nomination papers aren't due until January 4th he decided to make the announcement now, because Mayor Miller has already said he's stepping down.

Miller, by the way, is endorsing Bade who feels he is qualified for the post having been an alderman in the city the past six years. Bade is also a member of the Plan Commission, the Airport Commission and the Finance Committee. He's chairman of the city's Board of Public Works and a member of the West Bend Redevelopment Authority.

So far, Bade is the only candidate to announce his intentions to run for mayor. Alderson Tom O'Meara who ran for the job two years ago, says he'll decide by November whether he'll run.

The mayor's job in West Bend is a part time position that pays $9,418 a year.

Renderman to speak in Campbellsport on Sept. 9

The Campbellsport Women's Club presents Gail Renderman, an inspirational author and speaker, on Tuesday, September 9 at 7 p.m. at the Campbellsport Public Library, 220 N. Helena Street, Campbellsport. This event is open to the public.

Renderman is a Christian wife and mother whose life has been detoured by many personal, career and health obstacles. When faced with a life-changing disorder, Myasthenia Gravis, she learned to triumph over adversity and will share her courageous story of turning challenges into positive opportunities. With her optimistic outlook she turns the question "Why Me?" into "Why NOT Me!"

Renderman is the author of "Don't Drive on the Sidewalk - Inspirations Through the Detour of Life!" Using humor, music and readings from her book, she has a unique way of warming the hearts of her audience, touching them with a sense of peace and leaving them laughing through their tears.

Sharing her victorious and inspirational journey, Renderman helps people realize that God doesn't pick on us, rather HE picks us up and gives us the strength for what's ahead. Remember HE has the best view of the roads.

Further information about this event is available by contacting Patti Hintz at 920-533-8386. For more information on Renderman, her book or speaking topics, please contact Gail Renderman, GR8 Eagle Promotions, PO Box 883, Fond du Lac, WI 54936-0883 or visit her website at www.gailrenderman.com.

Bilgo to speak at
C-Sport Library

Increase your potential for hunting success by joining other hunters at 7 p.m. on Thursday, September 16, in the lower level meeting room of the Campbellsport Public Library. Doug Bilgo, State of Wisconsin Game Warden for Southern Fond du Lac County and a life-long resident of this area, will explain just what a game warden does.

He will also provide an update on Chronic Wasting Disease and baiting, along with other regulations. Then, it's question and answer time. Questions from the audience will be an important part of the program, so come prepared. And finally, there should be time for those in attendance to share hunting stories, (remember the 10 point buck you had in your sights?) and the how, when and where folks have hunted with success.

This program is planned for congeniality, education, and a good time in general for experienced hunters and newcomers to hunting. It should be a fun evening, so if hunting is an interest of yours, why not plan to attend.

There is no charge for the evening or the refreshments provided. The library is located at 220 North Helena Street in Campbellsport, and the room is handicapped accessible. Call the library at 920-533-5834 for additional information.

WBKV will host radio senate debate

Newlywed Game at
Kettle Kountry Kolors

It's back! Some of you may remember the Newlywed game from when it originally aired. Those of you who are younger may remember it from re-runs. Either way the Newlywed Game is coming to Kettle Kountry Kolors, albeit a bit toned down - after all it IS a family festival!

The Friends of Kewaskum are looking for couples in two categories - almost married to married five years, and married six years plus. Couples may either nominate themselves or be nominated by someone who wants to see you in the spotlight. Don't be scared - we promise not to make it too embarrassing!

Nominations will be $1.

Please fill out the form below. All nominations will remain top secret! After the initial nominations, which will close September 12, we will be asking for pictures and a brief history of the couple. We will then have open voting for the finalists; eventually ending up with a total of six couples.

Couples will then participate in the game being held at 4 p.m. on Saturday, October 9th at Kettle Kountry Kolors. It promises to be a fun event with many surprises along the way - oh yeah almost forgot - and GREAT prizes too!

For more information, call 262-626-2626 or email kettlekountrykolors@yahoo.com

Ziegler Jazz Festival Sept. 10 & 11

According to festival producers, Ziegler Kettle Moraine Jazz Festival (ZKMJF) patrons will have no problem finding plenty of free parking adjacent to Riverside Park Friday, September 10 and Saturday, September 11.

Through the generosity of The Gehl Company, one of the event's major corporate sponsors, the company is donating the use of its West Bend parking lot off Indiana Avenue for the seventh consecutive year to accommodate the vehicles of festival attendees. The walkway to The Gehl Company parking lot and the lot itself will be lighted after dark for the safety and convenience of ZKMJF patrons.

If there is a need for additional parking, vehicles will be directed to the county courthouse parking area. The festival, which will once again feature nationally recognized jazz musicians and vocalists, is expected to draw more than 5,000 jazz lovers from all over the Midwest, particularly from Southeast Wisconsin and Northeast Illinois. In addition to the entertainment, the festival will feature arts marketplace, local and regional cuisine and interactive sponsor exhibits.

The 2004 festival performance schedule is as follows:

Friday, September 10: Praful, 5 p.m.; Fourplay (Bob James, Nathan East, Larry Carlton and Harvey Mason), 7 p.m. and Rick Braun, 9:15 p.m.

Saturday, September 11: Suzanne Grzanna, 12:30 p.m.; Ottmar Liebert, 2:30 p.m.; Fell Boys, 5 p.m.; Chris Botti, 7 p.m. and Down to the Bone, 9:15 p.m.

Through Thursday, September 9, two-day tickets can be purchased through the festival's toll-free information line at 1-877-271-6903, the event's website: www.kmjazz.com, and at Ziegler Company locations throughout Southeastern Wisconsin. If available, tickets for both days will be sold at the festival gates for $90, while one-day tickets will be $60.

