History made as Panzer is defeated in massive win

Grothman defeats Senate Majority Leader

Newly elected Senator Glenn Grothman addresses over 400 supporters who packed the KC Hall in West Bend for an election night party. Campaign manager, Jennie Frederick is also shown.

 SPECIAL TO THE STATESMAN

Some are saying it was a race where good won over evil... that's as Glen Grothman beat incumbent Mary Panzer in the 20th District State Senate contest. Final tallies show Grothman soundly defeating Panzer by a vote of 81% to 18%.

Grothman swept a majority of the communities across Washington County collecting 12,148 votes to Panzer's 2,757. Grothman, who tried to run a positive campaign in light of Panzer's muckraking, said he had doubts down the stretch ... but he said on election day the people are the ones who spoke about what they want in their new leader.

While Glenn Grothman beat Mary Panzer by a strong 60 percent margin, some are wondering where the Panzer campaign went wrong. 58th Assembly Representative, Dan LeMahieu says it was obvious, Panzer lost touch with the taxpayers in her district.

Panzer always stated she was against abortion except when it came to rape, incest or endangering the life of the mother. Grothman was opposed to abortion with no exceptions.

LeMahieu says the Grothman victory says a lot on what voters these days expect from their representatives.

Final tallies show Grothman crushing Panzer by a 4 to 1 margin. Many voters, like Mary Jo Stutzman of Kewaskum said it was because Panzer lost touch with the people in her district. "She left us for Madison, she left her constituents here," said Stutzman. "Glenn has been here, lives here and still relates to us."

At the K-C Hall in West Bend, Grothman was humble in accepting victory and said he felt his hard work would pay off in the end.

Grothman said he thought his political stances on conservative govern-

At Monday night's Kewaskum Board of Education meeting it was decided there will be an advisory referendum for the Kewaskum School District. Members of the Ad Hoc committee met Thursday, September 9, to present their findings to the full board.

The Ad Hoc committee co-chairs Carrie Kuehl and Wade Roberts presented the results of the survey they presented to parents of students in the district at the different schools' registrations and open house. The survey consisted of six questions that covered numerous items. The committee's recommendation to the board came before the board again at Monday night's meeting.

Monday night the board voted to approve the six referendum questions

COMMUNITY NEWS

Town of Scott area news

By BERNADETTE MONDLOCH
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT

Recent problems experienced by the Town of Scott Sanitary District #1 in Batavia have been explained to the town board. The sewage disposal system, which serves 70 households, is 20 years old and equipment is wearing out. Dick Bemis, district commissioner explained that all commissioner terms end in December. They must make some changes in operation. Problems are being experienced with too much ground water getting into the system, pumps are wearing out. He said, "Everything is old and tired and wearing out. They can no longer meet DNR standards and need a grant to do so."

Bemis suggested that an operator should be hired and the system updated. A Federal grant has been applied for, the amount $880,000. He concluded, "We need something in place by the end of the year."

Is parking allowed on the side of a town road? That question came to the town board from Don Stevens, W6797 County Road S. Once or twice a week he transports his horse in a horse trailer to a property on Maple Tree Road for roping practice. The sheriff's department officers called to the scene on numerous occasions find the complaint unfounded and have requested that these calls be discontinued.

Stevens has been approached by deputies to tell him of the complaint. In an effort to eliminate wasting time on unnecessary calls, the officers have asked Stevens to try a new parking spot or to explain to the complainant that he is not damaging the right-of-way. He said that he parks on that side of Maple Tree Road because on the opposite side, due to the lay of the land, the trailer drags on the ground.

Supervisor Ivan Kumrow has been to the site and has not observed any damage to the grass (no ruts, no hoof marks, etc.). Stevens asked that the town contact the complainant to inform him that the right of way extends 33 feet from the center of the road and Stevens is not breaking the law. Board members saw no violation of the law and agreed there should not be any need for the letter.

A meeting with the town board was scheduled for August 23, at 7 p.m.

Clerk Billi Jo Richter informed the board of problems experienced in the town hall during the past month, all of them involving water. She suspects a leak in the roof. Water leaking in the women's bathroom from the sink plumbing, a broken hose on the dehumidifier, water running down the wall in the corner of the office, water seeping out from under the refrigerator in the kitchen causing the refrigerator to malfunction and soaking the rug in that area. A professional service was hired to take care of the rug, and employees removed the wet insulation from the ceiling. Richter advised the board that there should be a periodic building inspection and maintenance plan so it will not happen again.

Supervisor Kumrow reported that summer road work is moving along at a steady pace, Scott Construction is starting the slag seal application on Brazelton and Abbott Drive, the Sheboygan County Highway Dept has completed the blacktop on Cedar Road and on the culvert on Brazelton Drive. Northeast Asphalt has been ordered to inspect Boltonville Road. Kumrow has observed 600 feet of broken up blacktop in the southbound lane, the thickness of the blacktop varies from 1/2 to 1-1/2 inches in that area.

No response has been received regarding a letter sent to the Community Bank & Trust, Sheboygan notifying them that the former Wisconsin Pallet Company property in Batavia needs to be cleaned up in October, in order to avoid legal action.

Other town business:
Action taken to approve the site plan for the cell tower to be installed at the intersection of Highway 28 and County Road A. Contract approval will be acted upon at the next meeting.

Approved changed boundaries of Norm Preder property, zoning approval scheduled for September meeting-8.52 acres A-2 balance of forty acres remaining A-1.

Application completed for $10,000 assistance for Smart Growth Planning.

Batavia First Responders activity for July: had 4 medical calls, two car accidents, one practice, and one meeting, Batavia Fire Dept activity for July: two Fire Calls, two practices, one meeting, two ISO Drills, Hosted Eastern Wisconsin Fire Chiefs Meeting.

Batavia Received a Home Land Security Grant, which resulted in a 10 ton Porta Power, 2000-watt generator, a Defibrillator unit and a Haligan tool.

Beechwood Fire Department held two practices and one meeting in July.

C-sport Alliance Church to begin Awana Club

Campbellsport Alliance Church invites children in grade kindergarten to sixth to register for their Awana Club which will begin on Wednesday, September 22, 2004.

Awana is a nondenominational ministry that assists churches in reaching children and teenagers with the gospel of Jesus Christ and training them to serve him. The heartbeat of Awana is reaching children around the world with the good news that Jesus Christ loves them and can save them from sin. Each week, more than one million boys and girls in over 110 countries attend Awana clubs where they play games, memorize Bible verses, and listen to Bible stories. The children have fun while being taught the word of God.

The weekly Awana clubs all function basically the same way. A 90-minute session features three segments: game time, handbook time and council time. In handbook time, children work through age-appropriate handbooks memorizing Bible verses and doing activities ranging from patriotism to community service. They earn awards based on their work. The final segment, council time, consists of singing, puppets, Bible stories and lessons based on Christian principles.

Awana will be held at Campbellsport Alliance Church, N1876 Hwy. V in Campbellsport, each Wednesday, beginning September 22. If you would like to register your child or would like more information, please call the church office at 920-533-5123 or Pastor Doug Birr at 920-533-4516.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Take heart! Construction work is winding down

By JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Feel like a mouse in a maze driving in the village this summer?

With Clinton Street, Edgewood Road and Riverview Drive all being worked on, sometimes it was a real trip trying to get to a friend's house or even one's own home.

Some have had more difficulties than others.

Take the William Kober family for an example. Bill and his wife Bev live on Riverview Drive, which has been torn up for a couple months. Daughter Brenda and her husband Tom Heriges and their daughters reside on Edgewood Road, also with a detour, and son Brian Kober and his family are building a new home on Wil-A-Be Lane, which currently has just one entrance, Stark Street.

Be patient, however, Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles says the work, delayed by spring rains, should be wrapped up within the next month or so.

"The water main and sewer are now installed," Gilles said earlier this week about the project on Clinton Street, reporting the old lateral transfers to each home are now being replaced by new ones, and then there are minor sidewalk repairs to be made.

"This work is probably going to take a week to a week and a half," Gilles said about this major project that was started back in June and is being completed by Main Line Construction of Waukesha.

"The water main and sewer were old and failing," Gilles said about Clinton Street. "We had quite a few breaks in that area."

Work is progressing nicely on Riverview Drive and Hwy. S, according to Gilles, who said the village's portion of Riverview and S will be shaped and grade very soon in preparation for final asphaltting.

"This Wednesday (Sept. 15) Country Road S out of the village to the county line will be ripped up," Gilles went on, indicating the next step on that stretch of road, which is about one-quarter to one-half of a mile in length, is to grade and shape for asphaltting.

"We're getting closer on that one," Gilles said. "Hopefully within two weeks, we'll see pavement there."

Payne and Dolan of Waukesha is the subcontractor for this project, Gilles said, indicating the village must pay for much of the work on the parking lanes of this road, and the county is responsible for the driving lanes.

Payne and Dolan is also handling the project of widening Edgewood Road to two lanes of traffic and the work on County H.

"Edgewood and H ... that's kind of all related into one," Gilles said, reporting the new lane has been roughed in on Edgewood and curb and gutter work on H was pretty well completed last Friday.

Three or four more days are still needed to adjust catch basins and ditches, Gilles said, adding, "Grading and shaping will be the next job there."

