Battle lines have been drawn in State Senate race

By JUDY HARLOW
 STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
 jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

When the two major parties have offered a choice of candidates, the Republicans have held the upper hand in Washington County politics over the past several decades, but the current primary race for the 20th Senate District seat has the conservative major party splitting into two contrasting camps.

Incumbent Mary E. Panzer, 52, has held the Senate seat since 1993. She is being challenged by Glenn Grothman, 49, a member of the Wisconsin State Assembly since 1993.

"I am running for reelection as your Senator from the 20th District to continue to protect and build — through frugal, responsible government — the strengths of community, family, education and a strong economy that make the 20th District so great," Panzer said in a recent statement on her political background and platform.

After graduating from Mayville High School and attending the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Panzer followed in the footsteps of her father who also worked in the political arena for much of his life.

Panzer is currently the co-chairman of President George W. Bush's election campaign in Wisconsin and is the Senate Majority Leader in the state.

Grothman, who graduated from Homestead High School and UW-

Glenn Grothman

Madison with a degree in law, is a former practicing attorney. He was first elected to the Assembly in a special election, was reelected in 1994 and has served as the majority caucus vice president since 1999.

"After spending 11 years in the State Assembly leading the conservative fight against excessive spending, I am asking voters to carry this fight to the State Senate," Grothman said about his reason for wanting the Senate seat.

One of Grothman's major stands is for pro life, an issue he has staunchly supported. In the past, he has been named as Pro Life Wisconsin Legislator of the Year and had also been presented the Pro-Life Hero Award from the Wisconsin Right to Life group.

The two have taken different sides on the question of the additional sales tax to build Miller Park. Panzer argues having a major league baseball team in Milwaukee creates jobs and a healthy economy for residents in the counties paying the extra tax.

Grothman thinks it is ridiculous to have people in Washington and Ozaukee Counties pay for woes created in Milwaukee County.

"I am especially eager to lead an even stronger Republican majority to build upon the platform we set," Panzer said. "With myself as majority leader, we built that platform by electing the Republican majority that enabled us to pass the property tax freeze, the constitutional amendment defining marriage as between a man and a woman, the Person Protection Act, health care legislation, the Jobs Creation Act, and the Conscience Clause; as well as win our lawsuit against Governor Doyle on unconstitutional gaming compacts."

Mary Panzer

"We need a Taxpayer Bill of Rights. I will fight the new program to give free birth control to 15 and 16 year-olds without their parents' knowledge. My opponent is an experienced senator but not a conservative senator," Grothman stated.

Panzer went on say her three top priorities for a new term are "to cut taxes and introduce a passable taxpayer's bill of rights, rebuild Wisconsin's job base and economy, and stem

Former Kewaskum Village President is adamant about TABOR attack State Senate race keeps growing

Yet another individual has tossed his hat into the race to defeat Senator Mary Panzer. The latest challenger is a former village president from Kewaskum.

Unhappy with how the race for this seat has progressed John Kenworthy, 44, announced his intentions to engage in a write-in campaign on the Democratic ticket. Kenworthy referred to the race as "quickly gone to Tax Hell in a Handbasket and I, for one, have had enough."

In a letter sent to the media, Kenworthy continues "What had begun as a serious, intelligent dialogue aimed toward alleviating the overwhelming tax burden placed upon Wisconsin's citizens, has now deteriorated into a donnybrook of accusations, finger pointing and circus demagoguery. Instead of debating pertinent policy, we find ourselves embroiled in he-said/ she-said controversies regarding stolen yard signs, misleading campaign literature, personal attacks and a game of who endorses whom — none of which has the slightest thing to do with what we are electing these supposed professionals to do."

Kenworthy says he is running for three reasons and three reasons alone: TABOR, TABOR, TABOR!!! (The Tax Payer Bill Of Rights.)

"I need to make it very clear from the onset that as an eleventh-hour, write-in, Democratic candidate; I harbor no delusions of actually winning anything. That is not my purpose here. I have no doubt in my mind but what Glenn Grothman will be our next Senator, and perhaps rightly so. Ms. Panzer has had enough political faux pas' in recent years to give even Howard Dean palpitations. My fear is that Grothman's election will be seen not merely as being the result of Panzer's very painful and public self-destruction, but rather as a victory for the present iteration of TABOR itself as both a litmus test for conservative values (which is fine) and as a mandate towards its immediate enactment (which is not so fine as it currently stands.), stated Kenworthy in his letter.

While he believes that TABOR is well-intended he says, "Wisconsin indeed has become a Tax Hell — and while that path may be paved with good intentions - the inferno is seemingly getting hotter with every passing day. But the idea of a Constitutional Amendment — which is a supposedly permanent piece of legislation — should not be embraced in a cavalier or off-hand fashion without first debating at great length the pros and cons of such an amendment. I do not believe that TABOR has undergone that degree of scrutiny as of yet, especially with the climate of the campaign as it presently stands. As a taxpayer, that scares me to death."

Kenworthy's states that the current version of TABOR shifts the power of tax control away from the local municipalities to the State of Wisconsin. "That rankles me on a fundamental, Jeffersonian level, says Kenworthy. His major problem with the TABOR

Thrivent presents check to Kewaskum FD

Diane Lemke, center, Thrivent Member of the North Washington County Chapter #30068 was pleased to present a check for $1,530.90 to Kewaskum Fire Chief Mark Groeschel, right, and Mark Herriges, left.

The North Washington County Chapter #30068 of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans was pleased to be able to match funds raised at the Recycling Fundraiser held during Memorial Day weekend in Kewaskum. Monies donated will go towards equipment to equip the new Polaris six-wheeler recently purchased by the Kewaskum Fire/Ambulance service. This new piece of equipment was acquired to get to those hard to get places in the Kettle Moraine when injuries occur on trails and in the woods.

The North Washington County Chapter #30068 and Kewaskum Congregational Members of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans has helped the Kewaskum Fire/Ambulance in previous years by donating monies for the thermal imaging camera and fire-works. The Kewaskum Congregational Committee would like to thank everyone who donated clothing in the truck for the recycling fundraiser. This project was so successful because of citizens in the community caring about others.

This year we collected

15,360 pounds which nearly filled the semi-trailer and was a great success. A big thank you to all the helpers who helped distribute flyers and manned the semi-trailer by hauling and lifting the numerous heavy bags that were dropped off.

ter, Bethesda's Camp Matz coordinator, the volunteers fill a very important need in the Camp Matz program. "Volunteers provide our campers the one-on-one attention they need to perform activities. ## Cast, Chorus & Crew Members Needed For UW-WC Fall Theatre

WEST BEND - UW - Washington County will be holding auditions for the fall musical production of Celebration on Tuesday evening, September 14, 2004. Auditions for this musical comedy will be held from 7:00 to 10:00 pm in the University Theatre. The leading roles include three men (ages 18-75) and one woman (age 18-25). Additional chorus roles are also needed (6 male and 6 female). All roles are major and include singing and dancing.

The authors, Tom Jones (lyrics) and Harvey Schmidt (music), created the same adventurous theatrical techniques they pioneered in The Fantasticks. The authors' wanted to expand the scope of the Broadway musical by combining the aspects of myth and ritual with popular entertainment. Celebration is an allegorical tale that begins on a magical New Year's Eve, when a young orphan stumbles into the home of the richest man in the world. The orphan helps Mr. Rich regain his humanity, but then becomes locked in a ritualistic battle for Angel's love (a girl longing to be somebody).

Celebration will be directed by Theatre Arts Professor Brad Ford and performed for two weekends: October 22-23 and 29-30 at 7:30pm. In addition to cast and chorus members, crew members for behind-the-scenes work are also needed.

For more information, contact Professor Ford at (262) 335-5222. Scripts are available for perusal from the University library. For ticket sales, phone the main office at 262-335-5208 (Monday through Friday 8am-4:30pm). UW-Washington County is located at 400 University Drive in West Bend.

Plans underway for Scarecrow Contest

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce and the Friends of Kewaskum are pleased to announce the eighth annual Scarecrow Contest being held in conjunction with the Kettle Kountry Kolors Fall Festival.

The Friends of Kewaskum will be holding the 15th annual Kettle Kountry Kolors on October 8, 9 and 10. Sixth, seventh and eighth graders from Holy Trinity, St. Lucas and Kewaskum Middle School are eligible to enter a scarecrow in the contest. Competition acceptance and approval must be granted by the students' teacher. Judging will take place on Friday, October 10.