Proceeds from the event will benefit area charitable organizations through the West Bend Sunrise Rotary Foundation. In its history, the festival has contributed more than $100,000 to charitable groups in southeastern Wisconsin. Funds have gone to: Donated Health Care Inc. for support of free medical clinics; Columns, Inc. a scholarship program for local high school graduates; West Bend Library for building construction; West Bend Fire Department for a fire safety trailer; the Kettle Moraine YMCA for equipment for the skate park in conjunction with the City of West Bend and SafeZone Community Arts Center for music education.

ZKMJF sponsors include title sponsor The Ziegler Company; presenting sponsors, West Bend Mutual Insurance Company, Synergy Health, Hilton Garden Inn - Milwaukee Park Place and The Gehl Company; media partners, Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, TODAY'S TMJ4, Conley Publishing Group and Charter Communications; and corporate sponsors, Coca-Cola, Roto-Graphic Printing, River Shore Condominiums, West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce and the West Bend Parks and Recreation Department.

Food for Thought

By Amy Swanson

aswanson@kewaskumstatesman.com

Potato Salad

- 4 Pounds of red potatoes
- 8 oz pesto
- 6 eggs
- grated romano cheese
- Mayonnaise

Cut the potatoes up, leave the skin on. Put the potatoes and the eggs into salted boiling water for 13 to 15 minutes, until the potatoes are cooked. Immediately immerse the potatoes and the eggs into cold water until they are cool. Peel and chop the potatoes. Sprinkle some cheese on it and add enough mayonnaise to give an elephant a heart attack. Refrigerate overnight.

Italian Pasta Salad

- 2 pounds cooked and cooled pasta
- 1 jar drained artichoke hearts
- 1 can green olives
- 1 jar drained giardena salad (in the pickle aisle and spelled correctly on the jar)
- 4 shredded carrots
- 4 chopped celeries
- one bottle Italian Dressing
- 1/2 cup breadcrumbs

Mix all of the above together.

pasta salad that I threw together on my own. My husband brought a cooler full of, lets say...beverages. Needless to say, we left with a full bowl of pasta and an empty cooler. He told me the pasta salad was really good, after he had cleaned out the cooler. But, then again, our friends' dog food would have tasted like bridge mix to him after that too.

So, I'm faced with the dilemma of what to bring to impress our new neighbors, who are hopefully going to get fooled into thinking we are a normal family. I could wear my Mother of the Year crown and sash and show up with all kinds of dessert, sing them a song and give a short presentation on gardening...but, I do not like to be the center of attention - I usually leave that for my perfect sister and her perfect family!

My husband says, "Bring the cooler, that way no one will remember what you brought." My mom says, "Tell me what you want to bring and I'll make it." She is so awesome! Maybe I can bring a cooler to her house while she makes my dish to pass.

This weekend we were invited to the block party in our new neighborhood. My husband is really looking forward to it. Spending any amount of time with people he doesn't know - but has to pretend to like - is always a challenge for him. Plus, it's a picnic, which probably means we will be outside among swarms of hungry bees trying to fly away with our food.

I am terrified of bees, wasps, hornets and any flying, crawling, buzzing kinds of things that live outside. I'm sure they are not fond of me either.

When I am playing outside with my kids, I am the first one to run inside if I hear or see a buzz. In fact, I would probably run my kids over to get away from any insect.

I've successfully passed along my fear. I'm not the mom who calmly tells my kids to just stand still. My advice has always been, "RUN!"

I'm sure our new neighbors are enjoying the show. When a "buzz" passes by, we all do this spastic dance that resembles the chicken dance only much faster and in lots of circles. We occasionally have performed this dance in error, for butterflies, moths and small birds. So, when we do show up at the neighborhood pow-wow wearing bee-keeper suits, I'm sure our warm welcome will be said with a snicker.

The bees aren't the only problem. I have to bring a dish to pass. This always concerns my husband, not because of the food that everyone else brings, but he is afraid of what concoction I will bring. The Jell-O incident is too fresh in his mind. My relatives still talk about my lime-flavored black Jell-O.

A couple of weeks ago, we were invited to a friends house for dinner. I brought a them according to where they are going and affix reprogrammed radio tags. The SMU then coordinates to have the shipments loaded on one of the 1st FSSG convoys that travel throughout Iraq.

For faster service, front-line battalions can also get what they need quickly by e-mailing a "rapid request" to the SMU or by sending a representative to do a "walk-

CAMP TAQADDUM, Iraq -- Delivering the supplies and equipment needed to sustain troops in forward areas is one of the hardest, most vital responsibilities in a combat zone.

Instead of UPS or DHL, Marines in Iraq depend on SMU.

As a nerve center for logistics in Iraq, the Supply Management Unit now controls essential supplies -- from bottled water to ball bearings -- without which, units of the I Marine Expeditionary Force in the Al Anbar Province would cease to function.

The SMU has shipped nearly 20,000 supply items, almost 190,000 Meals, Ready-to-Eat, and more than 1.1 million cases of bottled water to units within the I MEF since deploying to Iraq this spring.

Reliance on one merged management unit improves how the Corps' supply system operated during the invasion of Iraq, said Capt. Todd A. Fujimoto, who organizes transportation for all of the supplies traveling to the eastern part of the province.

Since units are not moving like they did last year, the Marines have been able to establish static bases, allowing the 1st Force Service Support Group to keep the supply elements at one location, under the control of Combat Service Support Group 15, which sends resupply convoys to the other bases.

During last year's push to Baghdad, the Marine Corps' infantry battalions were constantly moving. As a result, the combat service support elements that supported them had difficulty coordinating with each other, as well as with their headquarters, and sometimes lost or misdirected supplies.

"There was no battlefield visibility of stocks," said Fujimoto, a 32-year-old resident of Albany, Ga. "It could have been two tents over and they would have never known about it."

This year, Marines with the SMU receive, sort and distribute goods, employing several systems to track deliveries and to keep them from getting lost during their journey.

A computerized manifesting system creates a list of a shipping container's contents and records the information in radio frequency identification tags attached to each box, said Capt. Tarrell D. Giersch, the SMU operations officer.