The work on Hwy. H was necessary for the development of the new Prairie Garden Subdivision located on the south side of the road.

Developers of new subdivisions are required to pay a portion of the costs of the work.

The total cost of these three projects came to approximately $3 million, according to Gilles, who said the village borrowed the money to pay for them.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt was unavailable late Monday afternoon for comment on the specifics of the loan.

ment, parental rights and improving the business climate in Wisconsin where the reason he won. He also stressed the grassroots support and the many volunteers who made his victory possible.

There will be no State Senate Race for the 20th District in the November General Election. Democratic write in candidates received just 16 votes on Tuesday. More than 800 were needed to force a contest in November.

In Washington County Grothman received 81% of the vote or 12,148. Panzer received 18% of the vote of 2757 votes.

Come Friday, Senate republicans will caucus in Madison where they will elect new leadership, as Senator Panzer will be resigning.

Lemahieu said Grothman's victory says a lot regarding what voters expect these days from their representatives. "It sends a message to all of us in the legislature that we need to listen closer to our constituents and less to what they're telling us in Madison."

In the U.S. Senate Race, Tim Michels will face Incumbent Russ Feingold in the November General Election. Michels collected 42 percent of the vote within the district. His nearest rival was Russ Darrow who finished with 30 percent of the vote. In Washington County, Michels collected 10,388 votes, followed by Russ Darrow with 7200... Bob Welch and Robert Lorge rounded out the polling.

Bryan Kennedy will take on Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner in the November Election. Kennedy soundly defeated Gary Kohlenberg 70 percent to 29 percent.

Pat Strachota beat Rick Karshna to win the primary in the race for the 58th District Assembly seat. Strachota will move forward to the November election where she will face Democrat Dennis Uhlig and Independent Joshua Peterson of Slinger. In Tuesday's Primary Uhlig collected 1185 votes.

In Hartford, there will be a changing of the guard as Don Pridemore beat incumbent Mickey Lehman in the 99th Assembly District. Pridemore collected almost 200 more votes than Lehman who has been in the Assembly since 1988.

Referendum

funding through a referendum?

School board member Steve Schmitt stated, "We again are striving to achieve progress in updating and improving our middle and high schools. Since the last several referendums failed we have made no progress in over two years. We need to know what the community is willing to support so we can provide the suitable worded referendum questions to, hopefully, have the voting public win by passing one or several of these referendums."

These questions on the November ballot are only advisory. Jean Goeden, board president, stated that this will be similar to what the board did in 98/99 when they asked district residents what they wanted to do about the elementary school.

Goeden also stated that she wanted to thank Carrie Kuehl, Wade Roberts and the other members of the Ad Hoc committee who helped come to this point.

Yeska Family Reunion held

By Isabelle Muckerheide

On Labor Day weekend, the descendants of Anton and Stella (Paluka) Yeska, gathered at The Homestead in Neshkoro, WI for their 14th annual reunion. The theme was Polish Fest.

At 1 p.m., Saturday we opened the festivities with our versions of the Olympics. The Polish flag was carried in and a torch (flash light) was extinguished. Olympic games were played and gold medals were awarded to winners.

At 4 p.m., most of us attended Mass at St. James with Father Gruba presiding.

At 5:30 p.m. was the big feast with roast turkey, pork, sweet corn and other goodies. Then came the big moment - our talent show! It was held in John Kurz's new pole building. He even built a stage. Some were dressed in Polish costumes. First prize went to Brian Kerhin and his new bride, Lynne. The prize was a polish sausage.

Kelly Kurz had researched the family tree and copies were given out of her findings. A niece, Janice Kempiak, was in New York recently and arranged to have our dad's name on a plaque at Ellis Island, with the date of his arrival in this country. My sisters and I sang Bobby Winton's Polish song with words of our own. Michael Kurz was in Nova Scotia this summer and discovered Celtic music, so he played a lively number for us on his violin. Nieces Joan and Janet Kempiak sang Rosemay Clooney's popular song, "Sisters." Then their husbands put babushka's on and lip synced it.

John Kerhin and his wife, Kathy, and Jerry and Jenny sang "Old McDonald's Farm" in Polish. It was hilarious! We enjoyed a root beer float after that.

Tony Kerhin Jr. was on a three week mission to Alaska so he could not join us. He sent a letter.

A nephew, Michael Yeska, and his wife and son Michael Jr., returned from a two week African Safari. They flew from Atlanta, Georgia to Johannesburg, South Africa and Victoria Falls in Zimbabwe. Michael Jr. shot a giraffe. They also got a zebra. They saw Kudu, cape buffalo, water buck, common and white blesbuck. Their skins will be processed in eight months and then shipped to Neshkoro for mounting in Michael's taxidermy studio.

Sunday, a day of liesure, some took a five-mile jaunt around the Mill Pond and some played sheepshead. I did alright.

After a leftover lunch at noon, a ball game was played at Stan O. Gene Park.

A party of 13 went to Silver cryst at Wautoma to celebrate Patty Geleks 50th birthday. We hurried home to play bingo and many prizes were awarded.

Monday morning we returned to our homes.

My poem follows:

2004? It can't be!
Where have the seasons flown?
Would you believe it's 25
years
That I've been all alone!
Now Dorothy's pushing 80
And Lucy's three years behind
Two nicer younger sisters
Would be hard to find.

Each family has its ups and downs
But with the help of God
We manage to keep up the pace
Where other feet have trod.

Enough of reminiscing
We're here to have a ball
And form some happy memories
Cherished by one and all.

Henry and his sturdy crew
Have a big job on their hands
Let's pitch in and help them out
By meeting their demands.

It's such a joyous occasion
To meet here once a year
And share the treasured company
Of those whom we hold
dear.

God bless us our humble gatherinn,
May this one be the best,
As we recall the loved ones
Who have been laid to rest.

Sue Daggett Miller to be honored at ISU

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Football players won't be the only ones receiving applause Saturday during the Illinois State University football game against Eastern Illinois.

The school is using the half-time to honor the school's Hall of Fame Class of 2004, which includes Sue (Daggett) Miller, who is sort of an adopted daughter of Kewaskum.

Miller graduated from Random Lake High School where she won four WIAA state championships in cross country and track. She moved to Kewaskum with her parents, Wally and Joan Daggett, while she was in high school but finished at Random Lake.

According to her mother, Sue would get up each day at 4 a.m. to help the family milk cows before she left for high school, and she would train in all kinds of conditions and compete in races despite having severe pain from shin splints or being hampered by strep throat.

Excelling both athletically and academically and exemplifying the three "Ds" of desire, dedication and determination, Miller received a scholarship from Illinois State where she continued her running career.

She was a three-time, National Collegiate Athletic Association Division 1 all-American, competing with the Redbirds in the Missouri Valley Conference, running in the 1,500, 3,000, 5,000 and 10,000-meter events.

Miller was informed in April that she had been selected for induction into the ISU Hall of Fame. She will be honored at the Redbird Hall of Fame Awards Dinner at 7 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) evening and announced during the half-time of the football game on Saturday.

Miller and her husband, Andrew, and their two children, Blake and Amanda, live in Sheboygan. Miller works as the office manager at the Kohler Credit Union in Kohler, and, thanks to the support from her family, still runs almost daily.

In May of this year, Miller took first place among more than 400 runners at the Journey's Half Marathon Run in Eagle River. She has also finished first in the Kettle 20 and KEYS (Kewaskum Youth Scholarship) races on numerous occasions.

The comfort of having a friend may be taken away, but not that of having one.

Kewaskum Class of 1984 needs your help.

It was a phenomenal day at the polls in Kewaskum on Tuesday. However let's not let that overshadow the really important issue that was resolved two days prior to Election Day.

And that would be the nominations closing for couples that will have a chance at participating in the highly touted "The Newlywed Game" scheduled to take place at this year's Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival in River Hill Park October 8, 9 and 10.

In spite of the fact that we didn't get as many nominations as we would have liked, this promises to be BIG! We realize everyone is trying to keep a low profile since the crowning of Mr. October (Tommy Cannestra) and then the emergence of Ms. Mardi Gras (Lianne Becht).

But this one was easy folks! We racked our little brains trying to come up with a unique idea where we could all have fun without putting too much humiliation into play. And remember... there is safety in numbers! The couples will not have to bear their souls all by themselves. The other contestants will be right up on stage with them! Perhaps it is just that none of us know our mates quite as well as we think we do... and then, of course, we all know how SHY our mates are about appearing in public.

Well, irregardless the voting public does not have alot of candidates to choose from, but I think the ones we do have will make this whole process v-e-r-r-r-y interesting, not to mention FUN!

Nominees include: MARRIED UNDER FIVE YEARS

- Jimmy and Kimmy Olson
- Chad and Karla Schulz
- Becky and John Van Beek
- Kelly and Kasey Brath
- Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Stautz
- John and Jackie Burtard

MARRIED OVER FIVE YEARS

- Dennis and Theresa Fechter
- Gary and Linda Gavin
- Joe and Debbie Backhaus
- Joe and Ann Enright
- Harry and Lori Roecker
- Jim and Dianne Kleinke
- Jim and Lynn Gaffke
- Jim and Tracey Schaub
- Dave and Sue Goeden

So now it is time for YOU to vote on which of the couples you would like to see play "The Newlywed Game" at Kettle Kountry Kolors on Saturday, October 9, beginning at 4 p.m. The three couples married under five years who receive the most votes will play in the first segment of the game, and the three couples married over five years who receive the most votes will join in the fun during the second portion of the game. Each vote will cost $1.00. Pick the contestants you figure would like to share all the finer details of married life. Oops... another oxymoron... finer details... or whatever!