Judging will be based on the following five designs: costume idea, expressions (facial and body), colors used in single design, creative use of materials.

All designs must be sturdy weather resistant and thief proof. It also should have a laminated 4x6 card with the following information: name of scarecrow, school and student(s) names. ## Local Farmer Receives Dairy Grant

MADISON - Governor Jim Doyle recently announced that 10 Wisconsin dairy producers have received $30,000 in funding from the Department of Commerce's Dairy 2020 Program.

"My Grow Wisconsin plan calls for revitalizing the dairy industry," Gov. Doyle said. "Dairy 2020 grants provide professional planning assistance as dairy producers consider initiatives to improve on-farm profitability. I am pleased that we can help these dairy producers hire professional services and obtain sound business advice."

Eugene E. Heterbrueg of Allenton, received a $3,000 Dairy 2020 grant. He will use the funds to hire professional services necessary to evaluate the feasibility of expanding his dairy farm.

The Dairy 2020 Program, administered by the Department of Commerce, helps improve the dairy business climate through business, government and education partnerships. It also provides individual Early Planning Grants of up to $3,000 to dairy producers for professional services necessary to evaluate the dairy farms.

Work to begin on County Trunk S

County Trunk Highway S from the Kewaskum village limits northerly approximately 1.0 miles to the Fond Du Lac County line will be under construction beginning Wednesday, September 15, 2004. The work should be completed by Friday, September 24, 2004, if weather conditions are favorable. This work is a continuation of the ongoing cooperative sewer, water, and repaving project within the Village of Kewaskum on CTH S from the Washington/Fond Du Lac County Line.

The road will be closed to through traffic but access to abutting properties will be allowed. Motorists should expect delays of up to 10 minutes if they have to travel through the construction area. Motorists are asked to use extra care when driving in the construction area and obey all flagmen and construction signs.

The project north of the village limits consists of pulverizing the existing pavement, resurfacing, and shouldering. The paving will be done by Payne and Dolan under contract with the Washington County Highway Department. County forces will then construct new shoulders, paint pavement markings, and do other finish work.

If you have any questions about this news release please call the Washington County Highway Department at 262-335-4435 and ask for Ken Pesch or Nick Becker.

W.B. teen awaiting charges for alleged sexual assault

A 17 Year old from West Bend is awaiting charges for allegedly sexually assaulting a 13 year old girl, police say. Although the girl says the act was Consensual, state statutes indicate she is not able to make that decision. The pair reportedly hooked up at the the end of last month at a home on Morgan Drive. Police say the girl was initially listed as a runaway. She met the boy at McDonalds on West Washington Street, walked through Regner Park and then to a home on Morgan. Aside from second degree sexual assault charges, the 17 year old is also facing bail jumping charges. Another 18 year old, who was in the home at the time of the activity was also arrested for drug charges. The 17 year old will appear in Washington County Court, later this month before Judge Andy Gonring.

Knife found in backpack of W.B. student knife was found in his backpack. Police Lieutenant Dave Rettler says the knife was found after the student reported his backpack missing. When the pack was found, the knife was inside.

Former W.B. teacher accused of thefts

The Washington County Sheriff's Department says Gary Collins is in the county jail on felony charges related to several thefts.

Captain Dale Schmidt says Collins was initially arrested for allegedly stealing a boat that was parked by a garage in the Town of Barton. He says that reportedly happened August 21st.

The 66-year-old man reportedly taught at the West Bend High School years ago. Collins is due back in Washington County Court for a hearing October 1 before Judge Andy Gonring.

Schmidt says the boat was reportedly taken from behind a garage in Barton. It was later found at a business in Octonto County. Collins is currently being held on a $1,500 cash bond.

Collins is just the latest former to teacher to be in trouble. Earlier this year instructor, Tim Kirk, who is scheduled to be sentenced in the coming weeks for his involvement in a child porn ring in Dodge County. Kirk taught at Holy Angels in West the rising cost of health care by spearheading a more consumer-driven health care system."

Grothman platform has stressed "protecting out values," values he said are designed to ensure conservative spending, thus protecting the taxpayers.

The primary is being held on Tuesday, Sept. 14th.

Two write-in candidates, Democrat Elysse Chay of Grafton and John Kenworthy of Kewaskum have been late additions to the race.

Chay was very active in politics while she was a student at UW-Milwaukee where she led the Student Government's effort in a "Get Out the Vote" drive to encourage students to register and vote in the 2000 fall election. Some of the voting wards surrounding UWM saw their greatest turnout ever during that election.

If Chay receives enough votes in the primary, her name will be added to the ballot for the Nov. 2nd election and face the winner of the Sept. 14 primary.

Herriges ready to challenge to be Knights top goalie

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

When Margaret "Maggie" Herriges was the goalie on the Kewaskum High soccer team, there wasn't much hope for a lot of team success because the players were so inexperienced.

Since moving on to play for St. Norbert College in De Pere, however, Herriges has been surrounded by good talent, and in a supporting role, she has been able to help the Green Knights to a couple solid seasons in the Midwest Conference.

"Freshman season, I didn't play very much. Last year, I played quite a bit ... I started some games and played some entire games. I play when they need me," Herriges said last week before leaving for the campus and the team's first practice, which took place on Aug. 20th.

In order to push for the starting role this year, Herriges participated in a speed camp after spring break with the St. Norbert football players, and she also played in some summer scrimmages with the Kewaskum High players. She deemed herself ready to own the Green Knight net or to at least trade off starting with the other goal keeper on the team.

"We have about 24 girls on the team," Herriges said, with herself and another experienced goalie to help the Knights improve on their 2003 record of 12-3-2 and a third place finish (6-1-2) in the conference title race, which was won last year by Grinnell.

Herriges played in seven games last fall and started two. She had 18 saves in those appearances, according to statistics made available by the Midwest Conference. She posted a 2-0-1 record in the games she played in.

While Carroll is really the biggest rival for St. Norbert, advancing in the NCAA Division 3 tournament is really the major goal for Herriges and her teammates. The top four teams in conference play advance to the Midwest Tournament, and the winner of the tournament automatically earns a berth in the NCAA competition.

In 2002, St. Norbert's advanced to the finals of the Midwest Tournament before losing, and last year, the Knights were upended in the opening round of action.

It's an intense week," Herriges said about tournament time, indicating college players are very serious about the way they play their game.

And what are some other differences between the college and high school games? "College soccer is a lot faster ... It's faster and it's rougher," Herriges said, plus, "You're playing with the best players (from the high school level)."

Herriges was proud to be the first girl at KHS to play all four years on the varsity, and now she wants to elevate her game to become a top level college goal keeper. "I want to get more playing time ... to be able to prove I can step up as hopefully a first-team goal keeper," she said.

The Green Knights open with a non-conference game at Edgewood College on Sept. 1st, and their first home game will be Saturday, Sept. 4th against Lake Forest College, a Midwest Conference opponent.

Herriges is a biology major at St. Norbert's, and going to graduate school is definitely in her plans.

Steinhardt is hooked on being triathlete

Lauren Steinhardt is gearing up for Sunday's Iron Man Triathlon in Madison.

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

When she made the transition from Kewaskum High School to the University of Wisconsin several years ago, Lauren Steinhardt was looking for an activity to take the place of her sports of choice, volleyball and basketball.

Intramurals didn't fit the bill, but then Steinhardt saw information on a triathlon club, and after training for and competing in her first race, as she put it, "I was hooked."

How does anyone enjoy swimming 1.5 miles, biking 25 miles and then topping the effort off with a 10-kilometer (6.0 mile) run? It's a question most people don't have the answer for, and they undoubtedly question the sanity of a person who is eagerly preparing for a 2.4 mile swim, a 112-mile bike ride and a full marathon (26.2 miles). Yet that's exactly what Steinhardt is currently working toward ... she and approximately 70 other UW Triathlon club members are gearing up for the Iron Man Triathlon that will take place in Madison on Sept. 12th.

"That's when it gets tough," Steinhardt said about the ultimate challenge she will take on for the second time in her relatively young triathlon career.

Already this year, Steinhardt, who graduated with a degree in social work this past spring, has competed in a "sprint" triathlon in Whitewater, which included 500 yard swim, a 15-mile bike ride and a 3.0 mile run.