At key positions along the delivery routes in the United States and Iraq, electronic readers scan the tags and transmit the contents and location of the load to a tracking server, which acts as a place to store the information, said Giersch, a 32-year-old Milwaukee native.

Marines access the server, via the Internet, with the Joint Deployment Logistics Module, which converts the data, so they can view it on a map. This allows the Marines to follow the gear as it travels from point to point on its way to the SMU, said Chief Warrant Officer 2 Michael I. Naputi, the SMU's assistant operations officer.

"We can track from New Cumberland, Pa., where it's packed, Charleston, where it flew out of, Balad, where it arrived into country (and) 'TQ' when it arrived here," said Lt. Col. Joe Granata, SMU's officer-in-charge, and a 42-year-old native of Fredonia, N.Y.

The Marines are also applying an inventory system that, while not new to the Corps, is being used in a combat zone for the first time.

When incoming supplies arrive at the SMU, Marines scan them using a wireless, interconnected system of computers and hand-held devices that analyze the bar code labels on the sides of shipping containers, Giersch said.

The system directs the Marines exactly where to store the gear amongst the many rows of boxes and crates on their large storage lot.

This has made it easier for the Marines to track the more than 19,000 items that have come into the SMU during this deployment, on top of the massive amounts of rations and bottled water.

Accounting for everything on paper, as the Marines did while deployed last year, caused problems, said Cpl. Blanca Hernandez, a warehouse clerk with SMU, who is serving in Iraq for the second time.

"It was a hassle. We lost a lot of paperwork," said Hernandez, a 22-year-old native of LaPuente, Calif.

Now, the units send routine orders through computer-based logistics programs used throughout the Marine Corps, said Naputi, a 33-year-old resident of Murrieta, Calif.

Once the requests come in, Marines at the SMU collect the items listed, separate

MORE THAN PETTICOATS

REMARKABLE WISCONSIN WOMEN

Greta Anderson

When you think about great Wisconsinites, who comes to mind? Harry Houdini? Spencer Tracy? Maybe Marquette or LaFollette or Chris Farley? Woody Herman, Liberace, Les Paul, Tom Snyder, the list goes on and on. But did you know that Wisconsin was home to the first American kindergarten teacher and the only American citizen executed by the Gestapo? You'll read about them and others in "More Than Petticoats: Remarkable Wisconsin Women" by Greta Anderson (c.2004, TwoDot / Globe Pequot Press).

Starting in the late 1700s, when Wisconsin was little more than a wild territory, "More Than Petticoats" tells about women who made a historical difference. Many of these women are easily recognizable, mostly because their names became synonymous with Wisconsin cities and landmarks.

Queen Marinette was a Native American woman who married a lazy trader who thought he might get an inheritance from his brother. Later, Marinette became the "wife" of another man (who refused to recognize their relationship), and when he left her, she continued to work on behalf of the Menominee and Chippewa nations. In gratitude for her help, the small village in which she lived was given her name in 1855.

Cordelia A.P. Harvey was a widow with guts. She had volunteered to help Wisconsin's Civil War wounded. What she discovered in hospitals horrified her. Typhus, diarrhea, and disease killed more soldiers than did battle wounds. Harvey contacted Abraham Lincoln - repeatedly - to secure government funds for a "Fresh Air" hospital for Wisconsin's soldiers.

Harriet Bell Merrill was a scientist who traveled to South America in search for invisible water fleas and other fauna. Lillie Rosa Minoka-Hill was a beloved doctor who started working with Native Americans and eventually won the trust of an entire town. Novelist Edna Ferber never found an obstacle she couldn't overcome. Margarethe Meyer Schurz founded a kindergarten in Watertown in the mid-1800's. And the American woman who angered Hitler? Her story is one you can't miss.

"More Than Petticoats" is a book about a dozen women who transcended culture, society, and politics to make a difference. While this book focuses on strong and determined women, it's not anything like the Girl Power books that seem to have flooded the market lately. Most of the women did what they did quietly but with conviction, and I doubt that many of them set out to do what they did, on the scale in which they did it. Many of these women are probably anonymous to most people around the country, in fact. Author Greta Anderson conveys that subtly; there is no over-the-top fanfare in her telling of the lives and deeds of these women. You get the facts with no U-Rah-Rah heroism, which is refreshing in a biography of this kind.

"More Than Petticoats" is a book that should be on the reading list of every middle school and high school history class this year. It's also a great book for adults. It will make you even more proud to say you're from Wisconsin.

GILBERT J. "GILLY," OR "GJ" MRAZIK

Gilbert J. "Gilly," or "GJ" Mrazik, 88, of West Bend passed away Wednesday, Aug. 18, 2004 at Cedar Community.

Gilly was born June 7, 1916 in the town of Trenton to the late Frank and Agnes (nee Fechter) Mrazik.

He married the late Dorothy M. (nee Zeltinger) on June 15, 1940 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Newburg. Following their marriage the couple lived in West Bend.

Gilly was employed by The West Bend Co. for over 48 years. When he retired in January, 1982, he had worked for The West Bend Co. longer than any other employee in company history.

A personal commendation from the company recognized his achievement by saying "You certainly have been an outstanding employee for all these years, and I wanted to congratulate you on setting the new record."

"You have given your time and effort and loyalty to The West Bend Co. and have probably set a record that will never be broken."

In addition to his dedication to his employer, Gilly was also strongly committed to the city of West Bend.

He served as an alderman on the West Bend City Council for 15 years and also served as the president of the Council.

His fellow alderpersons recognized his service to the City with a commendation for his Council years and also for his many years of service as the chairman of the Board of Public Works.

His religious faith gave him strength throughout life. He and Dorothy were active members of Holy Angels Parish since they moved to West Bend. Gilly served Holy Angels Parish many years as an usher and was active in the local Council of the Knights of Columbus, where he was a member for over 50 years.

In May, 1993, he and Dorothy were honored as their Family of the Month.

An incredibly generous spirit and an infectious smile endeared Gilly to everyone whose life he touched.