Don't forget to vote soon and vote often. This contest might just turn out to be more heated than the State Senate race! But believe me, this local contest is truly not endorsed by anyone, except maybe the organizers. You see, all proceeds of this new, fun event will benefit Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Send your votes in to "The Newlywed Game," % P.O. Box 98, Kewaskum, WI 53040 and then make plans to see Kewaskum's own version of... "The Newlywed Game!"

St. Joseph Convent to offer special classes

Over the past 18 years, many significant discoveries have been made in southeastern Wisconsin. Discoveries which, when the word leaked out, brought not only the Northern Cheyenne religious leaders here, but also members of others tribes including the Lakota. Many of the sites of discovery embody ancient traditions transported to the Great Plains during the migrations west. Programs will include the discovery and probable purpose of the only medicine wheel or sun circle known east of the Mississippi River, Manitou or spirit stones and sacred boulders including bison or buffalo imagery, the ancient idea and tradition of 'center' and how astronomy was used to tie all together in ceremonies that linked the land with the sky. The total series will consist of six extensively visual slide-illustrated programs.

Herman Bender will present the six week series. Herman Bender is an independent researcher with a background in geology and a technical field in industry. An amateur astronomer and historian, he has been nationally and internationally published in the fields of archeoastronomy, petroform research, applied geophysics and cultural landscape studies. Over the years he has conducted many public seminars and classes and has presented at various universities including Princeton and Marquette.

Interested in history for his entire life, he collects period (American) antiques, rare & historic maps and prints, antique pre-kerosene lighting devices, Indian artifacts and antique Oriental ceramics. Regarding antiques and art, Herman has consulted with attorneys and bank trust departments representing estates for twenty years. Over the years and as a public service, he has mounted numerous displays and exhibits utilizing items from his fossil, Indian artifacts and rare maps and print collections.

All sessions will be held at St. Joseph Convent in Campbell-sport. Class dates are Wednesday, Sept. 29th, Oct. 6th, 13th, 20th, 27th, Nov. 3rd. The time is 6:15-7:45 p.m. and classes will be held in Clara Center at the Convent. The cost for the class sessions is $30.00.

KEYS Run/Walk 2004

In this politically charged election year, KEYS has something all party platforms can support: the 11th annual KEYS Run/Walk to raise scholarship money for our Kewaskum High School graduates. This event is held annually in conjunction with Kewaskum's own Kettle Kountry Kolers, a fun family festival of food, games, music, ecumenical church service and much more.

This year's KEYS Run/Walk will be held on Sunday, October 10 at 11 a.m. and proceeds for 3.1 miles through the streets of the Village of Kewaskum. Last year the Run/Walk had 848 registered runners and walkers and helped raise money for the 23 scholarships worth $70,000 that were awarded to Kewaskum's students in the spring of 2004.

SynergyHealth is the major sponsor of the KEYS event and will receive the top spot on our 2004 "retro look" t-shirts. KEYS is most grateful for the support of SynergyHealth as well as the sponsorship received from West Bend Savings Bank and the 39 other sponsors this year. Look for their logos and names on the KEYS t-shirts and support them with your thanks and patronage.

Each year the team captains, particularly the school captains, make the Run/Walk a huge success by their enthusiastic promotions in the schools. As they get students and families registered on their school team for the race, they help foster fitness in our youth and promote the goal of working hard in school to be able to one day earn a KEYS scholarship. Many area businesses also form teams for the Run/Walk and support KEYS by paying the registration fee for employees.

Team members can also solicit pledges for KEYS and help themselves earn some great prizes. This year the top prize for raising $500 in pledges will earn an MP-3 player. Pledges can be raised for smaller amounts and still earn great prizes. Check it out on the back of the registration form.

Registration for the KEYS Run/Walk costs the same as last year, $15 for an individual or $50 for a family of four plus $10 each for additional family members. Registration forms are available at all Kewaskum schools, SynergyHealth locations, West Bend Savings Bank, Miller's Furniture, The Statesman, and other local business places. The pre-registration deadline is September 24, 2004 and registrations can be sent to KEYS, PO Box 124, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

An evening program for hunters in the area is scheduled for Thursday, September 16, at 7 p.m. at the library in Campbellsport. Game Warden Doug Bilgo had agreed to be the presenter, but due to a scheduling conflict, he will not be available that evening. The good news is that his supervisor, Todd Schaller, Oshkosh Law Enforcement Team Leader and also a Game Warden, will be his substitute.

Warden Schaller will explain just what a game warden does, show slides with the latest in Chronic Wasting Disease information, baiting and so forth, and then it is Question and Answer time. Questions from the audience will be an important part of the program, so come prepared. And, finally there will be time for those in attendance to share their hunting stories, along with the how, when and where folks have hunted with success.

As an added feature, local merchants, especially those who do business with hunters during the hunting season, have provided a few door prizes. There is no charge for the evening, and light refreshments will be provided. This program is planned for fun and education, so if hunting is an interest of yours, why not plan to attend. The library is located at 220 N. Helena Street in Campbellsport, and the room is handicapped accessible. Call the library at 920-533-5834 for additional information.

Retrofit project is the equivalent of saving 108,000 gallons of gasoline

Lighting change brings environmental award to Kewaskum School District

An environmental stewardship award was presented to the Kewaskum School District recently by Orion Energy Systems Ltd. Of Plymouth. The award commends the district for reducing its electrical power consumption in two gyms by some 59,500 kwh per year – the equivalent of planting 218 acres of trees or saving over 108,000 gallons of gas over the 20-year estimated life of the new lights. With the two award plaques are, from left, School Board member Neal Weare, Superintendent Wayne Graczyk, School Board President Jean Goeden and District Buildings and Grounds Superintendent Bob Ellis, who was instrumental in the project.

An award that commends the Kewaskum School District for significant environmental benefits was presented to the board recently by Orion Energy Systems Ltd., of Plymouth.

The environmental benefits came in the wake of an annual reduction in electrical power consumption of some 59,500 kilowatt-hours (kWh) per year in the high school and middle school gyms. This reduction was brought about by the district's replacing 72 400-watt metal halide lights in the gyms with 72 Orion Illuminator fixtures. The change cut power consumption – and costs – for lighting the two gyms by some 55 percent.

Federal EPA formulas indicate that over the 20-year estimated life of the fixtures, the 59,500 kWh power reduction will mean that 1,190,000 kWh will not have to be generated at all -- and this, in turn, will mean that 893 tons of Carbon Dioxide, 243 tons of Carbon, three tons of Sulfur Dioxide and eight tons of Nitrogen Oxides will not be released into the atmosphere.

It will also be the environmental equivalent of planting

218 acres of trees, or removing 169 cars from the road; it is also the conservation equivalent of saving 108,182 gallons of gasoline or 2,576 barrels of oil, all over the same time span.

Superintendent Wayne Graczyk said that the district appreciated the award – one award plaque for each gym -- and added, "It's nice to see the new technology come into our schools – and to know that we take full advantage and do our part in saving energy."

School Board President Jean Goeden agreed and added, "I also think that we don't get enough publicity to tell people that this is something that Bob Ellis and our staff continue to strive for – saving energy, saving anything, saving our tax dollars. Every little bit helps, and this looks like more than just a little bit. It's quite a bit." Ellis is the district's Buildings and Grounds Superintendent, and was instrumental in carrying out the project.

"59,000 kWh – that's a lot of money when you really look at it," added school board member Neal Weare. "I hope it can help get across to taxpayers that the board is trying to control spending and get the most for our tax dollars."

"That includes sending Bob or others to seminars or some kinds of conventions – this is just one of the kinds of things that they learn when they go. Some people don't think that doing that pays off, but it does."

The cost savings and environmental benefits are possible because Orion Illuminator fixtures have been engineered to use a specially formed, highly reflective surface to 'harvest' light that is emitted from all sides of a fluorescent tube. The 'harvested' light is directed downward to where it is usable. As a result, The Illuminator provides more light from far less energy than standard fixtures.

The Illuminator is typically used with T8 full-spectrum fluorescent tubes and electronic ballasts. As a result, Orion systems turn on instantly, provide a much more natural type of light than older fluorescent types, and are typically more popular with those who use the space being lit.

The Illuminator has been awarded several U.S. patents and recently won for Orion Wisconsin's prestigious Spirit of Ecology and Manufacturer of the Year awards, as well. The Illuminator also helped Orion founder and president Neal Verfuert earn the prestigious Ernst & Young 'Manufacturing Entrepreneur of the Year' award in June 2004. Previous winners of this award include Herbert Kohler of the Kohler Co., and Samuel Johnson of S.C. Johnson Co.

"One of the reasons we give this award is that we feel organizations don't receive as much recognition for their achievements in this area as they deserve," Verfuert said.