In July, Steinhardt competed in a half-triathlon in Muncie, Indiana and took first in her age group, 20-24 after finishing in 4 hours and 56 minutes (4:56.00). On Aug. 15th, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, she was fairly close to that mark, with a time of 5:01.

Adding those two times together, however, still doesn't come close to the time it will take Steinhardt to finish the Iron Man.

"I'm shooting for under 12 hours," she said, indicating her first try at such an event was made much more difficult than expected because, "My stomach decided to shut down," so she could not take on much in the way of nutrition drinks to help her continue.

As a result, Steinhardt crossed the finish line in 13 and 1/2 hours.

"It was a lot slower than I wanted it to be," she said, recalling the heat the athletes had to deal with last year and how she was able to only drink cold chicken broth and warm Coca Cola at the end. "It was what got me through," she said.

So how does a person get ready for such a grueling event? Steinhardt said she trains in cycles, some times going hard for two weeks before she gives herself a day off." Also, the training can range from two hours a day to eight hours per day, but the preparation doesn't stop in the pool, on the bike or running on a road course.

Nutrition is very important, according to Steinhardt, who says she uses certain energy gels, like GU, which have high caloric counts. "The low carb Atkins diet wouldn't do for me," she said, adding getting the proper rest is also very important.

Steinhardt feels a lot more prepared for this year's race than she did a year ago. "I think I'm definitely ready," she said. "This year I want to compete."

Improving her swimming has been important, especially considering Steinhardt never took any swimming lessons as a young girl. "That was a challenge," she said, indicating biking is a whole different story. "I could spend forever on my bike."

For the approximately 1,900

who are entered in the Madison Iron Man, the final countdown begins on Saturday when the triathletes have pre-race meetings and bring in their bikes to have them checked over.

And all the participants are weighed, "for medical reasons," Steinhardt said, indicating "Last year, from the beginning to the end of the race, I lost eight pounds."

The pre-race meal is also important, according to Steinhardt, who said, "I want to eat my mom's (Mary) lasagna, but I don't know how that's going to work out" unless she brings some from Kewaskum to Madison.

Despite all the sacrifices that have to be made to train for triathlons, Steinhardt loves being a part of them. "I could talk a long, long time about triathlons," she said. "It's a lot of fun to be around people who are also interested in them."

'Crashing for the Cause' at County Fairgrounds

On Saturday, September 25 at 1:00 p.m. the Washington County Fairgrounds will be the home of the first annual "Crashin' for the Cause" charity demolition derby to benefit the Tuberous Sclerosis (TS) Alliance.

TS is a disorder that causes benign tumors to form in many different organs, primarily in the brain, eyes, heart, kidney, skin and lungs (from the Tuberous Sclerosis Alliance website, www.tsalliance.org).

Malayna Kopf, a 2-year old from Eldorado, was diagnosed with TS when she was one-month old. She underwent two separate surgeries this past April at the Children's Hospital of Wisconsin in Milwaukee to remove some of the tubers in her brain. She is now making a full recovery. Her father, Joe Kopf, a veteran demo derby driver, is organizing the event as a way to raise awareness of this disease. All proceeds from the derby will be donated to the Tuberous Sclerosis Alliance, the national organization supporting the research of this presently incurable disease.

Admission fees are $10 for adults, $6 for students ages 9-16, and free for children 8 and younger.

Interested sponsors and/or drivers are encouraged to call Joe at (920) 979-9889. Additional information can be found at www.pandppromotions.com.

Paws for the Red, White and Blue

Canines from all over the county and beyond will be converging on West Bend Saturday, September 11 for The Washington County Humane Society's annual Walk for Animals. Bob Bonefant of WBKV and his sheltie, "Mr. Socko," will lead the dogs and their human companions along the course on city streets starting and ending at Silverbrook Middle School. There is also a 1 1/2 mile walk available for less-active participants.

Last year, the shelter raised $20,000 for the animals in their care and hope to reach $24,000 this year. Marnie Brown, Executive Director of WCHS said, "The walk is one of our biggest fundraisers and a lot of fun. In the past we've had goats, miniature horses, ferrets in a baby buggy...even a large turtle being pulled in a wagon."

Participants will receive a free walk t-shirt if they raise at least $40 in pledges, and all dogs will wear red, white and blue bandanas. They will also be able to visit vendors such as Petlicious Dog Bisquit Bakery, or have their dog's nails trimmed by Patti's Groomery. Several dog rescue groups will be on hand to showcase their breeds, and shelter dogs up for adoption will be attending as well. Food, raffles and door prizes will add to the fun.

Advance registration is $12 for individuals, $25 for a family of four, or $60 for corporate teams. People can also register the day of the walk starting at 9 a.m. ($15 for individuals, $30 for a family of four, or $75 for corporate teams). The walk starts promptly at 10 a.m. rain or shine! # United Way kicks off 2004 campaign

The United Way of Washington County will kick off its 2004 Campaign - Give From the Heart and Change a Life - on Wednesday, Sept. 8 from 11:45 to 1:15 p.m. at the Hartford Town Hall, 3360 County Trunk Highway K. Tom Hostad of Broan-NuTone LLC will serve as the 2004 Campaign Chair.

"Making an impact in the lives of people in Washington County is what matters most," said Hostad, 2004 Campaign Chair. "Whether you work or live in Washington County, your donation to the 2004 United Way Campaign helps people of all ages throughout our 10 communities find success. When you give from the heart, you can change a life."

At the kickoff, Hostad will premier the 2004 United Way Campaign Video and announce the goal for this year's campaign.

"Our thousands of donors and hundreds of volunteers are committed to help others strengthen their lives," Hostad said. "Businesses and individuals in Washington County are extremely supportive of United Way. We're confident that their support will continue and be even greater this year," he said.

"If people have never given before, $1 a week is a great place to start. For donors who have generously given in the past, even 50 cents more per week makes a big difference."

The 2003 United Way Campaign raised $1,047,412. Funds raised through United Way of Washington County's annual Campaign are invested in 47 programs offered through 24 nonprofit agencies in Kewaskum, Jackson, Slinger, Allenton, Hartford, Newburg, Hubertus, Richfield, Colgate and West Bend. "By supporting the United Way Campaign, donors help us continue the tradition of making a difference by investing in programs that matter most in the lives of those in need," Hostad said.

Kenworthy

are those parts which veer from the State controlling itself to the State imposing its myopic will over local governments - towns, villages, school boards, county boards. "Having served in municipal government, I find this condescending in the extreme and severely misguided. I am not so naïve that I believe all local governments always take the best interests of their constituents in hand, but I do believe that they are better positioned to do so than a group of legislators in Madison who are separated by distance and narrow-minded political agenda," stated Kenworthy.

Kenworthy served as Village President in Kewaskum for seven years. His replacement, Matt Heiser has recently come out in favor of Grothman. "Ultimately, I believe in what Glenn is attempting to do. I believe that the will of the people should trump party machinations. I believe that a public servant's sense of right and wrong should trump party loyalty. I believe that a candidates' dedication to the people and to their convictions should trump job security. Thus I support Glenn's effort to take this bold step."

The former village president states that he does not intend to vigorously campaign for the seat. "I will print no yard signs, bumper stickers, buttons or billboards. I will neither solicit, nor accept any endorsements from any organizations or groups. I will raise no funds, and I will spend no funds. I will quite simply bring the dialectic to the people and let them know that TABOR is not as simple as it may sound and may be in fact a disastrous piece of legislation in its present form."

Kenworthy is Market Communications Manager at Wago International. He is also author of Hand Behind the Mouse (Disney Editions, 2001) and Bungee Jumping & Cocoon (ISA Press, 2003).

He is married to Denise. The two have three children, Nate 16, Dylan 14, Ian 9.

FALL PRIMARY ELECTION

Three vying for chance to defeat Sen. Feingold

Tim Michels

Sen. Bob Welch

Russ Darrow

Three Republicans are after Democrat U.S. Senator Russ Feingold's seat that is up for grabs in the November general election. The three must prove themselves to voters first, who will then decide the better pick to tackle Feingold.

Tim Michels

Tim Michels was born in 1962 in Dodge County, Wisconsin and currently resides with his wife Barbara and their three children in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin.

After graduating from Lomira High School, he attended St. Norbert College, subsequently earning a BA in Political Science. Michels received an M.B.A. from the University of Chicago and a Masters in Public Administration from the Illinois Institute of Technology.