With love and respect he is survived by two children, Bernard (Jeannie Jerde) of Lake Mills and Mary Lee (Robert) Neuman of Fond du Lac; four grandchildren, Stephen (Christine Finlayson) Mrazik of Portland, Ore., Kathryn Mrazik of Denver, Colo., Robert (Jennifer) Neuman of Lakeville, Minn. and Rebecca (Jason) Childers of Gilbert, Ariz., two great-grandsons, Evan Mrazik of Portland and Michael Neuman of Lakeville; two sisters, Kathryn (Eddie) Furger and Rita (Willard) Schwinn; a brother, Franklin Mrazik; and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents and his wife, Dorothy, a sister, Dorothy (Clem) Ansay, preceded him in death.

A visitation was Saturday, Aug. 21, from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m. at Holy Angels Catholic Church, immediately followed by a Mass of Christian Burial.

Father Gerald Brittain officiated, and the burial followed in Washington County Memorial Park in West Bend.

THE STATESMAN

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Contrary to the negative media, there are those who take pride in believing in a leader who demonstrates a positive vision. Our Commander In Chief believes that freedom has the power to change the world. This leader lives and exhibits moral values. He is strong and determined, keeps his word and has the courage of his convictions. No matter how tough the going, this steadfast president has the best interests of our country at heart.

God Bless George W. Bush and God Bless America.

Letter to the Editor:

It's me again. Sunday, August 11, 2004 brought another memorable event for me. Though, I had been to Peace United Church of Christ for Kewaskum Ecumenical services for Lent and Ecumenical Thanksgiving services, I had never been to their PIGNIC held at the Kiwanis Community Park in Kewaskum on Sunday, August 1st.

It started with entertainment and little did we know it was going to be a family trio. The Garth Neustadter Trio. Ahhs and oohs were in store for us. Garth will soon be an 18 year old in high school. He played the electric violin, saxophone and sings (and fabulous at them all). Gary is his father, he plays the drums and sings. he also imitates Louie Armstrong and Elvis Presley. And, last but not least Kris, Garth's mother played the piano. From polkas to Bach, from Jesus Loves Me to Battle Hymn of the Republic! They also performed at the Wisconsin State Fair and even in Kamogawa, Japan.

There were so many events going on throughout the day. And, of course the pig roast and chicken roast topped it all!

So, we truly enjoyed it. Thanks to Peace Church and Rev. Eric Kirkegaard for having the event. See you next year!

Dear Editor:

Both Mary Panzer and Glenn Grothman are friends of mine and I do not intend to make any endorsements in their Senate primary. That being said, I am distressed by the tone the campaign has taken recently and am particularly disturbed by a pair of allegations that have been made that are not supportable by the facts. As

Setting the record straight in the 20th senate district race

To the Editor:

Of the right to life issues being discussed in the 20th State Senate District race, there seems to be some confusion regarding how Sen. Mary Panzer voted on two extremely important votes taken in the Wisconsin Legislature on right to life issues.

Incumbent Senator Mary Panzer voted against The Woman's Right to Know Act, which was enacted into law in 1996. Representative Glenn Grothman, who is challenging Panzer for the State Senate seat, was the Assembly author of that measure.

Prior to the enactment of the Grothman law, abortion clinics routinely and intentionally withheld vital information from women seeking abortions. They were not told about alternatives to abortion, the myriad of programs and organizations available to help them if they chose to carry their babies to term and if a woman asked about her unborn child, she was told the child was a blob of tissue or words to that effect. Twenty minutes later, the woman was on the table having an abortion with no time to even think about it.

The Woman's Right to Know Law changed that by requiring abortion clinics to provide women with all of the information necessary to make a truly informed decision and then, 24 hours to reflect on that information. Representative Grothman's Woman's Right to Know Law has saved thousands of lives since its enactment in 1996.

Panzer also voted in the early 1990's to repeal Wisconsin's criminal abortion statute which remains on the lawbooks but is unenforceable because of Roe v. Wade. If the U. S. Supreme Court should ever reverse Roe, the abortion statute would go back into effect. Numerous attempts have been made by the pro-abortion lobby to repeal the statute and Wisconsin Right to Life has successfully lobbied to defeat all such attempts.

By voting to repeal Wisconsin's criminal abortion statute, a legislator has voted to keep abortion on demand legal in Wisconsin, even if the U. S. Supreme Court should overturn Roe v. Wade. Wisconsin Right to Life views a legislator's vote to repeal the statute to be an extremely grave matter.

Susan Armacost
Legislative Director
Wisconsin Right to Life

Speaker of the Assembly, I would like to set the record straight on these items.

First, it has been alleged in a fundraising letter put out by the Panzer campaign that, "Glenn Grothman, as Caucus Vice Chairman of Assembly leadership, did NOTHING to get any taxpayer bill of rights passed." That statement is simply not true. As Speaker, I rely heavily on Representative Grothman for leadership, ideas and results. Throughout the session and again this summer, Rep. Grothman worked extremely hard with members of our caucus to craft a taxpayer bill of rights. Because of that hard work, we were able to build a 50-plus-vote majority in support of this measure in our house.

Second, the Panzer campaign has claimed recently that Representative Grothman was unable to move the Family Planning Waiver Bill, AB 634, in the State Assembly. This allegation, too, is simply not true, and Senator Panzer knows it. In fact, Representative Grothman worked hard to successfully pass this bill through the Family Law Committee and the Joint Committee on Finance and to have it ready for a floor vote. I did not allow AB 634 to come to a floor vote in the Assembly as a courtesy to Senator Panzer who had repeatedly pleaded with me not to bring the bill up and informed me that she had no intention of ever moving this bill or its Senate companion bill forward in her house.

Thank you for allowing me to set the record straight on these matters.

Sincerely,
John G. Gard
Assembly Speaker

Letter to the Editor:

Good weather, great crowds, numerous exhibitors and concessionaires, and a lot of volunteer effort were all part of the successful 2004 Fond du Lac County Fair. While the Fond du Lac County Agricultural Society oversees the annual event, it really takes all of the above mentioned to make the event succeed.