"There are actually four 'wins' in this situation," he continued. "The Kewaskum Schools win because they save the cost of 55,900 kWh per year. Orion wins because our products were used in the retrofit. All of us win, though, when less electricity is needed on the power grid, because it reduces the upward pressure on electric power prices -- and we win once again when less pollution goes into our atmosphere. We're very happy to be part of this situation and present this award to the Kewaskum Schools."

St. Lucas School welcomes new staff members

St. Lucas Lutheran School, Kewaskum, is pleased to welcome three new staff members, David Stoltz, principal and fifth and sixth grade teacher; Karen Yttri, first grade and Melissa Gudex, kindergarten.

David was born in Adrian, Mich. and at the age of 12 he moved to New Ulm, Minn., where his father became a professor at DMLC (now MLC). David attended Minnestora Valley Lutheran High School and then took the long journey to DMLC where he graduated in 1993. He was assigned one year to Glendale, Az., and the following year he found himself at St. Peter's in Milwaukee. While in Milwaukee he met Julie and they were married in November of 1994. His next call was to Bangor, Mich., where he served as principal and teacher for nine years.

David and Julie have three children, Matthew, Allison and Jacob.

Karen is the youngest of five children. She has two sisters, two brothers and 11 nieces and nephews. Her husband is a computer technician for Washington County.

They met at the Washington County Fair.

Karen attended Martin Luther College for two years and then transferred to UW Milwaukee, graduating in 2002. This summer she finished her Synod certification.

The Yttris enjoy camping and Karen's favorite pastime is reading.

Melissa grew up on a farm in Iron Ridge. She has one older brother and three younger sisters. She attended St. Matthew's in Iron Ridge while in grade school, Winnebago Lutheran Academy in high school and graduated from college at Martin Luther College with a degree in early childhood education.

She married Nicholas in June of this year. In her free time she loves to draw and play tennis.

A comfortable old age is the reward of a well-spent youth. Instead of bringing sad and melancholy prospects of decay, it should give us hopes of eternal youth in a better world.

The Bookworm Sez

By Terri Schlichenmeyer

The Warlord

By: Richard H. Dickinson

Whenever you see an old John Wayne World War II movie, doesn't it seem kind of quaint? With the technology we have now and the special effects in movies like "The Matrix", seeing John Wayne battling the enemy and saving the day in black and white... well, it seems kind of tame.

That's what I like best about a book. When you read, you make up your own special effects and that, coupled with today's headlines, make the new novel "The Warlord" by Richard H. Dickinson (c.2004, Rugged Land) doubly exciting.

Louis Salam, former Green Beret, Special Ops, is a Captain in the U.S. Army, and he's assembled the best soldiers into a team of which he's proud. Salam speaks several languages and he knows how to negotiate with minor Afghani warlords to get what he wants, including information on the Taliban. Louis Salam is the kind of guy you want in charge.

West Point graduate General Jackson Monroe was once a specially-trained sniper in Vietnam, but now he's the Pentagon liaison with the Senate Armed Services Committee. General Monroe is scheduled to testify before Congress about the Frye-Yoder Act, which will mean reorganization of the military and elimination of Special Ops Command. Monroe believes that the military needs to get back to traditional values. But first, he's scheduled to fly to Afghanistan for "information gathering", including a meeting with General Mohammed, head of the Northern Alliance, and one of Afghanistan's major warlords. Salam and his men are assigned to accompany the General to the meeting with Mohammed, but Salam quickly advises against going. General Monroe insists, boards the plane with two civilians and a half-team of soldiers, and heads for the hills of Afghanistan - right into a trap. The Afghani warlord captures the Americans, a violent battle ensues, and it's up to General Monroe to get the survivors out. But who is really in charge? Can Monroe step down and trust a subordinate? Can he admit that this is an enemy he doesn't know?

When I picked up a copy of "The Warlord", I didn't have a lot of expectations. This is not "my kind" of book, so I was surprised that I raced through it in one day - in fact, I couldn't bear to put this book down for more than five minutes. One would hope to find lots of men like Louis Salam in the military; author Dickinson makes him a real person, not the Superman that you often find in these kinds of novels. Fans of Dickinson's works might remember Monroe from a past novel, but this Monroe is so annoying and so sure of himself that it feels good to see him falter some. Although I didn't like the main female character at all at first, I grew to appreciate her role in this book.

If you're looking for an exciting novel that seems lifted from today's headlines, look for a copy of this book. It's better than you could ever imagine.

Letter to the Editor:

I was among those privileged to be at the GW rally in Milwaukee on Friday, Sept. 3. Having forgotten my photo ID, I made an unscheduled trip home to retrieve it and heard news of Bill Clinton's hospitalization en route. By the time I got back to the rally, it was standing room only. The crowd was enthusiastic, doing the "wave" as they waited in anticipation of W's arrival. There was an increasing sense of momentum and impending victory in the air.

As President Bush entered the room it was electric. After offering a few opening remarks, President Bush quickly addressed something in the news he felt called for our concern and prayers. I knew what he was alluding to, but virtually no one else in the crowd did. I wondered how the excited audience would receive this news. How would people react? Would anyone jeer?

"En route here we just received word that President Clinton has been hospitalized..." the President began. An audible gasp shot through the room and then a deep hush fell over everyone. Seconds passed and the hush remained. Then the President resumed, "He is in our thoughts and prayers. We send him best wishes for a swift and speedy recovery!" At this the crowd broke into hearty cheers and sustained applause.

Although his remarks lasted mere seconds, they were extremely powerful. My son Kyle described the feelings elicited perfectly when he compared it to the sensations you get when you see a seriously injured player on the field at a Packer game. As the player lies there motionless, that same hush falls over the crowd. Everything stops as an eerie wait begins - time seems to slow down and even stand still. It doesn't matter which team the player is from, he is a human being and as he lies there still, everyone holds his or her breath, waiting and hoping and even praying that he will recover. The crowd may have been screaming for his defeat moments before, but as he lies there stricken, their only wish is to see signs of life and to know that he is going to be okay. As the player slowly stirs and starts to rise to his feet, the tension begins to lift. And as he is carried off the field on a stretcher, or wobbles off under his own power, the crowd lets out a cheer and applauds. It was in this spirit that the crowd responded when President Bush wished President Clinton a speedy recovery.

When President Bush wished Bill Clinton well, it was genuine and from his heart. The applause was for Clinton's speedy recovery, but it was for more than that. The character exemplified in President Bush as he demonstrated genuine concern for Bill Clinton's welfare was also moving and inspiring.

So when I saw the AP story reporting that the audience had not applauded, but booed, I was in shock and disbelief. Everyone in attendance knew that nothing could be further from the truth.

I don't know where the story originated, but I suspect it came from somewhere deep within the heart of a yet unnamed reporter who sensed that same momentum for GW in the air. Seeing John Kerry beginning to lose ground, slipping in the polls and in danger of entering a political free fall, this individual may have felt impelled to do something, ANYTHING, to try to stop this momentum. Facts were shuffled, truth was sacrificed and a malevolent lie was hatched. The character of the President and everyone in attendance that day was impugned. AP offered a retraction, but the damage had already been done - some will never hear the retraction, others will not believe it.

Perhaps we will hear it was all an "innocent mistake", just "sloppy reporting", a reporter rushing to make a deadline "got his facts mixed up". Or maybe part of his story was lost, the part that said that the audience did not boo until hearing facts about both Kerry's and Edward's voting records.

Specifically, that both candidates were among the four lone Senators who had voted to deny our troops support in the form of armor, ammunition, and health benefits AFTER voting to send these troops to war in Afghanistan and Iraq. (Maybe the reporter got his "boos" mixed up, or maybe the reporter just got mixed up on "booze". And it reminded me of the time during the 2000 campaign that the Milwaukee press greeted GW with questions about his DUI from 20 years ago just as he was surging in momentum at that time.)

Yes, maybe it was all an innocent mistake. The question is, how many more "innocent mistakes" will we see as W's momentum continues to grow in the days ahead?

BUSINESS NEWS

PDPW announces All-Star Business Conference slate

Green Bay Packer quarterback and National Football League legend Bart Starr leads an all-star lineup at this year's Professional Dairy Producers of Wisconsin (PDPW) Annual Business Conference March 8-9, 2005, at the Alliant Energy Center in Madison.

Keynote speakers at the annual dairy meeting include agricultural finance whiz David Kohl, professor emeritus at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and supermarket guru Phil Lempert, a regular guest on TV's Today show. Kohl specializes in seminars on business management and agricultural finance and is highly requested by PDPW members. Lempert, a recognized speaker on new marketing trends and products in the food industry, bills himself as the spokesperson for food consumerism.

Motivational speaker Randy Snow will energize conference attendees with his message about discovering options and finding new opportunities when faced with a life-altering change. Snow was 16 years old when a 1000-pound bale of hay hit him, broke his back, causing paralysis and ending a promising tennis career.

Human relations, leadership and team development are the topics of management expert Chris Hinrich's conference presentation. Hinrich is an ad hoc faculty member at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Center for Executive Education and consistently ranks as one of their top presenters. In addition to his keynote address, Hinrich hosts an interactive breakout session during the conference.