In addition to studying and taking weekend classes at the University of Chicago and weeknight classes at the Illinois Institute of Technology, Michels worked at the Chicago Board of Trade on the trading floors for agricultural commodities and U.S. Treasury bonds.

"This gave me a unique and intimate understanding of financial markets as well as a solid understanding of how grains and cash crops are priced for the all-important agricultural industry in Wisconsin," stated Michels.

In 1996 he joined Michels Pipeline, the Michels family business founded by father, Dale in 1959. He currently holds the position of Vice President at Michels Corporation.

"I've always had a strong desire for further service to my community and country and that's why I ran for the State Senate in 1998. Although unsuccessful in my first race I was invigorated by the experience and learned a great deal about campaigning and the political process. Because of the passing of my Dad that spring I was only able to mount a "too short" 90 day campaign.

Upon completion of Infantry Officer School and Airborne-Ranger training at Ft. Benning, Georgia, Michels served twelve years of active duty service as an Airborne Ranger Infantry Officer in the U.S. Army. He was a Former Commander of the Army's elite Honor Guard with duties at the White House, State Department, and Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. He currently is still serving in the IRR (reserves).

Sen. Bob Welch

Long considered one of Wisconsin's most committed, articulate, common-sense legislators, Bob Welch hails from rural Redgranite in Central Wisconsin.

Bob Welch was first elected to the Wisconsin State Senate in September of 1995. He represents the 14th Senate District which stretches across the heart of Wisconsin from Baraboo to Clintonville. His race for the United States Senate in 1994 capped a ten-year stint in the State Assembly.

Welch states that he "has been a leader of efforts to lower taxes and eliminate government regulations."

He has three children: Adam, Sarah, and Peter with his wife Jeanne. A land surveyor by trade, Bob grew up on a Christmas tree farm in Redgranite where he and his family continue to operate a small business.

Welch is a graduate of Wautoma High School, Madison Area Technical College and Ripon College.

"Russ Feingold and I differ greatly," says Welch.

"I am a fourth generation entrepreneur. My great grandfather owned a tavern, my grandfather owned a small manufacturing company, and my dad started a Christmas tree farm when he was still in high school. I quit my job when I was 23 to start my own land surveying business. It is entrepreneurs like those represented in my family that create the American dream each and every day. The primary reason I got into politics was because I believed that government was stifling that dream. Throughout my time in public service I have voted to cut taxes, limit the role and intrusive nature of government bureaucracies and to fight to assure that my children and my neighbors' children will have the same opportunity to pursue their own American Dreams. Russ Feingold on the other hand, votes as if government is the solution to every problem."

On taxes, Senator Welch says "I do not and will not vote to raise taxes. Senator Feingold has no record of cutting taxes. I support less government bureaucracy and less regulation. Senator Feingold supports new and more burdensome regulations on individuals and businesses."

"Too often in American politics you hear people say there is no difference between the two parties or that the candidates they have to choose from are all the same. In this race the contrast could not be clearer," said Senator Welch.

Russ Darrow

Russ Darrow was born in 1940, in Milwaukee, WI. At 25 he became the youngest Chrysler dealer in the nation.

Today, Darrow serves as the chairman and chief executive officer of Russ Darrow Group, Inc., a holding company that owns 19 automobile dealerships, 29 franchises and a leasing company.

Darrow and his wife Susan, have four adult children Russ III, Wendy, Heidi, Michael, and twelve grandchildren.

"I'm fortunate to know the daily struggles and joys associated with owning a small business, as well as in my later years the elements of government that can help a larger business," said Darrow. "For the most part Washington should just stay out of our lives and give hard working men and women a chance to succeed. There are areas like health care, where the government can get involved a bit, and make it affordable for a small businessman to help keep his employees healthy and secure. That's what we've worked for since the days when I had only three employees."

Russ just completed three years as chairman of Junior Achievement of Wisconsin, Inc., an organization that helps inspire kids about life and their potential in America's free enterprise system.

He is also a trustee of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and has been a long-time board member and past president of the Kettle Moraine YMCA in West Bend. Russ and wife, Susan are involved in many other organizations serving children and health issues.

Playing with Trains

By: Sam Posey

The story goes that, back when my mother learned that she was expecting me, my father, eagerly anticipating a son, went out and bought an entire train set.

Lionel. Three rail track. The locomotive must have weighed 8 pounds.

Then I was born. The train went back into the box. The box went back into the closet for four more years. And that's the story of how my younger brother ended up with a train set.

No disappointment here. In his book "Playing with Trains" (c.2004, Random House), author Sam Posey admits that trains are more of a "guy thing" anyhow.

What makes a grown man play with toy trains? Posey doesn't really say, but he caught Caboose Contagion when he was a little boy and his mother wired his layout. On and off throughout his childhood, Posey ran his trains but when he became an adolescent, trains took a back seat to girls, cars, and friends. After he was grown and married and about to become a father, he remembered how much he loved his trains and he hoped to instill that fun in his own son.

When Posey's son, John, was in second grade, they began to think about doing a layout, but not a simple round-the-Christmas-tree kind of circle. They began to plan a big layout, based on a real railroad: the Colorado Midland Railway. Theirs would be a layout with mountains made of painted blue foam and buildings with simulated rust. A layout where trains would go in a loop, yes, but the loop would pass through tunnels and valleys, up hills and around tiny, scale-size communities. A layout that would eventually take up almost an entire basement and around 6000 hours to complete.

On and off for sixteen years - while raising a family, working as a commentator for ABC, designing buildings and schools, and battling Parkinson's disease - Sam Posey worked on his train layout. And when it was finished (is a layout ever really finished?), he began to think about doing another one.

"Playing with Trains" is filled with history of real railroads that are long gone, and of the men who built them, owned them, and ran them. It's also a book about passion and obsession and grown men who re-create those railroads in incredible detail, sometimes down to Lilliputian belongings spied in the back seat of a tiny car through a miniature rolled-down window. Through his book, Posey makes model railroading into more of an art form and less of a hobby. His passion for trains is amusing, but when it becomes more of an obsession, it's a little scary, even to Posey himself.

Be aware that this book is full of references that only a model railroader would understand. If you don't have much knowledge of railroading, you might not completely understand Posey's train of thought. If you're a model railroader or a railroad worker, though, get your ticket ready. "Playing with Trains" is a great ride.

MADISON - Department of Commerce (Commerce) Secretary Cory L. Nettles recently announced that Commerce has delegated the Town of Kewaskum, Washington County, the authority to provide limited plan review services as well as conduct inspections of all commercial buildings located within its municipality.

"The Town of Kewaskum joins nearly 160 other state municipalities that have been delegated the authority to provide specified plan review services and conduct inspections on behalf of the Department of Commerce," said Nettles. ## LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:

After receiving phone calls regarding two letters published in the Kewaskum Statesman on Sept. 2, 2004, regarding the recall of two town board supervisors and a survey sent out by the Town, I thought it would be best to publish the results of that survey.

The minimum lot size right now for building a home in any zoning district in the town is 40,000 sq. ft, which is just under one acre. The survey asked what the people felt should be the minimum lot size for a home in several zoning districts. In Agricultural zoning, the top three were: 225 said 5 acres, 136 said 1 acre and 82 said 2 acres, with the balance voting for 1/2 acre to 100 acre minimum. In Residential zoning, the top three were: 218 said 1 acre, 135 said 5 acres and 123 said 2 acres, with the balance voting for 1/2 acre to 40 acre minimum. In Subdivisions, the top three were: 263 said 1 acre, 113 said 2 acres and 104 said 1-1/2 acres, with the balance voting for 1/4 acre to 20 acre minimum.

Regarding purchasing development rights, 344 said No, 223 said Yes and 199 were unsure. For limiting the number of lots created, 542 said Yes, 145 said No and 59 were unsure. For preserving the rural character, 453 said Very Important, 204 said Important, 74 said Not important and 27 were unsure.

The final results of votes cast:

Lot sizes - Ag - 5 acre minimum, Residential - 1 acre minimum, Subdivision - 1 acre minimum.

Purchase - Development Rights - No.

Limit number of lots - Yes.

Preserve rural character - Very important.

Part of the controversy appears to be what each person considers "rural". My guess is that most people in the Town of Farmington consider themselves living in a rural area, regardless if they live on a 40 acre lot, or a 1/2 acre lot in Boltonville or Fillmore.