I'm inclined to think the nicest week of weather this summer was during fair week. While we experienced a storm Friday afternoon, it really didn't have a lasting effect on the fair. Youth and open class exhibitors went about their business showcasing the projects they worked so hard to complete for the fair.

ers. Other contributions assist in helping us provide an enjoyable time to those in attendance at our fair.

Volunteers are the backbone of our annual event. Whether it's taking tickets at the gate or working with the youth, the fair would not be successful without all the volunteer support we receive.

While the books are closing on another successful Fond du Lac County Fair, plans are well underway for next year's fair being held July 20-24, 2005.

Thank you to everyone who helped make the 2004 Fond du Lac County Fair a success. It is all greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Cristine Schwenck
Fair Secretary

Marines

through."

"Currently, we receive around five walk-throughs or rapid requests per day," said Giersch. "They're both high-priority requirements and get handled the same way."

To deliver higher-priority shipments, the SMU links up with CSSG-15's Arrival/Departure Airfield Control Group to have the equipment moved by air, said Fujimoto.

"I can get it out of here within hours," he said.

The electronic readers track the deliveries until they reach the ordering units, which can look up the status information themselves, by accessing the tracking server through the Internet, cutting down on phone calls from outfits trying to locate their equipment, said Fujimoto.

"They don't have to come ask me any more," he said.

Though the technology helps, it's the Marines that keep the SMU going and the SMU that keeps the operating forces of the I MEF up and running with the food, water and repair parts they need to get the job done.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Village of Kewaskum
Plan Commission
July 27, 2004
7:00 p.m.

The Plan Commission of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and pledge of Allegiance.

Chairperson Mathew Heiser called the meeting to order. Member Andrew Kuehl and Lecann Butschlick asked to be excused and were absent. It was noted that Lecann Butschlick has indicated she was resigning because of relocating outside of the village. Members present were Andy Pesch, Richard Schmidt, Frank Beesten and Theodore Meilahn. A quorum was present.

On a motion by Andy Pesch, seconded by Richard Schmidt and carried by the majority voice vote the Plan Commission approved the minutes as printed for June 21, 2004.

The Commission reviewed the conceptual plan for a proposed development south of the village on Prospect Road, located at the NW corner of Prospect Road and Badger Road. The land is currently known as the Behnke land and is being bought by Gary Gavin. The property can be served with a gravity sanitary sewer line and currently lies in the Land Use Plan and Sewer Service Area. The footprint is similar to the land use plan design, but does ask for multi-family condominium zoning. The Plan Commission weighed the proposal and Member Richard Schmidt asked numerous questions as to the ability of the Village to handle all of this new growth. Water, sewer, emergency government, etc. were discussed. Chairperson Mathew Heiser indicated a good discussion evolved and asked for a consensus of the Commission. Theodore Meilahn abstained from comment because of owning some adjacent property and Richard Schmidt was not in favor of additional development at this time. The other two members and the Chairperson were supportive of the plan.

The CSM's for Thomas Timblin have not been resubmitted for final review and it was the recommendation of the Village Engineer not to act on any type of approval. This led to the non action on any proposed Zoning Map Amendment change being moved forward. The potential of holding a special meeting prior to the Village board Meeting of August 16, 2004 was discussed if the developer paid the cost of said meeting. The consensus of the Commission was to schedule a meeting if the information is ready for action.

The Plan Commission revisited the potential placement of sidewalk on only one side of the bridge within the Cherokee Development. This was previously discussed as it would affect the DNR's actions regarding permitting. On a motion by Richard Schmidt, seconded by Theodore Meilahn and unanimously carried by voice vote the Commission recommended authorization for the placement of sidewalk on one side of the bridge (north side) with the appropriate cross walks and safety issues addressed, and sent the matter to the board with a favorable recommendation on this matter for the Developer's agreement.

Discussion took place regarding a point of clarification regarding the Woodland Creek I Development and the open space fee charges. It was acknowledged by the Commission that this is in fact a new development and does require a stand alone developers agreement. It is also understood that if phase I would have remained with the initial development the 4 acres donated in lieu of open space fee of $200.00 per lot would have also covered the estimated 40 remaining lots. It was because of Department of Transportation findings that the split occurred, not the villages nor the developers fault. On a motion by Andy Pesch, seconded by Theodore Meilahn and carried by the majority, the Commission recommended a compromise in reference to splitting the open space fee making it $100.00 upfront for each lot and leaving the additional units to pay the current charge/fee when applying for a building permit. (Be it noted Richard Schmidt voted against the adjustment of fees.)

The Administrator distributed the new Zoning Ordinance books to the Commission and reviewed again the proposed price list for the book and maps. In a brief discussion the Commission felt the cost of the book should be increased to $30.00 and if mailed out the actual cost for shipping and handling should be charged. On a motion Frank Beesten, seconded by Richard Schmidt and unanimously carried the Commission recommended the following fees to the Village board for the Zoning Ordinance book and maps: A copy of the Zoning Ordinance Book = $30.00, A copy of the Zoning Map Large Color = $15.00, A copy of the Zoning Map Large Black and White = $10.00, A Copy of the Zoning Map Small Color = $5.00, A copy of the Zoning Map Small Black and White = $1.00 and actual cost of shipping and handling be charged.

Discussion regarding the Multi-jurisdictional Comprehensive Planning effort by the County is proceeding. Discussion regarding the need for an individual village survey was discussed. The consensus of the Commission was that a community survey was completed in 1998 and there would be no major need to do one for a few additional years. The county one can be looked at to see if any significant change or feelings have changed by comparing the villages to any new questions the county may ask. This would be a cost of $7,000 we would not have to budget for.