A variety of interactive and educational breakout sessions are planned for the PDPW Annual Business Conference, along with time for networking with other, like-minded producers and visits to the industry's "Hall of Ideas." More than your typical industry trade show, the "Hall of Ideas" allows industry representatives to share "Best practices and new ideas" that they have seen work for other industries and on dairies around the world. Exhibitors showcase their innovative and cutting edge ideas for adding value to dairy businesses.

Professional Dairy Producers of Wisconsin is a dairy-producer founded organization that provides educational programs and services to fellow dairy producers. PDPW's mission is "to share ideas, solutions, resources and experiences that help dairy producers succeed."

For more information on PDPW programs, registration materials, conference deadlines and fees consult the web site at www.pdpw.org or call 1-800-947-7379.

Joey Williams named Mortgage Consultant by West Bend Savings Bank Home Loan Division.

West Bend Savings Bank has named Joey Williams to the position of Mortgage Consultant of the bank's Home Loan Division. Williams has been with the bank for five years, starting out as an Assistant Branch Manager, at the Downtown office for two years and then going on to home mortgage processing for three years. eral years of banking experience before arriving at West Bend Savings Bank.

In the five years that Williams has lived in West Bend he has been active in the West Bend Community with the Washington County Humane Society, West Bend Food Pantry, West Bend Kiwanis - Go Cart Races, Duck Derby, West Bend Rotary Jazz Fest, Seafood Fest, and much more along side his duties at the bank.

Cedar Community wins 10 awards

WEST BEND - The marketing team of Cedar Community won 10 awards in the 13th annual National Mature Media Awards Contest (NMMAC), honoring the best in advertising, marketing and educational materials for older adults, announced recently. Sponsored by the Mature Market Resource Center, Chicago, a clearinghouse for the senior market, this is the largest contest of its kind in the nation. This brings the total number of awards from NMMAC to 16 in just two years.

A panel of experts from across the United States judged more than 1,100 entries for overall excellence of design, content, creativity and relevance to the senior market. "We are delighted with our awards, especially the Gold Medal for Excellence for our Sparkling Stars anniversary campaign," said Jane Lange, director of marketing and communications for Cedar Community. "It's a prize that is rarely awarded." (Lange also served on the panel of judges, but to avoid conflict of interest, she reviewed no entry of Cedar Community's.)

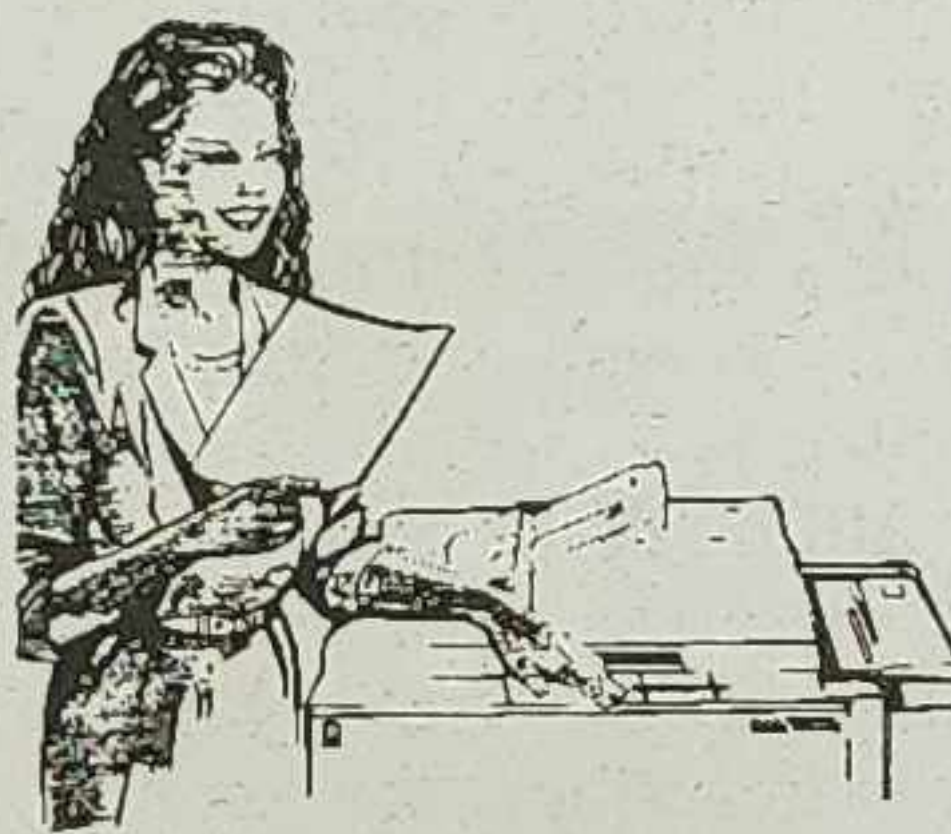

Other members of the marketing team are Marta Jansen-Karstedt, Tracey MacGregor, Cyndi Frohmader and Mary Ann McKinnon. "We have fun brainstorming novel ideas for marketing the programs and services of Cedar Community," said Lange. "It's great knowing that others see this energy and creativity in our products."

Besides the Gold Medal for Excellence, Cedar Community was awarded three Silver, two Bronze and four Merit Awards for marketing and public relations efforts. These include A Letter to Andy newspaper tabloid and total public relations campaign; Live, Laugh and Play at Cedar Ridge marketing and advertising campaign; and Nurturing A Vision major gifts campaign.

Cedar Community, now in its 51st year, provides health care, rehabilitation, education and senior housing to over 1,100 residents on three campuses in West Bend.

KHS kickers fall short

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

John Berst and Alex Hill, the coaches of the Kewaskum High soccer team, might want to bring a four-leaf clover to their team's next game.

The Indians are playing well but seem to need a little bit of luck, according to Hill, who said after the Indians scored their lone goal in Thursday's game against New Holstein, "We just about camped in their half of the field but we couldn't get the ball over the line ... the boys played very well. I hope we get a little luck going our way."

The game ended in a 2-1 loss to the Huskies, who scored twice in the first half.

KHS got its goal from junior Jason Jahnke at 68:00. Hill said Jahnke had "a great move at the top of the box," using a spin move before drilling the ball with his left foot into the left corner of the net.

Defensively, Hill lauded the play of sophomore goalie Ryan Nuernberg, filling in for starter Nate Kenworthy, who was out on a suspension.

"He did a great job," Hill said of Nuernberg and also praising defenders Tyler Hickman in the midfield and Jake Sabel. Noah Olla also drew a compliment from the coach. "He was terrific," Hill said.

Kiel is strong again

In their EWC opener on Aug. 31st, the Indians stayed close to host Kiel for 70 minutes, then an unfortunate incident forced them to go with 10 players until the end of the game, which wound up as a 4-1 loss.

"The story of the game was our goalkeeper was sent off the field," Hill said, reporting Kenworthy was reportedly challenged by one of the Kiel players, an incident the referee did not see.

Kenworthy reacted to the no-call, according to Hill, who said, "He kicked the guy and got ejected from the game."

Not only did the Indians have to play shorthanded, but the Raiders got a penalty kick out of the deal and scored on it.

"We played well. We had a lot of offense," Hill said, indicating the Indians' goal was scored by Noah Olla about 10 minutes into the first half, answering Kiel's first score which came at 4:00.

Hill lauded the defensive play of Austin Flanders and Tyler Hickman, who was seeing his first action of the year after missing the Washington County Tournament because of a family vacation.

The Indians, 0-2 in EW action and 1-4 overall, are at Two Rivers this afternoon (Thursday).

Jahnke has golden toe in win over Two Rivers

BY JUDY HARLOW
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
jharlow@kewaskumstatesman.com

Back at full strength and with Jason Jahnke continuing a strong scoring spurt, the Kewaskum High soccer team notched its first Eastern Wisconsin Conference win over Two Rivers on Sept. 8th, shutting out the host Raiders 2-0.

After a scoreless first half in which both teams had plenty of shots but most of them went directly toward the opposing keeper, the junior Jahnke took matters into his own hands, scoring two unassisted goals.

"We changed the tempo in the second half," John Berst, one of the KHS coaches said, noting the first goal came with about 10 to 12 minutes remaining and the insurance goal came with just three minutes left to play.

The Indians played good defense, according to Berst, who lauded the play of goalie Nate Kenworthy, returning after a game-related suspension.

"Nate had one phenomenal save," Berst said. With five minutes left, "He punched it (the ball) over the cross bar" to preserve the shutout.

Berst said Kenworthy made 15-20 saves. "Nate did an awesome job in goal."

Also standing out on defense was midfielder Frank Cole. "He played very, very well," Berst said, adding, "Noah Olla played a strong game ... contributed to keeping the ball in motion in our direction."

The goals by Jahnke were his fourth and fifth of the season for the Indians, who are currently 1-2 in the EW.

Indians, Brown Deer battle to a draw Although the game was not listed on their schedule, the Indians played at Brown Deer on Wednesday, and the non-conference game ended in a 0-0 tie.

"Because it was non-conference, we decided not to play any extra periods" to break the tie, Berst said.

In this game, Berst said "Jason (Jahnke) played very well, and Frank (Cole) played awesome."