At a Town Board meeting, Town Board Supervisors voted for the 5 acre minimum in Ag, but to change the Residential minimum to 2 acres and the Subdivision minimum to 2 acres, rather than the 1 acre voted for in the survey. This motion passed with the two Supervisors voting yes, and the Town Chairman voting no.

The letter stated "I am disappointed in those members of the Plan Commission who do not take their duty to vote with the largest bulk of the respondents." This statement is incorrect - Plan Commission members did decide to go with the survey results and forward those results to the town board.

I was also asked why people want to stop the "master plan" which is mentioned in the 2nd letter "The group is circulating a petition to recall Roell and Schreiber from office in an effort to stop the master plan that Roell and Schreiber want adopted." The papers filed in my office do not state that as the reason for the recall - the recall petition states "Failure to represent the electors as a majority and wasting taxpayer money and town time on survey"

I hope this information will help clear up some of the misunderstanding going on.

Town of Farmington Clerk

Citizens of Washington County

After I retired I never thought I would get involved in a political campaign, but sometimes you are given the opportunity to endorse someone who stands for so much of what you believe is necessary and right, and that opportunity was given to me when I had the chance to meet Tim Michels. After reviewing his qualifications and his commitment to the people of Wisconsin I had no doubt in my mind that I would whole heartedly give my support to his candidacy for United States Senator.

We need a senator who understands what it takes to fight terrorism and keep our country safe. Tim is a former Army Airborne Ranger who will vote to renew the Patriot Act that Russ Feingold has voted against, in fact Russ Feingold was the lone dissenting vote on the Patriot Act.

This Act has given law enforcement officials the ability to communicate across bureaucratic boundaries and the ability to track terrorists. We need a senator who will put our safety and security first. Tim has seen the difficulty our soldiers face and will give them the tools they need to do their job. We need a senator with military background to ensure the safety of our country. Tim will support our troops and he will keep America's security as a top priority.

Tim also has an enormous background of business experience to deal with economic situations. Tim has definite ideas on how to deal with items such as our trade imbalance, the high cost of prescriptions drugs and how government needs to take a stronger stand against corporate corruption.

Tim is a man of integrity and honor, and he will be a senator who will respect the values we all share and one that we can all be proud to say he is "our senator" and represents the State of Wisconsin. Tim Michels will represent the people in the state of Wisconsin rather than just be a spokesman for the liberals in Madison. It is "Time for a Change", and we need to make sure that Tim Michels is our candidate for United States Senator.

Robert Schulteis
Retired Sheriff of
Washington County

Dear Editor:

Political pundits across Wisconsin are asking themselves what is happening in the 20th State Senate District. How is it a campaign launched within a few hours of the filing deadline has caught fire and is blazing across the 20th Senate District? The contest is being described as a battle for the soul of the Republican Party, but I believe that beneath the surface there is an even more powerful force at work.

We have an incumbent who is very well connected in Madison, but who has lost touch with the folks back home who elected her to office. This has been brewing beneath the surface for years, and the challenge of a respected, much admired and capable challenger has brought it to the forefront. People are more than ready for a change! Glenn Grothman has brought people into the political process who have never been involved in a campaign in their lives.

Before serving the people of Washington County as County Treasurer, I had the privilege of working for the late Congressman Bill Steiger. He had a national reputation and represented eight counties at the time of his death. The "man and woman on the street" always felt they could talk to Bill Steiger - and they did - and he listened with undivided attention. People feel that way about Glenn Grothman. This is why the 20th District, come Wednesday morning, September 15, will wake up to a new State Senator, Glenn Grothman!

Fred Seefeldt

Letter to the Editor:

If anyone in the 20th Senate District has any doubts about the importance of this race, or the level of interest in it, no more is needed than to scan the editorial page of your local newspaper. With the demonstrated level of support for Glenn Grothman, my main concern is to avoid simply repeating what has already been said.

First, a bit of my "political" background. I was raised and educated as a Democrat in northern Wisconsin where F.D.R. was second only to God and Republicans were second only to the KKK. Finally, realizing that, to the Democrats, our original Constitution, and the Bill of Rights, were frequently obstacles to their social engineering, I switched parties, with Goldwater, in 1964.

Democrats of 100 or more years ago would not recognize those who call themselves Democrats today. They are Socialists, far to the left of their political ancestors. That's why the more accurate names of today's two parties would be Conservatives and Liberals.

What is Mary Panzer? She certainly is not a true conservative, being much more concerned with getting along with the other party. Consider the support she receives from WEAC, the teacher's union, a group which will defend group rights to the death, over the individual rights and freedom of choice intended by our founders.

And, the WEAC is just one example of the support she gets from numerous organizations whose "special interest" is not that of the average citizen or taxpayer. One-hundred years ago, Mary Panzer would probably have been a Democrat. Will I vote for her? Certainly not on September 14, BUT if she manages to win the primary, I'll have little choice because she will be a conservative Democrat running against Socialists, if they bother to put up a candidate.

Citizens of this area are largely conservative, and there can be little question your/our interests will best be served by electing Glenn Grothman.

Steve Chantelois

To the Editor:

Is my jaw the only one that drops in astonishment when I listen to Mary Panzer refer to herself as a "pro-life" candidate?

As someone who has been involved in the pro-life battle for more than 25 years in Wisconsin, I have seen many politicians suddenly have a "pro-life conversion" when Election Day draws near. Rarely, however, is someone as bold as Mary Panzer in her deception.

Mary Panzer has never been a friend to unborn children. As a matter of fact, besides a few votes on issues that don't even deal directly with the personhood of the unborn, Mary Panzer has walked lock-step with Planned Parenthood and the radical pro-abortion lobby.

How can someone say they oppose most abortions and believe in the "sanctity of life" and then explain their vote to deny women crucial information before they make a life-altering decision? How can she keep a straight face in front of her constituents?

My hope is that the voters of the 20th District won't be deceived by Panzer's 11th hour political conversion. Look at her record. It speaks for itself.

To the Editor:

As a first term legislator I came to the Assembly because I believe we need to reduce the role and the cost of government. I knew and had complained for years that our State government was corrupted by special interest groups. In the 19 months I've been here, I've seen countless examples of how money corrupts our system. While there are many legislators more concerned about keeping in the good graces of the most powerful group, there are many who give me hope that we can turn this State around. I can honestly tell you that there is no person to whom I hold more respect, for, for their honesty, integrity and intelligence that Glenn Grothman! He is always available to his constituents for help and his colleagues for advice. I have watched him stand and halt legislation wanted by Leadership in both houses and our party's largest contributors; because he believed it was the right thing to do. He is a true leader, not because of his position, but because of his example.

Sen. Panzer recently claimed that Glenn opposed TABOR and she had led the fight for its passage. As the co-author of the Taxpayers Bill of Rights I met with Glenn regularly. He helped Rep. Frank Lasee and myself draft the changes to the original TABOR to help build consensus. He has been one of our strongest allies in the fight for TABOR.

I also believe that Sen. Panzer invested some time of her own on the TABOR subject. Despite several requests she apparently didn't have time to meet with me, but she did call me to insist I stop running ads in support of TABOR. At a recent banquet she was thanked by Stan Johnson, President of WEAC (the teacher's union) for working with them on the Taxpayers Bill of Rights.

I believe what is at stake in this election is more than the careers of two people. It is whether or not we will have a real TABOR, and whether or not the Republican Party will stand as a party of principle or become simply a party about maintaining power. I hope and pray the people of the 20th district are not influenced by these corrupt forces. I hope that you and I can live up to the high standards set by Rep. Glenn Grothman.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Regular Meeting
August 2, 2004
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Regular Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Mathew A. Heiser presided. Trustee Kevin Scheunemann asked to be excused and was absent; all other Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas Piwoni, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the July 12, 2004 meetings were approved as printed.

Mrs. Gwen Dreher of the Kewaskum Women's Club, along with the Village Board, presented the 8th Annual Kewaskum Beautification Awards to the four 2004 recipients as follows:

1) Creative Use of Landscape Materials and Shrubs - Dave & Vicky Brody, 639 Washington Avenue

2) Floral, Shrubbery & Tree Arrangement - Thomas & Marlene Rohlinger, 279 Dream Catcher Drive

3) Colorful Floral & Design Selections - Joyce Halfman, 611 Highland Avenue

4) Lawn Ornaments & Décor - Charles & Pat Wagner, 805 Bel Ric Drive

President Mathew Heiser and the entire Village Board congratulated all of the award winners.