The number and color "Flyers" needed for the public meetings was also discussed and it was felt the black and white flyers would be sufficient. The Plan Commission also discussed the need to have some of the county specialized for village use. Several of these maps have already been generated for the specific village use and if a need would arise for something specific that could always be extracted from the broader maps. It was the consensus that not a lot of extra expense should be incurred generating new maps especially at $75.00 a piece. If the Administrator or village engineers feel there are some specific maps that would benefit the village they should make that call. President Mathew Heiser and Trustee Andy Pesch should take these recommendations to the Board for consideration.

On a motion by Richard Schmidt seconded by Frank Beesten and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Commission adjourned the meeting. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 2 "Absent".

This past year the School District of Kewaskum conducted the following with respect to its asbestos containing materials:

*Implemented our Operations and Maintenance Program

Federal law requires a periodic walk-through (called "surveillance") every six months of each area containing asbestos. Also the law requires for all buildings to be re-inspected three years after a management plan is in effect. This will be accomplished under contract with MacNeil Environmental, Inc.

Short-term workers (outside contractors- i.e., telephone repair workers, electricians and exterminators) must be provided information regarding the location of asbestos in which they may come into contact. All short-term workers shall contact the lead maintenance person before commencing the work to be given this information.

The School District of Kewaskum has a list of the locations, types of asbestos-containing materials found in each building and a description and time table for their proper management. Lake of the Woods: New Frontiers

Hello Friends,

Lake of the Woods covers over 1 million acres, has a total of 65,000 miles of shoreline, and is a well-known destination for fishermen from all over the world.

My wife, Laurie, and I accepted an offer from Scott and Ruth Hurst, owners of Lake of the Woods Lodge to come and stay at their island resort. The resort is about five miles by boat from Nestor Falls, Ontario, Canada.

Tuesday, August 10
High 47°, Low 38°

I think it is only fair to pay tribute to 17-year-old Devin Allison, whose family owns Hanson's King Island Resort. Laurie, my daughter, Selina, and I were originally scheduled to stay at the Hansons, but Devin was killed in a boating accident on Saturday. The Hansons cancelled all of the resort's reservations.

When we arrived in Nestor Falls today, it was raining, 47 degrees and I had slept only one hour in the last 30. My plan on this trip was to check out some new country, make some new friends, and I hoped, catch a trophy musky. Lake of the Woods has a 54-inch size minimum on musky, and as I have been learning, has built quite the trophy fishery.

As far as a learning experience, I was impressed from the get go. Mike Hurst is Scott and Ruth's 18-year-old son. Mike picked us up at the public boat dock in a cold rain, and we took the five-mile ride to the lodge.

Lake of the Woods Lodge was built around 1925, has 10 cabins, and guests can opt for either a housekeeping or an American plan. We were offered the American plan, which meant no cooking for Laurie.

Laurie and I were exhausted and hit the rack before it was even dark outside.

Wednesday, August 11
High 60°, Low 44°

We're living high off the hog this week! Our boat is an 18-foot Lund and it has a 40 horse Honda outboard pushing it. (My dream rig). I took the family exploring this morning and this afternoon went musky fishing by myself. I was tossing a Musky Harasser which is basically bucktail spinner. I was working a dropoff that went from four to 25 feet in the distance of a cast and ended up in a bed of wild rice. I had high hopes of seeing a big fish.

My wish came true when a 30-pound log with fins and a tail followed my lure to the boat. It gave me a perfectly clear 10-second stare down, and then swam away.

The fish I saw was in the 48 inch range and very overweight. It completely solidified my goal of catching a musky. That evening I brought Laurie to the same spot. She was throwing a top water bait; I was throwing Burt which is a jerk bait. Three-year-old Selina came within four feet of getting her head bit off by another monster that jumped out of the water after my bait as I was pulling it out of the water.

Friday, August 13
High 73°, Low 46°

We have been here four days now and truly have become good friends with the Hursts. It doesn't matter if we are hanging out in the hot tub (heated by an underwater wood stove), eating in the lodge, or fishing with Mike or Scott. Everything is good. The Hursts winter in Nestor Falls, but have a goal of moving to the resort year round. Scott sets up a few deer hunts. He has been telling me about the monster bucks in the area, including a 32-pointer shot on an island near the resort last fall.

Today, Mike and I portaged into Kawakamik Lake where the Hursts have two boats. Kawakamik is known for its trophy small mouth with the biggest this year being 24 inches. Mike and I were having a good time catching smallies when I saw the biggest buck I have ever seen in the wild. It was swimming across the lake. Both his head and rack were huge.

Our last night in camp was both fun and sad. We hung out in the hot tub with a whole bunch of new friends. We were saddened by the fact that we would be saying goodbye.

On the upside of things, we were heading to my old hang out, Chimo Lodge, where life is always good. This will become an annual trip!

KHS golfers win dual meet Hein encouraged by early showings

By JUDY HARLOW

Just about as coach Carol Martin predicted, her Nos. 1 and 2 players were solid and the others struggled in the first three Kewaskum High golf team competitions of the 2004 season.

Juniors Katie Korth and Nicole Rimmel paced the Indians in a 230-283 victory over host Two Rivers at the Emerald Hill Golf Course on Wednesday. Korth shot a 45 to take medalist honors, while Rimmel was five shots back with her 50.

The competitions on Thursday and Friday were a lot tougher for the Indians, who finished 12th (with -94 points) out of 13th in a Modified Stableford competition Highlander Invitational held at the Hawthorne Hills Golf Course on Thursday. They wound up fourth (477 strokes) in the annual Sheboygan quad meet held at the Town and Country Golf Course Friday.

"Both juniors Kate Korth and Nicole Rimmel struck the ball well," Martin said of the opener. "The team is young this year ... putting has been a challenge at practice and will continue to be a focus."

About the Stableford competition, won by Hartland Arrowhead (138 points), Martin said, "Our girls got to see some of the toughest teams in the state. Our inexperience showed today."

In this scoring, players received 10 points for an eagle, 5 for a birdie, 3 points for pars, 1 point for bogeys, -1 for a double bogey and -3 for triple bogeys or higher.