Cole moved from his usual midfield spot back to center defender in place of

Paul Gaynor, according to Berst, who reported Gaynor twisted his knee in the game against Two Rivers. "He will be out at least two weeks."

Cole "contained the defense ... moved the ball well and was starting the offensive attack," Berst said.

Kewaskum is now 2-4-1 on the year. They play at Campbellsport this afternoon (Thursday) in an EW matchup in which the Indians should be favored.

KHS girls finish third in quad test Strobel, Ziegler leads A's in '04 stats

Sophomore Allison Kowalczyk is settling in nicely as the number two singles player for the KHS tennis team. Above, Kowalczyk returns a ball in the Indians' match against Kewaunee. Kowalczyk defeated Meg Schiller in that match by a score of 6-1, 6-3.

The Kewaskum High team of Katie Kurer and Rachel Breese won the title at No. 2 doubles, and one singles player and one doubles team took runner-up honors in the quadrangular tennis tournament held in Kewaskum Saturday.

Slinger took the team title, scoring 20 points, while Kiel was second with 14 points and the host Indians third with 10. Brown Deer didn't win a single point.

"Overall it was a decent day for Kewaskum tennis," KHS Coach Kevin Hein said. "Rachel and Katie once again turned in a great performance, increasing their record to 7-1."

Breese and Kurer defeated a tough Slinger team in the finals, according to Hein. No specific scores were available

Five games into the 2004 Kewaskum High School soccer season and already the Indians have scored nine goals and have only been shut out once, and that was by Division I Germantown, the team that captured the recent Washington County title.

Improved offense was a must for Kewaskum this season, according to coaches John Berst and Alex Hill, who both bring a great deal of soccer experience to the program.

"One of the areas that needs improvement is goals scored," the two said in answering the preview questionnaire. "A strong suit will be solid defense."

of their Raiders counterparts.

Krystal Cochran won five games in her first set against Amanda Jenguine, and that was the most games won by any of the KHS players.

Close but no win

Playing on the Kewaskum courts last Tuesday, the Indians won three matches and had two others go into the third set but could not win either and wound up on the short end of a 3-4 score.

Hein said Cochran at No. 3 singles "played a very good three-set match but didn't have enough in the tank to finish strong."

Lindsey Keller got the only win in singles, and Hein lauded her ability to survive a tough challenge.

Kurer and Breese got a stiff test from Amber Shefchek and Bridget Duescher but prevailed 6-1, 4-6, 6-3, while Feucht and Trott "totally kicked butt and won in straight sets," according to Hein.

Kewaskum is now 1-3 in EW action and 1-4 overall.

Kiel 5, Kewaskum 2,

Singles: Paige Thelen lost to Libby Freis 2-6, 2-6; Kowalczyk lost to Marissa Maile 0-6, 0-6; Cochran lost to Amanda Jenguine 5-7, 0-6; Keller lost to Megan Zais, 2-6, 1-6.

Doubles: Lawrence/Behring def. Kelly and Jamie Raquet 6-2, 7-6 (7-1); Kurer/Breese def. Preder/Ratajczak 6-0, 6-0; Heidi Gaskell/Jessica Jung lost to Alicia Krier/Kelsey Briggs-Pineen 1-6, 1-6.

Kewaunee 4, Kewaskum 3

Singles: Thelen lost to Erin Gasparka 0-6, 0-6; Kowalczyk lost to Schiller 1-6, 3-6; Cochran lost to Tiä Pichotta 7-5, 4-6, 2-6; Keller def. Darci Kasal 7-5, 7-6.

Doubles: Lawrence/Behring lost to Kim/Bruenling 4-6, 7-6, 4-6; Kurer/Breese def. Duescher/Shefchek 6-1, 4-6, 6-3; Feucht/Trott def. Carmen Breitlow/Alison Berkintz 6-3, 6-2.

on the matches. Sophomore Allison Kowalczyk placed second, winning her first match before falling in an emotional second match.

At No. 3 doubles, Ashley Feucht and Theresa Trott also went 1-1 for second place.

Kiel holds upper hand

In an Eastern Wisconsin Conference match held last Thursday, the Indians were upended by host Kiel 5-2. The only KHS wins came in doubles, with Natasha Lawrence and Nicole Behring breaking through with a 6-2, 7-6 (7-1) victory over Kelly and Jamie Raquet at No. 1.

"Natasha and Nicole played their best tennis yet and won their first match," Hein said.

Kurer and Breese also won in straight sets, shutting out Mary Ratajczak and Ashley Preder 6-0, 6-0.

The Indians' singles players could not match the skills fall, and junior Jason Jahnke, who won enough votes to earn second-team honors.

Tyler Hickman, senior, is another letterman who is expected to provide offense

Three of the 10 returning letter winners, juniors Austin Flanders and Paul Gaynor, and sophomore Ryan Nuernberg, play defense, and junior Nate Kenworthy provides plenty of experience in the nets as he was the regular goalie for the 2003 campaign when the Indians went 4-7-1 in the EW (fifth place) and 6-10-1 overall.

Senior Todd Warnecke, junior Frank Cole and sophomore Jacob Cochran, are back to form the nucleus in the midfield, and after these 10 players, newcomers are going to have to step up.

Berst and Hill were happy to see Justin Brockman return to the team after a year's absence, and they say Kevin Schellinger (freshman defender) and Dylan Kenworthy (freshman midfielder) show good soccer skills.

The coaches are working with a squad of 27 young men, who will be split into varsity and JV teams, and they hoped to add a few more players once school starts.

Berst comes to Kewaskum after serving for two years as head boys coach at Living World High School in Jackson. He is also President and a coach of West Bend United Soccer and as such, has lots of experience developing young talent.

Hill came to Wisconsin in 2001 after growing up in Scotland. He served as JV coach at KHS for both the boys and girls in 2002 and last year assisted Berst at Living World.

Plymouth, defending champion Kiel and New Holstein are expected to be the top three teams in EW this year and list Kewaskum as a dark horse.

Even though most of the players have only been together two or three years, the Kewaskum Athletics home talent baseball team had a pretty good 2004 campaign.

The A's finished with a 15-15 overall mark and wound up at 10-8 against rugged opponents from the Rock River League. What helped the A's double their wins in league play was having four players bat over .300 and one other starter within .03 of that mark.

Also, the pitching was fairly consistent, especially that of Jim Ziegler, who sported a 7-5 mark in the RR with a solid 2.79 ERA (earned run average).

The leading hitter on the team was player/manager Jason Strobel, who batted an impressive .385 for the year, with 37 hits in 96 trips to the plate. Included in his total was a team-high 25 runs batted in (RBI), 22 runs scored, eight doubles, one triple and five home runs.

Strobel, who is a student at UW-Oshkosh, had a slugging percentage of .646 and also stole six bases.

Next high for the A's was Steve Ketter, who hit at a .375 clip, with 36 hits, a team-high 32 runs scored. Ketter batted out 10 doubles, a pair of triples and two homers, and in his 96 at bats, he only struck out 15 times.

Jake Panzer also had a solid year at the plate for Kewaskum, batting .322, with 28 hits, three doubles, and three home runs.

Adam Sarauer, like Ketter and Panzer, a product of the Campbellsport High baseball program, batted .314 for the year, with 28 hits, 11 runs scored, three doubles and 18 RBI.

Ziegler was a good man with the bat, hitting .297 for the year, with 32 hits, 10 runs, one home run and 12 RBI.

Leadoff man Ty Schill had a good year, batting .292 with 26 hits and 21 runs scored. Schill stole a team-high 10 bases

As a team, the A's batted .268, with 274 hits, 155 runs, 44 doubles, four triples, and 15 home runs.

Ziegler led the pitchers in several categories, including most wins (7), best ERA (2.79), innings pitched (103-1/3) and strikeouts (63). The right-hander, who plays for UW-Oshkosh in the spring, pitched nine complete games and notched two shutouts.

Josh Parrent only began pitching near the end of the season, but he posted a pair of wins to help the team out. In 15 innings, he gave up seven earned runs.

After Ziegler's 103 innings on the mound, Bobby Ogi was next high with 41-2/3s innings. He ended up with a 1-6 record and had an ERA of 8.21, according to Ziegler, who reported Panzer posted a 2-1 mark, Ketter came in and picked up three saves, while Sarauer was 1-2 on the year.

Of the team's 15 wins, five were shutouts.

With a few additions to the pitching staff next season, the Athletics could be part of the Rock River playoff picture.

KMA golfers want to take title from Anderson

Summer may have come a bit late this year, but area golfers aren't complaining now, and they are hoping for more of the beautiful weather for the 31st annual Kettle Moraine Amateur Tournament which is being held at Hon-E-Kor Country Club this Saturday and Sunday.

The Red and Blue Nines have been well groomed by the dedicated greenskeeping staff, and now the big question is whether Craig Anderson of West Bend can keep his win streak alive.

Anderson won the "triple crown" in 2003, including the Best Ball, the Hon-E-Kor men's club championship and the KMA, and on Labor Day weekend he edged Clark Eichstedt 2-1 for his third straight Hon-E-Kor title.