They also expressed their appreciation to the Kewaskum Women's Club for a job well done.

Kewaskum High School Principal, Christine Horbas was present to ask the Village Board to implement a local truancy ordinance to help curb habitual truants. The Board, by consensus, was agreeable to the possibility and directed the Police Chief and Administrator to prepare an ordinance amendment to create a truancy ordinance and bring the matter back to the Board.

Fire Chief Mark Groeschel presented the July 2004 monthly report:

Fire calls	1	Year to date	20
Jaws	0	Year to date	10
Rescue calls	28	Miles	489

On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried, the Board authorized the Fire Chief to sign the "The Business Associate contract With The City of West Bend Fire Department" pertaining to "HIPAA" etc.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel led the discussion regarding the possible rehiring of Alan Ratzel as a part-time police officer. Mr. Ratzel was a part-time officer for more than a dozen years when he needed to terminate his employment because of his full time job. This rehiring would actually reduce cost within the department.

On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Steve Scheunemann and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the rehiring of Alan Ratzel as a part-time police officer.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles reported on the following:

1) Informed the Board that the tennis court landscaping work has been completed. It was noted that developer Gary Gavin donated all of the topsoil, use of the Harley rake, and seeder for the work, which was greatly appreciated, as well as a cost and time saver.

2) Reported on the water main repairs needed on Riverview Drive.

3) Reported that the sanitary sewer mains and overflows that occurred earlier this year and the infiltration of storm and sump pump water that caused the utilities problem. Also that a meeting with the DNR has been scheduled to address these concerns.

4) Informed that the Kewaskum Kiwanis is looking for permission to place a sign on the RHP Kitchen and Ice Cream Stand indicating they were rebuilt as Kiwanis projects. On a motion by Trustee Thomas Piwoni, seconded by Trustee Harry Roecker and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board authorized to place signs on the RHP Kitchen and Ice Cream Stand.

5) Discussion took place on the repair work needed at the intersection of Braatz Dr. and Western Ave. It was noted additional quotations have been requested, but if no favorable bids are received, an alternate project will be considered and then bid for pricing. On a motion by Trustee Andy Pesch, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the advertising for bids for the aforementioned work if it comes to that.

On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded Trustee Steve Scheunemann and carried by the majority by voice vote, the Board approved the issuance of Operator's Licenses for 2004/2005 upon proper payment of fees and documentation for the following as recommended by the Police Department:

NEW
Schultz, Theresa M.
Kewaskum, WI

The police had no objections to those listed above.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following with the Board:

1) Review of League and Taxpayer Bulletins.

2) Reviewed The Wisconsin Taxpayer as to how the Village of Kewaskum compares with other Villages with a population of over 3,000. The Village was on the low end of taxes collected per capita and with having a low tax rate.

3) Reviewed the budget control sheet for June 2004.

4) Review of correspondence.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas Piwoni, seconded by Trustee Steven Scheunemann and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the payment of bills as recommended by the Administrative Committee. The total of all claims as recommended are as follows:

General	205,901.90
Sewer	587,020.50
Ck #25520 - #25686
Library Fund	6,008.84
Water Fund	196,094.38
Tax Escrow Fund	223,567.21
TOTAL	$1,218,592.83

Board Chairperson for the Park and Recreation Committee Steve Scheunemann brought up for discussion the donation of a piece of playground equipment to be donated by the Jr. Women's Club and their request for financial assistance to install, pick up and provide the fall zone, etc. at an estimated price of $3,389.00. The Board was informed there is not any money budgeted for that expense, but what ever is needed could possibly be transferred from the open space account. On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Steve Scheunemann and unanimously carried by voice vote, authorized the ordering of the piece of playground equipment for the Jr. Women's Club and supplying the installation, fall zone, etc. as needed.

Board Representative for the Plan Commission, Trustee Andy Pesch reported to the Board on the Plan Commission meeting of July 27, 2004. The following was reviewed:

1) Review of the concept plan for the Behnke property by developer Gary Gavin.

2) Discussion regarding Cherokee Development for Thomas Timblin. Action was not taken on the CSM or the Zoning Map amendment for the floodplain. However the Commission sent a favorable recommendation to the Board on the placement of sidewalk on one side of the bridge to preserve the natural area.

3) Discussion on Woodland Creek I as it pertains to the open space fee. It was recommended by the Commission to split the fee equaling $100.00 payment per lot versus the $200.00 per lot.

4) The amount of money for the new Zoning Ordinance and Maps was also discussed and will be addressed under new business by the Board.

5) The Multi-Jurisdictional Comprehensive Planning effort of the County was discussed as to the needs of the Village. The Commission recommended to the Board that as little as possible should be spent on the upcoming plan.

Board Representative for the Library Board, President Mathew Heiser announced a scheduled Library Board meeting for August 9, 2004.

The Board reviewed the letter sent to the property owners adjacent to the Clinton Street project.

The Board discussed the repair work needed on Parkview Drive in reference to asphalt work. It was noted approximately 2/3 of the street would have new pavement leaving 1/3 old. The Board advised the Director of Public Works to have the Engineers prepare a Change Order to have the one block fully resurfaced. A Change Order will be brought to the Board in the near future.

The Board again reviewed the request of Richard Marks to use the Municipal Building Annex at a reduced price if he would be able to use it once a month on a Saturday from 7:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. for $50.00. Discussion continued as to how to amend the application for use of the facility, discount the price and maintain the flexibility to still have it available for residents to rent. After substantial discussion the matter was dropped for lack of a motion to change said policy.

Action was taken on Resolution No. 2004-13 A Resolution regarding Zoning Ordinance cost Establishing charges for Materials as recommended by the Plan Commission and attached hereto:

Action was taken on Ordinance No. 2004-07 An Ordinance To Amend Chapter 2 Administration Of The Village Of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, Municipal Code as attached hereto:

On a motion by Trustee Andy Pesch, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board accepted the Plan Commission's recommendation to minimize any expenditure for the Comprehensive Planning process as recommended by the Plan Commission. This would mean the village would not be doing a community survey, would use black & white public participation flyers and not use any more maps than necessary to be determined by the Administrator and Village Engineer.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the results of a water and sewer utility survey for 2004 for Wisconsin. It was noted that out of 136 water utilities the Village of Kewaskum placed 71 from being the lowest (or that 61 are charging more) and that the annual Village of Kewaskum water cost is $211.00 compared to the high being $498.00.

The sewer utility survey covered 144 utilities and the Village of Kewaskum placed 52 from being the lowest (or that 92 are charging more) and that the annual Village of Kewaskum sewer cost is $287.51 compared to the high being $900.10.

If you combine both utilities the Village of Kewaskum places 61 from being the lowest out of 147 and noting that 8 of those below us only offer one utility. The Board indicated this is all good information for our citizens and property owners.

The Administrator distributed copies of the new Zoning Ordinance to the Village Board.

The Board reviewed a news article and letter provided by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann regarding sign regulations. It was stated in the article that a federal court judge ruled against the Department of Transportations "45-7" rule pertaining to elections signs. The Board was informed that the Village sign ordinance does not contain any reference to the DOT's "45-7" rule nor did it in the old ordinance. The Village is based off of the Wisconsin Statutes, which follows Federal criteria. No change is needed in reference to the Villages Ordinances at this time.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas

Piwoni, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the adjustment of the September 6, meeting date to Tuesday, September 7, 2004 because of the Labor Day Holiday.

On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and carried by the majority roll call vote, to adjourn. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 1 "Absent."

A big win in the EWC opener, KHS tennis team knocks off Two Rivers

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

With seniors making up half of the Kewaskum High girls tennis team of 28, one might think Coach Kevin Hein would be walking on air.

Ah, but there's a catch to this number's game, as many of the seniors just started playing competitive tennis last year or this year. This has Hein, who is starting his fourth year as coach, waiting to reserve judgment on how the Indians will do this season.

Hein does have five returning letter winners to build around, and he likes the skills demonstrated by a couple players who are new to the varsity.

Senior Paige Thelen won a letter in 2003, and she has laid claim to the No. 1 singles spot. Krystal Cochran is another veteran player, and she has been alternating at No. 2 or No. 3 singles.