In the match, Korth was low with a 52-50—102, with Rimmel four shots back at 55-51—106. Korth wound up with -4 points, Rimmel had -10, and the others were far back.

At Sheboygan, the combined North/South host school came in with a 373 total, 35 shots ahead of West Bend West.

"Nicole Rimmel had a good round today," Martin said, noting Rimmel started off with a 46 on the front nine and finished up with a 54 for an even 100. Korth was next at 55-52—107.

"Several of the girls got in some penalty situations, which inflated their scores," Martin said. "We are learning from our mistakes."

Kewaskum scores from the Two Rivers meet: Korth 45, Rimmel 50, Erika Nothem 67, Maggie Dickmann 68

KHS scores from the Highlander meet: Korth 102, Rimmel 106, Nothem 133, Chelsea Weare 144.

KHS scores from the Sheboygan meet: Rimmel 100, Korth 107, Dickmann 125, Nothem 145.

There were some encouraging signs shown by members of the Kewaskum High girls' tennis team in its Aug. 19th opener against Hamilton High of Sussex.

Sophomore Allison Kowalczyk and senior Krystal Cochran exhibited good skills in winning their matches, but the Indians lost the competition by a close 4-3 margin.

"Allison Kowalczyk played a very solid all around match," Coach Kevin Hein said about his No. 2 singles player who opened with a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Brenna Pratt.

Cochran also needed just two sets to put away her opponent, Maggie Lawrence. Cochran won 6-1, 6-4.

The other win came at No. 2 doubles where newcomer Rachel Breese combined with Katie Kurer to topple September Mueller and Missy Akins.

"Katie and Rachel started off slow, being down 1-4 in the first set, but they came back and won," Hein said about the 7-5, 6-3 victory.

In Saturday's Washington County Tournament held in Hartford, two Indian doubles teams and Cochran won their opening round matches, then could not clear the next hurdles.

"It's a very tough tournament, all Division 1 schools," Hein said. "You've got Germantown, Hartford and the two West Bend schools."

West Bend East captured the title, scoring 31 points, nine ahead of Germantown. The host Orioles came in third with 20, followed by West Bend West, 17; Slinger, 15; Milwaukee King, 10; Kewaskum in seventh place with 6 points, and Port Washington with 5.

Cochran defeated Vanessa Armstrong of King 6-3, 5-7, 6-0 in the first round but lost her next two matches to place fourth.

At No. 2 doubles, it was Breese and Kurer getting past Tracy and Wanke of Slinger 6-3, 7-6 but fell to King and West in subsequent rounds.

At No. 3 doubles, Feucht and Trott won in straight sets over Port's duo of Weinberger/Sternemann 6-4, 6-2, but they too had to settle for fourth place, losing their next two matches.

After opening Eastern Wisconsin Conference play against Manitowoc Roncalli on Tuesday, the Indians are at Two Rivers today (Thursday).

Doubles: Natasha Lawrence/Nicole Behring lost to Sara Koll/Noelle Korpela, 6-2, 3-6, 1-6; Kurer/Breese def. Mueller/Akins, 7-5, 6-3; Ashley Feucht/Theresa Trott lost to Sarah Buck/Maria Romagna, 3-6, 6-2, 4-6.

Cheese making predates recorded history, but we can thank the British for Cheddar. It is named for a village near Cheddar Gorge in Somersetshire, England. While the exact date of its development is not known, Cheddar has been made at least since the 17th century and is considered America's favorite cheese. Wisconsin is now King of Cheddar. If you counted Wisconsin's Cheddar population alone, the state would rank eighth in the world cheese production.

Shea's homer lifts A's to win in finale

When members of the Kewaskum Athletics home talent baseball team gather to socialize this winter, more than likely there will be talk about their season finale, a hard-fought 9-5 victory over host Waupun.

"They led most of the game. We finally took the lead in the eighth inning," A's spokesperson Jim Ziegler said Sunday night about the game that took place earlier in the day.

A four-run rally in the top of the eighth, fueled by clutch hits by Adam Sarauer and Matt Millonig and a big blast by Dan Shea, put the Athletics in the driver's seat.

Ziegler took care of the rest, pitching shutout ball in the last two innings.

Both Rock River clubs came up with 13 hits in the contest, but Waupun only garnered one double off Ziegler, while the A's had three dingers and several doubles which proved to be the hosts' demise.

After being down 1-0 after two innings, Josh Parrent got the Athletics on the board with his solo shot to left field in the top of the third.

Waupun answered with another run in its half of the third, but Jason Strobel, the A's player/manager socked a solo round-tripper in the top of the fourth to tie the game at 2-2.

Waupun touched Ziegler for single runs in the fourth and fifth before the A's added a pair in the top of the sixth. There were two outs when Sarauer doubled, Matt Parrent singled him home and later scored on a Josh Parrent single, putting the score at 4-4.

Waupun came back with another run in the sixth to go up 5-4 but it couldn't answer the A's four-run eighth.

Again it was Sarauer igniting the uprising with a leadoff double. After a strikeout, Ziegler stroked an RBI single, tying the game at 5-5. Ziegler was erased on a fielder's choice, but Josh Parrent (who was safe on the fielder's choice) stole second and came racing home on Milonig's base hit, then Shea, who just finished his freshman year at Kewaskum High School, launched a 2-run homer.

It was his first home run playing for the A's, and Ziegler acknowledged, "He (Shea) and Matt (Parrent) helped us out at the end (of the season) ... very much."

Ziegler struck out eight and walked just two in the nine-inning effort. He ended up the 2004 campaign with a 7-5 record, 7-4 in the Rock River.

Shawn Scott took the loss. He also was Waupun's leading hitter, going 3x5.

For the winners, who ended up 10-8 in the RR and 15-15 overall, it was Sarauer and Josh Parrent both going 3x5.

Even though the young A's missed by one place earning a berth in the RR playoffs, Ziegler said the players were satisfied with their improvement this summer.

"We doubled our wins in the Rock River," he said. "It's something to build on."