"We have 12 in the Men's Championship Flight," HEK Pro Joe Harlow said earlier this week, indicating Anderson's main competition is expected to come from Dave Roehrig of West Bend, who has an index of 1.0, Jim Rohlinger who was eliminated in the HEK semifinals this year, and Mike O'Connor Jr. who has won multiple KMA titles but was not in the field last year.

Joe Doherty, who missed the HEK men's competition this year because he was playing in the Hidden Glen Country Club tournament, is another player who is capable of playing with Anderson, and Paul Bartelak of Brookfield could contend.

Anderson has won the event five times, including the titles in 2002 and 2003.

With close to 50 entrants early in the week and more expected, Harlow said there will be four or five flights, and there should be fierce competition for all the titles.

This is a 36-hole event, with 18 holes played Saturday and another 18 on Sunday.

Indians unable to come out on top against New Holstein

Not much went right for the Kewaskum High football game in the early stages of Friday night's Eastern Wisconsin Conference opener against visiting New Holstein.

After going three-and-out on their first series, the Indians gave up a 65-yard punt return for a touchdown, lost fullback/linebacker/punter Ross Stockhausen to an injury on the ensuing kickoff, then fumbled on the first play from scrimmage, which led to another New Holstein score and a quick 14-0 deficit.

Kewaskum (0-1, 2-1) was in position to play catch-up football the rest of the way and ended up on the short end of a 38-22 final score.

"I told the kids at half we blew a coverage, gave up a punt return and had a fumble ... those three plays," KHS Coach Jason Piittmann said. "You just can't do that in this conference."

Senior Chris Boettcher gathered in Stockhausen's punt at the 35-yard line, surveyed the middle of the field, then cut to his left where he found a friendly wall of blockers to the end zone. Justin Ehlenbeck's PAT made the score 7-0.

The normally sure-handed halfback Garrett Donath then fumbled at the KHS 23, and New Holstein was in scoring position again, without having run one play from scrimmage. It took the Huskies just five plays to light up the scoreboard again, the final play a 10-yard pass from QB Chris Kohlman to Brad Hess.

Kewaskum came right back with a 76-yard drive, featuring the arm of junior quarterback Chad Piwoni, who first found Eric Nass behind the defenders for a 38-yard pass. Then Donath took a screen pass and stormed down to the New Holstein 5-yard line before getting wrapped up. Two plays later, it was Donath going over from the two for his sixth TD of the season.

After Jon Olla's perfect boot, the score was 14-7, but New Holstein used a blown defensive coverage to reclaim a 14-point lead. Kohlman rolled to his left and found Jason Hoerth all alone down the left sideline, and it was a quick six as Hoerth raced 70 yards to the end zone.

Kewaskum was forced to punt on its next two series, and Huskies came back after the second one to mount their only sustained drive of the half, moving 55 yards in eight plays, culminating with a Kohlman to Dave Diederichs pass for a 20-yard TD. The end had cleared out the right side for Diederichs, who came out of the backfield to gather in the scoring pass with 2:20 left until intermission.

Now down 28-7, the Indians went into their two minute drill, with Donath picking up 11 yards on one carry — his longest run in the first half — before Piwoni and Jeremy Gurholt teamed up for two passes, one covering 42 yards and the other, a 13-yarder for six points with just :39 remaining.

For the half, Donath was held to 41 yards, prompting Piittmann to say, "They were flying to Garrett. They scouted us well."

Of course, he missed Stockhausen's presence. "You hear everybody say how (No.) 35 is just punishing people."

He's the lead blocker," Piittmann said, referring to the powerful Stockhausen.

The Indians still had time to get back in the game but the offense was held in check for the third quarter, as New Holstein added 10 points on an Ehlenbeck 35-yard field goal and a 58 yard drive, climaxed by David Hansman's 4-yard run with :31 left in the period, putting the Huskies ahead 38-14.

Kewaskum moved 70 yards for its final score, with Piwoni completing four of seven passes, with Gurholt latching onto to three of those passes, including the 12-yard TD where he appeared to be well covered but simply out jumped the defenders. The Indians got the 2-point conversion from Donath on a run, giving the Indians 22 points.

KHS got the ball one last time and used a hook-and-lateral pass to Matt Parrent and then to Nass for 19 yards but Piwoni was sacked twice for -14 yards, and the drive stalled.

Donath was held under 100 yards for the first time this season, rushing for 95 yards in 19 carries. Diederich led the Huskies with 90 yards in 19 carries.

Piwoni tossed three TD passes and finished 13x23 for 234 yards.

When asked if the effort might lead the Indians to pass more, Piittmann said, "We're not going to sell out. We've still got one of the best backs around."

About Gurholt's effort, Piittmann said the staff knew he was very capable, adding, "We've been waiting for this out of him."

Again, senior linebacker Jeff Thull was the leader on defense. He was credited with

Indians serve up big win

One glaring, impressive statistic was a major part of the story in the solid 25-10, 25-20 and 25-10 victory the Kewaskum High girls volleyball team posted against visiting Manitowoc Roncalli Thursday night.

Five of the Indians, Christina DeGroot, Bekki Heberer, Katie Schroeder, Briana Bastian and Danielle DeGroot, took a combined 59 serves against the Jets and didn't miss a single one of them. None, zero, zilch.

The effort didn't go unnoticed by KHS Coach Dave Rizzardi, who said Friday morning, "I think the kids did an excellent job, especially in the serving department," referring to the perfect effort by the majority of his starters.

Christina DeGroot had 16 service attempts without an error and she connected for five aces. Her older sister Danielle DeGroot was at the serving line 11 times without a miss, Bastian went 13x13, and Schroeder was perfect on 12 tries with a pair of aces, and Heberer put all seven of her serving tries in play.

"I think that pressure kept things in our favor. We had a lot of offensive weapons," he went on, indicating the Roncalli players were a little slow afoot and didn't have the height his team has.

When it came to doling out praise for spiking, the senior DeGroot, Danielle, was at the top of the list. "Danielle DeGroot probably had the best offensive effort so far this year ... 12 kills," the veteran coach said.

Amanda Magnus chipped in with six spikes, while Heberer added five in the three games.