The other letter winners are Katie Kurer, Natasha Lawrence and Nicole Behring. Lawrence and Behring have teamed up at No. 1 doubles, while Kurer is currently playing at No. 2 with senior Rachel Breese, one of the top newcomers on the squad.

Hein said sophomore Allison Kowalczyk and Cochran "have been rotating spots (at No. 2 and 3 singles) and have been doing a great job."

Another strong suit will be Nos. 2 and 3 doubles, according to Hein, who said the top teams in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference are Two Rivers, Sheboygan Falls and Plymouth, "usually in that order."

"The total number out for the team is 28. We will usually gain a few more after volleyball cuts," Hein said.

Kewaskum finished eighth in the EW last fall, and Hein is hoping the Indians will be able to move up a couple spots but said, "As for prediction on how we are going to do ... I have to wait and see if the top teams in conference are as deep as they were last year. If they are, it could easily be a carbon copy of last year"

Indians open with a bang

On Thursday afternoon, the Indians pulled off a stunning 4-3 victory over defending champion Two Rivers by winning three of the four singles matches and having seniors Heidi Gaskell and Jessica Jung outlast the Raiders' No. 3 pair.

"The No. 3 doubles moved up from No. 1 JV and played their hearts out in an exciting three-set match," Hein said. "I give them a lot of credit because they had to win their third set to give the team a victory. And they came up huge!"

The two defeated Kasia Waina and Amy Chang 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

Hein went on that Kowalczyk "played an awesome match," down 0-3 in the second set and coming back with a win. "I was very proud of her. She played with a tremendous amount of heart."

Cochran and Lindsay Keller, seeing her first varsity action, both dominated their opponents, according to Hein, who also praised his No. 1 singles player, Thelen, who ends up always playing the best athlete from the other school.

"Considering this is Paige's second year playing tennis, I could not be more proud of the way she is handling herself," Hein said.

Kewaskum, now 1-0 in the EW and 1-1 overall, is at Chilton this afternoon (Thursday).

Kewaskum 4, Two Rivers 3

Singles: Thelen lost to Kristin Webster 1-6, 1-6; Kowalczyk def. Amber Wachowski 6-4, 6-3; Cochran def. Megan Schultz 6-3, 6-4; Keller def. Brittany Martz 6-4, 6-4.

Doubles: Kurer/Breese lost to Chalsea Webster/Kari Patrachak 0-6, 1-6; Ashley Feucht/Theresa Trott lost to Corrie Schroader/Nicola Shavlik 2-6, 0-6; Gaskell/Jung def. Waina/Chang 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

Indian golfers miss Korth

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

In the Wisconsin Little Ten's second match, held at WBCC, Kewaskum was forced to play without its No. 1 player, Kate Korth, who was suffering from a sore back. With her sidelined, the Indians struggled, finishing last with 304 strokes.

West Bend West paced the seven teams with a 215 total, and Joci Lutz captured the medal with an impressive 49 on long front nine.

The Indians were led by junior Nicole Rimmel, who came in with a 55.

"Nicole did well, considering she started on the second hole (where she had a 10) and had quite a battle with one of the hills on the course ... She still managed a 55, which puts her in the top 10 golfers for the meet," Coach Carol Martin said.

The next meet was on Tuesday, Sept. 7, and Martin was happy to have the extra practice time to try to eliminate some of the mistakes the players are making.

WLT Golf at WBCC: West Bend West, 215; Hartford, 224; Oconomowoc, 224; Wauwatosa, 227; Beaver Dam, 231; West Bend East, 261; Kewaskum, 304.

KHS scores: Rimmel, 55; Erika Noren, 73; Renee Wetzel, 84; Maggie Dickmann, 92.

Marilyn Monroe had six toes.

 On September 14th Vote for MARY PANZER

I have had the distinct privilege of working with Senate Majority Leader Mary Panzer in recent years. As a former Republican State Legislator, I also served with Mary Panzer's father, Frank Panzer, who was State Senate Majority Leader in the 1960's.

Mary Panzer is an effective leader and possesses unique abilities to address tough issues and to build a consensus; a talent that is much too rare in state government as of late. Senator Panzer is able to take complex issues and explain those issues in a simple, direct and straightforward manner. You always know where Mary Panzer stands on an issue, whether she always agrees with you or not. I appreciate that attribute and respect her leadership abilities.

I encourage all voters in the 20th Senate District to go to the polls on September 14th. Make your vote count in the Republican primary and cast your ballot for Mary Panzer, a leader you can depend on.

Paid for by David O. Martin, former Republican Legislator

Anderson is king of the golfing hill again

Kewaskum's Clark Eichstedt fired a 68 during the semifinal match but he had to settle for second place in the Hon-E-Kor men's club championship.

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

This was his first three-peat, and by defeating Clark Eichstedt 2-and-1 on Monday afternoon, Craig Anderson of West Bend now has eight Hon-E-Kor men's club championships to his credit.

His resume includes club titles in 1992, '94, '95, '97, '98, 2002, '03 and '04.

"It's fun," Anderson, a math teacher and golf coach at West Bend West High, said. "Ikie is always a good guy to play with."

The two friendly rivals both missed a lot of opportunities, but Anderson put the pressure on Eichstedt early, stayed in the lead and sealed the deal with a solid chip from 65 yards out on the eighth hole of the Blue Nine, putting the ball eight feet from the hole.

After Eichstedt launched a monster drive on the hole, he had trouble getting any loft on a chip just behind the trap. The ball lined through the trap and settled in the fringe and his third shot was 15 feet short of the hole, then he failed to drop his par try and conceded the hole to Anderson.

"If one of us could have just had a run of pars, it could have been a different match," Anderson said, indicating, "I started well," with a gimme birdie on No. 1 and pars on Nos. 2 and 3 for a 2-up lead.

Not much changed the remainder of the Red Nine until hole No. 7. "That's where the bogey stretch began," Anderson said, referring to the fours by both players on the par-3 hole with neither reaching in regulation.

Anderson struggled on No. 8, not reaching the green in two shots and after a blast out of the sand that got caught up in the higher grass protecting the green.

Eichstedt was just eight feet from birdie, so eventually Anderson conceded the hole, then both men made bogeys on No. 9 and on No. 1 Blue (after Eichstedt nearly drove the green), and the difference was still two holes.

Anderson's only three-putt cost him a chance to go 3-up on No. 2 Blue as Eichstedt's drive settled in the heather left of the fairways sloping, and he needed three shots to reach the green.

Both went over the green with their seconds shots on No. 3, and Anderson was in better shape to win the hole as Eichstedt gambled to try to bounce his chip out of the fringe and onto the downhill green. His chip got caught up in the fringe, but after another chip, he holed the putt to match Anderson's five.

As the wind began picking up, the two golfers bogeyed the par-3s on Nos. 4 and 5. Going right into the wind on No. 5, Anderson put his tee shot 20 feet from the hole, but Eichstedt was able to chip close and tie again with a one-putt for par.

Eichstedt cut the deficit to one-up on No. 6 when he had another nifty chip that allowed him to come away with a par, while Anderson was short in three shots and wound up with a five.

Neither golfer hit No. 7 in two. They had the green surrounded and were about equidistant from the hole. Anderson decided he was away and chipped to within two feet of the hole. Eichstedt's try nearly hit the pin but ran seven feet past. Both drained their putts, so it was on to No. 8 with Anderson still in the lead by one.

Teresa Dreher successfully defended the women's title.

Eichstedt said his ball was just in front of a little piece of ground, and he was pretty certain he could just hit it, but, "The ball never got up in the air."

"I never got comfortable," Eichstedt went on about the finals. "Yesterday (when he shot 68 in qualifying) was fun. This morning was great (with six birdies in 14 holes in a 5-and-4 win over Jim Rohlinger), but I allowed myself to get out of sync on the very first hole and never got it back."

Eichstedt holds the record for winning the most Hon-E-Kor titles, with nine to his credit.

Anderson was 5-over-par in the finals, a different story from the morning round when he defeated Jay Anderson 2-and-1.

"We both played well. I think he said he had 72. I was 1- or 2-under par," Anderson said, indicating he will be playing in the upcoming Kettle Moraine Amateur (Sept. 18-19) and in the Hon-E-Kor Best Ball on Oct. 2-3.