Indians eager to face East in Opener Korth fires a 47 for Indians

By JUDY HARLOW STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Coming off a successful scrimmage experience against West Bend West and Grafton, the Kewaskum High football team is eager to see what it can do in live game action tomorrow night as it hosts West Bend East in the first of two non-conference games.

"I was pleased. I didn't know what to expect," second-year head Coach Jason Piittmann said last weekend about the scrimmage. "Last year, West and Grafton took it to us pretty good."

The Indians reversed the role on Friday, scoring multiple touchdowns vs. their opponents, prompting Piittmann to say, "Garett (Donath) ran real well. and Chad (Piwoni) ran the offense very well."

When the preseason camp opened, one of the biggest battles for a starting role was expected at the quarterback position between the junior Piwoni (6-foot, 1-inch, 165 pounds) and sophomore Casey Scheel (6-1, 147), who started one game at the end of last season after starter Ryan Koepke went down with a season-ending leg injury.

Piwoni has proven he will be the Indian signal-caller, according to Piittmann, who said, "He just came in and assumed a leadership role right away." What Piittmann liked especially about Piwoni's performance in the scrimmage was the way he ran the ball and how well he distributed his passes to several receivers.

"Of our four or five top receivers, each one had at least one reception," Piittmann said. "He spread the ball around."

The Indians appear to have a lot of depth at the end and flanker positions, with Eric Nass (senior, 6-1, 155), Eric Cain (junior, 5-10, 145) ready to share the flanker position, Jeremy Gurholt (junior, 6-3, 155) the leading candidate at split end and sophomore Matt Parrent (6-4, 186) a big target at the tight end spot.

Donath and Nass are two of the 12 returning lettermen Piittmann and his staff are working with, and of the 10 seniors on the squad, eight won letters last year.

Zach Holm (Sr., 5-10, 142), back at a cornerback spot, is one of the returning letter winners, along with center Lee Schmidt (Sr., 5-9, 180) tackles Sam Lieven (Sr. 6-0, 264), Alex Herriges (Sr., 6-2, 207), Adam Jung (Sr., 5-11, 206), guard Brett Zimdars (Sr., 6-2, 219), flanker Matt Seefeldt (Sr., 5-7, 177), and fullback/linebacker Andy Marx (Sr., 5-9, 172). Junior lettermen are Ross Stockhausen (6-2, 196) and tackle Jeff Thull (6-0, 206).

Stockhausen, who pretty well has the fullback spot sewn up, will be the Indian punter after posting the second best average in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference last year. He earned honorable mention from the coaches for his efforts.

Key losses from a year ago include David Wicklund, who was a first team pick at outside linebacker and an honorable mention running back, Tim Trott, a unanimous all-EW outside linebacker, along with center Peter Paulus and defensive end Brandon Gitter, who were given honorable mention.

Plymouth captured the EW title in 2003, and Piittmann looks at the Panthers to be solid again this fall. "Plymouth has outstanding athletes ... size, speed and skill positions," Piittmann said, indicating Sheboygan Falls could also be a contender because of its excellent tradition under coach Dan Juedes. Juedes' son, Jacob Juedes, is likely to be the Falcons' starting quarterback this fall, according to Piittmann.

The way Piittmann sees the EW race, there will be four teams, including his own Indians, Campbellsport, New Holstein and Roncalli, battling for the third through sixth places. "I think these four teams can be considered pretty even going into the season," the coach said. "The first couple of weeks will be interesting to see how things take shape."

What is especially exciting is Kewaskum faces Sheboygan Falls, Campbellsport and Plymouth in order to end the season.

"It will be tough to battle Plymouth for the conference title, but if we stay healthy and the younger players step up like they are capable of doing, we could be in a good position entering the last three weeks of the season," Piittmann said.

Kewaskum finished a very disappointing 2-5 (seventh place) in the EW last year, missing a berth in the playoff which only requires a winning record under the format used in recent years.

"I firmly believe we can get back into the WIAA playoffs. We were out of it (last year) for the first time in five years," Piittmann said.

For the game against the East Suns, Piittmann listed the following tentative starting lineup: Offense — quarterback, Piwoni; running backs, Donath and Stockhausen; flanker, Cain and Nass; tight end, Parrent; split end, Gurholt; tackles Bryan Daggett (Jr., 6-2, 240) and Jung; guards Thull and Herriges; and center Robert Weber (Jr., 5-11, 196).

On defense, the ends will be Zimdars and Herriges and the interior linemen are Levien and Jung, with Derrick Engelman (6-4, 215) also expected to see a lot of action.

The linebackers will be Thull, Marx, Zach Wollner (6-0, 168), along with Jonathan Olla in the mix.

Kewaskum High junior Kate Korth finished second overall, but the Lady Indians wound up in last place in Monday's Little Ten golf opener held at Watertown Country Club.

Korth shot 47 on the par-34 front nine, six shots off the medal total of 41 posted by Abby Johnson of Oconomowoc. As a team, the Indians came in with a 241.

"We didn't do well as a team," KHS Coach Carol Martin said, "Kate had a great round. She had two pars."

Martin had figured Watertown and Oconomowoc would be strong in the LT this season, and the two were 1-2 in the meet, with 201 and 209, respectively. West Bend West finished third at 210, then there were a gap until Hartsocker to football this season, will also handle the kicking duties according to Piittmann, who said he has a strong leg but needs to get more consistent.

The defensive backs are Holm, Donath and Nass. On defense, Kewaskum uses a 4-4 set, but will also go into a 5-2, according to Piittmann, who said, "The kids know it."

Kickoff time for Friday's game is 7 p.m.

ford's 223, the 231 by Beaver Dam and West Bend East's 236.

Normally Nicole Remmel scores about the same as Korth, but Martin said, "She got herself in trouble on a couple holes ... lost a ball" and had to settle for a 58, which is way over her average.

The other Indian counters are both newcomers to the varsity. Erika Norem carded a 63 and sophomore Chelsea Weare posted a 73.

"We're rebuilding this year," Martin said.