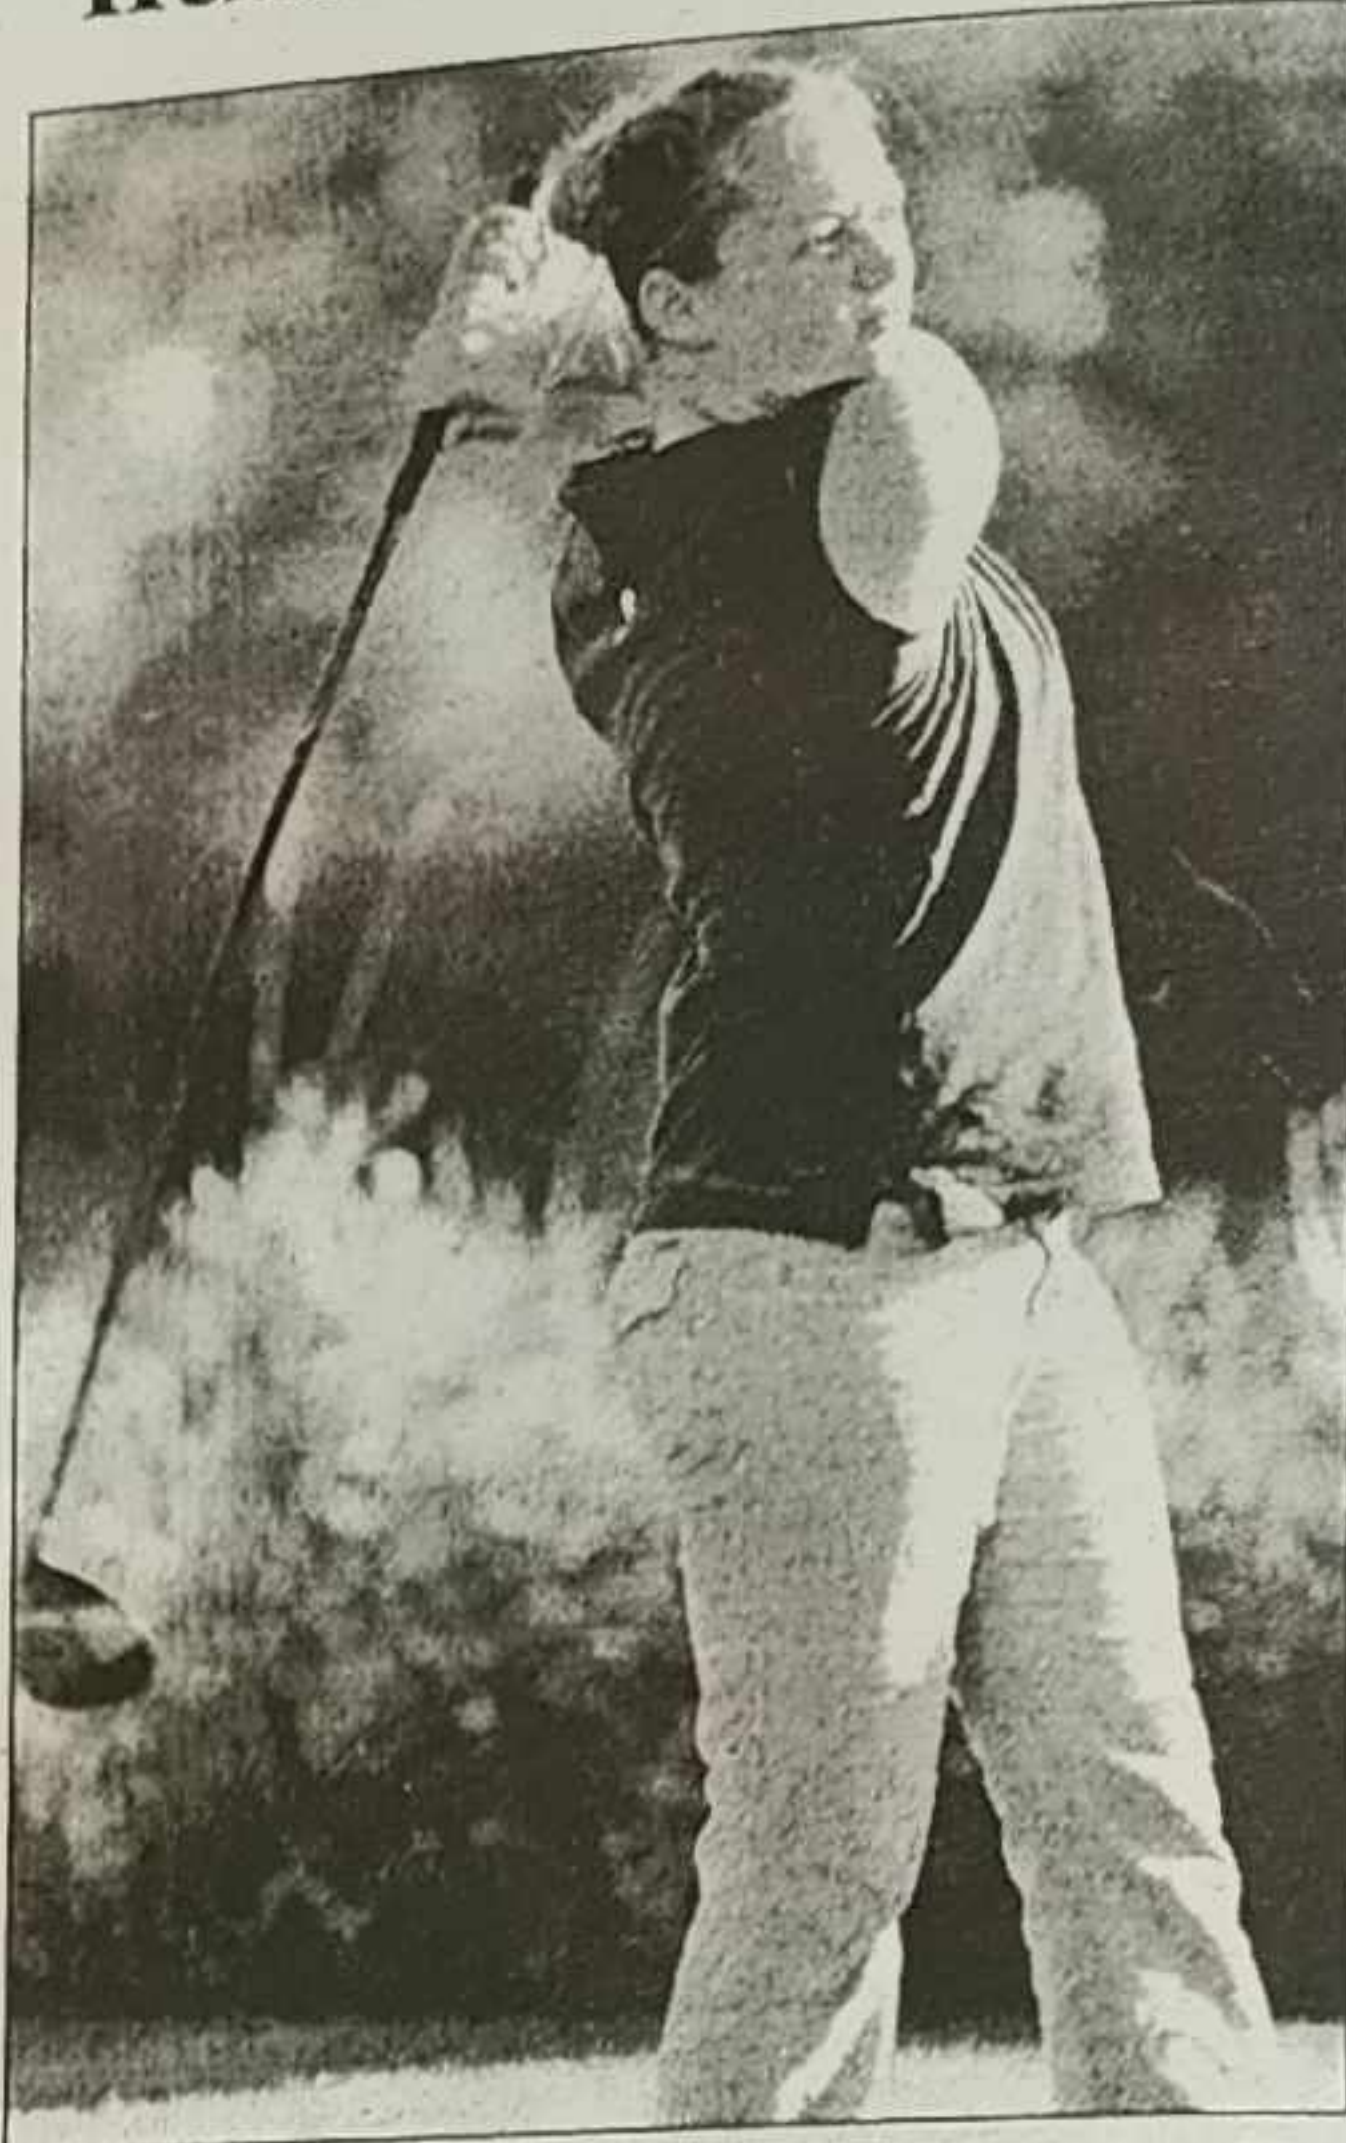

The leaders in digging were Danielle DeGroot and Magnus with eight and seven, respectively, while Schroeder and Christina DeGroot led the team in assists with 16 and nine, respectively.

"We got everyone involved," Rizzardi said.

With the win, the Indians got off to a good start in Eastern Wisconsin Conference play and are 2-0 in regular matches. They also won five of six two game matches in the annual Indian Invitational they won on Aug. 28th.

"Next week we are building up to one of our more important weeks," Rizzardi said, referring to Tuesday's match at Two Rivers, a quadrangular meet in Kewaskum tonight (Thursday) and Saturday's Waupun Tournament "where we are going to play some higher level competition," including defending Division 2 state champion Waupun.

Indians still need help from number three and four players

In her last two Wisconsin Little Ten matches, Kewaskum High School junior Nicole Rimmel has carded scores of 55 and 50, respectively. Above, Rimmel tees off on number nine on the red nine at Hon-E-Kor.

Their scores reflected some improvement, but the Kewaskum High golfers still couldn't manage to jump out of the cellar in Wisconsin Little Ten Conference matches held at West Bend Country Club (Sept. 7) and Hon-E-Kor (Sept. 9) last week.

In the match at WBCC, the Indians posted a 249 total from 14 tackles, and Andy Marx had a good game at the other linebacker spot with 10 tackles.

The Indians are at Camp Randall in Madison on Saturday for a 12:30 p.m. date, with Roncalli, a 38-7 loser to Plymouth on Friday. Campbell-sport remained undefeated with a 36-0 shutout over Two Rivers and Sheboygan Falls blasted Kiel 38-0.

Correction: In last week's story on the Kewaskum-Kettle Moraine Lutheran game, it was erroneously reported that Ross Cain caught two passes for 37 yards. Eric Cain caught the passes from his wingback spot.

the four counters and were just five strokes from the sixth place hosts from West Bend East.

Oconomowoc won the competition with a 212, six shots ahead of Watertown, and Abbey Johnson's (Oconomowoc) 48 captured medalist honors.

Low for the Indians was Kate Korth with a 54, one shot ahead of Nicole Rimmel. Korth was coming back after missing the first WIT match with a sore back.

"Third-four stroke improvement from the score one week ago at WBCC," Coach Carol Martin said, glad to have Korth back, praising Nicole Rimmel for becoming a team leader and reporting, "Maggie Dickmann took 17 strokes off her game in the seven days since our last meet."

In the match on their home course, Kewaskum shot a 255 but lost touch with the other schools which posted scores from 200 to 225.

Korth started poorly and carded an 11 on No. 6 on the Red Nine on her way to a 64, but Rimmel stayed very consistent posting a round of 50.

Thompson again won the medal. This time she came in with a 6-over-par 42.

"Nicole Rimmel is showing steady improvement," Martin said. "The rest of the team was very disappointed with their scores. Obviously we have lots of work to do. It's especially hard when you have high expectations on your own course."

Match at WBCC: Oconomowoc 212, West Bend West 218, Beaver Dam 222, Watertown 229, Hartford 238, West Bend West 244, West Bend East 244, Kewaskum 249.