In other final matches Monday, Larry Sterr defeated Dan Gibbon 3-and-2 to claim the First Flight title; Tom Timblin surged past Dick Wietor 3-and-2 in the Second Flight; Rick Averill was a 2-and-1 victor over Chris Kerry in the Third Flight and Fred Gauthier was the champ in the Fourth Flight after posting a 4-and-3 win over Butch Ritzman.

Like Anderson, Teresa Dreher successfully defended her title after topping Diane Kleinke 3-and-1. This was Dreher's sixth title in the Women's Championship.

In the President's Flight, which is handicapped, Roxie Volesky of West Bend defeated Kelly Marquardt, 2-up, and Cathy Lastofka is the Senior champion again after defeating Betty Hallen, 4-and-3.

Meyer adds a First, Second to his CC resume

By taking eight of the top nine places, the Kewaskum High boys cross country team had no trouble beating visiting New Holstein in an Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet on Thursday, but the Indians had to settle for second in a quad meet held in Kewaskum on Tuesday.

The Huskies only had four runners, not enough for a team score. Leading the way for the winners was KHS senior Josh Meyer, who toured the 5,000-meter course at the Kiwanis Community Park in 17 minutes, 36.84 seconds (17:36.84). He had a 90-second lead over the runner-up, teammate Zack Van Wormer, who hit the tape in 19:04.79.

In the quad meet, Sheboygan Falls wound up with a total of 19 points, then came the Indians with 46, followed by Howards Grove with 69 and Elkhart Lake at 104.

Meyer had another good time, a 17.31.05, but this time he had to settle for second place as Jake Roelse of Falls finished just a couple seconds ahead of him in 17:28.61.

There was quite a wait for the next Indian to cross the tape, as Falcons occupied the Nos. 3 through 6 spots before Van Wormer and Bob Gibson appeared, running respective times of 18:45.42 and 18:45.85.

"Times are dropping nicely. Runners are learning to relax more while running, thereby being more efficient," Coach Dave Drexler said, adding, "Josh made the comment he ran a lot easier tonight (Thursday) than he did on Tuesday but still had similar times."

Drexler said he was surprised how solid Sheboygan Falls was, "but I feel we can compete with them as the season progresses."

There were only two KHS girls who ran in the two meets. Nicole Stern took second place against New Holstein with a 20:04.31 for 4,000 meters, and she was timed in 20:13.91 (14th place) in the quad meet.

Crystal Treptow finished 14th (22.47.24) in the second competition.

KHS counters vs. New Holstein: 1. Meyer, 2. Van Wormer; 3. Gibson, 19:06.02; 5. Jon Hawig, 20:30.40; 6. Clayton Justis, 20:35.53

KHS counters in the quad: 2. Meyer, 7. Van Wormer, 8. Gibson; 14. Hawig, 20:00.33; 15. Adam Janz, 20:03.16.

Big players lift Indians in 21-0 road victory

Senior linebacker Jeff Thull has stepped up as one of the leaders of the defense on the Kewaskum High School football team. Above, Thull stops Kyle Martin (15) of Kettle Moraine Lutheran after a pass reception in the first quarter of their game in Jackson on Saturday. Thull was credited with 13 tackles and two sacks, and the Indians won 21-0.

JACKSON — Lifted by two big plays, one on offense and one on defense, the Kewaskum High football team posted a 21-0 shutout victory over Kettle Moraine Lutheran on Saturday afternoon, improving its season record to 2-0.

Talented junior Garrett Donath electrified the crowd with a nifty 60-yard punt return near the end of the first quarter. Gathering in the ball right at the 40-yard line, Donath sprinted down the right sideline, then cut back to the left for the final 20 yards of his thrilling scoring run.

"That was huge," KHS Coach Jason Piittmann said. "Garrett made a couple guys miss, and the wall was there."

The touchdown and Jon Olla's PAT put the Indians out front 14-0 and seemed to take a bit more wind out of the Chargers' sails. Minutes before, KML's Peter Odell eluded all 11 Indian defenders on his way to what looked to be a 97-yard punt return.

The excitement over the apparent score quickly dissipated after yellow flags were spotted decorating the field. KML was called for an illegal block in the back. Instead of tying the score, the Chargers were backed up to their 4-yard line and after picking up two first downs were forced to punt to Donath.

The defensive play of the game was provided by senior cornerback Zach Holm, who snuffed out a KML scoring drive with his interception early in the fourth quarter. KML had successfully marched from their own 23-yard line to the Indians' 17 when Holm stayed glued to Kyle Martin on a pattern to the end zone, then stepped inside of him and grabbed the ball while tumbling to the turf.

"Zach made a great play down here in the end zone ... It was perfect coverage," Piittmann said.

Donath had given the Indians' fans plenty to cheer about early in the game. On the Indians' very first drive, he ripped off runs of 10, 18 and 17 yards on a successful 63-yard drive, which was climaxed by his 17 yard sprint around left end.

The Indians' lead jumped to 21-0 after Ross Stockhausen's 1-yard plunge with 7:30 left before the half. It capped a nine-play, 80-yard drive, featuring a 24-yard pass from QB Chad Piwoni to tight end Matt Parent, and a 15-yard scamper by Donath.

Again Olla was perfect on the kick, and there was no more scoring in the remainder of the first half or the second when the Indians' offense bogged down in the heat. The Indians only had two first downs and 12 yards after the break, as KML used more blitzing to slow down the running game.

"We knew the heat was going to be a factor," Piittmann said, indicating his team's depth showed and he was happy to have the chance to get a look at some reserves, like J.J. Logan and Jake Turowski, "who did a nice job stepping in."

"They knew what we were going to do in the second half. We weren't going to air it out" with a 21-0 lead, Piittmann said about the Chargers' defensive scheme putting nine in the box.

Donath, who had 75 yards in the first half, ended up surpassing the century mark again, picking up 103 yards in 18 carries, while Stockhausen added 41 in a dozen carries.

KML senior Mark Hering led all rushers with 123 yards in 25 carries.

Piwoni threw seven passes, completing seven, with Ross Cain making a pair of catches good for 337 yards.

On the offensive line, Piittmann praised Jeff Thull and center Robert Weber. "They did a nice job," he said, adding, "As a whole, the defensive line, they did all right."

The Indians open up Eastern Wisconsin Conference play Friday, hosting New Holstein, which is 1-1 after losing to Waupun 8-3 and bombing Oostburg 48-0.

"Now let's hope we can come up with some football weather," Piittmann said, looking forward to cooler fall nights than the 85-degree heat that greeted the two teams Saturday.

Here's how other EW schools fared on Friday night: Ripon 15, Sheboygan Falls 8; Luxemburg-Casco 38, Two Rivers 0; Howards Grove 18, Kiel 7; Denmark 42, Manitowish Roncalli 6; Plymouth 7, Germantown 0; Campbell-sport 17, Mayville 14.

Tennis team rebounds with pair of wins

By JUDY HARLOW

Last week didn't start out all that well, but the Kewaskum High girls tennis team rebounded from a 7-0 loss to Roncalli with solid, back-to-back victories over Germantown (4-3) and Chilton (5-2).

There wasn't much coach Kevin Hein could say about the Eastern Wisconsin Conference defeat Monday against the Jets. None of the KHS girls were able to get to a third set, but there was a complete turnaround on Tuesday.

"It was a real good win. We haven't had much luck against them," Hein beamed about the win over German-town.

The Indians got wins at three of the four singles spot, including No. 2 singles where Krystal Cochran outlasted Stacy Sengpiel in a three-hour, 6-3, 7-6 (7-4) match. Lindsay Keller won at No. 4, 6-1, 6-2, prompting Hein to say, "Lindsay totally dominated her opponent. She is starting to play some aggressive tennis."

Turning the tide in the Indians' favor were Katie Kurer and Rachel Breese at No. 2 doubles. They won 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Against Chilton, Allison Kowalczyk, Cochran and Keller came away with wins and only Keller had to go a third set.

"Allison totally dominated her opponent in every facet of the game. For a sophomore, she is really playing at a high level," Hein said, lauding the play of Ashley Feucht and Theresa Trott, who moved back up to No. 3 doubles. "I think they were trying to send me a message," Hein said.

And while Paige Thelen did not win, Hein said she "played her best tennis yet, but fell short. Every week, she just keeps getting better."

KHS is now 1-1 in the EW and 3-2 overall.
